Seek Compromise Nominee Monday

Bitter Fight Between McAdoo and Smith Involves Religion, Sectionalism, Dry Issue, Wall Street, Machine Methods.

HULL AND WALSH AT CONFERENCE

Looks Like All Summer Session After 77th Ballot—Resolution For Compromise Candidates Follows Deadlock.

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, July 5.—Nomination of a compromise candidate on Monday is now the program of the Democratic National Convention.

After hours of fruitless balloting today, followed by a conference of leaders, the convention at 3:40 this afternoon adopted a resolution calling upon the various candidates and their representatives to confer with Chairman Walsh and Cordell Hull, chairman of the national committee, upon the program of procedure and the selection of a man who can be nominated.

It was significant that the man presenting this resolution was Tom Taggart, manager of Senator Ralston, whose name was withdrawn yesterday in the interest of harmony, at Ralston's request.

The convention recessed until Monday morning, after the 77th ballot; McAdoo, 513; Smith, 367; Davis, 76 1-2; Underwood, 47 1-2; Glass, 27; Robinson, 24; Owen, 14; Ritchie, 16 1-2; Saulsbury, 6; Baker, 1; Walsh, 2; Cox, 1; Ralston, 6 1-2; Gov. Bryan, 4; Roosevelt, 1.

Involves Many Issues.

The bitter struggle between McAdoo and Smith has never before been equalled in the Democratic history. Delegates voted in the fight between a man known as William Gibbs McAdoo, former Secretary of the Treasury and noted for his liberty loan drive, and Al Smith, the most popular Governor New York ever had, but not so well known throughout the country.

But it was more than that; it was a fight between Catholic and Protestant; wet against dry; north against south; conservative against radical; Eastern big business against Western hostility to Wall Street; machine organization against independent enthusiasm; personal ambition against personal ambition.

These issues over shadowed all else, and the names of the two candidates became the symbols of these two issues.

Two parties have developed in the convention. Had McAdoo or Smith ultimately won the nomination, either would have been opposed by the forces of the other at the November election as if he were a member of the other party. It will require a real Moses to unite the disappointed host of voters who have been so loyal to their support of both.

Representatives Confer.

In the room of Cordell Hull, national chairman, representatives of more than a score of candidates whose names had been presented to the convention were in earnest conference to-night in a final attempt to get some mode of procedure that all could agree upon.

After the 77th ballot, some of the Democratic leaders realized that the convention might very possibly stay in session all summer.

RAIN BIG AID TO GROWING CROPS

Total of .62 Inches Netted in Sweetwater Friday Night and Saturday Morning Showers.

TEMPERATURE IS LOW

Coollest Fourth of July in Years When Thermometer Drops to Low Figure Friday.

Coming at a time when a good rain meant practically doubling a cotton crop that was one of the best prospects in years, rains that began in Sweetwater Friday night continued intermittently through Saturday morning, reaching a total of .62 of one inch here, and sprinkled millions of dollars into the coffers of West Texas.

Without the rain that fell Friday and Saturday, a conservative estimate of the cotton crop placed it at a bale to every seven or eight acres in cultivation. Farmers now hope for a bale to every three or four acres, and perhaps an even better yield.

Feed crops in the immediate vicinity were in need of rain. The latest moisture will put them over the top in fine shape. The rain here was timed almost precisely with the Fourth of July celebration, which was nearly ended when the first shower came up.

Rain was reported as far West as Big Spring, with a forty minute down pour there.

The weather man got careless Friday and sent along some real winter weather for the grand and glorious Fourth with the result that celebrators at the picnic here shivered, and there was a conspicuous absence of bathers in the City Lake.

Lady swimmers and divers were more interested in heavy coats than bathing suits and the women's bathing contest was called off. Heavy coats were seen everywhere, and even a few overcoats were being worn on the picnic grounds. Cold drink men played a losing game and ice cream stands could have had a better business if they had been selling chili or hot tamales.

It was the coldest Fourth of July in many years, old timers reported, the only Fourth with similar weather said to have been some twelve or fifteen years ago.

The mercury dropped to 54 degrees Friday, according to the record kept by the Sweetwater Vulcanizing Co., while the cold weather continued Saturday with 60 degrees registered in the morning.

A .43 inch rain fell Friday night, and was followed by light showers Saturday morning that amounted to .19 inch. Rains were reported to have fallen Saturday at Abilene where a slick track was said to have interfered slightly with the annual Fourth of July automobile races. Rain from Colorado east to Merkel were reported by the T-P, while a 40 minutes rain fell at Big Spring. There was no rain west of there, it is reported.

BAIRD RANCHER KILLED IN CRASH

H. A. Lones, 75, Father of Mrs. W. J. Bowler, Sweetwater, Fatally Injured in Auto Collision.

MRS. BOWLER DROVE CAR

Thought Wave of Boy's Hand Stop Signal—Pulled to Right, Cars Swerved, Collided.

SAN ANGELO, Texas, July 5.—H. A. Lones, 75, retired rancher of Baird, Texas, is dead and six others are injured as the result of a collision of two automobiles near El Dorado late Friday.

Lones died in half an hour. None of the others were seriously injured. Lones' daughter, driving his car, mistook a wave from the other car to indicate a stop signal. Both cars swayed from the pike, and crashed together.

