Tuesday Bridge Club
 Entertained by Mrs. Anderson
 Mrs. J. C. Anderson, Sr., was hostess to the Tuesday Bridge club at her home Tuesday afternoon.
 The invited guests were Mesdames A. L. Putnam, H. M. Burch, Wallace Settoon, C. A. Malone and J. P. Wooldridge. Mrs. Settoon won high score for the guests and Mrs. J. J. Bromley for the visitors.
 Ice cream and cake were served.
 The next meeting will be with Mrs. E. H. Bawden.

Mary Zollicoffer Has Surprise Birthday Party
 Miss Mary Zollicoffer was the honoree at a surprise birthday party on her twelfth birthday Saturday afternoon at the family home south of town. The afternoon was spent playing games and in other amusements, and popcorn balls, ice cream and cake were served. She received a number of nice presents.
 Those present were Francis Anderson, Maxine Sloneker, Georgia Young, Lee Buchanan, Bettie B. Riedsoe, Ona Mae Mitchell, Billy Brooks, Theo. Brown, Bobby Clark and Wilbur Sloneker.

Mrs. Cochrane is Surprised by Friends on Birthday
 Sunday while Mrs. R. E. Cochrane was at church services, a number of her friends invaded her home and prepared a sumptuous turkey dinner, which was ready to serve when she returned. It was the occasion of her birthday anniversary, and was a great surprise to her. In the afternoon Mrs. Cochrane entertained the party with supper.

Those who had a part in the affair were Messrs. and Mms. J. F. Neal, D. D. Neal, Tom Carter, Matt Cram, Mrs. Frank Neal of Tyrone, N. M., Miss Lula Blair Neal, and Messrs. Frank Truesdale and G. M. Harris of Alamosa, Colo.

Book Shower Tuesday
 For Wayland College Library
 Tuesday afternoon there was a "book shower" for Wayland college, and nearly 200 books were donated by friends, also $50 in cash.

The fine arts faculty gave a pleasing program after the shower, to the visitors at the bible institute in session at the college this week. Fruit punch was served.

Mrs. L. A. Jones Honoree at Surprise Birthday Party
 Thursday afternoon of last week Mrs. L. A. Jones was honoree at a surprise birthday party at the home of her neighbor, Mrs. J. O. Oswald. A number of friends were present, and a very pleasant afternoon was spent. The honoree received a number of gifts as remembrances of the occasion. Ice cream and cake were served.

Wayland Student Becomes Pastor
 Littlefield Baptist Church
 The Littlefield Baptist church has called Rev. R. C. Tension, student in Wayland college, at its pastor, and he will preach there the second Tuesday of each month.

J. W. Stovall returned yesterday from Albany, where he has been for some time.

W. E. Spencer of Cisco came in yesterday to look after his real estate interests in this section.

Is Interesting Picture
 The News editor was invited on Thursday morning to see the moving picture "The Way Back," to be shown at the Olympic next Monday night under the auspices of the Elks lodge, for the benefit of the disabled soldiers.

The picture is a very interesting one, in which a romance is woven about the lives of two returned crippled soldiers and two girls, and shows the benefits of the vocational training system the government and the Elks lodge is maintaining for wounded soldiers.

There are also several reels of pictures showing scenes about the Elks vocational hospital in Boston, which was donated to the government, and also the Elks lodges, head officials, parades and other activities. Everybody should see the pictures.

The Mae I. Theatre
 Mystery, magic and mirth at the Mae I. Theatre all next week. Dr. H. I. Travelutte, the world's greatest psychic, will with his company, give his wonderful and bewildering entertainment, that proves his well established reputation of being the most marvelous exponent of these seemingly impossible. His psychic powers are beyond belief. His exhibition of mental telegraphy staggers human credulity. He answers all questions, no matter where written or in what language. He demonstrates unbelievable phenomena, then his feats of magic are worthy of the world's greatest prestidigitators. In some of them he stands alone, having absolutely no imitators. The conclusion of his matchless performances is his great comedy afterpart, 15 people are on the stage, not one of them a comedian, but nevertheless they put the audience in a roar so ludicrous is their comedy.

Correct Stationery

In social correspondence a person is judged to a considerable extent by the class of stationery used. You know when you receive a letter from a friend, it pleases you more if nice, correct stationery is used, much more than if written on cheap or common envelope and paper.

We have a very choice stock of correct stationery, the kind that will pass muster anywhere. Our stock is large so that any individual taste can be satisfied.

