HOPE FOR ORIENT AGAIN EXPRESSED

Roger B. Williams, Jr., N. Y. Favorable Impressed After Trip From Wichita to Chihuahua.

PLANS DETAILED STUDY

First Step is Connection Through Chihuahua—Conditions in Mexico Better Than Expected.

Definite possibility that the Orient railway will be re-financed, re-organized and completed is seen in statements made here by Roger B. Williams of New York City, who passed through Sweetwater Saturday en route to New York.

A thorough investigation relative to refinancing the Orient railroad at the present time, was completed in El Paso Friday by Roger B. Williams Jr. of the firm of Roger B. Williams Jr. and Co., of 67 Wall Street, New York. With officials of the road, Mr. Williams covered the property from Wichita, Kan., to a point 40 miles beyond the end of the rails on the mountain division at Sanchez, Chihuahua. After a final conference in El Paso with W. T. Kemper, receiver, and Clifford Histed, general solicitor, Mr. Williams expressed himself as being very favorably impressed with the possibilities of the Orient and is on his way to New York to arrange for a more detailed study of the road which will determine the feasibility of proceeding with the re-organization.

Mr. Williams was not prepared to announce the plan of reorganization which he has in mind if further investigation substantiates his first impression. He declared several million dollars will be required, less than a tenth of which will be spent in Mexico. He was especially pleased with the conditions of the motive power and the road bed.

"This investigation has proved conclusively to me," said Mr. Williams, "that the logical step to be first undertaken is the connection of the Orient line through to Chihuahua. This would require about 150 miles of easy construction. It is obvious that the through line will prove beneficial to connecting carriers in Mexico.

"I believe the development of the territory served by the road in Kansas, Oklahoma and Texas has reached a point where the traffic it originates will maintain it without further operating deficits. Perhaps the most pleasant surprise to me was the prosperity and possibilities of the territory exclusively served by the Orient in these States.

"The condition of the line in Mexico was much better than I expected. East and west of Chihuahua the road is earning operating expenses despite the fact that traffic is limited to local freight. The short line on the west coast from Topolobampo to Fuerte is earning well from the tomato and sugar growing districts which it serves.

"The fertile and well watered valleys west of Chihuahua are being developed by Mennonites from Canada who were colonizing there in large groups. Lumber operations are in progress on the mountain division where reforestation is rapid and erosion does not occur. All this means increasing and diversified traffic."

Mergers were not considered in the investigation. This is taken to be an official denial to the many rumors regarding such a disposition of the property.

GOOD RAIN FALL GENERAL FRIDAY

Rain Belt From Maryneal to Lamesa East Beyond Abilene, Leaves Sweetwater Out.

BRINGS HEAT RELIEF

Helps Crops, Cheers Everybody Up—Rain on North, Mised Lubbock and Post City.

General rain Friday night to the South and West of Sweetwater, extending from Maryneal and Odessa as far North as Lamesa, Snyder and Hamlin, and East beyond Abilene, was of great benefit to the crops, served to break a protracted siege of hot weather, and cheered everybody up immensely despite the fact that Sweetwater received but .06 of an inch.

The rain, traveling from the northwest, extended from Odessa eastward. It missed Lubbock and Post City on the North, and established its Southern boundary at Maryneal. A section several miles long between Herndon Station and Trent received a good rain.

The T-P reported rain all along the line as far west as Odessa. The report received by the Southwestern Bell Telephone company follows: Big Spring, shower; Colorado, .72 inches; Loran and Hermleigh, good rain; Hamlin and Abilene, good showers; Snyder, one-third of an inch; Lamesa, big rain; Sylvester, good rain; Lubbock and Post City, no rain; Maryneal high rain.

MAN FOUND DEAD BESIDE HIGHWAY

Mystery in Death of Aged Man to be Investigated by Officers—Child-dred Make Discovery.

REPORT NATURAL DEATH

Inquest Held Saturday Afternoon—Handbag Near Body—Dressed in Overalls, Heavy Shirt.

Mystery surrounds the death and identity of a man found early Saturday afternoon two miles east of Sweetwater on the Mose Newman ranch, near the Sweetwater-Abilene Highway, and although scores of people visited the Johnson undertaking parlors Saturday to look at the corpse, no one has been able to furnish clues of how the man met death or who he was.

The body was discovered in short weeds beneath a mesquite tree by the Calloway children, it is reported, shortly afternoon Saturday. The ranch is rented by Mr. Calloway. The man, according to officers, had been dead a week or ten days. A small hand bag was found by his side.

Officers and an undertaker who were notified brought the body to town and after an inquest which was held late Saturday, the body was buried.

At the inquest, held by Justice of the Peace Brashear and County Health Officer Fortner, the death was reported to be due from natural causes, but it is stated that further investigation will be made of the affair.