Lones' daughter is Mrs. W. J. Bowler, 500 Cedar street, Sweetwater. She was driving her father's car to the Devil's River Country, where the party was going on a fishing trip. In the car that crashed into the Lones' car were Willie Allen and Albert Tucker, youths from Miles, Texas.

One of the boys waved to a group of girls swimming in a concrete tank near the road, and Mrs. Bowler, mistaking the motion for a stop signal, road. Both machines swerved, and pulled her car to the right of the crashed.

Mr. Lones had opened the rear door of the car, evidently preparing to jump, when the machines hit. He received the full force of the collision. His leg was broken in two places, and his hip smashed. The body was sent to Baird for burial.

Mrs. Ross Pipkin and daughter, Ola, left Saturday afternoon for a 15 day visit with Mrs. J. M. Goode in Galveston.

H. E. Polk and family left Sunday for a vacation trip in Oklahoma. They will also visit in Denver and Manitou, Colo.

COOLIDGE RESTS

Calvin Jr., Stands Operation Nicely—Septic Poisoning Made Condition Serious.

By The United Press.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 5.—An operation was performed early tonight on Calvin Coolidge, Jr., son of the President, in an attempt to save his life from septic poisoning.

"The operation accomplished all we wished," Dr. Charles W. Richardson, one of the attending physicians, said on leaving the operating room at Walter Reed Army Hospital, where young Coolidge was taken early today.

It was learned after the operation that young Calvin was resting easily. Following the operation, physicians went into consultation to reach a unanimous opinion concerning his condition.

President Coolidge, his head bowed and his face drawn with anxiety, could be seen by the watchers below, entering a brightly lighted room on the third floor of one of the big buildings to which his son was taken from the operating room.

The President stationed himself at his son's bed side. Mrs. Coolidge was also in the room.

Old Buss Brings Fortune to East St. Louis Worker

By The United Press.

EAST ST. LOUIS, Ill., July 5.—The secret of hardening copper, a practice of civilization lost 2,000 years ago, has been found by a switchman here without any education in metallurgy.

James Cummins, the switchman, 53, with a wife and six children, has a check for $1,500,000 paid him outright by a copper company in Detroit. A week ago he was broke. Hundreds of salesmen swarmed about him when the word of his good fortune was given out.

"I guess I won't buy a new car now," Cummins said. "I've had this old buss a long time, and it was responsible for my discovery." He was cleaning the copper gaskets on his car, a low priced automobile of disreputable appearance, when he stuck them into a mixture he figured would clean them best.

"I patented the formula, and that cleaned me out. Then the Detroit people asked me for some tests. They were satisfied and offered me a price that nearly knocked me cold."

Weather.

Sunday—Partly cloudy, scattered showers.

REVIVAL STARTS WITH BIG CROWD

Church of Christ Meeting Begins Friday Night With Wallace and Taylor in Charge.

FAMOUS YOUNG EVANGELIST

Foy Wallace, Jr., 27, Has Been in Service 10 Years—Preaches Today at 11, Tonight at 8.

The revival meeting at the Church of Christ, 4th and Elm streets, started Friday night with a record crowd. Many out of town people attended the first service, including cars from Snyder, Lorraine, Rotan, Post, Colorado, Hermleigh, Trent, Merkel, Palava, Roscoe and Roby.

Evangelist Foy E. Wallace Jr., Wichita Falls, speaks at all the services, and Prof. Austin Taylor, Uvalde, leads the singing. These men are together in revival meetings everywhere, having just closed a successful meeting in Oklahoma City.

Wallace, who is 27 years old, is among the youngest evangelists in the field, but has been active in the work for more than 10 years. Taylor is regarded as the foremost song leader and composer among his people in the State of Texas.

Provisions have been made for open air services. The church lawn is well seated and lighted and the members of the church are expecting the greatest meeting in their history. "Plain Bible Preaching" is the Wallace Taylor slogan, and the people of Sweetwater and the surrounding country are invited to attend the meetings. The services are absolutely free and no collection will be taken. Sunday services will be held at 11 a. m., and 8 p. m.

James E. Ferguson, former governor whose name was barred from the ticket this year, will be the political attraction Thursday. Ferguson will speak here at 2:30 p. m., in the interest of Mrs. Miriam A. Ferguson, candidate for Governor.

RECORD CROWD IS HERE FOR PICNIC

Through Estimated at 10,000 Fills City For American Legion July 4 Celebration.

BLANTON MAKES ADDRESS

Will Not File Against Albright—Numerous Attractions Throughout Day Well Attended.

Loaded to the brim with happy folks enjoying the greatest Fourth of July celebration in the city's history, Sweetwater set a new mark for entertainment Friday when 10,000 persons filled the city from early morning until late at night, when the last of the fireworks at the American Legion celebration in the City Lake Park had spread a shower of beauty in the heavens.

Entire families started for Sweetwater early on the Fourth. Everybody was here. The first arrivals who thronged the streets as the parade, led by the Sweetwater Booster Band, got under way at 9:30, were augmented by a steady stream all during the forenoon, until the City Lake Park was overflowing by the time that the afternoon program began.

Cool weather and a severe sand storm did not turn back the crowd. The ball park was loaded when Roscoe and Blackwell met in the morning. Roscoe won 3 to 2. All the seats were taken and the fence lined with spectators when the rodeo was staged in the afternoon. Most of the crowd remained for the second ball game of the day, and saw Hermleigh defeat Lawn, 6 to 2.

