HAMILTON AWARDED CONTRACT FOR HIGHWAY JOB AT $107,471.38

COMMISSIONERS LET CONTRACT FOR HIGHWAY NUMBER TWO WEST OF HERMOSA AND WORK WILL BE COMMENCED SOON.

The letting of the contract for the construction of that section of the Bankhead Highway from about two miles west of Hermosa on through Toyah to the county line near Kent marks an event in the history of Reeves county.

The county commissioners were in session yesterday and until late at night when the State officials completed their work of comparing the eighteen bids for the work and W. E. Hamilton's being the lowest bid the work was unanimously awarded to him at $107,471.38. The work will be begun at an early date and is to be graded and graveled and put in first-class shape and will be constructed under the supervision of Engineer A. L. White of El Paso who was employed for the work. His salary was placed at $250 per month and the district to furnish him a car.

On Thursday morning when the contractors and State officials began to gather to be present at the opening of the bids our town was astounded and many thought the oil boom was really on. The court room was crowded most of the day.

The counties east of us have been advertising for bids and will let contracts for the construction of the gaps east of us on the Bankhead Highway and it is believed that by the time our road is completed the balance of the gaps will also be completed and then travel will begin to come this way.

Judge Adrian Pool, who is one of the greatest road boosters in Texas, was in attendance and has on foot plans to build the short gap in Ward county through the Monahans sands. If there is any way on earth to raise this money Judge Pool and W. W. Stewart will get it and the work will go on simultoneously with the work on other section of the Highway.

PERSONAL REMINISCENCES

By Maj. Thos. H. Bomar.

When I lived at Toyahvale Col. George W. Baylor, an old Indian fighter, sometimes spent the night with us, as we "sat by the fire and talked the night away," he told many tales of adventures, of life on the frontier, of games and hunting; of Indians, and of their "Echoing whoop; bloody grapple and defying death songs."

The last Indian fight on Texas soil was in the Limpia Canyon and my recollection is that it was at or near where the road to the Wild Rose pass leaves the main Fort Davis road, the whites were the victors and rid the state of Comanche and Apache terrors forever.

In going up the tortuaus road in the bed of a small stream, one "looks himself forward" and sees no way to get out, then "looking- himself behind," he sees no opening by which he came in, as my German fellow traveler so aptly described the situation.

When I lived in Toyahvale a Mexican of my acquaintance was coming from Fort Davis, driving a two horse wagon, in which were his wife and grown daughter, when in the narrowest part of the canyon, between the two immense stone walls he heard a great and terific roar behind, and looking back saw an immense wall of water, coming down in raging, surging, struggling, with a noise like the thunderous breaking of storm tossed waves on Scutios Rocky shores.

Action had to be instantaneous, the man sprang out and by the sheerest good fortune, by the one chance in a millions, his hands clutched a vine that was hanging there and he was saved; but all else was lost, and the lifeless bodies of his wife and daughter, the carcasses of the mules, broken remnants of the wagon were found in a chaotic mass some three miles below.

At Brogado formerly called Indio away up on top of a little mountain was a large rock, a regular royal Sidilia of solid stone, on which, as I was told on my first visit there in 1881, a great Indian worrior and Chiertain (I think his name was Victorio,) would sit for days watching the roads on the plains below; he had a pair of excellent field glasses, that he kept secreted from his followers and thereby gained the reputation of being an almost supermatural personage, as he would accurately describe the character of the caravans or soldiers along-way off much further than the keenest and sharpest visioned Indian could possibly see.

DINNER PARTY

Mrs. Harry Anderson delightfully entertained at her beautiful and well appointed home at a dinner party Tuesday. Covers were laid for: Mrs. W. L. Kingston, Mrs. R. S. Johnson and Mrs. J. W. Parker and the hostess.

LEGISLATIVE MANUAL FREE

In compliance with a resolution introduced by and passed through the instrumentality of Senator R. P. Dorough of Texarkana a thousand extra copies of the "Legislative Manual" of the 1921 Texas legislature were printed for free distribution. This is probably the first time that citizens of the state, other than members of the legislature and state officials have had the opportunity of securing a copy of the "Legislative Manual," as before a very limited edition has been printed.

The extra copies were printed in response to the numerous demands for material contained in the Manual and not accessible elsewhere. This Manual contains an up-to-date copy of the Constitution of Texas, and outside of certain expensive compilations of Texas Statutes the Manual is the only place where anything like an up-to-date copy of the Texas Constitution can be found. This Manual also contains the Constitution of the United States, lists of members of the House and Senate, the rules of both houses, standing committee of both houses, as well as other material of interest.

A request addressed to Miss Octavia A. Rogan, Legislative Reference Librarian State Library, Austin, enclosing postage for transportation will bring a copy of the Manual. The Manual weighs, unwrapped, one pound and two ounces, making the postal charges for the first and second zones from Austin six cents, for the third zone, eight cents, and for the fourth zone eleven cents for a single copy.

Teachers of history and civics may obtain several copies for class use.

BAPTIST REVIVAL TO BEGIN OCTOBER 9TH

The revival at the Baptist church will begin October 9. Dr. T. V. Neal, pastor of the First Baptist church at El Paso, will be here to do the preaching. The music will be directed by Mr. H. V. Reynolds of Fort Worth. He will have as his helper his accomplished wife who is a splendid musician and a sweet singer. Mr. Reynolds is known all over the South as a pianist and choir director. He will bring with him his marimba which will add much to the music. Be sure and hear it.

As for Dr. Neal, few men are his equal as a preacher. He is witty and winson, but spiritually minded. We are fortunate to have such men as these to visit us. They are both men of culture and consecrated common sense.

The public is not only invited but urged to attend and co-operate in these services. In the meantime let us lend our support and influence to the Christian meeting now in progress.

J. M. GARNER, Pastor.

I. H. BULLARD PASSES AWAY.

Mrs. W. A. Hudson received a message Monday announcing the death early that morning of her aged father, I. H. Bullard in Houston where he was visiting a son. The call came sudden and he went quietly without any suffering. Mr. Bullard made an annual visit to his daughter in Pecos for some years and had made many friends here who were charmed with his pleasing personality and gracious manners. He was a Southern gentleman of the old type, embodying all that emplies, a confederate venteran serving throughout the entire war, a high degree Mason and a devoted member of the Christian church. The last visit Mr. Bullard made to Pecos was the past summer, leaving just about a month ago. Mrs. Hudson left Monday for Waxahachie, the old home, where burial was made Tuesday afternoon. The Enterprise joins the many other friends of the family in extending to them deepest sympathy.

TWENTIETH CENTURY CLUB

The Twentieth Century Club held its first meeting of the year Wednesday afternoon at the home of the president, Mrs. I. J. Simes.

A full membership was in attendance, and the hour was delightfully spent in summer reminiscenses, the reading of Federation correspondence and out-lining the New Year's work. At the close of the session the hostess served an ice course, which most happily emphasized the social atmosphere of the occasion.

PECOS-METHODIST HEAR BISHOP

When word was passed around Monday that Bishop H. M. DuBose of Berkley, Calif., would occupy the pulpit at the Methodist church that night our people were delighted, for many of them had never had the pleasure of hearing a Methodist Bishop.

