

Bride has leukemia

'Father, we now place this union in your hands'

ZENA, Okla. (AP) — Claudia Jane Self hasn't cried much since she learned in December that she has leukemia.

But when she got married and decorations donated by strangers, and set off on a honeymoon paid for by a mayor's family, the 18-year-old bride cried.

Miss Self wed 19-year-old Gene Jones on Valentine's Day in a little brown church bursting with people.

the Rev. Dolphus Blevins told the bridegroom after the couple exchanged vows before 180 friends and relatives at Zena Baptist Church.

Jones, his tan western boots contrasting with his powder-blue tux, kissed his new bride for what seemed an eternity.

"I just said KISS her, Gene," the preacher joked. The church boomed with laughter.

The couple had planned to marry in the fall, but made plans for a Valentine wedding after Miss Self nearly died last month. People who read of the couple in the Tulsa World donated hundreds of dollars.

Two women who own a wedding business in Coweta traveled to this little Delaware County community to provide candles and other church decorations at no charge.

"We don't want our names mentioned," one of the women said. "We just wanted to do it, but not for any publicity."

Grove Mayor Nellie Stover, her husband, Wilbur, and their daughter, Jo Ann Huffman, paid for a weekend honeymoon at Shangri La, a luxury resort 30 miles from the church.

"It has been wonderful for them," said Linda Johnson, one of Claudia's 15 brothers and sisters who beamed with pride.

The 14-minute ceremony tired the slender blonde. She stood straight through it, but sat at the reception as well-wishers streamed by with hugs and kisses.

"Her legs almost buckled during the wedding," said Darlene Self, a sister and the maid of honor.

"The doctor told us she is living on willpower," said Henry Phillips, the bride's stepfather, who led her down the aisle. "She's gonna fight it."

Today, after her honeymoon, Mrs. Jones will undergo a red blood cell count to determine if she must receive another life-sustaining transfusion at Grove General Hospital. She received four pints of blood there Jan. 5 and suffered a reaction which caused a 105-degree fever for two days.

Jones will return to work building barns. The former high school sweetheart will make their home in a little rented house next door to the church. Gene's parents, James and Sue Jones, spent the week cleaning and painting the dwelling.

The minister made no reference to Claudia's illness during the ceremony, but his final words seemed to echo through the cobblestone church.

"Father, we now place this union in your hands."

YMCA to offer course in basic scuba diving

The Big Spring YMCA will offer a certified course in basic scuba diving, starting at 7 p.m., Thursday, March 12.

Classes will meet each Monday and Thursday from 7 to 10 p.m. at the Y through May 7. Included will be a trip for required open water diving, tentatively booked for May 9-10.

All equipment, except individual wet suits for trips to Balmorhea and either Possum Kingdom or Amistead, will be furnished by the Y. Students, however, will be required during the course to purchase their own masks, fins and snorkels.

Fees are $125 for non-members and $100 for Y members. It is necessary that students be advanced swimmers, in good physical condition, and at least 16 years of age.

Those planning to enroll must complete, prior to March 12, a number of forms, which are available in a packet at the Y at a cost of $1.

The forms include a complete physical examination and approval from one's physician that the candidate is qualified to take such training.

The course is sanctioned and approved by the South-west Area and National YMCA Scuba Commissions and provides internationally recognized diver certification.

The primary purpose of the course is to teach safety in diving.

Instructors will be Paschal Odum and Dr. Floyd R. Mays.

Child killer's habits studied

ATLANTA (AP) — As 11-year-old Patrick Baltazar was buried today, investigators tried to determine how long his body had lain in a DeKalb County ravine before it was discovered.

The timing of his death and the dumping of his body are critical to officials trying to determine the path and habits of a killer, according to police investigating the slayings of 17 young black children and the disappearance of another.

The minister made no reference to Claudia's illness during the ceremony, but his final words seemed to echo through the cobblestone church.

"Father, we now place this union in your hands."

Weather

Chance of showers in South Texas

By the Associated Press
Fog was reported early today extending from middle sections of the Texas coasts into North-east Texas.

Dense fog in the Victoria area reduced visibility to near zero. Dense fog was also reported over the Permian Basin in West Texas, prompting the National Weather Service to issue travelers advisories because of hazardous driving conditions. Visibility was near zero in some areas of the Permian Basin.

Forecasts called for partly cloudy skies over the coastal plains, South Central Texas and East Texas with clear skies forecast for the remainder of the state. There was a slight chance of showers in extreme South Texas through tonight.

Highs were to be mostly near 70, ranging from the 60s in North Texas to near 80 in the Big Bend area of Southwest Texas.

FORECASTS
WEST TEXAS — Fair through tonight, becoming partly cloudy Wednesday. Warm Highs 65 to 75 except near 80 Big Bend. Lows lower 30s. Panhandle to mid 40s south except 20s mountains.

EXTENDED FORECAST
WEST TEXAS — Fair with unseasonably warm temperatures Thursday through Friday. Partly cloudy and not so warm Saturday. Highs Thursday and Friday 70a north to 80s south. Highs Saturday 60s north to near 80 Big Bend. Lows Thursday through Saturday 30s north to 40s south.

WEATHER FORECAST — The National Weather Service forecast for Wednesday predicts rain in portions of Washington, Oregon, California and Nevada.

Bill to register foreign land ownership criticized

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — A bill requiring disclosure of foreign investment in Texas agricultural land has received a chilly reception from a Texas House committee.

