Hung Jury Develops in School Suit

Citizens who were in Stephenville the first of this week to attend hearings in the 29th District Court on a civil suit involving Alexander, Clairette and Hico school districts returned home to report that no decree had been rendered after the jury was unable to reach a verdict when the trial ended Wednesday.

The case, which has been in litigation for several years, carries a background familiar to interested spectators in the three towns. A bond issue to build a new grammar school building for Hico Public Schools carried by vote of Hico citizens three years ago; however the program was held up pending settlement of issues in this case.

Suit was brought by Erath Co. School Board and Alexander Rural School District to compel Clairette to abide by a decision of that county board to group the Clairette and Alexander school districts and to restrain Hico from carrying out consolidation of the Clairette district with Hico County Line Independent School District.

Judge Floyd Jones of the 9th Judicial District, Breckenridge, presided over this case, which began Monday, as the first on docket for May term of district court.

Principal witnesses were W. D. Tate, former Erath County school superintendent, and Bill Lanham, chairman of the Erath County board of school trustees. Both were intensively cross-examined by lawyers for the defense, Frank Sparks of Eastland and Joseph A. Chandler, Stephenville, attorney, according to an informed source who attended the trial.

The jury was instructed by the court to consider one major issue; that is, whether or not the Erath County Board used indiscretion in consolidation of Alexander and Clairette school districts.

O. C. Cook, administrator of Hico Public Schools, reported that members of the jury panel deliberated between 11:30 a. m. and 5:00 p. m. Wednesday, at which time they were called back by the court. W. J. Lowe, Hockley, foreman, reported that they had been unable to reach a verdict.

Cook stated further in his interview, that attorneys Sparks and Chandler have filed a motion asking that the judge render a judgment notwithstanding the verdict, on all three issues in the case. Besides the one considered by the jury, issues include two points of law.

It was learned from an authoritative source that C. O. McMillan, representing the Erath County School Board would file a motion before Judge Jones for judgment notwithstanding the verdict, on the points of law in the case.

The local school official pointed out that both the plaintiff and defendant had previously asked for a judgment outside of court. If judgment is again refused, he surmised, the case will be in exactly the same status as before trial, and will necessitate re-trial.

While speculation continues in conversations around town, several opinions have been offered as to when settlement might be reached. It might be in eight or ten days or could be prolonged for some time. Even if judgment is handed down from this court, some observers believe that further legal procedure might be used, so strong are the supporters on either side.

DELEGATES TELL LOCAL CHAPTER ABOUT MEETING OF STATE HOMEMAKERS

Interesting highlights of the recent trip to the State Meeting of the Texas Association, Future Homemakers of America, in Fort Worth were presented local members of the FHA chapter at their regular monthly meeting last Wednesday. From 300 chapters in Texas, 478 of them were represented at the Fort Worth meeting.

Convention delegates Shirley Prater and Peggy Goodloe entertained members with an informal panel discussion. Officers for the 1951-52 term of school were elected at this meeting.

Shirley, who will serve as area historian in FHA next year, was

Hico Regains Member on Brazos Board

The Texas Senate Tuesday confirmed an appointment by Gov. Allan Shivers, recommending Odie Petsick, president of the First National Bank of Hico, to serve on the board of directors of the Brazos River Conservation and Reclamation District. The appointment was among more than 35 in various offices confirmed in that day's legislative session.

Petsick received a telegram from the governor announcing that appointment, followed by a congratulatory message from W. A. (Son) Shofner, senator from this district.

Twenty-one members serve on the board of directors, and represent numerous towns in the Brazos River watershed. Through influence exerted by local interested citizens able to gain cooperation of State officials, Hico has been fortunate in having a member on this board for the past four years.

W. W. Carson Jr., who had previously been familiarly associated with procedure at the State Capitol, served from early in 1947 as an active member of the district board. Having been appointed for a six-year term, Carson was to have served until Feb. 1, 1953, but resigned the first part of this year when he and Mrs. Carson moved to Crane, Texas. Petsick will fill the vacancy created by this resignation.

The new appointee also has displayed unselfish interest in other activities outside the banking business, and recently was recognized by the Hamilton-Coryell Soil Conservation District for his assistance to the soil conservation program. Many matters come up for attention of the board concerning the watershed and tributaries of the Brazos, of which the Bosque is one. Board members are customarily selected only after critical screening and investigation, and have been commended for their deep interest in the control of the district's affairs.

Hico Seniors Listed To Receive Awards At Commencement

Twenty seniors will receive high school diplomas tonight, and 13 special awards will be made to outstanding class members, when Commencement exercises are held in Hico High School auditorium, beginning at 8:00 o'clock.

Supt. J. E. Lincoln will present the diplomas and awards, which are in three divisions. The list includes four students named for perfect attendance; six honor students in special fields, and three vocational agriculture awards.

June Hamilton, Peggy Goodloe, Margaret Hampton and Kenneth Johnson will receive recognition for perfect attendance, and honorable mention goes to three students who were absent only one day; namely, Royce Knight, Shirley Prater and Betty Shook.

Honor student in the field of science is Shirley Prater. Duane McCarty, who is also salutatorian of the class, has been named for honors in the field of English.

The girl and boy named for skill in the athletic field are Mrs. Jo (Suitt) Jaggars and Roline Chaney. Pat Salmon has been selected as best all-around student.

Citizenship honors will be presented to Catheryn Walker, who is also to receive a scholarship to college and a special medal as valedictorian of the class.

Three awards are to be presented to vocational agriculture students. Benny Terry has been named for talent in public speaking, while Angus Churchill is Star Farmer of the F. F. A. Chapter. Clinton Loyd Roberson will be presented with the farm mechanics award. These are based on 10 merits: dependability, citizenship, application to work, attitude, cooperation, leadership, scholarship, personal appearance, courtesy and sportsmanship.

Junior-Senior Banquet Provides Entertaining Climax to Year's End

Tuesday night, May 8, about 8:00 o'clock, the Juniors and Seniors and their guests, the teachers and speakers all gathered at the Firemen's Hall for the annual Junior-Senior Banquet.

First, everyone was served a delicious meal, which was followed by a welcome given by Royce Knight, the Junior class president. The response was given by Roline Chaney, the Senior class president. The class will be read by Betty Golightly, and the class prophecy by Margaret Hampton.

Royce Knight introduced the guest speaker, Rev. J. Fred Patterson, who gave us a very useful talk, as well as an interesting one. After this most of the kids and several of the teachers went out to the Bluebonnet Country Club for a dance.

Everyone enjoyed the banquet and thought it was one of the nicest ever given.

