THROGS ATTEND FIRST FAIR DAY

All Nolan County is Sweetwater Bound Early Thursday For Opening of Celebration.

WONDERFUL EXHIBITS

Huge Building Crammed With Displays—City Gayly Decorated For Reception of Visitors.

To the tune of roaring automobiles, the snapping of many flags in the breeze, blaring bands and the steady chant of pop corn and hot dog vendors, the Nolan County First Annual Fair got away to a flying start Thursday morning as hundreds of residents from over the county poured into Sweetwater in a steady stream; happy, prosperous and pleasure seeking county people bent upon seeing and enjoying the three days of events and exhibits showing the progress of the county through a bountiful year.

Automobiles Sweetwater - bound were seen upon the many highways leading into the city ere the sun had barely peeped over the eastern horizon, and by the time the sun had reached a spot mid-way in the cloudless heavens of West Texas, Sweetwater was packed with eager fair visitors.

The fair grounds in north Sweetwater was swarming with people, even Wednesday and Wednesday night, and at the first break of day Thursday, exhibitors, concession men, and officials were rushing madly about the grounds adding last minute touches here and there to exhibits, displays and stands. The Donald McGregor shows were in full blast Wednesday night and the exhibit building was resounding with activity as scores worked steadily to complete the many shows inside for the great crowds that arrived Thursday.

Promptly at 9 o'clock Thursday morning the gates to the grounds were thrown open as carpenters drove the last nails, cold drink men gave a final stir to red lemonade, and ham-burgers were served. A little more grease on the griddle, and while the Sweetwater Booster Band bore down upon a lively march, hundreds after hundreds poured into the grounds which were soon alive with a milling, surging mass.

The exhibit building was the point for which a bee-line was made after the gates were opened, and the great hall was soon packed with Nolan County citizens who viewed with satisfaction the displays of the fruits of toil, shown in attractive, attention compelling exhibits. Exclamations of surprise and much favorable comment were heard on all sides as scores made the rounds of the long building, viewing on every hand, beautiful displays of the community farm exhibit, the grain, vegetables and fruits in the individual farm exhibits, the long counters of fruits, preserves, jellies and canned goods, the massive counters and walls stacked high with excellent textile displays, the long row of flowers in the flower show, the walls hung solid with exhibits of art, the row of commercial booths down the center, and the attractive automobile show occupying one side of the exhibit hall.

Entering the main exhibit building, a visitor to the Nolan County Fair is confronted with an array of beautiful products from the heart of West Texas. Exhibits of farm, home, ranch, garden, store and factory are on every hand. The big building is crammed to the doors with the finest of the land, while thousands of West Texans pass up and down the aisles and admire the glory of their native State.

On the left as the visitor enters the main building from the south side is the exhibit of curios and war relics prepared by the United Daughters of the Confederacy. Here are seen many articles of historic and educational interest. Members of the American Legion in Nolan County added much to the exhibit by placing in it souvenirs of the great struggle "Over There." The noble soldiers of the Gray have also done their bit to make the display complete.

Dr. and Mrs. A. A. Chapman will begin building their new home about November 15 at their present location on Oak Street.

Special Officers on Duty.

Both Sheriff Yarbrough and Chief of Police Buck Johnson had special deputies on duty Thursday to handle circus day traffic and to guard against the rough element and crooks who at times follow in the trail of circuses and carnivals.

Miss Mollie Musgrove will entertain her Sunday School class with a Halloween theater party Friday afternoon; Misses Mary Emma Simmons, Alloeone Doris Homer, and Margaret Morrow will each give Halloween entertainments Friday evening for the younger members of society.

RACE HORSE MEN DIE FROM BURNS

Loyalty to Horses Costs Death of Two Men, Serious Injury to Lad, In El Paso Injury.

HAY CATCHES FIRE

Men Injured as They Lead Valuable Horses From Blazing Car—En Route to Tia Juana.

By The United Press. EL PASO, Texas, Oct. 30.—Loyalty to their race charges cost the lives of two men and serious injury to another here early today. Herbert "Ike" Teluth, 45, of San Diego, Cal., trainer for the Tam O'Shanter stables, and Buck Murray, his assistant, died of burns received when the hay in a railroad car carrying 11 race horses caught fire.

