

City Voters Will Approve or Disapprove $770,000 Bond Issue Oct. 23

Qualified voters of Brownfield will go to the polls Oct. 23 to approve or disapprove proposed improvements of their power and light plant and water works.

At stake will be the issuance of $500,000 in bonds with which to buy a new generating engine and $270,000 with which to install new water pumping station and to dig three new wells.

The election was called Sept. 27 by the city council, these members being present: Mayor Arlie Lowrimore, and Councilmen John J. Kendrick, Henry Chisholm, Troy Noel, Virgie Travis and Sam Marphy.

Lowrimore emphasized this morning that "The holders of these bonds shall never have the right to demand payment of this obligation out of any funds raised, or to be raised, by taxation."

Lowrimore continued: "This sale of three-quarters of a million dollars in bonds which our voters are being asked to approve or disapprove will in no wise mean a raise in our taxes."

City Manager Eunice Jones explained this morning that "Brownfield is an ever-growing city, and must be prepared to stay ahead of our peak demands for electric lights, power and water. With our present facilities, we are on the verge of not being able to meet those demands."

Said Jones: "Our peak demand for electric power on any one day in 1953 was 3,300 kilowatts. In 1955, that peak had ranged up to 5,000. We're growing. Additional electric stoves, lights, radios, television sets and dozens of other electricity-using appliances have upped the demand in the last three years. New industries have moved in."

Jones explained further that the city's power plant is a "solvent organization, which has been paying for its own operation besides contributing huge sums to the general operation of the city."

By example, he said that in 1953 P&L contributed, or transferred, $40,400 into the general operating fund which runs the city. In 1954, $60,278; in 1955, $61,000, and until March 31 of this year, $136,471.

"During the foregoing years," said Jones, "the power and light plant has given us, over and above its own necessary operating funds, a total of $298,149. That money has been spent to improve our city, and particularly our streets. And all without a cent of tax money."

City Secretary Jake Geron presented figures this morning which showed that Brownfield residents used a total of 9,184,248 kilowatts of electricity during 1953. In 1955, they used 12,580,218 kilowatts.

"As you can see," explained Jones, "our residents' demand for electric power has increased by nearly one-third since 1953. The money which we're attempting to raise by the Oct. 23 vote will represent our citizens' desire to maintain their supply of electric power."

"As for the water situation," he continued, "these figures are self-explanatory: Last year, our peak demand for any one day was 2,000,000 gallons. This summer, the demand reached 3,000,000. If we want the water, we're going to have to go after it.

"Should the bond issue pass, the city will construct a new pumping station and three new wells in the water field south of Brownfield which we bought last summer."

At present, there are nine wells furnishing water to the city, Lowrimore said. "One of them nearly conked out on us last summer."

"Many of our voters are under the impression that we'll get Canadian River water as early as next year. I assure you, nothing is further from fact. No one, private or government, sees any Canadian water available to us for at least 10 years. We must bridge that time gap by our own initiative."

Geron explained that Brownfield is one of the few American cities with an "A" rating, meaning that its financial condition is considered excellent by persons who buy bonds.

NATIONAL DIRECTOR

Little League Official To Participate In HF

By HAL ROCHE
News Sports Editor

"Mr. Little League of the Southwest," Marvin Bradford, will be in Brownfield Wednesday night and Thursday to represent the National Little League's participation with the Terry County Little League in Brownfield's Harvest Festival.

Bradford, an effervescent youth of 60 years, represents more than 24,000 boys between the ages of 8 and 12 participating each summer in Region 7, Little League Baseball.

In 1955, Bradford was made a member of the National Little League board of directors, whose headquarters are in Williamsport, Pa. His home is in San Antonio.

Bradford said, in a telephone conversation, that working seven years with boys has added years to his life. He was 60 last September, and is as dedicated to the Little League program as any minister is to his religion.

His interest in Little League, and other matters too, is contagious.

Take the juvenile delinquency problem, for example. Bradford has for Little Leaguers make good citizens. He said that during the years 1951-55 there wasn't a single boy involved in juvenile delinquency in San Antonio who had a background as a Little League player.

Bradford went on to say, See BRADFORD, Page 8

Terry County Farm Bureau Intensifies Membership Drive

Goal of Terry County Farm Bureau's current membership drive is 925, L. M. Waters Jr., chairman, said this morning.

The campaign to get new members was kicked off Sept. 27 and will end Oct. 27, said Waters. Membership at this time last year stood at 922. A total of 24 new ones have signed so far.

During TCFB's regular board of directors meeting Tuesday night, J. T. (Jake) Fulford, president, told his audience that membership acquisition efforts in Terry "are tied in with an intensive statewide round-up."

"Most of the drive activity," he continued, "will be concentrated during the latter part of the month."

The goal of Texas Farm Bureau this year is 72,558. Some 52,000 new members and renewals had been turned into state headquarters at Waco by early September.

Said Fulford: "The Farm Bureau is the largest general farm organization in the world, with units in all 48 states and in the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico."

"Among the more important things the Farm Bureau does for its members — and agriculture in general — is to protect the farmers' and ranchers' interest in the state and national capitals."

"Policies which guide Farm Bureau," Fulford concluded, "are developed at the 'grass roots' level."

Stevenson-Kefauver headquarters will be organized here at 2 p. m., Saturday, in the 106th District Courtroom.

The session was announced this morning by Leonard Lang, Terry County Democratic chairman, who added: "Democrats of Terry will join the biggest and most dramatic fund-raising campaign in political history on 'Dollars for Democrats Day,' which is Tuesday."

The Saturday meeting is open to the public, said Lang. "The public is urged to attend," he concluded.

Harvest Festival Draws Nigh

As Queen Entries Hunt Votes

The 10th annual Harvest Festival will be next Thursday.

Major attraction of the much-awaited event will be the traditional parade, this year to feature 81 units.

Parade Chairman Clarence Griffith said this morning that the units would enter the route of march at 11 a. m., assembled in 12 huge sections.

Here's the make-up of the first section:

Color guard, Texas Tech band, Rotary float, and six cars carrying State Rep. J. O. Gillham, District Judge Louis B. Reed of Lamesa, and Cong. George Mahon, in addition to the following dignitaries.

All civic club presidents, Brownfield mayor and city councilmen, Judge Herb Chesher and members of the Commissioners Court, band professors, members of the Brownfield School Board, and representatives of the American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars posts.

You can look for queen candidate Janith Spears and her float in Section 3; queen candidate Kay Kessinger, Section 5, and queen candidate Sarita Serenil, Section 7.

(A complete list of parade entries, numbering 81 in all, will be printed in Monday's Trade Journal.)

Here's the vote-count as of today for the three queen candidates: Kessinger, 36,300; Spears, 45,500, and Serenil, 15,200. Rotarians who'll make the final count to determine the winner will be Leonard Ellington, Bruce Zorns, Marion Bowers, Jim Miller. Deadline for buying those tickets which give you votes for the queen of your choice is 8 p. m., Thursday. The Harvest Festival Queen for 1956 will be announced about one hour later.

Here's a line-up on the entries:

Boy Scouts Return From Weekend Trip

Seventeen members of Lions Club Boy Scout Troop 85 left last Friday afternoon for a weekend camp in the Davis Mountains near Fort Davis. Accompanying the group were R. T. Wilson, Scoutmaster, Paul Ward and Harold Wood.

The group spent Friday and Saturday nights camping at the Buffalo Trail Scout Ranch. Saturday was spent hiking and swimming in Balmorhea State Park pool, which is the largest outdoor swimming pool in the world.

