HEAVY RAINS FALL WILL MATURE ROW CROPS

PRECIPITATION 2.49 INCHES IN PLAINVIEW—DID NOT IN- JURE GRAIN

Heavy rains fell over the Plains Wednesday, Thursday and Friday, the precipitation being 2.49 inches. Wednesday afternoon between five and six o'clock one of the heaviest rains for years fell here, the precipitation being 1.98 inches. The streets and sidewalks were flooded, as the storm sewers were unequal to the task of carrying off the water as fast as it came down. That night there was .18 inches of rain, and last night there was .17 inches, which with .06 inches Tuesday night made a total of 2.49 inches.

The rain extended most all over the Plains, being lighter in some places and heavier in others. Just west of town there was a light strip, but at Halfway and about Olton it was heavy. The rain Wednesday was light about Aiken and Lockney, but last night it was about 1.50 inches.

The rain came just as the farmers of the Plains wanted it. The grain is about all harvested, and in shock, with threshing in progress. The row crops were needing moisture, and can now mature without any more rain, and such a large acreage is in row crops the yield will be of the bumper variety. Surely, everything good is coming to the Plains this year.

W. C. Fyffe of Floyd county, east of Peterburg, came in this morning from Floydada. He says the rain was heavy as far as Lockney, but light at Floydada.

The conductor on the northbound train this morning said the rain was heavy to and beyond Slaton.

WHEAT PRICE IS RAISED TO $2.30

Washington, July 16.—President Wilson today signed an executive order increasing the guaranteed price of the 1919 wheat crop to $2.30 per bushel at Galveston and New Orleans.

It is expected the higher price established for wheat at Galveston and New Orleans will divert a part of the crop's flow to export from Atlantic terminals, and thus relieve the strain on common carriers and terminal facilities.

In additional executive orders the president approved the licensing plan put into effect by Director Barnes providing that all persons handling wheat, with the exception of growers, bakers who consume less than 50 barrels of flour per month and common carriers must be licensed.

FLORIDA TO COLORADO ROUTE MEETING HELD

Meeting Proposes to Connect Florida Winter Resorts With Colorado Summer Resorts

The first regular meeting of the directors of the Florida to Colorado Highway was held at Brownwood, Monday. Something like fifty directors were present, representing the entire state from Texline to Orange.

The body was in session only about five hours, but it proved to be one of the most inspiring road meetings ever held in this state. People came for only one purpose—that of making preparation to build a highway. A majority of the directors were prepared to pay their assessments and at this time the highway is assured.

In establishing this highway the summer resorts of Colorado will be connected with the winter resorts of Florida. Other states along the route have organized and at this time all that remains to be done is to go on with the work. In many sections the road is in good shape at present, though to make a highway what it should be, it will be necessary for each county to aid.

In the western portion of Texas the cost will be small, though in some sections of south and east Texas it will take many thousands of dollars to make the road passable during wet seasons.

Federal aid will be given, though at this time no definite sum has been mentioned. Parts of the proposed route, where the roads are in no way acceptable, it will be necessary for the various counties to vote bonds. And while the organization is less than two months old, directors from various sections, reported at the meeting, that their commissioners had ordered bond elections. This insures success.

The highway will enter Texas on the east at Orange, Texas, passing through the towns of Beaumont, Houston, Cameron, Temple, Belton, Brownwood, Coleman, Abilene, Sweetwater, Snyder, Post, Lubbock, Plainview, Canyon, Amarillo and Dalhart, leaving the state at Texline.

District directors were appointed and it will be the duty of the district directors to appoint county directors. The northwest district is composed of Lubbock, Hale, Swisher, Randall, Potter, Oldham, Hartley and Dallam counties. Ray B. McCorkle of Amarillo was appointed district director and urges that the various counties in the district make preparations to co-operate with the association. At this time the following county directors have been appointed: Randall county, Judge Fleisher; Hale county, W. C. Long of Plainview; Lubbock county, Geo. W. Briggs of Lubbock; Hartley county, Judge Phillips; Dallam county, W. T. Kretz of Dalhart. Other appointments will be made in the near future.

The board of directors, consisting of both county and district directors will meet in Houston, July 15th, and a large attendance is urged. Amarillo will entertain the convention in September, and it is hoped that the entire northwestern district will be well organized before that time.

George H. Sheppard of Sweetwater was elected secretary and is ready at all times to aid either county or district directors.