The bill, sponsored by Rep. Dan Kubiak, D-Rockdale, would impose a $10,000 fine if foreigners did not provide county clerks and the state secretary of agriculture with the location, size, and purchase price of farm or ranch land.

The House State Affairs Committee Monday night referred it to a sub-committee to be named later. Representatives of the American Agriculture Movement, Texas Farmers Union, Texas Farm Bureau and Independent Cattlemen's Association testified in favor of the bill.

Testifying against it were representatives of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce, American Petrofina, Texas Association of Realtors and Shell Oil.

The bill was needed because foreign purchases of Texas land are increasing and existing federal registration requirements are inadequate, Kubiak said.

"We need to see what danger we're in (because of foreign investment)," Kubiak told the committee.

Committee members repeatedly asked the bill's supporters to state exactly what the impact of foreign ownership was.

"We can't take even the smallest chance with such a precious commodity as our food supply," said Calvin Allison of the American Agriculture Movement. "We could find ourselves tenants in our own land."

"If there were a crisis in our food supply, don't you think the government would react?" asked Elton Bomer, D-Montalba.

Haynes charges Vickie Daniel was mistreated

LIBERTY, Texas (AP) — The prominent criminal lawyer hired to defend Mrs. Price Daniel Jr. says she has been subjected to "some very curious circumstances and some very harsh circumstances since the incident that catapulted her to page one."

Mrs. Daniel is charged with murdering her husband, a former Texas House speaker, in their ranch home north of Liberty in a Jan. 19 shooting.

Richard "Racehorse" Haynes of Houston was retained last week to head Mrs. Daniel's defense. He also is to represent her in a civil action in which Daniel's sister is seeking custody of two of Daniel's young children. A custody hearing is scheduled Feb. 26.

Haynes said Monday in Houston he has no intention of tolerating uncomform and unprofessional treatment he says Vickie Daniel has received from "so-called" Liberty County officials.

He said he will seek return of such personal items as her driver's license, her purse and its contents, and the birth certificates of her two sons.

Such material, Haynes said, is not relevant to the case.

Mrs. Daniel had filed a divorce suit Dec. 31.

Haynes said that when the full facts are developed there will be evidence that Mrs. Daniel was "a battered wife."

Biggerstaff named veep of First National Bank

R. D. Biggerstaff has been named a vice president of the First National Bank here, filling a vacancy on the staff.

He formerly was the executive vice president of the Planters and Merchants State Bank in Hearne. From 1970 through 1975, Biggerstaff was an assistant vice president of the Cleburne National Bank in Cleburne.

From 1965 to 1978, he served as a vice-president of the Cleburne Financial Institution.

Biggerstaff, 34, attended Midwestern State University in Wichita Falls, where he majored in Finance. He also attended the ABA School of Banking.

He is a member of the Exchange Club of America, a past director of the Kiwanis Club and was affiliated with the Lion's Club and Optimist Club.

He formerly served as a director of the March of Dimes and worked with the Heart Fund and the Boy Scouts. By profession of faith, he is a Methodist.

He served in the U.S. Army from 1978 to 1970 and was awarded the Vietnamese Service Medal, the National Defense Service Medal, the Army Commendation Medal, with Oak Leaf Cluster, gained a citation from Kenneth D. Orr, commanding general, and earned the Bronze Star and the Vietnamese Cross of Gallantry before being honorably discharged.

At the local bank, his duties will be in commercial loans and loan compliance.

Mrs. Biggerstaff's given name is Gail. The two have a son, Rhett, age 3 1/2.

Proxmire gives 'Golden Fleece' to Reagan's inaugural panel

WASHINGTON (AP) — as well as several hundred inaugural celebrants," said Proxmire in a written statement.

He said the estimated cost to the taxpayers was $1.8 million.

Proxmire said 616 of the military personnel served as drivers, 175 were escorts for dignitaries and 329 were used as social aides on call at the various festivities.

"These military personnel spent the equivalent of 105.4 man-years chauffeuring and escorting inaugural bigwigs around town," said the senator. "While the new administration has proclaimed there is a serious shortage of ships, the man-years used for this purpose could crew an attack submarine at sea for a year."

The committee was "taking the taxpayers for a ride," the Wisconsin Democrat said.

"While proclaiming that no public money was spent on the inauguration, the Inaugural Committee commandeered 1,120 Marines, soldiers, sailors and other service personnel to act as chauffeurs and aides to 274 inaugural VIPs

All our choices are getting harder, so... let's be practical.

We Americans have always been sensible and practical people. We think about our choices. We look for our best values, whether in the supermarket or the corporate boardroom.

Today we're having to take a long, hard look at our energy options. Oil and gas are no longer cheap. We depend on foreign sources for half our oil, and that makes us vulnerable to foreign politics. How practical is it to rely heavily on those sources?

America has the world's largest domestic reserves of coal and uranium. At your electric company, we think it's sensible to use these cheaper and more plentiful fuels. We started building generating plants to use lignite coal more than 10 years ago, and we're building a nuclear-fueled plant today.

We still have to use gas to make about half your electricity. But as fast as we can afford to, we're building plants to use more abundant fuels.

Think about it. We believe you'll agree. It's the only practical way to go.

U.S. Energy Resources: Coal & Nuclear 91%, Oil & Gas 7%, Other 4%.
U.S. Energy Consumption: Oil & Gas 73%, Coal & Nuclear 21%, Other 4%.

