BAR ENDORSEMENT.

Crockett Bar Endorses the Candidacy of Judge Newman for District Attorney.

Crockett, Texas, Feb. 20, 1906.
—To whom it may concern:— We, the undersigned members of the Crockett bar, hereby present to the democracy of the third judicial district of Texas, our unqualified endorsement of Hon.
Porter Newman's candidacy for the office of district attorney of said district, and we take pleasure in recommending him, both as a man and a lawyer, as in every respect worthy of the support of the people for the office to which he aspires.

Judge Newman was born and raised in this county, receiving his education in our public school. When he was about grown he was admitted to the bar, after thorough preparation, and for about six years applied himself diligently and built up a good practice, when he was elected county judge which office he has filled with a marked degree of success ever since.
Among the varied and difficult and responsible duties of his office, he has exhibited an administrative ability of a high order, and while many of the cases tried before him have been repealed, he has never yet been reversed. This fact alone is sufficient to establish his talent and ability as a lawyer.

We believe that if nominated and elected, he will make the district an excellent prosecuting attorney, and we bespeak for him that mete of success in his candidacy to which his high character as a man and his well known abilities as a lawyer so justly entitle him. Respectfully, J. W. Madden, Aldrich &
Crook, L. A. Salas, J. F. Duren,

San Pedro News.

We are having such fine weather that the farm lands and gardens have changed considerably of late.

Mrs. Bettie Brown has been quite sick for several weeks, but is better at this writing.

Mrs. Leona Fuller of Indian Territory is visiting Wm. Stowe and family.

Our school, under care of Miss Pearl Lucas, is progressing, although quite a small number of attendants as there is so much brush to burn.

Whittaker Bros. saw mill is doing good business, cuts from 6 to 8 thousand per day.

The young folks of San Pedro and adjoining communities were pleasantly entertained at W. H.

FROM DR. ROBERTSON.

He is Pretty Well Pleased With the Outlook of the Pearsall Country.

Pearsall, Texas, Feb 18.— Dear Kid:—I write this to tell you that we have moved from where we are living now and hope you'll note the change on your subscription list.

The Lytle country was all right, but we decided to seek larger fields, hence the change.

Pearsall, as possibly you know is the capitol of Frio county, situated 53 miles south of San Antonio and 100 miles north of Laredo and is the biggest and best town between these points. We have somewhere between 1500 and 2000 people and about everything in the way of public improvements usually found in a modern community of this size.
For instance, we have a modern two story school building (a thing Grapeland needs very badly) six churches, two banks, several modern stores and small ones galore, a full quota of lawyers and three physicians, one of whom your humble servant is which, and by the way, we have two newspapers and a magazine published in town. One of the papers, "The Leader," has a thoroughly well equipped office and besides their own paper, publishes the State Journal of Irrigation. We'll add that this is a prohibition county, consequently we have no saloons.

Say, Kid, why don't you talk the Colonel out of transportation and run down to see us some time? We'd be awfully glad to see you and incidentally we'd show the best and prettiest country you ever saw. I guess I might as well close since I can't think of anything to write. I really hope you'll accept this invitation and run down to see us.
We'd make it as pleasant as possible and I think this country would be a revelation to you as it was to us. Good bye.

Your friend,
H. S. ROBERTSON.

(Many thanks for the invitation, doctor. Really I hadn't thought about going down, but since you've mentioned it I will test the Colonel's generosity and if successful I'll run down for a day or two some time in the near future.—Kid.)

A Big Deal.

One of the finest farms in Houston county changed hand-last week when Mr. A. K. Fretz of Pratt, Kan., bought the farm of Mr. D. W. Martin.

This farm is located three miles west of Grapeland in the Hays Spring community, and consists of 390 acres of as fine land as can be found in East Texas. About 200 acres are in cultivation and an orchard of fifty acres of bearing peach trees.
The entire tract is fenced and cross fenced with hog proof wire.
The improvements are all modern and up-to-date. The residence is a commodious two story building, a large barn, blacksmith shop, two tenant houses and numerous other buildings.
The farm is well watered by live spring branches. The church and school building stands within 40 yards of the residence. Mr.
Fretz will have the benefit of the daily mail service and telephone connection. He also purchased all of Mr. Martin's live stock, feed stuff, farming implements and about 7000 feet of lumber.

Mr. Fretz is a practical farmer of years' experience, having followed the occupation in Kansas.
He is well versed on everything in that line and his coming among us will be a valuable adjunct to our people. We extend him a hearty welcome to one of the best communities in Texas.

IS MUSIC IN THE HOME WORTH ITS COST?

Are Members of the Family Benefitted In Proportion to The Sum Expended for Musical Culture?

Probably no person in Texas has given more freely of his time and abilities for the encouragement of musical culture in this state than has Mr. WILL A. WATKIN, the leading piano dealer of Dallas. It is doubtful if any other man in the state has given as much serious thought to music as a means of culture and refinement in the home.

Mr. Watkin was recently asked, "Is music in the home worth its cost? That is, is there in Texas evidence of any great advancement in the people's musical culture during the past ten years?"