We also handle everything in the staple stationery, line paper, envelopes, ink, tablets, pencils, fountain pens, etc.

Mr. Farmer, Ranchman and Land Owner

As money tightens up, at it is now doing, we are unable to determine what might happen in the way of interest rates, and in order to protect you to the best advantage possible, we offer the following proposition.

If you have a loan that will fall due between now and January 1st, 1921, we will be glad to take your application now, get your loan approved and close it on any date set. This should be a matter of great protection to you, against any increase in the rate of interest, and enable you to lay aside all worry as to where you can find money to meet your indebtedness.

Zillah Rightmire has been doing stenographic work for Jacob Bros. and others.

Ruby Daniel worked several days last week in the tax assessor's office. She has just finished typewriting some contracts for a traveling salesman.

Fritz Schacht spent the week end at his home in Lockney.

Annie Trammell spent Saturday and Sunday at her home in Silvertown. She was accompanied by Hattie Hargrove.

Harry Huguley spent Saturday and Sunday at his home near Olton.

Lura Miller is one out of a large commercial law class to get on the honor roll this week. To get on the honor roll the student must make 95 per cent or more. Miss Miller's grade was 100 per cent.

The school has been called on today for two stenographers, and students will be recommended for both places. It is almost impossible to train bookkeepers and stenographers fast enough to supply the demand.

WILDCAT ACTIVITIES IN CASTRO COUNTY ATTRACT ATTENTION

Dinmitt, March 17.—Unusual interest is being centered in oil circles in this community and its test wells because of the unusual prominence of very favorable structures such as are seldom found except where producing fields are developed.

Recently a number of prominent geologists, both independent and for the larger companies, have been making surveys in this county and they report that they have never found as favorable conditions for the development of a great oil field as exists in this community.

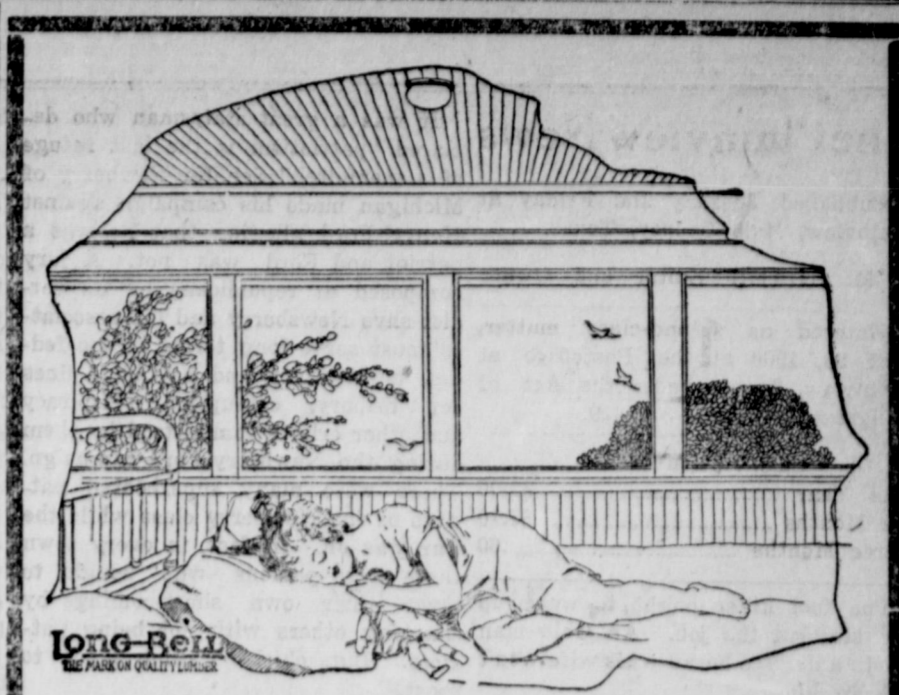

They agree at Nazareth, twelve miles east of here is the most favorable spot on the Plains, and often refer to it as the Spindle top of the Plains, because of its likeness in many ways to that. They are also very enthusiastic about the territory surrounding the Seven States well, four miles north of here, and also the location on Running Water creek in the southwest part of the county.

Wrather & Denny of Amarillo and eastern associates, are drilling the well at Nazareth, which is down about 168 feet. Quite a bit of the material for the standard rig is on the ground now and it is understood the remainder is in transit. As soon as this material arrives, work will be pushed.

The Seven States well, four miles north of here, has been spudded in and is awaiting the arrival of casing and other supplies.