This comparison illustrates why Dr. John M. Kotter, former chairman of the National Energy Policy Committee, insists we must develop the domestic energy we have.

Doc says little relationship between heart disease, diet

COLLEGE STATION, Texas (AP) — Reports scolding Americans about the woes of high cholesterol as the path to heart disease have caused unnecessary panic, according to a Texas A&M University professor.

"For most Americans, there is no relationship between diet and coronary disease," said Dr. Raymond Reiser, professor emeritus of biochemistry at the Texas A&M University.

"Yet, the campaign for us to alter our diet continues, when in actuality the threat exists for only about 30 percent of the population," he added.

Reiser is a noted lipids biochemist who, for several years, has conducted research at Texas A&M on the effects of diet and cholesterol.

Because of the present lack of knowledge regarding other heart disease risk factors such as hypertension, smoking, lack of exercise and genetics, Reiser said the emphasis placed on diet and blood lipids is premature and disproportionate.

"Not more than 20 percent of the people with high cholesterol levels would reduce their risk of heart disease if they followed diet recommendations," he said. "Perhaps 6 percent of the total population could reduce its serum cholesterol drastically enough to have any effect."

Reiser said medical associations and governmental agencies which issue advice while ignoring other factors are engaging in a dangerous practice.

"It could remove from the market some of the most nutritive foods available, such as meats, dairy products and eggs," he said.

Reiser explained that each year one out of 200 people above the age of 35 with average levels of cholesterol have heart attacks.

About 70 percent of the population falls in the category of having higher than normal cholesterol levels and three out of about 200 of these people are victims of heart disease, he added.

"Advertising campaigns have been so intense and so persistent that the word cholesterol has become almost synonymous with heart disease in most people's minds, not only the man in the street but also many physicians and nutritionists," Reiser said. "People have forgotten that evidence is conflicting and that, in the beginning, the prudent diet was a temporary measure until the conflict could be resolved."

GM will start giving rebates

DETROIT (AP) — General Motors Corp. will offer rebates of $500 to $700 to buyers of X-car compacts and mid-sized specialty cars, according to published reports today.

All GM divisions except Cadillac are expected to be involved in the program, which will begin Wednesday and run until March 20, the Detroit Free Press reported today. The Wall Street Journal also reported the rebate plan.

GM has declined comment on the report.

In the first 10 days of February, GM sales plunged 19 percent.

Uncle Sam tells about cars

Associated Press Writer

The federal government is trying to tell Americans everything they've ever wanted to know about automobiles with a 68-page guide called "The Car Book" that has become an instant hit with consumers.

Critics, including some industry sources, charge that the publication — now in its second printing — is inaccurate and unfair, particularly in its safety ratings.

The National Highway Traffic Safety Administration prepared the guide and defends it. Bob Boaz, a spokesman for the agency, said the book is designed to show that there ARE differences among various makes and models. It is designed to show, he said, that there ARE cars on the market today that combine safety and good mileage. "The choice between safety and fuel economy is not one that the consumer should have to make," Boaz said.

Critics of "The Car Book" say that the safety tests used were too limited because they involved only one type of crash, in which a car is driven, head-on, at a speed of 35 mph, into a concrete bar. The critics also say that the flat "pass-fail" rating system used to grade the cars is unfair.

Boaz said "pass-fail" grades are not meant as a complete safety rating. They are simply intended to show comparative performance. He said the head-on crash was used as a standard for testing because it is a common type of accident. He said more than 60 percent of crashes involve a front-end collision of some type. "The Car Book" says that 55 percent of deaths and serious injuries occur in frontal crashes. The publication is available at no charge from the Consumer Information Center, Pueblo, Colo., 81009. It includes information on domestic and imported automobiles in the categories of safety, fuel economy, maintenance and repair costs and insurance fees.

"The Car Book" appeared early in December. Two weeks later, all available copies — 450,000 of them — had been ordered, according to the Consumer Information Center.

Lonergan named new publisher

WICHITA FALLS, Texas (AP) — James D. Lonergan, 55, has been named president of Times Publishing Co. and publisher of the Wichita Falls Times and Record News, succeeding the late Rhea Howard.

Howard, 88, died Feb. 9. He had been president and publisher of the newspapers since 1948, succeeding his father, Ed Howard, who was a founder of the newspapers in 1907.

In announcing Lonergan's appointment, Richard T. Schlosberg III, senior vice president of Harte-Hanks Communications and president of its newspaper operations said, "We will miss Mr. Howard's community and industry leadership, but feel confident that Jim Lonergan will continue in that tradition."

Lonergan was named president of Harte-Hanks' National Group and a corporate vice president last October. The National Group includes the Wichita Falls newspapers, Nortex Offset Press of Wichita Falls, the Abilene Reporter-News and its commercial printing plant and the Hamilton, Ohio, Journal-News.

"I accept the challenge of guiding two fine Texas daily newspapers and their dedicated staffs," said Lonergan.

Lonergan has maintained his office in Wichita Falls since his appointment in October. He was born in Omaha, Neb. and is a graduate of the University of Nebraska. He began his newspaper career in San Jose, Calif. and later moved to Ohio where he has been associated with several newspapers, most recently with Horvitz Newspapers' Loraine, Ohio, Journal and Lake County, Ohio, News-Herald.

He and his wife, Jean, have four sons.

More. For that extra measure of satisfaction.

"I'm More satisfied."

