

Announce Dividing Line for Schools

The Brownfield School Board Monday set up zoning of the city and county areas of the school district and announced the overall school plan.

By JERRY STOLTZ

You could say everyone is now even . . . but you would have had to attended the 1952 county convention and the 1954 precinct one convention to fully understand that statement.

The idea was expressed in last week's pre-convention story statement "that in numbers there is strength and in strength victory."

More experienced, but still not enough to cope with Shivers forces in Precinct One, the liberals lost again two years later. But the '52 lesson showed because the liberals did capture the county convention and delegates to the state convention.

Saturday, the Johnson forces wrote the script for the four precinct conventions ahead of time and then carried them out almost to the letter.

In Precinct One the only slip-up was caused by Al Muldrow's motion for adjournment before the Johnsonites were ready. That called for an unrehearsed vote and Arnett Bynum called signals with an arm waving semaphore.

And the convention ended in laughter when Al managed to get in a second to the final motion that adjourned the convention.

Other personal observations . . . Harold Simms did a commendable job as chairman. Vic Herring and Roy Fleming were the only candidates we saw present, and there were also only a couple of elected county officials. They deserve credit for being there.

And we said last week, too bad everyone can't attend without fear of retaliation.

Unless something unforeseen happens we are going to give our readers the most complete political coverage of any county in the state of Texas this year.

We have the precinct and county convention stories in this paper, and in a couple of weeks we will give on the spot coverage of the Democratic state convention. We promise you'll know it from the "Terry County angle."

on D to the Tahoka Road and east to the city limits. Those on the Randal side of the line go to school there, and vice versa.

Outside the city limits the division is made by buses. All those leaving to the west, east or south will deliver primary grade students to Colonial Heights. Those buses leaving to the North, Northeast and Northwest will take primary students to Randal.

Estimated enrollment of the two schools, according to Douglas, will be 400 students each.

A transfer policy was also announced. Transfers will not be considered until after two weeks of school have elapsed. Those applicants after that date will be considered on two factors; will it be best for the child to make the transfer and are facilities available in the receiving school.

Zoning for the Wheatley Colored school will remain the same as in 1955-56 pending further study by the Board.

The over-all plan calls for housing the fourth and fifth grades at West Ward; the sixth, seventh and eighth at Junior High school and the remaining four in the Senior High School.

The 1956-57 school calendar was approved with registration to come on September 3 and 4. The first day of school will be Sept. 5.

Faculty additions for next fall were announced as follows:
Elroy Payne, who graduates from McMurry college this spring, will be assistant backfield coach and possibly a math instructor. Payne played fullback four years at McMurry during which time he made All-Texas Conference four times, was named outstanding player of the conference twice in 1953 and ranked 10th in 1955.

He formerly played four years for Coach Doug Cox at Ballinger, and then his final year at McMurry.

Payne, who is 22 and married, had signed with the Ottawa team of the Canadian League before deciding to start his coaching career at once. He will move here in August.

Mrs. Ruth Martin, a teacher at Union this year, will teach the second grade here next year.

The Junior High coaching staff will include Coy Jones, Clifford Niles and Jim Elliott.

James Ratcliff will be Junior

High counselor and a teacher. Mr. and Mrs. A. V. Wall of Eastern New Mexico University will both teach. He will be high school choral director and she will teach elementary music. They plan to move here soon and to attend Texas Tech this summer.

Mrs. Shorty Forbus will again handle the summer recreation program at the Junior High gym. Equipment was purchased for the Junior High cafeteria from Golden Light Coffee Co. of Lubbock, low bidders on the project.

The Board also announced plans to put a practice football field in north of the present stadium and to make temporary repairs to the present north stands. The Board also accepted an offer from the Quarterback Club to assume season football ticket sales.

Meet To Consider Colonial Heights P-TA For Next Year

Parents of children who will be students in Colonial Heights Elementary school this fall are to meet at 8 p.m. Monday to discuss organization of a Parent-Teacher Association unit for the new school.

Need for the meeting arose with the school board announcement of zoning and two elementary schools, which in effect transferred about half of the Jessie G. Randal students to the new school.

Terry HD Council Receives National Acclaim In Story

National recognition has been given the Terry County Home Demonstration Council in the May issue of Woman's Home Companion magazine.

The occasion is the Companion's fourth annual selection of America's Clubwoman of the Year.

Here is the preface to the magazine article in which the Terry group is named:

"Every community has need which cry for action. In the belief that the women of America through their clubs can best help these needs, the Woman's Home Companion . . . honors 10 clubwomen and 250 clubs that have made contributions of exceptional importance to their communities."

The name of Mrs. O. D. Kennedy of 709 East Lake, chairman of TCHDC, was submitted by fellow council members for the magazine's consideration as woman of the year.

The Terry council was one of seven home demonstration organizations throughout the 48 states to be so honored — three of the groups are in Texas.

The magazine award gains added significance when it is realized that there are tens of thousands of such clubs in the United States.

(The plaque denoting the honor and the women most responsible for the occasion are seen in the picture on Page 7, Section 3 of this issue.)

Johnson Forces Sweep Democratic Conventions

"DALLAS, MAY 22" — That's the way the papers read for the State Democratic convention which these three men will attend from Terry county. From left, they are H. L. Holleman, Lewis Peeler and County Chairman Leonard Lang.

An absolutely unified county convention went through the formalities of electing delegates to the State Democratic convention and instructing them to support Lyndon Johnson Tuesday. It was the first such show of unity in Terry county convention history for the Johnson forces so completely dominated precinct conventions that there was not an opposing vote in the house Tuesday afternoon.

All precincts had imposed "unit rule" resolutions on their delegates, and in each roll call each of the 35 delegate votes were cast as "aye" votes.

H. L. Holleman, Leonard Lang and Lewis Peeler were elected as delegates to the state convention in Dallas on May 22. Alternates were Frank Jordan, W. A. Bynum and Jake Fultford.

The convention started promptly at 2 p.m. with the election of Lang as permanent convention chairman. Mrs. R. N. Lowe was elected secretary. Lang called the roll of delegates, placing each group in separate parts of the district courtroom.

Precinct one had 16 of their 17 delegates present, although by virtue of the unit rule, all 17 votes were cast as a unit. Ten of the 11 precinct two delegates were present and three and four were all present with three and four delegates each. From 10 to 15 spectators sat in at various times during the convention.

The resolution which passed in all precincts and in the county read as follows:

"WHEREAS it is in the best interest of the Democratic Party of Texas that Democrats within the Party be united, and

"WHEREAS, if the voice of Texas Democrats is to be heard in shaping the affairs of our country our views must be expressed on the floor of the National Convention by one who commands the respect not only of those who hold high positions of leadership with in the party but also the rank and file of Democrats throughout the Nation; and

"WHEREAS, Senator Lyndon B. Johnson by reason of his experience, energy and ability has distinguished himself as an outstanding statesman; and

"WHEREAS, Senator Lyndon B. Johnson as Majority Leader of the Senate of the United States has time and time again demonstrated his ability to bring those with differing views together in a constructive spirit of co-operation; and

"WHEREAS, Senator Lyndon B. Johnson's record of great service to Texas and to the Nation eminently qualifies him as the ideal man to chart a course of strength and influence along which all Democrats of Texas can proceed to the victories which have escaped us in the recent past;

"NOW BE IT RESOLVED by the Democratic Convention of Terry County, Texas that we endorse Senator Lyndon B. Johnson for Chairman of the Texas delegation to the National Convention in 1956 and for our favorite son nominee for President of the United States of America."

The final resolution bound the Terry county delegates to the State Convention under unit rule also.

The convention closed with a short appeal for party unity by the chairman.

Johnson Carries 4-1 in Precinct One

In a convention delayed about half an hour while qualification of voters was checked, precinct one Lyndon Johnson forces swept to an approximate four to one victory Saturday afternoon.

Maids and Matrons Hear Speaker Put Blame On Parents

Ralph Caldwell, Lubbock insurance executive, recently told members of the Maids and Matrons Club of Brownfield, there isn't anything the matter with our teenagers, but that it is the parents of today that presents a pretty sorry spectacle.

In a speech entitled, "Jack and Jill and The Automobile," Caldwell said, "As kids, they are no different than kids have been from time immemorial. If we are honest we will have to admit that we, as parents, have made a mess of things in our lifetime. We expect the kids to face up to the terrible problems we have created as if they were more mature than we are. We parents complain that we can't understand our youngsters. I think we overlook the other side of the picture. They really can't understand us; they just can't figure out the complications of the adult world. They don't know how to fit into it."

