Local Weather Changes Cause Spread of Common Colds

Hico, Texas, Oct. 14.—Sudden changes in the weather during the fall months often result in a spread of common colds. The weather is followed by wide-spread outbreaks of the common cold. The disease always spreads rapidly because of the fact that very few people live in isolated homes. Any group or crowd of people coughing, sneezing and spitting scatter millions of cold germs among susceptible persons.

St. Louis Cardinals To Conduct Try-Outs At Stephenville

Stephenville, Texas, Oct. 11.—As was announced last week, the St. Louis Cardinals will conduct a two day try-out camp for young baseball hopefuls at Stephenville's City Park Field, on Wednesday and Thursday, October 20 and 21. Two of the Red Birds' ace scouts, C. A. "Runt" Marr and Fred Hawk, will be in Stephenville to supervise the workouts. There will be drills in running, fielding, hitting and throwing. Camp activities will be concluded with games between teams made up of players in attendance. The drills will start at 11 a. m. each day and continue through the afternoon, enabling the scouts to watch the players as they go through their paces. All those found qualified for professional baseball will be offered contracts. Such Cardinal regulars as "Red" Schoendienst, Marty Marion and Enos Slaughter were discovered in Red Bird try-out camps, and the scouts are continually on the watch for more such stars.

Guest Speaker Is Inspiration to Hico Garden Club

The Hico Garden Club met on Friday, October 8, at the Methodist Church, with a large number of members and guests in attendance. Miss Mame Roberts of Howe, Texas, was guest speaker. She spoke on small-town beautification.

She gave a very informative lecture on ways and means of improving our small towns and making them better places in which to live, suggesting that cleanliness came first and after that, proper planning for future care and improvements. She gave an inspired plea for civic pride and expressed the hope that little Texas towns could and should be the most beautiful little towns in the world. She stressed the fact that the little towns owe us as individuals nothing, but that we owe our own home towns much. Next to cleanliness and sanitation, she also recommended playgrounds for our children and a friendlier spirit between people in our community.

Miss Roberts suggested that cooperation between all civic groups—chamber of commerce, business clubs, city council, study clubs, and garden clubs—would be a means of getting all the community to become conscious of the need for improvement in conditions in our little town.

The Garden Club gained a much-needed stimulus from Miss Roberts' talk and members hope that in the near future, with all of the town working together, we can realize to a fuller extent Hico's old slogan of "Healthy Hico On the Beautiful Bosque."

Review Club Has Interesting Session At Home of Mrs. Jackson

The Hico Review Club met in regular session Thursday, October 7, in the home of Mrs. R. B. Jackson.

The topic of study was "Women's Place in Latin-America." Roll call was answered by fourteen members, each giving a culinary oddity of Latin America. Refreshments of cake and coffee were served, after which the program was rendered.

Mrs. S. E. Blair Jr. led the program by giving an interesting discussion on "Home Life of Latin-American Women," after which Mrs. J. T. Appleby gave the names of "Some Outstanding Women of Latin-America" and their accomplishments. The last discussion was "Trends in Changing Status of Latin-American Women" and was given by Mrs. W. J. Moore.

During the business session the Club voted to buy some books for the High School Library and to donate books from home if possible. The next meeting will be held October 21 in the home of Mrs. Bryan Angell. This will be Bible Day, and the topic for discussion will be "Education and Religion in Latin-America." Mrs. J. L. Ray will be leader.

WHITNEY WHIPPED, TIGERS PREPARE TO "BURY" GRANBURY

A large crowd of Hico football fans wearing "Whip Whitney" badges accompanied the Tigers to that Hill county town last Friday night. And they carried out their threat, winning over Whitney by a score of 27 to 6 in a game which was never seriously contested. Most all the squad members saw action. Statistics on the game are given in the school news on another page of this paper.

This made the third consecutive win for the Tigers, since they previously won from Walnut Springs and Cranfills Gap. They are undefeated so far in the conference, although they dropped the opener to Comanche in a non-conference game where they were outclassed but put up a good fight.

Tonight (Friday) the Tigers go to Granbury for another game with a team not in their conference. They will be accompanied by a large number of enthusiastic fans again, wearing "Bury Granbury" ribbons. Granbury is reported to have a strong aggregation, and the Tigers are not overconfident, but they have promised to give the fans enough action to repay them for their time and trouble going up to Hood County to root for them.

