Texas Does Nobly in Liberty Bond Buying

Reeves County's Donation Attests A Citizenship Composed of Loyal Patriots.

The latest news from over the state indicate that Texas, as usual, came to the front with the Liberty Bonds and purchased her full share. Reeves county never works in the slack in anything for the good of her people or that of our beloved country. Reeves county has had rousing meetings at Toyah, Balmorhea and Pecos this week in the interest of the Liberty Bonds, and the people proved their patriotism by buying them in unstinted quantities.

At the meeting at the music Hall last night which was largely attended, a splendid showing was made and many dollars bear the credit of patriotism shown by our citizenship.

See what real patriots have done in regard to this question in Pecos. Here are the figures which count for something and these figures show also who are the ones with the "gits" and the ones who love their country as themselves.

Note the amounts opposite the name as the subscription progresses and see who are the public-spirited citizens of the county. The list of subscribers in Pecos follows:

An Enjoyable Trip to Toyah by Auto

Citizenship is Prosperous and Happy.—Dry Weather is Only Complaint Heard

The editor, and A. D. Linton, the popular proprietor of the City Pharmacy, accompanied Albert Sisk, the traveling salesman for the wholesale department of the Pecos Mercantile Company, to Toyah, Monday, where they spent a few hours very pleasantly and profitably. Albert secured some nice orders for his firm, and the editor landed two or three subscriptions and two or three nice orders for job printing, while Mr. Linton paved the way for some business and got acquainted with some of those good people. Toyah seems about the same as it did when the editor last visited that little burg, only he saw several improvements. The people all seemed happy and contented, but were moved to complain some of the dry weather.

C. W. Crawford says it is dry but he is still doing business just the same and had money in his pocket. Joe Preusser made a sale of some kind for him while he was out prospecting for work, but turned in no cash.

Mitchell, the blacksmith, was busy setting tires, and as usual was loath to toot his own horn very extensively. He reports a very satisfactory business.

Andy Hart, groceryman, was busy holding down the chair in front of his store until a customer disturbed him. He is the same old fixture and continues to do a very satisfactory business at the same old stand.

Henry H. Luckett looked as natural as ever in the postoffice, and was handing out the packages, and begging W. M. Chatham to take his package and change after he had paid the same out and was trying to make his "get away" without it.

J. R. Chandler was on the streets making things as lively as ever and dropped the wherewith in the till, advancing his dates on The Enterprise subscription list.

Joe, Charlie and Ed Preusser were very conspicuous characters and made themselves as pleasant as possible, and with a Preusser that is saying a whole lot, for they know how to be pleasant and congenial.

W. E. Morton, the popular mill roller at the Owl Drug Store, was as busy as ever and congenial. He is one of the old stand-bys at this establishment and a good one at that.

J. Ike Johnson was as jovial as ever and took a bottle of Tovo with the editor while he talked of his mining prospects and of the deer hunts he has had with the editor, when the latter killed a buck deer with the biggest foot either had ever seen on a deer. Ike is still running his pool hall and is still the "Fixit" man of the town, and can fix it, no matter what it is, and fix it right.

Charlie Ruhrup had just returned from his run to El Paso and "set 'em up" to the crowd. He is the same jovial Ruhrup, and has the same smile which never wears with time or trou-en over the whole county as follows, and the amounts are as follows from each town as sent in by the banks, as follows:

Through Pecos Valley State Bank, Pecos	$17,800.00
First National Bank of Pecos	2,750.00
Citizens State Bank of Toyah	11,500.00
Toyah Valley State Bank Balmorhea	9,050.00
Total	$41,100.00

Bruce is Awarded the Contract to Repair School Building.

The School Board met last night and let the contract for the repair work on the public school building. There were only two bidders on this work, E. B. Kiser and George Bruce, the latter being the successful bidder and secured the job. The work bid on will cost the school board $9,245—at least that is the bid of Mr. Bruce.

The two bidders were pretty close together, so says Mr. Hudson, the secretary, and but for the fact that the board cut out some stucco work upon which Mr. Kiser bid approximately $1200 and Bruce about $600, Mr. Kiser's bid would have been the lower and he therefore would have been awarded the contract.

Bruce has a reputation to maintain and he has never failed to do this in any of his contracts, and The Enterprise feels safe in saying that the work of Mr. Bruce will be all that could be desired so far as keeping in line with his contract is concerned.

This bid includes all improvements contemplated by the board with the exception of the heating, which will be looked after and attended to later on. Bruce is here this morning and will begin work as soon as he can get the material. His contract calls for the completion of the work by September 8th.

The annual meeting of the Carnegie Library Association took place on June 7, 1917, and though there have been many removal of families who have been regular patrons of the library, and business conditions have been generally unsettled on account of the war, the library has had a successful year, as can be seen from the following reports:

Teachers of Pecos Schools, for 1917-18 Term.

The School Board report the election of the following teachers for the ensuing term:

Superintendent, T. J. Yoe; Principal, T. E. Hayden; Miss Selma Lewis, Mr. M. G. Fields, Mrs. Lillie Cole, Mrs. Margaret Yarbrough, Mrs. J. W. Brooks, Miss Mary Nelson, Miss Sadie Collins, Mrs. T. J. Yoe; with one teacher yet to be supplied. This is believed to be a very strong corps of teachers—in fact most of them have taught in the Pecos schools before and are known to be "up to the snuff."

...and a nice order for printing with the editor, besides leaving the wherewith to advance his dates for a whole year. He proved conclusively that he is making good in Toyah from the fact that he had the cash and paid for this work in advance. This not only proves that he had the coin, but that he had confidence in the editor, that he was able and willing to deliver the goods. The many Pecos friends of Ernest will be glad to learn that he is doing well and that he and his better two-thirds are happy and well.

E. B. Payne of Toyah, was a business visitor in Pecos Monday and Tuesday. Payne is one of the best painters in Texas and always has a little work and more money than he wants to spend. He is a good member of the I. O. O. F., and a good fellow, well liked by all who know him.

