CITY MAN HERE

Pecos is Best Known Town in West Half of Great State

C. Guthrie, editor of "Mining Country," the official magazine of the M. K. & T. Ry., headquarters in St. Louis, on Sunday and Monday in Pecos, gathering data for an issue of the publication of which he is editor, which is to contain a general write-up of West Tex-

Every time I come to Pecos, town has changed up. I congratulate Pecos on her growth on the prospects of her future growth. Pecos is about the best known town in West Texas today and I look for a significant city to spring up here," said Mr. Guthrie to a Reporter and when questioned further, Mr. Guthrie said he was sure that a continuation of present publicity methods regarding the Pecos Valley would pay the costs and guarantee continuation of present suggestions here.

Every dollar spent in patronizing home industries is an invitation to outside capital to invest in Texas. Nothing is so stimulating to home industry as the knowledge that there is a market for its products close to the place of manufacture. When foreign capital realizes that Texas people have made articles then it comes into the state and build factories. Texas needs factories.

THE mostest fun we ever had was night o' Halloween

When dressed up like big ugly ghosts—the scariest ever seen.

To change the butcher and the barber signs was but a moments work.

And the dentists and the blacksmiths—we simply could not shirk.

We'd have Jack-o'-Lanterns with eyes of fire and suits that looked a fright,

And we'd promenade all o'er the town and scare the folks that night.

We'd get some feller's brindle calf, the first one we could pick,

And tie him to the school bell rope and give that calf a kick.

But of all the things to beat the band is what some people do—

They'll call up "central" and yell "fire" when they know that its not true.

B. L., Record Staff Poet

MISS CLAIRE TO PASS THRU PECOS

Miss Alberta Claire and her Buckskin Pony, Bud

Alberta Claire, the Wyoming girl who is riding across the Continent, is coming down the T. & P. from El Paso, and will arrive in the City of "Flowing Wells" Tuesday evening or Wednesday morning.

The girl from Wyoming took up a wager and if she succeeds in reaching the Atlantic seaboard before April, 1912, she has $1000 in cash and a 3800 acre ranch in Wyoming waiting for her. But Alberta Claire is riding for bigger stakes; she is answering the challenge of the endurance and pluck of an American woman and she is bound to win.

Miss Claire may be described as being as big as a minute. With all her trappings, which include a revolver and cartridge belt, she weighs some 100 pounds, all of which is clear grit.

TEXAS EXHIBIT MAKES HIT AT PITTSBURG LAND SHOW

Pittsburg, Pa., Oct. 23.—The Texas Exhibit at the Pittsburg Land Show is attracting more attention than the display of any other state. No other state shows a full line of agricultural products. The Texas bale of cotton is the center of more attention than probably any other single article exhibited, as a majority of the people have never seen one before.

One of the unique features of the show is the daily issue of the San Benito Light in the Texas both.

The quality of the Texas fruit and vegetables rank alongside those of California, which state has heretofore been acknowledged supreme in this line. Texas has undoubtedly surpassed every other state in the attractiveness and variety of products placed on exhibition at the Pittsburg Land Show.

Miss Sadie Collings, one of our popular young teachers in the Balmorhea public school, is also teaching a successful music class after regular school hours. Such industry as this is certainly commendable.—Toyah Valley Herald

With her buckskin pony, Bud and her big shaggy hound, Mickey, she has traveled thousands of miles, braving the mountains and the desert, the long nights without shelter, the long days with no food save such as she may chance to have with her: the fires in the timber, the floods in the arroyo. And this is remarkable.

WATER AND GAS

Franchise to be Asked of City Council for Soft Water and Gas

It is reported reliably that Amarillo parties will make application to the City Council in the next thirty days for a 99 year franchise to place soft water and gas within the city of Pecos. The promoters of the plan live in Amarillo and have very quietly made a close inspection of conditions in Pecos and state that they have a fund of $125,000.00 cash with which to handle the work.