"Every year thousands of our 1956 Jacks and Jills are not only breaking their crowns, but are smashing and mutilating themselves all over the vast American highway system. It won't do any good to run to Old Dame Dobb for the vinegar and brown paper treatment. Most of the time, after long hospitalization and laborious surgery, Jack and Jill can be patched up to resume their young careers of growing up to become nor adults. In some cases, the scars are permanent, and dismembered limbs can't be replaced. I don't pretend that Jack and Jill are the only safety problem. The parents of Jack and Jill nowadays present a pretty sorry spectacle."

Caldwell pointed out, "Horsepower and horseness have become separated in these modern days. Grandpa used to have a certain amount of built-in horseness. Even then Grandpa slept, spooned, or became inebriated, most of the time faithful old Dobb would get him home safe and sound. Today we have put more horsepower in front of the driver's seat — but too much of the time there is little horse sense behind the wheel as under the wheel as under the hood. Modern Jack and Jill can kick up 160-180-210-300 horsepower, and all too often neither the car nor Jack 'have one-tenth the sense of Grandpa's old Dobb. Horsepower and speed are killing if they aren't used with caution. By the statistics a lot more people could use a lot more caution" Caldwell told the club members.

He appeared on the Maids and Matrons Club program under the auspices of the Southwestern Insurance Information Service of Dallas, which is currently conducting a statewide safety and educational program.

Mrs. Wm. J. Spreen, president of the Club, arranged the program on which Caldwell appeared.

Led by Don O'Neal's 157, the Brownfield Cubs placed third in the Conference AA State High School Golf tournament at Austin Friday and Saturday. O'Neal scored fourth towards winning individual medal honors with his 79-78 on the tree-lined Austin Muny course.

The Cubs scored 677. They compiled this with Mike Hamilton shooting 89-82-171, Danny Powers 84-88-172, Preston Glenn 81-86-177 and O'Neal 157.

Coach Ike Peace said they were offering no alibis for winning third in the state, since that in itself is the highest a Brownfield team has ever finished. But he did say that the boys had a hard time becoming accustomed to the densely wooded course, and the bermuda grass greens also threw them off their normal pace.

However, he expressed pride in their accomplishment and predicted that the same four boys will be making it tough on somebody again next year. None of the team graduates.

During the course of the season the Cubs won a couple of dual or triangular matches, finished high at Odessa, won the Pecos tournament, finished second in District and captured the Regional championship.

TFB President Seeks Same Support For Grain Sorghums As Certain Corn Getting

The president of the Texas Farm Bureau has asked the U. S. Department of Agriculture to give grain sorghum producers price supports comparable to those announced for growers of non-allotment corn.

In a letter to Marvin L. McClain, director of the USDA grain division TFB President J. Walter Hammond said the announcement of corn support levels "has created a storm of protest in this area."

Hammond referred to a USDA directive released April 25 setting a minimum support price of $1.25 a bushel on corn grown without allotments in commercial areas. Support price on corn produced under allotments has been placed at $1.50 a bushel.

"I do not have the official announcement of the support price on grain sorghum and neither do I have the official announcement of support level on cotton, but these prices have been reported to be $1.80 per hundred weight on grain sorghum and 82 1/2 per cent of parity on cotton," Hammond wrote McClain.

"If the reports are true," Hammond continued, "corn produced out from under allotments would be supported at $1.25 per bushel, or $2.21 per hundred weight. Then it would seem that corn, where produced in excess of allotments, should be placed in the category of feed grain. If that assumption is correct, then corn produced with no regard for allotments would be supported at 41 cents per hundred weight higher than grain sorghum."

Hammond said that, in the case of cotton, where a farmer fails to stay within his allotment, he only not loses the entire support price, but also is penalized 50 per cent of the support price for overplanting.

"There is a feeling among the cotton growers that since there are tighter restrictions and controls on cotton, that crop should get at least the same support price percentage as does corn," Hammond said.

In the case of grain sorghum the TFB head pointed out, it recognized generally that grain sorghum has 95 per cent of the feed value of corn and that the producer, to receive equitable treatment, should be provided a support price within 95 per cent of the corn produced in commercial areas without allotments.

"It may be that it is your intention to increase the support price on cotton and grain sorghum in a like manner to that of corn," Hammond told McClain.

HI FROM JUNIOR HIGH

Elections were held Tuesday at Junior High for Student Council officers and cheerleaders. Charlie Crites was elected president of the student council while Johnny Rodgers took vice president, and Thretha Smith was selected as secretary. Cheerleaders are Sue Steede, Toni Lowe, Beth Chesahr, Ann Moore with Latrice Teague as head cheerleader.

Eighth graders went to the Honor Assembly at high school on Tuesday while the election of officers was being held at Junior High. Tuesday the eighth graders went with their parents to high school for an orientation meeting. Thursday the eighth graders will pre-register for their high school subjects.

The Gym Dandies was a real success this year. The program was free and there was a good crowd both nights. Mrs. Forbus and the girls really did a swell job.

The eighth graders will graduate Sat., May 19th at 8:00. Only the 8th grade parents are invited because of the limited seating capacity in our auditorium.

The final meeting of the P.T.A. was held last Thursday. After the meeting it was announced that Miss Perkins home room had the highest attendance of parents at the meetings for the school year. The home rooms of Mrs. Walker and Mrs. Weiss were second and third.

The Junior Band under the direction of Mr. Jim Williams have been hard at work for the past three weeks in preparation for their second contest of the year. This event will be held in Level-land on Saturday, May 12. Our band is scheduled to play at 6:00 and it is thought that the concert will be broadcast over the Level-land radio station. The Junior Band brought back a First Division in performance and a Second Division in sight reading from the previous contest. We hope they will do as well at Levelland.

between now and the July 28 precinct conventions will be whether they should be held at each polling place, instead of by commissioner's precincts.

There's apparently some question of the legality of doing it as we have in the past. One drawback to the idea of doing it by voting precincts is that it wouldn't be worth the trouble to hold conventions in some of the boxes, because they don't poll enough votes to get a delegate to the county convention.

It would take at least 13 votes, which is a major fraction of 25, to qualify for one delegate. However, on the other hand, the Junior High and Jesse G. Randall boxes would come closer to having their fair popular vote share of representation under the proposed plan.

Charles Goza And Burkie Slaughter Are Wellman High Honor Graduates

Graduation exercise for 12 Wellman High School seniors have been scheduled for May 18. Principal Eldridge Ancell announced today Baccalaureate services are slated May 13.

Charles Goza and Burkie Slaughter were named valedictorian and salutatorian. Other top students, in order, are Barbara Falls and Peggy Dean.

The Rev. Frank Story of First Methodist Church at Sundown will deliver the May 13 sermon. Rep. Waggoner Carr of Lubbock will make the graduation address.

Goza is the son of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Goza of Wellman. Here are some of his accomplishments: member of the annual staff, letterman in track and basketball, third-place winner in the regional track meet, FFA member for three years, member of the senior play cast and district winner in poetry reading and broadjumping.

Slaughter is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Slaughter of Wellman. He was president of his freshman and junior classes. He also was reporter, vice-president and president of the FFA, holding that group's Lone Star Farmer degree.

Slaughter also took part in the junior and senior class plays, was on the annual staff and is a letterman in track.

Goza's future plans include four years at Hardin-Simmons University at Abilene, where he has obtained two scholarships. He will major in religious education.

Kicking Off

A safe prediction with regard to Little League play is that the race will be closer this year than last. It wouldn't be surprising to see the championship of both halves decided on the final night of play, and to see different teams in both playoffs.

The most new faces will be seen in the Lions Cubs lineup where Manager Donald Price has only seven of his 15 on last year's roster back. However, he has some good boys in the seven and also among the eight he picked up in the auction last week.

Burton Hackney is using Casey Stengel technique in drawing attention from his defending champions by pointing at the Braves as the team to beat. He says Rudy Winchester has the best pitching staff and the most regulars back from last year. Both have 10 men back from the 15 they ended the season with last year.

