Fleeing Mexican Lovers Captured; Elopement Fails

Noisy activities that resulted from the attempted elopement of a Mexican couple at 2 o'clock Thursday morning aroused the neighborhood on the south side and Corporation Judge A. B. Yantis was called out to settle the fuss created when the runaway of youthful, dusky sweethearts was halted by a third Mexican.

The girl, daughter of the leader of a Mexican orchestra, slipped from her room shortly before 2 a. m. and was on her way to meet her waiting suitor. Her departure aroused a Mexican in the house and he, scantily clad, gave chase. The pretty senorita and her fleeing lover were both captured, thus putting an end to their plans of ending the gay fiesta of Thursday night with a nocturnal elopement.

The household was aroused when the captor returned with his protesting captives, and a stormy argument brought out neighbors. Judge Yantis opened an early morning session of his court long enough to fine the thwarted hombre $12.70 for disturbing the peace, receive his promise to wait a year before marrying the 14 year old girl, and then went back to sleep after quieting the troubled waters.

Hawaiian Flight Rescue Pictures From Honolulu By Radio

The Navy Seaplane PN9 No. 1 in which Commander Rodgers and his men made their adventurous flight to Hawaii here is shown anchored in the harbor of Nihiwiliwili, island of Kauai. The photograph was rushed to Honolulu and transmitted thence 6000 miles to New York by the Photogram process of the Radio Corporation of America. The radio impulse was relayed once only, at the station in San Francisco. The overcoming of bad static conditions in the atmosphere toward sending of recognizable pictures one-fourth around the world is considered a notable achievement by radio experts. The torn condition of the wings by the time the airplane reached port is noticeable.

MEET SUCCESS IN TRADE DAY WORK

Committees Named by American Legion to Arrange Trade Day Plans Starts Work Wednesday

MERCHANTS EXTEND AID

Business and Professional Men Extend Cooperation—Spec Attend Attractions for First Day

Committees named by the American Legion post here, sponsor of the series of trade days planned for this fall, commenced work Thursday morning in preparing for the first trade day which will be held this month. A portion of the business firms in the city were seen by the committees that are lining up merchants for the first trade days. Merchants upon whom the committee have not yet called will be seen Friday, it was stated, and efforts are being made to rapidly complete plans for the trades day. Splendid success was reported by workers Thursday. Merchants have been quick to fall in line and are extending every cooperation in carrying out the series of trade days, it was stated.

Not a merchant seen so far has failed to respond to the call for trade day help, the committee reported, and a gratifying list of special bargains and other attractions are to be prepared to a successful opening of the trade day series. In addition to the bargains which will be offered by all stores, a number of other attractions will be prepared next week. Free entertainments, and prizes will await crowds who come to Sweetwater on the first trade day, the date of which will be announced shortly.

The committees reported that a full list of prices, details of attractions and entertainments, and lists of bargains will be announced next week.

Seven committees are at present working in connection with the trade day plans, with two men to each committee. The following make up the seven committees which are backed by the American Legion, Sweetwater Club and Board of City Development: E. E. Hull, S. F. Scudday, W. H. Whaley, L. Galbraith, Reece Walker, Joe Demmer, Elmer Shaw, Milton Pate, M. C. Manroe, Buck Johnson, Raymond Bishop, Clint Gardner, G. Huff and Schuyler Farris.

JURY SAYS HANG DRAKE BANDIT'S

Rein Verdict 4 O'clock This Morning After Night of Battering—No Mercy Asked

HOLDUP WAS SPECTACULAR

Fashionable Chicago Hotel Invaded By Five Men Last July—Two Shot, Two Captured

By United Press.

CHICAGO, Sept. 17.—The Drake Hotel bandits must hang, a jury decided early today after a night of battering. A verdict of guilty of first degree murder was returned at 1:18 A. M. It carried no recommendation for mercy.

Neither of the slayers—Jack Woods or Joe Holmes, showed any sign of emotion when the verdict was rendered.

The murder with which they were charged was that of F. B. Rodkey, assistant cashier of the Drake Hotel, which occurred during the spectacular holdup of the fashionable Michigan boulevard hostelry last July.

Five bandits entered the lobby, shot Drake and seized $7,500. Two of the bandits were killed in the battle which followed, police captured two and one escaped.

Judge Jacob Hopkins will pass formal sentence until a hearing is given on a motion for a new trial, which will be on Oct. 1.

State Attorney E. E. Crowe said the verdict was a great victory for law and order. Mrs. Rodkey, widow of the slain cashier, declared that she had received justice and was satisfied.

Hearst Believed to Be Backing Third Party Candidate for Mayor New York—Not Hyman

NEW YORK, Sept. 17.—Although Tammany believes that an independent candidate for mayor backed by William Randolph Hearst will probably be a factor in the fall mayoralty race in New York City, Mayor J. H. Hylan is not expected to head the defection.

