No injuries; Foreign delegations received

Bomb explodes in Pope's palace

VATICAN CITY (AP) — Pope John Paul I Monday told U.S. Vice President Walter F. Mondale and other leaders of foreign delegations who attended his inauguration that the Vatican has no "miracle solutions" for world problems but is ready to contribute in any way it can "to serve the international community."

Speaking in French at a brief audience in the ornate Sala Regia of the Apostolic Palace, the new pope also appealed for religious freedom for Christian believers.

"Allow us to count on your willing collaboration," he said. "We wish foremost that the Christian communities always enjoy in your countries the respect and the freedom which any religious conscience is entitled to and that a fair place be made for their contributions in the search for the common good."

After the group audience, Pope John Paul received Mondale separately.

Earlier in the day the pope gave separate audiences in his private library to the 13 foreign chiefs of state who came to attend his installation and the wives of those who brought them. They were:

King Baudoin and Queen Fabiola of Belgium, King Juan Carlos I and Queen Sofia of Spain, Grand Duke Jean and Grand Duchess Josephine Charlotte of Luxembourg, Prince Francois Joseph II and Princess Georgina of Liechtenstein, Prince Rainier and Princess Grace of Monaco, President and Mrs. Jorge Rafael Videla of Argentina, President Rudolf Kirchschlager of Austria, President and Mrs. Patrick Hillary of Ireland, President Elias Sarkis of Lebanon, President and Mrs. Demetrio Basilio Lakas of Panama, Regent Captains Francesco Valli and Enrico Andreoli of San Marino, and the head of the Order of Malta, Angelo de Mojana di Cologna.

The audiences took place a few hours after a three-pound bomb blew a hole in the gate and broke windows of the Lateran Palace, the pope's residence as bishop of Rome. But no one was hurt, and the pope was three miles away, at the papal apartment in the Vatican, where he lives.

Ten thousand policemen were guarding the hotels and embassies where the foreign delegations were staying to protect them against the Red Brigades and other terrorists who have been plaguing Italian life for months.

Police said they believed the attack on the Lateran Palace was the work of extremists who demonstrated in Rome and during the papal inauguration in St. Peter's Square Sunday against the presence of the Argentine president.

The Lateran Palace adjoins the Basilica of St. John Lateran, the pope's titular basilica as bishop of Rome. The palace is occupied by Cardinal Ugo Poletti, the pope's vicar for Rome, who was awakened by the explosion and inspected the damage.

Investigating officers said passersby saw a young man in a white jacket running away and a French-made car speeding off shortly before the blast.

Police said 282 persons, including 30 Argentine exiles opposed to Videla's right-wing military government, were taken into custody after the demonstrations Sunday. All were released later.

The demonstrators scuffled with police and waved banners in St. Peter's Square but did not disrupt the ceremony on the steps of St. Peter's Basilica. The police acted so quickly that most in the crowd of 250,000 did not realize the demonstration was going on. One small group unfurled an anti-Videla streamer. Others raised balloons with posters reading "Videla Executioner" and "Videla Assassin."

Leftists threw firebombs at an Italian cardinal's car near the Vatican after the ceremony and set several cars afire in and around the Piazza Navona, on the other side of the Tiber from the Vatican. No serious injuries were reported.

Like his predecessor, Pope Paul VI, Pope John Paul chose to have his installation on the steps of St. Peter's instead of inside the basilica. But in keeping with the simplicity that has marked his first week as pontiff, he refused to be carried to the ceremony on the portable throne, and the traditional beehive-shaped tiara was replaced by the white wool stole or pallium embroidered with seven crosses that symbolizes the pope's role as patriarch of the church.

John Paul radiated warmth, good humor and friendliness as the members of the College of Cardinals approached the papal throne one by one to kneel and kiss his ring in homage.

POPE JOHN PAUL I BEGINS HIS REIGN — Clouds fill the sky over St. Peter's Square at sunset Sunday with a crowd of almost 200,000 people attending the installation of the new pope. Pope John Paul I began his reign without the trappings of kingship, but donned with a wool pallium as the shepherd of his flock, replacing the triple crown.

Campaigning for Krueger

First Lady visits Texas

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) — First Lady Rosalynn Carter embarks here today on a hectic three-city Labor Day campaign swing through Texas on behalf of Democratic congressional candidates and U.S. Senate nominee Bob Krueger.

Bexar County Democratic Chairman Joyce Peters said Mrs. Carter had unexpectedly offered to campaign in Texas at the Democrats' traditional Labor Day campaign kickoff for the November election.

"This is a beautiful bonus and will be a big help to our efforts," said Mrs. Peters.

The First Lady, who arrived in San Antonio on Sunday night, was scheduled to visit the Southwest Craft Center this morning before appearing at a $25-per-person Bexar County Democratic brunch in the downtown Menger Hotel.

Fired San Antonio garbage men and their supporters vowed to stage a protest rally during Mrs. Carter's downtown appearance here. More than 180 garbage men, dog catchers and airport maintenance workers were dismissed after staging an illegal walkout in July over wages. About half were not rehired.

Mrs. Carter was also scheduled to take part this afternoon in the Garland Labor Day Parade and make an appearance at a North Dallas shopping center.

The Dallas-area visit was aimed at aiding first-term Congressman Jim Mattox, who faces a strong challenge from Republican Tom Pauken.

Mrs. Carter was scheduled to fly to Houston late this afternoon for appearances at a Democratic Fundraiser, a fundraising reception for U.S. Rep. Bob Gammage and a rally by Gammage campaign workers. She was due to return to Washington tonight.

Mrs. Carter's appearance in San Antonio on behalf of Congressman

Krueger and congressional candidate Nelson Wolff coincided with former Texas Gov. John Connally's barbecue in Kerrville for Wolf's Republican opponent Tom Loeffler.

Former President Gerald Ford has already visited Krueger's 21st congressional district on behalf of Loeffler and former California Governor Ronald Reagan also plans a campaign trip to the district later this month.

Luncheon slated Sept. 13

Gerald Ford may speak here

By MARJ CARPENTER

Contingent upon a portion of his schedule which must be confirmed, Gerald Ford, former president of the United States, will come to Big Spring Wednesday, Sept. 13, in behalf of the candidacy of Republican Bill Fisher of Abilene for Congressman of the 17th District.

Ford and Ronald Reagan will both be in Texas that week, primarily to work on behalf of gubernatorial candidate Bill Clements. The two will also be stumping for Sen. John Tower.

The schedule that includes a stop in Big Spring has been forwarded to Vail, Colo., where Ford is spending a few days, for final approval.

Ford has been circling through Texas backing GOP candidates in Congressional races during the past week.

In Big Spring, he will speak at a luncheon at the Dora Roberts Community Center at noon for the local Civic Clubs, Chamber of Commerce board, school, city and county of-officials, the Big Spring Steering Committee, and members of the West Texas Republican Women.

The women's group will assist Mrs. Polly Mays and Mrs. Carol Hunter, who are Fisher's local campaign chairmen in hosting the Dutch Treat event.

Members of the individual groups mentioned should contact Mrs. Mays or Mrs. Hunter and give them the expected individual chairmen of the organizations.

Fisher learned while in Big Spring Friday that the former president was to be in his district for one appearance on Sept. 13 and decided to select Big Spring, since Ford had appeared in Abilene prior to the primaries in 1976 at a large event at the Civic Center.

In 1975, the then President Ford appeared at the Midland airport and also went to the dedication of the Petroleum Museum.

This will be his first trip to Big Spring. Mrs. Hunter and Mrs. Mays urge civic club presidents to contact them as soon as possible since there is so little time to prepare for the luncheon.

Mrs. Clyde Thomas reminds women who are in the West Texas Republican Women to attend a planning meeting at noon Thursday at the Brass Nail.

Political pace is picking up; Stenholm is due back

Charles Stenholm, Democrat candidate for Congress in the 17th District, will be back in Big Spring Wednesday to open his fall campaign here.

He will be honored at a small reception and press conference at the Reddy Room at Texas Electric at 10 a.m. and the public is invited, according to backers here.

Stenholm kicked off his fall fundraising events in Graham recently where 400 persons attended a $25-a-plate dinner for the candidate. There will be one Sept. 5 in Stephenville and another Sept. 30 in Abilene.

Among those voicing support for Stenholm in Graham were Omar Burleson, who is retiring as Congressman and U.S. Rep. Jack Hightower of Vernon.

Hightower pointed out, "We are losing eight members of the Texas congressional delegation at this time. This is the largest turnover in modern times, if not in the history of Texas Congressional races." Hightower said.

