Again Put Hope In Night Ballot

After 93 Trials Fail, Convention Leaders Turn to Conference This Afternoon That May Produce Nominee Tonight.

RALSTON REACHES 196 1-2 ON 92nd

Ballot Mill Grinds on As Delegates Lose Patience. McAdoo Hits New Low on First Ballot of Day With 315 1-2 Votes.

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN, NEW YORK, July 8.—Six more ballots, bringing the total to 93, and the Democratic national convention is still without a presidential nominee. With the deadlock still complete, the convention recessed shortly before 3 o'clock until 9 p. m., when another effort will be made to select a standard bearer.

Heads of delegations are losing patience. Smith and McAdoo are still obstinate, but some of the leaders are not as firm as the chiefs. The national committeemen and state leaders with back home campaigns to conduct in conjunction with the national campaign this fall have just about reached the end of their string.

They are demanding a nomination, and immediate steps that will make it possible. With this situation in mind, the leaders will gather in conference this afternoon and early in the evening in an effort to agree on a candidate.

The entire convention was disappointed that there was no nomination today. Newton D. Baker, for instance, who might be notified of his nomination, stated that he was packed up and ready to leave.

But the ballot mill ground on. Ralston was brought out for a ride during the day, that carried him to 196 1-2. McAdoo lost steadily. Smith merely held his own.

A bitter fight is certain in the conference rooms, for some of the personifications will likely be trampled on, and if after the trampling they do not walk out, they will probably be thrown out.

McAdoo Loses 18 Votes. Showing a new loss of 18 votes on the first ballot taken today as compared with the last one Monday night, McAdoo hit a new low on the 88th ballot when he polled only 315 1-2.

Governor Smith registered 363, still a short of his highest record. Leaders on the floor predicted a take-up after the first ballot today, which was merely a warm-up, but rather impressed upon the McAdoo campers the fact that they must withdraw or be pushed out. Ralston picked up six strays as he went along through the 88th, reaching a new high of 98.

Concentration of ballots on a dark horse, however, was yet to come. With Iowa voting for Meredith, Kansas for Governor Davis, Oklahoma for Senator Owen, and the other votes scattered, there was much to be done in tightening the line.

ROSCOE PAVING CONTRACT IS LET

First Step in County's $1,500,000 Program Taken—Work Approximates $40,000.

CITY, STATE CO-OPERATE Pave State Highway Leading Thru City—Bids Soon on Bankhead to Mitchell County.

The first contract in the $1,500,000 Nolan County road building program, let jointly by the city of Roscoe and the State, was awarded the Jordan Construction Company of Plainview at Roscoe Monday afternoon. The company's bid was approximately $40,000.

The work to be done includes that part of highway No. 1, passing thru the city of Roscoe. The State's part of the expense, County Judge Mauzey stated, is proportionate with any other regular highway work. The city of Roscoe is to pave several blocks in the business district with brick, including that part of the State highway going through town.

The State accepted the plans as drawn up by the Roscoe city engineer, and agreed to do its share of the work on the highway while the city work was in progress. The state's expense is slight as compared with that borne by Roscoe.

"We will be ready to advertise for bids on the Bankhead Highway from Sweetwater to the Mitchell County line within the next few weeks," Judge Mauzey stated. Grading will be the first let.

Weather.

Tonight and Wednesday, partly cloudy, with probable showers in the Panhandle.

Library Donations.

Monday, Willie Malaphatt donated three books to the Public Library and Miss Irene Richardson one. Mrs. T. W. Farris donated forty nice magazines. These late donations bring the number of books in the library up to about 1875. It was the great desire of the Library Committee to have 2,000 books on the shelves by the first year's anniversary, July 21.

ASK VOTERS TO INCREASE TAXES

Mass Meeting Held on Public Square Monday Night—Speakers Advocate 80c For Schools.

