Passengers safe, ashore in Alaska

SITKA, Alaska (AP) — Passengers from a lifeboat that rescuers at first missed in the pitch-dark night and stormy waters of the Gulf of Alaska finally came ashore 36 hours after they abandoned the burning cruise ship Prinsendam.

In one of the biggest sea rescues in history, they and more than 500 other people were brought safely to land.

"After the Coast Guard left, we were left all alone in the fog and it was very, very scary. The waves were incredible. There wasn't much talking. We tried to conserve energy and warmth," said Regina O'Malley of New York City.

"Everybody was terrified... We knew that if we couldn't see a plane, they couldn't see us either," said Sgt. Jose Rios, one of two Air Force paramedics who were with the 18 forgotten passengers.

By Sunday night, they and the other passengers from the 400-foot luxury liner had been accounted for and were safely ashore, said the ship's owner, Holland America Cruises. Most were to head for their homes today by jet and bus.

The Coast Guard said 383 passengers landed in Valdez at the trans-Alaska oil pipeline marine terminal late Sunday night, and 150 people were brought into this southern Alaska port, 500 miles southeast of Valdez.

The Coast Guard had ended its search late Saturday night in the belief that all the shivering occupants of the lifeboats and lifeboats launched by the Prinsendam had been picked up by helicopters, the supertanker Williamsburgh and Coast Guard cutter Boutwell.

But when a head count that night came up 18 short, and the Air Force could not account for two paramedics who had been dropped to the water in scuba gear to help with the rescue, search units went back into action. The people aboard the last lifeboat were rescued Sunday by the Boutwell.

Waves had washed over the sides of the lifeboat drenching the occupants, who suffered from constant seasickness and cold, said Ms. O'Malley.

"The waves were incredible, I'd say 30 or 40 feet," said Peter Kapetan of Fairfield, Conn.

The last search plane those in the lifeboat saw passed over at 6 p.m. Saturday, and they saw nothing else until the Boutwell pulled into view about seven hours later, Sgt. Rios said.

"At moments, depression would come over us, but when the tanker finally came, we felt we were going to make it," said Joan Davidson of Highland, N.Y.

The Prinsendam's engine room caught fire early Saturday morning, and as the fire spread out of control, passengers were ordered into lifeboats about 6 a.m.

The liner, on a 30-day cruise to the Orient, was still burning early today, unmanned and adrift between the two Alaskan ports, about 120 miles off Yakutat. Billows of white smoke were pouring from the ship, and search units reported a red glow below decks.

The first vessel to reach the Prinsendam was the 1,000-foot Williamsburgh, which had taken on 1.5 million barrels of Alaska crude oil and was headed for Corpus Christi, Texas, around Cape Horn when it was jacked into service as a rescue vessel.

Rescued passengers aboard the Williamsburgh arrived in Valdez about 11:30 p.m. after up to 10 hours in lifeboats and almost another 24 hours jammed into tanker quarters designed for about 35 crewmen.

"They were just stacked in there; they were wall-to-wall," said Cmdr. James Woodie of the Coast Guard station at Valdez.

The skipper of Prinsendam, Capt. Cornelius Wabeke, arrived here aboard the Boutwell, but Holland America officials would not allow reporters to talk to him.

One passenger rescued Saturday, John W. Gyorkos of Huntington Beach, Calif., said the rescue was orderly, "but there were three or four members of the band aboard our lifeboat and a couple of other crew members, and they actually pushed aside old ladies" to get picked up by helicopter.

No other passengers recounted such incidents, and Holland America officials at a news conference in New York said the report was unfounded.

The Coast Guard said it did not know how the Prinsendam fire had started.

Although 40 of the Prinsendam's crew stayed aboard after the order to abandon ship, they later were airlifted to the Boutwell along with a Coast Guardsman who was helping with firefighting.

A spokesman said Coast Guard fire experts who flew over the vessel reported that they felt the ship could be saved, but he said, "Nobody's landing on that ship until the weather lets up."

Holland America officials also said they believe the 27-year-old ship could be saved, and plans were being made to tow it to an unidentified moorage.

Iraqi forces claiming stronghold in port city

BAGHDAD, Iraq (AP) — Fighting was reported all along the 300-mile invasion front today and Iraq claimed the embattled Iranian port city of Khorramshahr had become "an advance stronghold" for Iraqi troops. Iraq said the Iraqi penetrations had been halted in several areas and Iranian forces had forced the Iraqis to retreat in other areas.

Jordan's prime minister ordered a mobilization of all transport vehicles to carry food and supplies to the Iraqi army. The mobilization and the reported loan of Jordanian air bases appeared to move Jordan closer to full-scale involvement in the war, and came after a visit by Jordanian King Hussein to Baghdad.

The Iraqi news agency carried a dispatch from Khorramshahr saying "the heroes of the battle are loftily standing" in the city and its port. It said Iraqi forces were rendering aid to residents of the area.

An Iranian military communique said Iranian jets raided military targets inside Iraq, "including air bases, radar installations, troop columns and military garrisons as well as oil and military-industrial installations."

The communique denied that the Iranian jets attacked civilian areas, although it said they had dropped leaflets over Baghdad. The Iranian air attacks ended a unilateral Iraqi cease-fire moments after it started.

Another Iranian communique said four people were killed and 25 wounded when Iraqi jets bombed Kowhdasht, a town about 100 miles from the Iraqi border in the central sector of the war front.

Iranian radio and TV broadcast an interview with President Abolhassan Bani-Sadr in which he said Sunday's Iraqi air raids involved one or two planes, adding: "They were not considered to be attacks. Such raids are simply intended to restore the morale of a misled army."

An Iraqi spokesman said earlier Iranian warplanes made two raids on the Baghdad area and other Iraqi cities beginning at dawn Sunday, when Iraq had said it would stop fighting if the Iraqis did likewise. Iraq said it retaliated with raids on the Tehran airport and oil installations elsewhere and would continue the war "in view of Iran's non-response to the cease-fire."

The Iranian communique said its forces at the northern end of the front, near Qasr-e-Shirin, were resisting concentrated Iraqi attacks, halting an Iraqi penetration there.

An Iraqi advance was also stopped in the central sector near Mehran, while Iraqi forces were driven back "some distance" Sunday in Musian, Takkeh and Pay-e-Pol, according to the communique broadcast by Tehran Radio. It said the Iranian forces achieved "impressive successes" in the central sector, taking partial control of the Karkeh river.

Around Ahwaz, the capital of the oil-rich Khuzistan province, an Iraqi column was "crushed" in the past few days and the area has been cleared of Iraqis, the Iraqis claimed.

At the southern end of the front, the Iraqis were continuing to shell Abadan, from the Iraqi side of the Shatt al-Arab waterway. But Iraq claimed that Iraqi armored forces had been forced back from around the port city of Khorramshahr, where fierce street fighting has been raging for nearly two weeks.

Gonzalez murder trial takes shape

Trial preparations are beginning today in District Attorney Rick Hamby's office for the Oct. 13 murder trial of Abe Gonzalez, for the Feb. 15 shooting of Ronald Dean Jeter.

Assistant District Attorney Don Richard said his office will try to prepare for legal moves by Defense Attorney George Gilkerson.

Witnesses allege Jeter, 35, was shot twice with a sawed off shotgun before someone at BJ's Lounge, Snyder Highway, struck the accused killer with a pool cue.

No illegal aliens enrolled in local schools, Hise says

By DON WOODS
Big Spring School Superintendent Lynn Hise said there were no illegal aliens enrolled in Big Spring schools, as far as officials know.

If illegal aliens had attended school elsewhere previously, the records they bring with them from that school would not reflect their alien status, said Hise.

Illegal aliens starting kindergarten would be the only way for officials to know if they were enrolling illegal aliens.

"I'm sure we have enrolled in school some illegal aliens," said Hise, but records fail to reflect their status.

Administration recently completed a survey of Big Spring principals to determine if there were illegal aliens enrolled. The report is turned over to Texas Education Association. The survey is mandated for all school districts unless there are enough illegal aliens for the count to present a hardship on the district, said Hise.

NOW predicts Carter to win support by default

SAN ANTONIO, Texas (AP) — A National Organization for Women delegate predicts President Carter will receive feminist support by default because the group is so vehemently opposed to Republican Ronald Reagan.

"If (independent John) Anderson continues to fall in the polls, then I think there will be a significant shift to Carter because people will be increasingly frightened of Reagan's election," said Mary Jean Collins of Chicago. Ms. Collins supported a complicated resolution on the presidential campaign approved at the closing session of the NOW convention Sunday.

"Also, I think the Democratic Party made a good move forward when it approved a strong women's rights platform."

The resolution endorsed neither Anderson nor Carter, but vowed to follow the Reagan-Bush campaign trail with picket signs until the Nov. 4 election.

The resolution also endorsed the Democratic platform and softened a position taken by the NOW national board last December vowing to actively work against Carter's reelection.

Approved by chanting, singing delegates, the resolution accused Reagan and the Republican Party of becoming "totally captive of the radical right" by repudiating the GOP's 40-year-old commitment to the Equal Rights Amendment.

A motion calling for the nation's largest feminist group to back Anderson was easily defeated prior to approval by acclamation of the main resolution.

Deadline for registration 5 p.m. today

Many registering to vote Friday were transferring their registration to a different precinct, said Howard County Tax Collector Assessor Zirah Bednar today.

She is holding to her original estimate of 16,000 registered in the county by the 5 p.m. deadline today.