Nodding toward Burleson, he added, "We are sorry to see these veteran congressmen retire and it will take a while to build back the seniority of these longtime congressmen."

"We have long looked to Omar Burleson for leadership from his ranking position on the House Ways and Means Committee."

"George Mahon of Lubbock is chairman of the House Appropriations Committee."

He also mentioned U.S. Rep. Bob Poage and Tiger Teague. Hightower added, "We are going to try to get Stenholm on the Agriculture Committee. I'm going to do everything I can to help him join us in Washington."

Burleson told the crowd, "I'm taking pride — no, a joy — in supporting Charles as the man to take my place in Congress. 'I've known Charles Stenholm since he was a kid and he has all the qualification to be a congressman, but the best way to say it is to simply say he is a good man.'"

Stenholm came down hard on inflation and federal spending. He added that government regulations is costing consumers and struck out at the Washington bureaucracy "which interferes with business and the individual."

He also called for de-regulation of domestic oil and gas and stressed the need to maintain the United States No. 1 position in military strength.

SURVEYS DAMAGE — A New York City fireman surveys damage to the Sir Harry's Bar just off the lobby of the Waldorf Astoria Hotel in New York Sunday night. Witnesses said a man police identified as Cary Jon Yurman, 32, of San Francisco, left the bar after a dispute, then returned and threw a lit can of gasoline into the bar. Yurman was arrested and charged with arson after allegedly setting the fire.

Focalpoint

Action/reaction: Mail collections

Q. When there are letters in the mail box for the postal carrier to pick up, does he pick them up even if the box doesn't get mail that day?

A. On rural or mounted routes where the carrier doesn't have to get out of his car, but checks the boxes at the road, he is required to pick up outgoing mail regardless of whether the box holder gets mail that day, provided the flag is raised to make him aware that outgoing mail is in the box, according to Big Spring Postmaster Frank Hardesty. "On routes where the carrier delivers mail to the porch, he is not required to stop unless he has incoming mail for that address. However, most carriers do check the boxes as a courtesy service regardless of whether there is incoming mail."

Offbeat: Lofty crocodile

DETROIT (AP) — Leapin' lizards! A flying crocodile? That's what it looked like at the Detroit Zoo, where keepers arriving for work at the Holden Museum of Living Reptiles twice have been startled to find their 7-foot female crocodile perched on a ledge some five feet above her pool.

"You go to sweep up the peanut shucks, and there's a big croc where it isn't supposed to be," said zoo education curator Bill Austin.

Austin said crocodiles and alligators have been known to use their powerful tails to propel themselves out of water, but this seemed to be a record. A video tape camera was set up to try to catch her nighttime flights.

Sure enough, the tape showed the creature taking a leap worthy of a reptilian Olympic record, flailing her tail at the water to leap up to her favorite perch.

Zoo officials have installed a barrier to keep the croc in her pool and have decided to find her a suitable mate.

Mideast leaders ready for summit meeting today

WASHINGTON (AP) — The leaders of Egypt, Israel and the United States, searching once more for ways to bring peace to the Mideast, made final preparations today for the Camp David summit meeting.

President Carter, who is hosting the politically risky meeting at his Maryland mountain-top retreat, prayed for peace during a Sunday School session at First Baptist Church here.

"Let every heart involved be cleansed of selfishness and personal pride. Let us all turn to thee, God our father, for true guidance, wisdom, forgiveness of others, in the search for common ground," Carter said.

Israeli Prime Minister Menachem Begin, upon arriving in New York City, declared: "We want peace more than any nation on earth."

And President Anwar Sadat, still in Egypt, said he considered the conference "a turning point" in Mideast history.

Begin and Sadat will arrive Tuesday afternoon at Camp David, where Carter will be waiting for them. In that secluded atmosphere, U.S. officials hope Begin and Sadat will be able to make the compromises necessary to give new impetus to the stalled peace process.

To help them, the Carter administration has prepared dozens of options and proposals for possible compromises on difficult points. But U.S. officials are trying not to arouse public hopes, only to have them dashed by a less than successful summit.

State Department officials say their only goal for the meeting is keeping the peace process going. Simply doing that forestalls a wide range of dangerous consequences that could arise if it breaks down, the officials theorize.

The officials, declining to be identified publicly, say they do not expect anything like a complete settlement to emerge. They attribute this in part to the fact that neither Begin nor Sadat has given any indication of willingness to compromise on crucial issues like sovereignty over the West Bank of the Jordan River which Israel captured in the Six-Day war of 1967.

The Israelis also are minimizing their expectations for the summit.

Lamesan dies in accident

LAMESA — Gilbert Lara Contreras, a 22-year-old Lamesa man, was dead at the scene of a two-car accident Sunday that occurred about 12:45 p.m. on Texas 180 in Dawson County.

Contreras, of Star Rt. 2, Lamesa, was pronounced dead at the scene by Justice of the Peace Barbara Harris of Lamesa.

A Department of Public Safety trooper said Contreras and a second driver were westbound on the highway, about a half mile west of Lamesa, when the crash occurred. Both vehicles reportedly were traveling at a high rate of speed when Contreras apparently lost control of his car, left the road and struck a tree.

Services will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday in St. Margaret Mary's Catholic Church with Monsignor Jerome Vitek, pastor, officiating.

Burial will be in Lamesa Cemetery under direction of Branon Funeral Home.

A native of Dawson County, Contreras had lived in Lamesa for 14 months.

Survivors include his wife, Yolanda; his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Salome Contreras of Lamesa; three sisters, Amelia, Erma and Maria, of the home; and five brothers, Robert, Albert, Fernando, Arturo and Sammy, all of Lamesa.

The manager of the J.C. Penney Store, 307 Main, caught a woman stuffing a dress, a blouse and a pair of pants into her purse, 3:20 p.m. Saturday. Police were notified and the woman was arrested.

Burglars also broke into the home of Frank Preston, 3206 Auburn, sometime over the weekend. Once inside, the intruders scattered the contents of drawers and closets throughout the home.

The owner will make an inventory of the mess to see if anything is missing.

Officers James VanNess and Robert Sims spotted several juveniles near the concession stand at the American Little League Park, 2806 Ann, around 6 p.m. Saturday, but when the officers approached the youths took off. Further investigation showed that the concession stand had been broken into, and its contents spread around inside.

Burglars broke into the home of Connie Sotelo, 405 N.E. 11th, Saturday night, and made off with a piggy bank containing $160 in cash.

Thieves stole two oval throw-rugs belonging to James Danya, 510 Donley, Sunday afternoon, while they were being cleaned at the Gregg Street Laundry. The rugs were valued at $35.

Baucham is promoted

Unit rated satisfactory

The yearly inspection of the Big Spring State Guard brought surprises to the 20 men in the local unit.

For the first time, the unit rated a satisfactory and was recommended by Inspector Kent C. Hatfield for a commendation.

The recommendation reads, "The results of this annual inspection indicate that this location has an active and very outstanding unit. The unit should be commended for superior administrative records and involvement in community affairs by all concerned."

In addition to the excellent review, Lieutenant Joe Baucham, the officer in charge of the Big Spring unit, was promoted to captain.

Another Indian leader's son involved in scandal

NEW DELHI, India (AP) — A third Indian political leader's son is embroiled in a scandal, and this one is sexual.

The first was former Prime Minister Indra Gandhi's son Sanjay, who is facing charges of using his mother's political power illegally to further his business interests and their political fortunes.

The next target was Kantilal Desai, son of Prime Minister Morarji Desai, Mrs. Gandhi's successor. He was charged in Parliament with piling up illegal profits by exploiting his father's position. The prime minister has refused to order an official inquiry but has offered to put any written accusation before the Supreme Court.

Now scandal has hit Suresh Kumar Minister Jagjivan Ram, who is considered a potential prime minister.

Kumar, who is 40 and charging two young politicians with kidnapping him and a 21-year-old coed, Sushma Chaudhary, and forcing them to pose for pornographic pictures. Kumar also sued his wife, Kamaljit, for divorce, charging that for 11 years she has refused to live with him and "perform her matrimonial obligations."

Mrs. Kumar anticipated the divorce suit with statements to the press charging that it was an attempt to save her political career.

Registration is set for youths

Registration for YMCA Gra "Y" football began Aug. 28 and will continue until Sept. 12 for boys, grades one through six, and girls, grades one through eight.

Registration is at the 8th and Owens YMCA, and any adult wishing to volunteer as a coach or official can contact the YMCA at 267-8234.

