OF HOG CHOLERA BAN

Quarantine in Eight Sections, 18 Months Old, to Be Lifted.

Fort Worth, Tex.-Release of a tier of eight counties in East Texas from the hog cholera quarantine which has been in effect there for the last 18 months is probable according to Dr. Leon G. Cloud, state veterinarian of the live stock sanitary commission of Texas, who has dispatched Dr. R. H. Harrison, assistant state veterinarian, to that section to make a survey of conditions.

The counties being visited by Dr. Harrison are as follows: Panola, Rusk, Sabine, San Augustine, Nacogdoches, Shelby and Angelina. These counties, together with others in the same section of East Texas, formed a block of 25 counties which were quarantined because of the prevalence of hog cholera there 18 months ago. Three counties of the group were released about nine months ago, Dr. Cloud said.

Should Dr. Harrison find conditions in the counties good he will recommend their release to the live stock sanitary commission for action. Subsequently it is anticipated by Dr. Cloud that Dr. Harrison will survey remaining counties of the quarantine area with a view of recommending their release.

Hog cholera has been scarce in Texas during the last year, according to Dr. Cloud. In fact, he said, it has resulted in less loss in the last year than ever before.

The entire 25 counties formerly quarantined practically are clean of cholera, according to records of Dr. Cloud and the bureau of animal industry, co-operating with the live stock sanitary commission in hog cholera eradication.

AID FOR FARMERS

Says Congress Should Finance Farmers and Help Promote Diversification.

Washington.-Moved by increasing acuteness of the economic situation in the Northwest, President Coolidge Thursday sent congress a special mes-"You take it sage outlining steps for relief and very calmly," said quickened efforts of the federal government to prevent further bank fail-Billie Brownie ures in that section.

> The chief executive presented five methods for "organized co-operation on the part of the federal government and the local institutions of that territory."

> Congress, he declared, should extend financial assistance through a federal agency to promote diversification in farming by the wheat growers and lengthen from March 31 to December 31, 1924, the period during which the War Finance Corporation may make loans. The diversification of the proposal, embodied in the Norbeck-Burtness bills, is under study by senate and house agriculture committees and the president's message is expected by administration leaders to give it impetus.

The executive branches of the government working in co-operation with private interests, Mr. Coolidge asserted, would seek to bring about the refunding of the pressing past due indebtedness of the farmers to restore the impaired capital of banks and confidence in those banks and to promote creation by private capital of new financing agencies, such as have been organized by the live stock interests, to work in co-operation with the War

Finance Corporation. The president told congress the welare of large business concerns, railroads, mercantile establishments and agricultural supply houses was immeliately concerned with the welfare with the farmer and announced he had lirected Secretaries Hoover and Wallace and Managing Director Meyer of the War Finance Corporation to confer with representatives of these interests to bring about refunding of farmers' indebtedness.

U. S. Policy in Mexico

New York .- The policy of the Coolidge administration in dealing with the is not very young. Of course, I think | Mexican revolutionary movement was lescribed by Secretary Hughes in an address in New York City as "the greatest contribution directly within our power, and in accord with our established traditions and manifest inerest, to the cause of world peace."

"This hemisphere should be the exemplar of peace," Mr. Hughes said, and we look with confidence to the creation of a unity of sentiment of the some biscuits and she said to herself: American republics against resort to the brutal arbitrament of force in powill make a special cooky for Muriel. litical controversies. To this end the United States gladly gives its co-operation."

Speaking under the title, "Recent Questions and Negotiations," before a meeting of the council on foreign relations, Mr. Hughes also outlined the purposes of the liquor treaty with Great Britain, signed recently in Washington, and explained why the administration considered it necessary to give up extra territorial rights in nezotiating the new treaty with Turkey.

The secretary's discussion of Mexico was prefaced by a recital of the steps that led up to the signing of the wo claims conventions by which the Obregon government was accorded dipomatic recognition.

