Business Man Owes Debt to Community He Can Never Pay, Noted Author and Humorist Says.

MUST BUILD BETTER MEN

Praise For West Texas and Fund of Humor in Address—Will Sell Texas to World.

That every man owes a debt to his community that he can never pay, and that to build better business you must build better men, were the outstanding subjects discussed Monday night by Jamie Heron, humorist, poet and lecturer. A large crowd heard the famous Scotchman deliver, in an original and characteristic way, an unusual talk, combining his laugh-fetiching Scotch humor, original verses, and forceful points on community buildings, into a lecture that touched the hearts and won favor with every one present.

"I think we will have a perfect day in Sweetwater," Heron said, "when we all work for the good of Sweetwater. Nearly every day I have asked business men in the East how business was. Absolutely every one said business was 'rotten.' But when I came down into Texas, the answer was different. Business men here say 'business is fine, was never better.' It's because you have the right spirit here, because you can produce and grow, you have lots of land and can make money out of every available inch of land. We are going to build Texas, and I want to be in on the building. "You must build Sweetwater," he continued, "but you can't build a community until you build men. Building men and building business go together."

Heron declared that every successful man who had made a success in a community owed a great debt to the community. "No man has ever succeeded alone," he declared. Heron's lovable characteristic ideals were expressed and applauded when he declared that "there's always some good in everybody, for we are all God's creatures. Trust every man. Every man wants to be trusted. When you think evil of other man, you harm him and harm yourself."

Humility is a great factor in success, according to Heron, who often repeated that "to be big you have to be little enough to be big enough to be big."

Build Better Men.

"If we had more women, more farmers and more working men in community organizations," Heron declared, "we would have better, and stronger organizations. The community must build, it can't stand still. To build better business you must build better men. Build a bigger, better Sweetwater. Make it more beautiful, more attractive and more productive." Throughout the lecture, Heron made frequent use of his numerous poems to illustrate his talks, and won applause every time. His reciting of "Texas," "The Cootie," "Magic Valley," "Measure of a Man," all brought thunderous applause. Many of his points were also illustrated by Scotch jokes, which, told in an original way, kept the audience in laughter while he recited them off one after another.

The auditorium of the court house was comfortably filled by the time the speaker made his appearance. He was introduced by Harry Bongles of Sweetwater, and appeared here thru the efforts of Mr. Pendon of the Waco Drug Co., Berry Bowen of the Bowen Drug Store, and the Sweetwater Club.

BRITISH OBJECT

Say Elevation of Guns on American Battleships Violation of Disarmament Treaty.

By The United Press. WASHINGTON, D. C., July 30. Formal objection has been made by the British government against the elevation of guns on American battleships, increasing their range of fire.

The British contend that such action would be in violation of the Naval Disarmament Treaty signed in Washington.

PROUD OF THRASHING

Charles Dickens Licked El Paso Man, Now 83.

EL PASO, Texas, July 30.—Few Texans are really proud of having been licked, but James G. Finch, 83 years old El Paso upholsterer, wears a broad smile when he recalls how Charles Dickens the author, gave him a sound thrashing.

"Dickens caught me in his pear orchard one day when I was ten years old and gave me a good licking," Finch declared.

Finch was born and reared across the street from "Gadskill," Dickens' home. His brother was a coachman for Gladstone, and one of his most valued possessions in a cane that Gladstone used.

A Ford touring car went through Topeka the other day with a banner across the car reading: "Don't hit me, big boy. I'm getting old."—Kansas City Star.

BELIEVE RUNNERS KILLED OFFICERS

NEITHER FIRED A SHOT

Dog of One of Officers Found Shot to Death—Blame Rum Runners and Bootleggers.

By The United Press.

WILMINGTON, N. C., July 30.—Posses of 150 men searched for rum runners today, believed responsible for the murder of Deputy U. S. Marshall Lilly and Leon George, prohibition agent. The bodies of the two enforcement officers, riddled with bullets, were found in a car near a plantation near Phoenix.

Neither had fired his weapon, and a dog belonging to George was found shot to death near by. Lilly and George had been active in combatting rum runners and bootleggers along the Southeast coast, and authorities organized posses of deputies and citizens to search the country, in the belief that the officers were killed while they were pursuing whiskey peddlers.