The well in the southwest part of the county will begin drilling soon. Materials for the derrick are being hauled to the location and the rotary rig is expected about the last of the month.

Leasing is very active, especially around Nazareth where the first ac-

The fool killer ought to wake up and stay on the job. An Ohio man wants a divorce because his wife won't talk to him.

News print was quoted last week at eleven cents a pound; it sold for 2.57 before the war. No wonder hundreds of newspapers are being forced to the wall.

Pity the poor joyrider. The price of gasoline is on the jump. It is 29c in Plainview. It is 40c in New York and Chicago and 50c in Montana. The demand is greater than the supply. People buy gas when they need the money to buy food.

Wonder how much money Joe Bailey is "borrowing" from the liquor interests. You know Joe in times past was a great "borrower." Remember he "borrowed" from D. R. Francis; he "borrowed" from H. Clay Pierce; and if we remember right, he "borrowed" from John H. Kirby; from the Standard Oil Co., and various other interests that needed political influence in Texas.

Negro soldiers who married French women while across the seas are not permitted to bring their wives back with them. The war department realizes that if they did so it would cause all sorts of hades. Just think what trouble, including a lynching, would occur in most any Southern community were a negro to bring home a white wife.

Taxes are too high; there is too much extravagance in public affairs. Taxes should be lower; they are a heavy burden on the people. The News is in favor of cutting off every item of expense that is not absolutely and vitally essential to the maintenance of the government—national, state, county and city—or the welfare of the people. The only way to reduce taxes is to reduce expenses—and this can be done.

Frank Norris declares that "the church is giving more attention to uplift movements by men than it is to the salvation of souls through Christ. The church is giving more attention to 'drives' and less attention to the 'drawing' power of the gospel. The church is giving more attention to reformation and less attention to regeneration. The church is giving more attention to the bodies of men than to their souls. There are many needed reforms, but a reformed society is the fruit of regenerated individuals that make up society."

Congress is wasting a lot of time and millions of dollars investigating alleged mistakes made in the conduct of the war. It's all rot, brought forward solely for political purposes, and is doing no good. If there was dishonesty or criminal negligence let the federal grand juries do the investigating, and indict and prosecute the guilty parties. All the people now care for is to get back to a normal peace footing, and lower taxes. The war was won; so let it be a closed incident. Let's face the future and its problems.

Congressman Marvin Jones wants the war debt refunded and payment distributed over several generations. We are opposed to such action. The present generation got itself into the war, and should pay the bill without passing the burden to its children and grand children. The government trim expenses down to the bone, cutting out every extravagance, and pay the war debt within five or six years at most. If the proper economy was used in Washington this could be done in five years without further increasing taxes.

U. S. Senator T. H. Newberry, republican, of Michigan, was Saturday convicted of corruption, bribery and conspiracy practiced in his election to the senate, and sentenced to serve two years in federal prison and pay a fine of $10,000. Sixteen other were also convicted of being in his conspiracy. Congress refused Victor Burger, the socialist, a seat because he is under conviction (his appeal is pending) to prison. Now, the senate should in all fairness oust Newberry, for what he is convicted of is worse than socialism, anarchy and bolshevism combined. Where a man violates the election laws by conspiracy and bribery he is worse than an anarchist. Congress should not make fish of a socialist and foul

It was a great statesman who declared "patriotism is the last refuge of a scoundrel." Senator Newberry of Michigan made his campaign against Henry Ford alleging that he was a patriot and Ford was not. A jury composed of republicans by its verdict says Newberry and his associates must serve long terms in the federal penitentiary and pay huge fines for bribery, corruption, conspiracy and other crimes committed by them during the Newberry-Ford campaign. There were many superheated patriots of the Newberry class while the war was on. In fact, in every town there were persons who sought to cover their own short-comings by charging others with not being patriots. But, chickens come home to roost.

When the editor of the News gets into the legislature next January he is going to do his level best to cut down expenses of the state government and reduce taxes. We are now estimated to be taking for the expenses of government, one-third of all every man in the United States produces in a year. It has further been calculated that every family in the land now contributes, on an average, $550 a year in federal, state and local taxes, and that every new billion of taxation adds $45 more to this total. Our local, state and federal taxes at the present time equal if not exceed the per capita of all the money in circulation in the United States.

Ben Smith of the Lockney Beacon is afraid of the proper crusade to banish tobacco from America, for a movement has been launched up north for the purpose of doing to tobacco what has been done to liquor. It would be too bad if Ben were to have to give up his Old Virginia Cheroots, Duke's Misery and Battle Ax plug terbacker. Ben's not only sees red occasionally, but also spits red.