"After this happy result had been achieved," he continued, "and we were ooking forward to a period of quiet and to opportunities of advantage to both peoples, suddenly there was an attempt to overthrow the established government of Mexico by violence. It s plain that the purpose of those engaged in this enterprise of arms is simply to determine by forcible measares the succession to President Obre-

"It is not a revolution instinct with the aspirations of an oppressed people. It is a matter of personal politics. It is an effort to seize the presidency; it means a subversion of all constitutional and orderly procedure. The contestants, seeking to overthrow the established government, have taken possession of certain portions of the Mexican territory and either are claiming tribute from peaceful and legitimate American commerce or are at tempting to obstruct and destroy it."

Mr. Hughes then touched on the request of the Mexican government to purchase arms and ammunition from the United States. To refuse, he said would have been to turn a cold shoul der to the government recently re stored to friendly relations and "would in fact have given powerful encourage ment to those who were attempting to seize the reins of government byforce."

WHEN you are constipated, poisons form in the accumulated food waste. These poisons, absorbed by the blood, are carried throughout the body. Headaches follow. Biliousness, sleepless nights, lack of energy, all result from constipation. Each of these takes away piecemeal something of your health and strength. In time, intestinal poisoning due to lack of internal cleanliness may cause the breakdown of some vital organ.

Again, there will be a few months-very few-which will register above the normal of heat and of rain, but again, it will be at the cost of months which would be greatly benefitted by a fairer share of the excess gifts of sun and sky.

"Let a word of caution be given here about weather records and averages. All the values can be smoothed and smothered in the figures of average weather, rainfall and temperatures. There could be a five-inch cloudburst on July first. tearing up thee ountry and doing great damage, and the rest of the month record a burning drough! yet the average rainfall for July would be normal. The West coast has above learned the lesson. The early fall mentles will witness not less than three cold waves of damaging character and wide extent. They are the natural accompainment of the cold-dry type of year.

One feature of vital importance should be remembered: This is to be a year of violent fluctuations. Hot waves will alternate with the cooler periods which will dominate the year, but as the hot waves will be accompainments of droughty weather they will leave their unpleasant mark on the crops. Farmers should plow deep and get their land surfaces into the best shape possible for light rainfall. Alfalfa fields about to be turned over this spring might be spared another year. The deep roots will insure a crop when the other grasses will be short. Dairymen should pro-more Ford cars and trucks were produced last year than the previous year, an increase of over 50 per cent.

In spite of this tremendous increase in production, it was impossible to meet delivery requirements during the spring and summer months when orders for 350,000 Ford Cars

This year winter buying for immediate delivery has been more active than ever before-and in addition 200,000 orders have already been booked through the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan for spring delivery.

These facts clearly indicate that the demand during this spring and summer well be far greater than ever, and that orders should be placed immediately with Ford Dealers as a means of protection against delay in securing your Ford Car or Truck or Fordson Tractor.

A small deposit down, with easy payments of the balance arranged, or your enrollment under the Ford Weekly Purchase Plan, will put your order on the preferred list for spring delivery.

10 RICHEST MEN

Henry Ford Leads Them All, With John D. Rockefeller Second.

MYSTERY MAN LEADS EUROPE

Twenty years ago there was a man named Ford in Detroit, a mechanic, who had a part interest in an automobile company whose capital was $28,-000. Today Henry Ford is probably year, which if taken on the basis of 5 per cent interest represents a potential capital of $2,380,000,000, says the estimate of Stinnes' wealth is guess-New York Times.

What man living today comes nearest to Ford in riches? What ten men! are the wealthiest in the world? Ask the man in the street and he will suggest Rockefeller, Morgan, perhaps an other obvious name or maybe two. But begin even a cursory analysis of any such list, weighing more or less definitely known facts with the opinion of bankers, appraisers, brokers, statisticians, travelers, and others who can do more than make wild hazards and the result is a list that contains more than one surprise.

In truth, it is impossible to set down ten names and say: "These tea are the world's wealthiest in the order git n." because each name to be qualified for such a roster must represent more than $100,000,000, and in dealing with fortunes of such bulk accuracy becomes increasingly difficult in geometrical ratio. The world has more than ten men in the $100,000,000 class. The name of one of America's richest men, T. B. Walker of Minnesota, is virtually unknown in Wall street, and the financial rank of others, notably George F. Baker, has never been realized by the public.