George Bruce was over from Toyah Monday to put in a bid on the new school building. Mr. Bruce has done much building in Reeves county, which now stands as a monument to his faithful work, honesty and integrity. When George Bruce does the work its a cinch its done right and will not only stand the most rigid inspection but will stand the weather, and when the rain and wind comes "it will stand, and not be washed away." George Bruce's work will always stand the test as well as the rains and storms.

Corns Loosen Off With Magic "Gets-It"

"Get it", before I heard of "Gets-It" I used to try one thing after another for corns. I still had them. I used bandages and they made my Corns Drive You Mad? Try "Gets-It" and They'll Peel Right Off! toe so big it was murder to put on my shoe. I used salves and other things that ate off more of the toe than they did the corn. I'd cut and dig with knives and scissors, but now no more fooling for me. Two drops of "Gets-It" did all the work. It makes the corn shrivel and get so loose that you can just pick it right off with your fingers! There has been nothing new discovered for corns since "Gets-It" was born. Cottage cheese is one of the important meat substitutes say specialists of the United States Department of Agriculture. It contains a larger percentage of protein (the chief material for body building) than most meats and furnishes material at a lower cost. In every pound of cottage cheese there is about one-fifth of a pound of protein, nearly all of which is digestible. Meats, on the other hand, usually contain less protein and besides have a certain waste, such as bone and other inedible material. A pound of cottage cheese daily would supply all the protein required by the ordinary adult in a sedentary occupation. Sour Stomach This is a mild form of indigestion. It is usually brought on by eating too rapidly or too much, or of food not suited to your digestive organs. If you eat slowly, masticate your food thoroughly, eat but little meat will more than likely avoid the sour stomach without taking any medicine whatever. When you have a sour stomach take one of Chamberlain's Tablets, to aid digestion.—Adv't. Piles Cured in 6 to 14 Days. Your druggist will refund money if

An Ounce of Meat An ounce of meat—lean meat, fat and lean suet or fat trimmed from steak, chop, or roast—seems hardly worth saving. Many households take just this view of the matter—do not trouble to put such an insignificant scrap into the ice-box or soup pot—do not bother to save for cookery a spoonful or two of drippings or a tiny bit of fat or suet. Yet if every one of our 20,000,000 American families on the average wastes, each day, only one ounce of edible meat or fat, it means a daily waste of 1,250,000 pounds of animal food—465,000,000 pounds of valuable animal food a year. At average dressed weights it would take the gross weight of over 875,000 steers, or over 3,000,000 hogs—bones and all—to provide this weight of meat or fat for each garbage pail or kitchen sink. If the bones and butchers' waste are eliminated, these figures would be increased to 1,150,000 cattle and 3,700,000 hogs. Or, again, if the waste was distributed according to the per capita consumption of the various meats (excluding the bones), it would use a combined herd of over 538,000 beef animals, 291,000 calves, over 625,000 sheep and lambs, and over 2,132,000 hogs. Millions of tons of feed and hay, the grass from vast pastures, and the labor of armies of cattlemen and butchers also would be scrapped by this meat-waste route. But every household doesn't waste an ounce of meat or fat every day. Very well, make it one out of every hundred families, but keep in mind that all meat allowed to spoil and all meat and fat rendered inedible by improper cooking, scorching, or burning, must be counted as waste. Make it an ounce every other day or one a month. Such waste still would be unendurable when meat is scarce and when fat is of such vital food importance to many nations. Waste of meat or fat is inexcusable. Every bit of lean meat can be used in soups, in stews, or in combination with cereals; every spoonful of fat can be employed in cookery; every bit of drippings and gravy can be saved so easily and used to add flavor and nourishment to other dishes. The United States Department of Agriculture, Washington, D. C., or your State Agricultural College will tell you how to use bits of meat to make appetizing and nutritious dishes and how to use left-over fat in cookery.

Be a Higs Class Stenographer. Steno is the greatest single forward step in the history of rapid writing. It makes the typewriter do double duty, record dictation as well as transcribe it. It uses the abbreviating power of the English language—the same as in Byrne Simplified Shorthand, but with printed characters on any standard make of typewriter instead of with the pencil. The typewriter has proven to be the most efficient of modern office appliances. The business man likes it because it enables him to turn out his correspondence with speed and accuracy. But he has realized that there was still a weakness in his correspondence from the fact that what he dictated was recorded first with the erring pencil and that which did not go down correct could not come back correct. He now welcomes the Steno because he sees his dictation go down accurately in print to come back accurately transcribed. Steno is simple because it is done mechanically. It is legible because it is print. It is rapid because it is written on the typewriter with eight nimble fingers instead of the hand around a pencil. Steno notes are interchangeable. It is so legible that one stenographer can read another's notes. Steno may be written at a good commercial rate of speed with a pencil in the absence of a typewriter. There perhaps, never was a system of note taking that has caused so much favorable comment as has Steno. It is admitted to be the logical way. Steno meets the Civil Service and court room test as well as being successively used on associated press work. This most modern method of note taking can only be had in this part of the country at Tyler Commercial College, Tyler, Texas the school that is not only the largest of the kind in America, but does the most thorough practical work in Bookkeeping, Steno, Shorthand, Telegraph, Cotton Claring and Business Administration and Finance. A large beautifully illustrated catalogue will be sent free to those who will mail in this coupon. Name Address TYLER COMMERCIAL COLLEGE, Tyler, Texas.

Cholera Morbus This is a very dangerous and painful disease. In almost every neighborhood someone has died from it before medicine could be obtained or a physician summoned. The right way is to have a bottle of Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy in the house so as to be prepared for it. Mrs. Charles Enhart, Huntington, Ind., writes: "During the summer of 1911 two of my children were taken sick with cholera morbus. I used Chamberlain's Colic and Diarrhoea Remedy and it gave them immediate relief."—Adv't.

