TO CALL PARLEY ON DEBT FUNDING

President Coolidge Re-opened Door For Inter-allied Debt Conference in London

OVERRIDES DISAPPROVAL

Statements of Secretary Mellon Regarding Such Parley Not Considered by President

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—President Coolidge today opened the door which Secretary Kellogg and Secretary Mellon slammed yesterday on the suggestion of French-British-American debt conference in London.

The White House spokesman said that although the debate funding commission thinks Washington the proper place for funding negotiation, Mr. Coolidge understands this decision was not final. The President is to abide by the advice of the commission which has jurisdiction over the matter.

Without naming the valedictory editorial by Col. George Harvey in the Washington Post proposing the London conference, the White House spokesman said the President deemed such suggestion helpful whether it came from official or newspaper source.

Officials of the State and Treasury departments disapproved of the Harvey proposal as untenable on the grounds that Washington was the natural place for a discussion of debts to this country, and that some cabinet members of the commission could not conveniently meet in London.

DISEASE IN CITY

Three Cases Typhoid During May—Case Infantile Paralysis Reported—Clean-up Urged

Four cases of contagious disease are reported by City Health Officer Dr. G. Burton Fain. Included are three cases of typhoid fever and one case of the dreaded infantile paralysis.

In the typhoid fever, one case resulted in death while the other two are convalescing. The paralysis case was reported Sunday.

Co-operation of every one in the clean-up campaign being undertaken by city officials is urged by Dr. Fain as the most important prevention of diseases, especially typhoid fever.

Collection of garbage in the residence district, plan for which was worked out by Dr. Fain with the City Commission began this week. Garbage should be placed in cans with covers to keep out flies, who breed in such filth.

Elimination of filth will eliminate flies which will in turn eliminate much disease.

Dr. Fain emphasized however, that in order to take advantage of the city's garbage collection, it was necessary for citizens to place their refuse in regular garbage cans with time cans in boxes or other easily handled receptacles and easily accessible for the collector to get to them.

The bandits took to their automobile and company officers gave chase, emptying their guns at them.

After running a few blocks, the robbers were lost sight of. Approximately $4,000 in a second satchel was overlooked by the gunmen.

Shares in Southwestern Power and Light Co. Offered Here

Local residents desiring a safe investment which has shown itself able to pay dividends in both good times and bad, will be interested in announcements of L. J. Geer of the West Texas Electric Company. Starting June 5, Mr. Geer and the employees of this concern will sell Preferred Stock of the Southwestern Power & Light Co.

The Southwestern Company owns the entire outstanding securities of 11 operating public utilities including the West Texas Electric Co., and a substantial interest in two others. Although its Preferred Stock is to be sold locally for the first time, its first issue was sold in November, 1912. Priced at $100 a share, the stock pays dividends every three months of 7 per cent. Since shares were first issued more than 12 years ago, the company has never failed to pay its full dividend; continuing through periods of severe business depression which from time to time made dividend payments impossible for many other industries.

LEGION TO START DRIVE TOMORROW

Will Raise County's Quota of $880 For Legion Endowment Fund In Drive Wednesday

WILL SELL POPPIES

Flowers to Tag Contributors to Fund—Mass Meeting at Square Will Close Campaign

The drive by the Oscar McDonald Post, American Legion, to raise $880, the county's quota on the Legion Five Million Dollars Endowment Fund, will start tomorrow at 10 o'clock, and local Legionnaires expressed belief that this county would go over the top before sunset Wednesday.

The entire membership of the post will co-operate Wednesday in raising this county's quota, and it is believed that the amount will be raised before National Endowment Week, which began Monday, is half over. So far this week, which has been set aside by the President, Governor of Texas and Mayor of Sweetwater as the official week for raising the Legion endowment fund, local ex-service men have made no effort to raise the quota, but have prepared their plan of action very thoroughly.

Beginning at 10 o'clock in the morning, Legionnaires will begin carrying out their campaign as has been planned, and it will probably be a matter of only a few hours before the $880 quota is raised.

