BENEFACTORS TO BE HONORED

Four-year-old Juanita Peacock of Lubbock will represent grateful young patients of the Texas Scottish Rite Hospital, Dallas, when Texas' leading citizens gather on the hospital lawn June 12 at 3:30 p. m. to pay tribute to the memory of men and women who have left bequests to the institution. Juanita watches as names of benefactors, who have past away during the last year, are added to the memorial statue. Dr. Theophilus S. Painter, president of the University of Texas, will be principal speaker for the services which will be broadcast over TQN network.

Farm Safety Week Set by President for Observance in July

Widespread adoption of safer ways of working and living and a continuing drive against practices which endanger farm people in their homes, in the field, and on the highways were urged by President Truman in proclaiming the sixth observance of National Farm Safety Week, July 24-30, 1949.

"I request all organizations and persons interested in farm life and welfare to join in this continuing drive . . . and I also urge each member of every farm family to study the hazards associated with rural life with a view to performing all tasks in the safest manner possible," the President said.

Ned H. Dearborn, president of the National Safety Council, in discussing plans for the observance pointed out that George Washington, the first president of the United States, considered farming as a splendid vocation. He said, according to Mr. Dearborn, "agriculture is the most healthful, most useful, and most noble employment of man."

"As a Pennsylvania farm boy, I agree thoroughly with our first president," Mr. Dearborn said. "But we must face the fact that farming in America today is more akin to industry than the pastoral activities it was in Washington's day. For example, there are at least three million tractors on American farms, plus about thirty-five million other pieces of machinery."

"This increasing industrialization of farming calls for greater attention to safe practices on the farm. President Truman strikes a vital note when he urges the performance of all farm tasks in the safest manner possible. National Safety Council surveys show that the majority of accidents to farm people involve one or more unsafe acts."

"The survey shows wrong use of equipment or failure to use proper equipment as the most common unsafe act for both farm work and other accidents."

"The elimination of unsafe practices would undoubtedly do away with the majority of accidents on American farms."

Magnum H. Coe, director of the Farm Division of the National Safety Council, said, "We believe that every rural community should observe National Farm Safety Week as a humane enterprise dedicated to the year-around prevention of accidents."

New Oil Test for Meridian Reported Started Last Week

MERIDIAN, May 28.—A new oil test in Bosque County has been located on the Doc Anderson farm, five miles south of Meridian. The G. C. English Drilling Co. of Oklahoma City has moved in a rig on the Anderson farm to drill to a depth of 5,700 feet or 200 feet into Ellenburger lime.

Recent core tests at the location have produced oil saturated sand according to reports from C. M. Buie.

The No. 1 R. C. Christian cable-tool test between Clairette and Altman was reported drilling at a depth of around 1,500 feet at mid-week.

American Liberty Oil Company's No. 1 J. W. Clanton test near Irwell was unofficially reported to be down about a mile and a rod or a furlong, or something like that. Information submitted in Hico this week indicates active trading in leases and royalties in that section, based on rumors of a showing of oil acidizing, etc.

American Liberty's No. 1 Bywaters near Hamilton well—it was still making hole. The News Review's scouts are not operating on that location, and no official reports are obtainable.

New Remnant Shop to Open Next Week In Post Office Building

Miss Annie Louise Coleman of Comanche, recently of Hico, announced Wednesday the opening next week of a remnant shop in the Post Office Building quarters formerly occupied by J. C. Rodgers.

The local enterprise, similar to one Miss Coleman established in Odessa, features remnants and short lengths of piece goods, which come from cutting rooms in and around New York City. Some is bought on Texas markets to supply the demand.

Mrs. Jack Malone will be manager of the local business.

DIPLOMAS AWARDED TO 71 TARLETON GRADUATES

Stephenville, June 1.—Seventy-one graduates received diplomas at commencement exercises at Tarleton State College here Monday night.

A&M Board member Rufus R. Peoples of Tehuacana told the seniors, 20 of them veterans, that an individual who neglects to cultivate his mind is more harmful than one who destroys natural resources. He spoke of "The Advantage and Desirability of Continuing a College Education."

Gib Gilchrist, chancellor of the A&M College System, presented the diplomas.

Prosper N. Walker of Moran was named cadet colonel for 1949-50 and was awarded one of three William E. Dwyer scholarships. Other Dwyer awards went to Betty Jean Bradley and Gordon H. Smith. Recipient of the Uta Davis scholarship was Valene Spenberg. The annual senior class gift went this year as a $10 donation to the memorial stadium fund.

