World Famous Group Sings Here March 17

The official chorus of the United States Air Force Band, the Singing Sergeants, appearing in concert here on Saturday, March 17, when the Band is presented in matinee and evening concerts at the High School Gymnasium by the Brownfield Kiwanis Club, is composed of instrumentalists from within the United States Air Force Band. They are a group of 25 players who, as a result of intensive rehearsals and expert direction, have been molded into one of the world's top-flight vocal ensembles.

The accomplishment of this feat has been a task of no small proportion and can be traced directly to its Director, Captain Robert L. Landers. A graduate of the Eastman School of Music and formerly the assistant conductor of the San Carlo Opera Company, Captain Landers is thoroughly versed in all matters pertaining to voice, its potentialities, and the music that has been written for it.

This knowledge and experience is reflected in the repertoire of the Singing Sergeants which contains in excess of 200 selections. More than half of these selections being special arrangements, they run the gamut of vocal endeavor. For example, with the aid of a women's chorus, they perform Verdi's opera "La Forza del Destino," and the Gilbert & Sullivan operetta "The Mikado," "Iolanthe," and "Ruddigore," while in the field of oratorio they perform Handel's "The Messiah." The Singing Sergeants have also appeared as soloists with the New York Philharmonic Orchestra, the Cleveland Symphony Orchestra, and have made several appearances at New York's Carnegie Hall.

When they are not appearing as the Singing Sergeants, its twenty-five members will be seen playing musical instruments in either the band or orchestra.

Kicking Off

As just a passing thought, wouldn't it be nice if the high school coaching staff was always as strong as it is right now? In other words with the new three-man staff of Cox, Keese and Powers on hand, and Greer and Jones still here from the old staff that would make five men. And come to think of it, a lot of colleges operate with a smaller staff than that.

Andrews is thinking in terms of another state track championship. The Mustangs tied for first in the Comanche Relays at Fort Stockton last week and this week the top boys from the squad are entered in the Possum Kingdom Relays at Graham.

The remainder of the squad will be running at Seminole.

The Mustangs boast of a defending state broad jump champion in Donnie Benham. He got 21' 8" Saturday.

But the most interesting Andrews feat was their 3:34 mile relay which was second to Colorado City's 3:32 9. The Cubs won second in the Regional last year with a 3:39 8 behind Abernathy. Abernathy went on to set a 3:20.9 state record in Austin. And the Cub quartet of Tom Chisholm, James Morris, Jackie Meeks and Johnny Raybon were well under their 3:39, but that was at the end of the season. The Comanche Relay times are impressive for the start of the season.

Meeks and Raybon are back, and if Coach Charley Jones can find a couple more good quarter milers there should be some interesting races.

When you consider the adverse early spring weather conditions, you wonder how Cub track and field men do as well as they do.

Parent-Teacher Associations Elect New Officers During Public Schools Week

Public Schools Week programs this week in Brownfield were highlighted by election of new officers for the Frances Pell and Junior High P-TAs. Monday night a capacity crowd attended the "Tom Sawyer" operetta at the high school and more than 400 parents registered during the open house period.

Tuesday a "better than average crowd," considering the dust storm, attended P-TA business meetings and a joint meeting during which Dr. Horace Hartwell read the last chapter and watch the end of the programs where it shows that crime doesn't pay. He replied that he did, but figured he was smart enough not to get caught.

Ted Odum, who lawyered here for a couple of years back a year or so ago, is moving from Lubbock to Tyler.

Judd Jones, formerly with Jack Bailey Chevrolet, has bought out Andy Anderson at Andy's Conoco station.

Red Newton has a badly gashed hand to prove that it doesn't pay to shake hands with an eagle.

Few of us ever considered the idea before, and Red really hadn't either until it happened.

They've got what they believe to be a Brown Eagle in a cage there at Newton and Webb Implement and as a friendly gesture they were going to put a leash on the bird's leg and let him out for exercise.

Eagle's claws weren't made for shaking hands.

Latest word from Congressman George Mahon is that the conflict between the State of Texas and the Federal Government which has held up National Guard armory construction for over a year, has been decided in Texas' favor.

Unless something unforeseen comes up construction should be well on its way this summer. A lot of thanks is due to Congressman Mahon.

New Draft Directive Will Cause Younger Men To Be Called, Six Categories Named

Seven men will be inducted to fill the March Selective Service Local Board 116 quota going on the 20th. Induction notices will be mailed early next week.

Two volunteers, Plaza Austin of Denver City and Billy H. Neal of Levelland, filled the February quota. They were inducted on the 17th.

The Draft Board also received directives this week to divide files of all 1-A men into six groups in the new order of calling men up for service.

This directive will cause younger men to be taken and virtually will relieve fathers and men above age 26 from chance of being drafted, as long as service quotas are as low as they are. Colonel Morris S. Schwartz, state Selective Service director, said Thursday.

Here is the way draft boards will divide the 1-A files in the new order of liability for service:

The first liable group: Draft delinquents who have reached 17 with the oldest being selected first.

The second liable group: Volunteers up to the age of 26, in the order in which they have volunteered.

The third liable group: Non-volunteers 19 through 25 who do not have a child with the oldest being selected first.

The fourth liable group: Non-volunteers 19 through 25 who do have a child, with the oldest being selected first.

The fifth liable group: Non-volunteers age 26 or above, with the youngest being selected first.

The sixth liable group: Non-volunteers between 18½ and 19, with the oldest being selected first.

Colonel Schwartz pointed out there will be hardly any in the first liable group because there are not many delinquents. He said that 29½ of inductees in December and January were volunteers and predicted at least that percentage, if not more, in the months ahead.