Sunday, the group attended a celebration at old Fort Davis and went horseback riding and watched Indian dancing. After a barbecue dinner, the group visited McDonald Observatory and returned home.

Scouts making the trip were Lynn Pennington, Johnny Rodgers, Harold Wilson, Terry Johnston, Robert Goldston, Curtis Morton, John Jennings, Ronnie Fenton, Jim Gammill, Howard Hurd, Tim Brannon, and Winston Odam.

Demo Conclave To Draw Group From the Area

Some 100 Terry County residents are expected to be in Crossroads, N. M., Sunday, where they'll attend a gigantic Democratic conclave at the ranch home of Mr. and Mrs. U. D. Sawyer.

Contrary to previous reports, there will be no barbecue lunch. Mrs. Sawyer said this morning that newsmen would meet in press conference at 2 p. m., New Mexico time, with Paul Butler, national Democratic chairman.

At 3 p. m., New Mexico time, Butler will take part in a reception at ranch headquarters. The national chairman will be escorted by plane from Dallas by Mrs. Fern Eldson, Mr. and Mrs. Sawyer's daughter.

After arriving in Lubbock, they will board a private plane, which will land them at the ranch. Other top Democratic figures expected to attend the meeting are Sam Rayburn, Speaker of the House; Senator Lyndon Johnson; Senator Robert S. Kerr of Oklahoma; and Mrs. Bertrude Fields, national Democratic committee woman from Oklahoma; the committeewoman from Colorado; the committeeman and woman from Texas, and the membership of the New Mexico Legislature.

Meadow Homecoming Plans Are Initiated

The Meadow Parent Teachers Association met last Thursday to discuss the Meadow High School homecoming supper which the PTA women will cook and serve. Homecoming is scheduled for Oct. 26, with a football game between Meadow and New Deal.

Supper will begin at 5:30 p. m., and the PTA is asking all townspeople and visitors, whether exes or not, to participate in the supper. All proceeds will go toward projects on behalf of the school.

J. W. Smith presided over the business meeting, which was followed by a program given by the 7th grade and dedicated to the teachers of Texas. Joe Burleson, principal of grade school, was in charge.

Many of the Cub supporters at the Lamesa game are of the opinion that we wouldn't have won the game last Friday night had it not been for the two or three new plays our boys pulled out of the hat; namely, faking a punt and running 10 yards when it is fourth down and 10 to go, and catching a pass after their opponents had it partially blocked. Doug Cox was proud to see the Cubs working so well, too!

How do you like the Cub caravan idea? A number of the Quarterback Club members liked it well enough that they're planning another one for Friday's game at Seminole. The caravan will leave the high school promptly at 6:30 p. m. The Lamesa fans appeared to be quite impressed when all the Brownfield fans began arriving at about the same time.

Your Quarterback Club president, L. J. Richardson, was a bit embarrassed when the Lamesa chief of police met our chief, Nolan Lassiter, to escort the entire Cub caravan around the downtown district Friday night — only two cars followed the courtesy escort! QB members are urging that you stay with the escort until after the caravan has circled the square in Seminole this Friday night.

At this stage of the game, some of we Tech supporters don't have much to talk about, except about the Cubs... However, the Red Raiders of Texas Tech are our boys, and, notwithstanding the fickleness of the game, they'll always remain so.

Next Thursday is THE day—Harvest Festival. The annual parade will leave the assembly areas at 11 a. m. A program is scheduled for all afternoon and evening. Everything is free. Tell your friends, neighbors and persons in the area. In See NEWS-VIEWS, Page 8

25-YEAR MASONS—Pictured above are nine past and present members of Brownfield Lodge 903, AF&AM, who were recognized here Monday night and presented pins signifying at least 25 years of Masonic membership. vised Wayland (Monk) Parker, immediate past Worshipful Master, to emcee the presentations. Refreshments were taken in the Banquet Room after the lodge was closed. Another nine men are to be presented the 25-year pins in the near future, Sawyer explained. (Staff Photo)

Don't Forget--Attend the Oilman-Businessman Banquet Tonight--Veterans Hall--6:30

We who are affiliated with the Little League program, when accepting an invitation to participate in the Harvest Festival, resolved to work, not only for our Little League but to do what we could to assist in making the overall program successful.

We feel that the Harvest Festival is one of the many attractions available here to make our city outstanding and to let the world know that we are here and will be heard from as the days roll by.

Personally, I like to refer to our city, as "The Most Congenial City in the World." Those sentiments, at this time, are known throughout the world and I say that without fear of contradiction and will make no reservations about the statement.

We are mighty proud to have, as our guests, the World Champion Little League Baseball Team and a member of the National Board of Directors of Little League Baseball, Mr. Marvin Bradford.

Those people will be here to participate, as you know, with the Terry County Little League in its entry into Festival activity.

I am sure that should anyone look the world over, a more distinguished person than Mr.

Bradford would not be found anywhere. He is high on the ladder of men that are responsible for the worldwide success of Little League Baseball and is a brilliant and renowned speaker on the subject, as well.

We are fortunate and grateful to have him appear here. We are also fortunate in obtaining the appearance of the Little League World Champions and grateful, too, for their desire to come to Brownfield. Too much cannot be said about these boys and the men who work with them but there is such a thing as taking too much space and that's what I would be doing should I attempt to extol the merits of these persons. More will be said in later columns, you can be sure.

Going back to football, the Quarterback Club again will sponsor a caravan to the game. This one will be headed for Seminole Friday night and its purpose, as you well know, is the protection of the many fans going to the game. It's much safer to travel under controlled speed. The Cubs meet the Seminole Indians.

With the football season moving into its midway point this weekend, talk already is turning toward the game of the court—basketball. That brings

James Riddle Wins Weekly Football Card

James G. Riddle of 1214 North "A" won last week's NEWS football contest by correctly picking 19 winners. Two other entrants had 19 correct answers also but Riddle's exact guess of the score of the game between Brownfield and Lamesa gave him the top spot. That score was 20-14.

The other two, with 19 correct answers, were Mike Barrett of 1004 E. Tate and Mrs. Harold Crites of 514 E. Buckley. Barrett was awarded the second prize since his guess at the score missed by only one point. He had picked the score to be Brownfield 20, Lamesa 13. First in the running for season high is Teena Gillham who has picked 55 correct winners thus far. John Jennings a close second having picked 54 correct winners.

Next in line with 53 right are: Don O'Neal, Guy Mowlin, Ed J. Mayfield, N. L. Mason and Bill Cope. Ted W. Whitlow, Johnny Rodgers, Charles E. Mayfield, Rose Mayfield, Ted Hardy, Mrs. Ted Hardy, J. L. Gillham, Mrs. J. W. Evans, L. D. Bailey and Jim Dudley all have 52 correct winners on the season.

Jane Rodgers won the low score prize last week. She had 11 out of 22.

to wind a conversation with Alton Polk, pastor of the Meadow Baptist Church, last Sunday morning. He was telling me of a lad in the little town of Parkinston, Miss. This boy, Ray Shaw by name, is being looked at by most of the large schools in the south, country for his ability as a basketball player. But, the boy himself wants to venture out into this neck of the woods. Ray is 6-2, weighs 165 and is a senior, and rated by coaches from such schools as L.S.U., Mississippi and Tulane as an outstanding prospect for their squads. Note to Polk Robinson: You can have this boy and you may look at him during these coming Christmas holidays. Roland Ladner, coach at Parkinston, currently is lining up some games for the holidays and will come to this area provided he is successful in securing three games. He already is booked at Meadow.