John Tantling, 18, son of Vern Tantling, manager of the Buck Jones moving picture company of Hollywood, was seriously burned but will recover.

The 11 race horses were enroute from Dallas to Tia Juana and had halted in the Union stock yards here over night. The care takers were awakened by the prancing horses as the flames licked at the hay littered floor of the car.

Murray was scorched when he led Teluth, famous two-year-old, from the car. Teluth dashed from the blazing coach but plunged back to bring out Tantling, who was vainly trying to lead out two of the Buck Jones ponies entrusted to his care.

Race Horses Pass Through.

Three cars with race horses bound for the famous Tia Juana race track just over the border from Southern California, passed through Sweetwater recently on the Texas-Pacific. They were handled as a special train by the T-P. The horses were from northern race tracks where the season has closed.

LABOR LOSES IN OIL BLAZE SETS BRITISH VOTING SHIP IN FLAMES

Conservatives Carry County, Get Majority of at Least 85 Seats in Parliament.

LIBERALS WIPED OUT

Lose Nearly 100 Seats—Expect Conservatives to Win Over 400 of 615 in Final Returns.

By The United Press. LONDON, Eng., Oct. 30.—The Conservatives have swept the country and will have a majority of approximately 85 seats in the Parliament. Labor sustained a severe defeat, many of its leaders going down before the Conservative landslide, but it will constitute the Conservative's official opponent in the next Parliament. The swing which carried the Conservatives in nearly crushed the Liberal party out of existence. The Liberals lost more than 100 seats. The Tories had won 375 seats at 5 o'clock, with the prospect of holding well over 400 of the 615 seats when the returns are all tabulated.

DISPLAY CURIOS

Exhibit Sponsored by U. D. C. is One of Most Attractive at Nolan County Fair.

Grouped in one massive display in the main exhibit building on the fair grounds is the curio department of the fair, entered voluntarily for the pleasure of fair visitors by the United Daughters of the Confederacy chapter of this city. The exhibit is not covered by prizes, but was assembled merely as an interesting display of war relics, ancient books and papers, old hand-woven textiles and other curios of a varied nature.

There are several hundred articles in this display, gathered from old-time residents of the county, articles which have been handed down from father to son for many years. Probably the most unique article in the lot, and one of the oldest, is a Latin Bible printed in 1611. The pages yellow with the age of years, this book was printed in Frankfurt, Germany, and is the property of R. C. Crane of Sweetwater. A Philadelphia newspaper, the Pennsylvania Packet and Daily Advertiser, is also in the Crane collection. This paper was printed July 9, 1788, and gives a full account of the big celebration staged in Philadelphia over the adoption of the constitution by 10 out of the 13 colonies. Fourteen checks drawn on the Bank of North America are also in the Crane collection. This bank was organized in the nick of time during the Revolutionary War, according to histories, and through its finances, probably saved the revolution. It was the only organized bank at that period, and the checks simply were "to the cashier of the bank," it not being necessary to name the bank as there were no others.

The R. C. Ledford collection of Indian curios drew much attention from people at the Fair Thursday. Articles in this collection were received by Mr. Ledford direct from the Indians, and included beaded work, head gear of feathers and other articles, including a wide Mexican sombrero which was worn by a Mexican bull fighter and received by Mr. Ledford in Mexico City.

A collection entered by A. N. Prince of Sweetwater showed war relics of many kinds, helmets, knives, guns, and the Prince collection of canes.

A New York Herald giving an account of the shooting of President Lincoln was exhibited by Mrs. Daugherty, Mrs. R. H. Howe exhibited a massive pine burr found in the mountains.

A woven hand-made "cover lid" for a bed spread was shown by Mrs. John Zigler. The cover was a beautiful piece of work in many colors, and was woven by John Smith in 1840. John Smith's name was woven into the affair, as was also the name of John Zigler, whom he gave the spread to. Mrs. G. S. Holloway was the owner of another bedspread exhibited. The spread was hand-made throughout and is 80 years old.

The seat of our government is always being kicked about.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

A marriage license has been issued to C. H. Martin and Miss Ceell Mahan both of Loraine by County Clerk Gus Farrar.

Members of Crew Jump into Bay to Escape Fire, Believed Saved—Wires Fall into Gasoline.

