The Enterprise wishes to extend its congratulations to both the city council and the band boys for this splendid addition to the looks of our city and the display of our patriotism. It is a fit tribute to the loyalty to our flag just at this time which should be appreciated by every citizen of the town.

WHY EDITORS ARE RICH

A child is born in the neighborhood; the attending physician gets $10. The editor gives the loud-mouth youngster and happy parents a send-off and gets $0. When it is christened the clergymen gets $10 and the editor gets $00. It grows up and marries. The editor publishes another long winded article and tells a dozen lies about the the "beaut" accomplished bride." The clergyman gets $10 and a piece of cake and the editor gets $000. In the course of time it dies. The doctor gets from $55 to $100 and the undertaker gets from $40 to $100. The editor publishes a notice of its death and an obituary two columns long, lodge and society resolutions, a lot of poetry and a free card of thanks, and gets $000. No wonder so many editors are rich.—Exchange.

CLAY COOKE TAKES EXCEPTION

June 17, 1916.
Editor of the Enterprise,
City.

Dear Sir: I have just read your rather imaginative report in last week's issue of the debate between myself and Mr. Garrard at Barstow, and in view of the fact that you make some very serious and unfounded insinuations therein against either of us, or both of us, I either to have you publish this letter in correction of same. The debate at Barstow so far as I know, was a very friendly and forceful presentation by both Mr. Garrard and myself, of our respective claims. So far as I am concerned, I did not mention or discuss a single private act of Mr. Garrard's, but only his ability as a lawyer and his record as district attorney, and made no statement that I did not have with me a certified record to prove. I expressly stated that I had not investigated, and would not investigate nor mention any private act of his. I did not do so, and if any man can point to one word or syllable in my speech that reflected in any manner upon Mr. Garrard as a man, or any act of his other than his ability as a lawyer or his record as district attorney, I will quit the race. Mr. Garrard referred to certain private acts which he attributed to me, but admitted that his information was based solely upon hearsay. When I stated that his information was erroneous, I understand that he stated that he had no personal knowledge of the facts. I don't think Mr. Garrard in any manner reflected upon me, and your article does us both a gross injustice, and being based upon your ignorance of the proceedings, you, in justice to us, should publish this letter.

Yours very truly,
CLAY COOKE.

TREATMENT FOR BLOAT

Formalin is recognized for the best treatment for bloat. This may be secured from any drug store, and should be the 40 percent solution. One tablespoonful should be mixed with one quart of water and given to the animal which will give quick relief. In addition to the use of formalin, the old time precautions should be observed to prevent bloat from occurring. It is well to give the cattle a good fill of dry feed before turning on to green alfalfa unless they are on it regularly. In case of bloat it is well to place a stick about the size of a broom handle in the cows mouth and fasten it there by passing a rope over the horns. A little tar daubed on the stick will assist in causing the cow to work her tongue, which will enable part of the gas to escape. In very severe cases if the formalin will not have time to give relief, the paunch should be stuck with the trocar and caula, which will allow the gas to escape. It is not a good plan to stick the paunch with a pocket-knife as is frequently done, because with the danger of infection, cases can be treated successfully with the formalin treatment, but in every case it would be advisable to employ, in addition the simple remedy of fastening the tarred stick in the cow's mouth.—Prof W. S. Cunningham, Asst. Husbandman, U. of A. Agricultural Experiment station.

Young Folks, It's Coming and You Can't Hold it by the Tail

Prepare to grasp opportunity by the horns, you can't hold it by the tail. Opportunity is knocking at your door. You probably do not fully realize what this means; how much it means to you. What preparation have you made for the reception of your opportunity when it comes? Are you prepared? It will not take you long to make the preparation if you adopt the following motto "Dig" "Determine", "Deliver". To dig means to strive earnestly, conscientiously, diligently day after day, securing a practical training for which the business world pays cash, and then when you have secured this training, keep on digging—Dig, Determine, without defermation you cannot make a success of your future. It takes determination to do anything, and with it you can revolutionize the world, you can accomplish everthing. Deliver—that is the natural result after putting into operation the other two mottos—Dig and Determine. Can you not embody these three words in your life to an advantage? Begin today to Dig by entering the Tyler Commercial College of Tyler, Texas, for a course of Bookkeeping and Shorthand, Business Administration and Finance, handling and Classing of cotton, or Telegraphy. Secure a training that will help you deliver the goods. When we fail to make a success we have no one to censure but self, for we are the architects of our own future. It is far easier to fail than to succeed. Do your best to begin on your practical cash production education this month, and finish your course before the beginning of the busy fall season, and then when the many demands for well qualified bookkeepers, stenographers and secretaries or operators are made, you will be ready; not getting ready but ready; A whole lot of energy and a little cash will greatly increase your capacity. Write us for free catalogue; we have helped thousands and can help you.—Tyler Commercial College, Tyler Texas.

The candidates are making things smoke over Reeves county now and will continue to see the voters from now until the 22nd of July. This week Judge Ben Randals, Judge Ross and W. W. Camp have all been out shelling the woods for votes.

Jim Baker, who was recently injured by a horse falling on him and has been suffering from a broken leg and collar bone, is reported as doing nicely and recovering as rapidly as could be hoped for.

The South's Greatest Newspaper Semi-Weekly Record FORT WORTH, TEXAS

In this day of progress the man who would succeed must be informed about the world's doings. The local paper gives him local information which is useful, but it cannot cover the whole field. Hence the man who would keep step with the march of the times will take a general newspaper also. The Fort Worth Semi-Weekly Record has taken front rank among the great publications of the South and West. It is specially prepared for the reader who has not the time or the opportunity to read a daily paper. First of all, it is a newspaper. The Record believes that the people of the country and the village are as much interested in current events as the people of the city. In the next place, it carries features suitable for all members of the family—women and children as well as men. Last, but by no means least, the Record's editorial policy comprehends the economic welfare of the farmer and stock raiser. The Record is an acknowledged leader in the discussion of public questions in their relation to agricultural production. In subscribing through this office you can get the Fort Worth Semi-Weekly Record together with the Toyah Enterprise, both papers one year for only $2.30. Accept this remarkable offer today.