Many thanks to many people—especially to Paul Waco. There's a man who works untrudgingly in order that our youth may forge ahead. More about that in a later column.

Another reminder to get tickets to the old-fashioned barbecue next Wednesday night. The affair will be held in the American Legion Hall at 8 p.m. Mr. Bradford will be the speaker at the event. Mary Dee Mason, Junior Bond and I have tickets or you can stop by the News office and pick them up. Mail orders will be accepted, too, but sales close at 5 p.m. Monday. You'll enjoy the food and the company and the ducks are only a buck and a quarter. Hurry.

GAME TIME WILL BE 8 P. M.

Cubs Primed for Clash With Seminole Indians

The Brownfield Cubs take to the road for the second time Friday when they journey southward to Seminole, where they will meet the Indians who are currently on the short end of a two-win and three-loss season. The Indians picked up their second win of the year last Friday when they slaughtered the Livingston, N. M. Wildcats, 48-0.

Coach Doug Cox will have the Cubs setting their sights on Seminole halfback Bill Wallace, who romped and plunged to three touchdowns against the Wildcats last week.

While the Indians will be trying to even their season records, the Cubs will be attempting to roll their current record to three wins and two losses.

As to the question of Cub fullback Jackie Meek's condition: At this writing it is doubtful as to whether he will see action Friday night. Should Coach Cox elect not to use Meeks, Robert Wright will be at the fullback spot. Game time is 8 p.m. and a caravan will leave from the south side of the high school at approximately 6 p.m.

Meadow Bronchs In Opening Game Win

Meadow's Bronchs made their District 4-B opening game bid a winning one Friday in Meadow with a 39-27 victory Cooper's Pirates.

Meadow started fast, rolling up a 20-0 lead at the end of the first quarter and 32-7 at the half. From that point on it coasted in for the win.

Speedster Clayton White took the opening kickoff on his own 15 and returned 85 yards to the Cooper five to set up the initial touchdown and give the Bronchs a lead they never lost.

White was trouble for the Pirates all night as he scored twice, on runs of 15 and 10 yards, in addition to his opening kickoff return.

Junior Cubs Victims Of Levelland Teams

The 7th grade Cubs lost a close one last Thursday, 13-0, to a big rugged Levelland eleven. The Cubs played good football but were never able to push the ball across for a tally. Team spirit is high this week with emphasis on blocking and tackling.

The little Cubs will be looking for revenge against Seminole tonight at 6 p.m. when they journey to Seminole. In the first meeting between these two teams Seminole won, 14-6.

The 8th grade Cubs dropped a 21-12 decision to a larger Levelland team last week and will meet the Seminole 8th grade here in Cub Stadium tonight at 6:30 p.m.

Mrs. James Tidwell gave the devotional, and Mrs. R. A. Sampson had the program on "Indo China and Thailand."

The World Series and six weeks exams seem to hold the spotlight this week. Sports-wise the Cubs gave football fans a thrill at the Lamesa game last Friday. In the last few minutes of the game, the Cubs, trailing by one point, made a very timely touchdown to win the game 20-14.

This year's Spanish Club is operating under the leadership of these officers: president-Joe Oswald, vice-president-Sherry Don Spears, and Ruthie Moore has the three-fold office of secretary-treasurer, and reporter.

After last week's football game the Booster Club of Lamesa hosted a party to which Brownfield students were invited. Also, members of B.H.S. Band were guests of the Lamesa Band for refreshments after the game.

American Legion Membership Campaign Under Way

Wm. C. Brown To Head Drive

A well-known Brownfield citizen, Wm. C. Brown, has been named to spearhead the 1957 American Legion membership campaign here.

Brown's appointment was announced this morning by H. B. Virgil Crawford, commander of Post 269, American Legion.

Chairman Brown, past commander of the Brownfield post, is a veteran of World War II, serving in the U. S. Navy at San Diego and San Francisco. He also was in charge of the post office aboard the Navy hospital ship, USS Sanctuary.

Also named by Crawford to help Chairman Brown are LeJune Lincoln, present first vice-commander; Cleo Barnett, W. A. Bynum, Wilson Collins, E. D. Duncan, Wayne L. King, Kelton Miller and E. E. Harvey.

Chairman Brown accepted the appointment with this statement:

"Membership in the American Legion offers veterans the opportunity to continue to serve their community, state and nation in many ways. The Legion is Democracy in action, recognizing no barriers of creeds, color or economic levels.

"Our membership includes all creeds and colors and extends from the lowest paid laborer to the President of the United States.

"The American Legion," Brown continued, "has no political or religious affiliations, though its purposes can be summed up in the first four words of the Legion Constitution: 'For God and Country'."

"The American Legion 1957 membership campaign will get under way immediately," Brown said. "Our membership committeemen will attempt to contact all eligible veterans. The campaign is scheduled to wind up Nov. 11."

Dave Nicholson Named To Head New Neighborhood Set Up in Scouting

Miss Virginia Burgess, national Girl Scout representative from Dallas, attended a district GS meeting held at the GS Little House at 1:30 p.m. Monday. Thirty five area adults connected with girl scouting attended.

Miss Burgess was here to explain the differences in the present local GS council and the neighborhood set-up which will replace it January 1 as the Caprock Council.

Dave Nicholson was named neighborhood chairman of the local group, replacing John Kendrick who has served as president of the council. Nicholson will serve on the council board of directors and will head Girl Scouting here.

Bobby Turner of Scott Air Force Base in St. Louis, Mo., is here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Turner, 117 North C. He will leave Saturday for his new post at Yuma, Arizona.

GRIDIRON MEN HIT FIRING RANGE — Brownfield unit of the Texas National Guard could field a pretty rough football eleven should the occasion arise. In the pictures above, current stars of Brownfield, Meadow and Wellman high schools prepare for practice firing of the U. S. Army carbine. From left through the entire panel: Jim Collis, Bobby Moore, Ernest Hyman and Lewis Chambliss, all of Brownfield. Collis is managing this year's CUBS, and the others are players. Donald Brown and Bobby Horton, both of Meadow, and Jerry Carmichael of Wellman. Horton was named to the South Plains All-Star team last year. The men now are members of Howitzer Company, 112th Armored Regiment. Jerry Stoltz, unit commander here, said this morning that openings exist in the company. (T-Staff Photos)

Miss Pat Kelly, Bride Elect, Is Honored At Miscellaneous Shower

As a courtesy to Miss Pat Kelly, who will marry Jerry Anderson Oct. 26, a miscellaneous bridal shower was given in the home of Mrs. Alton Webb, Tahoka Road, from 4 to 6 p.m. Wednesday. Hostesses with Mrs. Webb were Mesdames Bill Blackstock, A. V. Britton, Kellie Sears, Grady Dickson, Henry Decker, J. T. Clement, Byron Cabbiness, Cliff McKee, Loris Brannon, T. L. Nipp, Tyler Martin, Clevis Chambers, Loyd Franklin, Odell Sears, J. L. Newsom, J. B. Jobe, C. W. Brown, Anna Bell Lay, Frank Jordan, and George Ellis. Mrs. Webb received guests and presented them to Miss Kelly; her mother, Mrs. Denver Kelly; and the mother of the prospective bridegroom, Mrs. J. F. Anderson. Mrs. H. N. Key, grandmother of the honoree, was at the guest register. The honoree's chosen colors of pink and silver were used in decorations. The serving table was laid with a white Madeira cutwork cloth and featured an arrangement of pink carnations and dusty-miller tied with pink net, in a silver bowl. Flanking the centerpiece were pink tapers in silver holders. Mrs. Royce Kelly of Lubbock presided at the silver tea service, and Mrs. Tommy Winn and Mrs. Jane Ivy served buttered nuts, mints, and ribbon sandwiches. Special music was offered during the tea hours by Mrs. Merlin Speed and Emily Blackstock.

