

Pow pleases rodeo fans

Carter ropes first place

By CARLA WALKER

A time of 8.8 seconds in the calf roping may be good enough to win most rodeos, but not the 45th Annual Big Spring Cowboy Reunion. Butch Bode's 8.8 second time, good enough for the lead in Wednesday's performance, was bested by Pow Carter. For Sumner, N.M., who looped and tied his calf in 8.7 seconds Thursday evening.

And, as if that wasn't enough, Carter and team roping partner Buttons Howard of Farwell stretched their steer in 8.3 seconds, cutting 4.2 seconds off the previously leading time of 12.5 seconds posted Wednesday night.

Fred Garrett, Louise, and Larry Cohorn, Las Cruces, N.M. would have posted an 8.7 time, but the penalty for snagging only one hind leg pushed their official time to 13.7. J.B. Whately, Markel, and David Cochran, Abilene, had the same trouble with the penalty, and their official time was 14.8 seconds. Times for both teams were still good enough to be "in the money," even with the penalties.

In the calf roping, Carter and Roy Burk, Duncan, Okla., were the only two ropers with fast enough times to qualify for the money in the first go-round, but several ropers had low enough times to still be in contention for the average on two calves.

Burk's time was 10.5 seconds, and right behind him in Thursday's performance was Jeff Copenhaver, Aledo, who got his calf tied in 11.2 seconds. Barry Burk, Duncan, Okla. registered a 12.8, and Buttons Howard and J.P. Smith, Midland were the only other two ropers to score with a 15.6 and 16.0 respectively.

Jimmie Gibbs, world title holder in the barrel racing, who hails from Valley Mills got in the money with a 17.84 second clover-leaf pattern Thursday, but the time wasn't good enough to nudge the lead from Nancy Anderson of Colorado City, who set her 17.43-second time Wednesday.

Moving into third in the overall barrel standings was Donna Shelton, Vernon, who posted a 17.91 time. Jackie Bob Cox, Ozona, made the barrels in 18.60 seconds, while Debbie Lewis, Hereford, posted a 19.0 for the night.

John Bland, Trent, moved into the money places in the bull riding as he showed a lot of style through his eight seconds of qualifying on a bull named TC. No scores other than Bland's 76 even threatened the leaders in the event, who made their scores Wednesday with Denny Flynn of Charleston, Ark. still holding on to the top slot with an 85.

In the steer wrestling, Butch Bode's 4.3 time made Wednesday was still holding the pace Thursday, as Randy Vaughn, Chico, was the closest dogger with a time of 5.7 seconds. Scott Hudson, Colorado City, downed his steer in 6.2 seconds, while Jim Bynum, Waxahachie, was third for the night with 7.5 seconds.

Neither saddle or bareback bronc riders managed to best scores earned Wednesday. Lyle Sankey, Augusta, Kan. cowpoke made the best ride of Thursday's performance and earned 67 points for his efforts, enough to make him tied for third slot in the saddle bronc competition. Mike Esquibel, Dodge City, Kan., and Bobby Berger followed Sankey with scores of 59 and 57 respectively.

In the bareback riding, Chuck Frasier's ride on a horse called "Bad Scene" was scored at 68, three points behind the overall leading score in that event. Lyle Sankey and Raymond Gross, Bryan, both earned scores of 66 for their rides, while Karl Kenner, Amarillo with 64 points, was the only other rider to sit it out for a score.

Trick riders Christy Brown, Micki McNutt, and Vickie Tyer performed for a receptive crowd.

Quail Dobbs, national finals rodeo clown from Coahoma performed his antics, which not only helped the show to move smoothly between events, but also entertained children and adults alike. Dobbs and clown Tommy Sheffield gave the crowd a thrill by living dangerously as they "played" with the final bull ridden in the rodeo.

It wasn't all play for Sheffield, however, who rescued at least two downed riders from angry bulls.

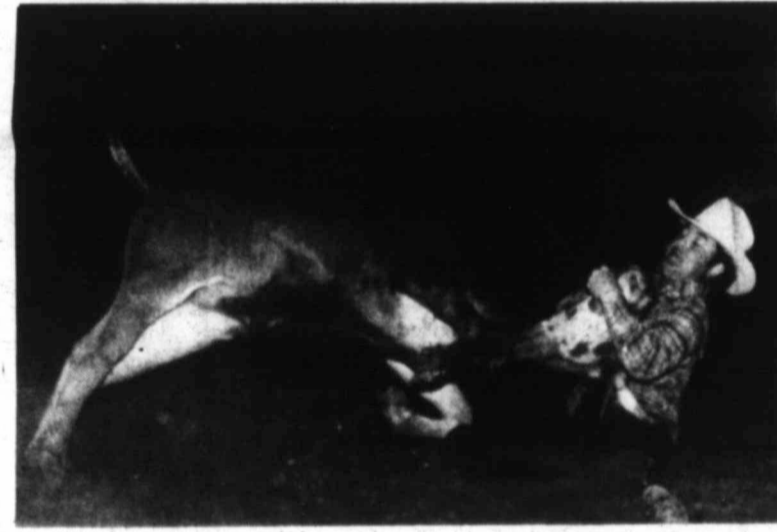

Billy Walker, country western recording star sang several of his hits for the crowd, including "Charlie's Shoes," and "Cross the Brazos at Waco," as well as gospel favorite "How Great Thou Art." Walker chatted amiably with the crowd, shaking hands as he sang and commenting to individuals between lines of the songs.

Tonight, Fiddling Frenchie Burke will make his second Big Spring appearance, with home-towner Hoyle Nix entertaining on Saturday.

Rodeo performances begin at 8:30 p.m. nightly.

PLENTY OF ACTION — Sammie Groves of Stroud, Okla., rides his bronc in the Big Spring rodeo but fails to be listed in the top three in the first go-round where Rick Whorton of Springdale, Ark., led on opening night with a 73 and Lyle Sankey of Kansas led on the second night with a 67. There are two more nights of rodeo in Big Spring with performances at 8:30 p.m.

TOUGH EVENT — Delbert McKenzie, Austin, wrestles a steer to the ground on opening night at a 5.9 time which was bested on the second night by Randy Vaughn of Chico with a 5.7. Butch Bode's 4.2 holds the lead as the rodeo goes into its third performance tonight.

Focalpoint

Action/reaction: 'Chester', Festus

Q. Who was the man on the TV program "Gunsmoke" who had a stiff leg, and what name did he use on the program. My son said Matt Dillon never had a sidekick other than Festus?
A. Your son is wrong. Dennis Weaver took the role of "Chester" in early "Gunsmoke" programs and he played as if he had the handicap of a stiff leg. He was a member of the University of Oklahoma track team shortly before landing the role of "Chester."

Offbeat: Putting on the dog

The groom may be handsome, but at least one of the wedding guests is a "real dog." An unidentified young bride-to-be entered Prager's Men and Boy's wear store to buy a tie for the guest.

J.W. Parmley, who waited on the young lady, said she requested to buy a baby blue, formal, velvet bow tie so that her Bassett Hound could attend her wedding in style. Wonder if the bow-tied Bassett will be "man's best friend or friend's 'best man'?"

Tops on TV: 'Columbo'

The guide tells you who-dun-it before the show starts, but Peter Falk as Columbo ought to still be entertaining as he goes after Ruth Jordan, who plays a mystery writer turned murderer tonight at 7:30 p.m. on NBC.

Four fire departments battle fire

Flames endanger several homes

By MARJ CARPENTER
What apparently began as a small trash fire developed into a fire that burned over 30 acres of underbrush and threatened several homes on Hilltop Road Thursday.

Residents on Hilltop Road claimed that fires that burn on the edge of the area often begin in the welding shops and wrecking yards on the Snyder Highway and get "somewhat out of control."

Sheriff Aubrey Standard said here today, "We plan to make some contacts in that area about exerting more care in fire prevention. This fire had to be fought or watched by firemen from Jonesboro, Sand Springs, Coahoma and Big Spring for many hours and proved to be quite expensive."

The city of Big Spring got into the act after residents on Hilltop Road called for help around 2:25 p.m. Two lone firemen from Jonesboro, Donnie Dolan and Harold Hale had been battling the blaze for over two hours at that point, with the help of a single volunteer from Sand Springs who had to leave and return to work.

The Jonesboro truck broke down out in the field, according to Hale, fire chief. The two lone fire fighters were then battling a lonesome battle and the fire came up to south edge of Hilltop Road. Persons living across the street removed horses that were in danger.

One woman fled with her baby when her home became filled with dense smoke.

The two city trucks arrived patrolled the area and fought the fire at the edges, beating it back from the roads and residential area, according to Alvie Harrison, fire chief.

"It's a difficult area to fight a fire," Harrison added. "The brush is heavy and there's been a lot of trash dumped in there that catches fire. Rather than lose a truck, we tried to let the fire burn off underbrush and trash and keep it under control," he added.

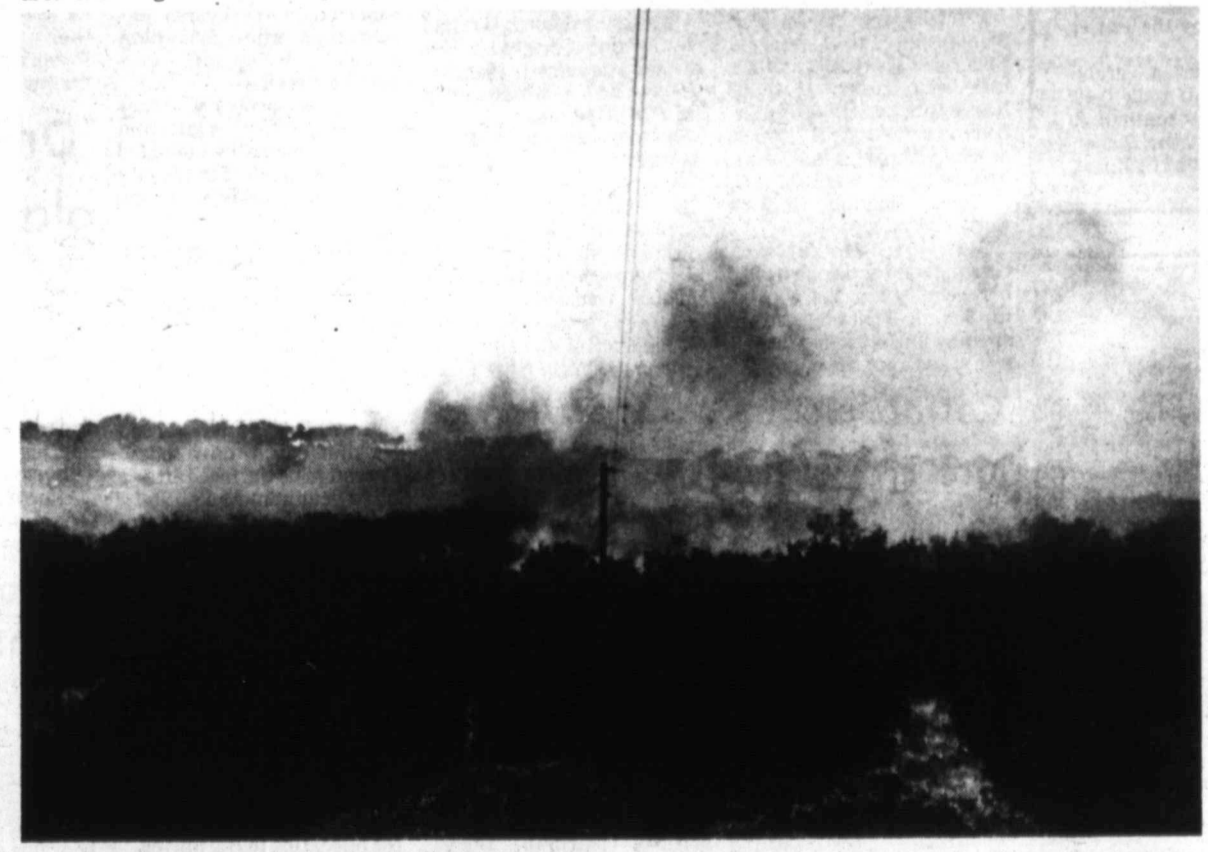

He had two trucks at the scene for an hour and a half patrolling both Hilltop Road and the road near the trailer court to the east, to keep the fire away from residences.

The city firemen went back to the station at 4:15 p.m. and were called out a second time at 5:30 p.m. when flames became dangerous behind the welding shops and wrecking yards on the Snyder highway.

The trucks returned around 6:30 p.m. Volunteer units, including Coahoma, again patrolled the blaze. Then Deputy Charles Johnson and other members of the sheriff's department kept an eye on the blaze during the night. Some underbrush was still smoldering today.

However, dense smoke from the area and danger to area residents, had apparently subsided.

