MOST OF MY readers know that Ye Editor is the official weather recorder in Friona, which also serves as Parmer County's weather station.

Although I have only been the National Weather Service recorder for the past five years, I have always had an abiding interest in the weather, which probably stems from being raised on a farm in this area, and then living in this agricultural community just cemented the interest.

We have had some beautiful winter weather--it has almost forgotten to be winter for the most part; the only drawback being the fact that we're getting 'way overdue for some moisture.

But did you know that the alltime national high temperature for the month of January hit 92 degrees on January 31, 1911 in Weatherford and Cloud Chief, Oklahoma?

On the other side of the coin, the mercury fell to 47 degrees below zero at Washta, Iowa on January 12, 1912. That's a swing of 139 degrees in the same month of the year in states not too terribly far apart.

The record low temperature for the continental United States was minus 70 (that's actual temperature, not wind chill!) at Rogers Pass, Montana, on January 21, 1954.

Talk about not knowing how to dress: On a day in January, 1943, the temperature in Spearfish, South Dakota rose 49 degrees, from -4 to 45 in a two-minute period. The mercury later fell 58 degrees in 27 minutes, from 54 degrees to -4.

We think that we can have a lot of wind in the Texas Panhandle--and we can. But on January 17-18 in Anchorage, Alaska, wind gusts of over 100 miles per hour were logged. Several homes were destroyed. The wind chill factor was not given, but we suppose it had to be over 100 degrees below zero.

The Dallas-Fort Worth area doesn't get much snow and ice, but when it does, the people there just about go crazy when they get out in their cars. They're just not used to driving in such conditions. The alltime record snowfall for the D-FW metroplex was a 12.1-inch recording on January 12, 1964.

In 1978, Ohio was hit by its worst blizzard of the century, with winds over 100 miles per hour which piled a foot of snow into drifts of up to 25 feet. Fifty-one people died. Temperatures fell to zero. Drifts measured 50 feet high in Michigan, where 120,000 vehicles were abandoned.

On January 28, 1887, at Fort Keogh, Montana, snowflakes "larger than milkpans" were reported. They measured eight inches thick, and made patches all over the fields within an area of several square miles.

And they say it never rains in Southern California! The state's 24hour precipitation record was set when Hoegees Camp in the San Gabriel Mountains measured 26.12 inches. We have a lot of calendar years (in fact, most) with less rain.

A meteor of remarkable brilliance was observed in January, 1883 in parts of the Midwest and Ohio Valley. Its trail remained visible for 20 to 30 minutes. A wall of water up to 40 feet tall rushed across parts of the Society Islands in the South Pacific in 1903, killing 1,000 people. Washington D.C.'s largest snow hit in 1922, dumping 28 inches. A theatre collapsed, and 100 people died.

A front-end loader has been arranged for, and the City of Friona is furnishing a truck to haul off all trash and waste materials.

The 1994 show will kick off on Friday, January 21, with weigh-in of barrows, heifers and steers from 1-5 p.m.

Lambs will be weighed and clissified on Saturday, January 22, from 7-8:30 a.m. Steers will be clssified beginning at 7 a.m. that

The lamb show kicks off at 11 a.m. and the barrow show is slated for 2 p.m.

The premium sale for all of the prize animals will be held on Monday, January 24, starting at 6:30 p.m.

Premiums for the 1994 sale will be based on a certain amount "per head," rather than a "per pound" price as in the past.

One and one-half per cent of the selling price of all animals will be retained by the Stock Show board for repair and improvement of the Stock Show facilities.

The judges for the 1994 show include Burt Williams for the steers and heifers; Dirk Aaron for barrows; Jerry Franklin for lambs, and Carl Wheeler for showmanship.

Mark DeVance was the winner of $100 in Friona Bucks in the first of the series of shop-at-home drawings sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce.

The political pot began to boil, as county officials Bonnie Clayton, Bonnie Warren, Jack Young, Anne Norton, Marjorie Watkins, Raymond McGehee and Tom Ware announced for re-election.

The Friona Squaws got off to a 7-0 start on the season, and pushed that to 11-1. The team was ranked as the number five team in the state for class AAA teams.

