TEXAS BY THE SEA

To many who still retain a vague idea that Texas is a region of staked plains there may be something startling in the announcement that the ship Lafayette, the largest passenger steamer that has ever put into Gulf waters, is sailing from the port of Houston with 250 Texans and a sprinkling of business men from adjacent states to make a 26-day tour of the West Indies.

This is a method devised by the Houston Chamber of Commerce for bringing home to the rest of the world the fact that the waters of the Caribbean have been brought to have the municipal doorstep, although Houston is fifty miles from the Gulf.

It is the second cruise of its kind. The first has already proven that it is only a short reach across the water to West Indian ports, from Texas by the Sea. This year the Texas gospel is to be spread out only in Cuba, Porto Rico and the West Indies but in the Bahamas, Port de France, La Guaira and Caracas, Willemstad, Cartagena, Panama Canal Zone, and British Honduras. The spreading is to be done by the passengers who need no stimulus to induce them to exploit the advantages of Houston. They have a good time and the project costs Houston nothing.

SHOULD REGISTER

A letter under date of February 19 has been received by the State Board of Health from a Japanese resident of Port Worth requesting a certified copy of the birth certificate of each of his three children. This calls attention once more to the importance of the State Statute relating to Vital Statistics which states that "All physicians or midwives who may attend at the birth of a child, shall report the fact, together with all statistical data relating thereto, within five days from the time of the birth, to the city or county registrar."

Many people are entirely ignorant of the fact that a birth certificate is essential in the issuance of passports to a foreign country and for readmission to the United States after residence abroad. There are many instances on record where such embarrassment and delay has been experienced by parents returning to this country with children for whom they had neglected procuring certificates showing that they had been born in the United States.

Birth registration proves the child's age, an essential point in admission to school and leaving school; in marriage voting, jury or military service, and in admission to and practice of professions and the holding of many public offices. Birth registration proves the child's identity, an essential point in the administration of property, settlement of inheritances, pensions, and insurance, and as evidence of age and citizenship in order to obtain entrance to Civil Service examinations and in claims accruing under the Widow's and Orphan's Pension Law.

It is estimated that only about 71 per cent of births in Texas are now being recorded. This condition prevents Texans from being in the registration area of the United States which is composed of states reporting 96 per cent of all Vital Statistics.

At a called meeting of the West Ward Parent-Teacher Association Wednesday afternoon at the school building the members decided to improve their playground equipment. Mrs. Rea, the president, appointed a nominating committee to suggest names to be submitted at a meeting of the association on March 11. At that time a full corps of new officers will be elected for 1925-26 school term.

DREADFUL PAINS

Georgia Lady, Who Had Lost Too Much Weight, Was Advised to Take Cardul and Is Now Well.

Columbus, Ga.—Mrs. George S. Hunter, of this city, writes: "After I married, thirteen months ago, I suffered with dreadful pains in my sides during ... My side hurt so bad it nearly killed me. I had to go to bed and stay sometimes two weeks at a time. I could not work and I just dragged around the house.

"I got very thin—I went from 125 pounds down to less than 100. My mother had been a user of Cardul and she knew what a good medicine it was for this trouble, so she told me to get some and take it. I sent to the store after it and before I had taken the first bottle I began to improve.

"My side hurt less and I began to improve in health ... The Cardul acted as a life line and I do not feel like the same person. I am so much better. I am well now. I have gained ten pounds and am still gaining. My sides do not trouble me at all.

"I wish every suffering woman knew about Cardul." NC-169

1-4 box gelatine 1-8 cup cream
1-4 cup cold water 6 lady fingers
1-3 cup powdered sugar
3 cups whipping cream
1 teaspoon vanilla

Soak gelatine in cold water, dissolve in the cream, scalded. Add powdered sugar and vanilla. When it begins to thicken fold in the whip from 3 cups of cream. Line molds with lady fingers, turn in the mixture and chill.

Minted Pineapple.
Green Vegetable coloring
1 can sliced pineapple
1 bunch mint 1 1-2 cups water
2 cups sugar

Wash mint and boil in 1 1-2 cups water for 15 minutes. Drain off water and measure 1 cup. Add sugar and cook 20 minutes. Add green vegetable coloring to obtain the right shade of green. Place slices of canned pineapple in this syrup and let stand overnight. This affords a delightful variation for salads and desserts.

CANDIED GRAPE FRUIT PEEL

This confection is too little known but is extremely easy to make and most delicious as an accessory to the dinner or tea table and for nibbling between festivities. Using grapefruit juice instead of water for the syrup is a most happy thought it gives an interesting tartness and freshness to the finished product.