DR. HEDGES AND FAMILY ON TRIP TO NEW JERSEY

Dr. H. V. Hedges left Thursday for Atlantic City, New Jersey, to attend the convention of the American Medical Association.

He was accompanied by Mrs. Hedges and their two children, Julia and Alan, and they will also visit other points on a vacation trip before returning home in about two weeks.

SINGING AT UNITY

Next Sunday, June 5, is our regular singing evening at Unity Church. We are expecting a good singing. Invitations have been sent out by mail and radio to singers of other communities, and through the Hico News Review we give all an invitation and welcome everybody to visit Unity Church next Sunday evening and hear some good singing.

You are cordially invited.

I REMEMBER . . .

By THE OLD-TIMERS

From D. B. of Chicago: "I remember when a woman wasn't considered a lady unless she had hair long enough to sit on. My sisters and I used to wash each other's manes and then spend all day in the garden drying them. I was the first in our set to have my knee-length locks shorn in an Irene Castle bob. I did it on a dare and couldn't go out for weeks, because I was in disgrace!"

From R. H. Hedgwick to R. O. (Dick) Helwig: "What has become of those ever-so-frequent flat fights after school? Every recess and afternoon there was sure to be a scrap somewhere—shaking fists and the inevitable threat, 'Wait 'til I get you after school tonight!'"

From Mrs. Ella Kristensen of Omaha, Neb.: "I remember the time I spent my evenings trying to pick out the cactus thorns from my feet caloused from running barefooted, but conscious of pain from stickers I could not find."

From Mrs. Mary Stewart of Chicago: "I remember when a good neighbor, handy with the scissors, would gather the neighbors' boys and trim and cut their hair, without the aid of a bowl. Sometimes he'd get a nasty note from a dissatisfied mother."

From A. A. Schlabach of Chicago: "I remember when we could buy a straw hat for just 10 or 15 cents."

Starlight Operetta to Launch 8th Season At Dallas June 20

The Starlight Operetta, America's foremost musical theatre, will launch its eighth and most ambitious season of musical comedy and operetta presentations in the State Fair Casino, Dallas, on June 20. "Up in Central Park," starring the popular Kenny Baker, star of last season's "The Great Waltz" and "One Touch of Venus," will be the opening bill.

Sponsored by the State Fair of Texas, the Starlight musicals have become traditional summertime entertainment for the entire Southwest. The State Fair's policy of presenting the outstanding theatrical and musical personalities of our time in the greatest musicals ever written has won for the Starlight many thousands of enthusiasts who joyously esteem their repeated visits to the Casino as among their most treasured experiences, a basic element in their own design for a richer and fuller life. They realize, too, that the pleasure of a Starlight performance is not limited to a few hours of footlight magic but that with each visit they add a priceless leaf to their album of enchanting memories, to be reopened time after time in the years to come.

Another feature of Starlight policy which has won wide appreciation is the fact that the shows presented are of Broadway calibre in every detail—actors, lights, music, ballet and settings—yet they are available to Starlight patrons at a price of approximately one-tenth to one-third the cost of a ticket for the same show with the same star in a New York theatre.

Among the shows to be presented this season in addition to "Up in Central Park" will be "Rose Marie," "Bloomer Girl," "Look Ma, I'm Dancin'," "Bitterweet," "Pal Joey," "The Chocolate Soldier," and "Show Boat."

Stars to appear this summer will include Marion Bell, Broadway star of the hit show, "Brigadoon"; Comedian Buster West, Nanette Fabray, Broadway star of "High Button Shoes," "Love Life" and "Bloomer Girl"; Thona Massey, opera and screen star; Robert Rounsaville, sensational singing star of the New York City Center Opera Company; Polyna Stoska, Metropolitan Opera star; Vivienne Segal, scintillating star of numerous Broadway hits and Carol Bruce, star of the most recent Broadway revival of "Show Boat" and of this season's "Along Fifth Avenue" who made many friends in Dallas last summer through her performance in the Starlight's production of "Bloomer Girl."

Injunction Delays Katy's Plans; Case Will Be Appealed

An injunction forbidding the Katy Railroad to discontinue its passenger train from Waco to Stamford via Hico, was upheld in Hillsboro last Friday following a two-day hearing in Judge Frank McDonald's 66th District Court.