The promoters state that they have information genuinely leading them to believe that a vast deposit of natural gas is lying almost within the limits of Pecos and also they have an option on a fine supply of soft water within a few miles of the city. The promoters who refuse to give their names at this time, claim to be able to deposit $25,000.00 with some Pecos within 90 days that they carry out their proposed plans provided the City Council grants them a 99-year franchise on soft water and city gas. They also ask that the city regulate the price of water and that they be not allowed to charge more than $1.50 per 1000 gallons for same.

It is a good plan and if the parties can do what they claim, it is believed that the City Council will not be slow in granting necessary franchises and furnishing such data as may be necessary in the matter. Next week the Record will give more complete data on the matter.

"Mentor" Comfort Union Suits

When it comes to underwear we prefer to talk quality rather than price---yet it is a fact that many of our prices are less than others quote.

The best value for any man is in a Mentor Comfort Union Suit---and the proof is here: Made in Cotton, Lisle, Silkateen and Australian wool---soft and agreeable to the skin---it is a health-giving and health-protecting underwear.

We say without fear of contradiction that Mentor Comfort Union Suits are the best, and by far the cheapest, because they give good service and thorough satisfaction.

RALSTONS Hold their shape

It isn't a much of a knack to buy good looking shoes; but when it comes to getting shoes which combine style, comfort and service to the degree that RALSTON'S do, its another story.

Because of their unusual fitting qualities, Ralston Shoes are deservedly popular. They fit the foot trimly and snugly, and yet they do not bind or pinch. There is no strain on any any part, and that's the reason that Ralstons hold their shape until they are worn out.

SOME THINGS THAT WOULD HELP SCHOOL TEACHERS

"Do not fail to make allowance for slight exaggeration when hearing of pranks in school.

Do not accuse the teacher of undue favoritism. If she is kinder to one child than to another, it's because that one does not take advantage of the liberty allowed him. This is simple justice.

Do not tell the teacher that Willie will not lie. She may know better.

Do not condemn the teacher without a fair hearing. This is accorded to even the worst criminal. There are usually two sides to the story.

Do not send a scathing note to the teacher by Nellie, the contents of which she knows. Her aggressive look of triumph is not soothing and the teacher is only human.

Do not make unfavorable comments upon the methods of the teacher in the presence of your child. Send him to carry in wood while doing so, if it must be done.

Do not expect the teacher to understand Jimmie's disposition the first day. You have studied it for six years and there are still kinks in it which you have failed to straighten out.

Do not plead lack of time to the school. There is no excuse for shirking a duty.

Do not reproach the teacher with the fact "Tommy has not learned a single thing the entire year. She is not responsible for his lack of brains.

Do not send a verbal message to have Jennies seat changed. There is often no seat vacant and one change usually means half a dozen.

Do not forget that the teachers interest in your child is personal. She will do more to help him than anyone besides yourself.

Do not expect the teacher to manage without friction a child whom you yourself have never been able to control.

Do not insist that the teacher is keeping your child back thru spite. She will hardly risk her reputation as an instructor to tify a personal grudge how disagreeable the child may

Do not forget that the parents have a duty to the teacher just as they as the teacher does to the child."—Ex.

SAVORY MEAT DISHES.

Breaded Tongue, Tomato Sauce.—Cut thick slices of cold boiled corned beef tongue. Season with pepper and salt, if needed. Brush over with beaten egg, roll in fine bread crumbs and saute in hot butter or other fat. Serve with tomato sauce.

Cheese in any form is very nutritious, but is best uncooked, as to digestibility. There are many ways of using cheese in dishes to add to the food content. Grated cheese adds to a dish of creamed potatoes or escalloped dishes of almost any vegetable. It is especially good with creamed celery.