Hurting Howard's WJC title hopes

Midland grounds Hawks in showdown

By NATHAN POSS
Sports Editor

Midland College Coach Jerry Stone held his daughter's hand and naturally seemed very happy as I approached him after the big Western Conference showdown with Howard here last night.

"Alright, what kind of lies did you put in the paper today 'about our talk,'" he asked facetiously, referring to a conversation yesterday morning and subsequent pre-game article.

"Aw, just basically what you said about," I answered. "But you guys ruined the main plot about expecting Howard's four-corner. You never did let them have a chance to run it."

"Sorry, Nathan, but I really enjoyed ruining the story," he continued in mock sorrow, then adding, "Hey, I'm really going to feel bad if it costs you your job. I'd hate to see that happen."

While the conversation before is both true and lighthearted at the same time, it basically tells the outcome of Monday night's Midland-Howard contest.

Midland, which had come into their first meeting in WJC play with Howard undefeated only to fall victim to a beautifully run four-corner offense by Hawk Coach Harold Wilder's crew, never trailed last night in taking a 79-66 triumph.

And when you never trail, it's hard for the opposition to set up and run a successful four-corner.

While Howard never did manage a lead in the contest that all but destroyed their WJC title hopes, it was not without a ferocious fight in an intensely contested roundball bout.

A total of 57 fouls were called in the contest—29 on Howard and 28 on Midland—neither team could capitalize on the charity opportunities like they should.

Both missed 14 free throws, with the only difference that Midland had seven more attempts, canning 13 of 27 from the foul line, while the Hawks could hit only six of 20.

Midland quickly scored the opening bucket of the game, only to see Howard's Ron Akins match that on a 10-foot jumper. The two teams then traded another pair of buckets for a 4-4 game, but from that point, the MC Chaps shot themselves into a lead that they would never relinquish.

The early Midland lead came basically from the corners, and it was led by guard Scotty Tutwiler. Tutwiler, who hails from the same town of Cleveland, Mississippi, that former Howard All-American turned Midland assistant Archie Myers came from, scored eight points in the opening 10 minutes to help push the Chaps to a 20-10 lead. And with that, the tone of an uphill battle was set for the Hawks.

At this point, HC Coach Wilder ordered a time-out and gave his troops a few words of encouragement.

productive. The Chaps hit only two of nine from the free throw line in the opening 20 minutes, as both teams seemed only too anxious.

Akins had been the bulk of the HC offense in the first half, scoring 13 points, while Corker had managed only two against the aggressive Midland defense.

Fouls began hurting both teams in the early portions of the second half, and naturally, fans complained of the officiating. But in truth, although there were some missed calls, with the action as intense and physical as it was, it made for some tough calls.

Midland's stellar guard, Virgil Slay, picked up his fourth personal just after halftime, and Howard's Crushon Loving was called for his fourth with 16:35 left. Then, with just under 16 minutes left, HC's hustling Kenneth Jones received his fourth foul.

With both teams in foul trouble, the advantage was with the depth laden Chaps, which already had a 40-31 lead at this point.

The Chaps took advantage, too, using some uncanny outside shooting by the likes of Puntus Wilson and Lance McCain to gradually pad their lead.

at this time, and they didn't let up.

Nobody had fouled out up to this point, but that changed soon. Loving was the first to receive his fifth foul with 5:24 remaining and the Hawks trailing 62-45, and in the next four minutes he was followed by teammate Jones, as well as Midland's Wilson and Slay.

The Midland College win allowed them to remain in sole possession of first place in the Western Conference race with a mark of 13-2. They are one game ahead of their Thursday night opponent, Frank Phillips College, in WJC play. On the year, the Chaps are a sparkling 25-2.

The loss was the second straight for the Hawks, and dropped their WJC mark to 11-4. Although they are not mathematically out of the WJC race, they need to win all three of their remaining games in order to have any chance at first place, and a legitimate shot at second. These final standings will become very important in the seedings for the Region V Tourney in Brownwood in early March.

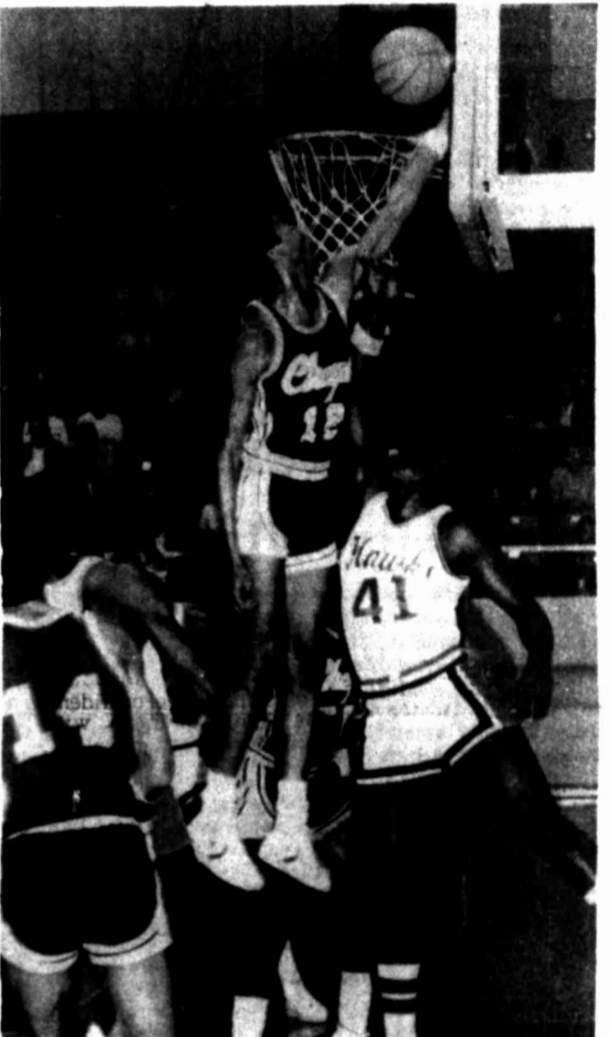

The Midland scoring attack was very well balanced, with five players hitting in double figures. Johnson and Wilson had 16 points to pace the Chaps, with McCain adding 14. Tutwiler and Kevin Willingham added 10 each.