The flesh of the corpse had practically disappeared, and he was little more than a skeleton. Unless well known, the man would have been hard to recognize, it is reported. A few gray hairs in his head indicated that he was an old man. He was dressed in blue overalls, a heavy brown shirt and wore a blue and white necktie.

A leather wallet in his pocket contained $15.65, while in the hand bag were two cheap watches, three razors and a few articles of clothing. The body was found lying beneath a tree and insects and worms had eaten most of the flesh from the face. The corpse was only about 20 steps from the main highway.

LAY WATER LINE

Main to Country Club Addition to be Tied On To Gyp Plant Line Sunday Morning.

The plant of the U. S. Gypsum Co., will shut down for three hours Sunday morning, according to Water Commissioner Musgrove, while workmen on the water line to the Country Club addition, tie on to the plant water line. The connection will be behind the gyp meter, and from the gyp line, the Country Club addition pipe will run north along the new addition.

Both meters are about 100 feet inside the city limits, it is stated by Musgrove. Workmen have been busy for nearly a week laying the line to the new addition, which is being opened by Abshire and Jeffries.

Three houses in the new addition are reported under construction, and the frame work on one is completed. The addition is expected to build up rapidly.

CLUBMAN SHOT

Failure to Raise Crippled Hand Causes Death of Chicagoan in Holdup by Five Bandits.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 19.—Frank Zahour, wealthy clubman, was shot and instantly killed here today because he failed to raise his right hand, which was crippled, in a hold-up of the "Up Town" Club, in the exclusive North Shore District.

Five bandits entered the club and commanded "throw up your hands." Zahour hoisted his left arm, but was unable to raise his right, which was partly paralyzed. Believing he was attempting to draw a revolver, one of the bandits shot.

Zahour died instantly. The bandits fled in an automobile without any further attempt to secure money.

Shooting of Brother-in-Law Who Beat Killer's Sister Justifiable, Court Holds.

By The United Press. TEXARKANA, Texas, July 19.—John Martin, who shot and killed his brother-in-law, Davis Reed, after a quarrel had been precipitated when Martin warned Reed not to beat his wife, Martin's sister, was freed in municipal court today.

The court held that the killing was justifiable. Mrs. Reed testified that her husband was the aggressor, and shot Martin through the neck. Her brother then raised to a sitting posture and shot Reed through the heart, killing him instantly.

Mrs. Reed testified that her husband had beaten her the night before the shooting.

Klan Lifts Mask. Special to The Reporter. SAN ANGELO, Texas, July 19.—In order to evade a city ordinance prohibiting anyone from appearing in disguise, members of the Ku Klux Klan pulled back their masks when they paraded here Friday night. Klansmen and women from Big Spring, Brady, Coleman, Miles, and other cities numbering about 250 were in line. When the parade started, the city's big electric "Welcome" sign was mysteriously turned off, and remained dark the rest of the evening.

Dawn to Dusk Flier Passed Over City, Aviator Here Says

According to Lieut. Rice of Kelly Field, who alighted here Saturday afternoon to take on fuel before continuing his flight to Plainview, the airplane which flew over Sweetwater early this morning was a plane from Kelly Field and contained Lieut. Maughan, the famous "dawn to dusk" flyer who recently crossed the continent during daylight.

Maughan has been assigned to Kelly Field, at San Antonio, Rice stated, and was enroute to Utah. He circled the city twice then headed west toward Colorado.

Lieut. Rice, accompanied by a Major spent several hours here. They left at 2 o'clock and are expected to pass over Sweetwater again Sunday.

QUANDARY OVER WHEELERS ACT

Acceptancy of Vice Presidential Nomination on Independent Ticket Puzzles Leaders.

PROGRESSIVES REJOICE

"Adds Material Strength" La Follette Says—No Predictions Made on Election Results.

By The United Press.

WASHINGTON, D. C., July 19.—Political confusion was converted into chaos today by the action of Senator Burton K. Wheeler, Montana, in accepting the nomination for vice president on the Independent ticket with Senator Robert M. La Follette.

Wheeler's action, coming in the midst of an already complicated political situation, completely upset the calculations of the party managers. In all three camps, Republican, Democrat, and Independent, claims were made, but privately leaders admitted that they were at sea.

No unbiased observer was willing to hazard a prediction on the outcome of the November elections. That Wheeler will add material strength to the Independent ticket was conceded freely. Neither the Democrats nor Republican managers were able to determine which party would suffer more from the presence of the Third Party in the field, but Wheeler's step increased their worries.

From La Follette on down his acceptance was joy to Independent leaders. La Follette said that Wheeler's candidacy "added considerable strength to the Independent ticket" which afforded the voters an opportunity not only "for the Independent, but for citizens affiliated with any party."

Plans for the campaign were virtually completed by the national committee of the Conference for Progressive Political Action today. Representative John W. Nelson, Wisconsin, said that La Follette would wage the constructive campaign, while Wheeler would carry on a crusade for clean government.