Cheese Cutlets.—Melt three tablespoonfuls of butter in a sauce pan, add two tablespoonfuls of cornstarch mixed with one and a half tablespoonfuls of flour. Cook until smooth; add gradually two-thirds of a cup of milk, stir and cook ten minutes. Add the yolks of two eggs slightly beaten, a cake of cream cheese cut in pieces, half a teaspoonful each of salt and Worcestershire sauce, a dash of tabasco and a half a cup of American cheese. Mix, but do not let it melt. Pour into a deep pie plate to cool. When firm, cut in pieces, dip in egg, roll in crumbs and fry in deep fat.

Chipped Beef With Celery.—Pour hot water over half a pound of chipped beef, if too salt, and drain quickly. Melt two tablespoonfuls of butter, add a cup of celery cut in small pieces; stir until the celery is delicately browned.

Cook a tablespoonful each of flour and cornstarch in a tablespoonful of butter, add a cup of milk, salt and pepper to taste and combine the two mixtures. Serve on triangles of toast.

Salted Almond Soup.—Take half a pound of blanched salted almonds. Put them through a meat chopper and grind like coarse meal. Cook two and a half tablespoonfuls of cornstarch and two tablespoonfuls of butter until thick; add a pint of clear veal broth, then add the almonds alternately with a quart of veal broth and a cup of cream. Season with salt and white pepper. Serve in cups with whipped cream on top of each cup.

X. EDUCATION.

THE Chinese made the first paper and the Germans made the type and brought education within the reach of every citizen of the globe. These achievements, together with the printing press, the crowning glory of civilization. The Texas press is a great industrial factor. To read our newspapers makes the farmer want to start a plow, the miner shoulder his pick, the manufacturer enlarge his plant and the banker increase his investments. Our marvelous progress is largely to our inspired writers who sweetly sing the praises of Texas.

THE FIRST PRINTING PRESS.

The vigor of youth is upon Texas. The dew of prosperity falls on it by night and the rays of a glorious sun nurture it by day. Our soil warm from creation—is as fertile as the Valley of the Nile. Our climate—the factory site of the Universe—invites the merry hunt of minerals and our minerals—nature's treasury box—await the prospectors of Texas opportunities light the universe like the blaze of a meteor inviting whosoever will to come to a land as beautiful as the Eden of Paradise and as full of possibilities as the Garden of Eden. Let every body come. Texas needs great men.

DOING THE LITTLE THINGS

Perhaps it may be safely said that most of life's failures are traceable to an unwillingness to do little things. Most people would work, or think they would, if they could do some great thing. But behold the loss! Tiny drops of water make the great ocean. Small grains of earth make the "wondrous land." By many thousand small strokes great ships are constructed—veritable floating palaces and cities—to plow the briny deep. In the same way cities themselves are built, costly and beautiful buildings are erected. The little details of life make up character. Besides, in this way we may do much good "while the days are going by." When all of life is over, we will have accomplished a great work. Consider the apparently insignificant things every day that we may do, that are good and noble. They seem unimportant, but in the great structure of life's real character they become more important. While Christ was on earth he did many little things, and from these his matchless character exert little or no influence every day. Opportunities are about them. They will appear no more. Do not let it be said at the event of that the day is lost.—Firm Foundation.

NOTICE TO THE PUBLIC

Any erroneous reflection upon the character, standing or reputation of any firm or corporation which may appear in the columns of The Record will be corrected upon its being brought to the attention of publishers.

Factories, bigger factories, bigger factories should gain of those crying the prosperity of Texas. Buy of Texas factories. Let 'em grow' to be and better and watch factories come into the to get their share of Texas. Patronize home industries.

Texas is the greatest state in the Union, with the most wonderful resources, yet we pay $400,000,000 annually for out-of-state merchandise. Some good factories in the state would save much of this to us. Let Pecos begin with a candy factory.

The birdman, Rodgers, is flying from Atlantic to Pacific, while Miss Clair is riding a cowpony from the Pacific to the Atlantic, but Pecos is still growing.

