ON POTENTIAL

Devonian At Terry Offset

Oil production in a new Devonian-producing area of west-central Terry County has been proved with completion of Texas Company's No. 1 B. W. Ludeman, 10 miles southwest of Brownfield.

Producing from casing perforations between 12,812-12,818 feet, well flowed 384 barrels of oil in 22½ hours on potential test.

Oil gravity tested 34.6 degrees. Oil return was in addition to 94 barrels of water. Gas-oil ratio and choke size were not reported.

Hole was made to corrected total depth of 12,818 feet and cased to bottom. Ground level elevation was surveyed at 3,385 feet. Tops were not available immediately.

Field confirmer is a southeast offset to same operator's No. 1 Black, which flowed 727 barrels of oil a day to open the field. New well spots 330 feet from north and 1,600 feet from west lines of Section 130, Block D-11, CAMRR Survey, 10 miles southeast of Brownfield town-site. Lease consists of 480 acres.

About one and one-half miles to the southeast, Texas is drilling ahead at its No. 1 M. F. Taylor, another Devonian project. Bit was cutting 7,780 feet in lime at last report.

Lubbock Service Held For Mrs. Cobb

Funeral services were conducted Tuesday in First Baptist Church at Lubbock for Mrs. Tom Cobb, 82, who died early Sunday in Baylor Hospital in Dallas following a year's illness.

Mrs. Cobb, wife of the president of Cobb's department stores here and in Lubbock, was reared in Seminole, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Cobb, pioneers of Gaines County. She attended Wayland College at Plainview, Texas Christian University and North Texas State College. She and her husband were married in 1930, and the couple lived here until 1945, when they moved to Lubbock.

Survivors include her husband; a daughter, Mrs. Bert Nelson of Dallas; two sons, Tom Jr. and Joe Paul, both of Lubbock; a brother, Gordon Cobb of Seminole; three sisters, Miss Ora Cobb and Mrs. Dorothy Hargrove, both of Dallas; and two grandchildren, Karen and Bill Nelson of Dallas.

Airport bonds, likewise approved last December, were sold to Municipal Securities Corporation of Dallas. Interest rate: 3.655 per cent.

Negotiator was Hugh Bass of Metropolitan Securities Company of Dallas. County Judge Herb Ches-shir said this morning that the road bonds will provide paving of some 16 miles of Terry County rural roads.

$3,341 SHORT OF '57 GOAL

Chest Drive Extended

Terry County Community Chest officials determined Monday to make final efforts this week to reach the 1957 goal of $17,743.

The 1957 campaign, which has fallen short by $3,341, has been at a stand-still for several weeks. The concerted effort of this week will bring in the full amount, officials expressed hope this morning.

Broken down, contributions to date have been gathered by the Advanced Gifts Division, $10,650; General Business, $2,160; Employees, $957, and schools, $659.

A nominating committee was appointed Monday to submit names for next year's officers, the election to be held in May. Chairman is Dave Nicholson. Members are B. F. Hutson, Coot Arnold, Mrs. O. D. Kennedy, Lal Copeland, Leonard Ellington and Mrs. Robert Beasley.

JUDGED THE TOPS — Out of some 40 acts presented during the Brownfield Lions Club Tournament of Talent last week, Miss Cheryl Ann Banks of Denver City was judged by the audience as the "tops." #### Books Play A Major Role In Our Neighbors' Lives

"Second is 'The Prophet' by Khalil Gibran. It is so beautifully written that it can be read repeatedly and each time one can learn something wise and different. Every word of the book radiates warmth and love for our fellowman."

HAROLD E. WOOD of 311 East Tate: "I suppose that my two favorite books are the works of Shakespeare and the Boy Scout Handbook. I'm grateful for the handbook because it provided so much inspiration along lines that I could accept at a time when I desired to pursue them. ## Mere 8 Million-Bale Market by 1960 Seen If Present Powerful Trend Is Continued

Cotton is being out-researched, out-priced and out-promoted by aggressive competitors, and it will take an all-out effort to meet the challenge.

In a special presentation entitled "Cotton's Problem, Program and Potential," staff members of the National Cotton Council brought the foregoing conclusion into sharp focus here Tuesday night.

More than 600 Terry-farmers and ginners gathered for the event, held in Brownfield High School auditorium.

The speakers, armed with facts and figures developed during a two-year study by a special industrywide committee, revealed that only with a truly adequate program of quality improvement, cost reduction and sales promotion can cotton hope to gain a greater share of the total fiber market and build a brighter future.

Despite a strong consumer preference for cotton's superior qualities, rivals are threatening from every side, the Tuesday audience heard this trio explain: Earl W. Sears, Richard Yeager and John Gregg, NCC field representatives.

The plain facts, the speakers said, are these:

Cotton's surplus is up, acreage has been cut, costs have risen and profits are trending downward. Competition has increased a total of 21 million bale equivalents since World War II, and Synthetic fibers, domestic and foreign, have risen by some 8 million bales. All these things, they conclude, make it urgent that cotton get competitive on a three-way basis of price, promotion and research.

Regarding price, the trio pointed out that cotton's position in relation to the new synthetics is good, but, compared with rayon, cotton's major rival, it's poor.

At home, rayon undersells U. S. cotton by 4-8 cents a pound, and by about the same margin overseas. This price differential hurts cotton in many ways, not the least of which is the growing practice of blending.

Blending a percentage of rayon—perhaps 20 or 30 per cent—with cotton fabrics which used to be all cotton is eroding markets away, the speakers showed.

Promotion-wise, the synthetic producers spend $20 million a year to sell their products, compared with less than $1 million spent by the raw cotton industry.

In this connection, the trio noted that cotton's present and future sales promotion opportunities are unlimited. Using slides and other visual aids, they demonstrated how cotton can be sold effectively in those markets where personal preference and opinion are major sales influences.

