Thick skins help

NEW YORK (AP) — Randy Knuth is an affable young man who is resigned to the idea that people love to hate him. Sometimes it seems like they come to his office in Tucson, Ariz., just to tell him so.

"I just hate dentists," they moan. "I'd rather be anywhere than here."

"They say 'no offense, don't take it personally,'" Knuth reflects. "Maybe after a period of time, a person could get tired of that. But so far I just accept it."

DENTISTS USUALLY UNLOVED
'I'd rather have been elsewhere'

Dentists are among many people we love to hate simply because they do what they do. Whether it's dentists, police officers, door-to-door salesmen, landlords, collection agents, tax auditors, meter maids or dogcatchers, almost all of us love to hate somebody.

The services they perform may be necessary, but that doesn't keep us from regarding them as at least a little bit evil.

Consequently, it doesn't hurt those people to have thick skins and perhaps even a bit of naivete.

"Funeral directors shouldn't be lumped in with the people you love to hate," complains Jean DeSapio, editor of the Funeral Service Insider newsletter in New York. "You're talking about stereotypes that haven't existed for years and years."

She says morticians sometimes bear the brunt of a family's grief and anger, but that is widely accepted as part of the job.

"Maybe they've come to grips with something everyone else is terrified of," she says.

"Not all bill collectors, though they're painted that way, are ogres," says Harold Slaughter, manager of The Rent Collection Co. in Washington, D.C. "It doesn't affect me, but over the years I have become immune to it. Anybody in this business has got to get used to it."

"Our people don't have that problem," says Elliott Florin, the manager of a 50-person Manhattan sales force for the Fuller Brush Co.

"In fact, it's the opposite," he says. "My dealers tend to have more complaints about customers than vice versa. If you've ever been in sales, and the majority of your customers are middle-aged women, you know what I'm talking about."

Larry Layman, a Peoria, Ill., police detective, jokes that he first realized people didn't like him when they started shooting back.

"But even out of uniform, he says, a policeman can't get out from behind his badge."

"You walk into a party, and everybody starts saying, 'Cheese it, the cops are here.' You lose your identity except as an authority figure. It ostracizes you pretty much," Layman says.

That's also the reason, he says, that police officers usually don't have any friends except other police officers.

"You lose your common bond with other people," he says.

There have been few studies of how the people we love to hate react to being hated.

Coveted Johnson award won by John Stephens

(Special to the Herald)

AUSTIN — Lady Bird Johnson recently honored several individual employees and a district office of the Texas State Department of Highways and Public Transportation for their outstanding efforts in highway beautification and environmental preservation.

West Texan John E. Stephens, the department's maintenance construction supervisor in Robert Lee, became the eleventh winner of the coveted Lady Bird Johnson Award for his work in highway beautification during the past year.

Stephens, a departmental employee for over 20 years, was chosen as the 1980 award recipient for his care in beautifying the 200 miles of highways under his maintenance jurisdiction in Coke County. He has nurtured native trees, grasses and wild flowers and has been instrumental in enhancing area highways surrounding E.V. Spence Lake.

During a reception and barbecue luncheon for some 200 guests hosted by Mrs. Johnson at the Lyndon B. Johnson State Park in Stonewall, she presented to Stephens a handsome, blue-bonnet-embellished plaque and her personal check for $1,000.

The second place award for highway beautification, with a $500 check, went to John D. (Pete) Brooks of Mineola. Four additional maintenance supervisors were honored at the park as finalists in the beautification competition: Merle Miller of Monahans, W.T. Sullivan of Claude, Ed Wheeler of Shackelford County, and Gwan Wilkinson of Briscoe County.

The ceremonies this year were expanded to include a special environmental preservation award announced in 1979 by Mrs. Johnson. The department's Corpus Christi district, comprised of 10 coastal area counties, is the first winner of the prestigious new award, called the Lady Bird Johnson Scenic Preservation Award.

As a permanent commemoration of the honor, Mrs. Johnson presented an unglazed ceramic plaque of Texas red clay.

Texas vote upcoming on bingo

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — Texans will decide on Nov. 4 if they want to give communities the power to legalize the third largest form of gambling in the nation.

To its opponents, bingo is predatory, preying on poor people who wager welfare checks against slim chances of fast money.

To its supporters it's the "game of God, grandmothers and good works."

Bingo games could be operated only by non-profit organizations such as churches and volunteer fire departments if the amendment passes.

