Korean plane forced down, two passengers killed

Soviets fire at jetliner

WASHINGTON (AP) — Soviet jet fighters fired at an Alaska-bound South Korean jetliner and forced it to land after the passenger plane flew over Soviet territory, President Carter's national security adviser said today.

Two of the plane's passengers were dead and two others injured, Zbigniew Brzezinski, the adviser, said. A State Department spokesman said a total of 13 persons were injured, two of them seriously.

Brzezinski, who did not elaborate on the Soviet shooting at the passenger plane, said he did not know the cause of death or the nationalities of the victims. But Japanese sources said one of the dead was a Japanese citizen, Y. Sugano, 45.

In Moscow, U.S. embassy officials said the Soviet government has offered to allow an American civil aircraft to pick up the passengers and crew in Murmansk, 230 miles north of the landing site.

An embassy spokesman said the United States has made no response to this invitation and denied that the United States is playing any middleman's role in the incident.

American sources in Moscow said U.S. officials were informed by the Soviets that the Boeing 707, which landed on a frozen lake, suffered "some damage."

No Americans were reported aboard the plane, which had been bound from Paris to Seoul, with a refueling stop in Anchorage, Alaska.

Japanese sources said Soviet Premier Alexei N. Kosygin was keeping visiting Japanese Agriculture Minister Ichiro Nakagawa informed on the incident.

They said the Soviets told him the pilot, after being intercepted by warplanes, tried for two hours to avoid landing before he was forced down on a frozen lake near the town of Kem, 600 miles north of Moscow and 300 miles south of Murmansk in the Soviet northwest. Kem is 150 miles east of the Finnish border.

The Japanese sources said the Soviet Foreign Ministry informed them the impact was so severe that the ice on the lake was shattered.

The South Korean Foreign Ministry said today that information it had indicated the plane made an emergency landing after it violated Soviet territory but "not deliberately."

A Korean Airlines spokesman said an aircraft would arrive in Helsinki, Finland Saturday to pick up the passengers and crew of the downed aircraft.

The official Soviet Tass news agency said arrangements were being made for the passengers and crew to leave the Soviet Union. Another KAL plane left Seoul today for Helsinki, Finland, to stand by to pick them up.

"Fighter planes of the Soviet anti-aircraft defenses intercepted the violator," Tass said. "In night-time conditions, using revolutions (maneuvers) of the planes and on-board lights, they repeatedly issued orders to the intruder to follow them in order to land at some nearby airfield."

"The plane, however, did not respond to these orders and landed on a lake," Tass said.

Tass said the plane had entered Soviet airspace near Murmansk.

"The passengers and crew of the plane were taken to the nearest populated locality and arrangements are being made for their dispatch from the U.S.S.R.'s territory," Tass said. The Tass announcement made no mention of casualties.

Aggies muster here at 7:00

April 21st is two different days in Texas. First, it's San Jacinto Day.

In addition, it's Aggie Muster Day but to any persons who ever attended Texas A&M, Muster Day is number one.

The annual Aggie Muster in Big Spring this year will be held at 7 p.m. at the Dora Roberts Community Center. There will be no guest speaker.

All Aggies and their spouses are invited to attend the annual event, and answer the traditional Aggie Roll Call for comrades who have died.

Munition blasts kill four in Cleburne

CLEBURNE, Texas (AP) — Authorities face the grisly task today of searching for remains of four persons killed when a series of explosions leveled a complex of three small buildings at a munitions plant here Thursday afternoon.

No other persons were killed or seriously injured, said Don Beeson, Johnson County medical investigator, and Don Samanie, vice president of GOEX Inc., owner of the plant.

It was the second time in less than five years that employees were killed in blasts at the GOEX plant. Four persons died and 29 were injured in a July 10, 1973 explosion.

Firemen said investigators may never know the cause of the blasts that leveled the one story complex where workers washed and screened RDX, an explosive powder used in artillery shells and commercial explosives.

Samanie said the victims were: Rosemary Sauble, 37, of Burleson and Billy Clanton, 26, Elwin Brende, 62, and Bobby Trotta, 19, all of Cleburne.

"All they have over there is a big hole," said Johnson County Sheriff Stuart Huffman.

Witnesses said the force of the explosion sheared foliage from nearby trees, shattered windows and buckled garage doors of houses 200 yards away. Mrs. Vernon Weis, who lives more than 300 yards from the center of the blasts, said her house was jarred from its foundation.

The remains of the victims were scattered as far as 400 yards away, authorities said.

Fireman said the explosions sent a column of smoke billowing hundreds of feet into the air. The smoke could be seen in Fort Worth more than 20 miles north of here.

Authorities, combing the 430-acre site, called off the search at dark Thursday for remains of the victims. But Samanie said the search would resume this morning.

Huffman said so far searchers had found "a piece here and a piece there."

Beeson and Dr. Arthur Raines, Johnson County medical examiner, have the grim job of identifying the bodies from collected remains.

Witnesses said there were three explosions, a big one followed by two smaller ones. However, Samanie and Cleburne Fire Chief Red McVicker said there were two blasts.

Mrs. Weis said she was in a bedroom and protected by a wall of her stone house when the first blast shattered her windows, twisted her house on its foundation and damaged the roof. She said the force of the explosion threw her onto the bed.

W.D. Doggett witnessed the 1973 blast at the GOEX plant and had just returned to his nearby home when the plant exploded again Thursday. He said the concussion this time was twice as bad as the 1973 explosion.

Mrs. Billie Glass, a worker in the leveled powder room, said she owes her life to her son's illness. She left the RDX section of the plant that morning after school officials said her young son was running a high fever.

Another worker, Patricia Layton, quit two days before the 1973 explosion, but went back to work at the plant eight months ago. She would have also been in the blast area if she had not taken her son to baseball practice less than an hour before Thursday's explosions.

"I was supposed to be there, that's twice I've missed it," she said.

Gas deregulation accord reached?

WASHINGTON (AP) — House and Senate negotiators, after a stormy session with Energy Secretary James R. Schlesinger lasting into the early morning hours, said today they had reached a basic accord on the proposed deregulation of natural gas.

Although sources, who declined to be identified, said there was still a chance the negotiations might break down, most conferees expressed guarded optimism that a compromise may be near. An agreement would break the deadlock stalling President Carter's year-old energy program.

ACCIDENT VICTIM AT HIGH SCHOOL — Clara Jean Brown, 18, is put on a stretcher as family and concerned bystanders look on. The Big Spring High School student was struck by a vehicle today at 8:30 a.m. as she stepped between two cars in front of the school.

Kiddieland Park project

Jaycees ahead of schedule

Development of the Jaycee-sponsored Kiddieland park is running approximately one month ahead of schedule, according to project chairman Mike Faulkner.

"The company which manufactures the 'Mark IV', the biggest piece of playground equipment we are buying, notified us that the unit was being shipped ahead of schedule, and should be here Tuesday," said Faulkner.

A representative from the company, as well as an engineer from Grinnell, Iowa, should arrive the same day to assist and advise the workers putting up the unit, but groundbreaking activities — complete with the Chamber of Commerce Ambassadors in attendance, will begin the previous day, Monday, at 10 a.m.

"We will run the backhoe Monday after the groundbreaking so that everything will be ready to get started when the Mark IV arrives," Faulkner stated.

The group — composed of almost entirely volunteer labor, will pour the foundation — some 27 yards of concrete — Tuesday, and set the main post Wednesday, if all goes according to schedule.

"Instead of having the Mark IV operational by June 1, as we had planned, we should have it ready a day or two ahead of May 1. It should be operational by April 29," Faulkner projected.

A loan was taken out by the Jaycees to cover the cost of the Mark IV, but all the rest of the Kiddieland development will be done as funds are available.

"We wanted to let the public know that we were serious about this project, and that we were willing to go into debt to get it started," the project chairman stated.

But, the Jaycees can't keep on moving the project ahead without community support.

"Money, donated manpower — particularly masons, concrete finishers, carpenters and other skilled labor — and any donated materials to use in the building of a concession stand, two restrooms, and a bridge over the creek that runs through the area would be appreciated," Faulkner said.

The Jaycees intend to contact the social and service organizations around Big Spring, as well as individuals. Dennis Weaver chairs the Jaycee speakers' bureau, and will make sure that any clubs who wish to hear about the project will be able to do so.

"We hope to have mailers inside the utility bills, and will speak to any group that is willing to hear us," Faulkner said.

Morris Molpus Jr. is chairman of the fund raising drive for the project, and interested persons can contact him, as well as Faulkner and Weaver.

Accounts have been set up at the State National Bank, Security State Bank, First National Bank, and Citizens Federal Credit Union, and donations can be deposited at or mailed to any of the four financial institutions. Anyone wishing to donate manpower or materials should contact the Jaycees, or show up at the Kiddieland site in Comanche Trail Park while the work on the Mark IV is being done.

THE $14,000 MARK IV WILL HANDLE SOME 200 CHILDREN AT ONCE
...Kiddieland Park is scheduled to have grand opening on Labor Day

Focalpoint

Action/reaction: Not four

Q: Is it necessary for the city of Big Spring to have four assistant city managers?

A: No. That's why Big Spring has only two assistant city managers. Both of them, Bill Brown and Jerry Foresyth, perform multiple functions, including administration of the Park Department and Water and Sewer Department, as well as general duties.

Offbeat: Police eye trash

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP) — Police here are keeping a close eye on the local garbage, making sure that the trash that's being collected for bounty actually comes from Kalamazoo and not from elsewhere.

Last week, the township announced plans to pay residents $2 for each bag of trash picked up from local streets and delivered to one of four fire stations.

"We've had people call from Vicksburg, Richland and other areas, wondering if they could collect the money, too," township Treasurer Leonard Vandenberg said. "We tell them that if they want to come to our township to pick up trash, we'll be glad to pay them. I don't know how many are doing that."

By Monday, 1,400 trash bags had been handed out to people who said they wanted to pitch in.

But Vandenberg acknowledged that it's difficult to determine with certainty whether the trash being brought in actually comes from township streets.

"We've had our police officers keep their eyes open and they report they (local streets) are looking cleaner," he said.

Tops on TV: Rockford Files

Since the movie, "Secrets," is a dog, the best bet is probably a great episode of "The Rockford Files" at 8 p.m. on NBC. In this one a Walter Mitty-esque garage mechanic (played by James Whitmore Jr.) borrows Rockford's ID and gets them both in a mess. If you're still awake at 11:30 p.m. tune into "Austin City Limits" featuring Jesse Winchester on PBS.