Silence is golden when talk may be cast iron. Some people have peculiar ideas about the question of intelligence, that it must be shown by a constant gabbling, lest they be thought dull and uninformed.

Champ Clark is one of America's greatest men. Strong in physique, stronger in mind, but strongest in character. His name is a synonym of honesty and right. He will make a fine president of the Lincoln and McKinley kind.

Farmers who travel over bad roads have to spend a large part of their time in mending harness and repairing vehicles. Many an hour of the rainy day that the farmer could enjoy in pleasant and profitable reading is necessarily consumed in making such repairs.

Good roads enable the farmer to reach the city at any time of the year, as bad weather does not prevent him from traveling. He can reach the market with his perishable goods when they are in prime condition and thus get the top price for his products.

Only by contrasting the Texas of today with the Texas of twenty-five years ago can one get a viewpoint from which to study the progress that has been made and to forecast the future. Marvelous things have been achieved. Still more marvelous achievements are to be made. Much has been done, but there are limitless resources to be developed; limitless opportunities to be utilized.

ENTERTAINED

Tuesday afternoon of last week Mrs. J. G. Love entertained the Home Mission Society at her beautiful home in honor of Rev. and Mrs. H. M. Smith, who took their departure the latter part of the week for Alpine, their new field of labor.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith and their interesting children are greatly loved by the people of Pecos and will be greatly missed in all circles of society. The Home Mission Society was glad to do honor to Mrs. Smith who has served it faithfully as president and in many other ways as well.

About thirty ladies were present and all were greatly pleased to have the presence of Rev. Messer, a former pastor, also Rev. Cole, pastor of the Baptist church.

After spending a couple of hours in pleasant conversation enlivened by music furnished by Mrs. McKellar, a salad course was served by the hostess, assisted by Mesdames Heard, Douglas and Fish. After which the guests bade the hostess and honored goodbye, all wishing for Mr. and Mrs. Smith an abundance of health and happiness in their new field of labor.

Incidentally, Mr. Pratt is the first visit Mr. Pratt made to the State Fair of Texas. He said: Your Fair is emblematic of a great State—the biggest on earth. I am surprised and delighted at the permanency of the structures that are built to always and give the visitors an impression that the structures will grow better and better with time. I have entered your State my lines, prepared to sell a fine class of citizenship, and I feel that they are easy to come when you have the right of goods. Yes my one hobby is good roads. I try to boost for good roads wherever I am, and in any way I can. I had the pleasure of riding with Thomas W. Wilby, United States Road Commissioner, to log the roads between New York and San Francisco. The car styled the Ohio Mud-Crawler, was in your city last year on the Lakes-to-the-Gulf trip. The work of Mr. Wilby is bearing fruit in many sections that before were very lukewarm in building permanent roads. I learn that The News is one of the best factors in Texas in the people to build roads. I hope that you will continue to work up and up to Texas next year hundreds of miles, by from the Red Gulf." Mr. Pratt had only been in Dallas a few days, he is sure that he will continue until the end of the Fair. News.

TIMES HAVE CHANGED

When I was young I used to go to adorn a long potato row, and whack the weeds out with a hoe. Or early in the summer morn, with one old mule, morose, forlorn, I'd go to cultivate the corn. All through the summer day I toiled, my raiment reeking wet and soiled, and I was fried and baked and boiled. And when at night I sought my bed, my feet were like two tons of lead, and till next morning I was dead. When to the country I repair and see the wondrous changes there, I always go up in the air. For now the farmer surely feels like Cleopatra as he reels along on plows with painted wheels. He drives a large and handsome team; his implements are like a dream; spring seats are spiked to every beam. He blithly tills his fertile lands, nor in the mud and gumbo stands. His pants are creased and show no dirt; his feet are by the thorns unhurt; he often wears a parboiled shirt. And when he goes to town he makes his journey in a brace of shakes; his auto runs to beat the snakes. He has a gas plant of his own, a bathroom and a telephone, and often he has seeds to loan. Thus are the old world's changes rang.—Ex.