LEAGUES to Hico Sunday
Ball Game Here
By LEON LEWIS

Sunday's results:
Hico wins over Shiloh, 6 to 1.
Hico defeats Duffau, 4 to 3.
Hico beats Alexander, 6 to 5.
Hico ties four teams for third place in the Bosque Valley Baseball League, Alexander, Hico, Shiloh and Duffau. But let you mark next Sunday will put somebody in sixth place as well as in fourth and fifth, for way they have been going are three losers and three winners every Sunday! I don't see how they can't win—it just seems as though they feel better, and when they win.
The other thing I notice is there is never any complaint about the team on top. But my office is at headquarters for the league is always congested with complaints from those teams who are behind, though I admit they are good sports. Here's notice to all players and managers: June 10 was the date set for make-up games on account of rain. Instead of making a vacant Sunday, we will play straight through, beginning June 10. Go through your schedule, mark all games one Sunday ahead. This lets us get it all done Sunday quicker. This fall at Johnsonville, Duffau, and at Alexander.

League	Standing	P	W	L	Pct.
Hico	1	8	7	1	.875
Shiloh	2	8	5	3	.625
Duffau	3	8	3	5	.375
Alexander	4	8	3	5	.375
Harrison	5	8	3	5	.375
Johnsonville	6	8	3	5	.375

The Hico and Duffau game at the next Sunday should and will be the largest crowd yet. Go to this game—if you can't then go to the Duffau-Johnsonville game at Duffau. This will be one of the big games of the season at Duffau. The Alexander-Shiloh game will draw all Dublin, Shiloh and Alexander fans, played at Alderson. Go to the game of your choice, but go. This thing is getting good!

Fairy

by Mrs. Eunice Massengale

We received another light rain on Tuesday of last week, which was fine on gardens as well as crops.

Friends and acquaintances of Mr. Gene Langston of Hico were very sorry to learn of his untimely death Sunday. We extend deepest sympathy to all those bereaved in his passing.

There was good attendance at the baccalaureate service at the school gym Sunday night. Dawnman Newton, minister of the Fairy Church of Christ, delivered the message, with Rev. L. W. Allen of Hamilton, pastor of the Agee Baptist Church assisting. Processional and recessional marches were rendered by Mrs. Edgar Bradley. There are three members of the Senior class, namely James L. Arrant, Delbert Brooks and Miss Virginia Anderson. As previously announced, the commencement exercises are to be held on Thursday evening of this week.

A large crowd was present for the graduation exercises of the 8th grade last Friday night.

Mr. and Mrs. Sid Dickerson of near Hico visited Sunday afternoon with his sister, Mrs. Brittle Little.

We are sorry to report Miss Ovie Parks a patient in the Hico Hospital at this writing. She is expected to return home in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Hoover left Monday for Lubbock to attend commencement exercises at Texas Technological College that night. Their son-in-law, Ralph Spencer, is a member of the graduating class. They expect to return home Tuesday or Wednesday. Mrs. Spencer and little son, Ralph Donald, expect to accompany them home for a visit of several weeks. Mr. Spencer will go to Big Spring after graduation, where he has been employed as an architect for a contracting company, and will come for Mrs. Spencer and the baby as soon as he can arrange housing facilities.

The writer was a business visitor in Carlton and Dublin Wednesday afternoon of last week, and on Saturday morning the writer and son-in-law, Carl Ray Sellers, were in Carlton to make repairs to the roof of our farm residence there, which was damaged recently by wind.

Well, we were surprised when we received last week's issue of the Hico paper and glanced to "With the Colors" and read that heading, Pvt. Charles W. Beck. We didn't know he was in the service. And on Sunday at 1:00 p. m. we were listening to the "Brad Carrigan Speaks" program over Radio Station KCLW, Hamilton, and heard Mr. Carrigan make announcement regarding this serviceman's completion of his basic training as was printed in the Hico paper. Charles is a very fine young man and we know he will make good. He is an only child of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Beck, who live in the former Burden place, northeast of Fairy. They do get their mail out of Iredell, but we still claim these good people since they attend church at Fairy. And Charles will always seem near to the writer, since he was employed by us after the death of our husband during their residence in Fairy. Our best wishes go with him. Charles is 19 years of age, instead of 18 as stated, and is a graduate of Fairy High School. Good luck, Charles.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Ray Sellers, Carolyn and Jimmie Don, were in Dallas Sunday for a visit with his nephew and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Art Gilmer. They were accompanied by his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sellers, Barbara and Bobby, of Hamilton.

Mr. and Mrs. Leon Springer spent the week end at Rockdale visiting in the home of his cousin.

Thanks for the drop box news items. We want you to know we appreciate any items turned in.

Those from here attending singing at Clairette Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Pitts, Mr. and Mrs. John Abel, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Mason, and Mrs. Eunice Massengale.

Mrs. Edd Allison and son, Texie, visited Sunday in Waco in the home of their daughter and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Dellis Seago and Sherry.

Darrel Allison and Travis Brown of Dublin spent from Friday until Sunday here visiting Darrel's grandparents. Mr. and Mrs. Edd Allison and the writer, Darrel's parents, Mr. and Mrs. D. E. Allison, came down for them Sunday afternoon.

Wayne Little, who is in training at Roswell, N. M., came down last Sunday for a short visit with his grandmother, Mrs. Brittle Little. He was accompanied to Carlton by Joe Turner, son of Mr. and Mrs.

Henry Turner of Carlton. The boys entered the service together and Joe has made his home with Wayne's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Little of Oklahoma, for several years prior to entering the service. The boys enlisted together. Mr. and Mrs. Joe Foyt and baby are staying at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Arrant, at present while Mr. Foyt is employed at Turnersville. Mrs. Foyt is the former Miss Wyvonne Arrant.

Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Wright and little son, Glenn, of Fort Worth visited a while Sunday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Pitts, and Ima.

We received another good rain Monday night, which will be very beneficial to growing crops and gardens.

BAND NEWS

Mr. Bradley and two band students, James Gillentine and Hubert Johnson, went to Eastland Saturday, May 19, to attend the Annual Ranch Day. It began in the morning and carried through until after night. They seemed to enjoy themselves and said it was very interesting.

WORM'S EYE VIEW

Well, here I am again for the last time, kids, and I sure did get a nice "goodbye" with just everyone stepping on me. I couldn't pick out just one particular person to tell you about, because just everyone in the whole High School tried to run around me. It sure does get disgustin' sometimes. But I want to congratulate each and every one of the Seniors for their nice achievement of paper, "Diploma." I sure will miss you all next fall, but with everyone gone I can get a little rest.

Goodbye, Seniors, and visit me every now and then, and the best of happiness and good "stepping" where ever you may go or whatever you may do.

See you!

BACCALAUREATE

As everyone knows, last Sunday night was the Baccalaureate Service at the Baptist Church. It was a very attractive performance; all the Seniors looked so nice and grown-up. I'm sure that everyone watching these services was very impressed with what he saw and heard.

Thanks to everyone.

CO-ED CHATTER

Well, hello everyone! I guess this will be the last time you hear from me for quite a little while—maybe once more. I want to give you all the news that I can and hope you're satisfied with the last Co-ed Chatter for this year, but there may be another.

The Senior Dance was a big success. There was punch and cookies served and everyone seemed to have a wonderful time.

