

Weather Forecasters warn of thunderstorms

By the Associated Press

Widely scattered thunderstorms were expected across most of the state today.

Forecasters warned of the possibility of severe thunderstorms in Northeast Texas during the afternoon and evening. Forecasts called for fair skies in West Texas and partly cloudy skies over the remainder of the state.

Highs were expected to be mostly in the 80s with a few readings reaching the 90s in the Big Bend area of Southwest Texas.

Amarillo had the only rainfall during the night, but only a trace was reported. Fog was reported early today in the areas around Austin and Victoria.

Early morning temperatures ranged from near 50 in the Panhandle and Northeast Texas to the upper 60s in the Lower Rio Grande Valley.

WEATHER FORECAST — Today's forecast includes a band of showers extending from Washington through the northern half of the Rockies into the upper and middle Mississippi Valley, according to the National Weather Service.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Question, fair reader. Which government department gives us the time of day?

Answer: The Department of Transportation.

Ah, but we get ahead of ourselves. As most of us must, by exactly one hour.

The government programs its own version of 60 Minutes on two Sundays each year, one to give and one to take away.

This coming Sunday, it takes away. Maybe you lose an hour's sleep, get to church late, things like that.

Here's the official release from the Department of Transportation:

"Daylight saving time is returning. At 2 a.m. Sunday, April 30, clocks should be moved forward one hour to begin six months of daylight saving time...."

"Under the Uniform Time Act, which DOT administers, daylight saving time is observed in the United States and its territories from the last Sunday in April until the last Sunday in October, which this year is Oct. 29.

"That is, unless you live in Arizona, Hawaii, Puerto Rico, Virgin Islands, American Samoa or that portion of Indiana within the Eastern Time Zone. These areas don't observe daylight saving time during any period of the year."

So there you have it. Time marches on. Spring forward, fall back.

Daylight saving time began in the United States, Britain and Canada during World War I to make more efficient use of daytime. But it fell into disuse after the Armistice, only to return in World War II.

After the war, summer time in the United States became a hodgepodge, as some states retained the plan and others did away with it. In 1966, Congress passed the Uniform Time Act to standardize daylight savings from the last Sunday in April to the first Sunday in October.

Then, in January 1974, under the energy strain of the Arab oil embargo, Congress mandated year-round DST in an attempt to save fuel.

But protests, especially from farmers and parents of school children who had to leave home in the dark, led to repeal 10 months later.

In 1975, eight months of daylight time became the law of most of the land. It reverted to a six-month schedule in 1976.

Transportation:

Since then, legislative proposals have come along calling for a seven-month period, but so far none have drawn much support.

So check your local listings for further changes. It's all a matter of time.

John McBeth now 8th on bronc riding list

DENVER, Colo. — "I probably know more horses than I do people," saddle bronc rider John McBeth once said.

If that's true, it's evident someone made the introductions well. McBeth of Burden, Kan., now sits in 8th place in world saddle bronc ranks after winning his specialty at the St. Louis, Mo., rodeo last week.

The 76-point ride was good for $185, moving the 5'7", 145-pounder from 10th position. It was the fourth major win of the season for McBeth, who was World Champion in the event in 1974.

He opened the 1978 year with a $1,193 victory at Baton Rouge, La. He followed on the heels of that win with a 79-point ride at Rapid City, S.D.; teamed with Sutton's horse "Bud," the #941 moved the Kansan into Professional Rodeo Cowboys Association top 10 ranks. Then came the Houston, Tex., contest; McBeth left there with a $1,536 go-round check.

The dark-haired cowboy made his last of 10 consecutive appearances at the National Finals Rodeo in 1974. That year, he also walked away with the championship buckle.

"I'd decided to go for the title if I had $5,000 won by Phoenix (March), John said of his championship year. "I had $10,000, the lead, and held it all the way through the year."

His year-end total climbed to $36,730, then an all-time record for the bronc riding.

John picked up his interest in rodeo from his father, Harold who was a pro roper and bulldogger in the '40s and '50s. But the younger McBeth, who weighed just 96 pounds upon graduation from high school, knew he was cut out for the bronc riding.

"It doesn't take strength to be a good saddle bronc rider. Most of it is timing and balance."

It wasn't a bronc, however, that gave John his first "riding" lesson. He was "about 14 or 15" when he decided to try a Holstein cow. He attached an 18-inch rein to the top of the halter, strapped a stock saddle on, and proceeded to learn the hard way.

"Cows have very un-dependable heads," according to McBeth. "I had some wrecks you wouldn't believe."

John took his 'Holstein methods' and headed for eight years of high school and junior college rodeo competition. He was even awarded a rodeo scholarship to McNeese State University in Lake Charles, La., but never made the team

Buried whiskey search object

Chances are that during the next month, the sale of picks and shovels are going to skyrocket in West Texas hardware stores. At least they will if Hiram Walker, Inc., makers of Canadian Club whiskey, has their way.

Beginning May 1, package stores throughout West Texas will be filled with signs and posters announcing that a case of Canadian Club has been buried somewhere in Big Bend Country. The signs will provide clues that anyone can follow to locate the case. If they dig it up, they can keep it. And, should the original clues not be enough, there is a special toll-free phone number, 1-800-492-9665, which treasure hunters can call every week for additional clues.

This special Texas adventure is an adjunct to a worldwide hide-a-case program that Hiram Walker began over 10 years ago. They have hidden cases in such remote places as Mt. Kilimanjaro in Africa, the Yukon Territory, in Scotland's Loch Ness, off the Great Barrier Reef in Australia. Remarkably, six of the 13 cases they have hidden have been found, including the one on Kilimanjaro.

"West Texas is a highly exciting and very important market for us," said Roy Stevens, president of Hiram Walker. "We are delighted to be able to bring some of our adventure into this area. We know there are many people who will accept our challenge and hunt for the treasure."

GIVE INSTRUCTION TO A WISE MAN, AND HE WILL BE STILL WISER. TEACH A RIGHTEOUS MAN, AND HE WILL INCREASE HIS LEARNING. — Proverbs 9:9 (NAS)

Therefore, I exhort the elders among you, as your fellow-elder and witness of the sufferings of Christ, and a partaker also of the glory that is to be revealed, shepherd the flock of God among you, not under compulsion, but voluntarily, according to the will of God; and not for sordid gain, but with eagerness; nor yet as lording it over those allotted to your charge, but proving to be examples to the flock.

And when the Chief Shepherd appears, you will receive the unfading crown of glory.

You younger men, likewise, be subject to your elders; and all of you, clothe yourselves with humility toward one another, for God is opposed to the proud, but gives grace to the humble.

When other candidates promise to spend more money, the money they're talking about is yours.

But you do have a choice. You don't have to choose a big spender. Because there is one man who believes that the people of Texas are already overtaxed.

That man is Dolph Briscoe. You don't have to vote for a governmental activist. Because there is one man who believes in governmental restraint.

That man is Dolph Briscoe. And you don't have to support a big-government advocate. Because there is one man who believes that government is already too big.

That man is Dolph Briscoe.

One of the Democratic candidates for Governor this year thinks he's discovered the secret of how to win votes and influence Texans.

Just tell the voters what they want to hear. Promise them anything but get their vote.

But who is going to pay for these promises if John Hill is elected Governor? Whose money is this big-spender going to be spending?

Yours.

Where is this money going to come from?

From higher taxes and new taxes, specifically a State income tax. On you.