Coch Sirman is now concentrating on next week's game with Valley Mills, to be played here. This will be a conference game, and will probably mark the first time Hico has had to turn loose all she has in order to win. The Valley Mills team has had an extremely good showing so far this season, and reports are that they will come prepared to put up a struggle for conference honors against the Tigers.

- Left End—Davis.
- Left Tackle—Bates.
- Left Guard—Terry, O.
- Center—Ratliff.
- Right Guard—Jagers.
- Right Tackle—Lane.
- Right End—Collins.
- Quarterback—Burden.
- Halfback—Ross.
- Halfback—Hill or Simpson.
- Fullback—Lively.

FOOTBALL FEVER

THE annual October epidemic of football fever is again sweeping the land. Each week hundreds of thousands of usually sane Americans jam university stadiums where they go temporarily and noisily batty. Little Johnny comes limping home from school with a bloody nose and his clothes in shreds.

Modern football is a direct descendant of the ancient Roman game of "harpastum," in which the object of the players on each side was to seize the ball and carry it, by some means or other, across a line marked on the ground in the rear of their opponents.

The present game, as it is played in the United States, is a development of English rugby modified to meet the demands of the American temperament, which asks for more definiteness and an opportunity for greater planning than that afforded by the parent game.

Big Business As American football has developed it has also become a big business. For example, gate receipts for the much ballyhooed "Big Nine" schools this fall are expected to top $3,000,000. The Big Nine is made up of the Western Conference teams of Indiana, Wisconsin, Ohio State, Michigan, Purdue, Iowa, Northwestern, Minnesota, and Illinois.

The system of athletic scholarships which has been worked out in many schools is nothing more or less than a roundabout way of paying men to play football. Although this is common knowledge, year after year the same old charges of "professional-college presidents were aware of what was happening. Now, no one knows how to get rid of it. Students, alumni and the public still demand winning teams.

Professional football may, within the next decade, solve the whole problem. Smart businessmen unashamedly out to make money may eventually empty college stadiums. Already, many football fans say they would rather see a professional football game than a collegiate game. Pro teams like the Chicago Cardinals, the Green Bay Packers and the Philadelphia Eagles are drawing record crowds this season.

Pro Threat No one factor can be said to be the cause of "professionalism" in collegiate football. The national enthusiasm for the game has hit such a peak in recent years that the practice of subsidizing players by devious means became entrenched before

ARE YOU HAVING an old-fashioned baked bean supper soon?
 Serve it with some rolled cinnamon bread with a sugar and cinnamon crust, or some gingerbread, for variety. Small squash halves baked with sausage balls will also add a savory touch to the menu.

Creamed leftover chicken with canned asparagus tips makes a delicious Sunday night supper dish.
 Sprinkle some cheese on top if you are in the mood.

An Omelet will be more delicious if you add some diced shrimp to it before cooking. Serve with chili sauce.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Pork Chops and Rice
 (Serves 6)
 6 thick pork chops
 2 tablespoons fat
 1/2 cup uncooked rice
 3 cups strained tomatoes
 2 tablespoons chopped onion
 3 tablespoons chopped green pepper
 1 1/2 teaspoons salt
 1/4 teaspoon pepper

Roll pork chops in flour to which salt and pepper have been added. Melt fat in skillet and brown chops on both sides. Combine all remaining ingredients.
 Pour over meat. Cover closely and cook on top of stove very slowly for one hour. Stir occasionally.

IF YOU ARE TROUBLED with "beads" on meringue, you are using too much sugar. Two level tablespoons of sugar to each egg white is the proper proportion.

Make a special deluxe breakfast by serving English muffins, split, toasted and buttered, shaved maple sugar and cheese. Broil until bubbly.

LAMB AND HAM PATTIES take on more flavor if they are spread with mustard and then rolled in cracker crumbs before frying.

Now that cooler weather is here, you'll undoubtedly be serving creamy, old-fashioned rice pudding often. Try thickening canned fruits and berries with a bit of cornstarching to make the sauce. Or, you'll find that butterscotch sauce is excellent on rice pudding.

FOR A DIFFERENT KIND of salad dressing, use sour cream perked with a bit of lemon juice on fruit salad. Sprinkle the dressing with chopped nuts and top with a maraschino cherry.

FRESHMEN

The Freshmen boys and girls are working on an assembly program they are to put on Wednesday, October 13. Everyone is doing their best to know their parts on that day. We think that the program will turn out allright.

