DEATH TOLL OF HEAT INCREASES

Most Disasterous June Heat Wave in History Snuffs Out Lives Throughout Nation

NO RELIEF EXPECTED SOON

Mortality List Without Parallel in History—14 Die in Past 24 Hours—Many Prostrated

By United Press.

CHICAGO, June 5.—The most disasterous June heat wave since the weather bureau was established increased the death toll to 112 this morning when for the fifth consecutive day a rising tide of heat enveloped a large portion of the nation. Soaring temperature, coupled with low humidity, is expected to continue havoc and suffering, with no relief in sight for at least three days.

Forty-four deaths, attributed to "the heat, in the last 24 hours created a mortality list without parallel in the weather records for the month of June.

Sixty-eight fatalities previously had occurred during the current heat wave. Tropical weather caused 10 deaths in Chicago in the past 24 hours bringing the city's total dead for the week to 19.

Nine additional deaths were reported in New York.

Pittsburgh reported four deaths from the heat, increasing the total there to 6.

In Boston, where the maximum temperature was recorded as a record-breaking 96.3 degrees, four were killed by the heat.

Four deaths were reported at New Haven, Conn. Washington, officially the nation's hottest spot, had a maximum temperature of 99 degrees with 3 deaths and 32 prostrations.

In Detroit, 2 have died and 3 were overcome by the heat.

Binghamton, N. Y., reported two deaths and several prostrations.

Two bathers were drowned at Philadelphia.

Albany and Syracuse, New York, reported one death each.

Prostrations occurred in St. Louis, Wilmington, Del., and Harrisburg, Pa.

COLORADO WANTS ALL RIO GRANDE

Dam Proposed In Colorado Would Impound All the Waters of Rio Grande In That State

MOODY GETS PROTEST FILED

Allege That Secretary of Interior Work Gave Permission For Proposed New Dam

By United Press.

AUSTIN, June 5.—In a statement filed today with Attorney General Dan Moody as basis for the water right suit to be filed by the State of Texas vs. The State of Colorado, allegations are made that the state of Colorado has obtained permission from Dr. Hubert Work, secretary of the interior, to take all the water the Rio Grande has, which "is wrong and unjust to the water users obtaining water from the supply in the lake at Elephant Butte Dam, and will work a serious loss to them."

The Colorado dam is yet to be constructed and the suit to be filed by Texas in the United States Supreme Court will be one of equity to prevent appropriation of all water in the Rio Grande river.

WANT BURLERSON

Regents of A. & M. College Asked to Name Officer United States Army As Head

By United Press.

AUSTIN, June 5.—The Board of directors of Texas A. & M. college will be asked to appoint Major Richard Coke Burlerson, U. S. A., as president of that institution to fill the vacancy caused by the resignation of Dr. W. B. Bizzell, according to Austin friends of Major Burlerson.

Major Burlerson is a native Texan, a graduate of A. & M. College and also of West Point. Before going to France during the World war, he was instructor of young men commissioned as officers in the United States Army.

For a time in France, under the appointment of General John J. Pershing he served in a similar capacity and was then sent to the front as Colonel of a Pennsylvania regiment.

He is now on the General Staff as General, and is detailed in writing a history of the World war.

NO ONE IN SIGHT

Board Regents Have No Successor For Bizzell, As Yet.

The Board of Regents of A. & M. college have no successor lined up as yet for Dr. W. B. Bizzell, head of that institution who recently resigned to accept a similar position with Oklahoma A. & M. according to Walter Boothe, member of the board who was in town from the ranch this week.

"We were paying Bizzell $9,000 a year. Oklahoma offered him $15,000 salary, all expenses, etc. We just could not keep him, that is all. Texas has lost another fine educator and it is time this state was revising its salary limit for institutional heads."

Dr. Bizzell is 48 years old. His greatest accomplishments have been achieved as president of the Texas A. & M. college. He was formerly president of the College of Industrial Arts at Denton, Texas.

CITY NEEDS NEW TRASH GROUNDS

Health Officer Recommends to City Commission That Present Dump Grounds Be Condemned

RECOMMENDS MILK ORDINANCE

City Officials Considering Regulations For Operating Dairies—Pass On Accounts

By United Press.

