ATHLETIC PARK FOR PLAINVIEW

SUPT. PATTY ASKS FOR LOAN OF $2,500 TO IMPROVE PARK

Supt. W. E. Patty of the Plainview public schools, in an address to the Rotary club at its luncheon today at noon, asked that 100 citizens of Plainview each loan the school authorities $25, making a fund of $2,500, which will be used to enclose and improve an athletic park, with a grand stand, on the lots recently bought by the school board on Ash street near the depot, and upon which a new high school building will be erected within several years. Mr. Patty said that athletics have become a great force for good in school and college work, to keep students interested and in school, and that the people of Plainview should assist in securing an athletic park which can be used by the public schools, Wayland college and the league base ball club for their games, enclosed so that admission can be charged and provided with a grand stand for those who attend.

The school board can arrange for the athletic park and leave plenty of room for the proposed senior high school, and thus have a permanent park for the games. It is proposed to in time issue bonds and erect a senior high school, and then use the present high school building as a junior high school. The Rotary club endorsed the matter and appointed Col. R. P. Smyth, R. B. Sparks and F. M. Butler to co-operate with other local committees to secure the loan of $2,500 for the purpose.

Meade F. Griffin delivered a very interesting address upon conditions leading up to the present crisis in the Near East, between Turkey and the allies, and showed that it was brought about through years of intriguing and scheming of the European nations for trade privileges and political advantages.

Judge Griffin and Jim Anderson were appointed to draft resolutions expressing the sympathy of the club to Judge Kinder and family on account of the death of Ben Smith. Judge Ira Webster, J. Marjan, of Brownsville, was present and made a short talk.

Installs 4500 Egg Hatchery

Kress, Feb. 9.—S. E. Gross is such a believer in poultry business for this section that he is putting in a modern hatchery on his place near town. The hatchery has a 4500 egg capacity and has already been engaged by one of the neighbors to hatch out 1000 eggs, and others in lesser quantities are waiting to be hatched in this successor-to-the-ben.

Mr. Groff started three years ago with two dozen White Leghorns and has sold 4,000 worth of chickens and eggs since that time.

Will Increase Auto Fees

A bill is before the legislature and will likely be adopted, which will increase the auto license fees from more than twice to five times what they are at present—charging for both horsepower and weight of car on an ascending scale. The fees on trucks will be heavy, $250 on a large truck. A 1c a gallon tax on gasoline will also likely prevail. Joy-riding promises to be an expensive luxury.

Building New Residence

J. B. Maxey is building a neat residence on West Tenth Street, near that of Jamie Owens, and when completed will sell it.

WILL SPEK HERE THURSDAY

J. W. RIDGEWAY, DIARY AUTHORITY WILL SPEAK FROM BAND STAND

J. W. Ridgeway, prominent dairy expert, who has been connected with the Mistletoe Creameries, the Dallas fair dairy section, the A. & M. college extension service, will deliver an address on dairying from the band stand in Plainview on Dollar Day, next Thursday afternoon, at 2:30 o'clock. Every farmer and other person at all interested in dairying should hear him.

Dollar Day promises to bring a large crowd to town that day to take advantage of the bargains offered by the merchants and the Country Store drawing, in which one hundred articles will be given away by the merchants to customers who hold lucky tickets. The country store will be held at the band stand at 5 o'clock. The articles to be awarded are on display in the show windows of the Cash Grocery, next to the Third National Bank.

FAVORS SEPARATION OF TAX SOURCES

State Should Raise Revenue From Intangibles and Corporations and Counties By Direct Property Tax

Former State Senator John G. Willacy is state tax commissioner, and is possibly the best posted man in the state on tax matters. He believes that ultimate accomplishment of complete and permanent equalization of the tax burdens may be most readily brought about through the complete abandonment of the ad valorem tax as a source of state revenue and the substitution thereof of a gross receipts tax upon separated tax sources. This would permit local boards of equalization to place renditions at what they pleased without injustice to other sections of the state. The tax commissioner says that permanent enforcement of an equalization rendition of property for ad valorem tax for state support would be more difficult in Texas than in any other state in the union. This state has 254 counties, including almost every variety of soil, climate, agricultural industry, density of population and ratio of urban to rural population. For these reasons, it is obviously much more difficult to enforce an equalized rendition in Texas than in the smaller, more compact, more homogeneous states.

Such a complete separation of taxable sources has been considered several times in the history of Texas, notably during the Sayers administration, when a special tax commission headed by O. B. Colquit made a report upon the tax situation. Tax Commissioner Willacy believes that, if the ad valorem tax as a means of state revenue were abandoned, thereby cutting down certain expenses through fees not charged by local officials for collection of state taxes that the gross receipts tax which would have to be levied against the public service corporations would probably make a total tax burden of less than that at present imposed upon them. At present California is probably the most notable example of this system. Wisconsin, Minnesota, Delaware, Pennsylvania and New York also get their state revenues from separated sources, wholly or largely.

Criminal Cases Next Week

District court will again take up the criminal docket next Monday, and will try the case against Andrew Newman, indicted on charges of having stolen turkeys and chickens near Petersburg, and that against Milton Logan, negro, for bootlegging.

The grand jury resumed its sittings yesterday, after a recess of two weeks.

This week very little business has been transacted, as in each civil case set for trial there was a litigant or witness sick. The jury for this week has been summoned to appear next Monday.

Agnes Cole was given a divorce from Richard W. Cole, also custody of their child.