Jack Patterson, former manager of the Southwestern Bell Telephone Company in this section, passed through Sweetwater Saturday on his way to Fort Worth, where he was recently transferred by the telephone company.

Harry Collins is in Fort Worth on business. He will also visit Dallas before his return.

MORE MEMBERS IS GOAL OF LEGION

Oscar McDonald Post to Stage Extensive Drive Among Ex-Service Men of This Section.

WATERMELON FEED THURSDAY

Campaign Opens With Party at City Lake—State Convention Plans Talked at Meeting.

Plans for an extensive membership drive to be opened by a free watermelon supper at the City Lake Thursday, report on the district meeting at Ballinger and plans for attending the State Convention at Brownwood in August were the high spots in the called meeting of the Oscar McDonald Post of the American Legion at the Court House Thursday night. A large attendance was present and the members enthusiastically discussed plans for the coming year, when the membership is expected to be doubled by a campaign for new members that will reach all over this section.

The watermelon supper will open up this section in every ex-soldier in this section is invited to the feed where fifty big melons or more will be served to the buddies. The Sweetwater Booster Band is also invited to participate in the feast, and will furnish music for the occasion. Speeches will be made and information and explanation of the bonus insurance will be given. The supper will be held at the City Lake at 6:45 Thursday evening.

A report was given of the meeting of Posts in the 17th district at Ballinger July 15. It was stated that Sweetwater has a sure chance of getting the district meeting in January, the October meeting going to Ranger. In line with their membership drive, the Legion voted to do away with the Post dues during the campaign, however the State and National dues will continue to be paid. The Post now has a membership of 200 and expects to double this number during the first few weeks of the campaign.

The subject was touched on having a celebration on November 11, to appropriately observe Armistice Day. A noted speaker will probably be brought to Sweetwater for the occasion.

Legion members were instructed to send in their bonus papers as soon as possible to obtain quicker and more satisfactory issuance of bonus insurance.

The Post voted an approval to the aid given the sick soldier, Earl B. Bishop during his stop-over in Sweetwater, Wednesday and Thursday.

Several members announced their intentions of attending the State Convention of the Legion at Brownwood, August 18 and 19. A re-union of the famous 90th Division will be held during those days, and ex-soldiers here who were in that division were urged to attend. Post Commander Herrington, who was in the 90th Division, announced his intentions of joining in the re-union, and the matter was discussed of sending a delegate to Brownwood a few days before the convention opened to aid in staging the affair.

GUARDS RETURN

Sweetwater Unit Scheduled to Return From Fort Crockett on Special Sunday Morning.

After two weeks in camp at Fort Crockett, Galveston, members of the Sweetwater unit of the National Guard, Headquarters Company, 71st Infantry Brigade, Captain Sidney C. Mason, commanding, are scheduled to arrive in Sweetwater on a special train over the Santa Fe at 10 o'clock Sunday morning.

Practically the full strength of the guard unit left here July 4 for the annual encampment of the State troops. Word received by friends and relatives of the guardsmen during the encampment indicated that the men thoroughly enjoyed their outing, and that a great deal of their time was spent in swimming in the Gulf and other recreation.

Captain Oscar Stephenson, commanding the veterinary detachment, went ahead of the local unit to camp, and joined them at Fort Crockett.

A large delegation is expected to be on hand at the Santa Fe station when the guardsmen arrive this morning.

BROTHER CHARLES LIKES GRAPE JUICE

Democratic Nominee for Vice-President Is Bald and Goes In For Skull Caps.

REGARDED AS PLAIN FOLKS

Is Not Orator That W. J. is But Has Reputation of Being Better Organizer.

LINCOLN, Neb., July 19.—Charles Wayland Bryan, Democratic nominee for vice-president, is bald.

Like his famous brother, William J., he goes in for grape juice and skull caps.

But where the "Commoner" is of medium height and leaning to corpulence, "Brother Charley" is a big, upstanding man.

lots of pep. He holds his head up, shoulders, back and walks with swinging, vigorous stride. And he has a bristling white mustache whereas William J. is smooth of face.

They call Charles Bryana "Brother Charley" because for more than 20 years he has lived in the shadow of his brother's greater fame.

But he has been THE Bryan in Nebraska ever since his election to the governorship in 1922. He has been the acknowledged leader of the state's dry forces ever since William J. quit Nebraska for Florida.

The new Bryan in national politics is 57 and has lived in Nebraska for 31 years, coming here from Salem, Ill., where he was born.

He was a traveling cigar salesman for a time. Then when his brother got important enough to have a private secretary, "Brother Charley" got the job.

Later he was publisher of his brother's paper, the Commoner. Still later he was publisher and editor.

He was mayor of Lincoln from 1915 to 1917. He believes in municipal ownership of public utilities. In fact, he established a municipal coal yard in Lincoln and saved users $4 a ton.