SPEAKS TONIGHT

Dr. John T. Christian, Noted Religious Student and Author, To Give Address Here.

Dr. John T. Christian, Professor of Christian History at the Baptist Bible Institute at New Orleans, La., and author of several volumes of religious history, will speak at the First Baptist Church tonight at 8 o'clock and the general public is extended an invitation to hear him.

Dr. Christian is in Sweetwater gathering material for another volume on the History of Baptists from R. C. Crane, who has retained data from his father and grandfather, prominent in Baptist ministerial and educational circles.

In Dr. Christian's first work, he took the history of the Baptist Church from the time of the Apostles down to American Colonial days. In his second volume, upon which he is now at work Baptist History from Colonial days to the present will be treated upon. A third volume is planned, dealing with the history of the Southern Baptist Church from the time of organization in 1845 to the present. His library contains 49,000 volumes and is perhaps the largest private library in the United States.

In the course of his work he has made several trips to Europe and owing to financial conditions on the Continent, has been able to make several additions of almost priceless volumes to his own library, including a set of "Martin Luther," "Early Byzantine History," and "Latin Fathers." Dr. Christian is recognized as being one of the foremost authorities of the day on religious history.

The three army planes, roaring in perfect unison, came out of the haze above Skapper Flow and circled gracefully above the Richmond before landing on the bay. A cheer went up from hundreds of blue jackets, who had been straining their eyes for more than an hour in expectancy.

"We had a pleasant trip, although the fog gave us some trouble," Lieut. Smith told newspaper men who dashed out to meet the fliers with officers in one of the Richmond's launches.

AWAIT NEW PLAN

France and Belgium to Offer Progressive Evacuation of Ruhr, Believed in London.

By The United Press. LONDON, Eng., July 30.—The Inter-Allied Conference today the "compromise formula" devised by the French to end the 11 day deadlock.

Successive failures of the British, American, and Belgian plans, due largely to the French stand, have served to focus attention on the forth coming suggestion. Premier Herriot held intensive conversation with members of the Belgian delegation, and is expected to complete the French plan today.

The conference has been deadlocked over "defaults and sanctions," involving the questions of who is to decide whether Germany has failed to fulfill her obligations under the Experts' Plan, and what is to be done if she is adjudged in default.

France and Belgium are negotiating to offer Germany progressive evacuation in the Ruhr, the United Press learned today. The offer means that they will offer withdrawal of military forces if Germany shows good will in effectuating the Dawes program more rapidly than has been the case at the London conference.

DECLINE TO VOTE

Outlaw Oklahoma Indians Have Also Refused Citizenship.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Ok., July 30.—The outlaw snake Indians of the Creek Nation, all fullbloods who for half a century have declined to accept the responsibilities of citizenship, declined to take part wholesale in the registration of new voters in that section. Probably over 50 per cent of them registered to vote during the registration period this week. Registration of Indians among more than twenty tribes in Oklahoma probably will not alter ordinary pluralities as between democrats and republican in the State. The registration was for new voters.

ATTORNEYS MIX

Crowe Makes Efforts to Halt Medical Defense Testimony Introduced in Franks Murder Case.

By The United Press.

CHICAGO, Ill., July 30.—State's Attorney Crowe and his assistants today made a vigorous effort to prevent the admission of the long heralded "medical defense" of Nathan Leopold Jr., and Richard Loeb, murderers of Robert Franks.

A bitter fight between the State's Attorney and Clarence Darrow, chief defense counsel, opened as soon as court convened, and temporarily blocked the defense presentation of testimony.

A doctor was called to the witness stand in the first testimony for the defense, when the State rested its case. Walter Bachrach, a defense lawyer, started questioning him, but was immediately interrupted by Crowe, who demanded that the court either exclude medical testimony or impanel a jury to try the defendants for insanity.

"Your Honor, these boys have pleaded guilty," Crowe shouted, "and any attempt to introduce the question of insanity should—and must be stopped. The court has no authority to declare them sane or insane. If the question is to be honored, your Honor must, under the law, impanel a jury."

ANTHRAX PLAGUE FOUND IN STATE

Four Counties in State Quarantined in Effort to Halt Rapidly Spreading Disease.