Here is a list of men who are credited in authoritative circles with pos- power. sessing more wealth as individuals than any other group on earth: Henry Ford-$550,000,000.

John D. Rockefeller-$500,000,000. The Duke of Westminster-$150.

Sir Basil Zaharoff-$100,000,000 to $125,000,000.

Hugo Stinnes-$100,000,000. Percy Rockefeller-$100,000,000. Baron H. Mitsui-$100,000,000. Baron K. Iwasaki-$100,000,000. J. B. Duke-$100,000,000. George F. Baker-$100,000,000.

The Gaekwar of Baroda-$125,000. B. Walker-Perhaps less

Some explanations are necessary in these items, but of that later. More pressing is the need of accounting for some palpable omissions. The Rothschilds will occur to anyone glancing over the list. But the Rothschilds come in another class-those whose fortunes cannot be credited to any in-embrace the Rockefellers, including John D. Rockefeller, Jr. Baron Mitsut perhaps belongs here, too, for he is second only to the Mitsuis. But the wealth of families is even harder to estimate than that of individuals. Consider the Rothschilds; they are scattered all over Europe. There are R. five of them in England alone. They founder of the house was born in 1742. Nobody can say how extensive oil, bank and steel interests, including their interests are-probably not even his brothers, James and Richard, and

In the case of John D. Rockefeller, a complete estimate of his wealth would have to take notice of the $500,-000,000 he gave to charity and to foundations up to 1921. It has been semi-officially denied that he is or ever was a billionaire. He is the head, however, of the biggest group of men of great wealth ever produced by a single industry.

The duke of Westminster's wealth is in land. In 1899 his predecessor was said to have an income of $3,-750,000, and the family realty holdings were then estimated at $150,000,000.

Sir Basil Zaharoff is Europe's man of mystery, but the basis of his money is solid enough-it's Vickers, the gun firm. The war made him. Herbert, in parliament, called him the richest man in Europe and the name stuck. the richest man in all history, with a Zaharoff enjoys mystifying the lay net business income of $119,000,000 a world. He is an exploiter of the projects begun by others.

Stinnes is of another type. Any work, in view of European conditions, but his industrial importance indicates at least the relative rank given him in the money hierarchy.

Of the others on the list of leaders, dian to the Chemical Foundation, Inc. Mitsui's place may be disputed by Swasaki. The Mitsuis are pushing: Iwasakis conservative. Both groups have financial, trading and shipping interests. The other Oriental, the Gaekwar of Baroda, may or may not be entitled to a place. His income has been variously estimated at $5,000,000, $12,-500,000 and $50,000,000 a year.

COURT UPHOLDS PATENT SALE

U. S. Suit Against Chemical Foundation Dismissed by Judge Morris.

CONSPIRACY CHARGE FAILS

Conduct of Chemical Foundation Praised in Use of Former German Patents for Senefit of American People.

Wilmington, Del.-In a sixty-two page decision which swept away every one of the Government's major contentions as being without basis in fact or law, Federal Judge Hugh M. Morris dismissed its suit to set aside the sale of seized chemical and dye patents by the Alien Property Custo-

The decision rebuked the Government for including in the bill of complaint a series of conspiracy charges unsupported by evidence at the trial and refuted by the defense as well as by documents filed by the Govern-

In declining to compel the Foundation to restore the disputed patents, numbering some 4,700 and bought for $271,000, from the Government, Judge Morris held there was no evidence bearing out allegation of a conspiracy by American manufacturers to effect a monopoly through the Foundation. The court ruled that there was no J. B. Duke started his career early evidence of fraud or deceit practiced in his native North Carolina, with his on President Wilson, Mr. Polk, Under Secretary of State: Attorney General Palmer and other high officials of that Administration.

Garvan's Course Upheld

The opinion praised Francis P. Garvan, president of the Foundation, and its trustees, as having met the most severe of tests in their conduct of the

Mr. Garvan, as Alien Property Custodian and thereby a public trustee, sold to himself as president of the Foundation the patents in question. He had acted by direction of President Wilson and his acts, supervised by the President under the latter's wide war powers granted by Congress, could not be brought to court. Congress had not delegated legislative powers to President Wilson, as maintained by the plaintiff, and the courts could not pass judgment on the wisdom or lack of wisdom of Presidential war acts.