The ex-servicemen will meet at 10 o'clock. Seven committees of two or more Legionnaires each, will each take a section of the city, and the greatest "poppy sale" ever seen here will get underway. A large shipment of poppies has arrived and each contributor to the fund will be given a poppy. The flower will serve as a tag, and will serve to show the city that its wearer has done his bit toward the endowment fund, Legionnaires stated.

The day's campaign will come to a climax at 6:30 Wednesday evening with a mass meeting of citizens on the court house lawn. The drive will be wound up there with a number of speeches and a band concert by the W. O. W. band. Talks will also be made, and a discussion held at the mass meeting, on the trade trip to be made by business men next week.

Banks of the city will be closed Wednesday commemorating Jefferson Davis birthday anniversary.

ROBBERS WRECK PASSENGER TRAIN

Seven Coaches and Engine of Santa Fe Passenger Train Plough Down Embankment

OFFICERS SEARCH FOR GANG

Believe Robber Gang Removed Spikes—Spreading Rails Caused Wreck—Was Moving Slowly

By United Press.

OKLAHOMA CITY, June 2.—The derauling of seven coaches of Santa Fe passenger train No. 6, north bound from Oklahoma City to Kansas City at 4:15 a. m., today, was believed to have been the work of a gang of train robbers. The spikes were found removed from the ties, allowing the rails to spread.

The seven coaches rolled down a 25 foot embankment.

Every available officer from Oklahoma City formed a posse that is searching in the dense woods where the accident occurred. Whether the mail cars carried valuable cargo or not could not be learned.

All coaches and the engine left the track. The train had just slowed down for a danger warning from a block signal system. It was moving along cautiously at a speed of less than 10 miles per hour when the rails gave way.

Officers said they found the place along the tracks near the scene of the wreck where train bandits waited for the train to plunge into the trap.

BAN WOLVES

Dallas Judge Rules Against Keeping Wolves and Roosters

By United Press.

DALLAS, June 2.—Howling of wolves and crowing roosters are taboo in Dallas, according to rulings of Judge W. C. Graves, corporation court ruler.

One hardy citizen, whose neighbor said "harbored" a howling wolf that disturbed early morning slumbers, was advised by the judge to get rid of the animal.

"It's useless to attempt to keep roosters that won't crow. It's natural with them," the judge observed as he disposed of a case wherein a crowing rooster was complained against.

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, June 2.—Col. William Mitchell, former assistant Chief of the Army Air Service, packed his trunks today to leave Washington for his new post at Fort Sam Houston, Texas.

Mitchell and his wife will start tomorrow.

"I have enjoyed my duty here, but I am glad to leave because conditions became such that no progress was possible in the War and Navy departments," the fighting airman said in a farewell interview with United Press.

"You could give the Army and Navy three times as much money as they are getting now, and aviation would remain at a standstill as long as the air forces remained under the Army and Navy departments."

Douglas Fairbanks Draws Large Audience at R. & R. Palace Theater Monday Night

"What a wonderful picture" seems to sum up everybody's opinion after seeing the "Thief of Bagdad" at the Palace theater Monday. The house was packed and applause was frequent.

A more audacious "thief" than Douglas Fairbanks would be difficult to imagine. Touched by love, he reforms, and finally wins the Princess. It is the same old Douglas Fairbanks, with an art ripened and nearer perfection through experience and study.

The "Thief of Bagdad" will be repeated today for the last showing.

San Francisco reported cool weather. It snowed in Wyoming, and four persons were injured and scores of buildings demolished by a terrific windstorm at Weir, Kansas.

Rains were reported in many cities. Four deaths from heat were recorded in Chicago. New York had six heat prostrations. Nineteen persons were bitten by heat mad dogs in Cleveland, and nearly as many in Chicago.

New England was visited by a severe storm last night and considerable damage resulted, although it afforded relief from the terrific heat of the day. At Boston, the downpour brought nearly an inch in an hour and flooded cellars.

