He also announced that season tickets for the swimming pool are now on sale at the Chamber of Commerce office and from Coach Doug Cox. Cox will manage the pool this summer.

Tickets will cost $12.50 for students and $20 for adults. Students will be anyone still in High School or younger, or for those graduating this month if they purchase their tickets prior to the pool opening they will still be considered students.

Approximately 40 Legionnaires were present to adopt a new constitution and by-laws. The lengthy meeting adjourned after a report on the Terry County Park Commission activities

Insect Control Meet Stated Next Month

Terry farmers will have the three opportunities next month for "studying up" on the insects which take their toll of the cotton crop each year.

An insect control meeting has been scheduled by County Agent Jim Foy for the following dates: June 4, Brownfield, city park party house; June 5, Wellman high school, agriculture building, and June 7 at Meadow, study hall of the high school. The times for all meetings are 8:30 p.m.

In Wellman, Homer Jones, vocational agriculture teacher, will preside, and Foy will illustrate the talks with colored slides of the more prominent insects prevalent in the county.

VA teacher Lester Ericson will hold forth in Meadow, where the slides will be shown again.

Choose Maid Of Cotton At Saturday Celebration

The observance here of National Cotton Week, which has been under way since Monday, fast is approaching a heady climax, which will be staged at 1 p.m. Saturday.

In addition to nationwide attention, the period May 14-19 was proclaimed recently as "Cotton Week in Brownfield" by Mayor Arlie Lowrimore.

Clean-Up, Paint-Up Week Starts May 25

May 25 through June 2 has been designated "Clean-up and Paint-up week" in Brownfield by the City-Council, according to Mayor Arlie Lowrimore.

Plans are to divide the city into areas with civic clubs, study clubs and other organizations each being responsible for an area. Representatives of the organizations will meet at the City Hall at 9:30 Tuesday morning to work out details.

A three-fold purpose of the clean-up, paint-up campaign will be to make the city more attractive, remove fire hazards and to keep the community healthy, said Mayor Lowrimore.

Mayor Lowrimore also announced that Chief of Police Nolen Lassiter has recently added three men to the Police Force. They are Jack Seales, formerly of Lubbock, who has two years experience on the force there; D. J. Fuller and Joe McDaniel of Seagraves, Seales, 27, will move to Brownfield as soon as school is out. Fuller, 23, is living here now. He is a dispatcher. McDaniel, 36, is a patrolman and will move his family here soon.

One new police car has also been purchased, bringing the total number to three.

Ballots Unchanged With Deadline Past

Terry county voters will have their choice on July 28 of 27 candidates divided among nine offices, plus the state races. No additions were made in the week prior to the filing deadline, according to County Democratic Chairman Leonard Lang.

Announcement of a full slate of precinct chairmen for the ballot, was the only change. Lang is a candidate for re-election to this nonpaying job along with Harold Simms, J. M. Burleson, Robert Beasley and H. L. Holleman in the four precincts.

The races took final form with the ending of the filing deadline last week. No doubt the sheriff's race, with eight candidates, is causing the most interest at this time. However most of the races are contested and all will provide more than passing interest.

Candidates for sheriff are Doc Benton, Cliff Jones, Mutt Oliver, James Fulford, Chick Lee, Roy Fleming, Alfred Gore and Horace Fox.

The next most sought-after post is that of Precinct 1 Commissioner where there are five candidates. This includes Mack Thomason, Vic Herring, Jap Benthall, Red Tankersley and Jot Akers.

Four candidates are running for Commissioner of Precinct 3. They are Mrs. B. R. Lay, Doc Settle, Bill Backstock and Carl Hogue.

The State Representatives race between J. O. Gillham and Robert L. Bowers, Jr., will be decided in the four county area of Terry, Hockley, Yoakum and Cochran comprising the 98th District.

The State Senate seat is being contested for by Carroll Cobb, Preston Smith and Kilmer Corbin. There are 11 counties in the 28th district of which Terry county is a part.

Don Cates and Eddie Hill are opponents for the office of Tax Assessor-Collector. The other three posts find incumbents running unopposed. This included Roy Moreman for constable, Morgan Copeland for county attorney and Mitchell Williams for district attorney.

Here are values of the certificates: two for $25, two $20, two $15 and three $10.

Tenor of the Saturday event will be set early in the program by Al Muldrow, speaking for PCG; Judge Herb Chesshir, speaking on behalf of the county; Mayor Lowrimore, for the city, and Wilmer Smith, board chairman of Plains Cotton.

Brownfield Band Members Win Twelve First Division Awards At Levelland

Twelve first, six seconds and one third were numbered among the division honors won by Brownfield High School students at Levelland Saturday. Competing in Regional Inter-scholastic League competition, the Brownfield students were particularly impressive in the majorette competition.

Five of the girls captured individual first division honors in twirling solo, and then added lustre to their laurels by adding a sixth member and winning first division as a twirling sextet.

Ann Griggs, Josie Grissom, Kay Kissinger, Patsy Hulse and Betty Ann Davis each won solo honors and then with Jo Beth Dumas they took the sextet first. Jo Beth and Grace Grissom each won second division honors in twirling solo. Four other soloists won honors. Three firsts were gained by Charles Higdon, bass solo; Bob Simpson, trombone solo; and Forrest Kuykendall, cornet solo. Carolyn Weathers took a third with her clarinet solo.