Akins had 22 points and numerous rebounds for the Hawks. Corker came back with 16 points in the second half for finish with 18, but many were after the game was decided. New recruit Greg Bess added 17 for the Hawks.

Howard hits the road for an important contest at Odessa College on Thursday. But then again, at this stage, they're all important.

AP Basketball Poll

Virginia praised by rival coach

By the Associated Press

Virginia Coach Terry Holland admits the hardest thing about being No. 1 is getting up for the games you're supposed to win — something Georgia Tech's Dwayne Morrison only wishes was true.

Virginia tightened its hold on the No. 1 position in The Associated Press college basketball poll Monday as Oregon State, DePaul and Louisiana State retained the Nos. 2, 3 and 4 slots.

But the Cavaliers really went to work Monday night, mauling Georgia Tech 83-42 to clinch a tie for the Atlantic Coast Conference regular-season basketball title.

"A letup was the thing that concerned us, but obviously we did not let up," said Holland after Virginia posted its biggest ACC victory in its 28 years association with the league.

Morrison could only sit back in admiration.

"They have a fine basketball team," he said. "They overpower you. They play well whether they are ahead or behind, and that is the difference between this year's team and last year's."

Virginia labored for years to acquire the athletes they have now and they deserve to be where they are," Morrison added.

Virginia collected 45 of 60 first-place votes and 1,184 points in the balloting by a nationwide panel of sport writers and broadcasters. The Cavaliers, 23-0, held a 54-point advantage over runner-up Oregon State, 21-0. The Beavers were tabbed No. 1 on 14 first-place votes and received 1,130 points.

College Basketball Roundup

Louisville regaining form

By the Associated Press

On Jan. 3, Louisville had won just two of its nine games, and the Cardinals were off to the worst start ever for a defending national collegiate basketball champion.

Monday night, however, the Cardinals avenged their only loss in their past 14 games, clinched the regular-season title of the Metro Conference and took a giant leap toward earning a return berth in the 1981 NCAA playoffs despite a 15-8 record.

Foncho Wright came off the bench and scored 22 points to help the Cardinals to a 95-65 victory over the Memphis State Tigers, who beat Louisville 80-55 in overtime on Jan. 22. Since then, however, Coach Denny Crum's Cards have won nine in a row.

The NCAA does not guarantee a tournament berth to the regular-season champion of any conference that has a postseason playoff, but the Cardinals' 9-

BSHS gridders box way to team title in Regional Golden Gloves action

ODESSA — Big Spring's Bo Terry won a slugfest from Stanton's Richard Parker to move the Big Spring football team into a tie for the team title in the Football Division of the Golden Gloves Boxing Tournament here Monday night.

Terry's effort capped a great Monday night from the Big Spring boxers that had reached the finals and allowed the Steer gridders to tie Odessa High for the team title. Both had 13 victories in the five day affair. Stanton finished a close third with 12 wins.

Entering the finals Monday night, Big Spring had to win all four of their championship fights and Stanton lose all of theirs in order for the Steer gridders to claim a share of the title. And that is exactly what happened.

Kenny Hart was the first Steer to win, claiming a decision in the 145-pound class over Stanton's Rodney Jones.

The next two Big Spring wins came against each other, as Steer gridders had fought into both ends of the championship in their weight class. That was a no-lose situation as far as team points for the BSHS crew

Steers visit Lee, while most 5-5A eyes watch San Angelo-Midland

MIDLAND — While a much bigger battle District 5-AAAAA begins at the same time some 90 miles to the south, the Big Spring Steers and the Midland Lee Rebels put their pride on the line when the two teams square off in Chaparral Center tonight at eight o'clock.

Both teams opened the second half of 5-AAAAA with wins, but have lost their last two contests to knock them out of the league race. So tonight's battle is no doubt simply for fun, and for pride.

The Rebels and the Steers have met two times already.

In the first encounter in the Reese Christmas Classic, the Big Spring team won by a two-point margin. But when they played in the first half of 5-AAAAA play, Lee rolled to a 20-point win over an obviously flat Steer team.

The Rebels are led by the scoring of Alvin Denson, who averages 14 points per game, while Big Spring counters with Bobby Earl Williams, averaging 13.8 per outing. While both teams are 1-2 in the second half on the Rebels are 12-18 on the year, while the Steers are 11-17.

In the 5-AAAAA second half showdown, San Angelo plays host to Midland High. Both teams are 3-0 in the second half. Midland is the first half champion, and a win tonight over the Bobcats would make things extremely rough for any teams hoping to stop their movement toward the 5-AAAAA title.

In the other district games, Odessa Permian (2-1) is at Abilene Cooper (0-3), while Abilene (0-3) visits Odessa (0-3).