This is the first year that the YMCA will offer Gra "Y" flag football for girls. Tentative schedule for girls and boys is as follows: Sept. 12 — coaches and officials meet, registration deadline; Sept. 16 — tryouts; Sept. 23 — first game, deadline for fees; Nov. 18 — final regular season game.

Said Baucham, "We are very proud of this inspection. Our strength as a unit is up to 20 men, and we are the only unit in the battalion to be over our recommended strength of 17 men. We have gotten special approval for our extra personnel."

On a 27 point checklist, the Big Spring group received a "no" on only two points, one because there had not been a disaster during the past year, and the other because bank statements had not been reconciled monthly.

Baucham said the check situation was the result of a misunderstanding, and would be remedied immediately.

Baucham said the unit would be going to Brownwood the 15th and 16th of September for an area training exercise with all companies and battalions in the 4th Group.

ONE OF THE INJURED — A woman clutches her purse as she walks from the crash scene where a church bus overturned on an off-ramp in Kansas City on Sunday. The bus was taking church members to hear the Rev. Billy Graham during his Kansas City crusade. Over two dozen persons were injured.

Man sues ex-wife

DENVER (AP) — Ronald Pagliasotti says his former wife, Theresa, caused him "extreme mental anguish" when she allegedly forged his signature on a letter to the Denver Broncos asking that his two season tickets be placed in her name.

So Pagliasotti is taking his former wife, Theresa, to court this week to determine ownership of the tickets. The Broncos were last season's American Football Conference champions.

Mrs. Pagliasotti, however, will take the Fifth Amendment or refuse to answer if asked at a county court hearing whether she forged the letter, said her attorney, Allan Abelman.

Clevelanders dissatisfied

CLEVELAND (AP) — A total of 76 percent of Clevelanders are dissatisfied with the city's current form of government and almost half would like a countywide government, a survey shows.

Market Opinion Research Corp. of Detroit also found that 35 percent of the 700 Cleveland registered voters interviewed by telephone also favor reducing the size of the City Council. Seventy-four percent of those favoring reduction said the 33-member body should be reduced to 20 people or less.

The poll, commissioned by the Cleveland Plain Dealer, shows that the greatest support for a metropolitan government is in the black community, where 53 percent favored it.

Marijuana seized in Miami

MIAMI (AP) — A 65-foot trawler and 10 tons of marijuana were seized in the Atlantic about 150 miles northeast of Miami, the Coast Guard reports.

Seven crewmen were arrested Sunday, said Coast Guard spokesman Bob Schenck. He said all claimed Colombian citizenship.

The U.S.-registered trawler, the Utilla, was due to arrive in Miami Beach today, escorted by the cutter Dauntless, Schenck said.

Beer tax bad news

AUGUSTA, Maine (AP) — Those who favor temperance may call it good news, but those who keep track of tax revenues call it bad news.

Maine's beer tax take will be off by a million dollars this year, predicts Louis Page, who oversees the Malt and Wine Division in the state's Bureau of Alcoholic Beverages.

Maine beer distributors pay the excise taxes — 56 cents for a case of 24 twelve-ounce cans — as they buy beer from the breweries. An increase in the legal drinking age from 18 to 20 and a law requiring deposits on bottles are believed to be contributing to the flatness of beer sales.

Illegal gambling not organized, study shows

DETROIT (AP) — The average bookmaking parlor is a smalltime business, and the image of a huge, sinister organized crime gambling industry was created by law enforcement officials trying to explain their failure to stop illegal gambling, a new study suggests.

Preliminary versions of the first two sections of the detailed, 10-year study, scheduled for release this fall, have been made available to the Detroit Free Press, the newspaper reported today.

The study, financed in part by the federal Law Enforcement Assistance Administration, is based on federal and local law enforcement agency records in the New York City area. The study also asserts that illegal gambling figures may be inflated by federal agencies and that stories of large gambling operations may be fabricated to help support agency budget requests.

An FBI spokesman in Detroit declined comment on the study, but the Free Press quoted an unidentified federal law enforcement source here as arguing that while the study may accurately reflect the situation in New York City, organized crime does indeed have strong control over Detroit-area gambling rackets.

The researchers conceded the New York situation may not be typical of the rest of the country.

The report concludes that "bad law and even worse policy" have resulted from police agencies basing their fight against organized crime on what the authors say are myths and misrepresentation of facts.

The image of a powerful national crime ring serves FBI and police purposes, the study argues, because it helps explain why they are unable to control illegal gambling and other criminal enterprises.

The study was done in New York City from 1965 to 1975 by sociologist Jonathan Rubinstein and economist Peter Reuter. Both are associated with Policy Sciences Center Inc., a New York think tank.

BLAZING SIXGUNS — Fast draw competitor Bill Crites of Oklahoma City (L) grimaces as he and an unidentified cowboy obscured by gunsmoke blaze away during the preliminaries of the South Texas Fast Draw Championships Saturday in Houston.

Gunfight causes confusion for Houston police, citizens

HOUSTON (AP) — Two scowling cowboys faced off outside a Houston bar, their quivering hands poised over sixshooters holstered at their sides, apparently ready to slap leather in a duel to the death.

Suddenly, a police car, with its lights and siren blazing, squealed to a halt next to the gunslingers and the officer leaped out, ready for action.

"He took one look, got a disgusted expression on his face, got back in his car shaking his head and drove off," said Bob Graham, grinning ear-to-ear at the recollection. "Someone in the apartments next to here saw what we were doing and called the cops to tell them there was a gunfight going on."

What the person saw was competition in the South Texas Fast Draw Championship being held at the Candyman's club in southwest Houston during the Labor Day weekend.

About 20 shooters from Texas and Oklahoma participated in the contest, which was held as part of a charity fund-raising effort for the battle against muscular dystrophy.

The cowboys weren't facing each other, but were standing side-by-side, shooting at timing devices with blanks.

To prevent eviction from tents Migrant workers strike

BELMORE, Ohio (AP) — Striking tomato pickers say they will begin a 100-mile march to Columbus today, hours before an eviction notice to force them from their tent city takes effect.

Members of the Farm Labor Organizing Committee say they want to take their campaign for better migrant labor wages to Gov. James A. Rhodes.

"We want the governor to see how bad the tomato industry is in his state," said Baldemar Velasquez, 31, president of the Toledo-based committee.

Until now the strikers have traveled from field to field in caravans, urging pickers to join them and let the state's multimillion dollar tomato crop rot.

Farmers have responded by forming caravans of their own to stand between the strikers and the pickers, honking horns, sounding sirens, and shouting.

Mayor William L. Kelley of Belmore said he was pressured by threatening phone calls into evicting the migrants from the four acres he rented to them.

The notice is scheduled to take effect at midnight, but Velasquez said there will be no one, only eight 15-by-20 tents and a big top, left on the land by then.

The strikers planned to walk about 25 miles a day after leaving nearby Findlay, where they scheduled a news conference.

They planned a rally in Columbus on Friday.

Velasquez said the decision to leave the tomato farms for the Ohio Statehouse came because strike leaders feel they have saturated the two-county target area in northwest Ohio, the nation's second largest tomato growing region.

"The biggest thing we've done is take the people away," Velasquez said.

An estimated 8,000 migrants came to Putnam County to harvest the tomato crop, and more than a fourth of them have already left.

Sheriff Bob Beutler said. No figures were available for adjoining Henry County.

"What's happening in this area, I think, after looking at some of the fields, is that some tomatoes are rotting on the vines," he said.

Some farmers agree that they have been hurt by the strike, but many say they will be able to harvest most of the crop, despite the labor walkout.

Of acupuncture against aging, obesity, pain

Festival demonstrates techniques

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Edith Willins, who says she is tyrod of needles, spent part of her Labor Day holiday lying before an audience of a thratics and other aikers with four pins in her face.

"This is the first time I've ever served as a guinea pig this way," Mrs. Willins said at Sunday's second annual Acupuncture Festival. The festival, sponsored by the Center for Chinese Medicine, featured acupuncture techniques against aging, obesity and pain.

The Los Angeles woman volunteered for the half-hour facelifting treatment. Stretched across two dining tables in a banquet room of the General Lee Restaurant, Mrs. Willins grimaced as 10 needles were put in her legs, hands and face. Staring out into the hall, she said, "It's very painful at first."

Immediately after the treatment, Mrs. Willins, who refused to give her age but looked to be in her 50s, told the audience of 150. "I want you to know that I'm 110 years old, but I hope I look like 30 now."