Lubbock Raises $6,000

Lubbock, Feb. 9.—Interest in the proposed Panhandle-Pecos Valley League at the southern division of its territory is running high.

At a mass meeting of fans held at S'oton Thursday, approximately $6,000 were subscribed with temporary election of officers. At the meeting R. A. DeLong was elected temporary president, and Sam Staggs, secretary. A permanent organization is expected to be formed soon.

The Lubbock committee is busy preparing plans for the season and getting things ready for the Clovis meeting on Wednesday. A large crowd is expected to represent Lubbock and S'oton at the meet.

Cotton in Briscoe County

Pledges of seven thousand acres to be planted in cotton have been secured and a gin will be built at Silverton. F. N. Welch of Lockney is contemplating installing a gin there.

TECH. COLLEGE BECOMES LAW

GOV. NEFF SIGNS BILL—CARRIES $1,002,250—TO HAVE 2,000 ACRES

Austin, Feb. 10.—The bill establishing the Texas Technological College in West Texas, carrying a total appropriation of $1,002,250, became a law at 3:15 p. m. today, when Gov. Neff affixed his signature to the bill and filed it with the state department. The measure passed both houses with sufficient votes to carry the emergency clauses, and became operative immediately after approval by the governor.

The ceremonies in connection with the signing of the bill, which were held in the governor's private office, were attended by Senator W. H. Bledsoe of Lubbock and Representative Chitwood of Sweetwater, the former having sponsored the measure in the senate and the latter in the house; Homer D. Wade of Fort Worth, assistant manager of the West Texas Chamber of Commerce; Charles E. Marsh of Austin, former member of the board of directors of A. & M. College, and Dr. J. W. Cantwell, superintendent of the State Juvenile Training School at Gatesville.

Happy Day for West Texas

Gov. Neff used three pens in the process of signing and approving the bill. One of these he presented to Dr. P. C. Coleman of Colorado City, president of the West Texas A. & M. College Association, organized six years ago, which initiated the movement for a West Texas college. Another was presented to West Texas Chamber of Commerce and the third pen was retained by the governor.

"This is the biggest piece of constructive legislation a Texas legislature has enacted in years," said Mr. Bledsoe, as he thanked and congratulated the Governor for approving the bill.

Mr. Wade said: "This is the happiest day West Texas has seen in a decade."

Mr. Chitwood was also lavish with thanks to the executive, saying "the governor would never regret his action."

The extra $2,500 carried in the appropriation is to pay the expenses of the locating board in examining the various sites to be offered. The locating board is expected to meet in the very near future, since the bill has become law.

It is contemplated that the college shall have approximately 2,000 acres of land, the bill so providing, and that it shall be located in the western part of the state, north of the twenty-ninth parallel and west of the ninety-eighth meridian.

To Teach Technology

Besides the arts and sciences, the school is to teach the full courses in technology and textile engineering. It is to be co-educational and will be a land grant school, that is, have military tactics to conform to the requirements of the Federal act.

Its location is to be made by a majority vote of a board consisting of the chairman of the State Board of Control, at present S. B. Cowell; State Superintendent of Public Instruction, S. M. N. Marrs; president of the University of Texas, Dr. R. E. Vinson; president of the College of Industrial Arts, Professor F. M. Bralley, and the president of the A. & M. College, Dr. W. B. Bizzell.

The first unit of the appropriation becomes available Sept. 1 of this year and is $150,000, to be used for the purpose of purchasing land for the location of the institution. Much of this may be saved by donations by citizens seeking to have the college located in their community, but the law says the board shall not be unduly influenced by such offers, but shall take the best site available, regardless of bonuses.

Under the terms of the law, the college has its own president to be selected by its separate and independent board of nine directors, who are to be appointed by the governor for terms of six years, the terms of three members expiring every two years.

The board of directors are given the power of eminent domain, to acquire land that may be needed for college purposes.

France Fears Big Strike

Duesseldorf, Feb. 12.—Reports that the Germans are organizing a general strike at Herne, not far from Bochum, have led to the dispatch of French tanks to that place.

The Germans are boycotting the forces of occupation throughout the Herne district and the French have been obliged to take over the work of the German police.

The boycott is becoming more and more popular throughout the Ruhr, and the Germans have decided to extend it to Essen.

PLAINVIEW AFTER TECH. COLLEGE

COMMITTEE APPOINTED TO PROMOTE CAMPAIGN FOR LOCATING SCHOOL HERE

Plainview is a candidate for the location of the West Texas Technological College, which has been authorized by the legislature, and which carries an appropriation of more than $1,000,000 for its installation.

A general steering committee has been appointed by the local commercial bodies, composed of A. B. Martin, chairman; E. H. Humphries, W. Holbrook, E. M. Carter and C. A. Pierce. This is a very strong committee, and will have general charge of the campaign which we believe will secure the location of the college for Plainview. This committee will select various sub-committees necessary for the proper handling of the campaign.

Every person in Hale county is enthusiastic relative to securing the college, and count it the greatest thing that could be gotten for the county. We believe such a showing can be made to the locating committee that it will vote to put the institution here, where there is dry farming and irrigated farming, where every species of farm and vegetables in West Texas is grown to the best advantage, where the climate is healthy and the moral surroundings are the very best.

No citizen of the county should in the least way lay down on doing his level best to promote Hale county's interests in this campaign, which will mean much to the Plains.

