Millionaire Cullen Davis jailed in Fort Worth

Murder-for-hire caper

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — A murder-for-hire plot allegedly conceived by accused killer and oilman T. Cullen Davis to eliminate the judge presiding over his bitter divorce has backfired, and today the diminutive millionaire finds himself back where he was exactly a year ago — in the Tarrant County Jail.

District Attorney Tim Curry said he will recommend today that the 44-year-old Fort Worth industrialist be held without bond.

Speaking through his attorneys late Sunday night, Davis called the charges "some kind of frame or setup."

Davis, the star defendant in the state's longest and costliest murder trial last year, was acquitted of the Aug. 2, 1976 shooting death of his 12-year-old stepdaughter, Andrea Wilborn, at the lush $6 million Davis mansion here.

That same night, Davis' estranged wife, Priscilla, 37, was wounded. Her lover, Stan Farr, 30, was killed, and Gus Gavrel Jr., 23, a chance visitor to the mansion was also wounded.

Curry said Davis was arrested on solicitation of capital murder charges Sunday morning for allegedly attempting to hire a "hit man" to kill District Judge Joe Eidson. He was also charged with carrying a prohibited weapon — a pistol with a silencer.

"Cullen offered no resistance," the prosecutor said. "He made no statement. There is additional evidence, but I can't comment on it right now."

Curry produced an affidavit signed by David McCrory, identified as an employee of a firm owned by the Davis family, that said McCrory had several meetings with Davis over the past four days in preparation for the alleged contract killing. He added, "We expect to fully corroborate McCrory's statement."

McCrory, wired for sound by federal and local authorities during the meetings, last met with Davis about 8:30 a.m. Sunday in a nightclub parking lot, Curry said.

Sources told The Associated Press McCrory had to show Davis a phony snapshot of Eidson's "body" stuffed in a car trunk and the judge's driver's license before the millionaire produced a manila envelope containing $25,000 in $100 bills. Eidson, the sources said, agreed to pose for the photo when asked by authorities.

McCrory's statement said he obtained a .22-caliber pistol and a silencer at Davis' request. He said he turned the pistol and silencer, which was furnished by police, over to Davis Sunday morning.

"It's a frame-up, a goddamn frame-up," said Davis' niece, Kay. "David McCrory is an opportunist. If Cullen wanted to hire somebody to kill Judge Eidson, he wouldn't go to someone like...McCrory. He just doesn't trust that man."

"Eidson was no threat to Cullen at all. None whatsoever. Cullen had nothing to lose in that marriage."

Priscilla Davis said she was "just completely shocked by this whole thing." "I've been advised by my attorneys not to say anything and I really don't know anything," she said today. "I don't know what to think about the whole damn thing."

She indicated it means more delay in the divorce trial and she found that distressing.

Curry said investigators found the weapon in the trunk of Davis' Cadillac when they stopped him minutes after he drove away from the parking lot.

Sources said the pistol definitely was not linked to the alleged plot against Eidson, but indicated police are not certain what plans the millionaire may have had for it.

The same sources said police also found a "hit list" that included five others — beside Eidson — who figured prominently in the mansion shootings that kept Davis behind bars much of last year.

Those on the list were identified to The AP as Mrs. Davis; Gavrel; Beverly Bass, a friend of Mrs. Davis' oldest daughter Dee; District Judge Tom Cave, whose decision to deny Davis bond kept the millionaire in jail until he was acquitted of capital murder Nov. 17, 1977 in Amarillo; and Davis' brother, Bill, who was ousted from the Kendavis Industries business empire in a powerplay by Cullen Davis and Ken Davis Jr. in August 1973.

Cullen Davis still faces a murder charge in Farr's death and two attempted murder charges in the shootings of Mrs. Davis and Gavrel. However, no trial dates have been set.

In addition to the criminal cases, Davis' 4-year-old divorce is still pending. Last month, court papers said Mrs. Davis was willing to settle for $21.5 million. Davis' attorneys countered with an offer of $1.2 million.

The case was scheduled for trial Aug. 14, but Eidson granted Mrs. Davis' attorneys a three-week delay and reset it for Sept. 18.

"We're not sure how this (Sunday's criminal charges) will affect the divorce case," said Mrs. Davis' attorney, Ronald Aultman. "However, we're prepared to go forward."

It was exactly two years ago Sunday that Davis was snatched from the doorstep of his gleaming twin-engine Lear Jet by Curry's investigators as he prepared to take off for Houston. Davis was out on $60,000 bond at the time. He said he was en route to Houston on business.

He was jailed and charged with two counts of capital murder in the deaths of Miss Wilborn and Farr. Both charges had been upgraded from simple murder warrants filed hours after the Aug. 2 shootings.

McCrory's name initially surfaced while Davis' high-priced defense team, led by colorful Richard "Racehorse" Haynes of Houston, tried to get him freed on bond. Haynes produced an unsigned affidavit purportedly given by McCrory that described several instances of blatant drug use and sex parties by Priscilla Davis and her friends at the mansion.

McCrory denied making such a statement and Judge Cave held Haynes and co-counsel Phil Burleson of Dallas in contempt of court. But the publicity the affidavit generated was sufficient to get the trial moved from Fort Worth.

Donations near $10,000 mark

Three large gifts over the weekend brought the Bible Fund total to within $500 of the $10,000 objective.

The aggregate now stands at $9,535.64. Time has become increasingly critical, since the beginning of school is less than a week away.

The First Baptist Church enriched the fund by $600. Baptist Temple Church donated $500 while the Solid Rock Christian Center contributed $300.

The money is used to underwrite the expense of maintaining Bible chairs in high schools at Forsan, Coahoma and Big Spring.

Checks should be made out to The Bible Fund and forwarded either to Dr. Kenneth Patrick, pastor, First Baptist Church, Big Spring, or The Herald, Box 1431, Big Spring 79720.

377 perish in theater blazes

TEHRAN, Iran (AP) — The government blamed opponents of Shah Mohammed Reza Pahlavi's reforms for the arson fire that killed at least 377 persons in a southwestern Iranian city, and the local police chief reported 10 suspects have been arrested.

An Iranian newspaper, in an unconfirmed report, said 430 died in the Saturday night blaze in Abadan, an oil-refinery city. The paper, Ettelaat, claimed 728 tickets had been sold for the show. It did not explain the discrepancy between the number killed and the number of tickets sold. The paper said only 200 of the badly burned bodies have been identified so far.