DISTRICT OPENER Squaws Fall To Lady Cats, 53-47

The Littlefield High School Downey was the only Friona player department. Lady Cats proved Tuesday that they scoring in double figures. Jodi were tired of serving as the Looper hauled down eight rebounds to 13-7, after an 11-1 start on the "doormat" for the rest of District 2- to pace both teams in that AAA.

The Littlefield girls basketball team, which hadn't won a district game in the past three years, opened district play with a 53-47 win over the Squaws at Littlefield Tuesday. The win may spur the Lady Cats, 14-7 on the season, to new heights. Renee' Downey's scoring spurt to open the final quarter pulled the Squaws within three points, 44-41, with 5:52 left in the game.

But Littlefield responded, with a 7-0 spurt of their own, to open up a ten point lead, 51-41, and that put the game out of reach.

Neither team held much of an edge in the first quarter, which ended with the hosts holding a 10-8 lead.

The 'Cats looked to extend their lead to open the second quarter, but Kristi Meyer tied it up for Friona. Littlefield scored six unanswered points to take a 16-10 lead with 6:38 left in the half.

But Miss Downey sparked Friona with a trio of baskets, one from three-point range, and Friona went to the intermission with a razor-thin 27-26 lead.

Littlefield outscored the Squaws, 14-6, and took a 40-33 lead in the third quarter. But a three-pointer by Miss Downey made it a 42-36 game at the end of the quarter.

Miss Downey kept up her hot shooting, hitting a two-pointer and a three-pointer to open the final quarter before the Lady Cats could score, and brought Friona back within a goal at 44-41.

But that's when Aimee Waldrop

Monica Davis scored five points, Candi Baca, Amber Grantham, Twyla Roth and April Torres each scored two points.

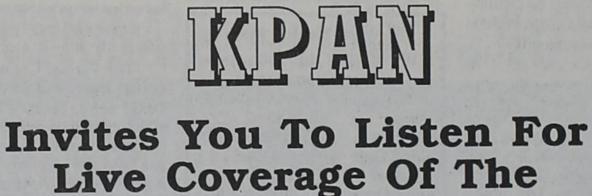

15 points, C. Baxter five points, J. Rando, M. Kendrick, B. Proctor and J. Nava each scored two points.

The Friona "B" Boys lost their games in the Lazbuddie tournament. In the game against Dimmitt, the final score was 28-35.

P. Hanes scored nine points, K. Schueler six points, J. Hamilton five, C. Cooper and H. Patterson four points each, and J. Pena and C. Walker two points each.

They also lost to Happy with the final score being 28-34.

J. Pena scored six points, Hamilton and Cooper five points each, Goodwin and Patterson three points each, and Schueler, Hanes and Wiseman two points each.

The loss dropped Friona's record season.

After Miss Downey missed a three-point attempt, Miss Waldrop scored a layup for a 53-41 Littlefield lead.

Although Friona got baskets from Miss Downey, Keri Reeb and Britny White in the latter stages to trim the margin, they just couldn't catch up.

Depth-To-Water Measurements Determine Water Level Changes

Water Conservation District No. 1 Technical Division staff are making annual depth-to-water measurements to determine the effect of 1993 pumpage on ground water levels of static water level inside the previous years to determine any levels for each area of Hale County.

Water District staff take the measurements by lowering a steel measured each year, the data

This data is used to construct maps showing changes in water levels and the saturated thickness of the aquifer within the Water District. Maps showing the location and well number of observation wells in each county or portion of a county served by the District are traditionally published in the April issue of the Water District's monthly newsletter, The Cross Section. Along with the maps, tables listing the observation wells in each county and the depth-towater measurements for one year (1993 to 1994), five year (1989 to 1994) and ten year intervals (1984 to 1994) will also be printed.

SWPS Files Protest To CSW Application

Company (NYSE: SPS) has filed a protest to Central and South West Corporation's attempt to force transmission access through SPS under Section 211 of the Federal Power Act.

SPS is responding to a CSW request filed with the Federal Energy Regulatory Commission as part of CSW's effort to acquire the bankrupt El Paso Electric Com-

"Our greatest concern is that CSW will get this application through the regulatory process before the utility industry, the relevant state and federal regulatory bodies, and the EPE region realize all of the anti-competitive consequences," said SPS chairman Bill D. Helton. "The issue is much broader than just the EPE bankruptcy."

