Suicide for a cause?

EL CENTRO, Calif. (AP) — When James A. Maloney walked into the local FBI office and killed two agents before turning a gun on himself, it was his way of dying for a cause, one of his friends believes.

Maloney gunned down the two agents in the FBI's El Centro office Thursday morning. A third agent was killed in Cleveland, Ohio, when authorities attempted to arrest a man wanted on a fugitive warrant.

Maloney, 30, was a pacifist who had been active in causes such as Vietnam War protests and support for the United Farm Workers labor group, said friend Lyn Lesicka.

"I believe he was making a statement. ... He had definite political beliefs. He felt a number of people were being oppressed and he felt the FBI were a good portion of the oppressors," she said.

Robert Young, head of the SarwDeego FBI office, said Maloney went to the FBI office to talk to agents Charles Elmore and Robert Porter about obtaining files under the Freedom of Information Act.

Young said Maloney had been investigated in the early 1970s for associating with radical groups, but nothing came of the investigation.

Young said Maloney shot Porter with a 12-gauge shotgun at the door of the office. The shotgun jammed, Young said, but Maloney was able to fire six shots at the agents with a .38-caliber pistol before shooting himself in the mouth.

Porter, 44, was married and had five children. Elmore, 34, was single. Both had been at the El Centro office about a year.

Young said Maloney left two notes saying he planned to take his own life and "take others with him."

The notes, furnished by an unidentified "cooperative witness," indicated Maloney "was opposed to the capitalistic system and this was his way of striking back," said Young.

Meanwhile, more than 400 law enforcement officials in Ohio searched for a 19-year-old man the FBI alleges shot and killed Special Agent Johnnie L. Oliver, 35.

FBI spokesman Anthony T. Riggio identified the wanted man as Melvin Bay Guyon, also known as Tyrone Little.

Chrysler head encouraged about federal loan support

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Carter administration's likely support of loan guarantees to Chrysler Corp. falls far short of the automaker's bail-out request, but the company's chairman says he's "extremely encouraged."

Less encouraging was union rejection on Thursday of a two year wage freeze Chrysler proposed as one way to battle the deteriorating auto sales, costly federal regulations and waning investor confidence that threaten the No. 3 automaker's survival.

The union rejection came as Chrysler continued to roll back 1980 production schedules and lay off more workers. The nation's 10th largest industrial corporation placed 4,600 hourly employees on indefinite leave Thursday, bringing the total number on such layoffs to 23,800, according to company spokesmen.

At full employment, Chrysler has slightly more than 130,000 workers.

The company, which suffered a $207.1 million loss in the second quarter, was seeking $1 billion in federal tax credits over two years, but Treasury Secretary G. William Miller said Thursday the administration would consider only loan guarantees "considerably less" than $1 billion.

A government official working on the Chrysler project said the company will need at least $500 million in loan guarantees to see it through the next nine months to 12 months.

Miller, at a press conference, said, "The administration will explore conditions under which it might recommend, subject to congressional approval, financial assistance to Chrysler in the form of, or equivalent to, loan guarantees."

He said the Treasury Department will work with Chrysler to develop a proposal Congress could consider after it returns from its summer recess on Sept. 5.

The federal aid, said Miller, would be "limited in time, amount and risk to American taxpayers." It likely would resemble the loan guarantee package to Lockheed in the early 1970s.

Chrysler Chairman John Riccardo called Miller's stand a "strong expression of support."

"While a great deal of work remains to be done, this ... is good news for the employees of Chrysler, our dealers and the hundreds of thousands of workers who depend for their employment on Chrysler Corp.," he said in a statement.

Riccardo also is seeking a two-year delay in meeting federal air-pollution standards.

Two-heart man lives in Denison

KALAMAZOO, Mich. (AP) — Lindell Hill takes 30 pills a day which eat away at his stomach lining, destroy his muscles and make his bones brittle.

No employer will give him a job because he can't obtain life insurance. He can't fill idle hours with the diversions of travel. He may not live to see 1982.

"All things considered, I never felt better," says Hill, pointing to a body which he admits "may not be as good as the original." But he does own the only American body equipped with two hearts.

In 1977, Hill underwent an experimental "piggyback" operation under the direction of famous South African heart surgeon Dr. Christian Barnard.

A second human heart was implanted beside his own failing heart, which suffered a massive attack 12 years ago. Hill was selected for the South African experiment after open heart surgery in 1968 and a 1974 bypass operation failed to remedy his problems.

Hill, 39, now lives in Denison, Texas, with his wife and three children. He made a recent trip to his parents here only because a Chicago cardiologist is close enough to perform a necessary bi-weekly exam.

Before the piggyback operation, doctors gave Hill at most six months to live. Today, statistics grant him an 80 percent chance of living three years. But he says time does not concern him.

"I look at every day as a premium. Instead of dwelling on the past, I take the time to enjoy today."

Hill calls the cortisone and immunosuppressant drugs which prevent his body from rejecting the donated heart "a real mind bender."

TWEEN 12 and 20

How do teens rate parental discipline?

By Robert Wallace, Ed. D.

Are parents strict enough when it comes to teen discipline? This question brought 2,620 responses from teens in Canada and throughout the United States.

Being a parent, I was sure the results would show that teens felt that their parents were plenty strict, but surprisingly only 54 percent (1,415 teens) felt this way.

There wasn't much difference between the sexes. The girls (1,632 responded) answered with 53 percent saying that their parents were strict enough of the 988 responding boys, 553 (56 percent) stated that their parents were plenty strict.

The comments were very interesting, so let's hear a few from individual teens.

From Tammy Spoelstra, 13, Fresno, Calif.: No, my parents are not strict enough, but please don't tell them I've got it made.

From Cheryl Learned, 14, Columbus, Ohio: My parents are plenty strict and I'm glad. It shows they really care for me.

From Marie Martinez, 15, Pueblo, Colo.: Yes, my parents are strict, but they are reasonable. They temper discipline with mercy.

From Kathy McGee, 14, Worland, Wyo.: No, my parents are too sweet. If I came home an hour late, my mom wouldn't even ask any questions.

