

Talented singer helps promote 'Up with People' in Big Spring

By EILEEN MCGUIRE "Up with People" is a cultural experience," says Karen Isaac, one of 95 students who will bring the experience to a Big Spring audience May 8. Miss Isaac, 18, of Littleton, Colo., arrived in Big Spring Tuesday to get acquainted with the area, help promote the show, and prepare the way for fellow cast members who will join her May 6.

"Up with People," she explained, is an international, non-profit organization begun in 1965 and incorporated in 1968. The organization consists of five different groups of about 100 students who take a year out of their education to travel and learn about different cultures.

Nearing the end of her year's tour, begun last July, Miss Isaac said "I've grown so much! I've learned about people throughout the United States. I've learned to be flexible in any situation and I'm more confident in myself and in what I'm doing."

The show has taken the talented Miss Isaac, who will sing and dance in the Big Spring performance, through the Southwest and Mexico. In mid-May, her group will be in Argentina for three weeks, finishing the year's tour in mid-June.

"We interview interested students after each show," she said, adding that musical and dancing abilities are not required for joining 'Up with People.'"

A high school diploma, a pleasant personality and the ability to feel comfortable with all kinds of people are the qualities that 'Up with People' looks for.

"We live with families wherever we go so we have to feel comfortable talking with people," she said.

After an initial training period of four weeks, cast members work 12 hours a day, six days a week doing as many as a dozen shows a week, some paying and some non-paying.

"It's a lot of work," she said, "but very, very rewarding."

The interviews, which will be conducted following the Big Spring performance, consist of about 20 minutes of cast members talking to the students. Dancing, singing and instrumental skills are welcome, but not necessary.

"Besides our paying shows, we do performances for hospitals, mental institutions, schools for the deaf, high schools and other organizations."

An average week, she said, might include two public performances and ten non-paid performances.

The daughter of Calvin and Loretta Isaac of Littleton, Colo., Miss Isaac has two brothers, David, 17, and John, 13. She plans to enter the University of Colorado at Boulder in the fall where she will prepare for a career in public relations, the foundation of which has already been shaped through her experiences as an 'Up with People' representative and performer.

In her spare time, Miss Isaac said "I love to sing." Her many interests also include piano playing, snow skiing and embroidery.

Tickets to the 8 p.m., May 8 performance of 'Up with People' will be on sale soon at the Big Spring Herald and at the box office of the Dorothy Garrett Coliseum for $3.50 and $5.

Storms, flooding prevail over nation

By the Associated Press A cold front brought thunderstorms today to the western half of the Dakotas and eastern Montana.

Storms again dampened South Texas but have eased up in the southeast section of the state which received as much as 8 inches of rain Wednesday.

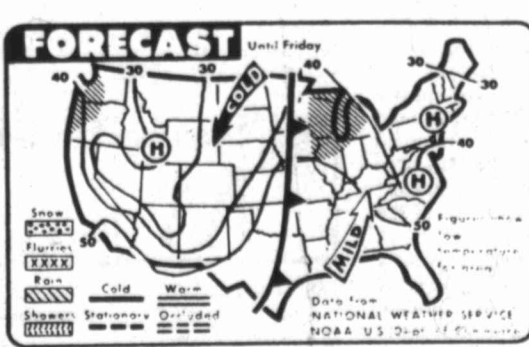

Residents of south central Mississippi braced for more flooding as the swollen Pearl River churned toward the Gulf of Mexico. Some 17,000 persons in Jackson, Miss., were still homeless following three days of flooding.

Damage estimates were as high as $500 million. In Alabama, the overflowing Tombigea and Alabama sent more than 3,000 persons in Selma and Demopolis to the homes of friends.

Chicago-to-Laredo train will operate daily beginning June 15

CHICAGO (AP) - The Chicago-to-Laredo, Texas passenger train - the Inter-American - will operate daily beginning June 15, Amtrak has announced. The train has been operating on a three-day-a-week schedule in each direction. Amtrak said the change was designed to handle heavy vacation traffic. The Inter-American will be cut back to three-a-day-a-week service the day after Labor Day, Amtrak said. The train stops in Pontiac, Bloomington and Springfield in Illinois. Other major stops include St. Louis, Little Rock, Dallas-Fort Worth, Austin and San Antonio. The Inter-American posted the largest ridership gain of any long-distance train in the nation in January - 40 percent. For the first four months of the fiscal year, the train showed an increase of 22 percent in ridership, compared with a year earlier, Amtrak said.

