BIG OIL STATION BURNS

Wednesday morning at about 8:30 fire broke out in the ware house of the Magnolia Oil Company which spread very rapidly and soon consumed the entire building, with its contents.

The fire was started by combustion and came near proving fatal to Moses Jiner, the warehouse man who was in the building when the first explosion occurred. He, however, escaped with only a singed mustache and eye brows.

After the first explosion, the delivery truck was covered with gasoline and was soon consumed in the flames, as was the warehouse.

For a time it was thought the entire city was in danger, for it was thought the large gasoline and oil tanks would explode, for the blaze of the warehouse spread to both tanks, which burned for hours, but finally went out.

W. J. Yates, the local agent of the Magnolia Oil Company, was on the scene a few minutes after the fire started and it was through his forethought that the tanks of oil and gasoline were securely fastened and this was no doubt what kept the tanks from exploding.

Mr. Yates also sustained quite a heavy personal loss, for he had his office well equipped with fixtures and records, and the delivery truck which burned up was also his personal property.

It has been estimated that the loss caused by the fire will run between $10,000 and $15,000.

The fire burned the greater part of the day, but was finally extinguished with the aid of Camp Marfa fire department, who connected the fire hose with the Aviation pipe line in front of the Marfa National Bank.

Col. A. V. P. Anderson saw the danger of a possible explosion of the large oil tanks and dispatched about two dozen armed guards to the scene, who kept the people away at a distance of two blocks. The guards were kept on duty until 4:30 p. m. when they were called in.

—Watch for the date of "Robin Hood," which will be shown on the screen at the Queen Theatre very soon. This is a wonderful picture and everybody should go and see it.

MARFA BLESSED WITH RAIN

The city and surrounding country was blessed with a heavy rain early Saturday morning, which soon filled the gutters and small creeks with water.

The clouds began to concentrate over this section at daybreak and after an electrical display and much thundering, the rain, with some hail, began falling in torrents, until it looked like there would be a cloud-burst, however, after several hours duration it cleared up and the water soon drained off into the arroya, which looked more like a river than a creek.

We hear that the San Esteban dam caught about twenty feet of water as a result of the downpour.

—Two-thirds of a block, new house, situated within a block of famous Mineral Waters, oil section of country.—Miss Fannie Edwards, Mineral Springs, Arkansas. Call at Wells Rooming House.

HISTORY CLUB

The History Club met with Mrs. W. J. Yates on May 27. Mrs. Buck Pool was leader for the afternoon.

The program committee reported that the study course for next year would be the "Modern American Novel."

Mrs. Henry Fletcher was elected to membership in the Club.

Mrs. J. C. Darracott was present for the first time since her return to Marfa to make her home.

The program committee reported for a tour of Mexico, and Miss Hester Brite for a tour of Europe. So, after a very interesting lesson, the social hour was an unusually busy one, with farewells and welcomes to returning members, and discussions of parties past and still to come.

Mrs. McEachern and Miss Lucile Rives were present besides the regular members.

The refreshments, cool and dainty, and most appropriate for a summer afternoon.

MARFA TO HAVE SUMMER SCHOOL

Through the co-operation of the trustees of the Marfa Public Schools, arrangements have been perfected to have a Summer school available to all children desirous of studying up on certain subjects.

Especially is this school for the benefit of all those children who failed to pass, and this will give them a splendid opportunity to make up for the grades that they fell down on at the close of the regular school term.

A first-class teacher has been employed by the School Trustees, who holds a permanent certificate, and the children who will attend this Summer school will have a splendid opportunity to make up in the various grades that they may choose to study on.

There will be no tuition charged for those who will avail themselves of this opportunity, for the school board will defray all expenses.

The school will be conducted in the High School building and will last for about six or eight weeks.

Under the present State laws, it is required that if a child who makes up the work during the Summer, must either be instructed by a teacher who holds a high grade certificate or else pass an examination before being promoted, so therefore, the children who make good grades in this Summer School under the instruction of a teacher as required by law, will not need to be examined again but will pass right into their proper grades.

It is hoped that the parents will co-operate with the School Trustees in seeing that their children will attend this school, thereby giving the children the full opportunity to make up in their studies that kept them from passing.

