Panama accused of drug trafficking

WASHINGTON (AP) — Sen. Bob Dole said today a closed Senate session might be necessary to discuss his allegations that "the present government of Panama is involved in drug trafficking operations."

Byrd called the allegations "a matter of concern." But the majority leader, a supporter of ratification, said "the bottomline, mud-sill question is whether it is in the interest of the United States for the Senate to give its approval to these treaties."

and general public because it involved classified defense information. Senate Minority Leader Howard Baker, R-Tenn., met with President Carter at the White House this morning and said later he believes the treaty debate has begun changing attitudes of senators in favor of the agreements, which require a two-thirds vote for ratification.

"I have not changed it (his vote count) since the debate began Monday, but I think attitudes are changing somewhat," Baker said.

Digest

Flu now epidemic

ATLANTA (AP) — Medical experts here have confirmed what half-empty office buildings around the country have been witness to for the last month — the flu has reached epidemic proportions in the United States.

The national Center for Disease Control reported that there were more than 3,000 deaths attributed to influenza and pneumonia in the United States in the last four weeks, 1,000 more than were expected.

On the basis of those figures, the center said Thursday it had concluded that influenza had reached epidemic proportions.

Center officials said most of the damage is being done by older strains of the virus, although cases of the new Russian flu have been reported in Wyoming, Colorado, Michigan, Texas and New York.

Other viruses, including the more familiar A-Texas and A-Victoria strains, have been reported in practically every state, the center said.

Many of the cases reported so far have been among young military personnel, and their recovery has been rapid.

The center said Russian flu recently struck the U.S. Military Academy at West Point, N.Y., affecting more than half the 4,400 cadets at the institution. Another outbreak at the U.S. Air Force Academy in Colorado hit more than 60 percent of the 4,200 enrolled there.

Real computer goof

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — Real estate men who haven't received their 1978 licenses can blame a computer failure, the Texas Real Estate Commission said Thursday.

"License preparation is being performed in part by night work in an effort to issue the licenses as soon as possible," the commission said.

Persons who applied properly for renewal are considered licensed as of Jan. 1, regardless of whether they have the piece of paper saying they are, it added.

More liquor tax collected

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — Texas mixed drink sales leaped 25.7 per cent in 1977, to more than half a billion dollars, Comptroller Bob Bullock said Thursday.

Bullock said the $540 million in sales last year produced $38.3 million in taxes for the state, $8.1 million for counties and $7.5 million for cities.

In the fourth quarter alone, sales of liquor by the drink totaled $144 million, the highest for any quarter since mixed drink sales were legalized seven years ago, the comptroller said.

Lebanon truce wavering

BEIRUT, Lebanon (AP) — Sniper fire triggered sporadic clashes today between Syrian troops and Lebanese Christian militiamen, imperiling a fragile truce arranged after three days of heavy fighting in which 150 were reported killed and 250 wounded.

The fighting, the worst since the Lebanese civil war was ended by a predominantly Syrian peacekeeping force in November 1976, apparently was sparked by Christian protests over Syrian efforts to stiffen security arrangements at a Lebanese army garrison.

Hospital ruling appealed

AUSTIN — The Texas Health Facilities Commission is appealing a district court ruling it claims could have a devastating effect on health law throughout the state.

Specifically at issue is whether Henrick Medical Center in Abilene can construct an empty five-story shell on top of a planned two-story building.

The Health Facilities Commission said no, but the hospital appealed. District Judge Herman Jones of Austin ruled in Henrick's favor last Sept. 8.

William D. Darling, general counsel for the commission, said if not overturned, the ruling could be a major setback to state law designed for an orderly growth of hospital facilities.

Acting for the commission, Assistant Attorney General Caria Cox this week asked the Third Court of Civil Appeals in Austin to overturn Jones' ruling.

The case probably will go from there to the Texas Supreme Court.

The legal fight started in September 1976 when the commission approved construction of two floors for physical therapy and clinical laboratory work at the

Farmers plow into 'Prophets of Doom'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Texas farmers plowed into the government's "Prophets of Doom" during the concluding session of hearings this week before the House Agriculture Committee.

Jerome Friemel of Hereford said Thursday that Congress spent "much energy and research in the creation of the 1977 Farm Bill," but the legislation has been rejected by America's farmers.

"It could be time to question the sources of information on the farm problem and its possible solutions," the West Texas grain farmer added. "Many of your high-ranking advisers and economists seem to offer no solutions—they are only Prophets of Gloom—who believe that there is absolutely no solution to the problems of the family farmer."

"It may well be time to seek solutions from other sources, new minds that have a positive attitude toward the problem and really believe that there is a solution."

The cure-all, according to farmers, bankers, implement dealers and other agribusinessmen, is 100 percent parity, the prime demand of the American Agriculture Movement which sparked the committee hearings following more than a month of rallies and lobbying on Capitol Hill.

The hearings will resume Tuesday.

"Many in the administration presently in power in Washington seem to have difficulty with the term parity," said Friemel. "They treat it as though it is a dirty word... parity is the quality or condition of being equal or equivalent... so we are, in reality, speaking of equality; equality for the producers of food and fiber in the United States."

The Agriculture Department estimates farmers are receiving an average of 65 percent parity for their crops.

Like most of their counterparts from other states, Texans came to the committee hearings armed with statistics showing the built-in loss to farmers under the current price structure.

Lazbuddie farmer Jerry Don Glover testified that his costs per acre in 1977 totaled $126.28 compared to a maximum income per acre of $112.50.

"I will lose less money by destroying the wheat than I will by producing it," he said. "I believe this will be the rule rather than the exception in my area. When I consider my loss in 1977 and my locked-in loss of 1978, under our tax structure, there is no way to legally repay such a deficit."

Testifying in a room crowded with more than 100 farmers, Hart grain dealer-farmer DeWayne Brown noted.

Howard County gross sales tax

Howard County has a total of $178,223,235 in gross sales during the third quarter of the fiscal year, according to reports from the Austin office of State Comptroller Bob Bullock.

Other area counties also showed a sizable sales figure for the period. These counties included: Glasscock, $298,111; Dawson, $30,529,348; Martin, $8,322,405; and Mitchell, $9,515,109.

Bullock said Wednesday that reported gross sales in Texas for the third quarter of 1977 totaled $41.4 billion, a 20 per cent increase over the same three-month period the previous year.

The sales totals for July, August and September bring the nine-month total for last year to $118.6 billion. Gross sales for 1976 totaled $142.4 billion, Bullock noted.

The third-quarter figures are based on reports filed by some 245,000 business outlets.

"When gross sales for the fourth quarter of 1977 are tabulated, we expect the total sales for the year will show a substantial increase over 1976," Bullock said.

The figures are contained in two computer analyses released by Bullock's office.

One breaks down gross sales by county and the other by Standard Metropolitan Statistical Area (SMSA).

Totals for the 25 SMSAs are further divided into 21 different classes of sales, such as agriculture, mining, manufacturing and retail.

Harris County led the state in gross sales for the third quarter with a total of $10.3 billion, up 20.2 per cent over the same period of 1976.

Gross sales in Dallas County for the third quarter totaled $6.4 billion, while Tarrant County recorded $2.5 billion and Bexar County $1.9 billion.

Damage was estimated at $260.

Cubans involved in 'combat'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Some 2,000 Cubans are involved "in combat roles" on the side of Ethiopia in its conflict with Somalia, dampening U.S. hopes of improved relations with Havana, says Secretary of State Cyrus R. Vance.

The estimate goes beyond earlier State Department figures tying Cubans to the Ogaden desert fighting. Vance cited the new numbers Thursday in a speech to a group of business leaders at the State Department.

The Somalis have been reporting Cuban involvement both in ground fighting and in jet fighter attacks since the level of hostilities began increasing a few weeks ago.

Nearly a week ago, a State Department official confirmed the probable truth of Somali reports that Cubans were flying Soviet-made aircraft in dawn to midnight attacks on Somalia.

Somali-backed insurgents have managed to gain control over large sections of the Ogaden, the region along Ethiopia's eastern border with Somalia.

The Soviet Union began assuming a military presence in Ethiopia after the United States left the country last April under pressure from the new Marxist government.

Three months later, the Somalis broke a military pact with the Soviets and have been without a source of arms or military advisers, as the U.S. has refused to aid the Somalis, seen as the aggressor in the conflict.

"The Cubans are playing an increasingly active role in Africa in terms of the number of people they have sent to Africa and in the countries in which they are involved," he said.

"This is particularly true in such recent events as the conflict in the Ogaden, where they have some 2,000 people actually involved in a combat role, according to our best statistics, and more probably on the way."

Vance's report reflected increased U.S. concern with a Cuban presence that his department said last November involved 27,000 men in 16 African countries, mostly in Angola.

Weather Warming trend will continue

By the Associated Press

Cold, cloudy weather settled in over Texas today, but there was no precipitation, frozen or otherwise, reported in the state.

Some light drizzle was reported in the Houston area during the night, but by daybreak, no rain, snow, sleet or freezing rain was being reported for the first time since Monday evening.

Temperatures in most of the ice and snow covered areas of North Texas were expected to reach high enough to melt some of the ice and snow cover. Early morning temperatures remained below freezing across most of the area and most roads had a thin glaze of ice on them, causing hazardous driving conditions.

Some fog was reported in the Piney Woods of East Texas and in portions of the Panhandle, but visibility was greater than one mile.

Early morning temperatures ranged from the teens in the Panhandle and in far North Texas to the 40s in the Lower Rio Grande Valley. Early morning extremes ranged from 14 at Wichita Falls to 42 at Brownsville.

FORECAST

WEST TEXAS — Partly cloudy today and tonight. Warmer today and not as cold tonight. Widely scattered rain north and extreme west tonight. Scattered rain most sections Saturday and warmer south. Miners: 'Vote it down'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Hundreds of angry miners opposed to a tentative contract jammed United Mine Workers headquarters today as the union's bargaining council gathered to decide whether to submit the agreement to a rank-and-file vote.

"Vote it down," they shouted as bargaining council members arrived. Some carried petitions seeking the ouster of union President Arnold Miller.

Union officials said about 500 demonstrators had arrived from Ohio, Kentucky, Pennsylvania and West Virginia.

Before the miners arrived in buses and cars, angry leaders in the Appalachian coalfields had pressured bargaining council members to reject the contract.

The union has been on strike for 67 days.

Jerry Ames, who arrived this morning from Wheeling, W.Va., said he opposed the contract because there are "too many things in it (the contract) hurting us miners."

"We want our health card completely restored," he said, referring to the benefits under the current UMW health plan. It is slated under the new contract to be replaced by individual company plans requiring employee contributions.

William Cunningham, president of UMW Local 2284 in Fairmont, W. Va., denounced Miller as having "no guts" and said the union president "can't have any brains to put out a contract like that."

Among those passing out recall petitions were Hays Holstein, former president of Miller's home Local 1757 in Cabin Creek, W.Va.

Before today's meeting, votes urging rejection of the pact were passed by local presidents in District 6, which covers Ohio and northern West Virginia, and by the executive board of District 29 in southern West Virginia.

If the agreement is approved it goes to the membership for ratification.

Five nursing homes cited

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — The Texas Department of Health reported Thursday it had taken action against five nursing homes for irregularities.

The department recommended withholding of state and federal funds for the Pine Haven Nursing Home, Lufkin, for new deficiencies in sanitation and personnel; Denton Nursing Home, Denton, for nursing care deficiencies, and Heritage Manor, Sherman, for nursing care deficiencies. Vendor money will be released when the deficiencies are corrected.

Decertification action was taken against Memorial Medical Nursing Center, San Antonio, for uncorrected deficiencies in records, and Western Hills Manor, Odessa, denial of reapplication for certification for records deficiencies and patient care.

Vendor money was released for Gaspard's Nursing Care Center, Port Arthur, and Lake Park Manor, Lewisville, after deficiencies were corrected.

Recertified following correction of deficiencies were Retama Manor of Laredo and Leisure Lodge, Midland.

Poisons program

The importance of teaching children the dangers of poisons in bottles and cans will be emphasized in a program scheduled by druggist Neal Roberts due to get under way in the Flame Room of the Pioneer Natural Gas Building at 7:30 p.m., Wednesday.

A slide presentation is scheduled and free pamphlets will be handed out. In addition, sheets of stickers containing warnings will be available to those who wish to take them home and mark their containers.

The Wednesday session is, of course, free to the public and parents of small children have special invitations to attend.

City Hall bids rejected

LAMESA — The Lamesa city council has rejected all bids to remodel City Hall, opting instead for new bids for materials which would be used in the refurbishing job.

Local contractors may be used during off-hours to complete the job.

The undertaking would include new paneling on the interior of the building bricking the outside.

The council has also voted to order four new police cars from Roy Motor Co.

Powers cooperate in times of crisis

Be grateful for small favors. Big ones, too, whether they come from a friend or through divine intervention. When that Soviet satellite disintegrated in space recently, it came to earth in the area of Great Slave Lake in Canada (ironically enough, in the area where most Canadian uranium is mined).