Mr. Watkin replied that there is no reason for any discouragement in contemplating the large sum of money that has been expended by Texans for musical instruction, musical instruments, and their liberal patronage of musical attractions.

He said further: "Consider the families, either in the cities, smaller towns or country, wherein the children have been furnished musical advantages.
Contrast these with other families in the same localities that have never been given any musical opportunities.
Viewed from this standpoint and asking yourself the question, 'In which of these families have the children shown to the best advantage,' would you not without hesitation, agree that music in the home is worth more than its cost? In fact, musical culture, like other intellectual advancement, or like good morals, cannot be valued by dollars."

Nearly a quarter of a century ago, Mr. Watkin says, when he first sold pianos in Texas, few artistic pianos were sold, principally cheap grades, excepting now and then a very costly instrument.

The Watkin Art Style Piano, a superb instrument, which today sells readily for $375, would have sold quite as readily in those days for $550 or $600.

Twenty-five years ago, while pianos were sold on installments, the payments were larger than many people could meet.

Today an instrument like the Watkin Piano is purchasable for very small monthly payments.

These facilities for securing instruments enable almost every family to own a piano, and of course, a piano is about the first requisite for family musical culture.

Again, twenty-five years ago piano teachers were comparatively few in number, while to-day almost every community has not only a piano teacher, but one of excellent abilities.

The editor of this paper is authorized to state that any of its readers desiring information pertaining to pianos and the prices of the various makes, or information relating to the most improved methods as now employed by the great teachers, will receive prompt attention by addressing with a 2-cent stamp enclosed,

WILL A. WATKIN

THE WANT COLUMN.

D. J. CATER announces in this issue as a candidate for reelection to the office of county treasurer of Houston county, subject to the action of the democratic primaries. Mr. Cater has filled this office two years and so far as we know has given entire satisfaction. He greatly appreciates the support of the good people of the county heretofore given him and respectfully solicits your vote and influence in the coming election.

FOR DISTRICT CLERK.

Joe Brown Stanton comes before the people again for reelection to the office of District Clerk. Mr. Stanton is now serving his third term which is pretty good evidence that he is giving satisfaction.

He will appreciate your support and influence.

HON. PORTER NEWMAN FOR DISTRICT ATTORNEY.

Judge Porter Newman of Crockett announces in this issue of the Messenger for District Attorney of the third judicial of Texas. Speaking of Judge Newman's candidacy, the Crockett Courier has the following to say: "Mr. Newman is a Houston county product, being born, reared and educated on a farm at Augusta, in the northern part of the county. Soon after attaining his majority he came to Crockett and began the study of law. He was a close student and soon became a member of the Crockett bar. He was for a short time engaged in the newspaper business, being at one time editor of the Enterprise. Retiring from the newspaper business, he was building up a nice law practice when he offered for the office of county judge of Houston county. Securing the nomination, he has served his constituency faithfully and well for two terms, being re-elected at the expiration of his first term. The democracy of the district could not do better than nominate and elect Porter Newman to the responsible office of District Attorney."

It is an admitted fact that the Southern Cotton Association has done much to keep up the high price of cotton. They are now asking the co-operation of the farmers by reducing acreage. They say the acreage should be reduced at least 25 per cent below last year. Farmers can do this by diversifying.

HE'S "BILIN" HOT
We've made one of our friends and subscribers "bilin" hot. He has even gone so far as to have his paper stopped. It is sad to think that our subscription book will no longer be burdened with his name, but God bless his old stingy hide there are six new ones to take his place this week and were it not for this fact, no doubt the Messenger would have to suspend publication. We dislike the idea of making enemies, but it seems inevitable in this case, so we'll have to make the best of it. No doubt the good old brother will get over this attack of insanity by the time the spring birds begin to sing.

The following note reproduced just as written, will explain why the good brother is so infuriated:

Editor Messenger,
You will please discontinue my paper if I cannot have the privilege of other subscribers. This is the second time my communications have found the waste basket in that office.

The article referred to was a long one of a personal nature which nobody could possibly be interested in and we consigned it to the waste basket because we didn't have room for such stuff. This is all there is to it and the old man is mad enough to fight an enraged tull because his "important article" was omitted.

He has our permission to go to thunder which he'll likely do.

WE HAVE it on good authority that the city fathers are perfecting arrangements to clean up the town and make some much needed improvements. The work cannot be done too soon for the summer months will soon be here and we should have everything in good sanitary condition.

Pirating Foleys Honey and Tar.

Foley & Co. of Chicago, originated Honey and Tar as a throat and lung remedy, and on account of the great merit and popularity of Foley's Honey and Tar many imitations are offered for the genuine. These worthless imitations have similar sounding names. Beware of them. The genuine Foley's Honey and Tar is in a yellow package. Ask for it and refuse any substitute. It is the best remedy for coughs and colds. Carleton & Porter.

One would think the Laxative idea in a cough syrup should have been advanced long before it was. It seems the only rational remedy for coughs and colds would be to move the bowels and clean the mucous membranes of the throat and lungs at the same time. Kennedy's Laxative Honey and Tar does this. It is the Original Laxative Cough Syrup, the best known cough remedy for coughs, colds, croup, whooping cough, etc. Tastes good and harmless. Carleton & Porter.