FACTS AND FIGURES CITED BY M. B. HOWARD, SECRETARY OF THE SCHOOL BOARD—OTHERS SPEAK.

A large crowd of friends of the Sweetwater schools gathered at the court house square Monday night when a lively mass meeting was held to boost the voting today of the increase in the tax rate from 50 cents to 80 cents. Cars were parked on two sides of the square and the lawn was covered with people. A program of good numbers by the Sweetwater Booster Band, and appropriate short talks by M. C. Manroe, M. B. Howard, secretary of the school board, John A. McCurdy, secretary of the Board of City Development, and D. A. Clark, former member of school board and former school superintendent, featured the program.

In a few short words, M. C. Manroe told the people the reason for the meeting, that only the friends of the schools were present, and that no friend of the school would leave until the program was over.

D. A. Clark was introduced by John A. McCurdy and made a plea for the people of Sweetwater to vote for the increased tax rate Tuesday.

"It is not a question of talk," declared Clark, "it is a question of action. It has heretofore been necessary to take up a collection to run the schools for the full nine months, thereby putting the burden on a few. Sweetwater must have the increased tax rate if its schools are to rank with schools in cities of equal size in do its duty for the boys and girls of the state. It is for Sweetwater to today who will be the leaders of our country tomorrow."

Howard Gives Figures.

Some interesting figures were quoted by M. B. Howard, secretary of the school board, when he showed how much money would be required to run the schools in 1924-25, and how much money the schools would have at 50 cents tax rate, and at an 80 cent tax rate.

"We are paying the superintendent $3,000," he stated, "the principal $2,000, five high school teachers $150 a month and five others $125 a month, a total of $17,550 for teachers in the high school. About $20,500 will be spent in the grade schools, and $750 in negro and Mexican schools, and $3,525 for other teachers in grade school, totaling $24,350 for teachers for the year.

"We will spend $2,000 on repairs for the high school, as it is in a badly dilapidated condition. We will spend $1,005 for coal, $1,300 for insurance, $150 for printing, $500 for miscellaneous expenses and a sinking fund of $6,750. The total expense for all the schools will reach $45,000. If the rendition of taxes amounted to seven million dollars, and there was a 50 cent tax rate, it would amount to $35,000, and that is not enough to run the schools. If there was a six million dollar rendition and an 80 cent tax rate, it would amount to $48,000 and the schools could operate.

Praises Faculty.

"We have a splendid superintendent this year," he went on, "and a splendid principal. Each of the high school and grade teachers is the best that we can obtain and a good school year is ahead of Sweetwater if we have enough money to operate on. We intend to put in a course in home economics this year and have already obtained the teacher. This will cost about $1,000. We should have a course in manual training. Ten years ago the Sweetwater high school had these things.

"We want a school that Sweetwater can be justly proud of. The people of Sweetwater never turned down a proposition like this when they could see that the money was justly spent. Colorado has a tax of $1.10. Roscoe, McCaulley and Snyder have the $1.00 tax, surely Sweetwater can afford the 80 cent tax."

In a few closing words, J. A. McCurdy declared that it was not a question of whether the election would carry or not, just a question of everyone going to the polls. Indifference only could defeat the measure he said.

PRESIDENT'S SON TAKEN BY DEATH

Dark Angel Again a Visitor in Washington and Calvin Coolidge Jr., 16, Is Gone.

Funeral Arrangements Not Completed—No Official Mourning—Death From Infected Blister.

By The United Press.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 8.—The curtain is drawn in the east room at the White House. The President's youngest son lies dead within.

Bowed in grief at the loss of their boy—a tragedy such as has not visited the White House since Abraham Lincoln's day—President and Mrs. Coolidge remained aloof with their sorrow.

Funeral plans for Calvin Coolidge Jr., who succumbed shortly before midnight after a brave fight, had not been announced.

Only those who stood by the Nation's Chief Executive and his wife as they walked unsteadily and with haggard faces from the room in Walter Reed Hospital where young Calvin died, saw their struggles. Seeking solitude where the body was taken, they shut out a sympathetic world.

