Promise of Money Gets a Lost Son

By Associated Press:
Kau was City, Aug. 24.—That the love of money sometimes may be more influential than a mother's love was borne out in at least one set of circumstances today when Mrs. A. E. Evans of this city got word of the whereabouts of her long lost son. He was located through an advertisement for him as a lost heir to a fortune when there was really no estate for him. For several years his mother had sought him, using every means the grief stricken parent could conceive for finding her lost child without success. The advertisement for him as an heir was carried by many of the leading newspapers and magazines and the young man, now of twenty-three years who was working on a farm heard of the advertisement. A man was upon hearing of the advertisement told the youth about it and he is now enroute to his mother.

Our merchants are receiving fall and winter goods by the carload. They are expecting a fine business and are securing the stocks that will draw patronage for many miles. Sweetwater merchants belong to that wide-awake, hustling class anyway.

Mrs. L. B. McKee and Miss McKee were in the city today shopping. Their home is at Dora.

Two Thousand Families are Homeless

By Associated Press:
St. Louis, Aug. 24.—Two thousand residents of this city living along the Meramec river were rendered homeless last Saturday when the stream was flooded. Today the people face a shortage of water and food. A committee of business men met today and planned relief for the sufferers. The water is six feet and then stopped on account of the high stage of the Mississippi river.

Three Lives Lost When Boat Sunk

By Associated Press:
London, Aug. 24.—Three persons lost their lives by the sinking of the British trawler, Huti today. Nine members of the crew were served.

Saturday Club.
The Saturday Club held a most interesting business meeting Friday afternoon with Mrs. P. R. Hamilton on North Second street.

Despite the warm afternoon a goodly number of the members responded to the invitation to be present. The year book committee submitted the outline for next year's programs, which was unanimously adopted without a single change. Thanks were extended the committee for their interesting efforts and interest taken in furnishing programs which will get the most good out of the year's study course.

Mrs. Q. J. T. Griswold, Mrs. Asbury, Misses Wilson, Pettey, King and stiles were elected to membership in the club.

Mrs. Thos. J. Amell resigned her place as President of the Saturday Club and Mrs. J. McAlister Stevenson was elected to fill her place. She took the chair with a few well chosen words of acceptance. A few other minor matters were attended to and then the club adjourned to join a most charming garden party on the lawn, honoring Mrs. J. R. Ross of San Angelo that had collected during the club meeting.

The pretty green shrubbery and velvet grass was an ideal setting for the handsomely gowned maids and matrons who formed the party. A most delightful ice course was served by the hostess, assisted by the following young ladies: Misses Katherine Holmes Berta Glass, Grace Hord, Mary Hardy Ruth Bertram and Mary Douthit.

Trees Destroyed by the Storm

By Associated Press:
New York, Aug. 24.—The Hurricane which swept recently over the West Indies destroyed ninety per cent of the banana trees on the north side of the island of Jamaica, according to an official of the steamship Commodore Rollins which arrived today. The steamer brought a large cargo of bananas which were cut from the trees felled by the hurricane.

Miss Cora Flood of Oklahoma was in the city today.

YOUNG WOMAN DRINKS CARBOLIC ACID; IS IN A CRITICAL CONDITION

A sensation was caused today when a report reached town that Miss Nell Eidsen was found in an unconscious condition at the City Cemetery. The startling news was telephoned from the Sweetwater Bottling Company's plant, by the cemetery sexton, who rushed to that place after making the awful discovery.

Dr. Roseborough was the first physician reached by telephone and he was soon in his car and going at full speed to the scene. They found Miss Eidsen lying across her father's grave in a prostrate and apparently dying condition. By means of a stomach pump the deadly poison was removed and every possible attention given her. Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Johnson and Mr. P. H. Baxley rushed to the scene in Mr. Johnson's automobile and soon returned with Miss Eidsen.

being made to save her life. As we go to press there is some hope for her recovery, but she is suffering terrible agony.

About forty minutes before she was discovered in a dying condition, she was seen by numerous friends in town and they were unprepared to believe the awful report when it was made. She had called at the Palace Drug Store and purchased a small amount of carbolic acid. When found the small bottle still contained some of the deadly fluid and was well corked and placed near her.

Miss Nell is one of our popular young women. She graduated in the City High School several years ago and has taught in this county for several years. She is recognized as one of the county's most efficient teachers.