Tried to steal more than $10,000 from Texas? Two labor leaders indicted

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — District Attorney Ronald Earle says the indictment of South Texas labor leaders Clarence and Don Gray marks the close of his three-month investigation into state manpower funding agencies. The Travis County Grand Jury named them Thursday in an indictment alleging conspiracy to steal more than $10,000 from the state of Texas. "This represents the conclusion of a three-month investigation of the Governor's Office of Migrant Affairs (GOMA) and the Texas Department of Community Affairs (TDCA)," Earle said in a statement. "No more state indictments are anticipated at this time," he said. The probe was carried out by Earle's office, with help from the attorney general's office and investigators hired by Gov. Dolph Briscoe — including former District Attorney Robert O. Smith. Smith received more than $14,000 for his efforts, at $100 an hour. The Gray brothers also face indictments growing out of a court of inquiry into alleged misuse of federal manpower money conducted by State District Judge Darrell Hester of Brownsville. Don Gray heads Plumbers and Pipefitters Union Local 823 in Harlingen. Clarence Gray ran the manpower program started in the union's name and funded with federal money flowed through GOMA and TDCA. Steve Brittain, who headed Earle's task force, said the indictment "involves the fact the (job training) contract was written between Local 823 and TDCA but the union didn't authorize the Grays to contract on their behalf and never received any money." "In effect, we've alleged a misappropriation of state funds in excess of $10,000. It was really $129,000," Brittain said. He said $129,000 in state checks were deposited in the bank account of South Texas Building Trades Education Services, Inc., rather than in that of the union local.

Last year, the Grays had the manpower training contract with TDCA changed from the union local to South Texas Building Trades.

Earle said nothing more had turned up that could result in prosecution arising from the manpower scandal that has been a major issue of this year's Democratic contest for governor.

Cattlemen unfairly branded as profiteers?

NEW YORK (AP) — Beef prices are headed beyond the record highs of mid-1975, and cattlemen, who say they were unfairly branded as profiteers back then, are seeking to head off criticism before it comes to pass.

The beef industry, said Richard McDougal, president of the National Cattlemen's Association, is cyclical. Prices decline as well as rise, and what we are heading into now, he explains, is the rising phase.

repeated nearly every decade this century, a reflection, cattlemen say, of the free market at work — and the biology of the cow as well.

supply-demand imbalance, ground beef prices are likely to rise fastest of all. The explanation: a shortage of older cows and grass fed — as opposed to corn fed — steers and heifers.

Birdwatchers likely to buy this booklet

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department has a new booklet that may become popular with bird-watchers and naturalists who take to the trails this spring.

During this three-year period, he reminds you, many cattlemen had to borrow on the equity in their lands in order to survive. But they did so, he said, because they knew the market would correct itself.

To produce additional beef, for example, it is necessary for cattlemen to plan, often imperfectly, for years ahead, a fact often difficult to explain to urbanites who rarely see cows on the hoof.

Published by the department's Forest Service, the booklet is entitled, "Cavity Nesting Birds of North American Forests" and describes feathered creatures such as the black-bellied whistling duck, yellow-billed sapsucker and the black-backed three-toed woodpecker.

"We have no power to manipulate prices," said McDougal. "We are 1.5 million people making 1.5 million individual decisions."

In recent months, 40 percent of beef consumption has been outside the home, a goodly percentage of that in the increasingly popular fast food outlets. No less than 45 percent of all beef today is ground.

The birds have one thing in common. They use holes or cavities in trees for building nests and rearing young. Thus, the Forest Service said Thursday, "some dead trees should be left in the forest to provide homes" for cavity nesting birds.

What can the shopper do? Reduce red meat consumption, of course. As consumption drops, McDougal explained, those cattlemen who increased their herds in order to take advantage of higher prices will then find themselves with an excess, and prices again will drop.

McDougal reports the national average price of five beef cuts reached $1.78 a pound on April 13, up 15 cents from a month earlier. But still, he reminds you, no higher than prices were three years ago.

Ag agency considering change in regulations

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department is considering a change in federal regulations which would let bacon be processed without nitrite and nitrate preservatives and still be called bacon.

That pattern has been repeated nearly every decade this century, a reflection, cattlemen say, of the free market at work — and the biology of the cow as well.

And because of that

Ham, hot dogs, corn beef and similar products also could be produced "with little or no nitrites and nitrates" and still be labeled with their traditional names.

'Seven days of Sunday'

WASHINGTON (AP) — Whether it's cloudy or not, the Agriculture Department has proclaimed "Seven Days of Sun Day" beginning next Monday, May 1.

Enjoy a Lively Week in SUNNY SPAIN

Sponsored By Big Spring Herald

Assistant Secretary Carol Tucker Foreman said that "these products would have to be labeled to highlight the fact they are nitrite-free or not fully preserved, and include a warning that refrigeration is necessary at all times."

The slogan is for an exhibit showing the use of solar energy in agriculture which USDA will have for public viewing in its inner patio of the administration building. However, the exhibit will be open only five days and only during government working hours.

You can enjoy seven glorious days in beautiful Spain on this special tour sponsored by several Harte-Hanks newspapers in Texas.

The proposal does not involve the USDA's review of the use of nitrite and nitrate in bacon and other processed meat in terms of its potential to produce cancer-causing nitrosamines, compounds which occur in nature but also are formed sometimes during the cooking of bacon.

The exhibit will coincide with President Carter's recent proclamation that Wednesday, May 3, is to be "Sun Day" for the recognition of solar energy as a potential force in American lives.

The tour will originate at the Dallas-Ft. Worth Airport where you will board your chartered Capitol Airways DC-8 jet for a flight to Malaga, Spain.

Some consumer representatives have sought an outright ban on nitrate and nitrite on grounds the chemicals are hazardous to health. But other authorities contend that the chemicals are essential to prevent the formation of deadly food-poisoning bacteria which causes botulism.

Department officials said the exhibit will include models of a solar grain dryer, a solar hay dryer and a solar peanut dryer.

You will have first class hotel accommodations for the seven nights you are in Spain, and there will be complimentary continental breakfasts in all hotels. Also included is one lunch and dinner at the Flamenco Show in Seville.

In any case, USDA still is reviewing the over-all nitrite and nitrate question as it affects all bacon and other cured meat.

Department officials said the exhibit will include models of a solar grain dryer, a solar hay dryer and a solar peanut dryer.

Three specially organized sightseeing tours are also included, which will take in the sights of Seville, Cordoba and Madrid.

Ms. Foreman said that the proposal to permit processors to make bacon and other products without using the chemicals was made "in response to consumer requests for nitrite-free products" and that several manufacturers also asked for it to satisfy market demand.

Department officials said the exhibit will include models of a solar grain dryer, a solar hay dryer and a solar peanut dryer.

There are several other "extras" included in the tour package that are sure to make your trip to Spain a most enjoyable one.

Why Should Dolph Briscoe Be Governor for 10 Years?

There is no good reason! No other Texas Governor has ever asked for 10 years, much less been elected for 10 years. Dolph Briscoe's record does not merit 10 years in office:

- Yet Briscoe has spent more than $2 million in this campaign — including $900,000 his supporters borrowed from 13 banks — to get 10 years in office.
- Property taxes have increased by 1 BILLION DOLLARS since Briscoe was elected; so far, he has done nothing to provide property tax relief.
- Welfare costs have more than doubled under Briscoe, without a fair increase in benefits for those people who really deserve them. The reason is waste. The worst example is Briscoe's own Office of Migrant Affairs, which spends $8,000 for each person it helps find a new job.
- Utility rates have skyrocketed while Briscoe has been governor, without a single sign of concern by the Governor.