After Judge McDonald returned his opinion in the case, attorneys for the railroad asked that the cities of Whitney and De Leon be required to put up bond on the injunction. Then when that motion was overruled the railroad's attorneys filed notice of appeal to the court of civil appeals in Waco.

All testimony in the hearing was presented Thursday. The city of Whitney presented 21 witnesses and the railroad presented none.

Friday's session began at 9:30 a. m. when attorneys for both sides began arguments.

Judge McDonald's decision read: "The motion to remove the injunction against the Katy Railroad was overruled and denied. Injunction granted enjoining the defendant (the railroad) from discontinuing passenger service between Waco and Stamford on trains 35 and 36 pending order from the Railroad Commission of Texas."

Arguments Friday morning centered around jurisdiction of the court and the Railroad Commission in this case where the railroad has signified its intention of substituting a mixed-train for the present passenger train.

Attorneys for the city of Whitney argued that the railroad must take the case before the Railroad Commission before service can be changed, and attorneys for the railroad contended that such action was merely substituting service.

After Judge McDonald returned his opinion last week Mayor Fred Basham of Whitney said:

"We were confident throughout the hearing and are confident as to the action of the Railroad Commission. We shall continue to fight."

First Christian Church Will Hold Homecoming Ceremonies Sunday

The First Christian Church of Hico will hold a homecoming Sunday, June 5, according to announcement this week.

The morning services will be conducted by the pastor, Rev. William Le May, and after the services a dinner will be served to all present. All past members and pastors of the church have been invited to attend the all-day meeting.

The homecoming committee is composed of Mrs. Marvin Marshall, Mrs. J. W. Fairry, and Miss Fannie Wood.

PREACHING AT FAIRY

Preaching services will be held at the Methodist Church in Fairy Sunday morning, June 5, at 9:30. The general public has a cordial invitation to attend.

OFFICIAL REPORT ON WEEKLY SWING OF FARM MARKETS OVER THE SOUTHWEST

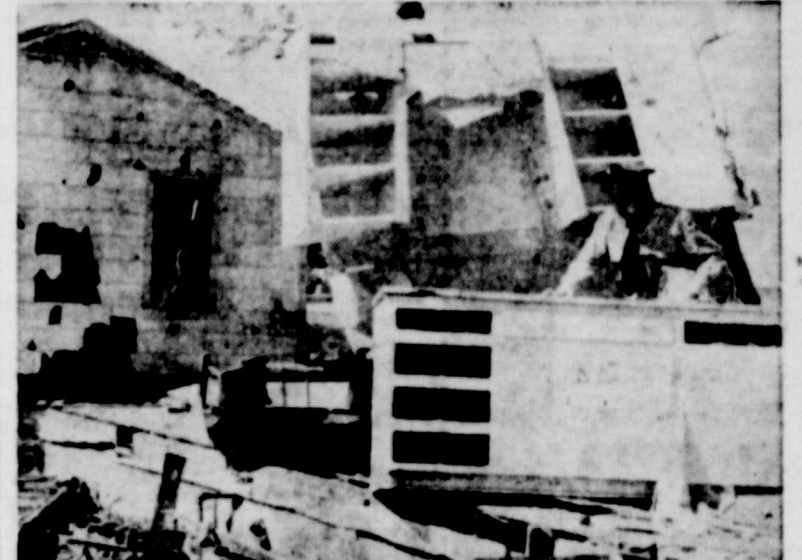

Only hogs made firm advances in last week's trade at southwest farm markets, reports the Production and Marketing Administration, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Liberal egg supplies moved slowly but steadily into trade channels last week with little change in prices at wholesale levels. Most southwest markets quoted current receipts at 38 to 39 cents per dozen with some up to 41 cents at New Orleans while farm prices averaged mostly 37 cents. This was somewhat higher than last year at this time.

Both light and heavy hens lost a penny or more at some southwest terminals early last week, but prices generally leveled off even with recent declines. In contrast, eastern and midwest markets were weaker to lower. Heavy hens brought mostly 25 to 28 cents per pound at Texas wholesale centers and mostly 28 to 31 at other southwest markets. Fryers held about steady at 28 to 29 cents. Turkey breeder hens brought 25 cents per pound at Fort Worth and toms 27, U. S. No. 1 grade.