"Brother Charley" is not the orator that William J. is. But he has the reputation of being a better organizer.

He has always followed and supported the political theories of his brother, and William J. is said to have more confidence in the political opinion of "Brother Charley" than of any of his other associates.

As tribute to his political shrewdness he is credited with an important part in the defeat of Champ Clark and nomination of Woodrow Wilson in the 1912 Democratic convention.

The Bryans are regarded hereabouts as "plain folks", rather than "society" people.

They belong to the Presbyterian church and "Brother Charley" is an ardent churchman as Brother Bill. The Bryans have two children, a son, who was a captain in the U. S. army, and a daughter, whose wedding plans have just been an-

VOTERS.

Among Americans entitled to vote for President in November will be 4,300,000 illiterates who cannot read. And 3,000,000 of them are native-born, not imported residents. These figures are the estimates by National Education Association, and are based on census reports.

The voter who can not read the newspapers, unless he has the papers read to him has to form his opinions from gossip he hears. Such has always been the rule. Presto! this year they have the radio to bring candidates' speeches to them. Radio is a new factor in national politics. How powerful!

VIGILANTES.

The old-time Kansas Anti-Horse Thief Association is being revived to campaign against sweet potatoes who use public highways for getting parties, mostly in autos.

As a matter of fact, there aren't any more petting parties now than there used to be. Ask any veteran livery stablekeeper about "hoss and rigs" he used to rent to young fellows "sparking" their sweethearts.

Sex appeal is about the same in one generation as in another. When it seems intensified, it's usually a case of less secrecy.

HEALTHIER.

Americans were healthier the first three months of 1924 than ever before in January, February and March. So reports a big insurance company, the Metropolitan Life, whose policyholders number into the millions.

Deaths from diphtheria dropped decidedly. Scarlet fever also. Flu's death toll was small. Tuberculosis mortality showed a "gratifying decline." Deaths from diabetes were 23 per cent fewer than a year ago.

Science is curbing the ancient diseases. Nature will send new maladies to take their places. Already, for instance, nervous ailments are increasing alarmingly.

WHISKERS.

Taxpayers, who have to pay levies at every turn, can be glad they didn't live in Russia a couple of centuries ago. Peter, the Great taxed beards. This was more because he hated whiskers than to raise money for his treasury.

Pete was wise. The result of his beard tax was to make most of the people shave.

Taxation curbs the use of things. It paralyzes. It even extinguishes, kills—carried to extremes.

THEY WERE BULLS!

"I personally killed 30,000 head of buffalo during old hunting days on the Kansas prairie," reminisces Geo. W. Brown, pioneer, known as "Hoodoo" Brown.

The killing was for the hides, $2 and $3 apiece.

"Of course, I didn't get the money," Brown explains. "I was working for others."

Nine-tenths of the population will nod understandingly.

BOOMERANG.

Nature doesn't want us to be too healthy. Her purpose is to kill us off after we've blundered along awhile, to make room for newcomers.

Science is getting fevers, diabetes and tuberculosis under control. Nerve and glandular maladies correspondingly increase. Like an individual—medicine frequently "cures" one organ of the body by wrecking another.

So with economics and politics. In solving one problem we almost invariably create several new ones.

RICH REPEATS

Former Swatter Ace Again Heavy in Encounter With Volstead, Sports Journal Says.

Murray Richburg, erstwhile Swatter pitching Ace in the good old days and equally famous for his average along the great "White Way," is up to his old tricks in the Southern Association, according to reports in the current issue of the St. Louis Sporting News.

That old man Volstead hit one of "Rich's" curves for a row of cushions is shown by the following item clipped from the Sporting News:

M. A. "Red" Richburg, Little Rock pitcher, who recently had a run-in with Mr. Volstead's well known law, will be busy paying off fines for some time to come. First Richburg was indefinitely suspended by the team management for violation of training rules and misconduct. A fine of $200 was also levied by the club. Red was out on $400 bond on the liquor charge and he failed to appear when his case was called. So the bond was forfeited. When the judge finally got him into court the pitcher was fined $100 and costs for transporting liquor and $500 for driving an automobile while intoxicated.

That kindly and brotherly feeling between a soldier and his buddy did not end with the World War.

This fact was demonstrated Wednesday when Miss Fray, R. N., arrived in Sweetwater over the Santa Fe at 4 o'clock with an ex-soldier, Earl B. Bishop, in her charge, from a government hospital at Whipple Barracks, Ariz., where Bishop has been in care of army physicians since the war. Bishop is seriously ill, and is being taken back to his home in Alexander, Ark.

When the two were taken from the train, a conductor notified members of the Oscar McDonald Post of the American Legion here who went at once to the station to aid in any way the nurse and her charge. A Wright ambulance carried the ex-soldier to the Grogan Wells Sanatorium where old time dough boys of Sweetwater made him comfortable for the night, chatted with him, and made a little happier their buddy who is going back home to die.