ALPINE MERCHANT VISITS MARFA

SHAFTER NOTES

The people of Shafter were sorely distressed at the unfortunate shooting of the Coffman boys. Both Winslow and Jack were very well known here and had many friends of long standing. The feeling of resentment toward such an affair runs high, as well it should. Both young men of good character and with a promising future, are not to be taken away without great sadness. Our hearts go out to the stricken mother and father, and we wish to express our deepest sympathy at such a regrettable affair.

The Mexican who committed this terrible double murder of these two fine young Americans should be given a speedy trial and summarily dealt with.

A very charming dinner was given by Mrs. Albert Frolli on Tuesday evening, May 22nd, in honor of Mr. Frolli's birthday. Covers were laid for Miss Minnie Jo Farmer, Bill McDaniels, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Brook, and the host and hostess.

On Wednesday afternoon at five o'clock, Mrs. Earl L. Mattes gave a tea in honor of Miss Elbertine Williams, Miss Williams is the guest of her mother for a short time in Shafter, after which they will attend the Austin University for the summer course.

The Ladies Afternoon Club was entertained at the home of Mrs. Albert Frolli on Thursday, May 24. Cards and a short business meeting was enjoyed, after which the hostess served a delightful luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin F. Hill returned home Tuesday evening from a trip to El Paso, and were the dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Pomeroy. Mr. Hill has spent the past few months in California enjoying a much needed rest. We are glad to learn he had a delightful time and is much improved in health.

TRANSFERRED TO HAWAIIAN ISLANDS

Staff Sergeant Daniel M. Towns, of the Hospital Corps of the Army Camp, has just received orders from the War Department to proceed to San Francisco, California, and to sail on July 10th for duty in the Hawaiian Islands.

Sergeant Towns will take his family with him to his new station. Before leaving he will enjoy a thirty day furlough, during which time he will make an extended trip through several of the Southern states to visit with friends and relatives.

Sergeant Towns and family have been stationed here in Marfa about six years, during which time they have made a host of friends and acquaintances who will hate to see him and his family leave, but who wish them much success in their new post.

MANY SPECIAL SALES

There are many bargains being offered the buying public of Marfa by several of the leading stores of our town this week.

Mitchell-Gillett Dry Goods Co. are putting on an extraordinary sale—and have cut the prices on the merchandise way down.

Murphy-Walker Co. are also having a stock reduction sale, with many big bargains.

Livingston-Mabry's Sale is drawing good crowds, with special reductions on many lines.

A Block's big sale on shoes and other goods is going good. M. Stool is closing out a big lot of merchandise at special prices and reports business good.

THE ESSEX CAR DRAWING

Last Friday evening at 6:00 o'clock in front of the Queen theatre the Casner Motor Co. held the drawing for the number which won the Essex touring car.

Number 934 was the lucky number and the winner has not yet come forward to claim his prize.

If the holder of this number does not call for the car within 30 days then the second number, 1397 will win, and still if the holder of this number fails to call, then the third number 992, will win.

We hear that Jim Tyler holds the second number, so if the holder of number 934 fails to show up, he will get the car after thirty days.

Mechanical Bread Slicer.
A mechanically operated bread slicer, described in Popular Mechanics Magazine, is driven by a motor or other suitable power, and has been designed for use in places where large quantities of bread are required. The loaves are placed in rows on a conveyor which carries them lengthwise to the knife where the slicing is done. The slices fall into pans on a second and lower conveyor and are deposited in a basket or other container at the end of the machine.

WORLD POPULATION NOW 1,804,187,631

New York Is Given As the Largest City in the World.