The tax collector's office was swamped Friday as registration for the Nov. 4 general election drew to a close and tax collections began.

State law requires registration 30 days before the election. Mrs. Bednar is allowing registration through today because the 30th day before the election fell on Sunday.

No delegate attempted to gain NOW endorsement of Carter.

The 1,500 delegates also defeated a resolution that would have put NOW on the record against the draft after several speakers noted many feminists were members of the armed forces and counseled that the draft, if reinstated, should be extended to women.

The delegates also approved a call for NOW's "total commitment" to winning approval of the ERA in three needed states before the June 30, 1982 deadline.

The organization's presidential stance stated that NOW intended to "expose Reagan's medieval stance on women's issues through national action in the form of pickets wherever Reagan and/or Bush appear anywhere in the United States" for the remainder of the campaign.

"Reagan is very clearly an opponent of women's rights, both personally and the platform he runs under," said NOW executive vice president Judy Goldsmith of Arlington, Va. "We have committed ourselves to be wherever he is throughout the country before the election."

"We did feel the president made a greater effort in Illinois than he had in the past and we appreciated that," said Ms. Collins. "I think some will vote for Carter, some for Anderson and none for Reagan."

TROOPER SLAIN — Texas Department of Public Safety Trooper Jerry Don Davis was shot and killed after stopping a car on U.S. Highway 84 near Slaton, Texas late Sunday.

Trooper shot, killed near Slaton

SLATON, Texas (AP) — A Department of Public Safety trooper who had stopped a car for investigation was found shot to death late Sunday on U.S. 84 near here, DPS officials said.

The officer was identified as Jerry Don Davis of Slaton. Fellow officers found him slumped over the steering wheel of his patrol car, holding a driver's license in one hand. He had been shot once in the head, said DPS spokesman Larry Todd in Austin.

Lubbock County officials issued a capital murder arrest warrant early today, naming a Lorenzo man in connection with the shooting incident. Within an hour, DPS officers reported arresting two men in connection with the case, but the man named in the warrant remained at large.

Davis notified his dispatcher by radio that he had stopped a vehicle about 11:20 p.m. Sunday, and "that was the last contact," Todd said.

The dispatcher ordered another patrol unit to the area, southeast of Lubbock, after Davis failed to check in, he said.

Todd said the vehicle Davis stopped may have had stolen license plates.

Sure-fire truancy cure

BENTON HARBOR, Mich. (AP)—School officials have hit upon a sure-fire way to improve student attendance for at least a day.

The plan was put into effect on Friday, when the state made its official count of the student population, which it uses in calculating aid to the district.

The more pupils, the more aid. So the district made a point of telling students that Friday's lunch menu would include hamburgers from three local franchises of a fast-food chain.

The result, said district spokesman Clem Cleveland, was that "today's absentee rate was extremely low."

Cleveland said the district counted 68 more students than had been projected, meaning the district, using the statewide formula of about $1,000 a student, will reap an additional $68,000 in aid.

Family affair at college

NEW HAVEN, Conn. (AP)—Yale University is making it a family affair this year, with sons and daughters of alumni making up nearly a quarter of the freshman class.

University officials said the figure reflects a growing interest in Yale by children of alumni and has nothing to do with the fund-raising efforts that usually are directed at graduates.

This year 24.3 percent of Yale's 1,250 freshmen are children of alumni. Eight years ago, the figure was 13.7 percent. Yale officials say the increase in alumni children has not squeezed out minority group members. This year's freshman class has more minority students than ever before—214, or 17 percent, the officials said.

Turkey Walk preparations beginning for Oct. 25 event

Do you know of an area convenient to Big Spring where there is little or no auto traffic, which is scenically interesting but without hills and where exercise enthusiasts can walk, run or jog? That's the challenge which volunteers of the American Heart Association were given and have met in making their plans for the annual Turkey Walk to be held Oct. 25.

Today, Sandy Edwards, chairperson of the Big Spring Turkey Walk announced a measured route which will take walkers around the tip of Scenic Mountain, one and three quarter miles in length, as many times as they wish. The Turkey Walk will begin at the pavilion on top of the mountain where the start-finish checkpoints will be.

Participants do not have to walk up and down the mountain, only around the top. Volunteers will record and certify the mileage achieved by participants.

Ms. Edwards explained that exercise enthusiasts who are signing up now for the event are expected to assist sponsors pledged to contribute to the Heart Association on the basis of miles completed by the walker. She also stressed that interest in the event extends to adults as well as students of all ages.

In similar events in the past, many of the participants have pledged contributions of their own in addition to amounts promised by sponsoring friends and relatives.

Prizes have been contributed by local merchants. These prizes will be awarded on the basis of total amount of sponsorship achieved.

ANNUAL EVENT—The annual Turkey Walk, benefiting the American Heart Association has been planned this year for Oct. 25. Sandy Edwards, chairperson of the event will be joined by her two children when the walk takes place. Free turkeys will be awarded to anyone raising $75 in pledges.

TESCO files new proposed rates

Texas Electric Service Company has filed new proposed rates with the Public Utility Commission in Austin designed to recover the $69.4 million overall revenue increase approved by the PUC earlier this week.

The proposed rates are expected to be approved by the PUC in mid-October.

Under the proposed new rates, a customer using 1,000 kilowatt-hours would see an increase of about $7 per month on his electric bill.

Following is a chart showing the effects under the new proposed rates on typical residential electric bills.

Effect of TESCO'S Proposed Rates on Typical Residential Electric Bills + KWH PRESENT INCREASE AMOUNT PROPOSED
500	$24.40	$3.37	$27.77
1000	43.51	6.92	50.43
1500	62.61	10.47	73.08
2000	81.72	14.02	95.74
2500	100.83	17.57	118.40
3000	119.94	21.12	141.06

+ Using October fuel costs.

"This rate increase naturally means that the cost of electricity will go up, but customers can help hold down their electric bills by conserving and using electricity wisely," Hooper Sanders, district manager for TESCO here, said.

Hearing Loss Is Not A Sign Of Old Age

Chicago, Ill.—A free offer of special interest to those who hear but do not understand words has been announced by Beltone. A non-operating model of the smallest Beltone aid of its kind will be given absolutely free to anyone requesting it.

True, all hearing problems are not alike . . . and some cannot be helped by a hearing aid. But audiologists report that many can. So, send for this free model now, and wear it in the privacy of your own home. It is not a real hearing aid, but it will show you how tiny hearing help can be. It's yours to keep, free.

The actual aid weighs less than a third of an ounce, and it's all at ear level, in one unit.

These models are free, so we suggest you write for yours now. Again, we repeat, there is no cost, and certainly no obligation. Thousands have already been mailed, so write today to Dept. 52994, Beltone Electronics, 4201 W. Victoria, Chicago, Ill. 60646.

Economic roller coaster

Up, down and dizzy

Coping with the ups and downs of the economy for the past 12 months has been a lot like riding a roller coaster: You feel awfully dizzy when you get off, but you end up pretty much where you started.

"Nothing much has changed," said Fabian Linden, an economist with the Conference Board, a research group sponsored by business. "I think the consumer's in a somewhat better condition...but there's no 'gee-whiz' change."

A year ago today, the Federal Reserve Board announced a major anti-inflation campaign. The first move was an increase in the discount rate — the amount the board charges its member banks who want to borrow money.

The roller coaster ride began. Interest rates of all kinds went up. The prime rate — the amount banks charge their very best customers — hit a record 20 percent in April. It got harder and harder to find someone willing to lend money for a mortgage. In March, the Federal Reserve imposed controls on consumer borrowing and credit card use. Credit dried up. The cost of buying now and paying later increased.

The economy slowed. It slowed so much there was a recession. During the second quarter of this year, the gross national product fell at an annual rate of 9.6 percent. Prices stopped rising so quickly. By July, interest rates had dropped. The prime rate was below 11 percent. The Consumer Price Index was unchanged for the first time in years. At the same time, however, unemployment was rising. The housing and auto industries — which depend heavily on borrowing — were in trouble.

The controls on consumer borrowing were lifted. Interest rates started rising again. So did installment debt. And the Consumer Price Index. Last month, the Fed increased the discount rate — which had dropped to 10 percent — by a full percentage point, a move President Carter called ill-advised. By the end of last week, the prime rate was at 14 percent, almost where it was a year ago.

What does it all mean? Has anything changed? A Kansas woman, who didn't want her name used, wasn't sure. Rising prices are still a problem, she said, even though she and her husband together earn more than $30,000 a year.

"We don't buy things that maybe we would have bought on impulse," she said. "Money just doesn't stretch as far...Anywhere you can, you cut corners."

Emily Card is an expert on money — particularly credit. She helped draft the Equal Credit Opportunity Act passed by Congress in 1974, directed the Women's Credit Rights Project of the University of Southern California and is now on a fellowship at the John F. Kennedy School of Government at Harvard.

The last 12 months, she said, have left consumers sadder, but wiser. "A year ago, we were all a little more innocent," Ms. Card said. Today, consumers are wary, she said, adding, "Once again we are going to see a period of unpredictable credit rates for the consumer."

Look at a few numbers. In September 1979, outstanding consumer installment debt — not counting mortgages — increased by a record $4.45 billion. Outstanding debt kept growing, although at a slower pace, through March 1980.

Then came controls. During April, outstanding installment debt decreased by almost $2 billion — the first drop in almost five years. The downward trend continued through July, the latest month for which figures are available.