Winning first places as ensembles were the Brass Quintet composed of Norris Lewis, Forest Kuykendall, Patti Thomas, Doug O'Dell and Charles Higdon; Clarinet trio with Lynn Cary, Mary Ann Holmes and Mary Jane Brownfield; and the Flute quartet, Josie Grissom, Ann Griggs, Cecil Blankenship and Betty Hargrove.

Midland Manager Lauds Enthusiasm Of Local Chamber

Brownfield Chamber of Commerce members heard a lot of nice things said about their efforts Thursday night from a man who spoke with experience. Delbert Downing, Midland Chamber of Commerce manager, gave a very direct message to the near capacity crowd at Colonial Heights cafeteria.

Willingness to work for the common effort of the community might have been Downing's theme as he touched on various phases of Chamber activity. He also urged the members to continue and redouble their efforts to make Brownfield a good town, for the speaker said, "towns either grow, or dry-up and blow away."

He also emphasized the thought that in the small-town America finds its greatest strength and hope in the future.

Plaques were awarded to winners of the recent membership campaign by Chairman Virgil Crawford. First place was awarded to David Nicholson and Joe Stevens, second to Cliff Jones and L. J. Richardson and third to Dennis Lilly and R. N. McClain.

Toastmaster Doc Lewis also presented Manager Joe Satterwhite with a new suit "from some of the members who just want to show their appreciation for the fine job you are doing," said Lewis.

THE API TOURNEY HAD EVERYTHING — Looking back on a cheerful two days of the Brownfield A.P.I. blind bogey tournament, everyone agrees that a lot of golf was played, a lot of talking went on, considerable horseplay was evident, and there sure were a lot of visitors in town. For instance, in the left hand picture Bill Plummer of Fort Worth is shown sinking a birdie four on six while his partner, J. P. "Bum" Gibbons of Midland, left, looks on with approving eye. Opponents Charley Bedford, Bill Shurtliff and the famous Davey O'Brien, right, from Fort Worth were heckling. Leon Long of Denver City and Prentice Walker, tournament committee chairman, were just spectators. A former state representative, Al Allison of Levelland on the left, was giving advice to a candidate, Robert Bowers, Jr., of Brownfield in the middle picture. A couple of Levellanders, in the outlandish (or stylish hats, Howard Shaw and Stanley Stewart are pictured with Brownfield's Jack Bailey. They were all wishing they might win the prize they were showing off.

Three boys and three girls, all members of Terry county 4-H clubs, will be at College Station June 12-13-14 for the annual 4-H Roundup, sponsored by Texas A&M.

Names of the 4-H'ers, released this morning by Jim Foy, county agent, and Miss Mildred Cox, home demonstration agent, are:

Hilbert Briscoe, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. T. Briscoe of Route 2, Brownfield; Duane Steen, son of Mr. and Mrs. Conley Steen of Route 2, Brownfield; Doyle Floyd, son

The Terry youths will attend the A&M meeting because of contests they won last Saturday in "elimination contests" at Texas Tech. Briscoe won first-place in tractor driving—an event in which he tallied 100 point for a perfect score. The Terry lad upset his opponent, who last year won first at Lubbock and third in the state.

In addition to Foy and Miss Cox, the 4-H'ers will be accompanied by Mrs. A. T. Pickett of 406 North D, adult leader.

Five Graduating Members Honored

The Wellman F. H. A. Chapter honored the graduating F. H. A. seniors Peggy Dean, Barbara Falls, Brenda Oliver, Beverly Rodgers and Lea Burnett with a farewell tea Friday May 11th, in the home-making department. The Junior F. H. A. members served as hostesses. The high school faculty, 8th grade and high school students were also invited. Diana Graham read "My Creed". The sophomore F. H. A. members sang "Moment To Remember". And Sabra Welcher presented each senior F. H. A. with a red rose. Mr. Gosa gave the invocation and Mrs. Akers the benediction.

Mrs. Clarence Worley visited in the home of her sister Miss Willie Hines and her mother Mrs. Dick Hines over the week end. They attended church in Lubbock Sunday and visited Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Ribble former Wellman residents Sunday afternoon.

Glenda Christopher had her brother and wife Mr. and Mrs. Jimmy Christopher of Canyon as guest in her home over the week end.

Barbara and Mae Smith have remained home this week to spend the time with their brother, Martell, who is to be inducted into the service of his country within the next few days.

Mrs. Norvel Hulse our Chapter Mother is ill this week. We wish her a speedy recovery.

La Rue Rex and family spent the Mothers day week end in Knox City and Vernon. Regular Chapter meeting was held Wednesday May 9th. Danny Loe and Sammie Adair reported on their trip to the State F. H. A. meeting held in Fort Worth April 20 and 21st.

The Chapter is to have a bake May 25th, in the homemaking department. The proceeds are to help finance a weeks camping trip to Ruidoso, New Mexico.

A motion carried that we accept the Chapter Mothers we have now. They are: Mrs. Alton Loe, Mrs. Norvel Hulse, Mrs. Sam Adair and Mrs. Ora Ingram. We express our appreciation to Mrs. Ann Falls and Mrs. Ora Smith who were so much help to our Chapter this past year and who are unable to continue with the Chapter for the coming year.

The 8th grade girls met with Mrs. Hines in the homemaking department Monday May 14th, to make plans for meeting with their mothers Wednesday May 23rd, to work out plans for summer activities. This is to help the incoming Freshman and Mothers to become acquainted with the high school homemaking program.