Billy to be released

AMERICUS, Ga. (AP) — Billy Carter is headed for another bar this weekend, but when he belies up this time it'll be for a Coke, according to his doctor.
Dr. Paul Brown Jr. said Wednesday the president's brother is allowed to spend weekends away from the hospital where he is being treated for alcoholism.

"When I called him late last week, he sounded in real good spirits," said Brown. "He indicated he is not going back to drinking when he gets out of the hospital."

"He said we'd go to a country bar and gallivant, but I could drink beer...he'd stick to Coke."

Weicker wants decision

HARTFORD, Conn. (AP) — Sen. Lowell Weicker wants the Supreme Court to decide if his foreign birth disqualifies him from running for president.
The Connecticut Republican told a state Capitol news conference Wednesday he hopes for an early court test and a Supreme Court ruling on the question. He was born in Paris, although his parents were American citizens.

There has never been a test of the exact meaning of the constitutional provision banning foreign-born presidents.
Weicker said he hoped his status as a presidential contender would soon be challenged, either by the Federal Elections Commission or the secretary of the state in one of the states where he plans a primary. He said he wants the issue cleared up once and for all.

Flooding relentless

JACKSON, Miss. (AP) — Downstream residents looked for higher ground today as the rampaging Pearl River moved relentlessly toward the Gulf of Mexico after causing an estimated half billion dollars damage to the state's capital city and leaving some 17,000 persons homeless.

"We've still got a serious situation here," Viva Polk, a spokeswoman for the city of Jackson, said Wednesday. "Our homes and businesses are still flooded, we've got thousands still out of their homes and we're having to conserve our drinking water and electricity because of damage to equipment."

Meanwhile, in Alabama, the bulging Alabama and Tombigee rivers sent many persons living near their banks packing to the homes of friends, relatives or Red Cross shelters. President Carter declared the state a major disaster area late Wednesday.

And in Southeast Texas, hundreds of residents chased from their homes in Conroe faced the prospect of more flooding today after a stubborn thunderstorm poured more than 8 inches of rain on the area Wednesday, inundating schools, houses, businesses and highways.

Forty miles downstream from Jackson, tiny Georgetown lay deserted Wednesday as the Pearl advanced. A spokesman for Mississippi Power and Electric Co. said the flooding had cut electrical power to about 160 customers in the community, and telephone connections into the town were sporadic Wednesday night.

Farther south in Columbia, Miss., Marion County Civil Defense Director Jim Thornhill said 1,500 persons had fled their homes in the face of record floodwaters.

"Everything is cool as a cucumber in Columbia. Now we're just waiting for it to happen," said Thornhill. "We're sitting back and waiting for the inevitable."

A crest of 27.5 feet is expected Saturday at Columbia, and the river will probably peak at 34.5 feet at Monticello the same day.

"The rising water — it has stopped," Jackson Mayor Dale Danks said Wednesday after the Pearl began dropping from its record crest of 42.25 feet. By 9 p.m., it had fallen to 41.4 feet and was still going down.

But hundreds of homeowners still were kept from their ruined houses in Jackson as the waters began slowly to recede. Downtown Jackson, where pumps whined behind sandbag levees to keep water out of the central telephone company building, remained off limits to all but persons providing essential services.

Interstate 55, the major north-south route between Memphis and New Orleans, remained closed as flood-water covered lanes in spots.

Some 200 persons were lodged at a Red Cross shelter in Selma, where the Alabama crested Wednesday at 55.34 feet, 10 feet above flood stage, and began to recede. About 300 others took refuge at the homes of family or friends, officials said.

At Demopolis, the Tombigbee rose to 72.2 feet, but the Army Corps of Engineers was still predicting a crest of between 73 and 74 feet before today.

MARVIN AND THE MRS. — Actor Lee Marvin walks with his wife, Pamela, at the Kennedy Airport in New York after the actor's arrival Wednesday.

VICTORIOUS — Michelle Triola Marvin clutches her poodle, Leeboo, during a victory celebration in Los Angeles Wednesday.

Courts awards six percent

Both Marvins claim victory

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Corks popped and champagne flowed as Michelle Triola Marvin celebrated the $104,000 she won from Lee Marvin, while the actor claimed he won "on all counts" the suit his former lover filed against him.

Miss Marvin and her lawyer, Marvin Mitchelson, toasted at a party what they said was a triumph in her suit to win $1.8 million, an estimated half share of Marvin's earnings during the time she lived with the actor.

A beaming Miss Marvin arrived at the party with her poodle, a present from Marvin during the time they lived together.

Miss Marvin's friends, other attorneys and members of the press were invited to Mitchelson's palatial office for the party.