By The United Press. MARTINEZ, Cal., Oct. 30.—Practically the entire crew of the Associate Oil Co.'s oil tanker, Alden Anderson, destroyed by fire following an explosion of 15,000 cases of gasoline on the oil company's wharves near here, was accounted for today. Six of the missing members of the crew who leaped into the bay to escape the flames reported to officers today and officials believe that the others escaped. The total loss from the fire which swept the dock and steamer was estimated at $1,500,000. The fire started when the wharf collapsed and brought live electric wires into contact with the gasoline fumes.

TERRELL DIES

Creager, Republican Committeeman, Accompanies Body of Father-in-Law Home For Burial.

By The United Press. HOUSTON, Texas, Oct. 30.—R. C. Creager, Republican National Committeeman from Texas, arrived here last night to accompany the body of his father in law, Judge John L. Terrell, who died in Brownsville late Wednesday, to Terrell, Texas, for burial.

Funeral services for the well known jurist who died after a lingering illness will be held at Terrell Friday morning.

Services will be conducted by the Masonic Fraternity, of which Terrell was Grand Master, 1897 and 1898. He was a member of the Washington Lodge in Dallas at the time of his death.

CATCH FUGITIVE

Night Police Grab Man Charged With Theft After Chase.

A man who gave his name as Lay, is in the county jail charged with the theft of a suitcase. He was arrested by local officers early Thursday morning after a brisk chase through the streets during which several shots were fired to halt the fleeing fugitive.

He was finally rounded up right under the window of Officer W. W. Hudson by Night Policeman Sapulver. Hudson was sleeping in preparation for circus day patrol duties but got up and aided in the arrest. Lay had not been arraigned Thursday at noon.

GAMBLE FOR RIDES

Street Car Patrons Win or Lose on Pass System.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Ok., Oct. 30.—"All the street car rides you want for $1.25 a week."

This is the slogan behind the weekly "pass" system inaugurated here yesterday by the Oklahoma Railway company, with excellent results. Officials pointed out today, that the weekly pass system not only eliminated a large number of transfers but the company made a bet with the patrons. If a pass buyer rides more than 17 times during the week, he is getting his transportation below the established 7 1-2 cent fare. If he rides less than 17 times during the seven days, the company wins. The passes are transferable.

The system is similar to that used by the Chicago elevated lines and by trolley systems in Springfield, Mo., Fort Wayne, Ind., and other cities.

Mr. and Mrs. D. T. McDonald and D. T. Jr., are up from Blackwell to spend the fair season with his brother, B. L. McDonald and family.

New York Giants and Chicago White Sox will sail this month on an exhibition tour, including games in Canada, Ireland, England, Belgium and Italy.

MARRIAGE LICENSE

A marriage license has been issued to C. H. Martin and Miss Ceell Mahan both of Loraine by County Clerk Gus Farrar.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Majors, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Majors, and Mr. and Mrs. Sam Goldman and their families of Colorado motored over Thursday afternoon to visit their parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Majors, see the big circus and the Nolan County Fair.

If Horace Greely were on the job in this era he might advise the young man to go west and grow up with the movies.

Man Who Denied Knowledge of Wife's Death Ends Life in County Jail By Hanging.

STRANGLES SELF SLOWLY

Uses Suspenders, Tied Around Neck, as Means of Death—Stoutly Maintained Innocence.

By The United Press. BELVIDERE, N. J., Oct. 30.—Frank Thomas, held as a material witness in connection with the murder of his wife, Grace Thomas, committed suicide during the night by hanging himself to a bar of his cell door in the county jail here.

Thomas' body was found in the cell with a pair of suspenders around his neck holding his head and shoulders suspended. He apparently layed down after adjusting the suspenders, strangling himself little by little. During questioning by police yesterday Thomas stoutly maintained his innocence in connection with the murder of his wife.

DISPLAY ENTERPRISE

Youths Hatch Crows to Get Larger Bounty.

McPHERSON, Kan., Oct. 30.—The present generation can stop worrying about the business ability of the next! Several weeks ago two McPherson boys found a crow's nest filled with eggs. The county bounty on live crows is five cents, while the bounty on crow's eggs is only one cent. Confronted with these figures, the two lads put the eggs under an old black hen and this week presented twelve baby crows to the county clerk claiming a 5-cent bounty on each. They got it.

Chinese Make First Use of Modern War Method, Wireless Says—Lu and Chang in Conference.