Officials said the toll stood at 377 killed and 10 injured. They said 20 to 40 persons escaped without injury.

Cinema Rex, in a working-class section of the city, was showing a Persian-language film and no Americans were believed among the victims.

Gen. Reza Razmi, the Abadan police chief, said "anti-reform radicals" splashed gasoline around the outside of the Cinema Rex and set it aflame Saturday evening. He named no particular group but said "provocative elements, and those who wear different masks to fight the Iranian revolution were responsible."

It was generally assumed that the arson was the work of ultra-conservative Moslem fanatics who oppose the shah's reform programs and also demand all public entertainment shut down during the holy month of Ramadan, now in progress. Since Ramadan began Aug. 8, they have made bomb or arson attacks on movie houses, restaurants, night clubs, banks and private and public buildings.

The police chief said several of those arrested were carrying explosives when they were picked up. He said two employees of the movie house were among the suspects, and the owner also was arrested for "negligence," because to save money he did not heed police instructions to hire more attendants and guards.

All the country's major religious leaders except one issued condemnations of the massacre.

The silent exception was Ayatullah Khomeini, an exile in Iraq since 1963. He fled the country after campaigning against the shah's land reform program because it provided for the sale or lease to the peasants of the vast landholdings of the mosques. Since then his supporters have carried on an anti-shah campaign which in the past eight months has become increasingly violent and in which about 100 persons have been killed.

Police said the doors to the crowded theater had been locked as a protection against terrorists, and most of those inside were trapped. A survivor said many of the victims were trampled to death.

OH, A LUCKY MAN — Larry Edward Simer, 19, Coahoma, was treated and released for sprains to his left leg at Malone-Hogan Hospital Sunday after being struck by a car while he was walking on the north service road of I-20. The accident occurred at 10:05 p.m. when a car driven by Glenda Grigg was mistakenly thought to be on the interstate. By the time she saw Simer and his friends, she could not avoid the collision. It took place 300 yards west of the Coahoma city line.

Foresyth, a local man, returned to Big Spring in January 1974 after obtaining a B.S. and an M.E. degree from Texas A&M. He served as parks and recreation director and in 1976 was elevated to the position of assistant city manager.

He is on the board of the First

Offbeat: But can he roll over?

HIGHLAND, Mich. (AP) — Whiskey, the Frisbee-fetching champion of the Midwest, hardly has time to bark while practicing hours a day for next weekend's national championship at the Rose Bowl.

"This dog is a winner. He's going to be the champ," the dog's owner, David Emmett, says.

Emmett, a 28-year-old Ford Motor Co. employee, said he's been training the golden shepherd mongrel for more than three years.

Emmett said Whiskey, who recently captured the Midwest title, is best prepared for one of the two main events in the dog tourney, a timed version of fetch in which points are awarded for grabbing the Frisbee in midair. In the regional competition, Whiskey averaged one fetch every 10 seconds.

Emmett and his wife, Jami, are not so sure Whiskey can beat the competition in the other event, a free-form competition.

Last year's canine Frisbee champ, one Ashley Whippet, is a free-form whiz, according to Jami Emmett. "We hear he can jump nine feet high," she said.

Beekeeper killed

HOUSTON (AP) — A beekeeper was killed Sunday when he dropped a tray of bees and was stung more than 100 times. Investigators said Michael John Conway, 33, died of suffocation after his throat closed from swelling. Conway was said to have dropped the tray while moving it from a pickup truck to hives behind his home in northeast Harris County.

Senate vote scheduled

WASHINGTON (AP) — Eighteen years ago, Congress agreed that District of Columbia residents should have the presidential vote. This week, residents here will learn congressional feelings toward full voting rights. A Senate vote is scheduled for Tuesday on a proposed constitutional amendment to give District residents the right to choose members of Congress. The District currently has a non-voting delegate in the House and elects its local government.

Nuclear advantage dips

WASHINGTON (AP) — NATO's advantage in tactical nuclear weapons is being narrowed by the Warsaw Pact nations, which already outnumber and outgun U.S. and allied conventional forces in central Europe. That is the consensus expressed in recent U.S. intelligence reports on Soviet development and deployment of tactical nuclear weapons in western Russia, East Germany, Czechoslovakia and Poland.

Such weapons include a variety of less-than-intercontinental-range missiles, bombs and missiles carried by fighter-bombers. They could seriously affect, and possibly decide, a battle for Europe if a war escalated beyond conventional high-explosive arms.

Heroin con escapes

FLORENCE, Ariz. (AP) — Exactly three weeks after the well-orchestrated escape of convicted killers Gary Tison and Randy Greenawald from the Arizona State Prison here, a Mexican national serving five to seven years for possession of heroin for sale walked away from the facility.

Prison spokeswoman Carolyn Robinson said Luis C. Tabarez, 41, an outside trustee, checked in at 6:15 p.m. Sunday, and was listed as missing at 8:15 p.m. He had been outside irrigating near the prison dairy, northeast of the facility.

Unlike Tison, he is not believed to be armed. Ms. Robinson said authorities were tracking Tabarez along a canal bank, and that road blocks had been established by Pinal County Sheriff's deputies. She said authorities do not believe Tabarez had outside help in the escape, but if the tracks end, they will begin working on the assumption that he was picked up by someone in a vehicle.

Tabarez was convicted in Santa Cruz County, and had been at the prison since Jan. 1977.

Tison, 42, and Greenawald, 29, escaped July 30 when Tison's three sons, Donald, 20, Raymond, 19, and Ricky, 18, smuggled shotguns inside the prison. Greenawald, along with Raymond and Ricky Tison, were captured Aug. 11 when they tried to run a roadblock in the desert south of Casa Grande. Donald Tison was killed in a gunfire exchange at the roadblock, and officially, no one has seen Gary Tison.

The gang is accused of four killings during their flight, and authorities believe they also have murdered an Amarillo, Texas couple honeymooning in Colorado. The couple, James and Margene Judge, have not been seen since the gang stole their van weeks ago.

Meanwhile, authorities continue the manhunt for Tison, with reports of him turning up throughout the state.