Southwest cash grain markets were rather quiet last week, waiting for the new crop to start rolling. Prices began their seasonal decline with losses of 5 to 8 cents per bushel on wheat, 7 to 8 on oats and minor losses on corn and barley. Sorghums reversed this trend to gain 2 cents per 100 pounds and sold at $2.67 to $2.72. No. 1 new crop wheat closed Friday at $2.10 to $2.15 and Fort Worth oats at 75¢ to 78¢. Rough rice strengthened slightly and milled rice held

Rebuilding Lives and Homes Begins

Top, in Cape Girardeau, Mo., shelter, Red Cross Nurse Marie Brooks cares for Kenneth Probst, one of family of 13 who lost all possessions in May 21 tornado which levelled 21 city blocks. Emergency feeding, shelter, medical care is followed by Red Cross aid in restoring possessions and health to victims of storms where their own resources cannot meet needs. Below, Red Cross building expert checks demolished 5-room home of Robert Gilmer, Amarillo, Texas, veteran, who lost everything in May 15 tornado. Expert will follow through on this and scores of other homes where complete or partial building and repair is financed entirely from Red Cross disaster funds. Three-quarter million dollars has been set aside for such long-range help to storm and flood victims stricken in 6 states in first three weeks of May. Aid is always given outright on basis of what is needed to restore family to normal life; can range from replaced kitchen equipment to entire, new furnished home or medical care for as many years as it takes disaster victims to recover.

Sixty hometown Red Cross groups in Illinois, Missouri, Texas, Oklahoma, and Kansas are beginning action this week on restoration of many of the 9,028 homes destroyed or damaged by violent storms during May, according to John C. Wilson, St. Louis manager of the 16-state Midwestern Red Cross Area. Already over one million dollars has been allocated and more will be available from Red Cross funds when needed, Wilson said. All aid is given outright, regardless of the amount, Wilson pointed out, and is on the basis of whatever is needed to help families restore themselves where their own resources are inadequate.

Most of the money already appropriated by the national organization will be spent for building and repair, the Red Cross spokesman said, adding that in the 46 areas struck by tornadoes in the five states, building and repair costs will run over 50 per cent of total disaster relief expenditures.

Medical care for the injured, replacements of household furnishings, clothing, farmers' needs, and occupational training will account for other expenditures, Wilson emphasized that long-term medical costs or maintenance for some injured in the nine major disasters of May 4-22 will be paid by the Red Cross as long as needed. For example, he said, the Red Cross is still paying medical costs and maintenance for some victims of the Woodward, Oklahoma, tornado of 2 years ago.

In Las Vegas, N. M., where 95 students at Highland University lost all of their possessions in a fire May 4, replacements of clothing and other articles already have taken place. The students were mostly veterans living in a converted Army barracks. The late afternoon blaze destroyed books and some furniture in addition to their clothing. Housing and food were necessary for most of them pending receipt of their monthly educational allowances from the government.

The Red Cross advisory committee of local citizens in Amarillo, Texas is now considering rehabilitation plans for some 200 families who lost all or most of their homes and possessions in the twister that struck the city May 14, Wilson said. Advisory groups also are assisting the plan of some 45 other families in the area struck by tornadoes in Carson County May 15; Randall County May 15; Sherman County May 16; and Dickens County May 17. A second large community, Abilene, was struck by a heavy windstorm May 22, in which 37 homes were demolished or badly damaged.

Floods which drove over 13,000 people from homes in Dallas and Fort Worth, Texas, last month have called for "expensive" rehabilitation in the communities, Wilson said. In Tarrant County where a Trinity Creek fork sent thousands into 9 Red Cross shelters May 16, a total of 425 homes were destroyed and 2,675 damaged by the water. Flood rehabilitation of homes is expensive, Wilson explained, because few homeowners carry flood insurance and thus are unable to assume much of the cost of replacing soggy or weakened walls, foundations, floors, or furnishings. Over 2,000 families in the Fort Worth area already have requested some form of aid in restoring homes and possessions, he said. In Dallas County, Texas, where some 3,000 persons were af-

Salvation Army Reports Progress In 'Yearbook 1949'

Dallas, June 1.—Working in 94 countries around the globe, the Salvation Army, an international army motivated by the religion of brotherhood, finds mankind's spiritual and physical needs to be ever on the increase.