The Basketball Banquet, buffet style, was a wonderful success, thanks to Mr. Sirman and the town. The basketball girls invited their guests and the basketball boys, tons, lots of potato salad, potato chips, olives, pickles (both kinds), bread, fritos, six cases of cold drinks, assorted cookies and ice cream (three flavors). I'm absolutely sure that nobody got hungry again before leaving, for there was still plenty left after everyone had gone around four or five times. Everybody got full. Everything was a big success.

I noticed that Betty Jane was with Fred Saturday night, and I also noticed that Fred had two girls Wednesday night—Betty Bolton and Betty Jane. What's the hogging about, Fred? Someone else might want one?

I saw Virgil and Bobby Saturday night and they seemed to be having lots of fun, running all over the place.

Baccalaureate night, Mrs. Angell looked awful nice and proud of her wonderful little Senior group. Think she was?

I noticed Pat Jordan in town the other night, and she seemed to be having a wonderful time. Both of them looked pleased.

I was cruising through Meridian the other night, and saw Joy Ann. Could Meridian be getting tired of those Hico guests, Joy Ann?

I saw Mary Jo and Royce Lee looking around houses in Stephenville Saturday. Reckon they could have been looking for a place to dwell in after about two weeks?

I saw Betty Jane in Stephenville Saturday getting her photo made in the cap and gown. I also saw Mary Nell, Vanetta, and Mary Jo getting theirs made, too. I hope they smiled right, don't you?

I want to say "so-long for a while" to all of these wonderful teachers. I've enjoyed knowing all of them, and had wonderful times in their classes. Believe it or not, but Algebra is my favorite subject. Hope I passed my test!

I saw Jean and Jimmie at the dance the other night, and they both looked very sweet, but I'm telling you, this is getting disgusting with all of these boys going steady and none left for me. I do like to stick my head out of the door every once in a while.

Seriously, out of all our engaged and married people here at school,

I want to wish the best of luck and happiness to each and every one of them. I hope that all of you will be as happy as you have seemed to be this last year. Every one of you just stay as sweet and friendly as you are now, and you will never be unhappy.

I saw Mary Nell and Vanetta going out to Clairette, near the Bird Farm, Sunday afternoon, with Von and Dwain. I couldn't guess where they were going, could you?

I saw Patsy Jo writing a letter the other day, and all smiles. You know, I sure wish I could sneak one of those letters to or from, and read it. I'll bet they are awfully sweet, don't you?

Pat Jordan and Nelita seem to be having quite a time there in the Tiger's Den.

I saw Loretta, Billy Joe, Bobbie Louise, and Gene Saturday night. They were really whizzing around there and cutting a rug, and having a wonderful time.

I found out that Steve Garrison was an awful good and smooth dancer; also Jim Tooley, but gee, my poor toe!

I noticed Duane just typing the other day for dear life. I wonder if he could be writing to that little waitress that he had to leave in Galveston. How about it, Duane?

I saw Billy Loden whistling around so gay the other day. Could he have been happy about something?

We were all happy to see Mrs. Billie Jean Kennedy back in school this morning. Hope you are feeling fine, Billie, and take care of yourself. I'm sure Jimmie was glad to have her back. She looked as wonderful as ever, but maybe a little weak.

Well, I guess that is all I have for now, so be good and run around a little, and by the first day of school next fall there will be just lots of newsw news. Hope to see you all around this summer, because next year I won't be back here. I might be printed next week who writes this column, in case anyone is curious.

Goodbye, and be sweet!

Legislature Passes
New Law Regulating
Study of Wildlife

Austin, May 22.—The Executive Secretary of the Game, Fish & Oyster Commission said new opportunities for scientific study of wildlife preliminary to improved hunting and fishing in Texas will be provided under a new law just passed by the Legislature.

The act, sponsored by Representative Jack Cox of Breckenridge, affects only six counties.
They are Jack, Young, Stephens, Palo Pinto, Erath and Hood.

This new area, giving the Commission regulatory powers, is in addition to the 28-county area set aside for these studies in the Panhandle by the previous Legislature.

The latest act automatically closes all seasons so far as the state law is concerned but the fishing, hunting and trapping periods will be re-established by the Commission. In time, because of the experiments thus authorized, the Commission hopes to provide even greater privileges for sportsmen.

The new act specifically authorizes the Commission to open and to close seasons and to set bag limits for both fish and game.
This new law will not be effective until September 1st. In the meantime, the present regulations will continue.

THE ANSWER

BY MAUDE McCURDY WELCH

MARTHA KNEW something had happened when Timothy came home from St. Louis. She knew also he'd tell her in his own good time. There were no secrets between them after 12 happy years of marriage.

She prepared his supper, but Timothy only had time to say grace before an urgent call came from Luther Barnes, asking him to come at once.

Martha hurriedly took off her apron and climbed in the shabby car with him. She was thinking that while Timothy was a minister in charge of this small community in the Ozark hills, he was often called on to act as a doctor. Fortunately, he had gone through medical school.

The Barnes family lived way out in the hills. They found Sarah Barnes in terrible pain. "We must get her to the hospital at once," Tim told Luther. "I'm afraid it's her appendix."

Luther turned pale. He was also stubborn. He said he wouldn't let his wife be operated on. She wasn't going to leave home.

Sarah said weakly, "I want to go, parson."

Timothy told Martha to take pillows and a blanket and make a bed in the back of the car.

When Timothy was ready to pick Sarah up and take her to the car, Luther barred the door. "She's not going," he panted.

Timothy looked at Luther sorrowfully. Before Luther realized Timothy's intention, Timothy had dealt him a blow that sent him toppling to the floor. Then he lifted Sarah tenderly and carried her out to the car.

The next day she was still dangerously ill. The appendix had ruptured. The operation was over, but she was still in grave danger.

Timothy went out to see Luther, to apologize, to try to make the disgraced man understand, but Luther wouldn't let him in, told him to get going and to stay away.

Tim drove away sadly. He found it at times very difficult to help these people, and often became discouraged.

"Why are you so worried,
dear?" Martha asked him one day when he'd come from a visit to Etta Brock's.

Tim told her then what had happened. He'd been offered a church in St. Louis, not a big one, but with a much larger salary.

Martha smiled. "That isn't important."

"The important thing is whether or not I'm helping these people.
I can't decide. I've prayed over it, but the answer doesn't come."
"It will come," Martha said confidently.

Martha knew Timothy had had an unpleasant time with Etta Brock, a wealthy woman who lived in a fine house while the tenants on her farm lived in wretched hovels. Mrs. Brock had offered Timothy a generous check for some church need, which he'd refused to accept. He'd told her she couldn't buy her way into the Kingdom and reminded her that we're told to love our neighbors as ourselves. She'd been very angry.

Another problem was 14-year-old Mary Lee James, whose mother never permitted her to have the simplest pleasure. Timothy had tried to make her understand that the girl needed to go out with her school friends on picnics and small parties and Mrs. James had told him to mind his own business.