While the ball park was filled to capacity, an immense crowd gathered around the band stand, where they were first entertained by the Boy Scout Band. County candidates were introduced by Representative R. M. Chitwood and were allowed five minutes each for their speeches before Congressman Thomas L. Blanton addressed the crowd.

Compliments Howard.

Declaring that he was glad to get back to "God's Country" Blanton, known in Washington as the "Watch Dog of the Treasury," reviewed his work at the capitol and stated that his investigations and fights against graft had been vindicated by time. In his discussion of a new post office for Sweetwater, in which he said that the time for such a move was not yet ripe, he paused to single out postmaster M. B. Howard "as the best postmaster in the United States" and "the only one who cleared his post office on Christmas Day."

"You can't buy pocket flasks, playing cards, bicycle tires, or coal for your furnace any more from the stationery room" the Congressman stated in telling of his investigation of that department. "You can't buy anything but stationery. And you won't get any more free garden seed. That was one of the biggest grafts in Washington. You can buy better garden seed than they sent you from Washington, anyhow."

Too few of the people's representatives in Washington who do any work or know anything about the government was Blanton's explanation of "bad laws." He said that certain of his colleagues would vote for any bill that was put before them, and that he had known them to endorse bills that they had not even read.

Not to File Injunction.

Blanton told a representative of The Reporter following his speech that he had decided not to file an injunction to keep the name of Ernest G. Albright off the ballot for Congressman. He stated that the Attorney General had held that executive committees had no authority of discretion in the matter after Albright had failed to properly file his candidacy, but that as the ballots had already been printed, he would not cause the expense of reprinting them. "I will trust the people," he said.

The Congressman justified his vote for the soldier bonus on the grounds that he was one citizen who would not forget what the boys went through. He called the bill that would have abolished the railway labor board "the most pernicious measure ever presented to Congress." He told of his work against the McNary-Haughen

The crowd that literally jammed Sweetwater on the Fourth of July proves one thing conclusively—people of West Texas like to come here for their celebrations, and if we furnish the attractions, our trade territory will furnish the crowd.

Weather conditions were not favorable Friday; a day that dawned cool with threatened rain, became one of the coldest Fourth of July on record and threw in a sand storm in the afternoon that nearly stifled the voice of the candidates addressing the immense crowd.

There were rival attractions near Sweetwater; there were many private picnics and parties planned, and yet the crowd here was one of the largest in West Texas, and everyone had a good time.

Those who moaned when the American Legion and Luncheon Club committees solicited funds for the celebration, who "knew" that we wouldn't have a crowd, and who were "sure" Friday morning the cool weather would keep the visitors away, don't know yet how it happened. Most of them didn't go near the picnic grounds despite the fact that admission was free.

Sweetwater can get the crowd—that much is settled. The next problem is to get the attractions, which is practically no problem at all, for we are making every effort to establish a fall fair and exhibit here this year, and the Fourth of July celebration can be made an annual affair.

And as the celebration advances in years, its attractions may also be added to. We have made a wonderful start. What we did on the Fourth of July, we can repeat on a larger scale in the fall. Arrange a program that will satisfy the out-of-town visitors, work together as we worked with the American Legion, and leadership in the entertainment of West Texas is assured.

THEY LED THE WAY

Just as the members of Uncle Sam's fighting forces led the way to the downfall of the Kaiser six years ago, members of Oscar McDonald Post of the American Legion blazed the trail to the most successful Fourth of July celebration in Sweetwater's history Friday, entertained thousands of visitors and friends, and sent them home satisfied.

Those who planned the celebration are to be congratulated first on their

VALUABLE

The City Lake Park proved its worth to Sweetwater Friday when it was crowded all day and far into the night with those enjoying the American Legion picnic.

The park is a valuable asset, and as such, should be kept in condition commensurate with its worth. The permanent improvements made thru the efforts of the Ladies' Auxiliary of the Board of City Development, add greatly to the park's attractiveness. The ladies built the lunch tables and seats, solicited the benches from business men, and are expecting more benches for the park. The lumber for the temporary band stand was loaned for the celebration.

The general clean-up of the park and the opening of the section beyond the City Lake brought much favorable comment from those on the grounds. The lake furnishes adequate provision for water sports at any time. Let's keep the park in the first class condition it was put in for the Fourth.

CONVENTION

The Democratic convention has adjourned until 11 a. m. Monday morning while leaders endeavor to find a way out of the deadlock. All records in balloting have been broken with 77 as the total Saturday. The balloting record isn't the only one that has gone by the board, however. There is another—and that one is stupidity.

RAIN

Like the tinkle of dollars into a plethora cash register—that was what the rain drops pattering on the roofs Friday night sounded like. The rain was not as general, as it might have been but covered a good area at that, and not a drop was wasted. It all soaked into the ground. Owing to the splendid bottom season, crops in this section were in splendid shape. But rain in West Texas is like money in the bank.

A PERFECT RECORD

Local officers worked together in their usual manner on the Fourth of July, and hung up a record of which the city is justly proud. Traffic that would have taxed the capacity of larger cities was handled without a single accident, the city and picnic grounds were policed during the entire celebration, and the day passed without outbreaks of rowdiness or any of the disturbances that often mar picnic gatherings.