The amendment would give local option power to decide whether bingo, now operating illegally in many communities, should be allowed. Enforcement of current anti-bingo laws is patchy.

R. Lee Hayes, campaign director for the pro-bingo troops, says the inconsistent enforcement sparked his interest in legalization. His fraternal organization went through many confrontations with law enforcement officials about its bingo games.

"Bingo is now played seven days a week and four times on Sunday in virtually every county in Texas," Hayes said. "It's $4.5 billion and it's unregulated, untaxed and out of control."

"Bingo has probably raised more money for charitable organizations than any other form of fund raising," said a House Study Group report. "As a form of recreation certainly it is no worse than the perfectly legal practice of hanging out at beer joints."

The report said the "house" usually keeps about 40 percent of bingo money wagered, compared with 4 percent in casino gambling.

CHICAGO (AP) — America's bankers must use their clout to demand an end to the "debauchery" of money by government spending, a prime cause of inflation, banker David Rockefeller says.

"To put it bluntly, the root of our current inflationary crisis is clearly the soaring price of government," he said.

Rockefeller, chairman of Chase Manhattan Bank, the nation's third largest, said, "The growth of social programs can no longer exceed the growth of the business on which they finally depend."

His remarks came in a speech prepared for delivery this morning to a convention in Chicago of the American Bankers Association.

Bankers, Rockefeller said, must work "to demand an end to the debauchery of the money of the American people and the betrayal of their trust" posed by government spending.

He told the bankers that government's role in inflation is not sufficiently recognized.

"A recent study of the coverage of inflation on television news programs found that 80 percent of the reports deal with the problem only as a matter of price hikes or wage increases," Rockefeller said.

He said the public learns to see inflation in terms of businesses raising prices and pulling in higher profits, or workers demanding raises, or bankers demanding higher interest rates. The government is left out of the picture, he contended.

"Inflation, as every banker knows, is a decline in the value of money," Rockefeller said. "And only the government has the power to debase the currency by creating too much of it."

"Between 1975 and 1979," Rockefeller said, "the federal tax bill for all Americans increased more than eight times as much as their fuel bill....To put it bluntly, the root of our current inflationary crisis is clearly the soaring price of government."

Rockefeller said social welfare programs of the 1960s forced the government into deficit spending, which he said fueled inflation.

"Environmental, health, safety and other regulations proliferate," Rockefeller said. "They not only add directly to costs, and therefore prices; they also pre-empt billions in capital that otherwise might be productive."

He said the regulations reduce the amount of capital available for investment and cut into productivity gains.

The convention, which began Saturday, runs through Wednesday and is expected to involve 10,000 bankers. An estimated 90 percent of the nation's 14,957 full-service, commercial banks belong to the trade group.

Earlier, outgoing President C.C. Hope Jr. of Charlotte, N.C., reported the group was initiating a nationwide anti-inflation project including distribution of six "inflation messages" to each of the attending bank executives to take to his community.

Home tree planting is pushed by U. S.

WASHINGTON (AP) — The government is promoting tree planting around the home as a money-saving device. The Agriculture Department says a row of trees can cut down wind and reduce home heating bills by as much as 20 percent. That amounts to a national average of $60 a year. "The trees can easily pay for themselves in fuel savings in a matter of a few years," said George Moeller, head of the department's urban forestry research program. The trees also can help cool the home in summer, he added. In addition to screening out hot sunlight from windows, the trees help cool the surrounding environment by returning moisture to the air from their leaves, he said. In the cold months, Moeller continued, air moving into the average home through openings around doors, windows and elsewhere can cause a heat loss of about one-third. A moderate breeze of about 15 mph in the winter can rob a home of as much as two-thirds of its heat, he said. "Trees also can help increase the value of the consumer's home," he added. "Our studies have shown that a home with several attractive shade trees in the yard usually can be sold for about 15 percent more than an identical house without trees." The Agriculture Department said tree planting also can provide other benefits which can't be measured in dollars and cents. The benefits include attracting birds to urban areas and cleaning the air by trapping dust particles. Shade trees can capture 27 percent to 38 percent of the dust particles and 9 percent to 13 percent of the gas-like suspended particles floating in the air, Moeller said.