Inside: 'Homophobia' in Boston

HOMOSEXUALS UPSET by a sensational child molestation case are trying to convince the public that there is nothing inherently wrong with sex between men and boys. The effort is in reaction to what homosexuals say is a growing wave of "homophobia" in Boston where they once felt they could live without harassment. See p. 8B.

ASSISTANT POLICE CHIEF Carrol M. Lynn, charged with obstruction of justice, has been fired. Police Chief Harry Caldwell said Thursday he offered Lynn an opportunity to resign, but Lynn refused. See p. 7A.

Chaplin's body missing

CORSIER-SUR-VEVEY, Switzerland (AP) — The night of Wednesday, March 1, was a typical one in Corsier-Sur-Vevey, the little Swiss village where Charlie Chaplin, its most prominent citizen, had died last Christmas Day.

Most people had gone to bed after watching a soccer game and "The Factory of Fear," a mystery series, on television. The cafe next to the church had stayed open an extra half hour so the aldermen could have a glass of wine after a regular meeting of the Municipal Council.

Shortly after midnight, the streets were empty as a steady rain fell.

What happened next has been pieced together from the reports of police, judicial authorities and villagers.

Around 2 a.m., Thursday, March 2, a minitruck or station wagon drove up a dead-end road and turned right into the village cemetery. The cemetery's iron gate was open, as it always is. The vehicle stopped on a tree-lined central alley dividing rows of graves. Three or four men — investigators said later it would have taken at least three strong men to do the job — walked to a grave marked by a simple oak cross with the inscription "Charles Chaplin, 16.4.1889-25.12.1977" — Born 16 April, 1889-Died 25 December, 1977.

HAPPY TEACHER — Claudia Werth, a teacher at Cleveland's Franklin Roosevelt Jr. High, happily displays the first paycheck she received in a month from the bankrupt Cleveland, Ohio school system. The Cleveland schools received an $18 million advance in the state aid Thursday, averting a threatened strike by school employees.

School candy proposal to sour many students

WASHINGTON (AP) — School cafeterias would have to delay selling candy, chewing gum, soft drinks and other snacks until all meals for the day have been served if a new Agriculture Department proposal is adopted.

"We are proposing to prohibit the sale of these foods because we believe they have contributed to a decline in the consumption of nutritious foods in school and to reduced participation in the school lunch and breakfast programs," Assistant Secretary Carol Foreman said today in a speech prepared for the Newspaper Food Editors and Writers Association in San Jose, Calif.

In general, the foods that would be prohibited from sale before the final meal include candy, soda drinks, frozen desserts and chewing gum.

The proposal is aimed at eliminating the sale of sweets that are not part of the regular school cafeteria menus for breakfast or lunch.

The department administrators all child nutrition programs, including school lunches and breakfasts. About 25 million pupils are served daily under the school lunch program.

Open house is planned Monday

An open house for any citizen who wants to attend is being held at the Big Spring Chamber of Commerce office from 3-6 p.m. Monday.

The event is especially in honor of new chamber members, but all former members and interested citizens are urged to attend, according to Ray Don Williams, chamber president.

Mr. and Mrs. Williams, members of the board of directors and their wives, the Ambassadors and their wives and the membership committee are all assisting with the event.

Associate conductor of band is a Texan

Captain Jack H. Grogan, a native of Anson, will act as Executive Officer and Associate Bandmaster of the U.S. Army Field Band as they perform in Big Spring. The special performance by the band will be in the City Auditorium at 3 p.m. on Sunday, April 30, and is free to the general public.

Grogan graduated from Hardin-Simmons University in Abilene, in June 1967 with a bachelor of music education degree. He studied conducting with Marion McClure. He was a member of the Phi Mu Alpha Sinfonia, national professional music fraternity, principal saxophonist with the Abilene Philharmonic and a member of the University's famed Cowboy Band. He was commissioned a second lieutenant in the United States Army Reserve and was named Distinguished Military Student and Graduate.

Grogan was awarded a master of music degree in January 1970 from the University of Miami in Florida, where he as a student of the noted conductor, Dr. Frederick Fennell. After earning his degree, he worked as director of instrumental music in a Texas school system.

Grogan entered active duty in March of 1969 and in January, 1970 was assigned to the U.S. Army Field Band. He became director of the Field Band's famed jazz ensemble, The Studio Band. In July of 1971, Captain Grogan served with the 23rd Infantry Division in Vietnam

RELY ON EXPERIENCE ELECT JACK BUCHANAN COUNTY JUDGE

Statistics show crime is on the increase in Howard County. A vote for Jack Buchanan for County Judge May 6 would be a vote for proper administration of the office and fair and equitable treatment in County Court for all.

I believe in respect and protection of the laws and prosecuting those who would break our statutes. I am for keeping the county court docket current and will diligently work toward this goal. By Education (graduate of Texas Tech University) and by business experience, I am qualified to be your next county judge. I stand for a progressive, yet efficient county government.

Weather Possibility of rain in North Texas

Fair skies and mild temperatures dominated the Texas weather picture, but forecasters warned of the possibility of scattered thunderstorm activity, particularly in North Texas by the evening hours.

Only a few patches of clouds in South Texas and in the Panhandle kept the state from reporting fair skies statewide. Early morning temperatures ranged from the 30s in the mountains of Southwest Texas to the 50s in South Texas.

and the 29th Support Group at Long Binh. Grogan was reassigned to the United States Army Field Band in May, 1972 as Associate Bandmaster and became Executive Officer in June, 1974.

TEST YOUR WALK
Brethren, join in following my example, and observe those who walk according to the pattern you have in us.

18 For any walk, of whom I often told you, and now tell you even weeping, that they are enemies of the cross of Christ.

19 whose end is destruction, whose god is their appetite, and whose glory is in their shame, who set their minds on earthly things.

20 For our citizenship is in heaven, from which also we eagerly wait for a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ;

COMBINING PUBLIC AND PRIVATE SELF — Actress Jane Fonda gestures during her keynote speech to a group of lawyer's wives in Beverly Hills, Calif. Wednesday. Fonda spoke about her success of melding her public and private lives and her love of acting with her commitment to political activism.

Warning signals usually precede money problems

COLLEGE STATION — Financial problems seldom make a sudden or unannounced appearance — there are usually warning signals that potential problems exist, says Dr. Carolyn McKinney, family resource management specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Answer the following questions — they may reveal warning signals:

- (1) Is it difficult to state rather quickly exactly how much money is owed on installment and other long-term debts?
- (2) Do annual payments on long-term debts (excluding mortgages) exceed 20 percent of the family's income?
- (3) Was it necessary to borrow money to pay fixed expenses such as insurance premiums, tax payments or installment loan payments?
- (4) Were small everyday items (such as groceries, cleaning supplies or cosmetics) charged because of too little money to pay for them?
- (5) Was a bill recently held over until the next pay period due to lack of funds to pay for it when due?
- (6) Are telephone calls or letters from creditors demanding payment of overdue bills?

According to the National Foundation for Consumer Credit, if the answer is "yes" to at least two of the preceding questions, potential financial problems exist.

Three "yes" answers signal that financial trouble does exist, Dr. McKinney cautions.

Dear Abby

Widower Promised Not To Remarry

DEAR ABBY: I can't believe that I, a 62-year-old man, am actually writing a letter to Dear Abby, but I have a problem I cannot solve. How do you or your consultants (perhaps a minister or psychiatrist) feel about deathbed promises?

The situation is as follows: I am very much in love with a 60-year-old widow. I am a widower. Our children are grown and independent. This widow and I both had good and faithful spouses. I lost mine two years ago, and she lost hers three years ago. We met by accident. Neither of us was looking for anyone.

After keeping steady company for a year, we are very much in love and want to marry. However, my wife, on her deathbed, asked me to promise her that I would never marry again. I made that promise, and now I feel guilty because I want to marry. What obligation have I to a dead spouse, and what should I do?

FEELING GUILTY

DEAR FEELING: First, shed those guilt feelings. Deathbed promises are almost always made under duress and are not binding. Your only obligation is to yourself. Go ahead and marry the lady, and the sooner the better. Life is for living.

DEAR ABBY: I had a buffet dinner party at my home recently with 12 of my relatives were invited. (One was my mother.)

The party was scheduled for 6:30. At 6:25 my mother arrived with a giant pot of turkey soup. I was caught by surprise. My dinner was already prepared and there was no way I could have served my mother's turkey soup. For one thing, I don't have enough soup bowls or soup spoons to serve 12, and even if I had, turkey soup wouldn't have been appropriate with the meal I planned.

I politely told my mother that I would put her turkey soup away and save it for another time. She was miffed and let me know it. Was I wrong, Abby? She keeps bringing it up to me that I wouldn't let her serve her turkey soup. How can I make amends for my gross error?

IN THE SOUP DOWN SOUTH

DEAR IN: You weren't wrong. Tell your mother you gobbled up her turkey soup later and it was delicious.

DEAR ABBY: Please tell Lance R. in Belvedere, S.C., whose father bet him that there were no professional basketball players under 6 feet tall, that his father owes him $30.

According to the National Basketball Association, there are five active professionals under 6 feet tall. They are: Charles Criss (Atlanta Hawks), Fouts Walker (Cleveland Cavaliers), Calvin Murphy (Houston Rockets), Robert Smith (Denver Nuggets) and Kevin Porter (New Jersey Nets).

JIM POLEY (HOUSTON ROCKETS)

If you put off writing letters because you don't know what to say, get Abby's booklet, "How to Write Letters For All Occasions." Send $1 and a long, stamped (24 cent) envelope to Abby: 152 Lasky Drive, Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212.

TWEEN 12 AND 20 Girls, learn from her story

Dr. Williams: I'm 17 and just had a baby boy. But that is not the problem. It's the baby's father.

After the baby was born, he came around for about three weeks but then he stopped seeing us. I talked to him about this, and he said that he didn't care anymore.

Doctor, what can I do to get him back? I love him so much. He is 19 and likes to party.

Nameless, Klamath Falls, Ore.

Dear Nameless: Actually there is nothing you can do to make him love you or to "come back." He has shown irresponsibility and immaturity and it might be best if he doesn't return.

Get your act together and direct your time and energy toward your baby son.

If in the near future, the father decides to accept responsibility and returns because he loves the baby and you, accept him back with open arms.

If this doesn't happen, don't let this ruin your future and that of your baby.

I would hope that the teenage girls who could possibly get into a similar predicament would think ahead and place themselves in the situation of Nameless. It might save them much suffering and agony.