Near Eastern Situation Improves

Constantinople, Feb. 12.—A distinct improvement in the situation respecting both Smyrna and the peace outlook is reflected in official quarters tonight. It is understood that the Turkish authorities at Smyrna have adopted a more conciliatory tone in their exchange with the commanders of the foreign warships while a similar softening is reported in Angora's communications directly with the allies.

Immediate favorable results are looked for on Ismet Pasha's arrival; it is expected that he will give definite assurances that the peace negotiations have not been ruptured, but deferred, and that the way is open for the adjustment not only of the Smyrna affair, but the resumption of peace parleys.

Grouching Over Wet Weather

The Wolfe City Sun, published in Northeast Texas, last week contained an editorial denouncing the "wet weather grouches" in that section. It continues, "But the severity and longevity of the recent wet spell is liable to make the most patient just a little bit grouchy, especially when the mud sticks as bad as it does in this part of the country."

Thinks Road Will Extend

The Lockney Beacon sees in the purchase of the Quanah, Acme & Pacific railroad by the Frisco, an extension of the line westward from Roaring Springs, up the crockpot to Floydada, Lockney, Plainview, Olton, Farwell and on west, and that this will induce the Santa Fe to build a line from Floydada direct to Fort Worth. So mote it be.

No Federal Funds

The people of Silverton and vicinity are much disappointed because of failure to get federal and state aid on some of the roads which they issued bonds and improved—no money can be gotten out of the new funds and the old funds are exhausted.

THOUSANDS OF RABBITS KILLED

DRIVE'S SOUTH AND EAST OF PLAINVIEW THIN OUT THE BUNNIES

Fully three thousand rabbits were killed in drives south and east of Plainview last week, so Capt. T. J. Tilson informs us. There was a drive near Bellview in which eight or nine hundred rabbits were killed and later another in which four or five hundred were slaughtered, and one in Happy Union community where several hundred were killed; since then another drive has been pulled off near Happy Union. A minor drive or two have also been held. Capt. Tilson says the bunnies have been considerably thinned out, and thus wheat and grass will be saved from their depredations.

Next Friday there will be another drive in the Bellview community, eight miles southeast of Plainview, four miles southwest of Aiken, starting at the Unger farm at 1 o'clock and everybody is invited to join in it.

HAD EXCITING ADVENTURE WITH PANCHO VILLA

Jimmy Caldwell and Friend Took Pictures of General's Ranch And Got Into Trouble

Jimmy Caldwell, who travels for a big stationery concern of the state, was here yesterday, calling upon his customers.

Caldwell and a companion, a photographer of the Fox moving picture news service, had a very exciting adventure with Pancho Villa, the well known former Mexican revolutionary leader, on the Villa ranch near Chihuahua, Mexico, a few months ago.

Caldwell was with the editor of the News on a trip through Old Mexico, and when we got back to Torreon Caldwell and his companion bid us farewell, declaring they were going up to Chihuahua to try to sell Villa several Cletrac tractors (Caldwell being a Cletrac agent at that time.) Caldwell did try to interest Villa in the tractors, and while he was doing so the other fellow was secretly taking camera pictures about the place—despite the fact that Villa had declared if he ever caught anybody taking pictures he would kill him. Finally Villa became suspicious, and caught them with a kodak; he took them into custody and destroyed the camera, but in some way they had secreted the already exposed films, and they were saved and were later shown on the screens in America. Caldwell says things looked very squally for them at one time, but Villa released them and made them get back across the Rio Grande in a hurry.

Ralls Wins Championship

PLAINVIEW HIGH SCHOOL IS DEFEATED IN FINALS BY SCORE OF 29 TO 14

Lubbock Feb. 10.—Ralls high school won the championship of Lubbock district No. 2 here today by defeating Plainview in the finals 29 to 14. In the semi-finals Ralls defeated Lamesa 60 to 18 and Plainview won from Pleasant Valley 19 to 13.

W. E. Lockhart of the West Texas State Normal College was head official. Superintendent W. E. Patty of Plainview presented the silver loving cup to Ralls.

Townsend, Ralls; Peterson, Lamesa; Hones, Pleasant Valley; and Sons of Plainview were the outstanding players of the meet.

Another Cattle County Killing

Raymond Robertson, 16, was shot and instantly killed last night at Paducah, Cattle county. Robertson with four boys had driven into town from the country and stopped at a filling station to get water. It is said that when they started to drive off three shots were fired at the car, one shot taking effect in the back of young Robertson's head. The other boys did not know he was dead for some time.

Billie Hugh, a night watchman, was arrested by the Cattle county sheriff, Robertson, the dead boy, was a member of one of the most prominent Paducah families.

Ships the Most Hogs

The Hale Center American declares that its town shipped the most hogs to its size of any town on the Plains the past eighteen months, having shipped about 225 carloads. That is indeed a great record, though possibly the Abernathy Review will contest the statement that its own was behind Hale Center in shipments.

Plainviewans Lost Contract

Last week at Silverton bids were opened for the improvement of an eight and one-half mile highway, John Burson of that city getting the contract at $23,132.50. Roy Irick of Plainview bid $26,640, and Jordan & Brooks of Plainview, $27,015.

Approves British Debt Plan

Congress has approved the plan for refunding and payment of the British war debt to this government. The debt is to be retired within sixty-five years, with interest. So far England is the only nation that has in the least indicated that it will pay its debts to this country.