Colonel Schwartz said that the majority of inductees would now come from the third liable group, consisting of single and childless married men. He said that, without a doubt, calls would be filled from this group and the volunteers.

He predicted that, unless calls go much higher, no one in the fourth, fifth and sixth liable groups would be drafted.

The new draft regulations will operate to take younger men into service, but not the youngest on the draft rolls, Colonel Schwartz said.

"In December and January, 66½ of the men drafted in Texas were 23 and above," he commented. "I expect this age level to drop drastically, with those being drafted dropping to as low as 19."

The state director of Selective Service issued a warning to prospective fathers. He pointed out that law and regulations place responsibility upon a man to advise his local board at once of birth or pregnancy in his family.

"If he neglects to advise his board of this or any other change in status prior to getting an order to report for induction, he will be inducted," Colonel Schwartz said. He counseled men to be alert in keeping their local boards posted.

Frances Gillham Named To Head State ESA Post

Mrs. J. C. Jennings was hostess when Epsilon Sigma Alpha sorority met at Nick's Cafe Tuesday night.

The members voted to send ten dollars to the California Flood Relief fund. Announcement was made that the formal jewel pin ceremony will be held April 14, and the date for election of new officers will be moved up two weeks.

Approximately 10 members from this club plan to attend the state convention in Fort Worth May 4-6 and the international convention in Albuquerque June 4-6.

Frances Gillham has been appointed state home boards chairman to fill the four year unexpired term of Alice Hudson of Fort Worth. Kay Billings was appointed state editor of the ESA organ, Tesan, to fill the unexpired term of Alma Cade, who has moved to Odessa. Mrs. Billings has also been nominated for ESA beauty queen at the state convention, a contest in which Mrs. Cade placed second one year.

He also pointed out that the law requires all men registered with draft boards under present law to keep those boards advised of change of address, no matter what their age.

The concert was followed by a social hour in Fellowship Hall. Earl Davis, Ronnie Daniell, Billy Mack Herod, and Byron Wise returned to their studies at Baylor University in Waco Monday after spending a long week end in Brownfield with their parents between school quarters.

Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Downing visited her sister, Mrs. Boyce Cardwell, in Lubbock Sunday. Mrs. Cardwell underwent major surgery in a Lubbock hospital recently.

"I dunno". That minor crime wave had scarcely stopped when another started, although officers stopped it pretty fast. Much to the disgust of the 17-year-old ringleader, who asked police how they managed to catch them so quick.

Police said two boys were all that were involved, although a third apparently would have been if they had not been apprehended. The boys had shot out a street light on west Broadway Friday night and placed a ladder on the back of the Fair store in preparation for a Saturday night entry through the skylight of Knight Hardware in search of guns.

Something caught them to head off Saturday, and Sunday they attempted to enter through the skylight and were caught on top of the buildings. They had also stolen $176 worth of heavy bushings from a Knight Implement truck to resell and were fined on this charge.

MISS BARBARA SUE WHITAKER

Barbara Whitaker Engagement Told

Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Whitaker of Route 1 Brownfield, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Barbara Sue, to Gene Allen Zachary of Wellman, son of Mrs. A. R. Bahlin of Wellman.

The double ring ceremony will be read in the home of the bride-elect's uncle, W. C. Whitaker, in Lubbock. Miss Whitaker is a senior in Brownfield High School. Her fiancé is a clerk for Gulf Gas and Oil Company in Amarillo, where the couple will make their home following their marriage.

Looks wonderful to see things turning green and budding out. Despite the fact that Springtime always means sandtime for us West Texans, it's still my favorite time of the year. Puts a little bounce into my day to see things greening out, and a glimpse of the yellow jonquils and jasmine bloom make the sand a little easier to take. I always hate to see the trees pop out into bloom at this time of the year, though, because I know that the little "Easter cold snap" we invariably have will nip them. Ah, well, 't's a springtime.

Among those who have lodged complaints about my meanderings in this column is my older sister. (Quite a bit older, too.) Well, I never did claim to be any Dorothy K. Kigallen, and it's highly unlikely I will ever attain her heights. Besides, I'm afraid I'd get beat up if I told you who's husband ran off with who's wife. So I'll just continue my ramblings and if you get bored, you can always wrap this morning's garbage in my column for us West Texans. There will be a meeting of the board of directors of the Terry County Chapter of the American Red Cross, with Rev. James H. Cox of Lubbock, field director, to be featured speaker. March, as you know, is Red Cross campaign month nationally, but of course the local chapter is a member of the United States Fund. Therefore, Wednesday's meeting, scheduled for 9 a.m. at Nick's Cafe, is merely a meeting to discuss phases of Red Cross work in the county. Everyone interested in Red Cross for Terry County is urged to attend. Marie Chesshir (Mrs. Leonard) is chapter chairman. L. Kigallen is secretary-treasurer and Mrs. Doris Warren is home service chairman. Also on the agenda this month is the United States Air Force Band which will be presented in concert in the high school auditorium March 17, which is also on a Saturday and on a St. Patrick's day. It's seldom that Brownfield has an opportunity to hear a band of such eminence, and I hope you'll plan to attend.

Only two more days remain of Ted and Faye Fox's big sale on paints, wallpapers, etc. Although this is hardly what I'd call a "painting" month, don't forget that clean up and paint up season is just around the corner, and here's your chance to save on the materials you'll need to give your premises their spring face-lifting.