Visitors and Sweetwater citizens are to be congratulated as well as the officers and extra officers on duty. It was a well behaved crowd, here for a good time, that attended the American Legion picnic. Hurry back, you are always welcome.

"PLEASE DON'T DISTURB"

In Abilene, where it is rumored that automobile races are some times held, Texas and Pacific trainmen will be asked not to blow their locomotive whistles as they pass through certain sections of the city, for fear that some of the sound-sleeping citizens may be disturbed.

The Abilene Reporter says that engineers will be ordered not to blow their whistles so vigorously at night between Abilene Christian College and Pine Street, as a result of action of the city commission declaring the whistling a nuisance to the residents along the tracks. It is rumored that some of the commissioners live in the neighborhood. If the "disturbance" continues, the commissioners may pass an ordinance doing away with the usual crossing signals, as they thing the bell can be used as a safe warning without disturbing sleeping citizens.

Poor Abilene! We wonder how they stood the "deafening roar of motors" at the auto races the Fourth. We wonder how long it will be before "Please Don't Disturb" signs will be strung in electric lights across the entrance to the city, and the commissioners will seek their rest at sun down, their ears protected from the shrieks of locomotives by asbestos ear muffs.

The shrill note of the trunk line locomotive is sweet music to the ears of Sweetwater residents. It reminds us that the three trunk lines entering our city are adding their hourly quota in travel and commerce to our growth. We have outgrown the stage in the life of communities where all the citizens turn out to meet the two trains a day, hold their horses when the elephants pass in the parade, and stop up their ears or run under the bed when the red ball freight whistles for the crossing.

Balloon tired engines and chimes instead of whistles appears to be the only solution for Abilene's "Please Don't Disturb" problem.

Junior Music Meeting.

The Junior Music Study Club met Wednesday afternoon at the Cutbirth studio with Miss Sarah Steele presiding. The subject for the meeting was "Beethoven and his shorter compositions." Miss Steele played Beethoven's minuet from op. 20, accompanied by her teacher, Mrs. Lige Cutbirth. Others taking part in the program were Gladys McCain, Jewell Owen, J. C. Bruce and Lemma Harris. The Juvenile Music Study Club met

Saturday afternoon with Prebble Brady presiding and a program of stories of American Music was studied.

Hardy-Smith.

Miss Mabel Frances Hardy and Ben F. Smith were married Thursday evening at 8:45 o'clock at the home of the bride's father, the Rev. G. S. Hardy in this city. Rev. Hardy performed the double ring ceremony in the presence of a few relatives.

Following the ceremony the bride and groom left in a car for a short trip to Amarillo, returning a day or so later. They expect soon to make a trip to the mountains of Colorado.

The bride is a very winsome and cultured young lady, and taught in the Plainview public schools the past year. The groom has lived in Plainview for many years, and is prominent in business and social affairs of the city. He has for several years been in the grain business, as head of the B. F.

Smith grain company.—The Plainview News.

Miss Hardy is the youngest daughter of Dr. G. S. Hardy who was pastor of the local Methodist Church for four years and continued to live here after moving to this district before moving his family to Plainview. Miss Hardy grew from a small girl to young womanhood in Sweetwater, where she has ever been a favorite among a large circle of friends, whom she has frequently visited since leaving Sweetwater.

Delphian Chapter Closes Year.

The Sweetwater Delphian Chapter brought their first years study course to a close Thursday afternoon when they met at the court house for their concluding program, which was given in a most interesting summary by Mrs. A. A. Chapman and followed by a round table discussion on "The Age of Chivalry."

The program was somewhat shortened to hold the annual election of officers, which resulted as follows: President, Mrs. A. S. Kendrick, re-elected; vice president, Mrs. John Hubbard; secretary, and treasurer, Mrs. William Morton. The advisory board members were elected as follows: Mrs. William Wight, Mrs. A. A. Chapman and Mrs. R. M. Chitwood. Parliamentary, Mrs. Royal Headrick; several appointive officers will be named at the beginning of the new club year next fall.

Off on Month's Vacation.

Mr. and Mrs. William Wight and two daughters, Misses Mary and Annie, left Friday for Fort Worth traveling in their car. At Fort Worth they will be joined by Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Wight and the party will go to Jackson County on a combined business and pleasure trip. They will return to Dallas to spend the remainder of the month. The Wight home will be occupied during their absence, by Mrs. George Sparks, Misses Stella Watson, Ruby Stone, Charlotte Williams and Anne Duncan.

Mrs. M. A. Belcher will leave today for Fayetteville, Ark., to spend the remainder of the summer visiting her mother, Mrs. C. M. Oliver in the Ozark Mountains. During her absence she will attend the School of Missions, to be given during the Western Methodist Church Assembly, which will be held at Fayetteville.

Mrs. Laura Hodges and daughter, Mrs. C. H. Nelson, and little son, C. H. Jr., left Saturday on their return to Texarkana, following a visit of several weeks at the home of her son, Dr. K. M. Hodges and family on Oak Street. Mrs. Hodges formerly lived here and occupied the home now owned by Dr. A. A. Chapman.

Honoring Mrs. J. I. Payne.