Feeling better rested and somewhat strengthened Thursday morning, Bishop and his nurse were seen to the train by Legion members and left on the east bound T-P for the last lap of their journey homeward. —Sweetwater Reporter.

Through the press, we wish to thank the Oscar McDonald Post of the American Legion for their kindness and favors rendered through our stay at a local sanatorium in Sweetwater on our way from Whipple Barracks, Ariz., to Alexander, Ark. TEXAS DOES IT DIFFERENTLY.

Front Dallas Times-Herald.
They hanged Walter Muir, aged 21, up in Canada the other day. We are sorry. There ought to be another than this life-snapping way to deal with murders. However, that's not our point now. Our point is that these Canadians enforce the law. Consequently their homicide record is small.
Great effort was made to save Muir's life. A countess pled for him. High officials pled for him. To no avail. The appeals court said: "Here are the facts: Muir killed a man in such a manner as under our laws calls for the death penalty. He had a fair trial. He must hang. As between pardoning Muir and protecting society, the latter is vastly more important."
We do things differently down here. Let us picture the Muir trial as it would be in Texas:
Muir killed Laviolette when the latter struck Muir's crippled companion in an argument over a hunting dog. Down here this crippled companion would have been brought into court on a stretcher. Witnesses would have testified that the blow struck by Laviolette had completely paralyzed him. From somewhere the defense lawyer would have dug up the cripple's faithful wife. She would have sat by his side holding his hand during the trial. Old Blue, the faithful hunting hound, would have been there, too. The testimony would have developed the fact that once when the cripple and his faithful wife were snowbound without a bite faithful Blue bounded out into the blizzard and brought in a rabbit, the subsequent stew saving two human lives. Eighteen witnesses would have testified that Laviolette made a hip pocked movement. The defense lawyer would have ruined a score of handkerchiefs shedding tears over the Damon and Pythias, the Jonathan and David, friendship existing between Muir and the cripple.

Muir would have wept.
The cripple would have wept.
The cripple's faithful old wife would have wept.
Old Blue, the faithful hunting hound, would have wept.
The audience would have wept.
The jury would have wept and brought in a not guilty verdict five minutes after it got the case.
That's the way we do things down in Texas.
Why is it that our homicide record is such a scarlet shame to the State?

SPUD CROCKETT TEST SOON.

Shannon Shot Falls to Bring Oil; Mosaic Well Fishing.
The derrick is up and the water well is drilled for the test for oil which the Crockett Drilling Syndicate will put down on section 9, block 9, in Reagan County, some 2 1-3 miles almost due east of Big Lake No. 11, according to A. W. Little, superintendent, who was here Thursday and Friday. There is a possibility that the rig from the Shannon well may be moved onto this location, but more probable that a contract will be left. Spudding in, in either event, is expected to take place by Aug. 1.
Shooting of the Crockett Drilling Syndicate's well on the Crockett County ranch of J. M. Shannon of San Angelo on Thursday, July 19, failed to bring oil in commercial quantity. Two hundred quarts of nitroglycerine were touched off from 2,611 to 2,665 feet, but did not appreciably loosen up the tight oil-bearing formation.
The Shannon well will be plugged and abandoned, and a new well will be drilled on the Shannon ranch, somewhere in the immediate vicinity. The Shannon, now finished, is on section 22, block Q, about fifteen miles south of the discovery Santa Rita well in Reagan County, and some forty to forty-five miles due west of Ozona. The Syndicate's well on the ranch of Robert Massey

PRAISES CHRYSLER Bankhead Official Writes Toler of Trip.

Declaring that for the first time in his driving experience he had the experience of not being passed by anything on the road, but had the thrill of passing every car found in front upon topping a hill or rounding a curve, J. M. DeArmond, vice president of the Bankhead National Highway Association, highly praises the Chrysler Six in a letter to Hubert Toler, Sweetwater dealer.

High points on the 1,500 mile journey from Midland, Texas, western headquarters of the association, to Albuquerque, N. M., where the recent national highway convention was held, included an average of better than 20 miles per gallon of gasoline, perfect control of the car traveling at a high rate of speed, elimination of sidesway, successful working of the four wheel brakes, and the fact that the entire trip was made on two quarts of oil and one quart of water. "The performance of this car was indeed a revelation to me and I can not praise it too highly," Mr. DeArmond wrote. "I congratulate you in selecting this car because it is a sure winner."

GYPSY URGE COSTS MILLIONS.

Furniture Breakage and Moving Van Bill Make Staggering Total.

From the Nation's Business. Moving day bills make impressive totals. The shift of population in Chicago last year, for illustration, included 267,000 families, say engineers of a gas company. They base their figures on the number of "turn on" orders for gas. If all the families were blessed—or cursed—with worldly goods, and the transfer men levied tribute, say $30 on each move, the moving-van bill would amount to more than 11 million dollars. And every move goes hard with furniture and furnishings—an additional expenditure of 10 million dollars is reported for new things to put in new homes. No one has been able to appraise the loss of time from work, or the expenditures for meals outside the homes.