Residents in Hilltop Road expressed appreciation to the volunteer firemen who helped, to the city fire department and the sheriff's office for their assistance.

EXCITED RESIDENTS (left) — Judy Holliday, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hale and Donnie Dolan explain where the fire began and how it spread. Residents on Hilltop Road became alarmed when it moved into the brush directly across the road from their homes.

Deadline for IRS exam is Aug. 15

DALLAS — The deadline for filing an application to take the 1978 IRS Special Enrollment Examination is Aug. 15. The examination will be given Sept. 25 and 26 in Dallas and Lubbock. It is given annually to qualify persons who are neither CPAs nor attorneys to represent clients before the Federal tax agency.

IRS District Director A.W. McCannless said that persons who want to take the examination must send a completed Form 2587, Application for the 1978 Special Enrollment Examination, to the Director, Audit Division, Internal Revenue Service, Washington, D.C. 20224.

No extensions of time to make applications will be granted. "Aug. 15 is the deadline," McCannless said.

The application must be accompanied by a recent photo of the applicant, which will be used for identification purposes only, and a check or money order for the examination fee, made payable to the Internal Revenue Service.

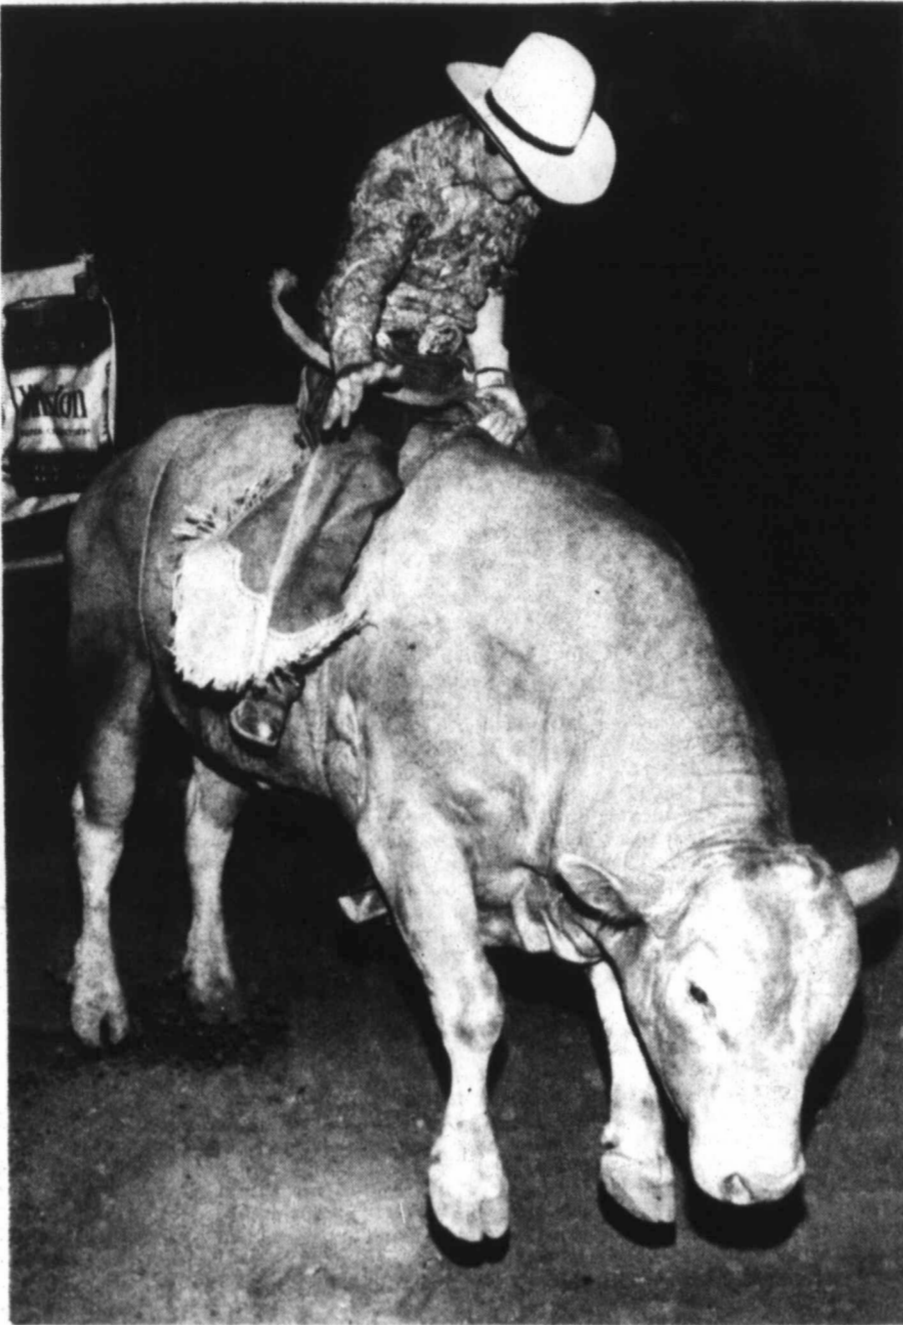

No fees will be refunded to an applicant who fails to take the examination, but they may be applied as a credit to next year's application fee. Circumstances under which credits may be authorized are spelled out on application Form 2587.

The 1978 examination will have an increased emphasis on Federal tax laws as they apply to business operations such as sole proprietorships, partnerships and corporations.

Publication 486, "Requirements for Internal Revenue Service Enrollment and Special Enrollment Examination," identifies sources of tax information that may be helpful in preparing for the examination. The examination will include true or false and multiple choice questions in all of the four parts of the examination.

Tax Appraisal Board meets Budget progress discussed

The Howard County Tax Appraisal Board, in a brief meeting Thursday, discussed the progress made on the budget for next year, and the limits of the Tax Appraiser's authority under the present contract.

A motion by Forsan Superintendent J.C. Poyner suggested that the city, county, school district, and college governing bodies get together to hammer out an acceptable appraisal office.

LOCAL COWGIRL — Wanda Driver, well-known local cowgirl had a good barrel race time of 18.61 the opening night but the first night lead of Nancy Anderson of Colorado City still holds at 17.43 followed by Jimmie Gibbs of Valley Mills on the second night with 17.84. Jimmie is a former champion in the event.

The suggestion came after the County Commissioners and the Howard College Board of Trustees independently agreed that the budget should be limited to $75,000 rather than the $140,000 figure proposed by Appraiser Earl Dean.

A meeting was tentatively set for July 12 to present the proposed budget to the Tax Appraisal Board.

Meanwhile, at the request of the board, Board President and City Finance Director Tom Ferguson said he would ask the city attorney for an interpretation of the contract between the board and the appraiser. Ferguson said he would ask attorney James Gregg what the appraiser could do under the contract toward equalization of property values in the area.

Presently, the appraiser is only supposed to be handling additions and renovations to property.

"There was some disagreement at the meeting over whether equalization is really re-evaluation," commented Ferguson. "Some said it was, some said it wasn't. I wouldn't want to comment on that until after we get the attorney's opinion."

Gregg is expected to appear at the July meeting to interpret his opinion and answer any other questions of the board.

Americans, Soviets work together

MOSCOW (AP) — American and Soviet scientists have been successfully carrying out joint experiments just outside Moscow on a revolutionary process that could result in the cheaper and more efficient production of electricity, according to U.S. officials.

Dr. William Jackson of the U.S. Department of Energy said the cooperative research effort was helping both countries push ahead with development of the process called magnetohydrodynamics — MHD — as a practical, safe, less expensive and highly efficient method for using fossil fuels, especially coal.

At the same time, he noted, the joint approach was expected to yield sizeable tax dollar savings for Americans, by minimizing the need for the U.S. to duplicate test facilities already existing in the Soviet Union.

In the MHD process, hydrocarbon fuel such as coal or natural gas is burned at extremely high temperatures, up to about 5,000 degrees Fahrenheit. The resulting ionized gas is forced at the speed of a bullet down a channel through an intense magnetic field, thereby producing electricity.

After passing through the magnetic field, the hot gas may then be used for heating water to produce steam for regular turbine generators. This two-step process enables MHD plants to burn fuels much more efficiently than conventional power stations.

Proponents of the process say the method could benefit consumers by producing electricity more cheaply and efficiently from coal, which is in abundant supply in the United States and the Soviet Union.

Specialists note that while conventional generating plants are only about 35 percent efficient in converting hydrocarbon energy into electricity, MHD plants can be built to operate at about 65 percent, resulting in substantial savings of fuel.

Jackson, American chairman of the U.S.-Soviet

MHD effort, said in an interview with The Associated Press: "It's been very cost-effective and we're getting good data which is directly applicable to both sides in their own MHD programs."

Jackson was among half a dozen top U.S. MHD specialists visiting Moscow this week to discuss the basic outlines for continuing cooperative research in magnetohydrodynamics over the next five years.

Expansion of Houston job market to continue

HOUSTON (AP) — The job market in the nation's fifth largest city is expected to continue expanding, but many of those who are looking for work have no marketable skills, according to a report by the Texas Employment Commission.

The report also indicates that although average unemployment in the metropolitan area is expected to drop from a projected 4.2 percent in 1978 to 4 percent in 1979, unemployment among blacks will remain significantly higher.

According to the 1976 census, about 24 percent of the city's 1.7 million inhabitants are black while the Hispanic-surnamed population is estimated at around 20 percent.

Job opportunities in Houston, says the TEC, are "overbalanced" towards those who have specific training, skills or experience. And trainee positions, once the avenue of the unskilled into the job market, are less common as firms tend to promote more within the organization.

collar workers will continue to hold the bulk of the jobs in Houston, followed by those in professional, technical and related fields.

Approximately one-fifth of the population lives below the poverty level. The report notes that the need for job training programs will grow. But it goes on to say that many who have participated in a federally funded program prefer to wait until another comes along rather than take an entry level job which usually pays less.

TEC offices in Houston report that 50 percent of their applicants depend on public transportation to get to and from work whereas many of the available jobs are beyond existing bus lines.

Projected black unemployment for 1978 is 6.9 percent while the rate among Hispanicsurnamed persons is only 4.1 percent. The 1978 unemployment rate for women is 5.6 percent.

Growth in the six-county metropolitan area (Harris, Fort Bend, Brazoria, Liberty, Montgomery and Waller) had already surpassed projections for 1980 by 1977. Of a total projected 1979 population of 2,624,200, the work force is expected to number 1,432,100.

The report said much of the labor force growth will be absorbed by industry relocations and expansions occurring "at an incredible rate."

Weather

Temperatures reach 100 degrees in state

Temperatures were expected to soar to the 100-degree mark and perhaps slightly above across a vast area of West and North Central Texas today.

And in the Big Bend area of Southwest Texas, the mercury was expected to approach or perhaps pass 110 degrees. Some thunderstorm activity was reported along the South Texas coast and near the Lower Rio Grande Valley Thursday afternoon, but rain was not mentioned in the latest forecasts.

Some clouds were reported in South Central Texas early today, but most of the state had clear skies and quite warm temperatures.

WEATHER FORECAST — Widely scattered showers are forecast Friday from the Pacific coast to the upper Great Lakes. Showers are also forecast for Florida and southern Georgia. Cool weather is expected for northern New England but sunny, warm weather is the forecast for most areas.

KNOW WHO YOU ARE

Let a man (thoroughly) examine himself, and (only) when he has done so should he eat of the bread and drink of the cup.

For any one who eats and drinks without discriminating and recognizing with due appreciation that (it is Christ's) body, eats and drinks a sentence — a verdict of judgment — upon himself.

That (careless and unworthy participation) is the reason many of you are weak and sickly, and quite enough of you are fallen into the sleep of death.

For if we searchingly examined ourselves — detecting our shortcomings and recognizing our own condition — we should not be judged and penalty decreed (by the divine judgment).

But when we (fall short and) are judged by the Lord, we are disciplined and chastened so that we may not (finally) be condemned (to eternal punishment along) with the world.

