STEAMBOAT SPRINGS. Colo. Apr. 4—One hundred and fifty head of elk, comprising one of the higgest herds on the range, are on strike. They refuse to 'hustle for their grub' in the snow and are eating good hay on ranches in the vicinity of Copper Ridge. Usually, elk are good hustlers and will thrive on shrubs even when the snow is four or five feet deep. This winter they have refused to work for their food. Ranchers are allowing the animals to eat their fill of hay as' the state must pay the damages to fences and straw stacks. STEAMBOAT SPRINGS, Colo, Apr.

OKLAHOMA CITY, April 4—Judge Jean D. Pay, in whose residence Lieutenant-Colonel Paul Ward Beck, Commandant of the Post Field Aviation headquarters was found dead, was released on $5,000 bond today pending the coroners inquest, which was scheduled to be held this afternoon.

Beck was found dead in the apartment following a bridge party. He had been shot once in the temple and death was instanteous. Guests at the party have been warned not to talk. Day is said to have returned home after delivering the bridge guests to their respective homes in his car and saw Beck grab Mrs. Day.