Because of the good work she has done in the Sweetwater district, the adult, young people, and junior missionary societies sent her a beautiful cameo on her birthday. It was planned to present this at one of the all-day meetings held this month. At the first one the cameo and the one who was to present it failed to get there. Mrs. Payne was unable because of sickness in her family to attend the other two, so the gift was mailed to her and a telegram expressing her thanks received. The cameo was indeed a beautiful one, set in white gold with a diamond set necklace. Mrs. Payne has been a most faithful and efficient secretary and this gift will be a constant reminder to her that the women appreciate what she is doing for the missionary cause over her district. At the annual conference meeting Sweetwater district led in young people's work. Mission study and Week of Prayer money. Had the second best Junior society and was second on pledge money.—Colorado Record.

Mrs. Will Martin is ill and does not expect to be up for several weeks.

RECORD CROWD

farm bill, and how he had worked for a measure that would enable parents to get their run-away minor sons out of military or naval service.

Concluding with the statement "I am a free lancer in Washington; let the chips fall where they may," Blanton asked not to be returned to Congress if he was to remain only two more years, but to be allowed to stay long enough to get on the appropriations committee, when he promised to cut the tax payers expenses in half.

The wind and sand that made it impossible for the speakers to be heard without great physical effort on their part caused the cancellation of the program after Blanton finished. Harry Tom King, Jesse R. Smith, and Judge B. L. Russell, candidates for state Senator, were on the platform.

Men Swimmers Compete.

Despite cold weather, the water carnival was carried out as scheduled with the exception of the women's contest which was called off. The men's diving and swimming contests were staged at 10:30 in the morning and proved a thriller to the attending crowd.

In the first event, O. B. Freeman won the title of best diver over two opponents and was awarded the prize of a $10.00 pipe offered by the Wright Pharmacy.

Le Clair Robertson was the winner in a fast 100-yard swimming contest, beating John Sepulveda and O. B. Freeman who won second and third places, respectively. The winner received a prize of $3.00 in cleaning and pressing, offered by the Heath Tailoring Co.

In the hardest and final contest, John Sepulveda proved his ability as a swimmer in winning a close 440 yard race and a prize of a $3.00 shirt awarded by Stiles and Allen. Le Clair Robertson took second, winning a $2.50 tie, which was given by M. J. Vaughan, while Dan Chitwood received two pairs of $1.00 hose awarded by Earl Freeze for the third place.

The contest of best man diver against best woman diver was forfeited to O. B. Freeman as there was no woman's diving contest held. He received a prize of $5.00 in gold from the City National Bank.

Old Fiddlers' Were There.

The Old Fiddlers' Contest, held at the picnic grounds at 8 p. m., attracted a large crowd, and proved to be one of the most entertaining numbers on the day's program. Bad weather and a light rain cut the fiddling program down to one number each, there being five contestants on the program. The judges awarded first place and the ten dollar prize to Claude Harris of Roby who played "Twinkle, Twinkle, Little Star."

Second place and a prize of $5.00 went to R. J. Howry of Sweetwater who played in fine style a number entitled "Wagner." Third, fourth and fifth places went to L. M. Hubbard, O. B. Freeman and County Judge A. S. Mauzey, respectively. The prizes for the three were $2.50, $1.50 and $1.00.

Each player played a popular, old-time number that brought much applause from the large audience who heard the pieces. Hubbard played the well known "Smith's Reel," while Freeman showed unusual ability in playing "The Girl I Left Behind." Judge Mauzey scored a big hit with the lively number, "Whistling Rufus."

Horses Make Good Time.

The horse races, held on a straight away near the Sweetwater, Cotton Oil Mill, produced some real "steppers" that thrilled the crowd and made good time on the track. The results of the races, in charge of Walter Trammell, follow, the name of the rider following the entry, with the owner's name in parenthesis:

Shetland pony race, 200 yards, $5 purse—Two entries, owned by Walter Trammell and Walter Davis; Trammell first.

Fast Quarter Mile, $100 purse, $75 and $25—First, Bernie; Jimmy Huett, (Pennell); second, Hubbard Hampton, Joe Poe; (J. Poe); third, George, (Lonnie Baker). Time, 24.5 seconds.

Saddle Horse Race, quarter mile—$25 purse, $20 and $5; first, Trigger, Jimmy Huett; (Pennell); second, Hat Brown; Joe Poe (J. Poe); third Sissy, Pennell, (Pennell). Time, 26 seconds.

To suit horses in attendance, quarter mile—$25 purse, $20 and $5; first, Miss Reynolds, Trammell, (Henry Mathews); second, Vinnie, Trammell, (Joe Poe); third, Winnie, Pennell, (Jimmy Huett).

The rodeo which was staged by the Weatherby Brothers in the afternoon, drew a large audience from the picnic crowd and proved to be an unusually good attraction of spectacular events and unique numbers.

In the wild cow milking contest, Jeff Green won over a half dozen entrants and S. B. Weatherby took second prize. Edward Davis of Sweetwater won the steer riding event while Jeff Green took the prize in the broncho riding. Dick Farmer of Longworth was the winner in a thrilling wild mare race and Jeff Green again a winner when he took honors in the men's wild steer riding.

Local officers and members of the Legion worked together in holding down disturbances and accidents during the day. Extra police helped handle the heavy traffic, and members of the sheriff's department gave their aid to the city officers in taking care of the immense crowd.

PICNIC SIDELIGHTS

Some of the railroad boys enjoyed the rodeo by parking a switch engine very conveniently Friday afternoon.

The rain came early enough to disrupt the fireworks program, but the Legion missed collecting $500 rain insurance by about five minutes. Time was up on that at 9 o'clock.