An announcement by Hylan is expected today in the New York American published by Hearst indicating that he will not be a third party candidate.

Discussion has centered about Senator Royal S. Copeland, Representative La Guardia and Supreme Court Justice John Ford, but none has taken any notice of the discussion.

RUM ROW WORK IS HIT IN REPORT

Government Taken to Task by Federated Council of Churches in Report On Prohibition

ALL DONE FOR EFFECT

Smuggled Liquor Only Minor Phase of Enforcement Problem, Report Alleges—Wine Used

By United Press.

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—The Federal government was taken to task today for spending too much money on Rum Row and not enough on local prohibition enforcement in the fourth installment of the report of the Research Department of the Federated Council of Churches.

It was pointed out that the government spent $14,000,000 last year to try to keep $40,000,000 worth of liquor from coming across the border and stated that "the nation considered the Rum Row a national scandal not because of its bearing on the liquor traffic, but for its effect on international opinion."

The cost guard alone received $12,000,000 of this sum.

"The total amount of smuggled liquor is not great enough to make it more than a minor phase of the enforcement problem," the report said. The Home Brew Industry has failed both as a national sport and a commercial enterprise. The withdrawal of wine on permits from bonded warehouses for sacramental purposes has increased 800,000 gallons in the past two years. "It is safe to say," the report read, "that one quarter of this amount was used for sacramental purposes and the rest sacrilegious."

BAR COMMUNIST FROM GT. BRITAIN

Secretary of State Kellogg Refuses Passport to Visit British Member Parliament

ACTION AROUSES A STORM

International Controversy Seen—Kellogg Confronts With Coolidge and Cables Refusal

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Both Kellogg and Coolidge were showered with criticism by Secretary of State Kellogg for his refusal to issue a passport to Saklatvala, a Communist member of the British Parliament, from entering this country to attend the session of the Interparliamentary Union next month. Secretary Kellogg canceled the American passport for Saklatvala in a cable to the American consul general after a conference with President Coolidge, who, it is assumed, approved the action.

The case promises to inspire a future in this country similar to the international controversy which arose last spring over the muzzling of Count Cserkely of Hungary by Secretary Hughes and later by Secretary Kellogg on a charge of radicalism.

Two British Approve

By United Press.
LONDON, Sept. 17.—The American consul today notified Shapurji Saklatvala, Communist member of Parliament, on the grounds that America wanted no alien agitator on this soil. Following this action, Sir Robert D'Elphinstone and Colonel Woodcock, who had withdrawn as delegates to the Interparliamentary Union session in Washington announced that they would go to Washington. They had previously declined to make the trip because they did not wish to sit in a session with Saklatvala.

NEW AIR LINE

Proposed Routes for Passengers and Mail Flying to Egypt and India

Construct Planes for Mail Carrying

WASHINGTON, Sept. 17.—Another substantial development has been announced by the British government. By an agreement entered into between the government and the Imperial Airways, Ltd., the latter will receive a subsidy of approximately $500,000 a year for the next five years in return for which its officers agree to operate a weekly mail and passenger commercial air route between Cairo, Egypt and Karachi, India.

The route as laid out is 2,450 miles in length and runs from Cairo to Karachi via Rome, Amman, Baghdad, Beers and Charkov. On account of the long stretches of desert and an abundance of great areas of country for forced landings it has been designed that machines with three engines are to be used.

The airplanes which are now in the course of construction will fly well on any two of the engines. The probability that two of the engines will fail at the same time is considered slight, and officials of the Imperial Airways believe that with them the percentage of forced landings on the route will be reduced to a minimum.

The new machines will be of all-metal construction and total power of the three engines will be approximately 1,500 horse power. They will carry 12 passengers or a ton of mail.

On the basis of day flying only the new service will cut six days off present schedules for mail delivery from England to India. When night flying is established, which it is believed will be the next step in the operation of the route, an additional day and a half will be cut from the schedule.

The Reporter today presents the first pictures of the rescued PN-9 No. 1 as it lay in harbor in the Hawaiian Islands where it was towed after being rescued a week ago, together with a portrait of Commander John Rodgers. The remarkable thing about these pictures is the speed with which they are presented to Reporter readers. In the ordinary course of events a month at least would be required before the photographs could reach the United States and cuts made from them. But these likenesses were flashed through the air to San Francisco from Honolulu thence relayed to New York and back to Cleveland then the Newspaper Enterprise Association made the cuts and forwarded them to Sweetwater, where they arrived on the Wednesday afternoon Santa Fe. The Reporter is one of the first news papers in the whole state of Texas and one of the few in the southwest to present these radioed pictures to readers.