Recommendations by Dr. G. Burton Fain, city health officer, a discussion of the sanitary condition of the city and clean-up campaign, and passing on regular accounts featured the regular Thursday afternoon session of the Sweetwater city commission.

Dr. Fain, in his recommendations to the city officials, stressed the needs for a new or additional dumping grounds, due to the large increase of collected trash and rubbish since the city has started the free trash wagons over the residential district. The old dump grounds are practically filled, the health officer said, and are unsuitable for the purpose.

Fain recommended that the grounds be condemned, that all trash and especially dead carcasses be burned, and that efforts be made to obtain new dump ground facilities. The present grounds drain into the lake, he pointed out, and are on a main highway.

City officials indicated that negotiations were underway at present to secure new grounds.

Dr. Fain stated that the city was taking advantage of the clean-up campaign, and free trash wagons, and that improvements were noted in many vicinities in the residential section.

Dr. Fain strongly recommended the dairy law which has been under consideration by present and past administrations. The ordinance, as suggested, would require regular tests and inspection of dairies, and all milk would be graded according to its quality and the grade marked on the bottle.

The city discussed plans for a new sewerage pump station, and plans for improving the present station will be carried out as formerly announced, it was indicated.

MUST OBEY LAW TO BE CHRISTIAN

Evangelist Vavter Uses Marriage Ceremony To Illustrate Theme of Sermon Last Night

SPECIAL FEATURES TONIGHT

"End of Perfect Day" To Be Sung by Mr. House and Illustrated—Children Bible Drill

"The Wedding Ceremony" was the subject of Evangelist Vavter's sermon last night at the First Christian church. The text was taken from Ephesians 5:22-23 which has the appearance at first of showing the relationship between husband and wife, but a careful reading shows that Paul was considering the relationship of Christ and the church.

"God commanded marriage, but left man to regulate it. God has commanded us to accept Christ, but has told us how. To ignore the marriage ceremony is considered sinful but it is more sinful to ignore the commands Christ has given us."

To illustrate this position, Mr. Vavter told of a young couple he married several years ago—Bernard Jones and Elvira Smith. They kept company for twelve long years, and finally one of them proposed and the other accepted, but she was still Miss Smith. Bernard was a fine young man and her folks liked him. Elvira was a fine young woman, and his folks liked her. All the relatives were willing, but she was still Miss Smith. Finally a marriage license was procured showing that the state was willing. The preacher was spoken to and he was willing but she remained Miss Smith. The law had not been complied with.

"The day of the wedding came and the couple were married. Now the law had been complied with. Miss Smith became Mrs. Jones. Just as before the ceremony she had no right to wear the groom's name, so now she had no right to wear any other name.

"Some people make the confession of their faith in Christ and state their intention of following Him, and then think they are Christians, but they have not completed the ceremony so they have no right to wear Christ's name. When you have completed the steps laid down in the Bible, then and then only have you a right to wear the name of Christ. Complete obedience in everything makes a man a Christian."

There will be a number of special features tonight. By special request Mr. House will illustrate the song, "The End of a Perfect Day," while it is being sung. Elm Will Be Paved From Third To Park Entrance—To Receive Bids For Fourth Street Project

By United Press.

Elm street, one of the most important residential streets in the city, will be paved from Third street to the City Lake Park, as the result of the action of the city commission late Thursday in ordering that street paved. A petition for paving submitted by property owners along the street, was filed with the commission several weeks ago.

Beginning at Third street, Elm will be paved 50 feet wide up to the south property line of Fifth street. From here to the park, the street will be paved 30 feet wide.

The paving will extend past and include the railroad tracks just south of the ball park, but will stop at the entrance to the park at the corner of the ball grounds.

Advertising for bids for the project will start shortly, it was stated.

The commission Thursday formally accepted from the West Texas Construction Co., the paving of the Elm street block from Second to Third streets, which was completed several days ago. Workmen have started paving on the remainder of the Third street project, from the square to the newly completed paving on East Third street. When this is completed, an unbroken paved street will extend from the square to the East Ward school.

Advertising for bids for paving Fourth street will probably start next week, it was indicated. This street was ordered paved a short time ago.