She added later, however: "I've looked at myself in the mirror and there's no difference. I guess I need another dozen treatments."

The acupuncturist, Starrie Ming of Santa Monica, said 12 to 15 of the $30 to $85 treatments would remove superficial wrinkles for several years. Her clients, she said, include movie stars and other celebrities, but she declined to name any of them.

Recent studies have shown that acupuncture may alleviate pain by stimulating nerves that release the body's own analgesic chemicals, called endorphins. The ancient Chinese treatment, based on the theory that nerve stimulation corrects excesses and deficiencies in the body's energy flow, has been used in dieting, facelifting and veterinary medicine.

Ms. Ming claimed she cured her dog's paralysis with acupuncture. "My cocker spaniel couldn't stand on his hind legs," she said. "He had arthritis and he cried all the time. I treated him every day for a month and now he's OK. It's been two years."

ACUPUNCTURE RELIEVES NECK PAIN — Kathy Woods, a student at the California State University in Long Beach, is treated by Starrie Ming, a dentist and acupuncturist (whose hand is only shown) with pins for chronic neck pain in Los Angeles Sunday. After the 13 needles had been removed from her neck and arms, Mrs. Woods said she felt a lot better.

Council shows support in odd manner

Some of the good church goes might be surprised to learn that the World Council of Churches, which seems to thrive on criticism, is giving $85,000 to the guerrillas who are trying to end the white man's rule in Rhodesia.

The council might be taking a cue from President Jimmy Carter, who has been rather icy in his approach to the interim regime in Rhodesia.

THE GRANT, according to council spokesmen, is only to be used for 'humanitarian purposes.' That would mean the guerrillas, who are exhilarated by the blood baths they can engineer, are supposed to invest the funds in things like food and health care.

The investment by the WCC, and it must be regarded in that light, can't help but be reflected in the terrorists' war-making potential as well.

The guerrillas play rough when the opportunity presents itself. Among those no longer among the living after raids carried out by the terrorists are missionaries sent to Rhodesia by American churches. Both blacks and whites in Rhodesia have been slaughtered by the guerrillas. The missionaries sent to Rhodesia have pledged to go unaligned with either side in the struggle but that has made no difference to the extremists. If they see someone they don't recognize, chances are they don't take prisoners.

The council justifies its stance by saying the Rhodesia internal settlement is flawed, that its weighted representation falls short of a pure one-man-one-vote goal and, for that reason, is unacceptable.

BY ITS OWN reasoning, the council blames the interim black and white regime for atrocities committed by the terrorists, saying that stepped-up anti-guerrilla activities has as a consequence 'heightened military activity by the Patriotic Front,' suggesting that such action only adds to the tragedy of suffering by the people in Rhodesia.

It is not easy to see what business the council has in supporting financially either side in a cruel and lingering civil war, or in undermining efforts to effect a solution through peaceful rather than warlike means.

The Russian bear looks hungrily at Rhodesia and its views on religion are not consistent with those of the World Council of Churches, no matter how noble the council reasons its motive is.

Danny's dialect

Around the rim

Carla Walker

My name is Danny Valdes and eef you want, I take your peecture.

Sorry, Danny, but my accent just doesn't quite match up to yours and nobody believed me when I said that. I went around all week taking pictures (during your vacation) and nobody could understand me.

Even at that, I sometimes felt that I was going everywhere at a dead run. And Valdes always has lots of things going besides the Herald; if nothing else, just taking pictures of major car wrecks, and pretty girls and sailing his boat or fishing at the lake.

HE NEVER acts rushed or hurried, but how he avoids it I'll never know. It may take from one minute up to two hours to get the pictures needed to cover a particular news event, but the developing time in the darkroom is always going to be the same, and that is time consuming.

It was quite an experience, though, always being asked "Where's Danny?" everywhere I went. I was beginning to wonder if perhaps a clone of the Cuban to replace him while he vacationed might not have been easier.

And then, just as I get to talking perfer (perfect), poof, I am no Danny enny more. That may be a hard habit to break.

Oh well, eet was essiting — I mean it was exciting while it lasted.

Instructing senator

William F. Buckley Jr.

It is not the intention of anyone who seeks also to be a practicing Christian to deal with the obiter dicta of Senator Edward Kennedy as though they were freshly minted laws from Aristotle, or pensees of Pascal. But what he said at the National Governors Association is so egregious an affront on social philosophy one must, out of a sense of obligation to reason, deal with it gravely. What he said was that national health care is a human right.

The circumstances were these. Participants at the political meeting were considering various approaches to health care, including President Carter's. Mr. Carter's proposals are more modest than the wholesale nationalization of health care. It isn't that Mr. Carter's philosophy excludes nationalization of health care, it is simply a prudential matter with him. We can't go all the way, says Mr. Carter, until we can afford to do so. On this gesture to moderation Senator Kennedy turned the full force of his scorn. You can't, he said, argue that national health care depends on the state of the economy. Why? Because "a conditional right is basically not a right" at all.

NOW THE TROUBLE with that statement is that all secular rights are conditional. So that if you accept Senator Kennedy's broad generality, then it must follow that there are in fact no rights at all. One's right to one's own freedom, indeed to one's life itself, is most conspicuously conditional on the existence of peace. During a war, one of Senator Kennedy's brothers was drafted, told what to do, sent out on a mission, and was killed. If that brother, a brave and patriotic man, had defied the law, he'd have been stuck in jail.

Moreover, every commonly acknowledged right is conditional in the sense that it is not permitted to impinge on another right. The inordinate extension of almost any right bumps into the inordinately extended complementary right. Under the fifth amendment to the constitution you have the right to decline to answer questions, but under the sixth amendment, I have the right to require you to answer questions. Under the first amendment, you are entitled to freedom of the press, but under the sixth amendment I am entitled to a fair trial. Any putative "right" to national health care is conditional — never mind the prudence of nationalizing health — on the resources of a nation.

Senator Kennedy wouldn't let it go. He'd have been better off with a fallacious hit-and-run. "We don't condition Social Security on the rate of inflation or the size of unemployment or the size of the deficit," he went on to say.

The answer to that is: But we do exactly that. Social Security payments in fact are automatically increased to accommodate inflation. Unemployment benefits are universally limited to specified periods of time. The size of the deficit has a great deal to do with social security, for the very simple reason that unless social security is self-supported, which it no longer is, it requires a public subsidy.

BUT PUBLIC subsidy is only available out of public residue. If there is no residue, there can be no subsidy. It is the point President Carter is attempting to make — that at a period when everyone is being taxed by such inflationary policies as are routinely pursued by Senator Kennedy and his colleagues the whole question of the value of the dollar is at stake. Every time the dollar depreciates by one per cent you have had a confiscation of income — without due process. Provisions of the 14th amendment are also human rights. Are they being observed?

Second artery bypass may help him

Dr. G. C. Thosteson

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Over the past eight years my brother has had three operations to restore circulation to his right leg. These were necessary because of impaired arteries. The first time, a vein from his left leg was used to replace the bad artery section in the right. This worked for about three years. He then had further surgery for the same problem in the same area. At that time a Dacron replacement section was used. About a year ago, after a recurrence of the leg problem, a sympathectomy was done. What kind of operation is that, and how is it expected to alleviate the problem in his leg? — Ms. W.S.J.

This gets complicated. The tone of the arteries (i.e., ability to expand and contract) is controlled by a special part of the nerve system — the sympathetic system. A sympathectomy is a severing of one of the local branches of this nerve system to allow the artery to dilate (expand) on its own and provide more blood supply to the area. The artery circulation problem in your brother's arteriogram and the precise point of obstruction bypassed by a replacement section. And ordinarily, these vein implants hold up quite well. It may be that your brother had an obstruction below the original bypass, requiring a second implant. That's guesswork.

Whether the sympathectomy will solve his problem remains to be seen. If the hardened artery is not pliable it may not respond to the cutting of the nerve. But it might improve what is called "collateral" circulation (in smaller arteries) and bring improvement in his leg symptoms. Time will tell.

Dear Dr. Thosteson: Our daughter has deteriorating discs between her third and fourth lumbar vertebrae. She is 35. Is there any known cause or cure? A friend says this is caused by deficiency in the ovaries' hormone production, and that she will need estrogen shots. In our household your column is a favorite because of the lay terms you use and your occasional bits of humor. — J.H.

I suspect your friend is confusing disc disease with osteoporosis. The latter can be related to ovary deficiency, but I would not suspect this hormone deficiency in your daughter's case unless there were other signs of early menopause.