Brownfield probably has one of the largest groups of pre-med students this year than they've had in some time. Chris Burda has

MISS KAYE HINKLE

Kaye Hinkle Will Wed Californian

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Hinkle of Los Angeles, California, formerly of Brownfield, announce the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Kaye, to Chuck Burr, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles A. Burr, of Culver City, California.

The bride-elect is a graduate of Brownfield High School, attended Draughon's Business College in Lubbock and is now employed by Trans World Airlines in Los Angeles. Mr. Burr is a graduate of Santa Monica Tech in Santa Monica, Calif., and is also employed with Trans World Airlines.

The couple will be married April 7 in St. Augustine's Catholic Church in Culver City.

Mr. and Mrs. W. B. Downing attended birthday celebration in Lubbock Sunday honoring a long-time friend, Mrs. J. E. Murfee, who was 93.

FOOT SAVING EDUCATION

by Barney Doss

How can I be sure that my children's shoes fit when I buy them?

If you mean that you want to check the fit of the shoes yourself, you should first work in a shoestore for at least two years. Then you will be more uncertain than you are now.

If the shoe internship is impossible I would use the practice of most women when they buy a pair. They don't rush downtown at fifteen minutes before closing time and let the first operator they come to give their hair a fast sizzle. Hairdos are too important.

Hairdos and the operators who do them are the subject of conversation at every hen party. A newcomer to town knows before she leaves the house not only which beauty parlor she is going to but which beautician will give her the kind of curl she wants. She will read ancient magazines waiting for the operator to take her and she might even overpay the bill if she is especially pleased with what the mirror says after the ordeal.

"Who fits your children's shoes?" should be as commonly asked as "Who does your hair?" Try it. You will find that your town has many shoefitters who realize the health importance of children's shoes and will do a really professional job if they know that you are not primarily interested in speed, low price or high style.

Was talking to Mrs. Bill Speed earlier this week when she kindly called in to give me some news. She was telling me what a nice meeting they had at Burnview when the Texas Federated Women's Clubs met for a district convention. And I'm happy to report that our local club gave carried off quite a few honors for their various phases of club work. I think Brownfield probably has one of the most active groups of collective clubs in Texas, and they certainly should be commended.

Started to work Monday morning and was rather amazed to see a large green flag flying from the corner post of John and Mary Jennings yard fence. I called Mary later that morning and asked her what it meant. A'frad I have to report that it wasn't a seasonographer's signal to drill here for oil. It was merely the kids' cavalry flag.

Have on my desk a very interesting and informative brochure on proper etiquette concerning wedding invitations. If any of you would like to consult it, give me a buzz. It gives the proper form to use for wording of invitations, how they should be addressed etc. Most enlightening but I'm not contemplating having to use it any time soon personally.

It's not that I mind being a little slower on the uptake. The middle aged spread I've had for a good while and I don't especially crack up over the crow's feet I'm getting around my eyes. It's the grey hair that gets me down. Do I get a distinguished streak in my forehead or around my temples? Nope. Just enough to make it somewhat noticeable. I wouldn't mind if it would turn grey like Ariene Clement's or Haze Miller's or Helen McClain's or any of these others who have such striking grey hair. But I guess I'm doomed to be the butt of remarks from my family. You you were getting so gray. Why don't you get a shampoo don't you?—or don't I do something about it? I from my friends—I don't know keep hoping for an overnight mir-

At Home... Among Strangers!

You're going to get a wonderful thrill when you take the wheel of your first Cadillac and head out into the country—a long, long way from home.

We're not just talking about the car's wonderful performance and its extraordinary riding and handling ease—satisfying and inspiring though these are bound to be.

No, we're talking about something more.

We're talking about the friendliness you're going to encounter—how you'll be driving among people who seem to know something about you, and who are ready to trust and respect you as if they had known you for a long, long time.

This is true, of course, because Cadillac quality and goodness have made it the overwhelming preference of people of judgment and discrimination—and the whole world has come to know and understand this and to appreciate what it means.

Yes, your best foot is forward when it rests on the throttle of a 1956 Cadillac.

This great personal benefit is strictly a plus value when you take the title of the "car of cars." It comes in addition to the long-known Cadillac virtues: matchless beauty and luxury and comfort, and safety and long life.

Why not consider a Cadillac for your next car? It is a logical choice—not only for quality and goodness and prestige—but for economy of ownership and operation as well.

We suggest that you come in soon and see for yourself. We'll be happy to give you a personal demonstration at the wheel... and to explain why this is such a wonderful time to make the move from every standpoint.

ACCIDENTS WILL HAPPEN!

A child's roller skates left on the stairs . . . a man deeply engrossed in his paper . . . one more step . . . fate closes in!

But it isn't fate. Just the careless, thoughtless preoccupation of humanity.

No religion can guarantee our safety from accidents like this one. But the Christian Church offers man safety from greater perils. It teaches the dangers inherent in meaning through Jesus Christ.

Accidents will happen—but spiritual tragedy need not! For the eternal safety of all men, the careless, the thoughtless, the preoccupied: Christ died.

THE CHURCH FOR ALL . . . ALL FOR THE CHURCH

The Church is the greatest factor on earth for the building of character and good citizenship. It is a storehouse of spiritual values. Without a strong Church, neither democracy nor civilization can survive. There are four sound reasons why every person should attend services regularly and support the Church: They are (1) for his own sake (2) for his children's sake (3) for the sake of his community and nation (4) for the sake of the Church itself, which needs his moral and material support. Plan to go to church regularly and read your Bible daily.