It could just as well have landed in a more populous area, and thereby set off a panic not unlike that caused when Orson Welles staged his celebrated radio show on the old Mercury Theater in 1938. The old-timers will remember that Welles convinced thousands that Martians had landed at Grover's Mill, that many took to the streets in terror. What was important about the death of Cosmos 954 recently was that the United States and the Soviet Union quietly agreed to watch it fall out of orbit, and to keep this fact secret from a populace that could have reacted as did the good burghers of New Jersey

40 years ago. We are all, in one way or another, in the thrall of those strange things circling this planet, whatever brand they bear. We are reassured by the powers that be that such things hurled into orbit are working for the betterment of mankind but that does not keep us from thinking how helpless we are if one of those things comes crashing down. The comment of a White House official is worth repeating: "The real significance of this episode is that this is the first nuclear-related crisis to deal with a potentially serious situation." The Great Slave Lake affair shows that the superpowers can communicate with each other for the good of all people. During the days of the Cold War, this communication perhaps would not have been possible. Perhaps an accident in outer space can bring about a resolution of disputes where gravity is a factor.

Stripper for Lord

Around the rim

Bob Burton

Big Spring has never been feted as the entertainment capital of the world. Only recently have quality night clubs changed the somewhat bleak prospect of each evening.

We do, however, have a whole bunch of churches. And a whole bunch of people who attend them.

Which brings me to my point — the latest in religious entertainment surfaced in the San Francisco Chronicle last week in an article by Bob Greene, who interviewed a stripper for the Lord.

KELLIE EVERTS, who travels with Minsky's Burlesque, maintains that she not only strips for the Lord, but that she does missionary work on the street and is saving all her money to build a children's prayer chapel in Brooklyn.

Last July, after being healed by a woman named Verna Talbot, Everts says God spoke to her, telling her "to go back to stripping for Him."

"I think that God meant for me to be a person on the stage showing my body. God gave me a body people want to look at. There's very few women who can stand on the stage naked as good as me. That's what God wants you to do — what you can do better than anyone else."

Everts says that the Lord also doubles as her manager. She maintains she talks to God often, "although never on stage."

But this remarkable woman's tale continues.

"I have also talked to the late Marilyn Monroe and Elvis Presley's mother," she maintains.

"I talked to Marilyn Monroe when I was a topless dancer in Grand Junction, Colo. I said, 'Why did you kill yourself?' and Marilyn told me, 'It was too much suffering on myself.'"

"What was the spirit of Mrs. Presley like?" inquired the understandably inquisitive Greene.

"SHE WAS real nice, she came to me even stronger than Marilyn. I said 'What if I meet Elvis?' and Elvis' mother said, 'Be nice to him.' I asked her if I would be Elvis' girlfriend, and she said, 'No, you're too good for him.'"

The stripper was asked how she spends her free time.

"I have an active interior life. I spend much time in prayer and meditation, like a nun or a priest would, and of course there is my missionary work."

"What do you do for fun," asked Greene.

"Well," she replied, "I don't drink. Mostly I make love."

The startled reporter asked her, "Why should I believe you? A stripper for Christ? Frankly, Miss Everts, I think you are using God as a gimmick."

"That's OK," she replied, "The evil people never believed in Jesus either."

It isn't exactly an act you could find in either the Big Spring nightclubs, or the churches, but it is kind of interesting, if you like that kind of thing.

Dotting the P's

William F. Buckley, Jr.

Mr. Roscoe Drummond, the columnist, having listened to Ronald Reagan give the reasons for his opposition to the Panama Canal treaties observes that his principal objection appears to be evaporating. Oh, one can continue objecting to any of the myriad terms of the treaties. Indeed, there is the master objection that we shouldn't revise the treaty at all.

But Governor Reagan's position, like that of most conservatives, has tended to focus less on these crotchets than on the main point: Is there an undisputed right by the United States to intervene to guarantee access to the canal; and is there an undisputed right by the United States to expeditious passage? Mr. Drummond, surveying the result of the Baker-Byrd mission to Panama, says that in his judgment all substantial doubt will have been removed by the time the treaties have come to a vote, and I think he is correct.

But a few points should be anticipated here.

THERE IS A word in Latin America which is so freighted with historical odium that no country will permit its use except negatively. If you can imagine Congress passing a law saying that "no one shall be denied the use of public facilities not even if he is a nigger, a kike, or a mick," you will begin to understand what it is for a Latin American Country to sign a treaty that grants any other country "the right to intervene." Intervencion in Spanish means only one thing: the right of another country to interfere in the internal affairs of one's own country. Any treaty that granted the U.S. the right to "intervene" in Panama would be defeated at the polls approximately a hundred to one.

The distinction is easier to make schematically than empirically. Situation A: A foreign country seeking to sabotage the canal scuttles one of its merchant ships inside a lock. Response: The governments of Panama and of the U.S. combine forces to clear out the derelict.

Situation B: Following a military coup, a less-fanatic government takes over in Panama and (for whatever reason) closes the canal. Response: The U.S., in the course of forcing the canal open, resists the government's closing it; battles the government. The juridical authority of the U.S. is clear both under the proposed treaties that give the United States the right to keep the canal open as under the old treaty. Because, you see, if situation B should happen, then Panama is not living up to the new treaties and the situation reverts immediately to the old treaty.

The situation is best understood by the analogy of Catholic doctrine and the ectopic pregnancy. The doctor is permitted to labor to save the life of the mother (the canal). If in order to do it the fetus is killed (the revolutionary government of Panama overthrown), then no moral law is broken. That would appear straightforward enough.

Now: there are senators who say that unless the rights of the United States as given above, and as reiterated on October 14 in a joint declaration by Torrijos and Carter, are written into the treaty documents in such a way as to require re-certification in a Panama plebiscite, we run a risk.

WHAT RISK? That a future Supreme Court of Panama will rule that since these provisions were integral to the treaties, they should not have been passed along as mere protocols. Our answer to that is that the language of the formal treaties itself certifies the same right; that the protocols are mere redundancies; and that the chief of state of every country in the hemisphere has understood the treaties in the same way that we have understood them (yes: the chiefs of state are scheduled to confirm the protocols). What if the Supreme Court of Panama should then say: "We disagree, and we are sovereign."

Vaccination questionable cold sore cure

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I have painful cold sores, to the point where it is hard for me to eat. Do you recommend smallpox vaccination for this? A friend had the vaccination and hasn't been bothered since. What actually causes these sores? — Mrs. O. L.

It's debatable whether the vaccination affects the herpes simplex virus, the one that causes cold sores. Most sores disappear in 10 days, anyway. Some doctors try the vaccination method (given at intervals over several weeks) in severe cases. I don't recommend it because of its doubtful value.

Many factors are involved. The theory is that the virus lies dormant in the skin and is activated by such things as sun exposure, upper respiratory tract infection (hence the name "cold sore"), physical or emotional stress, fever, and the like. Certain foods or drugs cause eruptions in some persons.

I recommend keeping the sores as dry as possible. Drying lotions are available, but dabbing them with rubbing alcohol is effective. The foods to avoid include citrus fruits, chocolate, colas, chips, condiments, chewing gum, and all tart, sour foods. Eating yogurt has been reported helpful. In fact, there may be as many cold sore "cures" as there are sufferers. One reader sent me a list of no less than 20 of them, each a definite winner for him. Most of the cures are psychotherapeutic. If a person thinks something is going to help, it will.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: I am 65 and very, very tired all the time. My doctor said it is from poor circulation. I take circulation pills. Could poor circulation cause me to be tired? — J. D.

Fatigue is one of the least appreciated of symptoms, probably because so many factors can lie behind it. Often it can mean only that the person is not taking care of him or herself — not eating properly, indulging, not getting sufficient sleep.

I would not call poor circulation the root cause of your fatigue. There is probably more to your problem than that.

Low thyroid function is common at your age, and it is often overlooked. A muscle disorder called myasthenia gravis can be a cause. There would likely be other muscular symptoms with that. Sheer boredom can be a factor, but so can low adrenal gland activity. Poor circulation can be a catch-all diagnosis. A physical examination (including blood tests) is in order. If any of the ailments I mention is found, appropriate treatment can give prompt relief.

Fatigue is never a normal condition and should be investigated. It should be corrected, even if the cause is staying up for the late-late movie at night.

Vaginitis can strike any woman at any time in her life. You can find out about the causes — and the cures — for this troublesome complaint in Dr. Thosteson's booklet, "Vaginitis: The Hidden Ailment." To get your copy, write to him in care of The Big Spring Herald, enclosing a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 25 cents.

Dr. Thosteson welcomes reader mail but regrets that, due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

"And you think... due to the angle... it came from someone higher up? You're (ha,ha) kidding!"

My answer

Billy Graham

DEAR DR. GRAHAM: I heard in Sunday School about a battle in which Satan was thrown out of Heaven. Where is this found in the Bible? — T. N.

DEAR T. N.: The Bible does not say too much about the origin of Satan, since it is more concerned about the practical problems of fighting his influence in everyday life. However, you are probably thinking of Isaiah 14:12-15, which seems to indicate that Satan (Lucifer) was once the highest of angels, but rebelled against God and was cast out of heaven. The passage says in part, "For thou has said in thine heart, I will ascend into heaven, I will exalt my throne above the stars of God... I will be like the most High. Yet thou shalt be brought down to hell, to the sides of the pit." Other passages of Scripture indicate that Satan led a large host of angels in rebellion against the authority of God; when these angels were cast out of heaven, they became the demons or agents of Satan.

The important thing for you to remember is that Satan is a defeated being. Shortly before going to the Cross, the Lord Jesus said, "Now is the judgment of this world: now shall the prince of this world be cast out" (John 12:31). The "prince of this world" is Satan. Like a snake with a fatal wound, Satan is still at work in this world but his defeat is sure. Someday Christ's final triumph will be seen and Satan will be cast "into everlasting fire, prepared for the devil and his angels" (Matthew 25:41).

In the meantime, we are called upon to fight against the lies and temptations of Satan. "Submit yourselves therefore to God. Resist the devil, and he will flee from you" (James 4:7).

Was trial fair?

Jack Anderson

WASHINGTON — U.S. marshals are supposed to safeguard juries from outside influences that might interfere with a defendant's constitutional right to a fair trial.

But shocking, secret evidence has been developed that several federal marshals seriously compromised the jurors who returned a guilty verdict against a leading New Jersey political figure. The incident raises questions about the conduct of U.S. marshals in other courts.

The secret evidence has been laid before federal Judge Lawrence Whipple in his chambers. He has issued stern orders to everyone involved in the scandal not to talk to the press. We have been able, nevertheless, to dig out the details.

THE STORY GREW out of the 1974 conviction of New Jersey's former Republican Party leader, Nelson Gross, for tax fraud. He was sentenced to two years in prison and was paroled after five months.

But last February the marshal who had been assigned to oversee the sequestered Gross jury, Leon Harvey Stacey, told the FBI that he and other marshals had romanced some of the jurors during the trial.

Naming jurors who had participated in sex parties with the marshals, he alleged in an affidavit that they "did not have Nelson Gross on their minds during their deliberations and could not have cared less about his guilt or innocence or the instructions of the judge."

Stacey confessed that he had applied "subtle and indirect" persuasion on one juror "to convince her that the government represented the good guys." He indicated it was the practice, or "office motto" as he put it, of the marshals to use their subtle influence to help the government win cases.

In the Gross case, Stacey related how he and another marshal had worked on two female jurors. "Both admired our guns, badges and all the paraphernalia of our position and authority," he attested. "It was easy for me to persuade (her) that Nelson Gross, as a politician, would receive merely a slap-on-the-wrist treatment if he were found guilty."

Stacey also took advantage of the Watergate atmosphere. "We all knew," he said, "Nelson Gross was part of the Nixon Administration. It was therefore easy for me to allude to a general disenchantment with politicians. In other words, as part of the romancing of the juror, my reference to politicians was always in a negative, screw-them attitude."

STACEY CONFESSED that he wound up having sexual relations with the juror "for the reason simply of wanting to score and make out with her."

He has expanded upon his affidavit during five days of closed hearings before Judge Whipple. Corroborative evidence has also been introduced, including allegations that still another marshal developed a close relationship with another juror. This marshal allegedly took the juror with him on a later trip to transport some prisoners and, incredibly, arranged for her to be placed on the government payroll temporarily as his assistant.

U.S. Attorney Robert DeTulfo, who is handling the case for the government, refused to comment on the case because of the judge's orders. But he referred to a statement he had made in open court, referring to the Stacey affidavit as "replete with hearsay and innuendo."

The acting chief U.S. marshal for New Jersey, Edward R. Scheu, acknowledged that three marshals assigned to the Gross jury have been suspended with pay pending the outcome of the investigation. He refused any other comment.

Judge Whipple refused to explain to our associate Gary Cohn why he had closed the hearings and ordered the participants not to talk to the press. "What is this, an inquisition?" he snorted. "I've made a court order, and it stands."