John, the elder brother, was with them. The still form in the east room had been the Coolidge family pride—an American boy of 16.

It was only a week ago that septic poisoning set in from a blister on his foot. There followed an unparalleled fight to save his life, in which the most important factor was the indomitable courage young Coolidge displayed, all without avail.

It is 62 years since Tad Lincoln died in his father's arms in the White House. Not since then has a President in office lost a son in death. There was a hush over the executive mansion. Servants and secret service men walked quietly about, speaking only in whispers.

The Coolidges tried to show as little grief as possible. From the very first they have thought that the loss of Calvin Jr., was a personal family affair, and mourning not as President and First Lady of the Land, but as bereaved father and mother they wished to be alone.

Doctors said young Coolidge lived hours longer than they had thought possible, sustained by his own courage after all hope had been given up. Blood transfusions, saline solution injections, and all the knowledge of medical science were used in vain.

There will be no official mourning for Calvin Coolidge Jr. It is the President's wish. Today he ordered that the flags in Washington were not to be at half mast, as is customary when there is death in the White House.

The government departments will not be closed, and routine business will be carried on as if young Coolidge were the son of a private citizen. Coolidge dislikes the pomp of state funerals and the "show" of public grief.

SHEPPARD BACKS PROHIBITION LAW

Just Cause of Every True Citizen, Says Author of National Prohibition Act Here.

JAPAN "YELLOW WEDGE" Declares We Have Right to Choose Those Who Enter U. S.—Reviews His Record.

A packed house, including a large number of ladies, greeted Senator Morris Sheppard who spoke in the district court room of the Nolan County courthouse Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock in interest of his candidacy for re-election to the United States Senate. Senator Sheppard was presented by an old school mate and friend, G. E. Ramsey, who attended the Texas University with the Senator 30 years ago. Ramsey was introduced by Representative R. M. Chitwood who paid a glowing tribute to both Ramsey and Sheppard.

His previous record in the United States Senate, and comment on leading questions and problems before the Senate now, including prohibition, immigration, railroads, League of Nations, capital and labor and agriculture were the high points in the Senator's one hour and thirty minute speech.

In opening his address, Sheppard commented on the wonderful growth and development of Sweetwater in the last few years and declared that he would be a "booster for Sweetwater at Washington and elsewhere the rest of his life."

He referred to his record as author of the 18th Amendment to the Constitution, to prohibition in the District of Columbia, which made the national capitol dry, to the war time prohibition bill, the important part played in passing the woman suffrage bill, his work in the protection of maternity and infancy, a law that now has been accepted by 44 states, although it is not compulsory, to his bill which established Mothers' Day as a national event throughout the United States, his support of every measure made by the Democratic party during its supremacy in 1913-19, his support of every interest to the soldiers in and after the World War, and support of the League of Nations, and Treaty of Versailles, support of measures to the interest of agriculture, ever since his election to the Senate, support of laboring masses, securing greater access for exports, and stated that Texas was now second only to New York in exports.

He referred to his passing a bill through the Senate, for exploration of potash resources in West Texas, and declared that that part of the state had one of the greatest potash deposits in the world. Sheppard stated that he has been in charge of the Democratic side of the House during important debates in Senate, and a member of the Democratic steering committee which practically leads the party in the Senate.

"I have always stood for faithfulness to what I conceived the best interests to the people," he declared, "and I want to promote the equality of rights and opportunities, and work for the good of humanity."

Senator Sheppard remarked on the increasing assault on prohibition by its opponents.

"The cause of prohibition is the cause of every true citizen," declared Sheppard, "as long as prohibition is law. We must have officers who will enforce the law, but we must preach in the home, in the church, in the schools and colleges, the evils of alcoholic beverages. It will remain a menace for years to come. We must teach again that it tears down body and soul as well as the law.

