For years it has been believed by our tockmen that the great loss of all classes of stock, espeically in the fall of the year, due to the eating of some poisonous weed. The death rate among livestock has at times been astounding, if not equal to an epidemie, and the consequence is that our stockmen at such times were heavy

Mr. Roe was in Peces the latter part of last week and stated to Mr. Camp that in every instance where the goldenrod was fed, before and since the frost, the cattle died. This proves conclusively that Mr. Camp's theory was correct. Mr. Camp took Mr. Roe over the country to show him the patches of goldenrod and also to the bro-mide lake in Ward county. mide lake in Ward county.

As a result of this discovery it is certain the government will take some steps to prise will state that there is no "oil boom" eradicate this weed at an early date in on in Reeves county, but there are now in order to protect the stock industry.

MOSTLY FAKES .- For the past three months the Pecos Times has been trying awful hard to get up an oil boom in Pecos county, but it will not work. Week after week they have printed column after column of eil news, but so far has not made it boom much .--

The Record was never more wrong since During the late years when the drouth has been a sore trul to our slockmen this indded death rate and in many cases the increase of the herds were the ones to pass increase been a menace which made our stockraisers despondent indeed. stockraisers despondent indeed. Tax Assessor W. W. Camp, who is also a cattle raiser, decided the goldenrod weed, which has been preseding over the ranges and the death of so many stock and in the summer took the matter up with Congressman C. B. Hudspeth, who immediately took the matter up with the proper branch of the federal government. As a result in the summer an experiment station was established at Roswell to test out the matter to make a thorough test of the goldenrod before the frosts came, and since.

ET us learn to be content with what we have. Let us get rid of our false estimates, set up all the higher ideals-a quiet home; vines of our own planting; a few books full of the inspiration of a genius; a few friends worthy of being loved and able to love us in return; a hundred innocent pleasures that bring no pain or remorse; a devotion to the right that will never swerve; a simple religion empty of all bigotry, full of trust and hope and love; and to such a philosophy this world will give up all the empty joy it has.

DAVID SWING.

B. H. Black fast week closed a deal with A. A. Kinney whereby the latter becomes the owner of the Black lands, consisting of 4317 acres in Block C18 and C-19, public school land land, Mr. Kinney to assume the state debt. The consideration, it is un-derstood, was $7.50 per acre. A year ago this land could not have been sold for $2 per acre bonus, but it is in the oil belt, you know, and Mr. Kinney was perfectly willing to invest $7.50 per acre in order to get the oil right. Only a part of this land, it is understood, carries the min-eral. This is one of the results of the oil development in the Pecos oil field and only development in the Pecos oil field and only development in the recos of heid and only one, as many others just as good might be mentioned and other similar instances might be cited. B. G. Smith, who also owned four sec-tions on the structure northwest of Pecos recently sold same at $4 per acre bonus— the direct result of the oil boom which is coming our way.

The New Birth R. H. H. Burnett, in Farm and Ranch.

"Ye must be born again," The Christ.

God incarnate here by my lonely hearth, In thy word I read of a new birth, And in Folk Lore the classic style, That we are, "Once a man and twice a child." It is "Vox populi Vox Dei" and it must be so. Then renaissant stork thou must quickly go, Back to the farm where I was born, To reincarnate me on my mother's arm My second childhood there to spend With my mother, the boy's best friend. While to her my evening prayers are said Upon her knee to place my head, Then slowly climb the attic stair, So loath to leave the big log fire. I would have her hand upon my head As she tucks me in the trundle bed, And feel again the good night kiss That gave sweet dreams of perfect bliss.

I want again the good farm dinners, Fit for all saints, too good for sinners, The crackling bread, how memory lingers, Around the prints of my mother's fingers, Epicures could feast on this corn bread, But a pone would kill a dude stone dead. With home grown bacon fat and fine, Crisp strips most long as a good plow line. All by the old farm freely given With never a thought of "High Cost of Living!" I want the fun of growing up, Hunting coons with good "Old Pup." And yell again for half the night, To see the old dog win another fight, Nor sacrilege if longs my soul For another plunge in the old swimming hole. As quandam friends standall in line,

"Oh, come in boys, the water's fine," Then come as bees pour from the hive, They in the pellucid waters dive.