SOPHOMORE

The Sophomores are breathing a little easier now that their assembly program is over. The football boys are really going strong. They have won three games out of four, and the three they won were conference games. The F. A. Sweetheart contest is getting kind of close, so all you folks dig down in your pockets and drop your money in your favorite candidate's jar.

JUNIOR

All of the Juniors have the most industrious looks on their faces. It must be six weeks tests that are worrying them. Plans are being made for a junior class party. I am sure that everyone enjoyed the Sophomores chapel program.

H H S

SENIOR

The Seniors are trying to put over an annual this year. We would like very much to have one. We would like to extend our compliments to the Sophomore class for a very nice musical program last Wednesday. Everyone is worrying about passing their six week's test this week.

HOMEMAKING NEWS

Yes, it really was a party. The Homemaking girls and their guests had a swell time at the Country Club Wednesday night.

We see a very well dressed gypsy dancing merrily around with Charles Golightly. Could it be Frances McCullough? Glenda McCook also made a good gypsy. Say, Buck, what was Charlotte supposed to represent? Who did you invite Billy Jean? Miss Rhone and Sandy had very little time to dance because Miss Rhone had a big job as main chaperone. Mrs. Saimon and Mrs. Golightly were also chaperones.

Wanda Nell had a very exciting costume, bright red, but why does she have her shoes off. Louise and Lois had on very pretty colonial crepe paper dresses, by the way, it didn't take Lois very long to have had a good time just watching.

You ought to have heard what I heard! Congratulations to the refreshments and decorating committees for their good work. The Homemaking I girls are

SPORT NEWS

Hico won its third straight game last Friday night over Whitney by a score of 27 to 6. A few of the statistics of the game are: Hico gained 213 yards during the game by rushing and ran with the ball for a total of forty one times. Hico attempted four passes and completed two of them. Hico made 13 first downs to 6 for Whitney. The final score was Hico 27, Whitney 6.

The Tigers were really proud to see so many from Hico way over there at Whitney and having to go over such bad roads.

Hico plays Granbury at Granbury Friday night, October 15. The roads are not so bad, so let's all go and see another real game.

SPOTLIGHT

A finger moves slowly forward, a button is pressed on and a light flashed forth. The Spotlight, in all its glory, is ready to go.

Some dark objects whizzing along the Stephenville road begin to take shape as the light floats along overhead. The night is Monday, the objects are Shirley and La Verne, escorted by Vernon and Ralph.

The light swings around, twenty four hours later, to Tuesday night. Over and around town a few couples are sighted. They didn't know the spot light and I were a third to their two-somes. A few conversations I listened in on were Wendell's and Ione's, Jimmie's and Milton's, Garland's and Barbara's, and O. J.'s and Jo Nells.

You ought to have heard what I heard! What's this? A couple of funny faces coming down the road. Oh, must be the Homemaking girls masquerade party. The music is inviting and its rather cold out here, so let's go in. Boy! What a crowd and such cute costumes! Say, Glen Ross isn't allowing cutting in on Patsy Saimon. Now Glen, give the other boys a chance. My, there's a lot of Freshmen out tonight. Some I see are, Louise L., Billy Mc., Paula and Harold. Also Margaret H. and Billy F. with some out of town boys.

Coming on up to the Sophomore class we see Mary S., Melvin J., Betty G. and Paul Allen, Charlotte and Buck, Jean and Jerry, Barbara and Garland, O. J. and Jo Nell, and Joy Ann with Kenneth. Even a few dignified juniors are out stepping tonight. Jo and Jimmy, Flossie and Bill, Pat and Bobby R., Lois and Donald, Louise and Clynton, and Frances and Charles G. (Say, how did that senior get in here, he's so old for such.) Isn't it nice to have young chaperones like Miss Rhone, Sandy and Mr. Sirman.

Friday night Jimmy, Milton, Myrna, Delbert, Pat, Pete and Mildred and James went to Whitney in cars. They really missed a lot of fun by not going on the bus didn't they kids! In the cafe after the game a few of the girls congratulated their boys on the nice game they played. Talking together were Paul, Betty Jane, Mary, Odell, Shirley, Vernon and Lois and Donald. In fact Lois almost missed the bus. She was so busy talking.

I heard Clynton Loyd Roberson went to see Genelle Elder a couple of weeks ago. This news is late, but better late than never. Seen around town and in the show Saturday night were the following: Wendell and Ione, Paul and Betty Jane, O. J. and Jo Nell, and Barbara and Garland. Vernon and Shirley were in the mid-night show and there's some question about whether a ball game or a brunette is responsible for Vernon's face.