The congregation was larger than usual and the discourse was very fine and very much enjoyed. Bishop DuBose is a fine appearing gentleman, just plain man like the balance of us, but has a stofe of knowledge of not only the bible but of general history rarely attained and that coupled with his splendid delivery makes him unusually interesting. He was on his way to the annual convention of the New Mexico conference which is now in session at Artesia, N. M.

At this service there were several other ministers from over the district as well as laymen from Barstow. Those ministers who were in Pecos and, on their way to the conference and heard the Bishop's message were:

J. L. Henson of Marfa, H. M. Smith of Alpine, F. L. Glisson of Fort Stockton, J. S. Rice of Barstow, and J. C. Jones of Roswell, who is presiding elder of this district.

DAVIS MOUNTAIN LAND OWNERS ARE INVITED TO MEET

All the land owners interested in the proposed State Park area in the Davis Mountains, have been invited to attend a meeting to be held at Fort Davis Monday, October 17, at 10:30 o'clock in the morning, for the purpose of discussing the State Park proposition.

There have been rumors to the effect that the state would resort to condemnation proceedings in order to acquire the lands needed for park purposes, without regard to the wishes of the present holders. According to W. W. Stewart, father of the State Park idea and chairman of the Davis Mountain State Park committee, which has been instrumental in creating public sentiment in favor of a big State Park in the Davis Mountains, every land owner will be given a square deal by the state when the time comes for acquisition of the needed lands.

At any rate said Mr. Stewart, we have called the land owners together in order to straighten out any misunderstandings as to the attitude of the state, which may have found lodgement in the minds of the men so vitally affected as are the land owners. We must have the wholehearted support and co-operation of every citizen of West Texas, including the land owners, and to get it we must get together and remove all causes of doubt as to our plans.

It must be plain that the state will not tolerate any profiteering on the part of the land owners but I am not ready to believe the land owners have any other disposition than to be fair. Extortionate demands in the form of inordinately high prices for lands for park purposes will have the effect to throw the State Park idea into the discard where it may lie for years. There is a strong state-wide demand for a big playground, game preserve and health and comfort resort in west Texas and the Davis Mountain is the place for it.

Nothing can prevent its location there but undue rapacity on the part of those who control the lands, but I am not afraid of that. I feel sure that when the land owners become acquainted with the details of the plans of the protagonists of the park and that nothing like confiscation is contemplated, they will do the right thing.

Some of the owners of the rough, canyon lands have already told us that if the state will give them credit on their low lying lands for what they have paid on the rougher lands, they will be glad to turn the latter over to the state for State Park purposes. That is the proper spirit and I have no doubt there are others whom we have not yet seen who will do the same thing. If they do they will do much toward making the State Park possible.

I hope that all owners of lands in the proposed State Park area will be at the Fort Davis meeting, Monday, October 17, in order that we may have a full and free discussion of the points at issue into the end, that our committee may be in position to render a comprehensive report to the legislative committee which will meet in Dallas, Saturday, October 22, for the purpose of drafting its report to the legislature.

Judge J. B. Gibson, a former resident of Pecos but living in El Paso, is in Pecos this week renewing acquaintances and watching the oil wells.

SHERIFF CAPTURES ALLEGED AUTO THIEF

A wire received from the authorities in El Paso Wednesday by Sheriff E. B. Kiser was the cause of a wild ride to Monahans and the capture of a man who give his name as F. P. Johnson, and a new Ford car. By the time the message was received by Sheriff Kiser the car had passed Pecos and was making all the speed a Ford could make eastward, but Kiser picked up Harry Anderson and started on the wild chase. The Sheriff had wired on ahead and at Monahans the man was detained about fifteen minutes in getting gasoline and in the mean time Reeves county's efficient sheriff drove up and took the man and car in charge. A wire to El Paso revealed the fact that the car number and other evidence corresponded and the man and car were brought back to Pecos.

The man had a 45 calibre Colts gun with plenty of ammunition. Mr. Kiser says he also had a complete set of dies for changing engine numbers as well as a complete set of blanks needed by a professional auto thief, such as application blanks for auto number, transfer and transfer receipts, two sets of Texas seals, Texas license plates and New Mexico license plate which had never been used. He also secured papers which the captured man, according to reports, would like very much to have destroyed, but which are held by Sheriff Kiser.

From the evidence and the paraphernalia captured it would look as if a professional had been captured.

CHRISTIAN CHURCH REVIVAL

The meeting continues with much interest. One conversion last Tuesday and increased attendance at each service. The singing and whistling of Mr. Ezra Jacks of Dallas is of great interest especially to the younger people who are so ably assisting in the song service.

Reverend Magee's earnest prayers and exhortations are impressive and Rev. Teel's sermons are scriptural and logical. Mr. Teel has specialized not only in study of the Bible but in sociology. His knowledge of men and business interwoven with the scriptures enables him to deliver most practical discourses. He with assistants are much appreciated. Much good has been accomplished and more additions to the church are expected. The meeting closes with the servise on Sunday evening.

THE FARMER DIED LAST

W. J. Bryan recently uttered these words that ought to be read by every citizen as well as by every farmer. His subject was: "The Farmer Dies Last."

Mr. Bryan said: "In a fight to the death the farmer will die last. If big business thinks that it can bleed him without limit it had better consider his resources. When it comes to the pinch he can stand squeezing better than any other class. Food is the first necessity and he can feed himself. He can raise all he and his family need, but if he raises no more than he needs the rest of the people will strave. The farmer's surplus supplies the world. Suppose the surplus fails—

"The farmer can raise the material necessary to cloth himself and family—wool, cotton and silk, but if he raises no more the rest of the people would go naked. It is the farmer's surplus material that clothes the world—suppose the surplus fails?

"Farmers can, if necessary, produce their own fuel. He can raise his own wood; he can burn cobbs and even corn if he must, but what will become of the railroads when the farmer neither buys or sells?

"What will become of the packers when they have no meat to pack? And what will become of the grain gambler when there is no market grain to gamble on? What will become of the little stores when the farmer ceases to trade? And what will the wholesalers do when the little stores close? And what will the manafactures do when the wholesalers go out of business? And what will the clerks in the stores, the workers in the mills and the railroad employees do when business stops? What will all the people do when nobody needs them? What? Go to work with their hands and wring a living from Mother Earth—that is the last resort as it was the first.

"Will the middleman continue to lord it over the producers of wealth, or will they learn that they must serve if they would live, and serve for a reasonable toll? The flower that blooms in beauty on the stem should not despise the roots that do their work in the dirt. The roots will live when the flower fades—tenance for new flowers, season after season. So will the farmer, he draws the milk from Nature's breast and Nature will protect him as a mother protects her child. He will not be last to die in the struggle for existence. But why, this conflict? Why not love and brotherhood and cooperation? Why not work together for the common wealth? Why not justice to each and all

BELL WELL TO GO ON DOWN WITH HELEN S. AND PECOS-ANGELES TO RESUME OPERATIONS—TROXEL MAY BE SHOT AGAIN.

With a steadily rising column of oil in the Toyah Bell No. 2, and with the tools removed the baler was working in the hole today, Friday, with excellent prospects of increased production within a very short time.

The tools which had been blown about 350 feet high in the hole late last week when the gas flow was first struck, were removed late Thursday evening after a week's battle with the sand and cable which held the tools in an almost air tight grasp.