In its "Yearbook 1949" The Salvation Army gives a report of its ministry to millions of these needy in the countries where it serves as a force in both religion and welfare.

Through its social welfare operations, the Salvation Army last year supplied more than 22 million meals, more than nine million beds, provided more than 26 thousand needy and handicapped with jobs in its own salvage workshops, and found more than 43 thousand jobs for others in private employment.

More than half a million people were taken care of in its hospitals and clinics, and more than 20 thousand unwed mothers and their babies were looked after in Salvation Army maternity homes.

Engaged in its world-wide religious and welfare programs are 17,329 corps and outposts manned by more than 97 thousand uniformed officers and more than 14 thousand full-time employees without rank.

The Salvation Army also provides special welfare assistance to prisoners, to alcoholics and to many others in need of a friend and a helping hand.

OVER MASH FEEDING AT 6 WEEKS ON NEW PURINA TURKEY STARTENA CHECKER-ETTS

Purina Research tests proved it — then last year, local turkey raisers found that Checker-Etts help keep more poult alive — made them grow faster.

THE FORM — is part of the reason. Poults take to Checker-Etts quicker and like them better. Fewer poults "starve to death" before they learn to eat. And the whole batch grows faster because they eat more feed.

THE FORMULA — does the rest. The Purina Turkey Startena Checker-Ett formula is balanced and blended scientifically for life and growth. This year, start your poults the Purina way. See us about the Checker-Etts — just 4 lbs. per poult does the job.

New Transmission In Chrysler Wins Friends to Semi-Automatic Type

Reports of owner experience with the new Prestomatic Fluid Drive Transmission in the Silver Anniversary Chryslers indicate a growing popularity for this feature, according to Geo. Jones of Geo. Jones Motors, Hico, Texas, quoting Joseph A. O'Malley, General Sales Manager of the Chrysler Division, Chrysler Corporation.

"Our dealers report that improvements incorporated in this year's model are cementing old friendships and making new ones for that combination of the smoothness of Fluid Drive and a transmission that is automatic in all the ordinary driving operations but that retain driver control over the shifts from one gear to another," says Mr. O'Malley. "This retention of control is preferred by many drivers to a fully-automatic transmission that lacks it."

"In the fully-automatic transmission, it is necessary to go through all the gears in order to get from a standing start into high gear, and that is used for a very large percentage of driving. This inevitably means more engine revolutions, more engine noise and a greater consumption of gasoline. With Prestomatic Fluid Drive Transmission, however, the gear lever is placed in the 'driving range,' in which are contained third and high gears. The car starts in third speed, where the gear ratio is plenty low enough to permit a quick, lively getaway. Then, when the car has attained a speed of approximately 14 miles an hour, it automatically shifts into high gear at the driver's discretion when he momentarily lifts his foot from the accelerator pedal.

"We regard it as important that the driver can exercise this control over the shift, for obviously there are occasions when he prefers to stay in third gear until the car has attained a much greater speed than the minimum at which the shift is possible. When the car speed drops below 11 miles an hour, the shift is automatically made into third, without any concern on the driver's part."

"The Chrysler transmission has first and second speeds the same as any other type of transmission, but these are used only in exceptional cases where great pulling power is required. In other words, they are there when you need them but they aren't needlessly used every time in starting. The two lower gears are placed in what is called the 'power range,' and the automatic shift, up or down according to car speed, takes place the same as in the 'driving range,' with the driver regulating the up-shift by removing his foot from the accelerator."

"Another very popular feature of the Prestomatic Fluid Drive Transmission is a 'kick-down,' by means of which, at speeds up to 42 miles an hour, the driver can shift from high to third merely by pressing his foot to the floor. This quick, extra wallop at the driver's command is very useful in overtaking other cars on hills and in passing those proceeding at moderate speeds on level roads when a fast move is required. With a fully-automatic transmission, where shifts are controlled by car speed, no such choice is available to the driver."

"We find that many drivers, particularly women, find the clutch useful when parking their cars, especially when backing into restricted space. They seem to feel that the clutch gives them added control over the car and greater certainty as to what they can do to regulate it within close limits. With the Prestomatic Fluid Drive Transmission, parking presents no more of a problem than it does with the older conventional type."