VAST FINANCIAL RESOURCES

One of the principal factors back of the most extraordinary stock markets which the country has seen in years is the plenitude of money available for the use of bullish operators and in the hands of people who are seeking investments. Scarcely a day passes which does not see new high record prices established for some securities, many of which are selling at figures quite out of proportion to their dividend distributions. In such cases the buyers are looking for something of importance, which will justify the purchase of stocks, rather than the quarterly dividends which they receive. The fact is many common stocks paying small dividends are much more active and command higher prices than preferred stocks which have paid larger dividends for years. Current valuations of such issues are determined by increased earnings and by the operations of pools who see an opportunity to run up the prices.

Not all of the common issues, however, have maintained the high prices at which they have sold. They are evidently carried too far by the excited buying of people who paid more attention to the operations of other people than to the earnings of the company whose stock they bought.

The vast amount of money available for operations of this sort appears to be assured for some time to come. The usual increase in the demand for money in the autumn is referred to by New York financial authorities with extreme satisfaction. They say that never before in history were the banks in such strong condition or more able to take care of credit needs. Credit for all legitimate business should continue comfortable.

The banks could extend themselves greatly, were it possible for the need to arise, without calling on the Reserve banks for any large degree of assistance. The plans of the government for retrenchment and for tax reduction are factors tending to great relief in the long run, in money rates. They also tend to create a wider and more positive employment of capital in industry.

The Wall Street Journal points out that money rates in the United States are now the lowest in the world. Rates in Europe are gradually dropping as conditions improve. Taking things at long range, the business world has every right to assume there is a long period of easy money ahead which should result in a great forward surge in the production of material wealth and comfort everywhere. The effects will be felt here first, where conditions are stable, and extend gradually to other countries as things improve and hatreds subside.

A NEW ROAD SYSTEM

The recent action of the Interstate Highway Board in designating a national system of roads covering the United States and touching every state capital is a reminder that an even more ambitious project is being considered. The Pan-American highway conference which is to meet in Buenos Aires October 3 at the invitation of the Argentine government has for one of its objects the construction of a Pan-American highway which will unite the countries that compose the Pan-American union. The United States and a score of other American republics will have representatives at the meeting.

These plans for highway systems connecting points thousands of miles distant direct attention to the long journeys that are now taken in automobiles. It has become a commonplace matter for motorists to cross the United States. The net work of roads mapped out at the Washington meeting provides eight transcontinental routes from the Atlantic coast to the Pacific and nine from the Gulf of Mexico to Canada. Even in the Old World, where progress in road building is far behind that in America, long automobile journeys are being taken, one of the current magazines, for example describing a motor trip from Western Europe to India.

The Washington committee did well in arranging to mark the interstate routes designated with uniform signs.

Some private associations of highway promoters have done this in the case of such interstate roads as the Lincoln Highway and Susquehanna Trail, and it has served a good purpose, guiding motorists through towns and past intersections and making it unnecessary to stop and inquire directions.

The plans prepared at Washington will not be carried into effect, of course, for some time. It is not to be imagined that in a few months there will be eight unbroken ribbons of pavement extending from coast to coast. Not even Lincoln Highway is paved in its entirety although it has been a well-traveled transcontinental route for a number of years.

Only a program has been prepared by the Interstate Highway Board, but in its adoption a step forward has been taken in the facilitation of long distance motor travel.

tion of the country's bird life. But the Department of Agriculture's Bureau of Entomology comes across with the information that the birds certainly are being destroyed.

What the entomological folk have to say is purely on their own account, not in answer to the biologists' rather angry rebuttal of Dr. Hornaday's charge. They simply arise to remark that bugs are a good deal worse agricultural problem than they used to be and that the reason is—there aren't so many birds.

"Nature has her balance," as Congressman Martin L. Davey, the tree doctor, remarked to me recently, "and when they're disturbed it makes bad work."

"For instance, plant life would be endangered but for birds. Insects live on the plants and if there were enough of them they'd eat all the vegetation up. There would be enough of them, too, if it weren't for the birds. They eat the insects."

"They eat so many, if there are enough birds, that the plants hold

Dr. Hornaday says not. Negro Woman, 92, Pays Fine for Being Drunk

DALLAS, Sept. 17.—"How old must a person get before he or she stops getting drunk?" Police Court Judge Graves asked an old negro woman who was arraigned on a charge of being intoxicated and disturbing the peace in Corporation Court.

"I don't know, sah, I've ninety-two years old," the old lady replied. She is reported to have created quite a racket in the neighborhood and was arrested on the complaint of her more settled neighbors who wanted her to stop.

Judge Graves tried to teach her a lesson by assessing her $10.