The Florida to Colorado Highway means much to Texas and especially to northwest Texas and it is hoped that our people will exert every energy to promote the proposition.

Soldiers Returning Home

Capt. Nelson Perdue returned yesterday from Camp Bowie, having received his discharge from the army. George Fessler has been here this week visiting friends. He was with the 57th engineers across seas, and was recently discharged from service at Camp Bowie. He will visit in Carlsbad, N. M., and then come here to again take a position as operator with the Santa Fe railroad.

Franklin C. Blockson returned last week from Kelley Field San Antonio, where he served for about a year in the mechanical school.

Auto Business Will Boom

A Plains school boy was given the following problem in mathematics: "If a farmer sells $400 worth of wheat from one field, $600 for another and $300 worth from another, what will he get? The reply was "an automobile."

The automobile agents are predicting a very rushing business in the sale of cars as soon as the wheat is marketed. In fact, already the demand is so great that some dealers are unable to get cars fast enough to make deliveries. This will, of course, make increased business in tires, auto accessories, gas, etc.

Hale county already has possibly more cars per capita than most any county in the state.

Bledsoe Possibly Elected

The returns are not all in in the state senatorial election held Monday, and though it is reported that W. H. Bledsoe of Lubbock was elected over Judge Templeton of Wellington, it has not been verified. The vote was very light and possibly some counties did not hold elections.

Here in Hale county the vote was 250 for Bledsoe and 32 for Templeton.

Any Plainsman who is not a happy optimist these days should be run out of the country.

Plainview is a city of nice homes, shade trees, pretty flowers and green lawns. Plainview is a nice place to live.

W. J. Crawford has resigned as a member of the board of state normal regents. Our only regret is that Hobby didn't kick him out, instead of letting him resign.

The fact that a whiskey still was last week found in a Hale county wheat field, proves that the wheat crop in this country is some tall—also, that the snakes are bad.

The editor of this Great Moral Guide of the Plains, in his meandering up and down the earth, has observed that usually the man whose wife takes in washing to support him has more time than the rest of us to roast the government, also that he takes as naturally to I. W. W.ism, as a tramp does to the "no beer, no work" crusade.

On page 6 the News publishes six proposed constitutional amendments. These relate to very important matters, and every voter should read them very carefully, in order to vote intelligently at the election to be held the first Tuesday in November. The News will discuss them in future issues.

Walter E. Thatcher, formerly of Plainview, who has been managing the Canyon News for the past two years, has become editor and manager of the Duncan, Okla., Eagle. He has sent the News a copy of his paper, and it shows up good, with lots of spicy local news, also an interesting editorial page. His friends here wish his success in his new connection.

All we have to say is, those South Texas fellows who say they intend to move to Mexico because Texas has adopted statewide prohibition, are welcome to go, in fact we will contribute toward their moving expenses. There is something sadly lacking about a person who had rather live in as chaotic and dangerous a country as Mexico, just for the sake of drinking liquor. Verily, it takes all sorts of people to make up the world.

Henry Ford declares he believes the plan for a League of Nations should be adopted, but unless we have the League the United States should prepare up to the hilt for war, and at once "clean up the whole situation"—meaning the rest of the world, we suppose. We are somewhat of the same opinion, for unless the League program is adopted, the world straightened out, and armaments reduced, Uncle Sam just as well at once begin to get together the greatest army and navy in history, and get ready to clean up the whole world. He should start in by cleaning up Italy, Japan and Mexico.

Say what you please, a number of secret covenants and "gentlemen's agreements" are being found in the peace treaty, despite the fact that one of Mr. Wilson's "fourteen points" declared against such and upon which the armistice was signed. Doubtless, Mr. Wilson did the best he could under the circumstances, for he had a lot of grasping, selfish old world interests to "buck" against. Considering everything, he did better than most anybody supposed he could do. But for Mr. Wilson and the American delegation, the treaty of peace would doubtless have been the most cruel, outrageous and war-provoking treaty ever promulgated.

The hot blood of generations of Southerners and Texas frontiersmen course through the veins of the editor of the News. There are crimes that could be committed to members of his family that would cause him, if needs be, to crawl across the continent on his belly in order to avenge such—but he would never ask a mob to help him in wreaking such vengeance. Mobs are always wrong. Mobs are always cowardly, and nothing but cowardly men take any part in them. Men who form mobs are rough necks, have criminal tendencies and take advantage of such occasions to give reign to their lawlessness. Men who participate in mobs should be hunted down, and punished to the fullest extent of the law.