Although the Superior Court award was only 6 per cent of what she had sought, Miss Marvin said a larger sum would surely have been appealed by the actor.

"If I had won all of Lee's worldly goods, I'd probably be in court until I was 80," Miss Marvin said several hours after Judge Arthur Marshall ruled Wednesday in the landmark case.

Citing the relatively minimal award, attorneys for both sides said it was unlikely they would appeal.

"I think it's sensational," Marvin said of the decision. "I couldn't have hoped for more... We won on all counts."

As he left his Tucson, Ariz., home to visit his wife's family in New York, Marvin reflected on the trial's aftermath.

"All this has done for me is make me more famous than acting, which is a sad commentary because I want to be known as a fine actor," he said.

Arriving at New York's Kennedy Airport, Marvin said, "On every one of their claims they were defeated. I don't know how you can do that in any court under any circumstances."

He said the settlement Miss Marvin received was "the same thing I agreed to a long time ago" and was "a total defeat for them."

Miss Marvin, 46, called the ruling a victory for women's rights and predicted others would benefit from her legal battle.

She said she hesitated to become involved with any man during the trial because "I wouldn't want anyone to have to go through this with me."

She added, "I'm ready for marriage now."

But the former showgirl said she's learned to be cautious about love affairs. "I think if a man wants to leave a toothbrush at my house, he can bloody well marry me," she said. "Enough is enough."

Marshall ordered Marvin, 55, to pay his former lover the equivalent of the highest salary she earned during her days as a cabaret singer — $1,000 a week for two years.

With this help "for rehabilitation purposes," he said, she could find a new career and become a woman of independent means.

"...A return of plaintiff to a career as singer is doubtful," the judge noted.

Miss Marvin, who is collecting unemployment insurance, said she would like to work in TV production at one of the major networks.

"I'm going to try to put this behind me and go on living," she said.

She spent seven years in court fighting for compensation for six years as Marvin's housekeeper, companion and cook from 1964 to 1970.

The judge said she had been compensated with glamorous travel, clothes, fur and cars while she lived with Marvin and moved with Marvin in Hollywood's inner circle of "screen stars and stage aeries."

And Marshall rejected the premise that a contract existed between the two to share property acquired during their liaison.

"The court in equity awards plaintiff $104,000 for rehabilitation purposes so that she may have the economic means to rehabilitate herself and to earn new, employable skills... and so that she may return from her status as companion of a motion picture star to a separate, independent but perhaps more prosaic existence."

Democrat praises Clements

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — A Democratic senator shouted the praises of Republican Gov. Bill Clements on Wednesday in protesting a bill that would authorize larger cotton trailers on Texas highways.

Sen. A.R. Schwartz, D-Galveston, noted Clements had vetoed a ratemaking bill Monday favored by the trucking industry, and said, "The lobby has not yet got a grip on the governor of Texas."

The cotton trailer bill would allow trailers or modules to be lengthened from 45 feet to 48 feet and to increase loads by 2,000 pounds per axle.

Debate broke off before the Senate voted on Sen. Raul Longoria's bill so senators could dine on Jewish specialties, such as matzo balls and bagels, provided by Schwartz.

The bill was set for further debate at 11:15 a.m. today.

"This governor might save the people of Texas $1.5 million by vetoing this bill," said Schwartz. "The veto enhances my respect for Gov. Clements... on free enterprise issues, he continues to be right and to do what he thinks is right."

Schwartz said, according to the state highway department, the larger loads will increase road wear 25 per cent to 40 per cent.

"This will take 6,000 old-type cotton trailers off our roads," said Longoria, D-Edinburg. "Cotton gins will operate trucks pulling two and three modules which will take the place of large numbers of trailers."

"You will have less trailers wobbling all over our highways from one side to the other, and highways will be safer," Longoria added.

Sen. Grant Jones, D-Abilene, was successful in attaching an amendment stating that anyone operating the larger trailers would be liable to the state for any "identifiable" road damage.

Debtor's prison in New Jersey now dank dungeon for tourists

MOUNT HOLLY, N.J. (AP) — If you have not yet paid your income tax and feel nervous, go visit Nick Kurti. You will feel better.

"They used to toss people in here who owed somebody as little as one dollar," Kurti said. "Nowadays, with credit cards and all, who could escape? I can't conceive of a worse fate."

Kurti leads the tourist tours at one of the last remaining debtors' prisons in the land, and his conception is accurate.

It is a wretched place: dank stone walls 20 inches thick, ugly old iron bars, thick oaken door with a foot-long key. A dungeon.