The F. H. A. girls sang "Be with Me Lord" at the senior baccalaureate service Sunday evening with Miss Hines Chapter Sponsor directing. Norma Marley had a surprise birthday party given by her parents on Tuesday May 15th. This was Norma's 16th birthday.

COTTON WEEK ENTERTAINER — Charles Goza of Wellman will bring his Western string group here Saturday to add to the entertainment highlighting the Cotton Week program here. Goza will appear at 4 p.m. Saturday on the east side of the courthouse square, along with three other singing and playing groups. (Staff Photo)

Judge Chesshir To Head Highway Unit

Terry county Judge Herb Chesshir Tuesday was elected president of the Texas Highway 51 Association at Hereford. Joe Satterwhite was appointed secretary-treasurer and Joe Christian is the Terry county director to the association.

Judge Chesshir served as vice-president of the association for a year, and is quite familiar with the highway project. He also was a member of the international tour group that took the bus trip up the International Parks highway to Canada last summer on a goodwill trip.

Chesshir succeeds Gaines county judge Charley Lawrence. Other officers include Glenn Ute of Dimmitt, first vice-president; Jimmie Allred and Clint Formby, second and third vice-presidents from Hereford.

The next meeting of the association will be held at the Party House in the County Park.

Four 15-minute entertainment periods have been scheduled, featuring Charles Lindsey and his Western Group of Brownfield; the Debonnaires, Brownfield High School quintet of girl singers; Charles Goza and his string band from Wellman, and a jazz combo of high school band students of Brownfield.

Crawford Taylor, chief announcer for Radio Station KTFY, will act as master of ceremonies, introducing Mrs. Wilmer Smith, who will narrate the style show. Mrs. Smith is a vice-president of the Texas Home Demonstration Association.

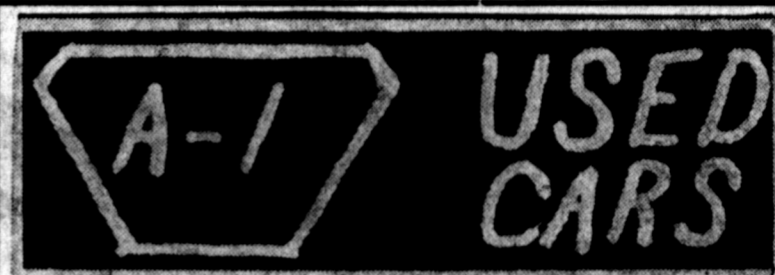

Some 50 Home Demonstration clubwomen and their sons and daughters will show some of the latest in cotton fashions—ranging from beautiful workday dresses to evening gowns. Appropriately enough, final big event of the afternoon will be the Maid of Cotton contest, an annual highlight here comprising, this year, 22 Terry county girls. A panel of three out-of-town judges will name the Maid and H. L. (Hub) King, director of the Texas Farm Bureau's District 2, will emcee the contest.

Because Saturday also is Armed Forces Day, a flight of nine B25s from Reese Air Force Base will make its appearance at 12:56 p. m. At 11:23 a.m., eight F-86H jets will sweep over. The Air Force display was arranged by Joe Satterwhite, manager of the Chamber of Commerce, in cooperation with Col. D. Ross Ellis, RAFB commander. The colonel said he might be able to schedule a flight of B36s. The Reese planes will sweep the town again at 2:12 and 3:35 p.m.

Here are groups which have been working the past four weeks to set up the final Cotton Week program: Chamber of Commerce, Brownfield Garden Club, Plains Cotton Growers, Retail Merchants Association and Terry County Home Demonstration Council.

Don Ballard of Childress, district sales manager of American United, Inc., of Fort Worth, investment banking firm, spent most of this week in Brownfield visiting with two of the company's directors, Maurice Thompson and Charlie Kersh. Junior High graduation is set for Saturday evening at 8 p.m.

Toured the new High School band hall and auditorium with Fred Smith this week, and it is more impressive than ever. People are really in for a pleasant shock when the project is complete and open. It is much nicer than most of us ever dreamed of.

Senator A. M. Aiken will be here next Wednesday noon to speak at a luncheon meeting at Colonial Heights cafeteria. The Lions will meet there and possibly other civic clubs also. He'll talk on the Constitutional Amendments.

Upland Cotton's Staple Length Changed

Slight changes in official cotton standards for length of staple of upland cotton were announced recently by the U. S. Department of Agriculture's Agricultural Marketing Service. Cotton Standards Act provides that changes in official standards shall not become effective until at least one year after public notice of the changes.

of about $6 for each dollar spent for insect control," says F. M. Fuller, entomologist with the Texas A&M Extension Service.

As an aid for cotton farmers in their fight against insects, the Texas Agricultural Extension Service recently released its "1956 Guide for Controlling Cotton Insect," available at the offices of county agents.

Dealt with in the guide are suggestions concerning early and late season control and early stalk destruction, timing of insecticide applications, seed treatment with systemic insecticides and general information on spraying and dusting.

The guide also lists the insects which are controlled best by early season or late season programs, along with the recommended dusts or sprays for the control program.

The recommended amounts and mixtures of the various insecticides for both dusts and sprays are discussed, along with timely suggestions on timing of applications and when to begin and to stop the use of the insecticides.