No wonder Timothy was discouraged. One Sunday morning he told Martha he was leaving and would preach his farewell sermon that day.

Strange things began happening when Timothy and Martha reached the church. Mary Lee in a pretty new dress, coming up with her friends, her face glowing. "Teacher's taking our class on a picnic Saturday," she told him, "and I'm going."

Someone slipped a note in Timothy's hand. "Come out and see what I'm doing to my tenant houses. God bless you. Etta Brock."

Luther Barnes came, grasped his hand. "Thanks for socking me, parson. I was out of my head with fear. But because of you, my wife's all right now."

Timothy preached a sermon on the Good Shepherd and His love for the sheep. Looking out over his congregation, he saw tears in many eyes. In conclusion, Tim said, "I have news for you. I have a call to another church." He paused, then quite suddenly heard himself saying, "But I have decided my place is here."

The next moment he heard the strong, vibrant notes of the organ, saw the congregation rise and begin singing joyfully and vigorously,
"Blest Be the Tie That Binds, Our Hearts in Christian Love . . ."

Timothy knew he had received a glorious answer.

Garland Gets New Sales Executive for Kraft Foods Company

Julian Jones, for 22 years a salesman, sales and distribution branch manager and sales executive in the Southeast Division of the Kraft Foods Company, has been transferred to the Southwest Division headquarters in Garland, Texas, as assistant division manager. It was announced recently by J. C. Loftis, division general manager.

"Mr. Jones brings to the Southwest a broad experience as a salesman, sales executive and merchan-diser that is outstanding in the food industry," Mr. Loftis said.
"His knowledge of modern methods of food distribution and selling will prove invaluable not only to Kraft but to food retailers throughout the area."

Jones started work for an independent food distributor in 1929 in the Southeast. When Kraft acquired that firm, he went to work as a route salesman for Kraft out of the Atlanta branch of the company. Later he was transferred to the division headquarters sales staff in Atlanta as a merchandising specialist. He became, successively, branch manager at manager at Memphis, Tenn., in 1940; and branch manager in At-

Hico Gives $48.22 In Drive for Funds to Help Control Cancer

A total of $48.22 was donated by Hico citizens toward the Cancer Crusade recently made in this county. This amount has already been turned in to the county chairman, Dr. Cyrus B. Cathey, said Mrs. W. M. Horsley in giving the report. However, if there are any other contributors, they may bring or mail their offering to Mrs. Horsley sometime during the next week, she said.

They expressed appreciation to everyone who helped with the drive in any way, and especially to the ones who contributed; to J. T. Hill, manager of the Hico Theatre, for allowing a collection to be made at a movie during the drive; and to Ralph Boone, scoutmaster, and every Boy Scout who assisted in soliciting funds on Saturday, May 12.

Mrs. Horsley reported that the county chairman seemed well pleased with results throughout the county, but a complete report from other communities was not available at press time this week.

Hicoans Invited to County-wide Observance Of Memorial Day

Servicemen of this county who gave their lives during all wars of our nation will be honored at Memorial Day services in the county seat on Wednesday night, May 30.

Plans for the day's observance include a parade Wednesday morning at 11 o'clock in downtown Hamilton, a basket lunch in the Legion Park at 12:30 p. m. and a special ceremony beginning at 6:00 p. m. at Kookon Football Stadium.

Issuing an invitation to everyone in Hico and this section of the county to attend and to participate in the ceremonies, Bradford D. Corrigan of Hamilton was in this city Wednesday on duties as public relations counsel for the county veterans organization, sponsors of the program.

"We are striving to make this a real Hamilton County affair," he stated, "and would like to have girls from Hico to place flowers on the crosses, if they would. We expect to have 100 voices singing in the special choir, and everyone from this and neighboring communities in the county will be welcome and is requested to join in the choir." He expressed the hope that a group would come over to Hamilton that night and contact either John Jordan or himself if they would perform either of these activities.

The evening program will begin with an open air recital by Omar McKim, talented organist, who will appear on Kookon field to play his Hammond electric console organ. Mr. McKim has been organist with the National Broadcasting Co., the Mutual Broadcasting Co., as well as organist for Tony Martin, singer, and the Shep Fields orchestra. In addition he was organist for the 16th Street Presbyterian Church in Washington, D. C. His picture is reproduced elsewhere in this paper.

Memorial services following the recital will include, besides the choir, an address by Rev. Clarence Allen Morton, and "pageantry of remembrance you will never forget," the sponsoring group announced. "You are invited to be the guests of Hamilton County Veterans on this occasion," the spokesman concluded.

"HAPPY BIRTHDAY AND MANY MORE" IS WISH FOR R. M. ALEXANDER, 90

R. M. (Dock) Alexander was honored on his 90th birthday with a dinner and open house last Sunday at the home of a son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Hub Alexander, who live east of Clairette.

His children and other relatives brought well filled baskets of food, which were placed on a long table arranged in the front yard under lovely shade trees. He and his children, as well as other relatives and friends enjoyed the feast.

A large white cake decorated in pink, bearing the inscription "90, Happy Birthday Dad" was furnished by a daughter, Mrs. Lou Austin of Bauxite, Ark. The following children were present: Mrs. May McChristal, Mrs. Zena Havens, John Alexander and Hub Alexander, all of Clairette; William E. and Joe Alexander, Route 7, Hico; C. G. Alexander, of Waco, and Mrs. Austin from Arkansas. His youngest son, T. T. Alexander, Refugio, was unable to attend.

Refreshments, consisting of punch and cookies were served at open house from 2:00 to 4:00 p. m. Visitors called from Waco, Stephenville, Alexander, Hico, Clairette and surrounding communities to wish "Uncle Dock" (as so many call him) a happy birthday and many more.

The honoree received many nice gifts and lovely cards. Many came from those who could not attend the celebration. "Uncle Dock" stated that he really enjoyed the good dinner and occasion of having his many good friends call on him. Each guest seemed to enjoy the occasion also.—Contributed.

WITH OUR SUBSCRIBERS

Benn Gleason of Fair, who has been ill for several years with heart trouble, was around in town Friday and came by the News Review office to renew his subscription and to give us some news of interest to our mutual fraternity of journalism. He was editor of The Battalion, college publication at Texas A. & M., in 1905 and 1906, and showed us a letter inviting him to a Press Club awards banquet held Friday night of last week in College Station. Their 45th class reunion is also to be held May 25, but he regretted he was unable to go to either of these events. The Battalion, now a daily publication, was a weekly paper during his editorship, and he was the second editor to serve after it changed from a monthly publication.

Mrs. C. E. Rodgers has ordered a subscription for Mrs. R. M. Bowles of Corpus Christi.

Mrs. J. W. Leeth's subscription has been marked up for another year, through the courtesy of her son, J. B. Leeth, who walked over from the Hico Implement Company to take a few minutes off Friday. When we commented that Mrs. Leeth is a faithful subscriber and is one who really reads the paper, he remarked, "Oh, we all read it three or four times."