Dale George and A. R. Isaacs each have nine back for the Giants and Red Sox respectively. Britt Jim Gammill, Phillip Bradfield, Tommy Hardy, Thomas Proctor, Tommy Harris and Ronny Ward, New Louis Sparkman, Vernon Bingham, Jerry Curry, DeWayne Neil, Jerry Willis, Wiley Baker, Don Chiswell and Butch Blaisy.

Jackey Braves, managed by Rudy Winchester — holdovers, Teddy Howell, Leon Speed, Charles Cook, Joe Muncy, Mickey Willis, David Preston, Eddie Wilder, Bill McGowan, Cecil Brown and Maurice Harrell. New, Jerry Littlefield, Joe Fore, Tommy Williams and Ronnie Davis.

Murkey Construction Red Sox, A. R. Isaacs, manager—holdovers, Leonard George, Garry George Keith Snedeker, Olan Ray Boering, Bobby Davis, Richard and Robert Kimbrough and Douglas

Godwin. New, Ken Baker, Jim Childress, Troy Noel, Jr., Byron Stone and Dale Ruth.

Goodpasture Indians, Burton Hackney, manager — holdovers, Jimmy Hackney, Jerry Sansing, Donald Carruth, C. L. Stockton, John Jennings, Wayland Parker, Jr., Buzz Steele, Bob Casstevens, Archie Jennings and J. W. Harrell. New, Gerald Chidester, Terry Johnson, James Nichols, David Sherrod and Maxie Murry.

Rotary Yankees, Britt Pounds, manager — holdovers, Connie Ver-

Riney of Brownfield; maternal grandmother, Mrs. Lucy King of Brownfield; paternal grandmother, Mrs. Arsh Riney of Austin; one sister, Mrs. M. E. Hulise of Brownfield, and one brother, H. E. Riney of Fairborn, Ohio.

Paymaster Giants, Dale George, manager — Holdovers, Howard Moorehead, Pat Hamilton, David Auburg, David Chisholm, Frank Lopez, Sammy Garcia, Jimmy Purltell, Allen Huffman and David McDonald. ## Play A.P.I. 'Blind Bogey' Tournament Fri. and Sat.

Starting at 6 a.m. Friday morning South Plains American Petroleum Institute chapter members will tee-off in the annual Scholarship Tournament. The "Blind Bogey" event is scheduled each spring with proceeds going to finance two college scholarships for deserving students.

Membership in the API (cost $1) is the only prerequisite to playing in the tournament during which more than $2,000 in prizes will be given away. Memberships will be sold at the time of registration if desired. Cost of the tournament and barbecue is $5.

Contestants play nine holes and "Blind Bogey" means nobody knows what the winning score will be until after everyone is through playing. The score is then drawn and everyone who shot that score is declared a winner, according to Pro Jack Mann.

Mann is also responsible for tee-off times, and players intending to play should contact him for a starting time.

Presentation of prizes and the barbecue will be held at 8 p.m. Saturday.

The news in Frozen Food Preservation, the program topic, was discussed and demonstrated by Miss Mildred Cox, county home demonstration agent.

Points to success in freezing foods stressed by Miss Cox were good quality, careful selection of foods to be frozen, and is very important, said Miss Cox, for food coming out of the freezer is no better than it was before it was frozen; careful preparation, which speed is necessary to help retain quality and flavor after preparation; proper packaging or wrapping food to prevent drying out and to retain highest quality is most important.

Refreshments of cold drinks and cookies were served by the hostesses to seven members and one new member, Mrs. C. D. Reed. Next meeting will be Thursday, May 24.

"Bonsoir, Mademoiselle y Monsieur," so began an enchanting "Evening in Paris" for the juniors and seniors at the banquet held at the Colonial Heights cafeteria May 4. The theme of the evening was carried out in the decorations and the program. The program consisted of: Master of ceremonies, Monsieur Lewis Chambliss, president of the Junior class; Invocation, Monsieur O. R. Douglas, superintendent of Brownfield Public Schools; Dejeuner Musique (dinner music), Mademoiselle Sherry Don Spears; and then dinner. The menu: Jus de Tomate, Rosbif, Purée de Pommes de Ture et Sauce, Sauter Salade, Haricots Vuts, French bread, et Beurre, Fraise Gateau Bref, and Glace The. (Don't feel dumb, we don't know what it means, either!) Le Bienvenu; Mademoiselle Donna Christopher; Response; Mademoiselle Peggy Adams; Remarques; Monsieur Keith McReynolds; Volante; Monsieur James Brinson; and Benediction; Monsieur Byron Rucker, principal Brownfield High School. The humorous part of the evening came when Peggy Adams, representing a pert French lass, gave a few remarks in French, preceded by a kiss to Lewis Chambliss. Following the banquet, the prom was held in the high school gym. The sides of the gym were lined with side-walk cafes, complete with awnings, trees, and fences. Cokes were served to the group throughout the evening. Bernie Howell and his Trio furnished dance music; and Sherry Don Spears and Janice Meek sang by special request. Everyone present can truthfully say that they enjoyed an evening in gay Paris!

Sid Szydoski and Prissy Trim celebrated their birthdays at their party last Wednesday, the second Sid, whose birthday was the first, was 18, while Prissy was 16 on the third. Guests present to eat barbecue chicken were: Keith Baisier-Kay Kissinger, Kenneth Murphy-Sherry Don Spears, Barbara Knox-Richard Baggett, Carl Moore-Peggy Adams; Chris Addison-Patti Thomas, and Doug O'Dell-Judy Land.

The annual F. F. A. banquet for the boys and their parents was given Monday, April 30, at Jesse G. Randal cafeteria. The guests were entertained by Janice Meek, singing "Rock 'n Roll" songs, and Leon Bagwell's band from Loop William Smyrl was master of ceremonies, and various reports of the club's work were given by different members. Royce Balford, state F.F.A. president, was guest speaker. The highlight of the evening came when William Smyrl was presented with the Outstanding member of the year award, by Max Miller, last year's outstanding member.

Everyone has surely seen, or at least heard, about Ann Grigg's engagement ring by now. She will marry Bob Smith this fall. The seniors were honored guests at a chuck wagon supper given Tuesday, May 1, by the Presbyterian Church. The ladies came dressed western and were served out of doors from a genuine chuck wagon. Later in the evening, the group returned to the building to dance or play ping-pong. The same night, there was an honor assembly was held Tuesday morning. The eighth grade came over and got a taste of what it'll be like next year. The I. E. Club took a fun through Sears-Roebuck in Lubbock Wednesday. They spent the morning seeing retail trade in action. Glenda Jones competed in the State contest for shorthand at Austin Saturday. Although she didn't place, it was really an honor for her to even be able to go. Jo Anna Cook accompanied her on the trip with Mr. and Mrs. Kissinger. While shopping downtown in Austin they met Pat Bonner who was down there visiting her fiancé at the University. Seen dating at the shows during the week were: Jorita Pultford, Fred Brown, Barbara Chesnut, Wayland Duck Seeley, Joanne Criswell, E. V. Murphy, Bob Wilton, son-Sue Dell Jones, and Jo Anne Cook-Jimmy Jenkins. Later, after leaving the show, when we went out to "Boston's," we saw some acquaintances: Bobbie Nell Richard, son-Gerald Jenkins, La Nell McAnally-Michael Browning, Joe O. And-Karen Foster, Jackie Adrup, Alton Merritt, and Gretchen Joan Charles Kersh. Some more dates out in Lover's Lane were: Glenn Chesnut-Delora Fox, Mary Ruth Venable-Tommy Chisholm, Jo Hays-Larry Meeks, and Lomoe Rayley-Ruth Glenn. Some couples attending church to college, which as usual, met together Sunday, were: Kenneth big laugh out of everyone. The senior play cast had their party at Mrs. Carr's house Thursday, May 4. The group got quite a bang out of the new game Mr. Hall introduced. Carolyn Crites was sorta surprised Saturday afternoon when she walked into the room and found a surprise shower waiting for her. About 25 girls came and brought her some wonderful gifts. Saturday at Austin the golf team won third place. We're awfully proud of them, and we think this is a great honor for our school.

Mrs. Chas. Kersh Hostess to Circle
The Mae Dallas Circle of the First Presbyterian Church met Monday afternoon in the church parlor. Mrs. Charles Kersh was hostess. Mrs. Claude Buchanan, chairman, presided over the business meeting. Mrs. Truman Pickett gave the devotional, "A Way to Be Shared by All" from Ephesians 2:11-13. Those present were Mesdames: Cason-Jo Latham, Peggy Gray, Dixon Latham, Charles Gunn, Jan Priest, and Billy Walker-Glenda Wiseman. By now, we seniors are either ready to leave or have left on our trip to Rudloss. The next time you see us, we'll be so middle-aged and dead-tired, but we'll have enjoyed every moment of it.