Then Sundays all the day at meetin's, At the old white church with happy greetings The good man of God with honest truth, To thrill the heart of guileless youth. Then the bounteous basket dinner, Made us forget each Saint and Sinner, Our angels had no wings, just curls, They were laughing romping country girls, All under the dear old apple trees In the blue grass to their knees, Flitting like birds and butterflies, Toting succotash and pumpkin pies. Then at last when Christmas came, The good old world was all aflame-With the holly haw and mistletoe, Crystal sleet and gleaming snow, And the sleigh bells how they jingle As our ears and fingers tingle, While we cheer for Old Kriss Kringle! The turkeys helped us to celebrate, We ate old Tom Gobbler and his mate, Persimmons, Possums, and Black Haws Gave us the mumps in both our jaws, Hard cider and big apples red, Oh shucks, "The thing's gone to my head."

Then the country's Christmas dance, Like the Reindeer we would prance. No "Goose Step" there of little dudes, Or Tangoing by giggling prudes, Just the good old honest whirls, Of plowboys and their country girls, As down long log rooms they came gleaming With tread of coming men and women. Then drive back home on stormy night, Or steal a kiss by dim moonlight, Down long lanes between the hedges, As we plight our troth with many pledges, Good! "Once a man and twice a child," "I should worry; I should smile." And give thanks to the gracious giver, Who makes of me a boy forever. Me for the old farm with its joys, The old white church, the girls and boys, The Old Swimming Hole and Coons and Pup, If this weren't heaven, I'll give up.

And at last when we won the bride, Stood in the old white church by her side Then placed the ring upon her hand, That made her a woman and you a man, In dual joys of wedded life, The farmer boy and sweet girl wife. Don't bother, Lord, about that harp or crown Give me again my love, my own, Take from our eyes the heavy lids, And keep us always just country kids. I don't want to be "an angel on the shining shore" But just a farm boy as of yore. And do you know the Christ boy is coming again? As God he will make the renaissance plain; The world crucified Him when He was a man, Guess he wants to be a farm boy again. For he was born in a manger out in the old barn, So of course he is coming back to the farm To lie in the manger on sweet scented clover, So snug in the arms of Mary, his mother. Then my dear Savior boy, whatever you do, Please take me back to the old farm with you, It will be heaven to me the old place to see Though I must sleep in a manger out in the barn, With Jesus and Mary down on the old farm.

WHEN DEW IS ON THE CORN The daylight saving law, a happy by-product of the war, was repealed by the votes of Congressmen who explained their action as due to pressure from the farmers. Farm workers of today, we are told, will not be dragged into the fields while wheat and corn are still dripping with the dew. How old-time farmers, lured into city life during the last twenty or thirty years, must rub their eyes and look again as they read all this in the morning paper! The farmer, shivering at the thought of the dew unwilling to set his foot on the grass until sure that his shoes will not be dampened! What a contrast with the time when, as a boy, you hiked over the pasture field looking among clumps of pawpaw bushes for old Selim, long before rosey-fingered Aurora shot the hilltops with her shafts of gold. If his erratic grazing drew you under the honey locusts in the the still imperfect light you might even have cause to sit down in the dew and extract a thorn from your foot, like the boy who has come down to us in bronze, from some thorny field of the old Mediterranean world though minus his sculptured dignity and plus a more comprehensive outfit of clothes And after you had caught your horse and curried him, eaten your breakfast and reached the field with the double-shovel cultivator of that day, there was still dew enough on the corn to soak through your shirt and trickle down your sides as you went back and forth between the rows. If you had not appeared until the dew was gone your neighbors would have thought something wrong.

MONEY IN W.S.S.

STATE TREASURER

'There are two hig reasons why every person should save and invest in W S. S. First, it is to every one's financial interest to become the owner of as many War Savings Stamps as he can acquire. Second, there are still 2,000,000 American soldiers in France, Germany and Rusand money invested in War Savings

Stamps will enable the Government to take care of them and bring them back home to America when they have finished the job of making world-wide peace permanent.

"This is no time for people to lay aside their patrictism, but instead a time when all of us must exhibit a higher type of patriotism than ever before. Investing in War Savings Stamps is profitable patrictism."

WAR IS NOT OVER UNTIL BILLS PAID

American soldiers in Europe must be fed and brought home. Until that is done the war will not be over, declares Carter Glass, Secretary of the Treasury. Buying War Savings Stamps will help the Government in making its final settlement of war obligations.

"There are two million American soldiers in Europe," Secretary Glass points out, "and obligation is just as much on the Government today as when the guns were firing to see that they are maintained in comfort, to provide for their return home. It is just as important, and even more important, to impress upon the Ame: ican people the necessity of cultivating the habit of thrift and saving.