Berlin.—Scattered over the face of the earth is a total population of 1,804,187,631, only 7 per cent of which is in cities of more than 100,000 inhabitants, according to statistics compiled at Berlin and based largely on 1922 census reports. Only thirty of the seventy nations listed have cities of or above the 100,000 class, which is the lowest counted within the classification of "large cities." Approximately 40,000,000 of the globe's inhabitants live in the eighteen centers having a million residents or more each. About 90,000,000 live in the smaller large cities, of which there are only 393 in the whole world. The average large city is said to number some 320,000 souls. From these figures, it is stated, every forty-fifth human resides in cities housing millions, while every fourth finds his home in a large city of some sort. New York is given as the largest city in the world, with a population of 5,620,048. London is second with 4,483,249 and Berlin third with 3,803,770. Europe leads the continents in point of population. It has six cities in the million class—London, Berlin, Paris, Glasgow, Vienna and Moscow, and 193 with more than 100,000 inhabitants. Of the European countries, England has fifty-three large cities, Germany forty-five, Italy sixteen, France fifteen and Russia fifteen. It is considered surprising that Asia has more large cities than North America. Six of the ninety-two Asiatic cities have more than a million people. These are Shanghai, Hankau, Calcutta, Bombay, Tokio and Osaka. British-India is credited with thirty large cities; China has twenty, so far as available records show, and Japan's number nineteen, including three in her foreign possessions. North America follows Asia with seventy-nine large cities. Four of these—New York, Chicago, Philadelphia and Mexico City—are placed in the million class. Of the nations on that continent, the United States leads with sixty-eight large cities, twelve of which record more than a half million inhabitants. Twenty-four large cities are located in South America, Brazil having thirteen. Buenos Aires and Rio de Janeiro are the only million-resident centers. Australia counts eight large cities, none of which runs up into a million.

Poincare Offers Resignation But It Is Not Accepted

Paris.—Premier Poincare and his colleagues in the cabinet Thursday submitted their resignations to President Millerand, but the president declined to accept them. The action of the minister was the outcome of the refusal of the senate to proceed with the trial of Marcel Cachin and other communists charged with illegal acts against the French Republic. M. Poincare informed the correspondents he interpreted the vote in the senate as proof of want of confidence in the cabinet, which made it impossible for the ministry to act against communist plots. The ministry remains in office, President Millerand holding that the vote of the senate was purely judicial and without political effect. Immediately after the meeting of the senate M. Poincare called a council of ministers. A brief discussion took place, and then the premier and his colleagues proceeded to Hysee Palace to place their resignations in the hands of the president. The senate, sitting as a high court in secret session, voted relative to the trial of communists on the following points: First, can the court declare itself competent or incompetent? Second, should the question of competency be referred to a committee? Third, is the court competent? The senate voted in the affirmative on the first question, and in the negative on the last two questions, the final vote being 148 to 104. After the vote was taken the high court formulated its decision in substance: "The matter before the court is not of a nature reserved for its examination; hence it is not customary for the court to proceed with the hearing. The case against M. Cachin and the others should therefore be sent before a competent body for its decision."

War Cost Treaty For Rhine Troops Signed

Paris.—The agreement between the United States government and the allied powers providing for the repayment of the costs of the American army in the Rhineland was signed Friday after a two-hour session of the delegates during which certain alterations were made in the text as previously drawn up. The agreement, which has taken three months to negotiate, does not include the clause to which the United States delegate, Elliot Wadsworth, objected, namely, that the allies should have the right to abrogate the agreement in the case the United States sought to recover war damages direct from Germany. The agreement as signed includes the following stipulations: The net cost of the army of occupation, about $250,000,000, is to be paid in 12 equal annual installments without interest, the first of which shall be due on or before December 31, 1923. For the first four years the annual installments due the United States shall constitute, first, charge upon all payments in cash made each year by Germany or for the reparations account of Germany, up to 25 per cent of such payments. As this reparation account is credited with German payments only after the allied army costs are reimbursed and other treaty expenses are met during each of the first four years, the current cost of the allied armies of occupation shall have priority over the annual installments due the United States. For the last eight years the installments due the United States shall constitute first charge upon all cash payments made by Germany on account of reparations up to their full amount, and shall have priority over the current costs of the allied armies of occupation.

Governor Files 42 Bills.
Austin, Tex.—Forty-two local school district bills were filed Friday by Governor Neff, all having been passed at the second called session of the legislature. They include bills creating Velehrad County Line Common School District in Lavaca and Fayette counties, creating Bernardo Independent School District in Colorado County and amending the act creating the Anahuac Independent School District in Chambers County.