"The Bailey movement is doomed to defeat—inglorious defeat and richly deserves it," says the McGregor Mirror. "Any faction that dares nothing to commend in an administration that has added so much to the sum total of human happiness and uplift, deserves not only to be defeated but defeated overwhelmingly. The Bailey crowd will not have even a look in at the next Democratic national convention."

Liberty bonds are the one best buy in the market, according to Henry A. Moehlenpah, former president of the Wisconsin State Bankers' association and now a member of the federal reserve board. The News has been preaching this gospel all along. The person who disposes of his or her liberty bonds unless forced to do so is foolish.

The Ralls Banner is possibly the only newspaper in this section of the state that is giving support to the Bailey faction. Is it possible that the editor of the Banner is thirsty?

A good way for the women to combat the high prices on millinery would be to adopt the old-fashioned sunbonnets.

Have you ever noticed that the man who has nothing to say isn't happy unless he is saying it?

SHOULD THE WORLD GO HUNGRY ONE YEAR? WHY NOT?

To the News:

I would like to state a few facts, concerning the farmer. As I am a farmer's wife and think I know the true conditions as they exist on the farm.

So few people in the cities and towns know what we farmers have to put up with. We see so much in the papers these days about farmers moving to town, it begins to look as if we will all have to quit growing crops, move to town and work for wages. Implements and labor have gone so high, we cannot pay the price, and sell our crops at such low prices. We cannot feed our crops to hogs and cattle, they are down in price also.

Some people think the farmers are making money. Now, let me tell you who makes the money from our hard labor, the implement dealers and middlemen.

Something must be done to save agriculture. Suppose the farmer should stop one year, lay down the "plow and hoe," then people would see what the farmer means to our country.

In my mind the solution to this great problem is to improve the marketing system. The price we have to pay for what we buy is so much out of proportion to what we receive for our stuff is enough to make the farmer "sore" and want to go on a strike.

I take eggs and cream to town each week, so I know what I am talking about. We take our eggs into town, "what are eggs today?" "Oh! they are down." "What's cream?" "Well, cream has dropped, too." "What sugar and flour?" "Oh! they have gone up." See how we stand.

The farmer should resolve to "raise what I eat" and "eat what I raise," then there would be a change in things.

If such conditions continue much longer, our farmers will be robbed of our boys and girls. They are going to the cities. If we could get reasonable prices for our crops, we could keep our young people on the farm.

If you think it is fine to work in the hot sun all day for weeks at a time to grow anything and then carry it to market and sell it at a loss, or be told they cannot use it at all—just come out and try it one year. It doesn't make one feel good.

If the people in town would buy direct from the farmer, they would save money and the farmer get a better price for produce, and cut out the middleman.

Don't be too hard on the farmer for leaving the farm. We are just people and have to live, and if we cannot make our living on the farm, then we have to move.

Here's hoping our good editor remembers his farmer friends when he goes to Austin.

MOLINE UNIVERSAL TRACTOR

It Solves The Farm Help Problem

On most farms more time is spent in cultivating than any other operation. Sixty per cent of the crops are planted in rows that require cultivating, which must be done at the busiest season.

If one man is to farm more land than ever before, which is absolutely necessary, he must cultivate more land than ever before. With the Moline Universal Tractor one man can cultivate two rows at a time and do it better, quicker and cheaper than with horses.

The Moline Universal Tractor straddles the corn row—it has more clearance than the ordinary cultivator—so corn can be cultivated in all stages. The tractor is attached to the cultivator and forms one complete unit—the tractor the front wheels, and the cultivator the rear wheels. The operator sits on the cultivator in line with the right drive wheel of the tractor, where he has a clear and unobstructed view of the rows ahead. This is of the utmost importance for good work.

All the operator has to do is to keep the right wheel of the Moline Universal a certain distance from the outside row and the whole outfit will go properly. For dodging individual hills the cultivator gangs are shifted by the operator's feet.

The automatic electric governor allows the tractor to be slowed down to a "snail's pace".

But cultivating is only one of all the farm operations the Moline Universal Tractor can do. It is light, yet does as much work with two 14-inch plow bottoms as the ordinary three-plow tractor, on account of its higher speed, 2 1/2 miles an hour. Being coupled to the various farm implements with which it is used, it enables one man to perform every farm operation better than two men can do the same work with the ordinary tractor. In addition it has plenty of power for belt work, easily handling a 24-inch grain separator.