At the same time, the speakers stressed the urgent need for bigger sales budgets in such markets as men's wear, work clothes, children's clothes, domestics and rugs.

Said Gregg: "A grave disparity exists on the research front, too. Recognizing quality deficiency as their basic weakness, the synthetics have been pouring $60 million a year—compared to cotton's $14 million—into research.

"This effort has resulted in the development of man-made fibers superior to cotton from the standpoint of strength, abrasion resistance and color fastness—and equal to cotton in absorbency, heat resistance and water repellancy."

Despite these disquieting factors, however, cotton has made giant strides, and great opportunities exist for cotton to forge further ahead.

"For example," explained Sears, "despite limited funds, the program of the NCC—the organization which represents the entire raw cotton industry—has paid off dramatically. Since the council was founded, far greater consumer demand has been generated, and domestic consumption has risen by 50 per cent, or 3 million bales, annually.

"The council's program has helped stimulate increased efficiency of production and processing. It has improved quality through research, and has spurred sales through hard-hitting advertising and promotion campaigns."

In fact, the speakers stressed, if cotton merely can hold its present share of the domestic and foreign market, the present trend can be reversed and a market for 15 million bales can be built in four or five years. And this can keep pointing upward to 17 million bales by 1965.

"On the other hand," said Yeager, "if cotton consumption can be increased by but one per cent at home and by 20 per cent abroad, then cotton can balloon its total market to more than 17 million bales by 1960, and well over 20 million bales a year by 1965."

But in projecting these possibilities, the speakers warned that cotton must at least partially overcome present disparities in promotion and research.

If the powerful trend now working against cotton and its competitors is not halted, domestic and foreign consumption will go down at 8 million bales a year by 1960 and will sink to 7 million by 1965, they predicted.

The Tuesday night session here was one in a series being held across the nation's Cotton Belt, designed to inform all those having a stake in cotton's future with the nature of the current crisis.

Virgle Travis served as chairman of the meeting, which was sponsored by Terry County Cotton Ginners Association and Terry County Farm Bureau.

ALDERMEN, TRUSTEES FACE VOTERS

Two Elections Are Set

Brownfield voters will cast ballots April 2 in City Hall to elect three aldermen to the City Council.

On April 6, voters living within Brownfield Consolidated Independent School District will elect two trustees to the board.

Depending on current action by the 55th Legislature, county voters also may help elect a U. S. senator on April 2.

Only persons to file to date for election to the City Council are the three out-going aldermen: Sam Murphy, Troy Noel and Virgle Travis.

City Manager Eunice Jones explained this morning that Saturday, March 2, is deadline for filing for the aldermanic seats.

Voting will be opened at 8 p.m., in City Hall, and will be closed at 7 p.m. Election judge will be Dave Nicholson, who has yet to select his necessary judges and clerks.

Election of Trustees
School board trustee election will be held from 8 a.m. until 7 p.m., in the courthouse office of Superintendent Elmer Brownlee.

Going off the board are its current president, C. G. Griffith, and Trustee J. L. Newsom. Both men indicated this morning that they were undecided about filing for another term. Griffith has served nine years, and Newsom, two years.

Deadline for filing notices of candidacy is March 22, in the office of Raymond Simms, school tax assessor-collector.

Election judge will be E. G. (Glen) Akers. Clerks will be Earl Jones, Nicholson and Perry Bear.

Other trustees whose terms are not effected this year are

Lowered Fire Rates Are Authorized For Brownfield Citizens

Brownfield property owners will enjoy a 20 per cent reduction in their fire insurance premiums beginning April 1.

The decreased rates were authorized in a telegram Tuesday from the Texas Insurance Commission to Dave Nicholson, Brownfield agent.

The savings in actual dollars resulted when the commission dropped the 15 per cent penalty assessed owners here and listed a 5 per cent credit.

In gist, Brownfield property owners who have been paying a normal premium of $100 have been assessed a 15 per cent penalty. Total premium: $115. The same normal $100 premium now will be $85.

Brownfield received the latest reduction after the commission reviewed net losses and net premiums for the past five years. Net premiums in 1955 were $152,000. Net losses were $16,000.

Former Brownfield Resident Turns In Top Performance on National TV Show

To someone who has aspired to an acting career since he was 7 years old, getting a major role in a major television show may have been the "big break" for Woodrow (Woody) Chambliss.

Many Brownfield viewers saw Chambliss star Saturday night with Gale Storm in her "Oh, Susanna!" series. Apparent reaction of most of them was: "I've seen that man before."

His mother, Mrs. L. D. Chambliss of 507 North First, said this morning: "We're all hoping Saturday night was Woody's real chance as an actor."

Although a star athlete in Brownfield High School, Chambliss also was active in other fields, including class plays. For three years, he was president of his class. After graduation, he attended Baylor University at Waco for three years before going to Europe to study drama. During his two years on the Continent, he met his Austrian wife, Erike, and married her in Connecticut in 1939.

They now have three sons, Erik, 16, Peter, 14, and Michael, 8. The Chambliss' live in Oji, Calif., where he manages and acts in productions of the Oji Little Theater.

He has had a bit part in one movie, "3:10 to Yuma," and soon will be seen in the television series, "The Line-up."

Two brothers live in Brownfield, Sam at 505 North Sixth and Loyd on Route 1. His brother Robert is sheriff of Yoakum County. Other brothers and sisters are Roy of El Paso, J. W., a student of the University of Arizona, Mrs. Matt Chapin of Oji, and Mrs. Richard Jones of Clovis, N. M.

Mariner's Club Organized Here By Young Presbyterian Church Adults

Young couples of the First Presbyterian Church organized a Mariner's Club Friday, Feb. 22 at 8 p.m. in Fellowship Hall of the church.

The Mariner's Club is a national Presbyterian organization, recognized as a part of the adult program of that church, involving young couples within the church.