QUIT LYING

"When they had kindled a fire in the midst of the hall and were come together. But a certain maid came behind as he sat by the fire, and earnestly looked upon him and said that man was also with him. And he denied her, saying, woman, I know him not."—Luke 22:25-27.

Peter lied. He had been with Christ every day for nearly three years and yet when a frisky maiden pointed her finger at him he wilted and had lied three times, and to clinch it "cussed" like a Roman soldier. The trouble with Peter was that he had been a fisherman by profession and all fishermen, of course, are natural born liars. But Peter did not always lie. He quit after his experience with fire at Pentecost, and so the reader must not get the idea that he (the reader) is in the line of apostolic succession just because he is addicted to prevarications. We are all liars—unless the newspaper men and preachers are an exception. A woman meets a neighbor whom she despises, at the door, and overwhelms her with expressions of delight at her coming. She is lying. She paints her face and goes on the streets as much as to say: "My face is rosy and healthy." She is lying. The merchant tells his customer his wagon is the best in town. He is a liar—there are a dozen other makes just as good. The farmer lays his wood criss-cross in the bottom of his wagon bed and lays it thick and close on top. He is lying. The preacher buries an old sinner who was a servant of the devil, and says: "The Lord has taken him away." He is a liar. The editor writes a flowery notice of a wedding, telling of the beauty of the bride, the groom, the minister, etc. He is honestly mistaken. Reader, quit lying; it is neither biblical nor Jeffersonian; it is unconstitutional, unladylike. It stamps its brand upon your brow and the world will sooner or later find you out. The noblest work of God is an honest man or woman, absolutely honest with himself as well as with the public.—Honey Grove Signal.

THE HOE AND THE DOUGH

The man with the hoe has been recognized by every age and nation as a fundamental source of prosperity and while our literature abounds with encomiums in his praise, the half has never been told. But the man with the dough is equally as important to Texas at this period of our growth and development as the man with the hoe. Attempts have been made to discredit him, but when it comes to building factories and railroads and large industrial enterprises which are necessary to our prosperity, we must face the man with money and our destinies as a nation of influence and power are largely in his hands. It takes the man with the hoe and the man with the dough combined to make civilization and one is inter-dependent upon the other.

RAILROADS AND DIRT ROADS

The demonstration train of the Santa Fe on exhibition at the Dallas Fair created widespread interest and was by far the leading attraction of the Fair. The old and the new type of engine, the latter ten times the power of the former—carries with it a message of progress in a manner that commands attention of thoughtful citizens and it impresses upon the mind in an unforgettable manner the advancement made in railroad transportation. Comparing the progress in road beds, equipment, etc., of the railroad with that of our public roads we find that as road builders we have not kept pace with the railroads in development. We are using the same old dirt roads the same old way and our equipment and power show very little change.

Boost us with your orders and we will boost you with the goods and prices. Vickers & Collings.

NOTICE TO SPORTSMEN

A Pecos stockman has posted the following notice on his pasture gate: "Notis—No more huntin will be allowed in my pastures. Trespassers caught in this pastor will be run out to the full limit of the law by my 2 dogs what ain't never been overly parshal to strangers and a double barrel loaded with scrap iron: dam if I ain't getting tired of having this shootin of my stock and helrasin generally in my pastor. Stay out."—Rosebud News.

TO VALUE RAILROADS

Austin, Texas, Oct. 25.—Officials of the Pecos Valley Southern Railroad are here today to confer with the Railroad Commission, and on the return tomorrow of Commissioners from Galveston probably they will file application for a valuation of the road at the maximum about $12,000 a mile, upon which to base a bond issue for the full amount. They are also seeking to adjust matters relating to title to their rights of way over State lands the road extending from Pecos, Reeves county, forty-five miles south to Toyahvale, at which point extensive improvements are under construction. An extension from this terminus to connect with the Southern Pacific at Alpine or Marfa, about sixty-five miles, is being considered.