VITAMIN PROBE: The National Cancer Institute, which has failed to examine hundreds of cancer-causing substances, curiously is now focusing its attention on vitamin C.

The institute has no reason to believe that the popular vitamin causes cancer. There is not the slightest preliminary evidence that it is hazardous. Nevertheless, the cancer institute is planning to spend $300,000 on long-term animal studies to test vitamin C.

"THERE IS SUCH a massive public exposure to vitamin C that we decided to test it," said a spokesman for the institute. "It doesn't mean it's suspected of being a carcinogen. We just want to see if it is or not."

Ironically, there is considerable evidence to suggest that vitamin C in tablets, orange juice and other foods may actually help prevent cancer. Nobel Laureate Dr. Linus Pauling has asked the institute five times for a mere $50,000 to test this theory.

Pauling pointed to studies in which 100 advanced cancer patients treated with vitamin C lived four times as long as those who didn't get the vitamin. Almost all the vitamin C patients improved to some degree.

The institute approved Pauling's grant proposal in 1975, but assigned it such a low priority that it never received funding. "We were interested in learning for sure whether vitamin C does arrest cancer," said a spokesman, "but the study was a very low level of priority."

Pauling told us that the institute "does a good job of developing a known treatment, but they don't know how to make discoveries. They're too cautious. They don't want to take the chance."

Pacts renewed, audit rehashed

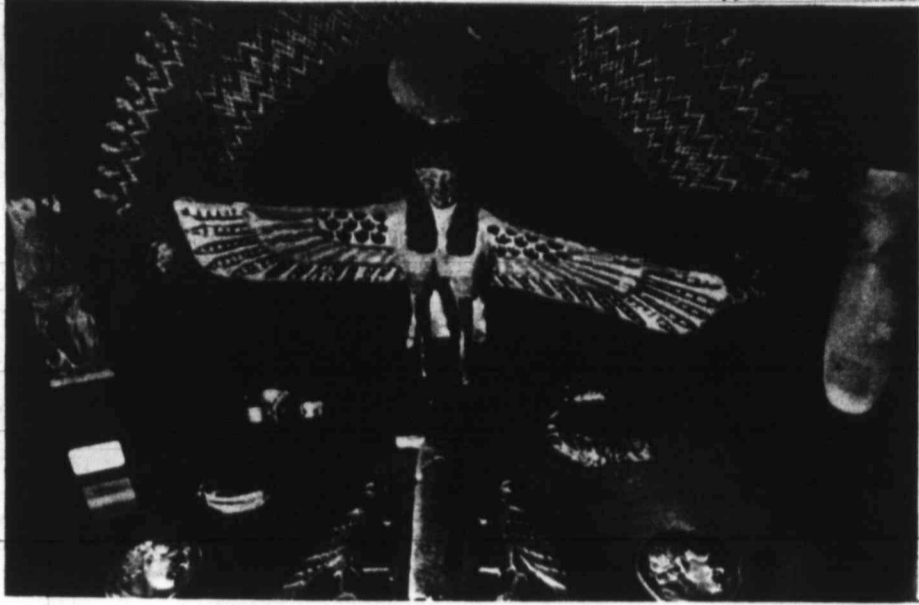

By BOB BURTON
COAHOMA — Following a two-hour executive session, the Coahoma School Board voted unanimously to renew the contracts to its superintendent, principals, and athletic director for one year.

The 54 people present at the meeting heard Board President Wendell Shive acknowledge faults within the board and the school administration relating to the recent audit.

Shive said, "The board has asked me to make these comments. We haven't spent all this time on contracts. Both the school management and the school board have been lax as far as this audit goes. It is a fifty-fifty proposition who's to blame. But in the interest of harmony and togetherness in the community we are unanimous in agreeing that the school cannot continue to survive in a divided community."

"Next Thursday we are going to meet again and get to work on these problems. We will appoint a committee to assist and supervise investing excess funds the school may have. We will form a committee to supervise the bookkeeping and to know more of what goes on. We will form a third committee to work with Mrs. Greenfield in the tax office and be available to answer her questions."

The school and the community are going to sink or swim in accordance with how effective this local board is — we finally realized that."

'Spy' to test Carter's authority Warrantless searches

WASHINGTON (AP) — The lawyer for an American information officer accused of spying for Vietnam says he will challenge evidence obtained through warrantless searches carried out against his client.

However, in today's editions, The Washington Post said Carter personally approved secret television surveillance in Humphrey's office at the U.S. Information Agency.

The Post said the warrantless television surveillance was the first authorized by the Carter administration against a U.S. citizen in a national security case. It also reported that the television surveillance would provide much of the evidence in the case.

"I want to see what powers even the president has," A. Andrew Giangreco, attorney for Ronald Louis Humphrey, said Thursday night. "I'm not sure he has the summary authority to order such things."

A Justice Department source said President Carter authorized warrantless searches to obtain evidence against Humphrey, who was indicted last week on charges of passing confidential information to the Vietnamese.

The source said he did not know what type of searches were conducted under the presidential order or how important the information obtained would be to the case.

Centenarian recalls 'bad times'

By CARLA WALKER
At 102 — or at least between 102 and 105 — Eulalia Flores has a lot of early memories of Big Spring, including working at the now-restored Potton House before it needed restoring.
Mrs. Flores doesn't know how old she really is, since she was born in Mexico, and birth records — if there were any at all — have been lost. But, age isn't an important concern for her, although longevity runs in her family; her mother, Pola Jara, lived to the age of 109.
Now, Mrs. Flores sews daily, making pillows and coverlets from material scraps. She also watches television, although she does not speak or understand much English. Her favorite show is the Beverly Hillbillies; she enjoys watching Grannie, whom she says is a "crazy old lady like me."
And, Mrs. Flores has a host of descendants who keep her company and remind her of a lot of the events that have transpired since her earliest memories in Mexico.

Fishers who were bankers and early businessmen in Big Spring.
Those shoes cost 15 cents, but there were shoes priced as high as 50 cents. Mrs. Flores is appalled when her grandchildren, wearing new shoes, tell her how much shoes now cost.
Mrs. Flores also did laundry and ironing at 25 cents per dozen articles for many ladies in town. One of her favorite employers is simply remembered as "the lady who lived in the old house that has been fixed up." The house Mrs. Flores means is the Potton House, now a historic landmark in the city.
"The man who lived there would drive his wagon to pick me up and take me to the house to work, and I liked working for them because I didn't have to walk to and from their house," Mrs. Flores laughed.

MOTHER AND DAUGHTER IN 1956
Mrs. Flores, right, with her mother, Pola Jara, then 108 years old.

Born in La Cruz, Mexico, Mrs. Flores moved to El Paso in 1902 with her grandmother, mother, and a sister. Her father had died just prior to that time after years of farming and cowpunching.

She was able to quit work around 1919, since her husband had a good job with the railroad. Juan Montez Flores, her husband, worked starting train engines at the railroad, getting paid $30 per month.
The couple bought two lots in town, and Mrs. Flores remembers that the corner lot was cheaper — only $25 — "because it was on the corner."
Mrs. Flores had seven children, of whom six are still living. Only two were born with the help of a doctor, and the family almost never went to a doctor, but instead used old medicine recipes Mrs. Flores and her mother had brought from Mexico.

doctor who examined her said that she had the heart of a 19-year-old, even though she has had a long, hard-working life. Her youngest child was born in 1929, when Mrs. Flores was 54 years old, but her family says that in spite of everything, she rarely complains about bad times.

Still very religious, she has the priest come once each month so that she can partake of Holy Communion.
And so, it is fitting that in honor of her birthday Sunday, the family has planned a Mass at 5 p.m. Saturday at the Sacred Heart Catholic Church, and a reception and party following the Mass, with all her descendants coming to be with her.

Who knows, perhaps she is planning to dance at this party as she did at the celebration two years ago.

As translated by her grandchildren during the interview, Mrs. Flores said that her father's brother was in El Paso, and the family moved to the states at his urging.
"My mother worked in the house of a very rich lady, who paid her $2.50 a month to work as a housekeeper and cook," said Mrs. Flores. "Sometimes I would help my mother, and I would make a $1.50 a month for cooking and helping."
The centenarian also remembers the first time she made tortillas — at the age of six. "My mother laughed at them and teased me," said Mrs. Flores, "because I made them so big."
A less happy memory concerned the sister who came to the states. "My sister was married, and expecting a child. She had trouble, and we wanted to call a doctor, but my mother wouldn't hear of it," Mrs. Flores reminisced. "She said that no man but my sister's husband should see her, and we had no woman doctors. My sister died and lost her child also."
Eulalia herself was a young bride, with her first child born while she was 14 years old.
She came to Big Spring in 1906 from El Paso, and worked for a number of Big Spring's citizens. Among the names she remembers; are Gertrude McTurrie, who paid her one dollar a day to work from 7 a.m. to 5 p.m. six days a week, and Dr. Billis, a local drug store owner, who also paid her one dollar a day for work as a housekeeper and cook.
Mrs. Flores remembers that she bought her first pair of shoes when she started working for Mrs. Joe Fisher, wife of one of the original

Three of her children, Juan Flores, Jr., Mrs. Frank Marin, and Mrs. Santos Lujan, all still live in Big Spring. Another son, Andemio J. Mendez lives in San Antonio, and two daughters also live out of town; Mrs. Marcus Entrada lives in Sterling City, and Mrs. Thomas Reyes is a resident of Martindale. The other son, Alphonso Mendez, died several years ago. There are 42 grandchildren, 45 great-grandchildren, and 6 great-great-grandchildren with the last of the five-generation family only born last Sunday.
Mr. Flores died in 1951 at the age of 81; he had been retired from the railroad since 1937, and Mrs. Flores proudly says that her husband provided for her even after his death, since she still receives his pension from the railroad.
In 1964, Mrs. Flores got her American citizenship when Mrs. J.M. Morgan, for whom Mrs. Flores had done laundry, swore that Mrs. Flores had been in the states at least since 1912, when she had first begun work for Mrs. Morgan.
Two years ago at her birthday party, Mrs. Flores danced with her oldest grandson, and her health is not much changed since that time. She has a check-up once a year, and it has been nearly 20 years since she had to stay in the hospital. A few weeks ago, Mrs. Flores got very sick with the flu; the

Audit discloses 16 'irregularities'

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — A Math department secretary at Sam Houston State University cranked out letters for the Rotary Club, and school employees repaired the president's private home, a state auditor has reported.

Ferguson Jr. said the state should be reimbursed. "We have the responsibility of clarifying before we say somebody did or did not... If this is cause for reimbursement, it will be done," said university president Elliott T. Bowers in response.

Hill joins Estes probe

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — A federal grand jury probing the recent business activities of convicted swindler Billie Sol Estes will get full cooperation from the state attorney general's office, says Attorney General John Hill.

Ferguson, in a letter to Bowers, cited 16 "irregularities" involving use of school funds, property and employees.

Hill's office filed a civil suit in Midland contending that at least three leasing companies, including Guardian Leasing and Polaris Leasing, were defrauded of $500,000.

He told Bowers that university employees had spent 90 hours and used school materials worth $78.60 making repairs on Bowers' private residence.

Hill's staff, which has conducted a 10-month probe into fraud allegations against Estes, received a subpoena late Wednesday asking that it turn over its documents and information to the grand jury.

He said a regents order seemed to allow the use of state employees at Bowers' home only for functions relating directly to university activities — not for general maintenance.

The grand jury met Jan. 10-11 in Abilene, where Estes now lives, and will reconvene Feb. 27 in Wichita Falls.

Bowers' housing allowance is the only state money allowed to be spent on maintenance, he said.

Estes was convicted in 1963 in a multi-million dollar fraud case and sentenced to 15 years in prison. Estes, paroled in 1971 after serving six years of his sentence, had secured millions of dollars in loans with nonexistent fertilizer tanks as collateral.

"Because of this limitation, perhaps amounts expended for general repairs and maintenance should be reimbursed to the fund from which they were paid," Ferguson said.

Under terms of his parole, Estes is barred from self-employment or engaging in any promotional business activities.

"I certainly agree that these things that are improvements to my personal residence are my responsibility," Bowers said.

The only public action taken as a result of the attorney general's probe was a temporary injunction ob-at state expense. Ferguson said other "irregularities" included: Construction of cabinets in an employee's home by another employee during working hours with state equipment.

Retention by an employee for his personal use of a deep freeze given as a promotional item when the university bought two air conditioning units.

The physical plant director's hiring of two of his relatives.

Installation of a breaker box and electrical line at the home of a university employee by two other Sam Houston workers while on state time.

Use of state equipment by a construction company working on a university project. No formal bid was found for the job.

The university should seek restitution from any or all employees who received a personal benefit from the misuse of university time, equipment and materials," Ferguson said.