LEAVENWORTH, Kan., June 5.—Frank J. Norfleet, Hale Center, Texas, ranchman and trapper of Confidence men, was present at the gates of Leavenworth prison today when W. B. Spencer, last of the gang that swindled him of $45,000, was released after serving two years for peddling narcotics.

Warden I. W. Biddle of the penitentiary had ordered Norfleet out of the prison grounds because a fight between the Texan and Spencer was feared. Norfleet waited patiently outside the gates.

Six years ago, Norfleet began a long chase which resulted in the round-up of 70 "bumco" artists, after he had been swindled of a fortune. His pursuit led all over the world and cost $17,000.

TROUSERS

Perhaps, after all, it is men who are the contrary sex. Women's skirts have been growing shorter and narrower, and babies (who are, of course, under the complete control of the women) have ceased wearing those flowing garments that fell two yards below the wriggling toes of all baby pictures.

In the meantime, however, men's pants have been growing longer and fuller and boys are graduating from the knicker to the trouser at an earlier and earlier age.

There is no cause for anything but rejoicing in the latter development. There is nothing that looks more awkward or feels more awkward than a gawky youngster of 16 or 17 in a pair of pants that end at the knee.

But it will not be well to advance the age of matriculation to the point where there is no thrill in the change. Nothing that happens afterward can possess the proud significance that is attached to the first pair of long trousers.

The reminiscent tears of the boy's mother and the pride of the father when such an event takes place in a household mark the boy's transition from the control of womankind to the world of men.

THOMAS RILEY MARSHALL

The nation loses a characteristic citizen in the death of Thomas Riley Marshall, twenty-eighth vice-president of the United States.

It is a man who is able to think straight through a mesh of prejudice, sham and sophistry—and, what is rarer still, a man who was able to laugh at the flaws which he found. He was never a preacher; always the satirist. He did not howl at calamity, but illuminated the calamity-howler's point by a humorous story which did more good than a dozen jeremiads.

Diogenes (to the mortification of his well-wishing friends and the delight of all future homily-makers) searched, lantern in hand, through the broad daylight for an honest man. Tom Marshall said he was searching for a good five-cent cigar that sold at a nickel. In that statement of his Odyssey, he summed up the inflated valuations and distorted standards of a nation.

There was mingled in him the homespun, humorous philosophy of the cross-roads philosopher, the vision of a statesman and the practical sophistication of a big-city business man. The type is characteristic of the United States, and should be one of the nation's proudest assets.

At the time of his death in Washington, Thomas Riley Marshall was 71 years of age. He was the holder of many honors, apart from that which the electorate of this nation presented him. He was a thirty-third degree Mason, a prominent Odd Fellow and a trustee of Wabash college. Many universities had conferred honorary degrees on him. He was a member of Phi Beta Kappa.

The feeling of the nation toward Thomas Marshall's memory will be one rather more intimate than reverence. Famous and distinguished are not exactly the right words for him, although he was both. The public's sentiment toward him was more in the nature of an avuncular affection.

THE MILK ORDINANCE

Sweetwater people would doubtless welcome a milk and dairy ordinance as is now being considered by the city commission. The ordinance contemplated, requires that all dairies, farmers, or individuals selling milk must undergo regular inspection by health officers; must follow certain specifications in operating the dairy, handling the milk and utensils, and most important, must show on each bottle of milk the grade of the milk as fixed by the official inspector.

The milk would be graded from A downward, according to the purity of the milk, the condition of the cows, and the method of operating the dairy. This is the best method of ridding the community of unsanitary, disease-spreading milk dealers, if such exist. And the grade would be stamped on the bottle cap. No housewife will buy Grade D or E milk when Grade A is obtainable.

Cafes and hotels could not keep their patronage by serving and using low grade milk when the public demands Grade A, knowing that such a grade means that the dairy or home from which it came is operated on a sanitary basis, that the cows are tested regularly, and the milk examined and analyzed often.

The ordinance, if such were passed, would effect even the home where one cow is kept and milk was occasionally sold to neighbors. For, there is, according to physicians and health officials, as much probability in a one-cow "dairy" spreading disease and germs in an occasional quart of milk sold next door as in the large dairies. In fact, cases of typhoid fever in this city have occurred where the family bought milk from a farmer's home, and a physician stated the disease was doubtless traceable to the milk supply.

