HOUSEWARMING WELL ATTENDED

Hundreds of Persons Visit Plant of Sweetwater Reporter Thursday
Night—See New Press.

VISITORS APPRECIATIVE

Express Amusement At Large Amount
Ingenious Machinery—Names
Are Set In Type.

Hundreds of Sweetwater folks took advantage of the Sweetwater Reporter's housewarming Thursday evening to see how a modern newspaper plant operated and the various steps in the making of a daily newspaper. From 7:30 to 9:30 the crowds surged in the news and business office, and the press room and the various points of interest were pointed out by members of the Reporter staff.

The housewarming formally opened the Reporter's new home which was formerly occupied by the Texas Bank and Trust Company. The splendid building, lately remodeled and extensively improved, together with the modern machinery and equipment, goes to make up one of the finest newspaper plants in this section of West Texas. Many compliments were heard on all sides as visitors for the first time looked upon the new home of the Reporter. Many folks who have been Reporter subscribers for years saw the inside workings of their daily newspaper for the first time at the affair Thursday evening.

The entire mechanical equipment of the plant was running at full blast during the reception hours. The Reporter's intertype machines were working at top speed, and a souvenir, each guest's name was set on the machine and the metal "slug" was given to the respective visitors.

The new Duplex printing press was also running at top speed as the regular weekly edition of the Sweetwater Reporter, which goes to practically very Nolan and adjoining county farm homes, was being printed. The guests found this phase of making a newspaper probably the most interesting of them all, with the possible exception of the operation of the intertype machines. The guests of the Reporter lingered a long time about the giant press as it shot forth printed and folded papers at the rate of one every second.

Refreshments were served from a special dispensing machine from the Sweetwater Bottling Company, that attracted quite a bit of attention.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—The use of chlorine for respiratory diseases is sweeping over the country and will soon prove to be a "real boon to humanity," Brig. Gen. Fries, chief of the Chemical Warfare Service of the Army declared today. Reports to the War Department, Fries said, showed that cures and improvements were noted in from 65 to 80 per cent of the respiratory cases in which chlorine was used.

Fries said chlorine will give a complete cure from whooping cough, if taken early enough. Of the 1,206 cases treated with chlorine here, 447 showed improvement, 391 were cured, 138 failed to respond to treatment, and 230 cases were unheard from.

Kiddies Hungry; Man Steals But Fine Remitted

KANSAS CITY, Mo., Jan. 23 (U. N. S.).—When the cries of hungry children make a thief of their father justice will be "tempered with mercy" in this city's police court.

Lineon England, 55, arrested as he escaped with five loaves of bread, stolen from the truck of a bakery told a sordid story of poverty and of how his wife and three children were living in a filthy basement near the river. The night before the theft, Robert 3, Earl, 5, and Ralph, 10, went to bed crying because they were hungry.

"A fellow can't stand that, judge," said England, tears struggling down his cheek.

He was fined $10 but the fine was remitted and the family turned to a relief association which provides it with food and clothing.

ARMY IS HEALTHY

Last Years Had Lowest Peace Time
Mortality Rate in History—4
Deaths Per 1000.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—(United Press)—With four deaths per thousand men, the Army last year had the lowest peace time mortality rate in history.

Figures submitted to Congress by Maj. Gen. M. W. Ireland Surgeon General of the Army, show that the administration rate to hospitals of enlisted men was 60 per thousand, a total of 647 men. Ireland explained that the previous year 639 men were admitted to hospitals, the lowest of all time.

"A soldier," said Patrick, "goes on sick list report very frequently, when a man in civil life would be doing business. He is NOT able to keep up with the men in the ranks. The slight increase over last year in admissions to the hospitals is accounted for by the amount of denga we had in the Southern States, particularly in Texas and in the Philippine Islands. Denga is an epidemic similar to rheumatism, accompanied by a high fever. It is NOT a serious ailment, the death rate is nil. This disease, Ireland reported, put 2,000 men off duty and its death rate was two.

The death rate from injury was 1.90 per thousand.

Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Roberts and Mr. C. W. Brown spent Thursday visiting in Abilene.

Can Be Let Here.

Engineers' plans for construction work on the Bankhead highway east to the Taylor county line and Highway No. 70 south of Sweetwater have been approved by the State Highway Department, according to county Judge Mazzeo.

