BOY SCOUTS OFF FOR CAMP TODAY

Total of 43 Boy Scouts and 5 Leaders Leave Monday Afternoon for Camp Rudd

OTHERS TO ATTEND

Boys From Four Counties to Arrive in Camp Today—Activities Will Begin Tuesday

Clad in regulation uniforms, dazzling neckerchiefs, and with supplies and equipment in neat bundles and rolls 43 Sweetwater Boy Scouts, three Scoutmasters and two assistant Scoutmasters, left Sweetwater at 2 o'clock Monday afternoon for the trip to Camp Rudd where today opens the annual encampment of the Buffalo Trail Council.

While Sweetwater Scouts were loading into waiting cars for the trip to camp, nearly 100 more Scouts in cities, towns and communities in four counties were also preparing for the journey to the Rudd ranch. It is believed that over 125 Scouts will attend camp this year, and over a dozen Scout leaders and council officials will also attend.

The Scouts here were carried to Camp Rudd, in southwest Nolan county, by arrangements made by the Sweetwater Club, and churches of the three troops. Members of the club and churches furnished the cars, approximately 20 in number, to take the Scouts to the camp site. The troops that left for camp, number of Scouts, and the leaders follow: Troop one, R. L. Shaffer, Scoutmaster, 20 Scouts; Troop 2, George Massey, Scoutmaster, 8 Scouts; Troop 3, Dr. P. T. Quast, Scoutmaster, 15 Scouts.

Scoutmasters Shaffer and Massey will probably remain at Camp Rudd for several days or for the duration of the camp. Scoutmaster Quast will remain for several days. Assistant Scoutmaster Neinst, Troop 1, and Assistant Scoutmaster Hill, troop 3, will remain for the duration of the camp.

Camp Rudd is about an hour's drive from Sweetwater, located on Silver Creek and in the hills, on the Rudd ranch.

Scouts will register, be assigned to troops and tents upon arrival at camp. Officials expect to get the 125 Scouts quickly organized, and prepared to carry out the daily program of Scoutcraft, woodcraft and campcraft, Tuesday morning.

Visitors are welcomed at the camp at all times, and officials are especially anxious for parents of the boys to visit camp.

Invitations were being sent out today by Scout Executive Barcus, in charge of the camp, to the Sweetwater Club members who will be guests of Camp Rudd Thursday evening from 6 to 9 o'clock.

SPEEDERS PAY

Violations of Speed Laws Cost Total of $63.50 Over Week End—5 Arrested

Sweetwater officers are continuing the campaign inaugurated August 1 to rid the city of speeders and other violators of the city traffic ordinances. Following the decision of the City Commission and Police Department to make arrests and prosecute every violator of traffic laws, scarcely a day has gone by without a number of arrests and fines in Corporation Court.

The two day spectacle, which caused extreme precautions by police and preparations on the part of the National Guard and soldiers at Ft. Myer, passed without incident.

It is considered possible in view of the successful demonstration that headquarters of the Klan may be moved from Atlanta to Washington, and a beautiful new palace built to house the Imperial Wizard.

Hiram W. Evans, Imperial wizard, told the United Press in an interview that the Klan came to Washington chiefly to vindicate the right of free assembly he contended had been denied in other states.

English Resort Angered

PENZANCE, Eng., Aug. 10.—Penzance, one of England's fashionable summer resorts is all worked up over an attempt someone has made to shoot a companionable seal, known to the resorters as "Old Bill."

Old Bill seemed to have no fear of persons and played around with the swimmers and dove off rocks with them to the great glee of everybody, the seal included.

Recently, however, Old Bill took to sleeping in the row boats moored alongside the piers. Nobody objected so long as he picked the larger rowboats. But he soon showed a preference for the smaller boats; they were easier to get into. On the other hand he always swamped his "bed" in getting out; and as Bill was restless and swam in his sleep a good deal, morning usually dawned on four or five swamped boats.

Finally someone got tired of bailing out Bill's bed every morning and took some pot-shots at him from the shore. The shooting however aroused a great outcry of protest of the part of the other resorters and Bill now sleeps—and swims—where he pleases.

A big blaze is burning on Olympic Point where patrols were sent Sunday to assist in spotting fires. Ocean traffic in the Columbia river is slow and dangerous, caused by the heavy smoke pall.

The Mount Hood national forest fire near Mount Wilson was reported controlled.

Idaho officials, confronted with the worst series of fires in 12 years, continued to call on local stations for help.

Dog Chokes to Death

LONDON, Aug. 10.—A small dog was choked to death here by a toy balloon.

The dog attempted to swallow a deflated toy balloon it found in the streets. The balloon stuck in the dog's throat and made it cough. The coughing inflated the balloon, blocking the air passage in the dog's throat and killing it by suffocation.

Mere philosophy seems so inadequate when another tax payment is due.