W. L. Carville of Dallas, president, J. F. Ross, general counsel, and L. W. Anderson, superintendent and chief engineer, both of Pecos, consulted with Engineer Parker of the Commission as to records, etc., necessary to be filed in perfecting title to right of way and with the application for valuation.

When in Pecos make the Record your headquarters.

"OLD MOTHER SATAN"

While in Dallas recently, passing down the plaza on the Pecos Grounds, we saw on the front of one of the side shows the pictures of various animals and reptiles, among which was a huge reptile. We immediately paid the price and went in.

Near the entrance was a large canvas box in which "Old Mother Satan" was on exhibition. She is a boa constrictor, captured in the jungles of Asia and is thirty feet long, weighs 483 pounds, measures about 12 inches across the back. She is 108 years old and is very wise for her age. She is kind and affectionate and loves her mistress very dearly, often coming up to the mistress and placing her huge head in her lap. She enjoys the caresses of the tamer but rebels at the touch of any stranger.

Her Satanic Majesty eats four times per year, and is delicate, taking about 200 pounds of pig averaging in weight from 20 to 40 pounds, and will eat nothing she does not kill herself. The live pigs are put into the room with her and she lassos the pigs with her tail and wraps her body about them and with one strong hug, piggy hushes and every bone in his body is crushed and the work of swallowing is then performed.

She is orderly and systematic in her habits, and when feeding time comes it matters not how much company is present, she goes to her sleeping-place, her keeper, stranger nor anyone can keep her away.

This monster reptile has no poisonous fangs, and does not try to bite.

The average age for these animals is twelve hundred years, and they continue to grow thru most of the first one thousand years.

Tell it to the Record.

THE STATE OF TEXAS

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Reeves County, GREETING:

Oath having been made as required by law YOU ARE HEREBY COMMANDED to summon J. J. Hobin by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, in some newspaper published in your County, if there be a newspaper published therein, but if not, then in any newspaper published in the Seventieth Judicial District; but if there be no newspaper published in said Judicial District, then in a newspaper published in the nearest District to said Judicial District, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Reeves County, to be held at the Court House thereof in Pecos, Texas, on the 3rd Monday in November, A. D. 1911, the same being the 29th day of November, A. D. 1911, then and there to answer a petition filed in said Court on the 13th day of July, A. D. 1911, in a suit, numbered on the docket of said Court No. 795, wherein W. M. Clume is plaintiff, and J. J. Hobin is defendant, said petition alleging as follows, to-wit:

That in September 1910, said defendant executed and delivered a deed to plaintiff to the following described land, to-wit: 55 acres out of the north half (N 1-2) of the Northeast Quarter (N. E. 1-4) of Section No. 56, Block 13, H. & G. N. R. R. Co. Survey, Reeves County, Texas, beginning at an iron pipe marked 78 1/2 79-56 1/2 95-B13; thence S. 12 oW. 1320 feet to a rock mound set for the S. E. Corner of this tract; thence N. 78o W. 1815 feet to a rock mound set for the S. E. Corner of this tract, thence N. 12 1/4 E. 1320 feet to a rock mound set for the N. V. Corner of this tract; thence S 78o E 1815 feet to the place of beginning containing 55 acres of land; that as a consideration for said conveyance, plaintiff paid to said defendant the sum of $2200.00 cash, and executed and delivered to said defendant, plaintiff's three vendor's lien notes of even date with said deed, as follows: One for the sum of $800.00, and two for the sum of $700.00 each, making a total consideration of $4400.00 for said conveyance; all of said notes being payable to the order of the defendant and signed by plaintiff, and all of same drawing interest at the rate of 6 per cent per annum from date and all retaining a vendor's lien upon the above described premises; said notes being due in one, two and three years respectively from date.