Mechanically, the Moline Universal contains refinements and improvements that stamp it as the foremost tractor. Perfected overhead-valve four-cylinder engine, complete enclosure of all working parts, including the final drive gears, electric starting and lighting system, 15 Hyatt heavy duty roller bearings and five high grade ball thrust bearings, differential lock, and electrical engine governor are a few of the many features that place the Moline Universal ahead of all the rest.

Forty Cent Gasoline Soon Washington.—Forty cent gasoline is in sight, according to Joseph Phelan, shipping board oil expert, who said it might reach that figure by August.

True patriotism sometimes requires of men to act exactly contrary to that which it does at another, and the motive which impels them—the desire to do right—is precisely the same. The circumstances which govern their actions and their conduct must conform to the new order of things. History is full of illustrations of this.—Robert E. Lee.

Terrible Suffering From Headache, Sideache, Backache, and Weakness, Relieved by Cardui, Says This Texas Lady.

Gonzales, Tex.—Mrs. Minnie Philpot, of this place, writes: "Five years ago I was taken with a pain in my left side. It was right under my left rib. It would commence with an aching and extend up into my left shoulder and on down into my back. By that time the pain would be so severe I would have to take to bed, and suffered usually about three days... I suffered this way for three years, and got to be a mere skeleton and was so weak I could hardly stand alone. Was not able to go anywhere and had to let my house work go... I suffer with a pain in my back and had the headache all the time. I was unable to do a thing. My I was a misery, my stomach got in an awful condition, caused from taking so much medicine. I suffered so much pain. I had just about given up all hopes of our getting anything to help me.

One day a Birthday Almanac was thrown in my yard. After reading its testimonials I decided to try Cardui, and am so thankful that I did, for I began to improve when on the second bottle... I am now a well woman and feeling fine and the cure has been permanent for it has been two years since my awful bad health. I will always praise and recommend Cardui." Try Cardui today. E 78

MAKE THEIR WORK DRUDGERY

Colonel Roosevelt Had Little Sympathy for Those Who Find No Enjoyment in Their Occupation.

One day Colonel Roosevelt told me what a good time he was having working with all of us (in the office of the Metropolitan Magazine), writes Sonya Levien in the Woman's Home Companion. He told me that he felt radicals laid too much stress upon the drudgery of the day laborer's work. That the details of most kinds of work—the director's, the artist's, the writer's—were drudgery. That very often it was a spiritual sluggishness and a consequent failure to discover the human aspects of one's job.

Urged on by an old belief that Colonel Roosevelt's viewpoint on economics was not sufficiently radical, I grew warm about the vast throngs of people who drag themselves every morning at 7 to the factories, work at some trifling job for eight, ten hours, day in, day out, year after year, without respite, without hope of ultimate release except through death. The unpleasant memory of my own similar beginning keeps ever alive for me the sordidness of such an existence. My deep resentment against an industrial order that extorts so unscrupulous a toll from its masses did not meet with the sympathy I had expected.

I suddenly found myself driven to an issue by that implacable will of his which gave no quarter to any socialistic problem that did not lend itself to practical solution. He had a sane and temperate appreciation of the workingman's difficulties, but my sensibilities about their sordid existence did not touch his sympathy.

He argued that the taller in most cases than the shorter, less than his due and must be more protected and more respected for his share in the world work, that he must get shorter hours and more healthful conditions to labor and live in, opportunity to better himself and enjoy his leisure, but he felt that ultimately any man's success or failure depended upon the man's own character.

"There is enjoyment in every kind of work that has usefulness, but there are people that enjoy nothing, that have not the capacity for fun and contentment—no matter in what status of life they happen to be."

Milestones.

One of the many curious effects of the war was the way it put news into cold storage. Almost every day that passes, in England as elsewhere, some story or other is gaining publicity, and is being eagerly read and discussed, which, if peace had reigned instead of war during the past five years, would have, long since, been forgotten in the back files of the newspapers. Thus Major Hesketh-Prichard, one-time famous as a cricketer, and now famous as a soldier, has been pouring out news as to the many ingenious devices resorted to at the front in establishing an observation post. This is for instance the case of the milestone. It stood on the summit of a little ridge at the cross roads, between the two front line trenches. The French photographed the milestone, had a facsimile made of it in thin steel with a gauze-covered observation hole, and successfully changed the real thing for the dummy by night; in this way gaining a perfect observation post in the center of no-man's land. Thus some milestones even have greatness thrust upon them.

Rowboats Carried in One Hand.