Forsan girls go for 5-AA title

FORSAN — The Forsan Buffalo Queens go after the District 5-AA girls title tonight when they play host to Morton at six o'clock.

Forsan won their first half girls title, and is tied with Morton with a 5-0 record in the second half play going into tonight's finale.

A Forsan win tonight would give the Buffalo Queens of Coach Ron Taylor the title, while a loss would give the second half title to Morton, and force a one-game playoff for the league title next Tuesday.

There will be a boys game immediately following the girls action.

If they went on strike with new raises

Baseball players would be crazy

Despite all the dour language from the chiefs on both sides in baseball, here's a bet — based as much on gut instincts as cold reasoning — that "Play ball!" will be the harbinger of spring as usual this season.

No strike. No lockout. There will be considerable haggling. Each side will give a little. They may even go down to the final hour, as before. Each side will claim a victory. Then they'll stoke the bat racks and get the show on the road.

Nobody wants a stoppage, particularly the players. They've never had it so good. Marvin Miller, executive director of the Players Association, is an astute, sensible man. He has grubbed out gains for the players that transcend the imagination. He is not vindictive. Our prediction is that he will let the owners stew in their own juice a while and then take the course that is to the players' advantage.

Across the table, Ray Grebey, negotiator for the owners, represents an internally fractured clientele — a hard core of young owners who don't want to make waves, conservative hardliners who keep losing battles. A tough guy, he is pressed to squeeze out all he can get.

LaMotta doesn't like picture told of him in "Raging Bull"

CINCINNATI (AP) — Former middleweight boxing champion Jake LaMotta says he wants the public to understand that he has changed for the better from the way actor Robert DeNiro portrays him in the movie "Raging Bull."

"The film tells the story of a nighter breaking out of the Bronx ghetto, who beats his wife, slugs his manager brother Joey, throws a fight and is convicted of aiding a 15-year-old girl's prostitution.

"I wish they had shown my good points. I wasn't all bad," LaMotta said. LaMotta said he was proud of the boxing sequences which he supervised. Fourteen fights are shown, including the technical knockout of Marcel Cerdan in 1949 that gave him the championship he held for 19 months.

Player allowances for spring training have been increased to $363.50 a week for spring training and $37.50-a-day meal money plus first-class air travel and hotel accommodations for all road games during the season. This is figured to be a 12.7 percent cost-of-living boost.

Lawyers say MAPS promoter innocent

NEW YORK (AP) — Two lawyers said they met for 90 minutes in Los Angeles Monday with missing boxing promoter Harold J. Smith and said he was innocent in connection with an alleged $21.3 embezzlement from a Wells Fargo bank in California.

Smith, chairman of Muhammad Ali Professional Sports Inc., has been missing for three weeks, although he reportedly has made phone calls to associates and newsmen describing a bizarre flight from gunmen and an alleged kidnaping of his young son.

Smith said he was innocent in connection with an alleged $21.3 embezzlement from a Wells Fargo bank in California. According to stories in Tuesday's editions of both the New York Daily News and the New York Times, one of the lawyers, Robert Rains of Cleveland, said that Smith has done nothing "illegal, improper or immoral."

AFL-CIO hopes to improve GOP relations

BAL HARBOUR, Fla. (AP) — AFL-CIO President Lane Kirkland, urging labor leaders to come to grips with the conservative mood of the country, says opposition to the Reagan administration's proposed budget cuts should not erupt into political warfare.

Kirkland and the 35-member executive council of the labor federation expressed broad disagreement Monday with the administration's developing economic policy, but the AFL-CIO chief said, "I recognize the facts of life. I recognize that fiscal conservatism is dominant today... and there will be a major effort to make large-scale slashes in the federal government."

Following an executive council meeting with Senate Majority Leader Howard Baker of Tennessee, Kirkland said — as he has in the past — that organized labor shouldn't stake all its hopes on one political party.

"The American trade union movement is not conditioned or premised on who's in the White House or who's in Congress," he told a news conference in this Florida resort city. "We had our differences with the prior administration... and we have had presidents in the White House who did not share our philosophy nor were overwhelmed with warmth about our society."

Kirkland's remarks came as the AFL-CIO's political action committee studied ways to improve the lobbying clout of the 14 million-member federation, which has seen its influence wane since last November's election.

"We're going to endure," Kirkland said. "We're going to thrive. We're going to survive."

Kirkland said he believes the organization has "abundant opportunities to tend to our trade union garden and prepare for the battles to come. If we depended on the outcome of an election for our survival, we would have been dead years ago."

The AFL-CIO's invitation to Baker reflected Kirkland's oft-stated desire to improve lines of communication between unions and the Republican Party.

"We look forward to finding areas of common interest," Kirkland said. "I think there are many areas in which we can meet common understanding."

Baker expressed the same sentiments after his meeting with the executive council.

"The basic disagreements of the past between the Republicans and organized labor need not be the dominant issues of the future," Baker told reporters. He said the meeting went well and that "there was no hostility" even though the labor leaders voiced concern about President Reagan's plan to sharply reduce spending on various social programs.

COLORADO CITY (SC) — Mitchell County commissioners opened bids Monday on a tank-trailer and truck, with the winning bid awarded to Bunch Oil Inc., Snyder.

Cost of the 3,255-gallon trailer and 1972 International truck was $5,500. The commissioners also will advertise for bids to purchase a 1974 International dump truck.

In final business, approval was given to an amended plat of the Daughtrey Estate waterfront sub-division on the west side of Lake Colorado City.