CRIME FOR THRILL — Petite red-haired college-educated Sylvia Jean Brown, 35, says the life of crime gave her thrills and a feeling of self-reliance. Mrs. Brown robbed eight pharmacies and a clothing store and got more than $1,000 in cash and a large quantity of drugs. She also forged a $1,333 check to a department store and another forged $931 check at a furniture store. Her undoing was an attempted robbery Aug. 20 in Bryan, where she was arrested, while driving a stolen 1977 Lincoln Continental. She received 25 years in prison for her crime thrill.

Redhead gets 'high' by staging robberies

HOUSTON (AP) — Sylvia Jean Brown tired of tending house and raising children. Looking for something to enrich her life, she chose a .38-caliber pistol, a .45-caliber automatic, a sawed-off shotgun and five years of crime.

The 5-foot, 110-pound Mrs. Brown was caught and sentenced to 25 years in prison for seven armed robberies, two forgeries and a burglary.

"I don't really know exactly what happened," she said in a recent interview. "There was always something about me which called for an independent life. I had lost my individuality."

"I was trying to be so many different people and I wasn't myself. I said to myself, here I am 30 years old, and I've never done anything or been anywhere."

Prosecutors called the petite redhead, now 35, "a regular Ma Barker," a desperado of the 1930s.

"If I had lived in her time, life would have been gorgeous," she said, and pointed out she would not have needed a Pretty Boy Floyd or Clyde Barrow to help her.

"The thing that makes me mad," she said, "is when police act like I couldn't do it all by myself without some man along."

"My femininity is the element of surprise. You should see the look on their faces when I pull a gun and tell them what I want. My life's dream has been to have lived in the 1920s or the 1930s. I can imagine being an outlaw then. Women then were always in the background."

Mrs. Brown said it began when she moved from Huntsville to Houston in 1973 and decided her children "are going to have what I want them to have."

She stole a car and sold it. As well as the money, the theft gave her "a complete, natural high, a feeling of knowing I could do it. It was power."

A few months later, she said she left the children with her former husband and took off with an ex-convict named Erik, stealing cars, duping a salesman out of a mobile home, embezzling, robbing and dealing in drugs. A hostage was taken in Arizona.

She said she was back in Houston for a bank robbery when she was arrested while visiting her children. Extradited to Arizona, she pleaded guilty to kidnapping and served some time, then "hit the streets again in '75," she said.

Mrs. Brown was arrested last August by Bryan police while driving a stolen car. Officers found the three weapons in the auto, and an investigation led to her prison sentence.

"It's too bad there is no legal way people can live like this," she said. "It's strictly the freedom and the type of excitement this life can afford."

for the $50,000 promissory note, backing up Burkett's investment with the money of Billy D. Pyron, a Tyler millionaire.

The federal and state investigations began almost a year ago, when Don Trull, a former business associate, signed an affidavit charging that Estes secretly controlled 17 companies through silent trust agreements.

The FBI and the Internal Revenue Service are also investigating Estes' alleged recent business dealings.

Still pending is a $46 million federal court suit the IRS filed against Estes and his wife, Patsy, for alleged tax irregularities from 1959 to 1962.

O'Donnell Young Homemakers win Outstanding YHT Chapter

The O'Donnell Young Homemakers Chapter of Area II was recognized as the Outstanding Chapter of Texas during Young Homemakers of Texas' (YHT) 16th annual convention, February 10-11, at the Sheraton-Crest Inn in Austin. The Pleasanton Chapter from Area X was runner-up Outstanding Chapter.

Awards were presented at noon, Feb. 10, at the annual Young Homemakers Awards Luncheon at the Austin Municipal Auditorium Exhibit Hall. During the luncheon, Outstanding New Chapter winners also were named. First place went to the Devine Chapter, Area VII, while the Union Grove Chapter from Area VI placed second.

In addition, Brenda Parker from Happy in Area I received the YHT State Little Sister Award. Selected for her participation and contributions in the field of homemaking, as well as for her character, good citizenship, and presentation of personal goals, Miss Parker was awarded $100.

Outstanding Chapter and New Chapter awards are presented each year to chapters contributing most toward the growth of individual members and toward the betterment of the community through planned educational programs, projects, and service activities.

Continuing the second year of their term of office as state officers are: Area I, Soudra Christy, Childress; Area III, Ellen Nelson, Clear Lake; Area V, Phyllis Rogers, Era; Area VII, Coni Kuhlmann, Mason; and Area IX, Della Madison, Port Arthur.

Vickie Davidson feted at shower

A wedding shower in honor of Vickie Davidson took place Tuesday in the home of Donna Henry, Sand Springs.

A valentine theme was used in decorations. The centerpiece was made of hearts in different sizes, and pink napkins engraved in red were used. The table was draped with a white linen cloth, and appointments were of crystal. A white cake decorated in red with wedding rings and doves was served along with red punch.

The honoree was presented with a corsage of red and white carnations.

Guests included Elnora Davison, the honoree's mother; Cora Berry, the groom's mother; and Helen Berry of Almagordo, N.M., the groom's grandmother.

Hostesses were Mrs. Henry, Betty Jones, Cindy Jones and Lou LaRoche.

Miss Davidson and Billy Berry will be wed Feb. 14 in the home of the groom's parents.

Speaks Up for The Hard of Hearing

DEAR ABBY: I notice that you commend restaurants that provide their blind customers with menus in braille. Will you please do a little favor for those of us who are hard of hearing or partially deaf?

Suggest that some enterprising novelty or gift manufacturer make up large, easy-to-read buttons that we can wear on our coats and dresses reading as follows: PLEASE SPEAK UP—I'M HARD OF HEARING. I for one would be glad to buy one and wear it.

I am so tired of having to ask people who mumble to please repeat what they have said. I'll bet those "Speak up" buttons would sell like hotcakes!

HARD OF HEARING.

DEAR HARD: Oddly enough, many people who have a hearing disability are so self-conscious about it, they refuse to wear even the most inconspicuous hearing aid. But to your suggestion, I say, "Hear! Hear!" Such buttons would be a blessing for those who want them.

DEAR ABBY: Please print this in response to JUST PLAIN JEALOUS, who resents her husband's taking business trips with an attractive young female co-worker.

Dear Just Plain Jealous: I am a professional woman. The fact that I am young and attractive should be in my favor, but it isn't. It's just the opposite. I'm tired of hearing those "what will my wife think" comments from men who refuse to travel with me, and the snide remarks made about men who do.

Believe me, I am not interested in seducing your husband. I'm just trying to do my job, and it's women like you who make it very difficult. Your insecurities are YOUR problem, please don't make them MINE.

It's not fair for attractive professional women to be held back by men with jealous wives, so next time you kick up a fuss because your husband has an out-of-town assignment with a woman, try walking a mile in my shoes. It's not easy. Sign me...

PROFESSIONAL GAL

DEAR PRO: You make a good point. Youth and beauty are not always advantages to a professional woman. They're sometimes handicaps.

DEAR ABBY: A friend telephoned and invited me and my husband to her home for a dinner party. I asked very politely, "Who else have you invited?"

She replied, "You'll find out when you get here."

Do you think my question was out of line? And how about her answer?

JUST ASKING

DEAR JUST: You asked because you wanted to know. Nothing wrong with that. And she resented your question and refused to answer it. Nothing wrong with that either.

If you feel left out and lonely, or wish you knew how to get people to like you, my new booklet, "How To Be Popular: You're Never Too Young or Too Old," is for you. Send $1 along with a long, self-addressed, stamped (24 cents) envelope to Abby, 132 Lasky Drive, Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212.

Getting married? No matter how little you have to spend or how unconventional your lifestyle, it can be lovely. Send for Abby's new booklet, "How to Have a Lovely Wedding." Enclose $1 and a long stamped (24 cents) self-addressed envelope to Abby: 132 Lasky Dr., Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212.

Essay award winner honored by auxiliary

Christensen-Tucker Auxiliary to Veterans of Foreign Wars Post No. 2013 met with the post at 6 p.m. Tuesday for a barbecue and potluck dinner.

Following the meal, Brenda McDonald was honored for winning the Voice of Democracy award for her essay on "My Responsibility to America."

Miss McDonald was presented a United States Savings Bond, a gold and silver bracelet and a corsage from the post and a medal from the auxiliary.

Susan Martin, co-winner, was unable to attend.

The charter was draped in memory of Genevieve Cass, who died Jan. 16.

The group agreed to furnish 12 dozen cookies to Big Spring State Hospital semi-annually.

Mrs. Larry McDonald and Miss McDonald were guests.

The next meeting will be Mar. 7 at the Post Home on Drivers Rd.

How To Select A Lingerie Gift

If you'd like to buy a Valentine's Day lingerie gift for the woman in your life, here are a few tips that will help you select something both of you will enjoy:

- Try to find out her bust, dress or panty size before shopping. You don't have to tip your hand by asking her directly; look at the labels in her clothes.
- If you're embarrassed, clear the air by admitting your embarrassment to the salesperson.
- Try expanding her wardrobe by giving her some of the new sleepwear that also can be worn for lounging or entertaining at home.
- If in doubt about color, think of what colors she prefers in other kinds of clothing.
- Get hints by asking her what she thinks of styles of lingerie you see in magazines, movies or store windows.

Femininity is spring mood

By SANDY STRETCHER
Asst. County Extension Agent

For spring, romance sets the mood! Think innocent, think soft, think sweet. Femininity is the key.

Silhouettes will be soft and flowing. Pant legs will be slimmer. Sportswear, jackets and blazers will be less tailored. Bare and tropical sundresses will be great again this year with a refined peasant look also appearing in dresses, skirts and blouses. Blouson blouses and dresses will carry over well from winter, but in soft lightweight fabrics. Circular, full, tiered and pleated skirts, topped with frilly, ruffled blouses will be seen as proper attire for day or evening wear.

To compliment the soft look, design details will be emphasized. Look for drawstrings; dolman, loose, or puffed sleeves; flutter, necklines; ruffles, pleating, and tucks and Pierrot or shawl collars. Flirty trims such as lace inserts, appliques, ribbons, bows, delicate embroidery, and fagoting all enhance the feminine mystique.

Accessories to complete the look range from natural hemp to puckered silk; from crystal drop jewelry to ceramic bangles and discs. An embroidered handkerchief adds a soft touch. Try flowers at the neck, waist, or in the hair. Lower-level sandals or moccasins complete the total feminine look.

Bride-elect receives gift

Darla Buchanan was presented a toaster by hostesses of a bridal shower in her honor which took place recently in the home of Mrs. Curtis Mullins, 2829 Hunters Glen.

Other hostesses were Mrs. Loy Acuff, Mrs. George Archer, Mrs. Ray Ebling, Cindy Mullins, Mrs. George Russell and Mrs. Max Zant.

Miss Buchanan wore a long pleated dress of apricot tulle, and she and her mother, Mrs. Jack Buchanan were presented corsages of apricot carnations.

The serving table was centered with an arrangement of Shasta daisies, apricot carnations and sweetheart roses. Punch and cake were served.

Miss Buchanan and Bob Doty will be married Feb. 11.

TWEEN 12 and 20 Money moochers must be stifled

Dr. Wallace: I'm 15 years old and my problem is that a boy at my school keeps asking me for money. When I tell him that I don't have any, he keeps bug-ging me and even threatens me. He really doesn't ask for much but I don't like it.

Please advise me on what to do. I've tried to ignore him but it doesn't work.

D.L., Weirton, W. Va.

Dear Linda: Many girls 13 don't have boyfriends or, for that matter, don't want boyfriends.

You can help your complexion by washing your face at least four times a day with a mild soap and warm water. Keep your hair and hands away from your face.

Now, let's lose weight. Don't eat anything that contains white flour, white sugar or lard. Always leave the table a little hungry. Get plenty of rest and regular exercise.

After you complete your transformation, the boys will show an interest in you.

Questions may be sent to Dr. Robert Wallace, Copley News Service, in care of this newspaper. Please enclose a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Goals for two chamber committees spelled out

The Cultural Affairs committee included so many projects that it subdivided into two groups following its initial meeting here Thursday afternoon.

Mel Prather will head the Arts and Crafts committee and Dr. Halvard Hansen will head the Cultural Affairs group.

Goals were set for both groups for the coming year.

Some of the ideas announced at the session included enlargement of the Arts and Crafts Fair to be held Oct. 21-22 in the Dorothy Garrett Coliseum.

This event, which was held for the first time last year is expected to be enlarged and to include a dance and barbecue on opening night at the Dora Roberts Community Center building.

Mrs. Jean Kuykendall, while discussing music projects mentioned plans for National Music Week, when a Night of Music will be held in Big Spring downtown in the street in front of the courthouse. It will be sponsored by the Music Club.

Plans call for music by the high school band, songs by the Meistersingers and the Choraliers, country western songs by Tom Castle, church music by a group directed by Charles Parham and patriotic music by all the fifth grades in the city. The Rev. Bill Henning will serve as master of ceremonies.

Mrs. Joni Lou Avery announced that the college is planning the official opening at the coliseum for April 26.

Other items were discussed including needs for improvements in the physical appearance inside the City Auditorium.