The dairy owner and milk dealer will welcome such an ordinance also for the grade marked on their bottle will be proof positive of the character of their dairy.

Mrs. S. E. McGill and two children have returned from a month's visit with her parents and relatives in Oklahoma.

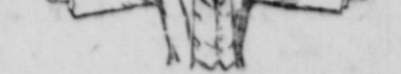

What the World Is Doing

As Seen by Popular Mechanics Magazine

Weighting the World

In a curious, scientific experiment of concrete thirty-five feet below the earth's surface, Dr. Paul E. Hoyl of the bureau of standards is weighing the whole world in a remarkably simple manner.

This great globe on which we live weighs one thousand million million million tons.

How, then, if we are to accept the figures of other scientists, who attempted to weigh it some three decades ago. The figure obtained by these experts was correct to an accuracy of one part in 5,000. Dr. Hoyl is working for greater accuracy—one part in 60,000. This is how he is turning the trick.

Dr. Hoyl's laboratory is located far underground in order that the delicate apparatus with which he works may be free from the effects of vibrations such as set up by moving motor trucks, speeding automobiles and ponderous street cars. A so-called torsion pendulum, which terminates in two small gold balls, is suspended in a brass bell jar in a concrete space just outside the subterranean laboratory. This bell jar widens from an upper diameter of five inches to a base diameter of one foot. The little balls of gold are suspended by tungsten filaments, one one-thousandth of an inch in diameter. The arrangement is such that by the action of gravitation, the pendulum is set into oscillation during one of the test periods. A reflecting mirror carries the motions of the turning pendulum to the laboratory where they are noted by Dr. Hoyl. He uses these data in a scientific formula, along with figures representing the distances between the balls and a steel cylinder within the bell jar, and between the balls and the center of the earth, to figure out how many times heavier the earth is than the cylinder. In this way, he calculates the accurate weight of the earth. When the weight of the world is determined, it will be easily possible then to ascertain the weight of the United States, Africa or Asia. Lines drawn from the borders of the United States or any other country would be extended to the center of the earth to form a cone or other geometrical figure of a size that could be calculated.

S-Bend in Street at Crossing Reduces Auto Hazards

An experiment in safety, a novel arrangement of the road and crossing signs is being tried in Florida at a grade intersection with a railroad. At the right, on either side of the track, the street is curved and is guarded by a stout wire fence to keep autos from plunging through. Motorists are thus prevented from driving straight across the rails, and in slowing down for the curve, naturally become on the alert for trains that may be approaching. The sign, supplemented at night by a bright red lamp, is placed in the middle of the road at the end of a plot bordered by a white curb, which serves to emphasize the warning. The curve is said to discourage drivers from attempting to beat trains across the tracks, one cause of many accidents.

Flowers, which are placed in vases for display, will last much longer if the leaves that extend below the surface of the water in the vase are removed.

Using Loop with a Neutrodyne

Many readers who have a neutrodyne set will no doubt wish to use a loop instead of an outdoor aerial. A simple one to construct is shown in the illustration.

It consists of four pieces of broomstick, cut to the lengths indicated in the upper right-hand detail. Six saw cuts are made on opposite sides at one end, to hold the wire, and the inner ends are screwed into a gas-pipe cross. Number 22 d.a.c. wire is used and six turns are wound on each side. The loop is held up, yet permitted to rotate freely, by inserting the 17-in. stick into a floor socket, which is screwed on a wooden base. Both ends of the wire are connected to a variable condenser of 500-mf. capacity, which is equal to that of any 25-plate condenser. From the condenser terminals leads are brought out to the receiving set and connected to the antenna and ground binding posts.

The three diagrams given in the lower part of the illustration show several other methods of hooking up the loop to the instrument, with and without the condenser. Each hook-up should be tried separately to determine which works best; this varies with different sets.

For 20 Cents

KANSAS CITY, June 5.—Max Rope mail carrier, picked up nine sticks of rhubarb that fell out of a broken package at the postoffice. It was bruised and about to spoil.