PLAINVIEW MAN KILLED IN MINE

CLIFTON C. ESTES DIES IN MINE EXPLOSION WITH 122 OTHERS

Clifton C. Estes, of Plainview was one of the miners who lost their lives in the Phelps-Dodge Corporation coal mine explosion at Dawson, N. M., Thursday, when 122 miners were entombed. His body was recovered the following day.

The daily newspapers gave Estes' home as Plainview, but so far we have not been able to learn anything about him, who he was, or when he lived here.

Up to yesterday 106 of the bodies of the 122 entombed miners had been rescued, and searching crews are burrowing among the debris for the others.

HALE COUNTY TO HAVE AN AGENT

COMMISSIONERS COURT PROVIDES FUNDS FOR COUNTY AGRICULTURAL AGENT

This afternoon the commissioners court created the office of agricultural agent for Hale county, and appropriated $1,000 a year toward his support. The federal and state agricultural departments will furnish $1,600 more, thus giving the agent a salary of $2,600 a year.

The court had before it a petition containing the names of 238 citizens, practically all of whom are farmers, asking that the office be created. Several petitions were out over the county, but had not been returned. A committee of farmers were also before the court this morning, asking that the petition be granted. Mr. Edmonds of the A. & M. college extension bureau was before the court, and after final action was taken he stated that he would be able to get a competent man and have him at work here within two or three weeks.

Amarillo Bids for State Press

Amarillo, Feb. 2.—A strong bid for the convention of the State Press Association will be made by the Board of City Development of Amarillo, which is now forwarding invitations and descriptive literature to members of the association throughout the state.

Amarillo has recently completed a municipal auditorium with a seating capacity of 3,500. The building also contains rooms for committee meetings readings and banquets. A great increase in Amarillo's hotel facilities has put the city in a position to bid for some of the State's largest conventions.

Try to Exonerate Ferguson

During a lull in the state senate Friday, while few senators were in their seats, Senator Parr of Southwest Texas, Senator Burkett of Eastland and another senator or two by a slick trick tried to put through a resolution exonerating Jim Ferguson from impeachment and restoring his citizenship. They seemingly put the resolution through, but there was a scurrying to seats by senators and such a protest that Lieutenant Governor Davidson took the chair from Parr, and the whole matter by a vote was expunged from the record—and Jim remains under sentence.

A Missourian 110 years of age has just died. Why on earth does any one want to live in that state so long for?

It is announced that the legislature will kill the bills proposing a state income tax and a tax on soft drinks, because the government is already imposing too numerous taxes. As the federal income tax is very digging and the people are tired of the "nuisance taxes" on soft drinks, etc., it is safe to say the course of the legislature in these matters will be generally endorsed. Economy and not more taxes should be the slogan of the legislature and congress.

It is said that the pastors of three of the Plainview churches took a part in the Ku Klux "educational" lecture at the court house Thursday night. While we believe in giving everyone liberty of thought and speech, and especially so to ministers of the gospel, our private opinion publicly expressed is that they did not do themselves nor their church influence any benefit by doing so. However, we know of nothing that needs to be opened and closed with prayer more than a Ku Klux meeting.

The Texas senate has passed a resolution which originated in the house, asking for the recognition of the Mexican government by the United States. The Oregon administration has demonstrated ability to control affairs in Mexico and it has also shown a willingness to deal fairly with foreign nations. It is about time that Uncle Sam noticed the republic across the Rio Grande. With much of the world unable to trade fully and freely with us we ought to be doing business with those nations who can.

The bill has been introduced in the legislature looking to the repeal of the free text-book law, and we trust it will be adopted. The News supported the free text-book measure when it was up for adoption several years ago, considering that it would possibly be a good thing for the public schools of the state. But it has been proven we were mistaken—free books is an expensive educational toy. There is really no more reason for the tax payers to furnish free books than clothes and shoes for the school children. It is purely paternalistic, for the parents of the children should buy their school books. Possibly the local districts should provide some fund to provide books for children whose parents are too poor to buy them, but this would not take much money.

Co-Operative Associations

Floydada, Feb. 8.—The Editor News Our attention is called to an article relative to the charter granted the Grain sorghum Association of Texas. The object of the association is the orderly marketing of grain sorghums and not the production and sale of eleven spears by the Texas Farm Bureau Federation.

The associations are as follows: Texas Grain Sorghum, Alpha Hay, Elephant Hays, E. S. Sutton Palmorhea, Texas Cotton Association, Texas Hay Association, Prairie, Farm Bureau Mellon, Farm Bureau Sweet Potato, North Texas Farm Bureau Dairy, Texas Wheat Growers, S. W. Poultry Association, Farm Bureau Onion Association, Farm Bureau Ribbon Cane Association.

We are endeavoring to influence the Staked Plains Turkey Association to affiliate with the Texas Farm Bureau Federation also.

Plainview Is Entertaining

Speaking of Plainview's new slogan "Plainview—the End of the Rainbow," the Lockney Beacon says:

"We are certainly glad to know that Plainview was fortunate in locating this traditional pot of gold. People have been chasing this pot of gold for generations, and at last it has been found at Plainview. How nice to have the distinction of doing something that no other generation has been able to do. A few months ago Jess Adams announced that the lost Garden of Eden had been located around Plainview. Jess located the old bed of the River of Life, and stated that it was the draw near Wayland college. There are unlimited possibilities for such enterprising people as the Plainview folks. A town that can locate the Garden of Eden and the End of the Rainbow in a few brief years apart, is certainly going some. There are yet many ancient mysteries to be unraveled in Hale county."