Cotton Situation To Be Studied May 30 In Lubbock Meeting

The cotton situation, termed by authorities as the "most critical ever faced," will receive a complete airing at Farm Bureau-sponsored meetings scheduled May 28 in Corpus Christi, May 29 in Dallas and May 30 in Lubbock.

J. Walter Hammond, Texas Farm Bureau president, said some of the problems prompting the meeting were rapid decrease in cotton acreage, increasing surpluses, increased foreign production and the price advantage of synthetic fibers. He urged everyone interested in the future of the cotton industry to attend the meeting in See MEETING, Page 6

The Brownfield News AND THE TERRY COUNTY HERALD

Vol. 19 Brownfield News-Herald, Thursday, May 17, 1956, No. 20

Several events beginning at 4 p.m. Saturday on the east side of the courthouse square will bring to a climax the observance here of National Cotton Week.

The theme for the week is—and should remain — "Wear More Cotton."

A total of 22 girls, ranging from 15 to 19 years in age, have entered the contest to name the county's own "Maid of Cotton." All of them live in Terry, and all of them have fathers or brothers who are engaged actively in farming.

In addition to the selection of a Maid, some 50 home demonstration club women will present the latest in modern, fashionable cotton wear. (As those present will see, today's cotton fashions are no longer keyed to the cotton work dress and the cotton hose!)

Here are statistics on the Terry county farm picture, as contained in the latest 1954 Census of Agriculture, U. S. Department of Agriculture.

There are 968 farms in the county, whose total value of products sold in '54 was $17,195,355. The value of all livestock and allied products was $466,464, and included $86,179 for dairy products, $65,634 for poultry and poultry products, and $314,651 for livestock and livestock products.

Terry was listed as one of 21 Texas counties whose 1954 farm products sold for $17 million or more.

The director of Texas Farm Bureau's District 2, H. L. (Hub) King of Brownfield was placed on the following state

Young Beef Calves Gain Economically After Early Losses

Young heifers and steers three to four months old can be kept temporarily on rations that barely maintain their weight, or even result in some weight loss, yet recover later on full feed to make economical gains and high quality beef, says the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

Work done at the Beltsville Station of the USDA's Agricultural Research Service shows that there need be no loss in the growth potential as a result of low calorie intake for three to six months during the year so long as the animals' limited forage is supplemented by sufficient protein minerals and carotene (provitamin A) to keep them healthy.

In other words, lack of gain or even some loss or weight by young beef cattle on range in winter or during a drought will not, in itself, make them uneconomical beef producers. Such temporary conditions need not impair the animal's later feed efficiency, and ultimate meat and hide quality or proportion of lean meat to fat and bone in the carcass.

Work done with 10 sets of identical twin calves showed that in every case growth was resumed after the interruption at a rate that was normal acres in the 59 principal crops.

This will be the smallest total since 1942, and 5.5 million less than the 10-year average. Further reduction in acreage may be accomplished if the soil bank is enacted. Although the program is not expected to have much effect this year, it may take 15 million acres out of production soon.

Much cotton and grain sorghum has been planted in the county. There is some up to stand, despite the no-rain and heavy wind and sand erosion. There were scattered showers during the past two weeks over the area. The amount, however, was for the purposes of the Fort Worth paper's annual "Save the Soil and Save Texas" competition. Others attending the Quanah dinner from Brownfield were Charlie Kersh of Kersh Implement Company and Henry Williamson, work unit conservationist of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service. Humphries was generous in his praise of the Terry district. The Brownfield men were guests of Lower Pease River SCD while in Quanah. (Staff Photo)

Plans Are Readied For Servicing 1956 Cotton Information

The United States Department of Agriculture has announced the procedure to be followed by cotton farmers in obtaining cotton classification and cotton market news services in 1956, Howard W. Zuch, agricultural engineer, Texas

A&M College, has announced. Under the Smith-Doxey Act groups of producers organized to promote the improvement of cotton, which adopt a variety of cotton, file application, arrange for sampling, and meet certain other requirements as to membership are eligible for these services.

Submit Applications Soon

It is necessary for cotton producers to prepare and submit their applications as soon as cotton has been planted and well in advance of the ginning season if they are to receive the maximum benefits from the services as members. Applications must be on file by June 1 in the following counties in Texas: Dimmitt, LaSalle, McMullen, Live Oak, Karnes, DeWitt, Jackson, Matagorda, and counties lying south of those named. All other applications must be in no later than August 1, and must be filed with a classing office of the Cotton Division, Agricultural Marketing Service, USDA.

Those not filing applications early may fail to obtain the classification of cotton ginned early in the season.

Instruction Blanks Available

Samples submitted under this program must be cut from both sides of the bale by a bonded sampler or by an employee of a public warehouse or compress which issues negotiable warehouse receipts.

Instructions and application blanks may be obtained from county agricultural agents, from State and County Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation offices, or from Agricultural Marketing Service Cotton Division offices.

It Tolls for Thee

"No man is an island, intire of its selfe; every man is a peece of the Continent, a part of the maine; if a clod be washed away by the Sea, Europe is the lesse, as well as if a Promontorie were; any mans death diminishes me, because I am involved in Mankinde; And therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls; It tolls for thee."