Many a vacationist during a summer in the north woods has watched his brawny guide balance the canoe upon his shoulders and carry it thus over a trail of several miles. For the sportsman intent on only a few days' pleasure, however, such a feat is distasteful when not impossible. For his benefit have now been built two small boats that he can carry 12 hours a day without exhaustion, says Popular Mechanics Magazine in an illustrated article. One is the invention of an Englishman. It weighs but 18 pounds and collapses to the size of a small hand-bag, yet its canvas bottom easily holds a heavy occupant. Each of the four sides is formed of an air-tight bag which is inflated by a hand pump. The second featherweight boat is more complex in construction but easier to paddle. When collapsed it fits into a wooden box, about the size of the case that is used to hold the popular croquet mallets.

City's Heat and Warm Water.

An engineering account of a new system for supplying heat and warm water to public buildings of Berlin states that the distribution area is to have a radius of a mile and a half, and to include some tenement houses. The warm water is to be derived from the exhaust steam of the Berlin electricity works and from some coke-heated boilers. It is to start on its way superheated to 120 degrees C., and it will pass through pipes laid in concrete conduits along the streets, with sections welded together and provided with stuffing boxes and sliding bearings.

The Harpist's Fingers.

Two hundred members of the Professional Musicians' association of New South Wales—a fifth of the total membership—served at the front in the great war. Returned men tell with much relish the story of a distinguished harpist who in peace times devoted a great deal of time daily to the care and preparation of his fingers. "The first time we heard about him he was lying in a tunnel in France," was the report which they gave at a

To Explore Earth's Interior.

Our knowledge of the earth from actual contact is confined to a thin layer of only a few hundred feet, and what exists deeper down is a subject for speculation. The idea of exploring further by a bore-hole some ten times as deep as any yet attempted was again brought up in the late presidential address of Hon. Sir Charles A. Parsons to the British association. He proposed in 1904 the sinking of such a shaft to a depth of 12 miles, and estimated that it would require eighty-five years of time and cost $25,000,000—an outlay about equal to that for one first-class battleship. Since then Prof. F. D. Adams has concluded that a depth of 15 miles could be reached in limestone before the rock would give trouble by being crushed, and in granite about 30 miles could be reached. Such a shaft might throw much light on the earth's internal constitution—especially as related to very heavy minerals. In Italy, bore-holes sunk to moderate depths in a volcanic district discharge great volumes of high pressure steam, and this is being utilized to generate about 10,000 horsepower by turbines.

Differing Types of Marble.

In its tests of 52 different types of marbles, the United States bureau of standards has found the compressive strength of the dry material to range between 7,850 and 79,250 pounds per square inch. Wet specimens were usually somewhat weaker, and in a few instances loss of strength from soaking was as great as 25 per cent. After 30 freezings and thawings, most specimens were much weakened, though some were little affected, while a few were actually strengthened. The electrical resistance varies so greatly that even a 100 per cent increase in material for switchboards. Marbles expand irregularly on heating, and part of the increase is permanent.

Belated Profiteer.

In Montana there is an old Indian brave who appears each year with quantities of a certain luscious berry which grows wild in great profusion and which is highly esteemed by thrifty housewives for craning. For many years his price has been five cents per quart. This season the same Indian came with the same berries which had been growing wild in the same profusion, but he calmly announced his price as 25 cents a quart. Asked why the increase, he shrugged his shoulders and said: "Heap big war some place." Then he added: "Me just bear about um," as though to apologize for not having increased his price sooner.

"So-and-So and Daughter."

It is a welcome sight to see the words "and daughter" as the suffix to the name over a shop, says the London News. It is a sign of the times of women's interest in business and their recognition as responsible helpmates. In the west end there is more than one emporium of feminine attire under the ownership of So-and-So and Daughter—or daughters—and I know of another which belongs officially to father and daughters; but I have never yet come across a shop under the joint ownership of husband and wife, yet we know of countless small businesses in which the wife of the owner does a goodly share of the work.

THAT BAD BACK

Do you have a dull, steady ache in the small of the back—sharp, stabbing twinges when stooping or lifting—distressing urinary disorders? For bad back and weakened kidneys Plainview residents recommend Doan's Kidney Pills. Read this Plainview statement.

D. C. Harrison, farmer, says: "Sometime ago my back and kidneys were causing me much trouble. All through the small of my back was soreness and lameness, and also an aching. It bothered me when I bent over, and something like a sharp catch would take me in my back and hurt me to straighten up. My kidneys were weak and irregular in action, and bothered me considerably. I saw Doan's Kidney Pills advertised and began using them. In a short time I felt relieved. I haven't used any such remedy since." Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Harrison had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfgs., N. Y.