It was designed in 1810 by Victor Hugo — no, according to the brochure, by a Philadelphia architect named Robert Mills — and was the most elegant penal institution, in the current designation, of its day. Now it is on the National Historic Register. A grand slammer.

The horror is that it served as the Burlington County jail from that nostalgic era until just 14 years ago. Unchanged except for the addition of bare light bulbs and equally elaborate plumbing, it rendered 155 years of continuous service to the family of man.

Its alumni association numbers in the thousands.

It includes an insignificant draftee at nearby Ft. Dix, Albert DeSalvo, who went on to become the Boston Strangler, and it includes Doc Jones, who hated to see the old lockup go out of business.

"Everybody knew Doc Jones," Nick Kurti said. "He used to hang around the river at Florence, where I grew up. He slept here and there, and every winter the poor old guy did something to get himself put in jail. He had no place else to go.

"I caught some tourists chipping at the peeling paint in one of the cells. They almost erased where Doc Jones had scratched his name. I stopped them just in time."

Nick Kurti, 59, retired from his job at a rope and cable manufacturing firm 10 years ago, after three heart attacks. The job as assistant curator at the debtors' prison museum, he says, was literally just what the doctor ordered.

It gives him time to interest himself by idly poring over yellowing jail registers, discovering who has dwelt in these ancient walls, and why.

"I do like to chat with the old timers who drop by. They tell me things about this place that aren't in the brochure."

"For instance, we had one sheriff who dealt with troublemakers by making it easy for them to escape. The sheriff would wait for him on the other side of the wall, catch him, and send him off to the state penitentiary for jailbreaking."

If the most illustrious inmate of the Burlington County jail tried to bust out, it has escaped notice. It is known only that he did not like the joint.

That would be James Wilson, who did a stretch in a debtor's cell until he could come up with $300 owed to one Gatz, of Philadelphia, whom Wilson's son finally paid off.

MR. AND MRS. W.D. BERRY

Celebration will honor Berrys

Mr. and Mrs. W.D. Berry, 106 Canyon Drive, will celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary Saturday in the Mirror Room of the Elks Lodge, 601 Marcy from 3 to 6 p.m.

The anniversary party is hosted by the children and two grandchildren.

Berry met Ima Allen in Abilene where both of them worked for Southwestern Bell Telephone Company. She was transferred to Big Spring.

The couple married April 2, 1929 in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G.H. Hayward, Big Spring, sister of Mrs. Berry, by Rev. Bob Hurd, pastor of the First Baptist Church.

Mrs. Berry was born in Waco Nov. 6, 1908. She worked for (S.W.) Bell Telephone Company for six years, then for W.H. Horton as an accountant for 25 years. She retired in June, 1973.

Berry worked for (S.W.) Bell Telephone Company 47 years and 10 months, retiring Nov. 20, 1973. He served as Civil Defense Director and Coordinator, and past exalted ruler of the Elks.

The Berrys are members of the First Baptist Church. Two children were born to them, Harold David of Lubbock, and John L. Berry of Arlington. They have seven grandchildren and three great-grandchildren.

The family cordially invites all friends to attend.

Club elects officers

Members of the Child Study Club met April 11 at the Dora Roberts Community Center with Laura Mae Pollard and Barbara Donelson serving as hostesses.

New officers elected were Janet Wolfe, president; Helen West, vice president; Mrs. Pollard, secretary; Nelda Cruson, treasurer; Linda Walker, librarian; and Linda Henry, parliamentarian.

The program was presented by Kayla Gaskins who spoke on her trip to Poland. Her mother, Laverne Gaskins, informed the child study members of her involvement in 4-H.

The next meeting will be held May 9 in the home of Sandy Fryar. Members will enjoy a noon luncheon and new officers will be installed by Mrs. Clyde Angel who will also review a book by Erna Bombeck, "Life Is Just A Bowl of Cherries."

This will be the club's final meeting of the year.

Mrs. Ditmore, expectant mother, weathers ravaging tornado alone

By ROBBIE CROW
Family News Editor

"I only hope that if Big Spring ever suffers such a disaster, the city reacts as effectively and quickly as they did in Wichita Falls," stated Mrs. Hilliard Ditmore upon returning from the devastated tornado-stricken town, where her son and daughter-in-law are picking up the pieces left of their home.

Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard Ditmore, 2807 Lawrence, didn't hear about the Wichita tornado until 8 p.m. (two hours after the tornado) that evening on the news.

It wasn't until 8 a.m. the next morning word was received concerning the safety of James and Carol Ditmore and their unborn child.