Just ordinary shortening cannot give you the best cooking results

ANIMAL fats cannot impart real richness to your cooking and baking. They are heavy, greasy, indigestible. And, of course, it is too expensive to use butter all the time.

Get a pair of Mrs. Tucker's from your grocer today! It is made exclusively of choice cottonseed-oil. Use it wherever you use shortening. You'll be delighted at the difference it will make in your cooking. You'll find it goes further than ordinary shortening. And you'll appreciate the sanitary, airtight container. Does Your husband expect this too?

The average husband wants his wife to keep her prettiness and charm. And, at the same time, he wants her to look out for his comfort and cook three meals every day. No small order, but it can be filled if wives put their housekeeping on a scientific basis.

The logical place to begin labor saving is in the kitchen—at the stove. Perfection Stoves are designed for women's convenience. They burn kerosene, the safe, household fuel, so there is no laborious hauling of coal and ashes.

Their roomy cooking surface is at the most convenient height, 32 inches from the floor, just like a kitchen table.

Every drop of oil is completely burned before the heat reaches the utensils, so there is no soot to blacken kettle bottoms. You are spared strenuous scouring.

These are just a few of Perfection's convenience features. Any dealer will demonstrate many more. Get a Perfection. It can help you live up to your husband's expectations.

MIDLAND FARMERS PAY

Former Nolan County Man Making Good Crops

MIDLAND, Sept. 17.—Ex-Nolan County farmers who are now living in Midland county are sending exhibits this year to the West Texas Fair at Abilene.

D. A. Ray, formerly of Nolan County, says he has some cotton this year which will produce at the rate of a bale per acre. His cotton, however, will not nearly average that much. There are a number of Midland County farmers this year, however, who expect to average from a third to a half bale per acre.

NO EXCUSE FOR PIMPLES AND BUMPS ON THE FACE

The boy or girl who is always conscious of their pimply, blotchy, inflamed or rough skin and really drawing more attention to it when they keep making excuses for not looking good, don't get any sympathy because folks now know that it is not necessary to keep putting up with this sort of thing.

Since Black and White Ointment and Black and White Soap, were introduced in this country thousands of people who had been troubled with pimples, blotches, dark, rough skin, full of bumps, for years are now happy, because they find it gets rid of them so quickly.

Black and White Ointment is economically priced in liberal packages. The 50c size contains three times as much as the liberal 25c size. All dealers have both the Ointment and the Soap. (adv)

Leonard Wood Jr., son of the governor-general of the Philippines, filed a petition in bankruptcy at Brooklyn, stating his bank account had dwindled to $1. NEW FORD HERE

Cars More Attractive, With Longer Lower Bodies—Better Brakes

First of the improved Ford cars to arrive in Sweetwater went on display Thursday in the show rooms of the Dabney Motor Company, local authorized Ford dealers, and immediately attracted the attention of everyone.

To say that people who saw the cars were surprised at their appearance would be putting it rather mildly. The new types exceed all expectations in improved appearance and more comfort and convenience. For the most part the bodies have been completely redesigned and conform in every respect to the most advanced features of body construction.

Not only have bodies been built lower, but they are set on lower chassis frame and with larger, low hanging fenders impart to the complete car a striking suggestion of riding and driving ease.

While the Dabney Motor Company has been able so far only to show the touring car, other types will be shown as quickly as they can be obtained at Dallas, where because of their popularity demands on production are somewhat delaying immediate delivery of all types of cars.

The Old Maids of Sweetwater and vicinity will gather at the court house auditorium Friday and Saturday evenings at 8 P. M. in a most unique convocation to "devise ways and means" of "snaring husbands". Be sure that you are present. 25 cents and 35 cents. 1925

TEXAS WOMAN WRITES INTERESTING LETTER W. C. Rountree, M. D., Texarkana, Texas.

Dear Doctor:—For 18 months I was a sufferer of PELLAGRA, and so sick I could not sit up for several days at a time. One doctor said I had high blood pressure and another said I did not have enough blood. I was taking medicine all the time but to no effect. I was examined by two more doctors and both said I had Pellagra. One of them began treatment for it but the medicine had but little effect. So the hypodermic needle was used and both my arms rose and I could not use them. I could not eat anything that did not hurt me.

My sister in East Texas sent me your little book on treatment of Pellagra and my husband sent for a treatment for Pellagra and I began to mend at once. I had reduced in flesh from 180 pounds to 117 pounds. Now I can do my housework, milk two cows, churn, and work in my garden, and weigh 140 pounds. I will soon be 66 years old. I can eat anything now and relish it. I can heartily recommend your Pellagra Treatment to any Pellagra sufferer, what it did for me it will do for them.

Mrs. T. M. McWhorter, Rt. B. Box 39
