K. OF P. CELEBRATE ANNIVERSARY

Attend Services In Body Sunday Morning .- Big Barbecue Monday Night.

The local Castle of Knights of Pythias, on last Sunday, the 18th of February, celebrated the 54th anniversary of that order. The day was observed served with fitting ceremonies by Knights the world over.

On Sunday morning all local Knights, by official command, met in the Castle Hall at 10:45 and in a body marched to the Presbyterian church, where the anniversary sermon was preached by Rev. H. O. Moore.

As this order instills patriotism into the hearts of its members, Old Glory, was present. and during the services occupied a prominent position in front of the pulpit. The flag, we may state here, is ever-present at all ceremonies of the order.

Prelinminary to the sermon all rose and sang "America".

In his opening remarks, Bro. Moore, referring to Our Flag, said: "Many are patriotic who are not religious; but none can be religious and not be pathe better off we, who are loyal not be amiss.

GREAT EXHIBIT

Domestic Science and Manual Training Display Admired By Entire Community

The people of Pecos are being treated to a splendid exhibit this week, displayed in the windows of the Pecos Mercantile Company. The children of the different grades have for the past few weeks been preparing their units for this occasion, and if there are any parents who were peeved or worried during the term of preparation, we are sure that this feeling will vanish as they gaze on the individual efforts of their children embodied in this exhibit. If you have not been to view it you should do so at once. It's great, we say, and as you stand and listen to the remarks of visitors drawn by the display, you will know that we are right.

The exhibit is one of the most diversified we ever witnessed among children, and clearly indicates that the training of our children is not wholly mental, but servile as well. That's the right idea. Among the articles we mention will be Words of Appreciation found a replica of the famous Alamo, "Texas' Cradle of Liband second grades are in plen-Mr. Eberstadt has been with tiful evidence. THE NEW A. & M. COLLEGE

The location of the new A. & M. College is the 'subject of keen competition among many Texas cities. Pecos, of course, is in the running-strong. This city has many advantages to embody in its arguments why the college should be located here. We have records, too, to which we may refer. During the first great exposition, held in El Paso, about nine years ago, or maybe later. Reeves county took first prize over all exhibitors. It was not accidental either, for last year, at the exposition Barstow, only six miles east of us, landed a prize in the face of competition that was international in scope, said exhibit indicative of the resources of this particular section. Reeves county had no exhibit to fetch a gang of laborers from the at the exposition.

This section grows more alfalfa than any other place in the the Maybry swamp. State of Texas, and no other feed is adapted to more different uses for livestock feeding than is alfalfa. Condition here are entirely different from those where the present college is located, and we believe that duplication should be avoided in the selection of the new college.

We have here the largest irrigated acreage in Texas. Three systems are in daily use: direct from the Pecos river, from reservoirs and springs, and pump water irrigation.

Taking these things into consideration, and the fact that willingness to do the milking he did on the rolled out crust and sprinkle all classes of cereals are grown here, both by irrigation and dry land farming, we feel safe in saying that Pecos is the logical location fro the new A. & M. College.

Some people wouldn't think of buying dry goods and groceries on account for a year and then go and say to the merchant that they didn't want them, and refuse to pay the bill. It is a would have been had the journey tocommon occurrence to have some one call on the editor of a coun- ward their wedding day been smoother. try newspaper, after reading his paper for a year or more, or carrying a card in its columns, and say that they did not want it children out to the Maybry farm every strong soda water, rinsing and wiping when they could have stopped the service at any time by simply summer to stay through the season. notifying the editor. The Herald is striving to boost and build up Toyah Valley and every institution in it and trying to give you that George, in his own good time, was value received for every ad that is placed in our columns and for to superintend the much-talked-of every subscription on our mailing list. But we are not trying to work of converting the swamp into force the paper on any one, and it does go against the grain to fertile field. Many summers passed beserve a man for a year and then have to donate the bill.—Toyah fore the work was actually begun. Valley Herald.