From Ron Sarvis, 16, Colorado Springs, Colo.: Most of today's parents are too lenient. Mine are and they have five children.

From Donna Capps, 17, Ukiah, Calif.: Yes, my parents are strict. They let me know who is the boss and that is that.

From Rick Conners, 18, Weirton, W.Va.: Are my parents strict? I'm 18, have graduated from high school and my dad still kicks my fanny.

From Tracy Noll, 14, Alliance, Ohio: My parents show trust but care enough to be strict.

I'm awarding a "TWEEN 12 and 20" T-shirt to Tom Mullens, 16, of Rock Island, Ill., who said it best:

"... My parents set strict rules but they can be bent, and I usually can talk myself out of any punishment. But all is not lost. I've learned what not to do about discipline when I become a parent..."

Our next question comes from Barbara Cox, 16, who lives in Hagerstown, Md., who asks: "Should high schools have designated smoking areas for teens who smoke?" Please state why you gave a yes or a no answer.

As usual, I will award a "TWEEN 12 and 20" button to all teens who answer this question. The teen who "does it best" will receive a "TWEEN 12 and 20" T-shirt.

Always keep check on blood pressure
COLLEGE STATION — Everyone should have their blood pressure taken at regular intervals and learn what the numbers mean, advises Carla Shearer, a health education specialist.
High blood pressure is a disease for which there are no reliable symptoms. Regular blood pressure checks are the only accurate way of diagnosing high blood pressure, the specialist points out.
Ms. Shearer is with the Texas Agricultural Extension Service, The Texas A&M University System.
When your blood pressure is taken, ask what your blood pressure reading is and obtain a clear understanding of what the numbers mean.
Below are three examples of blood pressure readings and some information about these readings:
1) 120-80 — this is about average for most adults, although a lower reading is also good.
2) 140-90 — this higher reading presents a different situation. There are a few things a physician may do for a person with this reading.
He may continue to closely monitor the person to see if there is an increase.
He may begin a mild non-drug treatment including recommendations for losing weight, lowering salt intake and more physical exercise.
Or, if there are other risk factors present, a physician may prescribe regular drug therapy.
3) 160-95 — this reading will more frequently require treatment with drugs because the person is at a greater risk of high blood pressure.
Circumstances will vary from person to person, however, and although the blood pressure reading may be one of these, it is important to closely follow the recommendations of the physician, Ms. Shearer says.

Dear Abby
Too Many Mates On Her Dreamboat
DEAR ABBY: I am 30, attractive, desirable, live in Seattle and could pretty much have my pick of men. I recently met the man of my dreams in a little town called Townsend. He's handsome, slightly younger, is built like a million dollars, drives a Porsche and is the world's greatest lover. More than that, he's so kind, considerate and fun to be with that the first night I was with him I thought I had died and gone to heaven!
Sounds perfect, doesn't it? Well, it's not—a dozen other women feel the same way about him.
Abby, how do I capture such a perfect man with so much competition around?
Please don't tell me to look for someone who's more available. In 30 years, and after one unsuccessful marriage, I know he is "Mr. Right."
HEAVEN CAN'T WAIT
DEAR HEAVEN: It won't be easy, but in the cool, laid-back approach. With so many women drooling over him, he's sure to notice the one woman who presents a challenge. If that doesn't work, get in line. Your chances are still 1 in 12.
DEAR ABBY: My mother, who is 80, is getting married to a gentleman who is 82. They will be married in a church and want to send out about 50 invitations and have a reception afterwards!
Do you think this is proper for people their age? Frankly, I don't.
I think they should get married quietly, with just the wedding party (six people) going somewhere for dinner afterwards. Then they should go away for a few days.
I would like your opinion.
DAUGHTER
DEAR DAUGHTER: Age has nothing to do with it. If anything, I think their ages would enhance the beauty of the occasion.
Encourage your mother to have the kind of wedding and reception she wants. Do whatever makes her happy and, I promise, you'll look back on her wedding with no regrets.
DEAR ABBY: Your reply to HAD IT, who said she didn't have a dime to call her own after working alongside her tight-fisted husband in a family business for 30 years, was WRONG. You said she not only deserved a few dollars to do with as she pleased, but she was ENTITLED to it. Legally, in all 42 of the separate-property states, she's not entitled to one dime for herself!
MAD IN MADISON
DEAR MAD: You're right. I was wrong. I should have said that the wife was morally entitled to her fair share of the profits. Thanks for reminding us that we DO need an Equal Rights Amendment.

Do you wish you had more friends? For the secret of popularity, get Abby's new booklet: "How To Be Popular: You're Never Too Young or Too Old." Send $1 with a long, self-addressed, stamped (28 cents) envelope to Abby, 132 Laaky Drive, Beverly Hills, Calif. 90212.

Young Mormons exchange two years for missions

Youth leader to preach at area-wide crusade

By EILEEN McGUIRE
The Big Spring Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints recently welcomed four young men, hailing from Utah and Idaho, to its family of missionaries.

Sent here by the Texas Dallas Mission, Elder Rod Osborne of Layton, Utah, and Elder Mark Osborne of Sandy, Utah, will be doing missionary work for the church in a five-county area. Elder Danny Brklacich of Sandy, Utah, and Elder Kurt Nielson of Idaho Falls, Ida. will work predominately in Big Spring and Big Lake.

The four are carrying out a tradition in the Church of L.D.S., according to Christine Horn, public communications director of the local church. Traditionally, young men from the church spend two years of their lives in the field.

"They are taught and prepared for this from early youth," Mrs. Horn said. "During those two years, they don't date, see their families or do anything but teach."

According to Mrs. Horn, the missionaries go into the field at their own expense, using savings earned from jobs during high school or from their families. The two years in the field are not demanded of the young men, but are encouraged and most comply.