The commonest cause of lumbar (lower) disc problems is trauma

(injury). Others are infection and degeneration with age. About 65 per cent of persons over 50 show some such intervertebral disc disturbance. Disc disease at age 35 is uncommon.

Treatment is conservative at first — bedrest, traction, braces, etc. Surgery is considered only if simpler measures fail. An orthopedic doctor should have more to say about your daughter's condition after thorough examination of her spine. The lower section of the spine is particularly subject to such problems.

Big Spring Herald

Dear Editor:

We the parents in the Cedar Crest area are concerned about the problem we have in transporting our children to College Heights and Goliad middle schools.

Don Crockett, assistant principal of business, tells us that state law requires that all children who are more than two miles from their respective schools must be transported.

We in this area live within the two mile limit, so they don't transport our children. First they close down our school and then they put the burden on us to get our children to school any way we can — as Crockett put it, by bicycle, private vehicle or on foot. But some of the people in this area don't have the means of transporting their children to classes at College Heights or Goliad.

Some of us have to work, some can't drive and others don't have cars to get them over there. So that means that our children will have to walk all the way. And, I remind you, we are talking about small elementary children who have to cross dangerous traffic intersections like those of Gregg Street.

Agso, they have to leave home at 7 in the morning and make it over there for school by 8:30. We went to the school board with our problem and they told us they can do anything about it.

During the winter it will be a bigger problem. Maybe we will have to keep our children home, then maybe they will do something about it.

Mrs. Roselia Ramirez

My answer

Billy Graham

DEAR DR. GRAHAM: I am in the Army, and I wish I could commit my life to Christ. But my wife and the men around me would think I was crazy, so I really wonder if it is worth it. — F.A.W.

DEAR F.A.W.: I wish I could talk personally with you so I could tell you one thing: It is worth it. You are concentrating now on the things or friendships you might lose. But think of what you will gain — the privilege of being a child of God throughout all eternity.

To be a Christian is often to be in the minority. Jesus spoke of the two ways of life — the broad way (which the world takes) and the narrow way (which the believer follows). In one of the most solemn warnings of the

New York gets tough with prostitutes

NEW YORK (AP) — One warm summer evening, Jacqueline Jackson stood on Madison Avenue — in a business district, not a sleazy section — and waited for men to offer her money for sex.

In less than an hour, three men did. Each time, Ms. Jackson stroked her long black hair — the signal for four plainclothes police to move in and ticket the men as "johns," prostitute's customers.

Ms. Jackson is a police officer posing as a hooker, and is part of Manhattan's first regularly-assigned decoy prostitute team — yet another in a long series of efforts to control the city's thriving sex market.

But officials dare not predict what difference the effort will make.

Today a new state law goes into effect too, toughening the penalties for johns by making it a misdemeanor, not just an infraction that might bring a $15 fine, to patronize a prostitute.

But well-entrenched, obvious prostitution has been a problem for 10 years in the midtown section of nation's largest city, particularly around Times Square. These are hardly the first steps against it.

Former Mayor John V. Lindsay set up a task force on sex law enforcement in July 1971, promised in February 1972 that the police and sanitation departments would "saturate" midtown, and in March 1973 signed a law requiring licenses for massage parlors.

In October 1975, then-Mayor Abraham D. Beame began a "continuous campaign" against streetwalkers and pimps in the Madison Square Garden area to prepare for the 1976 Democratic National Convention.

In January 1976 the City Council put a moratorium on new massage parlors and in July 1977 passed an omnibus anti-pornography bill.

And what effect has it had? Today streetwalkers are so plentiful — and wide-ranging — that the three men ticketed that July night were certain Ms. Jackson was a prostitute even though she did not proposition them and even though she was far from Times Square.

With so huge a problem, few officials make sweeping promises any more about eliminating it. They talk of controlling it, and police admit they target their limited resources where complaints are worst.

This spring, patrols were beefed up 200 percent and 100 new officers were added to the two midtown precincts. Each precinct also got a "Pros Control" squad — including four women in Midtown North and two women, one of them Ms. Jackson, in Midtown South.

But the commanding officers of the Pros Control units agree they can't put real pressure on johns with only six policewomen as regularly-assigned decoys. The area covers three square miles of porn palaces, topless joints, massage parlors, walkup hovels, apartments of every description, the city's best hotels, and some of its worst.

So each precinct "targets" resources — with different effects.

Sgt. Pete Birong, head of Midtown North Pros Control, points to a cleaned-up Eighth Avenue north of 45th Street — his section of Times Square, near most of the Broadway theaters. But he also admits difficulty arresting prostitutes in richer areas, where high-priced hookers make more subtle approaches to johns near expensive hotels.

And Birong concedes that many Times Square hookers from his precinct have simply walked down a few blocks to Midtown South, where the other Pros Control unit has set its sights on a different "target."

That area's Pros Control commander, Sgt. Artie Athas, says Times Square is low priority for him — and his unit concentrates on residents' complaints about prostitution in quiet neighborhoods. "We try to control the problem," Athas said, but he adds, "We can't waste a minute."

It was complaints from residents that brought Pros Control to the corner where Ms. Jackson stood that July night, in white slacks, a black knit top and no bra.

"Just watch, and you'll see pretty soon guys will start circling around her," said Athas.

Within 20 minutes, a 25-year-old man from suburban Scarsdale drove around the block three times, stopped and called her over.

He didn't say "Hello." He just said openly: "You give me (oral sex) in the car, and I'll give you $10."

Instead she gave the signal, and the plainclothesmen, in pullover shirts hiding guns in their belts, pulled the man down the street.

Ms. Jackson resumed her station and a 22-year-old from the Lower East Side walked over. He did say hello, and asked whether she was waiting for someone, whether she hung around the corner often.

Then, Ms. Jackson related, "he" said he "wanted everything" for $15.

It was likely that both — and the third man, from the Bronx — would pay their tickets quietly. Of Ms. Jackson's first 170 "johns," only four have pleaded innocent. Birong said in his district no johns have pleaded innocent, with an average 100 summonses a month since spring.

married wants you to call his wife" to bail him out, he said.

But he added that many tourists won't know about the law, cutting its effect. And, he said, "You'll never get rid of it all."

Even if prostitution were legal and kept in houses, Birong said, the problem the public most often sees — streetwalkers — would remain.

"They can work bars. They can work massage parlors," he said. "The reason they don't is because the men are out on the street."

More people stay married

WASHINGTON (AP) — More Americans stay married rather than get divorced.

According to the American Council of Life Insurance, 62 couples out of each 100 marriages remain together. It says a government study of women who marry for the first time "shows that for every 100 who marry, 38 will get a divorce but 29 of the divorced women will remarry and 13 of these marriages will again end in divorce.

"Because of the remarriages and second divorces, the original group of 100 will experience 129 marriages and 51 divorces. However, in 62 of the 100 couples the partners will not change."

Stress causes most symptoms

Reactions to stress may account for up to 80 percent of the symptoms Americans take to doctors, say Jenny Reinhardt, family life education specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Save water, save money

Water-saving showerheads, dishwashers and washers help save money — they use less water, and they save water-heating energy, says Sue Young, housing and home furnishings specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Save lettuce; vacuum pack

Lettuce, shredded and vacuum packed in airtight bags, stays fresh 12 days compared with two days for cut lettuce without vacuum packing, says Frances Reasonover, foods and nutrition specialist with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.

Seeing With Another's Eye

DEAR ABBY: I am a farmer in Francesville, Ind. Soon I will be out in the fields harvesting the corn I planted last May.

That doesn't sound like a very important statement for a farmer to make, but it's important to me because it means that I can again provide for my wife and three children—something I wasn't able to do before my recent cornea transplant operation.

Nineteen years ago I lost one eye in a farm accident. Then last year, lightning struck twice, and I seriously injured the other eye in another farm accident. This left me legally blind. I prayed for a cornea transplant, and God heard my prayers.

I am grateful to God, and to my very dedicated eye surgeon, Dr. Louis Girard of Houston, who performed the miracle of restoring my sight.

I wish I could thank the unselfish donor who thought beyond his own life and made provisions to pass on the gift of sight to a stranger. But since that is not possible, I pray that the Lord will bless the family of the donor who cared enough to share.

Abby, please continue to urge your readers to donate their eyes at the time of death so that someone who has lived in darkness will be able to see again, as I am now privileged to do.