Parents Urged to Immunize Children Against Diphtheria

Austin, Texas, June 1.—With 14 reported cases of diphtheria within the past week, and a total of 397 cases reported in the first 19 weeks of this year, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, State Health Officer, is urging Texas parents to have their immunized children Shick tested to determine immunity, and if inoculation is necessary, to have it done immediately.

"There is a widespread belief that once immunity is established, it lasts forever," The State Health Officer said. "This is not always true. In some cases it diminishes and finally dies out, and reimmunization is necessary in order to protect the child."

"Every child who will enter school next term should be inoculated or Shick tested now, because it takes from three to nine months for immunity to be completely established after the injection is administered."

"As long as cases of diphtheria occur, a child is in danger unless protected by immunization. The germs throw off a powerful poison which goes through the body. It is particularly harmful to the heart, blood vessels, nerves and kidneys, and serious complications often accompany the disease. Some of the more dangerous complications are broncho-pneumonia, to which the patient is particularly susceptible; paralysis, which may last for days or for long as 3 or 4 months; or permanent injury to heart, nerves or kidneys."

"The best thing to do with diphtheria is to stop it before it starts," Dr. Cox said. "When toxoid is injected under the skin, the system manufactures a disease-fighting antitoxin which can successfully resist the disease. Children of school age should be inoculated or Shick tested now, so that immunity will be established or nearly so, before the opening of the next school term."

and the cake will freshen and soften while the icing takes on a pleasing glaze.

Mix cream or cottage cheese with a bit of mint jelly or a drop of mint flavoring and stuff the mixture into prunes. These may be used as a salad or a meat platter garnish.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK
Date Bread

- 1 cup pitted, chopped dates
1/2 teaspoon soda
1/2 cup boiling water
1 tablespoon shortening
1/2 cup sugar
1 egg
1 1/2 cup sifted flour
1 teaspoon baking powder
1/2 teaspoon salt

Rhubarb is easily cooked in the oven. Place the cut pieces in a baking dish, cover generously with sugar and bake in a moderately hot (400° F.) oven for 25 to 30 minutes.

To make perfect tart shells, place
the pastry in small tins, then place another tin on top of the pastry.
Bake the pastry between these tart tins for the first few minutes, then remove the top tin and allow the shells to brown.

Grind leftover ham and form into patties, top with a slice of pineapple, then a sweet potato patty.
Cover with a strip or two of bacon, then broil until bacon is crisp. This makes a nice easy entree.

ANASTASIA
(A Short Story)
By RICHARD HILL WELKINSON

THE DAY that Anastasia Smythe met Aaron Phelps she fell in love with him, and was thereafter utterly miserable. Aaron was tall and broad and athletic looking. By his appearance, an out-door man of the first water. A man who liked the women rugged, and wouldn't have them otherwise.

Forlornly Anastasia thought how terribly handicapped a girl could be simply because she was small and delicate and disinclined toward developing a rugged constitution. At least at Haggis beach. The cottagers at Haggis lived an outdoor life.

Anastasia sat down, out of her hearing, in a secluded cove, and opened her book.

hypocrite any longer. Heretofore she had made herself miserable merely to keep up a front. Now she'd met a man who, by the looks of him, was an athlete of the first water, and fallen in love with him.
Because of her own inadequately developed muscles, he was beyond her reach. Well—what was the use of trying any longer? Why not just kick over the traces and be herself?
If not happy, she could at least be comfortable.

Dale Carnegie
HOW TO WIN FRIENDS AND INFLUENCE PEOPLE
PRAISE VS. CONDEMNATION

HERE'S A STORY stemming from the United States Army, which has given us many good examples of how to handle people. The men who have learned lessons from the situations they have faced in army life are going to benefit by them all their lives, and we are glad to have them pass examples along to us.

Paul A. Brown, of Houston, Tex., was commanding officer of an anti-aircraft battery in the jungles of Panama where one soldier was continuously causing trouble. As a penalty, the previous commanding officer assigned to him
the duty of manning the incinerator.

This was a job no man wanted, for it consisted of burning refuse, garbage, tin cans, then digging a hole and burying the remains. The extremely-high temperatures, the excessive humidity, the smell of the burning garbage, the digging of the burying trenches, the chopping of wood for firing the incinerator, and the heat of that fire, all combined to make it a most unpleasant task.

Each battery was inspected several times a week by a medical officer with a view to making sure that there would be no scattered garbage or other refuse to breed flies and insects and add to the hardships in safe-guarding the health of the command. In the tropics, the rapidity which marks the breeding of the seemingly-millions of insects is unbelievable.