This week, March 5-10, was Delma Rinehart and Ann Shropshire; Monday night was the bride Donna Newsom; High School night, when the parents visited school and attended classes, following the schedule of their son and or daughter. An operetta was given by West Ward as entertainment. The Student Council members spent all day Monday preparing for this occasion and also served as ushers that night.

The Senior class finally selected their play, "Papa Was A Preacher". This three-act comedy will be presented March 16 in the High School auditorium. The cast includes: Papa, portrayed by John Hill; Mama, by Judy Land; Aiyene, by Pat Bonner; Cecil, by Charles Higdon; Jeanette, by Peggy Adams; Raybon, by Donald Bryant; Hugh, by Dick McReynolds; Gil, by James Brinson; Jeffrey, by Thad Risinger; Miss Murphy, Ann Griggs; Lucy and Jenny Smith, by

At the end of the football season, Brownfield team was voted best sports by Crane. In this assembly the trophy which they had been awarded was presented to the school.

We would like to welcome our three new coaches, Doug Cox, head coach, and his assistants, Charles Keese and Don Powers. We hope you will like B. H. S.

Last Thursday morning the West State College band stopped in Brownfield and gave a concert. They were on their annual spring tour. This was enjoyed by everyone (since we got out of class).

We are especially proud of our band because they won first place in marching Saturday at Snyder. They also won excellent stage performance.

Shelby Thompson and Barbara Whitaker seemed to have enjoyed the week end. Their sweethearts, Earle Davis and Gene Zachary, were here and they had Sunday dinner at Shelby's sister's house. Barbara and Gene had a secluded candlelight dinner all to themselves.

Fredly Shipley entertained about twenty guests at his home Wednesday. They played cards or danced and for special entertainment some kids gave exhibitions of the hop and the Fort Worth Push (a new dance).

Jeanie Criswell and E. V. Murphy are going steady. Jeanie is a junior in high school and E. V. finished school last year. They can be seen hot roddin' around in E. V.'s red and white Pontiac.

Other kids hot roddin' around together are: Bobbie Nell Richardson-Jackie Meeks, Donna Newsom-Dennis McCutcheon, Katie Ramsieur-Norris Lewis, Ann Shropshire-

SUPERMARKET CONTEST

"Checker of the Year" Will Receive Honors And Prizes

A trip to Europe for two with all expenses paid, complete with luggage and wardrobe; that is the possible prospect for some lucky Furr's Checker in the nationwide "Checker of the Year" contest sponsored by the Super Market Institute and which Furr's is now participating. The lucky winner of the European trip will be named at the annual SMI Convention in Cleveland, May 6-9.

Furr's personnel and customers are asked to vote at each of Furr's Super Markets for their choice any time before March 24 at which time "Checker of the Year" will be named in each of the Furr's 30 stores. The winner in each store will then have until Friday, March 30 to qualify for the overall Furr's "Checker of the Year" by submitting a 100-word essay on "Why I Like My Job." A qualified committee of judges will determine the Furr's checker of the year. The winner which will be announced April 2, will receive a beautiful set of luggage, valued at approximately $150.

Furr's winner qualifies for competition as one of ten regional winners. (Furr's is in the West South Central Region of SMI). Regional winners each receive an expense trip to Cleveland for a week and a chance to win the nationwide "Checker of the Year" top three prizes.

As a Furr's customer, you can encourage your favorite checker by voting today! Maybe he or she will win one of these five trips

Cleveland may help to crown a new queen of American industry, the "Checker of the Year", the outstanding checker among the nation's thousands of checkers, it was announced today by Pat Patterson, Piggly Wiggly Super Markets, who are participating with super markets throughout the nation in local contests to select regional and national winners.

Customers and employees of Piggly Wiggly Super Markets will help select the local checker of the year, who will then go on to almost a month of gold and glamor—with prizes ranging as high as an all expense trip to Europe.

The competition will be no beauty contest, Patterson emphasized. Nominations will be made on such practical considerations as courtesy and good customer relations, accuracy, efficiency and speed, good housekeeping, pride of job and desire to improve. The competition honors the primary contact super markets have with their customers, the checkers who handle billions of consumer food dollars annually, with errors of less than three one hundredths of one per cent.

The competition to choose Brownfield's checker of the year starts March 9th and will last through March 17th. Entry blanks for customers are at the checkout stand in all the company's stores. Piggly Wiggly Super Market has set up its own prizes for the local winners.

Being named "Checker of the Year" will have some very real advantages to the employee. The checker will win about $5,000. in prizes, with the top prize an all expense trip to Europe, with the objective of the Third International Congress of Food Distribution in Rome in Mid-June.

Final selection of the "Checker of the Year" will be made in Cleveland, Ohio, May 6th to 9th, at the 19th Annual Convention of Super Market Institute. Ten regional finalists will be selected for their appearance at Cleveland, and will take part in an impressive presentation at this meeting, which will bring together thousands of top executives in the food industry.

At Cleveland, a board of judges will rate each of the entries in a series of tests on personality, speed and accuracy in checking out a standard order. The winner will be crowned "Checker of the Year" in a special evening ceremony. Second and third prize winners will be selected at that time.

Farmers should take a coffee break twice a day, says the Canadian National Safety Council.

"DON'T FENCE ME IN"—In the picture above, Marie Brown, office secretary of the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce, adds considerable charm to an inanimate — but extremely interesting — display of barbed wire. The huge panel, belonging to W. B. Cox of Portales, N. M., may be seen in the window of the chamber building at 414 West Main. On it are examples of about 120 pieces of wire — not all the wire which laced the Great Plains was barbed. The board contains various types of wire which was used on some of the following mammoth ranches: XIT near Plainview, 6666 at Benjamin, Swenson near Stamford, Spade near Lubbock and "C" near Midland. Another similar collection belonging to Cox is in the museum on the Texas Tech campus. In the archives of the U. S. Patent Office, there are designs for more than 900 barbed wires, the basic tool which enabled the early settlers to protect their cattle on the Plains. The display was brought here by Cox's son, Allyn B. Cox, a technician in the Brownfield Office of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service.