On 'Personal Development of Today's Woman' Business women invited to seminar

All interested business women are welcomed to attend an educational seminar on the "Personal Development of Today's Women" which will be presented by the Monahans Business and Professional Womens Club on April 23.

The seminar is for all district eight B&PW Club members although you need not be a member to attend.

The seminar will take place at the Colonial Inn at Monahans. Registration will be from 12:30 to 1 p.m. The cost, $9, includes registration fees and a 1 p.m. buffet luncheon.

The three-part seminar will be conducted from 2 to 5 p.m.

The first segment, "Investments of Today's Women," will be presented by Jim Reese of Odessa. Reese served as mayor of Odessa for six years and is the former president of the Texas Jaycees and vice president of the U.S. Jaycees. He is associated with Eppler, Gurein and Turner, Inc., an Odessa investment company.

Women interested in applying for these scholarships should contact the guidance office of Big Spring High School. Iva Parker is the scholarship chairman.

AAUW to award scholarships

Judie Rickey, Linda Settle and Linda Mason were hostesses of the meeting which took place at the Pioneer Natural Gas Co.

President Rhonda Rothel announced the results of the children's movie fund-raising project.

New officers elected for next year are Mable Beene, president; Frances Wheat, first vice president; Lota Wiley, second vice president; Sandra Killough, third vice president; Martha Fiero, recording secretary; Linda Settle, corresponding secretary; and Linda Mason, treasurer.

Lota Kilman discussed the Action Reading Series. Ms. Kilman gave information regarding the series' origination and author, Dr. Jo Stanchfield.

Mary Crawford discussed the book "Dress for Success" by John T. Malloy. This book emphasized the most successful and economic dress for men. Ms. Crawford also discussed a seminar she attended which was conducted by Malloy. The seminar had emphasized the attributes of a successful woman's apparel.

Ms. Beene presented facts from the book "Founding Mothers" by Linda DuPaul. This book describes the situation of marriage, household tasks and the legal status of colonial women. Ms. Beene brought out the fact that colonial women were responsible for growing food, medical care, child care and often the economic welfare of their families.

Shirley Shroyer discussed the book "The Glory and the Lightning" by Taylor Caldwell. This book tells of an early-day feminist in ancient Greece and is set against the politics of the age of Pericles.

The next meeting will be at 7 p.m. May 15 and will be a salad supper. Hostesses will be Patsy Conway, June Ricketts and Janie Chavez.

Odessa, Ms. Sloan is a wife, mother of five boys, president of the Ector County Bar Association and the Assistant District Attorney of Midland County.

Pat Taylor will present "Careers — Choosing And Or Changing." A resident of Seminole, she was a first grade teacher at Farr for 12 years, taught remedial reading at Seminole for three, and is currently Curriculum Consultant in the Seminole School System.

Anyone wishing to attend the seminar may contact Mrs. W. E. Lewis, Box 1502, Monahans or Betty Love, 904 S. Gary, Monahans. District eight includes Andrews, Big Spring, El Paso, Midland, Odessa, Monahans, Mt. Franklin, Pecos and Seminole.

Briscoe, Hill grab spotlight

As candidates for the Texas primary elections approached the final two weeks of campaigning, much of the activity centered around the race between Gov. Dolph Briscoe and Attorney General John Hill who are seeking the Democratic Party's gubernatorial nomination. Briscoe spoke in Austin of what he called Hill's "something-for-nothing philosophy" while Hill talked in Corpus Christi about the U.S. Labor Department's investigation into the misuse of Manpower funds in several states, including Texas.

"I don't believe the voters of Texas are going to fall my opponent's something-for-nothing philosophy and his theory that his billion-dollar schemes can be financed by inflation," Briscoe said in a statement released in Austin.

The governor said Hill is attempting to convince voters he can finance programs contained in his campaign promises through inflation without the use of a state income tax.

"This is typical of the high spending, big-government philosophy which he represents and one which contributes to the soaring rate of inflation," Briscoe added. "These people believe that the more the government spends, the more it will have. What they try to disregard is the fact that the more the government spends, the less the people have."

Hill said it is "embarrassing" to hear on national television that Texas' use of federal manpower funds is being investigated.

"Our governor has defended this episode as a proper one even though it is the governor's office which allocates most of these federal funds," Hill said.

The attorney general told a Corpus Christi audience "This is another example of the lax attitude toward public money which creeps up on officeholders who start taking their jobs for granted and start taking the public for granted."

Away from center stage where the two principal Democratic gubernatorial candidates continued their hot verbal battle, Republican gubernatorial candidate Ray Hutchison announced in San Angelo that he has been endorsed by Al Chapin, state coordinator for the Texas MIA-POW chapter.

WADDILL AND WIFE ENTER COURT — Dr. William Waddill, accused of the murder of a baby girl who survived an abortion, performed by Dr. Waddill in March 1977, enters court in Santa Ana, Calif., Thursday with his wife, Janet. The prosecution says Waddill did not take proper measures to save the life of the baby once she was born alive. The case is expected to go to the jury Friday.

Davy Crockett legend smudged Alamo 'hero' executed?

CORPUS CHRISTI, Texas (AP) — Any Texan worth his rindtail lizard-skin cowboy boots and Willie Nelson albums knows better than to smear the legend of Davy Crockett.

So what's this? A past president of the Texas State Historical Association, no less, saying that Crockett might have surrendered and was executed at the Alamo?

And adding that the legendary Tennessean might have had a dismal career in Congress, failed financially and was motivated to go to the Alamo for less than courageous liberty-loving reasons?

But Dan Kilgore — author of a new book entitled "How Did Davy Die?" — said he's got evidence to back up them "fightin' words."

"Crockett's heroism seemed to expand in direct proportion to the distance news had to travel about him," said Kilgore, a Corpus Christi accountant and history buff.

Legend and the history books have it that Crockett, a famous bear hunter, frontiersman and congressman, came to Texas to fight for Texas independence and died a heroic death at the Alamo.

The first published account to suggest that Crockett might have been captured instead of dying in battle came in 1975 in the translation of the diary of one of Mexican Gen. Santa Anna's staff members during the Alamo siege.

The diary of Lt. Jose Enrique de la Pena included a paragraph that indicated Crockett surrendered or was captured and then executed when the Alamo was seized on March 6, 1836.

That notation aroused righteous indignation in the Texas press and public.

And there's more bad news, folks. Kilgore said in his book that there is a preponderance of evidence to substantiate the de la Pena notation. Kilgore said six other Mexican soldiers support the de la Pena's story that Crockett was one of several Texans paraded before an unmerciful Santa Anna, who ordered the Texans quickly shot.

Among those is Ramon Martinez Caro, Santa Anna's personal secretary. "Statements from these seven Mexican soldiers were mutually corroborative, and were recorded independently under widely differing circumstances," Kilgore emphasized.

"Their accounts have come to light over a long period of time, several having surfaced only recently. Any one of them, standing alone, could be subject to question, but considered as a whole, the statements provide stronger documentation than can be claimed for any other incident during the battle."

Kilgore goes on to contend that Crockett's death at the Alamo "came as a tragic finale to a life that was essentially a failure in achievement of worldly goals."

Tax goof made by Gov. Brown SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP) — An error in arithmetic on Gov. Edmund Brown Jr.'s 1977 state income tax return caused him to claim a $443 refund when he actually was entitled to a refund of $468.

The governor's accountant, Carolyn Fox, chagrined at the error, said the state Franchise Tax Board would catch it and send Brown a check for the proper amount.

The tax returns showed that Brown owed $13,895 in federal taxes and was due a $1,141 refund, and that he owed $3,948 to the state and was due a $443 refund — the uncorrected amount.

Brown reported a total income of $51,966, including his $49,100 salary.

Assistant chief at Houston fired

HOUSTON (AP) — Assistant Police Chief Carrol M. Lynn, charged with obstruction of justice after being arrested by federal authorities April 10, has been fired.

Police Chief Harry Caldwell said Thursday he offered Lynn an opportunity to resign but Lynn "opted not to take it."

Lynn, 45, who had been assistant chief since Dec. 3, 1976, also is a former police chief and the highest ranking Houston police chief ever accused in federal court.

Assistant City Attorney Al Levine said he made Caldwell's offer to Lynn to accept the former chief's resignation. Levine described the offer as "a matter of courtesy."

Lynn has been free on $50,000 bond since his arraignment before U.S. Magistrate Lingo Platter following an investigation by the FBI.

Conviction of the charge carries a maximum sentence of five years in prison and a $5,000 fine.

In his announcement that Lynn had been served papers of indefinite suspension, the same as being fired, Caldwell said the reason for the firing "is based on the facts in the affidavit filed before the U.S. magistrate in the recent case resulting in his arrest."

In the affidavit filed by the FBI, Lynn was accused of telling former Houston businessman James Vincent

(AP WIREPHOTO) HARRY D. CALDWELL

Holden that he could have certain charges against Holden dismissed for a fee of $45,000.

The FBI report said Holden made two payments to Lynn, totaling $26,000, but that $25,000 has been recovered.

Al James, director of the Civil Service Commission, said that Lynn, who served with the police department 23 years, will be eligible to receive a pension totaling 36 percent of his base annual pay of $40,239 or some $1,200 a month.

He said Lynn will be eligible to receive his pension payments even if convicted and sentenced to prison on the obstruction of justice charge.

Son of Galveston police chief shoots two officers

GALVESTON, Texas (AP) — The son of the Galveston police chief was in jail today charged in a shooting in which two police officers were wounded.

Edward E. Galvan, 29, son of Police Chief Ernest Galvan, was charged with deadly assault on a police officer, aggravated kidnapping and attempted capital murder. Bond of $180,000 was set.

Officer John Carstaphen, 37, was listed in good condition at a local hospital after undergoing surgery for gunshot wounds in the abdomen and arm. Officer John Mitchell, 20, was treated for a gunshot wound in the shoulder and released.

Police said the incident occurred Thursday when officers responded to a call at a bar where a man and a woman reportedly had been beaten.

Chief of Detectives Walter Lacy said officers radioed a description of the man who allegedly beat the couple but the man and woman then decided not to file charges.

In the meantime, Lacy said, Mitchell spotted a man fitting the description and attempted to stop him about five blocks from the bar. Mitchell and the man were fighting when Carstaphen approached on foot, Lacy said.