Forsan High School is burglarized Saturday

Howard County deputies are investigating the burglary Saturday of the Forsan High School building. According to reports, Superintendent J. F. Poyner discovered the damage Sunday afternoon and immediately reported the break-in to the Sheriff's office. The original investigation was handled by Deputy Bill Shankles.

The felons apparently broke into the building by prying open the doors to the industrial arts shop. They broke into the teacher's office there, broke into the band hall, and then entered the principal's office.

They used a grinder, hammer, and drill in hammering into a wall in the office, and eventually succeeded in prying open the steel door to a walk-in vault in the office. The steel covering on the door was discovered peeled back and the tumblers had been turned manually. Another steel door in the tax office vault was also ruined, but entry was not gained to the second vault. "We think they just got Coke money for their trouble," said Poyner today. "Our best estimate is that there was $175 in change in the vault."

"But we have no way of estimating the damage they did to the building. I don't know how much those vault doors cost, so I can't estimate the damage."

Poyner said that the crime had definitely been isolated to sometime between Saturday morning and Sunday afternoon, "but beyond that we have no idea who was in here," he said.

BUSINESS NEIGHBORS — Candy McLaughlin, standing, and Barbara Hall pose together in CJ's Cutters, the hair styling business opened by McLaughlin at 601 Main. The address, actually an old house, provides a unique atmosphere for the shop, which does hair styling for men and women. Ribbon cutting ceremonies for CJ's were Sunday. In addition, another part of the building will house Fraser-Hall Designs, specializing in interior designing. The business, owned by Linda Fraser and Barbara Hall, plans to open sometime in September.

Police beat Wrecks plague officers

Five persons were injured in a wreck Sunday afternoon, with apparently none of them injured seriously. A vehicle driven by Albert Stovall, 58, Sterling City Route, Box 157F4, was attempting to turn left off Goliad when struck by a vehicle driven by Russell Felts, 802 Lorilla.

Stovall and Sally Stovall, 55, both received cuts and bruises and were taken by ambulance to Malone-Hogan. Felts, 21, and two passengers, Jill Stansel, 26, of 2500 Carleton and Cally Jo Nichols, 22, of 1601 E. 15th, were also reported injured and taken to Malone-Hogan by private vehicle.

Among the minor wrecks Sunday night was one at 9:44 p.m. in which a vehicle driven by Kenneth Dwayne Tucker, 2600 Lynn, collided with a parked city vehicle at 2500 Lynn.

Even children's toys weren't safe over the weekend, with a riding tractor and another child's riding toy were taken from the yard at the home of Bill Sharp, 3706 Connally.

Hollis Henry Smith was arrested in connection with an alleged assault on his wife, Edna. The arrest was made at 1499 Aylford Sunday at 9:30 p.m.

At 11:19 p.m., officers arrested Tom Lujan on a possible charge of resisting arrest on an alleged charge of possession of marijuana. Edward Chavarria was arrested on a possible charge of interfering with a police officer and failure to obey a lawful order. Two other persons at the scene were also arrested for misdemeanor possession of marijuana. The arrest was made at NW 6th and Lancaster.

Bob McDonald, Sterling City Route, said a Coors beer key and the cooling equipment was stolen from his rural home.

Other minor accidents included one at 4th and N. Gregg when two vehicles collided at 2:40 p.m. Saturday. Drivers were Clark Whitley, 508 N. Ave. O., Lamesa and Alfredo Morales, 901 Douglas.

At 1411 E. 15th at 5:16 p.m., two cars were involved in an accident. Drivers were Doyce Draper, 2105 Alabama and William Iles, Rt. 1, Box 149A.

At 10:19 p.m. Sunday, at 1300 Gregg, an accident involved vehicles driven by Julian Poyner, Forsan and Katherine Lynn Harry, San Antonio.

At 11:21 p.m. Sunday, an accident occurred at Highway 80 and Airbase Road involving a vehicle driven by James Flores De La Garza, 1601 Avion and a utility pole.

Krueger says Tower's rhetoric stronger than military record

U.S. Senate challenger Bob Krueger today said Sen. John Tower's military record does not live up to his "emotional rhetoric" and said Tower's lack of effectiveness has contributed to closure of 11 military bases in Texas since 1965.

"When Webb Air Force Base in Big Spring was threatened with closure in 1976, John Tower, and I quote, said that base would close only over his 'bleeding, prostrate body.' "But that air base was closed and, the last time I looked, John Tower was still upright," Krueger said.

"I will not offer emotional rhetoric—because demagoguery provides headlines, but no solutions...and Mr. Tower can issue all the rhetoric he wishes about his 'bleeding and prostrate body,' but it appears to me that his leadership on the Senate Armed Services Committee, contrary to what he would have Texans believe, is very visibly lacking," Krueger continued.

By WALT FINLEY Staff Writer

Krueger will return to Big Spring Tuesday, Aug. 29 to address friends and supporters at a noon Dutch luncheon at Jo-Boy's, National Democratic Delegate Delano Shaw, confirmed today.

"The public is invited," Shaw stressed. "An important announcement is expected during the meeting. Questions will be answered."

Today, Krueger several times accused Tower of "not tending" to taxpayers' business while he was in Washington. Krueger cited specific declines in Texas military installations and said that Texas had lost 11 bases while states of comparable size had lost only one or two.

"That economic loss not only has detrimentally affected Texas business, but it has reduced total spending within the state by $264 million," Krueger said. "It cost 7,527 Texans their jobs, all because John Tower was not doing his."

Krueger also cited several pro military votes he cast the past week, all of which succeeded in curtailing military cutbacks or increasing allotments to specific defense programs.

"Because, when I am in Washington, I tend to your business," he jabbed.

The 21st District representative was in his hometown of New Braunfels Sunday for a fund-raising reception at the Chambrec House from 2 p.m. until 4 p.m. Krueger then traveled to Dallas Sunday evening to attend the 79th Memorial Service at Veterans' of Foreign Wars National Convention.

Krueger will be on the road today, campaigning and greeting supporters in Hereford, Vega, Dalhart, Dumas, Stratford, Pampa and Vernon.

The second-term congressman will take his campaign to Clarendon, Wellington, Shamrock, Wheeler, Borger, Perryton and Canadian Tuesday.

Krueger will attend an Amarillo fund-raiser that evening at 5:30 at the Amarillo Club.