SIX VICTIMS DIE

Death of People and Animals in Southern States Alarming—Scores of Stock Dying

By The United Press.

AUSTIN, Texas, July 30.—Outbreaks of Anthrax in Southeast Texas were reported today by Dr. L. G. Cloud, state veterinary of the Live Stock Sanitary Commission, to be growing serious, and warning was issued that every possible precaution be taken to prevent further spread of the disease that is taking a toll of human and animal lives in Arkansas, Mississippi, and Tennessee.

The infected area in Texas, according to Dr. Cloud, is in Orange, Hardin, Jefferson and Liberty counties, now all under quarantine.

He announced that the presence of anthrax in any part of the State makes it dangerous for the entire State, as the disease spreads rapidly. Every effort to eradicate the disease before it reaches epidemic form is being taken by the Texas authorities.

More Victims in Mississippi.

By The United Press. MEMPHIS, Tenn., July 30.—Two additional deaths in Mississippi from anthrax were reported today, bringing the unofficial total to six. A white man and a white girl died near Waynesboro, Miss.

The disease has extended into 29 counties of that State, according to reports of State officials and health officers, and Arkansas. Health officers express little hope of checking the disease before cold weather.

Seven new infected areas were reported from Arkansas today, and a few cases in Northern Alabama. The disease is not so wide spread in Tennessee.

FAMILIES HOLD REUNION

Mrs. Starkey, 76, Entertains With Beautiful Violin Selections.

Last Friday was a "red letter day" for the Sublett, Osborn and Starkey families, when the three families held a joint family reunion at Merkel at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ennis Osborn.

Barbecue and a picnic dinner was served on tables spread under large shade trees at the Osborn home, when 85 people partook of the beautiful dinner. Following dinner Mrs. Mollie Starkey, 76 years of age, gave a number of beautiful violin selections, playing modern music with the same versatility that she does the old time Southern tunes.

Plans were made for a similar reunion to be held at Sweetwater June 30, 1925. G. M. Sublett and W. T. Scott were appointed to prepare the program. Those who attended from Sweetwater were: Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Headrick and five children; Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Scott and son; Mrs. S. A. Scott and three children; Mr. and Mrs. G. M. Sublett and four children; Mr. and Mrs. J. C. DeBeck and two children; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Scott; and Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Hutchins and two children of Bitter Creek.

HERON

It is not often that the world—to say nothing of Sweetwater—has an opportunity of listening to a man of the caliber of Jamie Heron. An apparently inexhaustible supply of Scotch stories form the basis for a humor that is refreshingly entertaining. But beyond that is his ability to express the emotions aroused, for example, by a West Texas sunset—"as if a rainbow were grasped by either end, crushed and scattered over the Western heavens." But more than that is a keen philosophy of life, based on the laws of service to community. Sweetwater is indeed indebted to J. M. Penland, president of the Waco Drug Co., who is taking Mr. Heron on a tour of West Texas at his own expenses. Mr. Penland is gathering material for a series of magazine articles. He proposes, he says, to sell West Texas to the rest of the United States. It has been sold to him, and his audience of last evening did not think any the less of it after listening to him.

GOOD OLD DAYS

Concerning the preparations in England to celebrate, in 1932, the first use of the fork by the British, the Amarillo Post says:

Three centuries seem long ago. It is. But in 1632 when some unknown English progressive brought the first fork over from France, "the good old days" were at their best.

Shakespeare had been dead 16 years. The Immortal Bard never used a fork. He never saw one. It must have been a sight to watch people eat in those "good old days".

DOUTHIT, MAYS & PERKINS

Sewerage systems were not in use in the "good old days." Refuse and dishwater were tossed into the gutter. Small wonder, plagues made people die like flies.

No one had running water for the kitchen and bath. Carrying water in buckets a long distance or buying it from water carts—these are not attractive.

It was an age of discomforts and inconveniences. No labor saving devices had been invented for homes. Women worked themselves into their graves prematurely.

Ignorance and medical superstition were frightful.

Morals several centuries ago were so lax that, by comparison, the jazz tendency of our generation is tame.

Crime was far more prevalent than now. No one could take a short stage coach trip between towns safely without carrying a brace of pistols. Men were imprisoned for debt.

