Announcement For County Commissioner.

To the citizens of Precinct No. 1:
In asking for your support, for reelection, I will say that I have faithfully, honestly and conscientiously discharged the duties of commissioner to the best of my ability. There are many things that come before the commissioner's court which require careful study and the very closest investigation.

The road work has required more time and study than any other public duty during my term, and while it took time to get a satisfactory sale of our road bonds, I know that we got the best cash price for them that could be secured at the time we sold them. The contracts for building our roads have been let to faithful, competent men, and while the continued drouth has made it very hard on men and teams, yet I am glad to say that I have never seen more honest, loyal work done than is being done on the roads. I know that we will have as many miles of good roads when completed as is possible to get out of the money we have to spend, and when the work is done every part of the district will receive a fair portion of good roads. I am sure our terms are fair to our customers, yet am proud to say that our Road District is receiving a dollar's worth of honest, well-directed work for each dollar spent. I thank you one and all for the many courtesies shown me while representing you. I know that every member of the court will always be glad to have any advice or suggestion any citizen of our county may wish to give on any particular subject pertaining to the county's interest. I will greatly appreciate your support and vote for my reelection. I am, truly yours,
R. N. COUCH.

Brooks Leads in Straw Vote.

The following article appeared in the editorial columns of the Dallas News, of date June 15, concerning the straw vote taken by the editors of Texas on their trip from El Paso to Cloudcroft, just after the meeting of the Texas Press Association at El Paso: "The straw vote showed 157 editors participated in it. Of these 96 were of the opinion that Brooks would run either first or second; 78 that Culbertson would run first or second; 66 that Colquitt would run first or second; 53 that Campbell would run first or second; and 21 that Henry would run first or second. The vote was taken with reference to first and second places." Sam Means made a business trip to Midland Saturday.

Here Looking Over Sulphur Mines North of Toyah.

Mr. Chas. E. Doddridge of Philadelphia, Pa., was a visitor in Pecos last week, his trip being for the purpose of inspecting the property of the West Texas Sulphur Company, in the interest of some of the investors in that concern. Mr. Doddridge is a member of the firm of Burns, Doddridge & White, leading stock brokers of Philadelphia, with offices in the Stock Exchange Building. He expressed himself as highly pleased with the sulphur developments in this section, and has, it is understood, made a favorable report to his clients on the West Texas Sulphur Company's property. He stated that it was very evident that there are millions of tons of sulphur of a very high grade, available for mining operations in these deposits. He was particularly impressed by the successful operations of the Michigan Sulphur & Oil Company, who have recently installed a plant for the mining and treating of sulphur from their property in the vicinity of the West Texas Sulphur Company. The Michigan people are meeting with complete success in their operations, the sulphur refined being of a very high grade as saying 99.84 per cent. Mr. Doddridge stated that he felt confident that his associates would invest heavily in the stock of the West Texas Sulphur Company, and that the work on the plant would start in the early fall.

R. N. Couch for Re-Election Commissioner Precinct No. 1

We are authorized to announce the name of R. N. Couch as a candidate for reelection to the office of county commissioner in Precinct No. 1, subject to the decision of the voters at the Democratic primary to be held Saturday, July 22, 1916. Mr. Couch is one of Reeves County's substantial cattlemen and farmers, and has, during his terms in office most faithfully and to the very best of his ability looked after the interests of all citizens and tax payers of the county without prejudice of favor, and should he be re-elected will do the same again. He has taken special interest and pains in the sale of the roads bonds and the letting of the contracts in the different lines of the work. He is well versed in the values of lands, and personal property; is a careful business man, and will do what he thinks is for the best interest of all. You will find his name in its proper place, and we commend him to the voters of his precinct.

Operated Upon At El Paso.

Jno. Z. Means was carried to El Paso Wednesday from Valentine, where he was operated upon for stoppage of the bowels. Mr. and Mrs. Sam Means, and Mrs. W. H. Browning, Jr. went up Thursday morning. We are pleased to announce that word was received here this morning that Mr. Means was getting along finely.

J. H. Wilhite was over from Midland a part of yesterday and today on a business trip, and was kept busy shaking the hands of his many friends in Pecos. He informs us that they, himself and Mrs. Wilhite, have made arrangements to remain at Midland College another year, and then they are coming "Home." Their numerous friends were in hopes that they would return after the close of the recent term.