Elect a New Governor

Endorsing John Hill, the Kilgore News Herald said: "He fought Southwestern Bell all the way to the Supreme Court to stop an unfair rate increase. He appears to have beat the Howard Hughes empire over millions in inheritance taxes. And he cleaned up Duval County."

Endorsing John Hill, Fort Worth Star-Telegram said: "In two terms as state attorney general, Hill has shown himself to be energetic, articulate and assertive. He can make firm decisions and work persuasively to see them carried out. As governor, he would be an active, accessible chief executive projecting a strong leadership image."

Endorsing John Hill, the Dallas Times-Herald said: "John Hill has been an outstanding attorney general. He has made impressive progress in making the office what he has always said it should be—the people's law office."

Fashion show will entertain Lionesses during convention

By EILEEN McGUIRE
While their husbands attend District Lions Convention meetings and activities, auxiliary ladies of the 75 clubs which are gathering here today will be attending functions of their own.

Local Lions Club Auxiliary members have been busy planning coffees, luncheons and a style show to entertain out-of-town lionesses. The convention begins today and continues through Sunday.

First on the agenda for the ladies is a coffee at 9 a.m., tomorrow at the Howard College Cactus Room. Next, will be a fashion show by Swartz at 10 a.m., followed by one of Annie Matt Angel's popular book reviews at 11.

According to Roberta Shive of Swartz, coordinator for the style show, sports and casual wear, formals, matinee attire, an ultrasuede fashion and a pantsuit will be presented by narrator Shirley Shroyer during the style show.

Modeling the garments will be Martha Cobern, Claudia Patterson, Jan Iden, Sherri Sparks and Dorothy Stripling. Shoes will be from Barnes-Pelletier.

Betty Newman, pianist, will provide background music.

Following the style show, the ladies will attend a Lions Queens luncheon at noon at the Holiday Inn. Also attending will be the 36 girls who will be competing for the title of District Lions Queen in a pageant at 3:30 that afternoon at the high school auditorium.

Saturday activities will conclude with a reception-banquet for the district queen who's identity will be revealed at the banquet. The banquet will be at 6 p.m. at the high school cafeteria.

A coffee for Lions Club members' wives is planned for Sunday morning, from 9 to 11 a.m., at the Tumbleweed Room of Howard College.

Father at 14 not up to the task

Dear Doctor:
I'm 15 and I am an unwed mother. I love the father of my baby, but he says he doesn't love me. What can I do to make him love me? My parents hate him and his parents hate me. I want him to love me. Please help. I also am keeping my baby boy. The father is 14.
C.O.R., St. Louis, Mo.

Dear C.O.R.:
There is nothing you can do to make this boy love you. Your first responsibility is to your infant son. Do everything within your power to be a loving mother and life will be good and you will be happy. The worst thing you can do now is to chase after the baby's father. Actually he is only a boy and probably could not accept the tremendous responsibility.

Boys, girls to compete in pageant tomorrow

The Silhouettes of America Pageant, directed by Diane Clinton and Carol Reeves, will take place in the Howard College Auditorium beginning at 8 o'clock Saturday night.

There will be entertainment and winners will be announced at this time. Competition will start at 8 a.m. Saturday in the auditorium, and this competition will be open to the public free of charge. There will be no talent competition for boys.

Boys and girls ages 3 to 17 will be competing for tiaras, banners, trophies and the chance to advance to state national.

Winners of this pageant, which is district level, will go to the State National Competition at the St. Anthony's Hotel in San Antonio during the second week in July.

Entertainment will be provided by Cameron Clinton, Big Spring, the first Southern Gentleman; Tanya Clinton, Big Spring, Miss Dainty Dixie Doll 1977; Suzanne Bowers, Big Spring, Miss Dixie Deb 1977; Rona Reeves, Big Spring, Miss Dixie Land 1977; Penny Brown, Wichita Falls, Miss Southern Belle 1977; and Bridgette Hague, Wichita Falls, 1977 winner of the Ronnie Brown Memorial Award for most outstanding and progressive talent at the State National competition.

These state national winners will also model the various kinds of clothing in competition, such as sportswear and formal.

Textiles help blind to 'see'

Textile product with "tactile feedback" are being used in helping the blind to maneuver, reports Beverly Rhoades, clothing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

"The textiles work something like a radar system," the specialist says, "in alerting the blind that an object is near."

Mu Zeta plans social in May

Members of Mu Zeta Sorority met Monday in the home of Sandra Haney, and a Ritual of Jewels was held for Betty Bruiner and Ms. Haney.

A Pledge Ritual was held for Connie Edgemon, and a Ritual of Welcome was held for Linda Hensley.

Members were reminded to be at the Big Spring Country Club at 6:45 Thursday night for the Founders' Day Banquet.

Tentative plans were made for a social next month. It will be a 50's party in the home of Donna Carey May 13. The menu will include hamburgers, hot dogs and homemade ice cream.

Members decided to sell coles and Indian bread at the Big Spring Arts and Crafts Festival again this year. A booth will be reserved at the Dorothy Garrett Coliseum Oct. 21 and 22.

Debbie Wegman gave a program on William James, a philosopher.

Dear Abby

Dentures Have Her Down in the Mouth

DEAR ABBY: I am desperate. My husband refuses to wear his dentures. He sings with a country western band on Saturday nights, and that's the only time he'll wear them. He looks 20 years older without his dentures, and I've told him I'm ashamed to be seen with him looking that way. But he just ignores me.

Someone asked me once if he was my father! It seems that he couldn't care less how he looks for me. His only concern is looking good for the people on Saturday night.

He went back to his dentist several times and was told the dentures fit all right, he'll just have to get used to them.

How do I get him to wear them? It's ruining our marriage.

IRKED IN ILLINOIS

DEAR IRKED: The only way your husband will get used to his dentures is by wearing them. He knows that. Perhaps your approach has been wrong. If you've been belligerent and demanding, change your tune. Be sweet. When you quit chewing him out, he just might put his choppers in.

If you put off writing letters because you don't know what to say, get Abby's booklet, "How to Write Letters For All Occasions." Send $1 and a long, stamped (24 cents) envelope to Abby: 132 Lasky Drive, Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212.

Fire scars downtown Nassau Times Mirror, CPI reach stock transaction agreement

Fire scars downtown Nassau

NASSAU, Bahamas (AP) — Nearly a-half square mile of downtown Nassau was destroyed by fire early today before firefighters, hampered by strong winds and a lack of water pressure, contained the blaze.

Hundreds were evacuated as four apartment houses, one four-story office building and six businesses were destroyed along Bay Street. Some 20 homes were also reported destroyed. There were no immediate reports of injuries.

Officials said the fire started behind a furniture store on the city's principal business street and spread quickly, fanned by 25 mph winds.

"The first thing I saw was flames shooting from Central Furniture and then the whole building was suddenly afire," said Audley Feaster, owner of a restaurant across from the furniture store and warehouse.

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — Communications Properties, Inc., announced Thursday that two of its principal shareholders had reached an agreement with the Times Mirror Co. to sell 53 percent of CPI's common stock to the Times Mirror.