Revenge

"Willie, if you don't be good I'll lock you in the chicken coop with the chickens."
"You can lock me in there—but I won't lay any eggs."

GUARD JUSTICE IN OUR COURTS

LAWYERS HAD RATHER WIN A CASE THAN LET JUSTICE PREVAIL

Dean John C. Townes of the University of Texas law school says that perjury is getting common and that law is breaking down because the moral fibre of our citizenship is breaking down. He is resigning his deanship so as to go back to direct teaching that he may impress his ideas on the rising generation of young lawyers.

Dean Townes says there was a time when men would rather have their necks broken by the noose than swear to a lie on the witness stand. He says that time has gone and the justice is thwarted by perjured testimony and the efforts of those who would rather win a case than let the truth prevail.

There is truth in what the dean says—much truth. And it is well that an outstanding figure in the legal profession should make the protest and lead the fight. The American Bar Association, at its recent convention in San Francisco, spent much time and thought on the matter of raising the standard of legal ethics and the preparation standards of lawyers. The topic is a vital one.

Dean Townes, by inference, lays the burden of perjury on the witnesses, generally laymen. But he would do well to start right in with the lawyers in his campaign of reformation. Present conditions in the courts of justice exist, not in spite of the legal profession, but mostly because of them. Lawyers have run our courts, dominated our legislatures and congress and built up our system of law and jurisprudence. When they criticize their handiwork they should do some introspective study.

The legal profession is a great and honorable one, in general composed of patriotic, learned and high-minded men. But these men are retained to represent clients, lawsuits and their trials become matters of effort to win and earnest efforts often lead to the psychological state in which one is willing to do "anything to win." The lawyers can do more than any other set of men to change this.

Law is not always justice but humanity is not perfect and law seems to approximate justice so far as it is humanly possible. No other standard than law and justice can prevail in our courts without cutting at the very roots of organized society. We look to the legal profession to lead in the maintenance of law and the administration of justice. Dean Townes is leading a crusade that is needed.—Editorial in Fort Worth Record.

Cemetery is Well Kept

The News wishes to congratulate Sexton Busby and the Cemetery Association upon the manner in which the cemetery is being kept. The main part of the cemetery and the graves are kept clean and neat and the same can be said of the drive ways, shade trees and shrubbery.

The Odd Fellows section, however, is not being kept as well as it should, and that lodge should attend to the matter at once.

The gates have had to be closed and locked on account of several leaving the gates open and also driving across lots instead of keeping in the drive ways, so the Association informs us. This is a great inconvenience to people who go to the cemetery often to have to stop their cars at the gate ways and walk quite a distance. The city council will be asked by the Association to pass an ordinance prohibiting the leaving of gates to the cemetery open or driving anywhere except along the regular drive ways.

Methodist Ladies

A representative nucleus of the Women's Missionary Society met in study session at the church Monday afternoon. Mrs. E. C. Hunter ably conducted a study of Wesley House and Bethlehem House work, as carried on by the Woman's Council in congested centers.

The lesson ended with a resume of the founding and maintenance of the Scortt Bible and Training School of Kansas City.

This plant is the training school for the social service workers, as well as evangelistic helpers for both home and foreign work. Mrs. Henderson, an ex-student, told of her own personal experience while she attended this institution several years ago.

The president, Mrs. Oxford, then called for a short business session in which plans for an Easter bazaar and market were discussed. Motion carried to hold the affair on St. Patrick day, a week before Easter.

In view of the fact that another society will have an Easter bazaar this season, it was decided to devise plans whereby a somewhat different assortment of practical garments and eatables might be sold and avoid an overlapping in the selection of articles for the two bazaars. Mesdames Visor, Jackson and Wilson were appointed as the arrangement committee.

Mrs. Franklin diligently presented her work on the initial subscriptions for the "pledge" to the several ladies present and passed the pledge card. The entire meeting was enthusiastic.—Press superintendent.

District President Federated Women's Clubs Visits Tulia

On Friday evening, Feb. 2nd, Mrs. Carl G. Goodman, of Abbeoth, president of the seventh district of Texas Federation of Women's clubs, was a guest and speaker to the three federated clubs of Tulia, namely Parent Teachers' Association, Civic League and Delphian club.

Various committees from each of the clubs arranged a very interesting program and social entertainment for the occasion. All three clubs express their appreciation to Messrs. Engleman, Crawford, West and Clark, for the beautiful vocal quartet, Miss Tracy a reading, to Mrs. A. R. Hays a vocal solo, and to Mrs. R. L. McMurry for a beautiful piano selection.

Mrs. J. E. Swebston introduced Mrs. Carl Goodman, the speaker of the evening, who held the interest of the audience in explaining and discussing the various topics pertaining to the work she represented.

The close of the program there was a formal reception in the basement by Mrs. Goodman to meet all socially. Delicious punch and wafers were served with Mesdames Stanford, Fielder, and Clennin presiding at the punch bowl.

Much credit is due to the following committees on entertainment: Mesdames, Duke, Noland, Fielder, Clennin, Stanford, Swebston.

A lovely function was tendered Mrs. Goodman in a 6 o'clock dinner party given by Mrs. R. G. Porter to the officers of the Delphian club and Mesdames Tucker and Swebston.