"The opponents to prohibition are reviving old arguments against it. You would think to hear them talk that all the great documents of the past, the Magna Charta, the Mayflower Compact, the Bill of Rights, the Battle Hymn of the Republic, were all written for the express purpose of rum runners, 1924. It is stated that the only man who can drink this bootleg whiskey must be a sword swallower and his wife a snake charmer!"

Sheppard stated that he stood for the exclusion of the yellow races, and that "immigration from Japan thrust

OUR SORROW

Death, that entered the White House when President Harding died nearly a year ago, and claimed the greatest leader of his day in Woodrow Wilson, has again stoled into the circles of official Washington and taken Calvin Coolidge Jr., youngest son of the President of the United States.

Late yesterday physicians in consultation believed that young Coolidge had successfully passed the crisis. For the first time in 72 hours, President and Mrs. Coolidge left the bedside, and those in attendance on Calvin Jr., allowed themselves to believe that the lad would pull through.

But the odds were too great. Doctors had declared that the chances were 10,000 to one against the recovery of Calvin Coolidge Jr. The flame of life flickered dimly for a few hours, and slowly died.

Regardless of party affiliations, every man in the nation extends his most sincere sympathy to the President and Mrs. Coolidge in their bereavement. Wheels of the government will halt while we grieve with the chief executive and the first lady of the land. Coolidge, the father, has the sympathy of the entire nation.

A COLLEGIATE VIEW

Weary of hearing college students denounced for being more or less in the same class with as some of the perverts who have brought had celebrity on their fellows, Prof. Ralph Dennis, dean of the School of Speech, at Northwestern University at Chicago, makes a convincing defense of the majority of college students, and warns that the "freak" class is not the one with whom we should be most concerned.

He says that college life and scientific education were not responsible for Leopold and Loeb, Chicago outcasts, becoming murderers. "Scientific study does not produce Leopolds and Loeb," he says. "The seeds for their development were sown long before they struck a college campus."

"The group which should concern us is that vast army of men and women students who are content to 'get by,' who master nothing. They cram, crib, and dodge. Today they pass an exam as the result of high pressure study. A week from now an exam in the same study would bowl them over."