"After we learned of the tornado on the news, my husband and I and Carol's parents, Mr. and Mrs. David Newton of Coahoma, met on the highway to wait together," explained Mrs. Ditmore remembering the hours of anxiety.

"What was strange," she continued, "was that I thought to bring sandwiches, and Mrs. Newton thought to bring water. Together, we managed to bring what was needed."

Both families tried all night using every available way possible, to find out information concerning their children including ham radios.

Mrs. Ditmore revealed that she never really feared they were hurt. "Both James and Carol are pretty level-headed and I felt they would know what to do for protection. We've also lived in a few towns frequented by tornado threats, including Lawton, Okla., and Lubbock, so we have a healthy respect for tornadoes.

Carol was alone in the house and 8½ months pregnant at the time death and destruction made its path through the city.

Her husband, employed by Welex, was in another town working at the time.

"Carol was listening to the radio for updated reports about the tornado, but when the electricity went off, she had no way of knowing how far away it was," told Mrs. Ditmore.

The clock on the wall stopped at 6:17 p.m.

The mother-to-be positioned herself in the center of the house between a wall and a dresser and waited there until it was over. According to Mrs. Ditmore, her daughter-in-law recalled feeling the suction of the tornado as it went over the house. When it had passed, she looked up and could see that everything around her was totally destroyed. She suffered only bruises.

Upon returning home from work, James could not get within three blocks of his home for all the debris strung out all over numerous streets and neighborhoods.

The only thing in the house "that wasn't touched," remembers the Big Spring resident, "was a bookcase. It was still in the same position."

The couple had recently moved in an apartment complex in Wichita Falls from Big Spring two weeks after Christmas.

DISASTROUS REALIZATION — Mr. and Mrs. Hilliard Ditmore of Big Spring and Mr. and Mrs. David Newton of Coahoma, anxiously awaited word from their children, Mr. and Mrs. James Ditmore, after learning of the destructive tornado on the news. Here, Mrs. Ditmore explained her feelings and expressed how grateful she was that her son and daughter-in-law as well as unborn-grandchild were not hurt in the storm.

tornado, they had bought a house unknown to them that it would be flattened before they had a chance to make the second payment.

Although their new home was almost a total loss, they drove past the apartment complex where the couple had previously resided.

In the words of Mrs. Ditmore, "it looked like somebody had taken a broom and just swept it off the face of the earth."

There is, however, an enlightening side at the Wichita Falls scene of disaster.

"The attitude of the people there now is unbelievable. Everyone is helping everyone with fantastic organization and unity."

Mrs. Ditmore pointed out, however, that all those she came in contact with while she and her husband were in Wichita Falls helping their son and daughter-in-law salvage whatever was salvageable, were Christians.

"I'm not too sure how the others are reacting to such a disaster without that to fall back on."

The young couple have received most of their help from the Edgemere Church of Christ there. A total of 37 families from the church were affected by the destruction although they suffered no fatalities. Two to three families are now living in each of the homes left standing.

They have received help also from the Red Cross, and several area Big Spring churches including the 14th and Main Church of Christ, and the Sterling City Church of Christ.

"Right now, more than anything else," expressed Mrs. Ditmore, "the people in Wichita Falls need money. There aren't enough freezers to store food sent, so the people are buying it as they need it."

Many families are going to try to rebuild with what little they have left, as is the case with the Ditmore couple.

But in the same token, many are picking up and moving as far away they can possibly go.

They can't face the thought of going through another disastrous tornado.

Road to Heaven Isn't Toll-Free

DEAR ABBY: I am a young clergyman, new in the community and eager to do the best job possible. I am told that a few years back you had an excellent answer for someone who wrote in complaining that every time he turned around the church hit him for money.

The writer asked you what the church did with all the money.

If you can find that letter, I would be most grateful if you ran it again.

TENNESSEE PREACHER

DEAR PREACHER: I found it. And here it is:

DEAR ABBY: We are not overly religious people, but we do like to go to church once in a while. It seems to me that every time we turn around in church we are hit for money. I thought religion was free. I realize that churches have to have some money, but I think it is getting to be a racket. Just what do churches do with all their money?

CURIOUS

DEAR CURIOUS: Even priests, ministers and rabbis must eat. Since they work full time at their tasks, the churches must support them. Staff, professional choir members and musicians must also be paid. Buildings must be maintained, heated, lighted and beautified. (And, of course, first they must be built!) Custodial staff must eat and feed their families. Most churches engage in philanthropic work (aid to needy, missions and education); hence, they have their financial obligations. Even orchids, contrary to folklore, do not live on air. Churches can't live on air, either. Religion, like water, may be free, but when they pipe it to you, you've got to help pay for the piping. And the piper!