Krueger will speak to approximately 100 English teachers at an Amarillo High School in-service meeting travel to Slaton and Austin, where he and Vice President Walter Mondale will attend a dinner with other Democratic party leaders honoring Calvin Guest, chairman of the State Democratic Executive Committee.

Mondale will arrive in the Rio Grande Valley cities of McAllen and Corpus Christi Saturday.

JFK assassination: Rifle, pistol shots reenacted in Dallas

DALLAS (AP)—Rifle and pistol shots echoed through a sealed-off Dealey Plaza Sunday morning as police marksmen fired into sandbags from the old Texas School Book Depository and an adjacent "grassy knoll" to help audio and acoustic experts probe the 1963 killing of President John Kennedy.

Pre-dawn preparations lent an eerie quality to the re-enactment. A police helicopter made several sweeps before sunrise, the glare from its searchlight helping tactical officers make sure the area was clear.

The project was ordered by the House Select Committee on Assassinations after the recent discovery of audio "blips" on a police recording made during the assassination. There were indications that the recording, made accidentally by an unidentified motorcycle officer whose microphone stuck in the "open" position, revealed that four shots were fired.

The Warren Commission report claimed Lee Harvey

Oswald, acting alone, fired three shots into the presidential motorcade. Experts generally agree that a fourth shot would mean another gunman was involved.

An Italian rifle similar to the Mannlicher-Carcano that the Warren Commission said Oswald used to gun down Kennedy spat out the first shot at 7:10 a.m. The round struck one of three piles of sandbags placed at the approximate positions where Kennedy was hit.

More shots followed from the six-lf-floor window from where Oswald is said to have fired.

As repetitions became boring, a ninth shot was fired. Markedly lower in volume, it came from behind a fence at the rear of the knoll, a position that would have been in front of the motorcade.

Police spokesman Bob Shaw later confirmed that the marksmen were also firing a .38-caliber pistol from behind the knoll. Several theorists have claimed shots were fired from there during the assassination.

Batteries of more than 50 microphones had been placed around the plaza by employees of the Boston firm of Bolt, Beranek and Newman, the firm that analyzed the 18½-minute gap in former President Richard Nixon's White House tapes.

In all, more than 40 shots were fired in three separate programs as technicians changed the placement of microphones, generally tracing the motorcade route toward the "triple underpass." The entire project took more than six hours.

Dr. James Barger of the Boston company spoke briefly with newsmen and said the recordings would be analyzed in Boston and the results turned over to the Assassinations Committee by Sept. 1.

"Standard electronics will be used," Barger said, repeatedly refusing to speculate about what might be heard.

Officers C.L. Metcalf, Jerry Compton and Tom Knighten fired the shots. "I had 12 hits," Metcalf said afterward. "I fired all my shots from the knoll. The pistol shots from there were all hits," too.

Compton said the bolt-action Italian rifles weren't hard to fire. "It's not much of a weapon, though," he said.

Later, Compton dry-fired three shots at different targets to simulate tracking. The AP timed the shots in 5.8 seconds.

The demonstration left many questions unanswered. Dallas police, acting only in a support role, did what they were told. No one from the Assassinations Committee was on hand.

One of the biggest puzzles was the recording made by the Dallas officer in 1963. "We don't know who he was or where he was," Shaw said. The Warren Commission has had the original tape since its investigation, but Shaw said it was only "recently" that the possible fourth shot was identified. "I can only guess that the reason might be because they didn't have the technology until recently," Shaw said.

Besides the surprise shooting of a pistol from the knoll, shots were also fired at a fourth target in the general area where concrete curbing was found to be chipped following Kennedy's shooting.

Blockades positioned before dawn restricted traffic in the area to official cars.

POSITIONING THE MICROPHONES — Sound experts from Bolt, Beranek and Newman adjust and position microphones around the President John F. Kennedy assassination site in Dallas Sunday. Rifle fire from police department sharpshooters was recorded and will be compared to a recording of the actual assassination. The Boston firm will try to determine how many shots were fired at President Kennedy on Nov. 22, 1963. The results will be given to the House Select Committee on Assassinations by Sept. 1.

Hustle 3 The Chamber is YOU

By Bill Albright
Executive Vice President,
Big Spring Area Ch. of Commerce
Industrial Growth and Development

I keep telling you that the Chamber is YOU. It's funded by YOUR dues and investments; it's governed by YOUR officers and board members; and it's projects and activities are planned and operated by YOU through 18 committees — composed of YOU, YOU and YOU!

What I'm saying is — the chamber is not just a building on 3rd Street or the staff that performs the day to day work that keeps things going between board and committee meetings — no sir, it's a whole lot more!

Most important, it's the action agency for the entire Big Spring area. It boasts the best leadership in the community. It leads the way in promoting economic and civic progress and it is the focal point for discussions, ideas and projects — all designed to help BUILD a BIGGER BETTER BIG SPRING AREA.

At this time of the year, just before school begins and as we kind of wind down the summer season, it's appropriate to acknowledge some of the work that's been accomplished and emphasize those tasks yet remaining.

Hopefully we can get most of them attended to during the remaining four months of 1978.

Many of you know that the Chamber operates four councils and each council, headed by a board member, oversees 4 to 5 committees.

Community Development is under the leadership of Daryle Hohertz and works with the following committees: Sports and Recreation, Jerry Foresyth; Beautification, Bob Hurt; Tourism, Curt Mullins; and Long Range Planning, Dr. Charles Hays.

Economic Development is the responsibility of Director, Richard Atkins and coordinates the activities of the Business Committee, Charles Beil; Agriculture, Skipper Driver; Energy, Charles Tompkins; Transportation, Bob Miller; and Industrial Development, Jack Redding.

Director, Johnnie Lou Avery, heads the Public Affairs Council and is responsible for Education, Carroll Kohl; Governmental Affairs, Carol Hunter; Cultural Affairs, Mel Prather; and Health & Safety, Betty Condry.

The fourth council is under the direction of John Arrick and supervises the following committees: Annual Banquet, Johnnie Lou Avery; Membership, Martha Cohorn; Ambassadors, Richard Atkins; and Administration, John Latham.