Cattle Shipped.

Last Friday at Pyote Beckham Bros. and Andrews shipped 394 head of steer yearlings, which they sold to Cal Merchant for $33.50. They were billed to Panhandle City. Saturday at Saragosa, W. D. Cowan shipped 500 head of steer yearlings, to the T. D. Love Cattle Company at Portales, N. M. Monday, at Toyah, Joe Seay loaded out 3 cars of fine steer yearlings, to the T. D. Love Cattle Company, Portales, N. M. Frank Kelton, Association Inspector, in this section was on the job at the loading out of the above shipments. Tuesday J. Y. Cannon loaded out from Pecos 10 cars of cattle which he shipped over the Santa Fe to Trinidad, Colo. They were raised on Mr. Cannon's ranch. Tuesday Clayton & Munan loaded out from Metz 28 cars of cattle which were shipped to Pecos over the T. & P. and were transferred to the Santa Fe, which carried them on to Denver, Colo. Wednesday, R. P. Verhalen shipped out from his farm at Verhalen, a carload of fine Duroc Jersey hogs—68 head—which he had raised. They were transferred from the Pecos Valley Southern road to the Texas and Pacific, and taken to the Fort Worth market. Mr. Verhalen went in with the shipment. Yesterday J. Davis shipped out from Toyahvale a carload of fat cattle over the Pecos Valley Southern and Texas & Pacific roads, which were consigned to the North Texas Live Stock and Commission Company at Fort Worth.

Buy Three Cars of Flour.

Geo. D. Coon, the hustling proprietor of the City Bakery, recently purchased three carloads of flour at one shipment for his bakery. It is old wheat flour, which insures his large number of customers the very best of bread. The first car is here and the others are expected in a few days. The flour will cost him an even $1000 per carload.

Mrs. Wm. Chancellor and son

Wm. Jr., visited a short time in Pecos with Mrs. Earl Coakings, Thursday. They were on their way home to Midland. They had been in Fort Stockton about a week, but on account of the trouble down there Wednesday between the sheriff, Barker, and a Grandfalls Mexican, whom he had put in jail some time before, and who had just been turned out. The Mexican "went after" Barker, with a gun on, and fired several shots at him within short range, but Barker got the Mexican. Mrs. Chancellor decided that she would cut her visit short a couple of weeks, so went home yesterday.

Land List Will Be

at Austin comes a letter signed by the land commissioner, J. T. Robison, that may be of interest to our readers:
The Pecos Times,
Pecos, Texas.

Gentlemen:—For the information of those wanting to know something about our land affairs and for the benefit of those who may desire to acquire homes thereon upon very favorable terms, will you kindly say to your readers that I have sent to the printer a list of the lands that will be offered for sale about September 1. This list includes about 4,300,000 acres. They will be ready for distribution about July 1st. The lists are free and will give further information. Those wanting them write me now, and the list will be forwarded just as soon as they are received from the printer.

Yours truly,
J. T. ROBISON,
Commissioner.

GOLF FOOT IS LATEST ILL

Doctor Tries to Take Joy Out of Life by Discovering New Ailment Due to Popular Sport.

Somebody's always willing to dig and find out something about that which one likes most. For instance, there are those who discourage ice cream, beer, highballs, cocktails, etc. But up to the time of the current issue of the Medical Record there were few who discouraged any particular line of sport beyond, perhaps, mentioning that a person might overtrain. One needs a brand new breath to tell this.

After millions of men and women have advocated golf as the heartiest of exercises, despite the fact that it may encourage a bit of fibbing now and again, along comes a doctor and declares that he has discovered the golf foot. The whole sum and substance of "golfer's foot" is that in driving or making some shots properly, one may get too much weight on the toes of the left foot. Players of this class, says the doctor, are very likely to develop a large callus on the inner side of the great toe about opposite to the bed of the nail. The doctor recommends that the best of care be taken of one's feet.

THESE MEN SAW SOME SNAKE

Declare They Encountered 20-Foot Reptile in Pennsylvania Field—Shots Failed to Stop It.

Frank Johnson and John Breese, living at Somerton, Pa., are authority for the statement that a snake between fifteen and twenty feet long is at large in that vicinity. They declare it is evidently an anaconda.