Prather also announced the Army Field Band and Soldiers' Chorus will appear here April 30 sponsored by the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce and the Big Spring Herald with admission to be free for a Sunday afternoon concert.

Other possible projects were suggested including looking into community participation in Little Theater through the Howard College Players.

Fire fighting plans outlined

The Coahoma City Council Thursday, approved the Fire Department officers for 1978. They are Mark Terry, president; Benny Fishback, vice president; Marlene Jensen, secretary-treasurer; Jane Gilmore, medical EMT; Brian Jensen, chief; Bruce Allen, assistant chief; Kenneth Lawhon, fire marshal; and Joe Corey, assistant fire marshal.

Plans for the 1978 year include better training and upgrading of equipment. Also, an improved and larger fire prevention program is planned for public schools and the public in general.

Property owners are urged to contact the Coahoma City Hall for assistance in building and property inspections.

BVL gives $800 to vets

Members of the Big Spring Bowling Association recently presented $800 to the Big Spring VA Hospital on behalf of the Bowlers' Victory League of America. The BVL Fund, administered by the National Bowling Council, supports the wounded and disabled veterans in our VA Hospitals with over $500,000 each year.

Their first priority is in the support of the recreation program in the hospitals. This contribution is to help underwrite patients' sports participation activities and other activities of a recreational nature. The funds will be used in the Big Spring hospital to purchase supplies for patients' projects, such as toll painting, "God's Eyes," jeweled boxes, windmills, playing cards, dominoes, pool supplies, tournament prizes, records for music enjoyment.

The Big Spring Bowling Association members making the presentation were Neel Bumgarner, president; Ed Booth, secretary-treasurer; Jerry Burchell, president of the Women's Bowling Association; and Louise Booth, secretary-treasurer. There are approximately 500 men and 525 women in the Big Spring area who help to make this project possible.

Dog dies to save sleeping family

FLORENCE, Texas (AP) — A gallant pet collie gave its life in searing flames and smothering smoke to save a sleeping Central Texas family from the blaze gutting their home, officials say.

Mary Fenoglio told fire officials that she and her two teenage children were asleep about 12:30 a.m. Thursday when the dog began barking to warn her of the fire on the stairs of the two-story home. "The dog was penned up in a washroom behind a small wooden gate," said Florence Volunteer Fire Chief Jerry Smith. "It jumped the gate and ran into the den where Mrs. Fenoglio was sleeping and started barking."

Mrs. Fenoglio told officials the flames were too intense on the stairs and blocked her from going upstairs where Beth, 16, and John, 13, were sleeping.

But she said the dog leaped up the stairs through the flames and smoke to alert the youths, who leaped to safety from the windows of their bedrooms. The collie, however, was trapped and died in the blaze, said officials. The name of the dog was not immediately available.

Mrs. Fenoglio, whose husband, John, was in Houston on a business trip, suffered minor burns and her children were treated and released for minor smoke inhalation.

The $75,000 rock and wood home about nine miles from this small town was totally destroyed.

Smith said the fashionable, new home was totally engulfed in flames when the Florence Volunteer Fire Department arrived. Authorities theorized the fire began in the central heating system.

Sancap will control the tough broadleaf weeds that escape your preplant.

Preplant herbicides are great for controlling grasses. But the fact is, they just can't control the stubborn broadleaf weeds that are breaking through cotton here in the South High Plains. So, if you grow cotton on sandy soils, spray an overlay of Sancap® herbicide at planting. Because Sancap is strong on broadleaf weeds. Strong enough to stop the tough ones that escape your preplant. The VOID

Not so long ago they liked to look at the pictures, but the words were just black squiggles which Mommy had to interpret. Now they can read. With each passing month more and more words have meaning, and a whole new world is revealed.

Think of the tremendous void in life if you had never learned to read — almost as great as if you'd never gone to church and learned what it is like to be a useful member in God's House.

Is there a void in your life?

Student loan collection hit snag

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Carter administration, concerned about possible violations of the federal privacy act, is delaying its plan to turn $430 million in student loan defaults over to private bill collectors.

The Department of Health, Education and Welfare had invited bids on the first collection contract and was about to select a private collector when Secretary Joseph A. Califano Jr. sent word to postpone any decision, administration sources said.

Undersecretary Hale Champion, when asked about the delay, said some questions had been raised about privacy act limitations in turning over certain information on the students to private agencies.

But he expressed confidence the questions would be resolved and that the department would go ahead with the plan "as part of an organized approach to collecting the debts that are outstanding."

Califano told a congressional education hearing on Thursday that former students have defaulted on $500 million in federally guaranteed education loans. He pledged a major effort to collect.

The secretary was testifying in support of President Carter's proposal to increase aid to college students, particularly those from middle-class families, by $1.46 billion for the 1979-1980 school year. The plan would add nearly $300 million to the guaranteed student loan program, where the bulk of defaults have occurred.

Califano blamed much of the problem on "unbelievably inadequate" record keeping during the previous administration and said he wouldn't have recommended an increase in the loan program without changes in the way it is managed.

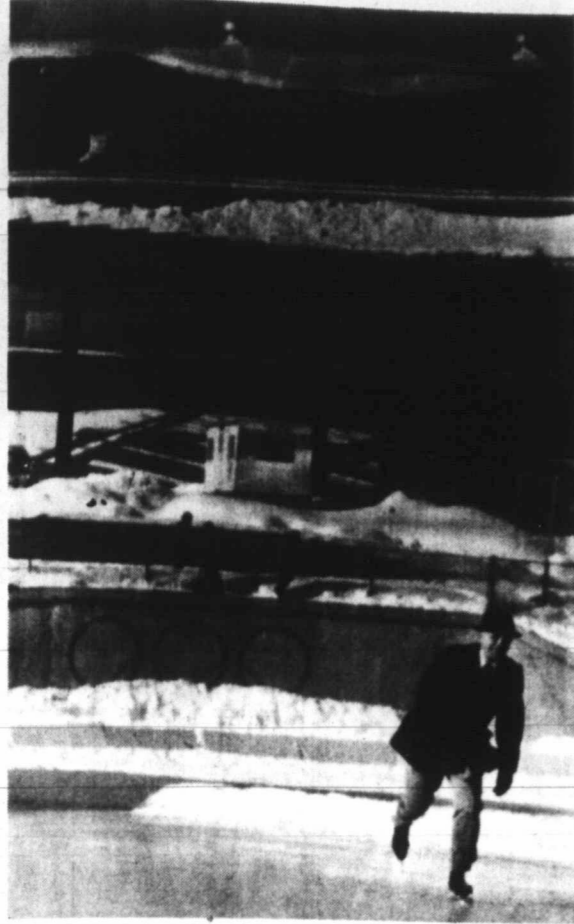

It was at least the fourth time since last fall the secretary has promised to get tough with loan defaulters.

In September, his new director of student financial assistance, Leo Kornfeld, announced the plan to give the defaulters one last chance to pay up and then turn their cases over to private bill collectors.

He told an interviewer at the time the privacy questions had been worked out, but they apparently have cropped up again under the more detailed review of the

Last November, Califano issued a statement promising "to pursue those students who are in default and those schools that are defrauding the student loan program with all the resources at our command."

An analysis of defaults in the 10-year-old program out, but they apparently showed that most of the college graduates.

Post office bids asked

STANTON — Sealed bids for construction of a new post office will be accepted until 1 p.m. March 2 in Room 523 of the General Post office at the corner of Bryan and Ervay Streets in Dallas.

Mrs. Verla Doggett, Stanton Postmaster, said the bid should include buying land and building a new post office facility in Stanton.

The United States Postal Service holds an assignable option to purchase approximately 23,520 square feet of land at a purchase price of $8,000.

The site is located at the southeast quadrant of Block 41 at the intersection of N. Front and St. Mary Streets in Stanton.

The building will consist of 3,419 square feet with a platform of 208 square feet.

Construction of the new building should begin within two months after the successful bidder has been notified. The basic lease term will be ten years with four five-year options.

Complete details concerning information about this project are available at the post office in Stanton or Midland.

Architect discusses retirement center

Highlights of the Canterbury Retirement Center at 17th and Lancaster were detailed to the Downtown Lions by Don Bailey, architect, at the Wednesday meeting at Cactus Room on the Howard College campus.

The new center, being constructed under a HUD 202-8 plan, will be six stories high on the east (Lancaster) Street side, and five stories high on the 18th side. End sections will be block and brick, with other sides stucco on steel studded panels.

There will be 120 units — 35 efficiency apartments, 80 one-bedroom, and five two bedroom. Frame will be poured concrete with precast concrete channels set so that columns and floors can be poured simultaneously.

Units will range from about 500 to 700 to 800 square feet. Halls and rooms are carpeted, kitchens and baths with non-skid flooring. They are available to retired people only, usually 64 or above except for disability. Handicapped and wheelchair individuals will be on the first floor on the north wing, and the service center of kitchen and dining room (one meal a day at first), laundry, mechanical room, arts and crafts, etc. on the east wing first floor. The area will be protected by earth berms for sound shields, and these and the buildings will be landscaped with various plants including black Japanese pine.

The project, due for completion within a year, is one of the first three such in the country, said Bailey. He explained the considerable dirt work at the site as being a deceptive fall in elevation (which to the eye appears level) which varies 11 feet from the southwest to the northeast corner.

M.A. Barber, president, reminded that Ladies Day will be next Wednesday.

Entrance examination

The A.C.T. College Entrance Examination is scheduled to be given on Saturday, February 11 beginning at 8 a.m. on the campus of Howard College.

The test will be held in Room S-100, instead of the auditorium as originally planned, college officials announce.

Canadians boot Soviet diplomats

OTTAWA (AP) — Canada threatened the expulsion of more Soviet diplomats if Moscow kicks out Canadian personnel in retaliation for the banning of 13 alleged Sovietspies. Announcing the crack-down on one of the largest spy rings reported in Canadian history, External Affairs Minister Don Jamieson told the House of Commons Thursday the government would retaliate on a "one-for-one basis" if Canadian personnel were expelled from the Soviet Union.

Jamieson said four of the 13 Soviet officials were ordered to leave the country by next Monday, seven were given until Feb. 23 to get out and two who are out of the country will not be allowed to return.

The Russians, who were accused of trying to get information on the security service of the Mounted Police from a high-ranking Mountie official, included the first secretary of the Soviet Embassy in Ottawa, Igor Vartanian, and two second secretaries. Canada's embassy in Moscow has more than 40 staff members, while the Soviet Embassy in Ottawa has had 64.

Jamieson said the affair was a serious setback to Canadian-Soviet relations. He told the House he refused an invitation to visit the Soviet Embassy because of it.

A Soviet Embassy press officer refused to say what action his government might take.

"Call us back next week," he said. "We will make up our minds with the help of Moscow."

Jamieson told Parliament two Soviet officials approached the officer of the Royal Canadian Mounted Police, Canada's equivalent of the FBI, early last year and offered "an unlimited sum of money to spy for them."

He said the Canadian, whom he did not identify, knew one of the agents from a previous assignment and immediately reported the overture to his superiors.

The RCMP authorized him to try to trick the Russians, Jamieson continued, and the officer met with Vartanian seven times to hand over doctored information. In return, he was paid $30,500 in several installments and was offered an "unlimited amount of money," the minister said.

Jamieson said the 12 other Soviets in the case were involved in "different support functions, including transportation, counter-surveillance and regular weekly observation activities."

"This case proved to be a classic example of an intelligence operation," he continued, "involving complex signaling systems, coded passwords, secret concealment devices, all for the purpose of arranging clandestine meetings between the RCMP member and the Soviet agent."

Frank Hardesty to lobby in D.C.

Frank Hardesty, Big Spring Postmaster, will be one of a mass of Postmasters from the 50 states who will converge on Washington, D.C. Feb. 11-15 to lobby for better postal service.

"We will be pushing for the passage of a bill now under consideration by the House, which will attempt to put service back in the U.S. Postal Service," said Hardesty, member of the National Postmasters Association which is sponsoring the lobby effort.

Among other things, the bill will ask for a small subsidy to improve service. "The trend in recent times has been totally toward economy at the expense of efficiency and the purpose of the Postal Service — service," Hardesty said.

The bill will also attempt to make the U.S. Postmaster General accountable to someone, as opposed to the present system, where he is, in practical terms, accountable to no one.

The association also plans to lobby against the Postmaster General's proposals to cut Postal Service from six to five days weekly.

"The cost of extra help or overtime on Mondays to deal with the double mail burden that would result from cutting Saturday service would come to about the same amount as a five-day service," Hardesty reasoned, "so why cut service when the cost is going to be the same for better service."

Scouts start ticket sales

Cubs and Scouts kick off their ticket sales for the Scout Exposition today.

All the packs and troops in the Lone Star District are participating in this activity as a pre-promotion of the Exposition of Scouting skills March 18 in Highland Mall, according to Bill Priebe, chairman.