Also, he said, trees help muffle noise. A four-foot-wide row of trees around a home can reduce neighborhood noise by as much as 25 percent, he said. Moeller advised potential tree purchasers to consult with state forestry departments before buying. "I can't think of any other type of investment which pays such generous short-and long-term benefits," he said. WASHINGTON (AP) — Agriculture Department economists are expanding their monthly commodity supply-and-demand estimates this week to include figures for foreign countries. The reports will cover grains, oilseeds and cotton. Susan Sechler, a department economist, said the report will be prepared under strict security to prevent premature disclosures that could affect commodity markets. The new report normally will be released around the 11th day of each month after the world and U.S. crop production reports are announced.

THINKING OVER THE LOSS — Jose Cruz of the Houston Astros sits alone in the dugout as fans stand quietly in the stands after the Astros lost to the Philadelphia Phillies, 8-7, in ten innings in the final game of the National League playoffs Sunday in Houston.

Morgan: 'Hold your heads up'

HOUSTON (AP) — Joe Morgan walked through the quiet Houston Astros dressing room Sunday night and said time after time: "Hold your heads up. You've got nothing to be ashamed of."

The Astros had been beaten in the fifth game of the National League playoffs 8-7 in 10 innings by the Philadelphia Phillies. And most of them found that hard to swallow.

While most of the Houston players sat facing the wall and seldom taking the time to even answer questions, Morgan, the second baseman and sparkplug who had come to Houston only this year, said repeatedly: "There is another year and we've played some great baseball."

Oilers have bad day, too

KANSAS CITY, Mo. (AP) — Two weeks ago everybody was predicting the Kansas City Chiefs, winless in four games, were on the verge of disaster, perhaps staring down the barrel of a 0-8 start.

Now the Chiefs suddenly are 2-4, after Steve Fuller's scrambling fourth-quarter 38-yard touchdown run led Kansas City to a 21-20 victory over Houston Sunday. It was the Chiefs' second straight victory.

Fuller, facing a second- and 12 situation on the Oiler 38, was chased out of the pocket by Jesse Baker. He scrambled forward, paused at the first-down stakes, then shook off two tacklers and sprinted into the end zone untouched.

Sharpnack Indians win squeaker

Joe Sharpnack took top honors in the year-end Grand Tournament sponsored by the Chicano Golf Association, Sunday, at Comanche Trail Golf Course.

Quarterback Mark Cox completed a pass with 43 seconds left to set up a field goal that gave McMurry an 18-17 victory over Sul Ross Saturday, keeping the Indians on the heels of front-running Austin College in the Texas Intercollegiate Athletic Association.

Christian, which lost its sixth straight game in its maiden season.

CELEBRATION TIME — Garry Maddox of the Philadelphia Phillies holds up the ball from the last out as he is carried off the field by his teammates after the Phillies won the National League pennant. Maddox got the game winning hit and also caught Enos Cabell's fly ball to end the Astro's bid for their first title.

Phils face Royals

BIG SPRING, TEXAS OCTOBER 13, 1980

SECTION B SECTION B

HOUSTON (AP) — The Philadelphia Phillies and the Kansas City Royals, disciples of that famous fable that if at first you don't succeed, try, try again, are 1980 World Series opponents.

The Phillies joined the Royals in ending years of frustration by winning their league pennant to reach the best-of-seven Series, which starts in Philadelphia tomorrow night.

The Astros scored three in the seventh, it looked like the Phillies were done.

Jackson's all alone

DENVER (AP) — It's been a little lonely out there for Tom Jackson this National Football League season.

A key member of what is widely regarded as the best four-man linebacker corps in football, Jackson has seen two of his Denver Bronco colleagues — Bob Swenson and Joe Rizzo — sidelined by injuries.

A few of the Astros sipped on cans of beer, but there was no champagne this time.

For Maddox it was retribution. In 1978 at Los Angeles he dropped a routine line drive that gave the Dodgers the clinching NL playoff victory.

Boone, the veteran catcher who with Mike Schmidt, Larry Bowa, Trillo, Pete Rose and Bake McBride formed the core of this team, was in an emotional state.

LSC whips Howard Payne

SAN MARCOS, Texas (AP) — Donnie Williams ran for two touchdowns and freshman Ronnie Gaskin dashed for two more to pace Southwest Texas to a 35-8 whipping of Howard Payne in the Lone Star Conference football opener for both teams Saturday night.

Williams scored on runs of 15 and 8 yards and Gaskin scored on jaunts of 4 and 15 yards. Quarterback Mike Miller, who completed 9 of 10 passes for 138 yards, also scored on an 8-yard run.

Cowboys cream 49ers

IRVING, Texas (AP) — Drew Pearson is happy. Danny White is happy. Coach Tom Landry is happy.