The portion of Highway 70 included in the above plans is approximately nine miles, reaching from Sweetwater, city limits south to the Nine Mile Hill. Work is already in progress on Highway 70 12 1-2 miles south of the Nine Mile Hill.

STRIKING MINERS HUDDLE IN TENTS

Virginia Coal Field.

WINTER STORMS SEVERE

Slender Dale of Provisions From Union
Miners—Evicted From Company Houses.

By United Press

CHARLESTON, W. Va., Jan. 23.—Over 5,000 persons, striking miners, and their families, are living in tents in the hills back of the Kanawha Coal district.

Only a thin wall of canvas protects them from the wicked blasts of winter storms. Wisp of smoke pour from the tent tops as the women folk huddle inside, striving vainly to keep warm.

The families are kept alive by slender provisions provided from union miners funds. Women find it difficult to provide inviting meals on the few groceries consisting mainly of bread, salt pork, and potatoes provided.

Down the valley a few hundred yards, strike breakers occupy the shacks of the coal company, from whence the strikers were evicted when they refused to work at the mine company wage scale which they claim is below that of the central competitive coal fields. Following the strike the miners were evicted by wholesale. The mine companies brought in strike breakers and the digging of coal is being continued.

Many of the strikers expect to remain in the tented city until spring when work on the state highways will be available.

Meanwhile the daily distribution of food continues. Occasionally a new baby is born in the camp and the women folks get along as best they can. The services of the company doctor are not available and the nearest physician is many miles away over the snow blocked hills.

The final selection may not be from any of these but at the present moment they are leading the field by a good margin.

President Coolidge believes that the time has now come for the government to pay more attention to marketing and distribution.

ETHYL GAS OK

U. S. Bureau of Mines Says Gases
From Cars With Ethyl Gas
Not Harmful.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 23.—(United Press)—Operation of automobiles using ethyl gasoline is not harmful, the U. S. Bureau of Mines has determined.

Exhaust fumes from engines using this newly developed "anti-knock" gasoline, which contains tetraethyl lead, failed to injure or affect appreciably a number of rabbits, guinea pigs, pigeons, dogs and monkeys during the continuous period of 188 in experiments by the bureau to determine if the use of the motor fuel had any destructive effect on human life.

The bureau's experiments were undertaken both to find out if there is any hazard in breathing air which contains gases from engines using ethyl fuel or inhaling the raw ethyl gasoline.

"The only danger of lead poisoning seems to be confined to the mechanic who is continually cleaning carbon from motors, and the danger in this case is about the same as that of a painter, who uses paints containing lead," the bureau reported.

The investigation did not deal with preparation of the tetraethyl lead used in ethyl gasoline. This process has caused a number of fatalities in Raywood, N. J., and other places recently.

By United Press

SAPULPA, Okla., Jan. 23.—Three unmasked men with two revolvers each entered the American National Bank at Bristow today and forced all officers of the bank and 25 customers to line up around the desk in the stenographic department with their hands elevated while one of the bandits raked in all the cash in sight in the four cages of the bank.

The loot is estimated at about $8,000 in cash.

A fourth member of the gang waited outside in a small touring car parked near the bank. The quartet dashed out of town in the direction of Dewey southwest.

A group of citizens, learning of the holdup in the bank, gathered in front in an attempt to stop the bandits. The robbers, however, fired a volley of shots and escaped when the citizens scattered. There were no casualties.

PORT ARTHUR, TEXAS, Jan. 12.—Marsh fires which threatened for a time depletion of the muskrat population in East Texas, developed the alligator hide business to between $30,000 and $35,000. Driven out of the sloughs and ponds by the protracted droughts of the fall, the gators found themselves hard pressed for protective habitats. Many fell victims to hunters, trappers said.

Mrs. Roy Casey of Chicago was in the city Thursday enroute to Los Angeles, Cal., to spend the remainder of the winter and spring where he will do some laboratory work for the government. Mrs. Casey is a niece of Mrs. L. C. Vinson.

BABIES DIE

Bad Milk Kills Half Million Infants
In Argentine.