By The United Press. SHANGHAI, China, Oct. 30.—Poison gas has been called into use by Chinese armies in the north according to a Mukden wireless dispatch. It is the first time that gas has ever been used in Chinese warfare.

General Lu has been victorious in northern China and is conferring with Chang Tso Lin, Manchurian leader, regarding his possible return to Shanghai. Lu, it is supposed here, has asked for the job of Tuchon of Shanghai in the event that Chang wins in the north and is able to extend his control here.

There was an estimated crowd of 4,000 people at the afternoon performance and the night show is scheduled to start at 8:15, and the doors will open one hour earlier, so that all may have an opportunity to pay a leisurely visit to the menagerie.

The circus unloaded early following its arrival in Sweetwater from San Angelo. The special trains were hauled in on the Orient and unloaded on the switch near the show grounds. The cars were then shifted over to the Texas-Pacific in preparation for the trip to Abilene where the circus is booked to show Friday.

CIRCUS ATTRACTS BIG CROWDS HERE

Many on Hand to Meet Train and Watch Unloading of Animals Early Thursday Morning.

PARADE THRILLS SPECTATORS

Side Show, Elephants, Pretty Girls, And Everything at Greatest of Shows in Sweetwater.

Today is circus day, the day when the Carl Hagenbeck and great Wallace shows give their great exhibitions and every child from 6 to 60 years of age has been planning to attend one of the performances.

The three special trains of twenty cars each arrived this morning, carrying the mountains of equipment, the stock, the menagerie and the employees. It did not take long for the practiced hands of the organization to build the mystic city of 18 tents, each of which is essential service to the public and the traveling show settlement of 980 men, women and children.

The street parade, for which the Hagenbeck-Wallace shows are distinguished, left the show grounds promptly at 11:30 o'clock and paraded the principal business streets. There are a tremendous variety of features extravagant display and superlative condition of people and things in the Hagenbeck-Wallace street pageant which has brought this great combined circus an enviable prestige. Nearly every man, woman and child with the show and all the beautiful gray horses participate. Most of the animal cages are open and the ponderous elephants and clumsy camels, the bands with their continual fan fare, and scores of funny clowns give animation to the briskly moving procession.

In the old days the biggest show's menagerie was a primitive affair to the zoological garden enroute with the Hagenbeck-Wallace shows. It would require a week to make even a cursory study of all the inhabitants of this tent, which is over a block in length. The guided circus cages, in which the animals make their home for the coming season are marvels of the showmen's art.

Weaving about unensy of mind and restless of body, the elephants caparisoned in silk and velvet of beautiful shades and hemmed with gold and silver braid and tassels, and the 16 camels separated by a huge monkey carnival, occupy the center, along with the only giant blue faced mandrill, sea lions, baby zebras, Bengal tigers, llamas, leopards, pumas, lions, emus, monflou, the largest living hippopotamus in captivity and other wild animals, all serve to make a perfect collection.

This year's circus performance is undoubtedly the best ever known in the history of the allied shows. Among the chief celebrities and circus stars are the incomparable Riding Davenport equestriennes, the Eugene Earl troupe of aerialists, the contortionists, the Zamamoto troupe of gymnasts, Powell troupe of wire walkers, John Helliott in a service of wild animal acts, Mimé Dolly Castle in a steel girted arena in thrilling acts with pumas, leopards and tigers, Alma Depny, one of the most successful elephant trainers present eight monster pachyderms in most unusual stunts, the Wallace troupe of high school horses among whom is Porter, the world's highest jumping horse, mounted by Jack McCracken and "Maid of the Mist," the riderless horse which jumps for the fun of it, the Jap troupe of jugglers, Jackson and Lawler, the Australian wood-choppers.

There was an estimated crowd of 4,000 people at the afternoon performance and the night show is scheduled to start at 8:15, and the doors will open one hour earlier, so that all may have an opportunity to pay a leisurely visit to the menagerie.

Whether it will be a jinx for the fire boys at the Cotton Palace firemen's contest or not, Tabby, a husky, and cattish bob cat, one of the prized mascots of the department, died this week as the fire boys were practicing their exhibition for the Cotton Palace. Tabby, with her mate, was a pen back of the fire station, after summering in a cage at the City Lake. The bob cat kicked in despite the heroic efforts of a veterinarian surgeon and the fire boys to save her. The two bob cats were the first additions to the Sweetwater Zoo.