CSW is a large utility holding company based in Dallas, Texas. On December 7 it received approval from a federal bankruptcy court for its plan of reorgnization for EPE, and now must seek state and federal said. regulatory approval. Federal law requires that the systems of a utility holding company be interconnected. CSW is not interconnected with increasing access to utility EPE.

"The Dallas company is attempting to use Section 211 to force SPS--which is interconnected with EPE--to transmit power between CSW and EPE, in order to Southwestern Public Service American Free Trade Agreement is being implemented. It also would limit electric power competition in much of the southwestern United States:

> *Tie up critical transmission capacity and thereby severely limit competition specifically from SPS, which is one of the lowest-cost producers in the region;

*Jeopardize reliable electric service to SPS's existing customers, by failing to provide adequate compensation for system modifications. SPS's actual experience and preliminary technical studies show there are substantial system constraints to CSW's proposal. Proper system modifications to ensure reliability could cost SPS's customers millions of dollars--CSW itself initially estimated that modifications would cost $40 million.

"This case will affect the longterm survival of smaller, low-cost utilities like SPS and the future of meaningful competition in the electric power industry," Helton Power Act was intended to encourage competition by transmission lines," Helton said. "The CSW proposal would have the effect of limiting competition."

"For CSW, we are the competition," Helton said. "We are the ones who can provide lower prices--if we're not cut off from the market."

Based on these unresolved issues, and the broad general scope of the effect this wheeling would have on the entire region, SPS requests that FERC either dismiss the CSW application--or schedule an evidentiary hearing and combine it with CSW's merger application, since many issues overlap. These broad issues cannot be resolved through a "technical conference" as requested by CSW. A technical conference would address only the engineering issues, while ignoring issues related to competition and the public interest.

Measurements are taken in more than 1,100 privately-owned wells in the District's observation well network. These wells are spaced at a density of about one well per nine square miles throughout the District.

"We have established observation well sites for the newly-annexed portions of Cochran and Lynn counties," says Don McReynolds, technical division director. "In the portion of Hale County added to the Water District in August, we plan to measure depths-to-water in wells currently included in the State of Texas ground water monitoring program."

In future years, some of these wells will be dropped and new wells added as efforts are made to build the best program possible to reflect

This section of wetted tape is subtracted from the total length of tape lowered into the well to determine the depth-to-water from land surface.

After the depth-to-water level measurement is taken, the data is recorded and a vinyl sticker showing the well number, the depth-to-water measurement, and the date the well was measured is affixed to equipment at the well site.

life a former column which has been dormant for several years. 3/4 cup apple cider vinegar Many of our readers will probably remember submitting recipes for a Parmer County Cookbook, which was planned by a former Friona 1 teaspoon pepper Star employee, Jan U. Turner.

Under the heading, The Happy Homemaker, these recipes will be used on a weekly basis. Also, readers in Bovina, Friona, Black, Lazbuddie or Rhea, who would like 1 small jar pimientos to submit recipes for publication are being invited to do so.

You may address your correspondence to The Happy Homemaker, P.O. Box 789, Friona, Texas, 79035.

salads, our first column will be in sister, Gay Ann Cranfill." that category.

Remember that we earnestly solicit your contributions, which uses often is very tasty and may be will be used as space permits.

Opal Baxter likes "Vegetable Patio Platter" very much. The ingredients include: 3 envelopes Knox unflavored gelatin 1-1/2 cups cold water 1/2 cup sugar 1/2 teaspoon salt 1/2 cup ice water 1/3 cup vinegar 2 tablespoons lemon juice 1 cup Miracle Whip 1-1/2 cups finely shredded cabbage 1-1/2 cups finely chopped celery 1 cup grated carrot 1/2 cup diced green pepper 2 diced pimientos

Sprinkle gelatin on cold water in sauce pan. Stir constantly over low heat about 3 minutes or until gelatin is dissolved. Remove from heat. Stir in sugar and salt. Then add ice water. Blend vinegar and lemon juice into Miracle Whip, then blend into the gelatin mixture. Chill until partially jelled then add remaining ingredients. Complete chilling and unmold onto serving platter. Serves six.