Calomel is a dangerous drug. It is mercury—quicksilver; and attacks your bones. Take a dose of nasty calomel today and you will feel weak, sick and nauseated tomorrow. Don't lose a day's work.

Take "Dodson's Liver Tone" Instead!

Here's my guarantee! Ask your druggist for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone and take a spoonful tonight. If it doesn't start your liver and straighten you right up better than calomel and without griping or making you sick I want you to go back to the store and get your money. Take a spoonful of harmless, vegetable Dodson's Liver Tone tonight and wake up feeling great. It's perfectly harmless, so give it to your children any time. It can't savorate, so let them eat anything afterwards.

HIGHWAY IN LAMB AND BAILEY COUNTIES INSPECTED

Amarillo, March 14.—Leo Ehlinger division engineer of the state highway commission for the Panhandle district, returned Thursday from an inspection tour of highways in Lamb and Bailey counties, in order to make estimates of construction for the county officials.

There are some thirty miles of road in Bailey county and seventy in Lamb county which are under consideration for improvement. These portions of road needing repair are Highway No. 7, running from New Mexico to the Gulf and Highway No.

28, the Bankhead highway, extending from Washington, D. C. to California.

These roads will be graded and a six-inch surface put on them. Mr. Ehlinger advises the use of caliche, decomposed lime, for this surfacing, and as it is found in abundance in this section, it may be obtained at small cost.

Santa Fe Will Raise Tracks

The Santa Fe engineers have been here making surveys for the raising of some of the switching tracks in the yards to a level with the main tracks.

This will mean quite an expenditure for labor, which will be done mostly by Mexicans. The fore part of the week thirty-five or forty Mexicans were brought in from Old Mexico, through El Paso, by the railroad to work.

Melvin Wasson came in Saturday from Cisco.

RINGS CLEAR AS TRUMPET NOTES IN BATTLE CALL

Resolutions Adopted by Loyal Texas Democrats in State Meeting in Dallas

The following are the resolutions put forth by the loyal democrats of the state in their meeting in Dallas to organize the campaign against Bailey and the forces that seek to repudiate the democratic administration:

To Chairman Thomas H. Ball:
On the eve of another presidential campaign the loyal Democrats of Texas stand ready to give battle to all foes, whether those who form aforesaid have fought outside the party or those deserters inside the party who ought to be outside the party.

We make no apology for the administration of the affairs of this nation under the incomparable leadership of Woodrow Wilson.

To recapitulate its achievements is to summarize a record of constructive accomplishments unsurpassed in American history.

It celebrated its taking over the reins of government by driving a bold and insolent lobby from the nation's capital and keeping faith with the people by revising a tariff not upward but downward in behalf of the consumers of the land.

It established the federal reserve banking system, that created a flexible currency, that has decentralized the power of money and the money power and robbed panics of their terror alike in peace and war.

It has established the farm loan banking system, enlisting the power and wealth of the nation in behalf of a home owning citizenship among the farmers and producers of the land.

It has stood for an economic policy in days of turmoil and conflict that sought to protect all property honestly acquired and invested, but more and more to the end that labor should be recognized and rewarded with its just share of the wealth created by the great army of toilers, whether in field, or shop, of mine, or factory.

It has stood with courage and wisdom for a just and righteous settlement of warfare of different groups, classes and interests midway between the Bourbon and the Bolshevik; between the complacent reactionary who puts property above humanity and the blinded red, who, in his fanaticism, would pull down the pillars of the republic.

It has passed laws distributing the burden of taxation so that in spite of imperfection and crudities for the first time in our history the swollen fortunes of the rich have borne a just share of the cost of the government.

It has passed a shipping act that restored the American merchant marine so that once more the flag in American commerce whitens the seven seas of the world.

It has enacted a child labor law to the end that no industry shall fatten on the stunted bodies and minds of little children.

It has stood for a sober soldiery in time of war and for a sober citizenship in time of peace and has given to the sovereign states the privilege of voicing under the constitution their righteous indignation against corruption and debauchery of the liquor traffic in the social, economical and political life of the republic.

It has shown its weight both in the executive and legislative branches of the government in favor of granting a franchise to woman, to the end that they may exercise their rights and assume their responsibilities in the shaping and molding of American destiny.

More splendid than concrete accomplishments written into law is the lofty spirit of patriotism and unselfish standards of public service set by the President of this republic to all the nations of the earth.