GEE GEE'S Chit Chat!

By now, most of you know that I was the happy and grateful recipient of the lovely silver coffee service that was given away last Thursday morning at the Harvest Coffee held by members of the Alpha Omega Study Club. Outside of a Stetson hat won the first year we had Harvest Festival. I had never won anything in my life.

So please, don't you gals be too mad at me, because I've never had anything this nice or this beautiful before. The first cup of coffee to run out of the pot will go to Marie (Mrs. Leonard) Chesshir, for she was the gal who came up with my stub. Thanks, all you gals.

Speaking of coffee, we welcome Mr. and Mrs. Billy Peak to Brownfield as the new owners of the Brownfield Coffee Shop. Be sure to drop by and meet them.

I want to take a space here to apologize to Mahota (Mrs. Homer) Winston for omitting her name from a story last week. In the account of the 50th wedding anniversary observance of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Nelson, I failed to say that Mahota was one of the "punch pourers". I'm very sorry to have left you out, Mahota. It certainly wasn't intentional.

Troop 85, Boy Scouts of America, 13 still trying to raise enough money to take the entire troop to the Scout Jubilee next July. They'll have a rummage sale Oct. 20, and if you have any articles you'd like to give them for this sale, please call R. T. Wilson, who's scoutmaster, or Mrs. J. O. Rodgers or Mrs. Paul Ward. They'll be happy to pick up the "merchandise".

Many of you already have been reminded that tonight (Thursday) is the night that Mrs. Leland Croft of Odessa will be guest speaker at the AAUW meeting at 7:30 in the Seleta Jane Brownfield clubhouse.

Mrs. Croft is founder of the State Mental Hospital Development Association, which is a lay organization dedicated to improving the morale of patients in state mental institutions.

Dues to this group are very low, and there are some 1,600 members in the 16 chapters operating in Texas. The organization sees that there are TV sets in the hospitals, hang draperies and otherwise brighten up recreation rooms, donate hymnals to the chapels, see that the patients have many of the niceties of every-day life, such as permanent waves for the women, new clothes for all, and even go so far as to give the patients who get holiday leaves presents to take home to their families. I'm very interested in hearing Mrs. Croft tell of the various activities this lay group engage in, and I think you will be, too.

Bob Hallman is the new manager at the Melody Drive In Restaurant. They're open from 6:30 a.m. to 11 p.m. daily, with curb service from 11 to 11. Don't forget about their party room when you're planning the next party.

It was gratifying to me to

FOSWELL BOYS ARRIVE WEDNESDAY

World Championship Little League Nine Will Take Part in Harvest Festival Day

The World Championship Little League Baseball team from Roswell will be in Brownfield next Wednesday and Thursday to take part in the Brownfield Harvest Festival. The champs will be here in participation with the Terry County Little League's entry into the Festival. The boys will make their first appearance Wednesday night at the old fashion barbecue in the American Legion Hall, to which the addition to all else, most of the retail stores will remain open, offering some of the finest buys of the year. The bargains will be classified "Harvest Festival Specials," and many of them will be listed in your next Trade Journal.

He's now open for business at his new location. E. D. (Ed) Hill's taken over the former Henry Fugitt Texaco Service Station at 801 Lubbock Road. The station was burned in a fire several months ago, you'll recall. Says Ed: "We never close!" Telephone is 2978.

With the early maturity of cotton this year, many people think it is all over but the picking thereof. Yet, nothing could be more remote from fact. A drive down the Foster gin highway from the Mitchell Flache farm just south of Brownfield all the way to the county line—public is invited. Tickets are $1.25 for adults and 75 cents for children. During the Harvest Festival parade the world champs will ride the Terry County Little League float, and after the parade they will be available to the general public for the purpose of assisting Janith Spears, local Little League entry in the Queen contest.

The boys will arrive in Brownfield at 5:30 p.m. Wednesday, and plans are being made to escort them into the city and have them make a brief appearance on the square at that time.

this reveals a world of blooms and cotton still making.

Mitchell Flache is ready to begin picking, but he says if the hot weather holds for another two months, he could have a fine crop in by Christmas.

A TV note: Miss Janith Spears, Little League contestant for Harvest Festival queen, will appear at 5 p.m. Tuesday, on Lubbock's KDUB-TV. Janith will acquaint the viewing audience with particulars of our Harvest Festival, and will describe the league's participation in it. Program: "Community Crossroads."

Meadow will proudly demonstrate its new school cafeteria when the school is host to the next countywide teachers meeting in January. J. T. Durbin issued the invitation Tuesday night, when Terry County teachers met in Wellman.

The square took on a gala appearance last Friday before the Lamesa-Brownfield football game. L. J. Richardson, Joe Satterwhite, Buddy Gillham, Dube Pyeatt, L. D. Bailey and Eddie McKay tied red and white streamers on all cars parked downtown.

Aubrey Hiltbrunner, farming in the Gomez area, was called to Shamrock Monday for the burial of his father, W. R. Hiltbrunner, 85.

The weather prophets this year are a little confused. With early crops, some of them are predicting an early, hard winter. Yet, this time last year there was an early freeze and a little snow. And, cotton still is blooming and maturing. So... what's your prediction?

Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Gillham were in Ruidoso this last weekend, breaking in a new cabin finished last August in the mountains.

Alvin Davis, agricultural adviser and vice-president of Brownfield State Bank, passed the cigars Wednesday—a brand new son, Glenn.

Dennis Q. Lilly of First National Bank will attend the Bankers Field Day Friday at Lubbock Experiment Station. The event will be sponsored by the South Plains Bankers Association.

A total of 100 inches of rainfall a year, yet they water extensively just as we do on the South Plains. George and Kathy Weiss, returned just last week from a tour of the Dominican Republic, saw the watering. Mostly sugar beets and bananas are raised, but there is some 22,000 acres of cotton, good for that country. It ranges up to one and one-sixteenth of an inch in staple. But for five months annually there is no rain, so irrigation is used.

John J. Kendrick, executive vice-president of First National Bank was in Lubbock Wednesday, attending a conference in connection with the Canadian River dam and water project.

Much talk these days centers on the higher grades and longer staples showing up in much of our cotton. However, farmers are asking, is cotton any better this year? While the year is unusual, and maturity much earlier, most growers and ginners think it is due in part to a more equitable classing policy.

Pressure from the Farm Bureau and other grower groups who have criticized graders and grading, that pressure is getting results. They point out that many classers are ex-cotton buyers who, due to the allotment program, no longer find themselves in business.

The Rev. Dallas Dennison, formerly of First Methodist Church here and now of Abilene, and Mrs. Dennison were in Brownfield one day last week on a flying trip to visit "their farms."

Farmers Co-Op Gin No. 1 hit a near-record peak of 903 bales in one week, ending Sunday. Says Leonard White, manager: "The grades and stayles are running high. It is the best cotton I have seen in many years of ginning."

Some 100 radio hams—radio amateurs—were in Brownfield Sunday for the fall swap-fest. Much equipment, some new and some ancient, is said to have exchanged hands. The air was full of radio signals from auto transmitters as local radiomen guided the visitors into town by short wave.

There are lots of contests now being sponsored by big concerns as well as smaller businesses on the local level, and Gulf is one of the Bigs with a tremendous promotion. You might remember the full page in last week's paper. If not, you can get the details in their smaller ad this week.