Her father's death was a terrible blow to her and those close to her say that she has constantly grieved for her father. The awful occurrence is deeply deplored by our entire people and all join in the hope that she may recover and life may yet become full of joy for her.

R. D. Moxley of Abilene was here on business today.

Prominent Young People Married

The many friends of Mr. A. C. Ingram and Miss Ruth Millsapps were very much surprised to learn of their marriage, which occurred yesterday afternoon at 4 o'clock, Rev. C. A. Engle

THE CHURCH SOCIAL AT THE METHODIST CHURCH

The Get-Together social at the Methodist church last night was a grand success in every way. A large crowd responded to the invitation to be present.

The pastor Rev. G. S. Hardy proved a whole "host" indeed and with his reception committee introduced the strangers and made everybody feel welcome.

Delicious ice cream and cake were served at the proper hour, and everyone departed for home wishing for a repetition of the evening's pleasure in the near future.

Mrs. Dumas, of Corsicana who has been demonstrating the merits of Royal Blend Coffee for the past week left this morning for Colorado. While here, Mrs. Dumas gave demonstrations at S. Z. William's Drug Store and took orders for coffee. This is a splendid coffee and made in Texas, which lends an extra aroma.

Mrs. Dumas gave the ladies of the Methodist Missionary Society 10c out of the sale price of each can. She took a large number of orders. The Royal Blend will be handled by every groceryman in town, we understand.

GERMANY ASKS UNITED STATES NOT TO INTERFERE TIL ALL FACTS ARE OUT

An Automobile party consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. Miller, Miss Miller and Mr. Fowler of Durant, Ok. enroute home from Colorado, New Mexico and Arizona stopped with their friends, Mr. A. C. Crossman and family. They are on their way to Garland to visit Mr. Crossman's brother and family.

By Associated Press:
Washington, Aug. 24.—Germany, through her Ambassador, Count Bernstorff today asked the United States not to take any final stand on the sinking of the White Star liner until all facts are known. This is the first word from Germany since the disaster. Count Bernstorff today telegraphed the State Department saying he made the request at the instance of his home government.

of the Presbyterian Church officiating. They left immediately for a trip to Abilene and other points.

In this paper will be cheerfully corrected when called to the attention of the publishers.

On a number of occasions of late inquiries have been made by boys of limited means as to whether any arrangements could be made whereby they could work for their board and attend the Sweetwater High School the coming session. This, it seems to me, is a real opportunity both for those who may need household help and at the same time an opportunity to do service where it will be sincerely appreciated. How many boys with aspiring genius in the past have left a great song unsung or a great work unaccomplished between somebody somewhere at sometime failed to realize their yearnings after better things. How many minds that were born too soon among the stars have been forced to grovel upon the earth because within their limited opportunities they could never develop the talent with which they were endowed? Some of these may be now among those making these requests. Anyway they are serious and earnest and will make good if they are given a chance. If any reader of this paper knows where a good boy can be so placed will he not report the matter at once to the Superintendent of the City Schools will be shown at the Sweetwater Theater on Thursday August 26th. This drama carries with it the atmosphere of the woods and mountains and broad plains. It is teeming with incidents that make the pulse quicken—wild dashes through mountain passes, narrow escapes, treachery foiled by fearless courage, and all the excitement which would be involved in an attack upon a band of sturdy pioneers by the Mexicans. Dustin Farnum is starred in this play, and he is the "Captain Courtesy" who swoops down on the Mexicans at unusual and unexpected moments, plunders and kills them, then turns over the spoils to the needy of his own people. After all these ravages of woes most gracefully little Eleanor, the orphan, who has been reared and sheltered by the good old padre, and who was the sole survivor of her family after a raid by the Mexicans. Mr. Farnum is supported by a superb cast, including Herbert Standing, Courtenay Foote, Carl Von Schiller and Winnifred Kingston.

SWEETWATER SOON TO HAVE SPLENDID BUSINESS COLLEGE

That Sweetwater will soon have a high class business college now appears to be a certain fact. At least this is certain if our people show proper co-operation and interest in the proposition.

Prof. and Mrs. F. A. Farmer, of the Farmer Business College of Ft. Worth are the promoters. They have built up a splendid institution there. Three years ago they began their school in that city with only one room, now they have a magnificent building that accommodates several hundred students.

Mrs. Farmer has already arrived in the city and Prof. Farmer will arrive this afternoon to actively begin the work of organizing and securing students for the school.

