LESSON TEXT-I Samuel 17:1-58. GOLDEN TEXT-The Lord is the etrength of my life, of whom shall I PRIMARY TOPIC-A Boy Overcomes

JUNIOR TOPIC—A Boy's Brave Deed.
INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR
TOPIC—Why David Was Not Afraid. YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOP-IC-Victories of Faith.

1. The Contending Armies (17:1-3). On the north side of the Valley of Elah, on the highlands, stood Saul and his army, and on the south side stood the Philistine hosts, eyeing each other for battle. According to an ancient custom, the Philistines, having a warrior among them of great strength, sought to decide the war by a combat between two selected champions. The nation whose champion was slain was to be subject unto the other.

II. The Champions (17:4-37). Goliath of the Philistines. (a) He was a giant (v. 4), perhaps eleven and one-half feet in height. The appearance of such a man greatly intimidated the Israelites. Saul, who once was brave, made no attempt or effort to meet this giant. (b) He was filled with proud conceit. His size, his panoply of war, and his strength, caused him to believe that no evil could befall him. His conceit became his snare.

(c) He was boastful. No doubt he was a much-talked-of man among the Philistines. Their possession of such a man recalled the former experience of their nation when Samson, the Israelite giant, wrought such great mischief among them.

(d) He was defient. He openly defied the army of Israel—the people the champion of Satan's hosts now. coming more and more defiant of the Lord's people, and ultimately will defy the Almighty Himself.

(e) He was scornful. He treated the Israelites with the utmost contempt. This is what Satan is doing daily. He treats God's people with the utmost contempt.

2. David, the Israelite. sent to the camp at a time to hear the blatant boasting of this proud and contemptible Philistine champion, His three eldest brethren were in the army, and his father sent him with some provisions for them as well as for the captain. While David was talking with his brothers, Goliath made his appearance. The sight of Israel's cowardice and lack of zeal for God prompted David to offer his services. Note the character of David. (a) A mere youth, a stripling not used to war. (b) He was courageous. When all Israel were afraid, he proven his bravery before in defending his flock against the lion and the bear. (c) He had a mighty faith in God. He argued that what markable manner under the gibes of the State. Eliab (v. 28). (e) He was skillful. He had become such an expert in the use of the sling that he had absolute confidence in the issue of his attack. He was not a blind enthusiast who disregarded the use of means, but was careful to use means, and most particular as to what they should be. He put aside the untried armor of Saul. He knew that God's will for him was to use by faith that which he had thought insignificant. This is God's will for us.

III. The Battle (vv. 38-48).

COYOTES GET CHICKENS, FOLKS GET THE COYOTE

Coyotes had been getting Mrs. G W. Davis' chickens. .She had heard of the coyote poisoning campaign conducted in Jaunary by County Agent R. S. Miller. So she appealed to him, and he furnished prepared strychnine and fifty baits were put out, using liver and the like instead of fresh pork fat as was done in the big campaign. The result was eight poisoned coyotes and many fowls saved that otherwise might have made a feast for the wol-

The number of coyotes was a surprize. It showed their close range to town. Mr. Miller said recently that more complete figures for his Jancary campaign showed that the number poisoned was probably nearer 1,-500 than the original 1,000 estimates. And yet coyotes are frequently seen.

GRAND JURY INDICTS, VENIRES FOR MONDAY

The Grand Jury returned an indictment against Margarito Calanche charging murder in the matter of the shooting of his wife last spring. Two negros who have been in jail here on burglary charges originating in Valentine were set free owing to a lack of evidence that would hold in court, it was stated. So far as known these acts constituted the business of the grand jury for the July Term.

Judge C. R. Sutton was present and presiding, and District Attorney Montague was present.

The petit jury veniremen were dis missd until July 18, when the Calanche and the Graham Barnett murder cases are to come up. It is understood that juries for the two cases will be drawn on that date. Civil matters included the suit on note of R. D. Gages vs John Z. Means and W. H. the plaintiff.

The Cattleman's Friend

Since the Orient railroad first built into the Great Bend country and gave the cattlemen of that region direct access to the best livestock markets, it has been his friend. For several years the pioneer railroad was unable to supply the best facilities as was true of other pioneer utilities.

Today there is no better service than that which the Orient is offering its cattle shippers. It can afford an adequate supply of new equipment, plenty of power and comfortable cabooses for the shipper's accomodation.

Ship via the Orient, there is no better way.

Paul said: All Scripture is by inspiration of God. Many Bible students of today say: The Bible has many errors. If so it behooves us to establish some standard by which men may know what parts of the Word are inspired and what not. Thus our study of the subject; What Consti tutes the Scripture?.

Many interesting facts are to be given in our study in Prophecy, giving direct Scriptural references and "I was just as weak as could be. My legs were shaky, and often I would just totter around the house. I finally got so bad that I was in bed several weeks.

"It was then that I began to take Cardui. I kept it up for quite a while, and at last I regained my health. Cardui was certainly a friend to me in time of need.

"My health is splendid now, and I seldom have to use medicine, but I gladly say a word about Cardui whenever find a friend going through the same suffering which I en-

NEW COTTON SEED MEAL AND OIL MILL GOING UP

The foundation is now being laid for the new Cotton Seed meal and oil mill. The site of the plant is on the north side of the track and west of the S. P. Pump Station. The company expects to have the mill ready in time for the new cotton crop.

FARMERS SHORT COURSE

The eighteenth annual farmers short course will be held at A. & M. College, College Station, Texas, on July 25 to 30, 1927, according to Tri-County Agent R. S. Miller.

There will be special rates over all railroads and a fare of one cent a mile. Board and room will cost only $1.25 per day. Every farmer in Brewster County is invited and urged to attend this meeting. All phases of agriculture will be discussed and practical demonstrations given at this meeting.

R. J. Cooke, of Ozona, came in the first of the week and is putting in a set of patent Barbecue Kilns at the Baptist Encampment est of town. Mr. Cooke says the kilns are the best thing ever introduced for the purpose of cooking meat in large quaintities and are becoming popular among the people of this section for every occasion where barbecue meat is used. The set being installed at Paisano will be ready for use by the time the meeting opens on July 22.