Epochmaking as are the achievements of the national administration in solving the complex and perplexing problems of peace, it safeguarded the nation's honor in calling America to arms and won the gratitude of the world as it piloted us to victory against the mad ambition of German autocracy for world empire.

It raised and disciplined an army of 5,000,000 men; it landed the flower of youth in France with amazing energy without the loss of a man under the convoy of the American navy; it directed decisive blows on battlefields 3,000 miles from home; it marshaled the productive agencies of our country for munitions and food for the people of the earth; it financed our allies as they were fighting, with us, for humanity and freedom of the world. These constitute the monuments of Democratic administrative efficiency that shall endure to the latest generation.

It has dreamed and wrought and fought amid plots abroad and marplots at home for a counsel of the nations to the end that the tragedy of war should no longer redden the earth with blood and whiten humanity with terror, and though broken in body, we commend the heroic spirit of Woodrow Wilson as he stands today fighting against destructive amendments to a covenant of peace that shall give heart and hope to a war-torn world.

On this unexampled record of Democratic achievement in the most trying days of American history the loyal and progressive Democracy of Texas goes forth unashamed and unafraid.

Baptist Revival at Lockney

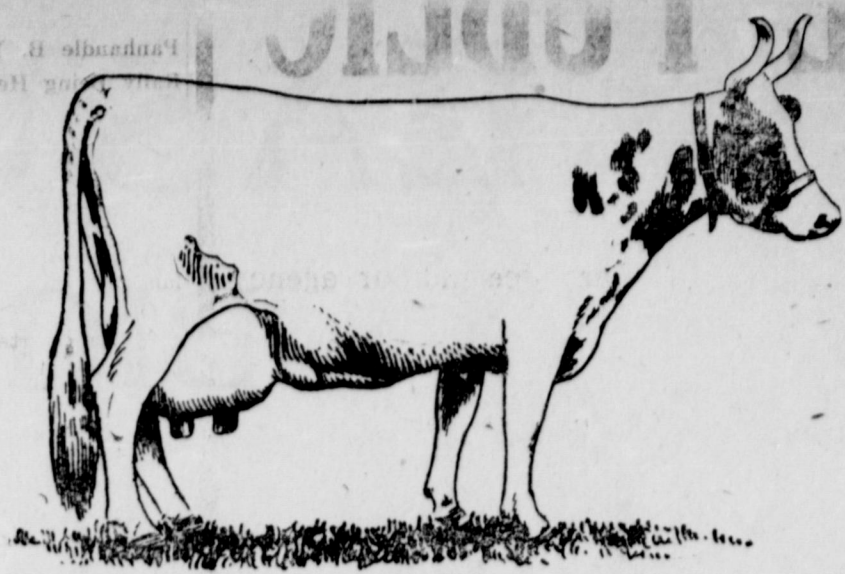

Rev. John P. Hardesty, pastor of the Baptist church, was here yesterday morning en route to Slaten to meet his mother, who was coming from down in the state.

Pastor Hardesty will begin a revival meeting at his church Sunday morning. Evangelist J. R. Balch and Singer I. T. Isbell will assist in the meeting. Services will begin at 10 and 7:30 each day.

LET US SHOW YOU the hat to wear Easter Sunday—The Band Box, successors to the R. & H. Millinery.

FOR SALE—Good 3-room house. Easy to move and worth the money. See Shirley Brazele. 91-2t.

LOST—Masonic charm, with A. E. Allen's name on it. Finder take to Fred Cousineau at fire hall.

AUCHENBRAIN WHITE BEAUTY 2nd

Owned by Penhurst Farm, Narberth, Penn.

Considered to be the finest specimen of Ayrshires in the world. Her owners also possess Garclaugh May Mischief, with a record of 25,329 lbs. of milk in a year. This great breed is doing wonderful things for their owners, who number over 6,000 and are all men who believe that farming can be made a "REAL BUSINESS," not just a means of making a livelihood.

A few examples:

Lilly of Willowmor, owned in the State of Washington, produced 1147 pounds of butter in one year. One herd of ten cows in Massachusetts averaged 21,199 pounds of milk and 812 pounds of butterfat last year. The entire Kansas Cattle herd averaged better than 450 pounds of butterfat.

Most breeders won't keep a cow unless she does better than 10,000 pounds of milk a year.

Pure bred cattle of any breed will pay big dividends. The advantages of one breed over another is a matter for argument, but lets have more pure bred dairy cattle of some kind in this community.