GEO. W. GLEIM PASSES AWAY AT HIS HOME HERE

The community was shocked to learn that George W. Gleim, one of the early settlers of this section had died at his home in Fort Davis on Sunday night, May 27, at midnight. He had been ill about a week of appendicitis and the disease had reached such a stage that it was decided to avoid an operation at least till Mr. Gleim could grow stronger. But death relieved his sufferings.

Many relatives from far and near were with him when the end came. A son, Fidel Gleim, who was in Tampico, Mexico, could not reach here for the funeral and burial. His wife, another son, George Gleim, Jr. of San Antonio; two daughters, Mrs. S. W. Leverett of Bend, Oregon; Mrs. S. W. Luke, of Casa Grande, Arizona; nephew, E. W. Gleim of Shafter, Texas; Mrs. Alfred Driffell, a niece, of San Antonio, and other relatives, were at the funeral and burial.

The only living brother, Harry S. Gleim of Talent, Oregon, and two only sisters, Mrs. James R. Graham of Grand Haven, Mich., and Mrs. Fred C. Wilcox of Olympia, Washington, could not be here.

George Wiley Gleim, who was 66 years of age at his death, was born at St. Louis, Missouri, on May 9th, 1857, and came to Texas and settled at Fort Davis in 1882. He became associated here with W. Keesey & Co. in the mercantile business, they having stores at Valentine and Fort Davis, soon after locating here and continued with the firm until 1907, when he shortly afterwards associated himself with E. G. Gleim Co., of Shafter, who were in the mercantile business. In 1921 deceased engaged in the cattle business in this section, becoming associated with J. W. Espy of Fort Davis in this business and remained in this enterprise until his death.

Deceased leaves one brother, Harry S. Gleim, of Talent, Ore., two sisters, Mrs. J. R. Graham of Grand Haven, Mich., and Mrs. Fred C. Wilcox of Olympia, Wash.; a sorrowing wife; five grandchildren; four nieces, Mrs. Wernstedt of Portland, Ore.; Miss Dorris Wilcox of Olympia, Wash.; Mrs. Louis Coleman of Springfield, Ill.; Mrs. Henry Lindsey of Springfield, Ill.; Mrs. Alfred Driffell of San Antonio, Texas; and also five nephews, E. M. Gleim of Shafter, Texas; Gleim Wilcox of Olympia, Wash.; James Graham of Tampico, Mexico; C. W. Gleim and H. N. Gleim of Talent, Ore.; two sons, George Gleim, Jr. of San Antonio, Texas; and Fidel Gleim located at Tampico, Mexico.

The two deceased brothers are Chas. Gleim, formerly of Palo Alto, Calif.; and E. G. Gleim, formerly of San Antonio, Texas.

On Tuesday afternoon hundreds of people viewed the remains at the Gleim home. The funeral procession followed the body to the Fort Davis cemetery at 4:30 p. m., when a funeral service was held by Rev. R. L. Irving, pastor of the local Presbyterian church. Rev. L. R. Millien offering the opening prayer. The throng of friends and relatives of the deceased who attended covered the casket with floral offerings of wondrous beauty. After a glowing tribute to the memory and good deeds of the deceased by the minister, the body was lowered into the grave. Funeral director Young of Marfa, who embalmed the body and carried it to the last resting place, directing the burial.

He was known by his friends of years as a shrewd business man, ambitious, energetic, deep-thinker, and honest in all his dealings almost to a fault. His charitable disposition was one of his outstanding virtues. If one in need came to him for financial or other assistance he was never turned away unaided. George Gleim helped with his means in all things that were the good of his town and community.

He was a director of the Fort Davis State Bank and president of the local chamber of commerce.

A lover of nature, of the outdoor life, he was instrumental in the organization here of athletic clubs and financed many of the local baseball, tennis, basketball and other clubs in the years past.

In his death West Texas has lost an able and prominent citizen, his associates and friends a staunch and true friend and neighbor, the town and county a progressive and loyal citizen, his wife a dear husband, his children a loving father, his brother, sisters, nephews, a kind and affectionate brother and uncle.