MORE CARE PACKAGES — The victims of the Wichita Falls tornado are in great need of food, clothing, linens and dishes, but according to Mrs. Hilliard Ditmore, whose son, and daughter-in-law were unfortunately affected by the disaster, money is needed more than anything. Here, Mrs. Ditmore bundles up more packages donated by employees of Texas Electric to send to Wichita Falls.

Republican women share recipes

By ROBBIE CROW
Family News Editor

"Our purpose is to support conservative candidates," explained Polly Mays, Republican Women's Club member.

The organization was originated in the early 1950's by Dorothy Hall, Norma Tinley and Mrs. Mays. Bertie Hogg served as the club's first president.

"We meet once a month in homes of members or at various restaurants," revealed President Joyce Green. Other officers include Lucy Knox, vice president; Mary Ben Wright, secretary; and Dorothy Edwards, treasurer.

"We are mainly a money-raising organization," stated Dene Sheppard, membership chairman. "The money we raise goes toward the support of our candidate."

A program is presented at each meeting concerning local politics and upcoming elections. Mrs. Tinley, legislative chairman, keeps members informed of politics on the state and national levels. Ways and Means Chairman is Carol Hunter.

The organization is urging members to write their senators and congressmen to protest an excess profits tax on oil known as the Windfall Profit Tax.

"We believe that an excess profits tax would reduce incentive for the development and production of additional oil, and would cancel out benefits of decontrol," revealed one member.

Members feel it is unfair due to the fact that other industries are not taxed in this manner.

According to the organization, if selective groups are chosen to be protected against price increase, it would remove the incentive for conservation.

Meetings of the Republican Women's Club are not all politics and programs. Often a salad luncheon is enjoyed by those present.

At a recent gathering, members car pooled to the home of Betty Price for a meeting and luncheon. Here are some of their new and tasty recipes.

Polly Mays' COTTAGE CHEESE SALAD
Dissolve 1 package lemon Jello in 1 cup hot water. Add 1/2 cup water, 1 1/2 tablespoons vinegar, 1/2 cup salad dressing, 1/4 teaspoon salt and pepper.

Quick chill in freezing unit 15-20 minutes. Beat until fluffy. Fold in 1 cup chopped raw spinach, 1 cup dice celery, 1 tablespoon chopped onion, 1 cup cottage cheese and 1/2 cup cucumber.

Joyce Green's HARVEST SALAD
1 package (8 ounce) cream cheese
red maraschino cherry juice
3 cups diced, peeled oranges
3 cups pineapple tidbits
2 cups seedless grapes
2 cups miniature marshmallows

Softened cream cheese and thin to consistency of salad dressing with cherry juice. Drain oranges and pineapple well. Add and mix with cheese the grapes and marshmallows. Makes 12 servings.

Mary Joy Cowper's CAROLINA BEET SALAD
1 can diced beets (Julienne)
2 tablespoons gelatin
1/2 teaspoon celery salt
1 small onion, minced
2-3rd cup vinegar
3 cups liquid (beet juice and water)
2 teaspoons salt
2 tablespoons fresh horseradish
2 tablespoons sugar

Dissolve gelatin in 1/2 cup liquid. Heat remaining beet juice liquid and add sugar, salt and gelatin mix. Cool slightly and add beets, celery salt, onion, vinegar and horseradish. Mold in 12 individuals or ring mold.

Jane Thomas' QUICK COFFEE CAKE
Sift 1 1/2 cups flour with 1 1/2 teaspoon baking powder. Add 1/2 cup of sugar. To dry ingredients add 1/2 cup of milk, 1 well beaten egg and 1/4 cup melted margarine. Put in well-greased, round 9-inch cake pan. Sprinkle on top, 2 tablespoons of blended sugar and cinnamon. Bake in hot 400 degree oven for 5 minutes, then 20 minutes longer in 355-degree oven.

Dene Sheppard's BUFFET SALAD
1 13 1/2 ounce can pineapple tidbits (drain - reserve syrup)

2 envelopes unflavored gelatin
1 10 1/2-ounce can cream of chicken soup

2 teaspoons chicken stock base
1 tablespoon lemon juice
1/2 teaspoon salt

2-3rd cup white dinner wine
1 cup diced cooked chicken
1/2 cup finely chopped celery
1/4 cup finely chopped onion
1/2 cup sliced stuffed green olives

1 cup whipping cream, whipped
Add water to pineapple syrup to equal 1 cup liquid; sprinkle gelatin on pineapple liquid. Heat, stirring, until gelatin is dissolved. Stir in soup, chicken stock base, lemon juice, salt and wine. Chill until mixture begins to thicken. Stir in pineapple, chicken, celery, onion and olives, fold in whipping cream. Turn into 8 cup mold chill until firm. Garnish with sliced pineapple and green olives, if desired. Yield 8-10 servings.