The two men were walking across a field near the Forest Hill cemetery, and, according to their statement, the snake glided from a pile of rocks, moved swiftly across an open field, and disappeared at the opening of an old sewer. Breese emptied the contents of a high-calibered revolver at the reptile, but the snake kept going. The men are unqualified in the assertion that the reptile was about twenty feet long.

Several years ago, when a circus train was sidetracked near Somerton, a report was current that a number of large snakes had escaped from their cages, and this story has been revived.

BULLDOG WAS ACQUITTED.

Mrs. Joseph Woods of Redondo Beach, was plaintiff in a case against J. F. Murray. Mrs. Woods' grievance was not against Mr. Murray particularly, except that he kept a bulldog named "General," who tried to chew up her little fox terrier.

Those who testified at the trial included the butcher boy, the baker and the grocery man, who said that so far as they knew "General" was a gentle old bulldog. Several neighbors also put in a good word for the "defendant."

Mr. Murray, who has owned the dog for eight years, said that he never roamed around and was always tied up at night. On May 1 "Rags," the little fox terrier, ran up to the back-yard fence where "General" was sleeping and reached through the fence and bit him on the nose. The next day the bulldog met "Rags" and shook him.

The jury found "General" not guilty.—Los Angeles Times.

FAMILY CAT'S NAME BLACKED.

Ninety per cent of the young birds are killed by cats, according to Louis Agassiz Fuertes, naturalist and painter, who spoke at a meeting held for the purpose of organizing an Audubon club. Mr. Fuertes asserted that any attempt to encourage birds was perfectly useless unless precautions were adopted to reduce the slaughter by cats.

Not only the stray back yard cat is the enemy of the birds, Mr. Fuertes said, but the family pet as well. The most loving pet becomes a heartless marauder at night and should be kept indoors after dark. Mr. Fuertes said that each bird has an individual note in its song which can be recognized. He also said that the songs of birds were not always just a burst of gladness, but a necessary part of their life and development.

THE REFLECTIONS OF A MARRIED WOMAN

are not pleasant if she is delicate, run-down, or over worked. She feels "played out." Her smile and her good spirits have taken flight. It worries her husband as well as herself.

This is the time to build up her strength and cure those weaknesses or ailments which are the seat of her trouble. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription regulates and promotes all the proper functions of womanhood, enriches the blood, dispels aches and pains, melancholy and nervousness, brings refreshing sleep, and restores health and strength. It cures those disorders and derangements incident to womanhood.

Mrs. LUCINDA ARMSTRONG, 3512 Dallas Avenue, Dallas, Texas, says: "My mother used Dr. Pierce's medicine over thirty years ago and recommended them to her daughters. I have used the 'Favorite Prescription' during my married life and found this remedy was all that was claimed for it."

A Timely Warning

EVEN well-known automobiles have advanced in price within the last ninety days.

The Maxwell Company has not increased their prices. We do not know what their plans are, but we do know and you know that materials entering into the construction of good automobiles now cost from 20 to 300 per cent more than they did six months ago.

Nothing is to be gained by delay. Much may be lost.

Not only may you lose several dollars in the purchase price, but you are sacrificing the enjoyment, the relaxation, the health-giving properties—everything, in fact, that makes motoring the favorite pastime of the nation.

We urge you to come in and investigate the Maxwell.

Or, we will refer you to any number of Maxwell owners and let them tell you their own story in their own way.

They will tell you what they have told us. That the Maxwell is good-looking—that it is powerful—that it is comfortable—that it is economical—in short, that it is the best investment they ever made. They will tell you more and they will tell you gladly and freely.

That's the way they feel toward us and the Maxwell Car.

Whatever you do, don't put this off. We have a few cars on hand and can take orders for immediate or future delivery—at present prices. If you can't come in today, phone us for a Maxwell demonstration.

HUSBAND RESCUED DESPAIRING WIFE

After Four Years of Discouraging Conditions, Mrs. Bullock Came Up in Despair. Husband Came to Rescue.

Catron, Ky.—In an interesting letter from this place, Mrs. Bettie Bullock writes as follows: "I suffered for four years, with womanly troubles, and during this time, I could only sit up for a little while, and could not walk anywhere at all. At times, I would have severe pains in my left side.