Remove peel from the fruit in sections, cover with salt water—1 tablespoon salt to 1 quart water—and let stand overnight. In the morning drain, cover with cold water and boil for one hour. Drain well; put on again in hot water and boil until tender, this takes from fifteen minutes to one hour, depending on the fruit. When the peel is tender—test with fork—lift out of water and drain each piece thoroughly.

Make a syrup of sugar and grapefruit juice, using just a little more sugar in weight than you have peel and barely enough juice to dissolve sugar. (We had 3-4 pound peel and made a syrup of 1 pound sugar, 2 cups, and 1-2 cup grapefruit juice.) While this is heating cut the grapefruit peel with scissors or sharp knife into strips from 3-4 inch to 1-2 inch in width and from 1 inch to 2 inches in length.

Cook the peel in the syrup, simmering slowly, until the syrup is almost gone and the peel is clear. Remove to plate or sheet of heavy paper, roll in dry sugar and spread out and dry. After several hours sprinkle again with sugar if all has been absorbed. Set in a hot cool place to dry for forty-eight hours.

AMUSEMENTS

Al and Ray Rockett, the young producers of "Abraham Lincoln", which is scheduled to show at the Palace Theatre, commencing Monday, spent nearly three years, transferring to the screen the life of this great patriot. Experts on the life of Lincoln were called to aid them. All of the places connected with the life of Lincoln were visited and an exact replica of the village of Salem, where Lincoln first gained fame was built.

Buck Jones produces a new thrill in "The Desert Outlaw" which opened at the Lyric Theatre today for a run of two days.

Buck Jones as Sam Langdon, a hardy prospector has saved May Halway from certain, horrible death by catching her in his arms as he races beside the runaway stage coach from which she leaps.

To save her outlaw brother, Tom, the girl double-crosses Langdon. He is arrested for highway robbery and murder. The mob is in lynching mood.

Handcuffed, Buck huris his horse, "Silver" at the Sheriff, bowls him over; batters his way through the hostile crowd. Still handcuffed, he leaps from his horse to the last car of an express train still handcuffed, at a water tank stop he crawls under the car and rides on the brake beam, holding his handcuffs against the car wheel till they're cut in two.

The current attraction at the Palace Theatre is a melodramatic novelty that has more human appeal than the usual melodrama. The picture is "The Silent Accuser", produced and directed by Chester M. Franklin and released by Metro-Goldwyn.

It is an innovation in screen entertainment in that it makes use of a situation never done before.

A highly intelligent police dog, Peter the Great, is the only witness of the murder of the heroine's stepfather. Through the dog's almost human instinct the hero escapes from prison after he had been accused falsely of the crime. Subsequently, in a story filled with adventure, romance, intrigue and thrills, the dog and the heroine, who dresses as a boy, assist the hero in catching the real criminal.

Anyone who contemplates a visit to the Queen Theatre to see "The Hellion", the latest J. B. Warner picture, is slated for a decidedly different kind of a treat from what they usually expect to get from a western presentation. "The Hellion" is a ladies' picture. It's the story of a woman who the author claims was a real character in life. But whether this is true or not "The Hellion" in the picture is a remarkable character. A beautiful young woman cast her lot amongst men of the wilds. Instead of being a toy in their hands, she chose to rule them. Her commands were obeyed by half-breed savages, her whims satisfied by dangerous gunmen. Her heart was of stone, and she hated men until one day she found love that was not for her. See what she did, yourself.

A. E. Pistole, superintendent of the Texas and Pacific railroad, Rio Grande division, passed thru Sweetwater Friday morning on No. 2 east-bound. Pistole has headquarters at Big Spring.

George Washington and Mistress Martha will arrive in Sweetwater Saturday at 10 a. m. and join Dolly Madison in looking over the West Texas cowboys and other notable personages who will attend the High School Carnival, in the Wright building, next door to the Public Library. 23-24c

Know Your Meat

In the first place, nearly any cut of meat is good, provided the animal was young and the meat properly killed and you cook it just right. If you are a young housekeeper, we will give you some hints about judging the meat.

Beef should be a bright red, mottled with a white fat. Don't allow any butcher to sell you an old, dark bluish-red piece of beef which is surrounded with yellow or no fat at all. Yellow fat is a sure sign of old beef unless the beef comes from a Jersey cow. Jersey fat is like Jersey cream—yellow. The grain of the meat should be fine, too.—Prudence Penny in the Fort Worth Record.

The housekeeper, young and inexperienced or not, need have no fear in ordering her meat from us -- we handle only the BEST.

Ambition is most often prompted by a thoroughly healthy body. Kellogg's ALL-BRAN brings permanent relief from constipation.

"Shoulders that droop and feet that drag"