If you don't think it has been a long dry spell, listen to this... Little Dicky Bonner 3-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Andy Bonner of 807 E. Lons, was terribly disturbed one day last week. It seems that Dicky was wearing a new shirt and was playing outside when it started sprinkling. He made a break for the house, but despite his efforts he was broken hearted by the fact that his shirt was wet and he cried at length because it was ruined.

"Parent education as to Little League principles reduces friction and interference and keeps the well-oiled machinery in good order."

He said, "Parents are becoming more and more educated as to what Little League is and what it does. The more they understand the less the emphasis on winning." After all, Little League does not build professional ballplayers, but it does give the youth a healthful and wholesome summer time program.

Speaking of West Texas, an area Bradford knows well, he said, "West Texas is one of the fastest growing areas of Little League interest, but curiously there are no circuits in Amarillo."

When asked about a saturation point to the Little League program, he said, "Only in the boy population of a given area and the ability of that community to support the program financially."

THE WORLD'S LARGEST OIL SHOW IN 1956!

From where I sit... by Joe Marsh

Happy Swap

More and more farmers—who badly need hired help sometimes, but can't afford a full-time hand—are making deals with young town workers and the employers they work for.

For instance, young Hap Hooper now lives rent-free on Easy Roberts' farm. In return he works about 100 days a year for Easy—for a farmhand's pay.

The rest of the year Hap works for his "regular" boss... Buzz Ellis, the electrician. Buzz just speeds up his business when Hap's on hand—slows it down when he isn't—and, like Easy, pockets healthy savings in wages.

From where I sit, it's great how people with different backgrounds—and different viewpoints—can co-operate. How about more of us trying that? I live in a town—maybe you're a farmer. I'm partial to a good glass of beer—you may prefer coffee or milk. But we can make things pleasanter by ignoring differences and giving each other a "hand."

Roy Priest Leads Randal PTA Study

The second phase of their study-discussion of "Parent-hood In a Free Nation" was held by members of Jessie G. Randal Parent Teachers Association Monday, Oct. 8. Roy Priest was sub-group leader of the discussion on "Feelings of Security and Adequacy".

Mr. Priest gave the devotional, a poem entitled "My Son" to open the meeting. A business meeting followed.

A panel composed of Priest, Jim Foy, Mrs. Priest, Mrs. O. B. Hale, Mrs. Charles Hamilton, and Mrs. T. E. Colvin discussed the program theme. The members were then divided into three "buzz groups" to discuss the theme, after which recorders for the three groups, Mrs. Hudspeth, Miss L. L. Morgan, and Dr. Bob Hoey, reported on the three group discussions.

Coffee and cold drinks were served following the discussions.

IT'S NEW HERE?—The gargantuan machines shown above were being operated Monday on the Herbert Hicks farm, northwest of Brownfield. McCormick-Deering one-row cotton pickers, the machines are thought to be fairly new to the farming scene in Terry County. Observers say they're used a lot in the Rio Grande Valley and Brazos River cotton areas. The units actually are picking and not pulling the cotton. Mechanical devices in the forefront prevent the machine from picking that cotton which is not yet ready for harvest. (Staff Photo)

WEeping LOVEGRASS HARVESTED FOR SEED—

In the left panel, a combine nears the end of a job on the Homer Causseaux farm northwest of Brownfield, that of harvesting some seven acres of weeping lovegrass for seed. Planted last May, the grass yielded approximately 18 pounds to the acre. SCS men say that the yield was fairly good for the first-year growth. A perennial, the weeping love will grow again next year, yielding some 100 pounds of seed an acre, say observers. Grass shown in the left panel is not really as tall as it may seem — the camera angle accounts for the illusion of height. Weeping lovegrass averages about four feet tall. In the right panels, Causseaux and A. R. Hodges, U. S. Soil Conservation Service technician, stand in the amazing cover of stubble left after the harvest. There is some grazing left after cutting; however, Causseaux says he does not plan to turn his cattle on it. Average going price for weeping love seed is about $1 a pound. Other Terry farmers which have reported reasonable success with the grass are George Weiss, Winfred Tucker and Al Muldrow, all operating in the northwest part of the county, and Hubert and Maurice Thompson, farming west of Brownfield, near the Tokio Community. Here's "must" reading for all persons directly or indirectly concerned with agriculture in Terry County.

It's the "PROGRAM AND PLAN for Terry Soil Conservation District."

The Program, a professional job in both printing and content, can change YOUR mental picture of agriculture in Terry. It's no fly-by-night p o o p sheet, The Program. On the contrary, months of painstaking research, experimenting and sweat by experts preceded The Program's publication.

The Program is the work of many persons, and we're going to list those whom we feel to be particularly instrumental in its compilation, taking a long chance that we'll leave no deserving name unprinted:

L. M. Waters Jr., R. J. Purcell, Bruce Zorns, Homer Causseaux and Hubert Beaird, all TSCD supervisors; Henry Williamson, A. R. Hodges, Marvin Whitmire and Bill Dugger, all of the U. S. Soil Conservation Office here; and

Dennis Q. Lilly, agriculture adviser and vice-president of First National Bank; Alvin Davis, Lilly's counterpart in Brownfield State Bank; Jim Foy, Terry County agent, and Looe Miller, ASC manager.

We heartily recommend that you read The Program. We believe that it'll make you money. We believe you'll be fascinated by it. We believe The Program to be the most important publication concerning Terry County agriculture ever printed.

Acknowledgment is made on Page 41 of The Program of the following firms which made possible its printing (putting up the cold cash, we're assuming):

Brownfield State Bank & Trust Company, First National Bank, J. B. Knight Company, Goodpasture Grain & Milling Company, Inc., Kersh Implement Company, Western Grain Company and Plains Liquefied Gas, Inc.

Ever notice the hard core of names which keeps cropping up in news concerning Terry agriculture? It is not by design or by accident that such is the case.

To quote TIME magazine: "Names make news. These names made news this week". We'd be amiss if we failed to add that hard core of names makes news every week in farming.

Why is it so? We believe it's this simple: The men bearing

What about the future for dryland cotton production in Terry County?

For a logical, authoritative answer, we'll quote William C. Moldenhauer, writing on Page 10 of an important, brand new publication, "PROGRAM AND PLAN for Terry Soil Conservation District".

Moldenhauer: "... the prospects for dry-land cotton production in Terry County are very dim if present drought continues. At this time there is nothing to indicate that the situation is improving or is likely to improve in the near future".

The year was 1941, and the recorded rainfall for the 12 months was an astounding 31.59 inches. This item is found on Page 7 of The Program, in a chart which records the monthly rainfall in Terry County for the years 1914 through 1955, with the exception of 1922.

Based on the chart, the following percentages can be determined: A total of 50 per cent of the years (41 in all) saw rainfall of more than 17.5 inches; 40 per cent of the years, less than 15.6 inches; 30

Amendment 4 Is All Important To Us

*Texans will vote on Nov. 6 to make the state's teacher retirement plan more attractive and induce more recruits into a key profession that is starving for personnel.

The Wichita Falls Times labeled the amendment a "must" and sets forth its arguments in favor of the amendment in these words:

"The present teacher retirement program was enacted in 1937 when dollars bought much more than they do today.

The current system limits contributions to 5 per cent of $3,600 salary—$180 per year.

"This results in monthly retirement checks as pitifully low as $35 to $38 for former teachers who served children and school systems long and well.

"The constitutional amendment Texans will find on their ballots in November—Amendment No. 4—would raise the maximum retirement contribution of teachers to 6 percent of salary or $504 annually.