13 good reasons for buying your car from dewey ray

- SERVICE & COURTESY. We don't worry about making today's buck, our hostess tries to treat you so well you'll never want to buy a car elsewhere — No "high pressure" to buy.
- CUT PRICES. Without salesmen, sales demonstrators and insurance — We can sell at a much smaller profit than is customary elsewhere.
- NO HAGGLING OVER PRICES. The sticker price, cash selling price and dealer cost invoice is right on the window of every car and truck. All new cars and trucks are discounted.
- FULL VALUE FOR YOUR USED CAR. We urge our customers to establish the cash market value of their car by using our used car books and getting bids from reliable used car dealers — We pay cash for your car whether you trade with us or not.
- EXECUTIVE CARS. Are sold at dealer invoice cost. We don't make any pretense of trying to profit on cars we have used in our business.
- NO YO YO PRICING. By salesmen. All prices are clearly posted. We never manipulate prices up and down by haggling over "trade-in" value. Used cars have a rather firm "cash" market value.
- NO SALESMANSHIP HERE. We give expert information concerning our products. You make the decision. Unlike other dealers there are no rewards for "trading up" or getting a "higher gross". Our hostess won't resent it if you leave without buying, or try to make you feel obligated to buy. You'll be back.
- NO EXTRA SERVICE CHARGES. All charges for a totally serviced "road ready" car are included in our "cash price". No surprises after the sale.
- "CHEAPIE" 1 OR 2 CAR PROMOTIONS. All cars and trucks are discounted. The percentage of mark up is the same on all cars and trucks in stock except last years models, executive cars, and merchandise in stock for more than 180 days.
- "LOW BALLING". No one in our dealership will practice the use of semantics to infer you will get a better deal if you come back after shopping elsewhere. Our quotations are firm.
- GOOD AUTOMOTIVE SERVICE AFTER YOU BUY. Our experienced, well trained mechanics can take care of any problems that may develop after the sale, in our modern, well equipped service department.
- FINANCING AT CUSTOMER'S OPTION. No one here will try to push a pencil in your hand to get a contract signed before you change your mind. We want you to be confident you want our car or truck before you buy. What's more, our business is autos and trucks, not collecting commissions on financing and insurance.
- HOW TO COMPLAIN. If you have a problem and problems do arise, discuss it with the owner, Dewey Ray. His office is right beside the showroom and his door is always open for his customers.

Politicians do poor job of 'selling'

Politicians still have a job to do, that of 'selling' themselves to the American people.

Recent polls show the electorate is somewhat less than enthusiastic in giving politicians, especially those in Congress, a note of confidence.

A Gallup poll taken not long ago revealed that of the nine 'key institutions' in this country, Congress finished ninth, with an approval rating of just 18 per cent.

U.S. News and World Report provided respondents with a list of 25 institutions in this nation's society. The House of Representatives came in no better than 18th on the list, rallying just eight per cent of the support. The United States Senate didn't do much better, finishing 16th with nine per cent of the support.

PERHAPS THE most devastating response was that given when pollsters for U.S. News and World Report asked about the 'honesty, dependability and integrity' of the group labeled 'Politicians.' Of the 25 groups listed, 'Politicians' came in dead last, which would indicate that politicians should try to change either their image or their name. Only a minuscule number of those voting expressed any confidence in the legislative bodies.

If it is true that only two per cent of the nation's voters have any feeling of confidence in politicians and if 90 per cent distrust the House and Senate, then the political process is more than in disfavor. It can be considered in jeopardy.

Watergate, it is obvious, remains fresh in the minds of the people. The slow process the investigative bodies has made in efforts to catch the guilty parties in the Korean bribe scandals hasn't helped the legislators' cause, either.

MAINLY, THOUGH, we think it angers the public in knowing that the Congress is a law unto itself, that it answers to no one and that it takes the attitude that the public can like it or lump it in judging what its members do. The Congress takes care of itself first, with regular salary boosts, a pension plan second to none and fringe benefits that invariably are so much better than those found in private industry.

The success of Proposition 13 in California should have told the members of Congress something, but about all we hear is "it can't happen here." The message was loud and clear — the people are disgusted with government's inability or unwillingness to control spending. The Indians are watching. The chiefs had better get busy.

Cut it out

Bob Burton

Summer drivers drive me wild. There is some infectious quality in the sunshine, or in the smell of air-conditioning and gas, or in the breeze from an open vent that makes strong men careless and sane women bonkers.

People drive faster in the summer because its hot and they want to get there sooner to get out of the sun. They drive faster because they feel exhilarated and they like the sensation. They drive faster because everybody else is.

WELL, CUT IT out. You almost killed me today, and I don't take kindly to that. In fact, it scares me to death to think I might have bought the farm.

Wee, we (Sports Editor Reagan and I) were coming down Gregg St. peacefully in the right-hand lane when this bronze pickup, alarmed by the sight of a car turning into Sonic, shied into our lane, and into our airspace.

360 degrees later, we straightened out and headed for the paper, chatting amiably in unprintable language about non-signaling, non-thinking, piggyish, knuckleheaded bronze pickup drivers. My hands were shaking and my pickup's tires were a half-inch smaller. But in all fairness, the bronze pickup wasn't entirely to blame. As popular as Sonic is, that place is the single largest traffic hazard in the city. What with unsignaled lefts and rights, lines three blocks long, and other traffic packed into that sardine box of a parking lot, it is an accident waiting to happen.

One city official says he dreams of a butane truck coming over the top of the hill and crunching a car stopped for the left into Sonic. Fried teen populace. He wakes up with cold sweats.

But that is not the only one. Here is some Herald staffer's list of Most Dangerous Places in Big Spring.

POLICE REPORTER James Werrell says, "FM 700 and Wasson, definitely. Not only do I spot it on the accident reports regularly, but I've personally called about five wrecks in the to the PD myself because I happen to live near there."

His solution? Have Wasson dead end into the Coronado subdivision, where residents recently complained of through traffic. If they thought that 'was bad, wait till they see this.

Ace Toyota pilot Carla Walker, "The intersection of Hwy. 350 and I-20 where the service roads dump blind 20-mph drivers into 50 mph traffic."

Her solution? "Build cars out of 'Poppin' Fresh dough. It's the only way those impacts won't hurt."

Chief of Staff Tommy Hart chooses all of Gregg St. "The whole thing is dangerous," he said, "I can't pinpoint any one spot."

so good luck you summer drivers.

Time change

William F. Buckley, Jr.

WASHINGTON — One expects, in Washington, a certain lassitude, the expression of the bureaucratic spirit, and one comes on it quickly. Even as — the pollsters tell us — throughout the land a universal suspicion of Washington increases, it becomes increasingly difficult merely to get there, as if the transportation facilities of the nation shrugged off the responsibility for carting victims to the Aztec sacrificial stone.

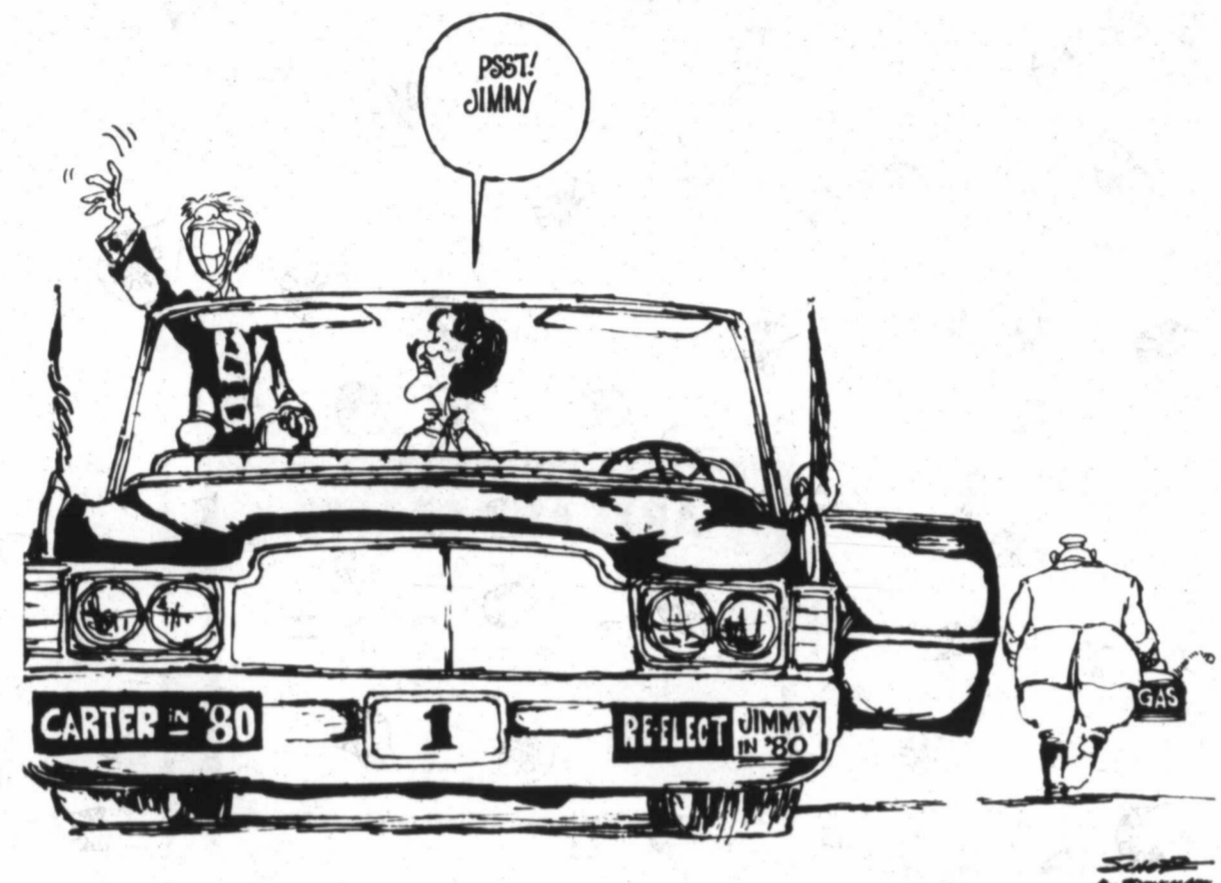

Years ago, in the sleepy days of FDR when there were only a couple of million people in Washington engaged in telling us all what to do, you could board a train at New York any time after 10 P.M., and it would ease out of Pennsylvania Station some time after midnight, well after you were sound asleep in your roomette, arriving comfortably at 7 A.M. Now there is Amtrak, and the people on Amtrak are the kindest and most attentive in the world. Indeed the bartenders act as though they were employed by the Intensive Care Unit.

THE ONLY TROUBLE is that Amtrak is hardly ever on time; the parlor cars suited to one's work load are regularly and arbitrarily removed, indeed full trains are regularly cancelled; the trainbed must have been laid down back when Abe Lincoln was rail-splitting. And when you arrive, late at night in Washington, your chances of finding a porter are about 50 per cent. That's no problem if you are lucky. If you are unlucky and have two bags, a briefcase, and a typewriter, you have bought a trip on Amtrak and an Alpine experience.

The other way to go to Washington is via Eastern's shuttle. This is to be avoided at all costs, but given the infrequency of alternative possibilities aboard American Airlines, all costs include the cost of not going to Washington when you want to go. The Eastern airplane is probably the most uncomfortable in regular service in the United States. Six passengers abreast, hip-room designed for John Travolta, no coffee, no booze, seats that don't recline. I can think, as a competitor for discomfort, of only one other run: New York to Pittsburgh via Allegheny or TWA. However, in due course you arrive, as I did last Sunday for an extensive stay of five days carrying one large suitcase, three briefcases, and one typewriter, which debouched in due course into a baggage room with no (0) porters.

What to do? Needless to say, there were no passenger trolleys lying about — that will only happen when the Passenger Trolley Act is passed, at which point a scarcity will develop. But I detected a porter's professional trolley, wheeled it out of hiding, explored its secrets, and went off, devoting a full 15 minutes, with my trolley, to promenade about the bowels of (NO ADMITTANCE! EMPLOYEES ONLY!) National Airport, trying to trace the succession of ramps that led to the taxi staging area, where in due course I arrived, and was greeted by the dispatcher with no sign of surprise.

In due course, as befalls all virtuous men, my time came to leave Washington, and with great wit I outfoxed the Eastern shuttle, booking a flight on American Airlines at 3:05. I arrived to be advised that the airplane would leave at 3:55. No explanation. What was in operation was — a "Slowdown." A slowdown is the device by which disgruntled employees disrupt an operation by interpreting strictly every regulation issued.

Stone-formers can help prevent them

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Does each bout with a stone leave the kidneys weaker? Is there any way to prevent stone formation from infections, etc? Once a person has had a stone is he likely to continue to have them? — S.L.S.

Kidney stones are a common urinary tract affliction. It is important to know the chemical nature of the stone. Calcium stones can be associated with a parathyroid disorder. Paget's disease, or osteoporosis. Uric acid stones can mean gout.

A single stone does not necessarily weaken the kidneys unless it causes obstruction or fills the kidney cavity (staghorn stone).

Stones can be prevented if the cause is found and treated, such as overactive parathyroid glands, or gout. Stones recur in about 40 percent of those who have passed them, but recurrence is less if the patient drinks from three to four quarts of water daily. Diet and drugs to alter the urine composition (making it either more acid or more alkaline depending on the kind of stones present) can help reduce chronic stone formation.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: My sister has been in the hospital four of five times for blood. Her blood runs low. What makes a person lose blood like that? She says the doctors can't tell why this happens. Can you tell me a little something about this? — B.C.