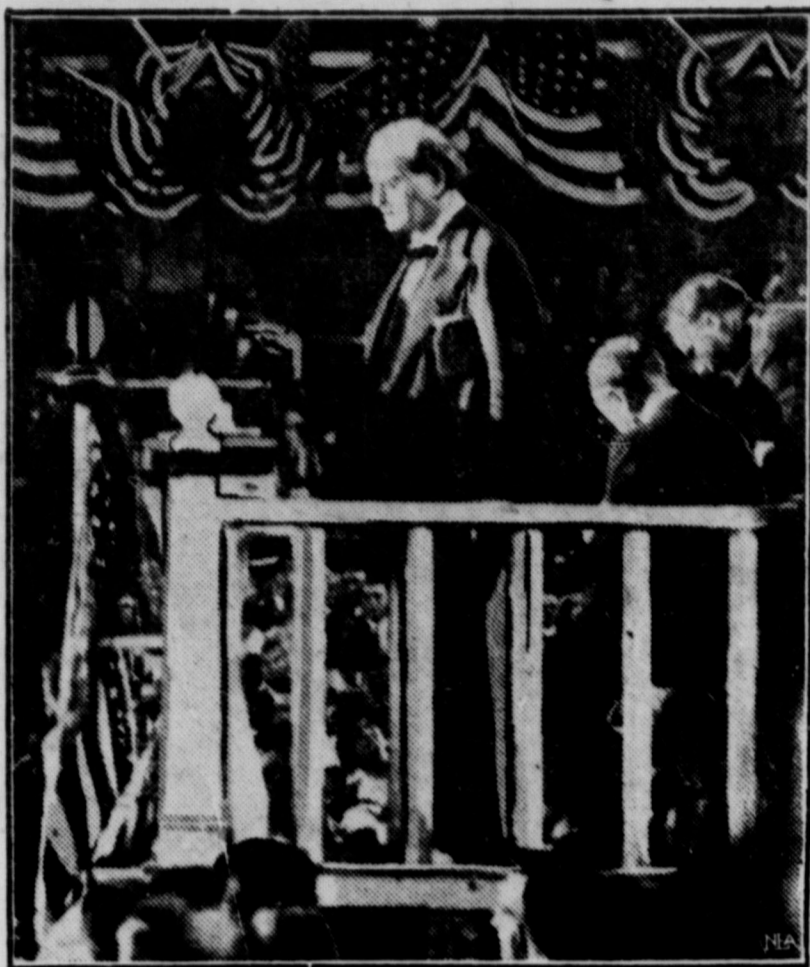

"The public worries about the pacifists. There is no need. The American campus is loyal."

The public will be glad to take the professor at his word. His common sense views will probably bar him as a witness in the approaching trial of Leopold and Loeb for the murder of Robert Franks.

WAR ON MOSQUITOES

The mosquito, treated almost as a member of the family and considered no special cause for alarm, is more dangerous than the Bubonic rat, according to the State Board of Health, waging a vigorous war on the pests that spread Malaria.

There have been reported to the mosquito bite victims for the first State Board of Health 5330 cases of five months of 1924. This represents only about 50 per cent of the actual cases that have occurred. With the mosquito season just coming in, and with weather conditions favorable to mosquitoes, we may expect a rather large case rate for the remainder of this year unless each community begins immediately to control the breeding of this disease carrier.

Mosquitoes are not migratory, so if you have mosquitoes they were raised in the vicinity of your home. If you have a pool or tank of water, stock it with minnows and they will destroy the wiggle tails; if you haven't the minnows, they will be supplied by the State Board of Health upon application. Perhaps mosquitoes are breeding under the house where the ice box drains, or in water left in tin cans and tubs after a rain. You have heard that "Oil on troubled waters" will relieve discord; know also that "Oil on stagnant waters" will relieve you of mosquitoes by destroying their breeding places.

Sixty-three Texas cities are availing themselves of the services of the Sanitary Engineers of the State Board of Health who supervise the draining and oiling of stagnant pools and streams, and make surveys, giving special attention to mosquito breeding places. Mosquitoes are more dangerous than the Bubonic rat, yet if a rat is discovered in a town beset with Bubonic Plague, a great alarm is sent out; a quarantine is declared; strenuous methods are employed to rid the town of this disease carrier, while the mosquito is treated as an old acquaintance—one of the family—and given no special attention.

AMARILLO, Texas, July 8.—The fountain of youth that Ponce de Leon sought is to be found on any golf course if we are to take the word of Former Governor Barrows of Arizona. The former governor is 75 years old, straight as an arrow and offered to bet he could outrun any man in the city. He gives credit to golf for his physical condition.

Here is the brief picture story of the first transcontinental airmail flight, that latest chapter in the many romances of the air now being written. Messages now cross the nation in 36 hours, or thereabouts. Mail posted in New York at 8 a. m., will be delivered in San Francisco the following evening. On the left is shown Pilot Claire Vance taking off from San Francisco. At Cleveland the pilots were changed and Pilot Wesley L. Smith is shown (center) winging his way to New York and at right is being greeted by his wife at the end of the history-making flight.

DR. COOK A PAUPER
Unable to Have Court Proceedings Published—To Take Oath.

FORT WORTH, Texas, July 8.—Dr. Frederick A. Cook will take the pauper's oath and make appeal from his 14 year sentence and a fine of $12,000, following his trial for misusing the mails, before a special session of court in Atlanta, Ga., July 7.
This will be Dr. Cook's last resort of appeal. His petition states that he is not financially able to have the court proceedings printed and that if such form of appeal is required, asks that the government be liable for the expense incurred.