John Donne, 17th century English poet, wrote these immortal lines. (The famous line containing the phrase "for whom the bell tolls" refers to a custom in the England of olden times. When a person died the village church bell tolled the death. It was the practice of the families in the village to send their children to the church to learn "for whom the bell tolls.")

The truth that Donne's pen set forth 400 year ago is still alive today. It will never die.

In agriculture today a bell is tolling. This isn't to say that agriculture is dead. But it stands at a crossroads. One path leads to subjugation; the other leads to an opportunity to earn a high net income on the farm in a free society.

Through Farm Bureau people who make their living from the soil have an opportunity to earn a just share of the national income. This is because of the fundamental concepts and structure of the organization. It is an organization of farmers and ranchers, financed by them, and run by them . . . to do the things they want done. It offers a democratic process through which its members can decide what they want done and how they propose to do it. It demands nothing . . . except loyalty to the wishes of the majority . . . without which there can be no effective organization.

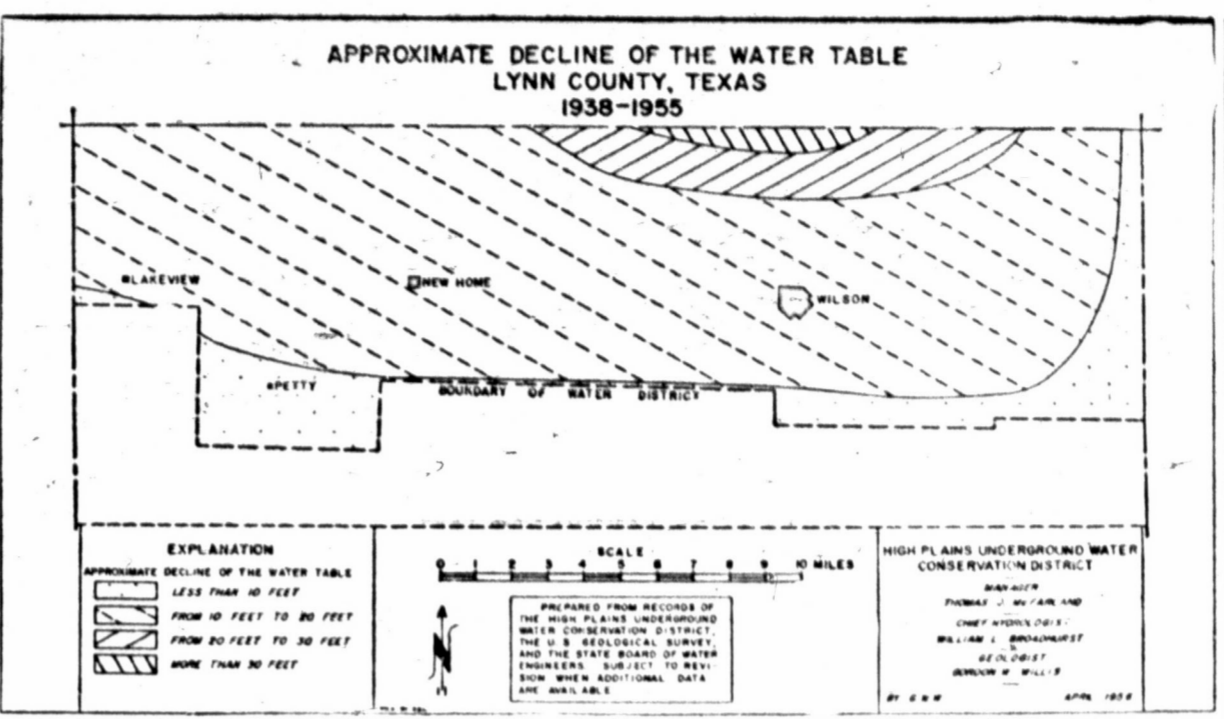

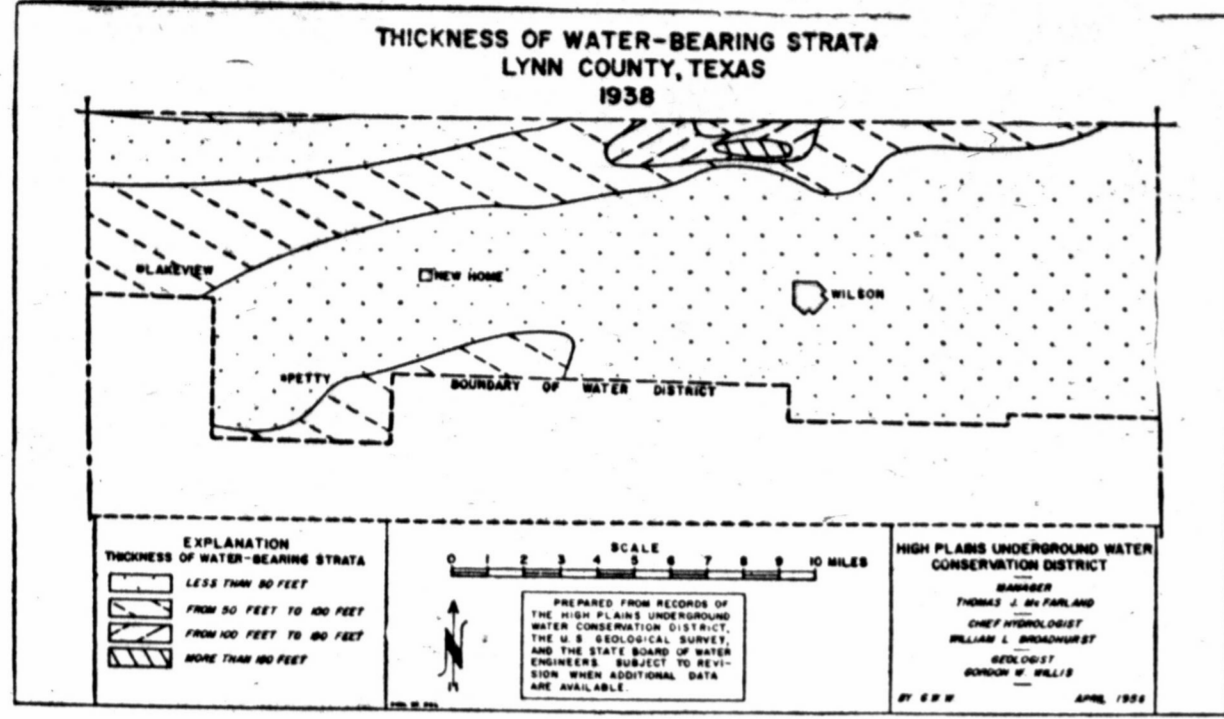

Farm Bureau members have decided that the way to economic survival lies in a broad frontal attack on the many and complex problems which beset the agricultural industry. Farm Bureau wants to cut costs of production; it seeks a climate of free enterprise in which all commodities are treated fairly; it demands certain guarantees against sudden and disastrous price fluctuations over which individual farmers have no control; it works for expanded markets and for a higher and higher standard of living on the farm.

Farmers and ranchers still have an opportunity to decide their own destinies. This is true in spite of the fact that the agricultural population is less than 13 per cent of the total population of this country (and still declining). No person who derives his livelihood from the good earth is exempt from the responsibility of deciding what the future of agriculture shall be. Each is involved.

And therefore never send to know for whom the bell tolls. (Reprinted from Texas Agriculture, Texas Farm Bureau publication.)

Courtesy is always a paying investment because its stock is watered with tears of regret. Don't sit and wait for your ship to come in—give it a tug.

Tip to motorists: Freedom of the press has nothing to do with the press down on the accelerator. Unless a friend turns out to be a trimp it's time to discard.