The Lockney Beacon insists that the editor of the News will be a candidate for the legislature, though the editor of the News knows nothing about the matter. The Beacon says maybe the editor of the News does not now want to be a candidate, but that if he stays about the legislature very much he will want to get into the game. To some extent the Beacon is right in that statement, for the legislative game is indeed a fascinating one, and is rather tempting to a fellow who likes to mix up in a free-for-all fight. For instance, on several occasions while we were in Austin there were very interesting fights on bills—two of them lasting well into two days—and just for the time we would have surely liked to have been a member of the body and mixed in it. The News is in favor of re-electing Col. Tilson and making it a life-term, for he is some "scrapper" himself.

PROSPERITY IS KNOCKING

The big wheat crop of the Plainview country has been cut and shocked. The weather was fine during the cutting, and no time was lost by the harvesters. Threshing is now in progress, and the average yields are showing up good. The marketing has begun, and already thousands of dollars a day is being paid to the wheat growers. Payments will grow in volume until within a few days a great stream of money will be coming into the country.

Prosperity is knocking at the door of the Plains people. Every person will soon begin to feel the effects of good times. The Plainview country has come back into its own.

There will be greater development in the Plainview country than ever before. New farms will be opened; new homes built; new businesses started, and the wheels of progress will revolve rapidly.

This is what should be done, for when this section is fully developed it will become the wealthiest and best in the Southwest.

But people should use business judgment in handling the money that is soon to come to them in large sums. They should make every dollar count for one hundred cents. They should steer clear of wildcat speculation, of untoward extravagances, of going into debt heavily.

If the money this section is to receive within the next several months is conserved, we need not for many years know hard times again. But, if the people fritter their money away as we have known people in other sections to do in flush years, next year may find stringent times.

Prosperity is here. Let's conserve it, and make it serve us for years.

Representative Malone of Tarrant county is making a frantic effort to capture the "soldier vote." Evidently he is ambitious to use the shoulders of the soldiers to boost himself to a higher office. He has introduced a bill in the legislature proposing that the state issue about $50,000,000 in bonds and use the funds derived from the sale of same to give each Texas soldier mustered into service a bonus of $300. But, Mr. Malone's piece of wildcat political buncom will doubtless prove a boomerang that will return to smash him smackdab between the eyes. Col. Henry Lindsley, head of the American Legion, has denounced the proposition, stating that the soldiers are too honorable to take advantage of such, having already gone on record in strong opposition to such proposals. It is also pointed out that the plan would run athwart the state's constitution. Of course, it is hardly conceivable Mr. Malone is so weak-minded as to have thought he could "put over" the matter, nor is it likely he really desires to do so. We may expect ambitious politicians to bring forward all kinds of schemes to curry favor with the soldiers. The great majority of the soldiers do not want any special favors—they are not beggars—all they want is for the country to get clear away from war and back to normal conditions so they can pursue their chosen avocations as citizens. They really despise hypocritical politicians who seek to use them as catspaws.

The editor of the News would be glad to bet $1,000 in oil stock to $1,000 in Liberty bonds that the proposed $75,000,000 issue of state road bonds to be voted on in November will be badly defeated. It is generally conceded down at Austin that there is little chance for the proposition to win. The morning of July 4th the editor was a member of an auto party for a drive about Austin, the others being six members of the legislature from different parts of the state—and everyone of them declared he was going to vote in the negative, and each expressed his opinion that the proposition would fail.

Congress cut the army aviation appropriation from forty to fifteen million dollars. It seems that congress can sometimes really do something right. Fifteen million is a lot of money itself to be used in experimenting with flying machines.

The fight made by the liquor and beer interests against the enforcement of the war-time prohibition law is disgusting. Why should the nation be permitted a six months' spree before constitutional prohibition becomes effective? If prohibition is a good thing, why not put on the lid good and strong right now, while the saloons are already closed? Why all this agitation about a 2 3-4 per cent beer? It is but a subterfuge of the brewing interests to put just as high a per centage of alcohol in their near-beers as is possible. Such beer halls would be the congregating places of the toughest elements, including bootleggers. John Barleycorn is dying hard.

NECTAR OF THE GODS

The Plains and Panhandle editors continue their hornsawgling tactics against the editor of the News because he was a pioneer in this section as an advocate of buttermilk as a beverage. Since the state has become bone-dry these hornsawglers have begun to drink the juice of the churn, though they at first denounced it as not fit for anything except pigs. But, history tells us that pioneering reformers are always persecuted.