PERRY NEIHOUSER

DEAR PERRY: Your letter made my day. And anyone out there who wants a donor card may obtain one free by writing to THE LIVING BANK, BOX 6725, HOUSTON, TEXAS 77065. They are a non-profit organization, so please enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. God bless you and He will.

DEAR ABBY: I have a problem I can't solve alone. I am very much attracted to a handsome New Hampshire state trooper I've seen, but I don't know how to meet him.

His license number is 206. Do you think if I were to speed and get stopped the next time I saw him, it might help? I don't want to be tacky.

DESPERATE IN KEENE

DEAR DESPERATE: I don't recommend breaking the law in order to break the ice. If you don't want to be "tacky," you'd better find someone who knows him—and something about him. Your handsome No. 206 may have a wife and six kids at home.

Elegant table adds to meal

NEW YORK (AP)—Set a beautiful table every day, not just when you're having company, urges Keith Stupell, director of a specialty store here featuring table fashions.

"Every day is an important occasion when the family gets together for dinner," he says. "What's nicer than having an attractive table? It should be a joy to sit down to, inviting to the eye and to the soul."

Although life is simpler today than it once was and servants are no longer around to take care of such niceties as snowy white tablecloths, it is still possible to have elegance, he points out.

"Many people are turning to place mats in wonderful colors and shapes, often made of interesting materials such as bamboo," Stupell says. "Not only are they easy to care for, but the beauty of the table can be seen."

Like the jewelry and accessories that give an outfit individuality, the choice of china, flatware and stemware can reflect the taste of the host or hostess, and simple little additions to the decor can add excitement and charm, Stupell notes.

"The coupe for the opening course, the centerpiece, possibly candlesticks or a floral arrangement or ornament; napkin rings and colorful napkins; individual salt and pepper shakers; individual cigarette cups and ashtrays; place card holders, all take a table and turn it into a drama.

"When a man wants to romance a woman," he adds, "he will take her to a romantic restaurant with ambience, music, soft lighting and a charming table setting. Then they get married, and, too often, suddenly food is 'thrown on the table.' You see people divorcing because 'the romance has gone out of our life.'"

"Put candles back on the table. Get the parsley out, the mushroom caps. Think of what you serve and how you serve it. Use color coordination. Buy things you love."

Don't look at the china you pick as a forever kind of situation, he advises. Look at it as though you were buying a dress—to be enjoyed now and to be replaced when you tire of it.

A recent survey indicates that people's taste changes every seven years, he says, and just because you like a certain color now doesn't mean you'll like it throughout your life.

If you've had china for three years or so, consider creating a new look by reaccessorizing it or adding a new color or design to combine with your present service, Stupell suggests.

"White is such a safe thing, but let's be daring with color," says the director for the past 10 years of the shop founded in 1929 by his mother, Carole Stupell. "A boring table reflects the host and hostess. When you go into a house, the dining table reveals the occupants' lifestyle."

Young people should consider buying services for four and six rather than larger quantities allowing them to be innovative and have variety without a great expenditure, he says.

"The industry is becoming very fashion oriented," Stupell, 38, notes. "Mid range china, at about $45 a place setting, has only about a two-year life, with many production runs stopping after that period."

Many upsets in NFL's opening week

By HAL BOCK
AP Sports Writer

Now, as the Denver Broncos were saying before they were so rudely interrupted...

The Broncos, beginning the defense of their American Football Conference championship, started where they left off in the West, beating Oakland, 14-6 in their opening game of the National Football League season Sunday.

"It's about time people started believing Denver is for real," said defensive tackle Lyle Alzado.

"I still don't think people believe us yet," added safety Bill Thompson. "But I don't care."

Clutch interceptions by safeties Thompson and Bernard Jackson keyed Denver's victory over its chief rival in the AFC West. Nine months ago, the Broncos beat the Raiders 20-17 to cop the title in a major upset. But if it was upsets you wanted the NFL was the place to find them Sunday.

Favorites like Miami, Cincinnati, New England and Minnesota tumbled like ten-pins on a day for the underdogs. The New York Jets stunned Miami 33-20, Kansas City edged Cincinnati 24-23, Washington kayed New England 16-14 and New Orleans beat Minnesota 31-24.

Elsewhere, Atlanta knocked off Houston 20-14, Green Bay surprised Detroit 13-7, Chicago whipped St. Louis 17-

10, Pittsburgh rapped Buffalo 28-17, Los Angeles edged Philadelphia 16-14, Cleveland topped San Francisco 24-7, and San Diego slugged Seattle 24-20.

The first NFL regular season weekend got started Saturday night when the New York Giants defeated Tampa Bay 19-13 and concludes tonight when Baltimore plays the defending champion Cowboys at Dallas.

Broncos 14, Raiders 6
Denver converted a pair of turnovers into touchdowns and rode a stubborn defense to its victory over Oakland.

Craig Morton lobbed a 5-yard TD pass to Haven Moses for the first score and the Broncos clung tenaciously to a 1-point lead, withstanding field goals of 33 and 22 yards by Errol Mann. Otis Armstrong plunged in for the wrapup TD in the final minute.

"Our defense won the game for us," said Morton. It was Oakland's first regular season loss in Denver since 1962.

Saints 31, Vikings 24
Turnovers spelled the difference for New Orleans with safety Tommy Myers intercepting three passes and returning one of the thefts 97 yards for the winning touchdown over Minnesota.

Cornerback Maurice Spencer, who had an interception of his own, deflected Fran Tarkenton's pass into Myers' hands.

Chiefs 24, Bengals 23
New Coach Marv Levy retrieved the Wing-T formation from pro football's moth balls and Kansas City rode it past Cincinnati.

"It's basic football...run and block," explained fullback Mark Bailey, who gained 106 yards as the Chiefs set a club record with 69 rushing plays.

Kansas City built a 24-9 lead and then hung on for the victory as the Bengals scored two TDs in the final five minutes.

Jets 33, Dolphins 20
Richard Todd stung Miami for three TD passes and Pat Leahy kicked four field goals as New York surprised the Dolphins.

Todd connected twice on bombs of 47 and 43 yards with wide receiver Wesley Walker. "Richard loves to throw long and now he has the confidence that he can do it," said Walker.

"I saw the openings and I went for them," added Todd. Redskins 16, Patriots 14

Linebacker Brad Dusek took a recovered fumble 31 yards for the winning touchdown with 2:40 remaining as Washington stung New England. Dave Butz stripped the ball loose from Horace Ivory and Dusek pounced on it, although not immediately.

"I was playing outside and when I saw the ball hit the ground, I hesitated," Dusek said. "I wanted to make sure I could pick it up on the run."

Steve Grogan threw a pair of TD passes and Harold Jackson caught seven aerials for 124 yards.

Rams 16, Eagles 14
Rookie Frank Corral's third field goal of the game, a 46-yarder with just seven seconds left to play, carried Los Angeles over Philadelphia.

The Eagles had taken a 14-13 lead on Wally Henry's 57-yard punt return with less than six minutes to play. The Rams started their winning drive from their own 12-yard line with less than two minutes left.

"I can't believe it," said Corral, who also connected from 29 and 49 yards. "This is about the best thing that ever happened to me so far."

Oilers (not Earl) give it away

ATLANTA (AP) — It was billed as a shootout between Heisman Trophy winner Earl Campbell and free agent June Jones III waging warfare in their National Football League starting debuts. Instead, it was the same old story — defense.

The Atlanta Falcon defense, which set an NFL mark of allowing 129 points a year ago, scored one touchdown and set up two field goals in leading the Falcons to a 20-14 victory over the Houston Oilers Sunday in a league opener.

Campbell, the bullish former Texas star, ran for 64 yards in 14 attempts and ran 73 yards with a screen pass for a touchdown while Jones completed 10 of 23 passes for 104 yards and a 38-yard scoring pass to Bubba Bean.

Meanwhile, Atlanta's Tom Moriarty pounced on a Cliff Parsley punt in the end zone to snap a 7-7 tie and the defenders set up Fred Steinfurth field goals of 30 and 48 yards with fumble recoveries in the second half to hold off the Oilers.

In addition, John James punted four times inside Houston's 20-yard line, with Moriarty downing two inside the five.

"That was the difference, the blocked punt and their kicker," said Houston Coach Bum Phillips. "He (James) kept us in bad field position all day."

"We gave them a touchdown on a defensive mixup and they gave us one. But we didn't block a punt. It looks like the Falcons' defense is starting off the same way they played all last year," said Phillips.

"Campbell did what we thought he could do. He ran hard and caught the ball well," said the third-year coach. "I thought Jones was excellent. He didn't turn the ball over and kept the ball under control. He ran their offense the way they want it run."