Major tasks completed or under way include a variety of sports events; clean up campaign; recognition of residential and non residential beauty spots of the month; establishment of a Convention & Visitor Bureau; operation of a "Red Alert" phone system for bad checks and questionable practices; liaison with governmental agencies regarding agriculture, business, industry and other legislative issues affecting our area; coordination and sponsorship of selected agricultural events; promotion of U.S. Highway 87 and acquisition of a feeder airline; a continued program to attract additional industries; sizeable increase in the number of chamber memberships; assisting in opening new businesses and promoting hospitality and good will; assisting in holding High School "Career Day"; and recognizing top scholars in the 4 area High Schools; promotion and support of cultural activities and events including, Starlite Specials, the Museum, the Arts & Crafts Festival, and the Domino Tournament; and assist in promoting liaison with and appreciation for law enforcement agencies. I'm confident that I've overlooked some other projects and programs, but that should give a pretty fair picture of the work thus far.

There are still many tasks remaining on our program of action. Our committees are anxious to get after them. So if you'd like to help, let us know here at the Chamber Office and we'll be happy to show you how to HUSTLE! HUSTLE! HUSTLE!

Cattle numbers continue decline

COLLEGE STATION — Cattlemen across the nation are continuing to reduce their herds, but some signs point toward a buildup by next year.

Dr. Edward Uvacek, Jr., livestock marketing specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, notes that recently reported lower cattle numbers mean producers are still in the liquidation phase of the cattle cycle.

Total cattle and calf inventories on July 1 were 7 per cent below a year ago while beef cows were down 9 per cent. The specialist says beef cow replacement heifers were also down sharply, but nine states

Fertilize for quality fall hay

COLLEGE STATION — With the right growing conditions, high quality hay can be produced as late as September and early October. And a forage specialist says producers can help Mother Nature provide the right conditions.

Don J. Dorsett, with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, says a high quality last cutting of hay requires fertility and prime growing conditions, especially moisture.

Dorsett says production from residual nitrogen fertilizer which was applied in April, May or June should not be expected.

"If additional hay or pasture is needed and can be used, an application of nitrogen fertilizer is the main control an individual has to increase production," the specialist says. He suggests applying at least 50 pounds of actual nitrogen per acre (150 pounds of ammonium nitrate).

Levels of production, protein and digestibility of fall-produced pasture and hay can be near spring levels if sufficient fertilizer is applied and timely rains fall.

"The probability of September rainfall is good and should be used in planning forage activities," says Dorsett. "Take advantage of these improved forage production conditions by planning pasture and hay land fertility now."

STOP LEAKING TOILETS!

Your toilet can leak more than 1,000 gallons of water a month if your toilet tank ball doesn't seal properly. The annoying noises are a nuisance and the wasted water a real expense. Water Master's new FLAPPER Tank Ball stops these problems. Thanks to the exclusive "Thrust-Back" pyramid, FLAPPER seats perfectly — stops the flow of water after every flushing.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Get into the financial side of any outside civic duties you have to perform and know what you are doing. A new attitude on your part is best way to add to present abundance.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) A personal problem could keep you from doing practical and interesting things. A new contact could be of real assistance to you now.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Take care of situations that hinder your progress. Listen to what friends have to say but follow your own counsel.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Get together with friends and neighbors and discuss how to make conditions better in the community. Avoid those who are money-centered, blinded.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Talk over with money experts how you can better your position in life and follow their advice. Steer clear of new contacts who have an eye on your assets. Be a clever operator.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY ... he or she will find it easy to gain the support of bigwigs if they are interested in the same things that fascinate your progeny. This is a star-studded chart that needs encouragement on your part in order to have a fabulous success during the lifetime. Teach to be cheerful.

Nashville library pioneers teletyped news for the deaf

NASHVILLE, Tenn. (AP) — At the public library they're developing a system to teletype the latest news, weather, job listings and other data to the homes of the deaf.

Under the program, which is supposed to be the most extensive of its kind in the country, home teletype machines are to be connected by telephone with an automated information center at the library. Using an acoustic coupler, the deaf can dial a special telecommunication number at the center and get a printout of various types of information.

Library officials hope the information can include up to 41 minutes of local, state, national and international news, current weather forecasts, up to 2,000 job listings, public service announcements and possibly texts of speeches and news conferences conducted by government officials.

"We're the first in the country to do this on this level," said in an interview.

"No one else is providing the amount of local information that we will."

Terry hopes the service NARVE meets, enjoys potluck

The National Association of Retired and Veteran Railway Employees (NARVRE) met at the Kentwood Older Adult Center Thursday evening for a pot luck supper, followed by a regular meeting with R. W. Cagle, first vice president, presiding.

A moment of silence was held for J. C. Pierce and Mrs. Dora Armstead, both of whom have died since the last regular meeting.

G. C. Ragsdale was appointed chairman of the committee which makes visits to the ill.

A tie bar was gold past president's card was presented to J. T. Gilmore.

R. W. Cagle was installed as president, to fill the term of the late J. C. Pierce. Other officers installed were H. J. Eastham, first vice president, and R. E. Stringfellow, second vice president.

Garland Morrison gave a report on the recent National Convention held in Des Moines, Iowa. He gave a summary of changes in the by-laws which affect the local unit.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. J. W. Weidel, Mrs. J. J. Richardson, and Mrs. Elton Appleton.

The next regular meeting will begin with a pot luck supper at 6:30 p.m. Sept. 21. A regular meeting will follow.

will be free, but those participating may have to buy the teletypes — which cost up to $1,400 new and $300 used. The machines can be purchased from a commercial manufacturer or from a local deaf man, who reconditions them for a living.

"We are lobbying in Washington for money to buy the teletype machines for the deaf," Terry said. "One of my goals is to come up with the money some way."

The project is funded by a two-year federal grant under the Library Service and Construction Act. Officials would not disclose the amount of the grant.

Don't Believe It Can't Happen

DEAR ABBY: Most people my age (22) know what VD is, but they don't think it can happen to them. Well, you don't have to be a "run-around" to get it.

I was a virgin until I was 21. Then I fell in love and went all the way with my boyfriend. Soon after, he told me he just found out that he had gonorrhea, so I went to a clinic and found out that I had it too!

I had treatments and was cured. We fought about this for some time because I knew I hadn't been with anyone else, and he swore he hadn't either.

After we broke up, I fell in love with another guy and we had sex. Soon after, he told me that he had VD, so I went to the clinic again, and sure enough, I had it too! (Syphilis.)

Now that this has happened a second time, I have decided that sex before marriage is not for me.

Abby, please let your readers know how easy it is to get VD. Both these guys looked so clean. I never thought it could happen to me.