By July, however, consumers were loosening the pursestrings a bit. On an overall basis, debt repayments exceeded credit extensions. But new borrowing rose for the first time since February.

Americans are regaining some of their optimism. The Consumer Confidence Index put together by the Conference Board declined steadily from October 1979 to May 1980, then started rising again. The index — measured against a base of 100 during 1969-70 — stood at 65.8 in August, and Linden said preliminary figures showed a "whopping improvement in September." That would bring the index near last September's 78.2 level.

Personal savings dipped to a record low late last year, representing only about 3 percent of disposable income. The savings rate increased to over 5 percent earlier this year, as consumers became worried about the future and found it harder to borrow. Now, however, credit is again widely available — although it still costs more. And the savings rate has dipped back to just above 4 percent.

Inflation has slowed. The Consumer Price Index rose seven-tenths of a percent in August; from September through March it rose 1 percent a month or more. But new increases in interest rates will show up in the index soon and will combine with higher food prices to push inflation into the double-digit category again.

Some things have changed. The Labor Department said workers' buying power — after taxes — went up three-tenths of a percent in August. But it was still 6.5 percent below what it was a year earlier.

On the light side

Morris the moose back

ZANESVILLE, Ohio (AP) — Morris the moose, missing for nearly a month, is back home with his mate, Maude.

The 1,100-pound critter wandered off a Guernsey County game preserve in September and was captured just north of Zanesville early Sunday.

Police, Muskingum County sheriff's deputies and Highway Patrol troopers in a plane helped the moose's owner, Dr. B.K. Jones, capture Morris.

Four tranquilizer shots were needed to bring the moose down.

Following his capture, Morris was returned to the game preserve to be with his mate.

Paycheck hits jackpot

CUERO, Texas (AP) — Paycheck hit the jackpot at the Turkey Trot, taking home the coveted Traveling Trophy of Tumultuous Triumph.

The pride of Worthington, Minn., Paycheck lost in the second heat of the annual race to Texas turkey Ruby Begonia.

But in the end, Paycheck took the title and honors as Turkey Capital of the World for his home city.

Ruby Begonia's 1:35.3 bested Paycheck's 1:45.4 on the 100-yard trot, run right down the middle of Cuero's widest street.

But Ruby couldn't live down her capricious performance in the first heat last month in Worthington. In that race, she flew the coop, roosted on a roof and refused to come down. The default cost her 38 seconds, tacked on for a total score of 3:30.25. It just wasn't enough to beat Paycheck's 3:10.35.

Worthington has won the trophy five times and Cuero, three. The popular race culminated the annual Turkeyfest in this South Texas city.

West Germans give Schmidt four more years of power

BONN, West Germany (AP) — West German voters quadrupled Chancellor Helmut Schmidt's majority in the lower house of Parliament, giving his leftist-liberal coalition four more years in power.

Schmidt's victory over his conservative foe, Bavarian Premier Franz Josef Strauss, had been forecast by opinion polls before the national election Sunday. But the size of his majority, which jumped from 11 to 45 seats, was a surprise and resulted from gains made by his junior coalition partner, Hans-Dietrich Genscher's moderate Free Democrats.

Schmidt said he was "very satisfied" with the outcome of the national election Sunday, adding that it also "pleased the neighbors" of Western Europe's most prosperous and populous nation.

"Germany remains predictable," he said, repeating his favorite campaign phrase, "and that is what counts."

He told reporters his new majority in the Bundestag would allow him to govern more smoothly and to pursue detente with the Soviet Bloc, a military balance in Europe and a "policy of social peace."

Genscher, who is Schmidt's vice chancellor and foreign minister, said his party was "very happy" over the results. He said despite their gains, they would not ask for more than the four cabinet posts they had in the last government.

Political commentators said the Free Democrats' strong showing would give Schmidt increased support with which to resist the demands of his own party's radicals for stronger socialist programs.

Strauss' alliance of Christian Democrats and his own Bavarian Christian Social Union held its position as the single largest faction in the Bundestag with 44.5 percent of the vote and 226 seats. But this was 17 less than it had in the last house.

Storm Ivan now hurricane

MIAMI (AP) — Tropical Storm Ivan turned into a hurricane early today, but forecasters said the storm posed little threat to land.

"This one had a somewhat unusual development," said forecaster Joe Pelissier of the National Hurricane Center here. "It's no threat to land."

At 6 a.m. EDT, the storm was located at latitude 28.5 north, longitude 31.5 west, about 700 miles southwest of the Azores Islands. It was moving southwestward at 12 mph.

The hurricane's highest sustained winds were 80 mph.

Ivan became the ninth tropical storm of the 1980 Atlantic season Sunday. It turned into a hurricane about midnight.

Ivan formed from a non-tropical low pressure system that gradually began intensifying Saturday and acquired tropical characteristics Sunday.

Forecasters said the hurricane is not expected to strengthen today.

The time, according to Eli Terry.

Eli Terry made more than clocks. He made works of art that told time. Back when Betsy Ross was making the first American flag.

Now, so that more than museums and private collections can have one, Howard Miller took a grand old example of his exquisite craftsmanship and recreated it. Then they added Europe's three most beautiful cathedral chimes. Westminster. St. Michael, Whittington.

Reaction to humor varies widely world over

The inscrutable Japanese. They laugh when you least expect it and never crack a smile when you're trying to be funny. So writes one Satoshi Sugita, who asks "Do the Japanese have a sense of humor?" in an article prepared for the magazine PHP.

Lin Yu-tang, the celebrated Chinese scholar, insisted that the Japanese are a humorless race. He also said that the Japanese have political and diplomatic limitations because they have as little appreciation for humor as the Russians and the Germans.

Lin was of the opinion that the Chinese and French have the best sense of humor, and the Americans and British are somewhere in the middle.

DR. JOHN CONDON, a former professor of cross-cultural communications at International Christian University in Tokyo, noted that Americans are prone to start a speech with a joke, while the Japanese very often were late or have an apology to make. Condon once poked fun at this difference by saying to an American audience:

"Being a researcher of the communications behavior of the two nations, I would like to start my speech by apologizing for not telling you a joke."

The Russians, of course, think they have a monopoly on humor, so they contest Condon's views. The British are inclined to think they invented mirth. On the international level, the Japanese have never had a reputation for humor, however.

The Japanese, indeed, proved their seriousness after listening to a British news program aired on April Fool's Day this year. In a shortwave program heard in Japan, the BBC said that London's Big Ben was going digital and that the first listeners to contact the station would get the hands.

Within hours, a Japanese seaman contacted the BBC and asked for clock's hands. Soon, other Japanese began sending in letters and messengers. Most were angry at the British for destroying a great historical monument.

Reaction to humor, of course, varies widely all over the world. The French have the reputation for laughing at jokes halfway through. The British laugh twice — once when they hear a joke and again when they understand it. The Americans, some say, never laugh because they know all the jokes. And the Japanese must be given at least a full day's warning before you tell a joke. With any less advance notice, you're apt to catch someone unprepared.

To the Japanese, laughter can often mean disrespect and discourtesy. (It can here, too, on occasions.) Japanese girls are taught to cover their mouths when they laugh.

THE SAMURAI IN the Edo period were taught to flex their cheek muscles once every three years. They feared that laughter would hurt other people and rob them of dignity — so the less frequently it is done, the better.

During WW II, as American prisoners were to discover, the act of baring one's teeth or grinning too often was an offense that could be punished by a beating from a senior officer.

Japanese, of course, like to laugh but they feel there is a time and place for everything and one who cracks jokes all the time is frowned upon as being impudent. To put it another way, the Japanese simply have not been accustomed to accepting humor in certain situations. Consider that with the Americans' preference for gallows-type humor and the success of Charles Adams' macabre cartoons in New Yorker magazines.

Americans like to alleviate desperate situations with levity and, in these days of galloping inflation, have had a lot of chances to try and be funny.

Lots of advice

Around the rim

Andrea Cohen

A spoonful of sugar makes the medicine go down....

Mary Poppins always did live in her own world. She never had the fancy names the doctors give for the flu and a lingering cold.

But no matter what it is called, Mary Poppins never received weeks worth of advice.

"Take two shots of whiskey, it will clear you right up," says one of my friends.

"Take one shot of whiskey and two teaspoons of honey," says another.

"TAKE ONE SHOT of whiskey, one teaspoon of honey and one teaspoon of lemon juice," says yet another.

But you can see what the basic ingredient is. And since I can't stand the taste of whiskey, I've been on what the doctor has advised. I am now on my third brand of cough medicine.

Not as bad as whiskey, cough medicine isn't the greatest tasting thing in the world to take either, no matter what kind you're on. And there is definitely an art to getting it down.

Take the bottle in the left hand, put it into the spoon in the right hand. Put the bottle down, then pick up the glass of juice. Hold both the glass and the spoon at the same level and stare at it for a second. Put the spoon in the mouth, swallow the medicine and get the juice down before you have a chance to make a stupid looking face.

Now if you live by yourself, as I do, you don't have to worry about anyone seeing the funny looking face.

But if you should be lucky enough to have some sort of housemate, taking medicine is a different ballgame.

YOU GET HIM to pour the medicine into the spoon and then jam it down your throat while you hold the glass of juice. Remember, try not to make that stupid looking face or you'll get some kind of comment like, "Now, now, it wasn't that bad, was it?" And then he ends up getting the rest of the medicine dumped over his head, causing it never to do anyone any good and wasting shampoo.