HANDS, ARMS, LIMBS ASLEEP And Was Run-Down, Weak and Nervous, Says Florida Lady. Five Bottles of Cardui Made Her Well. Kathleen, Fla.—Mrs. Dallas Prince of this place, says: "After the birth of my last child... I got very much run-down and weakened, so much that I could hardly do anything at all. I was so awfully nervous that I could scarcely endure the least noise. My condition was getting worse all the time. I knew I must have some relief or I would soon be in the bed and in a serious condition for I felt so badly and was so nervous and weak I could hardly live. My husband asked Dr. Williams about my taking Cardui. He said, 'It's a good medicine, and good for that trouble', so he got me 5 bottles. After about the second bottle I felt greatly improved, before taking it my limbs and hands and arms would go to sleep. After taking it, however, this poor circulation disappeared. My strength came back to me and I was soon on the road to health. After the use of about 5 bottles, I could do all my house-work and attend to my six children besides."

Reeves County and the Liberty Loan Bonds.

Reeves County has taken over $41,000.00 of the Liberty Bonds. This is a splendid showing.

I feel sure that each call made by the Government will be answered by our people as readily and as cheerfully as has this one, and I know that a consciousness of duty performed will be more than ample reward for all who lend their efforts to the great cause to which we, as a people, are committed.

This message is written just as the paper is going to press, and I am afforded space only to express my deep appreciation of the attitude of our County, and the profound satisfaction which I experienced over the result of the campaign. Every one did his "bit" and the County as a whole is blessed in having yielded to its impulse to give; for, indeed, it is "better to give than to receive."

Your very truly, JAMES F. ROSS, County Judge.

Lily Ruth Ward.

Lily Ruth Ward, the infant daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Ward, born May 14, 1917, died at one o'clock a. m. June 13, 1917. Just one brief month was the precious little one permitted to remain on earth to gladden the hearts of her fond parents, and adoring brothers and sisters, then God took her to Heaven and she is a beacon light up yonder to loved ones left behind.

Died.

George Aubrey Thurckle Dale, who came here a short time ago in the hopes of benefiting his health, died at one o'clock last Saturday afternoon. He was a victim of tuberculosis, and had been going from place to place for the past four years trying to recover his health.

His was an eventful life, full of exciting interest; had traveled extensively, touching all countries of the world. He married, in 1900, Miss Winifred Soolna, who survives him, and who patiently and faithfully ministered to him until the end came in Pecos, on Saturday, June 9, 1917.

The remains of Captain Dale were laid to rest in Fairview Cemetery at four o'clock, Sunday afternoon, the services being conducted by Rev. J. H. Walker, assisted by Homer L. Magee.

The heart-broken wife has the sympathy of our entire citizenship in her loneliness and sorrow. A. H. Bugg, of Toyah, was a business visitor in town today and made The Enterprise a very pleasant visit and advanced his subscription dates to The Enterprise and Dallas Semi-Weekly News for one year.

An Appeal For Membership

To the people of Pecos the Red Cross is appealing for membership and contributions to help raise the $100,000,000 war fund.

This is no time to say "I am contributing to this and that charity, that the war tax will be here, and that the cost of living is soaring," the crying need today for the Red Cross must be heeded; on the battlefield there is no waiting for condition, we have no time for them here, if we wait it may be too late.

That it is inevitable that some of our sons, our brothers, our husbands, will shortly be on the front in Europe we well know, surely we cannot do less than prepare to take care of them in their day of suffering, in the face of their gallant sacrifice of their lives, our gift of money will seem trivial, yet since we cannot all serve with arms, we can at least provide the sinews of war by generous gifts of money.

We think that today, perhaps we feel and know the need, but we can have no conception of what it means until some of our own lie dead on the field of battle or maimed and torn in a hospital. None of us can escape this responsibility, none of us will escape from this death-dealing war.

The men and women of America are standing staunchly back of this movement, the men and women of our community, I am sure, esteem it a privilege and honor to be a member of the American Red Cross. The minimum membership fee is $1.00. Do not wait for a member of the Pecos Chapter to call on you for membership, but mail or call and deposit with Miss Beulah Wilson, Treasurer of the Pecos Chapter, $1.00, or any amount you may wish to contribute and become a member of our chapter.

The Red Cross is yours and mine for the safeguarding of our loved ones who are carrying the torch of liberty. We can no longer delude ourselves with the propaganda spread by the pro-German; that it is not our war. It is OUR WAR, and if we are to meet the issues wisely we must meet them today in giving, not with one hand, but by both, dictated to by a heart alive to the need, and not with grief-torn minds when we read the first bulletins from the war zone whereon will be written the names of those wounded, lost and dead.

WILLIE WOODS KING, President Pecos Chapter, American Red Cross

Tom McClure went up to El Paso Wednesday to make application to join the new officers training camp at Leon Springs.

Miss Eva Stancliff was in Pecos Saturday and Sunday from her home in Old Saragosa, visiting with Mrs. E. J. Moyer and family.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. and Mrs. Hardin Ross were in from their New Mexico ranch Wednesday visiting relatives and friends.

Mrs. W. M. Hopper and son, Gus, and Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Lee, all of Toyah, autoed down yesterday on business.

Harold Forbess, one of the prosperous farmers living near Old Saragosa, was a Pecos visitor Saturday until Sunday evening, when he autoed home.

Mrs. W. L. Ross and son, William, returned home today from their New Mexico ranch where they had been for the past week looking after things.

Mrs. R. R. Smothers and her little daughter, Roberta Nell, left yesterday afternoon for their home at Sweetwater after spending a couple of weeks in Pecos with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Churchill, and many friends.

On Registration Day, June 5th, B. G. Smith and family, R. E. L. Kite and family, I. T. Kesler and family, W. K. Wylie and family, and Miss Lillian Eddins went to Toyah Creek, and spent the day fishing—a sufficient number of fish was caught for all to eat their full and then some. A delightful trip is reported.

The Pecos Hide & Produce Co. shipped a car of junk, Saturday, to Fort Worth. It consisted of rags, rubber, brass, and bottles. This company also shipped a car of old iron to Chicago Monday. They are cleaning up the useless stuff over the country and shipping it to where it will be turned into something useful.

Caleb Martin and wife have sold their place to F. M. Bratton, and left the fore part of the week for Gorman, where they will go on a farm of Mr. Martin's father. Mr. Bratton is already occupying his new possessions. Mrs. Martin will stop over in Abilene with her father B. J. Strickland, who is in a sanitarium at that place.