Hazel Lawrence's EASY ENGLISH TRIFLE
1/2 commercial angel food cake
Sherry
1 can of pie filling (cherry or blueberry)
1 package instant vanilla pudding
1 small container whipping cream

Cut cake horizontally and fit to cover bottom of large glass bowl (or glass casserole). Add 6 to 8 tablespoons sherry. Spoon cherry pie filling over cake. Prepare one package instant vanilla pudding according to directions and spoon over pie filling. Cover with plastic film and refrigerate four hours or overnight. When ready to serve, cover with sweetened whipped cream. Decorate with maraschino cherries. Serves 8-12.

Luan Stallings' CHEESY LEMON JELLO
1 package lemon Jello
1 3-ounce package cream cheese
1 cup marshmallows
1 small can crushed

pineapple
1/2 cup shredded cheddar cheese
1/4 cup chopped pecans

Prepare Jello according to directions on box. Combine pineapple, cream cheese, and marshmallows and heat until marshmallows and cream cheese soften.

Stir in Jello, and grated cheese and pecans. Chill. Lucy Knox' SAUSAGE NESTS
1 package (6 ounce) chicken flavor stuffing mix
1 package (12 ounce) bulk pork sausage,
8 eggs

In medium sauce pan, prepare stuffing mix according to package directions; set aside to cool. Preheat oven to 350 degrees.

Combine sausage and stuffing mixture until well mixed. Spoon a scant 1/2 cup of mixture into each of 8 6-ounce custard cups. Using spoon, press on bottom and sides to form 'nest' in center. Place on baking sheet and bake 10 minutes. Break an egg into center of each cup. Bake 15 to 25 minutes longer or until eggs are cooked to your liking. Makes 8 servings. About 425 calories each.

Betty Wrinkle's FRUIT BASKET
Select a ripe pineapple.

With a sharp knife, cut off stem, cut through stem and into two equal pieces. Cut a thin slice from bottom of each so basket will not tip over. Cut out core and use melon ball scoop to remove rest of pineapple or cut into cubes. Cut cantaloupe in half and use scoop to make cantaloupe balls. Mix pineapple balls, cantaloupe balls and fresh strawberries or other fresh fruit. Add lemon juice or 'fruit fresh' to prevent from turning brown. Sweeten if desired. Arrange two pineapple halves and 1 cantaloupe half on plate. Fill with fruit balls. Place stem in center of plate upright.

CRASH KILLS THREE—This was the scene at Newark International Airport late Wednesday after New York Airways helicopter crashed shortly after takeoff. Three persons were killed and at least 12 injured. The airport was closed a little under three hours because of the crash.

New ways of shopping Food co-ops popular

Inflation is changing the way America shops. No-frills packages, bag-it-yourself stores and do-it-yourself food cooperatives are gaining popularity as people look for ways to cut grocery bills. It is difficult to come up with firm figures on how much of the more than $200 billion Americans spend every year on food goes to the non-traditional shopping outlets.

Ron Cotterill, a food marketing specialist from Michigan State University, estimated that there are roughly 4,000 food co-ops throughout the United States, about one-eighth the number of conventional supermarkets. Cotterill said the co-ops probably account for less than 1 percent or 2 percent of total grocery sales.

Industry spokesmen say it is hard to keep track of the alternative systems because they are growing so rapidly. No-frills foods — standard grades in plain packages — were not introduced until 1977. Today, according to industry estimates, they are offered by 100 chains in 10,000 supermarkets, about one-third of the total.

Esther Peterson, special assistant to the president for consumer affairs, said: "There's an exciting trend in this country to say, 'Look. We've got to do a lot of this ourselves.'"

Food co-ops are the most basic form of do-it-yourself shopping. Consumers band together to buy food and other grocery products, in bulk, at wholesale.

They may operate as simple buying clubs or as full-fledged stores. Members of buying clubs trade time and labor for cash savings. They take turns acting as purchasing agents and distributing the food.

The supermarket-style co-ops are more complicated, often requiring full-time managers. Shoppers may or may not have to pay a membership fee — sometimes as little as $1 — to help with rent, utilities, wages, etc. Prices are marked up only enough to cover any additional operating costs. There is no profit. Costs are kept to a minimum, sometimes with the help of members who volunteer their labor in exchange for additional discounts.