I wonder why Patsy Jo, Glen, Mary and Ralph T. came in so late Saturday night?

Did anyone see Jimmie and Milton Saturday night? They weren't in the show.

Well guess that's none of my business, so I'd better stop here before I tell too much. Oh yes, before the spotlight fades away its light picks up the flash of a diamond, third finger, left hand of Jeanie Thompson.

Volunteer Firemen
 Of Texas Praised
 For Unselfish Work

Austin, Tex., Oct. 11.—The volunteer fire departments of Texas today received praise from Marvin Hall, State Fire Insurance Commissioner.

It is only proper that such an institution as the volunteer firemen of America be honored with a postage stamp, Hall stated. "As a State official I want to join with the federal government in paying tribute to the volunteer departments of Texas. And as I have closely followed their unselfish work, I know of no group who so richly deserves this recognition."

"I have long observed the good job the volunteers of Texas have done without regard of personal danger, discomfort or inconvenience to themselves and without desire for reward of any kind. It is a proud feeling to know that material recognition is being given to men so seldom praised."

When the Post Office Department releases this new three cent stamp on October commemorating an anniversary of 300 years service, it will be another milestone for the volunteer fire fighting organizations whose illustrious history began as early as 1639, Hall asserted.

In that year one of the first known fire fighting groups was created in the Dutch colony of Nieu Amsterdam under Governor Peter Stuyvesant. The Commissioner related that the community purchased and distributed 250 leather buckets and a supply of ladders and hooks. A tax of one guilden for every chimney in the town was also instituted to provide for the maintenance of this equipment.

It was also in this little town that the post fire chief originated when "Ezra Master" was appointed to supervise the fire fighting of fires in 1689.

The first public fire-fighting groups of any importance were so-called "fire societies," volunteer organizations composed of friends and neighbors who equally combined social diversions and preparedness for combating fires. It was a similar society that Benjamin Franklin organized as described in his autobiography.

With fixed membership and formal parliamentary procedure such societies imposed a fine for avoidable absence from meetings, Hall continued. Members furnished fire fighting equipment which was composed of two buckets painted with the colors of the society, a pair of leather bags and an iron key. The latter was to loosen for the fighting use, the rope that served in those days as a bedding. These societies had passwords and confined their fire fighting activities to the property of members only.

As population, property values and the number of fires began to mount toward the end of the eighteenth century, the exclusive fire societies began to give way to unsalaried volunteer systems with companies of engine, hose and bucket men.

In the larger cities fire wardens were appointed to supervise fire fighting in each ward and without discrimination as to ownership of property. George Washington was a regularly enrolled volunteer fireman in such a company in Alexandria, Va.

"From this basis grew the modern volunteer fire departments of today, departments famed for technical skill, scientific equipment and spirited enthusiasm Hall stated.

"It was the high caliber of today's volunteer companies that caused a fire department officer in a large city to state that many of the worthwhile ideas in use in modern fire service originated in volunteer fire departments."

This further proof, Hall believes, that the hard work, interest and enthusiasm of volunteer fire departments makes for a better fire service in Texas, a state protected by so many volunteer departments.

Of the 516 fire departments in Texas, 475 were listed as volunteer in the 1948 survey. There are 10,931 volunteer firemen in our State. The largest company is the 200 firemen in Victoria and the smallest is in Streetman where there are 5 firemen.

Fall Time Brings
 Fire Danger, Declares
 Insurance Official

Austin, Texas, Oct. 11.—Fall time is fire warning time, cautions Marvin Hall.

The State Fire Insurance Commissioner says when red leaves begin falling they really should be regarded as signals for fire danger because the greatest fire loss each year is suffered during cold, winter months.

Reminding housewives that one half of the fires in Texas and the U. S. are home fire, Hall said the fall of the year was a good time to launch a personal fire prevention program with a thorough check-up and clean-up.

"Winter brings additional fire hazards as this season marks the time for heating equipment to be installed and put into use, for dead leaves to be gathered and burned, for lighting equipment to be in more frequent use as days shorten, for the wearing of clothes that have to be dry cleaned rather than laundered and for greater use of matches," Hall explained.