They have four branch schools in the state besides the main institution at Fort Worth and each has proved a splendid success. They will make an active canvas for students in this territory. Sweetwater citizens take no chance to lose by encouraging these well known educators and if they are shown proper encouragement very soon a business college will be located here that will be a credit to our splendid little city.

Watch for their announcement in tomorrow's Daily Reporter.

Miss Davis in City.

Miss Annie King Davis is visiting her cousin Mrs. Emmitt Glass for a few days. She is just returning from a twelve weeks stay in Canyon City where she was the music director for the Canyon Summer Normal at the State Normal. She goes from here to Searcy, Ark. to visit her mother and relatives before she and her mother return to Florida to resume her work the first of October in the School of Musical Art at Jacksonville.

We hope that someday they will return to make Sweetwater their home but no matter where they go she will always be "our Miss Davis."

Lyric Water Carnival Benefit.

Tonight the Lyric Theater, Alrdome and Roof Garden will be wholly given up to the committee for the benefit of the water carnival. The entire proceeds above expenses go to the water carnival fund.

The program is a royal one. It has no second in the movie world. In a great play of five reels, supported by an all-star cast Ethel Barrymore will present her most charming and beautiful production "The Nightingale."

This charming actress, sister of Jack Barrymore, grand-daughter of Mrs. John Drew, niece of the great Murdoch—a long line of actresses and actors whose family traditions run back to the birth of the republic. Ethel Barrymore, true to the great dramatic family tradition has been now for a half generation acclaimed as in some respects the greatest and most wonderful artist of them all. Before her marriage, the birth of her three children. She will be remembered by discriminating and cultured theatergoers as the most charming, vivacious, humorous and dainty of all contemporary comedienne and her comedy set a playing record for clean wholesome, mirthful, and intelligent comedy. Who will ever forget her in that delightful old comedy "Captain Jinks of the Horse Marines."

Now that she is married and a devoted and loving mother, her dramatic art has broadened into more serious work, but still retaining her dainty, humorous and laugh-provoking qualities and in tonight's play at the Lyric "The Nightingale," she rises to emotional heights of domestic love, domestic devotion, domestic loyalty and domestic pathos, rarely seen upon the legitimate stage itself, let alone the screen play.

Every wife, mother and daughter in Sweetwater should see this play tonight. It will not come again. To give the proper atmosphere, special music will be rendered by the Lyric Mexican band.

Misses Earl and Ennie Curtis of McCaulley spent Sunday at Mr. Crossman's. They drove through in their car to meet Miss Dean.

Notice.

Every member of the First Baptist Church is especially urged to be at the mid-week prayer service Wednesday evening. Business of importance will be considered and the pulpit committee especially urges all members to attend.

Let's Have City Mail Delivery.

Sweetwater, Aug. 23, 1915.

Editor Reporter:

From what little information I have been able to secure, I understand that city delivery of mail may be secured by simply fixing the sidewalks. If this is all, suppose we set one day and fix them and let all hands turn out and fix their own walk. No paving is needed, just a little leveling and widening of the dirt work and we can add three good salaried men to the bucket brigade.

The Mayor could designate a day and the civic improvement clubs could boost and men, women and children could do the work in one day's time. The thing can be done.

Come on Mr. Commercial club let's get busy.

A CITIZEN.

Sweetwater already has a public school system second to none in the west. Now, let's have a fine business college. The opportunity is ours will we accept it?

Our good friend, Judge A. S. Mauzy appears as much at home on the bench trying a most intricate case as he would at a water melon feast. In other words he can adjust himself to any and all occasions.

Miss Ell Key, of Colorado arrived this morning to visit her uncle Mr. Jack Key and family for a few days.

LOST FINE HORSE LAST SUNDAY

J. E. Jones proprietor of the City Livery Stable had the misfortune Sunday to lose a fine driving horse. The Animal with another horse was driven to a buggy by Mr. Reavis, the blacksmith, when they became frightened and began running. Mr. Reavis was thrown from the buggy and the breast yoke coming loosed penetrated the horse's breast and killed it.

Fortunately Mr. Reavis was only slightly hurt. The loss to Mr. Jones was heavy as the horse was a choice driver.

Mr. and Mrs. John P. Mathews and little daughter, Elizabeth, left for Abilene after a pleasant visit with Mr. and Mrs. Leland Williams, Mrs. Mathews's sister. They very probably will locate in Abilene.