IN REAGAN COUNTY

Farmer's Success Story Is Based On Two Wells of 340-Gallon Total Capacity

(Editor's note: The following article was reprinted from the February 1956 edition of THE FARMER-STOCKMAN, and was written by Jess F. Blair.)

A farmer can irrigate a large acreage with only small wells if he makes preparation ahead of time and plans his work well. This is the advice of Elmer Braden, who irrigated 90 acres of cotton in 1955 with only 340 gallons of water a minute.

Braden owns 160 acres of flat, tight land in northern Reagan county and rents an adjoining 160 from his brother.

He has two wells which pump

200 and 140 gallons a minute. Last year, he was making more than 100 bales of cotton on 90 acres. Some of it produced nearly three bales an acre, but much of the acreage was watered only once.

1,500 Pounds of Hegari

Besides the cotton, he cut 1,500 pounds of hegar from 14 acres which had been irrigated only one time. The rest of the feed crop didn't make it through the long drouth, and hardly was worth harvesting.

Braden says a farmer can make money with small wells if he follows a proper system. Here is the

Floyd County Farmers Talk Vegetable Market

Thirty-six Floyd County vegetable farmers and others interested in producing vegetables attended a county-wide vegetable meeting last Thursday night in the county courtroom.

Bill G. Rodgers, Floyd County agent, presided at the meeting and introduced four specialists in the vegetable field from Texas A&M College.

B. G. Hancock and George R. Williams, horticulturists, spoke on production and marketing; Dr. Harlan E. Smith, plant pathologist, spoke on disease and control; and C. F. Garner, entomologist spoke on insects and control.

STRAWBERRIES

Vegetable Group Seeks New Crops

South Plains farmers may pool orders for up to a million strawberry plants if a plan of new vegetable growers association recently organized in Plainview is carried out.

L. A. Marshall, Floydada, vice president of the new organization, said a committee would search for the best commercial strawberries in the nation and try to arrange to have them grown on the South Plains.

The plants would be distributed to growers in a 20-county area, to be put out this spring. Tentative plans call for placing 5 acres of strawberries in each of the 20 counties.

Group's First Project

This is the first project announced by the new organization, which elected Ronald Davis of Lubbock as president in its recent organizational meeting.

The new group, which does not as yet have a name, was formed to seek additional cash crops for the South Plains.

Strawberries have been grown here in small quantities, Marshall said, and many farmers had expressed interest in trying them on a commercial basis, he said.

Last Thursday, Terry growers saw their hopes dashed for retrieving at least part of their "lost" 1956 cotton acreage allotments.

Sample comment, uttered by a Terry farmer who heard an ASC review committee deny an appeal hearing on the grounds that it lacked jurisdiction: "What will happen to us next year . . . and next . . . and next?"

Although the three-man review committee failed to make the hoped-for decision, some 150 courtroom visitors apparently liked the manner in which the trio handled its delicate task.

Committeemen were Jess B. Foreman of Anton, Murphy Luna of Plains and Elmer G. Gardner of Morton — three reputable, typical and sympathetic West Texans whose hands were tied by government regulations.

"We cannot boast about doing a whole of a job in our conservation teaching until seeing a pastured woodlot causes belligerency and witnessing an eroded field brings on heartache," —Ranger Mac.

Members of the policy execution committee, Terry County Farm Bureau, were in Lubbock Tuesday where they took part in a meeting set up by the Texas Farm Bureau.

Committeemen are Chairman Eulice H. Farrar, Kenneth Durtell and Alton Loe. Other TCFBers who were in Lubbock were L. M. Waters, Jr., Leon Foote, Winford Tucker and Delton Tatum, all directors.

The Terry men heard a thorough explanation of the FB's recommendations for a soil bank plan of which already are in the hands of U. S. Congressmen.

"The conservation of our national resources and their proper use constitute the fundamental problem which underlies all," —See FARM ANGLE, Page 4

'LACK OF JURISDICTION'
Review Committee Denies Terry Farmer's Quota Hike Appeal

An ASC review committee comprising three West Texans ruled here Friday that it had no jurisdiction to hear the appeal of a Terry county farmer who seeks adjustment of his 1956 cotton acreage allotment.

The case was that of J. T. (Jake) Fulford, farming east of Meadow, who filed in mid-December his appeal with the Brownfield office of the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Service.

The review committee included chairman Jess B. Foreman of Anton, Vice-Chairman Murphy W. Luna of Plains and Elmer G. Gardner of Morton.

The trio made its decision in the district courtroom after hearing Hiram Childress of Sweetwater, State ASC attorney, argue that it had no jurisdiction.

Fulford was represented by Attorney Austin Wilson of Houston, whose law firm is handling the cases filed in federal court by four West Texas farmers to test the State ASC 1956 cotton acreage allotments.

Based on five appeal hearings held earlier and similar to the one held here Friday, the score is: State ASC, 4; farmers, 2. Haskell, Anson, Big Spring and Brownfield — it was in these towns that the so-called test cases have been decided in favor of ASC. In Lamesa and Littlefield, the farmers won their adjustments.