There were short fuses on some of the fireworks. Robert Withers very nearly enjoyed a prospecting trip in search of the man in the moon when a sky rocket shot through the crook of his arm.

Otis Henderson also had a lively time dodging another of the sky-rockets that took after prior to mounting skyward.

There was a noticeable scarcity of corn liquor, they say. Two or three who had imbibed too freely had an opportunity to say "Good Morning, Judge" after sobering up in the city bastle.

One who had imbibed too freely drove into a local filling station at a late hour, and asked, "Shay, are my lights burning?" They were, very brightly. Must have been a very effective brand of poison that guy found.

Woman Would Be Governor of Texas

MRS. MIRIAM AND EX-GOV. JAMES E. FERGUSON.

FORT WORTH, July 5.—"Farmer Jim" Ferguson can't run for governor, so his wife is running for him. James E. Ferguson, once governor, resigned in the face of impeachment proceedings several years ago.

Whether or not he can run this year is a legal problem that can't be settled by the courts in time to get his name on the ballot.

So Miriam A. Ferguson is running in his stead.

The Fergusons were worth a million dollars in 1914 when the husband entered politics. He had made the money himself. His first office was governor.

In 1917 impeachment proceedings were brought, charging that he had accepted loans of $150,000 from brewery interests, that he placed $100,000 in state funds in his own bank without interest, and that he appropriated $5,600 for his private use. Ferguson denied the charges but resigned to escape certain impeachment.

His vindication, he believed, could only come from the hands of the voters. Yet, when he left the chair he was almost broke. He had no money to make a fight.

In spite of that he has planned his campaign.

While Mrs. Ferguson runs the modest butcher shop in Temple and campaigns within the county, where he was once a financial power, "Farmer Jim" is stumping the state.

He is an unusual orator, and his plea to "vote for Ma Ferguson for my sake" often moves his audience to tears.

Athlete of Texas U. Refuses to Appear Nude for Art's Sake

By NEA Service. AUSTIN, Texas, July 5.—Joe Ward, greatest hero of the University of Texas, quit cold when drafted to appear nude before a co-ed art class. Ward, hero of diamond, gridiron and cage, and who may be the first man to win four block letters at the University, was drafted by the art department.

Prof. Raymond Everett held that

Ward had the most nearly perfect body on the campus. The muscles that won glory for T. U. were ideal for fair girl students and less fair youths to sketch.

Ward would have to appear in the nearly nude.

The athletic department was requested to send Joe in, dressed, rather undressed, for work. The University would pay Joe 75 cents an hour for his trouble.

Three times Joe was summoned. Each time he was A. W. O. L.—a slacker from the draft of art.

Professor Everett gave up and induced R. H. Hugman, of less athletic prowess but of more nerve, to appear in the high-nude before his class.

And the boys and girls depicted his every angle in charcoal.

Mrs. D. A. Myers made a business trip to Abilene Saturday.

Is Victim

But two days away from transfer to another battleship and a tour of duty in China, fate decreed that Norman Lee Barbee, 21-year-old boy of San Francisco, should meet death in the gun turret explosion aboard the dreadnaught Mississippi. In his last letter to his mother, dated June 1, he said, "I told you some time back I would be in Frisco in June, but I don't think now I will make it. My orders are to transfer me to the Asiatic station by the first available transport, and the Argonne leaves here June 14. We are firing a special experimental battle practice June 11, so I can't get leave, although I have tried hard."

Mrs. C. G. Dawes Has Interesting Career

MRS. CHARLES GAGE DAWES

BY GEORGE BRITT
NEA Service Writer

CHICAGO, Ill. July 5.—The calm, diffident, attractive woman who is wife of the Republican nominee for vice-president finds her life's hobby in exercising the mother instinct.

During the earlier years, Mrs. Dawes' interest was wrapped up in her energetic husband and in their children, Rufus and Carolyn. Rufus was drowned 12 years ago. Carolyn has married and lives in Evanston near her parents. For the last 10 years they have had two adopted children to fill the vacant corner in their home, Dana, who now is 12, and Virginia, 10.

Not satisfied with caring for these foster children, Mrs. Dawes has turned her affectionate interest to the waifs of the community. She is one of the most active supporters, with money and personal service, of the Cradle and the Evanston branch of the Illinois Children's Home Society. Several times she has taken homeless babies from those agencies into her home for temporary care while places were found for them. She helps, too, to find homes for them.

This same mothering spirit extends toward her husband. Witness the story they like to tell in Washington. General Dawes was closed in his office with a group of high officials, importantly "in conference." The door opened and in walked Mrs. Dawes with a package.

"Charlie, it's raining and I just know you forgot your rubbers again," she said. "So I brought you a pair and here they are. Now don't you move out of this building without putting them on."

The infant charities long have claimed Mrs. Dawes' attention largely to the exclusion of clubs, politics or society. She is a patroness of the North Shore Musical Festival, however, and is associated with most of the civic movements among women in the vicinity. At home she is the gracious hostess in abounding hospitality to their friends.

Mrs. Dawes won't enjoy the campaign with its intrusions and flannings before the world. In spite of her husband's prominence for more than 20 years past, she never posed for a newspaper picture or gave out a photograph for publication. She is meeting the requirements as a candidate's wife, these days, but the desire for domestic seclusion is strong within her.