We can't mention her name, but a lady on Route 1 has entered a subscription for herself. As she renewed, she warned us, "Don't say nothin' about it 'cause I don't want people to know I read that paper." The truth is, she said, that she has been reading it all her life, since learning how to read, and would rather do without her meal than the paper. After such a good recommendation, we believe Mrs. G. P. Morris is among one of the most thorough readers that the News Review has. (Ed. Note: How did her name slip by? One can't afford to offend the linotype operator by having him reset those lines again, though.)

The News Review staff is glad to have J. L. Roberson, Route 5, on the mailing list again.

Among our new subscribers is W. C. Urwin, Hico Route 5, who sent an order by mail last week to the Hico News Review.

A renewal has been entered for Jewell Faulk from Fontana, Calif. He wrote a cheerful note saying, "I like to keep up with the latest news of all the folks back home, so I am enclosing $2.00 for another year of Good reading."

E. L. McElroy, progressive farmer out on Route 1, came by Tuesday of last week to advertise his blackberries and plums. While here, he had his subscription marked up for another year.

A new subscription has been ordered by Mrs. John Rusk to be sent to her husband's sister, Mrs. J. B. Luper, who lives in Bay City.

While renewing her subscription last week, Mrs. E. E. Thompson said that she was glad to find us in the office, having been by once or twice before and finding nobody to trade with. The editor, doing some of his backshop duties, peered around the stone and jokingly commented, "You're supposed to get a prize if you catch us here the first time you call!"

A subscription renewal for Guy Blunt, Hico Route 3, was turned in last week by our news stand agent, Leonard Howard.

J. E. Sessom and wife, who run the postoffice and general store at Duffau and have taken their place as business tycoons in that historic and thriving center, will now be classed as all-around citizens since he came in a fortnight ago, made himself acquainted with the editor and then made himself popular by taking a year's subscription. Mr. Sessom moved up from Gustine about two months ago, but is originally from Llano County, having been a rancher there and postmaster at Valley Spring for many years. Welcome into the fold, Mr. and Mrs. Sessom. May your business be good, your toll light, your hours pleasant, your fishing successful, and your friends numerous and true.

Uncle Dock Alexander celebrated his 90th birthday Sunday in the home of Mr. and Mrs. Hub Alexander, his son. All of his children were present except Thurman for the occasion, besides his children and grandchildren. There were Mr. and Mrs. Caleb Smith, Mont Thomas and Charlie Deisher of Stephenville; Mrs. Mollie Trammell and Mr. and Mrs. Frank Johnson for dinner. This writer did not get to go wish Uncle Dock many more happy birthdays, but in this news here's that wish.

HICO 4, DUFFAU 3

Those "Hickies" from Hico were to blame for the third straight defeat of the Duffau Demons. It was a dinger all the way—even George Bowie decided that the Hico team had been promiscuously imbibing in Hadaacol.

Duffau will try again next Sunday on the home lot, when they meet the jovial Johnsvillians. Come to see this game. We might beat 'em.

I nearly forgot—Pryor was the losing pitcher in the Hico game. Read was the winner.

A 3-inch rain fell here last Monday evening, filling the tanks, causing the Duffau to fill her banks, and doing considerable damage to fields and growing crops.

Preacher Bowie, a sergeant in the U. S. Army, who has been stationed near Frankfurt-on-the-Main, Germany, is spending 60 days' furlough with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Bowie, and other relatives and friends. Preacher appears to have been well fed by the Army. He will remain indefinitely in his native country.

Mr. and Mrs. Huel Lindsey visited their son, Corry, and family in Stephenville Sunday.

Rod Word made a business trip to Hico Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lester Herod, Sherry, and Roy Magee and wife were visitors in Dublin (Texas) Sunday.

Mrs. Zura Burgan and daughters, Mrs. Mildred Head and Mrs. Mary Hester Riggins, were called to Corpus Christi because of the illness of their grandson and nephew, Duard Ray Stone, who had been struck with polio. Word just received is that the two-year-old boy is doing nicely.

Agnes French of Fort Worth spent last week with her grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Rogers.

Mrs. Clarence Faulkner and daughter, Anne, visited Mrs. Faulkner's parents, Felix and Mrs. Landers, Sunday.

A nice crowd of friends and neighbors attended the social at J. R. Stringer's Saturday night. Both vocal and instrumental music were enjoyed.

Mr. and Mrs. Buck Sandlin of Odessa visited friends in this vicinity last week.

Mrs. Uel Stagner visited her daughter in Fort Worth last week.

Mrs. Ruth Brown of Stephenville visited her father, Mr. Emert, and her sister, Mrs. M. H. Gillentine, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Johnnie McKnight and family were in Odessa last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Fouts of Duffau visited W. C. Fouts in the Hico Hospital Sunday.

"Let's Talk Live Stock"

By TED GOULDY

Fort Worth, May 18.—The livestock industry settled into the controlled pattern as outlined by OPS to a large degree during the past week.

Midwest cattle feeders who, like other cattlemen, had been waiting for the market structure to settle down somewhat, dumped a two-day supply of fed cattle on the markets the first day of the week and the result was a price drop of around $1 per hundred.

As the week wore on the prices rallied, except in the case of plain and medium slaughter steers, and in most cases moderate to good advances in prices were reported by the end of the week.

At Fort Worth, receipts were heavier but as was the case at all Southwestern markets, the runs were still light due to the late pasture season and due to rains in many sections which halted movement of off-pavement cattle.

The market at Fort Worth was generally steady with substantial improvement in cows, calves and stocker prices.

Hog marketings were somewhat larger the first of the week, and on Monday prices broke sharply all around the market circuit, but later in the week these losses were recovered with a closing Fort Worth top of $21. Heavy hogs and sows have been under pressure all around the market loop and prices $20 to $21 per hundred lower have been effective and these classes failed to rally so well as the handier weight butcher hogs.

An unusual development in the beef trade in the East this week has been the fact that some steer beef has been selling there at BELOW the wholesalers' permissible ceiling prices.

Such a development could take a lot of wind out of the argument for rigid controls on beef.

The Washington scene has highlighted the argument of businessmen and livestock producers before the congressional committee there on renewal of the act creating OPS.

While Senator Maybank informed OPS Director DiSalle that renewal of the act was going to be tough in view of the public apathy and that it was possible a short extension of 30 to 90 days was all the OPS would get; it was considered that renewal of the act was a certainty.

President Truman this week called on all consumers to press their congressmen for renewal of these controls and rent controls. This is generally regarded as the opening gun in the administration's counter-attack.

During the past week a number of sales of cattle at Fort Worth were surprisingly near the all-time high points. C. T. White of Brady had some 260-pound calves at $43.

In the fat cattle line, there were two loads of heavy, over 1,300-pound steers from G. A. McClung of Johnson County. These steers at $35 and $36 per hundred were probably within 50 cents to $1 per hundred of what they would have brought any time, even at the highest period.