The little three months old child of Mr. and Mrs. Neil Wilson, died at their home on the Stump Robbins place Saturday, and was laid to rest in the new cemetery at Saragosa, Monday, Rev. C. A. Dixon officiating at the burial. The many friends of this most estimable family deeply sympathize with them in their bereavement.

N. C. (Newt) Ward this week closed a deal whereby he became the owner of the City Garage, having purchased the same from D. P. Hankins. Mr. Ward has consolidated the two businesses—that of the Ward Garage and the City Garage—and will run the business at the stand of the City Garage across the street from the Pecos Valley Hotel. Mr. Ward is popular and a good workman, and will not only hold the business of the City Garage and his own but will grow with the town.

J. V. Hanson, family, and mother, Mrs. C. F. Hanson, of Big Spring, M. P. Kiker and Jim Prewit, returned Monday afternoon from a fishing trip of several days on Devil's River. They report having caught plenty of fish for their immediate consumption while away, but did not even have the smell of fish on their fingers on their return. Pat Moran, who lives next door to Prewit, can testify to this latter, for he had been in training for a big mess of fish since the big fish fry on the Pecos River a week ago. They report a most delightful trip.

Mrs. Armstrong, wife of assistant postmaster, A. G. Armstrong, arrived this morning from Crawford, and will spend a couple of months here in a desperate effort to cheer up A. G. She is an accomplished lady and her visit will not only be conducive to the betterment of conditions around our big chief at the postoffice, but will give the people of Pecos much pleasure. After her present stay of two months she will return to her home for a short stay, and then return to Pecos for keeps, for by that time they will be both alkali and will never leave West Texas, except for a visit to their home in Crawford and then they will both be working as missionaries.

Judge Jas. F. Ross, of Pecos, was in Toyah this week speaking in the interest of the Liberty Bonds. About $11,500 have been subscribed here.

The Presbyterian Ladies Aid Society met Tuesday with Mrs. Alex Davis. At the conclusion of an interesting and profitable session an ice course was then served.

Quarterly Conference of the M. E. Church South will be held in Toyah Sunday, and the ladies of the church will serve dinner on the school house grounds.

Miss Thelma O'Keefe, of Big Spring, and Master Buster Doyle accompanied Mrs. Ira Jackson and Miss Lela Virge to their home at Van Horn for a two weeks visit.

John Hibdon, the efficient editor of The Enterprise, was in Toyah Monday where he has many friends, who were glad to see him and kept him busy on this occasion shaking hands.

Mesdames O. J. Horned and Bert Harris were hostesses at a most delightfully appointed party, Tuesday evening, to the younger set. The decorations were in the National colors of red, white and blue, in artistic arrangement. Favors for the evening to each guest were small U. S. flags. Games of various kinds were played and thoroughly enjoyed. Refreshments of the most delicious cake and fruit jello were served the guests.

Rev. H. M. Smith, presiding elder of the El Paso District of the Methodist Church, will be in Toyah to hold quarterly conference Sunday. There will be preaching services Sunday at 11 o'clock, and Sunday evening. All are cordially invited to attend.

Little Miss Ruth Armor was the charming little hostess on Tuesday evening from 5 to 7 o'clock, to the members of her Sunday school class, celebrating a birthday occasion. The hours were most pleasantly spent in making merry with various kinds of games, that well whetted their appetites for the delicious refreshments of ice cream and cake that were served.

Mrs. C. C. Cargill was hostess at a most delightfully appointed party Wednesday afternoon. The rooms were made especially beautiful for the occasion by artistic decorations. A number of interesting games of Rook were played, after which a delicious ice course course was served. The hostess was assisted by Mrs. Clyde Cargill.

At Fort Worth, Texas, Saturday, May 26th, the ceremony was performed which united in marriage T. C. Corey and Miss Lillie Belle Freeman, both of this city. The happy couple returned last week to make their home in this city. Many friends unite in wishing the newly-weds a full measure of joy and prosperity.—Big Spring Herald. Miss Freeman is well and favorably known in Toyah where she practically grew to young womanhood. Her many friends here wish for her all the joys of a long and happy married life.

Nan of Music Mountain By FRANK H. SPEARMAN Author of "WHISPERING SMITH" (Copyright by Charles Scribner's Sons)

Continued From Last Week) Another bullet, deliberately aimed, chipped the rock above him. Nan, agonizing in her suspense, cried out she must join him and go with him if he went. He steadied her with a few words. A bullet struck again viciously close between them. De Spain spoke slowly: "Give me your rifle." Without turning his head, he held out his hand, keeping his eyes rigidly on the suspicious spot on the ridge. "How far is it to that road, Nan?" She looked toward the faint line that lay in the deep shadows below. "Three hundred yards." "Nan, if it wasn't for you, I couldn't travel this country at all," he remarked with studious unconcern. "Last time I had no ammunition—this time, no rifle—you always have what's needed. How high are we, Nan?" "Seven hundred feet." "Elevate for me, Nan, will you?" "Remember the wind," she faltered, adjusting the sight as he had asked. With the cautioning words she passed the burnished weapon, glittering yet with the raindrops, into his hand. A flash came from the distant ridge. Throwing his rifle to his shoulder, De Spain covered a hardly perceptible black object on the trail midway between Sassoon's ranch-house and a little bridge. Then he fired before Nan could believe he had lined the sights. Once, twice, three times his hand fell and rose sharply on the lever, with every mark of precision, yet so rapidly Nan could not understand how he could discover what his shots were doing. The fire came steadily back, and deliberately, without the least intimation of being affected by De Spain's return. She had never before seen a man shooting to kill another. The very horror of watching De Spain, at bay among the rocks, fascinated her. Since the first day they had met she had hardly seen a rifle in his hands. She strove to look. The butt of the heating rifle lay close against the red-marked cheek she knew so well, and to the tips of the fingers every particle of the man's being was alive with strength and resource. Some strange fascination drew her senses out toward him as he knelt and threw shot after shot at the distant figure hidden on the ridge. She held out her arms and clasped her hands toward him in an act of devotion. Then, while she looked, breathlessly, he took his eyes an instant from the sights. "He's running!" exclaimed De Spain as the rifle butt went instantly back to his cheek. "Whoever he is, God help him now!"