LEARNED MY LESSON

DEAR LEARNED: Anyone who is sexually active should know how to prevent VD and how to spot the symptoms. Your county department of public health can provide you with free information, examinations and treatment if necessary. (They are listed in your telephone book.) Planned Parenthood offices also provide free information on how to prevent (and cure) VD. Or ask any physician.

You can get VD from intimate body contact — heavy petting and intercourse. You can't get it from a toilet seat or a doorknob.

Both gonorrhea and syphilis CAN be completely cured if treated promptly by a doctor. If untreated, they can cause blindness, sterility, paralysis, heart disease and even death.

If you are under 18 and can't level with your parents, treatment is available in most states without parental knowledge or consent.

For information concerning VD, phone this toll-free number from anywhere in the United States: 800-523-1885. You'll be connected to "Operation Venus," located in Philadelphia.

DEAR ABBY: I love ya, but you've been harping on the evils of smoking often enough. Knock it off, will you?

DRAG QUEEN

DEAR QUEEN: I know that I have been harping on the evils of smoking often. But not often enough.

DEAR ABBY: I will be married soon and everything is all set. There's only one problem. Since my parents are hosting the rehearsal dinner, they thought it would be appropriate to serve champagne. But my fiancée's family belongs to a church that doesn't believe in drinking alcoholic beverages. What is proper in a case like this? We'll go along with whatever you say.

ANXIOUSLY WAITING

DEAR WAITING: When entertaining, if some guests drink alcoholic beverages and others do not (for any reason), serve a selection of beverages and let your guests take their choice.

Do you wish you had more friends? For the secret of popularity, get Abby's new booklet, "How To Be Popular: You're Never Too Young or Too Old." Send $1 with a long, self-addressed, stamped (28 cents) envelope to Abby, 132 Lasky Drive, Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212.

Virginia Younger appointed chairman

It was announced at the Aug. 14 meeting of Veterans of WWI Barracks No. 1474 and its ladies auxiliary that Virginia Younger has been appointed publicity chairman of the Texas Department Auxiliary.

Miss Younger has been elected as a delegate to the National Convention Auxiliary which will be held at Cleveland, Ohio, Sept. 5-8. The meeting, which took place at the Kentwood Center, opened with a report from Jennie Barber, one of 10 members who attend the WWI Veterans Auxiliary State Convention in Dallas July 18-21. She displayed awards by the auxiliary and district members.

The convention activities included the 25th Annual Memorial Service for 453 Buddies and 134 Sisters who passed away during the past year. Several local members attended the service. Candles were lit in honor of the Buddies and red roses placed on the altar for the deceased Sisters.

Lucille Walker reported the serving of cake and coffee to patients at the V.A. Hospital.

After a covered dish luncheon, Eula Mae Phillips described some highlights of her recent trip to Hawaii.

The next meeting will be Sept. 2 at the Kentwood Center.

TWEEN 12 and 20 Find boyfriend closer to age

By Robert Wallace, Ed. D.

Teens: Please allow me to share my feelings about a particular "popular" problem with you. It seems that I receive at least 50 letters a week on this very issue. Hopefully, this response can reach those in similar situations.

The letter always starts out something like this: "I'm 14 and my boyfriend is 19. We love each other very much, but my parents think he is too old for me." The letter usually ends with "I'm old enough to handle any situation. How can I convince my parents..." Of course the letter is signed by a girl.

I really try to look at this situation objectively, but in almost every case (there are exceptions) I advise that the girl listen to her parents and find a boy closer to her age.

I know this answer turns a lot of teens "off" and I get numerous letters telling me so, but my days as a high school administrator have convinced me that I'm usually right.

Agreed that age does not mean maturity, let's look at the situation.

In most cases, boys who are 17 to 21 years old and who date girls who are four or more years younger than they are, usually have problems: emotional, social, personality, self-image or sundry others.

Girls in their early teens can be gullible and are usually impressed by the older guy. Therefore they feel and try to act more mature, more adult, knowing that guys 18 and older are legally adults. Many times these adult actions lead to "big troubles," especially for the girl. And if and when the troubles come, the guy usually splits because he can't handle the situation.

Another problem exists because most high schools and junior highs do not allow non-school members at school functions such as dances and parties. This many times leaves "Miss 14-year-old" ostracized from school functions where friends her own age are in attendance. I know space is limited and I haven't allowed time for the opposite point of view. But I will. If you agree with me or disagree, please write and share your thoughts. I'll give you a chance to be heard.

In closing, I do feel that age makes very little difference when both parties are 18 or over. — Peace

TOPSY TURVY HARVEY — Dallas Cowboys' end Harvey Martin (79) gets a different view of the football field after being up-ended by Houston Oilers running back Ronnie Coleman (47) in Saturday night's exhibition game at Texas Stadium. Coleman plowed forward for a short gain on the second quarter play. The Oilers beat the Cowboys, 27-13.

BENDING OVER BACKWARDS — A study in form, 27-year-old Cynthia Potter of Dallas, Texas, heads toward the water during women's three meter diving event of the 1978 World Swimming Championships at Berlin Sunday. She took second place in the event, the first in the meet.

STRETCHED OUT — Umpire Lee Weyer signals no catch as San Francisco Giants' first baseman Willie McCovey falls over the rolled up infield cover while chasing a foul ball hit by Phillies' Jim Morrison. McCovey could not reach the ball in the 7th inning as the Phillies won 5-3 Sunday night in Philadelphia.

Rangers out of ammo?

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — The Texas Rangers shot from the hip — but they were firing mostly blanks in their weekend series with the Kansas City Royals.

"We just can't score any runs," moaned Texas Manager Billy Hunter Sunday after the Royals edged the Rangers, 2-1, to win the rubber match of the three-game set. "We got just one earned run the whole series."

The victory enabled Kansas City to cling to a one-percentage point edge over California in the American League West.

The latest victim — again — of the Rangers' inoffensive attack was left-hander Jon Matlack, 11-10, who gave up just six hits, but fell prey to a John Wathan solo homer and his own error in the fifth inning.

After Wathan tied the game, 1-1, Matlack dropped Clint Hurdle's bunted popup in a collision with catcher Jim Sundberg, then Hurdle moved to second on a sacrifice.

Frank White, making his first start since a July 30 shoulder injury, followed with a single up the middle to drive in the decisive run.