Tangy "Vegetable Salad" comes from the collection of Lunell 1/2 teaspoon celery salt

Horton, who published a very fine 1/2 teaspoon salad herbs The New Year is bringing to cookbook a few years ago. Mix and bring to boil:

> 1/2 cup Mazola 1 cup sugar 1 teaspoon salt

Cool mixture. Chop finely: 1 cup green pepper 1 cup celery 10 ounces Del Monte white whole kernel corn 1 can French green beans

8 fresh onions with tops Pour first mixture over second mixture and let set overnight. Drain before serving.

Lunell says, "The recipe really Since most meals begin with isn't mine. I borrowed it from my

> A recipe, which Luann Hough served any time but is especially good for a noon luncheon, is called "Simply Chicken Salad." Mix together: 2 cups cooked chicken, which has been cubed 1 cup grated American cheese

1/2 cup blanched almonds 1/2 cup chopped celery 1 large can crushed pineapple, which has been drained 1 teaspoon salt 1 teaspoon soy sauce 1/2 cup salad dressing 1 small jar pimientos

Serve as individual salads or in a salad bowl, which has been lined with lettuce leaves.

If your main dish is rather weak and needs a boost, you might like to try Pat Fleming's recipe for "Nancy's Hot Potato Salad." You will need: Six medium size potatoes, which have been cooked with the jackets 1 pint salad dressing 1/2 cup Carnation milk 1/4 cup sweet pickle juice 2 tablespoons Durkee's dressing 1 teaspoon liquid sweetener

1/2 teaspoon black pepper Mix ingredients, except potatoes, well. Peel and dice the potatoes as quickly as possible as they must be hot to absorb the dressing. Also, dice three hard cooked eggs while the dressing is hot. Then add diced celery, pickles and onions to suit your taste. Let set at room temperature two hours before chilling or serve warm.

A quick and easy salad, which Wyona Clark of the Hub community enjoys serving when she has guests or when it is just a family meal is called "Very Easy-Very Good Salad." 1 can Eagle Brand milk 1 can cherry pie filling 1 can coconut 1 cup miniature marshmallows 1 cup pecans Juice of one lemon 1 large carton Cool Whip Mix all ingredients except Cool Whip, which is folded in gently just before serving. One of Peggy Monroe's favorite Jello salads is "Lime Jello Salad." 1 package lime Jello 1 cup water 12 large marshmallows 1 three ounce package cream cheese Combine in saucepan and cook over low heat until marshmallows and cream cheese are melted. Cool mixture, then add: 1 tablespoon mayonnaise 1 small can crushed pineapple, which has been drained 1 carton whipping cream Pecans, if desired Cool until firmly set. The following recipes are from the collections of present or former residents of Bovina:

Here is Anne Corn's "Famous Pumpkin Cake" recipe. Combine: 3 cups sifted flour 3 cups sugar 2 teaspoons cinnamon 2 teaspoons soda 1-1/2 teaspoons salt Add:

1 cup salad oil 2 cups canned pumpkin 1/4 cup sour cream 1-1/2 teaspoons butter flavoring 4 eggs at room temperature 2 teaspoons vanilla Beat three minutes, then combine: 1 cup chopped walnuts 1 cup raisins 1/3 cup sifted flour Mix well, then fold with first mixture. Use a tube or bundt pan, which has been greased and floured, for baking. Bake 1 hour in 350 degree oven. Lillian Warren's favorite recipe is for "Potato Cake." Combine: 1 cup Crisco 2 cups sugar 1 cup potatoes, prepared for eating 2 teaspoons baking powder 2 cups flour 1/2 cup Hershey's cocoa 4 eggs 1 teaspoon vanilla Spices to suit your taste Cream Crisco and sugar together. Mix in eggs and potatoes. Combine dry ingredients. Mix with first mixture well. Add vanilla and blend in. Bake in tube pan in 350 degree oven for 30 minutes, then at 325 degrees for an additional 15 minutes. Test for doneness with toothpick. Glaze or frost cake. Happiness adds and multiples as we divide it with others but never subtracts.

The truck was acquired at no charge to the Department by applying to Texas Forest Service under the Federal Excess Property Program. Equipment acquired under this program is designated for fire control use.

A fire department is responsible to insure and maintain the equipment under contract with Texas Forest Service. Title to the equipment remains as federal property during use by the department.

The truck received is a 6x6, five ton, Kaiser-Jeep 1969 year model, in very good condition.