The curtain of life has been drawn, he has crossed the Great Divide, entered on a journey from which no traveler has ever returned, his voice is stilled, his spirit has passed to its Maker, but the memory of Geo. W. Gleim will always be with us.

Goodbye, good friend, your work on earth is finished. We shall miss you but never forget you.

May God rest your soul in peace forever and ever.—Fort Davis Post.

MEMORIAL DAY

Last Wednesday was Memorial Day and the occasion was very fittingly commemorated by the Army, American Legion and the civilians.

A program for the day's exercises had been arranged, which was carried out in all solemnity, in tribute to the memory of our noble dead veterans of all wars.

The officers and enlisted men of Camp Marfa met in front of the Community Hall at 9:30 o'clock a. m. and were met by the members of the local post American Legion, who joined in the march to the Cemetery, where the services took place.

The march to the Cemetery was headed by the mounted First Cavalry Military band and followed by the personnel of each troop of the entire First Cavalry, all mounted followed by the members of the Carroll Farmer Post, American Legion and civilian cars, filled with citizens of Marfa.

At the Cemetery the first on the program was a prelude by the First Cavalry band, then followed the introduction by the Post Commander, George Randolph, Rev. Welch of the Baptist Church then read Lincoln's Gettysburg address and Rev. Barton of the Methodist Church lead the prayer. Miss Orr then rendered a solo, and her sweet voice vibrated through the silent City of the Dead and added solemnity to the occasion. Then came the volleys by the Firing Squad, with the all-solemn blowing of taps over the graves of our departed heroes. In closing the exercises "America" was sung by all present and the benediction by the Chaplain, Thos. A. Harkins of the First Cavalry, closed the exercises for the day.

Pretty home-grown flowers graciously donated by a number of ladies of Marfa bedecked the graves of the dead, while a small U. S. flag fluttered in the breeze from the American Legion markers at the head of each grave.

The exercises were attended by all the liberty-loving, patriotic American citizens of Marfa, in spite of the fact that the big oil warehouse fire was still burning, with the explosion of the oil tanks ever present on their minds.

SUNDAY SCHOOL PICNIC

The Christian Sunday School enjoyed their annual picnic last Saturday over at Fort Davis, and under the beautiful Poplar trees in the Limpia canyon.

Everybody met in front of the Church, where they found plenty of transportation to carry them to the picnic grounds.

The whole afternoon, and until late in the evening, did the happy folks enjoy their outing.

A basket lunch was spread in the shade of the large trees alongside of the bubbling mountain brook that winds its course down through Limpia Canyon and everyone partook of the dainty sandwiches, cakes, salads, etc., which bedecked the cloth spread out on the green grass.

Especially did the young folks enjoy the outing, for it gave them an opportunity to ramble over the foothills of the Davis mountains.

The picnic was well attended, in spite of the fact that it had rained the day before.

NOVELTY-KNIT JACQUETTE;

ABOUT AFTERNOON FROCKS

Now is the time of year when country club environment inspires to beauty and art in dress commensurate with the loveliness of the summer background. Far reaching green swaths, blue domed sky, spacious pillared verandas, gay in eretone and willow, present a scene of enchantment which incites to apparel tuned to so superb a setting.

The knitted jacquette is scoring an outstanding success, in its ready response to a demand for a garment which shall serve the utility of a sweater, yet possess the exquisite run a close second to it and invite comparisons. Satins, foulards, the knitted silks, voiles, organdies and swisses are presented in many beautiful frocks, each with its own distinctive charm to recommend it.

As for styles, the straight and slender silhouette is modified by the introduction of narrow platings and flounces. The chic tunic and the tiered skirt manage triumphantly to assert themselves, the waistline continues low and bodices are often bloused, sleeves are disposed to go to extremes and are usually very long or very points of style distinction. Consider the exquisite jacquette model portrayed in this picture, for it is an exponent of the highest in knitted art. It is made of fiber and mohair, designed in oblique gray and orange bands, with blue forming diamond shapes. Should one elect to choose a different combination, this delectable garment is obtainable in all shades. The graceful bell sleeve is its particular pride, while the one-button and loop fastening bespeak latest mode. It also boasts a sailor collar.