Not much from the information you give. Could be some form of aplastic anemia, meaning failure of the body to produce blood. The blood-forming system is deficient.

A malignancy can be a cause. So can chemical poisoning, which could be gradual. More rarely, a nutritional deficiency could be the trouble, but it would have to be a severe one.

I assume appropriate blood and bone marrow studies have been done. If not, they should be, along with a thorough physical examination. Other organs may be involved in a too rapid destruction of her red cells. The problem is complicated and usually requires the attention of a doctor who specializes in blood disorders (hematologist).

SPECIAL NOTE: I do not at the present time have any written material on the subject of asthma specifically. However, readers interested in the subject should contact local chapters of the Lung Association. I'm told they may have free material on such disorders.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Is there anything wrong or not beneficial in giving children instant non-fat dry milk fortified with A and D instead of regular whole milk? The children prefer this to the regular milk and the cost savings are considerable. — W.E.

Nothing at all wrong with this. In fact, cup for cup, the reconstituted dry milk is significantly richer in just about every component, including calories, protein, and carbohydrate. The only thing lacking is the fat. The dry milk contains but a trace of that, the whole milk as much as 3.5 percent fat. That missing 3.5 percent fat volume allows a greater concentration of other nutrients in the dry milk. The money savings is a plus.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Why is it that some babies turn yellowish shortly after being born? What causes this, and is it serious? — Mrs. J.D.

It is true that jaundice may occur in about half of full-term babies and in a higher percentage of preemies. It usually appears within 24 hours after birth, but quickly disappears once the liver assumes its full role in disposing of blood pigment (which causes the jaundice.) Unless the jaundice increases beyond acceptable levels it is not considered significant.

Dr. Thosteson: How large are a woman's ovaries? — Miss K.J.

Normally about an inch and a half in length, three quarters of an inch wide, and about a third of an inch thick.

Don't take chances with "kidney trouble" — it could be dangerous. Read Dr. Thosteson's booklet, "Your Kidneys — Facts You Need to Know About Them." For a copy write to him

My answer

Billy Graham

DEAR DR. GRAHAM: What did Jesus mean when He said that the truth would set us free? Our public library has this engraved over its door. — H.B.

DEAR H.B.: This saying of Jesus' is found in John 8:32: "And ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free." As you suggest, it is a saying that has been repeated thousands of times, even engraved on secular buildings such as libraries and schools. It is usually taken to mean that truth (of the kind that a person might gain through education) will free him from the consequences of ignorance.

However, Jesus actually had a far more profound meaning in mind when He spoke these words. Jesus taught that man's greatest problem is not simply ignorance. Man's greatest problem is that he is a sinner. God created us for a purpose, but because we have sinned against God we do not know what that purpose is. Education alone cannot erase our sin and bring us to God.

That is why we need Christ. He came to redeem us from our sin and restore us to a right relationship with God. He can do this because He alone is God's appointed means of salvation. By faith in Him we can be saved and we can begin to discover God's purpose for our lives.

The real key to this saying is found in John 14:6: "Jesus saith unto him, I am the way, the truth, and the life: no man cometh unto the Father, but by me." In other words, Jesus identifies Himself with truth. When He says, therefore, "Ye shall know the truth, and the truth shall make you free," He is actually saying that if we know Him — who is the truth of God — we will be free of our sins. What a wonderful promise! The Bible says, "grace and truth came by Jesus Christ" (John 1:17). By faith in Him you can know personally the truth of God's love for you in Christ.

Scandal figures

Jack Anderson

WASHINGTON — A political corruption case in California, reminiscent of the Watergate scandal, has been covered up by worried state officials. But the cover-up, as in watergate, is now starting to unravel.

The story began back in 1974 when Earl Brian, with the active backing of then-Gov. Ronald Reagan, resigned as California's top health official to go into politics. The tall, caustic Brian conducted a losing campaign to become the Republican candidate for the U.S. Senate.

A number of nursing home owners allegedly were pressured into contributing to Brian's campaign in exchange for past favors and promises of future ones. They laundered cash and funneled corporate contributions into the Brian treasury. The Senate Committee on Aging, according to a confidential committee memo, has belatedly found "some 25 possible violations of the federal election law... by nursing home officials or officers of the 1974 U.S. Senate campaign of Earl Brian."

YET THIS WAS discovered three years ago by two investigators for California's health department. Nervous higher-ups responded, however, by abolishing their jobs and ignoring their findings. Other state agencies also looked the other way.

Insiders say Gov. Jerry Brown's people continued to ignore the explosive evidence when they took over the state government. A principal in the scandal, Robert Glenn Olels, testified behind closed doors that Brown received "$25,000 to $30,000" from the California Association of Nursing Homes.

Confided Olels: "It was requested by Governor Brown that we not give it through the (association) because he did not want to receive it in that fashion, and requested that individual contributors give it directly to his campaign."

Olels was an active fund raiser for the earlier Brian campaign. Investigators found that Olels himself had contributed $1,300 in the name of his mother and $2,500 in the name of his wife, using her name from a former marriage. His 17-year-old stepson was also down for a $700 contribution.

"Olels made these contributions himself, but attempted to disguise them by having his relatives report the contributions," the Senate memo charges. His comptroller also gave $500, "reimbursed by Olels," the document adds.

Olels ALLEGEDLY laundered another contribution through Robert Litman, a pharmacist who supplied his nursing homes. According to Litman's secret, sworn testimony, he "had been approached by Robert Olels to make a $2,000 contribution to the Brian campaign, for which Olels would reimburse him." Litman said he kicked in the money and, indeed, "was reimbursed by Olels' corporate check."

We have also seen the secret testimony of Olels' former administrator, Donald Harlow, who told of calls from Brian, pressing the nursing home operators to contribute to his campaign. "The pressure was on," said Harlow.

the pilot treatment program is dead in the water by the end of the week."

Harlow testified that he discovered $12,000 in corporate funds listed as a bonus and questioned Olels about the money. Olels "indicated that his was the money that was to go to Mr. Brian," Harlow swore. Not long afterward, Harlow was fired.

UNDER THE PILOT project, Olels collected an extra $5 a day to care for each disabled patient. But "audits indicate that he really spent only 78 cents per patient per day," the Senate memo alleges. The state is now suing him for $57,000 in overpayments.

Another nursing home owner who passed the hat for Brian was William Bauer. He has already pleaded guilty to making illegal campaign contributions to an obscure San Diego county supervisor. The Senate memo suggests that "Bauer pleaded guilty readily for fear of authorities learning about similar activities in ... other campaigns."

Bauer's biggest beneficiary, the memo indicates, was the determined Brian. The sordid details were provided by Bauer's former comptroller, Dan Varner, who testified that Bauer helped raise funds for Brian because "it required money to grease the skids" to get a rate increase.

Other nursing home owners have acknowledged that they were pressured into giving money to Brian's campaign. Yet some are in elections records as "housewife" or "retired" to disguise their nursing home connections.

But the three-year cover-up is about to collapse. The Federal Election Commission is investigating the campaign violations, and the FBI is trying to determine whether extortion laws were violated.

Footnote: A spokesman for Gov. Jerry Brown's health department told our associate Howie Kurtz that there was no attempt to quash the probe and that evidence was turned over to federal authorities. Brian and Bauer would not return our calls. Olels said only that "there are no facts in these allegations." In his secret Senate testimony, he insisted he did not "reimburse anybody for any contribution they gave to anybody."

BEST PERFORMANCE

All he has to do is stay on for eight seconds.
But that can be the longest eight seconds of the day when the rodeo performer gets a particularly spirited bronco.
He knows that when he gives the final nod of his head and that big gate is swung open, some horses turn into twisting, turning beasts who seem to breathe fire and stomp lightning.
Yet every performer hopes he will get that very kind of mount. Unless the horse puts on a wild display during the ride, the judges will score the rider low and he will miss the prize.
Anything that brings a special reward usually requires a person to go beyond his normal performance.
Shouldn't we all then be ready to give an extra share of our talents and abilities if we want eternal life—the greatest reward ever promised to man?
This Sunday come to church and find how it's done.

Lykins-Webb clan reunites

Family members who met for their first Lykins-Webb Family Reunion June 18 have decided to make it an annual event. The reunion took place at the Comanche Trail Park from 10 a.m. to 6 p.m. About 60 attended the covered dish luncheon affair.

Traveling the farthest distance was Jerry Don Smith of Kearny, Ariz. The oldest family member present was the grandfather of the Lykins-Webb clan, D.C. Lykins of Iowa, La. The youngest present was infant Kenny Tucker of Grand Falls. And it was decided that the family member who ate the most was Peggy Cunningham of Gardendale.

The family, which originated in the area of Coleman, has grown so large that officers were elected at the reunion. They are Bonnie Hyden, Big Spring, president; Peggy Cunningham, Gardendale, vice president; Dixie Leonard, Big Spring, secretary-treasurer, and Joe Wiley, Ravina, historian.

Wiley will be in charge of the family's attempts to trace its roots. So far, ancestry has been traced back to 1607 and it has been discovered that the family's first American ancestor arrived on the Mayflower.

The group plans to reunite again next year, on June 10, at Comanche Trail Park.

Dear Abby

What's Expected On First Date?

DEAR ABBY: I am a 16-year-old male with a problem. On the first date with a girl, I feel no irresistible urge to kiss her or to make out with her as is expected of most guys nowadays. I feel that I should get to know the girl better in order to be certain of my feelings toward her.

It seems that most girls expect a guy to do more than just talk or hold hands even before they know him very well. Is my slow approach normal and something to be desired? Or should I go ahead and jump all over a girl as is expected? I'm sure many boys my age are wondering the same thing and we'd be greatly relieved of much pressure if we knew how to act.

UNCERTAIN

DEAR UNCERTAIN: Who said "all" girls expect a guy to jump all over them on the first date? My mail tells me that most girls prefer the "slow approach," and I recommend it.

DEAR ABBY: My husband (I'll call him Frank) and I are in our late 20s, have been married four years and have a 2-year-old daughter I'll call Tammy.

Frank has always had a rotten temper. Well, last week he got mad and slapped me around and I cried. Tammy was in the room at the time and saw it all, and now Tammy won't have anything to do with her father. When he comes near her, she turns her head away and cries. If he tries to touch her, she screams and draws away.

This hurts Frank something terrible. I keep telling him that Tammy will forget and get over it in time. Will she? RHODE ISLAND RED

DEAR RED: Tammy may, in time, become more "forgiving"—but don't count on her to forget. In the meantime, unless you enjoy being slapped around, insist that Frank get some professional help in learning how to control his temper. A man who "slaps" his wife around has serious problems.

Nazi leader claims victory while street confrontation possible

CHICAGO (AP) — Nazi leader Frank Collin says his battle has been won and he has "totally succeeded in restoring white man's free speech rights." But the possibility lingers for a street confrontation between neo-Nazis and militant Jews.

Collin, in full storm trooper regalia, told a news conference Thursday that he was calling off a Skokie march planned for Sunday because a federal court has made it possible for his group to rally in a Chicago park. Collin described his attempts at getting a parade permit in Skokie as "pure agitation" over the free speech issue.

Cancellation of the rally in Skokie — where more than 4,000 survivors of World War II Nazi concentration camps live — was hailed as "a triumph for mankind" by village Mayor Albert Smith.

Collin said he would hold a "victory rally" Saturday afternoon outside a federal building in downtown Chicago. The Jewish Defense League said it would confront the Nazis at the

Bomb threat forces plant to shut down

GLEN ROSE, Texas (AP) — A bomb threat received in a letter has been cited as the reason for the evacuation of about 4,000 workers Thursday from the construction site of a $1.7 billion nuclear power plant.

Officials said no bomb was found at the Comanche Peak plant construction area southwest of Fort Worth after a search by federal, local and plant investigators.

The facility is being constructed by Texas Electric Service Co., Dallas Power and Light Co. and Texas Power and Light Co.

TESCO spokesman Vic Zemanek said the letter containing the bomb threat was received by officials of Brown and Root Construction Co., one of the firms involved in building the plant.

"For precautionary measures, we evacuated the plant site to give us time to search for the bomb," Zemanek said.

The evacuation order was given in the early afternoon, and the site remained closed to workers through the remainder of the existing shift and the following.

Republican hopefuls: running hard softly

WASHINGTON (AP) — Gerald Ford makes speeches and public appearances and works with an organization called the American Enterprise Institute as he doesn't run for president.

Ronald Reagan makes speeches and public appearances and works with an organization called Citizens for the Republic as he doesn't run for president.

Bob Dole makes speeches and public appearances and works with an organization called Campaign America as he doesn't run for president.

It is hard to find a Republican who will admit running, but just the hope of making Jimmy Carter a one-term president has lots of them tripping over one another trying to campaign by not campaigning.