Tickets for the scouting show are $1 and units will share 40 per cent in the proceeds for their own activities. Moreover, boys will receive prizes for sale of blocks of 10 tickets, with those selling as many as 10 blocks qualifying for camp stoves, maxi-pack, watches, etc.

Meantime the units are selecting various skills and activities to depict at the Exposition, said Priebe, and these may vary from camping to first aid, to pioneering construction to fun games by Cubs.

Clemont Jones, Lone Star District chairman, urged adults to receive the boys as they make their canvass and at least hear their sales pitch.

Rhodes maps oil views

ABILENE — A. L. (Dusty) Rhodes, Abilene, a Democratic candidate for U.S. Congressman, 17th District, told oil men here Wednesday he was 100 per cent committed to the deregulation of oil and gas.

Rhodes said he was "deeply concerned about regulation of prices and control of distribution of oil and gas."

He added that, in his opinion, deregulation not only has hurt the producer but "it threatens to destroy the very basis of our economic structure."

Rhodes is the president of several oil and oil-related companies. He said that other states want regulation to obtain Texas oil and gas at cheaper inter-state prices, adding:

"The state that pays a fair price for energy will have sufficient energy."

Rhodes said he also favors an energy program embracing an import tax on foreign oil after domestic production of oil has "seen a sufficient increase." He reminded his listeners that only half the oil used in America is produced in this country.

Hawk words

Harold Wilder called Thursday morning to advise that the game with Clarendon had been postponed due to weather. I changed the fact underneath the Hawk picture accordingly.

Fifteen minutes later, Wilder called back to announce that since a date couldn't be decided upon for the women's make-up game, they were going to go ahead and play the game. I "rechanged" that fact.

When I returned from lunch, I found a note saying he had called again, and due to the inability to get reservations, the game was postponed again. This time, it was too late to do anything about the fact.

And to my knowledge, the game still hasn't been played. Schools in Matador, Spur and Lubbock are closed and the icy road conditions would've made the trip unacceptably slow. Another predicted front could've also complicated matters.

"We could've probably made it," said Wilder, "by taking 87 up to Amarillo and then back down to Clarendon, even though that's an additional 100 miles, but we've probably had to step right out of the bus for a long trip and play. That wouldn't have been good for us at all."

A win by the Hawks last night, coupled with a loss by South Plains would put the locals tied for fifth place in the stretched-out WJACAC race. And that would be a cozy niche at this point in time.

NEW PLAYOFF SYSTEM

The reason fifth sounds so nice is because of the new playoff system that the WJACAC presidents and athletic directors have come up with... one that should be more equitable for all concerned.

The top three teams in both conference's automatically go to the Region V Tournament. No change there. But now, rather than having a coin toss or debate to determine the bottom two seeds in the eight-team tourney, the fourth and fifth place teams in each league will have a fighting chance for a berth.

The fourth place team in the Western Conference will play the fifth place team in the Northern Conference, and vice versa. The two victors then get their tickets to the Region tourney.

"Our best hope is to get fifth place," said Wilder. With five games to go, and three games behind fourth-place Amarillo, the coach has a good point.

If all games would've been played last night, with the ball falling right for the Hawks, four teams could be tied for that fourth position right now. Remember my spiel about "power points" the other day, and the breaking of ties in rankings? Recapping, if two or more teams are tied for that vital fifth spot, the team that has beaten more of the top-ranked teams will get the nod.

If there is still a tie after all the points are totalled up, the two teams would have a old-fashioned playoff.

Currently, Odessa, Western Texas and New Mexico Military appear to have the top-three positions sewed up. Amarillo, resting along in fourth, also sits in the easy chair at this time.

Any of the bottom six teams could still win the fifth spot. Howard College has the best overall reading of the six, and should be the critics' choice for a tourney journey.

In addition to the make-up game with Clarendon, the Hawks still have to play Amarillo and Western Texas on the road, and hungry Frank Phillips and "devil-may-care" New Mexico Junior College in Hawk Gym.

If the locals won all five, they wouldn't have to worry about "power points" and playoffs because they would have fifth cinched and maybe even an outside chance for fourth. Two losses or more would just about do 'em in, though.

MEANWHILE...

Included in the Big Spring Superintendent's Wednesday report were a few items of interest to sports followers.

Webb Credit Union has offered to furnish a Fairplay Electric Scoreboard for installation at Blankenship Field, an 8th grade girls' basketball team from Runnels is planned for the 1978-79 school year, and indications are that the high school will get an additional women's coach.

Presently, there are three women's coaches leading the volleyball, basketball and track programs. "This leaves no break between sports for any of these coaches and with the anticipated increases in number of participants, it is felt that the request for an additional women's coach is justified," the report states.

REMARKABILITIES

Walt Finley, on Wednesday's stories concerning the respective fortunes on the University of Texas and Oklahoma in the recruiting wars. "The University of Texas story was three inches longer than that of Oklahoma... or maybe even four."

Zeljko Franulovic of Yugoslavia, at the Baltimore international tennis matches, when a young lady was getting the other players to autograph her jeans: "I'm sorry but we're not allowed to endorse clothing," said the repatriated Aggie.

Chicago Bulls' guard Norm Van Lier, on the play of the Indiana Pacers: "They hit harder than the Dallas Cowboys."

WJACAC picture developing

By DANNY REAGAN Sports Editor

The Howard College Hawks and Hawk Queens stayed home Thursday night, but the hectic Western Junior College Athletic Conference saw most of its games played.

League-leading Odessa College was bumped off by Midland, 94-85; cellar-dweller New Mexico Junior College edged second-place New Mexico Military Institute, 95-83, and Amarillo stopped a thinned South Plains squad, 107-82.

A win last night for the Hawks would've put them tied for the all-important fifth position in the ever-squeezing run for the Region V bacon.

The Hawk Queens maintained their one-game lead in the women's division, as Amarillo knocked off South Plains, 57-47, in the only distasteful contest played Thursday night.

The Queens stand at 7-1 in conference, and Western Texas, at 7-2, is the closest contender.

The two local teams will make up the games with Clarendon on Feb. 20 on the road.

In the men's division, Odessa College, 10-4, averaging 87 points a game in WJACAC action, still holds a half game lead over the Western Texas Westerners who sport a 9-4 reading and are averaging 80 points a game.

The Hawks have been averaging right at 85 points a game in league head-knocking (good enough for fourth-best offense among the 10 teams.) The locals have been giving up an average of 87.8 points, however, and are next to the last in that category in the conference.

The Hawks have five games to go in regular season, and Head Coach Harold Wilder feels that a 4-1 verdict there will put his team into the playoffs.

"If the ball had bounced just a little differently," said Wilder, "We would be up in first place. We lost to South Plains in overtime, something we should've never done. We had NMMI and Western Texas beaten for sure and let them come back, and in both the Odessa games we had a chance to win."

The picture is supposed to be even more crowded after Monday night's games which pit bitter rivals against one another.

THURSDAY'S RESULTS: Midland College 94, Odessa 85; NMJC 95, NMMI 83; Amarillo 107, South Plains 82; Howard College vs Clarendon (ppd.); Western Texas at Frank Phillips (ppd.).

Lakers countersue

HOUSTON (AP) — Attorneys for the Los Angeles Lakers have filed an answer to Rudy Tomjanovich's damage suit claiming the Rocket forward was aware of the risks of participating in sports.

Tomjanovich was injured Dec. 9 when Kermil Washington, then a Laker player, punched him in the face. Tomjanovich, the Rockets leading scorer, suffered numerous facial injuries and was lost to the team for the season.

Tomjanovich and his wife, Sophie, filed a suit Dec. 29 asking that a jury find the Lakers negligent in failing to control Washington's actions on the court and award damages to compensate Tomjanovich for injuries and loss of future earnings.

Aggies scare Hogs but lose anyway

COLLEGE STATION, Texas (AP) — It was like watching the rerun of an old movie in Thursday night's critical Southwest Conference basketball battle between second-ranked Arkansas and the Texas Aggies.

Arkansas fumbled away a 13-point lead at halftime last year then survived a Texas A&M rally for a 63-62 victory.

Arkansas watched a 13-point margin melt away under the pressure of a full-court press Thursday night but went to radar-accurate Ron Brewer in the final 12 seconds for an 80-79 victory.

"It's always been tough for us to win here," sighed Arkansas Coach Eddie Sutton, whose team is now 22-1 and 10-1 in SWC play, just a half-game behind the Texas Longhorns. "We had a 13-point halftime lead here last year, too. A&M made a great run at us."

Brewer, who scored 25 points and canned 10 of 16 field goal attempts made two free throws with 12 seconds to play to axe the Aggies, who play like the NBA All-Stars in G. Rolfe White Coliseum.

The Aggie press forced Arkansas into 15 turnovers as Willie Foreman scored 20 of his 26 points in the second half.

"Arkansas still has the same weakness as last year," said A&M Coach Shelby Metcalf. "The way to beat them is to press for 40 minutes. We just can't do that. We pressed for 20 minutes in the second half and made up 12 points... we just can't stop Brewer."

Brewer made his free throws while the pro-Aggie crowd of 6,997 roared and waved their jackets and arms.

Foreman and Joey Robinson had hit two key buckets to pull the Aggies within one point.

"Foreman and Joey Robinson had hit two key buckets to pull the Aggies within one point."

"Foreman had a super shooting night and Robinson hit that last one from Shelby's lap," said Sutton. Brewer scored only six points in the second half after Metcalf switched Foreman to defense the Aggie guard.

Brewer said, "We weren't really trying to score against the press in the second half. We weren't worrying about the margin... we were just trying to conserve a lead and that's why it got so close."

Brewer missed a free throw with one second to play but the Aggies couldn't get away a shot before the buzzer.

"He missed that free throw but hit the ones that counted," said Sutton.

It was only the second time A&M had lost to Arkansas at home in the last 15 years. The Aggies had posted 13 consecutive victories until last season.

A&M is now 1012 for the year and 3-9 in the SWC.

Arkansas' Jim Counce had a different viewpoint that Brewer on the Razorback difficulty with the press.

"The press spreads out the defense you're supposed to make them pay for it by being aggressive," he said. "We didn't do that."

Arkansas blew a fat lead to Wake Forest in the NCAA playoffs last year and lost to the Deacons and their fullcourt press.

The Razorbacks, highest ranked team in SWC history, still showed they can shoot with any team in the country.

They shot 70 per cent from the field in the first half and finished with 63.2 per cent for the night.

"We got too far behind in the first half," said Metcalf. "Arkansas couldn't miss."

Denver A's deal dead

DENVER (AP) — Denver millionaire Marvin Davis said he was in shock Thursday when his $12 million bid to bring the Oakland A's to this city received its death blow in the midst of an Oakland-San Francisco inter-city feud.

The on-again, off-again A's sale collapsed when the San Francisco Giants released this statement Thursday: "All negotiations regarding the possibility of the Giant games in the Oakland Coliseum have ended."

"That's it as far as I'm concerned," Davis said. "American League president Lee MacPhail just called to say it's all over. He was very depressed and as for me, I'm in shock."

"You see, I thought I had a deal this morning. MacPhail had called and said that it was on. Bowie (baseball commissioner Bowie Kuhn) and (A's owner Charlie) Finley also thought it was going through."

"But from what I've been told it (Thursday's final meeting in San Francisco) was almost a shootout. Those two cities hate the hell out of each other."

Finley's only hope to break his lease with the Oakland Coliseum had rested with San Francisco allowing the Giants to play enough games in Oakland to satisfy Oakland officials.

Oiler magnate hangs up hat

HOUSTON (AP) — Adrian Burk, general counsel and assistant to the president of the Houston Oilers, has resigned effective Feb. 15.

Burk said Thursday he plans to return to full-time law practice.

"Since the finalization of the collective bargaining agreement between the owners and the players association, the legal work load has lessened to the degree that I feel I will be more satisfied professionally in the field of private law," Burk said.

PUSH ME, PULL YOU — Linesman Swede Knox hangs on to Los Angeles Kings Dave Hutchinson (4), left, and linesman Matt Pavelich pulls on Atlanta Flames Ken Houston (6) during early action in Los Angeles Thursday. Both Hutchinson and Houston received major penalties for fighting.

Sports Digest

Evansville to rebuild

GREENSBORO, N.C. (AP) — The University of Evansville, whose entire basketball team was wiped out this season in an airplane crash, will receive a donation of $10,000 from the Atlantic Coast Conference to help rebuild the Evansville basketball program. "The feeling was that the premier basketball conference in the country ought to assist this school," said Marvin "Skeeter" Francis, assistant commissioner. The donation was announced at the end of the conference's winter business meeting Thursday and will come from the conference treasury, Francis said.

Gerulaitis upset

ST. LOUIS — Unranked Sandy Mayer kept Vitas Gerulaitis away from the net throughout and upset the topseded player 6-3, 7-6 in the second round of the $175,000 St. Louis Tennis Classic. In other matches, John Newcombe overpowered Tom Gullikson 6-3, 6-1 and fourth-seeded Dick Stockton beat Peter Fleming 6-1, 6-4.