While the tools for a stop proved almost impervious stopper in the hole the gas finally worked its way around and began carrying oil and oil sand into the hole. For a time this sand appeared to be almost a thousand feet high in the oil with a big column of oil on top of it. This sand continued to rise despite almost constant bailing until Sunday night when the bailings began to lower the sediment in the hole, and on Tuesday the tools were reached. After considerable work with the rope spear considerable cable was removed from the hole, and after working with the walking beam for about twenty-four hours the tools were loosened, and brought to the top.

The hole is filled with oil and sediment to within a few hundred feet of the top. The oil is heavily loaded with sand, and while gas continued to pour from the hole, it is believed that the heavy weight of about 4,000 feet of muck in the hole has acted as a weight to keep the gas down. When the bailer was sent down Friday morning about one hundred feet of packed sand was found in the bottom of the hole.

The general opinion is that when this sand is removed that the gas will be given a right-of-way and that it will bring a big production of oil to the top.

The continued good showings in the well have about quadrupled the prices of acreage in the vicinity of the well, the close-in acreages having the best call.

Dr. J. E. Carpenter of Dallas, the geologist who located the Toyah Bell, arrived Thursday, and spent the day at the well. Drue D. Christner, the field representative of the U. S. geological survey has also returned to watch development.

The shot placed in the Bell No. 1, last week seemed to have doubled the production of that well, and made a twenty barrel well a possibility. Ira J. Bell was not satisfied with that production and has determined to go deeper in search of the main pool. General geological opinion is that the frequent oil showings in the Bell are the result of big cracks in the rock formations, caused by the anticlinal uplift, and that while the shot disclosed the fact that these cracks are not near enough to the main pool to be opened by the nitroglycerin, that when the proper depth is obtained that a big flow will be found.

Messrs Parker & Hancock who had charge of operations on the Troxel well last spring were in Pecos this week enroute to Dallas where they were to endeavor to make arrangements to put another shot of nitroglycerin in the well in an effort to increase the production.

Mr. Parker reports that the well had been cleaned out since the shot and that it was standing several hundred feet in oil.

He plans to put a 600 or 700 quart shot in the well if the Dallas parties interested in the well agree to it. The hole is 1950 feet deep. A 250 quart shot was fired in the well last spring.

The Pecos Angeles Oil Company will soon resume operations on its location six miles southeast of the Toyah Bell. This company has a Standard rig and a hole 600 feet deep. E. F. Berry, of Los Angeles, who had charge of drilling operations before, arrived Thursday afternoon to take charge.

C. E. Anderson, who is in charge of the properties of the Texas Drilling & Development Company, states that his company has about completed the arrangements necessary to put a Standard rig on the 1100 feet hole of the Helen S. and that officials of the company will probably be here next week prepared to let a contract.

John H. Lee, manager for the Toyah Shallow Oil Co., was in Pecos Tuesday and made The Enterprise a pleasant visit. He states that their well which is near and an offset to the El Paso-Saragosa well to test out the shallow oil found in that well at 438 feet is now making

THE LAURA RESUMED DRILLING THURSDAY

After weeks and weeks of delay in an endeavor to ream out and straighten the hole of the Laura wel of the Sunshine Oil Corporation the job has been completed and is now in as fine condition as could be desired and last night Driller Livingston put on the bit and started actual drilling at about 2250 feet. They are in a very hard formation which prevents making hole very rapidly but the fact that they have again started on down below where the hole was left by former drillers so crooked the casing could not be put down is causing much joy in the camp at the Laura well. This is the very best news which has come from this well in months. It is hoped that they will be able to set the 8¼ inch casing Saturday and shut off the water, after which Mr. Livingston fears no further trouble or delay and believes he will be able to put the well down in record time.

SANTA FE OFFICIALS VISIT PECOS OIL FIELD

That the official of the Santa Fe railway are alive to their interests and watching the development of the Pecos oil field closely, presumably for the purpose of preparing to take care of the business which will come to them in this development, is believed to be the cause of the visit of the officials of that road to Pecos and the Pecos oil field yesterday. They came to Pecos in their special cars over the Santa Fe as follows:

F. H. Leeman, general manager, Amarillo.

F. L. Meyers, assistant general manager, Amarillo.

C. E. Smyer, Superintendent, Clovis, N. M.

T. B. Gallaher, general pass agent, Amarillo.

J. W. Freeman, treasurer, Amarillo.

Roy Wheatley, director, Amarillo.

Immediately after their arrival they were given a lunch and thereafter accompanied by J. G. Love, secretary, went for an inspection trip of the various wells now in operations in automobiles and were taken to Porterville in time to catch the train from here.

JOHN COWAN ILL

John Cowan was brought in from the ranch Monday, a very sick man and an operation was preformed that afternoon. His condition, after the doctors had performed the operation was found to be more serious than at first anticipated and no hope was given for his recovery. Wednesday night a specialist was called in from El Paso. From the time he came from under the anesthetic he has been conscious and has rested well and it is now believed he has a good fighting chance for recovery.

John Cowan was practically reared in Reeves county, is a son of W. D. Cowan, and one of our big stockmen and is known by all old-timers.

AN ACT OF VANDALISM

On Wednesday night of this week some one took a can of black paint and brush and blotted out the beautiful sign of the New Hotel which stands on the North side of the old Mathis building.

Once before this sign had to be moved in order to get it from behind a larger sign erected later. The top of the paint can was left under the sign board while the empty can was found a few yards away. The Sheriff has the matter under investigation and it is to be hoped the guilty party will be apperhended and punished to the full extent of the law.

HOW FEDERAL ROAD AID STANDS AT THE END OF FIVE YEARS

On June 30, 1921, the close of the fifth fiscal year since the passage of the Federal aid road act, which is administered by the Bureau of Public Roads, United States Department of Agriculture, the States and Federal Government had completed 7,469 miles of road, and 17,977 miles were under construction. Including the work completed or projects still under construction, the States have completed work which entitel them to draw on the Federal Treasury for $118,915,515. There is also a balance allotted but not yet earned on project now under construction amounting to $66,375,636. Of the two appropriations which have been made for Federal aid there is now only $18,793,544 remaining unobligated. Twelve of the States have obligated their entire allotment and several others have only a small amount to their credit.

During the last fiscal year the total of completed projects jumped from 1,677 to 7,469 miles, and the projects under construction increased from 14,940 ot 17,977 miles. The money earned by completion of work has grown from $40,097,881 a year ago to $118,915,515 at the end of this fiscal year. The amount earned during the year was $78,817,634, or nearly twice as much as the amount earned during the four years preceding.

The new projects submitted during the year bring the total amount of Federal aid obligated up to $247,965,456, as compared with $109,830,366, which was the amount obligated on June 30, 1920. At this rate it is expected that the small balance of $18,000,000 still unobligated will be taken up in a very short time.

The month of June was a record month in every way. The mileage of completed projects increased by more than 1,200 miles, more than twice the amount reported for the month of May. Funds allotted to work actually under construction increased by $13,670,925.

DRIFTING.