WSCS Group Met At Church Monday
Monday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the Women's Society of Christian Service met in the parlor of the First Methodist Church for a general meeting. Members voted to have two meetings each month for the summer, and the time for the meetings was set at 9 a.m. There will be a pledge service and installation of officers at a luncheon at the church at 1 p.m. May 28. Mrs. J. H. Carpenter gave the group a very interesting program. Scripture readings were given by several ladies in the group.

SAFETY CONSCIOUS — It's Scotchlite time once again for cyclists at West Ward school. Shown above are Mrs. M. G. Tarpley and Bryan Jones distributing the material to fourth-grade students. Mrs. Tarpley is chairman of the safety committee, Maids and Matrons Study Club. Jones is school principal. The distribution of the free Scotchlite — it reflects car lights at night — is an annual project of the club. Said Mrs. Tarpley: "We urge that you be especially careful in driving this summer. Now that school is about out, there will be more youngsters riding bicycles. Twilight is a dangerous period for these children."

Belt On This Personal Air Conditioning Outfit

BY EDNA MILES

PROBABLY the first thing you do when you reach home on a warm summer evening is to peel off the belt that's been clinging to you all day.

Warm weather is just ahead. And the warmest part of it is the sticky feeling from a wide belt, one that gathers fabric at the waistline and looks chic but feels hot.

There's a brand-new solution for this old problem. One manufacturer has brought out a straw belt (looks just like an ordinary belt) that gives you your own private air-conditioning. It uses no chemicals and there's no water-drip, the maker claims.

In ordinary summer weather, you wear it as you would any other belt. But when it turns really warm, trickle water over the right side of the belt. The color-fast straw absorbs the water and the aluminum belt lining cools the belt and keeps it cool until the straw dries out again. This takes several hours, says the manufacturer. Then, simply dampen the belt again.

The belt comes in summer pastels and darker colors, too. There's also a gold finish. None of the colors will smudge.

Cool idea for a summer fashion accessory is this straw belt with aluminum lining. When straw is dampened, evaporation keeps aluminum liner cool. Manufacturer says the belt won't drip.

Monday's showers certainly will put us more in the mood to celebrate Cotton Week next week in view of the fact that it looks more like we'll be able to produce some cotton than that is. Anyway, next week is Cotton Week and there will be lots going on nationally in observance. The best way I can think of for us local yokels to celebrate it is to be able to put some of its little seeds into the ground.

Next and most important day we'll have is, of course, Mother's Day. I plan to visit my mother Sunday and I'm sure all of you who can will do the same. I suppose we never out-grow our need for our mothers — I think I'm ruined if I don't get to see mine at least every two weeks. Those of us who have our mothers near enough to visit often are truly fortunate. There have been many tributes paid to mothers, in song and prose, but they never seem quite adequate. But I think one of the most descriptive quotations for this occasion is in an old Jewish proverb: God could not be everywhere and therefore He made mothers.

Several times a week I talk to people who have various and sundry complaints they'd like aired and as a rule I quite agree with them. I think one of my pet peeves is a common one with most of you, and it is thoughtlessness on other humans parts towards their fellow humans. It is a sin we are all guilty of to a certain extent, but I think, as a rule, we make an effort to consider our compatriots. And before we go any further, don't accuse the pot of calling the kettle black — I've already admitted my guilt.

In one instance, I talked with a good friend of mine this week who has been trying to get her yard in decent-looking shape this spring. Living near the school, it's almost impossible for her to keep the papers and litter up off her yard, to say nothing of trying to coax her grass to grow. There are some who would call her cranky, because she frequently asks the children not to throw their papers down in her yard and not to stomp on her grass and flowers. Most of us would say that she has pride in trying to keep her premises looking beautiful so that not just her own family, but everyone, can enjoy them. I know it's hard for kids to remember, but if us parents would keep reminding them and keep reminding them to respect other people's property and feelings, it might accidentally rub off on them.

Another little incident I wish to bring up since I'm in a bringing up mood is courtesy in driving. The times my blood pressure soars are the times when some driver in front of me just can't make up his or her mind whether to stop, turn left, turn right, or punt. Indecision often comes up in driving, but we can give a signal, can't we? It's not only discourteous driving to bumble around like that, but the bumbler is in danger of getting his contract busted by the driver behind.

But the driver who makes me want to take the baseball bat to him is the one who goes skimming along, tooting his horn, and running hapless drivers and pedestrians up the nearest tree. Just last week, a child escaped serious injury, perhaps death, because a thoughtless driver ran the boy and his motor-scooter into a sand bed and then sped on, not

YOUNG PIANIST—Miss Rebecca Glick, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Glick, formerly of Brownfield, was presented last Thursday in a private recital in the Glick home at Denver City. She is studying under Jerry Gannaway of Brownfield. Her program included pieces of the Classical Period, a complete sonatina, pieces from the Romantic Era and modern compositions. Her encore, heard by 36 persons, was "Suite Swanee." Rebecca presented a similar recital Sunday in Brownfield.

It's not only discourteous driving to bumble around like that, but the bumbler is in danger of getting his contract busted by the driver behind. But the driver who makes me want to take the baseball bat to him is the one who goes skimming along, tooting his horn, and running hapless drivers and pedestrians up the nearest tree. Just last week, a child escaped serious injury, perhaps death, because a thoughtless driver ran the boy and his motor-scooter into a sand bed and then sped on, not knowing whether the child was killed or not. Some of you drivers, both old and young, may think it's funny to pull a stunt like this, but it's not. And we should all be particularly careful when driving around these youngsters on motor scooters. I've discovered that these kids have more driving courtesy and know more about giving hand signals than some people who have been driving cars for 40 years. Hope you don't mind my blowing off steam like this, but I also hope that some of you take my words to heart. I'm certainly no Pollyanna, but I believe in humans acting humanly.

Texas University Scientists Advancing in Continuing Struggle Against Cancer

(Reproduced from the U. T. Record, which is published quarterly by the University of Texas News and Information Service, Austin, Texas. Funds for this publication come from private, non-appropriated sources.)

Cancer, which so far has evaded the final "knock-out" punch from scientists, lost a round to two University of Texas researchers in February.

Delivering the telling blows known research scientist, and Dr. Roger J. Williams, world famous biochemist and director of the University's Biochemical Institute.

What they been able to do? For the first time, they had successfully destroyed cancerous tumors growing in fertile eggs — without damaging the innocent chick embryos inside the shell. The egg tumors, incidentally, resulted from injections of tumor cells taken from cancer-ridden mice.

"Definitely, this was tumor destruction, not tumor retardation," said Dr. Taylor, who refers to himself as a "bench-type scientist."

This news gave rise to the hope that sometime in the future similar cancer control in the future might be used on human beings with no resulting injury to non-tumorous parts of the body.

"Although no one can foresee the pathway by which cancer investigation will progress, it seems likely that it may take a course involving first the control of cancer in embryonated (fertile) eggs, second its control in experimental animals, and lastly its control in human patients," the scientists explained.

What methods had they used? They had injected certain chemicals into tumor-bearing eggs, and then simultaneously raised the temperature of the incubating eggs by 1 or 5 degrees Fahrenheit. Although that sounds simple enough, take Dr. Taylor's word that it was a long time absorbing.

Many Blind Alleys Behind the news-making announcement lay 10 years of daily tedious, often "blind-alley" research. Determining just the right chemicals to inject the right amount of dosage, the right amount of temperature, the right way to inject the egg — these were but a few of the considerations which caused Dr. Taylor to refer to cancer research as "sometimes the most thankless and deadening type of research."

Although TEM and aminopterin had been used in cancer experiments before, they had not proved successful for this reason: they were injurious to egg-grown tumors all right, but they poisoned the chick embryo in the process.

"That was like curing the disease but killing the patient," said Dr. Taylor.

With Dr. Taylor's experiments however, not only was the tumor destroyed in the fertile egg, but the chick embryo remained unharmed and healthy.