Many interesting types are noted among the knitted jacquettes, a pair short or they are cut to suggest a cape. Ribbon girdles and sashes, fastened at the front or sides and handsome beaded ornaments contribute important finishing touches.

The two afternoon frocks of plain crepe de chine, pictured here, are conservative exponents of the mode that will prove themselves adaptable to almost any occasion. The plainer of the two, with bloused bodice, is effective in any of the season's darker colors and it makes a graceful background for a handsome sash of two-toned satin ribbon. It is one of those accommodating frocks that may be particularly attractive one developing sash ends which come from the sides so as to form a draped effect when tied.

Two Pretty Afternoon Frocks

A novel introduction in dressy knitted jacquette models is the interstitchery of tinsel with brilliant color, so as to give the effect of being beaded.

Another unique effect is attained through assembling three colors in a pattern so as to present a blurred or mottled effect.

Crepe, in a variety of surfaces and both figured and plain, still commands more attention than any other fabric, in the realm of afternoon frocks, but it has many rivals that furnished up by accessories, or toned down, to suit occasion.

The novel dress of bright, tan-colored crepe de chine, with long, close-fitting sleeves, makes use of finely plaited crepe de chine, small covered buttons and pipings, for trimming. Its wide girdle with long panel is made of the crepe with the panel rounded at the bottom, and edged with plaiting. It is fastened to the skirt with an ornament.

WASHINGTON NEWS.

An appeal for a rededication of the American people to the aims and purposes of their government as set forth in the preamble of the constitution was made by President Harding Friday in an address at the opening session here of the National American council, an organization recently formed to encourage better American citizenship. Such a rededication, the president said, would furnish to the nation's commanding and dominating national interest, which, he said, had been lacking since the end of the world war. Quoting the preamble, Mr. Harding said it constituted "the complete statement of our nation's aspiration, the chart for our course and the inspiration to every effort to make one and all of us better citizens."

The exposition of the Oregon administration's attitude toward the recognition requirements laid down by the United States has again been delayed because the Mexican members of the mixed commission have found it necessary to amplify and restate the government's position in certain particulars in consequence of questions advanced by the United States delegation.

Wage negotiations which involve an annual expenditure of approximately $4,500,000 and 15,000 men have been requested by the Brotherhood of Railroad Signalmen of America, D. W. Helt, president of the union, announced Saturday at Chicago. The union's request, which went to the railroads about May 15, is predicated in arguments that the cost of living has increased since July 1, 1922, the date of the last cut received by the union men.

Approximately 3000 men will be needed to harvest the wheat crop in Kansas this season, George E. Tucker, field director of the United States farm labor bureau, estimated this week. The Kansas harvest, Mr. Tucker says, will begin about June 15.

Millions of locusts threaten disaster to sugar, rice and other leading crops of the Philippines. Meanwhile Filipinos are getting fat on the insects, which are prized as a luscious delicacy.

TODAY I AM REAL WELL

So Writes Woman After Taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Jamestown N. Y.—"I was nervous, easily excited and discouraged and had no ambition. Part of the time I was not able to sit up as I suffered with pains in my back and with weakness. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, both the liquid and tablet forms, and used Lydia E. Pinkham's Sanative Wash for inflammation. Today I am real well and run a rooming house and do the work. I recommend your medicine to every woman who complains, and you may use my letter to help any one else. A trip of fifty miles through a wide swing of territory in Milam and Burnson counties this week reveals that all crops are highly promising. Corn was never so fine, say farmers; good stands are almost ready to "lay by." Cotton is in various stages.

The pecan crop in the vicinity of Elgin promises to surpass the expectations of the growers. It was at first thought that the crop was materially damaged by the late frosts and hail, but a minute examination shows a bright prospect for a splendid production. The maturing of a good pecan crop at Elgin means the circulating of large amounts of ready cash to the sellers of pecans.

Another move to prove execution of contracts let by the textbook commission last December was taken Saturday by State Superintendent Marrs when order was placed for 250,000 grade cards for high schools without including the new books. These cards include the same list as was in force this year. Superintendent Marrs, at direction of the legislature, has declined to recognize the new contracts in any way.