But meanwhile, I shall keep taking my medicine, trying to knock this cold out.

Maybe I'll try that spoonful of sugar. And if it takes away the taste of the cough medicine, I may try it with everyone else's remedies.

Planes menaced

Jack Anderson

WASHINGTON — While Billy Carter was being investigated for pocketing petrodollars from Libya, that country's pilots were overheard receiving orders to shoot down U.S. reconnaissance planes over the Mediterranean.

At least seven of the slow-flying RC-135s were menaced by Libyan jet fighters in international airspace. Some American aircraft had to take evasive action and use electronic trickery to avoid being blasted out of the sky.

Libyan dictator Muammar Qaddafi earlier demanded that U.S. Navy ships also keep out of the Gulf of Sidra, where naval exercises had been scheduled off the Libyan coast but beyond his jurisdiction.

IT WAS NO SECRET in the Pentagon that Qaddafi was a friend of Billy Carter and that the president's brother was trying to get the ban lifted on the sale of transport planes to Libya. Whether this influenced the Joint Chiefs' decision is not known. But in June, during a three-day period when the Air Force's Gen. Lew Allen Jr. was presiding, the naval exercises were obligingly diverted out of the Gulf of Sidra into the middle of the Mediterranean.

This upset the Pentagon people who felt that a petty, if unruly, tyrant was pushing America around. They were all the more galled because Qaddafi has permitted the Soviet fleet to sail in the Gulf of Sidra. So the Joint Chiefs have planned new naval exercises, which they may hold in the forbidden Gulf.

Meanwhile, the details of the Libyan-American air encounters, suppressed by the Carter administration, deserve to be told. A top-secret Pentagon report describes the reconnaissance planes in these words:

"The RC-135, with long endurance and an air refueling capability, operates along the periphery of foreign countries to collect communications and electronic intelligence."

Offensive as this may be to Qaddafi, it is perfectly legal. Yet he sent fighter pilots with itchy trigger fingers to intercept several of the planes.

On Aug. 2, for example, a lone RC-135 was sampling the air waves about 200 miles off the Libyan coast when its radar showed a squadron of MIG-23s closing in. The attackers "gave chase and went into the afterburner stage behind the 135," a Pentagon source told my associate Dale Van Atta.

THE ELECTRONIC GEAR aboard the U.S. plane showed that the Libyan fighters were "locked onto the 135 and were armed and prepared to fire." The Americans escaped by pulling an electronic switch, which can disrupt and deceive pursuing supersonic fighter planes.

"The ECM (electronic countermeasure) snowscreen kicked in and suddenly the MIGs had 16 targets on their screens. They didn't know which was the real one," said the source describing the narrow escape.

On Sept. 16, another RC-135 detected the swift approach of two MIG-23s, whose pilots were overheard receiving instructions to fire air-to-air missiles. Again the Americans threw the electronic switch and plunged the plane into a crash dive.

There were other similar incidents. On Sept. 21, for instance, four Libyan Mirage jets, two MIG-23s and two MIG-25s chased a reconnaissance plane until three Navy F-14 fighters showed up and frightened the Libyans away.

Footnote: Both White House and Pentagon spokesmen refused to discuss any actions taken by the Joint Chiefs.

CHANGING TIMES: John Sawhill, chairman of the newly created Synthetic Fuels Corporation, is highly skilled in the bureaucratic art of sniffing the political winds and following the current party line — no matter which party is directing the ship of state.

In 1974, when he was head of the Ford administration's Federal Energy Administration, Sawhill pooh-poohed the need for government subsidies to encourage development of synthetic fuels. Capital was no problem, he said, explaining that "the money will be there if the government permits industry to earn an adequate rate of return."

Sawhill at that time was counting on oil prices settling at $7 to $9 a barrel. "If prices stay at this level, there's no need for any subsidy," he said.

Well, times have changed, and Sawhill has changed with them. Oil prices have quadrupled in the past six years, which you might think would constitute "an adequate rate of return" to encourage private industry in syn-fuels development.

But Big Oil, sulking in its tent over the windfall profits tax, is demanding government subsidies for its research and development of synthetic fuels. And the obliging Sawhill — who supported the windfall tax — agrees with the oil men. His corporation will encourage the reluctant oil dragons with $8 billion of the taxpayers' money in subsidies.

Accommodating Moscow

Joseph Kraft

UNITED NATIONS — Labor strife in Poland gave the U.S. a chance to put Russia on the diplomatic defensive. But for electoral reasons, Washington wants to give relations with Moscow a positive look.

So here at the United Nations American diplomats have ignored ambiguous Soviet behavior to create the appearance of Big Two cooperation in both arms control and moves to stop the fighting in Iran and Iraq. With the U.S. going limp, other countries are moving to accommodate Russia on other issues — especially Afghanistan.

THE TROUBLE that broke out in Poland last month stretched the Russians in several ways. The Kremlin has already been obliged to send economic aid. It may eventually have to apply some muscle. So the overtures made by Moscow to Western Europe have been compromised. The Russians are in particularly poor position to press on their demand that NATO abandon its plan for modernizing its medium-range missiles, or Theatre Nuclear Forces, in Western Europe.

In these conditions, the U.S. could have demanded Soviet concessions as a price for the TNF negotiations. The Russians could have been obliged to freeze development of their own medium-range missile — the SS20. Or even to commit to a withdrawal from Afghanistan.

But President Carter's election strategy casts him as a peace-maker, and Ronald Reagan as the agent of war. At his news conference on Sept. 18, the president declared that the opening of talks with Russia on Theatre Nuclear Forces would be a step toward peace. So Secretary of State Edmund Muskie came up to the General Assembly here determined to announce an accord with Andre Gromyko.

The Soviet foreign minister did not make it easy. In his formal speech on Sept. 23, Gromyko accused the U.S. of pushing the arms race, and dismissed charges that Russia's invasion of Afghanistan aggravated tension as arguments "built on sand" and believed "only by the gullible."

In his private talk with Muskie two days later, Gromyko gave no ground on Afghanistan. While he did say Russia wanted to contain the war between Iraq and Iran, he refused to stipulate the Soviet Union would not send arms to Iraq. Behind the scenes, moreover, Russian diplomats worked hand in glove with the Iraqis in the shaping of a Security Council resolution for a cease-fire.

Still, Muskie declared after the meeting with Gromyko that both the U.S. and the U.S.S.R. were in "neutral position" respecting the war between Iraq and Iran. He announced that talks for reducing medium-range missiles in Europe would begin in Geneva Oct. 13. While he acknowledged the trouble caused by the invasion of Afghanistan, he said there was in the works "a slow process... to climb back to a more normal relationship."

THE ADMINISTRATION'S keen interest in accommodation with Moscow has immediate consequences for Afghanistan. While the fighting still goes on there, virtually all countries believe the U.S. has acquiesced in the Soviet aggression. Indeed attention is now turning toward holding in a neutral position the country most immediately threatened by the Soviet presence in Afghanistan — Pakistan.

Few escape mono virus

Paul G. Donohue, M.D.

Dear Dr. Donohue: Would you please discuss mono and its effects? How do you get it? Should the rest of the family stay away from the sick person or do you have to have close contact to catch it? — M.S.

Early fall is a prime mono season. If you checked the blood of all adults in this country you would find that more than 90 percent of them had mono during their lives. Most would not be able to remember when they had it, but the lingering presence of antibodies made against the virus at the time of exposure would be the tip-off. That's how mild it can be.

For those who get noticeably sick with the illness, the major complaints are of sore throat and swollen lymph glands in the neck. In some, the spleen enlarges. Usually the symptoms disappear within 10 days, although the dragged-out feeling may last much longer. An unexplained decline in school performance can be a subtle sign of mono.

Mononucleosis does require intimate contact to be caught, since it is believed that the virus is transmitted via the saliva. That's why it has the other, non-medical name, "the kissing disease." That's not always appropriate, since the virus may be picked up even by using a water fountain immediately after a person with mono virus has used it. The mono victim does not have to be quarantined, but simple precautions, such as segregating eating and drinking utensils, are wise.

Because it is a viral illness, there is no specific medicine for it. Aspirin helps lower any fever, and warm salt water gargles can be used for the throat symptoms. Because of the danger of an enlarged spleen rupturing, contact sports should be avoided until the organ returns to normal size.

Spreading mono within families is not common. Statistics show the spread usually results from intimate contact with people who have no symptoms but harbor the virus. Some can be carriers for up to a year and a half. College campuses, for various reasons, offer the best opportunities for the virus to get passed on from person to person. Yet, as I said, it is all but impossible not to contact the mono virus at sometime in a lifetime.

Dear Dr. Donohue: A member of my family has recently been told to undergo a phonocardiogram test. He has had an aortic valve replacement. Can you please tell me what this test measures? — D.C.

A phonocardiogram is a recording (made on paper) of heart sounds and murmurs. It becomes a visual record of sound. A small microphone is attached to the skin of the chest. One of the advantages is that the device can be adjusted to single out sounds of certain frequency over others. For example, the duration of the interval of the closing of the heart valves can be measured. An ECG is made simultaneously so that the doctor can compare the two recordings. Much will be learned about just how well your relative's valve replacement is working.

There is no pain to the test. Think of it as a highly-sophisticated stethoscope exam. How the sound waves are transformed into the graphic recorder is beyond me. But then, I don't even understand how my TV or car works — when they do.