Judge Morris recited that although Colonel Thomas R. Miller, present Custodian, who had approved two of the sales involved, verified the complaint, in his testimony he admitted that he could not enumerate any of difficult. Here again the wealth is the facts alleged to have been with-

In fact, at the argument, the plaintiff seemed against the persons alleged to be conepirators, but it sought to have the charges sustained as against the officers of the Government who formalated and carried out in the public interest the plan of sale. . . . While I know of no case where by implication of law the duty of clearing itself from imputed fraud rests upon the defendant, yet the defendant has met even this burden.

In effect, this made the President, as agent of the nation, possessed of powers as broad as though he were absolute owner of visions of the act, the President was empowered to make any conditions of sale he considered necessary in the onires the President to consider the public interest. Public interest is not a synonym for money."

In this relation Judge Morris quoted from President Coolidge's message to Congress on the Muscle Shoals problem, that "while the price is an important element, there is another consideration even more compelling. . . . If this main object (low-priced nitrates for farmers in peace and the Government in war) is accomplished, the amount of money received for the property is not a primary or major consideration."

Referring to German-owned property, the court said:

"Much of this property was not innocently held or held solely for trade and commerce. Information acquired by German-owned companies had been transmitted to Berlin, and there indexed and made available to German competitors and the German Government. The files of one company were filled not with business papers, but with pan-German literature. It was a distribution centre for propaganda in this country."

Upholds Confiscation of Patents Judge Morris pointed out that when America entered the war she adhered to the international convention forbidding poison gas, "but it soon became apparent that America would be fighting on disastrously unequal terms unless she should make use of all the dread weapons being used against her by the foe. When Germany persisted in her attempts to destroy her opponents with poison gas in contravention of all international agreements, she made it manifest that America's future safety lay in America's chemical independence. The amendment to days of the war (allowing the sale of seized properties). It was thought Paris was about to fall and the Channel ports be taken." These were the circumstances, said the opinion, which impelled Congress to grant the President the broad powers of almost absolute ownership. It was the intent of Congress to subordinate mere property rights to the welfare of the nation."

Of the value of the patents sold, Judge Morris held, in accordance with the testimony, that while Dr. Carl Holderman, a German, asserted the Haber patents were worth $17,000,000 afford, through their high integrity without substantial affirmative value trust. "It has kept the faith," said rather than private sale and only the Judge Morris found without merit enemy owners these owners would > Praises Work of Foundation As to allegations that the sale was not to obtain a fair value, but to promote the interests of the chemical and dye monstries and that the transaction was in legal effect granting a subsidy to private industry, the Court commented, "this challenge to the motives of the officers making the sale is supported, I think, neither by the facts nor the law. Mr. Polk determined the public interest would be best served by a wide use of the inventions covered by the patents. If the property was sold under terms and conditions that assured its being devoted to the public use it matters not what benefits or detriments may have flowed as incidents therefrom.

> votion to the public interest has been established," continued the opinion. "No better plan for devoting the property to public use has been suggested. The plan has stood the most severe of all tests-actual trial. The defendant has kept the faith. This it has done, not only by granting liat its great expense, by distribution of books and pamphlets showing the national necessity for practical develca. If, perchance, those heretofore rived an incidental advantage from the plan, that incidental result cannot invalidate a transaction lawfully consummated in the public interest. The same charge would lie against the validity of every tariff act. . . . its citizens, not to those then engaged in chemical and allied industries."

Judge Morris ruled that if the executives entrusted by Congress with power of sale acted within the scope of that power "their acts are not subject to judicial nullification or review. Invasion by the courts to determine whether the public interest required the property be sold otherwise than under the statutory conditions prescribed and to set aside the sale should the judgment of the court be different from that of the Procide would be a judicial only of the Presidents act but of the act of Congress conferring on the President the power to determine what the public interests required. What the public interest requires dethe nation. Courts do not understand the 'state of the Union' and as, I apsons actuating the President does not nake his act any the less an act of discretion. It is conceded the Prestdent cannot be brought into court te substantiate his reasons. The statute does not require him to disclose to the purchaser the evidence upon which his reasons were based. The statute does not limit the Executive in the assignment of reasons to such as may be supported by legal evidence or by facts available to the public."