ARMORED CARS IN K. C.
Express Co. Transports Funds For Banks and Other Firms.

KANSAS CITY, Mo., July 8.—The First National Bank, Main Street Bank, and the Standard Oil Company have contracted with the Brinks Express company to transport funds for them in their armored cars. The company also handles money for the National Biscuit company locally.
The cars are so fitted that the two armed messengers inside the car can cut off the engine so the truck cannot be moved if anything happens to the driver or if he should try to get away with the car and money. The trucks and trailers carry three riflemen which follow them.
"What do you want, little girl?" asked a meat market clerk in Eldorado, Kas., according to the Times. "I want a wrist watch and a Japanese parasol and a new bicycle," said the 8-year-old customer, "but mother wants a dime's worth of liver."

Christian Church Ladies Celebrate Missionary Anniversary.

One of the most enjoyable meetings Monday among the ladies of the city was the "Birthday Party" given by Mrs. C. D. Lindley, Mrs. A. B. Yantis and Mrs. Walter Anderson at the home of Mrs. Lindley at 508 Pine street, when forty ladies of the First Christian Church met to celebrate the sixth anniversary of the organization of their Missionary Society, which meets only on the first Monday of each month.

Mrs. F. M. Poffenbach, the president, occupied the chair, which she has graced for six successive years. She heard interesting reports of standing committees and officers. The secretary reported $47 of the $100 "Jubilee Pledge" had been paid including Monday's donations. This pledge is being paid out of free will offerings at each meeting and is in addition to the regular society pledge, which is paid every year.

Mrs. B. S. Nebbutt, had charge of the program, which follows: Talk, "Beginning of Our Missionary Work and a Short History of the Work Done Through the Society," Mrs. Harris; Reading, "Ma and the Auto," Members; Mrs. S. N. Leach; Solo, Woodrow Sheridan; Talk, "Our New Jubilee Song," Mrs. Garnet Nickson; Talk, "In the Days of Yore," Mrs. John Hubbard; Reading, "My Dolly's Wedding," Evangeline Sheridan; Talk, "Our Orphans' and Old People's Homes," Mrs. A. B. Yantis; Piano Solo, Mrs. John Hubbard. An interesting "quiz" closed the program in which questions were asked concerning religious activities of the world, during which Mrs. L. C. Vinson told the story of the Easter service held this year at the famous Hollywood Bowl, which she recently visited, when over 70,000 people were present and responded with a mighty chorus of praise to the signals of the buglers, who were stationed on the highest peaks of the Hollywood mountains surrounding this great natural amphitheater.

During the social hour following the program, Mrs. C. B. Payne told a short story of the work accomplished during the six years of its organization and spoke appreciative words of Mrs. L. E. Epperson who was one of the prime factors in the society's organization and its work as long as she lived in Sweetwater. She told of the office of president being so ably filled the past six years by Mrs. Poffenbach and proposed a toast to her, to which Mrs. Poffenbach responded.

Returned From Outing.

Mrs. Hubert Toler and three sons, and Misses Mable Browning and Mildred Boren of Post, returned Sunday night from Christoval where they have been camping for the past ten days in camps on the Concho. They were joined Friday by Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Sandusky and J. N. Thomas of Colorado who remained over Sunday. They report a good time with good bathing and all the fish they could consume.

Columbus Took a Chance.

SEDALIA, Mo., July 8.—Saying that he had never ridden a train, but was ready "to try anything once," Vernon Filer, 18 years old, enlisted in the United States Army here and will be sent to Ft. Leavenworth.

Cards of thanks, resolutions of respect and in memoriam 5c per line. Display advertising rates on application to the Oak Street office. TAXED.
 Groans from railroads because they paid national and State taxes of over $900,000 a day in 1923, or three times as much as before the war. The railroads don't really pay this. The public pays. Railroads are simply collectors for Uncle Sam and the States. This is the fly in the ointment, to critics who delight to have the roads heavily taxed.