Texan leads bass anglers

WATERWOOD, Texas (AP) — Chip Sewell of Coldspring, Texas, held the lead today going into the third day of the American Angler's Long Star National bass tournament on Lake Livingston. Sewell caught a five pound, 14 ounce bass Thursday to go with his first day catch giving him a two day total of 11 pounds, eight ounces. Gary Kennedy of Springdale, Ark., did not catch a fish Thursday but his first day catch of seven pounds, five ounces kept him in second place.

Marathon champs honored

LOS ALTOS, Calif. (AP) — Marathon champions Bill Rodgers and Kim Merritt have been named by Track and Field News as the top road runners of 1977. The publication made the awards Thursday to Rodgers, who won the New York marathon and 14 others during the year, and to Merritt, holder of the U.S. women's marathon record of 2:37.57.

Turnbull turn backs Rosie

SEATTLE — Fifth-seeded Wendy Turnbull fought back to defeat fourth-seeded Rosie Casals 5-7, 6-1, 6-2 Thursday night in a quarter-final match of a $100,000 women's professional tennis tournament. In another quarter-final match, third-seeded Betty Stove of the Netherlands defeated sixth-seeded Kerry Reid 6-4, 6-1.

'Preferential treatment' upsets Iowa U mentor

By the Associated Press
Lute Olson feels that he is being double-crossed by a double standard in the Big Ten. "I'm tired of one set of rules for the second division and one for the first, second and third place teams," says the Iowa basketball coach. Olson emphasized his longtime pet peeve Thursday night after his Hawkeyes dropped a 71-70 decision to 10th-ranked Michigan State. He was particularly upset by what he thought was preferential treatment given Michigan State Coach Jud Heathcote by the officials. Olson insisted that Heathcote's frequent sideline rantings "intimidated" the referees, allowing more than the usual amount of calls to go to the Spartans' way. Michigan State had nine more free throws and Iowa fouled out four players, compared to one for Michigan State, in the game at Iowa City. "It was a key factor in the outcome," noted Olson. "I think our kids got cheated."

Steer fems lose to OHS

The Big Spring girls' varsity fell to visiting Odessa High here Thursday night, 83-56. Two of Big Spring's starting guards, Becky Ragan and Debbie McNew, were out with the flu, and depth problems again plagued the locals. Rose Magers led the scoring with 37 points, followed by new JV recruit Pam Banks' 16 markers. Penny Ray and Peggy Calhoun added two and one, respectively.

"They did a yeoman's job filling in for the sick players," said Coach Carole Bartasek. The Big Spring JV's won their game 31-28 in a four-overtime thriller. Scoring for the locals: Kay Aurbie, 12; Esther Rodriguez, 6; Angela Cobb, 4; Holly Peurifoy, 4; Debbie Wiggins, 2; Denise Holmes, 2 and Joyce Jackson, 1.

The local girls close out their season next Monday in San Angelo. SCORE BY QUARTERS
Forsan 0 4 3 8 15
Greenwood 6 2 6 6 20

Forsan Jr. lose

GRADY — Greenwood took the district championship from the Forsan Junior High girls Thursday night, 20-15. Karla Cregar led the FJH girls with eight points, and Lisa Mobley paced Greenwood with 10.

The Forsan team could not overcome a 6-0 deficit at the end of the first period.

Ax falling on Coryell today

ST. LOUIS (AP) — A stalemate between Billy Bidwill, owner of the National Football League's St. Louis Cardinals, and Coach Don Coryell was ended today when Bidwill fired him. Bidwill made the announcement in the club's offices at a news conference not attended by Coryell. Bidwill said the settlement was reached Thursday night. "Don Coryell did many positive things for the St. Louis franchise. He is a winner and we are grateful for his help in making us one of the most exciting teams in the NFL the past few seasons. "We had to reach an agreement, because we believe that the circumstances of the past two months would prevent Don from becoming an effective coach for us in 1978." There was no immediate announcement on a successor to Coryell, 53, who directed the Cardinals to a 42-29-1 record in five seasons and to two National Conference East titles.

"I want to thank Mr. Bidwill for giving me the opportunity to coach professional football," Coryell said in a prepared statement. Coryell had been locked out of his office since he skipped a meeting with team owner Bill Bidwill to fly to the West Coast to talk with the Rams, who were then searching for a new coach. Coryell was openly critical of the Cardinals organization following the team's disappointing 7-7 finish last year. He bemoaned the fact that he had little to say in the team's drafting plans and said his coaching staff was too small.

He also complained about his salary, the attitude of the fans toward himself and running back Terry Metcalf and the cold weather in St. Louis. Coryell said his wife and family missed the climate they had experienced when he was coaching at San Diego State before joining the Cardinals. Bidwill had maintained all along that Coryell was still the team's coach. That stance has since been described by the newspaper's sources as a "smokescreen."

Among the names being circulated as possible candidates to replace Coryell are: former Denver Coach John Ralston, ex-Detroit field boss Rick Forzano, fired Cleveland Coach Forrest Gregg, director of operations Larry Wilson and Cardinals offensive line coach Jim Hanifan.

Dr. Bill spurs Spurs

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) — The Spurs' Billy Paultz administered the miracle drug that snapped San Antonio out of a three-quarter coma Thursday night.

The San Antonio center scored 10 of his season-high 29 points in the final period to send the Spurs to their eighth consecutive Arena victory, a 104-94 National Basketball Association decision over the Houston Rockets.

The Spurs trailed after three quarters, 83-76, and had been humbled in field goal percentage throughout the game. "The layoff made a difference," said Paultz, referring to the Spurs' Tuesday night snowout against New Jersey and six-day layoff.

The Spurs broke on top in the fourth quarter, 94-92, with four minutes remaining and outscored the Rockets, 8-0, over the final minute and a half.

Paultz had six consecutive points in that spurt. Teammate Larry Kenon, who finished with 25 points, contributed the other late field goal.

Houston shot a meager 18 percent from the field in the final period and managed just 11 points.

"We didn't execute our offense well in the last quarter," said Houston coach Tom Nissalke.

"The Spurs are running all my plays. They beat us with them. But it's alright because they're good plays," added the one-time Spurs coach.

The Rockets were paced offensively by Calvin Murphy's 28 points. He was supported by Moses Malone, who added 15.

Houston managed to stop San Antonio's George Gervin, the NBA's second-leading scorer, holding him to just eight points. Gervin entered the game averaging 27 points and was held below double figures for only the second time in his NBA career.

The loss marks Houston's 11th straight on the road and overturned a three-game overall winning streak. Houston fell to 19-32. San Antonio is now 32-19.

Elks' reps competing

The Big Spring Elks' Lodge will have four district winners competing in the Texas Elks' State Association "Hoop-Shoot" contest for the state championship. There will be 28 districts competing.

The winners of the state contest will advance to the regional contest on Feb. 25 at Arlington State University, Arlington, Tex.

The state contest is to be held in Austin, Saturday, Feb. 11, 9:30 a.m., at Saint Mary's University.

Big Spring Lodge No. 1386 contestants will be:

8-9 year-old girls: Shana Fowler, Coahoma; 10-11 year-old girls: Dana Dee Cannon, Forsan; 10-11 year-old boys: Gilbert Accedendo, Lamesa; 12-13 year-old boys: John Basden, Goliad.

FESTIVAL OF PRAISE
...due here in March

Festival of Praise slated here March 6

The "Festival of Praise" choir, produced by nationally recognized conductor Thurlow Spurr, and under the direction of Bob Pickett, will present the musical of praise and worship, "Festival of Praise," recently released on Light Records, on Monday, March 6 at 7:30 p.m. at the City Auditorium.

The 50-voice national touring choir is made up of adult singers from all walks of life. Also appearing are the nationally known Spurrlos. The choir and the Spurrlos will be supported by the nine-piece concert brass.

Tom Russell, executive director, is a popular gospel tenor whose vocal success reveals a varied background having appeared numerous times with symphony orchestras across America and Europe.

"Festival of Praise" is an evening of choral and solo music specifically organized to praise God. Local church leaders say, "The program is divided into six sections...praising God for God, for Jesus Christ, for the Holy Spirit, for the Church, for the Spirit of God, and for the second coming of Christ. Each section includes songs that are traditional, contemporary and well known along with some new selections all arranged by Terry Winch."

"Festival of Praise" has been in concert in many of the large churches across America and has been featured on the television programs of the 700 Club and the PTL Club. They have appeared at the Christian Artists Music Seminar at Estes Park, Colorado and at Musicalifornia and Word, Inc. workshops.

Evangelism Former Ghetto gang leader scheduled conference now travels as evangelist

The Lamesa Baptist Association will hold its annual evangelism conference February 16 and 17 at the Northside Baptist Church, 406 N. 12th, Lamesa.

The conference schedule is Thursday Feb. 16; morning session at 9 a.m.; afternoon session at 1:15 p.m.; executive board at 5:30 p.m.; W.M.U. at 5:30 p.m.; supper at 6:15 p.m.; and evening session at 7 p.m.

On Friday there will be only a morning session at 9 a.m.

Barry Wood from Lubbock will be the Bible teacher in each session. Prentis McGee, pastor of the First Baptist Church, Levelland, will bring the inspirational message in each session.

The music will be under the direction of Ricardo Garzon, pastor of the Eastside Baptist Church, Lamesa. Billy Bush, pastor of the Northside Baptist Church in Lamesa, is the evangelism director for the Lamesa Baptist Association and he is in charge of this conference.

Dr. Rick Ingle is the evangelist in revival services 7:30 nightly at the East Fourth Street Baptist Church 401 East Fourth Street, here in Big Spring.

Before his conversion in 1953 Evangelist Ingle was a teenage gang leader in the ghettos of Philadelphia, Pa.

Now a full-time Southern Baptist evangelist, Dr. Ingle has conducted over 300 revival campaigns across America. Five of the top 10 churches in the 12 million membership Southern Baptist Convention, honored for their outstanding baptismal records, have been led by Evangelist Ingle.

In 1973 his conversion story was broadcast worldwide, on every continent, and beamed over the Iron and Bamboo curtains in several languages, on over 400 radio stations.

Dr. Ingle graduated from Eastern Baptist College and Southwestern Baptist Theological Seminary. He received his Doctor of Divinity degree from Immanuel Baptist College of Georgia.

One of the highlights of the meeting will be the evangelist's conversion story on Friday night, "From A Ghetto Gang Leader to the Pulpit!"

R. C. Meadows of Paragould, Arkansas is the music director for the revival and the Rev. Guy A. White is the pastor. The public is invited to all of the revival services February 13-19.

Lutheran agency salesman honored

MINNEAPOLIS — Gus Meiller, FIC, of 209 E. Oak St., Midland, has qualified for Lutheran Brotherhood's 1977 Executives Club.

He is a district representative for the Minneapolis-based fraternal insurance society, and this is one of its top sales honors.

Woodrow P. Langhaug, president, said Meiller qualified on the basis of the amount of life and health insurance protection provided for Lutherans in his area, plus other financial plans and services.

Meiller is associated with Lutheran Brotherhood's Walter Beglau Agency, headquartered in Austin. He has been an LB district representative since 1963.

In addition to his insurance and other financial services, Lutheran Brotherhood operates a fraternal activities program with an annual budget of more than $9 million. Fraternal allocations include scholarships, traveling art galleries, home and personal safety projects, student loans and patriotic activities.

Dallas professor due here at Methodist Church Tuesday

Dr. Claus Rohlf of Dallas will be the featured preacher at First United Methodist Church beginning Sunday morning, February 12 through Tuesday evening, February 14.

Dr. Rohlf, well-known to many Big Springers, will bring us a spiritual renewal.

A native of West Germany, Dr. Rohlf came to the United States with his mother and three sisters in 1931. He served with the U.S. Army in the Pacific Theater for over three years during World War II.

He married the former Miss Doris M. Zirkel of San Antonio following his return to the States after the war.

Dr. Rohlf received his theological education at Temple University, SMU, Union Theological Seminary, Austin Presbyterian Seminary and the Institute of Theology, Princeton University.

Dr. Rohlf, professor of Church Administration, Director of Field Education, and Director of the Courses of Study School at Perkins School of Theology SMU, is one of the most dynamic voices in the American pulpit today.

DR. CLAUD ROHLFS

Lenten event set Wednesday

On Wednesday at St. Mary's Episcopal Church, the first Lenten Wednesday special service will begin at 6:30 p.m.

There will be potluck supper following the service of evening prayer. The program Wednesday will be a film entitled "How Much is Enough" which is similar to the Devil and Daniel Webster story.

The award winning films will be held each Wednesday night. The public is invited and asked to bring a salad or vegetable casserole with the women of the church furnishing meat and drinks. Desserts will be provided by each evening's hostess.

Discussion will follow the brief films.