Each missionary obediently goes wherever he is sent by the church, spending three to eight

NEW TO AREA — The Big Spring Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints recently gained four new missionaries, from left, Elders Rod Osborne, Elder Danny Brklacich, Elder Kurt Nielson, and Elder Mark Osborne. The four are from Utah, with the exception of Nielson who is from Idaho. All four were raised in families of four or five children and all, except Elder Rod Osborne, were born into the Mormon faith. Osborne was converted five years ago.

While in Big Spring, the four are living in rented houses, two to a home, managing their homes on their own. Local families, said Mrs. Horn, provide meals during the stay, with each family providing meals twice a week. The families are among the 206 members of the local Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints.

According to Mrs. Horn, missionary work is very different from what it was decades ago. The first known Church of L.D.S. missionary in this area was Preston Thomas, who stopped at the late Lillie Bell Ellington's house requesting food and shelter for the night as he passed through Snyder in 1905. Lillie became interested in the faith that Thomas was teaching and was baptized by him.

Missionaries of the early eras, said Mrs. Horn, would come into an area where there was no L.D.S. church and would go door to door to talk with the people. With no means of supporting themselves, they depended on the charity of the local people to survive.

Mrs. Horn said that there was no L.D.S. church in this area nor many people who knew about the Mormon faith until T.C. (Tommy) Tubb, son of a Howard County pioneer family, Mr. and Mrs. B.F. Tubb, met and married a Mormon girl, Iris Caldwell, while stationed with the U.S. Navy in Utah during World War II.

When the war was over, Tubb returned to Big Spring with his wife and they started a Sunday School of six people including themselves. Meetings were held in the members' homes.

By 1950, there were enough members to become organized into a branch.

In early days, missionaries wore a bowler-type rimmed hat, black dress suits, and either walked or rode bicycles. According to Mrs. Horn, two were picked up in 1952 and were forced to get permission from the city to continue.

"They do not peddle the Book of Mormon," said M's. Horn, "but they do give a lot of them away."

The missionaries will give lessons, about ten, on the "restored gospel" if an individual is interested. If the individuals believe, she said, they are ordinarily baptized. If they don't believe, she assured there is no pressure.

According to Elder Mark Osborne, the purpose of the missionaries "is to familiarize people with the church and what we believe."

Missionaries are still required to wear a suit, coat and tie, though color is of individual choice. During the last ten years, said Mrs. Horn, cars have been permissible when needed due to distance. In town, Mormon missionaries still walk and ride bikes.

"At one time, only Ramblers were used," Mrs. Horn said, explaining that when the Rambler Company was owned by Mormons, the company donated cars to the church.

A major change in recent times has been the emergence of female missionaries, said Mrs. Horn.

"But it isn't encouraged," she said. "Women are encouraged to marry. But if they reach 19 and haven't married and want to go into missionary work, they are allowed."

The Texas Dallas Mission covers an area extending from Longview to San Antonio to El Paso to Lubbock. The missionaries undergo two weeks of schooling for field work in Salt Lake, Utah, and most have already attended college before going out into the field.

There are about 28,000 Church of L.D.S. missionaries in the field worldwide, according to Mrs. Horn. Foreign missions include France, Spain, England, New Zealand, South America, Mexico, and Japan.

The Big Spring Baptist Association will host an area-wide evangelistic crusade, Aug. 19-23.

The event will occur in the open air of the amphitheatre at Comanche Trail Park. The public is invited to attend and hear Phil Arms preach the gospel message.

The emphasis of the program is directed toward young people and their parents.

Arms is president and founder of "Peacemaker Ministries," a non-profit evangelistic organization with headquarters in Pasadena.

The multi-faceted ministry of Arms includes Friday and Saturday night rallies in Pasadena. The rallies are attended each night by several hundred young people from all walks of life and every kind of religious background.

In addition to the rallies, Arms hosts the weekly television series "Just Passing Through," which airs 3 p.m. Sundays on channel 6.

Arms has also conducted a large number of assemblies in junior and senior high schools, colleges and universities. The assembly is generally an anti-drug program, not only warning of the dangers, but also presenting an alternative, Jesus Christ.

Above all, Arms is sensitive to the needs of this generation and is eager to give answers according to the Biblical revelation.

Film preview to be shown

'What happened to the human race?'

A 13-minute preview of the five-part film series, "What ever Happened to the Human Race?" will be shown to the Big Spring and area public Monday, 8 p.m., in the Reddy Room of Texas Electric, 409 Runnels.

The film will provide information concerning the complete showing of the film series, scheduled to be shown in Dallas. If there is enough interest, plans will be made Monday to get a group together from this area to attend the Dallas showing.

The film series premieres in Dallas Sept. 14 and 15. Personal appearance will be made by the authors, Dr. Francis A. Schaeffer and Dr. Everett Koop, M.D.

A theologian, philosopher and author, Schaeffer is one of the world's most respected thinkers. His analysis of Western man's development and future direction is the result of 45 years of intensive study.

Koop is recognized as one of the world's most prominent surgeons. He is surgeon-in-chief at Philadelphia's Children's Hospital and has spent a lifetime studying the attitudes and trends of man's view of man from a medical perspective.

The premiere of "What ever Happened to the Human Race?" will be followed by lectures and discussion with Dr. Schaeffer and Koop.

Edith Schaeffer will lecture on her new book, "Affliction" and there will be special lectures by Franky Schaeffer V and Jim Buchfuehrer, directors of the film. A guest appearance will be made by Mildred F.

Jefferson, M.D.

The films reach back into the early eras of Christianity and strive to picture the future for Christian thinking people. Of ultimate concern are issues facing Christians today, particularly abortion and the existence of modern day infanticide, the killing of born babies.

The series also examines the proponents of euthanasia and projects in prophetic terms what the future may hold if current trends to the elderly and unwanted continue.

The film presents the Gospel of Jesus Christ as the only real solution to man's problems.

Two years in the making, the film series was shot in five countries and in over 50 locations. The series is an examination of human rights, what's happening to them, and why.

Worst rioting in years

Roman Catholic youths on rampage in Ireland

BELFAST, Northern Ireland (AP) — Mobs of Roman Catholic youths went on a rampage in Belfast and Londonderry in the worst rioting in years, and more than 30,000 troops and police were placed on alert for more violence this weekend.