The presidential primaries are nearly two years away. Nobody has announced a candidacy yet; it would be unseemly. But there is no shortage of candidates to be candidates: "We must have 20 of them out there," says one Republican strategist.

The list is long and luminous, including senators, congressmen and governors.

There is Sen. Howard H. Baker of Tennessee, who got a national image as ranking Republican of the Watergate committee; former Texas Gov. John B. Connally, who turned Republican after heading Democrats for Nixon; and George Bush, who has done most everything else for the GOP, as former envoy to China, CIA director, U.N. ambassador and party chairman.

Newer names include Reps. Philip Crane of Illinois, Jack Kemp of New York and John Anderson of Illinois.

Reagan's near miss against Ford in the battle for the 1976 Republican nomination and Ford's against Carter in the election have kept their partisans dreaming of what might have been. Recent polls showing either leading Carter in hypothetical rematches rekindled the flame.

Party insiders believe Ford still commands the loyalty of the traditionalists; that no new mainstay has a serious claim to the mantle.

Dole, who commands a lot of party loyalty for his 1976 campaigning, has formed Campaign America, a committee to support his political activity. He has been to at least 35 states this year, making him and Bush the most active prospects.

When Ford passed over Baker for the No. 2 spot on the 1976 ticket, Baker let it be known that No. 2 would not be enough the next time around. As Senate minority leader he has a large staff and shares with House GOP leader John Rhodes a "Leadership Fund" that supports their party ac-

Reagan keeps himself in the forefront of candidate talk through Citizens for the Republic, which he formed from the remains of his 1976 organization. It supports one of the busiest speaking schedules in politics. Reagan also writes a newspaper column and has a radio show.

Ford has benefit of the staff provided all former presidents, but he leans even more on his position as "distinguished fellow" of the American Enterprise Institute, a conservative think tank based in Washington.

Ford spends a lot of time speaking on behalf of the institute, largely to college audiences, but he also is busy maintaining party fences at rallies and fundraisers across the country.

In a recent speech, Ford listed the people he thinks are the Republican contenders. He included his own name. But when pressed on his intentions, he says only that he is keeping his options open.

There is talk about some young GOP governors, people like James Thompson of Illinois, Robert Ray of Iowa, William Milliken of Michigan and Pierre S. DuPont of Delaware.

Thompson is running for a second term, and like Baker needs a big victory to boost his national prospects. He won popularity in the party by winning in a 1976 election that otherwise was dismal for Republicans.

Congressional leaders say Welfare overhaul postponed

WASHINGTON (AP) — Congressional leaders, citing lack of time and a clogged legislative calendar, say President Carter's welfare overhaul bill is dead for this session. However, supporters are already planning to revive the $20 billion proposal next year.

Rep. James C. Corman, D-Calif., sponsor of the administration bill, said Thursday night the welfare plan was shelved for the year after several days of talks among House and Senate leaders.

Corman said the decision came after House Speaker Thomas P. O'Neill Jr. was told by Senate Majority Leader Robert C. Byrd that a backlog of legislative business — and a lack of time in this election year — would prevent the bill from being considered in the Senate.

Some Democratic leaders were also reportedly concerned about the cost of the bill at a time when tax-conscious voters seem to favor spending restraint.

"The speaker has said all along that unless there was reasonable hope to get it through the Senate, he was not going to bring it up this year," Corman said.

O'Neill informed his Democratic lieutenants of his decision not to press ahead with the welfare bill at a closed meeting Thursday morning, Corman added.

The White House had no immediate comment on the decision.

Wildcatters make 23 oil discoveries

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — Wildcatters made successful hits at 23 oil explorations and 53 gas tests from June 1 to June 15, the Texas Railroad Commission reported Thursday.

The commission's oil and gas division said there were 428 oil completions and 264 gas completions in the first half of 1978, compared to 399 oil and 162 gas completions in the same period last year.

From June 1-15, 201 exploratory and field tests were dry holes.

Applications for permits to drill oil and gas tests totaled 9,050 in the first five and a half months of 1978, compared with 10,545 in the same period of 1977.

The commission also said state and federal offshore leases produced 128,561 barrels of crude oil during April, compared to 88,091 barrels in April, 1977.

recipients for welfare

Carter's welfare proposal cleared a special House welfare committee largely unscathed in February, but has made little progress since then.

Corman, chairman of the special committee, said the welfare bill was in trouble when the president's tax cut bill was sent to the House Ways and Means Committee first.

"When the administration decided to put the welfare bill behind the tax bill, that doomed it," Corman said. "If the tax bill had gone through quickly, we might have gotten the welfare reform bill over there (to the Senate) quickly."

Carter made reform of the nation's welfare laws one of his campaign pledges in 1976. He unveiled his overhaul plan last August, urging Congress "to totally scrap" the existing welfare system.

The administration proposal would create 1.3 million public service jobs and abolish existing food stamp and multiple assistance programs in favor of single cash

Crestview Baptists host unusual gospel film

"He Restoreth My Soul," a new Gospel Films, Inc. release, will be shown at Crestview Baptist Church on Sunday June 25, at 6 p.m.

In 1961 Merrill Womach was flying alone enroute to Spokane, Washington, to spend Thanksgiving Day with his wife and children. His twin-engine airplane was forced down in a snow storm in Beaver Marsh, Oregon.

The next morning he took off on the slushy runway. Two hundred feet above the trees both engines quit. He tried to get back to the airport, but the plane fell short by 50 yards and crashed in the timber. The explosion of 108 gallons of high test aviation fuel was heard miles away.

Critically burned, Womach crawled to a nearby road where he was picked up and put in the back seat of a car and hurried to a hospital in Klamath Falls, Oregon. Amazingly he sang all the way.

Through more than 50 operations and months of surgery, Merrill faced man complications, critical illnesses and impending death. Two blood clots passed through his heart and into his lungs and it was only after his family heard him sing after surgery that his family knew he had survived.

With a voice range that covers more than four octaves, Merrill Womach has thrilled countless audiences with a radiance that causes listeners to forget the scars and focus attention upon a beautiful man whose rise from the ashes is an inspiration to all who get to know him.

The filmed true story of Merrill Womach is the latest release of Gospel Films, Inc. of Muskegon, Michigan.

Continental singers due at Hillcrest on Monday

The "Continental Singers and Orchestra," directed by Brad Miller on their yearly 75-day summer tour, will present a live 90-minute concert of contemporary Christian music on Monday, June 26 at 7:30 p.m. at the Hillcrest Baptist Church.

Now in his fourth year with the "Continental Singers and Orchestra," and his first tour as director, Miller started in 1975 as a performer and toured the United States and Canada. In the 1976 and 1977 summer tours, Miller became assistant director for performances behind the Iron Curtain. In the current 1978 tour, Miller will direct the group throughout the United States and Canada.

Born and raised in Seattle, he has played piano for 18 years, organ for 12 and French horn for 10. Miller studied for five years at the University of Washington, majoring in music education with a minor in speech communication.

He has been employed for 10 years as organist, playing one of the nation's largest theatre pipe organs, in the Seattle Theatre Restaurant.

Miller has worked in several churches in the Seattle area as organist, and youth and music director, directed groups touring the northwestern states, and performed in concerts and crusades.

Miller will direct this year's program, entitled "Sing It With Love," which features many of the most popular Christian songs being heard around the country. The presentation also includes contemporary gospel music, spirituals, anthems, hymn arrangements, and a medley of praise choruses.

The "Continental Singers and Orchestra" is a presentation of Continental Ministries, Thousand Oaks, Calif., with Cam Florida, president

Mexican Baptist meeting planned

Rev. Raul R. Solis, pastor of La Hermosa Baptist Church in Ackerly, points out that it is anticipated by many that there will be quite a discussion at the Baptist Convention of Texas in McAllen this year.

He points out that the Mexican Baptist Convention has been organized since 1910 and since June 1960 they have been developing a program of unification by integrating their resources with the General Baptist Convention of Texas.

However, he pointed out, there is a spirit of dissatisfaction among a great number of Spanish speaking pastors, laymen, women and entire congregations as to the outcome of the program.

The minister points out that the dissatisfaction is strongly towards the fact that under the program, the Mexican Baptist Convention does not have full freedom to administer or handle their own funds even for the purpose of work among and

Former union man leads fight against labor law

WASHINGTON (AP) — Once Orrin Hatch was a card-carrying union member — Wood, Wire and Metal Lathers' International Union — to be exact.

Now he doesn't seem to have much in common with the AFL-CIO.

Hatch, an intense, fast-talking Republican conservative from Utah, was the point man in a long filibuster against labor's cherished proposed labor law revisions.

He won a very big round on Thursday, when the Senate voted to send the hotly contested measure back to its Human Resources Committee for redrafting.

The move came after backers of the bill conceded they could not crack the tenacious five-week filibuster that Hatch and a group of other, mostly freshmen Republicans threw up against the measure.

The legislator would stiffen penalties labor law violators must pay while also giving unions added leverage in organizing workers.

It would speed up the timetable for union representation elections, expand the National Labor Relations Board and allow unions to send recruiters onto company premises under tightly controlled circumstances.

After the vote, Hatch stood in a small room off the Senate floor accepting congratulations from friends.

"I hope at least we've won some respect," he said.

It was an interesting comment from a relatively new senator who took on what appeared to many to be a hopeless task, a senator who confided to others that he sometimes feels he does not fit into the clubby atmosphere of the Senate.

Asked to describe how his boss approaches his work, aide Bill Hendrix said: "Total commitment, almost consecration. He is just very intense on everything. Driven."

It was Hatch who spent long hours on the Senate floor during the filibuster that began May 16, reading speeches, citing studies, parrying opposing senators.

He sought ceaselessly to portray himself as the underdog, telling reporters more than once, "I'm just a freshman senator" battling against the giants of the Senate.

"They've got all the power, immense power," he often said of the Carter administration and the Democratic leadership working for the bill.

Organized labor? "Labor has the most massive influence in Washington, D.C., today," he said shortly after the Senate shipped the bill back to committee.

His speech, like that of many politicians, is rapid-fire. And it can lean to the sarcastic.

Rotary rigs spin in Texas

Three more rotary rigs were turning in Texas for the week ending June 19 than for the preceding week, according to a report issued by the International Association of Drilling Contractors.

The total amounted to 864, compared to 861 for the seven-day period ending June 12. A month ago, the rig count was 858 while 791 were making hole a year ago.

Former chief pleads innocent to 5 charges

HOUSTON (AP) — A former Houston police chief has pleaded innocent to a five-count federal indictment alleging perjury, obstruction of justice and extortion.

Carroll Lynn, who headed the Houston Police Department in 1974-75, was indicted June 12 for allegedly extorting $25,000 from an oil company sales manager in exchange for his intercession with federal officials to terminate a securities violations investigation.

Conviction on the charges could mean up to 40 years in prison for the 23-year police veteran who is the highest ranking Houston police officer ever to be named on criminal charges.

U.S. Magistrate Ronald J. Blask set trial for Sept. 5.

Lynn has been free on $50,000 bond since April 10 when FBI agents arrested him on an obstruction of justice charge while on duty as an assistant police chief.

Police Chief Harry Caldwell fired Lynn from the force May 1 after he refused to resign.

SEC asks for independent trustee

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) — The Securities and Exchange Commission has asked a federal bankruptcy judge to give an independent trustee control of the decision-making for financially-troubled Commonwealth Oil Refining Co.

The SEC filed a motion Thursday to transfer the Corco case from Chapter XI of the federal bankruptcy laws, which allows company management to continue in control, to Chapter X.

Corco attorney William Rochelle said the firm will "vigorously contest the motion to transfer."

Chapter X proceedings allow more flexibility to deal with Corco's $385 million debt, SEC attorneys argued in a brief filed with U.S. Bankruptcy Judge Joseph C. Elliott Jr.

Also Thursday, Corco told creditors its net unaudited earnings for May were $1.7 million, equal to 10 cents per share.

Fiscal agent Robert Baker said May revenues amounted to $97.5 million.

The firm petitioned the court Thursday for authority to settle insurance claims for $2.1 million in business interruption losses and said it expects to recover additional amounts for later periods.

The losses resulted from a major fire and explosion on Feb. 19.

The company also asked the court for authority to accept $619,171 in settlement of property damage losses caused by the February accident.

In early June, Baker reported to the court that Corco had a loss of $64,000, or a penny per share, for the month of April on sales of $69 million. April results included a profit of $1.2 million on the sale of the company's Baltimore marine terminal.

In other action, Corco President Edward D. Doherty said Thursday that the company's board of directors probably will sign a contract Tuesday with C. Howard Hardesty to head a reorganization management team for the firm.

Hardesty, 56, is a Washington attorney and former vice chairman of Continental Oil Co. Elliott, who must approve the contract, scheduled a July 7 hearing to consider the contract with Hardesty.