Mariner's was begun at the First Presbyterian Church of Hollywood, Calif., in 1927, to fill the gap in that church for that "lost age," when young people are first getting started, having children, etc., and have very little time or money for any kind of social or family life. The idea caught on in Hollywood and has spread since to 31 states in the United States, involving better than 1000 clubs. It is called Mariner's because it is based upon nautical terminology.

All officers are held as "couples". Officers are Skipper, First Mate, Second Mate, Log Keeper, Purser, Quartermaster, and as many apprentice seamen as necessary. Christ is the pilot, the Bible is the compass, and the Church is the anchor.

Farm Bureau Seeking $10 Million for Agricultural Research

WACO — (Spl) — "Only J. Walter Hammond, president of the Texas Farm Bureau, made that statement this week in announcing that the TFB will make a concerted effort to obtain adequate funds for agricultural research in Texas.

The state farm organization is seeking an appropriation of approximately $10.5 million for use by the Texas A&M Experiment Station over the next two years. In addition the TFB is asking for about $2.1 million for the State's Extension Service for the same period.

Two Farm Bureau leaders discussed the need for more agricultural research recently in a conference with Gov. Price Daniel. They were Loys Barbour, a grain and hog farmer from Iowa Park and B. J. Gist, stock and cotton farmer from Abilene. Barbour is secretary-treasurer of the TFB and Gist is a member of the organization's board of directors.

The Farm Bureau has been working closely with the Texas A&M Experiment Station and Extension Service in planning a program of agricultural research in Texas.

Hammond said the program would place emphasis on commodities into products which the consuming public needs and is willing to buy.

Tuesday and Wednesday of this past week, B. H. S. students took their fourth six weeks' tests, and many sighs of relief, or in some cases remorse, were uttered after the last class Wednesday!

Three local high schoolers won first place in their division at the Lion's Club Tournament of Talent show Friday night. Pat Vineyard, Carol Ann Mayfield, and Dixon Latham staged their version of a currently popular song and received a gift certificate for their efforts. In addition to the contestants in the various divisions, special entertainment was provided by the Bowman Brothers and the Two Tones from Lubbock, and a local group known as the Sand Tones.

Joe Morris Speaks To Desk, Derricks
Joe A. Morris, Dist. Petroleum Engineer for Magonia, was speaker at the regular monthly meeting of the Brownfield Desk & Derrick Club Monday at the Pan American conference room.
Mr. Morris' subject was "Leases Evaluation" which demonstrated one of the more important functions of today's petroleum engineer. He used a large, colored cut-away diagram of an idealized dome oil formation to show the mechanisms of gas, water and gravity drives in oil production. Core samples were shown to illustrate various types of desirable and undesirable oil-bearing formations.
Lease evaluation, Mr. Morris explained, is the petroleum engineer's job wherein results of core analyses, logs, experience, training and judgement are utilized. He demonstrated a brief evaluation of a nearby lease.
The program was followed by a question-and-answer session.
Mrs. Morris and Bonnie Vachal were guests.
Maxine McMillan, Kobe, Inc. was unanimously elected Secretary-Treasurer to replace Jane Ivy, who is moving to Sweetwater in March.

We have some bad news to report concerning our Terry County Community Chest for 1957. The goal was just a little over $17,000 this year and so far only about $14,000 has been raised, which simply means that a big segment of our community has not been contacted. So, if you are one of those who has not contacted, please mail your checks to: Terry County Community Chest, Jones-Copeland Agency, City.

If you are low on cake mix made by General Mills, the Junior Band Boosters sure would appreciate your stocking up from March 2 to March 9 as they will receive 10 per cent of all this cake mix that is sold during this period at all the grocery stores in town. There will be two mothers in Kyles, Piggly Wiggly and Furr's on Saturday and Tuesday to remind you about this project. The Lamesa Junior High made $400 on the same thing a few days back.

We are happy to announce to our readers that after the month of April you will get two papers each week instead of one. The first issue in May of this year will mark the date of our going Semi-Weekly. We will publish a Thursday and a Sunday paper with the papers here in town being delivered on your lawn before 7:30 a.m. The rural routes will receive their papers on Thursday and Monday.

We also will start a carrier-boy delivery system here in town in the same month. If you know of boys who are interested in this type of training, have them get in touch with Hal Roche at the News Office or Cecil Davis at the Post Office. These boys will be very carefully screened and their work will be closely supervised with two purposes in mind. One, to give the boy training in handling responsibility, money. Two, experi-

Brownfield Joins Babe Ruth League

Brownfield definitely will be a part of the Babe Ruth League, it was disclosed following a meeting of sponsors and managers held last weekend. By participating in the Babe Ruth League, Brownfield's 15-year old boys will have an active softball program, along with the 13 and 14-year-olds who comprise the Pony League. Boys go from the Babe Ruth League directly to the American Legio League, it was explained.

A future meeting will be held to elect officers and to discuss plans to improve the ball diamond.

Attending the meeting were L. J. Richardson, N. L. (Bus) Mason, Dave Nicholson, E. L. Boots, Joe Stephens, Bob Hart and Deryl Lewis.

Whereas the Pony League last year had only four teams, by joining the Babe Ruth League, there will be six teams this year, involving some 90 boys.

Savings Bonds Sale Is Under Way Here

The sale of E bonds in Texas during January increased 5.4 per cent over the same month last year.