"Throw it away," said a fellow employe. Rope was going to. Then he remembered that his sister-in-law, ill, liked rhubarb sauce and thought she might as well have it; so he took it home for her.

Thereupon the district attorney and secret service got busy and Rope was indicted for theft. The rhubarb was worth 20 cents.

He was acquitted in short order, but he had to mortgage his house and he lost his job. In a few years he would have been eligible for retirement pay.

EASTLAND, June 5.—About three weeks ago, Mrs. Frank Jones of Eastland, lost the set out of her diamond ring, which she valued at more than $200. A diligent search about the house and premises where it was thought possible the stone could be were in vain and Mrs. Jones gave up the search. Yesterday while a neighbor, Mrs. Rainier, was dressing and preparing for cooking a frying chicken that she had purchased from Mrs. Jones, the lost diamond was found in the chicken's gizzard, having worked

The curious anomaly of an amateur outfitting professional cattle rustlers is one of the unique occurrences which makes the William Desmond latest Blue Streak Western, "The Meidler," one replete with thrills and humor. The picture is shown at the Queen theater.

Piqued because his fiancée turned him down and refused to marry him because he was only a millionaire manufacturer in a large city, Richard Gilmore, played by Desmond, determines to regain his lady's love and promptly leaves for the West to search adventure.

LYRIC

Long barreled revolvers belching flame and death into the darkness of a rendezvous of reckless men; hard riding, rickling cowboys; vengeance, heroism and love!

All of these go to make a thrilling romance of "The Ridin' Kid From Powder River," which is the name of the Universal-Hoot Gibeon attraction which will be shown in the Lyric theater beginning today. The scene of the story is in Arizona and the time in the days when the territory then was virtually nothing other than a vast cattle ranch.

PALACE

Not a motion picture based on a story, but a photodrama which actually breathes the spirit of the original tale and personality of the author, is Paramount's new picture, "To the Last Man," a Zane Grey production coming to the Palace theatre today and Saturday. Mr. Grey spent several summers winning the confidence of the inhabitants of the Tonto Basin, Arizona, from whom he learned the story of the famous Pleasant Valley war, a feud of the late eighties which was fought out literally to the "last man."

Gaston Isabel, leader of the cattlemen and Leo Jorth, leader of the sheepmen are old enemies. Both have come to the Tonto Basin from Texas with their sympathizers. Knowing that a fight is coming, Gaston Isabel sends for his son Jean, who is a tripper in Oregon. Meeting Ellen, Jorth's daughter, on his way to the valley, Jean falls in love with her.

WHAT CAN PIMPLY FACED BOYS AND GIRLS EXPECT

Nobody knows better than the boy or girl who has been afflicted time and again by their supposed "best friend," how humiliating it is to have to stand for such "cutting" things when they know they can expect nothing more as long as they don't look attractive on account of a pimply, blotchy or rough skin.

But such heartaches don't have to be put up with. Any boy or girl who is troubled with these itchy skin diseases can get rid of them if they will just use Black and White Ointment and the Soap. The fact that they sell at the tremendous rate of more than two million packages a year shows how popular they are. They are economically priced, in liberal packages. Any dealer can supply you with both the Ointment and the Soap. The 50c size Ointment contains three times as much as the 25c size.—Adv.

IS NEW BREED

Taylor County Man Crosses Black Giants and Anconas

ABILENE, June 5.—A new wrinkle is being put on the horn of plenty in poultry production by P. W. Mitchell, who lives three miles southeast of Abilene.

Seeing the need and ready market for early broilers, Mr. Mitchell conceived the idea of crossing the Jersey Black Giants, one of the largest breeds of chickens known with the Anconas producing a Mitchell hybrid. The three best and best development of the large breed and the fine and activity of the smaller fowl was thus combined in the new chicken.

The experiment proved successful and Mitchell is making money with his broiler flock. The success he has attained is due in part, however, to the sanitary methods that he employs in the poultry yards.

Bury Mrs. Ritchie

PAINS ALL OVER

Lady Says She Took Cardui and Never Saw Such Improvement—Was So Weak Couldn't Stand.