Jones, a second-year free agent from Portland State who completed only one pass for minus one yard last season, beat out 1975 Rookie of the Year Steve Bartkowski for the starting position.

"Sure, he's still No. 1," said Coach Leeman Bennett. "He played well and didn't turn the ball over but we won because football is played by 45 guys and they all contributed today."

Moriarty, a backup defensive back, shrugged off his contribution.

Pokes on tube

DALLAS (AP) — The newest of the Dallas Cowboys gets a quick pressure test tonight in the opener for the defending National Football League champions.

With millions of national television viewers looking on and some 65,000 fans in Texas Stadium, young Rafael Septien will be introduced as the Cowboy placekicker.

If past jousts with the Baltimore Colts are any indication, Septien will also get a quick introduction into high drama.

Baltimore beat Dallas in Super Bowl V with a late field goal and two years ago Eren Herrera tripped the Colts 30-27 on a last-second field goal.

Herrera was traded to Seattle after a salary fuss with Cowboy management. Dallas went through three more kickers and finally released rookie free agent Jay Sherrill to make room for Septien Wednesday.

However, Septien, who was a rookie with Los Angeles last year, didn't come easily. Oakland was in the bidding.

Dallas offered and Septien accepted a multi-year contract for undisclosed terms.

"I decided on Dallas because it's a tremendous organization even though Oakland offered more money," said Septien. "I know the people in this part of the country. They are very warm. I can't wait to show them I'm a good kicker."

Septien hit 18 of 30 field goals and 32 of 35 extra points for the Rams last year.

He is now only one of two Cowboys on the team who weren't drafted. The other is running back Preston Pearson.

However, the game should boil down into a duel between Dallas' high-scoring offense, No. 1 in the NFL last year, and Baltimore's "Sack Pack," which permitted only 10 touchdown passes in 1977. The Colt defense will have to play well because some vital cogs in last year's American Conference Eastern Division champions will be missing.

Quarterback Bert Jones was on the sidelines with an arm injury in a preseason game against Detroit and tailback Lydell Mitchell, a 1000-yard gainer, was in San Diego after a dispute with Colt management.

Halfback Don McCauley was the Colts' leading ground gainer in the preseason with 137 yards.

Dallas' offense was led in a 3-1 preseason by Roger Staubach's passing and Tony (The Thrill) Hill's receptions. Hill beat out both Golden Richards and Butch Johnson for a wide receiver post opposite Drew Pearson.

FROM BEHIND — Houston Oilers back Earl Campbell (34) is tackled from behind by Atlanta Falcons Roland Lawrence (22) in the first half of the teams season opener in Atlanta Sunday afternoon.

Brewer bullpen flunks Rangers

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Ed Farmer, released by the Milwaukee Brewers from their Triple A farm team three years ago because of arm trouble, just may be the pitcher they have sought all season to bolster their bullpen.

He certainly did Sunday after relieving Andy Replogle with none out in the fifth inning, two runs in for Texas, the bases loaded with Rangers and the Brewers clinging to a 3-2 lead.

Farmer promptly struck out John Lowenstein, retired Al Oliver on a grounder which allowed the tying run to score and got dangerous Richie Zisk on an inning ending fly to center. Sal Bando broke the tie with his 16th homer in the Milwaukee fifth, and Farmer finished with five innings of twofit relief and earned his first major league victory since 1974 as the Brewers won 4-3.

"What could be worse?" Brewer Manager George Bamberger said. "Three-two, bases loaded, no outs. It could have been worse only if it was the ninth inning."

Bear not sure

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Even after an impressive 20-3 triumph over 10th-ranked Nebraska, Alabama Coach Bear Bryant still isn't convinced that the Crimson Tide is the No. 1 college football team in the nation.

"We're still nowhere near where we were at the end of last year," Bryant said in the wake of Saturday night's season-opening victory. "We're much better on defense but we're just as far behind on offense."

That might seem like an unusual assessment. True, top-rated Alabama's stingy defense limited the dangerous Cornhuskers to 110 yards rushing and 64 passing, but the Crimson Tide's offense rolled up 264 yards on the ground and 54 through the air.

However, 55 yards of the 318-yard total came on a first-period drive that ended in a missed field goal attempt and 99 more were reeled off in a seven-minute, 16-play second-quarter march capped by a four-yard scoring pass from Jeff Rutledge to Major Ogilvie.

"We had the ball more but didn't score that much, which speaks highly of their defense," Bryant said. "Our defense gave us the ball enough to win a lot of games."

Rutledge, the goat of last year's 31-24 loss to Nebraska when he suffered his only five interceptions of the season, completed only five of 13 attempts, but his touchdown pass gave Alabama a 7-3 lead. Tony Nathan scored from the two in the third period after Don McNeal intercepted a pass at the Nebraska 39 and a three-yard run by Rutledge with 2:17 left sealed the victory after Jeff Quinn, Nebraska's second-string quarterback, fumbled.

The Bama defense was keyed by tackle Marty Lyons, nose guard Curtis McGriff, ends E.J. Junior and Wayne Hamilton, and linebackers Barry Krauss, Rich Wingo and Rickey Gilliland.

Meanwhile, Temple almost upset third-ranked Penn State Friday night. The Nittany Lions needed a 23-yard field goal by Matt Bahr, a professional soccer player with one year of college football eligibility remaining, with 10 seconds remaining to win 10-7.

"We were lucky," said Penn State Coach Joe Paterno. "Temple defended us well."

In other games Saturday, it was: North Texas State 49, Texas-El Paso 0; Tulsa 21, Arkansas State 20; Mississippi State 28, West Texas State 0; East Carolina 14, Western Carolina 6; Northern Michigan 30, Eastern Michigan 3; Southern Mississippi 10, Richmond 7; Drake 25, Texas-Arlington 23; South Carolina State 47, Virginia State 0; East New Mexico 42, Sul Ross State 0; Morgan State 13, Maryland-Eastern Shore 10; Northern Iowa 15, Wisconsin-Whitewater 12; Tennessee State 13, Middle Tennessee 6; Nicholls State 20, Tennessee Tech 10; Mississippi Valley 27, Bishop 0; Kentucky State 27, Fayetteville State 13; Norfolk State 36, St. Paul's 7; Southeast Missouri 24, Murray State 21, Southwest Texas State 7, Southeastern Louisiana 0, Utah State 10, Idaho State 0.

Kite leads B C Open

ENDICOTT, N.Y. (AP) — Tom Kite had a 5-stroke lead entering the final round of the $225,000 B.C. Open golf tournament and still wasn't satisfied.

"It's a good lead, but no lead is big enough until you're finished," Kite said. "I'd like to have a 6-shot lead going into the last hole."

Kite shot a 3-under-par 68 on the 71-par, 6,915-yard En-Joe Golf Club course Sunday, opening a commanding lead over Mark Hayes in quest of the $45,000 first prize.

Hayes fashioned a 6-under-par 65 after overcoming two bogies while Rod Curl was 6 strokes behind the former NCAA champion from Texas.

Kite managed to stretch his lead even though he bogied his first hole of the tournament here.

"If he birdies the first few holes (today), he is gone," said Curl, referring to Kite. "It would almost be like the rest of us were playing in another tournament."

Pulz scorches LPGA

SPRINGFIELD, Ill. (AP) — Penny Pulz has learned how to make golf easy.

"It's easier to shoot 65 than it is to shoot par any day," Pulz said.

Pulz of Palm Springs, Calif. fit nine birdies into the round to tie the course record and move into a three-way tie for first place after three rounds of the Rail Charity LPGA Classic Sunday at the 6,278-yard, par-72 Rail Golf Course.

Second-round leader Pat Bradley of Westford, Mass. and Donna Caponi Young of Los Angeles each scored birdies on the final hole to force the three-way tie at 206.

Pulz's 7-under-par card of 65 included two bogeys. The nine birdies tied an LPGA record and during one particularly impressive stretch, the Australian native birdied four holes in a row.

More 'Broncomania'

DENVER (AP) — Ronald Pagliasotti says his former wife caused him "extreme mental anguish" when she allegedly forged his signature on a letter to the Denver Broncos asking that his two season tickets be placed in her name.

So Pagliasotti is taking his former wife, Theresa, to court to determine ownership of the tickets.

Pagliasotti claims his ex-spouse actually wrote the letter or had someone write it for her. And because of this "fraudulent act," he has had to hire an attorney to regain possession of the tickets.