"This would make possible a minimum retirement payment of $100 per month for teachers retiring at 60 years of age after 30 years of service.

"At current dollar values the substantial hike is well warranted.

"The plan is sorely needed to draw teaching talent into the profession. Here's why: Each year 7,000 experienced teachers leave their jobs.

"Texas must hold them or recruit 28,000 teachers to replace them. By 1960, 350,000 additional children will be enrolled in Texas' public schools. Fifteen thousand new teachers will be needed.

"This host of boys and girls must not be cheated. To provide teachers for them will require 43,000 additional instructors by 1960.

"Amendment No. 4 to the Texas constitution will recruit additional teachers, hold teachers in service, bring up to date the 1937 retirement program enacted during the depression, permit teachers to contribute more to improve their own retirement program.

"The amendment also will provide disability, death and survivors benefits comparable to those available in strongly competing industry and governmental service, provide reciprocity to attract out-of-state teachers and furnish sound, efficient administration.

"The amendment will yield a more adequate benefit for teachers now retired on skimpy monthly payments and clarify and re-enact much of the old retirement law.

"Aimed at promoting the welfare of Texas school children, Amendment No. 4 deserves your active support." (Gainesville, Texas, Register.)

DENIAL FROM THE WHITE HOUSE followed closely on the heels of "an unconfirmed report" by Scripps-Howard's Marshall McNeil that the Russian Rover Boys, Krush and Bulg, would visit the US after the elections are out of the way. Assistant Presidential Press Secretary Murray Snyder told newsmen he had checked with the President and the Secretary of State and there was "nothing to the story". Nothing to speak of, anyway.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS

By George Peck

(EDITOR'S NOTE: George Peck is Chairman of the Board or the National Labor-Management Foundation and Executive Editor of its official publication, PARTNERS.)

While the 84th Congress may with some justification be scolded for doing some things that should not have been done, it deserves a round of applause for two things accomplished:

The first of these is that Congress adopted an official motto for the U. S. A., "IN GOD WE TRUST." While this phrase has been used on certain coins in past years by permission of Congress, our legislators have now ordained that it must from now on be printed on all United States currency.

The second most worth accomplishment of the 84th Congress came at the end of the session, specifically on July 25, 1956, when a concurrent resolution was introduced in the Senate and the House (S. Con. Res. 88), proclaiming faith in the Word of God and favoring renewed observance of the TEN COMMANDMENTS. The Resolution was introduced in the Senate by Senators Styles Bridges (Rep.)

of New Hampshire and Earle C. Clements (Dem.) of Kentucky; in the House by Frank J. Becker (Rep.) of New York and John D. Dingell (Dem.) of Michigan. The text of the Resolution follows:

WHEREAS the world today is divided by conflicting ideologies which cause people to live in constant fear of annihilation or enslavement; and

WHEREAS the basic principles of man's ethical conduct toward his fellow man have been cast aside throughout so much of the world today; and WHEREAS, a return to the precepts as expressed in the TEN COMMANDMENTS never was more vital to our survival and continued civilization than today; and

WHEREAS we believe the TEN COMMANDMENTS, as See AMERICAN Page 2

HIGHLIGHTS and SIDELIGHTS

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN—W. Lee O'Daniel is back in the saddle again, riding the range for votes. This time it's big bus and the Hill-billy Boys.

Twice refused a place on the general election ballot, "Pappy" is campaigning as a write-in candidate for Governor. He reports receipt of thousands of letters asking instructions as to how to vote "the write-in way".

First big bomb to be tossed by the former Democratic Governor was his endorsement of Republican Dwight D. Eisenhower for re-election as President of the United States.

Proof that O'Daniel means business is evidenced by the fact that he is advertising consistently by press and radio, statewide.

Other Campaigners — Texas strategists for Ike and Adlai will send fresh recruits into the field this week as campaigns enter the final month.

For Adlai, a "Democratic Victory Van", loaded with buttons, literature and speakers, was launched from Austin over the weekend. It will make a 30-day, 10,000 mile trek "to the forks of the creek".

Democrats for Eisenhower added a one-time Stevenson supporter to their crew. He is Johnson Murray, former Democratic governor of Oklahoma, now a Ft. Worth businessman. Murray, a long-time friend of Gov. Allan Shivers, speaks Spanish fluently, and will make speeches mostly in South Texas.

Resignations — James H. Blundell of Dallas, chairman of the Democratic Executive Committee for less than a month, has resigned. His reasons were both personal and business.

Succeeding Blundell is Jim Lindsey, former speaker of the House of Representatives and State Representative from Texas. Now head of the Texas Good Roads Association.

L. C. Page of Tyler, also a member of the committee, has resigned. He gave as his reason Stevenson's statement that he favored an end to the draft.

House Investigators to Meet — A loaded agenda awaits the House Investigating Committee meeting, beginning here Oct. 19.

Scheduled are: (1) Extensive inquiry into tidelands leasing procedures, as instructed by the last Legislature; (2) Preliminary consideration of a report to be made to the next session on insurance companies; (3) A report on the committee's inquiry into absentee voting in Webb County; (4) Discussion of possible reform. Strictly a nuts-and-bolts man, are you?

Well, let me tell you, we admire nuts-and-bolts men.

As far as the chamber of commerce is concerned, you're the salt of the earth. Government has another name for you. They call you a "small manufacturer," but locally you have great influence on community growth, locally you're big.

You're an employer, aren't you? And your payroll is the life blood of the neighborhood. You're the owner of an industrial site, aren't you? And the way you maintain it sets the tone for the whole area. You ship by road, don't you? So the traffic situation is your baby.

Your chamber of commerce can do a lot for you, but remember the other side of the coin. You can do a lot for your chamber of commerce and help make this a better town to live and work in. So join it. Support it. Help it to help all of us, including you.

mentations that powers of any future investigating committee be limited to it be "used as a political tool".

Prison Expansion Urged — Texas Prison System is in for "serious trouble" unless it gets more money for buildings and salaries.

Gen. Mgr. O. B. Ellis warned that the prisons cannot continue to "stack men up the way they are now". Also, said Ellis, the system is understaffed by 58 guards, and lacks even one psychiatrist to deal with the increasing numbers of "mentally irresponsible troublemakers."

In an Austin speech Ellis gave an advance outline of the expansion program he will seek from the next Legislature. His proposed "bare minimum" budget: $4,825,000 for new buildings and an $780,000 increase for operating costs, including salaries.

Three Million Jobs seen — Three million jobholders in the state by 1957 is foreseen by the Texas Employment Commission.

TEC also predicted steadily rising employment through the fall with a peak in December well above last year's figure of 2,860,000.

Even before school openings brought a bustling upsurge, non-farm employment had swelled to 2,901,500. Agricultural laborers totaled 273,600, which, despite drought, was 12,000 more than in 1955.

Business Record in Doubt — Economic experts are backing off from earlier predictions that Texas business in 1956 will top the 1955 record.

Retail merchants entered the fall months with the sales index off 8 per cent from a year ago. Automobile sales lagged 20 per cent.

Overall business activity for 1956 still is slightly higher than '55' says the UT Bureau of Business Research. But if the downward trends continue, hopes for a new record may be too optimistic.

Credit tightening has slowed, but not "seriously affected" Texas' rapid industrial expansion, says Dr. John Stockton, head of the research bureau.

Many Texas merchants look to a big holiday boom to bring up the year's average.

Washburn Verdict Reversed — The murder trial of Harry L. Washburn will have to be tried again. Texas' court of criminal appeals has reversed and remanded the Waco conviction.