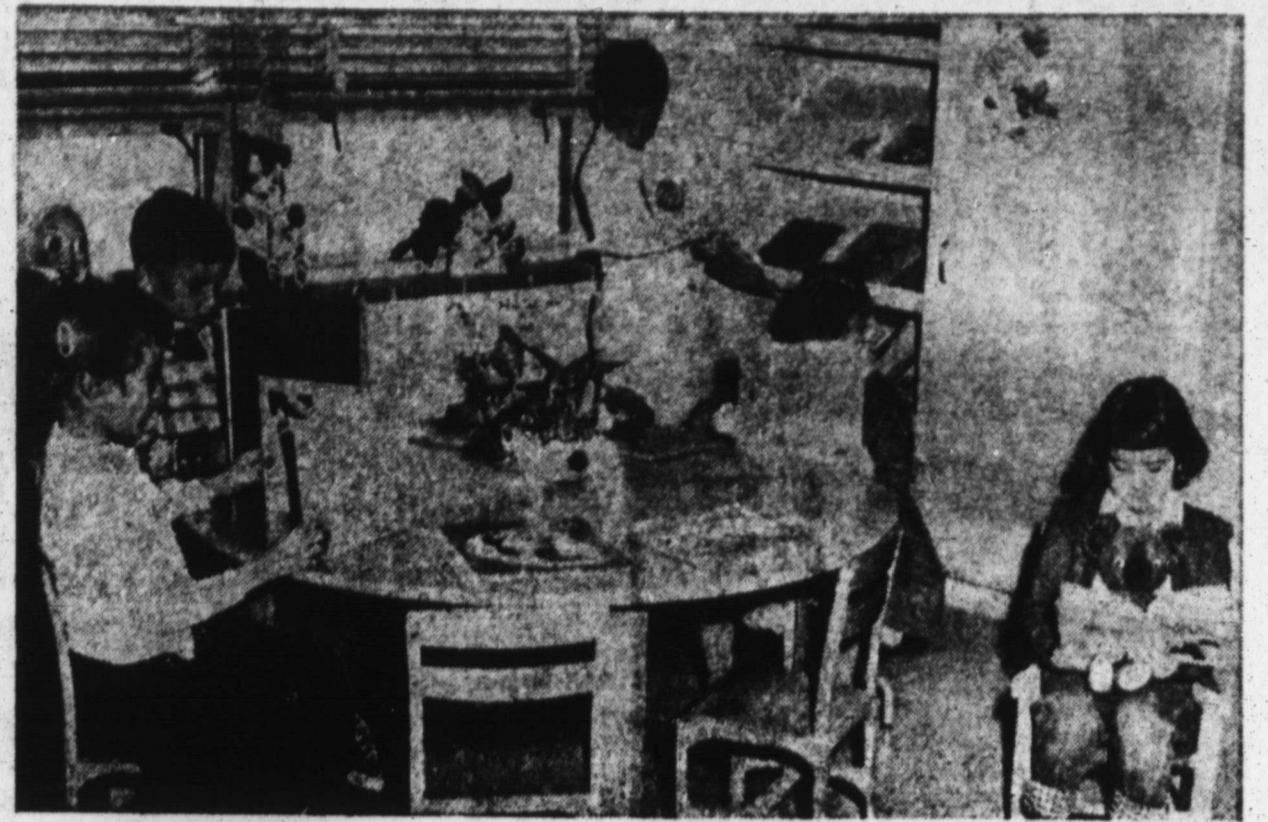

This was announced today by Nathan Adams and Ed Gossett, state co-chairmen of the Savings Bonds committee for Texas.

Total sales for the month were $17,607,000 which is 9.1 per cent of the state's goal for this year of $193,000,000.

J. O. Gillham, county chairman, reported this morning that January sales amounted to $7,987.

Terry is in District 5 of the Amarillo Area, comprising these other counties: Cochran, Crosby, Garza, Hockley, Lubbock, Lynn and Yoakum.

Said Gillham: "By purchasing U. S. savings bonds, the people of Terry County not only help themselves but also help in the nation's battle against inflation."

Broiler Prices To Be Up Slightly This Year

Texas broiler producers may be in for slightly higher prices than they received during the last quarter of 1956, say Poultry Marketing Specialists F. Z. Beanblossom and Kermit Schlammb. But they warn that prices will be directly affected by several market conditions.

An expanding market can probably absorb any moderate supply increases, they point out, but add that 1957 red meat supplies are likely to be down slightly. Also, improved leadership in the broiler industry is attempting to bring supply and demand into balance during this year, conclude the specialists.

The nation's 1956 live prices dropped 5.8 cents a pound below the 1955 average following a 17.34 per cent increase of chicks placed on farms, according to Beanblossom.

Rate of placement increase in Texas topped the nation during the first three-quarters of 1956, but fell off more rapidly during the last quarter. Over 8 per cent of all broiler chicks placed in the U. S. during 1956 were placed in Texas, he adds.

Schlamb says national efforts to curtail the number of eggs set for broilers by voluntary reduction were successful during the first week of December.

Effects of the short-term reduction on broiler prices to producers, however, remain to be seen, says the specialist.

Broilers produced 69 per cent of the nation's total chicken supply in 1956-a 27 percent increase over 1956 figures, according to USDA Outlook material.

Cold storage broiler holdings are up from 1955 levels and Outlook figures also state that a lower percentage of broilers were sold in frozen form during 1956 than any other class of poultry.

Simple One-Nozzle Spray Unit Is Best For Cotton Insects

Simple one-nozzle spray attachments will control cotton insects as effectively as the more complex arrangements and often tend to produce higher yields, according to Agricultural Engineering Professors at Texas A. & M. College.

Tests conducted at the Brazos River Valley Laboratory with nozzles producing hollow cone patterns and others producing flat fan-shaped patterns favor the one-nozzle-per-row treatment over a five-year period.

No spray arrangement has shown a consistent advantage other than the simple operation and low initial cost of the one-nozzle-per-row system.

Tests were conducted with a six-row rear-mounted tractor sprayer using detachable drops and arrangements varying from one to four nozzles per row. Spray solution was applied at the rate of 4.5 gallons per acre.

WEeping LOVEGRASS—Pictured above is a field of Terry County weeping lovegrass, well adapted to this area under dryland conditions. Good growth has been made here under extremely low rainfall. Planting time is in March and April, the rate in drilled or close-spaced rows being one pound an acre. Covering depth is one-quarter to one-half inch. Experts recommend that the grass be drilled in sorghum stubble to provide it a good cover. Cultivation: mow, shred or spray to control tall weeds the first year. Where blowing is a problem, the most important step in seeding weeping lovegrass is to have adequate stubble or cover. Stubble will protect young grass seedlings, prevent blowing, crusting and drying out of soil surface. Brownfield personnel of the U. S. Soil Conservation Service will be glad to assist in the establishment of this practice.