Mrs. Pagliasotti, however, will take the Fifth Amendment or refuse to answer if asked at a county court hearing in Denver next week whether she forged the letter, said her attorney, Allan Abelman.

The problem began in 1973 when the attorneys handling the Pagliasotti's divorce failed to determine who owned tickets, Abelman said.

In February 1977, just months before the Broncos' most successful season, the letter arrived at the club's administrative office, and the tickets were placed in Mrs. Pagliasotti's name.

Abelman contends Pagliasotti never expressed interest in the tickets until last month.

Stingley confident

FOXBORO, Mass. (AP) — Paralyzed wide receiver Darryl Stingley of the New England Patriots can not speak but believes he will recover and play in the National Football League, according to the team's owner, William H. Sullivan Jr.

The Patriots' resident told reporters Sunday he was "filled with tremendous sadness" after visiting the injured player in a California hospital last week.

Stingley was injured Aug. 12, when he was hit on a broken pass play in a preseason game at Oakland against the Raiders.

He has lost his ability to speak because he is under so much medication from tubes that Sullivan described as entering his body through his nostrils and ears.

Sullivan reported that Stingley is not currently threatened by lung complications which worsened his condition late last week.

"His attitude is the stuff dreams are made of," Sullivan said. "One of the last things he was able to say to his brother, while he was able to speak, was 'I'll be here for the Super Bowl'."

American tykes making Open vets nervous

NEW YORK (AP) — A new generation of American female tennis tykes, showing no respect for their elders, are making high-pitched noises at the U.S. Open Tennis Championships.

(AP WIREPHOTO)

BORG DOWNS GUNTHARDT — Sweden Bjorn Borg makes two-handed return of ball to Switzerland's Heinz Gunthardt Saturday in evening match in second round of U.S. Open Tennis Championships at the National Tennis Center. Top seeded Borg downs Gunthardt, 6-2, 6-4.

Four locals remain in CC champ flight

Dan Wilkins, Don Osborne, Mike Weaver and Carlton Young will tee off at 2:40 p.m. today in the championship flight of the Big Spring Country Club tournament after the field was whittled down over a two-day period.

The consolation group in the championship flight tees off at 2:30 p.m. and includes Wally Slate, Mike Hall, Fred Wilerson and Daryle Hohertz. Two of the former club champions are in the consolation bracket after the opening days matched play.

In the first flight, Morris Rhodes, Jack Cook, Guil Jones, and Weldon Bryant tee off at 2:20 p.m. and their consolation bracket includes Bobby Heith, John Burgess, Ray Kennedy and John Arrick.

Left battling in the second flight are Howard Schwarzenbach, Drew Mouton, Hudson Landers and Spot Cockrell, who tee off at 2 p.m. Spot also prepared the dove and elk barbecue for the group on Saturday.

In the consolation playoffs are Bill Chrane, Bill Bell, J. Y. Robb and Paul Shaffer and they tee off at 1:50 p.m. The third flight features Carl Small, Harrol Jones, Howard Carlton and Jimmy Ray Smith.

That consolation bracket includes Troy Frazier, James Bailey, Ansel Finley and John Taylor.

And people are listening. Third-seeded Virginia Wade, the 33-year-old former Wimbledon champion, was forced to notice Sunday, losing to Lele Forood, an unsung 21-year-old from Fort Lauderdale, Fla., 6-3, 2-6, 6-3.

Chris Evert, whose exploits as a pony-tailed 16-year-old in the U.S. Open seven years ago helped spawn the new wave of racquet-swinging girls, couldn't help but notice. Even though she scored a hard-fought 6-1, 7-5 over 17-year-old Caroline Stoll, Evert intimated that her days as queen of American tennis may be numbered.

"Women's tennis is much more interesting now," said the second-seeded Evert, seeking her fourth straight U.S. Open crown. "I'd love to dominate again... If I could put everything else aside, possibly I could dominate again. But I don't know if I'm willing to do that."

Even if she became completely tennis-oriented again, teenage sensations like Tracy Austin and Pam Shriver might push Evert down the tennis ladder, just like Chris did to Billie Jean King in the mid-1970s.

Austin, the 15-year-old No. 5 seed, routed Maria Fernandez, Torrance, Calif., 6-1, 6-2 Sunday night. Earlier, Shriver, 16 years old and 16th seeded, overcame Evert's younger sister, Jeanne, 6-2, 7-5, and another youngster, 19-year-old Stacy Margolin, Beverly Hills, Calif., also moved into the fourth round, shocking sixth-seeded Dianne Fromholtz, Australia, 6-2, 7-5.

Martina Navratilova, the No. 1 seed, was to play her fourth-round match today.

Other notable matches today included No. 4 Vitas Gerulaitis against Andrew Pattison and No. 15 John McEnroe against Colin Dowdeswell. Defending champion Guillermo Vilas, the No. 3 seed, plays American Butch Walts tonight.

The men also provided an upset Sunday when No. 5 Eddie Dibbs, a clay court specialist, fell victim to the faster, harder Deco II surface and Brian Teacher of San Diego, 6-2, 5-7, 6-3.

Top-seeded Bjorn Borg rallied for a 4-6, 6-4, 6-2 victory over unsung Bernie Mitton of South Africa in the third round, keeping his Grand Slam hopes alive. "I was lucky to survive a match like this," said Borg, again allowing his lucky beard to sprout around the chin.

Also winning third-round matches Sunday were No. 6 seed Brian Gottfried, 6-3, 6-1, over his former college roommate, Dick Stockton, and 12th-seeded Harold Solomon, 6-2, 6-1, over Gianni Occhipinti of Italy.

Cubs double-club Astros' flub

CHICAGO (AP) — The Chicago Cubs have drifted in and out of the National League East Division race with regularity during the past two weeks.

"Today, they're back in it — thanks to Sunday's double win over the Houston Astros and Philadelphia's doubleheader loss to San Francisco. The Cubs now find themselves within 3 1/2 games of the division-leading Phillies.

"We never give up," said rookie right-hander Dennis Lamp, who posted the victory in the Cubs' 3-2 triumph over the Astros in Sunday's first game. "After Saturday's game, a double loss would have put us way back. But it's been this way all year. We lose a little ground here and there, but when you look around again we're right back in it."

The Astros, aided by a seven-run rally in the ninth inning, defeated the Cubs 9-5 Saturday and pushed them 5 1/2 games behind the Phillies. "It looked like we had the game won and then we didn't. That's what made the loss so tough to take," said Lamp.

Lamp, 6-13, scattered eight hits over seven innings Sunday to improve his record to 6-13. He received relief help from Willie Hernandez, who picked up his second save. Hernandez posted his third save in the second game which the Cubs won 4-2.

"Willie did a tremendous job. Everyday somebody else picks us up. That's the kind of a team we are. Nobody stands out everyday. We just keep plugging away," said Lamp.

Richest horse race

RUIDOSO DOWNS, N.M. (AP) — From the time of the Spanish conquistadors, people have come to New Mexico in search of riches and fame.

They still do, except now instead of looking for gold, or roaming the mountains prospecting for gold and silver, they come to Ruidoso Downs where a pile of money can be won if you have the fastest 2-year-old quarter horse in the world.

The tiny race track nestled in the Sacramento Mountains of southern New Mexico, is the home of the All-American Futurity. The race is a 440-yard sprint for 2-year-old quarter horses that is worth a whopping $1.28 million with nearly a halfmillion dollars going to the winner.

And, in addition to the $437,500 first-prize paycheck that goes to the winner of the race run today before a standing-room-only crowd of more than 15,000 persons, and a national television audience numbering in the millions, comes the fame of winning the "world's richest horse race."

For some, like jockey Keith Asmussen, the money is what makes the race, while for others, like trainer Jack Brooks, it's the fame.

"This is the biggest race in the world, so it's got to be special," said Asmussen, who was to ride the favored Vespero in today's 20th running of the final leg of the Triple Crown of quarter horse racing. "But I think the money is what's most important because you have to have the money to make the race big."

Brooks views the race a little differently. "It's not that I don't need the money," said the veteran trainer, who handles Moon Lark, one of the top challengers in today's race. "Don't get me wrong, I can certainly use it, but to me it is the prestige. It is just the idea of winning the All-American."

When the All-American began in 1959 the gross purse was only $129,686, with $64,843 going to the winner. But the race has grown steadily each year until today's test was worth more than the combined purses of the three Triple Crown races for thoroughbreds — the Kentucky Derby, Belmont Stakes and Preakness.

Getting a horse in to the All-American can be a big gamble, however.