Farm Loan rate expected to rise

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government's loan rate for 1978-crop wheat is expected to be raised early next week to $2.35 a bushel, up 10 cents from what it is now, informed sources say.

Agriculture Secretary Bob Bergland is expected to announce the increase Monday in Kansas City where he is scheduled to speak at a meeting of the American Seed Trade Association, the sources, who asked not to be identified, said Thursday.

The loan rate is what farmers can borrow from the government by using their crop as collateral. They have the option of paying off the loan if market prices are higher or letting the government take over the commodity if market prices are below the loan.

The loan rate also is a factor in determining the amount of direct government payments that may be due farmers when market prices fall below target levels.

It also plays an important part in determining how high wheat prices have to go up before farmers can begin selling grain stored under long-term contracts with the government.

Under the Food and Agriculture Act of 1977, Bergland has discretionary authority to keep the present loan of $2.25 a bushel or raising it.

The expected boost to $2.35 a bushel will have the effect of locking in tighter a large reserve of wheat now being stored by farmers for up to three years. But if market prices go up to a certain level before the three years are up the grain can be released for sale.

As it is now, wheat in the three-year reserve, about 350 million bushels — cannot be withdrawn by farmers until prices go up to 140 percent of the loan rate. Since the loan now is $2.25 a bushel, the release price on the market would have to be $3.15 a bushel.

But by raising the loan rate to $2.35 a bushel, the new trigger price would go up to $3.29 a bushel. Wheat market prices at the farm in May averaged $2.80 a bushel.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Agriculture Department says that hog producers plan to increase production only 4 percent this summer and fall, well below what some experts had been expecting.

If their plans are carried out, it will mean that the consumer pork supply will not expand as much next winter and in the early months of 1979 as had been thought earlier. In turn, the smaller pork output will help keep prices of live hogs and cattle up through the next six months or so.

As of June 1, the nation's inventory of hogs and pigs was 54.9 million head, up 1 percent from a year ago, the department's Crop Reporting Board said.

"The inventory increase was limited by death losses which were about one-fifth more than a year ago due to effects of prolonged cold weather and disease problems," the report said.

Looking at the pig crop in the six months of June through November, the report said that farmers intend to have about 6.25 million sows farrow, an increase of 4 percent from the same period of last year.

Department officials until now had held out the possibility that the June-November pig crop may be up 7 percent to 8 percent, or more.

A Mr. E. Toomy

The World Series of soccer, The World Cup, has been going on for two or three weeks. I'm not sure, I never read about it, I just stick the stories in the paper for you.

If that makes me less than a complete sportswriter, so be it. Soccer warms me up just about as much as midnight at the North Pole . . . in January. I know hundreds of millions of soccer fans around the world will be eyeing the Sunday finals on satellite broadcasts.

Before the World Cup began this year, many observers felt that Argentina was probably the worst place to hold the biggie. Really, Jack Anderson recently described Jorge Videla's government as "one of the most dangerous, chaotic on earth."

Soccer is a violent sport, not so much on the field, but in the stands. We've all heard reports through the years of one or another game being marred by scores of fans being trampled to death in a mad scramble to avoid the spreading violence that engulfs the stands when even a small fistfight begins.

Those people are crazy. A couple of hundred thousand fans show up for every game held in South America. Their governments may be "big brother", their crops may be dropping dead and their families may be starving, but "It's soccer!"

I can't even get that excited about seeing the Dallas Cowboys play, and I'm definitely a fanatic there.

Unbelievable as it seems, there has been no large-scale violence at the games. None at all, to be exact. The only excitement thus far came from a Scottish player who admitted he took an upper before a match. He was suspended for life.

The absence of blood and guts is surprising, and General Videla has ordered "good relations" (probably with troop support) from his people. If you recall, the first president of the Argentine World Cup committee was assassinated by terrorists not too long ago.

The Argentina rule, "The guest team must not win," has even been shaken out of the window. In 1933, the story goes, Uruguay's national soccer team came to Argentina and broke the rule, and historians say the fleet was ready in the harbor and there was a near declaration of war, as well as breaking of diplomatic relations.

Even though hosting the Cup cost Argentina $700 million dollars, "a waste" according to Minister of Finance, those guys should be in hog heaven. They'll be in the finals with Holland Sunday. Holland wouldn't dare win.

INDISCRIMINATELY SPEAKING
Starting with this Sunday's sports edition and continuing through baseball season, the late night Ranger and Astro games will find their way into the paper, plus as many other late night games as possible.

This is just to show you that one guy in Big Spring can do what five guys in Abilene and six in San Angelo can do. Hope you enjoy it. Okay Rangers, now will you win the pennant?

REMARKABILITIES

"Depends on how you do it. We do it with a smile. We play a game called Who Is This? Somebody will mimic a player. It gets a laugh and it gets the message across better than chewing out a guy." — LOU BROCK, regarding the controversial issue of veteran players policing loafers on their team.

"When you get picked off, it doesn't mean you have been careless. It means you have been out-guessed by the pitcher. It will happen." — JULIO CRUZ, after stealing 15 straight bases.

Leon Spinks arrested twice in two days now

JACKSONVILLE, N.C. (AP) — Heavyweight boxer Leon Spinks has been arrested a second time in as many days, the latest ticket coming for speeding.

The newest citation, in which the 24-year-old fighter was charged with driving 45 miles an hour in a 20 mph zone Thursday, was the fifth traffic ticket he has received this year.

On Wednesday, Spinks was stopped by a city policeman for driving without a license and driving with an expired license plate. Officers said he told them he had a valid Michigan license but that they ticketed him for driving without it.

However, officials in Michigan said that Spinks has applied for a license but not been granted one yet.

In Detroit, Spinks' attorney, Ed Bell, said the fighter does have a temporary permit. He joked about the arrests.

"Leon should never drive by himself in Southern towns with a new Cadillac," Bell said.

Spinks told police he was leaving Jacksonville Thursday for Michigan to begin training for his Sept. 15 bout with Muhammad Ali.

In both cases here, he appeared before a magistrate and paid fines. Spinks won the

Jaycee tourney begins tonight

Approximately 25 teams are entered, including numerous clubs from Big Spring's Industrial Slow Pitch League.

Action begins 7 p.m. tonight, and concludes with the finals Sunday afternoon.

Rangers rough up Oakland's bonus baby, 8-2

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — Mike Morgan's mistakes were outs at Las Vegas Valley High. But he's fast learning that in the American League his mistakes are stopped only by the outfield fences — unless the ball doesn't go over them.

Oakland's 18-year-old No. 1 draft pick was roughed up for the third time in as many starts Thursday night as the Texas Rangers pounded him for five hits and six runs in two and a third innings as they thrashed the A's, 8-2.

"It was a little rough," admitted Morgan. "After the first inning, I thought things were going to be all right. I'm throwing just like I was this spring in high school. But in high school they missed the high pitches. I got the ball up and I've got to keep it down."

Oakland Manager Jack McKeon said there was an outside possibility Morgan might be sent to the minors to work on his curve ball but he said that was a decision to be reached only after consultation with owner Charles

Finley. "I'll talk to Finley about it... There's no great need for a quick decision," said McKeon. "They're laying back and waiting for his fast ball because he can't get his curve ball over."

Texas Ranger Manager Billy Hunter said of Morgan. "He has to develop a breaking ball and an off-speed pitch."

Ranger second baseman Bump Wills, who hit a two-run triple and stole two bases off the youngster said, "I think he has a good future. I expected him to throw harder. He just couldn't get his curve over."

The Rangers struck for three runs in the first inning and Bobby Bonds doubled home two runs in a three-run third inning.

Holland has more World Cup vets

BUENOS AIRES, Argentina (AP) — Holland could go into the World Cup soccer final against Argentina this Sunday with nine players who have been through it all before. That would be an all-time record.

If experience in big matches counts for anything, the Dutch will have a head start over the host country. Four years ago, at Munich's Olympic Stadium, they lost 2-1 to West Germany after taking a first-minute lead.

The greatest of all Dutch players, Johann Cruyff, has retired. Another 1974 star, Wim van Hanegem, has left the team. But the other nine are likely to be in Buenos Aires' River Plate Stadium Sunday.

way to reliever Steve Comer.

Oakland's Wayne Gross cracked a two-run homer off Ellis in the seventh inning.

Hunter said he had asked Ellis, "Have you had it?" "Yeah," Ellis replied, and Hunter brought in Comer who pitched two hitless frames.

A crowd of 20,599 watched the game to up the Ranger attendance to 744,220, a record high for this early in the year.

The Rangers, who are a game and a half out of first place in the Western Division are 200,463 over last year's attendance at the same point in the season.

The Rangers host California in a double-header Friday with Fergie Jenkins (7-3) and Doyle Alexander (5-4) of the Rangers meeting Chris Napp (7-5) and Tom Griffin (0-2) respectively.

Jenkins needs three strikeouts to move into 12th place on the all-time strike-out list ahead of Christy Mathewson.

"Cruyff was a wonderful player and is a great loss," said Arie Haan, the man who took over from Cruyff as captain. "But we had to start afresh and we have evolved a new style and a new pattern."

The survivors from the 1974 final who could play this Sunday are goalkeeper Jan Jongbloed, defenders Haan, Wim Suurbier, Wim Rijsbergen and Ernie Brandts, midfielders Wim Jansen and Johan Neeskens, and strikers Johnny Rep and Rob Rensenbrink.

A 10th member of the current squad, Rene van der Kerkhof, went on as a substitute in the later stages of the 1974 final.

Not all of these men will necessarily play. Jongbloed, the oldest player in the tournament at 37, has kept goal in only some of the games. His appearance depends on whether Holland's other goalie, Piet Schrijvers, recovers from injury.

Astros leak Dodger steam

LOS ANGELES (AP) — As the Cincinnati Reds arrive at Dodger Stadium tonight, the Los Angeles Dodgers find themselves without their two left-handed power-hitters, their top reliever, depth in the bullpen and something less than a full head of steam.

The Houston Astros saw to that, nipping the Dodgers 4-3 Thursday.

"We've certainly got some problems," said the Dodgers' Reggie Smith.

Smith has missed 12 games because of a sore left shoulder. Rick Monday also is questionable and reliever Terry Forster will miss the entire series with the Reds.

Smith and Monday have 23 homers and 78 runs batted in between them and Forster owns nine of the Dodgers' 13 saves.

"Naturally, we'd rather be playing with our full club," said Manager Tom Lasorda.

"It makes quite a difference when your two left-handed power-hitters are on the bench."

Knuckleballer Joe Niekro limited Los Angeles to six hits Thursday, only three after the first inning when the Dodgers scored two runs.

one on Dave Lopes' seventh homer of the season.

Joe Ferguson slugged a two-run homer for the Astros in the sixth inning, his seventh of the year and second in two games.

"The Dodgers still look like a good ball club," said Ferguson of his former teammates. "They've got a couple of guys out, don't forget. Fortunately, they've got a good bench."

"I say they'll be in it come September. I can't say they'll win it, but they'll be there. It might be a three-team race and if we keep playing like we have the last three weeks, it might be a four-team race. That's up to us."

Niekro, 4-4, who had a 6.80 earned run average before the game, benefitted from Enos Cabell's run-scoring single with two out in the ninth that drove in the winning run.

After Lopes' leadoff homer, the Dodgers loaded the bases with none out. But they scored only one more run.

After Ferguson's homer tied the score 2-2, the Dodgers scored an unearned run in the sixth when Steve Yeager singled home Lee Lacy. Terry Puhl doubled and scored on Bob V. single in the seventh.

The score again before the singled home Puhl in the ninth.

MANTLE IN HOSPITAL — Former New York Yankees superstar Mickey Mantle is in "serious but improved" condition in a Dallas hospital. Mantle's doctor said he was suffering from hemorrhaging ulcers.

Mantle is in critical shape

DALLAS (AP) — The doctor for Mickey Mantle, who was admitted earlier this week to a hospital here, says he wants the former New York Yankee superstar to remain hospitalized for at least a week for treatment of ulcers.

Dr. Frank Altick said Mantle was in "serious but improved condition" Thursday night in an intensive care unit in Brookhaven Hospital after being admitted in critical condition Wednesday suffering from hemorrhaging ulcers.

"He asked me not to put out any information about his condition," Altick said. But Altick confirmed reports about Mantle's condition.

Altick said Mantle's attitude was "absolutely great."

Officials at the private hospital said Mantle, 47, was in an intensive care unit. Officials said all other questions about his condition had to be answered by Mantle's physician.

Altick, a general surgeon, confirmed Mantle has suffered from ulcer problems before.

The physician said he did not know yet how long it would take Mantle to recover.

"He's handling everything in his very quiet way," Altick said. "I can assure you he's very much okay."