THE FAMILY CIRCUS

Your Daily HOROSCOPE

from the CARROLL RICHTER INSTITUTE

FORECAST FOR WEDNESDAY, FEB. 18, 1981

GENERAL TENDENCIES: The daytime is not good for being blunt or outspoken, so try to use tact and diplomacy with others. Not good for starting new ventures or making any changes.

ARIES (Mar. 21 to Apr. 19) Although you may want to make new contacts and see new places, this is not the right day to do so. Use reason.

TAURUS (Apr. 20 to May 20) Don't try to renege where any promises you have made are concerned or you would later regret it. Maintain poise.

GEMINI (May 21 to June 21) Do your utmost to be of assistance to your associates, even if it means giving up personal activities. Be wise.

MOON CHILDREN (June 22 to July 21) You can get much accomplished by attending to duties early in the day and reap in the benefits.

LEO (July 22 to Aug. 21) Show individuals you like that you are devoted to them, but don't permit some conniving person to impose on your good nature.

VIRGO (Aug. 22 to Sept. 22) Use good sense and you can have more accord at home with family members. Find an outlet that brings in added income.

LIBRA (Sept. 23 to Oct. 22) Use care in motion and in conversations today and save yourself much trouble that might otherwise ensue. Be alert.

SCORPIO (Oct. 23 to Nov. 21) Make plans to save more money and build a reserve for a possible rainy day. Take time to improve your appearance.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 22 to Dec. 21) Take extra care you don't make any costly errors through carelessness today. Plan wisely for the future.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 to Jan. 20) There could be delays in handling regular routines early in the day, but be patient. Conditions will improve later.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 to Feb. 19) Avoid any arguments with good friends today and you save yourself from potential trouble. Strive for happiness.

PISCES (Feb. 20 to Mar. 20) Use tact in dealing with others today, especially at home with family members. Safeguard your reputation.

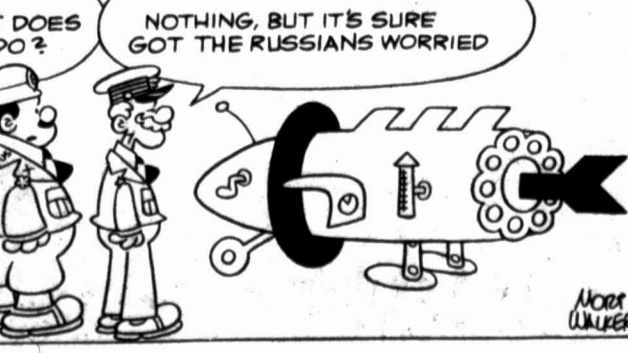

IF YOUR CHILD IS BORN TODAY... he or she will be one of those delightful young persons who should be taught early in life not to be blunt with others and to think in a more kindly fashion. When lessons are learned this will be a successful chart.

"The Stars impel, they do not compel." What you make of your life is largely up to you!

Senate votes to raise drinking age one year

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — The Senate has voted to make teen-agers wait an extra year to buy booze or beer in an attempt to cut down on high school drinking.

Senators voted 26-2 Monday to raise the legal drinking age from 18 to 19. They refused to make an exception for 18-year-old military personnel, who can still drink on base.

"I think your motives are noble, but I think the bill may be unconstitutional," Sen. Carl Parker told the sponsor of the proposal, Sen. Bill Sarpalius.

Parker, D-Port Arthur, predicted "some smart lawyer is going to come in and have this (bill) declared unconstitutional."

"That may be," replied Sarpalius, D-Hereford. The passage of Sarpalius' bill miffed Sen. Walter Mengden, R-Houston, who admonished him not to "horn in" on legislation that other senators have worked years to develop.

Mengden, a senator since 1973, told the freshman Sarpalius that Mengden's bill raising the drinking age to 19 was approved by the Senate in 1979 after he had spent 18 months on it. The same bill was on the Senate agenda Monday, but Mengden did not attempt to bring it up after the Senate approved Sarpalius' measure.

If approved by the House, the Sarpalius bill would leave only 10 states with a legal drinking age as low as 18.

Texas' drinking age was lowered from 21 to 18 in 1973 when the Legislature voted to endow 18-year-olds with full adult rights.

Parker asked if under Sarpalius' bill an 18-year-old "go-go" dancer "bare as a yard dog" could sell drinks between dances although she could not drink herself.

"That's right," said Sarpalius. Similarly, an 18-year-old could work in a package store selling whiskey and beer.

Sarpalius said the bill would prohibit anyone under 19 from holding a license to own a liquor store. Otherwise, he said, "There would be nothing to keep an 18-year-old from buying a liquor store and selling to his friends."

A bill summary stated that raising the drinking age by one year would be important because a smaller percentage of high school students are 19.

Committee testimony disclosed there is more drinking at high school events, and some students even return from lunch under the influence of alcohol and throw up or fall asleep in class. Also, witnesses said, 18-year-olds are buying alcoholic beverages for younger classmates.

Sen. Bob Vale, D-San Antonio, asked Sarpalius if he would accept an amendment exempting military personnel off base, but Sarpalius said, "I don't think there are that many 18-year-olds in the military."

Only Sens. Lloyd Doggett, D-Austin, and Oscar Mauzy, D-Dallas, voted against the bill on final passage, although Parker voted against bringing the bill before the Senate.

Senator says teachers can't afford insurance

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — Texas public school teachers cannot afford health insurance premiums and need help from the state, the Senate Economics Development Committee was told Monday.