"The man grabbed Mitchell's .38 caliber revolver, Lacy said, shot Carstaphen once, shot Mitchell as he grabbed for the gun and then shot Carstaphen a second time. Police said the man then forced his way into a pickup truck and held the driver hostage. After a chase the truck crashed and the man was taken into custody. The hostage, identified as Gerald Lucas, suffered minor injuries and was treated at a hospital and released.

Galvan also was treated for minor injuries and released from a hospital.

Chief Galvan was attending a meeting in Houston when the incident occurred. He declined comment.

"The case is under investigation at this time," he said. "Lieutenant Lacy is in complete charge."

Some 888 deaths and 759 fatal accidents have been recorded this year, compared to 797 deaths in 708 accidents last year.

Highway deaths up 12 percent

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — Texas highway deaths are up by 12 percent, or 91 more fatalities, than for the same period last year, the Department of Public Safety reported Thursday.

Some 888 deaths and 759 fatal accidents have been recorded this year, compared to 797 deaths in 708 accidents last year.

PROBLEMS BIGGER THAN YOURS

That's right!

His problems seem bigger to him than yours are to you!

Sadly, that is one of the last things we understand about our children.

But some parents do understand their children's problems. They are careful to nurture soul and spirit as well as mind and heart. The years ahead will prove them right.

The role of the Church has never been to cut the problems down to the size of the man — always to build the man up to the size of his problems.

Chuck Wagon barbecue tickets selling well

The sale of tickets for the May 4 Chuck Wagon party for the Heritage Museum has been excellent, according to Mrs. Kent Morgan, chairman. Persons planning to attend are urged to purchase tickets soon.

Mrs. Gerri Atwell, museum curator, reports that several groups toured the museum this week including the Seminole Garden Club.

Mrs. Edna Womack acted as hostess for the garden club group. A group of 30 students from Coahoma Elementary with their teacher and a Big Spring High School student group accompanied by Mrs. Gwen Oakes. Letters of thanks were received from each of the 25 Coahoma Elementary students, who toured last week with their teacher, Mrs. Jackie Zitterkopf.

Additional new and renewal memberships received this week include Mr. and Mrs. Bud Rankin, Mr. and Mrs. James Barr, Mrs. Hamlin Elrod, Mr. and Mrs. Louis Tallant, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Wasson, Col. and Mrs. H. A. Spannaus, Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Terry, Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Ray Smith, Mrs. E. H. Hatch, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Bruce and Mrs. Thelma Anderson.

Retiree has only warm memories of old job

Marvin Francis, 33-year employee of Cosden, is retiring to "catch up on my fishing, do a little gardening, play some dominoes and 42, and spend time with my grandkids."

The Anson native is opting for early retirement after a heart attack last April forced him to remain away from his job. "Technically, I guess my health is the reason I'm retiring, but I'm not in what you'd call ill health — I just have to slow down and figure I'd like to have a little time of my own to enjoy," Francis laughed.

He had been working at an aircraft plant in Fort Worth during WWII, but was laid off. "I just decided that it was a good time to get back to West Texas," Francis remembered. "I had a friend in Big Spring, and was just going to visit on my way to Kermit. I saw a big 'help wanted' sign, but kept on driving to Kermit.

"Jobs weren't too plentiful, so I came back to Big Spring and applied for the job," Francis said. "I started working on the big loading dock June 13, 1945. Things have changed a lot since then, the methods we use are a lot different now."

After three or four months on the dock, Francis transferred to the tank car department, repairing the cars that shipped gasoline. Four or five years later, and he transferred to the asphalt shop — when it first opened — to work as a pumper and blender making the highway material.

But, Francis couldn't stay away from the dock. After four years with the asphalt shop, he transferred back to the loading dock. He was a dockman for 23 years working under "the same, fine boss, Henry Stewart."

Francis and his wife, who live on a one-acre lot in Sand Springs are charter members of the 11th and Birdwell Church of Christ. They have three married daughters, all of whom worked for Cosden at one time. Mrs. Joyce Spears worked as a secretary for several years until she married and left Big Spring, and the twins, Peggy and Patty, also worked at Cosden.

Mrs. Joyce Spears now lives in Houston and works for the government. Mrs. Patty Bell is a Lubbock resident, working at Reese Air Force Base, while her twin, Mrs. Peggy Engelhardt is a home economics teacher in Snyder.

Francis and his wife have nine grandchildren, five boys and four girls, as well as one great-grandson — whom they call "Josh" because Joshua seems to big for a 10-month-old. He is the grandson of Joyce and Jim Spears, and his parents are Mr. and Mrs. Michael Legion of Houston.

Francis was presented a money tree from his co-workers and coffee and soft drinks were served.

Present for the party was one daughter and her family, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Engelhardt of Snyder, who will soon be transferring to Houston.

The long-time Cosden employee says he has found memories of Cosden, and will miss all the friends he made at work. "Anytime they are out driving through Sand Springs, the coffee pot is always on, and they're all welcome," Francis said.

And, if he's not at home, you might try driving on through Sand Springs and watching along the road, since Francis walks regularly both for his health and for enjoyment.

Although one daughter, Mrs. Joyce Spears, will be unable to attend, the twins, Mrs. Patty Bell and Mrs. Peggy Engelhardt, plan to host a retirement dinner for Francis on Sunday.

Spring cleanup taken seriously

ACKERLY — This community is taking spring cleanup seriously.

A group of volunteers held a town meeting and set up a council for improvements in the community.

They began to clean up vacant lots and continue tearing down old buildings in a project begun last year.

The group also began a Little League Association for the first time, which includes participants from Knott and Brown and surrounding rural areas.

Last Saturday, the volunteers held a full cleanup day with a community picnic at noon.

They are now eyeing such future possibilities as getting rid of stray dogs and possible tennis courts. The group is also discussing planting flowers in public areas.

Herbicides have been applied to vacant lots to try to help with the weed problem in the community.

Ultimatum received

Moro dead or alive?

ROME (AP) — Aldo Moro's wife and children appealed to the government today to negotiate with his kidnapers, but the ruling Christian Democratic Party's chief parliamentary allies urged rejection of the captors' demand for release of jailed terrorists in exchange for the former premier.

Premier Giulio Andreotti's government, which has refused so far to deal with the kidnapers from the Red Brigades, made no immediate comment on the plea. Meanwhile, the cabinet was meeting to discuss an ultimatum received from the kidnapers Thursday.

The family in a statement appealed to the government to "take a realistic attitude and declare availability to ascertain terms" for his release.

It said Moro's wife Eleonora appealed personally Thursday to leaders of the government and the Christian Democratic Party, of which her husband is the president.

Mrs. Moro, her son and three daughters had been publicly silent since the abduction March 16. But they were reported to have urged the government privately to negotiate Moro's release.

The Red Brigades in a communique Thursday said Moro, 61, was still alive but would be executed unless the government agreed by 9 a.m. EST Saturday to negotiate the release of "communist prisoners." Interior Ministry sources said experts determined the authenticity of both the communique and a photo demonstrating that Moro was still alive. It showed him with a copy of a Wednesday newspaper headlined "Moro Assassinato?"

Il Popolo, the Christian Democratic Party newspaper, said the picture was "evidence" Moro is alive, and "there exists no doubt about the authenticity of the message" that accompanied it.

Christian Democratic officials said the party secretary-general, Benigno Zaccagnini, also received another letter from Moro Thursday night, but they refused to disclose its contents. They said the signature appeared to be genuine.

Andreotti and other leaders of the government party had met until 2 a.m. discussing the situation, but there was no word of any decision. Previously they rejected repeated appeals from Moro to exchange him for jailed terrorists, contending that he was acting under duress.

Press reports today said Interior Minister Francesco Cossiga threatened to resign if the government bowed to the terrorists' demand.

The Communists, Social Democrats and Republicans, three of the six parties making up Andreotti's parliamentary majority, called on the government to continue to reject the kidnapers' demands.

The "state cannot compromise on principles and laws on which the national community and civilized living rest," said a statement from the Communists, who the ultra-leftist Red Brigades denounce for cooperating with the Christian Democrats.

Moro's family, some of his friends and some intellectuals and churchmen reportedly have urged the government to relent in its opposition to negotiate with the kidnapers. Some small political factions to the left of the Communists also have asked the government to negotiate.

College board decides not to second-guess courts

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — The Texas college coordinating board decided not to second-guess the courts Thursday and avoided a showdown over a suit challenging the property tax used to finance state college construction.

"It will be a lengthy court battle and at least three or four years before we have the opportunity to change this tax," said board vice chairman Newton Gresham of Houston. "I think we should make decisions (on campus construction) on the basis that these funds will be available."

A suit by Rep. Wayne Peveto, D-Orange, could radically affect financing of 17 state colleges and universities. Peveto sued in state district court here April 5, alleging the tax is not levied equitably from county-to-county.

The University of Texas at Arlington became the first college asking for approval of a construction project since Peveto's suit.

The board voted to approve construction of a $5.5 million stadium at the UT-Arlington, but only after school officials said other money is available if the property tax can't be used.

UT-Arlington and 16 other colleges and universities share the proceeds from the 10 cents per $100 tax according to their enrollment.

"This institution is at the end of the line on resources available," Kenneth Ashworth, commissioner of higher education, said in opposing Arlington's request. "By choosing to spend the last of its sources of funds — if Peveto is to prevail — to finance the stadium and not academic facilities," Ashworth continued, "this institution would not have funds available to build nursing and other academic structures."

UT-Arlington President Wendell Nedderman said the school lacks facilities for intramural sports and relies on a high school stadium for conference sports.

"We're not asking for a Cadillac of stadiums — just one with 12,000 to 16,000 seating capacity," Nedderman pleaded.

Sancap will control the tough broadleaf weeds that escape your preplant.

Preplant herbicides are great for controlling grasses. But the fact is, they just can't control the stubborn broadleaf weeds that are breaking through cotton here in the South High Plains. So, if you grow cotton on sandy soils, spray an overlay of Sancap® herbicide at planting. Because Sancap is strong on broadleaf weeds. Strong enough to stop the tough ones that escape your preplant. Lady of Fatima pilgrim statue presentation set Sunday at 7 p.m.

The Pilgrim Statue of Our Lady of Fatima will be presented at St. Vincent Pallotti Church, 2525 Westview in Abilene on Sunday, April 23 at 7 p.m.

The Pilgrim Statue is a copy of the Virgin Statue of Our Lady of Fatima in Portugal and has an interesting background.