Urging housewives to prepare now for the fire dangerous months Commissioner Hall named a few special fire safety tips for Texas housewives to keep in mind while making their fall check-ups:

1. Have all gas stoves connected with solid piping and if leaking gas is noticed, call the gas company. Protect woodwork around or under gas heaters. Be sure heaters are a safe distance from curtains or towel racks.
2. By all means rake up all the dead leaves on your premises but bury them, don't burn them, in your flower beds. Buried leaves enrich the soil and create no fire hazard.
3. Never use gasoline, benzene, naphtha or similar volatile flammable liquids for cleaning purposes. Use an approved solvent for removing spots from clothes. Send to the dry cleaners any clothes needing extensive cleaning.
4. If the wiring system of the house is to be extended, call a professional electrician and have the job done right. Cords to portable electrical appliances should be as short as possible. Replace those that have become the least worn or frayed. Using pennies instead of fuses invites fire.
5. Be careful with matches and cigars. Don't smoke in bed!

The Shopping Tour A Short-Short Story
 By Daniel F. Lindsay

WAKE UP, darling! Betty Williams nudged her husband.

"Nuts!" He rolled up on one elbow and cocked an eye at her. "Is it time to go to work already?"

She felt around under the bed for her slippers. "You don't go to work today, dear."

"Well now that's nice." He turned his face to the wall again. "Why not?"

"The boss gave you a day off."

She looked at her husband. "Now to Perky's," she ordered.

"Sure." He unhooked his arm. "You go ahead. I'll wait in the car."

"Oh, no, you don't. Next day off you can plan. Right now I need some buttons and stuff."

"But, honey," He acted terrified. "Not that department store."

"The same." She slipped her arm back in his. "They are having a sale on sheets. You can stand in line for them while I get the rest."

They passed under the marquee and edged into a solid wall of surging women.

"But, dear, you know how I hate to stand in line. Honest if I never stood in a line . . ."

"Fudge," she cut him off. "You've been home a year now. You should be completely reconverted by this time."

She left him looking very dejected at the end of a long line of babbling women.

Half an hour later she returned. He was wearing a self-satisfied smirk and holding a large bundle.

"Harry!" She glared at him. "What on earth have you got there?"

"Sheets." He stuck out his chest. "But they were limited two to a customer."

"Maybe so, but I got six."

She smiled. "You didn't really?"

"Yep."

"You darling." She hugged his arm as they left the store and started down the street. "But how?"

He laughed. "I told her how I laid in a fox hole and dreamed about sleeping between sheets."

"But you were in the navy."

"Did she know that? Now have I earned the right to go home?"

"Not yet." She steered him into the five and ten cent store.

"Look honey—" he drew back. "I'll get a beer and meet you back at the car."

"Nope. You'll stick to the bitter end and this is it."

"Then we go home?" He looked relieved as she nodded her head.

After much pushing and shoving she made her purchases and started back to the car. A perspiring Harry dogged her footsteps.

"There now," she smiled up at him. "that wasn't so bad was it?"

He surveyed his scuffed and beaten shoes. His nerves were in the same condition. "Oh, well, next time I get a day off it'll be my turn."

"Wait now," She eyed his grinning face with alarm. "What are we going to do?"

"WF" his grin widened, "are getting up at five o'clock and going hunting."

"Oh, but Harry." She looked dismayed. "You know how I hate to—"

All hope left her face as she listened to his mocking laughter.

Open Examinations
 Announced for Nov. 13
 By Merit Council

The Merit System Council, which serves as a "clearing house" for positions in the State Department of Public Welfare, will hold open competitive examinations on November 13, 1948, for a number of positions now open in that agency, according to Chas. S. Gardiner, Director of the Merit System Council.

Positions to be filled by the agency consist of Field Worker, Child Welfare Worker, Senior Child Welfare Worker, County Child Welfare Supervisor, II, Junior Stenographer, and Clerk-Typist. Qualifications for these positions vary from high school graduation to college work and experience requirements.

Gardiner pointed out that application to take an examination must be made on an official application blank, which may be obtained by writing the Merit System Council, 808 Tribune Building, Austin, Texas, or from the Employment Commission and Department of Public Welfare local office located throughout the State. "The closing date for submission of applications is October 23, 1948, and applications post-marked after midnight on the closing date will not be considered," he added.

Girl Scouts Sew
 For Clothing Kits

Garments made by American Girl Scouts will provide 100,000 clothing kits for boys and girls in Europe and Asia by the end of the year, Girl Scout headquarters has announced. Scout officials said that some of the garments will be constructed from cotton feed and flour bags.