PLANT GRAIN

The wise farmer won't need to read this. It is the one who plants every available square inch of land in cotton and then spends half his cotton money for feed next fall, that should heed a "Plant More Grain" plea. Present prospects indicate a good cotton year with fair returns from cotton raised. Still, if cotton brought 50c per pound, it would be cheaper to plant grain sufficient to carry the farmer's horses and mules and other stock through the winter. It has been proved again and again that it is cheaper to raise feed than to buy it, as far as the feed itself is concerned. Then, sufficient grain means better milk cows and more milk, fat hogs and more of them and a beautiful supply of fine chickens and eggs.

The wise landlord will see to it that his tenant plants a few acres in grain, and the wise banker should ask the prospective farmer-borrower "how much feed have you planted?" You know, in case of a bad cotton year, a barn full of grain would assure the farmer of his ham and backbones during the fall and winter, his milk and butter the year round; and his chicken and eggs when he wanted them, to say nothing of being classified as a wise farmer, and not a one-crop man.

MORE PARK GROUND

In the purchase by the city of 50 odd acres of additional land adjoining the City Lake Park and prospective county fair site, Sweetwater is insured for years to come, against a shortage in ground for recreational, civic, and fair purposes. The purchase was a wise and timely step taken by city officials.

Sweetwater people have for so long enjoyed afternoons and evenings and holidays in and around the City Lake and on the ideally located park grounds, that the great value of the city parks is seldom realized. In the City Lake Park, Sweetwater has a priceless possession that will increase in usefulness with the years.

In the purchase of the additional land is also seen a site for future county fairs, where country and city people may mingle together in the prettiest little garden spot in the county. The Fair Association has no need to worry longer over fair sites. Their time and money may now go toward providing buildings and stands for fair purposes. The city will place the grounds at the disposal of the Fair association, and at the disposal of all worthy civic and county organizations. This ground won't make a fair however. It takes work and money to do that.

This Caused Scopes' Indictment

EVOLUTION The Doctrine of Evolution.—We have now learned that animal forms may be arranged so as to begin with very simple uncellular forms and culminate with a group which contains man himself. This arrangement is called the evolutionary series. Evolution means change, and these groups are believed by scientists to represent stages in complexity of development of life on the earth. Geology teaches that millions of years ago, life upon the earth was very simple, and that gradually more and more complex forms of life appeared, as the rocks formed later in time show the most highly developed forms of animal life. The great English scientist, Charles Darwin, explained the theory of evolution. This is the belief that simple forms of life on the earth slowly and gradually gave rise to those more complex and that thus ultimately the most complex forms came into existence. The Number of Animal Species.—Over 500,000 species of animals are known to exist to-day, as the following table shows.

This is what started all the trouble. It is a page from George W. Hunter's "Civic Biology" text book, which John T. Scopes used in his classes at Dayton, Tenn., and for which he was indicted as a violator of the anti-evolution law. Accompanying is a picture of Charles Darwin.

GOES TO TRIAL

Ex-Klan Leader Faces Murder Today In Connection With Kidnaping and Poisoning

By United Press. INDIANAPOLIS, June 2.—David C. Stephenson, who two years ago boasted the leadership of four hundred thousand Ku Klux Klansmen in Indiana, today stood at the bar in criminal court here for trial on a charge of first-degree murder.

With him were Earl Klenck and Earl Gentry, two of his lieutenants during the height of his power as grand dragon of the Indiana Klan.

The three men are under indictment for murder in connection with the death of Miss Madge Oberholzer, a young educational worker, living in Irvington, a suburb of Indianapolis. The murder charge on which the three men stood trial today brings up a legal question never raised before in the criminal history of Indiana.

The jury which hears the case will be compelled to decide whether a person can be held responsible for the death of another from self-administered poison, because the defendant refused to call medical attention for the victim. Miss Oberholzer, according to the charges in the indictment, was kidnaped by Stephenson and his two henchmen on the night of March 16 and taken from Indianapolis to Hammond, Ind.

The indictment asserts that she was assaulted repeatedly on the train en route to Hammond and later in a hotel at Hammond.