The story of Fatima goes back to May 13, 1917 when three peasant children of Fatima, Portugal saw a vision of a lady. The three children, Lucia dos Santos, age 10, and her cousins Francisco and Jacinta Marto (age 9 and 7) were told by the lady in the vision that she would appear to them on the 13th of each month. The children claimed she did appear as she said she would until the 13th of October.

The lady reportedly revealed herself to the children as the Lady of the Rosary and asked that a chapel be built at the site of her appearance.

During the last appearance of the Lady of Fatima about 70 thousand people gathered at the site on which the children witnessed the appearance.

A phenomenon occurred in the form of a "spinning, burning" sun (or light) which moved from the heavens and approached the people.

The children's visions were accepted as the appearance of the Virgin Mary by the Bishop of Leiria on October 13, 1930.

The first national pilgrimage to Fatima was in 1927. The basilica, started in 1928 was consecrated in 1953. Numerous cures of pilgrims to the shrine have been reported.

The idea of a "pilgrim statue" such as will be in Abilene on the 23rd of April, came about when a young man went to Fatima with the intention of bombing pilgrims who had gathered at the shrine. His plans became frustrated and he returned home converted. He commissioned a sculptor to carve the statue of Our Lady of Fatima. In May, 1947 a Youth Congress came up with the idea of carrying a copy of the original statue to Russia. It is in the manner that the "Pilgrim" or "Traveling" statue of Our Lady of Fatima came into being.

In subsequent years the demand for the Pilgrim Virgin in various countries of the world was such that in 1967, when Pope Paul VI visited Fatima, he blessed another 25 statues for individual countries. The statue to visit Abilene is one of several in the United States.

It is not possible for many in our country to make a pilgrimage to Fatima. The pilgrimage of the statue of Our Lady of Fatima to this area makes possible in a small way, a pilgrimage for the people in Texas.

Morning Star sets service on weekend

The Morning Star Baptist Church will hold several activities during the next two weeks.

Their church anniversary began Thursday and ends Sunday night with services at 8 p.m. tonight, and Saturday and 3 p.m. Sunday.

On the following week, there will be a district association and Congress of the Permian Basin on April 28 and 29.

The host pastor for these services is Rev. Vance McDonald. He also serves as general secretary of the Permian Basin District.

The district meeting will be at 8 p.m. on April 28 and the Permian Basin Congress from 9 a.m. to 9 p.m. on April 29.

Coahoma Presbyterian set revival

Coahoma Presbyterian set revival

The Presbyterian Church in Coahoma is holding a revival from April 30 to May 3. Dr. Andy Edgington will deliver the sermons. The services will be held at 10 a.m. and 7 p.m.

He is a humorous and challenging commentator of the "Good News of Christ." He spoke at First Presbyterian Church in Big Spring during the pre-Easter services.

Those who want to hear more or missed him are invited to join the Coahoma congregation in hearing Dr. Edgington.

Dr. Edgington is a graduate of Southwestern College in Memphis where he lettered three years in football and track. He coached at Southwestern, the University Military School and Spring College. He is president emeritus of Schreiner College in Kerrville.

The speaker served in the U.S. Navy in World War II in both the Atlantic and Pacific theaters as captain of an escort vessel and commander of an escort unit.

He is the author of several books including "The Big Search," "The Word Made Fresh" and "The Golden Door."

A native of Alabama, he now lives in Kerrville where he is an elder in Kerrville Presbyterian Church, director of First National Bank and chairman of the board of the Peterson Foundation. He is a former moderator of the Synod of Texas.

Church of God schedules teen talent competition

Every two years the Church of God sponsors a Teen Talent Competition, with national winners selected at the General Assembly of The Church of God to be held this August in Kansas City, Missouri.

Teens compete in regional divisions before going to state competition.

Miss Gina Robertson won first place in the regional solo division in Lubbock Saturday, April 15. This will entitle her to compete in the state finals May 20 in Weatherford.

Those attending the meet in Lubbock Saturday from the local College Park O.D. and June Robertson.

Palestinian rights talked Morning

NEW YORK (AP) — The United Nations establishment of a special unit on "Palestinian rights" constitutes a "deliberate refusal to recognize the equal rights of the 850,000 Jews who were driven from countries of the Arab world" since founding of the state of Israel, says Heskell Haddad of the World Organization of Jews from Arab Countries.

He said in a letter to United Nations Secretary General Kurt Waldheim that any just dealing with the refugee problem should include Jews driven or forced to flee from Arab countries in the Middle East conflicts, including many whose communities had existed in Arab lands as long as 2,500 years.

St. Mary's slates events

St. Mary's Episcopal Church has scheduled several events for the near future.

Next weekend, the Bishop and his wife will be special guests at a service of Holy Confirmation followed by a catered parish supper.

On Sunday, April 30, St. Mary's will again join churches from Snyder, Colorado City and Sweetwater at the Hart Ranch north of Colorado City for a Rogation Day Service.

The Laymen's Conference will be held in Amarillo in early May and details will be announced at a later date.

Local cities are "the pits" of the desert

NEW YORK (AP) — American cities are a pain, a "degenerative disease," a "new desert," "the pits." These are some of the acerbic terms applied to modern metropolitan areas by church leaders who work in them.

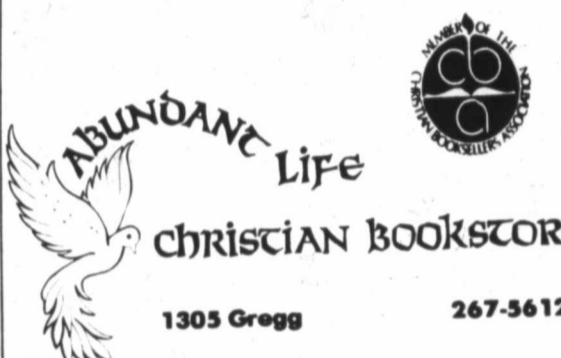

"The only truly accurate description that reflects the agony and suffering of a people encountered within the urban landscape is that of the crucifixion," says the National Federation of Priests' Councils.

The pastoral statement issued by the organization of Roman Catholic priests is only part of the mounting religious dismay expressed about conditions in the deteriorating cores of U.S. cities.

Wesley's pulpit stops traveling

LAKE JUNALUSKA, N. C. (AP) — The "traveling pulpit" used in and around London by John Wesley, founder of Methodism 235 years ago, now is on permanent exhibit at the World Methodist Building here.

It was given to the World Methodist Council by the British Methodist Church. Accepting it, the Rev. Joe Hale, WMC general secretary, says it "symbolizes our historic commitment to evangelism and the proclamation of the Word."

Enrollment up

WASHINGTON (AP) — A new study shows that enrollment in Roman Catholic seminaries dropped about 1,200 in the last year from 18,029 to 16,831, a decline of 7 percent.

The Center for Applied Research in the Apostolate reports the decline was concentrated in diocesan seminaries.

Science not neutral subject

WASHINGTON (AP) — Attorney William Stringfellow, also an Episcopal theologian, says many modern developments such as the environmental crisis and arms race disclose the falsehood of the claim that scientific methods are neutral.

He says the scientific doctrine is that truth is divisible rather than whole and may be ascertained in fragments while ignoring wider implications of it. Writing in Sojourners magazine, he adds:

"Even while the fraudulence of such a doctrine... is being confirmed practically, the universities still largely cling to the doctrine and futilely attempt its application in all the arts and disciplines."

East Fourth Street Baptist Church sets third mission conference

Sunday, April 25, East Fourth St. Baptist Church will observe their third annual Missions Conference. This is a time when the church membership, and other interested individuals, have opportunity to receive first-hand reports of mission work at home (within the United States) and abroad (on the foreign fields).

Guest speakers this year will include Karl Metzger, John Halady, Juan Ponce, John Bullock and Harlan Capps. Karl Metzger serves as missionary to the Indians in Arizona, pastoring the All-Tribes New Testament Baptist Mission in Gray Mountain, Arizona, and carrying on the extensive work in and around that area.

John Halady represents Global Outreach Missions and travels yearly to Communist controlled countries, sharing Bibles and other needs with Christians in those countries.

Juan Ponce and John Bullock serve with Faith-Agri Missions based in Alpine, Texas, and will be sharing experiences from their work as they minister in Mexico along the Rio Grande River in the Big Bend National Park area. Juan preaches in several villages each month and John leads in a Bible study class and also a welding class in Santa Elena.

Harlan Capps from Faith Baptist Missions will be sharing with the church concerning his work, which most recently was serving as Language Missions Director in Ogden, Utah. He has also been involved in various crusades in Puerto Rico and in mission work on the Yucatan Peninsula.

Guy White, pastor of East Fourth St. Baptist Church, and John D. King, Missions Director, extend a cordial invitation to all residents of Big Spring and surrounding areas to join with the church for this one-day conference and also for the noon meal which will be provided by the church membership and served in Fellowship Hall. Schedule for the days' activities is as follows: 9:45 a.m. — Youth I through Adult II Departments; go to S. S. Depts and fill out records, then go to the church auditorium. (Younger Depts. remain in regular classes for Sunday School).

10 a.m. — Youth I through Adult II Depts. in auditorium, with Karl Metzger, missionary.
10:50 a.m. — break.
11 a.m. — Worship Service in auditorium: Welcome visitors; announcements; worship in song; worship with offerings; message... John Halady, missionary.
12 — Lunch, in fellowship hall — churchwide.
1 p.m. — Service in auditorium: Worship in song; messages — Juan Ponce, missionary, John Bullock, missionary; worship in song; message — Harlan Capps, missionary.
3 p.m. — Benediction.

'MYTHING THE BOAT'

Several years ago many Christians were shocked by the news that a certain large denomination was revising their Sunday School lessons so they would be acceptable to modern intelligent people. The Genesis account would be a myth. Noah and the ark would be a fairy tale. The virgin birth would be taught as myth.

In 1967 a poll of 7,441 Protestant ministers from six major denominations revealed:

- an average of 30% of them did not accept Jesus' resurrection as fact.
- an average of 27% did not accept the virgin birth of Jesus as fact.
- an average of 26% did not believe in judgment and heaven and hell.
- an average of 65% did not believe in a literal or nearly literal interpretation of the Bible.

Ministers of the second largest Protestant denomination in America "mything the boat" more than any others.

DON'T YOU "MYTH THE BOAT"!! YOU'RE INVITED TO WORSHIP AND STUDY WITH US! WE ARE A NON-DENOMINATIONAL, BIBLE-BELIEVING CONGREGATION.

For the next few Sundays I'm going to be preaching on "The Last Days" in our morning assemblies. You're welcome to share in our study.