ENJOY FEAST

Five Hundred Attend Christian Sunday School Party.

"Eat, Drink and do not Fear the Result," must have been the motto of the 500 guests who gathered Wednesday evening at the Toler Automobile Show Rooms and partook of a "feast fit for the gods."

The spread was the ending of a strenuous contest of the Sunday School classes of the First Christian Church, when the Men's Bible Class were hosts to the remainder of the Sunday School and church members and a number of friends outside the church as well.

The program opened with a prayer by W. S. Barcus and was followed by three numbers by the Sweetwater Booster Band, led by Harry LeMaire. The boys did extra well, no doubt the well laden table just in front of them was a great inspiration for their skillful performance. At the close of their program Dr. McKissick announced "the Band Boys first served," and they needed no second invitation. The whole of the Toler building had been transformed into a great dining hall and big reception room, decorated with evergreens, which combined nicely with Hr. Toler's natural history exhibits. Two baby beevs contributed by Ed Bradford and Billy George had been barbecued to a turn. The ladies furnished pies, cakes and salads, to supplement the bread, pickles and coffee given by the men's class.

Following the supper a group of singers gathered around the piano and sang number after number of old heart songs, with Mrs. Nickeson playing the accompaniments. Later Murray Hubbard, Earl Harris, John Millisap and C. D. McAnelly favored with a program of old "fiddle tunes." Little Miss Louise Toler contributed a reading, which was heartily applauded. It was the consensus of all opinions that this was the most enjoyable church gathering ever given by the congregation.

Meetings have been called for next Monday night by 216 Klavers in Oklahoma to instruct all Klansmen to vote for the Coolidge-Dawes ticket. C. W. B. Hinds, manager of the Democratic Publicity Bureau, said this afternoon.

LATEST CARS ON DISPLAY AT FAIR

Overland, Willys Knight, Maxwell, Chrysler, Buick, Chevrolet, and Dodge in Auto Show.

MANY BEAUTIFUL MODELS
Cars Represent Best and Most Beautiful on Market—Thousands View Displays.

Modernness of automobile dealers in Sweetwater is revealed in the long line of late models shown in the Automobile Show at the Nolan County Fair, and interested and appreciative hundreds visited that department of the exhibits throughout Thursday. The automobiles are placed on the south side of the main building and ample room is provided for neat display of the various makes of automobiles.

Six dealers have models on display in the Automobile department, and the show as a whole, presents clearly different types of touring cars, roadsters, closed cars and sport models awaiting Nolan County people who are on the market for automobiles.

The dealers having displays at the fair are Sweetwater Overland Co., Dabney Motor Co., Hubert Toler, Western Motor Co., C. S. Boyles Motor Co., and Allen Motor Co.

Entering the main building from the west, the automobiles are in a line. The first display is that of the Sweetwater Overland Company. In this exhibit, a new Overland touring car and the popular Willys Knight touring car are shown.

The second exhibit is that of the Dabney Motor Co., Sweetwater Ford dealers. Set off by a foreground of potted plants and ferns, a Ford touring car, and a Ford Sedan are displayed.

Next to the Ford exhibit, is the display of Hubert Toler, Sweetwater Maxwell and Chrysler dealer. The first car in this exhibit, is the beautiful Chrysler roadster. Next to the Chrysler, is displayed a Maxwell sport touring car, and the two make an attractive display.

The Western Motor Co. exhibit is fifth in line, and the Buick automobiles distributed by this company are shown to a good advantage. A Buick touring car, the "open-closed car" is on display, as well as a roomy Buick Sedan.

The C. S. Boyles Motor Company occupy the next space, and this company has on exhibition the Chevrolet automobiles. The first is a beautiful Chevrolet Touring De Luxe, the sport model, and adjoining is the New Superior Chevrolet touring car. In addition to the automobile display, the exhibit is unique and interesting through the use of a miniature farm exhibit, showing the "model Chevrolet farm." A complete farm scene is shown, with house, barn, garage and shed, windmill, pumps, cotton field, etc. Cows, horses and pigs are in various enclosures, and the highway in front of the farm is lined with miniature Chevrolet cars and trucks of all kinds. This attraction drew crowds of men, women and children alike throughout the day.

