SERIOUS BLAZE AT PALESTINE.

Claim and Accounting Records of I. & G. N. Destroyed.

Friday's Houston Chronicle.
Palestine, Texas, October 20.—Last night about 10 o'clock a very costly fire started in the frame building occupied by the freight claim and freight accounting department of the International & Great Northern railroad.

A heavy wind was blowing and the contents were a complete loss. These are two of the most important departments of the road and are under J. H. Pusch and F. M. Hutchinson.

About 75 men are employed in these departments and they will be put to work as soon as buildings can be found.

There is no estimating the loss, which will run up to many thousands of dollars. The building was worth about $2000, but the records of these departments cannot be replaced. Not a book was saved, and, although the road carried insurance on the building and contents, the loss is enormous.

New I. & G. N. Offices.

From Monday's Houston Chronicle.
Palestine, Texas, October 23.—The I. & G. N. R. Co. has closed a deal for the upstairs of the Dilley brick and the one just west on Main street for temporary offices for the departments burned out last week. The partitions in these buildings will all be torn out and the space thrown into two big rooms, to be used by the freight claim and freight accounting departments. New furniture, etc., will be ordered at once, and everything made as convenient as possible.

DISTRICT COURT NEWS.

Crockett, Texas, October 24.—The following are the proceedings in district court to date:

Geo. Williams vs I. & G. N. railroad Co., suit for personal injuries, verdict for plaintiff for $1,250.

F. H. Bayne vs G. M. Waller, city marshal, injunction proceeding, cause pending.

Three divorce cases have been tried, one refused and court has the other two under advisement.

State vs Jesse Box, forgery and uttering forged instrument. Defendant entered a plea of guilty and was given two years by jury.

State vs Henry Marlin, theft of cattle, plea of guilty entered and defendant given two years in state penitentiary.

Attorneys Ned Morris, Tom Harris and Henry Meyers of Palestine were here this week attending district court.

The number of people attending district court this week is the largest known in years.

District Attorney McDonald has the criminal cases in good shape. Judge Gardner is rushing business, and, by his genial and courteous treatment of all parties concerned, is making many friends.

The number of chattel mortgages filed to date is 1,454. This compared with same date last year shows a decrease of 20 per cent.

Hon. W. B. Page and wife have gone north to be absent several weeks. Before they return they will visit their old home in Virginia.

NOTICE SUBSCRIBERS.

A late ruling of the Postoffice Department is to the effect that all subscriptions to newspapers and magazines must be paid in advance or they will be deprived of the second class postage rates. Heretofore it has been optional with newspaper people whether or not they collected subscriptions in advance, but now Uncle Sam demands it. This new ruling goes into effect November the first. We do not want to loose any of our subscribers on this account, but if your subscription has expired prior to that time, your name will be dropped from our list. Wonder if the big Sunday papers would make good soap. The Houston Post ought to make a whole tubful.

No, he'd die with hydrophobia in two hours.

The Messenger would like to see the literary society organized again in connection with the school this winter. Some good times were had last year and its highly entertaining to hear the boys chew the rag on good questions. Let's organize.

'Tis a poor kind of religion that wont follow a man from the church pew into his home circle and into his business.

How many peach trees are you going to set out this fall? Surely you are going to set out a few at least. Through the aid of the fruit business Grapeland is going to be famous and you ought to be right in the front row.

A man can ruin the happiness of his home by thoughtless selfishness. He thinks he loves his wife and children because he toils for their support—and the world needs no greater evidence that he does love them—but when he continually reminds them of the expense they are to him, the happiness of that home gradually decreases.

Those people who went west will return and don't you worry. The tide will turn. A short crop always causes a feeling of unrest in any community, and the crop in East Texas is certainly a failure this year, but just wait till one of those drouths hit West Texas and the people will return in droves and bunches.

A criminal in Chicago has got a cinch on life so far as having his neck broken is concerned. He was tried for murder, convicted and the death penalty assessed, but he declared hanging would not kill him as he was a victim of solidification of the bones and tissues of the neck, a malady technically known as "ostia spondilitis." His neck is elongated and as hard to the touch as a stone. He was imprisoned for life.

The recent heavy rains have put the roads in a bad condition. Farmers coming in town report lots of places impassible. This should be looked after for good roads are essential to prosperity.

A few months yet in which to pay your poll tax. But don't you think it would be better to pay now and get that much off your mind? Next year is going to be a warm number in state and county politics and of course you will want to vote. Pay your poll tax and vote or don't pay it and be disfranchised.

The Houston Chronicle has just completed the fourth year of its existence, and in honor of that event issued a souvenir album last Sunday, October 22, consisting of 112 pages. This book is printed on very fine paper with a cover in colors that is a work of art. The design pictures the frozen north and is blended down to the beautiful sunny south with Houston in the center, surrounded by fruits and flowers, cotton, rice, etc., each brought out in its own natural color or tint. The first feature after passing the cover is a panorama view of the business district of the city. Following this is a graphic description of Houston and South Texas. The price of the Souvenir Album is 25c and it is well worth it.

Let me sell you a farm right for the Plaster Automatic Gate. You can then put up as many gates as you want at very small cost.
Wyley Caskey.