For the record, Fulford was allowed to tell the committee that he "was trying to pay for a farm, but that it is becoming increasingly difficult what with the continued cuts in my cotton allot-

Fulford, president of the Terry County Farm Bureau, operates and lives on a 186-acre farm 8 miles east of Meadow. His '56 allotment for cotton is 157.9 acres. He asked that it be raised to 171.2—a figure based on 98 per cent of his 1955 allotment of 174.9 acres.

Like some 130 other Terry farmers who filed their appeal notices here, Fulford stipulated that he in no wise was complaining of the ASC's three-man county committee.

"Win or lose," Fulford's was a test case, the outcome of which would decide the appeals of the other Terry appellants.

Under the review committee set-up, Foreman, Luna and Gardner could have granted Fulford his

"NO JURISDICTION"—The ASC review committee shown above ruled itself without jurisdiction here Friday to hear the quota plea of J. T. (Jake) Fulford, farming east of Meadow. From left, they are Jess B. Foreman of Anton, Murphy Luna of Plains and Elmer G. Gardner of Morton. However, Chairman Foreman, speaking for the trio, expressed "complete sympathy for Mr. Fulford and other farmers in this area." The men scored the State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee for its handling of the 1956 cotton acreage allotment. The audience of some 150 persons seemed generally in agreement.

HERE'S WHY I USE AMMO-PHOS FIRST . . .

AMMO-PHOS FERTILIZER IS MY FIRST CHOICE FOR MORE PROFIT PER ACRE. I TRIED OTHER KINDS, BUT COMPARED TO AMMO-PHOS THEY ALL FELL SHORT AT HARVEST TIME. THAT'S WHY AMMO-PHOS FERTILIZERS ARE WORTH MORE TO WEST TEXAS FARMERS.

LAST . . . Ammo-Phos is the last thing I could do without in my farming operation. For years Ammo-Phos has furnished plant food to nourish my crops, like so many West Texas farmers, I depend on Ammo-Phos. Believe me, it won't let you down.

ALWAYS . . . Always buy Ammo-Phos. That's my advice to you. It's pelletized and free flowing — high analysis and easy to handle — water soluble and more available. Yes, first, last, and always Ammo-Phos is the best fertilizer for your crops. Why don't you try Ammo-Phos fertilizer this year?

"Attention! Mr. Farmer and Mr. Businessman, DEFEND YOURSELF! Join your PLAINS COTTON GROWERS N-O-W!

The foregoing is the gist of placards which have made their appearance around Brownfield, work of a hard core of Terry farmers who know they must take a real interest in the Plains Cotton Growers.

Courtroom action here last Thursday, in which a Terry farmer failed even to get a hearing of his appeal protesting his 1956 cotton acreage allotment, points up with cold reality the need for effective organization on the part of South Plains cotton producers. Here is the most attractive opportunity to come along in this century — the Plains Cotton Growers — for concentrated action to forestall the trend of annual reduction of our cotton acreage. Such a problem is, of course, only one of many which claim the attention of PCG.

The admission fee for joining PCG is right, fair and equitable: from $10 to $100 for businesses and 10 cents for each bale produced.

The locations are First National Bank, Brownfield State Bank, Terry County Farm Bureau and Lewis Peeler's Farm Store in Meadow.

"Conservation is the keynote — and necessarily so — of modern farming and ranching, and on it hinges the success or failure of any operation that involves the soil." — Southwestern Crop and Stock.

Directors of the Terry County Sheriff's posse were pushing ahead this week with plans for a matched roping contest to be held here April 29.

Big names already scheduled to appear in the event are Toots Mansfield of Big Spring, Troy Fort of Lovington, N. M., John D. Holleyman of Rankin, Byron Wolford of Tyler, Don McLaughlin of Fort Worth, Sonny Davis of Kenna, N. M.

Marvin Fisher of Andrews, Turfy Cooper of Monument, N. M., Bill Love of Crane, Roy Wharton of Bandera, Buddy Groff of Hondo, Junior Vaughn of Elda, N. M., Glen Franklin of House, N. M., and former Canadian roping champion, Dean Oliver of Naptha, Idaho.

Wilson Roberts of Wellman recently was appointed a posse director, succeeding Tess Fulfer, who is moving to Littlefield.

The posse currently is giving square dance lessons each Monday night at its building on the Level-land cut-off. In charge are Moezell Ratliff and Mc Millen — the fee is $1 per couple per lesson.

CONTOUR FARMING—Shown above is a segment of the Herschel Davis farm, 3 miles east of Brownfield. Contouring operations also are under way on parts of Jess McWhorter's farm, east of town. Says McWhorter: "I would say irrigated cotton was planted in contoured rows following guide lines. On other fields, that I didn't lose a tub of water where the however, where the rows run down the slopes, lakes developed and destroyed crops, in addition to preventing moisture from settling to the subsoil." Contour farming includes drilling or planting of crops in rows and cultivation operations which follow level terraces, contour lines or contour strips. Purpose of contouring: to hold moisture as near to the point where it falls as possible by means of furrows or other depressions, thereby preventing the movement of soil and water. On steeper slopes, this practice is supported by terracing. Both Davis and McWhorter are long-time cooperators with the Terry Soil Conservation District. way he does it: Braden starts next year's crop as soon as this one is harvested. The stalks are cut and the land is put up early. Then he starts the wells pumping and soaks every acre he can get to before spring. Some of the acreage won't be watered again, but Braden has found that even one pre-planting irrigation will double dryland yields.

Levelling The Ditches While the pumps are running this winter, he will be levelling land, working on ditches and repairing equipment so that everything will be ready to roll next spring at planting time.