The following poem clipped from the Fremont County Herald has more than the jingle of rhyme in it:

I'm in the boat with Farmer Bill.
Of "normalcy" he has his fill,
His hogs bring ten cents on feet;
I still pay forty for my meat.
Bill does not get as much by half,
As once he got for a big fine calf.
Yet I am not supposed to "squeal,"
When I pay sixty cents for veal.
And here's another margin wide—
Bill gets six cents for that calf's hide,
His gain is nil, I too, must lose;
I still must pay 8 bucks for shoes.
Last spring Bill's flock of "yallerlegs"
Were laying him eighteen cents eggs.
They were gobbled up by the egg combine;
I now pay thirty-eight for mine,
And since the Dems have met defeat
Bill almost has that dollar wheat,
But if my kiddies shall be fed
I still pay fifteen cents for bread.
Bill wears a look that's most forlorn
When offered fifty cents for corn.
The short crop and the price of oats
Has almost got the farmer's goat.
While riding this good ship of state
It's call a halt or drift to fate,
But every member of the Grange
That voted last fall for a "change,"
Admits he made four times the rocks
When Woodrow steered her to'ard the docks.

No Worms in a Healthy Child

All children troubled with Worms have an unhealthy color, which indicates poor blood, and as a rule, there is more or less stomach disturbance. GROVE'S TASTELESS chill TONIC given regularly for two or three weeks will enrich the blood, improve the digestion, and act as a General Strengthening Tonic to the whole system. Nature will then throw off or dispel the worms, and the Child will be in perfect health. Pleasant to take. 60c per bottle.

WHEN A FELLOW'S GIRL WITH HIM, AND WHEN SHE AIN'T

Henry Nimble will never forget two entertainments that were given at the court house the winter before he married. The first of these entertainments was given by a fine violinist, and although Henry was Kate Darner's beau, she went to the entertainment with another young man. When Henry saw them he lost interest in everything. The violinist played a popular piece in the ordinary manner, but Henry paid no attention to it. He was thinking that he had lost Kate forever. Then the violinist played the instrument on the back of his head and played, but still Henry was not entertained. He was thinking only of his dark future. The violinist did many things that showed his skill, but Henry was interested in none of them. He didn't even applaud when the violinist held the bow between his knees and played by moving the violin. Henry felt so miserable that he couldn't enjoy anything and his one thought was to hurry home and write a note to Kate telling her farewell forever. He finished the note a little after midnight, and although he expresed no hope that she would care for him again, he begged her to call upon him if she ever was in need of a friend. Two weeks later when the strong man showed at the court house, Henry was present and by his side was seated Kate. Henry enjoyed the entertainment from the first to the last, and if it handn't been for leaving Kate he would have volunteered to go up when the strong man called for six men to pull down the iron bar he was going to bend in his teeth.—Claude Callan in the Ladies Home Journal.

CITATION BY PUBLICATION

The State of Texas
To the Sheriff or any Constable of Reeves County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon E. O. Dryer by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof, to appear at the next regular term of the Justice Court of Precinct No. 2, Reeves County, Texas, to be holden at the office of W. E. Mortan, in Toyah, Texas, on the 22nd day of October, A. D., 1921, then and there to answer a suit filed in said Court on the 8th day of July, 1921, in suit No. 184, wherein John T. JACK FROST IS NOT SO BAD AS HE'S PAINTED

Jack Frost is an embarrassing visitor if he comes too early or stays too late, but in the main he's a beneficent old duffer, and not the enemy of plant life that he is supposed to be, according to an article in the Journal of Agricultural Research, written by F. V. Coville, a botanist of the United States Department of Agriculture. The article records a series of experiments with healthy blueberry plants, and shows the relation of freezing winter temperatures to plant growth in the spring. One fact stands clear in the result—the dormant condition of the plant in winter is not the result of cold and freezing; on the other hand, cold stimulates the revival of life in the plant when spring comes again, it is said.

Such an explanation of the effect of cold is new to the everyday reader, who is used to looking upon winter air as detrimental to plant life, forcing the shrub into a dormant state scarcely better than death. But healthy, husky blueberry bushes which Mr. Coville sheltered in his greenhouse "went to sleep" just the same, despite the fact that the air was kept at a growing temperature. The shrubs, he admits, didn't go to bed so early as they did when Jack Frost used to hurry them off, but go to sleep they did. Their leaves dropped off; and in the warm greenhouse the plants went into a dormant condition exactly like that of others outside in the cold and snow. Moreover, they were late in waking when spring came. Some, indeed, slept through the whole year. The inference is that the plant's period of dormancy is a seasonal matter not induced by the cold, but that the early and luxuriant growth in the spring can not occur unless the plant has been through a period of chill temperature.

In another experiment the investigator set a blueberry bush close to the greenhouse wall and passed a branch through into the warm interior. The warm branch and the cold ones became dormant as usual, but when spring days came the part of the plant that was under shelter failed to revive. The part that had been exposed to the weather emerged from its dormant state and made quick and healthy growth.

Mr. Coville believes that the cold weakens the plant cells, and by destruction in part turns the starch to sugar, thus assuring new growth. This event, he asserts, cannot take place if the plants are protected from the frost and cellular injury. Whatever the cause, the results seem to be assured, and the horticulturist has a new and valuable aspect of the meaning of cold weather.

THE PROPOSED DAVIS MOUNTAIN PARK

That portion of the Rocky Mountain chain which will be included in the proposed State Park, has:

2—Peaks over 8,00 feet high.
4—Peaks over 7,000 feet high.
4—Peaks over 6,000 feet high.
8—Peaks over 5,000 feet high.

In the begining of time this part of the country was subject to severe convulsions from the internal heat and great cracks being rent in the earth, crust melted lava and ashes were thrown out, the lava cooled off and turned to stone, fine specimens can be picked up and preserved as cabinet specimens by curiosity hunters.

I have not been able to find an extinct crater, but these cracks filled with volcanic scovia are known as intrusive dikes are not uncommon.

After this came the deluge and last of these mountains was a great inland sea, whose shore line can be traced on the mountain side, by water worn rocks and sea shells; some of the latter are like immense snails ten or twelve inches across.

Then came the "ice Age" and glaciers began to creep slowly down into the valley, grinding the rocks into fragments and rounding these angular fragments into coble stones, boulders and pebbles, many of them full of little pits and holes showing their volcanic origin.

Frequently an iceberg breaking off from the mother glacier, would float down, until stranded on some shallow head land and slowly melting, the increased pebbles would drop off forming termina land lateral moraines.

One such an example is within a few miles of Pecos, on top of the hill on the hither side of Salt Draw and there are many others in the "Cis Mountain" country.

Fragments of these when polished, make beautiful ornaments. The Oriental Alabaster so highly prized by the ancients in statuary and vases, is said to be of statactic origin.

I have no doubt but what caverns may oe discovered by systematic exploration that rival Luray cavern of Virginia, said to be the most beautiful in the world.

This wonderful cave was not just found but was discovered by a systimatic research of three young men who were as they said "looking for a fortune." Needless to say they found it.

TEXAS COULD BE TICK FREE IN TWO YEARS

With closer co-operation between State and Federal authorities, Texas could be freed of cattle ticks within the next two years, J. E. Ramsey of Washington, chief of the Federal Bureau of Tick Eradication Work, declared Tuesday after a conference with representatives of his department in Texas and members of the Texas Livestock Sanitary Board.

There are about 52 per cent of Texas cattle under quarantine, but this figure will be considerably reduced Dec. 1, when the Government plans to release several Texas counties.

Ramsey declared that Texas is making better progress in eradication work than any other state.

Greater progress could be made however, he added, with closer co-operation of county commissioners in some counties.

Calling attention to the laws of South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, Mississippi and Louisiana, Ramsey said these states prohibit movement within or through them of any tick infested cattle or cattle from tick infested areas, and that because of this ruling practically no Texas cattle are being shipped to the Louisiana slaughtering markets.