The words were more fearful than an imprecation. He had driven his enemy from the scant cover of a rut in the trail, and the man was fleeing for new cover and for life. Bullet after bullet pitilessly led the escaping wretch. Suddenly De Spain jerked the rifle from his cheek, threw back his head, and swept his left hand across his straining eyes. Once more the rifle came up to place and flame

"Whoever He is, God Help Him." shot again in the gray morning light from the hot muzzle. The rifle fell away from the shoulder. The black speck running toward the ranchhouse stumbled, as if struck by an ax, and sprawled headlong on the trail. Throwing the lever again like lightning, De Spain held the rifle back to his cheek. He did not fire. Second after second he waited. Nan watched the rifle slowly come down, unfired, and saw his drawn face slowly relax. Without taking his eyes off the sprawling speck, he rose stiffly to his feet. As if in a dream she saw his hand stretched toward her and heard, as he looked across the far gulf, one word: "Come!" They reached the end of the trail. De Spain, rifle in hand, looked back. The sun, bursting in splendor across the great desert, splashed the valley and the low-lying ridge with ruddy gold. Farther up the gap horses, stirred by the firing, were riding rapidly down toward Sassoon's ranch-house. But the black thing in the sunshine lay quite still.

CHAPTER XXV. Lefever to the Rescue. Lefever, chafing in the aspen grove under the restraint of waiting in the storm, was ready long before daylight to break orders and ride in to aid De Spain. With the first peep of dawn, and with his men facing him in their saddles, Lefever made a short explanation. "I don't want any man to go into the gap with me this morning under any misunderstanding or any false pretense," he began cheerfully. "Bob Scott and Bull will stay right here. If, by any chance, De Spain makes his way out while the rest of us are awaiting for him, you'll be here to signal us—three shots, Bob—or to ride in with De Spain to help carry the rest of us out. Now, it's like this," he added, addressing the others. "You, all of you know, or ought to know—everybody 'twixt here and the railroad knows—that De Spain and Nan Morgan have fastened up to each other for the long ride down the dusty trail together. That, I take it, is their business. But her uncle, old Duke, and Gale, and the whole bunch, I hear, turned dead sore on it, and have fixed it up to beat them. You all know the Morgans. They're some bunch—and they stick together in a fight. So I don't want any man to ride in there with me thinking he's going to a wedding. He isn't. He may or may not be going to a funeral, but he's not going to a shivaree." Frank Elpaso glanced sourly at his companions. "I guess everybody here is wise, John." "I know you are, Frank," retorted Lefever testily; "that's all right. I'm only explaining. And I don't want you to get sore on me if I don't show you a fight." Frank Elpaso granted. "I am under orders," John waved his hand. "And I can't do anything—" "But talk," growled Frank Elpaso, not waving his hand. Lefever started hotly forward in his saddle. "Now look here, Frank," he pointed his finger at the objecting ranger. "I'm here for business, not for pleasure. Any time I'm free you can talk to me—" "Not till somebody gags you, John," interposed Elpaso moodily. "Look here, Elpaso," demanded Lefever, spurring his horse smartly toward the Texan, "are you looking for a fight with me right here and now?" "Yes, here and now," declared Elpaso fiercely. "Or, there and then," interposed Kennedy, ironically, "some time, somewhere, or no time, nowhere. Having heard all of which, a hundred and fifty times from you two fellows, let us have peace. You've pulled it so often, over at Sleepy Cat, they've got it in double-faced, red-seal records. Let's get started." "Right you are, Farrell," assented Lefever, "but—" "Second verse, John. You're boss here; what are we going to do? That's all we want to know." "Henry's orders were to wait here till ten o'clock this morning. There's (Continued Next Week)

City Council Holds Session

The City Council held an interesting meeting Wednesday night which was well attended by our city dads. The council voted to purchase $1000 worth of Liberty Bonds, the money to be taken from the sewer sinking fund, and the bonds to be placed to the credit of that fund. The council ordered notices printed and the same published in Te Enterprise, warning citizens of the town to look after the sanitary condition of their premises, such as dry closets, slops, etc. Read the notice which appears elsewhere in this paper. Bids were also asked for the printing of the 1916 city tax list, to be made to the council at its next regular meeting, on Monday night.

Some Social Events

Misses Collings and Vickers Entertain Their Guests.

Misses Sadie Collings and Minnie Vickers entertained their house guests, the Misses Beddingfield, of El Paso, and Miss Slaughter, of Kauffman, and Miss Connell, of Gilmer, with a camp-fire supper on the river Thursday evening of last week. Master Edwin Vickers accompanied the party. After supper automobile riding was enjoyed until the hour for the party to become the guests of Mrs. J. E. Starley to the picture show.

Luncheon and 42

Miss Collings was again hostess, Monday, in honor of her house party, serving a delightful three course noon luncheon. During the afternoon 42 was played and musical selections added to the enjoyment. Those who participated were Misses Slaughter and Connell, the Misses Beddingfield, Misses McCarver, Leota Beauchamp, Minnie Vickers and Sadie Collings.

Eight O'clock Dinner

Saturday Miss Collings entertained with an 8:00 o'clock dinner in honor of her house party. The dinner was served in five courses. The color scheme was white and yellow. The center piece of the elegantly spread table was a bowl of nasturtiums. After the first course a guessing contest was enjoyed. Those present were: Misses Pattie Slaughter, Ivor Connell, Sadie, Nannie Mae and Warren Collings, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Collings, and Messrs. Wilson, Parker, Naley, Jackson and Hefner.