Buttermilk is all that we have ever claimed for it, and more. But we have had expert chemists experimenting with another beverage, and the indications are that a drink will soon be given to the world that will be better than anything ever put to the lips of mankind. A beverage that will put the Texas Plains on the map, as it were, and encourage the increased production of a crop that will make every Plains farmer rich.

We refer to experiments being made in distillation of a beverage from alfalfa, in which a drink is being evolved that is more exhilarating than bourbon whiskey, more comforting than lager beer, more healthful and satisfying than buttermilk, and yet goes nowhere like nor make a man want to whip his wife—in fact, it has no belligerency in its results, but rather causes an imbibor to "love everybody."

This alfalfa tea, when perfected and given to the world, will be a boon to mankind. It will take the place of whiskey, beer, coffee, foreign tea, and all other drinks, soft and hard, and will be sold at hundreds of thousands of soda fountains. Men will soon be declaring "Give me alfalfa tea or give me death."

The rains of this week came just right to keep the row crops growing.

The legislature has been discussing the matter of persistent reports that socialism and other radical politics are being taught by professors in the State University. Doubtless, the reports are to some extent true. University professors are rarely practical men; they are theorists; they would settle all things solely by theory; they are often narrow, one-sided and gather their views from association with books rather than mixing with real red-blooded humanity. Hence, they take as readily to socialism, Bolshevism and other isms as a gosling does to a pond. The only hope is that their abstract teachings are soon lost up on students, who have to go up against the practical affairs of life after leaving school.

The editor of the Paducah Post is "agin" religious debates, and has refused to publish an announcement of one to be held in that section. He says "there is nothing in the world that will tear a community asunder quicker than one of these so-called religious discussions," and he is right in his conclusion. In the old days it is possible religious debates were best, and tended to clear away certain misunderstandings, but modern times have outgrown them, just as it is outgrowing denominationalism. The religious people these days should, and most of them are, putting emphasis on things they are agreed upon, rather than things they are disagreed upon.

IN A MINOR STRAIN

The editor of this paper may not know much about botany, but he can tell a blooming idiot when he sees one.

Since a distillery was discovered in a Plains wheat field, we understand that the editor of the Lockney Beacon was evinced much interest in the wheat fields around his town.

A Central Texas negro just back from France says a "cootie" is "one of dem old-fashioned crawlers, what hab had considerable military training."

Control of the Packing Industry

Congressman Marvin Jones has introduced in the House a bill similar to the one recently introduced by Senator Kendrick, providing for control of the slaughtering and meat packing industries. Some provisions have been added and other provisions of the Kendrick Bill have been made more specific. With reference to the same Mr. Jones made the following statement:

"There are certain phases of the Packing Industry which are very much in need of control in the interest of the public.

First: Refrigerator cars should be made common carriers in order to abolish the discrimination which privately owned cars occasions. However, in this connection the railroads should be required to furnish the same character and class of equipment which is now furnished by the packers so that there may be no reduction in the character of service or the quality of the product as delivered.

Second: The packers interest in the Banking and Cattle Loan Companies, which deal directly or indirectly with the cattle producer, should be regulated in such a way as to prevent the congestion of the cattle market by the manipulation of call loans or short time obligations.

Third: The practice of the purchasing agents in any one cattle market of notifying the purchasing of commission agents of the packers in other cattle markets of the price bid on any particular cattle, thus making it impossible for the live stock owner to seek other markets for his animals, should be forbidden.

Fourth: As a direct result of privately owned refrigerator cars concerns engaged primarily in slaughtering or meat packing are given an advantage in the distribution of articles of commerce that are unrelated to the meat packing industry and that cannot be properly termed by products inasmuch as some of the articles distributed have no ingredients that are derived from the products of such slaughtering or meat packing industries.

Of course, great care is necessary in carrying out such regulations in order to see that the meat packing industry is not seriously handicapped or crippled. The entire country is interested in seeing that the packing industry remains efficient and continuous in operation. At the same time it seems that proper regulations is necessary to prevent abuses in connection with such industries.

Bailey Will Lead Fight

It was announced in Chicago Wednesday that the liquor interests have appointed Joseph W. Bailey as chief counsel to make a fight against the prohibition constitutional amendment. It is also stated that a fight will be made against the re-election of every state legislator who voted for ratification.