COOK TOUGH CHICKEN IN FIRELESS COOKER

It Should Be Allowed to Remain at Least Two Hours or Until It Is Tender.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

Cook the less tender chickens in the fireless cooker, suggests the United States Department of Agriculture. It is best to disjoint the chicken when it is to be prepared in this way. Pinfeathers, the oil sac and surplus fat should be removed and the fine hairs singed. After being well washed the parts may be put immediately into boiling water sufficient to cover them and seasoned to taste.

The chicken should be simmered half an hour and then put into the fireless cooker, where it should remain at least two hours and as much longer as is necessary to cook it tender. It should not be left in the cooker long enough to cool, even to the lukewarm stage, for at such temperatures bacteria in it may develop and cause food poisoning. Many cooks consider that a clove or garlic in the stewing water gives an almost imperceptible flavor, which improves the fitness of ordinary boiled chicken. A small onion is sometimes made to answer the same purpose, but too much onion destroys the delicate flavor of the chicken.

The boiled chicken, when it is tender, may be prepared for the table in a variety of ways. It may be fricasseed in a gravy made from the chicken stock, or served in a cream sauce on toast, in patty shells, or en casserole. It may be used for chicken salad; croquettes of minced cooked chicken are good, as is chicken hash on toast.

The recipe below is suggested by the United States Department of Agriculture:

6 tomatoes or one No. 2 can tomatoes	1 medium-sized chicken
3 sweet red peppers cut in small cubes	1/2 lb. ham or 2 or 3 slices bacon chopped fine
3 sweet green peppers cut in small cubes, or one No. 2 can peppers (size of an egg)	1 table spoonful chopped parsley
1 onion (size of an egg)	1 bay leaf
	2 table spoonful salt
	butter or bacon drippings

Dress the fowl and cut into joints. Melt the fat, add onion and pepper. Cook for a few minutes to develop flavor. Then add salt, tomato and ham and simmer for 10 minutes. Place layers of the chicken, vegetable mixture and ham in casserole until all is used. Pour over this 1 cupful boiling water. Simmer for one-half hour and put in fireless cooker for three hours without the hot disk or two hours with it.

SERVE EGGS WITH TOMATOES

Attractive Way Is Suggested by Department of Agriculture—Eggs Cooked in Cups.

When fresh tomatoes are in season an attractive way of serving eggs is to cook them in tomato cups, suggests the United States Department of Agriculture.

Select the desired number of good-sized tomatoes, allowing one to each person. Cut off the blossom end, scoop out the seeds and stand the tomatoes in a baking pan in the oven until they are partly cooked. Put one-half teaspoonful of butter and a dusting of salt and pepper into the bottom of each and break in one egg. Place in the oven until the eggs are "set" to the desired hardness. Have ready a round of toasted bread well buttered, and place each tomato in the center of a round of toast, serve hot.

Household Questions

A soft shade on the candelabrum gives a festive note to the dinner table.

A pinch of cream of tartar added to fudge while cooking will keep it from crystallizing.

Do not keep olive oil directly on the ice. If it freezes it will separate and cannot be used.

Gasoline will clean the type of a typewriter. Dip a brush in the liquid and go over each type bar.

Save old silk stockings. They may be cut in strips, sewed together and crocheted into porch mats.

Add a little kerosene to a pail of hot water and scrub the cellar floor. The kerosene will act as an antiseptic.

MANY WAYS OF USING FRESH AND CAN CORN

Various and Excellent Recipes Given by Department of Agriculture in Cooking.

(Prepared by the United States Department of Agriculture.)

The following recipes are given by the United States Department of Agriculture to show a few of the many ways of using fresh and canned corn. Fresh corn can be used in place of canned corn in any of these. Canned corn may sometimes be substituted for fresh in the recipes which specify fresh corn, but the results are not likely to be so good because the consistency of the canned corn is usually not like that of the fresh.