"The war will not be over until the United States Government has honorably met every commitment made in order to win the war."

district will maintain its War Savings Societies and add to their number. Everyone who is concerned in the business of living is vitally interested in Thrift and the Savings Campaign and should be a member of a War Savings Society.

"None is too poor to have a part. None so well off he can be indifferent. Thrift is good management of the business of living. The man, woman or child who has mastered Thrift is master of his fate. The people who acquire the Thrift habit sia. They have to be taken care of, are on the high road to success. "One of the best ways to practice thrift is to practice intelligent buying. We should buy, not what we think we want, but what he know we need. This kind of buying is far from miserliness. The business men will appreciate it for it means fre quent turnover in staples on which they can calculate accurately the demand in advance, rather than hazardous stocking up with the opposite kind of goods.

"We must save for ourselves and for our country's sake. We have saved enormously under the pressure of war, but our work is not over. We have great saving still to do. It is a certainty we can do it if, individually and nationally, we back up the Government and take an active part in 'getting ahead' by following the War Savings plan."

Have you capitalized yourself? If so, are you a profitable investnent?

lt's all a very simple affair. By few easy calculations you can fgure out what you are worth to yourself and whether you are a moneylosing proposition.

Suppose your earnings amount to $1,000 per year. That represents 5 per cent interest on $20,000. What are you doing with the interest? Is a portion of it going back into "capital stock" or is so much of it being wasted in "operating" that there is nothing left?

When you spend a nickal you are getting rid of all a dollar can safely make for you in a whole year. Throw a dime away and $2 have to work over time to even things up. Squander a quarter and a $5 bill is kept busy the entire year before it J. Caesar of Rome, Italy, who took adds another quarter to your hold

In Her Mother's Home, Says This Georgia Lady, Regarding Black-Draught. Relief From Headache, Malaria, Chills, Etc.

Ringgold, Ga.- Mrs. Chas. Gaston, of this place, writes: "I am a user of Thedford's Black-Draught; in fact it was one of our family medicines. Also in my mother's home, when I was a child. When any of us child ren complained of headache, usually caused by constipation, she gave us a dose of Black-Draught, which would rectify the trouble. Often in the Spring, we would have malaria and chills, or troubles of this kind, we would take Black-Draught pretty reg ular until the liver acted well, and we would soon be up and around again. We would not be without it, for it certainly has saved us lots of doctor bills. Just a dose of Black-Draught when not so well saves a lot of days in bed."

Thedford's Black-Draught has been in use for many years in the treatment of stomach, liver and bowel troubles, and the popularity which it now enjoys is proof of its merit.

If your liver is not doing its duty. you will suffer from such disagreeable symptoms as headache, biliousness, constipation, indigestion, etc.. and unless something is done, serious trouble may result.

Thedford's Black-Draught has been found a valuable remody for these troubles. It is purely vegetable, and acts in a prompt and natural way regulating the liver to its proper functions and cleansing the bowels of impurities. Try it. Insist on Thed-ford's the original and genuine. E 79

Collective Christmas Greetings

THE appeal of Christmas is too potent to be chilled by the passing winds of winter's discontent.

Twenty centuries have entwined its recurrence with the sweetest and most wholesome aspirations of the human heart.

Not all the ages of war and strife have served to blot out its ever-beckoning visions of felicity nor to deaden the world's ears to its vibrant voice of deep-seated hope.

Because men and women feel these simple truths-normally righteous men and women-they breathe out to others, in Christmas greetings, the faith and hope that illumine their own hearts as spontaneously as children scatter the fancies of childhood's very real unreal world.

So, with deep and lasting appreciation of the multitude of their kindnesses, we extend to our friends and customers—to all the kinds, classes and conditions of men and women who make up our public-the Compliments of the Season—our warm Christmas Greetings.

More than ever before—if that be possible—may the Spirit of Yuletide, replete with love and happiness, insure for each and all a Merry Christmas.

And, too, may the dying days of the year yield you evidence of coming abundant prosperity and good success in the New Year which is at hand.

A MINISTER'S APPRECIATION OF HIS FLOCK AND HIS FRIENDS.

Pecos, Texas, Christmas, 1919.

To My Brethren and Friends in Pecos and Surrounding Country-Greeting:

It is almost fifteen years since the writer stepped from the train to the Pecce platform. It was night, and the rain was falling. Bro. J. H. Wilhite piloted me across muddy streets and along cinder walks to his home. Naturally we wondered what the morrow would reveal in reference to the town and its people, for we had come "for better or for worse" to make our home in Western Texas.