Dear Dr. Donohue: When I wake up in the morning the middle finger of my right hand is bent into the palm of my hand. I either soak it in hot water or force it back into position and it is then OK, except for stiffness. Can you tell me what this condition is? Why does this happen at night? Is this arthritis? — M.M.

If you also notice a snapping sensation when you bend and straighten that joint, then I would feel confident that you have a trigger finger. A nodule forms on the tendon of the finger from repeated injuries or blows. The nodule catches the tendon when the finger is bent, so it is very difficult to straighten it. Steroid injections in the area of the nodule have been used to treat trigger finger. Surgical removal of the band of tissue that the nodule catches on brings relief to most. Trigger finger is not a form of arthritis. I cannot explain why this happens to you at night.

Dear Dr. Donohue: What's the best way for a pregnant woman to wear a lap seatbelt? — M.D.

Over the upper thighs and hips rather than around the abdomen. Mononucleosis is primarily a disease that hits young people. To learn more about it, write to Dr. Donohue, in care of the Big Spring Herald, for a copy of his booklet, "Mononucleosis: What It Is; What To Do." Enclose a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope and 50 cents.

Dr. Donohue welcomes reader mail but regrets that, due to the tremendous volume received daily, he is unable to answer individual letters. Readers' questions are incorporated in his column whenever possible.

My answer

Billy Graham

DEAR DR. GRAHAM: I have had some problems with depression. I get so concerned when I think about all the problems in the world, and what might happen to us. How can I get out of this feeling? — P.H.

DEAR P.H.: We do live in a complicated and sometimes frightening world. If all we did was look at the headlines we would have every reason to despair. These almost seem to be like the days of which the prophet Micah spoke: "Woe is me!...The good man is perished out of the earth; and there is none upright among men" (Micah 7:1-2).

I believe the only lasting answer to your problems is a personal trust in God. When you repent of your sins and accept God's Son, Jesus Christ, into your life, you become a child of God. Remember that God created this world, and knows what is going to happen, even if we don't. Also, he alone is able to deliver us. If you know Christ, you know that God loves you.

Because he loves you, he will keep you safe even if difficulties come your way. That does not mean we won't have problems, but we know God is with us in the midst of the problems. "For I am persuaded, that neither death, nor life, nor angels, nor principalities, nor powers, nor things present, nor things to come...shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord" (Romans 8:38-39).

God has given us many promises in his Word, the Bible. He wants us to live by those promises. Let me suggest that you begin right now to read some of the Psalms every day. They often speak of God's love and deliverance, and when you come to trust him your fears will begin to fade. You too can say, "The Lord is my light and my salvation; whom shall I fear? The Lord is the strength of my life; of whom shall I be afraid?...For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion" (Psalms 27:1, 5).

Dear Editor:

Your Tuesday issue (9-30-80) carried an item with the title, "American bishops want Pope to change stance." Reference was to the stand of the Catholic Church on what is its teaching on the illicitness of artificial birth control. Actually, the world Synod of Bishops will focus on pastoral issues dealing with family problems. The pastoral approach to problems of families in the area of family planning was excellently treated in the encyclical of Pope Paul VI in 1968. (cfr Humanae Vitae 25).

The piece in your paper was an AP release Vatican City. Whoever wrote the item was lost somewhere in the distant past. He made this statement, according to your paper: "The only method of birth control accepted by the Catholic Church is the rhythm method of abstinence from sexual relations during the fertile period before a woman's menstrual period."

The rhythm method is the "Model T" of what is now called Natural Family Planning (NFP). NFP is a method of conception regulation based on fertility awareness and selective abstinence. It is the only method of family planning that the husband and wife do not have to stop using to have a child. NFP makes the couple aware of the times of greatest fertility, thus helping them conceive a child when they so want.

Actually, NFP is not hard to learn. Observation of the signs of fertility takes only a few minutes a day and easily becomes as routine as one's daily hygiene habits. Marvelously, it poses no danger to health as is so readily possible with the "pill" or IUD. It is, in addition, by far the least expensive method of family planning.

NFP is not just another method of birth control. It is a way of living, a way of loving, a way of growing. Couples who have used the NFP insist that their love for each other has grown and matured with time.

Anyone interested in the NFP method of conception regulation can learn more from Maurice and Mary Smith, 4037 Vicky, Big Spring. Make your phone call to 267-6418.

Dear Abby

Straight Talk About V.D.

DEAR ABBY: I am a 14-year-old girl who never misses your column. I read those letters about VD and have a few questions I want to ask you:

1. In which states can doctors treat minors for VD without telling their parents?
 2. How old does a person have to be before he is no longer considered a minor?
 3. Will you please come right out and describe some of the symptoms of VD? I have heard so many stories, I am confused. For instance, I have heard that if a sore on the lips, in the mouth or on the private parts doesn't heal up, it is probably VD. I've also heard that a person can have other signs of VD—like a burning sensation when urinating, or an unusual discharge from private parts; also that these signs sometimes go away without treatment, but the disease is still there and keeps on getting worse. Is that true?
 4. Can VD really cause crippling, blindness and insanity, or are these just stories adults made up to scare kids?
 5. Is it true that once a person is treated for VD he can never get it again?
 6. One last question which I hope you won't think is too dumb to answer. Can a person get VD without going all the way?
- With questions like these, I can't have a letter from you coming to my house, so will you please answer this in the paper? I am sure there are lots of other kids who would also like to know. Thank you very much.

NEEDING ANSWERS

- DEAR NEEDING:
1. If you want to know whether the physicians in your state are required by law to have parental consent before treating minors for VD, telephone the VD hot line. The toll-free number is 1-800-227-8922 for all states outside California. In California it's 1-800-982-5883.
 2. The age of a minor differs from state to state. It differs also for particular purposes. And in some states, the age of a minor is not the same for a male as it is for a female. The VD hot line will inform you.
 3. All the symptoms you describe can indicate VD—but these symptoms can also be present where there is no VD, so the only way to determine positively whether or not you have it is to be examined by a physician.
 4. Yes. But the conditions you describe are found only in advanced cases.
 5. Absolutely not!
 6. Positively yes!
- And may I add, no question that is asked in sincerity is "too dumb" to answer. I urge any minor who suspects that he (or she) has VD, and cannot face his parents with the problem, to telephone the local department of public health and ask to see a doctor. Don't be afraid. You won't be lectured and you won't be punished. And if you don't have the few dollars to cover the cost of the examination, it will be free. VD is curable, and the earlier it is treated, the better. If anyone has any questions related to this subject, write to me. I promise you a prompt, straight and confidential answer.
- P.S. Marlo Thomas has made a 30-minute special titled "Facts For Girls," in which girls, ages 10, 12 and 14, talk openly about their feelings, their changing bodies and their emotions. It airs tomorrow, Tuesday, Oct. 7 at 4 p.m. on CBS-TV. It's wonderful! I've seen it and urge you and all girls between 10 and 16 to watch it.

(Problems? You'll feel better if you get them off your chest. For a personal reply write to Abby, Box 69700, Los Angeles, Calif. 90069. Please enclose stamped, self-addressed envelope.)

Holcombe's announce birth of Russel Dale

Mr. and Mrs. Steve Holcombe, Abilene, formerly of Big Spring, announce the birth of their first child, a son, Russel Dale.

The infant made his debut at Hendricks Medical Center in Abilene Oct. 1 at 6 p.m. He weighed 7 pounds 10 ounces and measured 21 inches in length.

Maternal grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Jim Samuels, 411 Bell. Mr. and Mrs. Norman Holcombe, 1708 Purdue, are the paternal grandparents. Russel Dale also has great-grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Berry Belyew of De Leon.

Mrs. Moore gives bulb instructions

The Planters Garden Club met in the home of Mrs. Luke Fortenberry, 1207 Lloyd, Oct. 1. Mrs. Fortenberry presided and members answered roll call revealing what plants were blooming in their yards.

Mrs. Allie Moore presented the program, explaining the general methods of bulb planting.

She stated that bulbs should be planted in the fall prior to the first frost. The ground should be located in a place that is well drained.

Then, peat moss, sand or vermiculite should be added to loosen soil and mix with bone meal or other fertilizer rich in calcium and phosphorus. Fertilizer added to soil before planting encourages bulbs to perform well for years, revealed Mrs. Moore.

Tall bulbs should be planted to the back and shorter ones in front. Set bulbs in place with pointed ends up, fill halfway, water thoroughly and cover with remaining soil. Then spread three or four inches of protective mulch, compost or wood chips.

When first shoots appear in spring, continued Mrs. Moore, feed with regular 12-12-12 granular fertilizer sprinkled around plants and worked into soil.

After blooming, remove faded blooms, but let foliage remain.

College Heights PTA to answer question

To be or not to be; that is the question which will be addressed about the school's traditional carnival at the College Heights PTA's October meeting at 3 p.m. Tuesday in the school cafeteria, according to PTA president Diana Bailey.

Last year's Mexican Fiesta at College Heights netted about $1,500 for the school — which together with carnival proceeds from the other four city PTAs made $10,000 in extras possible for those five Big Spring schools.

Folding bench tables for the cafeteria, parking lot paving, televisions, projectors, a duplicating machine and teachers' resource books are some of the projects PTA has made possible at College Heights in past years through profits from the carnival.