Plaintiff further alleges that for a long time prior to the execution of the deed aforesaid and at the time of the said conveyance, plaintiff was a resident of Webb County, Texas, and had never been upon or seen the above described land; that plaintiff had never heard of said land prior to said time and knew nothing whatever of its location or character from any source, except what defendant said about it as hereinafter stated, that at the time and prior to the execution and delivery of the deed aforesaid, defendant represented to plaintiff that all of the above said land, to-wit, said 55 acres was riparian to and adjacent to the Toyah arrigated from said stream, that 1/3 of said land was of the very best and richest soil, good level land and all easily put into cultivation, that there were at said time about 30 acres of said land thoroughly set with a good stand of growing alfalfa, that all of said land was of the market value of $100.00 per acre, but that defendant would sell same to plaintiff for $80.00 per acre.

Plaintiff further alleges that he relied upon said representations and believed all of same to be true, that said defendant was at said time and had been for a long time prior thereto a minister in the Catholic Church, that plaintiff was a member of said church at said time and implicitly relied upon all of said representations as aforesaid and was induced by said representations to purchase said land, execute and deliver said notes and accept said deed.

Plaintiff further alleges that said representations were not true in fact, but all of same were false, and well known by said defendant to be false when he so made them, that in truth and in fact one-half of the above said land was rocky, mountainous land, absolutely unfit for and wholly worthless for agricultural purposes, that fully one-half of same was so mountainous, rocky and rough, that it was unacceptable to cattle and horses and was absolutely worthless for grass purposes, and was therefore worthless for any purpose, that there were only about 15 acres of said land then planted in alfalfa or had ever been planted in alfalfa, and that said 15 acres were not well set in alfalfa as represented by defendant, but the stand upon same was very bad, that the market value of said land by reason of the mountainous and rocky character of one-half of it as aforesaid and by reason of the deficit in the number of acres of alfalfa as aforesaid, and by reason of the bad stand of said alfalfa as aforesaid, and the said 55 acres were not worth more than 1-3 of what defendant represented it to be worth.

Plaintiff further alleges that he is willing to and hereby tenders to said defendant in open court a good and valid deed to the above said land, that said defendant is still in possession of and is the owner of said vendor's lien notes.

Plaintiff further alleges that as soon as he discovered the above said false representations, and discovered that said land was not as defendant represented same to be, he notified defendant and tendered to defendant a rescission of said trade, and tried to get defendant to cancel said notes, pay back to plaintiff said $2200.00 and accept a deed from plaintiff to said land; that at said time, said defendant promised plaintiff that he would rescind said trade, pay back plaintiff his money, and that plaintiff then thought said defendant would do so, the said defendant continued knowingly and wilfully to lead plaintiff to believe and did make plaintiff believe that said defendant would adjust said matter without suit, that by reason of said last named representation of said defendant, this plaintiff did not discover until within the last two or three weeks that defendant did not intend to carry out said agreement as to rescission of said trans-

$50.00 in June, 1910, that same was to be paid back to plaintiff or plaintiff was to be given credit for same on the purchase money for said land, that plaintiff has been out for the sum of $100.00 for hotel bills and loss of time, railroad expenses on going to and returning from Pecos City in his efforts to get said defendant to carry out his said agreement to adjust the above said matter, that plaintiff has been damaged in the aggregate the sum of $2350.00.

HEREIN FAIL NOT, but have before said Court, at its aforesaid next regular term, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed same.

WITNESS, H. N. McKellar, Clerk of the District Court of Reeves County.

GIVEN UNDER MY HAND and the Seal of said Court, at office in Pecos, Texas, this 11th day of September, A. D. 1911.

H. N. McKellar, Clerk, District Court, Reeves County.

GET THIS POINT.