BUENOS AIRES, Jan. 23.—(United Press)—Half a million babies have died in Argentine during the last decade before they reached the age of two years according to a report by the Ministry of Agriculture. It ascribed the unusually high death rate to the lack of sufficient milk and adulteration of the milk sold. It is pointed out that while the cattle industry is the chief business of the Argentine, most of the cattle are slaughtered for exportation which has resulted in a serious milk shortage.

The ministry recommended that the municipalities exercise control over milk distributors to insure pure milk. A newspaper, editorially points out, that a child dies in this country, with a population of less than 10,000,000, every 12 minutes.

 Potato and Cheese Soup
 Three cup milk, 1 small onion 1-2 cups mashed potatoes, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 tablespoon of flour, 1 teaspoon salt, 1-4 teaspoon paprika, 1-2 cup grated cheese.
 Scald onion with milk. Remove onion and add potato and seasoning. Melt butter without bubbling, stir in flour and slowly add hot milk, stirring constantly. Cook five minutes. Add cheese and cook over hot water until cheese is melted. Serve with toasted crackers.
Hamburg Roast
 One and one-half cups round steak ground fine, 5 thin slices fat salt pork 3-4 cup stale bread crumbs from soft part of loaf, 1 egg, 4 tablespoons milk, 1-4 teaspoon pepper, few drops onion juice, 1-2 tea spoon salt, 4 ta-

Chop two slices of the pork very finely and mix well with ground steak. Add stale bread crumbs, salt and pepper, onion juice, milk and egg and mix thoroughly. Shape in a loaf roll in the dried bread crumbs and cover top with remaining pieces of pork. Roast fifty minutes in a hot oven, basting every ten minutes, first with boiling water and then with the drippings in the pan.

Creamed Asparagus on Toast
 One medium sized can of asparagus, 1 1-2 cups milk, yolk of one egg, 6 triangles of toast, salt and pepper.

Turn contents of can into a colander and dip into a large pan of cold water. Drain gently to prevent breaking heads of asparagus. Melt butter, 3-4 in flour, and slowly add milk, stirring constantly. Season with salt and pepper and cook until thick and smooth. Heat asparagus over a hot fire and arrange on hot buttered toast. Add egg yolk to cream sauce, remove from the fire and beat well. Pour over asparagus and serve at once.

If cake is not at hand, serve bananas with the sauce. Serve with currant jelly sauce.

Currant Jelly Sauce
 One-half cup currant jelly 2-3 cup boiling water, 1 tablespoon lemon juice, 1 table spoon corn starch.
 Beat jelly until smooth and add boiling water to make it pour easily. Cook, stirring constantly until thick and smooth. Remove from the fire and stir in lemon juice.

Cleaning Black Silk.
 Black silk that looks old and rusty may be rejuvenated by sponging it with hot coffee and pressing it while damp on the reverse side.

Use Strong Brine.
 Willow furniture can be cleaned by giving it a thorough bath in a strong brine. Salt and vinegar will clean brass.

Pressing Fabrics.
 Delicate fabrics can be pressed quickly and properly by placing a paper over the material, then using a hot iron.

Save the Buttons.
 Keep a thick pad of Turkish toweling near the ironing board. Use it when you have to iron over buttons, snaps, hooks or heavy embroidery.

Relish Dishes.
 Relish dishes divided into compartments for holding pickles, radishes, nuts and such things are much more popular than individual containers.

Use in Soap.
 Vegetables that are too old or too tough to be served whole should be made into soup or puree as straining removes the hull and coarse fibre leaving the digestible part.

OUR PRIVILEGE.

This Reporter was privileged last night to show hundreds of people how a modern newspaper plant is operated. The plant was thronged from 7:30, the opening hour of the affair, until long after 10 o'clock, when the last of the guests took their departure.

For some it was the first time that they had ever seen the inside of a newspaper office. Others had not been inside for years and thus were amazed at the changes in the industry, compared to the old hand and foot-power days—of handset type and foot-powered presses.

Times change. What was good enough for yesterday won't do for today, and tomorrow must be better still. The newspaper that was good enough for Sweetwater yesterday is not good enough for today and we must be still better tomorrow. The investment in plant equipment and machinery must be correspondingly heavier.

The Reporter is proud of its new equipment but only that it may be of more service to its patrons and to Sweetwater. And in that spirit we felt it indeed a privilege to show our new equipment to the large number of people who availed themselves of the opportunity. For the Reporter, its equipment and its personnel belong to Sweetwater—at your service.