COME TO THE MUSICAL — That might be what this portion of the cast from "The Music Man" is singing, although it is very doubtful that Derek Horton is really playing the accompaniment. The group includes Brad Small, Russell Burchett, Steve Chapman, Edward Kayser, Mark Warren and Mike Terry. The performances are at 8 o'clock tonight and Saturday at the high school auditorium.

Nevadan had no choice but to master his art

DENVER, Colo. — Joe Marvel says he had no choice but to learn how to ride. Growing up on his family's place in Battle Mountain, Nev., he used to get on horseback and ride over the 530,000 acres of range land. When he was "40 miles from nowhere," Joe learned not to let a horse throw him under any circumstances.

That kind of background came in handy at the Red Bluff, Calif., rodeo which ended Sunday. Marvel split top money in the opening go-round of saddle bronc riding, divided 3rd and 4th in the second go and finished 2nd in the average for $1,045. The placings kept him in the lead in Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association ranks with $12,748.

Marvel has been on top of the standing since March 6, after winning the saddle bronc average at Houston, Tex. That $3,942 check boosted him from third place. All of the 23-year-old's cash has been won at seven major rodeos; not one of his payoffs has dipped under the $1,000 mark.

"Joe's after the title this year," according to his mother, Rosita, "and I think Patrice has a lot to do with it."

won the saddle bronc average that year; older brother, Mike joined him at the next two Finals. Youngest brother, Pete, competes for the College of Southern Idaho at Twin Falls. He wound up 27th in PRCA saddle bronc standings in 1977, two slots behind Mike.

"Mike is busy on the ranch this year, and has decided not to rodeo as much as he has in the past. Pete is concentrating on college rodeo; he wants to learn as much as he can from his coach, Shawn Davis (three-time world champion)."

So, the family rodeo hopes are riding on Joe. Rosita says he is "always easy-going and has a great attitude." With the streak he's riding on, "easy-going and going hard" is a winning combination for Marvel.

Division leaders:
ALL-AROUND COWBOY — Tom Ferguson, Miami, Okla., $25,721.
SADDLE BRONC RIDING — Joe Marvel, Battle Mtn., Nev., $12,748.
BAREBACK BRONC RIDING — Bruce Ford, Evans, Colo., $11,441.
BULL RIDING — Don Gay, Mesquite, Tex., $11,943.
CALF ROPING — Roy Cooper, Durant, Okla., $15,773.
STEER WRESTLING — Byron Walker, Amarillo, Tex., $15,994.
TEAM ROPING — Doyle Getler, Moor, Okla., $12,748.
WOODWARD, FRENCH CAMP, CALIF., $7,471.

Five teachers are rehired

SUNDOWN — Five Sunday public school teachers had their contracts renewed here Thursday, five weeks after school trustees had decided to terminate them.

The decisions to dismiss the teachers had left the town sharply divided.

The teachers who will be given the opportunity to return next year are Barbara Richards, Maxine Carter, Burnell Stevens, Eugene Boaz and Wayne Mason.

Hospital bonds in Snyder sold

SNYDER — Four million dollars worth of bonds were sold Thursday by Scurry County commissioners.

The money will be used to finance a three-story addition to Cogdell Memorial Hospital. The bonds were purchased by the First National Bank of Dallas with an effective interest rate of 4.398 per cent.

Bids on the construction will be opened June 14. Construction is scheduled to get under way in July.

Hearing on proposed settlement of claims against Lo-Vaca ends

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — A gas consultant and a housewife representing a citizens group disagree over whether a proposed settlement of customer claims against Lo-Vaca Gathering Co. would be good for customers.

A 14-day hearing on the settlement before examiner Tom Hill of the railroad commission ended Thursday.

The final witness, Brazoria housewife Peggy Buchorn, predicted a "wave of public resentment" if the commission approves the settlement of more than $1.6 billion in claims against Lo-Vaca.

William Murray Jr., a former railroad commissioner who is a consultant for San Antonio and Austin, said the settlement would be "infinitely better for the customer of Lo-Vaca than the Dec. 12 order."

The commission's December order would require Lo-Vaca and its parent, Coastal States Gas Corp., to refund the $1.6 billion and to live up to older and cheaper natural gas contracts.

Lo-Vaca has argued such action would bankrupt the company.

The settlement has been signed by customers who buy approximately 80 percent of Lo-Vaca's gas, including San Antonio and Austin.

"The cost of the settlement plan is peanuts compared to the increased costs of gas brought on by bankruptcy," said Murray.

Mrs. Buchorn of Citizens for Equitable Utilities, Inc., testified, "The settlement plan recognizes only the rights of the settling customers. The ultimate consumers have no rights under the plan."

Hill said interested parties could file written arguments, which should be no longer than 20 pages.

Putting around

Tonight at 7:30, ex-coachman Putt Choate and his SMU teammates conclude spring training with the annual Red-Blue game in Ownby Stadium.

Choate, who was an all-anything wishbone fullback in Bulldog Land during his prep days, is a three-year letterman at the SWC school and is one of eight seniors on the Mustang defense.

In a recent interview with Ish Haley of the Dallas Times, (the press in the Metroplex think very highly of Choate), the 6-2, 225-pound linebacker expressed optimism for the coming year, one in which SMU faces "the toughest schedule in the nation," he avers.

"I think the program is ready to take off and build," Choate predicted. "The guys on the squad are here because they want to play football. After two years with Coach Meyer, everyone understands how he wants things done. The coaches are really putting a lot of emphasis on teaching this spring. In spite of our numbers (SMU is really hurting depth-wise), I think we've gotten a lot accomplished."

PUTT CHOATE
Never seen offensive field

When Choate first journeyed to SMU on a recruiting visit, certain practices were different. Unlike this year, upperclassmen weren't required to work out in the first two weeks of spring training, and "I also was told I'd be a running back here," Choate remembers. "But I've never seen the offensive field."

Putt, who has a brother who's a Big Spring policeman, and a cousin who is the local mayor, became a starter late in his rookie season. As a sophomore, he started the year at noseguard, but jumped to linebacker when a teammate injured a shoulder.

"Looking back, I guess I'm one of the old men around here," said Choate, who played in every game last year in spite of a knee injury sustained at Texas A&M.

Haley suggests that Choate could keep his starting position by "simply showing up." But Putt is a self-motivator.

"Maybe I could coast," he said, "but I'm trying to better myself. I'd like a shot at professional football. But since my speed really isn't that eye-catching, I've really got to learn the fine points of my position."

Choate will need all the fine points he can lay his hands on next season, as the Ponies open with consecutive road games to Florida, Penn State and Ohio State.

"We'll have to be vastly improved," he predicted. "But personally, I like playing the top teams. This gives us a chance to show what we can do."

YOU KNOW WHAT I MEANT

In Thursday's column about Tom Collins' brother, who plays for the Cincinnati Reds, some of the letters cruelly formed into a phrase that stated Cesar Geronimo was second baseman for the Reds.

As any blue-blooded Reds' fan knows, Geronimo is the centerfielder for Cincy, and spunky little Joe Morgan is the second sacker. What I meant to say was that Geronimo plays so close behind the second bag you'd think he was the second baseman.

Only it didn't come out like that. As Werrell would say, "I went newts for a second."

Speaking of...no, not newts, but centerfielders, Tommy Hart remembers that former Cleveland Indian centerfielder Tris Speaker, a native Texan, used to play right behind second base.

"And he never watched the ball either," Hart recalls. "He'd just listen to the crack of the bat, and know exactly where the ball was going from that."

REMARKABILITIES

"For almost two decades, no other sports broadcaster had as many big assignments or made as much money, while seemingly enjoying it all, as did Gowdy. The heavy criticism he is absorbing as he winds down now almost seems to be an effort on the part of some folks to exact a payment for his golden past." — JACK CRAIG, on the seeming fall and decline of Curt Gowdy.

"Now is the time for the National Football League to come to the aid of its public by relenting in the despicable demand to sell tickets to exhibition games by tie-in sales and do the fit and proper thing. The fans should be released from any such obligation." — JOHN STEADMAN.

Morgan after record tonight

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — "I'll get it now. The pressure is off," says Cincinnati's Joe Morgan, a game away from setting an all-time fielding record for second baseman.

Currently tied with Jerry Adair and Bobby Grich at 89 consecutive errorless games, Morgan can break the record tonight when the Reds send Tom Seaver against San Francisco's Bob Knepper.

Morgan has a chance to reach the milestone in his own backyard. He grew up in Oakland, across the bay from San Francisco.

He kept the streak alive Wednesday night in Los Angeles, surviving a controversial decision by the official scorer that drew fire from the Dodgers. Morgan's fifth inning throw to first was wide, pulling Dan Driessen off the bag. Driessen dropped the ball, but the scorer — Dick Robinson of Pasadena — gave Reggie Smith a hit on the play.

Adair set the record during the 1964-65 seasons while with the Baltimore Orioles. Grich, also of Baltimore, duplicated the feat in 1973.

There was a time when Morgan, now one of the game's most versatile performers, wasn't known for his defensive skills.

Ironically, the year Adair set the record, Morgan — then in his first full big league season with the Houston Astros — had the most errors (27) of any National League second baseman. Woeful field conditions in the brand-new Astrodome, and lighting problems, didn't help.

"I was adequate. But adequate isn't in my vocabulary," said the 5-foot-8 Reds' star who has won five consecutive Gold Glove awards.

"That's why I'm prouder of my defensive records than my offensive awards — because I had to work harder at that than any other part of my game," said Morgan, who won successive NL Most Valuable Player awards in 1975 and 1976. He and Ernie Banks are the only two NL players to win the award two straight years.

After averaging 20 errors a season in his first four years at Houston, Morgan decided to do something about his defense.

"For night games I went to the ballpark every day at 3:30 in the afternoon. I took ground balls and worked on double plays until 5:30. I then went up into a place I had found and took a nap. Later, I returned to the field to take batting practice and work with the other's before the game started," he recalled.

"It was tough on me, but it was worth the price," said Morgan.

In the meantime, he gathered game films of Bill Mazeroski, the Pittsburgh Pirates' fielding great who holds the all-time record for double plays.

"He was the best in baseball at making the

'American tour greatest in World' -- Player (who else?)

HOUSTON (AP) — "This," said Gary Player, "is a tour of milk and honey."

Player wasn't referring solely to the 7-shot rallies that brought him titles in the Masters and Tournament of Champions in his last two starts, nor to the 8-under-par 64 that gave him the first-round lead Thursday in the $200,000 Houston Open.