W. B. Stradley has resigned as postmaster at Paducah.

Are You Harboring A False Hope?

Professor Irving Fisher of Yale University, says "we are on a PERMANENTLY higher price level, and the sooner the people realize this and adjust themselves to it, the sooner will they save themselves the disappointment and misfortune which will come if we persist in our present false hope."

Is it not plain therefore, that if you are postponing the building of a new home, barn or other structure until prices go down, you are laboring under a delusion, and will be disappointed. Build now and take advantage of the present prices of building materials. Your good judgement will be justified in years to come!

CHANDLER SIX $1795

The Fact of the Matter

YOU can see for yourself that the Chandler is the most closely priced fine car in the whole American market. Printer's ink lends itself to the presentation of claims and facts alike. We make it our purpose, in speaking of the Chandler, to deal with facts only.

And this we believe to be the fact, that no other automobile, built so well, built of such good materials, built in such good design, is priced within hundreds of dollars of the Chandler price.

The Chandler motor is truly a great motor. There is none better. Fifty thousand Chandler owners know it. And countless thousands of their friends and neighbors know it. Now in its seventh year of constant development, without radical change of design, it approximates perfection.

The whole Chandler chassis, simple and sturdy, is dependable and enduring. And Chandler bodies, graceful in line, roomy and comfortable, luxuriously upholstered and beautifully finished, are a suggestive of the best custom work.

The New Series Touring Car

will delight you and your family. It is big and handsome, seats seven grown persons without crowding, and will take you anywhere in comfort.

The Chandler is fast when you want speed. It is flexible and instantly responsive in crowded traffic. It is powerful on steep grades.

MONEY SPENDING MADNESS SEIZES PEOPLE OF PARIS

Fabulous Prices Paid for Necessaries as Well as Luxuries of Life

Paris, July 1.—Paris is indulging in an orgy of money spending such as has never been witnessed in Europe before. Former Premier Ribot denounced it in the senate the other day as a "kind of collective madness" and urged the nation to cease its prodigality and get back to hard work and the traditional French thrift.

The skyrocketing of prices has done nothing to check the wild extravagance of all classes of people. Expensive meals, fine clothes and jewels and costly amusements are sought and obtained by everyone.

From inquiries made in the Rue de la Paix I find that never have the jewelers sold so many or such costly jewels. Diamonds, rubies and sapphires are especially in demand, and buyers are more preoccupied with their size and brilliancy than with their artistic setting.

For shoes which formerly cost $7 both men and women are paying $30 and with American supplies exhausted, it is next to impossible to obtain them even that figure.

With regard to frocks, women have for several months found that even back-street dressmakers are charging $100 for a simple dress. Simple gowns made of toilet de jute—just plain sacking—are selling for $140. A smart Rue de la Paix tailor made runs to $300.

Touring automobiles have reached fabulous prices. Having induced the government to bar American imported cars, the French manufacturers are charging anything up to $10,000 for a good class machine, while the cheapest car on the market, the standardized Citroen, sells for $1,500.

In the restaurants people are spending money with equal recklessness. In the Champs de Elysees and the Bois the prices are simply fabulous. A dinner bill handed to a party of four this week contained the following items: Four cocktails, $6; soups, $2; chicken with salad, $18; asparagus, $6; one bottle of Chateau-Lafitte, $7; and coffee, $2.

Even in the poorest sections of the city the same extravagance is witnessed on pay day. Chickens sell for from $5 to $8 and are quickly bought up, while all fruits and vegetables out of season have a ready sale. As an instance of the freedom with which the working classes are spending their money, the newspapers point out that during the Invalides Fair an ironworker on strike paid $1 apiece for the wife, himself and their three children to take a turn on the "roundabouts."

Fashionable women have long since lost all sense of the value of money. They may be seen in plenty on the streets with dogs wearing gold collars, with diamonds flashing in the heels of their shoes and with gem-studded bangles around their ankles.

Taxicab drivers are reading a fortune.

But French economists and psychologists see an end to this money spending madness. They view it as an inevitable reflex of the war, a reflex which will soon be eliminated by a return to normal courses now that peace has been signed.

Meanwhile, however, a terrible spectacle of ruin, bankruptcy and suicides is probable, according to the views of one well-known economist.

powered field glasses and told me to point out autos on the streets of Pasadena and to follow them until they stopped and then tell him how many men got out of them.