THE WORLD GOD MADE

Peace... without stillness. One of the marks of the world God made. Small avalanches rumble in the distant mountains as the spring thaw advances. Every hemlock sprig is bursting with new growth. In the sky as in the river there is life and motion, restlessness and questing. Peace... without stillness. Doesn't that tell us something about our own quest in the world God made? Peace without stillness is one of the supreme longings of mankind. It seems to HAPPEN when every thing or person realizes his mission and pursues it. Next Sunday you'll have a precious opportunity to join your neighbors at church. That's where folks are seeking — and finding — their mission in the world God made.

Agrees to retire from Army General gigs Carter

WASHINGTON (AP) — Outspoken Maj. Gen. John K. Singlaub was called to account today for the second time in less than a year for publicly criticizing President Carter's policies.

The heavily decorated Singlaub, a combat veteran of three wars, was summoned to the Pentagon from his Atlanta post to explain to Army leaders his blast at Carter's decision not to produce the neutron warhead and his public disagreement with the Carter-backed Panama Canal treaties.

The 56-year-old Singlaub, chief of staff of the Army Forces Command, told ROTC cadets at Georgia Tech on Thursday that Carter's shelving of the neutron warhead was militarily unsound.

"I think the decision not to produce the neutron bomb without some compensating concession from the other side is like throwing your trump card away in a game of bridge," Singlaub said. "I think it's ridiculous."

Singlaub also told the cadets that the Panama Canal treaties, ratified by the Senate after months of intense lobbying by the administration, were unnecessary. He said he was concerned about ties between Panama and Cuba and worried that Panama might put restrictions on use of the canal.

About 11 months ago, Singlaub was ordered home from South Korea by Carter after the general publicly opposed the president's plan to withdraw U.S. ground troops from that country. Singlaub said the plan would lead inevitably to war.

The general, then chief of staff of U.S. forces in Korea, had a 30-minute meeting with Carter and several days later was reassigned to the comparable job at the command headquarters in Atlanta.

The president said at the time that Singlaub "was not being chastized or punished" for the comment, but transferred because his Korean post would have directly involved him in the policy he was criticizing.

"We are now in the process of carrying on this policy," Carter said last May of the Korean withdrawal. "And I don't believe that Gen. Singlaub ... could have effectively carried out this policy when he had publicly been identified as being opposed to it."

Carter also said then that Singlaub had committed a very serious breach of his responsibility by making "an invitation to North Korea."

It was uncertain whether Singlaub, meeting with Army Secretary Clifford Alexander and Gen. Bernard Rogers, Army chief of staff, would get off as lightly this time.

Lions furnish scholarships

Downtown Lions will furnish two summer camping scholarships for Boy Scouts going to the Scout Ranch in the Davis Mountains, and they have given $100 to the Boys Club.

These reports were made at Wednesday's meeting by M.A. Barber, president. The club also will pay expenses of one Big Spring qualifier to the state Olympics for mentally retarded pupils.

Jim Holmes made final plans for the Lightbulb Sale starting Monday. Jim Lemons, general chairman, Jimmy Ray Smith, golf chairman, and Dan Conley, queen contest chairman, reported on the District 2A-1 preparations for the District convention Friday through Sunday, and Vic Keys had the program on a fishing junket to Don Martin Lake in north Mexico.

READY TO DANCE — Ginger Rogers isn't ready to hang up her dancing shoes, she tells a press gathering Thursday in New York. Miss Rogers announced plans to begin a North American nightclub tour and record an album later in the year.

Scouts exams Saturday

Scouts who are planning on attending the summer camp at Scout Ranch in the Davis Mountains may obtain their physical examinations without charge Saturday morning.

Clem Jones, Lone Star district chairman, reminded all adult leaders to be on hand from 9 a.m. to 12 noon Saturday at St. Paul Presbyterian Church on Birdwell Lane, across from Howard College.

Several physicians are giving their services so that boys and leaders may have their required medical examinations for camp. Jones urged leaders to make sure their boys take advantage of this service by physicians.

Execs, workers asked to make sacrifices

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government is asking both executives and workers to make sacrifices as it tries to determine if inflation is getting worse.

After rising an average of 0.5 percent each month last year, consumer prices rose 0.8 percent in January and 0.6 percent in February. The Labor Department was releasing March price figures today.

The worsening inflation prompted President Carter on April 11 to announce a ceiling on federal pay increases and a plan to slow the government's contribution to inflation. He also said he would try to persuade unions and businesses to hold down price and wage increases.

Presidential aide Robert S. Strauss, who was named to head the anti-inflation program, said Wednesday he is asking "each American to insure that he makes some contribution to lowering inflation rates this year."

As one step, he asked businessmen to hold down their own pay increases. And Barry Bosworth, director of the president's Council on Wage and Price Stability, said inflation cannot be checked soon unless big labor unions hold back their demands. Most of the recent price increases have been in food, particularly among meat products.

Consumer food prices went up 1.2 percent in both January and February. If averaged out over the year, that would mean an increase of about 15 percent.

Hello There--

After 35 years of plumbing, Granny and I are tired and we're going to retire. We will close our business May 1st. We wish to extend our appreciation to our many many friends and customers. We have enjoyed serving you throughout the years. Granny and I will still be at 1301 Settles and will have the coffee pot on so come by and have a cup.

May God bless you all for your patronage and friendship through the years.

Mrs. J.O. Whitefield, President

Their dollars from the fifties are now worth only 43 cents. Is the same thing happening to you?

You work hard and you save as much as you can. That's the American way of life. That's the sure road to a carefree retirement. . . except it doesn't work anymore.

Think about people over sixty. While their hair has been turning white, their savings dollars have been turning into dimes.

Is the same thing happening to you? Are your retirement dollars melting away like the morning dew?

They are. You don't like to think about it, but they are. Inflation is chopping away at everything you are putting together, and there doesn't seem like there is much you can do about it, does there?

But you know, there is something you can do about it. You can join a lot of folks who are determined to put the brakes on some of the Washington spending that is fueling the inflation fires.

That is one of the major causes of inflation — waste. When you pay more and get less. And that is what the bureaucrats are doing with your tax dollars. They are wasteful with them.

They are paying people not to work through many of the welfare programs. They've stuffed building after building full of government workers with little to do—and then they make it almost impossible to fire anyone!

That is just one example of the kind of mess we are paying for in Washington. And it is going to continue until someone goes up there and starts putting a stop to it.

Dusty Rhodes can, and will, try to stop it. He knows things are serious. He knows what is happening to your dollars that you are trying to put away for retirement.

As a lawyer, he knows how to begin putting the brakes on. But he can't go up there and do that without your support. He has to have your vote and your influence.

Don't think that there is nothing you can do. There is. You can start talking to people about voting for Dusty Rhodes in the race for Congressman from the 17th District.

Is the security of your retirement that important to you? It is to Dusty. Go to work for him so he can go to work for you.

We're moving...!

Providing members with the best services possible, year after year, is one of the reasons Citizens Federal Credit Union has become one of the largest and most progressive credit unions in the nation. And now, as we prepare to move into our spacious new headquarters at 701 E. FM 700, the list of services being provided by Citizens Credit Union will be even more impressive.

JACKSON, Minn. (AP) — Officials in this southern Minnesota community have received some vocal support in their decision to keep open the women's public restroom.

Billy Wheeler of Mokelumne Hill, Calif., composed a song, "Don't Tear the Old Outhouse Down," and sent a tape recording to Mayor Arvin Schultz.