Some 20 buses and cars were hijacked and set afire, British troops were bombarded with stones, bricks and paint, and there were several gun battles between soldiers and hidden terrorists. But security forces said the trouble was contained, and after more than 24 hours of violence beginning Wednesday night, there were eight injuries and five arrests.

"We haven't had a lot of rioting lately, not honest-to-goodness rioting like this," a police spokesman said. "It's really going back to seven or eight years ago when we used to have regular hand-to-hand combat." The spokesman said most of Thursday's trouble came from gangs of youths, ranging in number from 15 to 80.

They launched about 10 attacks on police and troops, including an incident in Catholic West Belfast in which two armored vehicles on patrol were ambushed and three soldiers injured. In Londonderry's Catholic Bogside district, demonstrators put up barricades similar to those erected in 1969 when the Bogside was a "No-Go" area, and protesters marched to demand withdrawal of British troops from the province.

Other rioters in both

Londonderry and Belfast, some wearing hoods, hijacked buses and cars and used them to block roads before setting them alight. Four bombs went off, causing minor property damage, and army explosives experts were called in to defuse a nail-filled bomb thrown at troops.

At the end of the day, five soldiers, one policeman and two civilians had been injured, including a boy found unconscious with head wounds in Belfast's New Lodge area.

Police appealed to parents to keep their children at home as more than 30,000 British troops, Ulster police and auxiliaries went on alert for more violence.

The look of a winner

CLAREMONT, N.H. (AP) — They've declared a winner in the second annual Claremont International Invitational Annelid Race: Bushwacker, a worm "representing" Republican George Bush.

Thursday's loser in the worm races was Teeth, a "Democratic" entry.

Billed by its promoters, the Fiske Free Library, as a pre-presidential primary preliminary, finalists were determined in two heats. One group of worms was entered as "Republicans," the other as "Democrats."

A worm dubbed "John Connally" initially won the GOP heat, but his identifying thread got tangled with the George Bush entrant, and in a rematch, Bushwacker took the laurels.

Teeth won the Democratic competition but in the final race, Bushwacker won it all.

Jamie Bush, son of the real George Bush, the former United Nations ambassador, vowed that Bushwacker would go "anywhere there is a challenge."

Bushwacker's time to complete the foot-long course was "about a minute," according to one observer.

A real Goldilocks?

SOUTH LAGUNA, Calif. (AP) — If the intruder who broke into Edward Slevin's home last week turns out to have blond hair, police won't be surprised.

When Slevin and his family returned from a three-day holiday, they found that the oven was turned on and apparently had been working for some time. The refrigerator door was ajar, and a half-gallon of milk had soured.

The intruder took nothing valuable, but did leave a note behind on a shelf. It read: "Sorry to do this. Will repay you someday. Don't worry, I love people. Just in a strange situation."

Orange County sheriff's investigator Jim Parsons said Thursday that "the only things they found missing were a few apples and a box of cookies which had been eaten and the empty box left on the counter."

He also said "it appeared one of the beds had been slept on," but he didn't say whose.

Lewis recalls track struggles of Hawks

L.L. (Red) Lewis, who is retiring as registrar at Howard County this summer, was the principal speaker at the Kiwanis Club's luncheon Thursday, held in the Cactus Room of the college.

Lewis is to be honored at a banquet at the college this evening. Many of the men who competed for the school during Lewis' 11-year career as the Hawk track coach will attend the banquet. Chief speaker will be Oliver Jackson, former track and field coach at Abilene Christian University.

Lewis talked about the school's struggles to become recognized as the premier junior college track and field power in America — he ultimately guided the Hawks to four national titles.

He also reminisced briefly on his football career at Hardin-Simmons when he played alongside such greats as Clyde (Bulldog) Turner.

Lewis was introduced by Harold Canning, Kiwanis president, who announced that the annual club banquet will be held at 7 p.m., Friday, Aug. 17, in Big Spring State Park.

The club's installation banquet has tentatively been set for 7 p.m., Oct. 4, in the Cactus Room at the college.

New officers will be installed at the time. Jerri Sink will formally succeed Canning as president.

Canning assumes the office of Past President. Others who will be sworn in are Herman Smith, first vice-president; Bob Crowell, second vice-president; and Billy T. Smith, who retains the office of secretary-treasurer.

Don Quinn, new manager of Sears and Roebuck, was introduced as a guest.

Former HC tracksters to honor Lewis tonight

Former track and field athletes coached by L.L. (Red) Lewis at Howard College gather in the Student Union Building at the college this evening to honor their former mentor.

Lewis is retiring as Howard College registrar this morning. The one-time Hardin-Simmons University football star was head track coach of the Hawks from 1957 through 1968.

During that time, the Hawks were national champions four times, finished as national runners-up on three occasions, were third on one occasion, fourth twice and sixth one time.

Howard College won the Western Conference championship 11 times during the Lewis era.

Among the former HC athletes who have indicated they will be here for the banquet are Freddie Stuart, co-captain of the 1957 team; Tommy Black, co-captain in 1957; Ben Faulkner, 1958; Derrell Froman, 1957-59; Delbert Shirey, 1959; Eugene Franklin, 1960-61; Charles Smith, 1960; Dean Cheatham, 1961-62; Johnny Ramirez, 1961; Charles Smith, 1961; Tommy Wise, 1962; Tommy Yarbro, 1962; Larry Mauldin, 1962; Ronny Overby, 1962; Bobby Sorenson, 1964; Jim Napier,

Principal speaker of the evening will be the famed Oliver Jackson, who coached Abilene Christian University to its greatest era in track. Jackson is now an insurance executive in Austin who can look back on some great memories in athletics.

Jackson coached three Olympic champions, one of them sprinter Bobby Morrow. His track and field athletes, individually or as members of relay teams, broke or tied 15 world records, 17 American records, and 15 NCAA records. His ACU team won the NCAA College Division Championship in 1952 and 1953. He has coached many U.S. teams in international competition and in 1958 he toured 17 Central and South American countries as a Good Will Ambassador for the U.S. Department of State.