Pasadena is eight miles from the place that we went up so you can imagine how powerful that they were. Money would not hire me out of the way. It sure gives you a thrill to go up in a sausage balloon. An instructor and a student are all that go up at a time. I am in love with this service. Yes, there are a few that don't like it but they wouldn't be satisfied in Heaven.

Oh, say while I was in the air I watched them taking some motion pictures four miles away. This is the life.

Well I must close and go to Los Angeles. I can go for nothing by going out to the highway and any one will pick you up if you salute.

Tell my younger brother to hurry up and come out. He can see any member of the Recruiting Party from the 19th Infantry and get in.

D. 1919, then and there to answer a petition filed in said court, on the 2nd day of July, A. D. 1919, in a suit numbered on the docket of said court No. 1717, wherein H. C. Horton is plaintiff, and J. A. Towler is defendant. The nature of the plaintiff's demand being as follows, to-wit:

That heretofore, to-wit on the 21st day of June, 1918, the plaintiff, by his deed, of that date, duly executed and acknowledged, conveyed to the defendant, Lots numbers five and six in Block number sixty-seven, in College Hill Addition to the town of Plainview, in Hale County, Texas, for and in consideration of three hundred dollars, cash, and the further consideration of two notes, numbered one and two, bearing even date with said deed, each for the sum of two hundred and fifty dollars, the first due and payable January 1st, 1919, and the second due and payable January 1st, 1920, which said notes were payable to the order of plaintiff and signed by the defendant, and bearing interest at the rate of eight per cent per annum, interest payable annually, interest payable from date until maturity at eight per cent, which notes showed the retention of a vendor's lien upon the above described property to secure the payment thereof, and further said notes providing that all past due interest on said notes should be paid at the rate of eight per cent per annum and maturity thereof until paid, at the contained the further clauses and provisions that the failure to pay either of said notes, or any installment of interest thereon, when due, shall, at the election of the holder of them or any of them, mature all of said notes, and providing further that if default is made in the payment of said notes at maturity and they, or either of them is placed in the hands of an attorney for collection, or if collected by legal proceedings, to pay ten per cent additional on the principal and interest due thereon as collection fees.

Whereby the defendant became bound and in law promised to pay the plaintiff the sums of money in said notes specified according to their face, tenor and effect, but to pay the same or any part thereof, the defendant has wholly failed and refused and still fails and refuses to do, to plaintiff's damage in the sum of $1,600.00.

That by reason of the default of the defendant in the payment of said note number one when the same became due and unpaid on the 1st day of January, 1919, he said plaintiff declared both of said notes due and here and now declares same due and unpaid.

That by reason of the failure of said defendant to pay said notes or either of them or any part thereof, the plaintiff has been compelled to employ an attorney, to-wit, H. C. Randolph, to bring this suit to collect same and has agreed and contracted with said Randolph to pay him a sum of money equal to the sum of ten per cent upon the principal and interest due upon said two notes as his fee for his services in this suit, wherefore, premises considered, plaintiff prays that the defendant be duly cited by publication as required by law to appear and answer herein and that upon hearing hereof, the plaintiff have his judgment for his debt, principal, interest and attorneys fees and all costs of court, and for a foreclosure of his vendor's lien upon the above described premises and that this court issue an order of sale ordering the sale of said above described premises and the proceeds thereof to be applied upon the payment of this judgment and for such other and further relief as in law and equity the plaintiff may be entitled to.

D. 1919, then and there to answer a Petition filed in said Court, on the 20th day of June, A. D. 1919, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court No. _____, wherein Mrs. Cora Stevens is plaintiff, and R. L. Jones is defendant. The nature of the plaintiff's demand being as follows, to-wit:

THE STATE OF TEXAS,
County of Hale,
In the Justice Court of Precinct No. One, Hale County, Texas, June Term A. D. 1919.

Now comes Cora Stevens, a feme sole, who reside in Hale County, Texas, hereinafter called plaintiff, and complaining of R. L. Jones, a transient person, and for cause of action plaintiff would show to the court that on or about the first day of May A. D. 1919 defendant came to Plainview, Hale County, Texas, selling stock for the Beaver Valley Oil and Refining Company, and solicited this plaintiff to buy some of said stock, that finally this plaintiff bought through this defendant $500 of said stock, and in buying said stock, plaintiff had an agreement with defendant that if she would buy said stock through the defendant, he, the defendant, would pay this plaintiff fifty dollars of his commissions; that later on about the tenth of May defendant hired this plaintiff to take him to Lockney in her car, that said trip to Lockney was reasonably worth the sum of Seven Dollars and Fifty cents, and that plaintiff assisted defendant in selling other stock in said company, whereby defendant is due plaintiff Seven Dollars and Fifty cents; that later this plaintiff loaned the defendant the sum of Seventy-five Dollars, that the defendant is justly due plaintiff the amounts set forth above; that by reason of said agreement and the loaning of said money to defendant the defendant became bound and promised to pay this plaintiff the sum of One Hundred and forty dollars that said account is past due and unpaid, that defendant though often requested has failed and refused to pay the same or any part thereof to plaintiff's damage in the sum of One hundred and fifty dollars.