The "Clothes for Friendship" project has been outlined by Girl Scout executives to 8500 lone troop leaders in an illustrated booklet prepared by Girl Scout headquarters and the National Cotton Council. The booklet contains illustrations and directions for making clothing kits of ten garments each from printed cotton bags.

Distribution of the much needed clothing kits is handled by the American Friends Service Committee.

DOROTHY LAMOUR is considering a plan to open up a shoppe in Hollywood where she can design and sell sports clothes under her own label. . . Henry Fonda, one of our better actors, intends to stay with his Broadway play, "Mr. Roberts," for at least another two years. . . Wallace Beery has more film years to his credit than any other prominent Hollywood actor. . . Incidentally, Wally is the only man ever to knock out Clark Gable, the accident occurring during the filming of "China Seas."

Platter Chatter
 Capitol: Jack Smith's recording of a bright little ditty called "Lavender Blue" should please his fans. . . The flip side offers his arrangement of "The Matador," a rhythmic number with a Latin air. . . For something clever, try Alvino Rey's "Mama Blues" in which he coaxes his guitar into speaking. . . "Guitar Boogie" is on the reverse. . . Bobby Sherwood has some good live in "The Elks' Parade" coupled with an original, Sherwood's "Forest". . . Jo Stafford's latest is "In the Still of the Night," an oldie but the type of number she does so well. . . "By the Way" backs it.

Victor: A new album by Elton Britt offers some good country music for a change. . . Recommended singles: Perry Como's smooth rendition of that favorite, "Melancholy Baby," with "When You're Smiling" on the other side. . . Betty Rhodes offers the up-n-comin' "Buttons and Bows" (watch this song—it's going places) and "I Still Get a Thrill". . . Eve Young and her Drug Store Cowboys have a snappy arrangement of another prospective hit, "Quanto Le Gusta" with "Say Something Sweet to Your Sweetheart" on the reverse.

Signature: Liberace, that versatile concert pianist gone popular, has two records that should be best sellers—one is a slightly terrific arrangement of "12th Street Rag" with "Malaguena" on the other side. . . The other, his coupling of "Tico Tico" and "I Don't Care" which he composed and sings.

Hamilton-Coryell Soil Conservation District Notes

W. J. Harris, whose stock farm is located 2 miles southeast of Hamilton in the Blue Ridge Conservation group, has followed out his range conservation plan which provides for complete rest of his pastures this growing season to permit the recovery of the highly productive original grass. As a result of the application of this plan there has been a marked recovery as indicated by the presence of thousands of big bluestem plants now flowering for seed and hundreds of colonies of Indian grass which is also seeding. In addition to these very palatable and highly productive grasses his range is being well covered with little bluestem, side oats grama and other desirable grasses. This good cover insures the conservation of rainfall for further grass production and provides for soil improvement in a natural way. If you have questions ask him.

To protect their cultivated land from gullying and to stop the water down slowly from the upper slopes to the waterways below, the following District Cooperators have completed water disposal systems in accordance with their District plans as indicated below: Elton Samford, 16 miles northwest of Hamilton in the west Sunshine group, 1176 feet of large channel type terraces.

Funeral Services For Former Hicoan Held Here Sunday

Funeral services for Mrs. Fannie Bell Pittman Meador, former Hicoan, were held here Sunday, Oct. 10, at 2 p. m. at the Barrow-Rutledge Funeral home with Rev. E. E. Dawson and Rev. J. L. Ray conducting the services.

Mrs. Meador, who spent practically all of her life in this community, died last Friday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. T. Hammer in Dexter, New Mexico. She had been in failing health for a number of years. In August of 1933, her husband died here and was buried in the Hico Cemetery, where she was laid to rest beside him Sunday.

Fannie Bell Pittman was born in Vicksburg, Miss., and at the time of her death she was 89 years, 9 months and 16 days old. She came to Texas with her family in early childhood and was a member of the local Baptist church from her early womanhood.

Mrs. Meador was the mother of eleven children, one, Bruce, passing away in 1908. The surviving children are: O. R. Meador, Kamay, Texas; V. N. Meador, Clovis, New Mexico; J. W. Meador, and F. C. Meador, Hot Springs, New Mexico; Mrs. A. D. Knick, Bowie, Texas; W. R. Meador, Mrs. T. J. Block and Mrs. V. Davis, Albuquerque, New Mexico; Mrs. Frank Loschke, Honey Grove, Texas and Mrs. Hammer of Dexter, New Mexico. Also 30 grandchildren, 30 great-grandchildren and one great-great-grandchild.