The lead in the National Conference Eastern Division, White said, "It was probably one of the easiest games we'll have for years and years, but next week will probably be one of the toughest."

White, who completed touchdown passes of 16, 22, and 17 yards to Pearson plus a 13-yarder to tight end Billy Joe DuPree, said, "I didn't react to Drew's outburst last week because as far as I'm concerned things never changed. So much has been said of it that it got over-blown, but we got over that today, I'm sure. He's a first class professional who never stops working even if he hadn't caught a pass in three weeks."

BIG DAY FOR DANNY — Dallas Cowboys quarterback Danny White glances up on the sidelines during the fourth quarter of Sunday's game against the San Francisco 49ers at Texas Stadium. White led the Cowboys to a 59-14 victory completing 16 of 22 passes for 239 yards with four touchdowns and no interceptions.

Buffalo's bubble bursts

For five weeks the Buffalo Bills led a charmed existence. Even when they trailed going into the fourth quarter, they somehow found a way to win.

Not Sunday. Buffalo's bubble was finally burst as the Baltimore Colts, led by Bert Jones, beat the Bills 17-12 to spoil the National Football League's last perfect record.

In racing to a 5-0 mark with their best start since 1964, the Bills twice had rallied to win in the final period. So when they found themselves behind the Colts 17-9 going into the fourth quarter, they weren't particularly worried.

"We had a feeling that we'd come back," said Bills guard Reggie McKenzie. "It was just a matter of stopping the mistakes."

But it never happened. All the Bills could come up with was a 20-yard field goal by Nick Mike-Mayer in the late going, and it wasn't enough.

Buffalo wasn't the only upset victim on the NFL's sixth Sunday. The Pittsburgh Steelers were knocked off by the Cincinnati Bengals for the second time this season 17-16, but stayed atop the AFC Central Division because the Houston Oilers were surprised by the Kansas City Chiefs 21-20. The San Diego Chargers were upset by the Oakland Raiders 38-24, the Cleveland Browns shocked the Seattle Seahawks 27-3 and the New York Jets surprised the Atlanta Falcons 14-7.

The Jets' victory, their first of the season, left the New Orleans Saints as the only winless team in the league. New Orleans was beaten by the Detroit Lions 24-13.

In other games, the New England Patriots clobbered the Miami Dolphins 34-0, the Dallas Cowboys overwhelmed the San Francisco 49ers 59-14, the Philadelphia Eagles beat the New York Giants 31-16, the Green Bay Packers and Tampa Bay Buccaneers fought to a 14-14 tie, the Los Angeles Rams defeated the St. Louis Cardinals 21-13 and the Minnesota Vikings topped the Chicago Bears 13-7.

Washington is at Denver Monday night.

Bengals 17, Steelers 16

"We're a better team than Cincinnati, so why in the world did they beat us twice?" asked Pittsburgh tackle Joe Greene after the Bengals, behind quarterback Ken Anderson, raced to a 17-0 halftime lead and held on. Steelers kicker Matt Bahr had an extra-point try blocked and also missed a 39-yard field goal attempt with four seconds left.

Browns 27, Seahawks 3

Mike Pruitt rushed for 116 yards and two touchdowns as Cleveland beat Seattle for the first time in four meetings.

Vikings 13, Bears 7

Ted Brown's 1-yard scoring run early in the fourth quarter erased a 7-6 deficit and gave Minnesota an error-filled victory over Chicago.

Raiders 38, Chargers 24

Oakland's Kenny King ran for 138 yards and two touchdowns, one of them on a club-record 89-yard run that broke a 24-24 tie. Just 11 seconds later, San Diego's Chuck Muncie fumbled a kickoff return and Oakland's Todd Christensen fell on it in the end zone for another touchdown.

Jets 14, Falcons 7

Kevin Long, who came to training camp overweight and never challenged for the Jets' fullback job, got in the lineup anyway last week when starter Clark Gaines suffered a broken leg.

At Atlanta he carried 25 times for 100 yards and scored the winning touchdown on a 1-yard plunge with 1:38 remaining to give the Jets their first victory of the season.

Lions 24, Saints 13

Rookie Billy Sims rushed for 91 yards and scored a pair of fourth-period touchdowns, the first of which was set up by Rick Kane's 62-yard kickoff return. New Orleans quarterback Archie Manning completed 25 of 36 pass attempts for 314 yards in the losing effort.