"Florida has not and cannot ship any cattle for slaughter out of her borders," he added, explaining that action by the aforementioned states has reduced movement of cattle to market for immediate slaughter by 50 per cent.

Ramsey will go from Fort Worth to Oklahoma.—Star Telegram.

To the Sheriff or any Constable of Reeves County—Greeting:

You are hereby commanded to summon James H. O'Neill, V. H. Bayfield, Lawrence V. Hove, Ida M. Sherwin, Rose F. Tobin, Rae Ayers, L. M. White and A. H. Haglund by making publication of this Citation once in each week for four successive weeks previous to the return day hereof in some newspaper published in your county, to appear at the next regular term of the District Court of Reeves county, to be holden at the Court House thereof, in Pecos, Texas on the 3rd Monday in November, 1921, the same being the 21st day of November, 1921, then and there to answer a petition, filed in said Court on the 14th day of September, 1921, in a suit, numbered on the Docket of said Court No. 2166 wherein Ben Palmer is Plaintiff, and James O'Neill, V. H. Bayfield, Lawrence V. Hove, Ida M. Sherwin, Rose F. Tobin, Rae Ayers, L. M. White and A. H. Haglund are Defendants, and said petition alleging that plaintiff is the owner of Section 14, in Block 2, T. & N. W. Ry. Co. Survey in Loving County, Texas, containing 220 acres of land. That each and all of the defendants are asserting some kind of right, title or interest in an to said tract of land, or in and to certain parts thereof, and each and all of them have placed of record, in the deed records of Loving County, Texas, certain deeds, oil and gas leases and assignments of oil and gas leases covering certain parts of said survey of land, but that they nor either of them have no right, title or interest in said land, but that their said deeds, leases and assignments of leases, which are of record, cast clouds upon plaintiff's title. That the defendant, James H. O'Neill caused a certain plat of said survey to be made and placed of record, sub-dividing said tract of land into small tracts of about five acres each, and that said plat is also a cloud upon plaintiff's title. Plaintiff prays for judgment against each and all of the defendants, removing said clouds from his title, and quieting him in his title, and also that all of said leases, deeds, and assignments of leases and said plat be stricken from the record, and for costs of suit and for such other and further relief, general and special, in law and in equity, as he may be justly entitled to, etc.

Herein fail not, but have before said Court, on the said first day of the next term thereof, this writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Me-o-my, how you'll take to a pipe—and P. A.!

Before you're a day older you want to let the idea slip under your hat that this is the open season to start something with a joy'us jimmy pipe—and some Prince Albert!

Because, a pipe packed with Prince Albert satisfies a man as he was never satisfied before—and keeps him satisfied! And, you can prove it! Why—P. A.'s flavor and fragrance and coolness and its freedom from bite and parch (cut out by our exclusive patented process) are a revelation to the man who never could get acquainted with a pipe! P. A. has made a pipe a thing of joy to four men where one was smoked before!

Ever roll up a cigarette with Prince Albert? Man, man—but you've got a party coming your way! Talk about a cigarette smoke; we tell you it's a peach!

EVER LOYAL TO OUR COUNTRY

Since the oil excitement of a week ago there are many new faces on the streets of Pecos and many who have oil interests in the Pecos field are returning. Quite a little trading and sales are being consummated and as a result our efficient county clerk, S. C. Vaughan, has added two or three to his force.

Hay has again jumped in price and the alfalfa raisers on Toyah Creek are now crying their heads off for cars to take to the markets their unusually large crops. With the high price of cotton and the advance in the price of alfalfa our bank deposits will at an early date show an appreciable increase.

Without any desire to crate a stampede to the Pecos Oil field, the editor believes it is time now for those who hold interests here to begin to move this way in order to be on the ground and take care of their personal interests. The wells which are now expected in daily—almost any moment—may prove big ones or they may not, but this editor considers it a wise move to get in on the ground floor before the other fellow beats you to it.

Our entire citizenship are putting on an optimistic face and are firm in their belief that we will soon have a real oil field and that this entire section will come into its own at an early date. At this writing there is nothing to unduly alarm the public. The Toyah Bell is now conceded to be a real oil well by all but it yet remains to be shown just what it will produce. When the bit is removed it will not take long, it is believed until we will know. There is lots of both oil and gas in the well and it is rising in the hole daily with the bit still stuck near the bottom.

The highways over Reeves county are becoming a fright to travel over. One gentleman who travels that part of the highway from Pecos down towards Balmorhea stated to the editor this week that the only reason he could figure out just why it is called a highway is that when driving over that section where it is not graveled it is so full of ruts and chug holes that one is bounced so high that he knows he has been a "highway" up long before he alights. Parts of the road toward Porterville which is extensively traveled now on account of the excitement incident to the oil wells is rough, and it is said that other sections of Reeves county highways are not a credit to our county or our people. All these should be looked after, and undoubtedly will be at an early date.

VANDALISM

If there is anything meaner or more contemptible than effacing a sign board it must be shooting from ambush or knocking a friend in the head without warning. The party who would do either is too mean, dirty and contemptible to deserve notice by a self-respecting whiteman and the thing which makes this more regrettible by our people just at this time is the fact that in all probability such an one lives within the confines of our fair city, as is attested by the signboard of the New Hotel which faces the T. & P. Station. The editor believes this signboard and telephone pole method of advertising to be very autiquated and of little value in these times, but those who think otherwise should be allowed to spend their money that way if they so desire and the signs should be allowed to remain without defacing. This is a species of vandalism which should be punished to the full extent of the law.

THE TRAGEDY AT LORENA

The bloody affair at Lorena Saturday night in which ten men were wounded, three of them perhaps mortally, brings to a climax a long list of lawless acts that are chargeable either directly or indirectly, to the organization and activities of the Ku Klux Klan. The spokesmen of that organization have never acknowledged its responsibility for any of them. They have, on the contrary, entered a general denial, notwithstanding the circumstances of some of them have accused it with a conclusiveness that has left no reasoning mind in doubt as to their authorship. Even if it were true, as has been protested, that all these crimes were the acts of men who took license from the example of that organization, that, if it were a fact, would only exemplify the dangerous consequences that must come from the existence of an organization which masks its countenance and insists on concealing the identity of its members.

Whether there is any State statute which, in literal meaning, made it the duty of Sheriff Buchanan to forbid and afterward seek to prevent the parading of the Ku Klux Klan may present enough of a question to afford the subject of debate among lawyers. To minds less infatuated with the subtleties of the law it can present none whatever. Whitecapping is unmistakably interdicted by State statute, and the operations of the Ku Klux Klan are more easily distinguished than differentiated from those of the White Caps whom this statute outlaws. But aside and above any question of that kind, it is a presumption, which common law and reason alike countenance, that, when a body of masked men appear on the highways at night, either they are bent upon a mischief which they fear to have themselves identified with, or that their acts are likely to disturb the peace of the community. In that presumption was Sheriff Buchanan's authority to do what he did. The authority it gave him was as ample as any he derived from the expressed mandates of statutes, and is different from his other authorities if at all, only in that it afforded him a pretext for shirking his duty by supinely conniving at a violation of the spirit of our law and at a defiance of the spirit of our institutions. It is inexpressibly to his credit that he refused to make that cowardly compromise with his consicence, but that, instead, he acted in the way which a fine sense of his duty dictated. In several respects this deplorable affair at Lorena is exceptional. But its distinguishing peculiarity is that, for the first time in Texas—unless the manly action of the Mayor of Bartlett is a precedent—the "subjects" of an Invisible Empire encountered an officer of a visible Government who had a courage equal to the full requirements of his oath. That this tragical occurrence is thus singular is to be explained by the fact that in all like occasions going before, those armed with the authority of a constituted Government have preferred to see it affronted rather than assert its supremacy. It is a cogent commentary on the character of that organization that the only officer who has had the temerity to oppose a lawful and uncompromising resistance to its proceedings was shot down. It exposes the hypocrisy of its pretense of being animated by a superior loyalty to the constituted authority of a free Government.