He produced four College Division All-American football players. He was selected by ACU as the "Outstanding Alumnus of the Year" in 1961. In 1967, Sports Illustrated Magazine picked him on its Silver Anniversary All-America Football Team." He had previously been named by the Helms Athletic Foundation Hall of Fame in Los Angeles and the United States Track and Field Federation Hall of Fame.

In addition, he was inducted into the Drake Relays Coaches Hall of Fame at Des Moines and in December, 1978, was inducted into the Texas Sports Hall of Fame.

Lewis will award plaques to two of his former athletes, one he judged to be the Most Competitive and the other the Most Improved.

The idea for the testimonial dinner was conceived by Lewis' daughter, Mrs. Sue Tottenham and is being staged with the assistance of the college.

Teachers who were members of the faculty during Lewis' years as track coach will be special guests at the banquet.

THRILL OF VICTORY — Top seeded Jimmy Connors of Belleville, Illinois, screams in victory after coming from behind to defeat Balazs Taroczy of Hungary in three sets 5-7, 6-1, 9-7 during action at the U.S. Open Clay Courts in Indianapolis Thursday afternoon.

Veteran NBA ref testifies in Tomjanovich suit

HOUSTON (AP) — A veteran National Basketball Association referee says a punch suffered by Rudy Tomjanovich was the most vicious act he's ever seen.

"It was a very vicious act," Bob Rakek testified. "It sounded like a baseball bat hitting a concrete wall."

"In 11 years of professional basketball refereeing, I have never seen anything like it and I hope to God I never have to see anything like it again."

Swann rejoins Steelers

Lynn Swann rejoins the Pittsburgh Steelers today and his decision to return to football was greeted in a strange way by Coach Chuck Noll.

"I only talk about players who are in camp," said Noll when asked if he was looking forward to the arrival of his All-Pro wide receiver, who temporarily retired last week while testifying in a San Francisco trial. "I haven't seen him in camp yet."

Steelers President Art Rooney was more cheerful that Swann was back in the fold. Asked whether Swann will be fined for missing three weeks of training, Rooney replied:

"That's not the important issue. The important issue is that we're happy he's back."

Swann, two brothers and a cousin are suing the City of San Francisco for $2 million, alleging violation of their civil rights in a 1974 incident. The suit claims the four were beaten by San Francisco police after being stopped for allegedly running a red light.

Swann was not expected to play in Pittsburgh's exhibition game with the New York Giants Saturday. In Thursday's National Football League preseason games, St. Louis bombed Atlanta 42-17 and Kansas City edged Philadelphia 24-21.

The Cardinals rode the passing of backup quarterback Steve Pisarkiewicz to victory. The third-year QB threw four touchdown passes in the second half, completing nine of 11 tosses for 104 yards.

Pisarkiewicz hit Dave Stief from 17 yards, Eason Ramson from six, Mark Bell from 18 yards and Willard Harrell from four, all for scores.

Wayne Morris plunged across for two touchdowns for the Cardinals. Atlanta scored on Tim Mazzetti's 47-yard field goal and a pair of touchdown passes: Steve Bartkowski to Ricky Patton for 32 yards and June Jones to Jimmy Bryant for nine.

Kansas City recovered two fourth-period fumbles by the Eagles to storm from behind. Arnold Morgado dove in from the 1 for a touchdown and Jan Stenerud had a 33-yard field goal after the costly turnovers.

during most of the 1977-78 season.

Rakek told the five-man, one-woman jury he had already ejected Washington from play when Tomjanovich was slugged.

"Get out of here, you're done," Rakek said he told Washington. Washington had just hit another Rocket, Kevin Kunnert, after an "entanglement" over a rebound.

The referee testified he then saw Tomjanovich trotting to the fracas as a peacemaker.

"I don't think anybody was looking to start another fight," Rakek said.

Washington turned, hesitated and then hit Tomjanovich in the face, Rakek said.

It sounded like "a deep thud," he said.

Earlier Thursday a plastic surgeon said the blow pushed the front part of Tomjanovich's face three-fourths inch into his skull.

Dr. Paul Toffel of Los Angeles, who realigned the Rocket star's face, said his jaw was pushed back and to one side of his face, his nose was broken and his skull was fractured.

"If left uncorrected for the rest of his life, Rudy would have been unable to chew and he would have had respiratory difficulties."

The doctor described color slides he'd taken after the incident that showed Tomjanovich's face swelled out of proportion in shades of black, blue and red.

He also said the player's face would never be quite as strong as it was.

White breaks thumb Expected to miss at least 3 weeks

THOUSAND OAKS, Calif. (AP) — Dallas Cowboy quarterback punter Danny White is expected to be out of action for three weeks with a broken thumb — joining running backs Tony Dorsett and Scott Laidlaw on this week's list of pre-season casualties.

White complained of soreness and swelling Thursday after injuring his right thumb in a passing drill Wednesday. An X-ray examination revealed the fracture.

Dr. Marvin Knight, the Cowboys' team physician, said White would have his hand in a cast for about three weeks, and a further diagnosis would be made at that time. Knight said White may be able to resume punting when the cast is removed, but a return to quarterbacking would have to be considered later.

"He was following through on a pass and hit defensive lineman Larry Bethea in the chest," team spokesman Doug Todd said. "It was swollen and sore this (Thursday) morning. He went to the trainer and they did some X-rays and it's fractured."

Former Cowboys punter Duane Carrell agreed to terms late Thursday and was to report to training camp for possible duty. Carrell punted for the Cowboys in 1974, and also has seen duty with the New York Jets, Los Angeles Rams and St. Louis Cardinals. He did not play in 1978.

ABILENE SCORES — Kendra Baggett of Abilene South races past Western Henrico catcher Wanda Gilbert to score in the first inning of a Division III game in the Girls National Softball Tournament being held currently at the Roy Anderson Complex.

Baggett's run was not enough, however, as Western Henrico, from Richmond, Virginia, won the contest. Abilene was eliminated later in the day when they lost to Big Spring. Action continues tonight and tomorrow morning.