Mrs. Dawes, before her marriage 35 years ago, was Miss Caro D. Blymer, the daughter of a beet sugar manufacturer in Cincinnati. She must have been a beauty as a girl. She is handsome and distinguished looking, without being austere, to day. Her figure is trim and graceful. Her hair is black with many white strands. Her eyes are brown, large and wide apart. She would look the part, no matter what high positions may lie ahead.

COTTON GROWING

Moderately Warm Weather of Past Week Reported All Over Cotton Belt—Plant Prospers.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 5.—The moderately warm weather with local showers favorably affected cotton in nearly all portions of the belt. While there was some interference with cultivation in limited areas in the central and more eastern portions of the belt. Conditions on the whole were favorable for field work and cultivation made good progress in Texas and its general indication insects are still active but with small damage. First bale marketed in Houston June twenty-eighth.

Progress and condition were very good in Oklahoma though the plant continued late with some weevil reported in the southeast. Good to excellent advance was reported from Arkansas, where fields are generally clean and cotton shows steady improvement.

The dry warm weather in Louisiana was helpful in combating the weevil and these conditions also favored fair to very good growth progress of the crop was fair to very good in Mississippi and Alabama, though some local shedding was reported from South eastern Mississippi. Stands are irregular in Alabama with a slight increase in Weevil activity.

RADIO AIDS SUFFERERS

Relief For Storm Victims Summoned Quickly.

When disaster, in form of a waterspout and tornado, swept in from Lake Erie and demolished the city of Lorain, Ohio, radio was an important factor in rushing aid to the stricken city.

Broadcasting Station WTAM, of the Willard Storage Battery Co., of Cleveland, was broadcasting the proceedings of the Democratic National Convention, when vague reports of the damage filtered into Cleveland. All lines of communication out of Lorain were destroyed and radio was summoned to the task of mobilizing national guard units for protection and reconstruction.

WTAM at once set about broadcasting appeals for help for the suffering city. At the request of their efforts, the 154th Infantry, the 135th Field Artillery and the 122th Engineers were notified by radio to mobilize at once for relief work.

Meat Is the Main Item In Most Meals

—No matter what is on the menu, meat is the main item—the one article around which the rest of the meal is built. It has always been that way—and probably always will be.

—In the old days folks fixed their own meats. They had fresh meat for a little while in the winter—and salt meat the rest of the time—except on state occasions. Not much variety to that.

—It's different now. Wades Market is on the job. Meats in unlimited variety await only your call. Fresh meats of our own discriminating purchase, killed in our own sanitary slaughter house under the most careful supervision are added to the tremendous resources of the great Wilson & Co. packing house. Refrigerating service second to none in West Texas guarantee perfect condition when it reaches you.

SIGN RESOLUTION

Womens' Organizations... Condemn "Jake," Cigarettes For Minors, and Carnivals.

Declaring war on businesses or make-up of the young people of Normals or tear down the physical practices that tend to disrupt the plan County, 24 women's organizations of the county have adopted a resolution condemning specifically the "sale of jake" in the county, sale of cigarettes and tobacco to boys under 16, condemning carnivals and shows of like nature, and asking the aid of the men in the county in stamping out the evils named and other influences not for the good of the young people.

The movement for the resolution was started about a month ago, but only Friday was the list of organization signers made complete. Mrs. F. G. Robertson, president of the Nolan County Federation, stated Saturday.

"Since we began this work, the city has passed an ordinance making it impossible to get jake without a physician's prescription," Mrs. Robertson said. "We wish to commend the commissioners on this action, and to assure them that we appreciate their co-operation."

In condemning the sale of "jake" which it is called, "in fact nothing less than the unlawful sale of intoxicants" merchants are asked not to sacrifice the boyhood of the nation for the almighty dollar. "Merchants who knowingly sell these intoxicants to our young people for drinking purposes are no other than bootleggers. If they refuse to desist from such business, we pledge our whole hearted support to our officers in completely stamping out this menace."

The sale of cigarettes to minors is recognized as a menace to the mental and physical development of boys of school age. "Our state has passed a law prohibiting such a sale, and the merchant who sells tobacco to a boy under age for the paltry profit of a few cents has lowered himself to the level of a criminal. He is a law breaker whether he receives his just punishment or not."

"Experience has taught that carnivals and shows of like nature are composed of gambling devices, cheap, suggestive shows, and followed by people of immoral character," the resolution reads. "Their influence on our young people can be nothing but bad. We trust that every city in our country, if they have not already done so, will take such steps as are necessary to bar them from again coming into their limits."

The following appeal is made to the men of the county: "We solicit the co-operation of the men of our county in stamping out these and other evils. Remember, some boy may have you as his ideal. You may be responsible for his going right or wrong. Which do you want it to be? If you want him to go right, line up with us in this fight."

It is hoped by the women of Sweetwater that other cities in the county will pass jake ordinances similar to the one in force here. A few additions are expected to be made to the following list of organizations signing the resolution:

- Self Culture Club, Delphian Society, Civic League, M. E. Woman's Missionary Society, M. E. Gleazer's Missionary Society, Woman's Missionary Society, First Baptist Church, Ladies' Aid Society, Presbyterian Church, Ladies Aid Society, Christian Church, Woman's Auxiliary, Episcopal Church, Blackwell Methodist Missionary Society, Blackwell Baptist Missionary Society, Blackwell Parent-Teacher Association, Roscoe Parent-Teachers' Association, Roscoe Methodist Missionary Society, Roscoe Baptist Missionary Society, Dora Home Workers' Demonstration Club, Sweetwater Choral Club, Sweetwater Chapter Daughters of the Confederacy, Order of the Eastern Star, Sweetwater High School Parent-Teachers' Association, South Ward Parent-Teachers' Association, East Ward Parent-Teacher Association, West Ward Parent-Teacher Association, Mothers' Council.