EXPERIMENTS INDICATE

Land-Leveling Pays Off For Dryland Cotton Man

Dryland cotton lint yields have been stepped up 59 percent by land leveling clay loam soils on terraced land having less than one percent slope and receiving supplemental runoff water, says C. E. Fisher, Spur substation superintendent.

It's an economical investment too, according to Fisher who says land at Spur was leveled for $17.88 an acre and will be effective for several more years. He says annual gross return per acre was increased $23.76 on leveled land with supplemental runoff water and $8.10 on leveled land without supplemental runoff.

Fisher believes a more uniform distribution of moisture increases uniformity of yields on leveled lands. He says land leveling increased the average yield of cotton 30 pounds per acre in Spur tests without supplemental runoff.

Greater benefits, however, occur from leveling the land between terraces on relatively flat areas of fine textured soils receiving supplemental runoff, he adds.

Work for the Spur tests was done with a 4-plow tractor and See LEVELING Page 8

WILL FIT SOIL CONSERVATION PLANS

History and Test Results Are Given For Relatively New Sorghum Alnum

Sorghum alnum was first described in literature from Argentina where according to available evidence, it originated as a hybrid between Johnsongrass and a sorghum.

In Argentina it is known as Sorgho negro, Sudan negro and Sorghum alnum and as Columbergrass in South Africa. It has been introduced into the United States from Argentina, South Africa, Australia, New Zealand, Nigeria and Algeria. It has been grown on the Chillicothe and Lubbock Experiment Stations for about 12 years.

E. M. Trew, extension agronomist, describes sorghum alnum as a perennial very similar to Johnsongrass in appearance. Generally, it produces wider leaves, larger and more spreading heads and usually grows taller than Johnson and Sudan grasses.

The underground stems, or rhizomes are short, thick and turn up close to the crown. New growth comes primarily from buds at nodes or joints just above the ground with relatively few new shoots coming from rhizomes.

It is not uniform and the types vary as to stalk size and height, leafiness and degree of tillering. The stalks, generally are pithy and non-sweet.

The seed shatter when mature. They generally are larger than those of Johnsongrass but seed coverings of both grasses are the same color and shape. Sorghum alnum does not appear to cross readily with Sudan grass and other cultivated sorghums but some types apparently cross freely with Johnsongrass.

In clipping tests at Denton, Temple and in the Brazos River Bottom near College Station, it produced about the same or slightly more hay than did Sweet and Common Sudan grasses.

Greater yield differences, based on observations, have been reported from the Rolling Plains area. On the lighter soils of that area, it seems to be more drought tolerant than either Johnson or Sudan grass. During 1956, Sorghum alnum was grown in more than 60 grass legume demonstration nurseries in the eastern half of Texas. On the deeper, more fertile soils, production often exceeded Johnson and Sudan grasses but on the shallower, poorer soils, it often produced less. Production in nursery plots has declined the second and third years on shallow, poor soils.

Trew observes that best use of the grass appears to be for grazing purposes and perhaps soil conservation. Nutritive value should be about the same as for Johnson and Sudan grasses.

It has survived the winter and acted as a perennial in the Rolling Plains area since 1954 but has winterkilled some years at the Lubbock Experiment Station.

Fertilizer should be applied at or before planting time wherever needed. And Trew advises a soil test for determining this need.

The specialist says the grass should be planted in 36 to 42-inch rows on a seedbed prepared as for Sudan or grain sorghum. Row planting permits cultivating for weed control. He suggests using three to five pounds of seed an acre to insure a good stand and small stalk size. Planting depths of one to two inches are suggested.

Plantings for grazing should be divided into at least four blocks to permit rotation grazing and the plants should be at least 24-inches high before livestock are turned on it. This will decrease danger of prussic acid poisoning.

BY PUBLIC SCHOOLS IN TEXAS

107th Birthday Being Observed

The need for the public school never changes, but times and conditions may change or require to be changed methods and practices of public education. This is inherent with anything that grows, for growth is the result of change.

Our Texas public schools were created 107 years ago. In 1854 the first law passed establishing the public school.

It is a healthy thing in our democratic way of life to have an intelligent understanding of the important functions of our basic institutions. This is especially true of the schools. The initiative and resourcefulness and the wisdom and leadership that our schools are inculcating in the youth of today are the answer of the problems of citizenship in the years ahead.

"Yes, 'bring men to match my mountains.' That is the need of our times and must come from the public schools—schools that are strong in the virtues for building strong men and women.

This Week In Austin

By PRESTON SMITH

Water, the life's blood of West Texas, is fast becoming one of the most important topics in state government.

Leading a movement to encourage state government's interest in water development and conservation is Gov. Daniel himself, who admits that problems are being met in many sections by private or regional water conservation districts.

"Years of delay", the governor pointed out, have somehow failed to generate the action to plan a "state-wide" water program.

He has expressed confidence that "the State of Texas will soon become a full partner in the conservation. See AUSTIN Page 3

THE AMERICAN WAY

CAMPAIGN FOR THE 48 STATES

By George Peck

EDITOR'S NOTE: George Peck is Chairman of the Board of the National Labor-Management Foundation and Executive Editor of its official publication, PARTNERS.

Among the many organizations that are putting forth valiant efforts to "save" America from destruction by the wild-cat spenders; the "Campaign for the 48 States," is one of a small number that seems really to be going places.