Bunco Party

On Friday evening of last week Misses Collings and Vickers were hostesses at the delightful home of the former, at a prettily appointed Bunco party, honoring their guests, Misses Slaughter and Connell, and the Misses Beddingfield. The color scheme was pink and white, the dining table being laid in handsome lace cover over pink, the center piece being a crystal bowl filled with delightfully fragrant sweet peas. Ribbon streamers from the chandelier to the corners of the table completed the beautiful decorations on which an ice course was served. The evening was spent in playing games of Bunco, making and enjoying delightful music and in merry conversation. Those present were the honor guests, Miss Pattie Slaughter of Kauffman, Miss Ivor Connell of Gilmer, and Misses Annie and Myrtle Beddingfield of El Paso, and Misses Annie and Bernice Richburg, Jane Looby, Loda Robbins, Marie Grafius, Beulah Mae Howard, Nell Kerr, Jewel Cowan, Ora Pruett, Florence Johnson, Aileen Love, Edna Wadley, Lillian Poe, and Mesdames Tom Levy, Earl Collings and Ethel Reynolds, and the hostesses, Miss Minnie Vickers and Miss Sadie Collings.

Entertains Her Young Friends.

On Friday afternoon of last week, Miss Kthryn Baty, the charming little niece of Mrs. M. P. Kiker, was hostess at a prettily appointed party to a few of her friends. A number of interesting games of "42" were played, after which an ice course was served. The following were the guests: Misses Ruby Mae Beauchamp, Evelyn Slack, Lillian Wells, Calla DeRacy, Mozelle Bryan, Frances Hubbard, Gladys and Modena Prunty.

Mrs. Reynolds Entertains.

The occasion was indeed a beautiful one when Mrs. Ethel Heard Reynolds entertained at the home of her mother, Mrs. Sallie Heard, on last Thursday evening in honor of the charming house guests of both Misses Minnie Vickers and Sadie Collings, the honorees being the Misses Beddingfield, of El Paso, Miss Patty Slaughter, of Kauffman, and Miss Ivor Connell, of Gilmer. Mrs. Reynolds was assisted in receiving her guests by her mother, Mrs. Heard, and her niece, Miss Jessie Heard. The guests were invited into the living room, where they were entertained with selections from the Victrola until the happy crowd had arrived, then were invited to the well-lighted lawn between the homes of Mrs. Heard and Mrs. Jesse Heard. Such an ideal spot for "Forty-two" on a rare night in June, we've never seen. Cape jessamines were used as favors.

There were six table of "Forty-two" and during the games the guests were served grape punch by Miss Jessie Heard and Miss Myrtle Ruhlen. At the conclusion of the games, a delicious ice course was served. Those who enjoyed this very beautifully appointed party besides the honor guests, were: Misses Collings, Misses McCarver, Misses Richburg, Miss Florence Johnson, Miss Loda Robbins, Miss Bozeman, Miss Poe, Miss Buena Mae Howard, Miss Gladys Prewit, Miss Nell Kerr, Miss Aileen Love, Miss Jane Looby, Miss Sue Alley, Miss Minnie Vickers, Miss Myrtle Ruhlen, Miss Ora Pruett, Miss Irene Prewit, Mrs. Buelah Johnson Wilson, and Mrs. Tom Levy.

The Pecos Valley State Bank true to their principles, at the meeting last night of the Liberty Bond issue, made a fair and square proposition to those who desired to purchase bonds and were unable to take care of the payments, to allow them to pay one-tenth of the bonds and carry them for the balance on monthly payments. This was a patriotic move which should be appreciated by the people.

Judge and Mrs. R. E. Erwin were in the city Wednesday from their splendid Saragosa alfalfa farm. The Judge is looking happy and says his stock is looking fine as they are grazing on his alfalfa. He has just sold a portion of his alfalfa for pasturage for a short time for which he received five hundred dollars. Alfalfa is certainly king in Reeves county at this time and the man who has a patch is "in clover" as the saying goes. Half the price of an acre of alfalfa for just two months' lease for pasturage is going some and there are few countries on the globe which can boast of such returns from their land. Besides this is only a starter, for they are yet good for fully as much more from a seed crop and hay. Come to Reeves county.

It is desired to call the attention of all citizens of Pecos to the fact that during the hot summer months, more than ordinary care should be exercised in all matters effecting the public health. Dry closets need special care. They should be so closed and screened as to effectually prevent the spreading of offensive odors and the entrance of flies. Quick lime should be used freely.

House and kitchen slops should be disposed of, either through the sewer or by dumping into dry closets. Garbage should not be dumped into any sewer connection.