Now, at this Christmas season, when the good Spirit spreads around us new evidences of peace and good will, let me express to you the feelings of my heart regarding the good the passing years have brought. We can say with the Psalmist.

"The lines are fallen unto me in pleasant places, Yea, I have a goodly heritage." Many, many times during the past we have been lifted to higher heights by your splendid fellowship; and especially during the past year, as we have horn a heavier burden of earth's sorrows than usual, you have been to us a comfort and stay that has proven your kinship to the Father, and given to us a foretaste of the fellowship of the glory world.

No preacher ever labored among a more tender-hearted people, nor was remembered in more tender, loving ways than this one. Following Paul's instruction, "Let him that is taught in the word communicate unto him that teacheth in all good things," you have showered us with material blessings and added to this is that sympathy and care for your minister, that has urged upon him the doing of only the very necessary duties, and that has lifted his burden to your own shoulders.

And so at this Christmas time, to all who have in any way shed sunshine on our pathway, making the read brighter, and the heart lighter; yea, to every one in Pecos and the country round, in the church and out of the church, we wish the best God has in store. And may His peace of which the angels sang the first Christmas night, be yours now, and through the coming years.

In His service, HOMER L. MAGEE.

Public Health Nursing.

In the midst of its multifarious war duties the American Red Cross did not neglect its obligations to the civilian population at home. Throughout the conflict it maintained its Bureau of Public Health Nursing, instruction in first aid, home nursing and sanitation, and disaster relief. Particularly in their work for the bables was effort by public health nurses important. The accompanying photograph shows a Red Cross public health nurse instructing a mother in the proper preparation of the baby's diet.

There are two roads in life. One leads to a quagmire of nothingness. The other leads to success. Both are lined with sign posts to show the

PEACE HAS COME

Imitation "Ford" parts are being sold by many mail-order houses, down-town stores and garages to unsuspecting Ford owners as "Ford" parts. But they are not Genuine Ford parts. They are made by concerns who have no connection whatsoever with the Ford Motor Company. Tests have shown them to break when the genuine Ford parts didn't even bend.

The Authorized Ford Dealers are your protection. As such, we handle nothing but the Genuine Ford parts. They are made from the famous Ford Vanadium Steel, and each partaccording to its use-is heat-treated in the way that will give it the longest wearing qualities. Our Ford garage and Ford mechanics are at your service at all times. Drive in when replacements or repairs for your Ford car may be necessary. Save your car and also your money.

YOU WOULD BE PROUD TO OWN YOUR OWN HOME

Did you ever notice the difference in the amount and quality of care a home OWNER and a home RENTER give to the place in which they live? The joy of possession, the feeling of independence on the part of the home owner is evidenced in the appearance of his home, the ground that surrounds it and the rooms within. He is proud of his home. He wants it to be the prettiest place in town. And the women,-well, you just ask your wife if she would like to have a home of her own!

It isn't hard to build at this time, either, for a home is very good security and if you haven't all the money necessary, you can do as thousands upon thousands of home owners have done for years and are doing now-borrow the money from your bank or building and loan association and pay back in installments of about the same amount you now pay for rent.

It's really a matter of beginning. Let us help you make the start.

wary traveller in which direction he is moving. But many people go along, their eyes on the skies, on the ground, or unseeing in dreamland, never noticing that they are advancing on the wrong highway. Do you know which road you are travelling? Here are the sign posts. The end of one will find you empty-handed. The end of the other will find you with funds for a sunny opportunity-with War Savings Stamps and Liberty Bonds working for you at over 4 % interest.

"Your money's no good "I can't be bothered with small change. "The sky's the limit." "I'm paying for this." "Don't be a piker." "It's all in a Lifetime." "More where this came from." "Aw, come on; be a sport."

'Money's no object to us."

Thrift Road "What is the price of this?" "One will do." "The walk will do me good." "No, thank you." 'I can't afford that." "Give me your best price." "I'll carry this." "I promised my wife." "I need the money." "Let me pay my share." "I can get along without this." 'Is it worth seeing?" "This is what I've gotten for my money."

The Christmas Gift That Will Make Thousands Happy

Why? Because it is the only phonograph that is able to give you real music, true music.

The New Edison music is real because its RE-CREA-TIONS cannot be distinguished from the original music itself. This means that the New Edison gives you something no talking machine or ordinary phonograph is capable of giving you. This does full justice to the artists themselves and to you. We do not attempt to sell you a mere reproduction when you are entitled to an actual RE-CREATION.

Could any gift make any one happier than the phonograph that gives you actual realism?