It was organized about two years ago by a group of "worriers"—their worries induced by the country's steady drift toward financial ruin and socialization. It is entirely non-partisan and non-political—it has a definite program with definite objectives—it comes by its name because it is campaigning for the passage of five constitutional amendments through action of the 48 State legislatures. These are as follows:

George Peck

(1) BYRD-BRIDGES AMENDMENT — To require annual budget balancing by limiting congressional expenditures in my fiscal year, except in times of dire emergency to be determined by a three-fourths vote of the Congress.

(2) Reed Dirksen Amendment — To eliminate to a large extent the heavy progressive rate feature from our income tax system without impairing the power of Congress to raise revenue. This amendment limits the top rate of income taxes, but permits Congress to exceed the limit by a three-fourths vote. It also returns to the individual States the sole right to tax inheritances and gifts.

(3) Mundt-Coudert Amendment — To reform the electoral college by choosing electors by Congressional districts plus two at large to correspond with each State's two U. S. Senators. This is designed to take away the excessive power now exercised by minority groups in the larger cities under the present electoral college system.

(4) Reed-Walter Amendment — To give to 36 States (three-fourths) full power to amend the Constitution without the intervention of Congress.

(5) Bricker Amendment — To prevent the overriding of our Constitution and our domestic laws by means of the treaty power.

There is nothing about these five amendments that is unreasonable or impractical. They are not reactionary—they deal with the realities of today and the future and if enacted will go far toward making America safe for tomorrow.

While the "Campaign for the 48 States" is seeking direct action by the Congress, its main effort is being directed to the State legislatures, 41 of which are in session now and five more later on this year. Five television films, each one dramatizing the need for one of the desired amendments, have been prepared and have been made available to television stations, which as a public service are carrying them, free of charge. I suggest you check with your favorite station to be sure not to miss any of these films.

The organization is fortunate to have as its Chairman and guiding genius, Robert B. Snowden, a successful and prominent business man of Memphis, Tennessee. Mr. Snowden points to the recent "hair-curling" statement of Secretary of the Treasury George Humphrey as he issued a warning about President Eisenhower's requested record peacetime budget of $71 billion. Said Mr.

GENERAL WILLIAM

The Bible — Offers Blessings, Involves Duties

Snowden: "We believe that our Campaign for the 48 States offers the best means of putting on the brakes on our nation's reckless and rapid drift toward complete bankruptcy. Our program is gaining support and followers every day because it makes sense—it simply seeks a return to sanity and financial stability in the operation of our Federal Government. Our system of government in Washington has gotten out of hand and it is never going to regulate itself until the States force it to do so. That is the sole aim of our organization—to gain constitutional reform by action of the State legislatures."

From time to time, I'll have more to say about this organization and report its progress.

To anyone "champing at the bit" to have fuller details right now, I suggest you write "Campaign for the 48 States," P. O. Box 1112, Memphis, Tennessee.

a combination hydraulic scraper and land leveler.

Fisher urges farmers to use special precautions in land leveling since it has a tendency to pulverize topsoil and can result in a serious wind erosion hazard if done incorrectly.

Technical assistance from Texas Agricultural Extension Service and Soil Conservation Service personnel is available, and should be sought says Fisher, especially if water spreading is to be undertaken.

Austin Newsletter

By R. L. BOWERS, JR.
State Representative
98th District

Order of business in the House has continued to increase steadily, and there have been 512 bills introduced to date.

Most of the interest this week concerned water development and school tuitions.

House Joint Resolution No. 3 is a proposed Constitutional amendment authorizing the state to issue $200 million in bonds to create the Texas Water Development Fund. House Bill 161 is Enabling Act to put this fund into operation when it has been passed by the voters.

This fund will be used over an extended period of time, and will "back up" local bonds where necessary for the purpose of conserving and reclaiming surface and ground water. These were passed by the House and sent to the Senate.

House Bill 265 will increase the tuition rates charged by state institutions of higher education. The bill was passed by the Senate with a 96-45 vote, after considerable debate.

My mail has begun to increase, and I'm always glad to hear from you.

Head of Easter Seals in Appeal

Euclid Hudson, Port Arthur civic leader and president of the Texas Society for Crippled Children and Adults, will head the 1957 Easter Appeal in Texas, the Society's state head quarters in Dallas announced today. Calling attention to the many crippling conditions still unconquered, Hudson said in accepting the state chairmanship that, research and rehabilitaaccidents in home, car, industry or sports," he said.

Soaring accident rates and modern surgical procedures and drugs which now save thousands of injured who only a few years ago would have died are creating a large population of disabled Americans, Hudson said, adding that the need of community facilities for physical restoration and rehabilitation of the crippled is apparent.

"At this time there is no place in Texas where an accident victim can receive the complete and integrated rehabilitation so often needed to overcome the physical and psychological effects of a serious accident, and where one can learn new skills and methods which will make it possible to take an active and useful place in the world again," the Easter Seal leader said. "We must find a way to offer full rehabilitation to any crippled person who needs it. These persons have the right to be saved for more than just a life of idleness or dependence on others."

"These are the Easter Seal Society's goals," Hudson said. "They can't be reached by one man or committee, but with the helping hands of all persons interested in the well-being of crippled children and adults, I fervently hope that these goals will be attained."

and development of its water resources."

Gov. Daniel believes the state is the only agency that can fill in "the present gap in water development."

"During the past 10 years, many groups and organizations have studied the water problem," he admitted, but "despite all these efforts, the state has not presented an over-all plan nor a statewide program in scope with the rapidly increasing water demand."

Details on just how the state can become a "full partner" in the water problem are not too clear right now to the 55th Legislature. Studies are underway.

In the past there have been active opponents to "statewide plans" for fear of "state control" of water resources. Then, too, water problems vary so much throughout the largest state in the union. For instance, much of West Texas' work to conserve water differs entirely from a program operated in East Texas for several reasons. Much of our water comes from a very special underground formation of water-bearing sands.