Four bills proposing state funding of group health insurance for teachers were sent to a subcommittee Monday in an effort to recommend one compromise bill for Senate debate. Similar bills are pending in the House.

"We all agree that teachers need an insurance program," said Sen. John Traeger, D-Seguin, author of one proposal. "We all agree that any plan should have freedom of choice, where a teacher could belong or not and that local schools could keep their present programs if they wish."

He said the state already has a plan established six years ago for state employees and a second plan set up four years ago for state college teachers.

Traeger's plan to set up the teachers' group insurance plan statewide with administration by the Teachers Retirement System drew support from the Texas State Teachers Association.

Twenty-six students asked to join Phi Theta Kappa

Twenty-six Howard College students have been invited to become members of Phi Theta Kappa, Iota Beta Chapter, at Howard College, according to Mrs. Susan King, English instructor at Howard College.

Those invited to become members are: Sandra Kuykendall, Linda R. Mitchell, Alice Munoz, Nicholas Brown, Bryan Lewis, Toni D. Myrick, Frankie Noyola, Adrian Ormelas, Jerry Bennett, Rocky Bryant, Roxanne Daniell and David Finley.

"We have asked these students to meet with our organization in a get-acquainted session so that we might get to know them better and they may become more familiar with our chapter," said Mrs. King.

The session will be held at 9:45 a.m., Wednesday in the Tumbleweed Room. Initiation dues for Phi Theta Kappa are $17, which includes $15 for national dues and $2 for the first year local dues. Dues will not be collected at the get-acquainted session.

Phi Theta Kappa was founded in 1918 at the Missouri Junior College to recognize the intellectual achievement of college students and to promote scholarships in American colleges.

Members chosen for this honor comprise the upper ten percent of the total college enrollment and are judged according to good moral character, good citizenship qualities and proven scholarship, said King.

The organization will hold its initiation meeting Feb. 22 at 3 p.m. in the Tumbleweed Room. Dr. Charles Hays, president of Howard College, will be the guest speaker.

House committee considers extending power of PUC

AUSTIN, Texas (AP) — The Public Utility Commission would have the power to get a receiver to run a water or sewer utility that violates a PUC order under provisions of a Texas house bill referred to a subcommittee.

The bill, sponsored by Rep. Gene Green, D-Houston, was introduced to solve the problems of Harris County residents served by Peoples National Utility Co., Inc., a water company, and Gulf Water Co., a small sewage disposal utility. It was referred to a subcommittee Monday night.

PUC and local residents had no recourse when the companies, which serve the communities of Colonial Hills and Greenwood Village, refused to obey PUC rate rulings, witnesses said.

Ronald Knight of the attorney general's energy division told the House State Affairs Committee that People's was not properly disinfecting drinking water, Gulf was not treating sewage, and the companies tolerated grossly unsanitary conditions.

Knight said residents are frequently without water or sewage disposal service, but are billed anyway. "These people may be the last of the robber barons," Green told the committee. "They are so immune to the public welfare it's unbelievable."

Morris Robertson, sons want to please public

With all of the ice on the roads this year, it's all too easy to put a nice big dent in your car or truck. If that has happened to you, or if you think you need a new paint job on that not-so-new automobile, Morris Robertson is the person you need to see.

Morris Robertson Body Shop has the experienced people to do the job you need. They are a family business and have been in Big Spring since 1946.

Morris and his sons take a great deal of pride in the professional work they do. The residents of Big Spring and the surrounding area know they can trust the Robertsons. They are not out to take the public, they are in the business to please the public. And they please the public by turning out the best work at the most reasonable prices. They are very open and honest with the way they deal with customers, and have no desire to make a little extra money by taking advantage of someone in need.

Morris Robertson Body Shop offers complete body work facilities. They can do radiator work, body work and can mend the broken glass and straighten the frame on your car. Morris Robertson and sons open their doors at 7:30 every Monday through Friday morning and close the doors at 5:30 p.m. With all of this cold, wet weather we've been having, even the most cautious of drivers can make a big mess of his or her car. If you find yourself looking for quality body work, and want a business that takes pride in their work, look no further than Morris Robertson's Body Shop, located at 207 Goliad. They are here to stay, and they are here to please.

Big Spring Employment puts right person in job

Success in finding a job or in finding the right person to fill a position is better assured by calling a professional employment service such as Big Spring Employment Agency, located in the Coronado Plaza.

Finding the right person for the right job is the duty of Mrs. Sue Brown and Mrs. Rubi Taroni, the experienced personnel counselors at Big Spring Employment.

Each employer has the right to demand the person best qualified for the job, considering the requirements for the work, the salary to be offered and the availability of applicants. With this in mind, Mrs. Brown and Mrs. Taroni carefully evaluate each applicant so employers do not waste time interviewing persons not qualified for the job opening. The agency refers only those who measure up to the job's requirements.

Thus, fewer rejections plague the employer or the applicant. The employer sees fewer applicants, and fewer rejections make for better public relations. There is also a smaller personnel turnover, and the efficiency of employees tends to rise.

Many highly qualified job applicants prefer to use the services of a private employment agency, thus protecting their own iden-executive, job applicants come to Big Spring Employment because they know private agencies are specialists in job-hunting and can, because of experience and contacts, place them in desirable jobs sooner than they can locate jobs themselves.

Applicants desiring employment in other parts of the state or country can be referred for interviews through associated agencies.