Walter Graham and M. A. Graham of Happy and Silverton, Tex., respectively, had yearling steers and heifers at $35 and $36 this week that were likely within $1 per hundred of the high time. In these shipments were some cows at $28, just a shade under the all-time record for fat cows here.

On Monday at Fort Worth there was shipment of two loads of Brahman steers that sold at $32. It is doubtful if these cattle would have brought over $33.50 or $34 at the highest time this year.

They serve as a perfect example of the varying ideas of "what will work" under OPS regulations.

One big packer told me, "We can't go over $28.50 on this kind of cattle. The federal graders would grade them Commercial and Utility on us." Another big packer said, "These cattle would have to be bought under $30, or maybe at $30, to keep us in compliance." An order buyer for another large packer said, "We could pay $30 to $31, and if the bruises did not prove too bad, the higher figure would be okay, the way I see them." Yet these cattle brought $32 after the packers, large and small, had their chance.

Competition for beef is still very aggressive, despite controls.

We see where some expert in Australia says the Continent Down Under could support 33 million more sheep than at present if a program of improved pastures was worked out.

That is two million more sheep than there are in the whole United States at this writing.

THIS IS AN EVENT OF MAJOR ACHIEVEMENT FOR YOU.

WE ARE HAPPY TO JOIN IN THE CHORUS OF GOOD WISHES. 1951

"Serving Those Who Serve the Best"

Heart Attack Fatal To E. P. Langston, 57, Pioneer Family Member

Relatives and friends were shocked and saddened at the untimely passing of a Hico man, E. P. (Gene) Langston, son of Mrs. Lenora and the late Isaac P. Langston, pioneer family of this section. After the Sunday noon meal, Gene went to his salvage lot which he had recently purchased. There he suffered a heart attack, sending his helper and friend, Warren Waddell, for a doctor and his family. He was taken immediately to the hospital but lived only a few minutes after arriving there. He left his family in such comfort, with the knowledge that he called on his Lord and was saved.

Born Dec. 23, 1893, Eugene Pinkney Langston moved with the family from Alexander, where he was born, to the old Langston homestead. In 1915 the family moved to Stamford, Texas, where he and his father owned and operated a cafe for two years. He had lived most of his life in and around Hico, having resided for 27 years at the present location. He and his father owned and operated Ike & Gene's Cafe in Hico for 15 years.

Survivors include his wife, one son, Ikie Gene Langston, and two daughters, Mrs. V. C. Parr of Beaumont and Mrs. H. T. Gaston of Waco; also his mother, Mrs. Lenora Langston, and three sisters, Mrs. Fred Wylie of Moran, Mrs. Osta Webb of Corvallis, Ore., and Mrs. Bethel Webb of Yachato, Ore. There are also four grandchildren and a number of other relatives.

Funeral services were held from the home at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Sister Dolly Lynch officiated, assisted by Rev. L. H. Davis. Barrow-Rutledge Funeral Home had charge of arrangements. Burial was in Hico Cemetery. Pallbearers were Johnny Howerton, Warren Waddell, Charlie Paddock, Louis Chaney, Ernest Jacobs and Dock Bass.

Wilbur Shaw thinks so much of this new Chrysler, he has selected it as Pace Car for the 1951 Indianapolis 500-mile race.

"I've just driven the most powerful car* in the U.S."

WILBUR SHAW, AMERICA'S MOST FAMOUS DRIVER, DRIVES NEW 1951 CHRYSLER—REPORTS TO YOU ON REVOLUTIONARY FIREPOWER ENGINE AND HYDRAGUIDE POWER STEERING

Here are Wilbur Shaw's reactions—in his own words—as taken down by a recording machine in the car:

"The '51 Chrysler has it! With this new engine and power steering, the first on any U.S. car, it's a whale of an automobile.

"I'm completely bowled over by the ease of steering! This steering combined with the automatic transmission . . . is the nearest thing to an automatic pilot for a car I can possibly imagine.

"This engine . . . I can't get over the amount of power and snap in this engine . . . it's incredible!

"I drove 111 miles with the feeling I had expended no more effort than in driving around the block.

"When Mrs. Shaw drove, her comments just about squared with mine. Here's what she thinks of the 1951 Chrysler . . ."

Mrs. Shaw: "At first I could hardly believe the ease with which I could turn the wheel. That's important . . . especially in the summertime.

"Often after I have parked a car in the average parking space, I feel I should taxi home, shower and get dressed again. But with Hydraguide Power Steering I parked it with one hand. It practically drives itself."

Wilbur Shaw: "It's hard to describe this new Chrysler without going off the deep end . . . it has it in every department.

"In fact, I think so much of this car, I've selected it as Pace Car of the 1951 Indianapolis 500-mile race!" (Mr. Shaw's comments are reprinted through the courtesy of Popular Science Magazine.)

*Mr. Shaw refers of course to standard passenger cars—not racing cars or special models.

Mrs. Mary Squires, age 93, passed away at 10:30 p. m. May 13, 1951, at Sweetwater, where she had lived since September of last year.

Mary A. Brand was born in Milligall, Georgia, on Feb. 26, 1858. Her parents moved to Moran County, Alabama, in 1859 and they lived there until 1879.

She was converted and joined the Baptist church in 1877 and had lived a faithful life to the end. She was a sure faithful Christian.

She was married to Mr. Varney Williams in 1881. To this union were born two daughters and one son, Mrs. Della Phillips and Mrs. G. P. Squires, and one son who died in infancy. In 1884 she was married to B. W. Horton. To this union were born two sons, Willie Horton who died in 1935, and Henry Horton, who died in 1938; and two daughters, Mrs. Vivian Pruett and another who died in infancy. Mr. Horton died in 1897. She married Mr. John Squires in 1902 and he died in 1915. She lived many years in Iredell. I visited her often. She was a sweet old lady. It was an inspiration to anyone to visit her. She never talked about people, nor told ugly jokes. I had a good time with her until she got too feeble. She would fish a good deal. I would go with her and she enjoyed it.

In her younger years she had a hard time of it. She had utmost faith in God and He would help her. She got too feeble to live alone and spent her last days with her daughter, Mrs. G. P. Squires, of Sweetwater. She was ill for some time. She would be very ill, and then better. She lived out her days and God called her home. Her influence was for good. She attended services at her church as long as she was able. When the summer revivals started, she would be there. She would attend the Methodist revival like her own. She was loved and respected by one and all. She had many good friends, for to know her was to love her. She was a worker as long as she was able to work, and was a Bible reader. She is gone, but is not forgotten. Her children and other relatives will miss her.

Her relatives would celebrate her birthday on February 26 and a large crowd would attend, but alas, they would have to say goodbye and leave for home. I have often thought that there would not be any goodbyes in Heaven. The reunions with relatives and friends would be forevermore. She is forever at rest.