Roger Moret's leave extended

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — Pitcher Roger Moret's request for an extension of his leave of absence has been granted, the Texas Rangers said Thursday.

The Rangers also announced that they are recalling Len Barker, a right-handed pitcher from their Tucson team in the Pacific Coast League.

Moret, who left the team last weekend to go to Puerto Rico, sent a telegram to the Rangers saying he wishes to remain there with his wife, Betsy, who is expecting to deliver a child soon.

Earlier this season, Moret lapsed into a catatonic state in the Rangers' dressing room and was held for psychiatric observation in a local hospital for several weeks. He has been used both in starting and relieving roles by the Rangers.

U.S. fems lose to China

TOKYO (AP) — A U.S. women's basketball team lost to the Chinese national team 98-67 in the opening game of goodwill matches in China Thursday, Peking's Hsinhua news agency reported.

Playing before 18,000 spectators in Peking, the U.S. team led 43-36 at halftime with the Chinese deploying an ineffective fast break, the dispatch said.

But in the second half, the Chinese switched to an all-court one-on-one defense, intercepting U.S. passes repeatedly and turning them into fast-break baskets.

After the U.S. team's goodwill tour to China, both teams will go to Tokyo to play in a tournament between teams from China, Japan, the United States and the Soviet Union, Hsinhua said.

Tennis greets still alive

BERLIN — Two West Germans and a West Berliner won their matches to qualify for the eight-player men's singles round in West Berlin's Grand Prix tennis championships.

Peter Elter defeated Georg Hans Kary of Austria 6-2, 6-2; Hans-Juergen Pohmann of West Berlin downed John Yuill of South Africa 7-5, 6-3 and Harald Elschenbroich defeated Patricio Cornejo of Chile 7-6, 6-2.

In another match, Yugoslavia's Zeljko Franulovic eliminated Rick Fagel of the United States 6-2, 6-2.

EASTBOURNE, England — Wendy Turnbull of Australia beat Virginia Wade 6-3, 1-6, 6-3 in the quarter-finals of a $38,000 women's Grand Prix tournament, joining Chris Evert, Billie Jean King and Martina Navratilova in the semifinals.

Evert defeated Anne Hobbs of England 6-1, 6-0. King beat Betty Stove of The Netherlands 6-4, 6-4, while Navratilova beat Michele Tyler of Britain 7-5, 6-3.

LONDON — Sandy Mayer, the second seeded American, swept into the semifinals of the $125,000 Queen's Club international tennis tournament with a rain-delayed 7-5, 6-3 victory over second-seeded Briton John Lloyd.

When Mayer won his match, the rain resumed and forced organizers to postpone two other quarter-finals.

In the semifinals Mayer will meet Australian Tony Roche, who defeated Nick Saviano of the United States 6-3, 6-4 in a match also briefly halted in the first set by showers.

Moses leads pack in Cologne

COLOGNE, West Germany — Edwin Moses of the United States won the 400-meter hurdles in 48.20 seconds for the year's best time, highlighting an international track and field meet.

Moses won easily over second-place Harald Schmid of West Germany, clocked in 49.01. American James Walker was third in 49.49.

Alberto Juantorena of Cuba won the 800 meters in 1 minute, 44.4 seconds. Willie Wuebeck of West Germany finished second and Jose Marajo of France was third, both clocked in 1:46.1.

In a close 1,500-meter race, Thomas Wessinghage of West Germany beat Filbert Bayi of Tanzania. Both were timed in 3:39.4.

Kenyan Henry Rono won the 3,000-meter race, edging countryman Wilson Waigwa in 7:41.5.

Freisleben joins Indians

CLEVELAND (AP) — The Cleveland Indians have added right-handed reliever Dave Freisleben to their remodeled pitching staff.

Freisleben, 26, was acquired Thursday on waivers from the San Diego Padres, joining fellow reliever Dan Spillner, whom the Indians picked up last week from the Padres in exchange for rookie pitcher Dennis Kinney.

Freisleben had an 0-3 record with no saves and a 6.00 earned run average in 12 appearances for San Diego this year after posting a 7-9 record for the Padres last season, starting 23 of the 33 games he worked in.

Cleveland now has five pitchers on its roster who were not with the club last season.

Midland dumped in TL

Mickey Hatcher's first inning home run gave San Antonio an early lead, but the Dodgers had to hang on for a 6-5 Texas League baseball victory over the Amarillo Gold Sox Thursday night.

The victory kept Amarillo tied with El Paso for first place in the Texas League West.

In other action Thursday night, El Paso dumped Midland 8-6 while Arkansas skinned Jackson 3-2. Tulsa downed Shreveport 6-3.

Doug Slocum was the winning pitcher for San Antonio.

'No cheeseburgers!' says Ali of Redland

NEW YORK (AP) — In addition to shoring up a crumbling detente, mesmerizing another nation with his charm and promoting a prize fight, Muhammad Ali's 10-day odyssey to Moscow served yet another important purpose. It provided a dry run for the 1980 Olympic Games.

What can our athletes and other visitors expect from the big red bear that lies beyond the Iron Curtain?

"No cheeseburgers," said the former heavyweight champion after returning home to begin training for his Sept. 15 bout in New Orleans with Leon Spinks. "No ice cubes."

"This is what I missed most. I also missed being able to wake up in the morning and switch on the TV set and turn to five different stations."

Ali's reaction to his first visit to the communist state was more positive than negative, however, and he foresees the Russians staging a great, successful Olympics.

"They are all nice people," he said. "When I landed I was nervous. I expected to see a dingy place with robot-minded people, secret agents everywhere and bugs in our hotel rooms."

"It wasn't that way at all. The streets are clean. Everybody is busy. Everybody's humble. There are no big shots. I only saw one policeman. No beggars, no prostitutes, not a single homosexual."

"You can walk the streets any time of the night, sit in the parks and you don't have to worry about being raped or knocked in the head."

Ali said that Olympic visitors also would not have to be wary of pickpockets, traditionally one of the main perils of the congested sports spectacle.

"Veronica went shopping in one of their big stores," the fighter said, referring to his pretty, statuesque wife. "She left her purse, with a lot of money and jewels in it, on the counter while she went to try on a dress."

"The store was crowded with people. When she got back, there was her purse — untouched. Where else could that happen?"

Ali said he found the people as a whole quite pleasant but very somber.

"When I walked around the Red Square, people swarmed around me. But there was none of the 'Hi, ya, champ!' 'Ali, Ali, Ali!' stuff and hand-slapping you get other places. They are very quiet and respectful."

The ex-champion even recognized human qualities in the beetle-browed Soviet president, Leonid Brezhnev, during a rare Kremlin audience.

"He is cute — he was sweet as he could be," Ali said. Ali, as will be the case with Olympic sportsmen and guests, was treated to the best face of the Soviet Union. Said Ali: "I didn't drink their vodka. I ate their caviar, which was good. But the ice cream — man, it was outta this world."

Locals qualify for Jr. Tour

Todd Moore of Sweetwater fired a 75 here Tuesday to edge Big Spring's Johnny Hernandez during the one-day West Texas PGA Junior Tour qualifying tournament held at Comanche Trail Golf Course.

Hernandez, who competed in the 16-18 year-old division, went on to win the Odessa qualifying tournament held at the Sunset Golf Course the very next day.

Qualifiers in the 14-15 age group were locals Louis Wilks, first, and Craig Chandler. Johnny Rodriguez and Glen Mellinger finished first and second, respectively, in the 12-13 classification.

Two local teams in Lamesa tournament

Twenty six teams from West Texas and New Mexico will be battling for the top spot in Lamesa's eleventh annual Optimist Club softball tournament this weekend.

From the opening games at 6 p.m. Friday matching Lamesa's Plains Sporting Goods against the Big Spring A's on another until the final game Sunday afternoon, teams will play an around-the-clock schedule.

Twenty one of the 26 teams come from out of town with Amarillo's four teams representing the largest number of entries. Odessa has three squads. Big Spring, Hobbs, and Carlsbad have two teams each competing.

Stockton of Odessa will play Coahoma Shive Gin while Bob Brown Olds-Lamesa tangles with Sterling City in the second scheduled games. Next will come contests between Hogg Welding-Lamesa and All State Construction of Hobbs on one field while Lamesa Gabriels plays Odessa's Warfield on the other.

Games nine and ten feature Amarillo NS Bank against Levelland and Odessa Rodco against Carlsbad Amax. San Angelo K 9 Security faces Big Spring Pollard in the other first round game.

Drawing byes in first round competition were Amarillo's Argonauts, Amarillo Stars, Union Industrial-Carlsbad, The Family of El Paso, Amarillo Pumpco and Borger Tadc.

Trophies will go to the top three teams with individual trophies of team members of the first place squad, members of the All Tournament team, the most valuable player and the most valuable pitcher.

Optimists will be selling hamburgers, hot dogs, homemade ice cream and other treats throughout the 41-hour marathon. Money raised will help pay for Optimist Youth activities.

GOLF STAR RELAXES — Nancy Lopez, leading Ladies Professional Golf Association money winner in her current rookie year, relaxes riding a horse on a carousel while touring an amusement park in Hershey, Pa. Thursday. Nancy is entered in the 54-hole Lady Keystone Open starting Friday in Hershey and has won her last five straight tournaments.

Lopez after 6 straight

HERSHEY, Pa. (AP) — Nancy Lopez, whose record-smashing play and pretty smile have made her a drawing card for women's pro golf, stood on the brink of another first today in the opening round of the $50,000 Lady Keystone Open.

A win by the 21-year-old rookie would extend her record victory skein to six straight, more than any woman professional has ever won and a notch closer to the men's record — 11 in a row by Byron Nelson in 1945. It also would add to the record purse of $153,336 she's won since turning pro July 29. No other golfer, man or woman, has ever won that much in a rookie year.

"Every shot I hit feels easier than it did a month ago," Lopez said Thursday after testing the par-72, 6,398-yard long Hershey Country Club Course. "I have a great deal of confidence. I'm hitting the ball right where I want it to go."

In 1978, she's won seven Ladies Professional Golf Association tournaments. In contrast, no LPGA rival has won more than once this year.

Her fifth straight victory at Rochester, N.Y., last weekend broke an LPGA mark held, among others, by Mickey Wright and Kathy Whitworth, the tour's all-time money-winner. Whitworth's 13 wins in one year is a record within Lopez' grasp.

Teammates help Guidry keep win streak alive

(AP WIREPHOTO)

When you're hot, you're hot, and Ron Guidry can only hope that one of these days the rest of the New York Yankees will join him.

Guidry was trailing 1-0 — Ron LeFlore's leadoff homer in the first inning — and was two outs away from having his unbeaten 1978 streak snapped at 11-0 Thursday night when the Yankees, with the aid of a costly Detroit error, rallied for four runs in the ninth inning and defeated the Tigers 4-2.

That enabled Guidry to tie the club record with a 12-0 start and left him three short of the American League record. The major league mark is 19-0.

"This is a big boost," said Guidry, who allowed six hits and struck out eight before giving way to Rich Gossage following a leadoff walk in the bottom of the ninth. "I feel very fortunate to win this game. When you're in a streak, you get breaks once in a while like this."

The rest of the Yankees have been slumping — tied away Guidry's 12 wins and they are 27-28 — and they still trail first-place Boston by 7½ games in the AL East. They also are one game behind the Baltimore Orioles, who hammered the Milwaukee Brewers 10-3.

Elsewhere, the California Angels shaded the Minnesota Twins 4-2 in 12 innings, the Texas Rangers trounced the Oakland A's 8-2 and the Seattle Mariners downed the Chicago White Sox 8-6 in 10 innings.

Reggie Jackson homered with one out to begin the Yankees' four-run ninth after Dave Rozema held them to four singles over the first eight innings.

Orioles 10, Brewers 3
The Orioles also have a hot pitcher in Mike Flanagan, 11-4, who scattered 10 hits in posting his sixth consecutive triumph, while Eddie Murray's two-run homer sparked a four-run first inning and Kiko Garcia doubled in three runs with a double and a single. Lee May also homered as Baltimore won for the 18th time in its last 20 games.

Angels 4, Twins 2
Ken Landreaux and Ron Jackson drove in 12th-inning runs with consecutive singles, enabling California to move within one percentage point of first-place Kansas City in the AL West. The Angels meet the Royals eight times in the next 15 games.

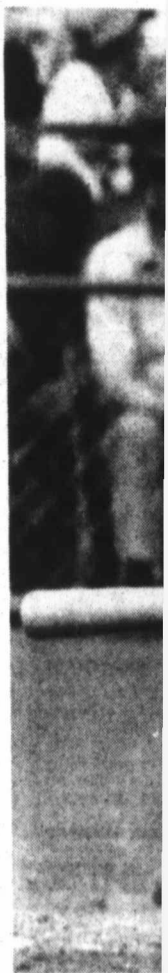

Mariners 8, White Sox 6
Bob Stinson, who homered in the second inning, drilled a tiebreaking double in Seattle's two-run 10th as the lowly Mariners posted their fourth consecutive victory and third in a row over the White Sox.