The doctor was called in, and his treatment relieved me for a while, but I was soon confined to my bed again. After that, nothing seemed to do me any good. I had gotten so weak I could not stand, and I gave up in despair.

At last, my husband got me a bottle of Cardui, the woman's tonic, and I commenced taking it. From the very first dose, I could tell it was helping me. I can now walk two miles without its tiring me, and am doing my work."

If you are all run down from womanly troubles, don't give up in despair. Try Cardui, the woman's tonic. It has helped more than a million women, in its 50 years of wonderful success, and should surely help you, too. Your druggist has sold Cardui for years. He knows what it will do. Ask him. He will recommend it. Begin taking Cardui today.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION SIDELIGHTS

One of the most interesting features of the recent Democratic convention at St. Louis is the fact that it took lovely woman to force the only roll call demanded on the national platform, as well as to inspire the only real excitement that marked the convention.

"Votes for Women" was the issue that stirred up things. The Mexican plank, nulled in at the last minute by the platform builders, did not create a ripple. "Americanism" and "preparedness" received polite ovations, but it remained for the woman suffrage plank to start a real fracas.

Headed by Gov. Ferguson of Texas, the anti's endeavored to wrench the suffrage plank from the platform. But President Wilson's feelings on the subject, as presented to the convention by Senator Walsh of Montana, were not to be ignored. And so, after a three-hour battle in which the term "political expediency" was used with telling effect, the anti's were routed by a vote of 888 1/2 to 181 1/2.

The vote, however, does not tell the real story of the battle, which was one of the most vigorous and picturesque ever staged at a national Democratic convention. Fifteen women delegates fought from the floor on the side of the pro-suffragists, while hundreds of their sisters waved yellow pennants and cheered them on from the balconies. A thunderstorm that almost drowned out the voices of the delegates as they answered the roll call brought both the suffrage battle and the convention to a most melodramatic finish.

THE SUFFRAGE PLANK.

"We recommend the extension of franchise to the women of this country by the states upon the same terms as to men."

It was the above little plank that inspired Gov. Ferguson of Texas to mount the platform in the Coliseum and read a minority report withholding the part support from the ladies who want the vote. That the Democratic party should scorn the political exigencies of the situation and defy the 12 western states in which women vote was the burden of his argument. Sharing the same opinion with him were C. L. Bartlett of Georgia, Stephen B. Fleming of Indiana and "Jim" Nugent of New Jersey, the old-time enemy of President Wilson. This trio signed the minority report with the Texan.

Lined up against Gov. Ferguson, who acted as spokesman for the minority, were Senator Stone of Missouri, Senator Pittman of Nevada and Senator Walsh of Montana.

Senator Walsh did not mince matters in his argument for the adoption of the suffrage plank. He stated plainly the adoption of the plank was necessary as a matter of political expediency, adding that the present political situation in this country was a condition and not a theory.

"The states in which women vote control 91 votes in the electoral college," he said, adding significantly, "every political party has declared for woman suffrage in some way or other. It becomes a simple question whether you will incur the enmity of these women."

"Now, my friends," he continued, "as late as 1907 there were but two states west of the Missouri river that returned Democratic senators and now we have 15 of them. The question is, are you ready to surrender the 15 votes you have in the United States senate and turn them over to your political enemies?"

In conclusion, Senator Walsh said that he revealed no secret when he said President Wilson knew all about the suffrage plank.

"The president believes it vital to his success that it stay in the platform," he said. "I ask you in all the fervor of my soul, who is there wiser or more patriotic than he?"

Following Senator Walsh's speech, Gov. Ferguson was allowed five minutes for rebuttal. The vote was then taken and his minority report voted down, after which the original suffrage plank, as approved by the resolutions committee was unanimously adopted.

The Women Delegates.

The presence of the 15 women delegates at the Democratic convention not only added color to the affair, but changed the views of a number of the men delegates on the subject of political activity for women. For the women delegates were a fine, wholesome-looking lot and they fought just as enthusiastically for the best interests of the party as the men.

Three of them, Miss Mary E. Foy of California, Mrs. T. S. Tallaferra of Wyoming, and Mrs. W. A. Harris of Kansas, spoke before the resolutions committee in favor of the suffrage plank which the National American Woman Suffrage Association presented to the convention.