Some guessing has been done about the causes of the Maytime quest for new abodes—high rentals, the perpetual juggling to keep income even with outgo, and the gypsy urge for change have consideration. Landlords still hold a sort of feudal dominion over tenants, and it maybe that a year on one manorial estate is all the purse will bear. Certainly tenants are of brief fealty to rented domiciles. Their independence is deeper than belief that dumb waiters tell no tales; their roving spirit has florid expression in a refrain of moving day.

"Millions for moving, but not one cent for landlords."

But if an itching palm will take from the purse. "Pay or move," says the landlord. "Pay or stay," says the moving man. Does it pay to move?

extra votes in addition to regular votes allowed on the subscription. With more than 20,000 votes to their credit candidates will be well started on their way to the ownership of an automobile.

Because of the many and valuable prizes many candidates are expected to enter from all the adjoining counties. The benefit of getting an immediate start is obvious. The man or woman who is the first to enter in his or her territory will have the advantage of having his or her candidacy well known.

Friends Can Help Candidates.

It is not expected that candidates will depend entirely on their own efforts to win one of the handsome valuable prizes. They will ask their friends to help them. In business or pleasure, friends are a most valuable asset. This is also true in this campaign, for it will be one in which spare time, as applied, will bring tremendous dividends.

When a candidate asks a person to subscribe to The Reporter, he is a salesman for a newspaper which is predominant in its field. The Reporter spares neither time nor expense to satisfy its readers and bring to the hearthstone clean, complete and authentic information as to what the world is doing every twenty-four hours of the day.

After reading the details of The Reporter's record-breaking offer elsewhere in today's paper, candidates are urged to communicate at once with the Campaign Manager, who will give callers the benefit of his long experience, with advice and suggestions. Many persons will be surprised to learn how easy it is to win an automobile in return for a little systematic effort.

ANNUAL POULTRY SHOW DATE SET

Nolan County Breeders to Expect 1,000 Fancy Birds in Pens, December 16, 17, 18.

INCREASE LOCAL VALUES
Benefit of Shows Seen in Increased Entries and Financial Gain in Sweetwater Sales.

December 16, 17, 18, were the dates set for the third Annual Poultry Show of the Nolan County Poultry Breeders Association at a meeting held in Sweetwater the early part of the week. Walter Burton of Arlington, Superintendent of the Poultry Department of the Dallas Fair and one of the most noted experts in Texas will judge the show.

R. Lanier presided at the meeting with Jess Mauzey, George Shaffer, H. M. Rose and other poultry breeders of the county in attendance.

The Value of Nolan County poultry and products have very nearly doubled since the inauguration of the annual poultry shows, those who are acquainted with the situation state. At the first show, there were nearly 200 birds on exhibition. At the second annual show held last year this increased to nearly 500 and the third show this year expected to bring more than 1,000 fancy birds to the show pens. Folks who thought chickens were chickens learned the difference when they saw the fancy strains at the poultry show and each year more people have become interested in better bred poultry with better results financially and enhanced values.

The Sweetwater hatchery has also been a decisive factor in the increase of poultry stock in the county, many thousands of baby chicks being delivered to poultrymen.

The Rhode Island Reds and White Leghorns are breeds seemingly most favored with others not so numerically plentiful. Some exceptionally fancy birds in these and other breeds are assured for the show, breeders say.

The banner turkey crop of last year will not be duplicated this year according to reports. The cold wet backward spring was not favorable for young turkeys and as a result there will not be so many of these Thanksgiving birds for market as is usually the case.

Mr. and Mrs. George Spavy and son of Dallas arrived Saturday to visit their sister, Mrs. I. S. Focht and family for the week-end.

BACKWELL HOPES FOR GOOD CROP

Heat Damage to Early Feed Stuff Only Possible Complaint in South Nolan County.

GENERAL OUTLOOK GOOD
Road Improvement Another Phase of Progress—Crops Do Not Need Immediate Rain.

By Staff Correspondent.
BLACKWELL, Texas, July 19.—With normal conditions existing, as to both crops and business, merchants and farmers in the south end of Nolan County appear to be individually and collectively optimistic, according to expressions heard over the entire section.

Aside from the early feed stuff, which, by stretching a point, might possibly have suffered slightly from continued heat waves, there apparently is not a complaint to register. Damage accruing from hoppers, lice and other pests, taken on the whole, is but a negligible item and cotton, in particular, appears to be making a rapid stride toward a bumper crop.

After interviewing old time residents and business men over the entire southern portion of Nolan County one is led to believe that the Fall of 1924 will result in a general financial harvest. One farmer remarked that at no time in many seasons has the general outlook been more pleasing and especially is this true when attention is called to the fact that crops are not in need of an immediate rain. A rare thing in the middle of July.