DEJECTED ASTROS — A dejected pitcher Vern Ruhle, left, who came out after injuring his finger in the third inning, joins teammates on the bench during late innings as they watch the Dodgers go ahead to win, 4-3, Sunday at Dodger Stadium in Los Angeles. Los Angeles' win ties up the race in the National League West, requiring a tie-breaker between Dodgers and Astros today in Los Angeles.

Ranger owner axes Corrales

ARLINGTON, Texas (AP) — Pat Corrales was fired Sunday as manager of the Texas Rangers, and the team's majority owner announced a new organizational structure he hopes will allow the club to be operated on "a sound businesslike basis."

Eddie Chiles, majority owner and chairman of the Rangers' six-man board of directors, announced Corrales' firing in a press box news conference immediately after Sunday's game.

Chiles announced that he will assume the president's title formerly held by Eddie Robinson, and that Robinson has been made executive vice president in charge of baseball operations.

Operating alongside Robinson, Chiles said, will be an executive vice president in charge of finance, marketing and administration. That position has not been filled yet, the multimillionaire oilman said.

"We feel Eddie Robinson is one of the finest baseball men around, and this will enable him to devote his full time to that end of it and let someone else handle the ticket business and other aspects of the operation," Chiles said.

Since Robinson has now been given complete responsibility for baseball operations, the matter of hiring a new manager has been placed totally in his hands and that the board will exert no pressure in the decision, Chiles added.

Robinson said he is looking for someone with some of Corrales' characteristics — respect of the players and control in the clubhouse — but with more managerial experience.

Coaches on Corrales' staff were told that they should look for other jobs, since whoever is hired as the new manager will be allowed to hire his own coaches.

Corrales was being offered another job in the organization, as Robinson's assistant, but the 39-year-old Los Angeles native said later he felt his place was still on the field and that he would decide later what to do.

Corrales' players definitely sided with him. One of the Rangers with the best credentials, third baseman Buddy Bell, said he has asked to be traded.

"It's another indication to me that the decisions that affect my life are being made by people who don't know baseball," Bell said, referring to the owners.

Robinson said shortly later, "I'm not trading Buddy Bell. It's natural that players who liked Pat would show disappointment and even anger over his being released, but I'm hoping time will take care of that."

"We're not trying to make a scapegoat out of anybody. For a second-year manager, Pat did a good job," Chiles said.

Corrales, who took over on the last day of the 1978 season, finished at Texas like he started — a winner. The Rangers won their first seven games under the former major league catcher and ended the 1980 season Sunday afternoon with a 3-2 victory over Seattle that gave them a sweep of a 3-game series.

But for the year, Texas finished nine games below .500 and fourth place in the American League West.

Astros face judgement day

• LOS ANGELES (AP) — The Houston Astros find out today if the moon is made of green cheese.

They came to Los Angeles leading the National League West by three games and promptly lost all three, so the team named after the astronauts must play the Dodgers today for the title. Both finished the regular season with 92-70 records.

Three times home runs hit into the heavens have been made the Dodgers winners — first by Joe Ferguson last Friday night, then by Steve Garvey Saturday and finally by a crippled Ron Cey on Sunday.

The scores have been 3-2, 2-1 and 4-3, respectively, with the homers deciding each game.

Heroes in the third game of the series and last of the regular season were many. Cey, who ignored a bruised foot suffered when hit by his own foul, was No. 1. On the 10th pitch to him from Frank LaCorte in the eighth inning, Cey slammed the ball over the left field fence.

Actually, he had started his time at bat trying to bunt with Steve Garvey at first base, nobody out and the Astros leading 3-2.

Asked if he thought LaCorte might throw an off-speed pitch, Cey said, "No, his fast ball is his main pitch and I don't think with a 3-2 count he would throw something else."

Cey had fouled a ball off his foot on the seventh pitch to him in the showdown. He hobbled and then decided to continue, saying, "I might have decided to go out in about three weeks."

He already had unwrapped the bandage from his injured right leg (hamstring) and discarded it so he'd have more motion at the plate.

The next two pitches were fouled off and then he hit a 390-foot drive over the fence, putting the Dodgers into their 4-3 lead. Cey was also the man who knocked in the ninth-inning tying run in the opening game which the Dodgers won on Ferguson's 10th-inning homer.

Manny Mota, the pinch hitting star turned coach and back to pinch hitter, also was among the stars. The 42-year-old ageless wonder singled in a run in the seventh to narrow Houston's lead at the time to 3-2.

Pitcher Don Sutton, the starter in Friday's game, took Mota's place in the first base coaching box temporarily. Sutton's activities weren't over because with two out in the ninth and Astros at first and third, he came on for his first relief pitching effort of the year.

Facing pinch hitter Denny Walling, the 35-year-old Sutton threw a strike and then got the batter on a grounder to second base.

The pitching starters for today's 1 p.m. (PDT) nationally televised (ABC) start are Joe Niekro (19-12) for the Astros and Dave Goltz (7-10) for the Dodgers.

"That kind of a pitching match-up has got to be an advantage for us," commented Astros' Manager Bill Virdon, whose team will be facing a pitcher whose earned run average is 4.25.

Yet coming to town with a three-game lead and three to play, the advantage had to be all with Houston, seeking its first divisional crown in 19 seasons in the National League. They blew that one.

The Dodgers' homers, plus some faulty fielding has been frustrating.

And the Dodgers have had youngsters come through, pitchers Bobby Castillo, Fernando Valenzuela and Steve Howe before the old man, Sutton, came on for the final out.

Houston scored first as Cesar Cedeno and Art Howe surprised starter Burt Hooton with bunts to open the second inning. Hooton misplayed the second one and by the time the inning was over two runs had scored and Hooton was heading for the showers.

Terry Puhl knocked in a run in the fourth and the Astros led 3-0.

Back came the do-or-die, patched-up Dodgers. They scored a run in the fifth and then Pedro Guerrero opened the seventh with a single and Ferguson advanced him with a hit before Mota drove in the run.

Manny was lifted for a pinch runner, went back to the bench and then became a coach again, relieving Sutton of those duties.

Reggie Smith, who had starred for the club until a shoulder injury required surgery, had a little talk with Sutton late in the game.

"Can you pitch an inning?" Reggie asked Don, who had pitched eight innings Friday night. When the answer was yes, Reggie went to Manager Tom Lasorda, who promptly sent Sutton to the bullpen, perhaps the first starting pitcher to work the first base coaching box, the bullpen and the pitching mound late in the same game.

"All I had to do was make two pitches," Sutton said. "What those other guys did was a lot more than I did."

Joe Morgan, twice the National League's most valuable player with pennant winning Cincinnati clubs, commented only, "If we had some breaks in there, we would have done it. The three lost games are in the past. We've got to go out and kick ourselves in the butt and that's it."

Bears, Bucs do battle

CHICAGO (AP) — The Tampa Bay Buccaneers and the Chicago Bears, a couple of National Football League playoff teams last season, clash in a nationally televised contest Monday night before a capacity crowd of 64,154 in Soldier Field.

Both teams are saddled with two-game losing streaks, but the Bears' situation is desperate considering not only are they 1-3 for the season but have been routed in their last two games.

The Buccaneers are 2-2 and coming off 28-17 and 34-27 losses to Dallas and Cleveland, respectively, in which quarterback Doug Williams was outstanding out of the defense, uncharacteristically, suffered letdowns.

Against Cleveland, Williams set Tampa Bay records with 30 completions in 56 attempts for 348 yards and three touchdowns.

Defense was a different story and Coach John McKay said, "We played defense very, very poorly."

We have better athletes than the way we are playing. Guys who should know better are missing assignments."

The Bears have shown little defense in the last two games and virtually no offense for the season. Their only victory came against New Orleans when Walter Payton rushed for 183 yards. Other than that, Payton has been held to 65, 39 and 60 yards rushing.

Quarterback Mike Phipps has not shown the proficiency he displayed when the Bears made the playoffs by winning seven of their last eight games in 1979.

Twice he has been yanked in favor of Vince Evans and together they have completed less than 44 percent of their passes with only two touchdown passes as against a total of nine interceptions.

"I don't like to call the fifth game of the season our most important but that's what it looks like at this point," said Coach Neil Armstrong. "I don't think our record should be 1-3. We have to play better."

Giants lie down for lackluster Cowboys

IRVING, Texas (AP) — Even when the Dallas Cowboys have a bad day at the office they can always count on the New York Giants to lower themselves to the occasion.

To read the quotes after the Cowboys beat the Giants 24-3 Sunday — for the 12th consecutive time and 27th in 38 tries — you would have thought Dallas had lost instead of remaining in a tie with Philadelphia in the National Conference Eastern Division.

The only person having a good time in the locker room was defensive tackle John Dutton, still amazed by his 38-yard touchdown interception return for his very first National Football League score.

"Mostly, we weren't knocking anybody off the line of scrimmage," said Dallas Coach Tom Landry who was in a nitpick mood.

"We were playing to get beat and our defense played well enough to keep us in the game."

"We talked all week about being ready but we took them lightly."

While Dallas extended its record to 4-1 the Giants descended to 1-4.

The Giants fumbled away the opening kickoff, recovered by placekicker Rafael Septien of all people, had 12 players on the field on one play, and could only make two first downs by intermission when Dallas led 17-0.

Dallas quarterback Danny White showed why he is the No. 1-rated passer in the NFC by throwing touchdown passes of 46 yards to Tony Hill and 29 yards to Butch Johnson.

Although he was 22 of 33 for 266 yards White grumbled, "I just had a bad game. We're just not with it yet.