GROUND-WATER INVENTORY IN LYNN COUNTY — The portion of Lynn county within the boundary of the High Plains Underground Water Conservation District No. 1 contained about 780,000 acre-feet of ground water available for pumping in January 1956. This portion of Lynn county contained about 1,140,000 acre-feet of ground water available for pumping in 1938, and about 360,000 acre-feet, or 32 per cent, of the water was pumped from 1938 to 1956. About 156,000 acres of Lynn county are within the boundary of the water district. The accompanying maps were prepared from data compiled from a study of about 650 logs of water wells and about 200 measurements of water levels in wells. The map in plate 1 shows the thickness of the water-bearing strata in the Ogallala formation in 1938 before an appreciable amount of water had been pumped from the reservoir. The map in plate 2 shows the decline of the water table from the spring of 1938 to January 1956. The volume of water remaining in the underground reservoir was determined by subtracting the volume of material unwatered since 1938 from the total volume of saturated material in 1938 and multiplying the remainder by the coefficient of storage of 15 per cent. The approximate quantity of underground water in storage, available for pumping, beneath an individual farm may be determined by multiplying the number of acres in the farm by the thickness of the water-bearing strata underlying the farm and then multiplying by the storage coefficient of 15 per cent. Suppose the farm consists of 160 acres and has 150 feet of water-bearing strata underlying it. Then, 160 acres x 150 feet x 0.15 per cent equals 3,600 acre-feet of water available for pumping. An acre-foot of water is the quantity to cover one acre to a depth of one foot, and it also is equal to 43,560 cubic feet or 325,829 gallons.

PIONEER OILMEN

Johnny Wynn Invented The Rock Bit

By William A. Owens (Editor's Note: Sketch compiled from records of ORAL PIONEERS, University of Texas. Persons who can contribute additional information, documents, or photographs of early oil fields should write to the Archives Collection, Box 7767, University Station, Austin, Texas)

During the first oil boom in Corsicana boys used to follow him along the street. "See that man," they'd say. "That's Johnnie Wynn. He makes $5 a day—more than the president of the bank."

At the time, Johnnie Wynn was about the highest-salaried man in the oil fields. He was

(M. P.) Cullinan and W. P. Sturm, who also had been successful at Corsicana.

Wynn got in touch with the newly-organized Higgins Oil Company and by February was drilling their Number One at Spindletop. In it he needed every bit of knowledge he had. At about 200 feet they hit the quicksand that had spelled disaster for every well except the Lucas Gusher.

"We had to use heavy mud and stuff to wall up," Wynn recalls. "Line the sand to hold it up, keep it from caving in."

The well came in a gusher, flowing a stream 60 feet straight up. Johnnie Wynn was again a hero.

His next well was for the Columbia Oil Company at Spindletop—an eight-inch gusher this time, the first in the history of American oil fields.

This time they had a different kind of trouble. When they pulled the drill stem to clean the hole, oil and gas gushed over the crew. The man trying to close the gate valve was overcome with gas. Wynn went in for a try. He fell over on the derrick floor, knocked out by gas. The men dragged him out and revived him. Little by little they closed the gate, taking time each time to revive the men who fell out.