What is equally important is the absolute lack of pessimistic reports emanating from that corner of Nolan County; it is indeed a rare thing to hear an adverse remark and unless unforeseen conditions arise, overnight, so to speak, old Santa Claus will have a heavy load to carry on a certain day in December.

Still another phase of progress is noted in the rebuilding of roads in the south portion; extensive work is being accomplished on the main highway between Sweetwater and Nolan-Dora communities and repair work is being done on the Sweetwater-Blackwell road. "We are getting ready for a busy Fall," in a remark heard on the harvest fields and had stopped every side.

ATTENDS JUBILEE

Bullock to Spend Ten Days on Louisville Trips

H. A. Bullock of the Bullock Implement Co., left Saturday morning to attend the Avery Jubilee, marking the 100th birthday of the B. F. Avery and Son Plow Co., at Louisville, Ky. B. R. Starkey, Avery salesman of Sweetwater, and a salesman from the Bryant & Link Co., of Snyder also made the trip.

Bullock was chosen as one of the winning Avery dealers, and is the guest of the company at the Jubilee. The nine points on which the winners were chosen were laying out territory, mailing list, canvassing of prospects, local advertising, floor and window displays, display of agency sign, stock of implements, and scientific arrangement of stock.

To properly observe the Jubilee, dealers will sit at the conference table and plan for the coming year. An entire floor at the Seelbach Hotel has been reserved. Bullock expects to be away for ten days, and will visit his uncle at Franklinton, Ky., before returning.

DISQUALIFYING JURORS

Harris Case Set For Monday Morning—Defendant Gets Bath.

Eight jurors were disqualified Friday in the case of State vs. C. B. Harris, when after questioning by John Ford, lawyer for the defendant, they stated that they had previously formed an opinion of the case. They were dismissed and the trial set by Judge Mauzey for 9 o'clock Monday. The lawyer for the defendant was appointed by the court, after failure to find a lawyer who would take the case.

Harris is charged with insanity, following a fight on the street Thursday when he is alleged to have attacked J. T. Johnson with a knife.

The prisoner, while in the county jail, Friday, was given a bath by others in the lock-up, and appeared in court in new clothes, purchased by officers. His old clothes were burned.

$2,000 Automobile AND Prize Campaign

For Subscriptions Secured to The Reporter As Specified In Rules and Regulations

$1,200.00 Maxwell Sport Model Automobile and Other Awards FREE August 30th, 1924

With one of the grandest arrays of prizes ever offered by a newspaper as rewards which will quicken ambitions of every alert man and woman, the greatest prize campaign ever staged in Sweetwater for COUNTY CIRCULATION is today announced by the Sweetwater Reporter. Today—RIGHT NOW—is none too soon for determined workers to start in the race for the alluring prizes.

Instead of expending the amount invested in these prizes hiring solicitors, it adopts the policy of sharing liberally with its readers for comparatively little effort on their part.

The Reporter is already first in circulation, on daily, Sunday and weekly distribution in this territory. Staging this campaign is then to add to this supremacy and at the same time give many volunteer workers an opportunity to contest for prizes or share in the liberal commissions.

Deep down in everyone's heart there is a very real desire to own an automobile. One to call one's very own. This is a fine and worthy ambition which, when gratified, brings happiness and contentment of the finest sort.

To earn an automobile, and particularly such an automobile of heart's desire as a MAXWELL, usually takes the work and savings of a lifetime. But you have a chance to win this one in a few short weeks, by using your ambition and spare time in collecting in the Reporter's campaign.

How Prizes are Awarded

The Maxwell automobile will be awarded to the candidate, regardless of where he or she lives, who obtains the highest number of credits during the campaign. After the automobile has been awarded, the other prizes will be awarded to the next highest candidate in the order of their standing in the campaign. Disinterested judges will count the votes.

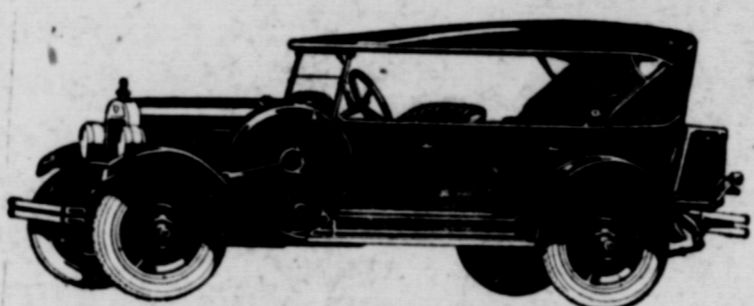

Twenty per cent cash commission to all non-prize winners who turn in at least two new subscriptions each week from the time they enter the campaign until the close.

While you are thinking of entering this campaign some one else may be seeing your friends for votes.