Miss Maude Sory has returned home from a visit to the Lewis & Clark Exposition at Portland, Oregon. She reports a delightful trip.

T. B. Satterwhite of Crockett was in the city Monday looking for one of his fine mules which escaped from his lot last Saturday.

The Plaster Improved Gate.

The above is a cut of the Plaster Improved Gate. It is automatic. The object of the invention is to improve the construction of swinging gates and to provide a simple, inexpensive and efficient, one adapted to be opened in either direction and capable of being operated at a distance from either side by a person horseback or in a vehicle. It can be seen that the gate is exceedingly simple and inexpensive in construction. The simplicity in construction is such that any man of ordinary intelligence can erect one from the farm right that is for sale by Wyley Caskey of Grapeland to any one in Houston County. I warrant the above gate to be practical and durable, when constructed in accordance with the farm right. I will put up the gate for any man in the county in wood or iron. See me for prices

Wyley Caskey,

Grapeland, Texas.

TERRITORY FOR SALE.

GRAPELAND SCHOOL NOTES.

Hayden Harris of Groesbeck was the last one to enter school. He was enrolled with the sixth grade. The enrollment now stands at 175, which is exactly the number enrolled during the whole of last year.

The ninth grade are having a literary feast reading the Alhambra. Who could fail to be charmed while walking the enchanted palace of the Alhambra with such a word painter as Irving?

The school house flues have recently been repaired, sand boxes put under the stoves, the stove pipes re-adjusted and a fine pile of wood put in reach. Now let old winter come and see if we care.

Bob and Grady Scarborough have been out of school several days on account of sickness.

A few students went up to Palestine to see the big elephant Wednesday and of course "busted" on recitations Thursday.

More desk room is in demand. We would make some desks but for the fact that Driskill's models embrace every conceivable pattern and we are afraid we would infringe on his "patent."

Wish we had old Cerberus, that three headed dog that guarded Hades, to guard our wood pile against thieves. They have swiped more wood than we have burned during the last six months.

The high school pupils have an Imperial dictionary and a new encyclopedia at their disposal. They are making good use of these works of referrence.

The general history classes refuse to agree with that teacher who said in his speech at the teachers' institute that "preparation caused the Persians to win the battle of Arhela."

It has been suggested that the leading schools of the county organize an Inter-county Oratorical Association for the purpose of encouraging public speaking. Under the proposed plan, a valuable medal is to be worn by the champion. What think you of the plan?

The Intermediate Department said speeches Friday afternoon and spent a pleasant half hour. The following students recited: Lizzie Edens, Maud McCarty, Annie Rainey Hollingsworth, Hettie Harmon, Ori Sue Howard, Stovall White, Seth Wright Yarbrough. A new feature of the program was a dialogue by Ori Sue Howard, Maud McCarty, Fannie Mae Woodard and Myrtle Hickey. This was highly appreciated by the other students.

NORA BELLE BROWN.

Nora Belle Brown departed this life on Friday, October 20, age 12 years, 9 months and 12 days. Little Nora was a sweet girl, intelligent and of a sweet and pleasant disposition. She made friends wherever she went. It was the writer's good fortune to know her and a more pleasant and accommodating little lady we have never met. She had joined no church but we are informed that she had declared her intention of doing so when she reached her thirteenth year. She was a little more than past the age of accountability, but we are sure that she had not committed any sin in that short space of time that a merciful God would not pardon. In 12 short years she had won her way to the hearts of more people than has many of three score and ten. She will be sadly missed at home by her parents and sisters and by her little friends at school.

We feel sure that if there is such a place as heaven—and no sane and enlightened man ever has or ever will say from his heart there is not—then gentle reader, little Nora's spirit has returned to the God who gave it.

We are not in business for the amusement there is in it. We have our living to make. At the same time our profits are not of the "Get-rich-quick" variety. We are contented with a small profit and a satisfied customer. We believe in the motto "live and let live." We aim, at all times, to give you your money's worth. Some people think that a big bottle should cost a big price and a little bottle a little price. When we fill a prescription we charge according to the value of the drugs we put in it. The value depends upon what's in the bottle. Everything worth having has its price. You can perhaps afford to buy the cheap kind for some purposes, but when it comes to sickness no one wants to take chances for the sake of saving a little money. The best is the only thing that will do. Our rule is to charge you what we pay for the medicines, plus a living profit for ourselves. That's fair, isn't it?

She was buried in the Hays Springs cemetery Friday and the funeral was largely attended. Services were conducted by D. W. Martin.

be unacquainted with our work, the standing offer: to deposit $100 in a bank in this city, payable to you at the completion of a course, if it is not all we claim for it in our catalogue and other advertising matter. If you read our advertising matter you will notice we claim a great deal for these systems that could not justly be claimed by schools teaching other systems. Under this proposition the student takes no risk in enrolling after reading our advertising matter, for the $100 will more than pay his tuition, board, books and railroad fare. By these systems we are enabled to give you the most thorough and up-to-date course to be had, and in almost half the time and at half the cost. They were compiled by a practical business man to meet the demands of the business world, rather than the old time theory commercial schools. Every part of the systems is thoroughly practical and is taught on the plan of "learn to do by doing." To get the advantages of these famous systems, you will have to attend one of the Byrne System Business Colleges.