The following grandsons were pallbearers: Jack Meador, Whitney; Bob Meador, Kamay; Orville Knick, Amarillo; Marvin Loschke, Honey Grove; Ross Block, Abilene and Westie Meador of Loco Hills, New Mexico.

A large crowd of old-time friends of this and adjoining communities attended the last rites.

Girl Scouts Play Games and Decide To Go Skating

We decided Monday night that we would go skating if nothing happened. We will go Tuesday night. We were not sure at what time, just now.

We played a game Monday night that was a lot of fun. First we had two girls to choose sides. The girls that chose were Kay Parker and Frances Latham. After they had chosen, Miss Blair would ask each one a question. If you missed the question, you had to sit down. The questions were about the Girl Scouts and their work and everything. We also played other games that were a lot of fun.

Before going home we repeated the Scout Promise after Peggy Goodloe.

"A Girl Scout is kind to animals."

IREDELL ITEMS

by Miss Stella Jones, Local Correspondent

Mrs. Harold B. Johnston
Mrs. Harold B. Johnston was born to Mr. and Mrs. Andy Crawford 19 years ago, and departed this life on October 7, 1948, at her home in Valley Mills. She was married to Mr. Harold B. Johnston in 1947, on July 3. A little son was born to them.

She was converted and joined the Methodist church at Iredell at the age of 12. Rev. Greenon was holding a meeting here as he was the pastor.

She was laid to rest in the cemetery in Valley Mills. Rev. Greenon brought the funeral message on Friday afternoon at 3:30, in the presence of a host of relatives and friends. Her uncles were pallbearers. The floral offerings were large and beautiful.

Besides her husband and little son of three weeks, she is also survived by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Andy Crawford of Mosheim; two sisters and four brothers. She was the niece of Mrs. Morris Allen of Iredell. They attended the funeral. Their daughter also attended, Mrs. Frank Landis, and daughter Maureen also.

She was Miss Emma Jane Crawford and had visited her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Allen, and had made many friends here. It is very hard to see a young wife and mother taken away from her loved ones and friends, but God knows best. The relatives have the sympathy of their friends in the loss of their loved one.

Mrs. W. R. Conley of Arkansas is visiting her mother, Mrs. Harris, and other relatives.

How to Celebrate Your Wedding Anniversary

The "Dutch" Millers celebrated their Tin Wedding Anniversary Saturday. Everything had to be tin. Folks even ate off tin plates, and drank coffee out of tin cups.

When it was time to drink a toast to the "bride and groom," out came the final touch: ice cold beer in cans. And come the Millers' 15th anniversary (Glass) I expect we'll be toasting them with sparkling beer in bottles!

And I couldn't help thinking that there was a lesson for married folks in the way Dutch and his missus have got along together—in their policy of live-and-let-live, with never a criticism of each other's differences in taste.

From where I sit, it's due to two things: Temperance—as that moderate preference for beer suggests, and Tolerance—for their own differences of opinion—and for the tastes of others, whether applied to beer, to politics, or how to celebrate an anniversary.