SACRED
 All past records are being broken in the amount of life insurance taken out by the American people. So far this year over a fifth more life insurance has been written than in 1923, when a new record was hung up. If the rate continues, the 1924 total of new policies will be 11 billion dollars. There was a time when this would have indicated 11 billion dollars to fear. Now it represents 11 billions of sensible investment—the great and easiest way to save.

STUMPED
 In a recent week, with business supposed to be dull, the Nation's bank clearings totaled $87 for every $80 of bank checks sent through the clearing houses in the corresponding week of last year—when times were booming. People haven't been spending more than in 1923. They haven't been on any orgy of paying bills. Prices haven't been higher to show up in the form of inflated clearings. If you can explain the rain, step to the head of the class. The business experts are stumped.

SCHOOL INTEREST
 With less than a third of the qualified vote cast, property owners in the Sweetwater Independent School District endorsed the proposed increase in the school tax Tuesday. The vote was more than two to one for raising the tax from 50 cents on the $100 valuation to 80 cents.

The light vote indicates that the majority of the voters of the school district are unconcerned as to the welfare of the schools. Perhaps they thought that the measure would carry without their aid, but at any rate, they did not go to the polls.

Some who opposed the increase took their stand on the declaration that 80 cents would not be sufficient to run the schools, and that at the next election, an assessment of $1 on the $100 valuation could be voted. However, we consider it fortunate that the increase to 80 cents was voted Tuesday, and that the school system has not been left up in the air with its progress hinging on the possible defeat of an increase of any kind at the next election.

Every citizen realizes the importance of the schools. Those who voted against the tax rate that will put the schools on an efficient operating basis probably thought they were justified in their action. But we fail to see how a vote that would necessitate another collection this fall in order to complete a nine months school term could be construed as a vote for Sweetwater's growth and prominence in West Texas.

The schools want manual training classes and other departments that they formerly had. They want a chance to hold the position schools should hold in a city making the progress that Sweetwater is making. Let's have more school interest, even if it does cost something. Things worth while are seldom given away.

MOTHER BABE DIE

Trapped in Burning Farm House, Found Side by Side—Other Members of Family Burned.

By The United Press.

DOWAGIAC, Mich., July 9.—Trapped in a burning farm house near here last night, a mother and a child she had just borne were burned to death. The babe and its mother, Mrs. Etta Hadley, were found side by side when rescuers finally reached the charred bodies.

Another daughter, Helen, 5, was critically burned. The father, Harrison Hadley, and a 20 year old son, Glenn, were also severely burned. The blaze started from an explosion which came when oil was poured in a stove.

WIN TWO FIRSTS

Scholz and Kinsey Place For American Track Team—U. S. Total Now 135 Points.

By The United Press.

COLUMBUS STADIUM, Paris, France, July 9.—Capturing two more firsts out of the final contests today, the American track and field team went still further into the lead in the Olympic games.

Kinsey's winning in the 110 meter hurdles and Jackson Scholz in the 200 meters dash, besides the efforts of their team mates, counting for 17 points, put the United States to a total of 135.

Finland, our closest competitor, took one first when Wille Ritola, who won the 10,000 meter race on Sunday, took the 3,000 meter steeple chase.

AMUSEMENTS

One of the greatest announcements yet made to film patrons of this city is the engagement of "Beau Brummel" at the Palace Theater today and Thursday. What gives curiosity and expectation a spurt is the fact that John Barrymore, America's greatest dramatic actor, has the starring part, and that the screen version is from the Clyde Fitch play, immortalized by Richard Mansfield.

Barrymore is always Barrymore, which means that he can be depended upon to give his audiences unflinching dramatic entertainment. But Barrymore is the adaptation of a play that is one of the best in this country means something spectacular and unique.

WINS FIVE DOLLARS

Wayne Grogan Kills Most Flies in Contest.