That's the sad thing about it. We just work so hard all week then play like this."

"We've got a long way to go," said halfback Preston Pearson, making his first appearance in weeks because of an injury.

"Well, we proved we can win even when we're not playing well," said linebacker Bob Breunig.

Dutton was all sunshine despite his cloudy Cowboy teammates.

"I just wanted to grab onto the ball when I saw it popped into the air," said Dutton of a tipped pass by rookie quarterback Scott Brunner of Delaware.

"My legs moved well and I was surprised," said Dutton. "When I got to the 20 yard line I started laughing because no one had caught me."

Giants quarterback Phil Simms had an off day, completing only 4 of 15 passes for 87 yards and suffering an interception. The Giants only had four first downs when he departed the game late in the third period.

"Simms' knee was hurting before the game and he took a shot on it so we decided to make a change," said Giant Coach Ray Perkins. "Phil Simms is still our No. 1 quarterback."

Simms was unhappy with Perkins over being yanked. Perkins defended the move, saying, "He (Simms) wanted to go back in and was upset when he didn't. I expected him to be upset. However, taking him out and going with Brunner doesn't change our quarterback plans."

Perkins was pleased with the Giant defense.

"It was the best hitting we've had all season," said Perkins. "I was disappointed with our offense. We had at least three balls tipped and several drops."

Asked about the morale of his team, Perkins said "I think we have the players who will persevere through this season. We're not a bad football team, but we don't have that needed consistency. The players are just going to have to bear down and get with it."

Back in the Dallas locker room, another semi-happy Cowboy was placekicker Rafael Septien who had the distinction of kicking the ball off to start the game then recovering Alvin Garrett's fumble.

"I was really surprised," said Septien. "I kicked and started downfield and all of a sudden here this thing looking like a football started bouncing all around. I got my hands on it and thought I could go all the way."

Oilers go from ripe to rotten

HOUSTON (AP) — Seattle wide receiver Sam McCullum sensed the Houston Oilers were ripe for an upset in the first quarter Sunday and nothing happened in the game to change his opinion.

Seattle quarterback Jim Zorn hit McCullum all alone in the end zone for touchdown passes of 22 and 24 yards and the Seahawk defense came alive with five interceptions to shock Houston 26-7 and knock the Oilers out of a share of the AFC Central Division lead.

"The Oilers are still a good football team but they were nonchalant," McCullum said. "When they stopped our first screen (in the first quarter) they were confident as if to say 'We can beat you Seahawks,' in other words I think they were overconfident," said McCullum.

"Then we got into our rhythm and were peaking."

The Seahawks never peaked better than during a 3:16 span of the second quarter when they scored 17 points, including the two touchdown passes to McCullum and the second of four field goals by Efrén Herrera for a 23-0 halftime lead.

The sudden surge put the Oilers, 3-2, into a hole they couldn't climb out of and the Seahawks boosted their record to 3-2. McCullum also had an opinion on Oiler safety Jack Tatum, whom he burned on his first touchdown reception in the second quarter.

"Jack Tatum cannot cover the deep threat anymore but he still is a great hitter," McCullum said. "He lacks the great mobility to cover someone with sprinter speed."

Herrera had other field goals of 32 and 50 yards in the first half and a 44-yarder early in the third quarter.

Houston Coach Bum Phillips said he was embarrassed by the Oilers' performance but didn't think the Oilers were flat.

"I've never had a team make as many mental and physical errors as we did today," Phillips said. "We were not flat. That would take away from their victory. They executed their game plan and we didn't. It is as simple as that."

Houston running back Earl Campbell, who gained 50 yards on 12 after missing two games with a groin injury, said "We couldn't get started in the first half and we never seemed to recover. I guess it was just one of those days when you are flying high and you get shot down."

The Seahawk defense, which shut out Washington 14-0 last week, shot down

Surprise Bills edge Chargers

Presenting, all alone atop the National Football League standings, unbeaten after five weeks, ladies and gentlemen... the Buffalo Bills!

Yes, the same Buffalo Bills who were league patsies not so long ago are the only unbeaten team left in the NFL after rallying for two touchdowns in the final period to edge the previously undefeated San Diego Chargers 26-24 Sunday.

"I'm surprised we are 5-0," admitted Bills quarterback Joe Ferguson. "We didn't do well in the preseason and we only won seven games last year. The season we went to the playoffs with O.J. Simpson (1974, when Buffalo was 9-5) was exciting, but being 5-0 is the highlight of my career."

The Detroit Lions, the only other club to win its first four outings, tumbled from the unbeaten ranks by committing a series of turnovers that helped the Atlanta Falcons to a 43-28 victory.

At the other end of the standings, two clubs remain winless — the New York Jets and New Orleans Saints. The Jets were beaten by the New England Patriots 21-11 while the Saints got clobbered by the St. Louis Cardinals 40-7. The Kansas City Chiefs, meanwhile, posted their first victory of the season, beating the Oakland Raiders 31-17.

Elsewhere, the Denver Broncos trimmed the Cleveland Browns 19-16, the Seattle Seahawks upset the Houston Oilers 26-7, the Pittsburgh Steelers beat the Minnesota Vikings 23-17, the Baltimore Orioles defeated the Miami Dolphins 30-17, the Green Bay Packers edged the Cincinnati Bengals 14-9, the Los Angeles Rams outscored the San Francisco 49ers 48-26, the Philadelphia Eagles downed the Washington Redskins 24-14 and the Dallas Cowboys trounced the New York Giants 24-3.

Tampa Bay is at Chicago tonight.

Buffalo's renaissance dates back to Jan. 11, 1978, when Chuck Knox left the Los Angeles Rams to become head coach of the Bills, who had won just five games the previous two seasons. Knox, who compiled a 54-15-1 record and won five division titles in five seasons with the Rams, led Buffalo to a 5-11 record in 1978 and a 7-9 mark last year before hitting paydirt this fall.

Both of Buffalo's fourth-quarter touchdowns, which wiped out a 24-12 deficit, were the result of San Diego mistakes.

broken right leg during the first half and will probably miss the rest of the season. Reserve Jim Plunkett, playing catchup, completed 20 of 52 passes for 238 yards but threw five interceptions.

Patriots 21, Jets 11

Cornerback Mike Haynes, who ended his contract dispute with New England just 1½ weeks ago, made his first start of the season a memorable one by running back a blocked field goal 65 yards for a touchdown. That run, which set a club record, gave the Pats a 14-6 lead and the winless Jets never recovered.

Cardinals 40, Saints 7

Ottis Anderson carried 22 times for 126 yards and Wayne Morris rushed for three touchdowns for St. Louis, which has won its last two games. Veteran quarterback Jim Hart says he knows why.

Broncos 19, Browns 16

Fred Steinfort kicked four field goals for Denver while Randy Gradishar got the Broncos' only TD when he raced 93 yards with an interception tipped to him by fellow linebacker Tom Jackson.

Steelers 23, Vikings 17

Terry Bradshaw passed for one touchdown and ran for another as Pittsburgh built a 23-3 lead, then had to hold off a Minnesota rally.

"What should have been a romp turned into a close game," said Bradshaw, who completed 16 of 28 passes for 236 yards, the 12th time in his career he has surpassed the 200 mark.

Pittsburgh's Franco Harris carried 22 times for 102 yards, his 36th game over the 100 barrier.

Colts 30, Dolphins 17

Bert Jones completed 18 of 26 passes for 282 yards and three touchdowns and ran for another score as Baltimore beat Miami despite a 272-yard, two-touchdown passing effort by the Dolphins' Bob Griese.

Packers 14, Bengals 9

Lynn Dickey completed 18 of 26 passes for 203 yards and two touchdowns and James Lofton made eight receptions for 114 yards as the Packers won shortly after Coach Bart Starr received a unanimous vote of support from the club's Board of Directors.

Rams 48, 49ers 26

Vince Ferragamo passed for 304 yards and four touchdowns as the Rams rolled over the Giants. Los Angeles has scored 127 points in winning its last three games after starting the season with two losses.

Eagles 24, Redskins 14

Ron Jaworski threw two touchdown passes for the Eagles, Wilbert Montgomery ran for one score and Harold Carmichael caught four passes, extending his NFL record to 117 consecutive games with at least one reception.

HIGH WAVE — Tulane University defensive back Tyrone Smith (11) sails through the air as he holds on to the shift of Southern Methodist receiver Gary Smith (89) who is going down over Tulane's Terry Daffin (18) after a reception in the Superdome Saturday in New Orleans.

Baylor, Texas share top billing

By The Associated Press

Baylor, Southern Methodist and Texas survived unscathed for the fourth consecutive weekend Saturday with defending Southwest Conference football champion Houston getting knocked into the ropes.

Baylor and Texas share the SWC lead with 2-0 records followed by SMU and Texas A&M, who are 1-0. Baylor whipped the Cougars 24-12 in Baylor Stadium Saturday night.

Texas will hold at least a piece of the lead for another weekend because the Longhorns play Oklahoma Saturday in their annually televised meeting in the Cotton Bowl — this one at 11:50 o'clock in the morning.

However, Baylor and SMU tangle at Waco in a meeting which should be something special. Both teams feature high-scoring offenses with 4-0 records.

The Texas Aggies, fresh off a 41-21 thumping of Texas

Tech, may have to play Houston in the Astrodome into the wee hours of Sunday morning.