During 1901 and 1902 Wynn drilled 38 gushers at Spindletop, a kind of record in itself.

From there he went on to Sour Lake, where he drilled a number of gushers and also set up the J. Wynn Machine Shop. This was a significant move as in this shop Wynn invented a rock bit.

"The idea came to me very simple," he says. "I was sitting by a big lathe and on the floor was an eight-inch pipe setter, which we used to set our pipe in the earth, so I got to spinning that setter around time, and discovered that it turned in a circle. So it came to me why I couldn't place those cones on a body to be attached to a drill stem rock in the ground."

Though he had no engineering training, he worked out a model bit and patented it. Later he sold the patent right to Howard Hughes.

When he talks to you, Wynn is likely to toy with a watch fob made in the shape of a rock bit and set with a diamond, a gift from Howard Hughes.

World's most popular POWER STEERING?

Buick Roadmaster 6-Passenger 4-Door Riviera

Right this way!

EVERY YEAR, more and more new cars are equipped with Power Steering. Many a man has bought it "for the wife"—then wondered how he ever got along without it.

And if you have in mind a new car with Power Steering consider this fact: Since the beginning of last year, Buick has sold far more new cars equipped with Power Steering* than any other car—over 20,000 more in 1955 alone.

That's the record—and the reasons for it are just as impressive. Buick brings you In-Line Safety Power Steering. In addition to the one-finger ease of turning common to all such systems in varying degree, it has several distinct advantages.

It gives you surer, steadier, safer control at highway speeds—because it retains that good natural "feel" of the road.

On the other hand, it gives you more power assist when you need it most—at crawl speeds and at full stop. Here, Buick's Power Steering makes wheel turning nearly twice as easy as other types of systems.

Farm Chemical carries a complete line of both liquid and dry fertilizer and insecticides in formulas designed to accommodate almost any soil or growing condition you might have.

That, in a nutshell, is why we look forward to producing as much cotton on fewer acres this year, and fertilizer will play a very important part.

Here on the South Plains, we farmers have every opportunity for high production of many crops, especially cotton. Visitors from the older cotton growing areas of the country call us "bales per acre" cotton growers instead of "acres per bale."

With our soil . . . with our abundant water resources . . . with our land that is so suitable to mechanization . . . we need only one thing . . . PERFECTION IN FERTILITY . . . TO INSURE INCREASING YIELDS.

Cotton is America's greatest product! No other fiber, produced by nature or by hand of man, is so versatile . . .

Yet . . . how many of us, who are living in the number one country in all Texas so far as new development is concerned, realize this fact? How many of us insist on "cotton please," when we make a purchase?

The National Cotton Council is right. We've got to wake up to our own possibilities here at home if we expect to be able to plant more cotton in the future. It's just common sense that says that whenever we produce something, we should also help to consume it.

National Cotton Week, May 14-19, has been set aside to remind all Americans of the great job that cotton can do for all of us. This is an event certainly worth our participation, for in the balance of selling cotton hangs our entire cotton economy.

Do your part . . . Get Cotton Conscious . . . find out for yourself the many wonderful products now available which never before have been fashioned from cotton. YOU CAN HELP US TO KEEP COTTON KING IN TERRY COUNTY AND ALL OVER THE NATION!

Letter To the Editor . . .

Mr. Jerry Stoltz,
Managing Editor
The Brownfield News,
Brownfield, Texas:
Dear Jerry:

In my humble way I want to express our appreciation, both for Mrs. Satterwhite and myself, for the wonderful way in which the citizens of Brownfield have accepted us; and especially for the wholehearted co-operation the businessmen have given the Chamber of Commerce in the five and one-half months that we have lived in this progressive city. We are very grateful to these men for so many reasons they are too numerous to mention.

Without a question we have the most progressive men serving on our Board of Directors of any community we have ever lived in.

Jerry, I can't think of a single instance where this office has asked for help that we didn't get it many times over; and to these men we say, "Thanks", for helping to make our job easy and Brownfield a better place in which to live.

In all of our years in public relations, I have never experienced a gesture such as we received last Thursday night when all of the service clubs went together to salute the Chambers of Commerce of Texas, and there is no question but what they made Brownfield the most outstanding.

The office secretary, Mrs. Brown, and myself spend lots of time wondering what we can do to keep pace with these progressive men; and it all adds up to a live bunch of men who are looking years ahead to accomplish just that.

I want to compliment you and your staff on the type of service you are rendering our community, and we appreciate more than you will ever know, the valuable assistance we receive from your office. This is the first time I have found a newspaper in the smaller cities, with a full-time agricultural editor. Thanks to Don for a wonderful job.

To sum all of this up, we have sixteen committees—at Insurance Co. of Greenville, S. C. will be asked to show cause why its license to do business in Texas should not be revoked. High is general agent for the company in Texas.

High is charged with "deliberate and flagrant violation of the automobile insurance rate statute."

STOCK FRAUD CHARGED—Two Austin companies are defending themselves in district court here against charges of fraudulent stock selling.

A temporary restraining order is sought by the State against American Guaranty Underwriters, Inc., and the Karisch Company, Inc.

Calvin C. Huffman, American Guaranty president, denied the charges. His company was issued 25,000 shares of Karisch stock to cover a $9,500 loan, he said.

"No stock of the Karisch Co. was sold to the public", said Huffman. "Nor have any of the officers named received any commissions."