Wherefore plaintiff prays the court that the defendant appear and answer this petition, and that she have judgment for the debt, One Hundred and Forty Dollars, interest and costs of suit, and for such other and further relief both in law and in equity, that she may be justly entitled to, etc.

HEREIN FAIL NOT, And have you before said Court, on the said first day of the next term thereof, this writ, with your endorsement thereon, showing how you have executed the same.

Given under my hand and seal of said Court, at office in Plainview, Texas, this, the 20th day of June, A. D. 1919.

Thedford's Black-Draught

Mrs. W. F. Pickle, of Rising Fawn, Ga., writes: "We have used Thedford's Black-Draught as a family medicine. My mother-in-law could not take calomel as it seemed too strong for her, so she used Black-Draught as a mild laxative and liver regulator. We use it in the family and believe it is the best medicine for the liver made." Try it. Insist on the genuine—Thedford's. 25c a package. E-75

NO ADVANCE IN PRICE OF WHEAT BEFORE AUG. 15

New York, July 15.—The United States Grain Corporation announced tonight there would be no advance premium over the guaranteed price of wheat imposed by Julius Barnes, United States wheat director, before Aug. 15, since the movement from the farms does not warrant the increase and the grain corporation has been able to make only small purchases. On that date Mr. Barnes will again review the situation and make an announcement concerning the placing of a premium.

The Franking Privilege
Congressman Fuller of Massachusetts, has recently made public some interesting figures concerning the franking privilege and the way it is abused by his fellow members of congress. Evidently, as a public waste, it is a monumental success and it certainly is small wonder that there is a constantly increasing deficit in the post office department—a deficit which makes it necessary to penalize newspapers and periodicals in an effort to make ends meet.

Mr. Fuller reports that every day there is franked out of the House, from twenty to thirty tons of mail matter. About election time, this is increased to thirty or forty tons. From five to six hundred clerks are employed doing nothing but packing free literature into free envelopes to be carried through the mails free of expense. There is a small fortune spent in paying these clerks for a labor that is entirely unprofitable for very few of the documents sent out are ever read. Then there is the additional cost of the envelopes and the printed matter—all of which bills are footed by the equiesant tax payer.

One congressman, Mr. Fuller states, franked out in one day, a while ago, 640,000 parcels of free books to the voters of his state. Had he paid postage, as the rest of us have to, each parcel would have borne forty-five cents in stamps and the lot would have cost him nearly $300,000—which would have gone quite a ways in making up the postal deficit and it is safe to say that the people whose taxes paid for all those books, could, very readily have spent that money for things they would rather have, either personally or for their communities.

Another congressman sent out 750,000 parcels and just previous to an election, one political party sent out 55,000,000 copies of speeches. A commission appointed in 1908, reported that during that year, congressmen franked out 4,500,000 pounds of matter through the mails.

Isn't it about time that something was done about this abuse? It appears to have reached a point where a halt should be called. There may be occasions when a congressman would really need to send some of these missives to his constituency, but the very volume of matter sent out defeats the object it is intended to serve—if, needed, it has any object other than advertise the fact that "So-and-So" is a member of our National Assembly. The recipients get so much such "dope" that they consign it to the waste basket on sight and they have long ago learned that their particular congressman has no personal interest in them—other than their vote.—Southwest Plainman.

UGH! CALOMEL MAKES YOU DEATHLY SICK

Stop using dangerous drug before it salivates you! It's horrible

You're bilious, sluggish, constipated and believe you need vile, dangerous calomel to start your liver and clean your bowels.

Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggish for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money.

Take calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak and sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tone tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't salivate, so let them eat anything afterwards.