Washburn had been given a life sentence in the auto-bomb killing of Mrs. Helen Harris Weaver of San Angelo.

Defense attorneys contended the state prejudiced the jury with "fact-laden questions" to a witness who claimed 5th Amendment immunity.

Washburn said he hoped for a new trial in his home town, Houston.

Short Snorts — Number of patients confined in Texas mental hospitals dropped during the past year, despite an increase in the number admitted. Mental hospital rolls dipped from 16,445 in 1955 to 15,955 in 1956. But total number treated rose 1,621 in the same period. Don't burn any trash until there is rain, Texas the primary moral force behind the three great religions of today, Christianity, Judaism and Islam, should be reaffirmed as the ethical code governing the lives of men, and are the means of bringing about lasting world peace and a solution to the many problems of mankind: Therefore be it

RESOLVED by the Senate (the House of Representatives concurring), That we hereby proclaim our faith in the Word of God and thereby perpetuate renewed observance throughout the world, by nations and by individuals, of the TEN COMMANDMENTS.

The Layman's National Committee, recognizing the importance of this Resolution to the spiritual welfare of America and to the world at large, went into action by sending a telegram to the press services, radio and television networks, and leading magazines. It read:

"This is to call your attention to a most significant action taken yesterday and today in both Houses of Congress which can have lasting and limitless possibilities for international peace. A joint resolution was introduced reaffirming America's faith and belief in the principles of the Ten Commandments. We hail this splendid action and would appreciate your valued cooperation in bringing it to the attention of the American people."

As Chairman of the Laymen's National Committee, this columnist was given the welcome assignment of bringing this important action of the Congress to the attention of the press. It is my hope that every people served by the weekly newspaper editor who receives this release, will pass on the good news to his or her readers. Our wonderful American Constitution stemmed from the TEN COMMANDMENTS, the first time in world history that a confluence of the spiritual and political streams was brought about. It is indeed heartening to know that our Washington representatives, of all political affiliations and creeds, have reproclaimed America's abiding faith in the principles of the TEN COMMANDMENTS.

L. D. Smethers In Korea With the 7th

KOREA (Special) — Army Specialist Second Class Lowell D. Smethers, son of Mrs. Nina J. Smethers of Welch, Tex., recently was assigned as a member of the 7th Infantry Division in Korea. Specialist Smethers, a cook in Heavy Mortar Company of the 31st Regiment, was stationed at Fort Hood, Tex., before arriving in the Far East in August 1956.

Farming Angle—

(Continued From Page 1) those names have accomplished, to a large degree, what most of us try to do in life, and that is to "find" our place and to be known by all that we're in our right place.

We're going to take the privilege of calling them all by the generic name of "pioneers." Pioneers they are, in the sense that they have been leaders in forging a new type of agriculture in Terry County.

Look closely at the farm scene here, if you will, and we're certain you'll agree that this country is on the verge of a really new and advanced agriculture—which can mean but one thing to all of us, more dollars in our pockets with which to buy those things we want.

This writer has listed some of those names in the foregoing paragraphs. We could list many others. As time goes on you'll see all of them in print, where they rightfully belong as "makers of news."

Come next May 31-June 1, look for big goings-on in Future Farmer of America circles in Brownfield. The Area II Association of FFA will hold its annual convention here at that time. It will be a feather in the hat for Ves Hicks and Walter Meyer, FFA advisers in Brownfield High School.

Watch for the up-coming magazine section of the Fort Worth Star-Telegram. It'll contain Bill Durham's roundup of the third annual Field day, sponsored by Terry Soil Conservation District 1 a s t Sept. 20. Bill is farm editor of the Telegram, and has made such a name for himself that he now is a member of the President's 14-man drought advisory board.

New assistant county agent here is Bob Etheredge, recent Texas Tech graduate. Bob is from Hermleigh. He'll assume duties Monday, and will be concerned primarily with the Terry County 4-H movement. Offices will be with Jim Foy, county agent, in the courthouse.

A story is told of a young man who called one evening on a rich old farmer to learn the farmer's story of how he became rich.

"It's a long story," said the old man, "and while I'm telling it, we might as well save the candle." And he blew it out.

"You need not go on," said the youth. "I understand."

Field weathering of cotton can depreciate the value of the fiber more than is generally realized, Lyle E. Hessler, research associate of the Cotton Research Committee of Texas, writes in the Sept. 22 issue of the Cotton Gin and Oil Mill Press.

It is colder at the antarctic than at the arctic.

SECOND HALF TREND CONTINUES

Cubs Find 'Eye' of Tornadoes, Fly Away With 20 to 14 Victory

The Brownfield Cubs, still a second half team, showed far more punch and stamina in out- lasting Lamesa's Golden Tornadoes, last Friday 20-14. This was the first meeting in recent years, for the two teams, and the game was played at Lamesa.

The Tornadoes, getting the jump on the Cubs, pushed over two first period touchdowns and led at the end of the period, 14-0, but the Cubs managed to pick up six points in the second stanza and when the two teams left the field for the halftime intermission the score stood 14-6 in favor of the Tornadoes.

Fullback Jackie Meeks' scooted 17-yards for the Cubs second period tally and later in the quarter was removed from the game because of an injured leg muscle. Lamesa's two first half scores came on runs by halfback John Middleton and fullback Charles Hatchet. Lamesa's footed kicker Sam Jones picked up both conversions while Brownfield's Bobby Moore missed his only first half attempt.

The Cubs came roaring back in the third quarter with fullback Robert Wright, in for Jackie Meeks, opening the period with a 7-yard drive through the line. This seemed to put the Cubs in motion and before the quarter ended quarterback Mike Hamilton passed to Lee Dale Rowden in the end zone for the second Cub score.

Moore converted and the score stood at 14-13. In the waning minutes of the game Hamilton pushed the deciding touchdown over from 1-yard out. Moore again converted and the Cubs won, 20-14.

CAN INCREASE FARM INCOMES

Spur Experiment Studies on Wintering Steer Calves Given

Growing weaned beef calves during the fall and winter usually affords an opportunity to increase farm income on the Rolling Plains of Texas.

According to research studies made at the Spur Experiment Station over a 14-year period, it has provided a practical and economical means of utilizing and marketing small grain pasturage, native grass, stalk fields, sorghum silage and bundle feed.

Wintering calves is well suited to farms that produce such crops as sorghums, cotton and wheat, and have native grass available. After wintering, the research workers, P. T. Marion, C. E. Fisher and J. H. Jones, say the calves may be sold as stockers or retained for summer grazing or for finishing in drylot for slaughter. This flexibility of management, they say, provides an excellent opportunity for making adjustments in line with crop prospects.

Wheat pasture provided the lowest cost of winter maintenance for calves. Sorghum fields and native grass supplemented with cottonseed cake were intermediate in cost, while winter maintenance in drylot was the most expensive.

ASSISTANT COUNTY AGENT — A new face in County Agent Jim Foy's courthouse office is that of Bob Etheredge, hired recently by Commissioners Court as assistant county agent. Etheredge, a Texas Tech graduate, will take over his duties Monday, and will be primarily concerned with the 4-H club work in Terry. Etheredge finished his work at Tech after serving in the U. S. Army infantry at Fort Benning, Ga., and Fort Riley, Kan. A member of the Baptist Church, Etheredge will be joined here later by his mother, Mrs. Laura Shipman of Hermleigh. (Staff Photo)

MYSTERY FARM NO. 53 — That old master, Earl Blackwell of 509 Magnolia Ave., picked it right again this week. Earl telephoned the MF52 was the Will Reed farm, located 6 miles from the newspaper at 4:47 p.m., Friday to guess that east and 1 mile south of Brownfield. Early Saturday, Mrs. Carroll Doss of Route 1 called to guess it as the Reed farm, Blackwell does not always get first call, but he's an expert at identifying the mystery farms. Like all the others, he'll get two tickets, good for any one of the Jones theaters.

scene of hybrid grain thriving in the county. The hybrid is being grown this year for the first time as a cash crop by many farmers within the district.