Wayne Grogan was given the first prize Tuesday in the Nolan County Fly Swatting Contest. He was given a check for $5.00 after turning in one pint of dead flies.

The contest was at first announced to close the first Monday in June, but owing to the late cool spring there were not enough flies to create much interest in the contest and the swatting campaign was moved up another month.

PICNIC WEDNESDAY

County and Precinct Candidates and Voters at Shep.

Many Nolan County voters attended the picnic at Shep Wednesday, where candidates from Taylor County and several from the district addressed a large crowd of voters. A picnic and barbecue, an annual affair at Shep, was staged by the picnic association of the Shep community.

Albright and Blanton, candidates for Congress, were both scheduled to be present. Senator Morris Sheppard planned to attend if possible. The crowd was reported as one of the largest on record at the Shep gathering.

Mrs. A. L. Tapp and children have returned to their home at Bells, near Los Angeles, Cal., following a visit here with her sister, Mrs. Verda Smith on Walnut Street, and other relatives at Palau. She visited Mr. and Mrs. L. H. Chatfield at Mission, in the Rio Grande Valley during her stay in Texas. Both the Tapp and Chatfield families formerly lived at Sweetwater.

Arkansas Lady Says Mother Gave Her Cardui and She Had No More Trouble of This Kind.

Lamar, Ark.—Mrs. Edith Seeman, here, recently made the following statement describing her experience in the use of Cardui:

"I had pain in my back and sides; had sick headaches and my nose would bleed. I couldn't sit up at all. "My mother gave me Cardui. I took about a half bottle and at this... I was able to get up and help with the work. Next time I took it again, and now, after taking two bottles, I do not have any trouble at all at this time. I gained, my skin cleared up, I am healthy and strong.

"My mother took Cardui for a weak, run-down condition. It did her more good for weakness and nervousness than any medicine she has ever taken. She took six bottles in all. We recommend it and certainly know its worth."

The foregoing is one out of thousands of statements which have been received from users of Cardui, the woman's tonic. If you are a sufferer from womanly ailments, try Cardui. It may be just what you need. At your dealer's. NC-156

TEN VICTIMS IS RESULT OF BIG KILLING

Young Girl Reveals Plan of Parents for Wholesale Destruction.

"Mother said, 'Ruth, go to the drug store and hand the clerk this paper and be careful not to drop the bottle he gives you.'"

"I did as mother said and gave her the bottle. After supper I studied my lessons and started for my room. As I was leaving the room father was shaking the bottle and he said quietly, but in an earnest tone, 'sudden death for some of them tonight.'"

"Next morning father said, 'thank goodness, we know how to get restful sleep now. We killed ten mosquitoes last night with that wonderful Fly-Flu mother sent you for yesterday.'"

Fly-Flu is certified death for every kind of bug pest or insect that crawls. Substitutes can't and won't do the work. Fly-Flu instantly annihilates flies, mosquitoes, moths (and their eggs), ants, fleas and all other insect pests, if directions are followed carefully. Fly-Flu is harmless to humans, leaves no unpleasant odor and cannot possibly stain. Price 50 cents for large bottle with handy sprayer, at all drug, grocery and other retail stores.

U. S. Flier Enroute After Martin Plane Lights Here Tuesday—Expected Back Soon.

U. S. Army aviators enroute to Kelly Field, San Antonio, lit on the Sweetwater landing field Tuesday afternoon, refilled the engine, and hopped off on the last lap of their flight.

At Kelly Field the two aviators will take over a Martin Bomber, one of Uncle Sam's newest and most modern pieces of aviation equipment. The big plane will probably pass over Sweetwater Wednesday or Thursday, and will light near here to take on gasoline, then continue its flight to Dearmott.

The aviators Tuesday were in a De Havilland plane, and remained in the city only a short time. A large crowd will be on hand to welcome them when they return with the Martin bomber, it is expected.