While we pump underground water here, East Texas may be concerned with engineering problems of an entirely different nature such as surface water reservoirs, dams and the like. For this reason, many thinking men of the 55th Legislature are watching the suggested "statewide water program" with interest.

tion are the only ways to defeat the cripples. "Research will eventually tell us the causes and methods of preventing such conditions as cerebral palsy, club foot, cleft lip and palate, and will find better ways to minimize the results of burns, accidents and other cripples," he said, "but vast amounts of study, funds and time will be needed."

Discussing plans for the Easter Seal Appeal, Hudson said that the Society seeks a total of $300,000 in 1957 to maintain its present program of aid for the crippled and to provide greater services in the future.

"Our goals have been set," Hudson said. "We need more funds to reach a greater number of crippled children; all must be given a chance to grow-up as normally as possible and become useful, productive adult citizens, able to care for themselves and the families they will have."

In addition to birth-deformities and disease-caused crippling, Hudson said that the number of accident-crippled children and adults is constantly increasing.

"Over two-fifths of the patients seen in Easter Seal treatment centers over the nation today have been crippled by

Local D. E. Students Observe National Distributive Education Week

BROWNFIELD D. E. CLUB SWEETHEART — Carole Johnson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl Johnson of 708 E. Oak, was elected Sweetheart of the Brownfield Chapter of the Distributive Education Clubs of America. Carole is 17 years old, 5 ft. 7½ in. tall, weighs 125 lbs., has brown hair and eyes. She is a Senior 1 year D. E. student and is employed by General Telephone Co. She will be one of the four delegates who will represent the local D. E. Club at the State Convention in San Antonio this week-end. Carole is also Senior class secretary and Senior Favorite Girl.

This week members of the local Distributive Education Club join with D. E. Students all over the United States in observing National Distributive Education Week. The climax will be the Eleventh State Club Convention to be held in the Gunter Hotel of San Antonio February 28-March 1-2.

Training of Distributive personnel dates back to 1890, but Distributive Education did not become a part of Public school programs until 1937 when the George-Dean Act was passed through Congress.

The Distributive Education program in Brownfield was launched in 1947 through the combined efforts of the school and businessmen. At that time there were only 12 students in the program. In ten years the program has grown a great deal and 40 students were enrolled at the beginning of this year.

This vocational program provides practical, on-the-job training for students who are interested in careers in wholesale, retail, or service selling businesses. It provides a source of well trained salespeople for the ever growing demand for better qualified employees.

Thirty-one per cent of all employed people in Texas are engaged in the field of Distribution—the largest single occupational field we have. This presents a real challenge, because it indicates that much training is to be done if distribution is to keep pace with agriculture and industrial production.

Highlights and Sidelights

By VERN SANFORD
Texas Press Association

AUSTIN—Investigations and appointments have snatched Legislative limelight from the humdrum business of passing laws.

Governor Daniel asked the Senate to withdraw six appointments made by Gov. Allan Shivers just before Shivers' term ran out. They were appointments to vacancies on the University of Texas and Texas A&M Boards of Regents.

Daniel said "personal and political considerations" are not involved. He called the appointees "capable and qualified," but questioned the legality of the late-season appointment.

Named by Shivers were Joe C. Thompson of Dallas, Thornton Hardie of El Paso and J. P. Bryan of Freeport to the University board; L. H. Ridout Jr. of Dallas, E. B. Darby of Pharr and Herman Heep of Buda and Austin to the A&M board.

MAKES BEST POSTER—Jimmy Griffis, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. Y. Griffis of 701 North Second, is happy to learn that he has won first place in the Americanism poster contest sponsored in the third and fourth grades of Jessie G. Randal and Colonial Heights elementary schools by the Brownfield Junior Woman's Study Club. Giving him the glad tidings is Mrs. Don E. Hewitt, club member and chairman of the contest. (Staff Photo) them sufficient pipeline connections to their wells.

Rains Came—Crop prospects were described as "best in five years" after gentle, soaking rains fell over most of the state.

U. S. Dept. of Agriculture's weekly report reflected the brightened picture almost border to border. Cotton planting under way in the valley. Revived wheat and oats on the plains. Lush, new pasture grass in the north and northwest.

And some areas even reported it was "too wet to plough."

It was so good it scared some people. John C. White, State Agriculture Commissioner, wired Washington to the effect that one rain does not break a seven-year drought. It will be a long time, he said, before the soil is restored and drought aid is still needed.

New Teacher Pay Bill—A counter-proposal to the $399-a-year teacher pay raise bill has been introduced by Rep. Harold B. Parish of Taft.

It would give a $606-a-year raise and remove some 900 school counselors and supervisors from state support. His plan would cost some $400,000 a year less than the other.

School Bills Abound—A number of other Legislative proposals would effect changes in the public school setup. Among them:

1. A suggested constitutional amendment creating a Public School Building Authority. It would build school buildings and lease them to the districts. Some districts can't afford expansion demands, said the sponsor, Rep. Truett Ladner of Abilene.

2. A constitutional amendment permitting broader investment of the permanent school fund. It would follow lines approved by voters last November for the University fund. A safe way to get more income from the $230,000,000 endowment, said its author, Rep. Scott McDonald of Fort Worth.

3. A detailed survey of the entire educational system. Rep. Wade Spilman of McAllen in a report on the House Investigating Committee's work said that local boards are losing control. "Padding" of statistics to obtain more state aid is not uncommon, he said.

Daniel pointed out that this would give two of the six appointments to the board to Dallasites.

One day after Daniel's surprise move the Senate confirmed a long list of Shivers appointees. Included was John Osorio, chairman of the Board of Insurance Commissioners.

Daniel previously had called on the Legislature to abolish this board and substitute a reorganized set-up.

Out of the confusion came suggestions by some observers that the statutes be amended to clarify the appointive prerogatives of out-going and incoming governors.

Insurance Investigation—A five-member House committee will search for the factors that put ICT Insurance Co. on the rocks.

ICT, now in temporary receivership. But its management still hoped to raise some $1,500,000 to salvage the company. Its assets are estimated at $3,250,000; its liabilities at $4,350,000.