Perhaps out of this tragedy one can get the hope that the next Legislature will do what the last one was asked, but refused to do—that is, make the assemblage of men in masks a punishable crime. If his organization, or any other, wishes to carry on a propaganda which excites prejudices and passions that it should be the desire of every enlightened citizen to have utterly eradicated from our social life, that, however deplorable and disquieting is an activity that the freedom of our institutions makes permissible. With such an enterprise, mischief-making though it undeniably is, the law can take no cognizance. But it is the right of the law, and not only its right, but its duty, to require that every enterprise, whether of individuals or of organizations, shall be carried on in a way that will make it possible for the community to identify all those who are associated with it. There is neither need nor occasion to outlaw the Ku Klux Klan. That, indeed, could not be done without outraging the principles of our Government. But there is need and occasion to strip the Ku Klux Klan of its mask. How imperative and urgent that need is is set forth in the recital of this bloody conflict between two governments at Lorena.—Dallas News.

Of much interest to society was the marriage of Miss Mary Wilhite and Mr. Ray Camp, which was solemnized at the Christian church on Wednesday evening of last week, and the pleasing effect of this wedding bordered on the classical, for the flowers, the music and the entire atmosphere symbolized beauty and happiness. Tall wicker floor vines and baskets filled with yellow chrysantheums, cannas and stately sunflowers, were used with pleasing effect in the chancel decorations, while vines and smilax were beautifully used as a back ground before which the bridal party stood. Promptly at 8:30 an orchestra composed of Mrs. Nell Whitmeyer, violin; Miss Lydie G. Watson, piano; Mr. Jack Biard, clarinet, and Mr. Ned Watson, cello, gave a brief musical program, consisting of the following numbers:

Barcarolle (from "Tales of Hoffman") ..... Offenbach
"Two Roses" ..... Wiegand
Serenade ..... Schubert

Mr. Percy Mims sang very charmingly, two solos, "I Love You Truly" and "Believe Me if all Those Endearing Young Charms," preceeding the entry of the bridal party.

The first strains of Mendelsshon's Wedding March, played by the orchestra announced that the mystic, enchanting hour had arrived. The ushers, Messrs. Clint Myrick and Reuben Collins, entered first; they were followed by two little trumpeters, Eulalia Whitfield and Mattie Elkin Biard, who wore frilly little frocks of yellow organdy and carried white tulle streamers, which made an aisle for the bride and her attendants. Miss Nellie Elkin, attended by Mr. Glen Brunson entered next followed by Miss Beth Coombes and Mr. Percy Mims, then came Miss Elma Graves and Mr. Henry Wolcott. The bride's maids wore quaint little gowns of yellow taffeta cut in rose petals and combined with white silk net with blue and gold ribbon trimmings. They carried yellow muffs made of tulle. The gentlemen of the party all wore evening clothes and white boutonnieres. The bride, who entered with her sister, Miss Golda Wilhite, looked lovely in her bridal gown of white duchess satin and canton crepe with gloves and pumps to harmonize. She wore a veil of white misty tulle held in place with a strap of orange blossoms. She carried a shower boquet of unusual beauty, composed of bride's roses and valley lillies. Her maid of honor wore a dress of lovely design of blue canton crepe and brocaded satin.

The groom, with his best man, Mr. Dee McCormick, entered from a side door of the chancel and the officiating ministers, Rev. I. H. Teel, the bride's pastor, and Rev. H. L. Magee, of Pecos, came in through the central entrance. The ring ceremony was impressively used, while the soft, tender notes of the "Sweetest Story Ever Told" were played by Miss Lydie and Mr. Ned Watson.

The memory of the picture made by the glowing bride and her radiant groom, surrounded by the pretty maids and their manly attendants will linger sweet and tender like perfume of roses in the hearts of the vast crowd of spectators for many moons to come. The brilliant strains of Lohrengrin's Wedding March were used as a recessional. Immediately following the ceremony, an informal reception was held at the home of the bride for the bridal party, the out of town guests and a few intimate friends. Miss Ina Beth Whitefield served punch, and Mrs. I. H. Teel presided at the bride's book.

The bride's cake, upon which was perched a saucy little kewpie bride, centered the dining table and the cutting of which provoked much merriment. Miss Beth Coombes cut the ring, Miss Golda Wilhite the owl, little Miss Eulalia Whitefield the dime, Jennie Elkin the thimble and Mary Magee the house shoe. Miss Watson caught the bride's bouquet. Ice cream still further reflecting the golden tone, and cake were served.

The wedding gifts from their numerous friends formed a beautiful collection of handsome articles for the new home, which the groom has built for his "lady love." The bride presented her maid of honor, the bride's maids and women musicians with leather address books with pencil attached; the little trumpeters silver thimbles. The gifts from the groom to the men of the party were silver pencils.

The out of town guests were: Rev. and Mrs. H. L. Magee, Miss Mary Magee, Mrs. E. Vickers, Mrs. H. L. Collier and Howard Collier, Jr., Mrs. Jim Camp and Nancy Camp, Mrs. W. A. Hudson, of Pecos; Mr. and Mrs. Joe Camp, of Fort Stockton.

Mrs. Camp, the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Wilhite, has lived in Midland a number of years. She graduated in Midland College, afterwards teaching there and last year taught in our public schools. She is a favorite with a large circle of friends and her musical talent has contributed social pleasures on numerous occasions. The groom is a most exemplary young man of highest principles and ability, and he, likewise, is popularly known to a wide circle of Midland friends. Mr. and Mrs. Camp left Friday morning for Fort Worth, where he is connected with the Star-Telegram. The Reporter with numerous friends here and elsewhere, wish Mr. and Mrs. Camp God-speed and that the sun of this mighty love which has made radiant their lives will ever shine with the same roseate splendor as upon their wedding morn.—Midland Reporter.

PECOS HIGH SCHOOL VS. FORT STOCKTON HIGH SCHOOL

At Fort Stockton, October 1, 1921, the Pecos High and the Fort Stockton High met in their first game of the season.

It was a hard fought game with neither side scoring but Pecos threatening Stockton at all points of the game. Pecos' goal was never threatened but Stockton was in danger during all points, the game ending with first down for Pecos and the ball on Stocktons' three yard line.—The Whirlwind.

PECOS HIGH TO HAVE A WINNING FOOTBALL TEAM

After two weeks of preliminary work devoted mostly to the fundamental, the football squad is beginning to show signs of good physical conditions, which is the most essential qualification of a football player. Signal drill is yet in its beginning and the team, although it has played one game to-date, shows its lack of mid-season form in running off plays with the familiar machine-like precision so necessary to pile up a big score.