A few days ago an editor was collecting his bills. A bill was presented to one firm and this firm presented another to the editor that amounted to about twice as much as the one he had. The proprietor seemed to rejoice over the fact and stated that that was the first time he had an account larger than the newspaper had against him. Nothing was said in return, but the editor got to thinking that if every man in town had that same spirit it would not be long before he would have to close the cases, lock the doors and bid farewell to the newspaper world. If every merchant's account was bigger than the one the newspaper man had, there would be absolutely nothing left to pay the printers, type foundry companies or paper houses. The merchant has all the country for his territory from which to draw patronage, while the newspaper must confine itself to the city walls. Many merchants can live in a town and make money, but it pushes one or two newspapers to keep going. Remember this, Mr. Business Man, that when you "out put" the newspaper man on the first of each month, you have not done your duty toward that institution, and if every merchant in town was just like you it would not be many days until you would have no local paper. —Paduca Post.

ALFALFA AND THE FUTURE

Austin Statesman: A profitable industry is being developed on many of the Government irrigation projects in the production of honey. Alfalfa is the chief source from which bees obtain their supply, and as it blooms from early spring until late in the fall, the bees have something to work on all the time, allowing a greater amount of honey to be stored. The bee industry is a lucrative side line for the regular farmer. The average price of bees in the West is about $5 a hive. The average production of hives is seventy-six pounds of surplus honey per annum. At 10c per pound the returns would be $6.60. In addition to that, the increase averages 100 per cent from year to year, doubling the original investment and making a total of about 150 per cent profit each year on the original investment.

It may get so some time that alfalfa will be the universal crop. When the earth shall become so densely populated that the sustenance of the human family is the one big, oppressive, aching and ever-present problem, then it will be necessary to make every acre of ground produce the largest possible output of provender for man and beast for the people will perish. Alfalfa, possibly, will then be to the swarming millions of the Western hemisphere as rice is to those of the Eastern half of the world. Of course we, that is our posterity, will not particularly relish alfalfa, but hunger is the best appetizer, and men will eat anything before they will starve. Some of them eat okra even now, and quite a good many do not scorn squash. Alfalfa when it is young and tender is very good greens, and as it produces four crops a year, it will enable our descendants, 500 years from now, to have fresh "salet" nearly all the year round. Dry alfalfa, properly milled, makes a fair substitute for flour, and with alfalfa bread and alfalfa greens, our oncoming legates will be able to keep their bodies and souls together as long as nature justifies them in so doing. With plenty of bees to convert the alfalfa blossoms into honey, it will be possible for the alfalfafied masses to keep sweetening on hand, which will be a great help to their bill of fare.

LOVE AND BOOZE

"Makin' love is like drinkin' booze. A fellow gets so darned lonesome that he takes a chance and he takes a darn sight bigger chance on a woman than he does on the booze," said farmer T. J. Foulkin of Danbury, Iowa. "It costs lots of money to make love. Why, it costs me 95c for a dinner just for two and took $2 for me and her at the show, and then that woman I was with wanted to eat again. Darn if I didn't spend $6 in one night. It's always better to give a woman all your money in the beginning. If you don't she'll get it anyway and if you don't marry her she'll take it out on you and if you do marry her she'll take it out on you just the same. Love is a useless necessity. When you run up against a woman, young feller, just say to yourself: 'Remember Farmer Foulkin of Iowa. He got his and he got it right.'" —Swyped.

Lucky was the patient in Cedarville who could secure the services of "Auntie" Bond as his nurse, but he must make up his mind that, while his wants would receive due attention, and he would have a fair amount of cooing, there were some things in which he could not have his own way.

"Now you just take that look off your face, wont you?" she half coaxed, half commanded a man who was recovering from pneumonia. "You arn't half as sick as you was a month ago; let your thoughts dwell on this: There's a lot o' folks outdoors a-falling from the tops o' buildings and a-getting run into and over by automobiles and contraptions of all sorts, besides those that are yielding to temptation