Time after time, Mr. Brown's battery had received demerits from officers for laxness with regard to the incinerator.

Result? Continuation of carelessness. The private had been called on the carpet, his pass privilege revoked for the week;
he would go back to his job and show some improvement—for a few days. He had no interest nor pride in his work whatsoever.

Mr. Brown decided to try a new angle. He looked over the man's work and noted every detail of improvement, searched for improvement, in fact. Then he complimented that soldier wherever he could. He discussed with him the importance of his job, let him know that the health of that battery was largely in his hands.

Gradually, the man took pride in his humble task. Compliments from other officers, and particularly the inspector, made him renew his efforts. He turned into a fine soldier.

When it comes to praise vs. condemnation, you can count on praise winning!

'Be Your Age Is Good Slogan for Living Longer Life

Austin, Texas, June 1.—There is an old slang expression that would make a good slogan for living a longer and more comfortable life, and that is "Be your age." According to the State Health Officer, Dr. Geo. W. Cox, many persons injure their health and endanger their life through indulgence in exercises and vigorous sports unsuited for their age and physical condition.

"While a young man in prime physical condition may benefit from a fast game of tennis, older men and women have been known to collapse and suffer serious heart attacks following such a game. The same thing applies to golfing, swimming and other vigorous sports," Dr. Cox said.

Persons of middle age should never participate in activities requiring violent physical exertion, and should confine their physical exercise to such bounds as their doctor prescribes," Cox asserted.

Public Misinformation
About True Symptoms
Of Cancer Dangerous

Houston (Special). — Although Texans rate cancer as one of the most dangerous diseases but know, more than half of them do not know any cancer symptoms,
J. Louis Neff, executive director of the Texas Division of the American Cancer Society, said today, in discussing the 1949 educational and membership drive of the Society.

"This is a dangerous situation and one which makes the American Cancer Society's fight to control in Texas much more difficult.
We have found that those who most frequently give wrong symptoms for the disease heard those incorrect symptoms from equally uninformed persons. These Texans are placing directly into the hands of cancer quacks and are often delaying cancer treatment until it is too late for recovery."

The executive director pointed out that Texans can learn accurate information from their family doctor, from cancer information centers now being set up about the state by county units of the American Cancer Society, and by news stories such as this, published by local newspapers in the interest of public health.

Mr. Neff listed the following as the only true and accurate early symptoms of cancer:

- (1) Any sore that does not heal,
particularly about the tongue,
mouth or lip.
(2) A painless lump or thickening, especially on the breast, lip
or tongue.
(3) Irregular bleeding or discharge from any body opening.
(4) A wart, mole, or birthmark that suddenly starts to grow or change color.
(5) Persistent indigestion suddenly appearing in middle life.
(6) Any change in the normal bowel habit, if persistent.
(7) Persistent hoarseness, unexplained cough, or difficulty in swallowing.

Here's a different kind of dollar . . .

This is a telephone investor's dollar. It comes from countless individuals or business firms who invest money in telephone company stocks and bonds. This is a different kind of dollar because it is the only kind that can be used for telephone expansion. In contrast, the money received for telephone service is used to pay wages, taxes and other operating expenses. It also helps pay for the use of the investor's dollar. By operating on a sound, business-like basis, we are able to attract the investors' dollars which help to give Americans the world's finest telephone service.

Fairy

By Correspondent

We had a light shower of rain early Sunday, but with clear skies during the day, the rain will not retard farm work. Grain is turning fast and the hum of combines will soon be heard early and late. Harvesting with binders has begun.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Seilheimer and family of near Hamilton visited Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. Edd Allison and Texie.

Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Hoover and baby of San Francisco came in early Tuesday of last week for a week's visit with his parents Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover and other relatives. The baby became ill Saturday night and was a patient in the Hico Hospital over the week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Guy Lockheart and daughter, Barbara of Pidoake and her mother, Mrs. V. H. Heyroth of Gatesville visited here Saturday night in the home of their sister and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover and to be with Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Hoover and baby during their visit here.

Mr. and Mrs. N. S. Sellers and Joy Marie of Hamilton and Miss Evelyn Tune of Pottsville visited Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and family.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Price and little daughter, Cheryl of Austin spent the week end here at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Cox. Mr. Price returned home, but his wife and baby remained for a longer visit.