The artistic arrangement of the table with cut flowers, candles, and place cards displayed much effort put forth by the hostess in making the occasion pleasing to all.

After the first course toasts added much zest and humor to the affair. Mrs. W. C. Crawford in a few words expressed appreciation in a toast to the District president. Mrs. Goodman responded in her pleasing manner. Mrs. W. A. Porter then in an original poem toasted the honored guest followed by an original toast "to the Women" by the host.—Tulia Herald.

The West Was Full of Husbands; Those Days Are Gone Forever

A woman of thirty writes me a letter in which she asks if it is true, as she has been told, that there are some parts of the country where there is a more plentiful supply of males marriageably inclined than in others, and if so, where these places are located.

Alas, sister, I fear that you have been misinformed. If there is an Elysium for the bachelor maid where eligible men wait around with wedding rings in their waistcoat pockets, I know not its whereabouts. Furthermore it is my firm conviction that if there were any such Promised Land, tourists agencies would have presented its opportunities afar, and the railroads would be running excursion trains to it for women only.

There was a time when the Far West was the happy hunting ground for ladies desiring mates, and when any woman who wasn't hump-backed or cross-eyed could count on bringing down a husband at the first shot, but those good old days belong to the past. Nowadays, the feminine pot-hunter has overrun the West, and the western man has gotten to be a wary bird that is as hard to capture as the eastern species.

East is West, and North and South are both Main streets so far as matrimony is concerned. "Nothing doing," is the sad slogan of the spinster the world over. Yet the census report shows that as many boy babies are born every year as there are girl babies, and that most of these live to maturity, and that there are plenty of men to go around as husbands, if only they would go around.

What, then, shall the woman do who desires to annex a mate? Shall she sit on the anxious bench, and twiddle her thumbs and wait patiently on the off chance that some man will come along and happen to notice her, and ask her to accompany him to the altar? Or shall be up and doing, and get busy on the husband-hunting job herself?

Common sense suggests the latter course.

In matrimony, as elsewhere, it is the go-getters who inherit the earth, and while it is true every man likes to believe that his wife is a shy retiring violet whose beauty and fragrance only his keen eyes discovered, it is observable that no man ever sees the violet and doesn't implant itself so conspicuously in his pathway that he falls over it.

This being the case, to what especial spot shall Violet transplant herself? To attempt to find any particular place where there is a surplus of eligible men anxious to wed is as absurd as to seek the pot of gold at the end of the rainbow. It is a mythical paradise that doesn't exist in real life. Probably one city, or village, or country neighborhood offers as many matrimonial opportunities as another.

Only there is this to be said: Familiarity breeds indifference. The men whom a woman has known from childhood, are who are as accustomed to her as they are to their own sisters, have gotten to the point where she can no more raise a thrill in their breasts than their grandmothers can.

They take her good looks and her charm for granted. They are so used to her entertaining them, and amusing them, and sympathizing with them, and putting new heart and courage into them, that they do not realize how necessary she is to them. No one of them thinks of asking her to marry him, but they fall easy victims to some strange girl who comes along and who hasn't half of her beauty or worth.

Men like new toys, and wise is the woman who recognizes this, and who finding the home market barren, packs up her little bag of tricks and starts out to some place where she will be a novelty and where men will take note of what wonderful eyes that new girl has and how well she dances, and what a swell dresser she is.

If you will think it over you will recall that not many girls ever marry in the old home town, which is, perhaps, the reason that women are our greatest little travelers.

Another hint to the wise is conveyed in the fact that there are more rich old maids than poor ones. The upper strata of society is an Eden where the Adams are mostly paunchy grandpas who have retired from business, or callow collegians who have not yet begun to cut their wisdom teeth on a wedding ring. Both are poor matrimonial timber.

But the business world is full of eligibles, and the sport is fine.

True these men no more intend to marry than their brethren do, and they are able to protect themselves against the machinations of the society girl. She can only stalk down the timid deer as far as his office door, and when he retires behind that defense she is baffled and helpless.

It is there that the business girl has her innings. She is on the inside of the office door, and can snare her victim at leisure. She can study his habits, his tastes, his peculiarities and so spin her web of fascinations about him that he cannot even struggle to escape.

Undoubtedly the business world is the best matrimonial preserve today, but whether a woman bags her game or not depends upon her marksmanship. Some women cap ring the wedding bells four times running. Others couldn't hit a barn door, or a widower.—Dorothy Dix.

Did Couple Get Married

This morning we received an unsigned letter telling of the marriage of a boy and girl, members of prominent country families. Same is not published, as we don't know whether it is true or not.

The other day the couple applied to the county clerk here for a license, but the mother of one of the parties had already notified him not to issue same, on account of them being under the legal age. It may be that they got the license in another county and were married.

POOR LUMBER IS COSTLY

FIRST: Because extra carpenter labor is required to correct the faults in its manufacture—to prepare it for its place in the building.

SECOND: There is more "waste."

THIRD: If the lumber is poor the resulting structure is poor: It is not possible that a building be better than the material with which it is built.

FOURTH: A house may remain sound for 50 years—or go to pieces in 10 years—it all depends on the way it is built. That is why we urge the importance of building with KNOWN lumber; lumber that bears the manufacturers trade-mark. Give lumber the attention you give clothing, hats or shoes.

A nationally known trade-marked product such as Long-Bell lumber is safe, dependable material of KNOWN worth.