Fairy

By Mrs. J. O. Richardson

We received light showers over the week end but at this writing, Tuesday. Seems the weather man has passed us up as for rain. Most of the cotton and corn crop has been gathered and a few are sowing grain. Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison, Ruby Jean and Darrel of Dublin visited here Sunday in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edd Allison and Texie, her mother. Mrs. J. O. Richardson and her sister, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and family. Those from here attending singing at Carlton last Sunday afternoon were Mr. and Mrs. John Abel and Mr. and Mrs. Louis Abel, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Pitts, Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Parks and Mrs. J. O. Richardson. Miss Daphne Hoover of Stephenville spent the week end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover. Mr. and Mrs. Sid Dickerson visited Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Brittle Little. In the afternoon, her nephew, C. D. Dickerson and son and daughter of Cleburne and his sister, Miss Nell Dickerson and friend, Miss Jerry Sarouer of Ft. Worth came in for a few hours visit. Several new double monuments have been erected in our cemetery the past few months. These being at the tomb of Mr. J. J. Leeth, Mrs. Pearl Pittman, Mr. Bill Shepard, John Ogle and Mrs. Jesse Massengale. Announcements have been received here from Sacramento, Calif., announcing the arrival of a little daughter, Beverly Sue, born to Mr. and Mrs. G. R. Swilling on Sept. 21, weighing 7 pounds and 1 ounce. Mrs. Swilling is the former Miss Alta May Arrant, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Arrant of near Fairy. The Fairy PTA will render their initial program next Monday night, October 18. Which will be a woman-less style show and there will be no admission charge. So don't forget the date and come and be with us and lets see how well our men-folks can model womens clothing. Finis Patrick of near Hico, was here recently trying to locate the tomb of his grandmother who was buried here many years ago. He and other relatives were going to purchase a marker for her grave. There are many unmarked tombs and several which will never be identified. While walking over the cemetery last Saturday, we noticed a sunken grave with nothing what so ever to identify it as being a grave only the sunken condition. If only concrete markers could be erected, this would be a wonderful help. Mrs. James Raiford of Kerrville, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Childs and son, Cary of Evant were recent visitors with Mrs. A. Alford and Mr. and Mrs. Benn Gleason. Mrs. Alford is a sister of Mrs. Raiford and Mrs. Childs. We're waiting patiently for that school news promised us some time ago. So wake up there, you Fairyites of the Fairy school.

LOCAL BOY TAKES PART IN AMPHIBIOUS TRAINING EXERCISES IN PACIFIC

Pfc. Charles S. Walker, USMC, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Loyd of Hico, Texas, is serving with the First Marine Division, which is participating in the amphibious training exercises in Southern California under the command of Rear Admiral E. J. Rodgers, USN, Commander, Amphibious Force, Pacific Fleet.

About 19,000 Navy and Marine Corps personnel, 56 ships and 320 planes are engaged in various phases of the exercises. The exercises include amphibious landings at San Clemente Island and Camp Pendleton near Oceanside, Calif. Landings at San Clemente are supported by the use of live ammunition from gunfire support ships and planes. About 600 students and faculty members from the Army's Command and General Staff College at Fort Leavenworth, Kan., are on hand to observe the various techniques of amphibious warfare.

Navy and Marine Corps teamwork, which brought success to amphibious campaigns in World War II, is reproduced and expanded as new men are trained to take the places of veterans no longer in uniform.

Campaign Opened Against Incorrect Social Security Records

Announcing the opening of a campaign against incorrect employer social security records today, R. R. Tuley, Jr., manager of the social security office in Waco, said that the worker shares this responsibility with his employer.

Benefits are figured on the basis of reported wages. Wages are credited to the individual worker's account on the basis of his employer's reports. Therefore, an incorrect name or account number in the employer's records could result in a substantial money loss to the worker.

"No worker or employer would think of paying his insurance premiums or grocery bill without properly identifying the payment and seeing that he was given credit," Tuley said, "and the same principle holds in this case."

Employers and workers should make certain that proper credit is given for the social security tax paid. This can be done by assuring themselves that the tax remittance is accompanied by a complete and accurate report of the name and account number of each worker. Returns for the third quarter of 1948 are due in October and should be filed with the Collector of Internal Revenue in Austin, or with a deputy collector in Waco.

Six-Inch Sermon

† REV. ROBERT H. HARPER †

BY REV. ROBERT H. HARPER

Law in the Bible.

Lesson for October 17: Deut. 6: 20-25; Leviticus 10:9-14, 17, 18.

Memory Selection: Matthew 23: 17-19.

The Bible is a book of law that presents throughout the right standard of life. But within it are sections devoted exclusively to certain laws to govern men.

The present lesson begins with the purpose of law. It is shown by the deliverance from Egyptian bondage and the settlement in the land of promise that the purpose of God's law is to bring people to the highest good.

The latter half of the lesson text commands generosity in the man of property. He must leave the corners of his field and the fallen fruits of his vineyards for the gleanings of the poor.

Also, honesty is required in all dealings—thrift, dealing fairly, and living are roundly condemned. There must be no oppression of others, and the wages of hired servants must be paid at the close of day. The deaf must not be cursed and a stumbling block must not be put in the way of the blind. How widely could this law be extended to include all the cases in which advantage might be taken of the weakness or ignorance of others!

Last there is the great law of love, which comprehends all law. If ever fully realized, this law will make all the codes of the world museum pieces, bring wars to an end, and leave nothing to destroy the happiness of men. Though distant such realization, you can live by this law and bring happiness to yourself and to those with whom you deal.