Once the irrigation season starts, Braden never stops the water flowing down the rows. Pumps go 24 hours a day and the water settings are changed every 12 hours.

Roy Bearden of Lamesa has been selected as the best conservation farmer of 1955 in Dawson Soil Conservation District. Members of the Dawson district's board are Chairman M. M. Dehman, W. H. Meeke, Arthur Little, G. Z. Herman and S. C. Middleton.

The annual Gaines County Livestock Show and Rodeo got underway today in Seagraves. The event will continue through Saturday, with showings held each night. A western dance will be held Saturday night, following the final performance.

Office Boy: "Sir, there's a salesman outside with a mustache."

Absent Minded Purchasing Agent: "Tell him I've got a mustache."

He plants his cotton in a two-in-and-one-out pattern, which results in easier irrigation — and the water goes further. Braden does all the labor on the farm, with the exception of one part-time hand. Some of the poisoning is done by plane, particularly after the plants become tall.

"Must Cut Overhead" "Another thing a small irrigation farmer must do," says the Reagan farmer, "is to cut down overhead." The Bradens practice a live-at-home plan.

They keep milk cows on an irrigated Sudan patch, raise their chickens and eggs and occasionally put a calf in the deep freeze. A big garden helps further to reduce the cost of living.

When he picked that 100 bales of cotton, there was a big likelihood that a big part of it was profit.

The Bradens have been on their farm eight years. Dryland crops seldom make in this tightland area, so he had to turn to irrigation for survival. This year, he will have three wells, and hope to do much better irrigating in land and raising the yield.

For Braden, there will be a winter lull. The next crop already is being planned, and the work on it started after the Christmas season.

L. Skrabanek of Texas A&M indicate that the farm population increased by 15,000 during the past year.

There were 1,141,000 Texans living on farms in April of last year according to the rural sociologist. This compares with 1,126,000 in 1954.

This reversal of a steady downward trend, existing since 1934 and may be attributed chiefly to two major reasons: an increase in the number of part-time farmers who have jobs in cities, and a general slowing-down of people migrating from farms in 1955.

Statewide Census Used. Dr. Skrabanek's report is based on a statewide farm population survey carried on in cooperation with the U. S. Department of Agriculture. It covers population trends and characteristics since 1920 and points up some of their causes and effects.

Because the state's population is growing much faster than the farm population, farm people continue to make up a smaller share of the population.

In 1920, one out of every two Texans resided on a farm as compared with one out of eight in 1955. At the present time, Texas has 5.1 per cent of the nation's farm people.

Farm Negroes Decreasing Negroes on farms have been decreasing at a faster rate than whites, according to Skrabanek's findings. They constitute 14.8 per cent of the farm population in 1955.

Males outnumber females on Texas farms at every age level except 30 to 35 and 60 years of age or older.

The average age of farm residents increased by five years between 1940 and 1950. This largely is the result of increasing proportions of older persons on farms. In 1920, only eight out of every

ACC Planning Group To Stage Lubbock Meeting

A planning meeting of the 1956 American Cotton Congress will be held in Lubbock beginning at 9:30 a.m. Monday in the Caprock Hotel, Burris C. Jackson, Hillsboro, general chairman, announced.

The 17th annual session of the American Cotton Congress will be held in Lubbock May 31-June 2 and purpose of the March 12 meeting will be to give further consideration to the plans and program for this year's congress, Jackson explained.

Committee members who will be in Lubbock, Sunday, March 11, are requested to meet at the Caprock Hotel lobby at 1:30 p.m. for a tour of the Lubbock area. Actual business of the meeting will get underway the next morning.

increase adjustment — the increase would have been over and above the national acreage allotment. Their action would have been final.

Foreman read the following decision: "Since the only complaint relates to the establishment and allocation of the Texas State Reserve and since the establishment and allocation of such reserve is not a matter required or permitted to be considered by permittees in the establishment of the quota sought to be reviewed, the committee (review) concludes that it has no jurisdiction to consider the matters offered in evidence by the applicant with respect to the reserve because Section 711, Point 30, of the Market Quota Review regulations of the secretary of agriculture provide that in all cases the review committee shall consider only such matters as under the applicable provisions of the act and regulations of the secretary of agriculture."

After reading the decision, Foreman told the principals and some 150 persons in the courtroom audience that his committee was in "full sympathy with Mr. Fulford and other cotton farmers in this area."

The chairman voiced scorn for the manner in which the State ASC committee had handled the 1956 cotton acreage allotments for the state — his feeling generally was reflected in the comments from the audience.

Feast and Trap Catch Buzzards

Buzzards settling on Bascom Munson's place near Angleton returned to their usual tree roost one evening to find a meal of chicken and armadillo spread beneath.

Quick to take advantage of a good thing, 132 buzzards joined a feast. Having eaten their fill, the big birds found, to their consternation, they had entered a large wire coop from which there seemed to be no exit.

And this is the sight that confronted Munson and Brazoria County Agent W. S. Millington when they returned to see the results of their strategy — 132 buzzards, walking disdainfully around and around the confines of the trap trying to find where the door to the thing was.

Munson says buzzards polite drinking water and grass, and have pecked the eyes of calves, sometimes killing and eating them. They even have killed and eaten a cow too weak to protect herself during calving time, he added.

Munson estimates that the number of buzzards he eliminated reduced their population by some 300 this year—as they will not be raising any young.

Millington reports that the Munson trap was constructed as a result of another Brazoria county demonstration.

The sandstone season is upon us, and it looks as though we'll be spending more and more time cleaning house. So... "House Cleaning Made Easier" is becoming a popular bulletin. You may have a copy for the asking at our office.