He dedicated the song to Schultz, the City Council and "the ladies of Jackson."

"I don't think it will make the top 10, but it's kind of cute," Wheeler said in a note to city officials. The debate over whether to close the restroom received nationwide attention this spring.

KERRVILLE, Texas (AP) — There's a five-man race in the Democratic primary from Texas' 21st District, but you couldn't prove it by some Kerr County ballots.

San Antonian Steve Clark's name was left off the official ballot in that Hill Country county, and the omission has officials in somewhat of a predicament.

By the time Kerr County Democratic chairman Donald Oehler found out about the problem, voting had already begun and some 120 ballots had been cast.

Oehler went to work to try to solve the problem. He said he contacted local

Spring sports banquet

A week from next Tuesday, May 9, the Big Spring Quarterback Club will sponsor the annual spring Sports Banquet at the High School.

At that time, the winner of the Obie Bristow Award, for the outstanding boy athlete, and the Wanda Ferguson Award, for outstanding girl, will be announced.

The Fellowship of Christian Athlete honors will also be bestowed upon outstanding athletes.

Tickets are $3.50, and can be purchased from any coach, Quarterback co-captains Wayne Henry or Jerry Foresyth or from Athletic Director Don Robbins.

In addition to the good food that has become a tradition at the local fete, noted speaker John Childs (no relation to Steer assistant Don Childs), will be on hand to give a rousing and humorous speech.

JOHN CHILDS Speaker for Steer banquet

Childs is a native of Jacksonville, Tex., and a graduate of Texas A&M University. In 1953, he joined the Army as an officer, and spent 21 years in the service.

He earned numerous distinguished medals for valor while in the Army, and was also appointed professor of military sciences at Allen Military Academy.

Childs now resides in Canyon with his wife Thelma Ruth. They have three boys. He is currently a vice president of the First National Bank of Canyon.

Because of his interest in today's youth and his involvement in various community programs for them, his message is expected to be of special interest to the high school athlete, his or her parents and the community involved in local sports.

FOOTBALL TIME ALREADY?

Monday, to be exact. Starting Monday, the Steers will have 21 calendar days to work on their gridiron skills.

"The program should show some real improvement," predicted Coach Don Robbins. "Next year will be our third year, and that fact alone usually means progress."

Approximately 70 athletes will be going out for spring training. About seven or eight are still in baseball, and the number of potential football stars is down from last year, due mainly to the closing of Webb.

As of this week, incidently, BSHS had 1,050 students in its top three grades. That compares with a District 5-4A average of about 2,400.

The Steer training sessions, highlighted this year by a strong emphasis on the running game, will culminate May 20 in the annual Black-Gold game at Memorial Stadium.

REMARKABILITIES

"In the clubhouse, they've got a candy rack, just like in the drugstore, and it's all for the players. I couldn't believe it. I stuffed myself on licorice the first night."

"No, but I've considered taking one away if he doesn't." — SONNY ALLEN, SMU basketball coach, when asked if he planned to offer his son Billy, an All-State player, a car to sign with the Mustangs.

Mets still have pitching

NEW YORK (AP) — Look who's leading the National League in earned run average — the supposedly pitching-poor New York Mets.

With two members of their Big Three, Tom Seaver and Jon Matlack, dealt away, the Mets headed into the 1978 season with a questionable pitching staff and what was supposed to be a better hitting club.

So after 19 games Mets hurlers boast a nifty 2.30 ERA, but the team is batting an anemic .195. Last weekend they were in first place in the National League East, but have since lost four in a row and are in fifth place with a 9-10 record.

Chuck Tanner, the Pittsburgh manager whose Pirates swept a three-game series ending Wednesday night, while getting just five earned runs and 16 hits off the Mets, says: "The Mets have five of the best starters in the league. And just think — we didn't have to face two of their best, Jerry Koosman and Nino Espinosa."

Duran keeps title

NEW YORK (AP) — Roberto Duran has a problem that most boxers never have to face — one most boxers would love to face.

"I love to fight," says the world lightweight champion from Panama. "But they've turned me into a singer and a dancer because the guys I fight are running all night."

Duran, at 142 pounds 7 pounds heavier than the normal lightweight limit of 135, won a 10-round, non-title decision Thursday night over Viruet, who weighed 141 1/2.

Viruet, a 26-year-old left-hander, kept away from Duran's powerful right much of the night by circling to his own right. The maneuver also opened up Duran's defense to several good lefts that landed on the champion's face.

Viruet opened with a left that buckled Duran's knees — Viruet's knockdown — but Duran caught Viruet with a resounding combination at the ropes near the end of the round.

"The only time I was hurt was that shot in the eighth round," said Viruet. "The main thing is that I hadn't fought in 1 1/2 years (in May of 1977 in Miami when he went 10 rounds), and I couldn't get my hands going."

Steers decisioned by Ranger

By BOB BURTON It was more like a lark than a blistering baseball game Thursday at Steer Park as the Big Spring nine dropped their 16th decision of the year to Ranger Junior College, 8-2.

The Ranger boys used a different pitcher each inning, while the Steers started third baseman Ricky Myers on the mound and played without the services of shortstop Kevin McLaughlin and outfielder Mike Evans, both in Ft. Worth on a diplomatic mission.

The score mounted steadily against the Steers, and although Thursdays are supposed to be practice, with the loss went the last chance for a .500 mark this season. With three games left, the Steers stand at 11-16.

The Steer batting went from the heights in recent weeks against loop opponents to the depths Thursday, when only three hits, including David Manley's sixth inning homer, could be scraped together. Maybe the Ranger pitching staff wasn't on the mound long enough to get tired, but the Steers struck out nine times during the game.

For the locals, the only other moment of excitement unfortunately came in the fourth when second-sacker Tony Rubio twisted his ankle sliding into second ahead of the throw on a Tony Mann single. Rubio had to be helped from the field and replaced by Tommy Rodriguez, who along with Mann was eager enough to cross the plate, but two quick outs ended the side and left them stranded. Manley's homer in the sixth also seemed to ignite some Steer fire, but Greg Henry walked and Rusty Hayworth grounded to short for a picture perfect double play to end that inning.

For the Rangers, only three of their eight hits were for extra bases, but the eight walks given up by Steer hurlers helped considerably. Also, the Ranger speed paid off several times in stolen bases, and several more in simply applying the pressure to Steer hurlers.

It was a short game that seemed long, but was relieved in the fifth by the appearance of Steers to come, the talent of the future.

In one swift move, Coach Tommy Collins moved Manley to pitcher for Myers, brought in Greg Henry for Tony Mann behind the plate, substituted Hayworth for Vernon at third, Tommy Rodriguez for Tony Rubio, Jim Brown for Johnny Mize, and Alan Bristol to take over Manley's slot. They proved their stuff by allowing only one run in the next two innings on two hits. Manley walked none.

The Steers next game will be Saturday in Abilene against Abilene Cooper. Now, if only jaded, faded Steer managers Jeff Carnell, Pate Denton, and Dwayne Cadzow would start serving wine and cheese to the media like Tommy LaSorda does, these home stands would be heaven.

STEER BATTERY — In early inning action Thursday in Steer Park, Steer pitcher Ricky Myers hurls a roundhouse curve to a Ranger Jr. College batter. Local catcher Tony Mann prepares for the outcome. The Steers lost to the visiting Juco's, 8-2, and travel to Abilene Cooper Saturday for their next contest.