The team, with the proper amount of work and drill on the finer points of the game bids fair to establish a very creditable record for Pecos High this season. Pre-season dope points to the probability that the team will be especially strong on defense, and with the combination of weight and speed in the backfield is certain to round into a formidable offensive enemy to a spring championship of this inter-scholastic district.

To date Coach Norman has labored under the handicap of not having a sufficient number of men to report for practice to furnish opposition to the regulars in scrimmage. It is our hope, and opinion, that the enthusiam, loyalty and school pride of the student body will be avaiable by the early games to such an event that every able bodied boy will feel it his bounding duty, as well as a privilege to report for practice; thus doing his part to bring victory to our school, and at the same time obtain the physical training so necessary to a well proportioned man.

The schedule for this season is the best that Pecos has had, with games at home with Big Spring, Midland, Fort Stockton, El Paso and probably Midland College. The student body and people of Pecos will see teams in action that will open their eyes to the value of athletics as an educational factor, and furnish them a brand of football that would do credit to a place twice the size of Pecos. In adition to the above games at home, games have, or will be arranged with Midland High School, the Sul Ross State Normal College of Alpine and Marfa High School.

It is urged that every student lend his every talent to the making of the best team and the best record Pecos ever had; that every citizen feel a pride in putting Pecos on the map in an athletic way as she now is in many other ways. By lending financial aid, the citizens of Pecos have an opportunity to get more advertising and publicity than they could hope for by other means at the same cost—The Whirlwind.

TENNIS PROSPECTS

The tennis prospects are brighter this year than they have ever been before in the history of the Pecos High School. Several students are very much interested in this game and expect to help win the cup for Hi in the Tri-County Meet and win in the Interscholastic league.

Tennis is a very popular game the world over and its popularity is growing more and more each day.

A letter was received from Carlsbad by Coach Norman pertaining to a tennis tournament and is self explanatory. The letter follows:

My Dear Sir:—

Would like very much to match tennis tournament with your boys within the next thirty days. I have no experts, but as you know the game is gaining ground and we might as well start some of our youngsters off at once and let them get to be cup winners.

I have two ages of boys to draw from. One team to be between the ages of fifteen and thirteen and the other from fifteen up.

Will you please take this matter up with the boys and let me know at once.

C. H. WILLOUGHBY RESIGNS.

Early in the week, C. H. Willoughby resigned in favor of Mr. B. Ramsey, and also sold the greater part of his interests in the Toyah Bell district. Mr. Willoughby took over the management of the drilling operations at the Toyah Bell No. 2, a year ago this month and to him goes much of the credit for having drilled the deepest oil well ever drilled in the Pecos country. Mr. Willoughby resigned and sold his interests that he may combine both his time and available capital in drilling his next well which will be spudded in without delay. This well will be drilled on the Cowan ranch where Mr. Willoughby has secured a large drilling block and says, "it is on structure" and that he expects to bring in a real gusher field.

LET'S ALL LAUGH

Out in Loving county, Texas, the Toyah Bell "the magnet well" blew in with an unknown gas pressure lifting the tools several hundred feet in the hole. An excellent oil sand was found and oil. When the hole is cleaned this well will have proven to the oil world that Pecos has an oil field. Take a look around for yourself. If you can see the structure it is alright with me but I cannot, I had no incouragement but my magnet in drilling the Toyah Bell. At my next well I have plenty of leases, a plain structure and the magnet records real gushers like the best at Ranger. This magnet cannot hurt the proposition. If you want to make money, help me drill this well.

To Stop a Cough Quick

take HAYES' HEALING HONEY, a cough medicine which stops the cough by healing the inflamed and irritated tissues.

A box of GROVE'S O-PEN-TRATE SALVE for Chest Colds, Head Colds and Croup is enclosed with every bottle of HAYES' HEALING HONEY. The salve should be rubbed on the chest and throat of children suffering from a Cold or Croup.

The healing effect of Hayes' Healing Honey inside the throat combined with the healing effect of Grove's O-Pen-Trate Salve through the pores of the skin soon stops a cough.

Both remedies are packed in one carton and the cost of the combined treatment is 35c.

PERSONAL

Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Palmer have recently moved to Dallas where they will make their home.

Mr. and Mrs. B. G. Smith went up to El Paso Sunday where Mrs. Smith will be under treatment by specialists.

Mrs. W. H. Browning arrived last Friday from her home at Lampasas for a visit to her daughter, Mrs. J. W. Brooks and son, W. H. Browning, Jr.

Mrs. Gage Van Horn and children of Toyah were week-end visitors in attendance upon the revival at the Christian church.

Mr. and Mrs. George K. Jackson were business visitors in Pecos Tuesday from their ranch home west of Toyah.

Mrs. Albert Tinnin was down from Toyah Tuesday shopping.

Mrs. W. L. Kingston was in Pecos the early part of the week from her delightful mountain home in the Davis Mountains visiting friends.

Mrs. Louis Scott of El Paso who had been visiting her sister-in-law, Mrs. Clinton Ezell for about ten days left last week for Stamford for a visit to other relatives before returning home.

John Hubberstey, formerly of St. Louis but now sojourning in Tulsa, was in Pecos this week and called on The Enterprise. Mr. Hubberstey has oil interests in the Pecos oil field and is here to watch developments.

Rev. J. M. Garner, Mrs. Fred Johnson, Mrs. R. P. Hicks and Miss Edna Harris left Wednesday afternoon for Odessa to attend the annual meeting of the Pecos Valley Baptist association.

Mr. and Mrs. Holley P. Benson of Carlsbad, N. M., were in Pecos the early part of the week the guests of Capt. and Mrs. W. W. Dean. Mrs. Benson is a sister of Mrs. Dean.

Mrs. E. J. Weyer was called to Dewit, Nebraska last week on account of the serious illness of her mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Pat Fulgim, Mr. and Mrs. B. H. Palmer and Mrs. C. E. Buchholz motored to Midland two weeks ago for a visit to Mr. and Mrs. Addison Wadley. Last Sunday the gentlemen motored there again and accompanied their wives home. Mrs. Buchholz remained for a longer visit to Mrs. Wadley.

Mrs. Arthur Haberer of Hereford, N. M., came in Thursday morning for a visit with her mother, Mrs. J. R. Hines. Mrs. Haberer will also visit her sister, Mrs. J. F. Gantt at Balmorhea.

E. F. Fuqua was in Pecos Saturday, bringing in his daughter, Miss Ruth who left that afternoon for Sanger where she entered upon her school work Monday. This school has three teachers and Miss Ruth is the principal. She taught in this school last year and says it opens about one month earlier this year.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Sachse of Fort Stockton, were in Pecos Monday night on their way to the annual convention of the New Mexico conference at Artesia.

Rev. Jas. H. Walker, formerly pastor of the Pecos M. E. church, spent a few hours in Pecos Tuesday on his way to the annual conference now in session at Artesia.

Jno. B. Howard and W. A. Hudson were in El Paso the forepart of the week in attendance upon the court of civil appeals.

County Commissioner A. W. Hoise was in attendance upon commissioners court yesterday for the first time since he became ill. While not entirely well yet, A. W. is looking much better than his friends really expected, and is in a fair way, he believes, to full recovery.

Jim Scanlan was over from Toyah on business yesterday. He hopes to do some sub-contracting on the highway, the contract for which was let last night to W. E. Hamilton.

Bob Beatty of Alpine and one of [illegible] residents of Pecos was a

Julius Eisenwine and wife returned Tuesday from a trip to Menard. Julius says that all the country covered by him while away is in a much worse fix than is Reeves county.