Kansas City's Paul Spittorff, meanwhile, scattered eight hits to claim a team-high 15th win against 10 defeats.

The Rangers entered the series the hottest team in the AL West, winning 10 of their last 13 games, prompting second baseman Bump Wills to say, "There's no reason we shouldn't sweep the three games."

Texas captured the opener, 4-3, although all four runs were the result of errors. But Kansas City's Dennis Leonard outdueling Ferguson Jenkins, 3-0, Saturday, and the Rangers fell 6½ games back with Sunday's loss.

Texas, which had runners in all but two innings, threatened to break the game open in the third when Toby Harrah walked, Kurt Bevacqua singled and Mike Hargrove was hit by a pitch to load the bases with none out.

But Campy Campaneris grounded to George Brett, who forced Bevacqua at third as Harrah scored then, trying for another force at second, threw the ball into right field. Al Cowens, however, came up with the ball quickly to gun down Hargrove at third, then Spittorff retired Juan Beniquez on a grounder.

"That inning was the one that won it," said Spittorff, who was also aided by double plays in the sixth and seventh, and picked off Bobby Bonde in the second and ninth. "That was the ballgame there."

It was familiar story for Matlack, who had been forced to pitch a shutout to beat Chicago, 1-0, in his previous start.

"It's funny. He came over here from the Mets in spring training and said 'I'm finally going to get some runs,'" said Hunter.

The Ranger manager predicted, however, that Texas would be a factor in the AL West race until the end of the season.

"West'll have time to do it. But we're not going to unless we have more offense than in this series," Hunter said.

Yanks swim faster

BERLIN (AP) — East Germany's powerful women swimmers, beaten twice by Americans aiming at their laurels, say they weren't surprised.

"They were just better," 200-meter butterfly champion Andrea Pollack, 17, said Sunday night after an East German loss to the Americans in the 400-meter women's medley relay at the World Swimming Championships.

"The Americans set out to get us after the 1976 Olympics," said Ulrike Tauber, outshone by two Americans in the 200-meter individual medley. "They really have improved."

Sutton throws punches, too

There may be discord in the Los Angeles locker room, but on the field the Dodgers still are a well-oiled machine.

Pitching ace Don Sutton and star first baseman Steve Garvey were involved in a fight-wrestling match in the dressing room before the Dodgers' 5-4 victory over the New York Mets Sunday. The altercation was spurred by a newspaper article in which Sutton was quoted as saying: "All you hear about on our team is Steve Garvey, the All-American boy. But Reggie Smith was the real MVP. We all know it... (Smith) has carried us the last two years. He is not a facade. He does not have the Madison Avenue image."

Joe Ferguson's double was the key hit, scoring Ron Cey with the winning run. Ferguson lined a shot which New York left fielder Steve Henderson misjudged, the ball carrying over his head as Cey scored.

Elsewhere in the NL, San Francisco dropped two games behind Los Angeles in the West by losing 5-3 to Philadelphia. Chicago nipped Cincinnati 2-1; Pittsburgh swept a doubleheader from Houston, 7-6 and 3-1; San Diego defeated Montreal 5-4 winner, and St. Louis beat Atlanta 6-4.

Phillies 5, Giants 3
The Giants' loss cost them a game in the standings to the Dodgers, while the Phillies remained three games in front of Chicago in the NL East. Dick Ruthven, 11-9 for the season and 9-3 since joining Philadelphia in June, got the victory. He left the game after five innings because of the flu.

Cardinals 6, Braves 4
Ted Simmons' two-run double off Atlanta ace Phil Niekro, 15-13, sparked the Cards' victory.

So how good are they?

DALLAS (AP) — The Arkansas Razorbacks are so good they could improve two notches on last season's final Associated Press football ranking, which was No. 3.

They are the class of the Southwest Conference, but mere mention of it upsets Coach Lou Holtz.

At a recent Southwest Conference kickoff gathering, Holtz said, "We've got more question marks than any team with a chance to be nationally ranked."

A lot of coaches would like Holtz' problems.

He has tremendous talent at the skill positions — the kind of firepower that scorched Oklahoma for 31 points in the Orange Bowl last season.

Quarterback Ron Calcagni, a heady leader, and running backs Roland Sales, who rushed for 205 yards in the Orange Bowl, Michael Forrest, Jerry Eckwood and Ben Cowins can match any backfield in the nation. Should Arkansas slip, it would get trampled by a stampede of good teams in its shadow — Texas A&M, Baylor, Texas, and Houston.

If the Aggies improve their defense, they could be dangerous because they have a swift backfield with tailback Curtis Dickey and quarterback Mike Moseley. Massive fullback George Woodard is out with a broken

Game could make or break players

CLEVELAND (AP) — When the Detroit Lions meet the Cleveland Browns tonight in a National Football League preseason game, the important thing is not who wins or loses but how certain players play the game.

The start of the regular season is only two weeks away, with each team having to cut 17 more players.

All Stars named

The Big Spring Industrial Softball League All Star Teams have been chosen, and they will do battle 8 p.m., Thursday, at Johnny Stone Park.

Admission to the game is free, and the public is urged to attend.

American All-Stars are: Pete Shaffer (Brock-Dibrell), C; Ronald Brock (Brock-Dibrell), P; Bill Bailey (Athletics), 1 B; Ricky Stone (Athletics), 2B; Tony Martinez (Piggly Wiggly), 3B; Randy Womack (Athletics), SS;

Both teams, along with the rest of the clubs in the league, have to reach the 50-player limit Tuesday. Most are now carrying 60. A week later, seven more must go to get down to 43, then two can be added before the regular season begins Sept. 3.

"I could probably come close to telling you right now who those players will be, but it can change," said Cleveland Coach Sam

Rutigliano. "There are a number of guys for whom each game and each practice is critical. And there are some areas where we obviously have some determinations to make."

"It's by—far our most difficult job," he added. "But appraising the personnel and getting down to the final 45 players will be the most important thing we'll do this year. I've been places where we failed because we didn't properly judge the personnel we had."

"It's also important from the standpoint of establishing credibility with the team," Rutigliano said. "The players will be looking for us to make the right decisions as far as personnel goes. And you can't get caught up in a formula of how many you keep at a certain position. The important thing is to select the best 45."