Fish That Climbs Trees May Soon Be Common in U. S. A.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 5.—If you should happen to see a fish climbing a tree, don't blame it on synthetic gin, for if Bill Thompson, former Mayor of Chicago, realizes his ambition, it is only a matter of time before the tree climbing fish will be doing his stuff in his country.

Today Thompson's expedition to Borneo, to bring back the fish, was photographed and got under way. On a 68-foot ketch, Bill and his crew started out on the Illinois river bound for Borneo, and around the world.

Thompson will go as far as Panama. His skipper, H. A. Duncan, will lead in the hunt for the fish. He has convinced the former Mayor that the fish really exists. Thompson has put $50,000 in the enterprise.

RADIO FACTS

Few persons need to be told how rapidly radio is interpenetrating every part of our daily life. A writer has contributed to June Century a most comprehensive article.

More than 2,500,000 radio sets have been manufactured and sold in the last three years in this country, with 560 broadcasting stations in operation in our United States, and 16,000 amateur transmitters sending and receiving by radio.

According to engineers of the Radio Corporation, 3000 manufacturers are turning out sets or parts of sets, thirty radio magazines have been started, 250 books have been written, 20,000,000 listeners constitute the present (spring of 1924) radio audience, and these spent $175,000,000 on their hobby last year, giving employment in one way or another to 500,000 persons. There are twelve trans-oceanic stations, which communicate not only with Europe and Latin America but with 2700 radio-equipped ships.

---A HOME

From the earliest days the thought of every man, and certainly of every woman has been a home. There begin and end the activities of every family. The underlying thought is how to make home better—more livable—more of a source of pride to its possessors.

Knowing the need for modern homes, our organization has taken over the development of Country Club Addition with this definite purpose in view. We are skilled and experienced in building homes. Quantity buying and a large construction program enables us to build quality homes much cheaper than a residence can be built on the "one at a time" plan.

Country Club Addition is fully restricted. Whether you buy a home from us, or buy a lot and build your own, certain standards must be complied with. Your home will never be cheapened by the character of building on adjoining property.

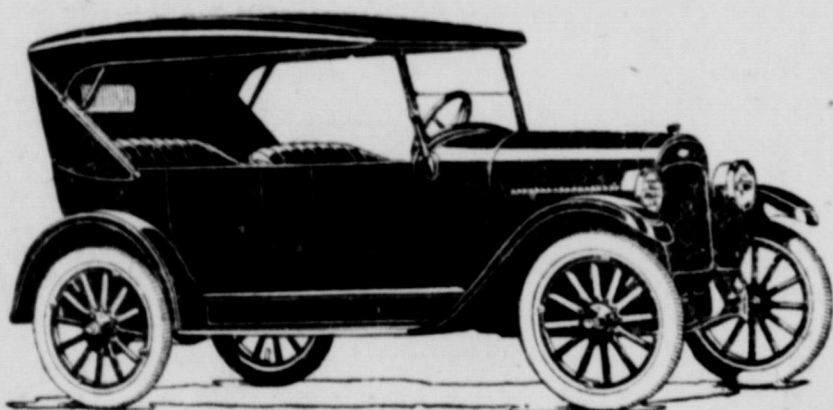

Sweetwater is one of the fastest growing cities for its size in the State. No boom—just a steady dependable growth. Who can predict what it will be five years from now? Look back five years and measure the progress already made.

The Sweetwater plant of the United States Gypsum Co., has just been born. Measure it by the size of the other plants and the record of this corporation. Who can predict the size of their payroll and number of employes five years from now.

COUNTRY CLUB ADDITION IS MIDWAY BETWEEN ON THE BANKHEAD HIGHWAY—TO BE PAVED.

The
film version of Emerson Hough's
"The Man Next Door"

This is another of those famous stories of the West written by the author of "The Covered Wagon," "North of 36" and the "Mississippi Bubble." No writer has ever succeeded in picturing the West as Hough has done. And in this film is a burning fidelity to the characterization by Hough that is indeed notable. We want you to see it. You will consider it well worth your while.

And then, just to round out an extra good program, we offer—

Solving Entertainment Problems

—Everyone, at some time, is confronted with an entertainment problem. Perhaps it is out of town guests, or it may be a wedding party, or an announcement luncheon, or perhaps honoring a distinguished visitor. Again it is the head of some lodge or organization, or perhaps the teacher of your Sunday School class, whom the members desire to extend recognition to in a way that is at once distinguished and yet as formal or informal as the occasion may require.

—The Hotel Wright is peculiarly well adapted to such occasions. Our facilities are ample to take care of the largest parties, and yet so arranged that the smaller and more intimate occasions are equally well handled.

—In addition to the exceptionally good cuisine available here, all worry, trouble and work in connection with the occasion is at once eliminated. An advance notice of your wishes, with approximate number of persons to be served, will automatically take care of that part of the program.