God Made Marse Robert

Down at the Confederate home at Austin, several years ago, the old war veterans were discussing the Darwinian theory of man's descent from the monkey. The old fellows argued pro and con and some of them were getting a little heated in some of their arguments. Finally one old battle-scarred fellow who had not been saying anything spoke up. He was from Virginia and had followed General Lee for four long years. He said: "Well, boys, the rest of us may have descended from the monkeys, but none less than God Almighty could have made such a man as Marse Robert." The anti-monkey crowd had won.

Lincoln's Double Lives In Nevada

Judge Chas. E. Bull, county judge at Reno, Nev., is not only accounted "the man who looks most like Lincoln," but is exactly Lincoln's height and weight, six foot four, 190 pounds, and was born in a log cabin in February. As a youth in Texas he shot deer, turkey, split rails and excelled at wrestling and frontier sports. He has been cowboy, rancher, miner and traveling salesman. Since locating in Nevada in 1913 he has been in public life. He has never impersonated the character of the great emancipator except for government drives or in national holiday parades.

It Speaks!

On March 10, 1876, in a noisy machine shop at Boston, the telephone was born. Alexander Graham Bell, the young teacher of deaf mutes, had dedicated his life to restoring the precious gift of voice to his pupils. During his experiments he discovered a new principle of sound transmission which brought the hope that some day men might hear each other's voices though separated by hundreds of miles. That dream has come true. Today you may send your voice—you—to anyone anywhere in the United States by Long Distance telephone. It will carry you to your family and friends; it will bring them to you. Ask the Long Distance operator about Station to Station calls, particularly the low rates prevailing after 8:30 p. m.

There is a great deal of lagrippe and pneumonia prevalent in Lockney. Some call it flu but the doctors say it is the grippe. In some homes practically all the family are down with grippe, some having pneumonia. This country has more or less grippe in the winter, but it is thought the dry warm winter has made it worse. The Plains country is not as hard hit as other sections of the state. In Collins and Grayson counties and all North Texas fully fifty per cent of the people are sick with grippe, flu and pneumonia.—Bacon.

A Rare Event for Panhandle Folks
The Panhandle Music Festival which will be staged at Amarillo's big new municipal auditorium, April 9th to 14th, 1923, will be by far the greatest musical event this country has ever seen. This festival is being staged by Emil F. Myers of the Amarillo College of Music, who has staged six festivals in Amarillo before, but never one which approached the pretensions of this one.

The program will be as follows:

He was working at the top of a 14 foot pole when the line broke and jerked him off the ladder. He fell on his hip causing a fracture. It will be several days before he will be able to get around.
Miss Eunice Page and Brittie Blackenship spent last week end in Lubbock.
We learn that the little son of John Welch is quite sick with flu and pneumonia.
We are glad to learn Oran Robinson who has had typhoid fever is on the convalescent list.
Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Webb, from near Petersburg, visited in the home of J. J. Jenkins last Friday.
Mr. and Mrs. S. P. Ellis took dinner in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Fullingim last Sunday.
Miss Nora Tarry spent last week end with Miss Rose Bryan.

CHURCHES

St Mark's Episcopal Church
St. Mark's Episcopal church, Columbia street between 7th and 8th streets. Rev. E. H. J. Andrews, rector.
Ash Wednesday (Feb. 14)—Holy communion 10 a. m.; evening service 7:30 p. m.; Friday, service 4 p. m. All are cordially invited.

Services at the Baptist Church
There were 377 in Sunday school. Mr. Hatchell and his Junior choir furnished music.
The pastor was absent on account of sickness and Dr. E. B. Atwood preached both morning and night. Wilma Bailey played the offertory and Mr. Clement sang at the morning service. There were three additions to the church. Large attendance is reported at both services.
The pastor will preach next Sunday 11 a. m. on "Do the Scriptures Authorize the Democratic Form of Church Government," and at 7:30 p. m., "The Desecration of the Sabbath." Special music will be provided for both hours. You are invited, come and bring your friends.
HARLAN J. MATTHEWS, Pastor.

LOCKNEY
Feb. 9.—Sunday afternoon at the study of the Methodist church, Rev. Huckabee, pastor officiating. Mr. C. F. Ramsey and Mrs. Nannie Hammonds were united in marriage.
Mrs. Hugh Earthman will open a stock of millinery in the up stairs of the Stuart Hardware Co. Mrs. Earthman will have associated with her Mrs. Nelson of Floydada.
D. C. Lowe, who until the past few months, has been making his home at San Jon, N. M., was a business visitor in Floydada last Friday.
Alex Norris has completed a nice 5-room residence for W. H. Wingo in the Lone Star community, and also recently completed a nice home in the same community for E. H. Rankin.
C. E. Wells is going to build a nice home on his farm west of town. He will rebuild where he recently lost his home by fire. He will build a 6-room house, with porches and all modern conveniences.
There is a great deal of lagrippe and pneumonia prevalent in Lockney. Some call it flu but the doctors say it is the grippe. In some homes practically all the family are down with grippe, some having pneumonia. This country has more or less grippe in the winter, but it is thought the dry warm winter has made it worse. The Plains country is not as hard hit as other sections of the state. In Collins and Grayson counties and all North Texas fully fifty per cent of the people are sick with grippe, flu and pneumonia.—Bacon.