THE UGLY BUILDING FULL OF BEAUTIFUL PEOPLE!
If it weren't for the cross on the roof and the sign over the door, you probably wouldn't realize that a church meets at 21st and Nolan. You know, people today are discovering that a building does not make a church. Many beautiful, lavish church buildings are empty, cold, and depressing. A barn can be better than a cathedral when excited, caring, loving Christians gather in it in the name of Jesus.

The only thing beautiful about us is our people. And the only reason our people are beautiful is that Christ, in the person of the Holy Spirit, lives in them and through them. Only Christ can make you beautiful. May we share Him with you?

Missionary slated Sunday at Presbyterian

The Presbyterian Church will host a supper at 6 p.m. Sunday with all members and friends of the congregation invited to attend.

The covered dish event will feature Mrs. Priscilla Abbott, a teacher in Japan as main speaker following the supper.

Ash Wednesday message told

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lent, the 40 week-days before Easter observed as a period of penitence and self-disciplining reform, started Feb. 8 on Ash Wednesday.

That opening day, marked in Roman Catholic and some Protestant churches by marking the foreheads of worshippers with ashes, emphasizes human mortality, failures and dependence on God's forgiveness.

In a Lenten message released in the country by the National Conference of Catholic Bishops, Pope Paul VI urged showing "love for one's neighbor" by deeds and gifts for the needy. Sharing, he said, is fundamental to Christianity.

THE SINGING DEWEYS ...featured here Sunday

Gospel singing group due at Church of God Sunday

The Singing Deweys of Nashville, Tenn. will present a gospel music concert Sunday at 10 a.m. February 12 in the First Assembly of God Church, 4th & Lancaster.

The family group consists of Levooy and Cleon Dewey and their two daughters, Cindy and Susie. The Deweys have traveled as a family unit since 1967, singing across the United States at denominational conventions, churches, fairs, colleges, and on the television.

They have sung on the Grand Ole Opry, at the People's Church in Toronto, Canada, and in the Avon Shakespearean Theatre. Recent trips include several visits to Central American, the last of which resulted in a fund-raising effort to help build a church for missionary work among the Indians of the San Blas Islands. The Rev. Randall Ball invites the public to attend.

The Deweys credit a good portion of their success to the closeness of their family. Levooy's father, Wayne, drives and maintains the bus that the group travels in; meanwhile his mother, Marie, helps in the office.

The Deweys play 15 different instruments during their program ranging from various stringed instruments to keyboard and wind instruments. Bring the whole family because it is truly a musical experience to remember.

Jesuits increase

ROME (AP) — The number of Jesuits, Roman Catholicism's largest order of men, has declined from 35,968 in 1964 to 28,020 in 1977, a drop of nearly a fourth, the order's 1977-78 yearbook shows.

World watches Middle East

NEW YORK (AP) — When Jewish and Moslem leaders embraced in the Middle East in the waning days of 1977, raising a glimmer of hope that the region's fratricidal conflict might be resolved, it was a top religious event of the year.

The impact of it also was felt by Christians, as well as others.

Citing it as the year's No. 1 religious story, the ecumenical weekly, Christian Century, said that despite political, cultural and economic ramifications of Israeli-Arab relations, religion was the underlying factor in the peaceful confrontation of Egyptian and Israeli leaders.

As various organs assessed the main religious events of the year, the following got principal attention:

—The onset of schism in the Episcopal Church, triggered by dissidents objecting to ordination of women, revisions in the Book of Common Prayer and asserted secularizing tendencies in the church.

Bible-quoting campaign in Dade County, Fla., to repeal an ordinance assuring them of rights in jobs and other spheres.

HOW SOON WE FORGET

Then (Israel) believed His words — trusting in, relying on them; they sang His praise.

But they hastily forgot His works; they did not (earnestly) wait for His plans (to develop) respecting them;

But lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tempted and tried to restrain God (with their insistent desire) in the desert.

And He gave them their request, but sent leanness into their soul and (thinned their numbers by) disease and death.

— Psalms 106:12-15
(Amplified Bible)

'The Enemy' relates tale of youths

Films like "The Exorcist" have met with much negative uproar across North America. To the contrary, however, a film on the same theme, titled "The Enemy," is receiving enthusiastic commendation and accolades from clergymen in many denominations, according to officials at a local Baptist church.

The seventy-minute color feature film will be shown at Midway Baptist Church on Sunday, Feb. 12 at 7 p.m. The show re-enacts the actual experience of a young couple who served as youth sponsors in their local church. Because they prefer anonymity, the actual names of those involved are not used in the film.

The young couple, through their youth group activities, encounter two teenage boys whose strange behavior turns out to be demon possession. How they deal with the problem makes "The Enemy" an unusual film.

If payday is Friday and your boss told you to come back for your check on Wednesday... how would you feel? That's how your THE BIG SPRING HERALD carrier feels if you don't pay on time. Your Big Spring Herald carrier has a job to do, and he deserves to be paid promptly. Each Herald carrier pays for his papers, whether or not you pay him. If you're late with your payment, your carrier will have to dig into his own pocket to pay for your paper. Keep him in business, and he'll keep you in papers. Remember, your Herald carrier likes that secure payday feeling as well as you do. He pays his bill the 5th. Please pay him BEFORE the 5th by mail, or when he comes to collect. Thank you, Circulation Department

Another asbestos suit settled

BEAUMONT, Texas (AP) — Less than 24 hours after the federal government offered more than $5 million for its share of a $20 million asbestos suit, another $1.5 million suit against 14 asbestos manufacturers was settled out of court for $200,000.

The latter case, in its fourth day of testimony ended abruptly Thursday in U.S. District Judge Joe Fisher's court.

William Welty, 51, filed suit last May claiming the companies were negligent because they had not issued warnings about the danger of asbestos.

The Port Arthur resident, who worked as an insulator from 1952 to 1976, said he has contracted asbestosis. The reportedly non-fatal disease affects the respiratory system.

Several of the 45 employees of a now-defunct Tyler asbestos plant suffer from the same ailment. The employees sued the government and several private firms in 1974. However, the suit was disposed of Wednesday when the U.S. Justice Department agreed to offer $5.75 million as its share of the suit.

A third asbestos suit, scheduled for federal court here Monday, claims 11 asbestos manufacturers were negligent in not telling Clifton Corkran of Groves that the material could cause "severe, permanent and disabling injuries."

Corkran said he worked as an insulator from 1957 to 1975 when he was forced to retire due to asbestosis.

Farm

USDA-OPIC approach

WASHINGTON (AP) — With the farm sector clamoring for more intensive efforts to promote U.S. commodities abroad, the Agriculture Department and the Overseas Private Investment Corp. have devised a new program aimed at long-term new customers in underdeveloped countries.

Unlike many foreign-aid programs that are aimed at modernizing the farming practices in the so-called Third World, the USDA-OPIC approach announced Thursday is a business-insurance plan aimed at establishing new consumers in those nations; grain-processing mills, granaries and livestock herds.

OPIC, an independent federal agency, insures private investment in about 80 developing nations against "political risks" seizure of property, refusal to pay debts and physical damage from revolutions and invasions.

The USDA-OPIC program offers insurance, guaranteed and direct loans and feasibility-study grants for U.S. investors who want to join with foreign firms to develop poultry, hog, sheep, goat and fish farms with U.S. breeding stock, to build mills and establish import storage facilities.

The aim is more and better food for those nations' citizens and neighbors and new markets for American grain, soybeans and young animals, the announcement said. A week ago, USDA started its own political-risk insurance for export financing, but limited its scope to cotton sales for the time being.

Ice storms snap power

CLÉBURNE, Texas (AP) — Work crews south of the Dallas-Fort Worth area restored electric service to most customers Friday after ice storms caused power outages that lasted up to two days.

Texas Power & Light and the Johnson County Electric Coop each reported some 500 customers left without service late Friday morning, but both said work crews could restore power by early afternoon.

"If we can keep our big trucks out of the ditches, we will have power restored to all areas soon," said Reece Strong, manager of the Johnson County coop.

This week's round of snow and ice snapped power lines and caused problems to about 6,000 customers in the area.

Dairymen suffered the most, and the experiences of the Jack Youngblood family of Rio Vista were perhaps typical.

The Youngbloods rely on electric milking machines to take care of their 150 head of dairy cattle. When power went out, the Youngbloods rigged their milking machines to their diesel tractor, but ran out of diesel fuel after two days. Ice began melting just in time to allow more delivery of diesel fuel, and the family anticipated being back on the electric circuits Friday.

"I've seen it this bad before, but this was the worst in 20 years," Strong said.

Set-aside programs for rice surveyed

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department, having established 1978 acreage set-aside programs for wheat and feed grains, is asking farmers and the public generally whether rice plantings also should be reduced as a way to bolster market prices.

Rice prices, because of export demand, have been falling better in the last six months than the other grains, however.

The law allows a set-aside of up to 30 percent to control production if USDA decides the likely supply will leave excessive, price-depressing surpluses.

Current surveys indicate farmers plan to plant 10 percent more rice this year, which could mean having 13 million to 44 million hundredweight left over by the end of the 1978 marketing year, compared to an expected carryover from this season of 22 million to 29 million.

The notice seeks opinions by March 9 on whether there should be one, what size and whether land-diversion payments should be authorized at the same time.

No payments are allowed under the wheat and feedgrains set-asides. If farmers don't cooperate with set-asides, they are banned from the price-support, disaster-aid and income-supplement programs.

Orange juice content slips

ORLANDO, Fla. (AP) — A series of isolated "pocket freezes" in Florida's citrus-growing area will mean a reduced juice content and loss of some four-million gallons of concentrated orange juice, growers say.

Industry officials say this will reduce an already limited supply of reserves and keep prices up.

Vice President Tom Osborne of Florida Citrus Mutual, which represents more than 15,000 growers, said Thursday the loss was important because sales of the inventory on hand are about 5 percent higher than anticipated.

Duroc event due Feb. 23

LUBBOCK — The Panhandle South Plains Fairgrounds here will be the scene for the Southwestern and National Duroc Congress Feb. 23, 24 and 25. All indications show that this will be an excellent place to observe and purchase top quality Duroc breeding stock. The event will attract over 400 head of pure bred Durocs from 140 herds across the United States.

The judging of bred gilts, open gilts and boars begins on Friday, Feb. 24 at 8:00 a.m. The show will continue throughout the day, followed by the selection of champions. Dr. Lauren L. Christian, respected swine judge from Iowa State University, will be making the placings. The annual banquet and business meeting will be held Friday evening at 7:00 p.m.

The national sale will start promptly at 10:00 a.m. Saturday, Feb. 25.

The Southwestern Duroc Breeders Association and the United Duroc Swine Registry, Peoria, Ill.

They called it Auto
with Marj Carpenter

They called it Auto. And over half the people that remember the little country location at all thought all these years that it was called Otto.

The place began as a "place" along about 1905. It was located between Fairview and Knott — but closer to Knott where the roads met out there.

It was named just about like Tarzan was named.

Somebody was trying to think of an original name for a post office that has not been used up already.

Texas was absolutely full of post offices at that time with one every few miles. And the automobile was just coming into being, so included on the list of possible names for the postal service that was sent into Washington was Auto, and Auto it became.

But not for long, by 1913, it had been replaced by Knott which took over the post office.

But at one time, out at Auto, there was a post office, a store and a school. The rural route out of Auto included the mail boxes at Buzzard Wells which were among those on the Auto route.

The post office and store were on the land of G. T. Walker. The home of his son, the late Jim Walker, is still right across the street from where Auto once stood.

Lonnie Dement, who with her brother, Ira Dement attended school at Auto, married one of the Walkers — Willie Walker.

This clan of Walkers is not to be confused with the clan around Coahoma, Fairview and R-Bar. That bunch is still all around us, but the Walkers out at Auto are almost gone.

Other early students out there included Cecil Thixton and Emmett Riley. There were also Scott and Mike Riley and three of the Riley boys married Walkers. There was also an Owen, Will and Jim Tolliver who attended school there.

Early teachers included Ed Simpson, Jim Merrick and Irene Frost.

The Dements recently sold their land in that part of the county to some of the Shaw family. The Shaws were early residents at nearby Knott where they ran the early post office.

But the family of G. T. Walker, who ran the old general mercantile at Auto, apparently has all died off or moved away.

The post offices and rural communities were almost like a game of checkers in those days. First there was Auto and old Sparenburg as the post offices along the route from Big Spring to Lamesa.

It shifted over to Soash and when that town went under, somebody started Knott.

Insurance theft rates reduced

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — The State Insurance Board has reduced rates for personal theft policies by a statewide average of 18.8 per cent.

Such policies are relatively uncommon.

The board said the rate cut resulted from smaller losses paid by insurance companies. Largest claims came from Galveston, Jefferson, McLennan and Travis counties, the board said, and their reductions will be only 2.1 per cent.

Bexar, Bowie, Dallas and El Paso counties earned a 21 per cent reduction. Tarrant County's rate cut was 20.2 per cent.

Harris, Potter, Randall and Wichita counties received a 15.6 per cent rate cut. The reduction for the remainder of the state was 21.8 per cent.