Later, according to the indictment, the girl evaded Stephenson's guard long enough to buy poison and take it.

Upon learning of her act, Stephenson and his two aids loaded her into an automobile, drove back to Indianapolis and kept her a prisoner in the garage at his house for a day before permitting her to return to the home of her parents, it is charged.

Throughout this time, Miss Oberholzer said the three refused to call a doctor for her. The girl died two weeks later from the effects of the poison.

The state's case is based on the contention that the men became responsible for her death by failing to summon a doctor or administer an antidote for the poison.

Although Stephenson at one time guided the destiny of the Ku Klux Klan in Indiana, the hooded order has publicly denounced him and promised financial support in his prosecution, if necessary. Starting as a ward politician in Evansville, Stephenson rose with meteoric rapidity to a position of dominant influence in state politics through his work in organizing the klan. He was known from one end of the

LEADS IN EXPORTS

Texas Climbs to Front in 1924—Leads Over New York

By United Press.
WASHINGTON, June 2.—Texas climbed to the head of the list in 1924 as exporter, taking the lead from New York in the last quarter of 1924, according to the government's record book maintained by the Commerce department.

Texas' exports for the year amounted to $737,218,927 as compared with New York's total of $731,218,927. Pennsylvania was third but approximately $400,000,000 behind Texas. Cotton shipments totalling $565,270,762 accounted for the shift of leadership from the Empire state. Eleven states showed a export trade balance of more than $100,000,000 for the year the records showed.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

When Simmering
Always simmer with the lid on, because the lid keeps the steam in and it is the action of the steam almost as much as that of the hot liquid which cooks the meat and vegetables.

Cleaning Discolored Cups
When rims of coffee and tea cups become discolored, the use of strong soaps or scouring powders is not advisable, as it wears off the decorations on fine china. Salt mixed with bicarbonate of soda will take off every stain without damaging your china in any way.

A Delicious, Inexpensive Dessert
Bake a loaf of soft gingerbread, split and spread while hot with warm apple sauce, having a layer of the sauce on top. Serve either plain or with whipped cream. It's delicious.

For Crispy Potato Chips
Slice potatoes very thin, cover with cold water and let them soak for two or three hours. Dry them well before frying and you will find they will be more crisp, as the starch has been soaked out.

To Keep Egg Yolks Fresh
When only the whites of eggs are used, place yolks in a small cup and cover with a square of muslin or cheesecloth folded small and almost dripping with water. Keep cloth wet and egg yolks cool. Yolks cared for in this manner will keep moist and fresh for a day or two.

Points About the Care of Cheese
When cheese is first purchased, wrap it either in oiled paper or in a damp tea towel and store it so as to avoid coming in contact with strong flavors or odors.
Being a ready-to-eat product, cheese is heated merely to melt it and incorporate it with the rest of the mixture. This operation does not require high heat. And, too, being high in protein content, cheese must be cooked at a low temperature in order to obtain a product that will be easily digested. Therefore, in most cheese dishes, the double boiler is used. By this method a cheese dish may be prepared without direct contact with high heat.

READING BIBLE
Congregation California Church require 80-Hour Session
REDLANDS, Calif., June 2.—At midnight after 24 hours continuous reading, less than a third of the Bible had been read at the First Methodist church of Yacapa, near here. Continuous session of the church is under way for the reading. First book of Chronicles was read at midnight which was about two hours behind schedule. Instead of 72 hours, as had been originally estimated for reading, approximately 80 hours will be required, it was believed.
Members of the congregation are serving as readers and about 50 had participated up to midnight.

Miss Ruth Derrick of Decker was shopping here today. She has been teaching at Brooks this year and closed her school term last Friday.

Have Coyote
A welcomed addition to the Sweetwater Zoo was made late Monday when somebody left a small coyote at the fire station to be added to the menagerie at the City Lake. The animal is barely large enough to stand alone, but according to fire boys, it has a full grown appetite. The coyote will be taken to the Zoo after it has grown and developed somewhat, and is able to take care of itself.