Happily, the work of Dr. Taylor and Dr. Williams, who advised Dr. Taylor in the research, has been generously supported through the years by grants from the Clayton Foundation for Research. Such grants have enabled the Biochemical Institute to attract some of the finest scientists in the country and, consequently, to enjoy the reputation of being listed as one of the six great centers of cancer research in America.

Founded in 1940 by Dr. Williams the Institute has also made outstanding contributions by discovering more new vitamins than any other group of research workers in the entire world.

Right now, Biochemical Institute researchers are working on 17 new biologically active principles and investigating 27 recognized principles.

Writing recently to Benjamin Clayton in Houston, Dr. Williams cogently summed up the value of the work:

"I do believe that our attack is a sound basic one, and that no matter what happens in the future, others will be building upon our work."

Stainless steel's growing popularity is attested by the fact that more than half of the table flatware now sold is made of this metal, according to researchers.

The lever scale invented by Thaddeus Fairbanks in 1830 was the first contribution to the science of weight in 2000 years.

The final event gets under way at 4 p.m., May 19, on the east side of the courthouse square. In addition to music and other entertainment, a style show of the latest in cotton fashions and the selection of a Maid of Cotton will round out the week.

A total of 22 Terry county girls are entered to date in the Maid contest — six of them are shown in the above pictures. From left, they are Miss Gloria Ingram, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Ingram of Star Route, Welch; Miss Gail Cottrell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Cottrell of Route 2, Brownfield; Miss Linda Hendricks, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Hendricks of Route 1, Meadow.

Miss Aleta McCullough, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. N. F. McCullough of Route 1, Seagraves; Miss Verna King, 19, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. M. King of Route 4, Brownfield, and Miss Dahlia Gossett, 15, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Sam Gossett of Route 1, Brownfield.

From the bevy of 22 girls, a panel comprising three out-of-town judges will name the Maid of Cotton for Terry county.

Pioneering in first aid instruction, the Red Cross began building its program during the early years of this century. Last year the Red Cross issued 680,000 certificates to persons who satisfactorily completed training in first aid.

The $150 in gift certificates will be presented as follows: two $25, two $20, two $15 and three $10. The certificates are being awarded by the Terry county branch of Plains Cotton Growers.

To qualify for the prizes, the rules committee has determined that holders of lucky tickets must be 18 years of age — or married, and they must be present at the time of the May 19 drawings. The certificates must be redeemed within 30 days for cotton merchandise only at any one of the following stores:

Cobb's, Duniap's, Franklin's, Klein's, Shelton's, Fair Department Store, Brownfield Bargain Center, Wackera, Griffith's, Collins, Fields, Fabric Mart and

House of Fabrics.

Here are groups taking part in the week's activities here: Retail Merchants Association, Chamber of Commerce, Terry County Home Demonstration Council and Plains Cotton Growers.

Mr. Delbert Downing . . . We Appreciate Your Presence in Brownfield

Delbert Downing, outstanding public speaker and manager of the Midland Chamber of Commerce, will be guest speaker for a joint meeting of Brownfield Civic clubs in observance of National Chamber of Commerce week here Thursday, according to J. T. Hoy, local Chamber of Commerce president.

All four civic clubs will meet at 8 p.m. Thursday in the Colonial Heights cafeteria, and the public is also invited to attend, Hoy added. Tickets are on sale at $1.50 each at the Chamber of Commerce office, and will be sold at the banquet.

Downing, who last spoke here at the annual Farm Bureau banquet a few years ago, has long been active in civic and church affairs. He has held offices in both Lions and Rotary clubs and is a leader in youth works.

He is one of West Texas' most sought after public speakers, and has addressed hundreds of meetings of all kinds during the last several years. Chamber of Commerce, service clubs, church and organization meetings, and high school graduations are his specialties. A little Lincoln, some Will Rogers, lots of humor and plenty of common sense, all are noticeable in his messages.

He is quite a family man and has Mrs. Downing (Mama, about whom you will hear); a son who is a ministerial student at Texas Christian University; a daughter who is a student at Texas Tech and another son, a high school student.

"You will enjoy hearing Delbert Downing speak," said Hoy.

Virgil Crawford Heads Successful Annual Membership Drive in March

VIRGIL CRAWFORD

Virgil Crawford, who headed the most successful membership drive in Brownfield Chamber of Commerce history in 1955, gave a repeat performance in 1956 as he headed another outstanding effort.

Thirty-seven new members were added to the Chamber of Commerce roster during the six-week period starting March 1.

This included the following:
C & W Fishing Tool Co., W. M. Thomason, Ed J. Mayfield, Dr. Jerry Bailes, South Plains Ready Mix, Bob Campbell Plumbing, Whiteway Laundry, Bus Station Drug, DeLuxe Cleaners, Bradley Machine Shop, Staudt's Jewelry, Bob's Cafe, Don Cates, South Plains Health Unit, Bill R. Neel,

Jaycee President Smith Is Second To Sit On Chamber Directors Board

L. G. SMITH

In 1955 the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce took note of the importance of the Junior Chamber of Commerce and of the growing ability of the organization by voting to include the president of the Brownfield Junior Chamber of Commerce as a member of the Board of Directors.

Alvin Davis, Jaycee president during 1955, was the first to act on the board in this capacity and he has been succeeded by L. G. Smith, current Jaycee president.

Smith, a former outstanding young-man-of-the-year, and an active civic worker, has already proven of value to the Senior group in the short time he has served with them.

Purpose of the Chamber Directors in including the Jaycee president was to weld a closer alliance and co-operation between the groups. "After all, we are working towards exactly the same goals, so why shouldn't we coordinate our efforts," said Presidents J. T. Hoy and Smith.

NEW CHAMBER QUARTERS — Pictured above is the facade of the building housing the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce. Completely new and modern inside, the new quarters were dedicated only last December. Herein are offices of Manager Joe Satterwhite and office secretary Marie Brown. The address: 414 West Main. THE STAFF—Manager Joe Satterwhite, who assumed his duties in Brownfield on December 1, and his secretary Mrs. Marie Brown compose the very capable staff at the Brownfield Chamber of Commerce office. No task is too big, nor too small, not to be met with a cheerful smile and "we'll get that done" from these two.

THE WINNERS—Twenty teams joined in the annual Membership Drive in March and the two who obtained the most new winners, and who will be appropriately recognized by Drive Chairman Virgil Crawford tonight, are shown above. David Nicholson, left, and Joe Stevens will receive plaques in appreciation for their services to the community.

Brief Review of What Has Happened Since 1950 And Things That Are Happening Now!

- . . . Gained in population from 5800 in 1950 to over 10,000 to date.
- . . . Brownfield is one of eight cities on the South Plains that voted to become a part of the $74,000,000 Canadian River Authority that is designed to take care of the water needs for 50 years.
- . . . Five hundred farmers in our county have among themselves over 800 irrigation wells and more are being drilled each day.
- . . . Our Chamber of Commerce, City Council, and County Officials are advancing rapidly on plans for a CAA Approved Airport.
- . . . Plans are near completion on the new 44 acre addition to our present city park that will cost $180,000. With the ultra-modern swimming pool and beautiful park, no other town in this area will surpass these park facilities.
- . . . We have 14 different denominational churches and at the present four of the larger churches are enlarging their facilities which will cost more than $500,000.
- . . . One new grade school was completed this spring with two new cafeterias and a 1200 seating capacity High School auditorium will be completed before school starts next fall.
- . . . Brownfield has six major highways leading directly into its city limits with a 4-lane highway being partially completed between Lubbock and Odessa . . . also on U. S. Highway 51, which will run due north to Canada and south to the Big Bend National Park.
- . . . During the past six years Brownfield has seen numerous new businesses added to our shopping center . . . old businesses enlarged and expanded . . . new oil companies move to our city . . . and many wonderful citizens added to our population . . . That's why Brownfield is growing and getting to be a better place in which to live.
- . . . For all these things, your Chamber of Commerce is Thankful!

Shown above are members of the Retail Committee meeting jointly with the Agriculture Committee to work out plans for the Annual National Cotton Week Activities scheduled here for May 19. The Retail Committee is meeting regularly with Jim Bayless as Chairman studying retail problems of our businessmen. So far this year this committee is working on solving downtown parking problems, holidays, dollar day promotion, Christmas decorations, etc.

Any Chamber of Commerce is just as good as its officers, and manager . . . Leadership must be had in these positions and we appreciate the attitude of these men in leading us to improving our City.