Patriots 34, Dolphins 0

"We got beat bad," Miami Coach Don Shula said after the Dolphins suffered their 20th straight loss in 10 years. Steve Grogan and Matt Cavanaugh each threw one touchdown pass for New England and the Patriots' defense limited Miami to just 88 yards and eight first downs.

Eagles 31, Giants 16

Louie Giammona filled in for the injured Wilbert Montgomery and ran for two of Philadelphia's four second-half touchdowns as the Eagles rallied to beat the Giants and keep pace with Dallas atop the NFC East at 5-1.

Packers 14, Bucs 14

Tom Birney, a substitute junior high school teacher until the Packers signed him last week after cutting kicker Chester Marcol, missed a 24-yard field goal try with 1:09 left in regulation, then failed on a 36-yard try with five seconds left in overtime. So the game ended as the first tie of the NFL season.

Rams 21, Cardinals 13

Vince Ferragamo passed for one touchdown and ran for another as the Rams beat St. Louis to raise their record to 4-2 and pull into the lead in the NFC West, one game ahead of Atlanta and San Francisco.

Spani earlier intercepted a Ken Stabler pass that he took in for a touchdown as the Chiefs beat the Oilers 21-20.

Angelo State shares LSC lead

Angelo State protected its spot as the nation's top-ranked NAIA football team with a 35-7 victory over Stephen F. Austin Saturday, but has to share the lead with three other clubs in this week's Lone Star Conference standings.

Texas A&I, the league's defending champion, also won in the first week of conference play, as did Southwest Texas State and East Texas State.

Angelo State and East Texas State remain unbeaten with 4-0 records, while Southwest Texas and Texas A&I are both 3-2.

Texas A&I picked off six Abilene Christian passes in its 46-13 rout of the Wildcats at Abilene. Southwest Texas State had an easy time downing Howard Payne 35-8, and East Texas flew by Sam Houston 41-7.

Texas A&I's Javelinas led only 13-6 at the half but broke loose for 33 points in the final two periods as quarterback Tim Hawkins hit wide receiver Joe Hayes on a 72-yard touchdown bomb. Then Randy Cretors gave Hawkins a breather and dashed 17 yards for one score and directed the Hogs to three more touchdowns in the fourth quarter.

Angelo State quarterback Doug Kuhlmann was nearly perfect in a 13-for-15 passing performance, including eight in a row. His game percentage of .866 set a school record, and his three TD passes raised his total for the year to five.

East Texas State kept its perfect record intact with another good night by Wade Wilson, the league's top passer. The 6-4, 219-pound senior hit 13 of 25 passes for 187 yards and three touchdowns, raising his total to nine touchdown passes in four games.

Saturday's Puzzle Solved:

"IF YOU WANT TO STAY ON HER GOOD SIDE, DON'T MAKE UP ANY DUMB JOKES ABOUT CHRISTOPHER COLUMBUS!"

"These are called place mats 'cause they show you where your place is."

Your Daily HOROSCOPE
from the CARROLL RIGTER INSTITUTE

FORECAST FOR TUESDAY, OCT. 14, 1980

GENERAL TENDENCIES: The early part of the day finds you inclined to think in a negative manner about problems that come up. Look upon the constructive side of things and gain your goals.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Try to help associates solve a problem and gain their goodwill. Don't take risks with money at this time. Avoid a troublemaker.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Be sure to use utmost care in motion and avoid possible accident. Steer clear of one who likes to criticize you.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) You may be confused about finances in the morning, but later you can advance with clarity. Cut down on expenses.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) Be more kind instead of forceful with your friends and gain their respect. Not a good day for taking risks.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Be precise in handling important business matters and avoid trouble later. A new plan needs more study to be successful.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Don't criticize a loyal friend in the morning or there could be a severance of connections. Think along optimistic lines.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Wait until the afternoon before going after your aims and get excellent results. Show others that you are alert and clever.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Don't postpone important duties in the morning or you will regret it. Don't trust your intuition during the day.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Some business or other matters could worry you during the day, but by evening all is okay. Maintain your poise.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) Morning may find an associate to be annoying, so keep your distance. Postpone handling a business matter.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) You are gregarious by nature and this is a fine time to visit old friends and exchange views. Safeguard your health.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) A fine day to contact influential persons who can help you advance in your career. Make long-range plans for the future.

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one who must learn to be more objective and less emotional when clear thinking is needed. Give the best education you can afford and success will follow. Teach to keep an open mind. There's musical ability here.