In its allegations the state accused American Guaranty of collecting "gross and exorbitant commissions" on stock sale.

INSURANCE CHANGE

SOUGHT—Just how valuable are treatments with fire-resistant chemicals, when it comes to reducing insurance risks? This question will be decided by the Texas Insurance Commission.

Texas Chemical Fireproofing Co. has asked that insurance credit on chemically fireproofed public buildings be extended from 15 to 25 per cent. Sen. Grady Hazlewood of Amarillo, representing the company, made the application.

A group of casualty companies, represented by the Texas Insurance Advisory Association, opposes the change.

ELECTION LAW CHANGE VIEWED—A movement to insure reporters the right to cover precinct conventions may be spearheaded by the Texas Press Association.

Under the Texas Election Code only a qualified voter in the precinct may "vote, be present at, or participate in, the business of such a convention."

TPA President Russell W. Bryant has suggested deletion of the words "be present at" from the law. He indicated the matter would probably be considered at the TPA convention in Amarillo next month.

Three precinct chairmen in Travis County refused reporters admission to conventions this year.

SHORT SNORTS: One of its biggest annual undertakings, helping some 9,000 high school graduates find jobs, is now under way by the Texas Employment Commission. Last year TEC placed about 52 per cent of the 8,445 graduates . . . Texas' cotton harvest was 281 pounds per acre—the highest since 1866 reports the U. S. Department of Agriculture.

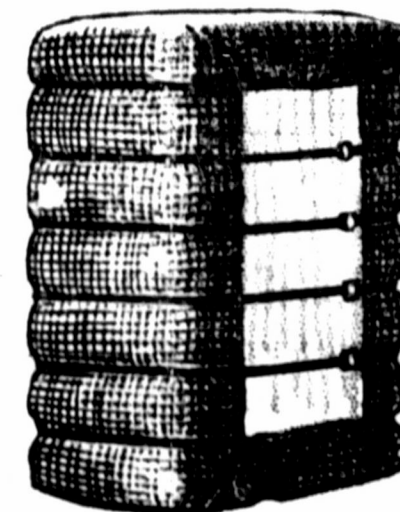

State recoveries in veterans land suits are approaching the million dollar mark . . . Texas railroads won another round in their battle to by-pass the Texas Railroad Commission. The Third Court of Civil Appeals upheld the railroad's right to negotiate directly with the Federal government in setting rates for intrastate contracts . . . Texas' traffic deaths totaled 2,547 persons in 1955. Major causes of fatal rural accidents were excessive speed, 62 per cent, and drinking, 37 per cent.

almost negligible. Seems that previous sessions of the American Cotton Congress held in Lubbock have dawn many businessmen, few farmers. Those persons ramrodding the 17th annual congress, May 31 through June 1-2, are determined that this year's event shall be as much for the farmer as for anyone else.

Burrus Jackson of Hillsboro, general chairman, this week notified Weldon Jones of Lubbock, District 2 extension agent, that he would like to see a lot of farmers on hand—including good representation from Terry county.

In turn, Jones passed along the idea to Terry County Agent Jim Foy, who agreed that he would invite, personally, "a goodly number of our farmers." Principal theme of the Lubbock meeting will be "Problems Confronting the Plains Area."

THROUGH SCIENCE and INDUSTRY COTTONSEED PROVIDES 100'S OF USEFUL EVERY-DAY PRODUCTS

But it does not stop there . . . if we are looking for really magical qualities in the cottonseed, most of them are found in the linters, which are almost pure cellulose. Cotton linters are utilized in the manufacture of bedding, cushions, automobile and furniture upholstery. They are also used in the making of smokeless powder for small and big game hunting rifles, and during the war practically our entire production of linters were used in making smokeless powder for the 2-inch guns on battleships and and artillery shells. They are also used in the making of phonograph records and movie film. It can truly be said that linters are one of the marvels of cotton.

Be sure of a stand of small grain...
KILL ALL SPECIES OF WIREWORM WITH A SINGLE
dieldrin
seed treatment

NEWLY SEEDED FIELDS make good feeding grounds for true and false wireworms and other soil insects. If there is not enough moisture in the soil to permit quick sprouting, seeds are vulnerable to insect attack for several days. But the threat of wireworm damage should be recognized at all times.

A dieldrin preventive seed treatment is a sure way to protect small grain seeds until they sprout.

LOW-COST PROTECTION

It costs just pennies per acre to treat seed with dieldrin, but dollars per acre to feed the wireworms untreated seed! A dieldrin seed treatment prevents "spotty" stands... eliminates the expense of time and money for re-planting or sowing extra seed for the wireworms to feed on... assures you of a longer grazing period. And dieldrin does not harm plant development.

COMPATIBLE WITH FUNGICIDES

Dieldrin is compatible with fungicides... can be applied at the same time to save the expense and work of a double treatment. You can buy dieldrin-treated seed from your seed dealer, or treat the seed yourself. Dieldrin can be applied as a slurry, dry, or in a grain drill. A convenient method is to apply dieldrin to the seed in the grain drill as you plant. Follow directions on the label for the particular formulation you buy.

LESS WORK AT PLANTING TIME

Seed can be treated now and stored until planting time. Dieldrin eliminates the rush of treating seed and planting within a few days. Dieldrin formulations are available throughout the small grain growing area. See your local supplier.