One of the other delegates, Mrs. Teresa E. Graham, of Idaho, was nominated by the National Democratic committee to be one of the committee that will hold a referendum as to shall of his nomination.

PUT FOOD ON CALORY BASIS

New York Investigators Tell People What They Should Eat to Get Necessary Heat Energy.

Seven dollars and thirty-one cents a week will buy food for a family of five in New York city, declares the New York Sun.

Experiments carried on during the last two years by the social service department of the Beth Israel hospital have furnished the health department data for the foregoing conclusion. Sample menus and lists of supplies are offered—all based on the carefully worked out theory that father needs about three thousand calories of heat energy every day, mother can manage with 2,500, while the children will thrive on from twelve hundred to sixteen hundred each.

"We have been trying to spread such knowledge for some time," Health Commissioner Emerson declares. "Certainly this list should prove invaluable to the housewife who is trying to provide a wholesome diet at a limited cost."

We hope it may. At the same time we can't help sympathizing with housewives who take pride in catering, not on the calory basis but on the old-fashioned principle of marketing for what the family likes and what seems to agree with it. "Nobody," as Bret Harte used to say, "likes to have somebody else taste his lemonade for him."

Folks make some pretty bad mistakes about food. But who wants to be watered and fed like a plant?

Bowel Complaints in India.

In a lecture at one of the Des Moines, Iowa churches, a missionary from India told of going into the interior of India, where he was taken sick, that he had a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhea Remedy with him, and believed that it saved his life. This remedy is used successfully in India both as a preventative and a cure for cholera. You may know from this that it can be depended upon for the milder forms of bowel complaint that occur in every country.—Advt.

To Owners of Tractors and Other Heavy Farming Machinery

You bought your equipment because of the very evident economies it would introduce— But, unless all the parts are kept in working order, you do not reap the full benefit.

One of the greatest causes of depreciation of tractors is the wearing out of gears— You can save tractor gears, and all other heavy duty gears with

TEXACO CRATER COMPOUND The Great Gear Lubricant

We want to tell you that CRATER COMPOUND is one of the greatest discoveries in the field of lubrication.

It fills a long-felt want.

It protects and preserves many parts which never before could be adequately lubricated.

It coats each tooth with a WEAR-checking film which does not harden or scale off. It won't run or dry out. It is always there—lubricating. Dirt and flying dust cannot break this coating on the gears. It protects them from wear and rust.

CRATER is one of the many fine lubricants made by us and sold only under the TEXACO Brand.

You can secure CRATER, as well as a full line of lubricants, for any purpose whatever, from the TEXACO Agent near you. Call on him—it pays.

Will Move to Fort Stockton.

Roy E. Barr, who for several months past has been located in Pecos, in the practice of dentistry, has decided to leave here and move to Fort Stockton. He decided to make the move because the dentist, Dr. Chenoworth, who was located there, moved away, and he feels that under the circumstances he will have a better field there for his profession.

The Times, as well as their hosts of friends here, and in the vicinity are certainly sorry to lose them, for they have made hosts of friends here. One and all trust that they may have the greatest of success in their new home and field of work. They leave this week.

Such tobacco enjoyment

as you never thought could be is yours to command quick as you buy some Prince Albert and fire-up a pipe or a home-made cigarette!

Prince Albert gives you every tobacco satisfaction your smoke-appetite ever hankered for. That's because it's made by a patented process that cuts out bite and parch! Prince Albert has always been sold without coupons or premiums. We prefer to give quality!

has a flavor as different as it is delightful. You never tasted the like of it! And that isn't strange, either.

Buy Prince Albert everywhere tobacco is sold in tippy red bags, 5c; tidy red tins, 10c; handsome pound and half-pound tin humidor—and that corking fine pound crystal glass humidor.

Men who think they can't smoke a pipe or roll-a cigarette, can smoke and will smoke if they use Prince Albert. And smokers who have not yet given P. A. a try-out certainly have a big surprise and a lot of enjoyment coming their way as soon as they invest in a supply. Prince Albert tobacco will tell its own story!

THE TIMES, ever progressive, has added a feature that we feel sure will interest those of our readers who contemplate building a home. On this page will appear, each week, The illustration of a home, and, occasionally an interior. A wide range will be covered, so no matter what your taste regarding how a home should be, you will find just what you want. The reading matter, too, will be of a nature that has to do with the home.