The Rhea-Hollene Volunteer Fire Department has received much help from Texas Forest Service programs since their start in

The Rhea-Hollene Volunteer January, 1992. They have received $1,431.33 for a pump unit for the pickup and cost share of $241.81 for dry hydrants.

They have also purchased new bunker gear at wholesale prices under the Fire Safe Fund program. Texas Forest Service programs helped build Rhea-Hollene Fire Department by giving them needed equipment and saving money.

Texas Forest Service funding has been cut by the last two Texas legislatures and Congress.

"T.F.S. can't help all fire departments with needed equipment when funds are continued to be cut. When this happens, costs for needed equipment has to come from other local sources," says Glen Schueler, fire chief.

'Help continue this program for fire departments by Texas Forest Service by calling or writing your local, state, or Washington Representative and Congressmen."

The department has also been awarded an EMS Local Projects Grant for $683.00 to purchase first response medical supplies, oxygen inhalator unit and bag resuscitators.

day? When we can have a warm still day at this time of year, it almost causes us to want to get outside and do something constructive.

A trip to Bi-Wize Health Mart brought me some unexpected pleasure that morning. As I stood at the cash register, a former Friona resident, Odie Rohde, who now lives in Las Vegas, Nevada, walked in.

She is spending some time with her mother, Mrs. Lewis West, who lives in Hereford. On Friday of last week, Mrs. West observed her 90th birthday. Odie and her brother and sister, Bill West and Elsie Lloyd, along with other family members, honored Mrs. West with a party.

Elsie and Bill Lloyd and Bill and Dixie West live on farms north and west of Hereford.

Enroute to Texas, Odie spent some time with her oldest son, Dr. Joby Claborn and his wife, the former Janet Buckley, who live in Phoenix, Arizona.

Janet and Joby, both graduates of Friona High School, have two sons. Their oldest, Jackie, is a sophomore at Texas A&M University, College Station, and Leola and Marlene made several side trips. In St. Jo, Texas, they visited one of Leola's aunts. Mrs. Jack Redmon, and a cousin, Hattie Moore.

They also visted another cousin, Birdie Basham in Nocona, Texas and several relatives and friends in Gainesville, Texas.

YOUR EYES

Glaucoma

Glaucoma was once known as the "silent thief" of eyesight because vision loss might be so gradual the condition would go undetected. Untreated, the chronic high pressure in the eye can cause progressive damage to the optic nerve with loss of peripheral vision, sometimes leading to blindness. Fortunately, modern testing can spot the disease--thousands of new cases are diagnosed every year--before symptoms are noticeable.

Especially for people over 45, routine optometric examinations offer the best protection against the damage of glaucoma. The eye doctor will check the optic nerve, test for fluid pressure in the eye with a noninvasive device called the tonometer and perform visual field examinations as well. The earlier glaucoma is diagnosed, the better the chances for preventing further loss of eyesight. Most common is primary, open-angle glaucoma. Caught early, it can be treated with drug therapy; advanced cases may require laser surgery.

Don't Sell Your Winners Too Soon

Many investors worry too much about when to buy a stock and too little about when to sell it. Often, they sell when a stock reaches a target price and then reinvest the money in another stock. People who use this technique tend to be traders rather than long-term investors.

Many professional money managers agree that you can't make much money by frequent trading. Rather, they say, you must hold the winners for the long term to compensate for the inevitable losers. Traders, on the other hand, generally argue that the most significant moves happen at the beginning and later taper off.

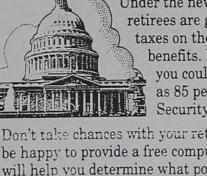

One advantage in long-term investing over short-term trading is that you generally know more about a company you've owned for a while than the one you plan to buy never sell winners. One way to your profits. Long-term investing take profits is to gradually scale down a winning investment. For consider the costs of in-and-out example, if a stock has doubled in trading.

value, you might sell half of your shares. That way you have preserved your original capital without completely liquidating your investment and giving up all chance of additional gains. You might consider the same strategy if your portfolio is overconcentrated in one stock.

You should, though, consider selling ALL of your holdings in a particular stock when the fundamental reasons for which you bought it change. Investors should try to buy value at reasonable prices. Eventually, a stock may reach a point when it is no longer a value. Once a stock becomes overvalued, it's just as likely to underperform as it is to overperform. That's when you should carefully consider getting