Weatherby, Miss.—Mrs. James M. Hall, of this place, writes that she was "getting weaker all the time" when Cardui, the woman's tonic, was first brought to her attention. After she had taken Cardui a while, she writes that she "never did see such an improvement."

"I suffered all the time and had pains all over," says Mrs. Hall. "I was so weak I could not stand. My skin was cold and flabby. I did not have any color. I had always been a very active woman—used to outdoor exercise, walking and going where I pleased, and to get down, not able to get myself a drink, was indeed a hardship."

"Nothing seemed to help me, till I began on Cardui. The first bottle seemed to strengthen me, and I sent for five more. By the time I had taken these, I was on my feet, going around, doing my work, gained in health and strength. "I took two more bottles, and I am well and strong. Can work my garden. I haven't had any more sickness."

HOW TO GET

in your money

Invest your savings in Southwestern Power & Light Co.

DO not confuse "investing" with "speculating." Lots of folks don't realize the difference. "Speculating" means taking chances; running risks; subjecting your hard-earned dollars to perils and hazards—what many people call "stock gambling." INVESTING does not consist of plunging or blindly taking chances. Investing means putting your money to work in some firmly established business where your dollars will be SAFE and where they will steadily and surely earn more dollars for you. And that is just what happens when you buy shares of SOUTHWESTERN POWER & LIGHT COMPANY

CUMULATIVE PREFERRED STOCK

Consider the man who invested in 10 shares of this stock when the first shares were sold to the public over 12 years ago. It meant an outlay of about $1000.00. Since then his shares have earned dividends for him amounting to $880.00.

That amount would have been his loss if he had let his savings remain idle instead of investing them.

How much will YOU stand to lose in 1 year, in 2 years, in 10 years if you do not invest the money you have saved?

The question is NOT, "can you afford to invest?" but "can you afford NOT to invest?" Can you afford to stand by and LOSE the money your saved dollars can earn for you?

This stock has NEVER FAILED to pay dividends, in HARD times as well as good times, ever since the first shares were sold to the public OVER TWELVE YEARS AGO.

The dividends amount to 7% a year on each dollar you invest if you buy the stock at the present price.

The dates for paying dividends are March 1, June 1, September 1, and December 1.

Cumulative. This stock is cumulative, therefore, the Company must pay the dividends in full, before one penny of dividends can be paid to the Common Stockholders.

SOUTHWESTERN POWER & LIGHT COMPANY

- Oil Belt Power Company
- Oil Cities Electric Company
- Texas Public Utilities Company
- Southwestern Power & Light Co., also owns a substantial interest in the securities of Texas Power & Light Company Fort Worth Power & Light Co.

Preferred as to Assets and Dividends. Besides having preference in regards to dividends, this stock is preferred as to assets and the Company must pay you, in case of liquidation, $100.00 and accrued dividend for each share of Preferred Stock before anything can be paid to Common Stockholders.

Fully Paid and Non-Assessable. The stock is issued as fully paid and is not subject to assessment.

A RE-SALE DEPARTMENT IS MAINTAINED FOR THE BENEFIT OF STOCKHOLDERS WHO MAY WISH TO SELL THEIR SHARES

To The Mothers of Sweetwater:

Foods made with fats that are not easily digested are detrimental to the health of your children. True, children need fat in their food because it is the source of strength and energy. The most digestible fat obtainable should be used for this purpose; one that will always be uniform.

The United States Department of Agriculture has found from numerous experiments that cottonseed oil is a very easily digested fat, more so than olive oil, hog lard or even creamery butter.

It is well to remember that a cooking fat labeled "A Purely Vegetable Product" MAY be made from cottonseed oil or it MAY be made from coconut oil or any other vegetable oil with lower digestibility than cottonseed oil. When you purchase a cooking fat, see that the label states that it is made from cottonseed oil. You will get a purely vegetable product and YOU WILL KNOW that you have the most easily digested cooking fat obtainable.

Yours for better foods,

Mrs. Tucker

THE LAND OF THE SOUTHWEST

(By Almus Day Jameson)
Blackwell, Texas.

There's a land of rolling prairies
Studied here and there with hills
A big land of widest reaches
Which the wild life ever fills.
It's no Eden;
It's no Paradise of God;
It's the sun-baked land of romance
And it's stern-tipped, long and broad.