Terry Downes, one of Toyah's most fascinating and infatuating old bachelors, as well as one of the best citizens of that burg, was a Pecos visitor yeterday. He with other Toyahns visited the oil wells and they say "It looks very much like a real oil field, you have got the oil." It is understood they invested in leases near the wells.

J. O. McFadin of Los Angeles, is in town watching the oil field. Mr. McFadin was here during the spring of 1920.

BIRTHDAY PARTY

Clinton Ezell, Jr., was the charming young host Thursday of last week from 4:30 to 7:30 September 29, at a stag party in honor of his tenth birthday. After many interesting games and their appetites were well whetted, the host assisted by his guests built fires and a Vienna roast was had, roasted peanuts were also served which helped to appease their appetites. The guests were: Masters Harrison Baker, Philip Harrison, Henry Kerr, Jr., Joe Roy Smith, Robley Runnels, Cecil Turner, Wallace Anderson, James Dearing, Gordon and Bryan Stine, John M., Melvin and Sidney Cowan, Claud and Frank Anthony, James and Percy Cooksey and J. Y. Crum.

GEOLOGY

If you go hunting for rabbits you of course look for and expect to find Mr. Bunny in or near brush, grass, hedge or other hiding places and the better this protection the more are your chances of finding rabbits. Squirrels live and are hunted and found in the timber and the more walnut, pecan, and hickory trees the forest contains the thicker are the squirrels. Wild ducks are found in great number on water and the more inviting the lake the more ducks you may find.

Oil is found in structures and the plainer the geological lines and evidence, the greater are our chances of finding oil. Oil and money is what Pecos, its inhabitants and its visitors are hunting just now. I am at once going to start the drill on "an oil hunt" where the structure is as plain as an open lake. If you are honestly interested in the oil development and have some money to invest where oil is as likely to be found as duck are when hunted for on the water, see me.

THINK IT OVER

Down in Virginia a farmer had an ox and a mule that he hitched together to a plow. One night after several days of continuous plowing, and after the ox and mule had been stabled and provendered for the night, the ox said to the mule: "We've been working pretty hard; let's play off sick tomorrow and lie here in the stalls all day."

"You can if you want to," returned the mule, "but I'll go to work."

So the next morning when the farmer came out the ox pretended that he was sick. The farmer bedded him down with clean straw, gave him fresh hay, a bucket of oats and bran mixed, left him for the day and went out with the mule to plow.

All that day the ox lay in his stall, chewed his cud and nodded, slowly blinked his eyes, and gently swished his tail.

That night when the mule came in the ox asked him how they got along plowing alone all day. "Well," said the mule, "it was hard and we didn't get much done, and—"

"Did the old man have anything to say about me?" asked the ox.

"No," replied the mule.

"Well—then," went on the ox, "I believe I'll play off again tomorrow; it was certainly fine lying here all day and resting."

"That's up to you," said the mule, "but I'll go out and plow."

So the next day the ox played off again, was bedded down with clean straw, provendered with hay, bran and oats, and lay all day nodding, blinking, chewing his cud and gently swishing his tail.

When the mule came in at night the ox asked him again how they had made out.

"About the same as yesterday," replied the mule coldly.

"Did the old man have anything to say to you about me?" again inquired the ox.

"No," replied the mule, "not to me, but he did have a long talk with the butcher on the way home."—Chicago Ledger.

THE COMMONEST MISTAKES

Judge McCormick of San Francisco says these are the thirteen commonest mistakes in life:

To attempt to set up your own standard of right and wrong.

To fail to make allowances for inexperience.

To endeavor to mold all dispositions alike.

Not to yeild to unimportant trifles.

To look for perfection in our own actions.

To worry ourselves and others about what can not be remedied.

To consider a thing impossible that we can not ourselves perform.

Failing to help everybody, wherever, however, and whenever we can.

To believe only what our minds can grasp.

Not to make allowances for the weakness of others.

To estimate by some outside quality when it is that within which makes the man.

CATHOLIC CHURCH

MR. AMERICAN DOLLAR

Do you want to work or play in the Pecos country? Every opportunity has always existed here for you (the American dollar) to "play the oil game." Lease sharks and grafters "promote the oil game" while unthinking people "play the game" and lose. Legitimate oil business is the most necessary of all the Nation's industries and without oil, the machinery of every shop, farm, ships and every form of transportation would at once stop. If you want to work and multiply, if you want to benefit your owner and the Pecos country and be a blessing to all mankind, get into the OIL BUSINESS and stop "playing the game." My work on the Toyah Bell "The magnet well" speaks for itself. I am at once going to drill another well, on a beautiful structure (that you can see) and have enough leases to be liberal.

CALOMEL MAY TURN ON YOU NEXT TIME

Next Dose You Take May Salivate And Start World Of Trouble

Colomel is mercury; quicksilver. It crashes into sour bile like dynamite, cramping and sickening you. Calomel attacks the bones and should never be put into your system.

If you feel bilious, headachy, constipated and all knocked out, just go to your druggist and get a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone for a few cents which is a harmless vegetable substitute for dangerous calomel. Take a spoonful and if it doesn't start your liver and straighten you up better and quicker than nasty calomel and without making you sick, you just go back and get your money.

Don't take calome'! It makes you sick the next day; it loses you a day's work. Dodson's Liver Tone straightens you right up and you feel great. No salts necessary. Give it to the children because it is perfectly harmless and can not salivate.

A TONIC

Grove's Tasteless chill Tonic restores Energy and Vitality by Purifying and Enriching the Blood. When you feel its strengthening, invigorating effect, see how it brings color to the cheeks and how it improves the appetite, you will then appreciate its true tonic value.

Grove's Tasteless chill Tonic is simply Iron and Quinine suspended in syrup. So pleasant even children like it. The blood needs QUININE to Purify it and IRON to Enrich it. Destroys Malarial germs and Grip germs by its Strengthening, Invigorating Effect. 60c.

MEASUREMENTS SHOW FLIES TRAVEL LONG DISTANCES

That the house fly not uncommonly makes a journey of 5 to 6 miles in the space of 24 hours, is shown by experiments conducted by the Bureau of Entomology, United States Department of Agriculture.—The ease with which flies travel many miles shows the importances of general sanitary measures to destroy breeding places.

Fly flight tests were conducted in northern Texas, where approximately 234,000 flies of many different species were trapped, then dusted with finely powered red chalk, and liberated. Fly traps baited with food highly relished by the flies were placed at measured intervals in all directions from the points of release. By means of these secondary traps, it was possible to determine the direction and flight of different species of flies.

The tests showed that the flies, after regaining their freedom, would travel distances up to 1,000 feet in a few minutes. The screw-worm fly evidenced its power to cover a half mile in 3 hours, while the black blow-fly traveled anywhere from half a mile to 11 miles during the first two days release. The house fly covered over 6 miles in less than 24 hours. Obervations at the Rebecca Light Shoal off the cost of Florida seemed to show that flies come down the wind from Cuba (95 miles distant), and at times from the Marquesas Keys (24 miles distant), and even from Key West, Fla., 46 miles away. The maximum distance traveled by the house fly in these experiments was 13.14 miles.

The test proved that the injurious forms of fly life were not distributed on any large scale by artificial means, but rather that many of the far-flying species showed marked migratory habits.