The Allen Motor Company exhibited the Dodge cars in the east end of the automobile show. The exhibit included a fine Dodge sedan, and an attractive Dodge touring car.

LIVE IN PURGATORY

Home For Old Folks Furnishes Helping Hand.

By The United Press.

DALLAS, Texas, Oct. 30.—"Purgatory."

That is the name which inhabitants of one of the nation's most unusual rooming houses call their home.

It is a home for those who in old age find poverty a refuge where for $1.25 a week they will have a place to sleep without it being extended by the hand of a charitable organization.

There is a great spirit of brotherliness among those who live in the home—meals are cooked on a common stove and served on a common table.

DIVORCES HIGHER

Separations Become More Costly, Attorneys Say.

KANSAS CITY, Kan., Oct. 30.—Prices of divorces are going up! The law of "supply and demand" instead of "quantity production" is the governing factor, according to attorneys.

The Wyandotte County Bar Association had its attention called this week to a $412 fee charged a disabled war veteran here by a local attorney for a recent divorce. While admitting that the fee was "excessive and unreasonable," the association pointed out that the growing number of divorces required more and more time from attorneys and that the pre-war price of $25 no longer maintained.

INDIAN SUMMER PROFITABLE

Ideal Weather Aids Finances of Sugar Beet Growers.

GARDEN CITY, Kan., Oct. 30.—"Indian Summer" not only is ideal climate but it has put money into the pockets of beet sugar growers in this vicinity.

The mellow fall weather has materially increased the sugar content of the 7,000 acres of beets in Finney County, officials of the new $2,000,000 sugar refinery just opened here, announced today. A record sugar year for the Arkansas Valley is expected.

Van Alstyne Loses Old Stand Pipe as City Grows.

VAN ALSTYNE, Texas, Oct. 30.—After twenty years of service the old standpipe, formerly used at the local

The old landmark, used since the city water system was installed, has been junked to make way for a new 100,000 gallon tower, made necessary by the gradual growth of the city and subsequent expansion of the water service.

Lighting the Dining Room

In some ways the dining room is just opposite the living room. The living room has many different uses, but the dining room is seldom used except at meal times. In the living room the furniture is moved about and changed, but in the dining room the arrangement of furniture rarely changes.

The dining table is in the center of the room, and it is the center of interest. It should be the most brightly lighted object in the whole room. There are a number of different kinds of fixtures which may be hung from the ceiling to provide good lighting, and almost all of them may be used improperly to provide bad lighting.

above the table as it is at (C) the glare from the bulb is directly in the eyes of everyone seated at the table, but if it is put down closer to the table, as at (D) the fixture completely hides the bulb, and we have excellent dining room lighting without glare. For most fixtures it is best to see that the bottom of the shades is not more than 36 inches above the table for (A) and 24 inches above the table for (B). Where candle fixtures are used, shades are needed not only to protect the eyes from the glare, but to reflect some of the light which would otherwise go up to the ceiling or down on the table.

The fixtures over the table will

THE CENTER CEILING FIXTURE

Whatever the kind of fixture, it is important that the eyes of anyone seated at the table be protected against the glare of the bulbs, which furnish the light. There are two ways to do this. 1. Be sure that the shades are long enough, and of the right shape. For example, the next picture shows a fixture on which one bulb (A) is well shaded and the other bulb (B) is badly shaded.

The shade which is narrower at the bottom protects the eyes of the person at the table. 2. For a given shade, be sure the fixture is low enough over the table (but not so low as to be in the way or make it impossible to see the person sitting opposite).

Now look at the fixture in (C) and (D). When this fixture is as high need bulbs with a total of from 100 to 200 watts.

OTHER LIGHTING

Bracket fixtures on the wall and candlesticks on the buffet may be used to add decoration, provided they are well shaded and are not so bright as to be annoying or to produce glare and eye-strain. When they are used, the bulbs should not be larger than 15 or 25 watts.

Convenience outlets should be installed for electric appliances. If used on the dining table, a convenience outlet may be placed in the floor under the table, or on the under side of the table itself, so that the unsightly cord need not hang from a bulb socket and cause one part of the lighting fixture to be dark. Duplex convenience outlets which permit the use of two appliances may be installed for practically the same cost as the older single outlets.
