Life Insurance Pre-eminent.

Of all good things, life insurance stands pre-eminent. The standard of safety, conservation, preparedness for the dismal hour, and blessings of the family and the home. Observe the picture of those who waived the golden opportunity and who leave their dependents to face the world and contrast it with the knowledge that started right entails power and might. Educational life insurance is now extended into the largest colleges, expounded from the pulpit to inculcate the congregation to the virtues and need of the masterful protector, and in real bargains in them.

Solid Comfort Expressed in This Design.

This bungalow is one where the future up-keep will be exceedingly small. Everything which enters into this construction is solid, the whole house being planned to embody comfort, convenience and utility. The porch columns, pedestals, and buttresses, and chimney are rough; hewn stones with smooth stone caps. The front porch girded with heavy iron beams gives an unobstructive view of the whole front.

Entering directly from the front porch into a large living room with a 10x14 1-2 den on the right; in this den is a massive rock mantel from floor to ceiling. The den has an appearance of a ship's cabin with it's heavy supporting beam ceiling. The dining room is provided with the "Ye Planry" buffet extending the entire length of the room.

The kitchen is equipped with all modern built-in appli ances. Adjoining the kitchen is a cozy breakfast room. In the hall which separates the bed-rooms is located the stairs which go both to basement and attic. Large closets in hall, and bed-rooms, with large storage closet on the rear porch.

We wish to take this opportunity to wish you one and all a Merry Christmas and a very Happy New Year.

Presbyterian Church Notes.

The preacher was at Toyah ast Sunday for his first servics with our church there. The ttendance was good, and the ellowship delightful. For reaons satisfactory to the Toyah eople the revival meeting was ostponed until a later date.

In spite of the wind, dust nd cold, our Pecos Sunday chool attendance last Sunday nly fell short by four from e record-breaking attendnce of the Sunday before.