Plan No. 2150.

This classy Swiss Chalet bungalow spells beauty in every line of exterior as well as interior design. The construction is of frame with cement stone porch and exposed fireplace, giving it a massive appearance, yet producing perfect harmony with the exterior architecture. The front porch and steps are of cement and from the porch you enter directly into the living room.

This room has a coved ceiling, large landscape window, mat brick fireplace and is separated from the dining room by colonnade opening in which are built bookcases and writing desk. The dining room has oak floor and beamed ceiling. Immediately back of this is the kitchen which is equipped with all modern built-in features. There is a screen back porch, and just back of the kitchen and connecting with the hall is the sun or breakfast room. On the opposite side of the house are located the three bed rooms with large closets to every one and by means of a well arranged hall every room in the house has direct connection with the bath room. The arrangement is unique in that there are seven large rooms bath and screened porch and in addition to closets in front of bed room there is the built-in dressing cabinet or boudoir.

Many are the reasons why every one should have a home as comfortable and attractive as their means will allow. Let the Home is where our loved ones are housed—life's most treasured possessions—and it is certainly our desire to surround our families with an atmosphere of comfort, convenience and pleasantness. It is the duty of every husband and father to his family to maintain for them a home of which they can be proud of a home where they can entertain their friends with pride. In fact, a home when surrounded with these simple comforts, become the most appreciated possession of every member of the family.

Giving The Housewife More Than She Demands.

During these days of the extreme high cost of living the shrewd housewife demands her money's worth in all the food she buys. To demand is one thing, but to actually receive is another.

You have a way of detecting short measure, but how do you know you are not receiving inferior quality?

In purchasing foodstuffs how do you determine whether or not you are receiving your full money's worth?

Do you buy a certain brand because your grandmother always used it?

Science has improved foodstuffs like everything else. If you use a certain brand because it has given satisfaction to you how can you be sure that you are getting the best, keeping abreast with the times and getting the latest improvements?

In deciding upon the different brands of food stuffs there is only one way to prove which gives the fullest value at any price, and that one way is in results—that which proves the "Best by Test."

A few manufacturers of foodstuffs guarantee to refund your money if their brands do not prove the best. Such firms and their products should be patronized. Among these are the makers of Calumet Baking Powder.—Advt.

When "Liquid Bread" Is Not "Liquid Bread."

It is stated that the president and vice-president of the Commercial Casualty Insurance Company of Newark, N. J., are brewers and that four brewers are on the board of directors. Many of the policy holders use their much advertised and highly recommended "liquid bread," but when these apply for compensation beer becomes an intoxicant and the patron—of the insurance company and of the brewery—is referred to a provision which reads:

"This insurance does not cover injuries as specified, fatal or otherwise, or sickness as is specified, received or sustained while or in consequence of being under the influence of, or affected by, or resulting directly or indirectly, from intoxicants."

Forethought.

People are learning that a little forethought often saves them a big expense. When we go on an extended visit we take it with us." Obtainable everywhere.—Advt.

John C. Magee.

In his 75th year John C. Magee died on Monday, June 12, 1916, at his late residence, 291 Lauder Ave. Mr. Magee was born at Bradford, Ontario, but had spent most of his life at Aithur, Ontario, where he was in the mercantile trade. He was one of the bulwarks of Methodism, and took particular interest in the musical side of the church life. Since coming to Toronto three years ago he had been a member of the Eaton Memorial church. Mr. Magee was the father of the late Rev. H. S. Magee, and is survived by his widow, four sons and three daughters: Clarence, of Houston, Texas; Dr. Cecil J., of Pecos, Texas; Milton, Douglas G., secretary of the Central Y. M. C. A., at Toronto; Mrs. J. H. Martin of Almonte, Ontario; and the Misses Mildred, Ethel and Clementine, at home. The funeral took place this afternoon to Prospect Cemetery.—Toronto (Canada) Blade.

Dr. C. J. Magee was unable to attend the funeral of his father whose obituary is printed above, on account of the long distance, as he could not get there in time.

The doctor and other relatives have the sympathy of the entire community in their sorrow, in which The Times joins.