Big Spring wins twice in National Tourney Elise Wheat keys win over Hobbs

Elise Wheat greeted Hobbs reliever Kim Torres with a grand slam homer, capping an eight run third inning and propelling the Big Spring All-Stars to an exciting 10-8 win in a Friday morning game of the Girls National Softball Tournament being held at the Roy Anderson Complex.

Wheat's blast gave Big Spring a 9-4 lead. Hobbs, behind the hitting of Sherry McDaniel and Karen Westby, rallied for four runs in the top of the fifth to close the score to 9-8, but winning pitcher Lori Calhoun stopped the Hobbs team the remainder of the way. Hobbs is the New Mexico state champion, but was eliminated from the national affair with the loss.

Big Spring, who lost to Midland in their opener yesterday morning, spotted Abilene South a 3-0 lead in their game Friday night before rallying for a 6-4 triumph.

Cynthia Hernandez was the winning pitcher in the contest, scattering eight Abilene hits and limiting her foes to only one run after the first inning.

Meanwhile, Big Spring scored two runs each in the second and third innings to knot the score. In the top of the sixth, Vicki Buchanan walked and later scored on Sandy Puga's single to give the host city a 5-4 lead. Puga then scored when Abilene misplayed a ball hit by Delia Billaiba for the final run in the contest.

Abilene threatened in the sixth, but an outstanding play in left field by Sandy Puga robbed Abilene of a rally. The Big Spring All-Stars, who are competing in Division III of the tournament, will now face the loser of the 11:00 a.m. game between Midland and Western Henrico of Richmond, Virginia. Both teams were undefeated going into this morning's contest.

Midland's only previous game was a 4-3 11 inning victory over Big Spring, while Western Henrico has disposed of Abilene South and Hobbs.

The Western Henrico win over Hobbs was a 1-0 game in a very well-played contest, as all games have been. In fact, the widest margin in any Division III game thus far has been two runs.

The winner of tonight's Big Spring versus the loser of Western Henrico-Midland game will return to play tomorrow morning against the winner of the Midland-Western Henrico tilt. If another game is needed to determine a champion, the affair will be held at 2:00 p.m. Saturday.

Denison, Midland and Odessa remain alive in the Division IV Tournament. Division IV are females aged 16-19.

Denison opened with a 3-1 win over Odessa yesterday, and played Midland at 11:00 this morning. Midland defeated Western Henrico by a count of 20-4 last night. Henrico defeated Lovington, the New Mexico state champion, by a score of 10-3 in Thursday morning action.

BREAKING UP IS HARD TO DO — New York Mets centerfielder Lee Mazzilli, left, and St. Louis Cardinals shortstop Garry Templeton mix it up at second base at New York's Shea Stadium Thursday night. Mazzilli slid into second attempting to break up a double play with Mets Willie Montanez but failed in the first inning. Cards won 4-0.

Juggling pitchers trick Rangers

DETROIT (AP) — When it comes to juggling pitchers, Texas Manager Pat Corrales figures nobody does it better than Detroit's Sparky Anderson. The maestro gave the young Rangers' skipper a lesson Thursday night as the Tigers earned a 3-2 victory in a well played game that enabled Detroit to win the tough, five-game series, 4-1. In the fifth inning, with the score tied 2-2, Corrales stayed too long with starter Doc Medich, 5-6, and he paid for it as Steve Kemp doubled home Alan Trammell for what proved to be the winning run. An inning later, the Rangers loaded the bases on Tiger starter Mike Chris, 2-0, with nobody out, but Anderson was able to rescue the rookie left-hander in time as he called once again on rubber-armed Aurelio Lopez who got out of the inning on three pitches — and a tremendous defensive gem by Lou Whitaker. "We blew this one," Corrales said. "All we can do is pick up our heads and win tomorrow." Corrales said he was encouraged by the Rangers' performance and predicted his club would remain in the thick of the race in the American League West. "We've still got 50 games to play. If we play the rest the way we played tonight, we're going to win it," Corrales said.

Orioles break losing skin

The Baltimore Orioles ended a four-game losing streak, and 15-game winner Mike Flanagan had some thoughts about responsibility. "I started the losing streak; I thought I might as well finish it," Flanagan said. Flanagan struck out 10, scattered six hits and worked out of a jam in the ninth inning for a 3-2 victory over the Milwaukee Brewers Thursday night.

Red Sox nudge Indians

Boston right-hander Dennis Eckersley joined Flanagan and Tommy John as the league's only 15-game winners, allowing nine hits in his seventh consecutive complete-game victory. Eckersley got most of his offensive support from Carl Yastrzemski, who drove in two of Boston's three runs with a single and a sacrifice fly. Eckersley, who has lost five, got out of several jams via three Boston double plays. He struck out five and walked three.

Expos errors aid Phils

Manny Trillo and Bob Boone cracked two-run singles around an RBI double by Mike Schmidt as Philadelphia scored five unearned runs in the fifth inning to complete a three-game sweep of Montreal. The Expos led 2-0 when a miscue by third baseman Larry Parrish opened the gates. Parrish fumbled a grounder by Garry Maddox, and after a force play, Larry Bowa singled.

Sutcliffe hurls Bums past Astros

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Rookie Rick Sutcliffe won his 10th game Thursday afternoon, pitching Los Angeles over Houston 4-3. It was a memorable victory for another reason, however. On the day Walter O'Malley, the Dodgers' 75-year-old chairman of the board, passed away, the 23-year-old Sutcliffe recalled an incident a couple of years ago in spring training at Vero Beach, Fla. "I was sick, I got the flu, and couldn't make one of the trips," he said. "I was in bed and the nurse called, asking if I wanted something to eat. A few minutes later there was a knock on the door, I got up and opened it, and there was Mr. O'Malley standing there with a tray. He came in, we sat and talked and then we listened to the game on the radio. "I was just a minor leaguer, but I was important to him, and it's something that I'll never forget." The Dodger Stadium flags were at half mast and the 30,973 fans observed a moment of silence in memory of the Dodger owner. Sutcliffe, 10-8, pitched into the sixth inning before Dave Patterson and Joe Beckwith finished up.