MAN HELD FOR TRIPLE SLAYING

Lodged in Jail at Austin for Investigation in Connection With Killing of Three

BELIEVE REVENGE MOTIVE

Said to Have Been in Debt to Slain Man—Woman, Her Husband and Adopted Daughter Shot

By United Press.
AUSTIN, Aug. 10.—A white man, whose identity officers did not divulge, was secreted in the county jail for investigation today in connection with the slaying of three persons at Delvalle near here early Sunday. The prisoner, a neighbor of E. T. Engler, 60, was arrested during the morning by officers working on the theory that revenge prompted the murder.

Engler, his wife, 65, and an adopted daughter, 25, were found shot to death Sunday. Bullets found in the home of the suspect corresponded with those taken from the bodies of the slain, officers said.

Further investigation resulted in the denial of earlier reports that the girl had been attacked and there are no indications to support a robbery theory officers said.

Feeling is running high in the south section of the county, where the slaying occurred, and it is not generally known of the suspect's imprisonment here. Officers indicated that the suspect would be moved from Austin in event of mob violence threatening.

Arrest of a second man, also white, who is suspected on information given the district attorney's office is expected during the day. The suspect is said to have been in debt to Engler for a large sum of money.

Meeting Ships Again

YOKOHAMA, Aug. 10.—Martin J. Oishi, the famous Martin of the old Grand Hotel, is back on the job meeting the boats as they come in to Yokohama.

Martin had both legs broken and suffered serious internal injuries in the Yokohama fire and earthquake and was in a hospital a year. His hotel had burned and he was without a job when he recovered. The lure of the waterfront and the big liners was too strong to be resisted, however, and he straightway got a job as official greeter for the port, offering his services as translator, guide and general factotum to travelers.

Martin has met the boats at Yokohama for the past 35 years and is known to thousands of travelers who have visited Japan.

POST IS PRAISED

National Headquarters Write Local Legionnaires After Receipt of Funds

The Oscar McDonald Post of the American Legion of Nolan County, has received formal notice from Legion headquarters, Indianapolis, of the receipt of this post's contribution to the American Legion endowment fund.

Sweetwater's record in oversubscribing the post's quota was one of the outstanding successes in this Legion district. The post was highly praised for its work at the recent district convention at Abilene.

In a letter to R. D. Cox, chairman of the American Legion Endowment Fund committee here, Robert H. Tyndall, national treasurer, Indianapolis, stated that "your post, in thus oversubscribing its quota of the endowment fund, has given further evidence of the true Legion spirit that is being manifested throughout the country in connection with the Legion's efforts in behalf of the disabled and orphans."

The local post sent $977 to national headquarters, the amount raised in a drive here in less than two days. The quota for the Oscar McDonald Post was $880.

QUANAH, Aug. 10.—The election to determine whether or not Quanah should have a municipal band was carried by a favorable vote of approximately two to one. Quanah thus becomes one of the first cities in Texas to take advantage of Texas' new municipal band law.

THE INSANITY DEFENSE

In this matter of insanity defense for murderers, which has become the inevitable legal subterfuge in another wise hopeless case, it would be wise for the courts to get an expression from the psychiatric authorities on this question, which is fundamental.

No alienist will be ass enough (unless he is paid well for an adverse opinion) to answer this in the affirmative. The normal man, in his normal mental condition, shrinks from the thought of killing an instinctively as he shrinks from contact with a snake.

The mere fact of his having committed a murder is evidence of his having been abnormal at the time of the deed. The question then resolves itself into this:

Because a man is in an extraordinary condition of mind when he kills, shall all murderers be set free?

At the present writing, an unskilled group of men dabbling in a science of which practically nothing is yet known has taken the key position in our forensic and sociological machinery. Some day we may know enough about science of the mind to justify our making the public courts commissions of pathology rather than tribunals of the law. When that time comes, every theory that is now held with reverence to insanity will be an archaic joke. How about having the alienists learn their business before we turn the state's penal policy over to them?

A NATION OUT OF LUCK

There is something always wrong with Russian relations. A few years ago everybody was scolding that nation because of the habitual way in which it passed the hat to its neighbors for relief for famine stricken districts. Now the boot of criticism is on the other foot. A Washington dispatch reports that while Russia is an important market for American industrial products, she is a potential agricultural competitor.

With these conditions in existence or prospect, it is being debated whether American capital should be further employed to helping Russian agricultural and industry to its feet. The czar's successors are in hard luck. In time of famine they are damned for their indolence, and when their fields drop fatness they are lectured for their industry.

STILL EAGER TO FIGHT

Poland and Germany are still glowering at each other and ready for war because of the mutual exclusion of their citizens from each others' territory, while Greece has concentrated two divisions of soldiers along the border because one of her subjects was killed in Bulgaria. The league of nations should send some of its missionaries into these regions to bring about a better accord.