THE VANISHING NICKEL

From the Independent, Boston.

The worst thing about the high cost of living or inflation, or any of those economic generalities is that the dollar does not go as far as it used to go, but that the nickel goes hardly anywhere at all. It is losing its individuality every day, becoming a mere imaginary unit of measurement having as little relation to ordinary life as such grotesque measures as a gill or a dram which are useful only to specialists and to manufacturers of crossword puzzles. Time was when a street car fare was 5 cents, when a good cup of coffee cost no more, when motion picture theaters were known as Nickelodeons, when food units of all kinds, pieces of pie, hot dogs, glasses of beer—"the largest schooner of beer in the city for five cents"—were to be purchased for a nickel. That time has passed. The nickel still has its uses. It helps you to make up the thirty cents you pay to see Florida Fish in "Waring Wives"; it rounds out the fifteen cents you exchange for a cup of coffee but alone and unsupported its functions are fewer every day. You can still in most cities put in a telephone call for five cents, but the signs all point to the passing of this survival of a happier day. The government ceased coining 2-cent pieces years and years ago. Perhaps the nickel in due season will come back into its own, will be worth much more than five cents as collectors compete for the possession of those rare, curious coins. Until then, however, the nickel, under the strange paradox of inflation will get smaller all the time.

Why We Go Back

There are lots of jokes about plumbers going back for their tools. But they are just jokes—nothing more. The truth is, a plumber doesn't have to go back for his tools.

When he goes back to the shop, he goes back for parts or for material.

Think of this: There are thousands of parts used in plumbing. To carry all these parts to do a job would take the biggest truck ever made.

You can save this going back of the plumber, and in saving that you will save yourself money.

Know something about your plumbing. Then, when you call your plumber, tell him what the trouble is, just as you tell other troubles to your doctor.

The plumber doesn't want to go back. We want to save you money. So, then, help us to help you save.

AMUSEMENTS

Fifteen years ago Montague Glass, seated in a tiny restaurant in the heart of the cloak and suit district of New York City, idled away a lunch hour and watched his fellow diners. Then and there two of the most famous characters of American fiction came into being—in the fertile creative mind of a young lawyer—author. He went away and worked for weeks. And then the American public, and eventually the entire world, was formally introduced to Messrs Potash and Perlmutter.

These two argumentative partners, inspired by the people Glass saw and the heated debates he listened to during that noon hour many years ago, have today shared their sorrows and their joys with people of practically every nation of the globe. Every language, including the Scandinavian, has heard their business debates and laughed at the hearing. Potash and Perlmutter, through many short stories written by Mr. Glass and through five plays have gained international and everlasting fame. And yet their renown is spreading and their appeal has never lessened.

They are movie producers, and the trials and tribulations of their latest business venture is the subject of Samuel Goldwyn's production "In Hollywood With Potash and Perlmutter." The First National Picture which will be the main attraction at the Palace Theater on Friday and Saturday.

Miss Katherine Poffenbach will leave Sunday to reenter Texas Christian University.

First Buds of Spring

Even as the first bright warm days call forth buds on the trees, and even as these buds are the first indication that Spring will soon be with us in full force, so are the whisperings of FASHION'S DECREE of what will be just the proper thing to wear this spring.

As usual HASSEN is showing some of the models which will prove most popular, and he is showing them first.

COATS

Coats this season are modestly inclined to be one color affairs, but how bright those solid colors can be! The Downy Wave, all wool and completely lined with silk promises to be far the most popular coat for Spring wear, and with its graceful line and simple though tasteful trimming it is as suitable for evening wear as for ordinary every day street wear. We have a size and color here that will exactly please you.

DRESSES

The new Spring dresses will prove a delight to any woman. Fancy materials predominate, but crepe-back satin will be much in demand. Plain trimmings will be offset to a great extent by the bright colors and shades of the materials among which will be popular Tangerine, Titan and Green.

We are showing dresses in a good range of sizes and colors for both street and evening wear.

HATS

The small hat still holds its own for early Spring wear, but as the days grow longer and Summer approaches of course they will attain brims to an extent.

We are showing models for the woman who has bobbed hair as well as for those who have not followed this fashion.

We will be glad to have you call and inspect our first Spring offerings.