Dusty Baker drove home the decisive runs with a two-run double in the fifth inning that broke a 2-2 tie. Afterward, Baker praised the Astros, who have led the division 100 days this season, the last 73 in a row. "I don't think their inexperience is going to hurt them," said the Dodgers' outfielder. "They are a self-motivated team. They keep coming up with the big hit." Such was the case again Thursday. After Steve Garvey provided Sutcliffe a 2-0 lead in the third inning with his 18th homer, a two-run shot to center, the Astros came back with two in the fifth inning on Jeff Leonard's two-out, two-run triple. The Dodgers broke the tie in the bottom of the fifth when Baker doubled home Lopes and Garvey. Sutcliffe, with 10 victories, is tied with Burt Hooton for the most wins on the staff. Asked if he was surprised with that many wins, Sutcliffe said, "I thought I'd have about 15 or 20 by this time, but in Albuquerque (the Dodgers' Pacific Coast League team). "The club has scored a lot of runs for me, I've pitched well at times but walks have hurt me."

Dillard leads Cub explosion

Chicago's Steve Dillard could only shake his head in wonder and surprise at what he had done. After three hits, two of them homers, and four runs batted in against the Pittsburgh Pirates Thursday, all Dillard could say was: "I don't know what it is. I'm just hitting the ball well." When the smoke had cleared, and the Cubs had routed the Pirates 11-3, Dillard found himself batting 323 (a mere 72 points above his lifetime average) with three home runs this season — one more than he totalled for the first 233 games of his major league career. "I just happened to hit it solidly today," said the 28-year-old utility infielder. "Hitting two in a game is something I thought I'd never do in the big leagues."

Reds rally by Braves

Heity Cruz hit a two-run, inside-the-park homer in Cincinnati's three-run eighth inning, carrying the Reds past the Braves. Atlanta's Charlie Spikes grabbed Cruz' drive just before crashing into the left field wall. Spikes crumpled to the ground and the ball fell out of his glove as Cruz and Dave Collins — who had doubled — scored to snap a 2-2 tie.

Padres stifle Giants

San Diego scored four ninth inning runs with the help of a pair of errors by San Francisco shortstop Johnny LeMaster, backing three-hit pitching by John D'Acquisto and carrying the Padres past the Giants. The shutout for D'Acquisto, 8-9, was his first since he came to the Padres in 1974. The complete game also was the first this season for the right-hander.

Royals explode by Blue Jays

Amos Otis and Al Cowens hit consecutive home runs in the eighth inning, and Larry Gura, 8-8, went the distance for Kansas City, allowing 10 hits and striking out four. It was Gura's fourth complete game. Otis' homer was a two-run shot, his 13th of the season, and he had a sacrifice fly in the second inning.

Wortham hurls White Sox win

Rich Wortham tossed a two-hitter — giving up the only Yanks' run on a homer by Lou Piniella, his 11th — to subdue New York. Wortham, 12-11, who brought a 5.08 earned run average into the game, struck out three and walked two. The other hit he surrendered was Lenny Randle's infield single. Mike Squires and Chet Lemon each had three hits for Chicago.

Cadle leads in Sammy Davis Open

WETHERSFIELD, Conn. — George Cadle doesn't look or sound like a "front runner." The 5-foot-11, 230-pound native of Pineville, Ky., is where he was three weeks ago — in the lead at the end of the first round of a golf tournament. Cadle's 9-under-par 62 at the $300,000 Sammy Davis Jr.-Greater Hartford Open Thursday set a tourney record for the first round and gives him a 3-stroke lead with 54 holes to play. Three weeks ago, Cadle fired a course record to lead the Quad Cities Open after the first 18 holes. He faded quickly, though, ending in a nine-way tie for 15th. "Golf is a streaky game. One day you are on top and the next you're down," the five-year tour pro said. "Everybody is different. I just hope everything works out tomorrow." Cadle, whose performance has fallen steadily since 1977 when he won $40,000, said he knew he had a chance to be the leader "when I got off to a birdie-eagle-birdie start." Cadle, who has only won $8,200 in 20 tourneys this year, called his round at the 6,534-yard par-71 Wethersfield County Club course "freakish." "It's about as good as I can shoot," he said.

A butterfly is a fragile thing, so light that it doesn't even ruffle the petals of a flower when it alights. Its life span is short, but its beauty is total. And, butterflies have memories or, at least, such strong instincts that, for example, thousands of monarchs make an annual pilgrimage back to a single bush on the Monterey Peninsula in California.

What makes these insects continue their strange safaris year after year, through generation after generation of their kind? Scientists discover the answers to some of the endless questions life poses, but we can never know it all. We were never meant to know it all. That's where faith comes in, faith in God, His works, His creatures.

If you've been wondering just what life is all about, why not turn to the Church? It's the first step toward finding out.

DENNIS THE MENACE

"AHA! What do you have to say for yourself?"

"You're out of milk again."

THE FAMILY CIRCUS

"Even if they ARE all reruns, we're sure missin' a lot of television."

Your Daily HOROSCOPE

from the CARROLL RIGGER INSTITUTE

FORECAST FOR SATURDAY, AUG. 11, 1979

GENERAL TENDENCIES: New interests and activities are the order of the day as well as a desire to meet persons who have not been part of your life in the past. Engage in activities you really enjoy.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) It's all right to go after your aims but not in a forceful manner. Take time to improve your health and appearance.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Confer with those who can give you valuable advice on how to solve your personal problems. Use more wisdom in handling money.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Try to be with as many friends as you can today and much good can come of this. Plan just how to stretch your finances.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) A good day to handle public affairs and get excellent results. A high-up knows of your ability and will be helpful to you.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) You are inspired now and can easily carry through with earlier plans and get good results. Make this a most active day.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) You like to have everything around you running smoothly and this is a fine day to do just that. Sidestep an opponent.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 23) You must be alert in handling finances today or you could get into serious trouble. Make needed repairs to property.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Find a better system for getting all that accumulated work out of the way. Take time to engage in favorite hobby.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) A most thoughtful gift for the one you love paves the way to greater happiness today. Take more interest in civic matters.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Try to please family members more and enjoy more accord. Forget worries and replace with happiness at whatever delights you.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Be more enthused about activities you are engaged in and get fine results. Avoid one who is hypocritical.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Study your monetary position and make plans for improvement. Try to be less critical of family members. Be wise.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be a modern type of thinker, capable of carrying through with the most advanced ideas. Teach to complete whatever is once commenced instead of jumping from one thing to another. Sports are fine here.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to you!