Churches Declare For National Prohibition

The Methodist Episcopal church with a membership 5,000,000; the Presbyterian church with a membership nearly 2,000,000; the Baptist church (North and South) 3,000,000; the Cumberland Presbyterian and other denominations, in their resolutions last month, declare unmistakable terms, for nationwide prohibition. Similar utterances have also been made in the past few weeks by the Episcopal and other churches.

Another Wet Argument Is Punched

Federal officers who have been quietly investigating West Virginia say that in that state a marked reaction in the use of habit-forming drugs—cocaine, opium and the like. That West Virginia is a prohibition state—is living up to anti-drug law more than any other state in the Union. How is that for a refutation of the contention of the wet state-wide prohibitionists that beverage liquor traffic substantially increases the use of habit-forming drugs?

"They are very peculiar people next door," said the woman with the expansive society smile.

"They are very nice people in some respects—at least Mrs. Park is—but very peculiar, my dear.

"Then there was the lawn mower. I was out mowing the lawn one morning. You know Mr. Peabody isn't home once a month hardly and I have to mow it myself or else get a man to do it and that is so expensive, you know.

"But it was about the telephone I was going to tell you. They didn't have a telephone put in. Mr. Parks said he didn't care to have one until he made up his mind whether he wanted to take the house for a year, and I told them, of course, that they were very welcome to use mine at any time.

"Well, thank goodness, they had about stopped bothering me until last week, when there came a ring at the phone and somebody said: 'Is this Mrs. Peabody?'

Naval Experts Illustrate Psychology of War Communiques by Story of the Boy and the Whale.

Naval Constructor Emery S. Land, the submarine expert, was talking in Washington about the psychology of war communiques.

"When governments issue false communiques—and governments at war are often convicted of doing so—I suppose their theory is that, if you keep on saying a thing firmly enough, everybody will believe it.

"It's like the story of the boy on the steamboat excursion.

"A boy boarded an excursion steamer after she had got filed up. There were no seats vacant. Every bench and camp-chair was occupied.

"The boy then devised a trick. 'Seen the whale?' he began to ask the excursionists near him.

"Nobody believed the boy at first. His whale story was laughed at. But he kept on repeating it. Up and down he strode, urging everyone to go and look at the struggling whale on the other side of the boat, and gradually, one by one, the passengers began to think he must be speaking the truth, and got up and crossed over.

"The boy secured a seat. Soon he could have secured a dozen, two dozen, a hundred seats. For the whale story had at last got in its work.

"He sat alone for some time. He began to fume and wriggle and fret. Finally he hopped up, and he, too, rushed to the other side of the boat, muttering: 'By gosh, maybe there is a whale there, after all!'"

FAITH AND WORKS

At a dinner one night recently Irving S. Cobb, the humorist, told a story which has to do with a prominent theatrical enterprise.

PREPAREDNESS FOR THE WORST.

"Are you in favor of preparedness?" "Not when it takes the form of a perpetual state of resignation to whatever may happen."

Talks With the Boys

By J. L. HARBOUR, IN THE VISITOR.

The Boy With A Diploma.

Nothing interests me more in the latter part of June than to see the boys and the girls coming forth from the public schools with their diplomas in their hands.

Never was ignorance regarded with more disfavor than in our day. Never was a greater value set on education.

The boy who leaves school for good and all, unless he means to attend the evening schools or study privately, is meeting with a great change in life. He is starting out on a new tack if he has to go to work. New duties, new opportunities are before him, and how is he going to meet them?

QUICK AID NEEDED.

Beggar—Stranger, I have a sick wife; could you help me out?

Passer-by—I can give you a job next week.

Beggar—Too late! She'll be able to go to work herself by then!

ROMANCE VS. REALITY.

"It is my intention," said the newly elected husband at the wedding feast, "to have our pictures taken with my wife's hand on my shoulder."

"And a year later," observed a man who had been up against the matrimonial game for many moons, "you can have your pictures taken with her hand on your pocketbook."

GOOD EXCUSE.

Church—He writes all his letters on a typewriter.

Gotham—That's so he'll have something to blame for the bad spelling.

SUPER-PREPARED.

Knicker—What is your wife's idea of preparedness?