BIG SPRING, TEXAS, APRIL 28, 1978

HARGROVE SCORES — Texas Rangers' first baseman, Mike Hargrove, scores a two run homer in the fifth inning of play. This was Hargrove's third homerun of the season. He is congratulated by teammates Al Oliver (0) and Bert Campaneris (foreground) as the action progressed at Arlington Stadium, Thursday night. The Rangers defeated the Cleveland Indians 3-1.

Trevino leads Player in N.O.

NEW ORLEANS (AP) — Lee Trevino took a long look over his shoulder at his friend Gary Player, four shots back going into today's second round of the $200,000 New Orleans Open Golf Tournament.

"He's gonna be a tough man to beat," Trevino said. "He is the perfect example of determination. He never gives up."

"A lot of us out here, we start playing bad and we're Hollywooding it, back-handing putts and just trying to finish and get off the golf course and go home. And there's little Gary out there grinding away, trying to hole it from the fairway for a 12."

"He never quits on you, no matter what. His motto is, 'It's never over until the last ball is in the hole.' He just keeps trying, just keeps coming at you. He's tough. And he's tough to beat."

Blackout battle on again

MIAMI (AP) — The long battle over television blackouts of National Football League games that are sold out in advance headed for a renewal today, with a committee of Congress doing the officiating.

The House Subcommittee on Communications scheduled a hearing on bills that would restrict the power of the NFL to prohibit local television broadcast of games sold out ahead of time.

From 1973 to 1975, Congress banned blackouts of games sold out 72 hours in advance. Since the law expired, the NFL has voluntarily complied with its provisions — apparently to ward off even more restrictive federal legislation.

Hargrove put on one-man Ranger show

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — If a two-run home run wasn't enough Thursday night, Mike Hargrove ruined Rick Wait's whole day with a devious hidden ball maneuver to pick off a napping Paul Dade and help blunt a sixth-inning Cleveland uprising.

Hargrove clubbed a Wait's fastball in the fifth inning for his third home run in as many games and Jon Matlack turned in a strong pitching performance as the rejuvenated Texas Rangers edged the Indians 3-1.

A tiring Matlack had walked Dade to lead off the sixth inning. On a pickoff attempt, Hargrove simply kept the ball in his glove instead of throwing it back to Matlack.

Meanwhile, Texas reserve Claudell Washington distracted Dade by yelling at him as Dade strolled off the bag. Hargrove simply applied the tag as the embarrassed Dade stood speechless.

The Indians went on to get three consecutive singles in that inning and scored their only run. Dade would have meant at least one additional run.

"Claudell gets an assist," said Texas Manager Bill Hunter with a smile. "It happened at the most opportune time."

"I just noticed that the time before, when I went to throw the ball back to the pitcher, he (Dade) walked off the bag. I just thought I'd try it the next time," said Hargrove.

"You kind of hate doing it because you hold him up to ridicule," he added. "But you've got to do it if you want to win."

"I was just teasing him. He was grinning, turned around and stepped off the bag," said Washington.

Waits, 1-1, had sailed through the first four innings, surrendering only a single and retiring 12 of 15 Texas batters. He gave up a leadoff triple to Jim Sundberg in the fifth and was nicked for an RBI single by Bert Campaneris, mired in an .073 slump.

"It was just that one pitch," Waits said of Hargrove's homer. "You shouldn't lose a game on one McCovey closer to 500th homer

By The Associated Press The Atlanta Braves got the short end of the stick — from the long end of Willie McCovey's bat.

The truest Giant of the San Francisco Giants, McCovey took some hard swings at the Braves Thursday night and knocked them down with a three-run double and a solo homer.

McCovey's big game added up to a 5-3 victory for San Francisco and another step in the slugger's quest for the prestigious 500-homer plateau.

"Five hundred has been on my mind for a few years," said McCovey, whose home run Thursday was the 496th of his career.

pitch, but that's what happened. I thought I pitched pretty good tonight."

Waits, a former Ranger who had shut out Texas on two hits last week, gave up only five hits and struck out seven in his eight innings.

Matlack, 2-3, who had lost three consecutive games after a 2-1 Opening Day verdict over the New York Yankees, scattered eight singles in the eight and one-third innings he pitched. Len Barker finished the game in relief.

Shell-shocked Texas pitchers had been pounded for 25 runs in 31 innings before Ferguson Jenkins gunned down Kansas City 4-1 on four hits Tuesday night. Doyle Alexander then followed Wednesday night with a six-hit, 3-0 shutout of the slugging Indians, who have been hitting near .300 lately.

It was the fourth victory in five games for the Rangers, who got off to a miserable 2-9 start.

The Texas pitchers, however, will be tested again this weekend when the potent Boston Red Sox, who swept a threegame series from Texas last week in Boston, arrive for a three-game set.

IN LUBBOCK TODAY — Big Spring senior Kenneth Coffey, shown here warming up on the intermediate hurdles, is in the Hub City today for competition in the Class AAAA Regional Track Meet. Coffey, who won the league title in the long jump with a leap of 22-10, will be vying for a berth in the state meet to be held in May.

No peeking. Who was last golfer to win four straight?

AUSTIN, Tex. (AP) — The last man to win four straight tournaments on the PGA golf tour knows how Gary Player feels trying to duplicate that feat this weekend in New Orleans.
 "It's like standing on a cliff every week, knowing a lot of people are trying to push you off," said Jack Burke Jr., who fashioned a rare necklace of four consecutive triumphs in 1952.
 Burke, 54, son of a famous Texas pro, is one of the old-timers shooting for the $400,000 prize pot in the Legends Tournament at the Onion Creek Club.
 "You have to be lucky, you have to be hot," Jackie said. "So far, Gary has been both those things — and more."
 Player, the 42-year-old golfer from Johannesburg, is currently the hottest commodity in professional golf. After rallying from seven shots back on the final day to win the coveted Masters, the gritty South African duplicated the scenario — almost to the letter — in the Tournament of Champions and then last Sunday made up five strokes on the final 10 holes for a victory in the Houston Open.
 The question now is: can he make it four?
 "Why not?" said Burke. "He has to be high as a kite, brimming with confidence because he is on a putting streak. At the same time, he is trying to cool himself down, trying to make himself forget the last three weeks."
 "He has to be under intense pressure. He realizes how much it means to win four in a row. But confidence has a way of loosening the strings. 'Look, I did it the last three weeks,' he is saying to himself. 'What's to keep me from doing it again?'"
 These are joys and agonies that Burke knows from personal experience.
 In 1952, he won the Texas Open at San Antonio, a title his late father took six times. The next week he won again at Houston, then at Baton Rouge, La., a fourth time at St. Petersburg, Fla.
 The papers were full of big, black headlines extolling the remarkable string.
 "The first two tournaments didn't amount to anything," Burke recalled. "I was lucky to win the third. I won in a playoff with Tommy Bolt and Bill Nary. But at St. Pete, I was flying on the clouds. I won by nine shots."
 Burke said his confidence was buoyed by a red-hot putting blade. The hole looked as big as a wash tub. He was knocking in putts from across town.
 "At St. Pete, I once hit an approach putt six feet past the cup," he said. "I turned to Al Besselink, my partner, and said, 'Wait a minute, Al, and I'll get this one out of the way.' Bessie almost died. 'Six feet and you're getting it out of the way,' he teased."
 With four tournaments in tow, Burke played in a small event at the Seminole in Florida and then headed for the Masters.
 "I thought I'd win the Masters, too, I was so fired up," he said. "I came close but Sam Snead won it." Burke had to wait four years to win the Masters, which he did in 1956, along with the PGA.
 "When you have a streak like this, you need help from the other guys in the field — such as Apdy Bean at Houston last week opening the door for Gary," Burke added.