Savings vary. They can range up to 60 percent, particularly in buying clubs, said Cotterill.

Consumers in areas convenient to local farms can save money by eliminating still more of the marketing bill by picking their own produce or shopping at roadside stands.

The U.S. Department of Agriculture estimates that as of 1976, there were more than 3,000 pick-your-own operations and 9,000 roadside stands throughout the United States. A USDA survey indicated that 18 percent of all households shopped at a pick-your-own outlet in 1977, and 38 percent you want. Will you buy fresh produce and meat only? Will you include grocery items? How often do you want to shop? (Most co-ops are weekly.)

Find outlets for large scale buying and arrange to have wholesalers supply you with invoices giving weekly prices.

Set a weekly membership charge and collect the fee one week in advance so you have cash to work with. The fee should cover the food itself, plus gasoline and supplies like paper bags.

Divide up the work. You'll need a coordinator, a buyer, a cashier and several sorters to divide up the purchases. You will have to arrange for members to pick up groceries or designate someone to deliver them.

Promise never made, prison director says

HOUSTON (AP) — James Estelle, director of the Texas Department of Corrections says he never promised three inmates they could leave the prison walls during a tragic 1974 escape attempt.

Estelle testified Wednesday in the trial of Ignacio Cuevas, the only surviving inmate of three who took over a prison library building in an 11-day siege, longest in U.S. penal history.

Defense attorney Will Gray asked the prison director if he would have stopped the escape attempt "even if it cost the lives of all 16 hostages."

Estelle answered "Those three hostages weren't going to leave that prison under any circumstances. There was no way they would ever get out of there."

Inmates Fred Gomez Carrasco and Rudolph Dominguez and two hostages, Julia Standley and Elizabeth Beseda were killed in the escape attempt.

Cuevas was convicted in 1975 in connection with the death of Mrs. Standley and sentenced to die. After three years on death row, the Texas Court of Criminal Appeals ordered a new trial because a judge did not

from the CARROLL RUGHTER INSTITUTE

FORECAST FOR FRIDAY, APRIL 20, 1979

GENERAL TENDENCIES: Although you do not have any means by which to put a positive plan into motion, nevertheless you are able to find the right means by which to build a more up-to-date set of circumstances that can later be put into motion. Be more detailed about your specific aims.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Decide early which friends you want to have in your life in the future and contact them, show how much you appreciate them. Be more practical in going after your aims.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Study how you want your career to trend and take steps in such direction. Get your credit rating improved by right methods. Don't be so irritable with family and have more happiness.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Go after information you need and then many interesting situations develop from which you can profit. Use good judgment and don't rely solely on your intuition.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Study debits and credits and get your affairs in better order. Show affection for your mate instead of antagonizing this person. Don't permit outsiders to disturb harmony. Be wise.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Good day to come to a better understanding with associates, so confer with them early for best results. Relieve tensions with those who oppose you. Showing kindness to others pays off.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) It is important that you handle work before going off on some foolish time-wasting activity. Find a better way of improving health and be more dynamic. Avoid that person who saps your strength.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Enjoy recreation that is not too expensive and get good results. But first finish any important work. Don't try to project yourself too much.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Make others aware of what it is you want. You'd like to delve into a new outlet, but it would be premature.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Pay visits to others, but take care you do not argue with them. Show kindness and all is well. Take no risks with your good name.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) You feel like redecorating, but count the cost well first. Plan to save more money in the future. Postpone plans for now.

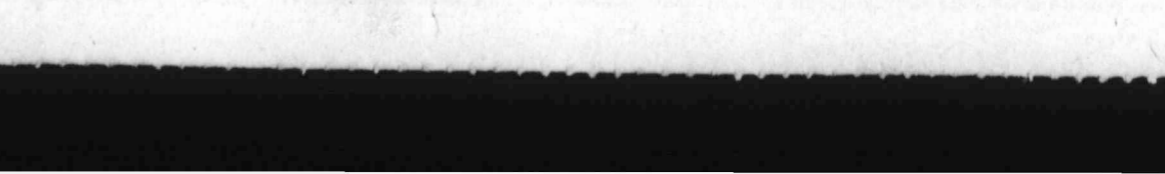

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Know what your subconscious aims are and how best to achieve them, gradually and safely. Make sure your health and appearance are good before dealing with others.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Seek out an adviser and handle confidential matters wisely. Take care you do not argue with loved ones. Show more thoughtfulness instead.