Constipation and Indigestion
"I have used Chamberlain's Tablets and must say they are the best I have ever used for constipation and indigestion. My wife also used them for indigestion and they did her good," writes Eugene S. Knight, Wilmington, N. C. Chamberlain's Tablets are mild and gentle in their action. Give them a trial. You are certain to be pleased with the agreeable laxative effect which they produce. PLAIN QUESTIONS TO PLAINVIEW PEOPLE

Every Plainview Reader Will Admit the Soundness of the Logic
Would Plainview people recommend Doan's Kidney Pills as they do if the medicine were not reliable? Would they confirm their statements after years have elapsed if their experiences did not show the remedy to be deserving of it? Statements like the following must carry conviction to the mind of every reader:

Dr. V. C. Canon, retired physician, W. California Ave., Plainview, says: "I suffered from lumbago and other signs of kidney complaint. I also had trouble with my bladder and sharp twinges shot through my loins I got Doan's Kidney Pills from Long's Drug Store. They relieved me."

LATER TESTIMONY
Over three years later Dr. Canon said: "I don't have near as much trouble with my kidneys now as I used to; but when I do, I use Doan's Kidney Pills and always with the same good results."

Biliousness and Stomach Trouble
"Two years ago I suffered from frequent attacks of stomach trouble and biliousness," writes Miss Emma Verbyrke, Lima, Ohio. "I could eat very little food that agreed with me and I became so dizzy and sick at my stomach at times that I had to take hold of something to keep from falling. Seeing Chamberlain's Tablets advertised, I decided to try them. I improved rapidly." Obtainable everywhere.

Store Talk

It's astonishing how much the little things mean in the success or failure of a man. When we read history and especially biographies of great men we see that things which we often consider trivial have been the very things which have made men great. Among the other good things which are bound to result from the war is thriftiness. We'll be a more thrifty race from now on.

The thrifty housewife appreciates the little savings she makes every day in our store and the money saved on the big bill for threshing crews and others requiring groceries in bulk makes her come again.

Formerly we had little regard for the penny, but the war tax has brought the penny into circulation as never before. The pennies saved here pay the war tax on the everyday expenditures of the household. You've got to have the pennies now.

The next time you are in our store get a bag of our candy for the children. We have an assortment that is attractive and every person around our store knows that it takes sixteen ounces to make a pound.

Business was good last week. We were absolutely busy all the time and Saturday it seemed that we would be swamped; but "we delivered the goods" in our usual prompt manner. And what difference does it make if you do get "tired as a dog"—when business is good and our customers are satisfied.

Last year was a bad year—and we all know about it. But isn't this one a bumper! We'll all be on our feet in general style when our crops have been laid by.

We have one of the best grocery trades on the South Plains. But we want more customers. We want volume of business. We've got some but we want more. Volume of business gives us greater purchasing power, and every time we save money by buying in quantity or for cash we can make things more attractive for our trade.

We're never too busy to talk CREAM. We want your cream, because it is a money maker for us. We don't make much on your cream, or on your neighbor's cream, alone, but when we get the cream of the community we do make a little on it. You can't bring us more sweet cream, or more sour cream than we will buy. We don't want to be piggy about cream, but we do want a lion's share of the cream produced in the Plainview trade territory—and we're making it worth your while to bring it to us.

You're probably not thinking as much right now about eggs and poultry as we are. We think about it most of the time. Next spring you will wish you had more poultry. We want to suggest that you think now about the number of hens you will keep through the fall and winter. The poultry business is the fastest growing business in the South Plains. Each year the farms get more from their flocks than they did last year.

Palo Duro Hits Gas Pocket
Palo Duro Arnold No. 1 Sunday afternoon touched a pocket of gas which developed a pressure variously estimated at from 6,000,000 cubic feet to 15,000,000 feet. So strong was the flow that an 18-inch casing is said to have been cleaned of tools, a charge of mud, and gravel flying thirty feet over the top of the derrick as soon as the pipe was clear. Mud and water continued for some minutes to shoot into a fine spray thru the derrick. The pocket was touched at slightly over 400 feet.

Several citizens interested in the company were around the well when the gas came in and they arrived in the city late in the afternoon covered with mud and sand, where the falling spray had rained upon them. The roaring of escaping gas can be heard more than one mile, witnesses reported.

Officials of the company, and those interested in the operation are elated at the showing. Many of the officials went to the well early last evening Driller Shaefer said last night that the pressure would be tested early this morning. He declared immediately after arriving in the city that the pressure was increasing, as the casing became clear of mud and slush.—Amarillo News.