The 42-year-old South African was talking about the entire American tour.

"It's the greatest in the world," said Player, who annually competes on five continents and has claimed 113 titles worldwide.

"Everything is done to perfection here — the administration, the greens keepers — everything. If you want a ruling, there's a man there to handle it. The courses are prepared better than any place in the world. This is the top of the game.

"Truly, it is a tour of milk and honey.

"It is a thrill to me to play on courses as well prepared as this."

He wasn't alone. The beautifully-conditioned, 6,997-yard Woodlands Country Club layout combined with some ideal playing conditions — a warm, windless Texas spring day — to produce some of the lowest scores of the season.

Trailing Player by a single shot was Australian Bob Shearer, whose 65 marked the best round of his two-season American career.

With those two in the lead, it was the 10th time in the last 13 rounds on the American tour that foreign players had led or shared the lead.

PGA champion Lanny Wadkins and Bob Murphy were another shot back at 66. The group at 67, 5 shots under par, included Andy Bean, Randy Erskine, Orville Moody and George Burns, who generally plays well in this event.

Defending titleholder Gene Littler was in a group at 68. Arnold Palmer and Lee Trevino shots 70s. Johnny Miller matched par 72.

Player, bidding to become the first man in two seasons to win three straight events, was followed by his wife and son on his course record-matching romp and has two more of his children with him.

"It makes all the difference in the world, having your family with you," he said. "It's torture playing tournaments all around the world and being away from your family for months at a time."

"The American players really aren't away that much. They can hop on a jet on Sunday night, be home in two hours, be with their families Monday and Tuesday and still get out to the next tournament."

"What a difference it would have made in my career if I'd been able to do that."

With his family watching, he reeled off a string of three

Rau's sharp confidence frustrates Astros

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Unemployment, even when you get paid for not working, can be frustrating.

Winner in his only start, Doug Rau went from elation to disappointment, because the Los Angeles Dodgers changed the pitching rotation this week to give him an unwanted ninth day of rest.

He came out of the emotional valley by hitting another peak Thursday night in a 5-1 Dodger victory over the Houston Astros.

"I've had some ups and downs the last few days," the Los Angeles Dodger lefthander said. "And I hope all that stuff is forgotten. It was blown out of proportion anyway."

Rau had been passed over during the Dodgers' series against Cincinnati, in favor of Tommy John, and Rau said at the time: "It's a slap to my confidence."

Los Angeles Manager Tommy Lasorda defended the decision: "I wanted John to pitch against Cincinnati. I wanted Rau to pitch against Houston. Because I felt we were better off that way."

John pitched well to continued his personal 10-2 career edge over the Reds in a 5-4 Dodger victory Wednesday night after the Reds won the first two games of that series.

Rau's victory over the Astros was his second against Houston this season, brought his record against the Astros to 10-4, and ended a four-game Houston winning streak.

"I was surprised I was as sharp as I was," said Rau, who had gone 10 days since his last start April 10 in Houston. He won that game 5-2.

"It took about six pitches before I found the groove. I've gone through a lot of phases the last few days," Rau said. "I was happy after beating the Astros. I was disappointed when I didn't get my start against the Reds. And now I'm happy again."

Pranulovic upsets Solomon in WCT

HOUSTON (AP) — Zeljko Pranulovic, a tennis-playing lawyer from Yugoslavia, was on the defensive in the first set against Harold Solomon in the $175,000 World Championship Tennis tournament at River Oaks Country Club.

But by the time Franulovic rested his case with an impressive 0-6, 6-3, 6-4 victory Thursday, Solomon was throwing himself on the court for mercy.

"I had no idea what I was doing in the first set," said Franulovic, who returned to the pro tennis ranks three years ago following a near crippling shoulder surgery.

"He was just having fun in the first set making all the winners."

Franulovic changed tactics in the second set however, coming to net at strategic moments. He broke Solomon in the first and ninth games of the second set.

Solomon, who had won two matches easily in the tournament, escaped one match point when he broke Franulovic in the ninth game of the third set but Franulovic came back and broke Solomon in love in the

Knicks want sick 76ers

NEW YORK (AP) — Lonnie Shelton, the rugged forward of the New York Knicks, was asked what it would take for his club to beat the Philadelphia 76ers.

"Maybe we just can't beat them," he said quietly.

Spencer Haywood, another Knicks forward, was not about to give up although his club is one loss away from elimination from the National Basketball Association playoffs.

"A couple of them might get sick," he suggested.

That isn't likely to happen before Sunday's fourth game of the best-of-seven quarter-final playoff series, which Philadelphia leads 3-0. A fifth game, if necessary, is listed for next Wednesday in Philadelphia.

If the first three games of the series are any indication, it shouldn't be necessary.

"When it comes to awesome talent, the 76ers have it," said Knicks Coach Willis Reed, whose club played well but was soundly beaten 137-126 Thursday night.

76ers Coach Billy Cunningham said he was giving his club today off.

"After winning three in a row, there's no point in practicing," he reasoned.

The Knicks also will have the day off, during which time Reed will try to devise some way of stopping Philadelphia.

Julius Erving wishes him luck.

Franulovic's victory continued his rise to contention for the WCT finals in Dallas next month. He entered the tournament in 14th place in the race for the top eight positions.

Franulovic could clinch a spot in the Dallas finals Saturday with a victory over sixth seeded Ilie Nastase of Romania, who put on a masterful display of spin shots Thursday in easily beating his doubles partner, Jaime Fillol of Chile, 6-4, 6-2.

Nastase repeatedly passed Fillol with an impressive array of top spins using his specially strung racket that has the four middle strings unwoven.

"I'm getting better at volleying with it, but I hope to get even better," Nastase said.

Your Daily HOROSCOPE from the CARROLL RICHTER INSTITUTE

FORECAST FOR SATURDAY, APRIL 22, 1978

GENERAL TENDENCIES: The Full Moon gives you the chance to get a new view and a new attitude where problems and ventures are concerned. Be open-minded to changes and new arrangements, but be careful not to upset the present harmony that now exists in your romantic and social life or problems soon follow.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Make new agreements with partners and come to a better understanding with outside your work more efficient and command a greater income department or you lose out where it is important.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Put across ideas that make you work more efficient and commands a greater income in the future. Know greater security. Don't jeopardize your position with mate by some foolish action.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) You can enjoy pleasures alone now since another may not be willing to get along with you. Get your talents recognized by a bigwig who can help you to commercialize on them. Show your cleverness.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Plan how to make your home life more ideal, harmonious and comfortable. Start an uptrend there now. Study a new and promising venture, even though kin may not think much of it.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) If you encourage a partner now, you can get him or her to go along with some plan you have. Explain it thoroughly for best results.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Take care of obligations early and use tact with creditors. Try to understand the points of view of others and don't argue with them. Use reason and all will be fine for you.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Put those ideas to work that will help you advance and think more of your own welfare. Be fair with loved ones but don't go overboard with money. Teach to be less extravagant.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Tackle accumulated tasks and clear the slate for bigger things ahead. You get good ideas that should be discussed with a trusted adviser.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Fine time for being with good friends and also for extending your circle of acquaintances. Know what your personal aims are and how to reach them.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Contact the most powerful persons you know and make them aware of your finest capabilities. Gain their support for them. Getting into civic affairs can be very good for you.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Put those ideas across that will help you to develop, but be conscientious. Plan to do some traveling.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Take care of chores before you think of entertainment. A loved one is favorably disposed toward you now, so make the most of this mood.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY . . . he or she will be able to cooperate with others to a remarkable degree and can be very successful in mutual ventures with them upon reaching maturity.

Spinks arrested again

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Police said World Boxing Association heavyweight champion Leon Spinks was arrested early today after he failed to produce a driver's license and was under investigation for possible drug violations.

Spinks and his companion were still in police custody shortly before 7 a.m. No formal charges had been immediately filed, a spokesman said.

The arresting officer, Francis Corona, said officers seized two small bags or sacks, one containing a white powder substance and the other possibly marijuana.

Corona said the white powder substance was found in a small sack inside the 24-year-old boxer's hat after he tossed it on the roof of his car while being questioned. The other sack was in his clothes. Corona said both substances would be analyzed.

A female companion with Spinks, identified as Charlene Gunn, 26, was also arrested, Corona said, for interfering with an officer and for possible drug violations. Corona said a substance, also believed to be marijuana, was found on Miss Gunn.

Corona said the Spinks was stopped after police saw him drive into a restaurant parking lot around 4 a.m. with his lights off.

It is the second time Spinks has been arrested in his hometown of St. Louis since returning home after winning the heavyweight title from Muhammad Ali earlier this year in Las Vegas. He was previously arrested on a traffic violation.

Walke upsets Mayer

SANTA CLARA, Calif. — Trey Walke of Los Angeles upset top-seeded Sandy Mayer 1-6, 7-6, 6-4 in the $50,000 Grand Prix tennis tournament.

In other singles matches, fourth-seeded Arthur Ashe beat Gene Mayer, Sandy's brother, 7-6, 5-7, 6-3 and advanced to a quarter-final against Elliott Teltcher; South African Bernie Milton ousted No. 5 seed Hank Pfister 7-6, 6-4; Byron Bertram, also from South Africa, eliminated Erik Van Witsky 6-1, 6-2; and Rick Fisher defeated Erik van Dillen 3-6, 6-4, 6-4.

U.S. pongers to N. Korea

WASHINGTON (AP) — The United States table tennis team, which blazed a trail to China in 1971, plans to play in North Korea next year.

The visit apparently will be the first trip to North Korea by a sizable United States group since the Korean War, State Department officials said Thursday.

It will not, however, be a diplomatic breakthrough of the magnitude of the 1971 trip to China, which broke a diplomatic freeze that had existed since 1949.

In 1971, the Chinese invited the American team as a gesture of friendship. The North Koreans are accepting the American players because they are hosts for the 1979 world championships, to be held in Pyongyang in late April.

To be hosts, the North Koreans had to agree to admit all teams in good standing with the International Table Tennis Federation, said George Kennedy of Minneapolis, chairman of the international committee of the U.S. Table Tennis Association.

Moose sidelined with elbow

BOSTON (AP) — Moose Haas, the Milwaukee Brewers' outstanding young right-hander, will be sidelined indefinitely with an elbow injury.

Haas, who will be 22 Saturday, suffered a partial tear of the flexor muscle in the right elbow Thursday in throwing a pitch in the second inning of a game with the Boston Red Sox.