She is survived by three daughters, Mrs. G. P. Squires of Sweetwater, Mrs. Della Phillips of Crystal City and Mrs. Vivian Pruett of Iredell. They did all for her that could be done. Mrs. Squires and Mrs. Phillips were at her bedside when she passed away. She leaves 25 grandchildren, 64 great-grandchildren, and a number of nieces and other relatives and a host of friends.

The remains were brought to Iredell for the funeral and burial, at her own request. She wanted Rev. Willingham, a former Methodist pastor, to preach her funeral. She was their neighbor and liked them so much, and they loved her.

The funeral was in charge of Barrow-Rutledge Funeral Home of Hico. Rev. Willingham, a pastor now at Fort Worth, brought a beautiful message and paid a glowing tribute to her memory. The floral offerings were beautiful. Rev. Wallace assisted Rev. Willingham. The funeral was in the Methodist church. A large crowd of relatives and friends attended. Some of her grandsons were pallbearers. She looked natural and had a smile. The remains were laid to rest in the new cemetery in the lot belonging to Mrs. Bertha Dennis, by the side of her sons.

A very large crowd of relatives and friends from out of town attended the funeral. Hope to have the list next week.

The relatives have the sympathy of their friends in the loss of their loved one. The remains were brought to the home of her daughter, Mrs. Pruett, on Monday. The funeral was Tuesday afternoon.

Word of Caution
Concerning Rabies
Given by Dr. Cox

Wherever there is an over population of biting animals whose natural defense is their teeth, and which travel along the ground, there is a potential danger of a rabies outbreak.

This is the word from State Health Officer Geo. W. Cox concerning the disease which is currently flaring over East Texas. Wild foxes and skunks are chiefly responsible for the East Texas trouble, Dr. Cox said, and urged residents to take strong measures against them.

"There's a law prohibiting the sale of pelts during December or January, but there is no law to prevent killing them any time they can be caught in a rifle sight," the health official declared.

He described rabies as being of two types—"dumb" and "furious." Either type is one hundred percent fatal to animals and humans once the symptoms develop. And, he added, any warm blooded animal, including birds, can contract the disease.

Disclaiming the classical mad dog with its frothing jaws as "misleading," he explained that a rabid dog's appearance frequently led the owner to suspect a bone lodged in its throat.

"More than one owner has forced a dog's mouth open to investigate, and made himself liable to rabies exposure," Cox said.

He urged that suspected animals be put in care of a veterinarian for observation, and declared that a definite change in behavior is usually the first symptom of infection. Livestock losses have been high in the eastern section of the state, the health officer said, but indicated that they are heightened when wary farmers kill valuable stock because they suspect rabies.

He said that of the 127 sow heads sent to the State Health Department laboratories for examination this year, only 38 of them were positive, indicating the others had been killed without allowing sufficient time for observation.

Nurses Needed for Positions Now Open at McCloskey VA Center

A need for nurses at McCloskey Veterans Administration Center was reported yesterday by Dr. L. M. Cochran, manager. Starting pay for junior grade nurses is $3,400.00 per year; for the higher grades, initial pay is based on the applicant's education, training and past experience.

Nurses work a five-day, forty-hour week; ample facilities are available on the hospital grounds for their off-duty recreation and relaxation. Modern living quarters and full subsistence will be furnished at a reasonable charge to all unencumbered nurses who desire them.

All interested nurses under 40 years of age who hold currently effective registration certificates, or who will soon graduate from approved schools of nursing, are urged to apply for appointment by letter or in person to Mr. James R. Harrison, personnel officer, Veterans Administration Center, Temple, Texas.

Smith-Doxey Services For Cotton Improvement Offered to Farmers

Dallas, May 15—Applications for the Smith-Doxey cotton services were mailed this week to every group of farmers organized for cotton improvement, according to Mr. Sam W. Martin, who is in charge of the Dallas Cotton Classing Office, U. S. Department of Agriculture's Production and Marketing Administration.

"Farmers can get their 1951 cotton crop classed without paying a fee and USDA market prices mailed them every week without cost, if they belong to a cotton improvement group," Martin said.

Congress provided for these USDA services in the Smith-Doxey Act, passed in 1937, to encourage farmers to grow improved varieties of cotton particularly adapted to their soil.

"Applications should be returned to this office as soon as all farmers in the group have planted their cotton," Martin emphasized.

Farmers not in cotton improvement groups are urged to join. Details about the program can be secured from the county agent's office and the county PMA office.

Navy Tells Plans for Releasing Reservists Beginning In July

New Orleans, May 22.—Plans for releasing naval reservists on active duty have been announced by Eighth Naval District headquarters here.

In July the Navy will begin releasing enlisted Volunteer Reservists who were recalled to active duty from a non-pay drill status. Initially about 1,000 of these reservists will be released monthly. Individual reservists with orders to active duty were cautioned against inadvertent violation of the Navy-wide policy "orders are orders." A person in such circumstances is strongly advised not to disregard his most recent orders, or make plans to take action in contemplation of any change except one authorized via official orders.

By October the release rate will approximate 6,000 monthly, about a third of whom will be Organized Reservists, and the remainder Volunteer Reservists.

District headquarters had no immediate figures on the number of reservists who will be released in the five-state district, but said a "proportionate amount" would be allocated from the national figure of 6,000 per month.

The Navy needs the services of its reserve officers and they will generally be required to serve a minimum period of 21 months. Thus, a release program for Naval reserve officers will not go into effect before April, 1952.

Determination of when a reservist is to be released is based on his individual essentiality; whether he was in drill-pay reserve status when recalled, and whether or not he is a veteran of World War II.

Rear Admiral William K. Phillips, USN, Eighth Naval District Commandant, said the plan is designed to insure prompt release as soon as practicable of naval reservists who served in World War II, particularly those ordered into active service from an inactive status.

"The plan is based on the needs of the service, and on the overall world situation," he explained. The announcement, the Navy said, followed the military services release plans, announced May 3, by Rep. Overton Brooks, Chairman of the House Subcommittee on Reserve Affairs.

HOUSE AND HOME

SUCCESSFUL WASHING of slipcovers depends upon their being washable, shrink-proof and colorfast. This can be checked by washing a sample left from the tailoring. Cut out a square, and trace on a sheet of paper. After washing and ironing several times, check with tracing as to size.

Colorfastness can be determined by a simple test: dip a piece of the material in sudsy solution, squeeze and then press on a white cloth or a blotter. If color runs, it will stain the cloth. Slipcovers are not difficult to wash, especially in a machine, but it's best to do one at a time. Heavy materials, especially, are better done a piece at a time for easy handling when wet.

Use a vacuum or a whisk broom while the covers are still on chair or sofa. This will get rid of accumulated dust in seams, cordings, corners.

RECIPE OF THE WEEK

Cranberry Refresher

(Serves 6)

2 cups cranberry juice cocktail

1 1/2 cups pineapple juice

2 1/2 cups grapefruit juice

Mix chilled juices. Serve in frosted glasses, made by wetting the rims and dipping in crushed white after dinner mints. Add ice cubes, with a maraschino cherry frozen in the center of each.