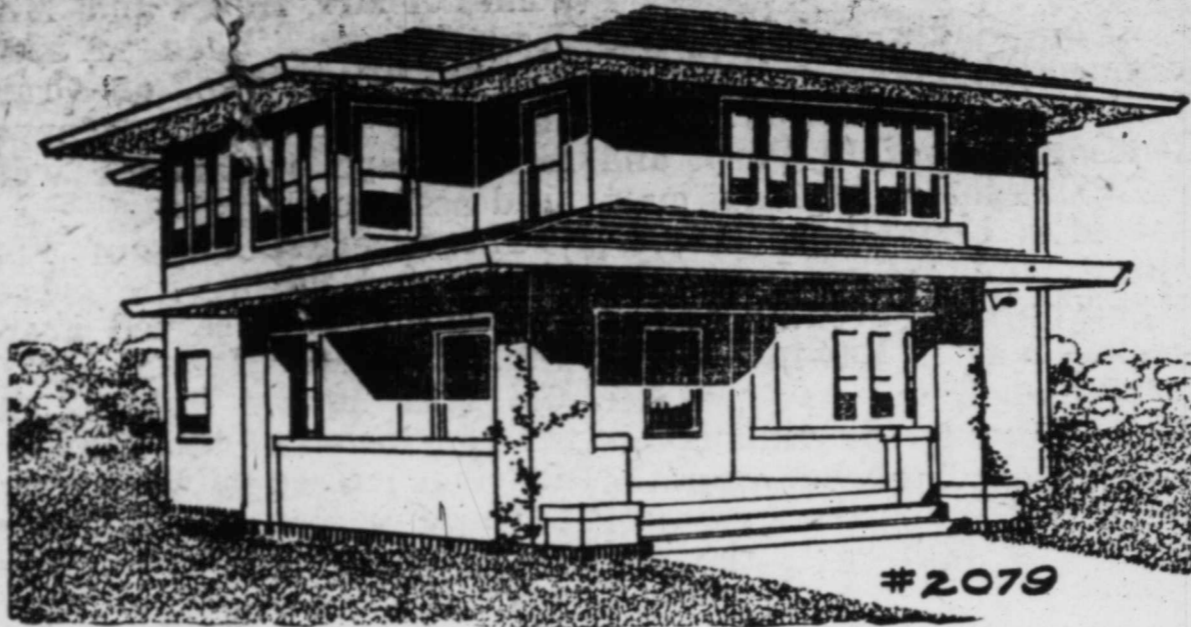

By ordinance, the maintenance of any offensive or unsanitary condition is made a misdemeanor. This ordinance will be enforced by the Marshal, who will make personal inspection on or before June 25th.

Suitable For Any Facing.

One of the most popular designs in fire-proof class may be constructed of hollow-tile or brick with a stucco covered exterior. Roof covered with a composition roofing. The pleasing feature of the exterior is the extra large front porch. The interior is so arranged that no matter which direction this home faces it will be well ventilated. Entering from the front porch into a spacious living room, the entire length with massive brick chimney from floor to ceiling, an alcove adjoins living room which is flanked with book-cases.

The kitchen is equipped with all the labor saving devices. The breakfast room is light and cherry and of ample size. Upstairs are four sleeping chambers and large glassed-in sleeping porch. Large closets throughout. Rear stairs give easy access to bedrooms without having to go through the living room.

For a compact roomy fire-proof home this is a design which meets with instant approval.

A Tribute to Whiskey.

A tramp asked for a drink in a saloon. The request was granted, and when in the act of drinking the proffered beverage one of the young men present exclaimed: "Stop, make us a speech. It is poor liquor that does not unloosen a man's tongue."

The tramp hastily swallowed the drink. As the rich liquor coursed through his blood he straightened himself and stood before them with a grace and dignity that all of his rags and dirt could not obscure.

"Gentlemen," he said, "I look tonight at you and myself and it seems to me that I look upon the picture of my blighted manhood. This bloated face was once as handsome as yours. This shambling figure once walked as proudly as did yours, for I was once a man in the world of men. I too, once had a home and position and friends. I had a wife as beautiful as an artist's dream, but I dropped the priceless pearl of her honor and respect into a cup of wine and like Cleopatra, saw it dissolve, then quaffed it down in the brimming draught. I had children as pure and sweet as the flowers of spring and saw them fade and die under the curse of a drunken father. I had a home where love lit the flame upon the altar and ministered before it, but I put out the holy fire and darkness and desolation reigned instead. I had ambitions and aspirations that soared as high as the morning star, but I bruised their beautiful forms and strangled them that I might hear their cries no more. Today I am a husband without a wife, a father without a child, a tramp without a home and a man within whom every good impulse is dead. All swallowed up in maelstrom—drink.

The tramp ceased speaking. The glass fell from his nervous fingers and was shattered into a thousand fragments on the floor. The swinging doors were pushed open and shut again and when the little group looked up the tramp was gone.—Selected.

Whitewash Formula.

the following formula of a whitewash containing lime, skim milk and salt is recommended: Slake one bushel of good quicklime, with not more than twelve gallons of water. Slake the lime and keep the vessel covered until the steam ceases to rise, stirring occasionally to prevent scorching. Prepare a second mixture containing two pounds of common salt and one pound of zinc sulphate in two gallons of boiling water. Pour this into the slaked lime and stir in two gallons of skim milk. Stir vigorously. This makes an excellent weather-proof whitewash for walls and fences.

I believe there is no finer form of government than the one under which we live and that I ought to be willing to live or die as God decrees, that it may not perish from off the earth through treachery without or assault without; and I believe that, though my first right is to be a partisan, my first duty, when the only principles on which free government can rest are being strained, is to be a patriot and to follow in the wilderness of words that clear call which bids me guard and defend the ark of our national covenant.—Vice President Marshall.

Useful food gets into the garbage pail because the housewife in preparing potatoes or other vegetables and fruits, such as apples, cuts off with the skin a considerable percentage of edible material.
 Careless paring of potatoes may consign to the garbage pail as much as 20 per cent of the edible portion, including outer layers containing valuable mineral substances.

HIDDEN DANGERS.

Nature Gives Timely Warning That No Pecos Citizen Can Afford to Ignore.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 1
 comes from the kidney secretions. They will warn you when the kidneys are weak.
 Well kidneys excrete a clear, amber fluid. Disordered kidneys send out a thin, pale and foamy, or a thick, red, and ill-smelling urine full of sediment and irregular of passage.

DANGER SIGNAL NO. 2
 comes from the back. Back pains, dull and heavy, or sharp and acute, suggest weak kidneys and in that case warn of the danger of dropsy, gravel and Bright's disease. Doan's Kidney Pills are endorsed by thousands. Here's Pecos' proof:

J. B. Davis, Fourth St., Pecos, says: "I had quite a bit of trouble with my kidneys. My back was weak and lame and ached. I had bladder trouble also, and the kidneys secretions were too frequent and burning in passage and highly colored. Doan's Kidney Pills did me a great deal of good, and when I have noticed any return of the trouble since, I have procured a box at the City Pharmacy. They have never failed to relieve me."
 Price 50 c. at all dealers.
 Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Davis

News Notes of the Fort Worth-El Paso Highway.

Our semi-annual meeting convenes at Mineral Wells at 2 p. m. on the 19th inst. The program for the first afternoon is as follows: After the preliminary matters pertaining to the opening of the meeting are concluded, there will be an address by President S. A. Penix, followed by an address by Judge Adrian Pool, Chairman, Good Roads Committee of the El Paso Chamber of Commerce.
 The meeting will then hear from C. C. Gunn, secretary of Chamber of Commerce, Fort Worth. In these addresses, several matters of vital interest to our organization will be introduced and will be generally discussed when the above speakers have concluded. Before meeting adjourns for the day, several important committees will be appointed. On the 20th and 21st our meeting will be merged with the meeting of the Texas Good Roads Association. On the morning of the 20th there will be no speaking, but our association will take part in a Good Roads auto parade, which will form at Fort Worth at 10 a. m., and shortly after proceed to Mineral Wells. The joint meeting will convene at 2 p. m. That afternoon the Directors of our association will be heard from,
 and reports will be submitted by our engineer and secretary.
 On the morning of the 21st our committee will report.