We feel that our Ready Mix plant has helped in the building and development of Brownfield and certainly we want you to know that we have tried to have our prices in line and below anyone else in the same type of business in this area.

Recent rains over much of the state have improved greatly the prospects for a cotton crop—but delayed planting, due to drought, will make the crop as much as three weeks late in some sections. Because late planting last year produced yields below average, Texas A&M officials urge that cotton growers use the best known production practices to help close the gap. Early weed and insect control programs are a "must," they say.

Work is to begin immediately on a national inventory of soil and water conservation needs. The inventory, according to Secretary of Agriculture Ezra Benson, is intended to equip the Department for more efficient planning and carrying out of its work involving soil and water.

Each county, explained the secretary, will be inventoried. Plans call for completing the initial work in three years, with periodic revisions thereafter to keep the information and statistics up to date.

Since March 1950, surplus U. S. farm commodities worth more than $400 million have been traded, with no exchange of currency, for needed foreign materials under the Commodity Credit Corporation's barter program.

Barter transactions are carried out through regular commercial trade channels by private U. S. firms. Materials have been exported to 29 friendly countries.

Members of the Terry County Commissioners Court were guests Friday night of the Terry County Home Demonstration Council—the occasion was the council's annual banquet for the officials.

Present were County Judge Herb Chesshir and Commissioners Carl Stephenson, Bob Burnett and Mrs. B. R. Lay. Unable to attend was Commissioner Earl McNeil.

Mrs. R. D. Shewmake of 802 East Cardwell emceed the event, which took place in First Methodist Church. Mrs. O. D. Kennedy, council chairman, reviewed the past year's work of the 11 home demonstration clubs in the county.

the commissioners court was presented by Mrs. Kennedy, Mrs. Loyce Floyd, Mrs. Delton Tatum, H. L. (Hub) King and Mrs. Doyle Johnson.

Mrs. Loyce Floyd of Harmony HD Club last week received a personal invitation from Dwight Eisenhower to attend the President's Conference on Occupational Safety, May 14-16 in Washington.

For the first time, agriculture is included in the bi-annual conference. Because of the lateness of the invitation, however, Mrs. Floyd—who cannot transfer her invitation—will be unable to attend. She is safety chairman of the council.

Texas cotton producers in 104 counties used the spot-otting method for controlling Johnson-grass last year on 73,637 acres of cotton. F. C. Elliott of Texas A&M says comparison with other commonly used control measures shows spot-otting requires less hand-labor, that the oils used are readily available and comparatively cheap.

Good records are a must if the farm tractor is to be operated at highest efficiency. Now these records can be put to another use—they will be highly important when a claim is filed for a refund of the federal excise tax on gasoline which is used on the farm for farming purposes.

Combine Hegari and cogwheel bur clover are two new plant varieties developed by plant breeders of the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station. Both crops have been released for use by farmers in 1957. Limited quantities of seed are available now, and supplies for next year should be adequate—especially for the new grain sorghum.

A ladies society in a sheltered southern town took up as one of its chores the writing to convicts at the state penitentiary to cheer them up. They didn't know the names of the prisoners, just their numbers.

One old lady, seeking to put her correspondence on a more friendly plane, wrote to her inmate: "Dear 6883954, may I call you 688?"

Outstanding Soil Conservationists And Districts Are to Be Honored

Texas' three outstanding soil conservation districts and three champion farmer-conservationists for the year ending March 31 will be announced during June, say Jack Barton, extension soil conservation specialist.

Barton has received word from the Goodyear Tire and Rubber Company, sponsor of an annual national program of conservation awards, that the judges have been named for making the Texas selections. They are Louis Merrill, Texas State Soil Conservation Board, Temple, chairman; Bill Shomette, farm program director for Radio Station KENS, San Antonio; W. W. Cardwell, manager Luling Foundation, Luling and Clark Bolt, farm editor, Waco News-Tribune.

The three selected districts will receive bronze plaques for permanent possession and each will name a member of its board of supervisors and the outstanding farmer-cooperator who will be guests of the sponsor on all-expense trip to the sponsor's farms in Arizona next November or December.

Because of its extensive agricultural industry and activity, Texas is divided into three geographic units for program purposes instead of the single unit in most other states.

Barton says the current program is the third to be sponsored on a national basis. The fourth begins on May 1 and ends on April 30, 1957 with similar awards offered.

Buick Serial 6-Passenger 2 Door Wildcat, Model 408

It's Bigger than Both of 'em

—but its price makes it one of America's 3 best sellers!

It's as simple as this:

Only two cars in all creation outsell Buick. And they are two of the well-known smaller cars.

So maybe it will pay you to ask how come Buick has zoomed to the No. 3 spot with such fast-selling company.

Well, one answer is the beautiful and brawny Buick SPECIAL you see pictured here—and the low price it carries.

It's the biggest bundle of high-powered performance and high-fashion luxury ever offered in Buick's lowest-priced Series.

And that means more people want it and can afford it, because it's priced only a few dollars more than its two smaller-car rivals—even less than some models of those very same cars.

But the big answer comes from a sure fact more folks have discovered: you get more pure automobile for your money in Buick than you get elsewhere.

Here, you get the extra wallop of big new Buick power raised to a new high—and pouring in smooth whisper from a brand-new 322-cubic-inch V8 engine of true high compression.

Here, you get the matchless buoyancy of Buick's great new ride—the extra-safe feeling of Buick's new handling ease—the extra stretch-out comfort of Buick roominess—the extra solidity and strength of Buick structure—the extra pride and prestige of Buick's new styling and dash.

Here, too—and nowhere else—you can get the silk-smooth performance and flash-fast response of Buick's advanced new Variable Pitch Dynaflo*—the world's only transmission with the gas-saving mileage and switch-pitch action of the modern airplane propeller.

This week—this very day, if you wish—you can sample all these Buick blessings to your heart's content and your pocket's joy. Why not drop in on us and do just that?

*New Advanced Variable Pitch Dynaflo is the only Dynaflo Buick builds today. It is standard on Roadmaster, Super and Century—optional at modest extra cost on the Special.

American Farm Bureau Speaks Up

The American Farm Bureau Federation, with its nearly 2,000,000 member families and approximately 8,000,000 men, women and children on farms in the 48 states, wants the economics of agriculture to get back to the free enterprise system of supply and demand. A vast majority of the Farm Bureau membership live on family-size farms. The Farm Bureau as a whole, with only a comparatively few dissents, wants to see the Government gradually withdraw its interference with the economic law of supply and demand. It is for flexible supports, and opposed to rigid high supports.

"Supply and demand continue to work when prices are fixed by government," the Farm Bureau explains in its educational Discussion Sheet No. 10, "but not to the longrun advantage of the farmer." We use the story of cotton to show what happens. Other commodities could be used.

The Cotton Situation

"1. We have produced more than we have sold. We produced an average of 15.1 million bales of cotton for the market years 1951-54. Our markets at home and abroad took an average of 13.0 million bales during those years, or 2.1 million bales less than was produced. Exports have been going down — from 5.5 million bales in 1951-52 to 3.4 million in 1954-55. The rate of shipment to other countries in the fall of 1955 was the lowest for nearly a century. Per acre yields have been going up — from 273 pounds per acre in 1945-49 to 324 pounds in 1953, 341 pounds in 1954, and 416 pounds per acre in 1955. (The yield is up more than 50 per cent in 10 years.)

"In 1955 we produced 14.5 million bales or 2.9 million more than our customers seem to want. Although other factors (like weather) affect yields, fixed prices guaranteed by government have stimulated increase use of fertilizer, insecticides, and irrigation. Rising yields have largely offset the effects of acreage controls.

"2. Production in other countries is higher than it otherwise would be. With our fixed prices, we held a price umbrella over producers in other countries, and helped encourage an increase of almost 100 per cent in foreign cotton production. In 1945-49 other countries averaged 13.6 million bales per year. In 1955 they produced 25.9 million bales or nearly twice as much.

Foreign Markets Cut

"3. Foreign use of cotton is less than it otherwise would be. Foreign markets used 2.4 million bales (cotton equivalent) of synthetics in 1947. In 1954 they used the equivalent of 8.4 million bales, or about 3½ times as much synthetics. In addition, they are using 44 per cent more cotton than seven years ago. But it's not American cotton. Our cotton has been priced out of the market.