The program's official adoption was authorized by the district's board of supervisors, comprising L. M. Waters Jr., chairman; R. J. Purcell, secretary, and Bruce Zorns, Homer Causseaux and Hubert L. Baird, members.

District In Subdivisions
Here are quotes excerpted from The Program:
"There are approximately 898 square miles in the (TSC) District... elevation ranges from 3,200 to 3,600 feet... TSCD is divided into five (5) subdivisions... At present time all land that is suitable for cultivation has been broken out of sod... irrigation water from wells have grown from 63 in 1949 to over 600 in 1955... The last date of killing frost in the spring normally occurs about April 17, while the first killing frost in the fall normally comes about Oct. 29..."

Trend Is Irrigation
"Sand storms in the spring do considerable damage to fields and crops, often requiring that crops be replanted as often as 3 or 4 times... Approximately 47 per cent of the land in farms or ranches is farmed by tenants, renters, cash rented or cash leased... some of the greater problems facing the District are large acreage of rented land, short term rentals, generally on a one-year basis, low yields and owner's unwillingness to share cost of effective conservation measures..."

"The average median income of all families and unrelated individuals in the Terry District was $2,767 per year... The present trend in irrigation is toward an intensive type farming... As this is accomplished better landowner-tenant relationship will result..."

Conservation Reserve Rulings Revealed

Any farm land regularly used in the production of crops, including tame hay, may be included in the Soil Bank's Conservation Reserve, advises R. G. Shrauner, chairman, State Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation Committee.

Land not eligible under the program includes non-crop land, land that is designated for the Acreage and land owned by the Federal Government.

When an approved practice is carried out on land designated for the Conservation Reserve, the farmer will receive a payment varying by practices but which may represent up to 80 per cent of the cost of establishing the practice.

He also will receive an annual payment, including the first year, based on a rate for the county. The average of the county rates in Texas is $10 an acre.

To qualify for payment, the farmer must reduce the prior 2-year average acreage for crops harvested on his farm by the number of acres he places in the Conservation Reserve.

Shrauner advises that the closing date for signing up in the Conservation Reserve program for 1956 is Oct. 15. Information on practice specifications and contract forms which must be submitted before the closing date are available at county ASC offices.

Ike Can't Make It Rain, But He's Still Best Man

The other day I asked a farmer if it was dry out his way. He said it sure was. "Looks like we just can't get any rain," he said. "Why, when Noah had his 40-day flood, we didn't get over half an inch."

There's no mistake about it, Texas is having itself a real drought. Some of the farmers and ranchers in our county are in such bad shape that they may vote for Stevenson.

Old Man Jones, from across the river, said he wasn't going to go to any such extreme. He said he needed rain as bad as anybody else. He claimed water was so scarce in his community that the preacher was baptizing new members with a wet handkerchief. But he was holding out awhile longer, anyway.

"I may be stubborn," said Old Man Jones, "but I just ain't been convinced that President Eisenhower is keeping it from raining."

He said he knew that Stevenson and Kefauver acted like they thought so, and they had a right to their opinion. Lyndon Johnson, he figured, knew better, but he was sticking with Adlai and Estes for the sake of unity. He said he didn't figure Mr. Sam Rayburn had known whether it was raining or not for the last 25 years.

"I hate not to go along with such a widely known crowd of weather observers," Old Man Jones said. "If there's anybody who keeps up with which way the wind is blowing, generally speaking, it's Stevenson, Kefauver and Johnson."

Then he went on to say that he realized the national farm program hadn't pleased everybody—including him. If he was in the White House, he would do things different, at least in our county. He allowed that the $61,000,000 spent by the Eisenhower administration for drought relief in Texas could have been doubled and still not made all the farmers happy and prosperous.

"But," said Old Man Jones, "I keep remembering that the main reason for our troubles, besides the drought, is the fact that we are not at war. Now, if Adlai and Estes really want to jump on President Eisenhower, there is a real issue. They've sure got the goods on Ike in that respect. If he hadn't stopped that Korean War, farm prices would be higher, no doubt. I wonder why they never mention that."

Old Man Jones was kidding a little, of course, in his usual way, but I think he had something there. We have got to adjust to peace-time, which is taking awhile but President Eisenhower is working at it. And meanwhile our boys aren't fighting and dying on foreign soil. It's worth thinking about.

John Bunyan wrote "Pilgrim's Progress" while he was in prison.

It Doesn't Cost . . . It Pays!

NOW IS THE TIME TO DEFOLIATE YOUR COTTON

SHED-A-LEAF "L"

Liquid Cotton Defoliant

FACTS AND ADVANTAGES

- ★ Shed-A-Leaf "L," liquid defoliant, economically and effectively defoliates cotton plants. Excellent results can be obtained even when there is no dew on the plants.
- ★ Shed-A-Leaf "L" mixes easily and quickly, even in very cold or hard water. It is applied by airplane or ground sprayers. It has no disagreeable odor or ill effects to cause discomfort to people handling or applying the chemical.
- ★ When used at rates recommended, Shed-A-Leaf "L" in the soil has no harmful effect on crops planted following cotton defoliation, nor is there indication it will cause a soil problem.
- ★ Shed-A-Leaf "L" does not create a health hazard to humans and livestock when used as directed.
- ★ Shed-A-Leaf "L" does not deteriorate in storage.
- ★ Shed-A-Leaf "L" is packed in 55 gallon drums.

IT PAYS TO DEFOLIATE

Shed-A-Leaf "L" offers these important benefits through effective cotton defoliation:

1. Hastens opening of mature bolls; this permits earlier harvesting.
2. Reduces boll rot; retards deterioration of fiber and seed.
3. Reduces late insect infestation.
4. Facilitates hand and machine picking:
 - (A) By reducing amount of plant material going through picker or stripper heads.
 - (B) By permitting earlier picking in the morning.
 - (C) By making possible one picking in many cases, due to more uniform boll opening.
 - (D) By making hand-picking easier and quicker.
5. Produces better lint grades of machine picked cotton by reducing trash and leaf stain.

Seven days after applying Shed-A-Leaf "L"

DIRECTIONS FOR USE

TIME OF APPLICATION: Use Shed-A-Leaf "L" when cotton has finished maximum production, which is 30 to 40 days following cut out (usually 40 days in the irrigated areas.)

GROUND SPRAYING: Apply 1 1/2 to 2 gallons of Shed-A-Leaf "L" in 20 to 30 gallons of water per acre. Thorough, uniform coverage is essential. The number of nozzles required will depend on the size of the plants — usually 6 to 8 per row. On cotton not over 2 1/2 feet tall, two nozzles 12 inches above the plant should spray downward and two nozzles on each side, properly spaced, should spray inward. For cotton ranging up to 3 1/2 feet tall, a third-nozzle should be added to each side.

SECOND APPLICATION: If complete and uniform coverage was impossible because of unusual rank growth, a second application may be required. Make this application after the leaves have fallen from the first application (usually about 7 to 10 days).

CAUTION: Do not apply Shed-A-Leaf "L" if conditions are such that the spray will drift over adjacent fields where it may defoliate or injure other crops.