Home run, Walker. You certainly hit the nail on the head in the above. We know from an experience dating back in 1880 when first we donned the "harness" that this class of critters existed then, and, again speaking from experience, are still in the to pay the first cost of wages and magame. 'Twill ever be thus, methinks.

We actually heard some scoff at the exhibit of our school complished from day to day. It was children in the windows of the Pecos Mercantile Co. All must remember that each item, insignificant as it may appear, represents the working out of an idea. Edison, Bell, Franklin, the Wright brothers, and others, got the first glimpes of their respective inventions from an idea. Some people, however, seem never to be bothered with the germ. The exhibit of our children is one of the best we have ever seen, and if one can stand and gaze on it without a feeling of pride, there's something wrong with that person. The Domestic science exhibit should appeal to all. Here the girl learns to sew, cook, and do many of the things that would in time become a lost art were it not for training of this kind. You must remember that Latin, Algebra, and kindred subjects, no matter how well prepared, will not sustain I know, mother, that John doesn't pre- North. So, parents, encourage your children and cooperate that swamp can never be drained as enter "subjects" that float up uncalled with the teachers in these branches.

Pecos is a growing city! Ever stop to think about it? A few short years ago we invested in a school building and, on its completion, we rested on the assumption that one problem was solved for many years to come. If some one remarked that the buliding would prove inadequate ten years hence, you would be claimed as Eliza Maybry sank back !! apt to smile. But the allotted ten years are not quite up, and the need of more space is becoming a problem. This year an annex was built for the first and second grades. Every new school year sees an increase in the number of pupils, and now will be a good time to prepare for the enlargement of the building so that it will be in readiness for the new school year.

In this issue is the Treasurer's Quarterly report. The report will be published every quarter, The Times being selected as the medium of publicity. Our large circulation, greater than all papers in the county combined, makes this possible. Some people express a pardonable coriosity to know things; we plead a pardonable pride in making known our circulation. Why not? Circulation is a newspaper's one best bet.

The Governor has signed the bill creating a new county out of the eastern half of El Paso County. The name of the new county is Hudspeth, with Sierra Blanco as the county seat. The gold pen with which the Governor signed the bill was presented to him by Representatives Thomason and Dudley of El Paso. and after the bill was signed it was presented to Rev. L. R. Millican, the cowboy preacher who worked unceasingly for the creation of the new county.

The death of General Funston is a real loss to the nation. He was one of the greatest leaders produced since the civil war. and a man of initiative. 'Twas he, without awaiting orders from Washington, took charge of the situation in San Francisco during the earthquake and fire, restoring order from chaos. In Vera Cruz, 'twas he that put terror in the hearts of the snipers, when in reply to a message from the Mexican general, that the latter could not hold his men back, Funston replied: "If you can't, I can.!" In times like the present he will be missed.

Many have been the arguments against the militia troops on the border. But it is a noticeable fact that the raids of the bandits began before they went to the border ceased while they were on the border, and began again as they were leaving the border.

We thought very seriously of putting a garden patch in the corner of the yard this spring and help combat the high cost of living. On second thought we decided we would not, for our neighbors on either side are doing that very thing.

It's quite natural for the parents of a child to think that it's the best child in the world. It's that way even with some enterprises that are the result of our individual efforts. But, after all, it's the public that renders the decision.

Hiram Maybry's old eyes wandered over the broad fields and slopes while he puffed contentedly at his clay pipe. "What is the use of worryin', Shrivels, Loosens-and It's Gone! "Just like taking the lid off-that's how easy you can lift a corn off your toe after it has been treated with the wonderful discovery, 'Gets-It." Hunt the wide world over and you'll have wrapped your toes in bandages to look like bundles, who have used salves that turned your toes raw and sore, and used plasters that would shift from their place and never "get" the corn, and who have dug and picked at your corns with knives and scissors and perhaps made them bleed—just quit these old and painful ways and try "Gets-It" just once. You put 2 or 3 drops on, and it dries at once. There's nothing to stick. You can put your shoe and stocking right on again. The pain is all gone. Then the corn dies a painless, shriveling death, it loosens from your toe, and off it comes. "Gets-It" is the biggest selling corn remedy in the world today.