Corn Soup.
 1 can, or 2 cup-fuls, corn
 1 pint boiling water
 1 pint milk
 1 slice onion

2 table spoonfuls butter
 2 table spoonfuls flour
 1 teaspoonful salt
 Dash of pepper
 Dash of paprika

Fry the onion in the butter and stir in the flour. If raw corn is used, place it in boiling water and boil 5 to 7 minutes. Add the milk to the corn and bring to the scalding point. Thicken with the onion, flour and butter mixture and add the seasonings.

Corn Chowder.
 1 cupful fresh corn
 1 1/2-inch cube salt pork, diced
 1 onion, sliced

1 quart potatoes, sliced
 1 cupful milk or cream
 Salt and pepper
 8 crackers

Fry the salt pork, add the onion, and cook until the onion is tender. Boil the potatoes 5 minutes in 1 quart of boiling water, add the fat, and cook until the potatoes are soft. Add the corn and milk and bring to the scalding point. Add the butter and seasoning. Pour over the crackers and serve hot.

Scalloped Corn.
 1 cupful milk
 1 can, or 2 cup-fuls, corn
 1 cupful bread or cracker crumbs
 2 slices green pepper

1 teaspoonful salt
 1/2 tea spoonful pepper
 2 table spoonfuls butter

Place alternate layers of corn and bread crumbs in a greased baking dish, adding butter and seasoning to each layer. If desired, 1 table spoonful of sugar may be added. Pour on the milk and bake for one-half hour.

Corn Custard or Pudding.
 1 can, or 2 cup-fuls, corn
 2 table spoonfuls butter
 1 1/2 table spoonfuls salt

3 eggs
 1/4 cupfuls milk
 1 table spoonful sugar

Mix as for a baked custard. Pour into a casserole and set in the oven in boiling water. Bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees Fahrenheit) until set, or about 1 hour and 15 minutes.

Corn Fritters.
 4 table spoonfuls 1 egg
 4 fresh corn 1/4 cupful milk
 1 tea spoonful 1 cupful flour melted fat 1/4 tea spoonful salt
 1 tea spoonful baking powder

Mix to make a batter and fry in deep fat.

Stuffed Green Peppers.
 6 green peppers 1 1/2 cupfuls meat
 2 1/4 cupfuls fresh corn
 1/2 onion cut up fine
 1 1/2 cupfuls meat chopped or ground fine
 1/4 cupful salt
 Dash of pepper

Remove the tops and seeds from the peppers and parboil in boiling water for 2 minutes. Remove from the water, drain and put in a casserole. Stuff the peppers with a mixture of the corn, onion, meat, bread crumbs, thickened stock mixture and seasoning, and bake. The mixture may be varied by using other materials, such as rice and tomatoes.

Corn Souffle.
 1 cupful fresh corn
 1 cupful white sauce (see following recipe)

Add the well-beaten egg yolks to the sauce and fold in the corn. Fold in the stiffly beaten egg whites and place in a buttered baking dish, set the dish in a pan of hot water and bake in a moderate oven (350 degrees Fahrenheit) 30 to 40 minutes.

White Sauce for Souffle.
 1 cupful milk 1/4 table spoonful salt
 3 table spoonfuls flour
 2 table spoonfuls butter

Melt the butter and stir in the flour and salt. Add the scalded milk and stir until the mixture thickens and the flour is cooked. The white sauce may be made in a double boiler or directly over the flame. If the latter method is used, care must be taken that the product is not scorched.

SHIRRED EGGS ALWAYS GOOD

Combinations With Bread Crumbs, Rice or Starchy Cereal Make Delicious Dishes.

Combinations of eggs with bread crumbs, rice, or some starchy cereal to give body to the dish are always good, says the United States Department of Agriculture. Fill the baking dish half full of hot boiled rice. Break six eggs and carefully drop them in the rice, taking care not to break the yolks. Pour a cupful of cheese sauce over the eggs and rice and bake in a moderate oven until the whites of the eggs are set.

To make the cheese sauce: Melt one table spoonful of butter and stir into it one table spoonful of flour, one table spoonful of salt and one-eighth table spoonful of white pepper. Add one cupful of cold milk, and stir over the flame until thick and creamy. Add four table spoonfuls of grated cheese and stir until melted.