JOB ON THE LINE — New York Yankees' manager Billy Martin's job is on the line but he says "I've never been scared in my life, and I'm not scared now. We've got a pennant to win. My mother didn't raise a quitter." Martin is shown at the start of Thursday's night's Detroit Tigers game which New York won 4-2.

Hewes leading Canadian?

OAKVILLE, Ontario (AP) — "Sensational," said Jack Nicklaus. "Unbelievable," said Lee Trevino.

The object of their comments was one of the pro golf tour's more unlikely heroes, Jeff Hewes, who slipped through a howling wind to a 4-under-par 67 and a 3-stroke lead Thursday in the first round of the $250,000 Canadian Open Golf Tournament.

"I hope the wind keeps on blowing," grinned Hewes. "It just seems to go right by me."

He's 6-foot-3½ and said his listed weight of 146 isn't quite right. "I've lost some weight since then. I'm 139 now."

Hewes, 31, has attended the PGA Tour Qualifying School seven times. On four of those occasions he failed to gain his playing rights. He's had his card lifted twice because of poor play. This is his third attempt at it.

And he's assured of playing at least one more year. He's won some $14,000 this season, well above the minimum standards. Most of that — $9,000 — came off his victory in the Oklahoma City Open, a satellite event.

"It was real windy there, too," Hewes said. "I've never really considered myself a good wind player, but I think the key to it is patience. I've got a lot of patience. Anybody that's been to as many schools as I have has to have a lot of patience. In the wind, you just go along and try not to do anything real stupid."

The winds were 25-30 miles per hour and combined with the undulating greens to produce some of the highest scores of the year on the pro tour. Fifty players, approximately one-third of the field, shot 80 or higher.

Among them were Hubert Green, 81; Billy Casper, 81; Mark Hayes, 82, and Lon Hinkle, 80.

"The golf course was very difficult," said Nicklaus, who designed the 7,050-yard Glen Abbey Golf Club layout. "Under the conditions, it's hard to believe anyone could shoot the score Hewes had."

Arnold Palmer, who won his first professional title in this tournament 23 years ago, Terry Diehl and Ben Crenshaw were tied for second at 70.

AIR SEAT — Minnesota Twins Dan Ford assumes a seating position in mid air after ducking away from a pitch by California Angels pitcher Paul Hartzell in action Thursday at noon. California went on to win the game 4-2 in the 12th inning.

Denny pitches great, loses again

By the Associated Press

John Denny just can't catch a break. The last time he pitched, his opposite number was Tom Seaver — and the Cincinnati ace threw a no-hitter.

Thursday night, he ran into a hot Steve Carlton and the result was another tough loss for the St. Louis Cardinal pitcher.

"He pitched as good a game as I've seen since I took over (in April), including Tom Seaver's no-hitter," Cardinal Manager Ken Boyer said after a 2-1 loss to the Phillies. "With the stuff Denny had tonight, I wouldn't have been surprised if he pitched a no-hitter."

Denny allowed only three hits, struck out five and walked none in a complete-game performance, but lost because the Cardinals' offense consisted only of Keith Hernandez's home run.

Carlton, meanwhile, allowed the Cardinals only six other hits as he gained his fourth victory in his last five starts, his eighth this year and No. 199 of his career.

Elsewhere in the National League, the Cincinnati Reds beat the San Francisco Giants 5-0; the Houston Astros edged the Los Angeles Dodgers 4-3; the San Diego Padres blanked the Atlanta Braves 2-0 and the Montreal Expos trimmed the New York Mets 2-0.

Reds 5, Giants 0
Bill Bonham and Manny Sarmiento combined on a three-hitter and Bonham belted a run-scoring single, helping Cincinnati beat San Francisco. Bonham was lifted after a one-out single and two walks loaded the bases for San Francisco in the seventh. Sarmiento took over and worked out of the jam, allowing just one hit the rest of the way for his fourth save.

Padres 2, Braves 0
Bob Ovwirko combined with Rollie Fingers on a five-hitter to pitch San Diego over Atlanta. Ovwirko struck out two and walked one through 7-3 innings before Fingers finished up to record his 16th save.

Braves eye West Coast

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) — John Y. Brown, owner of pro basketball's Buffalo Braves, has kissed off his hometown and forsaken the compelling attractions of Texas and New York to chase after the sun-drenched West Coast.

Only cool-but-energetic Minneapolis stands between Brown and a move by the Braves to San Diego, a city he hadn't considered much until last week, he said Thursday.

Brown ordered his staff to investigate other cities when the National Basketball Association season ended in early April. On May 8, the Braves broke their lease on Memorial Auditorium.

But when the NBA Board of Governors met June 14-16 in San Diego, Brown, finding unexpected support in the host city, asked and got 20 more days to decide.

Now the board has agreed to meet July 7 to hear his final proposal, he said.

Brown ruled out two sites Thursday — his hometown of Louisville, Ky., and Nassau County, N.Y. Earlier he had eliminated Hollywood, Fla., Toronto and Dallas, which won the vote of the team's front office.

He also said in a telephone interview he won't talk with Buffalo's Common Council or Buffalo investors about selling the Braves.

13-year-old son vanishes Two found dead in ditch

PURCELL, Okla. (AP) — A three-member family, en route from Texas to North Dakota to attend a family funeral, met with a deadly and baffling fate near this central Oklahoma town Thursday.

The bullet-riddled bodies of a man and woman were found in a ditch along Interstate 35 by a passing motorist about noon Thursday. Vanished from the scene were the couple's 13-year-old son, along with the family pickup and camper and two pet dogs.

The bodies were discovered about noon by a passing motorist in ditch only a few yards off the shoulder of the highway, officials said.

There were reports the family had several guns with them, but the OSBI said those could not be confirmed.

A spokesman said it is believed the slayings occurred early Thursday morning.

The bodies were taken to the state Medical Examiner's Office for an autopsy.

Income of blacks, hispanics rise

WASHINGTON (AP) — Dramatic rises in the median family income of blacks and hispanics propelled Texas to a slight statewide increase, according to a Bureau of the Census report.

The median incomes for Texas families increased by $214 — 10 times more than the national norm — from 1970-75. The median family income for Texans was $12,672 in 1975, up 1.6 percent from 1970.

Black families in Texas experienced an $882 annual increase, bringing their 1975 median family incomes up 11.1 percent to $8,791.

Hispanics realized a seven percent increase — $619 — to $9,363. Whites had a $58 — or 0.4 percent — increase to $13,299.

Southern families averaged a $588 increase during the period, bringing their annual median incomes to $12,443, a 4.9 percent rise.

Suit filed against club in San Antonio

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) — A San Antonio dance studio bailed a near-invalid, 79-year-old widow out of more than $700,000 for dance lessons, trips and club memberships, the Texas attorney general's office has alleged in a deceptive trade practices suit.

The suit, filed Thursday in state district court, seeks to enjoin Dance Center Inc.; its president, Jack Klein of Houston and 13 other persons from continuing their alleged deceptive trade practices.

Klein was indicted Wednesday by a Bexar County grand jury on stock fraud charges. He remained at large Thursday night, said District Attorney Bill White.

The suit alleged the studio used advertisements "designed to attract lonely people, who were often middle aged or older, searching for new friends and companionship after the death of a spouse."

Customers would be given a "test," the alleged main purpose of which was to establish a close personal relationship with the instructor. By establishing such a relationship, the suit alleged, the defendants were able to discover the net worth of the customers.

The defendants would then "flatter, cajole and pressure" the prospective students into signing repeated long-term contracts for dance lessons, according to the suit.

Cash was preferred, the suit said, the financing plans were offered.

In addition to dance lessons, memberships in social clubs were sold that required persons to purchase advanced levels of instruction.

The suit listed six unidentified persons, including the elderly widow, who were allegedly sold dance lessons, escorted trips and club memberships totalling $789,000 over a four-year period from 1972 to 1977.

The elderly woman, who had suffered a stroke and could not walk unassisted, paid more than $700,000 of that total in cash and jewelry for dance lessons, memberships and trips, according to the suit.

"At the time the defendants abruptly closed their dance studio, 'Mrs. A' was a patient in a nursing home, confined to a wheelchair," the suit said of the widow.

Attorney General John Hill asked in the suit that each defendant be required to pay a civil penalty of $2,000 per violation and asked that court also order the defendants to compensate those who purchased lessons.

And get the PennCap-M bonus: extended control and reduced toxicity.

PennCap-M is the cotton insecticide that protects your crop from tobacco budworm, bollworm and boll weevil. But PennCap-M gives you a lot more than just great insect control of these troublesome pests.

PennCap-M is agriculture's first microencapsulated pesticide. Microencapsulation reduces toxicity, and that makes it less hazardous to handle and apply than methyl parathion EC.

Microencapsulation also extends control time in the field as active insecticide slowly releases from tiny, porous microcapsules. That could save on re-treating.

See your dealer and order the bonus insecticide for your cotton — PennCap-M. For more information, contact AGCHEM DIVISION 1630 E. SHAW AVE. FRESNO, CALIFORNIA 93710 (209) 226-8400

Someday all insecticides may work like this.

One of the most interesting of the rural school areas in this seven-county area apparently eluded me for over a year.

Because Loyola, which used to be located exactly where the Flower Grove school is now located is certainly one of the more interesting.

This is for two reasons — mainly because it was located directly east of the Lazy S Ranch Headquarters and was apparently the first school district organized at the edge of the vast Slaughter Ranch.

The land was evidently donated by the Slaughters and the Slaughters saw to it that there was a good school at that location. For one thing, they had a four-fountain water fountain when none of the other area rural schools had ever heard of such luxuries.

And the Slaughters gave a $10 gold piece to both the boy and girl who made the best grades during the year. Talk about competition for academic honors — most youngsters would work up a little steam for a ten dollar gold piece today.

"And in those days, that was the most valuable prize. I was always glad just to look at it," Elizabeth Haggard Meek of Big Spring said recently. Then she added,

Von Hirsch sale sets records

LONDON (AP) — Art auction records are falling right and left at the von Hirsch sale as West German museums bid to get back some of the treasures Adolf Hitler drove out of the country.

The take on Thursday, the third day of the sale, was $13.4 million, a record for one auction session. It was $1.6 million more than the record total realized over 10 days for the Mentmore Towers collection at Sotheby Parke Bernet's first "sale of the century" 13 months ago.

One multicolored 12th century enamel sold for a record $2 million. Minutes later the record was broken when another one went for $2.22 million. The first one, a relic of Emperor Frederick Barbarossa of the Holy Roman Empire, was bought for a Nuremberg museum. The other one was bought for West Berlin's Staatliche Museum.

Only two items have ever brought higher prices at art auctions, and both were paintings — Velasquez's $5.5 million "Juan de Pareja" in 1970 and Titian's $4.1 million "Death of Actaeon" the next year.

The previous record for an art work other than a painting was $1 million paid in 1974 for a Ming porcelain bowl.

"S. E. Pheland used to always win the boy's medal and Glynn and Grace Gray picked up the girl's medals from time to time."

Mrs. Meek's memories are sharp and she recalled that her father, and seven children (there were later more) came to Martin County in a covered wagon from Denton in 1924. He was accompanied by N.G. Haggard, a cousin and an uncle and they leased land from H.B. Edwards of Lamesa. The Slaughter ranch was all around them.

The uncle brought six children and the cousin four. Going to that early school were 17 Haggard kids including James B. Lib, Robert F. Willie May, Thomas Andy, John Alec, Dutchie, Mary Helen and others.

She recalled that the ranch foreman for the Slaughter ranch was Frank B. Jones, who later moved to Lamesa and that four of the cowboys were Dave Everts, Curly Haneson, Skeet Pheland and Bart Flannigan. She even remembered the name of the cook who was Big Boy Head.

She said that Col. C. C. Slaughter Jr. and his daughter would come from Dallas for special events. "He was quite handsome in his big white hat," she recalled.

She remembers the good and the bad — the sand storms, drought, and rattlesnakes and the plays up on the high porch of the school with the audience sitting on chairs out in the yard, the parties, the revivals and the gospel sings.

She said at the time they moved to Loyola, which had been named for the University in New Orleans, there was a smallpox epidemic and the school was closed. The principal and his family were in quarantine.

Flower Grove at that time was halfway between the present location and Ackerly. The Haggard kids went there from 1925 through 1927 and the principals and teachers during the time included O.N. Land, Mrs. Lala Reibolt, J.T. Morgan, Holmes Webb and Jenny Wilburn.

She especially remembers "those high school steps" and said that they had kind of an outdoor amphitheatre when they had plays out