At this writing we do not have a complete list of the speakers furnished by the Texas Good Roads Association, but a number of men of authority will make interesting talks, among whom will be the recently appointed members of the State Highway Commission.

Don't let anything interfere with your attending this important meeting.
 W. B. STARR, Sec'y.

To stimulate additional interest among the counties along the line of the Fort Worth-El Paso Highway in having a good showing in the Good Roads Auto Parade, which will form at Fort Worth at 10 a. m. on the morning of the 20th inst., going from there to Mineral Wells, where the joint meeting of the Fort Worth-El Paso Highway Association and the Texas Good Roads Assocation will convene at 2 p. m.
 On that date it has been decided by the last named organization to offer a banner to the county making the best showing. To make it equitable this contest will be decided by multiplying the number of passengers in each car by the number of miles they have come. The largest total figure obtained from all the cars entered from any one county will win the prize.

My Mother—A Prayer

An article with this title appeared recently in the Seattle Post Intelligencer and so impressed Hon. William E. Humphrey, of Washington, that he asked its publication in the Congressional Record. It was written by Tom Dillon, one of the most popular and talented writers on the Pacific coast, and should be read by every human being that has a mother. We commend it to every reader of The Enterprise for a place in their scrap book if they have one, and if not, for a place in their memory to be repeated and pondered during life to come.

"For the body you gave me, the bone and the sinew, the heart and the brain that are yours, my mother, I thank you.
 I thank you for the light in my eyes, the blood in my veins, for my speech, for my life, for being. All that I am is yours who bore me."

"For all the love that you gave me, unmeasured from the beginning, my mother, I thank you. I thank you for the hand that led me, the voice that directed me, the breast that nestled me, the arm that shielded me, the lap that rested me. All that I am is by you that nursed me."

"For your smile in the morning and your kiss at night, my mother, I thank you. I thank you for the tears that you shed over me, the songs that you sung to me, the prayers that you said to me, for your vigils and ministrings. All I am is by you who reared me."

"For the faith you had in me, the hope you had for me, for your trust and your pride, my mother I thank you. I thank you for your praise and your chiding, for the justice you bred into me, and the honor you made mine. All that I am you taught me."

"For the sore travail that I caused you, for the visions and despairs, my mother, forgive me. Forgive me for the peril I brought you, the sobs and moans I wrung from you, and for the strength I took from you, mother, forgive me."

"For the fear I gave you, for the alarms and dreads, my mother, forgive me. Forgive me the joys I deprived you, the toils I made for you, for the hours, the days, and the years I claimed from you, my mother, forgive me."

"For the times that I hurt you, the times I had no smile for you, the caress that I did not give you, my mother, forgive me. Forgive me my angers and revolts, for my deceits and evasions, for all the pangs and sorrows I brought to you, mother, forgive me."

"For your lessons I did not learn, for your wishes I did not heed, for the counsels I did not obey, my mother, forgive me. Forgive me my pride in my youth and my glory in my strength that forgot the holness in your years and veneration of your weakness, for my neglect; for my selfishness, for all great debts of love that I have not paid, sweet mother, forgive me."

"And may the peace and the joy that passeth all undestanding be yours, my mother, for ever and ever. Amen"

Whooping Cough.
 In this disease it is important that the cough be kept loose and expectoration easy, which can be done by giving Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. Mrs. P.
 H. Martin, Peru, Ind., writes
 "My two daughters had whooping cough. I gave them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, and it worked like a charm."—Adv't

Good For the Little Ones...

 crease in the demand for Foley coughs, colds, and croup. J. mediate relief. I also took the same with good results." For

No Reason For Delay.

There is no reason for delay in purchasing a Liberty Loan Bond in the hope that by waiting a better investment can be obtained. Should the United States Government issue later during this war bonds bearing a higher rate of interest, it is expressly provided in the law authorizing the issue of Liberty Loan Bonds, that they shall be exchangeable par for par, for similar bonds bearing a higher rate of interest.

The Kaiser is waiting to hear from the Liberty Loan Bond sale. Let the answer be such that it will be heard around the world.

It is stated on undoubted authority that a victorious Germany will demand billions of dollars from the United States as indemnity for the damages inflicted by the arms and ammunition furnished by America to the Entente Allies. The Liberty Loan Bond issue is the answer—Billions for defense, but not one cent for indemnity.

Every cent of the proceeds of the Liberty Loan Bond issue is to be spent with the American people. It will be paid to the farmers for food and other products of their farms, for clothing, for leather; it will be paid to the manufacturers of this country for manufactured products not only in the way of munitions and arament, but of all the manufactured products that soldiers and armies use. That portion of the loan which is loaned the Allies will be so spent, and that part reserved for the American Government will be so spent. In subscribing to the Liberty Loan the American people are lending to their best customer and enabling him to purchase more liberally from them.

LIFT YOUR CORNS OFF WITH FINGERS
 Tells How to Loosen a Tender
 Corn or Callous So it Lifts
 Out Without Pain.

You reckless men and women who are pestered with corns and who have at least once a week invited an awful death from lockjaw or blood poison are now told by a Cincinnati authority to use a drug called freezone, which the moment a few drops are applied to any corn or callous the soreness is relieved and soon the entire corn or callous, root and all, lifts off with the fingers.

Freezone dries the moment it is applied, and simply shrivels the corn or callous without inflaming or even irritating the surrounding tissue or skin. A small bottle of freezone will cost very little at any of the drug stores, but will positively rid one's feet of every hard or soft corn or hardened callus.
 If your druggist hasn't any freezone he can get it at any wholesale drug house for you.