Should the Houston Astros advance into the National League playoffs, the Aggie-Houston game is scheduled sometime in the neighborhood of 10:30 p.m. Some Cougar officials hint privately it might even be an hour later than that.

In the other SWC game, Rice, which fell 41-28 to Texas, will travel to Fort Worth to meet the winless Texas Christian Horned Frogs, 44-7 victims to Arkansas. The Razorbacks are in Little Rock to host Wichita State.

Baylor was impressive the way it handled Houston on the lines of scrimmage in Coach Grant Teaff's first victory ever over Bill Yeoman's Cougars.

Baylor All-American middle linebacker Mike Singletary, who made 16 tackles said "The key was that we showed more maturity than in the past three games with them (the Cougars)."

"I think this game proved that we are legitimate Cotton Bowl contenders but we still have a lot of improving to do to get there."

Teaff said he thinks Baylor proved a lot by taking out the Cougars.

He said "This was a meaningful victory for us, a real high water mark. You've got to say Houston is the class of the league until you beat them. They've won it three out of the last four years."

Teaff added "We're true contenders, but no one but our players would have thought we'd be contenders three or four weeks ago. We've got a better team this week than last. This team gets better every week."

He said "I know SMU will be tough. But it's going to be like this every week this year. Everybody is going to be tough."

Falcons 43, Lions 28

Atlanta's defense accounted for 23 points — a 16-yard blocked punt return by Frank Reed, a 30-yard fumble return by Buddy Curry, a 42-yard fumble return by Joel Williams and a safety when Williams nailed Detroit quarterback Gary Danielson in the end zone.

Detroit Coach Monte Clark agreed. "They kicked our rears and handed them to us on a platter," he said after watching the Falcons race to a 34-6 halftime lead with their highest scoring half ever.

Chiefs 31, Raiders 17

Kansas City intercepted five passes, recovered three Oakland fumbles and registered six quarterback sacks en route to its first victory.

Linebackers Gary Spani and Whitney Paul scored the first touchdowns of their careers on fumble returns as the Chiefs sprinted to a 31-0 lead.

Raiders quarterback Dan Pastorini suffered a

Surprise Bills edge Chargers

Presenting, all alone atop the National Football League standings, unbeaten after five weeks, ladies and gentlemen...the Buffalo Bills!

Yes, the same Buffalo Bills who were league patsies not so long ago are the only unbeaten team left in the NFL after rallying for two touchdowns in the final period to edge the previously undefeated San Diego Chargers 26-24 Sunday.

"I'm surprised we are 5-0," admitted Bills quarterback Joe Ferguson. "We didn't do well in the preseason and we only won seven games last year. The season we went to the playoffs with O. J. Simpson (1974, when Buffalo was 9-5) was exciting, but being 5-0 is the highlight of my career."

The Detroit Lions, the only other club to win its first four outings, tumbled from the unbeaten ranks by committing a series of turnovers that helped the Atlanta Falcons to a 43-28 victory.

At the other end of the standings, two clubs remain winless — the New York Jets and New Orleans Saints. The Jets were beaten by the New England Patriots 21-11 while the Saints got clobbered by the St. Louis Cardinals 40-7. The Kansas City Chiefs, meanwhile, posted their first victory of the season, beating the Oakland Raiders 31-17.

Elsewhere, the Denver Broncos trimmed the Cleveland Browns 19-16, the Seattle Seahawks upset the Houston Oilers 26-7, the Pittsburgh Steelers beat the Minnesota Vikings 23-17, the Baltimore Orioles defeated the Miami Dolphins 30-17, the Green Bay Packers edged the Cincinnati Bengals 14-9, the Los Angeles Rams outscored the San Francisco 49ers 48-26, the Philadelphia Eagles downed the Washington Redskins 24-14 and the Dallas Cowboys trounced the New York Giants 24-3.

Tampa Bay is at Chicago tonight. Buffalo's renaissance dates back to Jan. 11, 1978, when Chuck Knox left the Los Angeles Rams to become head coach of the Bills, who had won just five games the previous two seasons. Knox, who compiled a 54-15-1 record and won five division titles in five seasons with the Rams, led Buffalo to a 5-11 record in 1978 and a 7-9 mark last year before hitting paydirt this fall.

Both of Buffalo's fourth-quarter touchdowns, which wiped out a 24-12 deficit, were the result of San Diego mistakes.

Falcons 43, Lions 28

Atlanta's defense accounted for 23 points — a 16-yard blocked punt return by Frank Reed, a 30-yard fumble return by Buddy Curry, a 42-yard fumble return by Joel Williams and a safety when Williams nailed Detroit quarterback Gary Danielson in the end zone.

Detroit Coach Monte Clark agreed. "They kicked our rears and handed them to us on a platter," he said after watching the Falcons race to a 34-6 halftime lead with their highest scoring half ever.

Chiefs 31, Raiders 17

Kansas City intercepted five passes, recovered three Oakland fumbles and registered six quarterback sacks en route to its first victory.

Linebackers Gary Spani and Whitney Paul scored the first touchdowns of their careers on fumble returns as the Chiefs sprinted to a 31-0 lead.

Raiders quarterback Dan Pastorini suffered a broken right leg during the first half and will probably miss the rest of the season. Reserve Jim Plunkett, playing catchup, completed 20 of 52 passes for 238 yards but threw five interceptions.

Patriots 21, Jets 11

Cornerback Mike Haynes, who ended his contract dispute with New England just 1½ weeks ago, made his first start of the season a memorable one by running back a blocked field goal 65 yards for a touchdown. That run, which set a club record, gave the Pats a 14-6 lead and the winless Jets never recovered.

Cardinals 40, Saints 7

Ottis Anderson carried 23 times for 126 yards and Wayne Morris rushed for three touchdowns for St. Louis, which has won its last two games. Veteran quarterback Jim Hart says he knows why.

Broncos 19, Browns 16

Fred Steinfort kicked four field goals for Denver while Randy Gradishar got the Broncos' only TD when he raced 93 yards with an interception tipped to him by fellow linebacker Tom Jackson.

Steelers 23, Vikings 17

Terry Bradshaw passed for one touchdown and ran for another as Pittsburgh built a 23-3 lead, then had to hold off a Minnesota rally.

"What should have been a romp turned into a close game," said Bradshaw, who completed 16 of 28 passes for 236 yards, the 12th time in his career he has surpassed the 200 mark.

Pittsburgh's Franco Harris carried 22 times for 102 yards, his 36th game over the 100 barrier.

Colts 30, Dolphins 17

Bert Jones completed 18 of 26 passes for 282 yards and three touchdowns and ran for another score as Baltimore beat Miami despite a 272-yard, two-touchdown passing effort by the Dolphins' Bob Griese.

Packers 14, Bengals 9

Lynn Dickey completed 18 of 26 passes for 203 yards and two touchdowns and James Lofton made eight receptions for 114 yards as the Packers won shortly after Coach Bart Starr received a unanimous vote of support from the club's Board of Directors.

Rams 48, 49ers 26

Vince Ferragamo passed for 304 yards and four touchdowns as the Rams rolled over the Giants. Los Angeles has scored 127 points in winning its last three games after starting the season with two losses.

Eagles 24, Redskins 14

Ron Jaworski threw two touchdown passes for the Eagles, Wilbert Montgomery ran for one score and Harold Carmichael caught four passes, extending his NFL record to 117 consecutive games with at least one reception.

HIGH WAVE — Tulane University defensive back Tyrone Smith (11) sails through the air as he holds on to the shift of Southern Methodist receiver Gary Smith (69) who is going down over Tulane's Terry Daffin (18) after a reception in the Superdome Saturday in New Orleans.

Baylor, Texas share top billing

Baylor, Southern Methodist and Texas survived unscathed for the fourth consecutive weekend Saturday with defending Southwest Conference football champion Houston getting knocked into the ropes.

Baylor and Texas share the SWC lead with 2-0 records followed by SMU and Texas A&M, who are 1-0. Baylor whipped the Cougars 24-12 in Baylor Stadium Saturday night.

Texas will hold at least a piece of the lead for another weekend because the Longhorns play Oklahoma Saturday in their annually televised meeting in the Cotton Bowl — this one at 11:50 o'clock in the morning.

However, Baylor and SMU tangle at Waco in a meeting which should be something special. Both teams feature high-scoring offenses with 4-0 records.

The Texas Aggies, fresh off a 41-21 thumping of Texas

you beat them. They've won three out of the last four years.

Teaff added "We're true contenders, but no one but our players would have thought we'd be contenders three or four weeks ago. We've got a better team this week than last. This team gets better every week."

He said "I know SMU will be tough. But it's going to be like this every week this year. Everybody is going to be tough."

In the other SWC game, Rice, which fell 41-28 to Texas, will travel to Fort Worth to meet the winless Texas Christian Horned Frogs, 44-7 victims to Arkansas. The Razorbacks are in Little Rock to host Wichita State.

Baylor was impressive the way it handled Houston on the lines of scrimmage in Coach Grant Teaff's first victory ever over Bill Yeoman's Cougars.

Baylor All-American middle linebacker Mike Singletary, who made 16 tackles said "The key was that we showed more maturity than in the past three games with them (the Cougars)."

"I think this game proved that we are legitimate Cotton Bowl contenders but we still have a lot of improving to do to get there."

Teaff said he thinks Baylor proved a lot by taking out the Cougars.

He said "This was a meaningful victory for us... a real high water mark. You've got to say Houston is the class of the league until