"4. Our use of cotton is less than it otherwise would be. Raw

AUSTIN, Tex.—Texas is buzzing with activity!

Although political squabbles take the headlines, the state's general prosperity affects the average Texan's life more significantly.

In almost all areas — industry, constructions, retailing and employment — the graphs are pointing up, up and up. General business activity hit a new record high — 4 per cent above 1955 and 6 per cent above the first quarter of the last year.

Texas also is out in front in national comparisons. Estimates of gross national production show a 3 per cent rise for the first quarter of '56. Texas' rise was 4 per cent.

Retail sales in Texas were up 3 per cent over the first quarter of 1955. Department stores led with 5 to 10 per cent increases.

Texas' increase in industrial activity is regarded as the most significant factor in the overall picture. Business research experts believe that Texas will receive more than its proportionate share of the $34,000,000,000 which industry is expected to spend nationwide on new plants this year.

Contractors are confident they are headed for a record year. April construction totaled $88,000,000 — an increase of $21,000,000 over April of '55.

Employment followed the general upward trend. This, despite drought-crippled farm activity. Latest figures show 2,248,200 wage earners in March. That is 115,000 more than for March of last year.

Politics Is Boiling—In bitter precinct battles, Gov. Allan Shivers lost the first skirmish of his long political career. Lyndon Johnson led all the way in the rural areas. He also won in San Antonio, Houston, Fort Worth and Austin. Of course the metropolitan centers, Dallas alone went for Shivers.

THE AMERICAN WAY

BRITISH TV NOW COMPETITIVE

By George Peck

(EDITOR'S NOTE: George Peck is Chairman of the Board of the National Labor-Management Foundation and Executive Editor of its official publication, PARTNERS.)

The United States of America is divided into two great camps. No, I am not alluding to our two major political parties. Rather I refer to two divisions of our populations, those who own television sets and those who don't.

And those who possess television sets are divided into two major groups: those who swear at it. Chief complaint of the latter is the commercials that go hand in hand with televising, without which, of course, there would be no television in the U. S. A.

Admittedly some of these video commercials are on the absurd side, others are too longwinded. Sponsors who bore their audiences defeat their own purpose and waste their money.

Then, almost over the dead bodies and angry protests of those Britons who consider advertising is the work of his Satanic Majesty and that injecting commercialism into entertainment is beyond the pale, the British Government licensed the Independent Television Company. It has now been operating on a comparatively small scale for the past six months. Only two stations were operating as of May 1st of this year, one in London, the other in Birmingham. Four more stations are to be opened shortly which will put ITV within reach of virtually the whole population of England, Wales and Scotland.

Well, how is ITV making out? All indications are that Britishers are showing a marked preference for this new independent television over the older telecasting of the government BBC. A survey done by the BBC indicated that three months ago in the London area, ITV had 51 per cent of the audience and the BBC 49 per cent. A later poll made by the Daily Express, a bitter opponent of commercial television, revealed that of those interviewed, 52 per cent favored ITV, 22 per cent supported the BBC monopoly, and 26 per cent had no preference.

As to individual programs, the BBC continues to lead in children's programs which are telecast from 5 to 7 p.m., but usually falls far behind later in the evening when the adults take over. It still captures 60 per cent with an old favorite, "What's My Line?" and about 50 percent with a demotic serial, "The Grove Family." On the other hand, ITV claims nearly 80 per cent for its Monday night plays, Tuesday night's "Cavalcade of Sports," Wednesday night's "Gunlaw," a western serial and other similar features later on. A Gallup Poll, using the personal interview method, puts ITV's "Sunday Night thority can intervene actively in the programs televised by ITV. It can even close ITV down entirely, for cause. It can censor advertising deemed vulgar, although advertising to date has shown no cause for complaint on that score. As to the viewing public so long accustomed to BBC programs with no advertisements, it so far has shown no resentment to the advertising intrusions.

The experiment is too short-lived to predict that independent television with its commercial blubs will continue to predominate over the BBC without commercials. One very significant thing has developed. The BBC which previously had a monopoly, has been stimulated to spend more money on its programs, to exercise more initiative than formerly. As a result its programs are showing a marked improvement. Thus, our British cousins, due to the spur of competition, are on the receiving end of two benefits: choice of programs and better programs from either choice.

All of which would seem to prove, to paraphrase an old adage, "Competition is the Spice of Trade," into "Competition is the Spice of Video Viewing."

Sanford Cleared by Court—A decision with far-reaching effect on political advertising expenditures has been handed down by the Court of Criminal Appeals.

The decision was made in connection with an application of Vernon T. Sanford, Texas Press Association manager, for relief from two indictments returned against him by a McLennan Co. Grand Jury. Indictments charged he had violated the Texas Election Code by spending more than $25 for political advertising in behalf of Ben Ramsey for Lt. Governor in 1954.

Sanford and the TPA Board of Directors contended that any law which limits an individual to a $25 expenditure prohibits freedom of expression and therefore is unconstitutional.

In reviewing the matter, the court found that two laws on the same subject were in direct conflict. Each limited advertising to widely different amounts and set different penalties. Therefore both were declared invalid.

Result: Charges against Sanford were dismissed and Texas now has no applicable law regarding political advertising expenditures by an individual.

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE WEEK JUDGE ON EFFORT ONLY

They Are "On The Ball" Baseball Season Is Here

The first Chamber of Commerce in Texas was chartered under the Republic of Texas in 1840 and ever since that time, Chambers of Commerce have played an important role in the industrial and civic life of our State.

Today, more than 458 Chamber of Commerce are helping to develop communities throughout the state of Texas with employees devoted to the service of the people.

In view of this it is any wonder that this week of May 6-12 has been designated as Texas Chamber of Commerce week and all citizens are urged to cooperate in its observance by familiarizing themselves with the important work being done by their Chamber of Commerce?

We've attempted to inform our readers with periodic editorials about the Chamber of Commerce and its work during the past several months. But we never have just stopped to say, "Joe, we think you are doing a good job over there."

Therefore, this being Texas Chamber of Commerce week we do want to congratulate Once again, the baseball season is upon us. Little Leaguers, Pony Leaguers, American Legion Leaguers and semi-pro nines are working out for schedules starting soon.

This will be the baseball "playngest" summer in the history of Brownfield with eleven organized youth teams and several semi-pro groups. There won't be any World Series pennants handed out, but those dreams of glory will be just as big for the more than 200 youngsters playing.

There'll also be another 50 to 100 boys playing in the so-called minor leagues, and we want to remind all fans that there is nothing "minor" involved when boys divide up into teams and start playing. They are going to do their best to win.

At the same time we urge those fans to keep in mind that the purpose of this program is to provide the youngsters with a wholesome recreation program... winning or losing doesn't count, it is how they play the game.

The local Chamber and manager Joe Satterwhite, for the fine job they are doing.

Texas' right-to-work law.
He asked, but was refused, U. S. Supreme Court permission to be heard. He did, however, lend moral support and advice as Nebraska's attorney general argued in the high court for his state's law.
Nebraska, like Texas and 16 other states, has an anti-closed shop law which unions contend is in conflict with the National Railway Act.
Reason for Sheppard's apprehension is the general belief that Nebraska's case is weaker than the Texas case, which still is tied up in state court.
Vehicle Tax Voided—Special local automobile taxes to finance big city freeway projects are unconstitutional, So ruled the Texas Supreme Court in a case involving Harris County's auto registration tax.
Such taxes must be levied by general laws, said the court.
Dallas County made two tries for such a tax, but voters turned down the proposals.
Huge Road Program Planned—A whopping $150,000,000 road program for 1957-58 is planned by the State Highway Commission.
Anticipation of substantially increased federal funds is behind the ambitious project. Since House passage, approval of the new federal aid bill is regarded as virtually certain.
About half of the 2,161 miles of highway for construction work will be of the "super highway" type—four, six and eight lanes.
State Highway Engineer D. C. Greer said plans were released early so projects could be under contract quickly after final congressional action on the aid bill.

materials like cotton compete at the first point of sale. So when a manufacturer can buy raw cotton to advantage against raw cotton, for instance, he will do so. He may completely switch to synthetics or he may blend synthetics into products when cotton qualities are needed. The money value of raw cotton in a finished shirt has little to do with it. We are now using more than 1.2 billion pounds of rayon annually and have replaced more than 2.7 billion bales of cotton. So in the bitter struggle with synthetic fibers, cotton has lost and continues to lose markets at home.