Federal Agents Dump Wine

SANTA ROSA, Cal., Aug. 10.—Federal authorities here recently dumped 21,610 gallons of wine in one winery—enough to last several people a long time if legally possessed—because it had gone sour.

The loser was Giacomo Gondola. The wine went bad because the legal market was so restricted that he could not well dispose of it. He could not dump it himself without fear of prosecution for failure to have as much in his vat as he had reported to the government.

So he appealed to San Francisco dry headquarters, the mills of the law were set in motion, and six months later federal marshals visited his winery and superintended the destruction.

CARDUI

For Female Troubles "I began looking around. I knew that Cardui was for women. I decided to try it for her as all else had failed. She couldn't eat, she couldn't sleep, and I was desperate.

"After taking a few doses of Cardui, we were so glad to note that she wanted something to eat, and with each bit of nourishment, and each day's doses of Cardui, she grew stronger and got up out of bed. She is now able to cook, and stronger than in a long time."

Cardui has been in successful use for nearly 50 years in the treatment of many common female troubles.

Salesmanship

WICHITA, Kan., Aug. 10.—A druggist here placed a large sign, printed in red letters six inches high in his window, advertising to the world: "Wanted—100 Bed Bugs"

The sign aroused considerable interest and was not wanting in results. To a friend the druggist explained the mystery. "The fact is," he said, "I haven't the slightest use for bed bugs. But when any one brings some in its generally a sure chance to sell him something with which to get rid of the pests."

LOSES HUGE FORTUNE

DUBLIN, Aug. 10.—Bernard A. Rivett, an Englishman picked up here by the police while wandering aimlessly about the streets, complained to detectives that the usual fate of rum-runners had been reversed in his case and that instead of making a fortune out of rum-running, he had lost one. He said that within a few months he had lost $200,000 he had recently inherited through the seizure and confiscation of cargoes and ships of rum-running expeditions he and some of his friends had organized to run the American blockade.

Court on the 24th day of July, A. D. 1925, in a suit numbered on the docket of said Court, No. 2234, wherein Simmie Frazier is plaintiff and Will Frazier is Defendant, and the cause of action being alleged as follows: Plaintiff alleges that the defendant is her husband; that they married August 27, 1914, in Dallas, Texas; that the defendant abandoned her without cause on or about November 27, 1914; and that they have not lived together, nor cohabited since that day. That the former living together with defendant as husband and wife is insupportable. That she has lived in Texas twelve months and in Nolan County six months prior to the filing of this suit. Wherefore, she sues for divorce, and for general and special relief.

HEREIN FAIL NOT, But have you before said Court, on said day of the next term thereof, this Writ, with your return thereon, showing how you have executed the same. Witness my hand and official seal at my office in Sweetwater, Texas, this 24th day of July, A. D. 1925. Dan Childress, Clerk District Court, Nolan Co., Texas. Aug. 10-17-24-31.

LYRIC The good and evil of divorce and its effect on the younger generation is the subject of Reginald Barker's newest production for Metro, "Broken Barriers," which comes to the Lyric Theatre for a two day run, beginning on Monday. It is a screen version of Meredith Nicholson's sensational novel and has an all-star cast. Ward Trenton, a man of high ideals, is in love with Grace Durland. He wants a divorce from his wife who admits she does not love him. The girl, lost in the mazes of her love for Trenton, is all for breaking the walls of convention that surround them, but is stopped just in time when her younger brother gets mixed up in an affair with a pretty flapper. She goes to say good-bye to the man she loves when a

PALACE "Wife of the Centaur." King Vidor's film version of the novel by Cyril Hume, will be shown at the Lyric Theatre Monday night. The story deals with the theory that every man is half poet, half beast, and that there is a continual struggle going on between the two. John Gilbert, remembered in "His Hour" and "The Snob" has the leading male role, while Eleanor Boardman and Aileen Pringle head the feminine contingent. Others in the cast include William Haines, Kate Price, Philo McCullough, Betty Francisco, Jacqueline Gadsden, Kate Lester, Lincoln Steelman and William Orlamond. "Wife of the Centaur" is a Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture. It was adapted by Douglas Doty.

JUDGE HAS HARD JOB

Listens to Variety of Woes—Women Have Mix Up Over Dog FORT WORTH, Aug. 10.—Police Judge Cullen Bailey has to listen to the most unreasonable and largest variety of human ills and woes that could be imagined. But he has to listen to them. When a case can't be settled out of court, he has to do something about it.

The most recent mix-up between two women gave the judge a hard job in the hot weather. One of the pair said that the other woman hailed her as she was passing and called her over to ask if she had poisoned her dog. "My dog was poisoned and the blood just boiled in my veins, for the neighbors said she did it. I told her she had raised enough hell on that street" the other woman said. And to which she added: "Captain, I will try not to bother that woman, but if she presses my button I can't say what will happen. Captain, I want to get this case suspended."