The Browns, 1-1, are coming off a 20-10 victory over the Buffalo Bills in which they showed great progress over an opening 21-7 loss to the New York Giants.

Cotton Bowl victory over Maryland. Also, middle linebacker David Hodge returns after a year's layoff to anchor an improving defense.

Texas lost running back Earl Campbell, the Heisman Trophy winner, but returns a rugged defense. If freshman A.J. Jones produces at tailback, and Coach Fred Akers finds a consistent quarterback, the Longhorns could ambush Arkansas like they did in 1977.

Texas Christian also could surprise behind senior quarterback Steve Bayuk and an improved defense with an infusion of junior college stars.

Rice and Texas Tech should have down years under new coaches Ray Albom and Rex Dockery, respectively.

Outside the SWC, independent North Texas State could make a strong bid to crack into the Top 15 teams in the nation.

'Gaiety Girl'

with Marj Carpenter

She was sitting erect on a velvet bench in the lobby of the Vaudeville Theater in London.

She was prim and proper and had her hands folded over her large purse in her lap. She seemed to be waiting for something.

Since I had just walked a number of blocks and was to meet my daughter in the lobby so that we could attend Agatha Christie's "Murder Is Announced," I decided to sit down on the velvet bench too. It was the only seat in

Scott McEwen on honor roll

AUSTIN — Approximately 835 University of Texas engineering students have been recognized as honor students for the 1978 Spring Semester by Dean Ernest F. Gloyna of the College of Engineering.

To achieve the engineering honor roll, a student must have maintained at least a 12-hour course load throughout the semester, passing all courses with a minimum grade-point average of 3.25. Total grade points are calculated by multiplying course hours by the value of each grade (A equals 4 points).

Students from Texas on the College of Engineering honor roll include James Scott McEwen, 1425 East Sixth St., Big Spring.

Godfrey takes Western post

J. Fike Godfrey, an unsuccessful candidate for the U.S. Congress in the Democratic primary election held earlier this year, has been appointed director of public affairs for The Western Company of North America.

In his new position, Godfrey will report directly to H. E. Chiles, chairman of the board for The Western Company.

Godfrey is a former executive vice president of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce.

The Western Company is involved in the discovery and production of oil and has and does offshore drilling around the world.

Now a resident of Abilene, Godfrey plans to move to Fort Worth.

Agents carry identification

Taxpayers should ask to see the credentials of all persons identifying themselves as Internal Revenue Service employees, the IRS said.

From time to time, individuals have posed as employees of the Internal Revenue Service to collect money for what these imposters refer to as unpaid taxes.

Taxpayers should bear in mind that every public contact IRS employee carries distinctive identification and is required to produce identification when conducting official business.

If, after seeing an employee's identification, a taxpayer still doubts his or her authenticity, the taxpayer should immediately contact his or her nearest IRS office.

I thought I had done well to get there, since the evening before I had completely confused a London cabbie by telling him I wanted to go to the "Royal Tea Theater" when I was going to the Royalty to meet friends to attend "Bubbling Brown Sugar."

But I was tired so I decided to share the bench with the obviously very English lady.

I ventured an opening sentence, hating to sit in silence by the very nice seeming lady.

"We spend half our life waiting," I ventured. "Oh yes," she said politely. "I spoke today at a ladies club and I was waiting until after 7 to take a bus home."

I nodded. Then she added, "I've been in this business, you know, so I don't mind waiting in the theaters."

"You have been in the theater?" I asked. "Oh yes," she said. "I was a Gaiety Girl in 1912. Do you remember us?"

I really hated to admit that I did not, but I told her I was from Texas and knew very little about the London theater.

She said, "I danced at the Gaiety Theater. And we were quite good. We were called the Gaiety Girls. The other old theaters didn't have girls named after the theater like that."

She paused and added, "I am 87 years old and a while back, a newspaper here wrote an obituary for a woman they called the last of the Gaiety Girls. Then it turned out there are two of us left.

"Since then I've been in several articles and have been called upon to speak." She opened her bag and took out her clippings.

I told her I was a reporter and would surely go home and write a column about her. "We had Ziegfeld Girls in the states, I ventured.

"Oh yes," she said, "We were similar. But I was never a high kicker or a can-can." She sat in silence, recalling the years.

"I still don't consider myself old, you know. I do like your American phrase — senior citizens," she added.

Then she said, "One of my sons is a professor at Columbia and he has written several books. The other son manages the Mayfair Theatre here in London," she added.

"The world is getting quite small. We have all kinds of languages here in England. Sometimes I wonder if anyone speaks English," she said. Then she laughed, "But my own family is like the League of Nations. One of the grandsons, who is a wine merchant, married a lovely Italian girl and I thought I knew a phrase of welcome."

"I was trying to give her a special welcome and make her feel at home and after I uttered my phrase, they looked at me in astonishment. It seemed I had said, 'Hello and goodbye,'" he Gaiety girl continued.

"My name is Constance Luttrell," she related, "And if you write a column about me, send it to this address"...and she gave me an address.

"And remember to tell them that it was great to be a Gaiety Girl in London in 1912. And tell them I'm not old yet. And tell them England is still a good place to live. And tell them I have a grandson at Harvard and the world is small," she paused.

"People are wonderful she added. They always have been. Mother and I used to agree on that." Then the former Gaiety girl concluded her remarks.

"When I got up today, I surely didn't expect to meet a reporter from Texas. That's why I'm not elderly. I still expect something every day," she added.

That was said by one of the last two Gaiety girls...a wonderful and attractive lady...in London...out where I was far afield ridin' fence.

ALAMOGORDO, N.M. (AP) — Two space medicine pioneers and a rocket experimenter are the 1978 inductees to the International Space Hall of Fame.

Hall Director David J. Frantz said Dr. Hubertus Strughold, the late Dr. Vasily Vasilevich Parin and the late Ludvik Ocenasek will be honored at the hall's annual induction ceremony Oct. 6.

Strughold, 80, the only American among the three, was born in Germany. He gave the first lecture on aviation medicine at the University of Wuerzburg in 1927. In 1947 he joined the staff of the U.S. Air Force School of Aviation Medicine at Randolph Field, Texas, and has been active in the Air Force aerospace medical program ever since.

In 1949 he was chosen to head the newly created Department of Space Medicine, which laid groundwork for the main-space program later adopted as a national policy of the United States.