Where the south wind blows Hell-blister
On the rough cheek of the rock;
Where the sandstorm and the twisters
Hurl their force with mighty shock.
Where it's treeless;
And it's streamless;
And it's all that you should hate.

Like the eagle to his mate,
It's a land of little beauty
Barren hill and desert sand;
It's no place for idle dreamers;

Crossing U. S. by Motorboat

These men—John E. Hoag, Frank S. Wilton and Val Woodbury—are crossing America in an 18-foot motorboat. The photograph shows them leaving Astoria, Ore., and the map shows their route. A 250-mile portage over the continental divide will be the only time the boat has to be taken out of the water. The voyagers come from Los Angeles.

Bracelet Cuff Is New Fad

SINCE a cuff of bracelets is popular now, a Paris designer simulates this fad by placing several bands of silver ribbon on his long sleeved models.

And the lone coyote is howling
In a funeral wail.

Where a rattlesnake is sunning
By each prickly pear and stone;
Where a rabbit runs to cover
Where the scraggly grass is shown.
Where the world ends;
And the night winds
Whisper of an empire new;
'Tis the land of the tomorrow
That is beckoning to you.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

To Remove Stains and Discolorations
Methods recommended for cleaning discolored silver are: Boiling in soda or in water containing soda, sal soda, alum, cream of tartar, borax or lye, or rubbing with dry salt, whitening, grated potatoes, or solutions of sulphuric acid, chloride of lime, alum, or cream of tartar.

A Clean, Easy Way to Wash Table Silver

Is to put it in a wire draining basket, having a handle. Then immerse it in a pan of scalding hot suds and scrub the silver with a hand mop. When washed, lift the basket from the pan and place it in the sink. Pour a kettle of boiling water over it and let drain. Very little labor is required to dry it with a soft cloth.

A little milk, added to the water in which the silver is washed, will help to keep it bright.

To Clean Drain Pipes and Disinfect Them

Dissolve copperas and lye in your drain pipes.

You will find that a half-worn whisk broom makes a good scrubbing brush for enameled ware. When your whisk brooms become worn, take them and trim them to a stub. Then seal with soapy water, then with clear water and finally rinse with cold water. When washing enameled ware, if the food sticks, you will find that a few strokes with one of these brooms will remove it without injury to the cooking utensils.

To Freshen Carpets

Ivory ornaments, brooches, coral cases, bracelets, carvings, piano keys and the like may be cleaned by painting them over with spirits of turpentine and when possible exposing them for 2 or 3 days to sunshine. Or articles that can be taken out of doors may be bleached by simply moistening them with water and exposing them to direct sunshine.

To Clean Marble

Mix 2 ounces of common soda, one ounce of pumice stone, and one ounce of fine common salt, and dilute with water to the consistency of cream. Pour the mixture over the marble and let stand until all stains are removed. Afterwards wash the marble with salt and water, rinse, and wipe dry.

To Clean Mica in Stoves

Wash with vinegar and water.

To Dry-Clean Shirtwaists

Put 4 ounces of cornmeal into a 24-pound flour sack or a pillow slip. Put the waist into this, and rub or knead gently so that the meal will come in contact with all parts of the fabric. Leave it there for a day or two, then shake and dust thoroughly, and press with a hot iron.

To Clean Windows

Do not use soap suds on windows. The easiest way to clean windows is with a chamois or clean cloth and clear water. Wring out the chamois or cloth so it is wet but not dripping.

and wash the window clean. Afterwards wring dry and go over them again. Finally polish with a dry cloth or chamois.

Party For Bride

Invitation cards should be cut in half circle at the top, following the outline of the rainbow in water colors, and each line of the invitation written in different colored ink—violet, blue, green, yellow, orange and red. Crepe paper of rainbow colors for the house decorations and for the lights, with a big rainbow and nest of gold will bring shouts of joy from happy guests. A table covered with a white cloth and strips of crepe paper in rainbow colors, crossing each other in center, having a centerpiece consisting of a tiny gay parasol with colored ribbons leading to each place, where they are tied to "opera" stick candy of rainbow colors, is appropriate. Refreshments should also carry out the rainbow idea.