A Rare Event for Panhandle Folks
The Panhandle Music Festival which will be staged at Amarillo's big new municipal auditorium, April 9th to 14th, 1923, will be by far the greatest musical event this country has ever seen. Four of the world's greatest artists, two big choral nights, one of which will assemble singers from many Panhandle towns, musical contests for which attractive prizes will be given to talent programs will be the main features of the event.
This festival is being staged by Emil F. Myers of the Amarillo College of Music, who has staged six festivals in Amarillo before, but never one which approached the pretensions of this one.
All Panhandle musicians are invited to enter the contests and the "Rose Maiden" choruses, where every one can be organized in their home town. Many Panhandle choruses will unite in the singing of the "Rose Maiden" on Wednesday night, April 11th.
The program will be as follows:
April 9th—Schumann-Heink.
April 10th—An opera by the Harmony Club (Matinee) Alberto Salvi (at night).
April 11th—The Rose Maiden, by Coven, many choruses uniting.
April 12th—Anna Case. Assisted Middleton (at night).
Philharmonic club, (matinee) Arthur Middleton.
April 13th—Musical, program by the Amarillo Choral Society.
April 14th—The "Elijah" and oratorio by Mendelssohn. The Amarillo Festival chorus, Arthur Middleton in the title role.

Lubbock People In Accident
A Ford car occupied by Misses Leona Burns and Beulah Dixon, teachers in the Lubbock primary school, and Teek and Robert Burns, school boys, ran off the highway leading through the canyon east of the city late Tuesday afternoon, capsized and pinned the occupants beneath it. Miss Dixon soon released herself from the wreck and in lifting the car to release her three companions sprained her right shoulder, but was otherwise uninjured. Teek Burns suffered a broken bone in his left wrist and Robert Burns received internal injuries which have been pronounced minor by physicians. Miss Burns was not hurt, but was very nervous for several hours after the accident.—Lubbock Avalanche.

"Let's Pass Prosperity Around" Business is an endless chain, each link is bound together by the business men of your community. Do not be a pessimist, not necessarily an optimist, but be a Pep-tomist. If I spend my dollars out of Plainview, and you spend your dollars out of Plainview, and all the people spend their dollars out of Plainview, what in the world will become of Plainview? Think about it.

We are for progress; we are for education; we are for communal advancement; let's keep our money at home. Let us make 1923 a better and more prosperous year than 1922. It can be done if all will co-operate in the promotion and upbuilding of our trade territory.—Reporter, Plainview Retail Merchants' Credit Association.

COMMUNITY CLUB IS OPENED AT IDOLOU

Lubbock County Club House Dedicated With Appropriate Ceremonies—Cost $10,000

Lubbock, Feb. 12.—The County Community Club House at Idalou was appropriately dedicated Friday evening with a well planned program.

Lubbock county was the first county to take advantage of the law to vote a county tax for the establishing of county parks and buildings. The county commissioners of Lubbock county have established county parks at Idalou, Slaton, Shallowwater and Lubbock.

The park at Idalou which is dedicated last night is less than one half mile from the business section and at the rate Idalou is growing this park will soon be in the heart of their little city. On the park site the county commissioners have built a county community club house of brick and tile costing $10,000. It is 50 by 80 feet seated with opera chairs. Equipped with stage and dressing rooms, will seat about eight hundred people.

The park has six acres of ground well set with trees planted by a landscape gardener and has a good irrigation well and pumping plant.

At the invitation of Judge P. E. Brown and County Commissioner B. N. Wheeler, of the Idalou district the Hon. Percy Spencer, Mayor of Lubbock and L. T. Martin, secretary-manager of the Lubbock Chamber of Commerce were speakers at the dedication.

County Judge P. E. Brown made the address dedicating the park and buildings to the people of Idalou. Rev. Mc Kinney of Slaton, Texas, was in the audience and responded with a extemporaneous talk. B. N. Wheeler, Commissioner from that district was master of ceremonies. The Lorenzo band, and a male quartet of Idalou furnished the music.

The club house was filled to capacity, over one thousand people being present.

YE BUM PLAINVIEW POET

We have received a bunch of poems, unsigned, relative to Plainview. Guess the "poet" was afraid to let his identity be known for fear of getting mobbed, and what's worse, he threatens to send in some more poems if we print these. We will print this one, with a hope of finally catching and killing him:

LISTEN.
If Wayland Boulevard were paved;
you see
It would make this berg a better town,
by Gee!
Of course I'm not knocking against the town.
But that street is surely up and down.
No. 2
Well, Plainview's puttin' up some more lights. Gosh!
They sure will help when there comes a gosh.
When everthing's fixed up first
I hope this town'll be first in the state. —Ye Citizen.

DODGE BROTHERS BUSINESS SEDAN

Dodge Brothers, with equal aptness, could have named it the Family Sedan.

In the first place, it is big and roomy—a five-passenger car that will really seat five adults in comfort. There is no space wasted on superfluous adornments. Every inch of body and chassis is put to actual use.

There are no delicate cloth furnishings to be soiled by the children. The seats are upholstered in durable and attractive blue Spanish leather.

There is no sensitive varnish to be easily scratched or finger-spotted. The body is steel-built—a new principle in Sedan design—making it possible to finish the exterior in Dodge Brothers oven-baked enamel, the most durable finish known.

The rear seat furnishings come out—instantly converting the rear section into a spacious carrying compartment—handy for carrying trunks, boxes and household luggage of all sorts.

Children can romp and play to their hearts' content in this car, and when cleaning time comes, you can turn the hose on it—inside and out.