Local Nazarene church members will attend their annual district assembly and auxiliary conventions May 1-5. The assembly of the West Texas District, which includes 95 churches, convenes at 9 a.m., Wednesday, May 3, and concludes with the evening service on Thursday. The missionary convention, with guest speaker Mrs. Mary Anderson, retired veteran missionary to India, precedes the assembly with a special missionary rally Monday evening, May 1, at 7:30 and regular convention business throughout the day and evening on Tuesday. A Christian Life convention, featuring Rev. Gary Henneke, pastor of the Oskaloosa, Ia., First Church of the Nazarene, takes place in two sessions on Friday May 5, immediately following the assembly. Workshops in ministry to the various age groups, i.e., children, youth, and adults, are planned.

Myriad Convention Center, Oklahoma City, January 10-12, will be seen in these plans. Church growth seminars have been conducted this year which will result in every church being a conscious of its progress and organizing for greater growth. Specific numerical goals for each church will be presented as a part of the denomination's commitment to enroll 250,000 new members in the 1976-80 quadrennium.

Dr. Charles Strickland, general superintendent, will preside and speak at the opening of each morning session. He is one of a six-man board of general superintendents, elected at the quadrennial general assemblies, who direct the affairs of the church through the 170 districts in 68 nations of the world.

College Park ladies meet

The College Park Church of God Ladies Auxiliary invite all ladies in the area to come and have fellowship each Thursday from 10 a.m. to 2 p.m.

On Thursday, May 4 the guest speaker will be Lucille Hinkley from Midland. She will be speaking on "Marriage."

Guest singer will be Mrs. Juanita Osburn. Bring a covered dish for the noon luncheon. The officers of the auxiliary extend a warm welcome to Mrs. Patsy Jones, president; Mrs. Juanita Osburn, vice president, and Mrs. Edna Rawls, secretary.

Hillcrest youth set activities

The Church of the Nazarene is making many changes required by its rapid internationalization. Of the total 625,150 members, 25 percent are outside of the United States and Canada. A growth percentage of 3.3 was reported in 1977. The church now broadcasts around the world in 18 languages.

Lutherans reject system

DAR ES SALAAM, Tanzania (AP) — The Lutheran World Federation, representing most of the Lutherans around the world, has urged its white member churches in southern Africa to work for universal suffrage in South Africa, and "publicly and unequivocally reject the existing apartheid system."

The youth of Hillcrest Baptist Church are sponsoring a Benefit Basketball Tournament on Saturday, April 29th at the Gay Hill School gym. Everyone is invited to attend and the action takes place from 5 p.m. to around 10. The teams are made up of the youth of the church.

Admission will be by donation with all the proceeds going to a fund to help needy young people attend youth camp this summer. To get to the gym drive 12 miles north on Highway 669 to the Gay Hill turn-off sign. Follow that road one mile east and you will have arrived.

The youth will be having other money raising projects during the coming months. They appreciate the support of their church and anyone else who cares to help.

Charismatics host spring conference

A conference called "The Family and Need for Christ" will be held by the Diocesan Charismatic Service Group of San Angelo. They will host the annual spring sharing charismatic conference May 6 at St. Ann's Parish Hall on W. Ill. in Midland.

The conference will begin with registration at 9 a.m. and last until 5 p.m. ending with a charismatic mass. Some topics of discussion include the Christian family and scripture, husband and wife as reflection of God's love; priesthood of God's father, the mother as the heart of the family and children as the fruit of God's love.

There will also be a panel on the family and teenagers with witnessing given by teenagers.

Time will be allowed for questions, answers and general audience participation, along with breaks for fellowship and purchase of books.

Music will be furnished by St. Joseph and St. Mary's prayer groups of San Angelo.

The registration fee, including the luncheon is $3 for adults $1.50 for children 2-12 and free to children under two and all others who do not wish to participate in the luncheon.

For information call the Rev. Bernard Gully at 267-2882.

Jews shocked

NEW YORK (AP) — The World Organization of Jews from Arab Countries says it is shocked by the one-sidedness of President Carter's recent statements advocating compensation for Arab refugees from Israel but failing to mention the approximately six million Jews displaced from Arab lands. He was urged to assure compensation for the Jewish refugees.

Just Watching It Go By!
A railroad once proposed the abandonment of a money-losing spur running from northeastern Colorado into Nebraska. One of the witnesses who testified in opposition to the abandonment proceedings was a farmer who pleaded that the line was a necessity to the prosperity of the area.
The railroad lawyer asked, "How long has it been since you shipped anything on this road?" "Well, I don't know as I ever have." "How long has it been since you've ridden on the railway?" "About ten or fifteen years." "Then what difference does it make to you whether the line is abandoned or not?" "Well, hang it all," the farmer said with some heat, "I walk down almost every night to see the train go passing by!"
Are you just watching the church go passing by, or are you on board, helping sustain its work and influence in your community and your nation? People who don't support Christ's church don't deserve the freedom the church has helped us Americans to have and to keep.

Central Texas church is slice of old country

CORN HILL, Texas (AP) — If this little Central Texas town seems familiar to seasoned travelers it may be that it seems more European than Texan, more Czech than red neck.

Located 17 miles north of Georgetown, Corn Hill is a slice of the "Old Country" somehow airlifted across time and space to this pastoral region just off Interstate 35, 17 miles north of Georgetown.

Perched atop a hill overlooking blackland corn and cotton fields is a church built as a miniature of the 14th Century St. Vitus Cathedral at the Prague Castle in Czechoslovakia's capital.

The slate-covered, twin spires of Holy Trinity Catholic Church rise over a setting similar to what Texas' Czech settlers left in Europe.

"It's pretty much like the old country," says the Rev. Gideon Stram, pastor of the church's 180 families. "They settled here and felt at home."

Stram came to America from Hungary in 1949 to escape Russian harassment of priests and religion teachers, but was born in what is now Czechoslovakia.

The close community ties that characterize rural European parishes remain at Holy Trinity, he said.

"They're easy to get along with, like a big family. Just Saturday we had a work day to clean the church and a lot of older people even came and helped," he said.

Church records show Corn Hill was settled in 1880 by Czechs from the town of Ostrava in Moravia.

Czech Catholics wanted a church of their own, apart from other ethnic groups, and in 1895 erected a church on land donated by a local farmer. The community outgrew the building and in 1913 the present beige-brick structure was raised with community labor at a cost of $30,000.

Inside the stern facade is a light, airy interior. An oil painting depicting the doctrine of the Holy Trinity hangs in the vestibule. It graced the altar of the 1895 church and was shipped from Moravia, as were the stained glass windows.

The traditional apostles to the Slavic nations, Saints Cyril and Methodius, are among the figures portrayed in colored glass.

Although Mass is said in English, the congregation is given copies of Czech hymns.

"They speak Czech in the homes and after Mass they come out and I can't understand a thing," said Stram, whose native tongue is Hungarian.

Stram celebrates Mass Saturday night, once Sunday morning and daily.

"There are a few people here daily. Attendance is 100 percent on Sunday," he said proudly.