CANDIDATES FILE CAMPAIGN COSTS

Total of 26 Reports, $1,572.13, Shows Garage Men and Printers Get Big Shares.

REPORTS FROM $5 TO $100

Second Report Was Due Wednesday—Roscoe Candidate For Justice of Peace Files Lowest Report.

Sombody makes money out of these office seekers' campaigns, according to the many reports filed by the candidates with the county clerk, a process prescribed by law which shows the exact amount each candidate spends in his or her campaign. Twenty-six reports have been filed up to Wednesday morning, the majority being first reports, while a few were the second reports of the candidates which must be filed at least ten days before the primary. Wednesday was the last day in which the second report could be filed.

The 26 reports showed a total of $1,572.13 spent by county, precinct and district candidates so far in the campaign. Garages and printers seemed to have been the fortunate ones, according to the majority of the statements, as garage repairs, gasoline and printing received the biggest part of the $1,572.13, although a varying price of from large to small was charged for printing the names on the ballots.

Gus Farrar, candidate for re-election to the office of County Clerk, seemed to have gone the strongest of any candidate who has so far reported, his total expense in two statements reaching $162.35. Of this amount, $100 was paid for the printing his name on the ballots. Low score goes to P. A. Smith of Roscoe, candidate for Justice of the Peace, precinct 5. Mr. Smith got away with only a $5.00 expense account, this being the amount he paid for his name on the ballots, his report shows.

Other reports submitted were those of John H. Cochran Jr., candidate for County Judge, $105; A. S. Mauzey, candidate for County Judge, first report, $90.50, second report, $15.50; Jack Yarborough, for sheriff, $26.50; Jim Butler, candidate for Tax Collector, $120.78; Miss Willie Elliott, candidate for re-election for Tax Collector, $125.78, two reports; R. D. Cox, for re-election for County Attorney, $55, two reports; Will H. Scott, for County Superintendent, $110, two reports; I. W. Brashear, candidate for re-election to Justice of the Peace, precinct 1, $19; Lloyd Rogers, for public weigher, $65; H. P. Harkins, for Tax Assessor, $108.50; Miss Minnie E. Fowler, for re-election County Superintendent, $142.95, two reports; B. F. Goodnight, for Public Weigher, precinct 5, $30.07, two reports; W. T. Hightower, for re-election County Treasurer, $67, two reports; W. H. Thompson, for Commissioner Precinct 1, $36; Dan Childress for re-election District Clerk, $77.50; J. C. Gilliam, for County Superintendent, $75. A report was filed by John Ford for the Lynch Davidson for Governor Club, showing $34.70 spent by that organization for advertising when Davidson spoke here some time ago.

ROSCOE REPORTS GOOD PROSPECTS

General Crop Conditions, Cotton Particularly, Look Good; Slight Damage by Lice.

EXPECT BUSY FALL SEASON

General Rain Needed, Although Cotton Does Not Suffer—Little Interest in Politics.

By Staff Correspondent.

ROSCOE, Texas, July 18.—Aside from a slight invasion of lice and some damage on the outskirts, crop conditions in general and cotton in particular, especially for this period of the year, are exceptionally good in the immediate vicinity of Roscoe and the surrounding territory, according to reports of close observance in that section.

While a general rain would quite naturally be welcomed it is stated that the cotton crop is progressing splendidly and is by no means suffering from lack of moisture. Feed stuffs also look set for a good season but would be generally benefitted by a good rain.

"We are looking forward to a busy fall," said John Harkins recently. "While business conditions are just a little slack at this time, we have every reason to believe things will pick up; we expect, and generally get, a dull season at this time of the year and therefore are prepared for it. The outlook is certainly optimistic for a busy fall and Roscoe business men and farmers have no complaint to register."

The same trend of opinion prevailed among a majority of Roscoe merchants and bankers which probably accounts for that thriving little city being one of the liveliest communities in Nolan County.

Will Worthy of Worthy Bros., reflected the same opinion. "At this time of the year I believe merchants in every vicinity are accustomed to going through a dull period. Our business here is normal but we certainly do believe that things will begin to hum long before the hot weather subsides. Cotton is doing well; a few farmers report a discovery of lice and a few hoppers are hindering things but there is nothing to be alarmed about and we can go a long way yet before we begin to holler for rain. I do notice an unusual lack of interest in politics; no one is apparently worried about the election, if that's of any interest," Mr. Worthy concluded.

Miss Latham Heads Department.

Miss Helen Latham of Abilene, former teacher in the Sweetwater school, has been elected head of the history department of the schools at Donna, Texas, in the Lower Rio Grande Valley, at a salary of $160 a month, according to word received here. Miss Latham has not applied for the position, and did not intend teaching until she was notified of her election at Donna, and that her reply would determine the election of another teacher.

A building permit has been issued by the City Secretary to N. N. Cather for the construction of a residence on lot 3, block 47, estimated cost of building $700. S. Q. Richardson is contractor.