Here are a few hints gleaned from the bulletin:

Let equipment be your helper. Good equipment kept in working condition is essential in making house cleaning easier.

Long Handles Convenient
Brooms, mops, brushes and equipment used in sweeping, mopping, cleaning rugs, walls and woodwork should have handles long enough for one to work in a comfortable position.

A long-handled dust pan and mop-wringer will help to eliminate bending and stooping.

Texas A&M 7-Step Cotton Program Is Of Widespread Help

Ten years ago, the Texas A&M Extension Service's 7-Step Cotton Program was initiated.

Through the program, efforts which have brought great improvements to all segments of the cotton industry have been made.

Fred C. Elliott, extension cotton specialist, points out in his annual report the extent and value of the program to Texas. Acre yields for the 1946-55 ten year period are 40 pounds an acre higher than for the 1936-45 period. The 1955 acre yield of 282 pounds is the highest since 1866.

Varieties Are Improved
Improved varieties, better insect control programs, increased use of machinery, better harvesting methods, improved and cheaper cultural methods, improved rotation systems and soil building crops and improved ginning, all part of the 7-step program, are credited by the specialist for the increased yield.

The trend toward more machine harvesting continued in 1955. Elliott says 1,547 spindle type pickers were used in 70 counties and 19,524 stripping machines in 130 counties. Where yields were a half bale an acre, the saving for machine harvesting was as much as 35 a bale.

Key Weed Control
Last year 38,161 rotary hoe-equipped tractors were used in 148 counties. The high speed rotary hoe has become the key weed control practice and the saving on the 1955 hoe bill from their use is estimated at more than $12.3 million.

Elliott reports that naphtha oils for spot-oiling Johnsongrass were used on 73,637 acres in 104 counties. Lateral oiling with herbicidal naphtha was done on 14,617 acres in 41 counties.

Elliott says that many farmers reported 100 percent satisfaction with this practice. In general, he says, Texas farmers preferred to use the rotary hoe and lateral oiling instead of pre-emergent chemicals.

Defoliation Spreads
Defoliation of cotton for better machine harvesting was practiced on a much wider scale than ever before. The saving on machine harvesting, a third of last year's crop, was estimated at $20 a bale or $33.7 million.

Based on 10 years of cotton improvement experience and data from experiment station variety testing, Elliott and other cotton industry leaders figure that 40 pounds of lint an acre is due to the cumulative effect of the work done by Texas A&M College System personnel on the 7-step cotton program.

This extra 40 pounds from each of the 6,860,000 acres harvested in 1955, figured at the average price of 33 cents a pound, brought to Texas growers $90.5 million.

Information Is Available
How do farmers get the information that has enabled them to make these improvements? Elliott says the extension specialist team, composed of the cotton specialist, an entomologist, cotton gin specialist and at times other specialists, participated in 116 meetings attended by 14,393 persons last year.

In addition, county agents held 1,454 county and community meetings and tours on cotton improvement with an attendance of 47,140 persons. County agents also prepared 1,154 timely news stories on cotton and appeared on 884 radio and television programs. The specialists and county agents gave and received cooperation from other groups, organizations and agencies working for the betterment of the cotton industry in the state.

The 7-step county cotton committees were the clearing houses for these efforts.

CALGARY, CANADA, HERALD: "No one wants to impede civil defense. At the same time handing sweeping powers to the government, any government, is dangerous and totally unnecessary. Parliament must be the arbiter of what is right, not some official who was granted the powers and won't have to answer for them because he was given them by an act which was not necessary."

Girls Found To Favor King Cotton's Cloth

WASHINGTON—The U. S. Department of Agriculture says young ladies apparently like cotton.

The department reports "cotton was the leading fiber in a number of items in teen-age girls' wardrobes, according to a recent sample survey."

to clean with an ordinary broom. A vacuum cleaner is a most convenient piece of equipment for cleaning walls, carpets, rugs and upholstery. Take advantage of the useful attachments for many of the cleaning jobs, especially in reaching inaccessible places.

Assemble Your Supplies
Many steps can be saved in keeping the house clean if supplies and small equipment are assembled in an open basket or box — with a handle — which can be carried easily from room to room.

Cafe curtains. The trend in cafe curtains has found favor with many homemakers. Women like the fact that they are easy to make, easy to hang and easy to wash and clean. The curtains also allow easy control of light, air and privacy.

Cafe curtains are suitable for any room in the house provided the windows have horizontal divisions, or are otherwise suited. Usually, they are simply tailored. However, ruffles, banding or trimmings can be used to give a dressier effect. The more commonly used types are hung on rods by means of loops or rings fastened to the points of a row of inverted scallops.

Contrasting Balance Used
Cafe curtains generally consist of a pair covering the lower half or two-thirds of the window, with matching or contrasting balance at the top.

However, another pair of curtains made exactly like the lower ones may be hung from a rod across the top of the window. This version can be used without shades. For ease in opening and closing the top tier and to save wear and tear on the curtains, make a tape of matching material and sew it to the first ring or scallop point. It should be long enough to catch hold of and pull the curtain.

Colors Enhance Room
These curtains may be of very sheer materials or a heavier fabric, such as crash, glazed chintz or broadcloth. Pleated material often used in girls' skirts, with a straight band across the top, may be used.

Of course, colors enhance the beauty of the room where the curtains are used. Cafe curtains are a good choice for the teen-age girl who wishes to improve her room. A saucer may be used to make the pattern for the inverted scallops at the top of the curtain.