Trudeau had abortion

NEW YORK (AP) — Jet-setter Margaret Trudeau says she had an abortion at 17 and flushed the fetus down a toilet, according to an interview in the September issue of Playgirl Magazine.

Th estranged wife of former Canadian Prime Minister Pierre Trudeau was quoted as saying, "This is a story that Pierre asked me never to tell, but since he's no longer my husband, we're going to get it straight."

The abortion, one of several intimate details discussed in the article, came after Margaret began dating a college football player. "And one day we went a little too far and I became pregnant."

Estrada still doing well

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Mail and telephone calls continue to flood the UCLA Medical Center, where "CHiPs" star Erik Estrada was reported alert and in good spirits.

Doctors said Thursday the 30-year-old actor was sufficiently improved from Monday's motorcycle accident to be moved out of the intensive care unit.

"He certainly is improving," said hospital spokeswoman Hali Wickner. She added, "He's been getting hundreds of telephone calls, lots of cards and flowers. He's got a terrific teen-age following, apparently."

'Bionic Woman' divorced

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Actress Lindsay Wagner, television's "Bionic Woman," and actor Michael Brandon have been granted a divorce.

Miss Wagner, 30, and Brandon, 34, were married in December 1976 and separated in November 1977, said Brandon's attorney, Howard L. Thaler. There were no children.

Thaler described the divorce as "amicable," and said Miss Wagner received the couple's Coldwater Canyon home as part of the property settlement.

Beatles' manager sentenced

NEW YORK (AP) — At one time, he managed the most popular singing group in the world. But today, Allen Klein, former manager of the Beatles, faces two months in prison for income tax evasion.

At his sentencing in U.S. District Court in Manhattan on Thursday, Justice Vincent L. Broderick also fined Klein $5,000 and ordered him to pay part of the cost of prosecuting him. Klein's lawyer said he would appeal.

In passing sentence, Broderick said he took into consideration that "in my judgment he (Klein) lied during the trial."

Klein, 48, was convicted in April of tax evasion stemming from a scheme in which he and Beatles promoter Peter Bennett earned "substantial sums" from the sale of thousands of promotional records they received from Capitol record company.

Ruling on Lubbock school zoning baffling

LUBBOCK, Texas (AP) — A federal appeals court ruling requiring a federal district judge to restudy a desegregation order for Lubbock schools has left the controversy "up in the air," according to an attorney for the school district.

The 5th U.S. Circuit Court of Appeals specifically told U.S. District Judge Halbert O. Woodward Thursday to determine whether the Lubbock Independent School District intentionally drew attendance zones to preserve segregated schools.

"I don't believe the lawyers for the government, the lawyers for the school district or the judge will understand what they are getting at," said Charles Cobb, an attorney for the Lubbock Independent School District. "It looks to me like the ruling dealt with Lubbock's 1977 application to federal court for permission to build new schools — a requirement under the district's earlier desegregation order handed down in 1970."

The Justice Department opposed the school building plan and sought a more encompassing desegregation order because the 1970 order failed to adequately integrate Lubbock schools.

Woodward subsequently told LISD officials that it could build the new schools if a plan to desegregate nine of its 22 minority schools won court approval.

The Justice Department appealed, contending the desegregation plan approved by Woodward did not go far enough and that it "unfairly burdens minority students."

Davis trial set to begin on Monday

FORT WORTH, Texas (AP) — A state district judge sent a jury of eight men and four women home for a three-day weekend prior to the scheduled start of prosecution testimony Monday in the second murder-for-hire trial of millionaire Cullen Davis.

Attorneys completed two weeks of questioning potential veniremen Thursday, selecting a panel that ranged in age from 26 to 63.

District Judge Gordon Gray warned jurors to avoid news reports of the much-publicized case.

Davis, 45, heir to a family-owned, worldwide industrial empire, maintains he was framed on a charge of soliciting a gunman to kill the presiding judge in his protracted divorce case against ex-wife Priscilla Davis.

An earlier attempt to try Davis on the murder-for-hire charges resulted in a mistrial last January. The Houston jury deadlocked 8-4 in favor of conviction after a three-month trial.

The alleged target, State District Judge Joe Eidson, was not harmed in the purported scheme and is expected to be among the first of perhaps a dozen prosecution witnesses.

"I don't know how long this trial will last," Gray told the jury, which includes two blacks and a Mexican-American. "The best guess is two months."

Teachers eye TMHA exhibit

Denton and Johnnie Marsalis recently returned from Dallas where they assisted the Texas Manufactured Housing Association with their exhibit at the Vocational Homemakers Teachers Association of Texas Convention.

Marsalis, who is on the State Educational Task Force Committee and the State Education Committee of the Texas Manufactured Housing Association in Austin, reported there was a large number of teachers and associates who attended the exhibit at the Dallas Convention Center. The event was from July 30, through Aug. 1, 1979.

TMHA mobile home dealers volunteered to distribute approximately 100 used homes to interested and ambitious home making instructors of different school districts across the state.

This year the mobile home in display was redecorated by the Homemaking students of the Big Sandy High School, Big Sandy, Texas, under the supervision and direction of Ms. Bernice Wigington. Some of the members of the Education Committee were on hand to visit with the teachers and to answer any questions that arose.

End. Come home. We hope you're using your father's hand tool (saw, plane, chisel, pry bar, etc.) to help you get into your new home. See Classifieds, p. 7.