17th Annual Cotton Congress Set For May 31 in Lubbock

Area cotton producers will hear speakers in virtually every phase of the cotton industry, from planting through marketing, when they attend the 17th annual American Cotton Congress to be held in Lubbock May 31, June 1-2.
The main theme of the meeting will be "Problems Confronting the Plains Area."
Speakers will include Marvin L. McLain, assistant secretary of agriculture, Washington D. C.; Lamar Fleming Jr., of Houston; Dr. M. K. Horne, chief economist of the National Cotton Council, Memphis, Tenn.; Dr. M. Earl Heard, West Point, Ga.; E. W. S. Calkins, U. S. Rubber Company, Winnsboro, S. C.; Marion Rhodes, USDA, Washington, D. C., and other prominent cotton industry leaders.

Barbecue Is Scheduled

Burris C. Jackson of Hillboro, Tex. is general chairman of the Congress, and Dr. M. T. Harrington of College Station is chairman of the program committee.
Committees in the Lubbock area will provide a western-style barbecue on Thursday, May 31, and a luncheon and a dinner during the Congress. A tour of Texas Tech and bus tours will be provided.

Invitations Are Given

Main headquarters will be the Caprock and Lubbock hotels, and rooms may be reserved also at other hotels and motels. Reservations may be made by writing direct to W. J. Reidy, Caprock Hotel, Lubbock. All rooms are air-conditioned.
Chairman Jackson emphasized that all persons who have an interest in cotton or any business identified with it are cordially invited to attend the Congress.
All public relations and publicity for the Congress are being handled by J. A. Stillwell, chairman, of Houston, and in the Lubbock area by Gordon Rose, Lubbock Chamber of Commerce. Additional information concerning the Congress can be secured from J. M. Crook, Lubbock Chamber of Commerce.

New Hegari Slated For Texas Planting

Combine Hegari, a high yielding grain sorghum, and cogwheel bur clover are new crop varieties released by the Texas Agricultural Experiment Station.
The new grain sorghum variety is adapted to combine harvesting; stalks are well braced; makes a uniform growth; produces a high yield under good growing conditions; produces highly palatable stalks; is a good livestock feed but is unsatisfactory for starch making. The heads will not dry as quickly nor do they have as good exertion from the top leaf as the dry headed varieties such as the Redlines-60 and 66 and Martin.
Seed of the new variety were released to seed growers in the spring of 1955 and certified seed are now available. Adequate supplies should be available for farmers in 1957.
Cogwheel bur clover is adapted to an area extending from the Red River on the north through central higher price, we pile up surpluses. In 1948, we had a 3.1 million-bale carry-over; in 1950, 6.8 million bales. Today we face the prospect of a record high 14 million-bale carry-over.

"6. Surpluses compel production control measures. But these measures haven't controlled the supply either here or in the foreign lands (where our controls can't apply). Besides, acres taken out of a subsidized commodity generally go into other crops. These "diverted acres" increase the supply of uncontrolled crops and livestock, and drive down the prices farmers and ranchers can get for uncontrolled products. "Similar results are obtained when government price-fixing is applied on any commodity. The vary only in degree." This explanation, by the nation's largest organization of farmers, is worthy of everyone's attention since the Farm Problem affects us all directly or indirectly.

Texas and to the Gulf Coast area from Orange southward to Refugio county. It is a close relative of California bur clover but produces a spineless seed pod or bur, and is adapted to the same area as its relative.
Its advantages are: does not contaminate wool on pastures where it is grown for sheep grazing season; seed resist shattering; produces high forage and seed are easily harvested.

Record Needed For Gas Refund

Good records will make easier the job of preparing a claim for a refund on gasoline used on the farm, and the farm tractor a more efficient production tool, says W. L. Ulich, extension agricultural engineer. Farmers are now eligible to ask for a refund covering the 2-cent per gallon federal excise tax.

To get a refund, a farmer must file after June 30 and before October 1 a claim with the District Director of Internal Revenue covering the gasoline used during the first six months of the year. After 1956 refunds will be made for a one-year period from July 1 to June 30.

Refunds, explains Ulich, will be made only on gasoline used on a farm for farming purposes. They will not include gasoline used in cars or trucks used on the highways even though on farm business. The recently enacted law also applies to diesel and other motor fuels. The claims must be filed on Form 2240 which will be available after June 1 from county agents, banks, post offices and Internal Revenue offices.

Ulich reports that the Commissioner of Internal Revenue has said that regulations relating to the new law will be issued as soon as possible. In the meantime, he advises farmers to keep a good set of records on all gasoline or other fuels; included under the legislation and used on the farm. When claim filing time rolls around, these records can mean money. If they are studied, they may be the source of information that can be saved additional money from gasoline or fuel not fully utilized by the tractor and in maintenance costs, says Ulich.

CAUTION IS URGED

Tractor Accidents Kill 1,000 Annually

Farm tractors can be killers. Accidents with the vehicles now take more than 1,000 lives annually. A great majority of these lives could have been saved if the tractor had been operated with care and foresight, asserts W. L. Ulich, extension agricultural engineer.

From now until "lay-by time," the tractor will be the work-horse on most farms. Operators will spend long hours planting, plowing, applying insecticides and performing the many other jobs now done with a tractor.

"Use the tractor safely," Ulich urges. "Be sure your operators are instructed and supervised properly. Always remember, fatigue is often a factor in farm accidents."

Excessive speed is the No. 1 cause of tractor accidents. The improper use of wheel brakes, rough roads or a quick turn can bring tragedy if the speed is too high.

Far too many teen-age tractor operators are involved in accidents. Work with these youngsters, Ulich urges, and give them instructions.

Be sure of a stand of small grain...

KILL ALL SPECIES OF WIREWORM WITH A SINGLE

dieldrin

seed treatment

NEWLY SEEDING FIELDS make good seeding grounds for true and false wireworms and other soil insects. If there is not enough moisture in the soil to permit quick sprouting, seeds are vulnerable to insect attack for several days. But the threat of wireworm damage should be recognized at all times.

A dieldrin preventive seed treatment is a sure way to protect small grain seeds until they sprout.

LOW-COST PROTECTION

It costs just pennies per acre to treat seed with dieldrin, but dollars per acre to feed the wireworms untreated seed! A dieldrin seed treatment prevents "spotty" stands... eliminates the expense of time and money for re-planting or sowing extra seed for the wireworms to feed on... assures you of a longer grazing period. And dieldrin does not harm plant development.

COMPATIBLE WITH FUNGICIDES

Dieldrin is compatible with fungicides... can be applied at the same time to save the expense and work of a double treatment. You can buy dieldrin-treated seed from your seed dealer, or treat the seed yourself. Dieldrin can be applied as a slurry, dry, or in a grain drill. A convenient method is to apply dieldrin to the seed in the grain drill as you plant. Follow directions on the label for the particular formulation you buy.

LESS WORK AT PLANTING TIME

Seed can be treated now and stored until planting time. Dieldrin eliminates the rush of treating seed and planting within a few days. Dieldrin formulations are available throughout the small grain growing area. See your local supplier.

Spot-Oiling Proves Popular As Means For Controlling Johnsongrass in Cotton

Cotton producers in 104 Texas counties used the spot-oiling method for controlling Johnsongrass last year on 73,637 acres of cotton. According to Fred C. Elliott, extension cotton work specialist, the control method was first recommended last year and its popularity and value have already been well established. When compared with other commonly used control practices, spot-oiling requires less hand-labor, the oils used are readily available and comparatively cheap in price and the gravity-flow hand sprayer used for making the applications is inexpensive.

Elliott says a mixture of half naphtha and diesel oil is best for crown-oiling in cotton and corn. A squirt applied to each crown before the Johnsongrass plants are six inches tall and followed by from four to six additional applications should give 98 percent control. Cost per acre will vary depending upon the amount of Johnsongrass infestation. Few crop plants are killed by the mixture.

Both naphtha and diesel oil may be purchased from Bulk oil dealers, says Elliott. Plans for the gravity-flow hand sprayer may be obtained from the local county agent or the Agricultural Information Office at College Station. The local county agent can supply information on where a ready-to-use sprayer may be purchased. It can also supply additional information on the practice and on other practices which involve chemicals for weed control on the farm. Ask him for a copy of B-808, Spot-Oiling Johnsongrass and L-174, Control of Johnsongrass.