Bocker—Wearing furs in summer.

ty of hard work. His natural mental alertness has made him able to come out at the head of the class with less work than the boy, who is not so mentally alert, but it will be discovered that the slow, plodding boy, who sticks to his task and who has to study hard for what he learns has a greater and firmer grasp on all that he learns than has the other boy.

"Soon or late I knock, unbidden, once at every gate."

Sometimes the great opportunity knocks but once. If the gate is not opened there is never a second knock. I do not think, however, that this happens very often.

Mrs. C. K. McKnight has gone to Kansas City and St. Joseph, Mo., to visit at their old home, and will go on to Bushnell, Ill., for a stay of one or two months with relatives and friends. It already takes a yard stick to measure the length of C. K.'s face, although the Grass Widowers' Club are doing all in their power to cheer him up.

What The Firemen Do

is always to be praised and commended, but they cannot make good your loss by fire. Only a policy of insurance in a reliable company will do this. We represent the very strongest insurance companies and policies placed by us are gilt edged and in addition we are always glad to give our patrons the benefit of our advice and experience in placing their insurance, also in collections when loss has occurred.

To the Women Folks:---

If you have not already seen this advertisement in Vogue read it here.

No single factor, perhaps, has done more to inspire American men in the better standards of dress than the gracious influence of the Women.

Can you wonder that such Kirschaum styles as the one illustrated here should appeal to the discriminating feminine eye—with its unerring sense of what is right in dress?

We regard as a unique tribute the indirect—yet not the less important—part Women have exerted in increasing the proportion of better dressed men.

Pecos Mercantile Co.

—Fresh fruits and vegetables at B. G. Smith's. 26-2

Ab Sisk, of the Pecos Mercantile Company, autoed up to Toyah Monday afternoon and made arrangements with the merchants of that city to supply their wants in the grocery line.

Do you enjoy good music? Do you like humorous lectures? Then buy a season ticket to the Chautauqua to be held at the Opera House, June 27 to July 1, 1916. Under auspices of the Pecos City Band.

Born—To Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Cooksey, Monday, June 19, 1916, a fine boy. Mother and babe are doing well, but Ab insists that we tell the voters not to feel slighted if he does not get around to see them all, as he is staying pretty close helping to care for his son and heir.

We are extremely gratified to learn that William Ross, one of Judge J. F. Ross' splendid twin boys, has been offered an appointment as cadet in the U. S. Naval Academy at Annapolis. He has the best wishes of The Times, and we trust that he will accept, for we know that he will make good.

Miss Vida Drummond and Miss Mary Caroline returned home Saturday afternoon from Stanton, where they have been attending the Catholic school. We understand that they had a splendid school year and enjoyed the work very much. Their numerous young friends are glad to see them back in Pecos again.

Mrs. and Mrs. J. H. Mullane of Van Horn were Pecos visitors for a short time Saturday. Mrs. Mullane had been up to Knowles, N. M., visiting with the home folks and J. H. went up as far as Carlsbad to visit with home folks and to meet Mrs. Mullane and the children on their return trip. He is the editor of The Van Horn Advocate, and reports that newspaper work in his city is good.

Pay us a compliment, if that is all you owe us.

Light showers fell this afternoon, and thought not sufficient to help the cattlemen and farmers, it succeeded in cooling the air and making town live more comfortable.

John Brocat is confined to his home these days with what is considered a severe injury to his leg. A minor operation was performed this week, but we understand that the physician in charge is not sure whether or not the gravity of the case has been lessened, as a short time must elapse before this becomes evident. We trust that all may come out well, and that John will soon be at his place of business.

Flag Raising And Dedication.

Tonight the band stand will be dedicated, and Old Glory will be given the place of honor, on the top of a flag pole 25 feet over all. This is a ceremony that all citizens with red blood in their veins should attend. We have revivals of all kinds—in religion, in business, etc.—and tonight is the night for a revival of patriotism, and we know you will not miss it. The band will play "The Star Spangled Banner," while one of our charming young ladies raises the glorious banner to float on the breeze.

Mrs. C. E. Harrell Dies.

As we are about to go to press the sad news comes to us that Mrs. C. E. Harrell, wife of Claude Harrell had died at her home in the city, had died this morning.

We were unable at this late hour to get full particulars, but understand that Mrs. Harrell has been in ill health for some time, and that her death, so a severe shock to her relatives, was not unexpected.