The base ball game played here Sunday afternoon between Alexander and Fairy was won by Alexander by the margin of 4 points.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Spencer of Lubbock spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover and to be with her brother, Mr. and Mrs. Darwin Hoover and baby.

Mrs. W. E. Goyne and daughters, Wilma Grace and Lynda have returned home for the summer months. Mrs. Goyne taught the past term in the Purves School. The term closed last Friday.

Miss Daphne Hoover of Stephenville spent the week end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover.

Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Messingale of Carlton visited here Sunday afternoon in the home of her mother, Mrs. A. L. Newman and her daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers and family.

AND WE HAND THEM SPAIN!

ON SUNDAY, May 1, readers of the New York Times saw two pictures on the front page — one entitled "Van of Leftist May Day Parade on 8th Avenue." The other showed a parade of loyal Americans in another part of the city.

A huge standard is borne by three people in the van of the leftist parade. It reads, "No Deals with Franco-Spain." Can you imagine whence came the instructions to display this slogan? Can you understand the stupidity of those Western Nations which still refuse to grasp the significance of this determined Red attack on the present anti-Communist government of Spain?

Here we are at war with the Asiatics — call it "cold war" if you like—but it is a war to the death just the same. AND WE HAND THEM SPAIN!

If the western governments can't understand, let's explain it to them. It is such a simple explanation. In December, 1945 the Red Asiatic strategists in the United Nations "slipped a fast one" over the Democracies and induced them to boycott European Spain and thus kill most of her essential foreign trade.

Their object, of course, was to destroy the present dictator government of Franco and replace it with a dictator government controlled from Moscow.

They know that, if they can accomplish this, all Western Europe must soon fall into their laps and any hope which we may have of checking the conquest of Europe will have been lost. They know that the "Spanish Government in Exile" — even if it were able to get control of Spain upon the fall of the Franco regime—could last but a short time.

Anyone who knows Spain must realize that a convulsion there could end in only one way, and that is, the way of those nations which now lie in servitude behind the Iron Curtain; and it is not stretching the imagination to prophesy that this result may mean slavery for our children as well as Spain's.

Let us face the fact that communism is fast winning the war against democracy. We've lost China. How long will southeast Asia hold out? Then we must supply 80 million Japanese or they must join the Communist coalition.

We haven't many toe-holds left.

Mr. and Mrs. O. O. Pollard were Stephenville visitors Wednesday. Mr. and Mrs. Luther Foster and son, Raymond, of Alexander were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harve Yoeham Sunday afternoon.

Mr. and Mrs. John Moore and daughter, Janice, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. John Allen Moore and Mr. and Mrs. Warren Moore and daughters in Baytown.

Neighbors met Friday afternoon at the farm of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Hyles and prepared land and planted his crop. He is in ill health.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. May and Mrs. Jewell Busby of Dallas and Virginia Malone of Jefferson City, Mo. spent the week end with Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Cozby and daughter, Waynell. Virginia remained and will spend the summer in the Cozby home.

Storage Facilities for Bumper Grain Crop Is Perplexing Problem

Waco, Texas, June 1.—The Texas Farm Bureau Federation today continued to press officials in Washington in an effort to acquire ample government approved storage facilities for the 1949 grain crop.

'Today's Children' Authority Explains Telephone Manners

It is good practice to teach youngsters to use the telephone, as it may be very helpful in case of emergency. However, little tots who have not learned to speak and cannot be understood should not be permitted to try to use the telephone.

Homemaking Projects Rank High Among 4-H Club Activities

"With more than a million homemaking projects being undertaken, 4-H girls are putting the 1949 theme 'Better Living for a Better World' into action," declared Guy L. Noble, director of the National Committee on Boys and Girls Club Work.

ected by a flooding fork of the Trinity River May 16, advisory groups are beginning meetings where the needs of about 400 affected families for rehabilitation will be acted upon.

Added to the unprecedented destruction of a little over two weeks in May were tornadoes in Mississippi and Poinsett counties in Arkansas which destroyed six homes; windstorms and floods in 13 Kansas counties, in which 477 homes were demolished or damaged.

'Wages' Includes Many Types of Pay Under Social Security Law

The Waco social security office points out that while Hamilton county employers usually report all cash payments to their employees, they do not always include the money value of other pay which is made in some medium other than cash.