FACTIONS SUPPLANT POLITICAL ORGANIZATIONS, TO THE DISTRESS OF LEADERS.

By EDWARD B. CLARK

Washington.-The situation in congress this winter resembles that in many of the legislative bodies of Europe. In the place of two well-outlined political parties striving for the mastery, there are really six or seven schools of thought represented in both houses, and each is striving for the domination of its own economic and legislative ideas.

Party names this year seem to matter nothing. The old lines of demarcation between the Republicans and the Democrats for the present at least seem largely to have been wiped out. States rights and to a less degree protection vs. free trade are in limbo. There are scores of Republicans who seem to feel legislatively just as a score or two of Democrats feel. Then there are some Republicans so-called, and some Democrats, socalled, whose feelings are alike and entirely different from those of other groups in all matters pertaining not only to ultimate legislation but to the means of securing it.

Efforts at leadership in both houses bles. and in both parties is fike the attempts at shepherding of the guardians of a flock of sheep of which the constituent members seem to be headstrong in their attempts to gef through the fence on one side, to jump into the river on the side leading to the pasture of peace, concord and presumed plenty.

Disturbing to the Leaders. Not long ago Secretary of Commerce Hoover wrote a letter to William Allen White touching on the danger of this tendency to coalition in congress between the parties and parts of parties. In his letter the secretary dwelt upon the similarity of conditions abroad and those in the congress of the United States at the present time.

Mr. Hoover is not the only prominent one in official life who has called attention to the same thing. It is known that the Democratic party leaders outside of congress are immensely disturbed over the condition, fearing that it means damage to the party. and it also is known that Republican national committeemen and others also are anxious over the possible outcome Imitations may prove dangerous.—Adv. of the divisions in their party ranks in house and senate. Both Democratic and Republican politicians who are not in congress are asking themselves how really solid party endeavor can be stressed in convention platforms when the endeavors United States. Peace Plan and the Senate.

In the senate the so-called irreconcilables on international matters still are declaring openly that the Edward Bok peace plan has killed all chance that the Harding World court membership proposal can be enacted into law.

The irreconcilables go farther than this and say that the plan not only killed the World court plan, but has put the League of Nations, so far as American participation therein is concerned, on a mountain ledge that cannot be reached by the most enthusiastic scaler of peaks.

Are these things that the irreconcilables say true? Naturally enough they seemingly form their opinions on the subject of the future of the plan from the reception which it has received in partisan circles in Washington. Washington is not the United States, although congressmen seem to take it for granted that the voice of the cloakroom is the voice of the coun-ly, as even friends of the plan view it, will be an endorsement for the proposed Bok endeavor.

This view of the case, the view of friends of the plan, is given in order that the ordinary layman espouser of the proposal shall not take the result of the referendum too seriously. The proponents of the plan know well enough that the senate as at present constituted never will give endorsement to the plan after it has been put in resolution, bill or treaty form for submission to congress. The supporters of the plan here in Washington and who give voice on the subject, therefore, seemingly want it to be known that they have no great hope that congress will give its endorsement, no matter what the referendum may seem

Real Referendum at the Polls.

So far as the Washington viewpoint s concerned, it seems that the referendum on a World court and on a gradual approach to a direct way into the League of Nations, is to be held next summer and fall-that is in the election. The feeling of the friends of a modified Woodrow Wilson plan seems to be that a change has come in the country since the election of 1920 and that today there are hundreds of thousands of voters who, in a sort of despair because Europe cannot get straightened out any other way, now are willing that something shall be tried to bring order out of disorder, even if once they objected to the trial of anything that looked as if it might lead into the field of European trou-

It would be something of a blow to the self love of a good many senators if they should be made to know that the humble ones who sent them to the senate do not hold them to be infallible because of their high