Notice the areas which are especially soiled when you remove the slipcovers. Arm and head rests, particularly, will be heavily soiled. Scrub these before washing with a small hand brush before washing the cover.

Water for washing should not be more than 100° F. Water which is hot may ruin slipcovers which would otherwise be colorfast. Use rich soap or detergent suds.

Slipcovers should be hung from parallel clothes' lines for best drying. Pin chair cover back to one line and front of arms to the second line.

Pull chair covers into shape as much as possible while they hang to dry. The more wrinkles that can be smoothed out while wet, the less there will be to ironing the cover.

Health Hazards of Atomic Bomb to Be Studied at Austin

Austin, May 22.—Radiological health hazards involved in civil defense will come under five days of intensive study at a short course to be conducted at the State Department of Health in Austin beginning June 11. State Health Officer George W. Cox has announced.

Radiological hazards result from atomic bombing, being one of the bomb's most dangerous aspects.

Designed primarily to indoctrinate supervisory personnel in the essentials of radiation defense so they can conduct training programs in their own communities, Dr. Cox said the course would be held each month during the summer for a different class of participants.

The health officer said the study is open to:

Representatives of counties or cities where radiological defense is not vested in local health departments; supervisory or professional personnel of local health departments; representatives of state departments engaged in civil defense work; fire and police training officers or instructors; and members of industrial medical or safety departments contemplating in-plant programs.

Dr. Cox, chief of Texas health and emergency medical services, summarized the course as covering:

Where radiological defense fits into overall civil defense activities; definition of radiation language and units; radiation physics; theory and application of instruments; atomic bomb phenomena; area and personnel monitoring (checking for radioactivity); uses of radiation and radiostypes; radiation protection and decontamination; psychology of disaster; and organization of local communities for radiological defense.

Lectures will be supplemented by laboratory exercises and demonstrations, Dr. Cox said, and time will be spent on review of physics, chemistry, and the mathematics required for calculations.

"We're going to put on a really worthwhile course," he indicated. "The army is going to help us."

He said additional courses would be held as "necessity demanded."

No tuition will be charged. Applications should be submitted to Dr. Cox at the State Department of Health in Austin, and include education and background of applicants. Trainees are expected to arrange their own travel and living conditions while attending the course.

One of the highlights of Armed Forces Day will be a special broadcast featuring Edward R. Murrow, ace reporter for the Columbia Broadcasting System. Mark this a "must" on your "good listening" calendar. Mr. Murrow will be heard during the "Stars on Parade" radio show.

U. S. SIGNAL CORPS IN NEED OF SPECIALISTS — Veterans with experience in radio and radar are urgently needed by the Signal Corps of the U. S. Army. Interested applicants will find complete information at the nearest U. S. Army and U. S. Air Force Recruiting Office.

NATL. SERVICE LIFE INS. DIVIDEND CHECKS BEGIN TO ROLL — The Veterans Administration announces that 150,000 dividend checks have been mailed to veteran policy holders of GI insurance. According to the present plan, the same amount will be mailed each month until 8,000,000 policy holders receive their slice of the "melon." Payments will average $85. This, the second dividend to be paid, covers the period from birthdate of the policy in 1948 to the birthdate in 1951.

WOMEN'S ARMY CORPS IN NEED OF SPECIALISTS — Approximately 30,000 women are needed in the WACs to fill the many job vacancies now open. The Army has nothing but praise for the fine job the WACs have done and is hoping that Miss America answers this call. Interested applicants will find complete details at their local U. S. Army Air Force Recruiting Office.

THE NEW "QUALITATIVE DISTRIBUTION" OF MANPOWER program for the Armed Forces becomes effective on June 1. Under this plan, the Army, Air Force, and Navy are to receive men from all four categories of enlistees, determined by the results of mental and physical examinations. In other words, a proportionate share of highly intelligent men in good physical condition will go to each service, as well as those qualifying in lower brackets. This is a sort of a rationing plan. During May, however, applicants for enlistment in these services will be placed in the service of their choice without regard to their test results, providing they meet minimum requirements. A man who meets the minimum requirements and desires to join the Army may do so now, but under the new plan next month it would be possible for him to find his group quota in the Army full, forcing him to choose another service, if he wanted to enlist anyway. Those men considering an enlistment would be wise to enlist under current regulations.

A VETERAN WHO RETAINED HIS NATIONAL SERVICE LIFE INSURANCE during the last three years will receive a dividend computed at 50 cents per month per thousand dollars of insurance. This would figure out to $180 for a $10,000 Term Policy held from 1948 to 1951. Men in the service now will not only receive the dividend, but can receive their future insurance without cost.

EXPANSION OF THE AIR FORCE'S AVIATION CADET TRAINING FACILITIES is now underway, promising a more rapid call-up of cadet applicants in the near future. Appointments are now issued on a first come, first served basis; a change from the former procedure of educational priorities.

PEOPLE TELEPHONING AN AIR FORCE SQUADRON DOWN IN FLORIDA are often confused by the identification of the answerer. Seems there's a Sergeant Major on duty by the surname of Major. Also, there's a Major named Sergeant. "Hello Sergeant Major Major spaking. Would you like to speak with Major Sergeant?" Somebody has to transfer. See you in the papers.

Prayer Gives Mental Strength

ON MY DESK is a touching and inspiring letter from Molly Rael, Los Angeles, Calif. When Molly was a little girl of 11, her mother was suddenly taken ill. Although Molly was one of nine children, her mother had carried the homemaking burden almost single-handed, and Molly had never realized the responsibilities of a home until now.

But at that early age, she had to do most of the cooking and housekeeping. Her sisters and brothers, all older than she, were either in college or working at jobs. This left only little Molly to take care of her mother, in addition to the other work.

After two weeks, her mother was ordered to the hospital. Molly watched the internes place her mother on a stretcher and take her out of the house. She felt as if her heart within her had turned to stone; she never expected to see her beloved mother come home again. She couldn't talk; she couldn't cry.

That evening when her brothers and sisters came home, they found their home a dismal place, such as it never before had been. There was little conversation to penetrate the gloom. Suddenly one of her brothers suggested that all of them stay up during the night and pray for their mother's recovery. All agreed. They decided to keep busy at something so they wouldn't fall asleep, but never to stop praying even for one minute. All of them knew there was little hope for their mother; knew that the doctors did not expect her to live. That was a night never to be forgotten by the young members of that family.

The next morning nine young people were heartened as if by a miracle. The doctor called them to say that their mother had opened her eyes, a sign of returning strength which he had not expected. Three weeks later she was at home again, on the road to recovery.

Molly says she knows more people have recovered from severe illnesses with no prayer said over them, but nothing will ever make her believe that their prayers didn't help. Even if they had not, their faith and their keeping themselves busy, freed them from worry and gave them the necessary spiritual and mental strength to face their trial.