A fiction writer makes an old time dungeon alluring, romantic, adventurous. Truth is the dungeon was damp, cold, dark, infested with rats, reeking with lice. Guards were brutal. Justice was slow. Penalties were severe. Food was mainly mouldy old bread and water.

Romance? Good old days? It's a joke!

DIMINISH LOSS

Local Express Employees Co-Operate in Making Record.

A new record in the campaign by the carriers of the country, to prevent loss or damage to shipments in transit has just been established by the American Railway Express, according to announcement made by E. H. McGlaun, agent in charge in Sweetwater.

Figures just tabulated for the month of June show only 2.26 shipments in every thousand are invoiced in claims, giving the Express service a performance record of 99.8 per cent. The June claim ratio is the lowest in the history of the Express Company since its formation six years ago. It is an improvement of over 25 per cent compared with June 1923.

Agent McGlaun, states that he is in solving the claim problem. Local shippers have cooperated by giving more attention to the careful preparation of their shipments.

Local employees are holding monthly "Right Way" meetings to study and discuss various problems of the service and the best methods for the handling of current traffic.

An Entirely New Degree of Riding Comfort

The Brougham

Chrysler engineers have added the last degree of riding comfort by the adoption, after exhaustive tests with the tire makers, of special six-ply, high-speed balloon tires which wear as long as ordinary cord tires and still have all the resiliency of balloon tires. Those who, in amazement, have been carried in comfort by the Chrysler over rutted roads or cobbled streets at speeds up to 60 miles, will now find Chrysler riding ease still further increased.

Our own experience proves to us—as yours will prove to you—that no car, whatever its weight or size, equals the Chrysler Six in buoyant, restful riding.

The special spring suspension, plus perfect balance, plus complete absence of any period of vibration, plus special six-ply, high-speed balloon tires, accounts for the greater safety and better riding which the Chrysler Six provides for its passengers.

This sensation has been aptly compared to the smooth skimming over the water of a sailboat. The Chrysler Six seems actually to level out its own path over road inequalities.

We are pleased to extend the convenience of time-payments. Ask about Chrysler's attractive plan.

ITCHING ECZEMA GOES QUICK WITH USE OF THIS

People who have endured tortures from itching eczema will be happy to learn that a means of relief has been perfected and is already enjoying unheard of popularity on account of the quick way it gets rid of the awful disease of the skin which nobody seemed able to figure out before. It is called Black and White Ointment.

Most all dealers have Black and White Ointment, and Soap, on account of the tremendous demand which has already reached the rate of more than two million packages a year in its sales, because it relieves eczema so quickly.

They are economical, too. The big 50c package of Ointment contains three times as much as the liberal 25c size.

Miss LaNell Snell came home from Simmons College and spent the week-end with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Snell. She will be at home for the remainder of the summer after August 17.

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Anthony and daughter of Waco have returned home following a week-end visit here with his son, W. H. Anthony and wife on Crane street. Miss Anthony remained over for a longer visit.

Mrs. Ben Jones has returned from a recent visit to Breckenridge with her daughter, Mrs. Buddie Creech and her sister, Mrs. Nellie Gardner and family, who spent the week-end here and returned home Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. Horace Heath and family have returned from a week's pleasure trip sight-seeing at San Antonio, Austin and many other points of interest enroute.

SLEEPLESSNESS

Virginia Lady Says That Many of Her Long-Suffered Ills Have Fled Since She Took Cardui.

Bristol, Va.—"I can sleep good at night now, something I have never done before in my life," says Mrs. Deala Hawks, of 712 Prospect St., this city. "and it is due to Cardui."

"I was always nervous and tossed when I should have been asleep, but since I took Cardui it has strengthened me, and my general health is so improved that many of the ill from which I have suffered for years have fled."

"I used to go to bed tired and, when I would get up in the morning, I was still tired. Now I feel like doing a day's work in my garden or in the house, and I owe all this good health to Cardui, for I had suffered for years until I took it."

"I had had female trouble for years and once, for six months, I was flat on my back. I am glad to recommend to other women a medicine which has helped me."

If you are nervous and run-down in health, suffering as Mrs. Hawks describes above, it is probable that Cardui will greatly help you. Try it. NC-157