Most of the firm's 14,000 stockholders are union labor members. They invested some $7,000,000 in it after the State Federation of Labor entered into a management contract with BenJack Cage in 1951.

Labor leaders say they later found out that Cage dissipated the company funds in a long series of unsound promotions and bad risk insurance. His contract was terminated in 1955, and the company is still pressing a claim for $1,800,000 against him.

James G. Cage, a distant cousin of BenJack, was made president in January, 1956, and "tightened management" was instituted. By the middle of last year the company had begun to show a profit—though not enough to offset liabilities carried over from prior management.

James G. Cage said he felt it is still possible to put the Company on its feet and prevent loss to its thousands of small-income stockholders.

On the heels of these disclosures came a rash of new insurance regulations bills in both House and Senate. Several would provide tighter restrictions on company officials handling funds and stiff penalties for mis-handling.

Among the proposed regulatory measures are two bills by the Texas Press Association. One calls for published financial reports of all insurance firms doing business in Texas. The other calls for fine and imprisonment for making a false report to the insurance commission. Rep Jack Welch of Marlin has introduced these two bills. They are among 15 "Better Government" proposals made by TPA.

Oil Production Upped—More oil for Europe, more revenue for the state treasury are in prospect.

Texas Railroad Commission set the March allowable at 3,733,054 barrels a day on an 18-day production pattern. It is an all-time high, an increase of nearly 211,000 barrels per day.

Coupled with the 35-cent per barrel price increase in gasoline, the greater production, if continued, could bring an additional $10,000,000 a year into Texas tax coffers.

Independent producers, who have battled the major companies' drive for higher allowances, did not contest the March quota.

They claimed, however, that major companies still are "misusing" much crude oil by refining it into gasoline, unneeded here and unwanted aboard. And independents still have marketing problems, they said, renewing the charge that major buyers have denied seed production should be planted in fields free of Johnsongrass and at least a half-mile from Johnsongrass stands. Harvesting the seed from standing plants with a combine results in excessive seed loss from shattering.

To prevent this loss, hand harvesting is often practiced. In other cases, the plants are cut with a binder when the seed are almost mature, the bundles are shocked and after drying the heads are threshed by combine.

Beef and Egg Top The Plentiful Foods List

Beef and eggs top the U. S. Department of Agriculture's plentiful foods list for March. These two popular and nutritious food items got the top spot after the regular monthly check on food stocks in local trade areas revealed that supplies of both were much heavier than usual for this season. In addition to beef, good supplies of lamb and hens as well as frozen fillets of perch and halibut are also available.

The only vegetables on the March list are potatoes, canned sweet corn and pinto beans.

Rice, peanuts, peanut butter, dried prunes, milk and other dairy products round out the plentiful list for this area.

STUDY DRESDEN PAINTING—Some 30 Terry County women were busily engaged Tuesday afternoon studying Dresden painting in the Boy Scout House, adjacent to Veterans Hall. Teachers were Mrs. W. R. Greer and Mrs. J. F. Richey of Slaton. From left in the panels above, students are Mrs. Hubert Henson and Mrs. Bob Smith of Route 1, Brownfield, Mrs. J. T. Fulford of Meadow and Mrs. Delton Tatum of Route 1, Brownfield. The figurines on the tables are objects to be painted.

broadcasts or telecasts. Livestock, meat and wool reports are listed as the most popular market news in Texas. The survey showed that 109 of the 113 reporting radio stations and 13 of the 14 TV stations carrying market news had a livestock report. Also, 80 Texas radio stations carry dairy and poultry market news, 62 cotton reports, 61 grain and feed coverage while 53 offer fruit and vegetable market news.

Teachers are sort of like preachers, you know. They're supposed to live on practically nothing, yet always look perfectly dressed; they're supposed to spend 99 percent of their time doing their jobs, yet they are expected to appear at every school or church function that takes place. I'm not saying that every teacher and every preacher are perfect, but if you think they have an easy job of it, you follow them around for a week while they have at their jobs and then see if you think they have an easy pitch.

FORD IS AMERICA'S WINNINGEST CAR!

For 1957, Ford's off to a flying start on the NASCAR Short Track, Convertible and Grand National Race Circuit—with more points than all other cars combined!

And now—just in from Daytona—seven more Ford firsts!

- A 300-hp 1957 Ford V-8 out-accelerated all other low-priced cars in the standing mile competition.
- A 1957 Ford Sunliner outclassed all other low-priced cars in the 160-mile National Convertible Championship Race.
- A modified Ford Thunderbird, running in the Experimental Class, out-accelerated every other car in NASCAR history.
- A modified Thunderbird topped every American Sports Car, finished first in its class and placed second to Europe's fastest sports car at the National Amateur Sports Car Race.
- A standard production Thunderbird took first place in the flying mile—outperforming all sports cars made in America.
- A modified Thunderbird won the flying mile in the fastest time made by any car at Daytona this year.
- And a Ford Thunderbird topped the field in acceleration from a standing start in Modified Sports Car Class B.

It was Ford Thunderbird power that set a new stock car record at Indianapolis, too... and powered the '57 Ford to 458 world endurance records at Bonneville, Utah.

Are you, too, losing
1 bale out of 7
needlessly?

If you are a typical cotton farmer, diseases are robbing you of one bale out of every seven! Yet it needn't be... for if you plant red-tinted, Panogenized seed (seed that is treated with Panogen liquid seed disinfectant), you stop diseases like seed decay, anthracnose, and rhizoctonia damping-off (sore-shin)... which cause serious losses.

Normally, you can expect that seed which has been treated with liquid PANOGEN will give you up to 15% more bales, but agricultural college tests show that during cold, rainy periods, Panogenized seed gives 5 to 10 times more plants than untreated seed... and may mean the difference between a good stand and having to re-plant.

Cost is only a few cents an acre to have your seed Panogenized at your local custom seed processor's.
