WE ARE FOR NEFF

The returns show that Neff and Bailey will go into the second primary for governor.
The News will give very cordial support to Mr. Neff, and will do everything in its power to assist him to defeat Bailey.
It would be the greatest calamity imaginable if Bailey were to be elected governor.
But we cannot conceive of such a calamity coming to pass. The primary of Saturday was Bailey against the field, and Bailey got less than one-third of the votes. Bailey undoubtedly polled almost every vote that it is possible for him to get, hence cannot expect to win in the second primary.
Every person who voted for Neff, Thomason or Looney should support Neff in the August primary, and thus bury Bailey with an avalanche of votes.

It will be a sad day if the public ever decides to go on a strike.

Texas oil production in 1919 was 96,662,606 barrels, or one-fourth of the total production of the nation.

Money may make the mare go and the horse run, but it has never bought a man a good disposition nor a place in paradise.

Wm. K. Vanderbilt died Thursday. It is said he owned nearly a hundred million dollars' worth of property. He did not take any of it with him to "that land from whose bourne no traveler has yet returned."

SOCIETY

Miss Duke, Former Wayland College Teacher, Marries

Tulia, July 20.—One of the loveliest weddings ever seen in Tulia was that of Miss Edith Duke, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Duke, and George H. Beverley of Amarillo which was solemnized Wednesday afternoon at 4:30 at the home of the bride.

The reception room of the home was resplendent with ferns and flowers, where the ring ceremony was read by Rev. Gordon Barrett, pastor of the Baptist church.

Preceding the ceremony Miss Lorraine Walker played "Liebestraume" (Liszt) followed by Mendelssohn's Wedding March and during the ceremony, Miss Walker rendered "Believe Me if all Those Endearing Charms."

The bridal party entered between an aisle of white ribbon held by the bridesmaids, Misses Alby Ray Smith and Lena Maud Smith, both wearing beautiful gowns of Orchid color with picture hats. Miss Louise McFarling as maid of honor wore a beautiful orchid gown, picture hat and carried bouquet of pink roses. Little Miss Elizabeth Tucker, of Tulia, as ring bearer was daintily dressed in pink organdy, bearing the ring in the heart of a rose.

The bride wore a handsome gown of white brocaded tricolet, white taffeta hat and carried a shower bouquet of white roses and ferns.

James Beverley, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man, both being dressed in conventional black.

The gift from the bride to the maid of honor and bride's maid were suitably engraved corsage pins; to the ring bearer, ivory fan with Chinese ivory linked chain.

Mr. and Mrs. Beverley were the recipients of a large number of handsome presents from admiring friends.

The happy couple left immediately following the ceremony for San Antonio and other points of interest.

Kiwanis Club

Judge R. C. Joiner further discussed the important topic of "Why the Chicken Crossed the Street" at the weekly luncheon of the Kiwanis club Friday at noon, in fact we understand that he almost exhausted the subject.

With Miss Nelle Sansom as accompanist, Mrs. George Wilson sang.