With the Brewers ahead 1-0 and runners on second and third in the Boston second, Haas uncorked a run-scoring wild pitch. He threw one more ball and then had to retire in severe pain.

A Milwaukee spokesman said that Haas will be out three to four weeks, possibly longer.

Haas was 12-14 in his first full season with the Brewers in 1977. This year he is 2-1, including a 14-strikeout effort against the New York Yankees, before taking the loss against the Red Sox, who pounded his successors for a 10-4 victory.

Wheatley off hook, back on again

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — Houston Wheatley's "rip 'n run" basketball team has been cleared of a rule violation that could have cost it the Class 4A title, but the University Interscholastic League will probe another possible infraction.

Wheatley won the championship March 4 by nipping San Antonio Fox Tech, 84-83, in overtime.

Asked if he envisioned returning for another session before the UIL's state executive committee, Wheatley Coach Jackie Carr said: "All my records are clean. They can check anything they want to check and they ain't going to find nothing."

The nine-member committee decided Thursday that Wheatley had not violated a UIL rule that prohibits a team or player from taking part in more than two games a week, excluding tournaments.

Bill Farney, UIL athletic director, cast the lone vote to strip Wheatley of its title.

League director Bailey Marshall said the staff investigated Wheatley after receiving an unsigned letter and two anonymous telephone calls, including one from a man who identified himself as a coach in the Dallas-Fort Worth area.

Marshall said UIL investigations frequently are touched off by anonymous messages.

The Wheatley investigation focused on late November, when the Wildcats played Houston Worthing on Nov. 22, Dallas South Oak Cliff Nov. 25, Dallas Madison Nov. 26, Beaumont Chariton Pollard Nov. 28, Dallas Pinkston Nov. 29 and South Oak Cliff Nov. 30.

Carr and Wheatley principal A.C. Herald Jr. testified, however, that the Madison and Chariton Pollard contests were junior varsity games.

Marshall also said it appeared that the same player — one named Smith — had played in three games in a week, but Carr claimed Wheatley had two Smiths — Edgar and Warren.

Wheatley records show that Edgar Smith played against Chariton Pollard as a member of the junior varsity on Nov. 28, and Warren Smith played varsity games against Pinkston Nov. 29 and South Oak Cliff Nov. 30.

But Marshall said his office had no eligibility list with Warren Smith's name on it, as required by UIL rules. Herald said the list was submitted. Failure to send in Smith's name is the possible violation the UIL staff will investigate.

Drug abuse to horses cracked

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Federal authorities have begun a crackdown on the use of illegal drugs on race horses in Louisiana.

Indictments issued by federal grand juries around the state accused doctors, owners, trainers, jockeys and others of using powerful drugs to speed up or slow down horses at race tracks.

The head of a strike force that concentrates on organized crime said the operation traces back to the Mafia, but that no "family" people were named in Thursday's indictments.

Four indictments issued in New Orleans named five trainers or jockey agents. In Alexandria, a federal grand jury indicted a veterinarian and a jockey agent.

Tips for young baseball players

WARM-UP EXERCISES

Before game competition it is a good idea to do some easy warm-up exercises. Of course, your coach will show you how to warm-up, but a good athlete stays in shape by exercising daily.

Each of the simple exercises shown here will help you warm-up before you begin any practice or game. Follow the Major League's example. Do wind sprints — run all out for 50 yards, pause to get your breath, run another 50 yards, then sprint again.

Of all the body muscles, strong leg muscles are the most important to the baseball player. "Running is the key."

TRUNK TWIST
With feet slightly apart, place hands on hips, rotate trunk of body to left, then swing back to right. Repeat 10 times to start.

TOE TOUCH

SPRINT POSITION
Crouch with left leg extended backward, hands flat on ground. Now with easy jumping motions alternate legs, bringing left up to bent position and extending right leg to the rear. Repeat 5 times to start.

RUNNING IN PLACE
With arms bent at elbows, chin up, chest high and hands slightly closed, begin to run in place. Time yourself. Run for one minute. Rest. Run another minute.

STRADDLE HOP
Start with feet together, hands at sides, jump up and spread feet apart, about shoulder width; swing arms up and cup hands over head. Spring back to starting position. Repeat 10 times to start.

ARM CIRCLES
With feet only slightly apart, standing straight, eyes looking ahead, raise arms from side and stretch horizontally. Make clockwise arm circles for 10 counts then, counter clockwise circles for another 10 counts.

SITUPS
Starting position: Lie on back, arms crossed on chest, hands grasping opposite shoulders, legs bent. Action: Count 1—Curl up to sitting position. Count 2—Curl down to starting position. Suggested Repetitions—20 to 30.

Ridin' fence
 They call it Brownlee with Marj Carpenter

Brownlee was a rural school and townsite in Martin County where a school began in 1909. It was moved to that location from Sulphur Wells, which was two miles to the north. Brownlee at that time had two stores and two residences besides the schoolhouse. Robert Allen of Paul's Valley, Okla., was postmaster. A Mr. Jones, also from Oklahoma was the general store manager and a Mr. Fox carried the mail in a one-horse buggy from Stanton to Brownlee twice a week on Tuesdays and Saturdays. The name of the school, formerly called Sulphur Valley, was changed to Brownlee and Ellis Peatle Winstead was the first teacher. He was a "certified teacher" from the East Texas Normal School at Commerce, now East Texas State. Among the first children to attend were children from the Eidson, McClane and Webb families and the children of Cy Fish. The second year, they changed teachers. Mrs.

Oliver Willingham's brother, a Mr. King, was the teacher. The next year the teacher changed again. Evidently that area was hard on teachers. The third teacher, Jim Fletcher, stayed three years. He had the same children that the other teachers had taught plus Anna and Edmund Tom. The Tom family is still prominently in Martin County. There was one more year that there was a Brownlee school. They finally got a woman teacher and she was Miss May Klepper. Miss Klepper boarded with a family named Watson and rode horseback to teach at Brownlee. The pupils that year included Crystal McClane, Ova, Mayme and Flossie Webb and Herbert and Edmund Tom. The next year, the Brownlee school was consolidated with Plainview, which later was Lenorah and then finally the Grady School. Some of the earlier teachers at the Sulphur Valley school included Miss Lillie Webb and Miss Lola Sparks, a niece of Mrs. J. E. Milhollen.

The pupils recalled Mr. Winstead as a teacher who encouraged them to read good books. Mr. King apparently hated the job and would go off a distance from the school to eat his lunch by himself. He also liked to chew tobacco which was considered a real sin at the time. Mr. Fletcher was recalled to have encouraged his pupils to get a good education and was strong on grammar. The early students also recall that they would slip over to the store during recess and buy jawbreakers. Games they played included Wolf Over the River, similar to Red Rover today, Ante Over and Little White House Over the Hill. It was a typical rural school and happens to have a lot of the former pupils as residents of Martin County — out where I enjoy riding fence.

VA officials sign unique document

A Magna Charta of human rights was signed by top Veterans Administration officials March 23, in a ceremony inaugurating the agency's innovative Office of Human Goals. VA became the first agency to establish an Office of Human Goals signifying the Administration's commitment to human rights. VA Administrator Max Cleland said the document "pledges courtesy, compassion, competence, sensitivity and equitable treatment to our constituency of veterans, their families, and to our employees, our volunteer workers and our contractors as well."

Cleland told the group the signing of the human goals document "is symbolic of VA's recognition that employees whose rights are respected and safeguarded are more apt to respect and safeguard the rights of others. "I would not expect less from my fellow countrymen and I will not accept less from the members of our VA family." Also participating in the signing ceremony were veterans organization leaders and civil rights authorities.

Sensational child molestation case

'Homophobia' hits Boston

BOSTON (AP) — Homosexuals upset by a sensational child molestation case are trying to convince the public that there is nothing inherently wrong with sex between men and boys.

The effort, led by a group called the Boston-Boise Committee, is in reaction to what homosexuals say is a growing wave of "homophobia" in a city where they once felt they could live without harassment.

Thomas Reeves, 39, a

Boston-Boise leader, said the group was upset with what it felt was sensationalized news coverage of the arrest of 24 men for alleged sexual contact with adolescent boys at a house in nearby Revere, the indictment of the men and what it says has been the exploitation of the case by District Attorney Garrett Byrne.

"Boston had a reputation until this happened of being one of three or four cities in the country where gay people could live and be left alone," Reeves said. "I know people who are leaving. I thought this was a place where I could be open and myself. Now I'm beginning to wonder."

Boston-Boise has protested various police activities it says are aimed at homosexuals, but its most explosive issue is "boy-love" — sexual relations between adult men and adolescent boys.

Bob Wellington, art director of the Bay Community News, said: "Most of us who are on the committee had intergenerational sex when we were teen-agers. The only people we ever made contact with were older gay men. We couldn't find any kids our own age. I was so frustrated that I was very happy to meet another gay person."

Boston-Boise has not officially endorsed man-boy sex, but its leaders say such encounters are a fact of growing up for many teenagers. Until now, however, homosexuals have studiously avoided bringing up this subject in public.

"It appears that this is the beginning of a generalized attack on the gay community," said Edward Hougen, the group's co-director and pastor of a homosexual church. "So we had to step in. If we had kept quiet because this is an emotional issue, there would be no end to it."

Reeves, who has an adopted, bisexual 19-year-old son and lives with a 28-year-old man, says: "Boys between the ages of 14 and 16 just need sex all the time."

Reeves, a history professor at Roxbury Community College, says he is the group's only "boy lover."

"I feel it is important to say it is possible to be a man and have a variety of relationships with adolescents, including sex, and still be an ethical, upstanding individual," he said. "Those relationships can be beneficial, and there is nothing wrong with adolescents and men having sex. Sex is not a vile, awful thing. Sex is loving and caring."

Corco credit pact extended

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) — Financially-troubled Commonwealth Oil Refining Co., Inc. announced Thursday that a credit agreement with its bank lenders and other creditors, which was scheduled to expire Friday, has been extended to May 19.

Corco owes several creditors a total of $300 million and has filed a voluntary federal court petition March 2 to allow it to reorganize under bankruptcy laws. In connection with that action, the firm entered into the credit agreement.

Under the credit agreement, the banks can still refuse to make loans and apply collections of receivables to amounts due at any time, at their discretion.

DOPE STUDY — Former President Gerald Ford has been sitting in on a hospital program on drug and alcohol dependence to help him better understand his wife's current medication in Long Beach, Calif. Betty Ford was admitted to the hospital April 11 for what her doctors described as a "problem with medication."