Despite recording more funerals than baptisms, the parish is growing.

"People are moving in, so the numbers are increasing with people out of Austin, retiring and so on," Stram says. The community has adjusted to industrialization, but hasn't given up its agricultural roots, he said.

"It's peaceful now in the afternoon. But when they come home at 6 p.m., they change clothes, get on the tractor and start farming."

Airport Baptists set Revival

Airport Baptist Church is scheduling a spring revival starting May 1 and lasting through May 7.

The event will be held nightly at the church at 1208 Frazier. Evangelist is to be the Rev. Bruce Wells of Rainbow Baptist Church in Glenrose.

Joe Whitten, minister of music at First Baptist Church, will lead the singing at the services.

The time for the evening services will be 7 p.m. daily. The Rev. David McNary cordially invites the public to attend.

St. Mary's Episcopal Church sets two special events over weekend

St. Mary's Episcopal Church will hold two special events this weekend with Bishop and Mrs. Henton as special guests.

The Diocesan Leadership Training Workshop focusing on aspects of religious education begins at 9:15 a.m. Saturday followed by Holy Eucharist at 10 a.m.

Morning classes include Ministry to the Aged, leadership and stewardship and options for church schools.

After lunch, afternoon classes offer courses in Liturgy of Word and Music, Tools for Crisis Ministry and others.

The remainder of the Eucharist is at 3:15 p.m. The $5 registration fee includes lunch. Several registrations have been received from out of town. The Bishop will be a special guest at Holy Confirmation at 6:30 p.m. followed by a catered parish supper.

On Sunday, April 30, the area Episcopal Churches will meet together for special Rogation Services. The Bishop will again be special guest for the Eucharist, Confirmation, Baptism, sermon, and the blessing of seeds, crops, animals and tools of "our lives."

Everyone is asked to bring an implement symbolic to his life or vocation. It can be a book, or even a toy for a child.

The service will begin at 10:30 a.m. on the Hart Ranch south of Snyder on Highway 208.

A West Texas family style feast will follow the service with meat and drinks provided.

Members are asked to bring a salad, vegetable or dessert.

The Rogation Service dates back as early as 470 A.D. when Bishop Mamertus of Vienne, Gaul, asked his people to pray out of doors for relief from volcanic eruptions which were destroying the area. During the 8th century, the service developed into one of agricultural blessings as the crops and herds were blessed.

The first area celebration was in 1974 on the Pyron Ranch at Colorado City. Others have been held on the Billy Joe Clifton farm at Inadale, at the Coltex Club in Colorado City and this year's will be at Snyder.

GENERAL TENDENCIES: This is one of those days when you may want to upset present plans for an illusory new appeal, but you would be wise not to discard carefully laid plans of the past.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Try not to argue with a long-time friend or you could regret it later. Take the right steps to gain a personal wish. Be patient.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Make an effort to improve your position in your community. Not a good day to ask an influential person for a favor.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Plan time to study a project that could mean increased income in the future. Engage in recreational activities you enjoy.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Try to please an irate associate so that you can carry on with mutual interests more harmoniously. Relax in the evening.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Plan how to complete your chores with fewer interruptions and increased efficiency. Take treatments to improve your appearance.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Your mate is under an emotional strain that you can help to alleviate now. Don't do anything to jeopardize harmony at home.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Be patient with one at home who may be upset since the planets are not favorable at this time. Establish more order around you.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Make sure not to react bitterly to remarks of a careless person and upset present harmony at home. Be more tolerant.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Study your surroundings and make plans for improvement. Don't jeopardize your present security in any way.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You could be tempted to conclude a present business arrangement and get into something new, but this would be most unwise.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) If you analyze a new enterprise more carefully you will know how to be more successful. Make new friends in the evening.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Don't lose your temper over a situation that displeases you. This would only make matters worse. Sidestep a troublemaker.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will easily comprehend the problems of others and also will be endowed with the ability to help solve them wisely. There is much humanitarian in this chart, and the education should be directed along lines of helping people.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to YOU!

Ridin' fence They call it Woodard with Marj Carpenter

That's what they called it - Woodard. And it was one more rural school in Martin County.

The school at that location was built in 1909. And it was a little north of the present site of good old Tarzan.

It was not cleverly named like Tarzan, which was named because residents couldn't find a name for a post office that had not already been snatched up by some Texas town.

The Woodard school was named simply for Arch Woodard, who owned a ranch at that location.

It was northwest of a Klepper rural home. Miss Clara Jones, later Mrs. C. C. Coffee of Big Spring, was the first teacher.

One of the pupils was Weldon Klepper, who recalled Miss Jones as "very pretty."

He also at one time gave out a description of a unrelated to Zimmerman's testimony, which helped convict a Real County commissioner and two other men.

Annie Zimmerman, 41, was in Uvalde County Jail this morning in lieu of $50,000 bond set Wednesday when she was charged with the murder of Real County ranch foreman Alfred Zimmerman.

The woman surrendered to authorities in the office of a San Antonio attorney. Charges were filed after an investigation by Uvalde Texas Ranger Joaquin Jackson, Real County Sheriff John Elliott and state police.

Zimmerman was found early Monday by his son, Cecil, on the floor of the foreman's quarters at the Eagle Ranch in the northwest part of the county.

Elliott and Jackson had questioned Mrs. Zimmerman at her home in Kerrville Tuesday night. The couple was separated and a divorce action was pending in district court at Leakey.

Jackson said he is convinced the shooting is LAMESA - Devon Woods is valedictorian about Martin County. The second one is due to come off the press soon. Klepper said that the Christmas tree at that school was the "first public Christmas tree that I remember. If I close my eyes, I can see it to this day."

He recalled that the school was decorated with drawings by the school children and the tree was a mesquite bush decorated with strings of popcorn and cranberries and with a few little glass balls.

In the top of the tree, there was a large paper bell, which after that hung from the ceiling of the front room at the Klepper home for many years.

Klepper could remember they exchanged gifts and that they all drank gallons of lemonade and it was some of the first lemonade he ever had.

Miss Jones taught only one term, ending it with the big Christmas wing-ding. Mrs. Klepper taught the school for the balance of the year.

Some of the students included children from the Henry Moore family, the Keltons, the Orsons, the Curtises, the Kleppers, the Henrys and others.

At the end of the few years of school in that building, it was merged into two different schools.

Part of the students began to attend school over the Moore Community, which was in Howard County. That was a highly successful rural school.

Zimmerman testified at the federal court trial in San Antonio that he called a game warden after hearing shots fired from a helicopter flying over the ranch in pursuit of a golden eagle.

He also told the court signs at the ranch were vandalized after he notified state officials of the hunting incident.

Later, he told authorities his life had been threatened. Uninsured drivers decision

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) - Every auto liability policy issued in Texas automatically includes uninsured motorist coverage unless the policyholder rejects it in writing, the 3rd Court of Civil Appeals ruled today.

The court said oral rejection is not enough, nor is accepting a policy that lacks uninsured motorist protection.

The decision meant Employers Casualty Co. and Southern Farm Bureau Casualty Insurance Co. must pay a total of $15,000 to Cathy Sloan, who was injured in a June 22, 1973, auto accident.

A San Angelo state district court judge also had entered a verdict for Miss Sloan. Southern insured the car in which she was riding. The policy did not include uninsured motorist coverage, but there was no written rejection from the owner, Howe F. Mayse.
